Paniz. Looke Panic.

Pannader. A horse to prauince, curuet, or bound; Looke Se Pennader.

Pannades: f. The curuettings, prauncings, or boundings of lustie horses.

Panne: f. A skinne, fell, or hide; also, a naturall spot on the face.

Panne de bois. (Is particularly) the peece of timber that sustaines a gutter between the roofes of two fronts, or houses.

Panne de gresse. A leafe of fat.

Panne de soye. Stuffe (made of silke;) and particularly, Shag, Plush, or vnshorne Velvet.

Mettre en panne. The wind to take a Ship vpon the Stayes; or, as Bouter vent en penne. See Penne.

Panneau. as Paneau; also, a young Peacocke; also, a large Net, or Toyle.

Pannetier. as Panetier.

Pannetiere: f. as Panetiere; also, the dewlap, or brisket of an Ox, Cow, &c.

Pannicule: m. A little clowt; also, the skinne wherein a child lyes wrapped in the wombe.

Pannicule charneux. The membrane which conducts the vessels throughout the skin of the whole bodie.

Pan-

Panniere, Pain de pan. See Pain.
Pannilliere. as Panilliere.
Pannonceau: m. A Fane, or Weather flag; alſo, a Pennon; a little flag of Taffata, hauing the Kings, or a Lords, Armes figured in it.
Pannoyer vn baſton; (C'eſt, le manier en la main) to wield, or toſſe it.
Panomphée. Of all Nations, and Speeches. ¶Rab.
Panoplique: com. Complet armed, in complete armour.
Panoſſe. Vieille panoſſe. An old toothleſſe hag, a naſtie or beggarlie beldame.
Panoucre: f. A little Doſſer, Basket, or Pannier.
Panoye: f. Le Ieu de la pan. A game, or kind of wraſtling.
Pans: m. A kind of large impoſtumes; alſo, the Plurall vnto Pan.
Panſard: m. A guts, gorbellie, gulch; alſo, a kind of Turbot called, a Dab.
Panſe: f. A paunch; Looke Pance.
Raiſins de panſe. Raiſins of the Sunne.
Panſer. To dreſſe, attend, or looke vnto; Seeke Penſer.
Panſotte: f. A ſmall paunch.
Panſſeron. as Panceron.
Panſu: m. uë: f. Paunchie, great-bellied, full of guts.
Pantagone: com. Fiue cornered.
Pantagrueliſte. A Pantagruelliſt; a merrie Greeke, faithfull drunkard, good fellow.
Pantagruellion. Hemp. ¶Rab.
Pantais: m. The Pantaſſe, or Pantais; difficultie of breathing, (in Hawkes, &c.)
Pantarbe. A certaine blacke ſtone which reſiſteth fire.
Pantarque. See Pancarte.
Pante. See Pente.
Panteine: f. A great Net, or Toyle, vſed for the catching of wild beaſts.
Pantelant: m. ante: f. Panting, throbbing; beating, or breathing thicke and ſhort.
Panteler. To pant, or throb; to beat (alſo, to breath) ſhort and thicke, or often together.
Panteller. as Panteler.
Pantharbe. The name of an artificiall Heauen, deuiſed by one Ioachas an Indian Magician.
Panthelement: m. A panting, or throbbing; alſo, a puffing, or faſt-breathing; and hence (alſo) difficultie of breathing.
Pantheologie: f. The whole ſumme of Diuinitie.
Panthere: f. A Panther.
Pantherien: m. enne: f. Of a Panther; ſpotted as the Panther; (any way) like a Panther.
Panthiere: f. A great ſwoope-net, or drawing net.
Panthois. as Pantois.
Pantiere. as Panthiere (and the better Ortographie.)
Pantime: f. A bundle of raw ſilke.
Pantiſer. To breath verie faſt; to draw the breath often; to blow thicke and ſhort; or as Pantoiſer.
Pantodiables. All, or whole diuels. ¶Rab.
Pantoiment: m. A panting, or often blowing, by the ſhortneſſe of breath.
Pantoiment tourmenter. To vex extreamely; by extreame vexation to ſhorten the breath, or put out of breath, or make a man ſcarce able to draw his breath.
Pantois: m. Short wind, purſineſſe; a frequent breathing, or a difficult fetching of wind by the ſhortneſſe of breath; in Hawkes we call it, the Pantais.
Pantois: m. iſe: f. Short-winded, oft-breathing, out of breath, purſie, ſtuffed vp; breathing with difficultie, fetching wind with much adoe.
Pantoiſer. To breath often, or be ſhort-winded, or be out of breath; alſo, to breath with difficultie, fetch wind with much adoe.
Pantomime: m. An Actor of many parts in one Play; one that can repreſent the geſture, and counterfeit the ſpeech, of any man.
Pantoufle: f. A pantofle, or ſlipper.
Porter les ſouliers en pantoufle. To tread, or weare his ſhooes downe at the heeles.
Pantoufleux: m. euſe: f. Full of pantofles, fit for pantofles.
Pantoyer. as Pantoiſer.
Panurge: m. A ſlye, craftie, deceitfull companion; an old beaten fox; one that hath experience, or hath been tampering, in moſt things; alſo, one that will meddle with, or haue a flirt at, any thing.
Pao. as Par. By. ¶Gaſcon.
Paon: m. A Peacocke; alſo, a kind of ſpeckled fiſh.
Paon celeſte. A wild Peacocke.
Paon d'Inde. A Turkie Cocke.
Paon reveſtu. Looke Reveſtu.
Paon terreſtre. A tame Peacocke.
Se Paonnader. as Se Paonner.
Paonneau: m. A young Peacocke.
Se Paonner. To brag, or ſtrout it like a Peacocke; proudly to open, or diſplay his feathers; vainglorioſly to boaſt of his outward parts, or faire outſide; alſo (more tollerably) to take a prettie pride in himſelfe.
Paonneſſe: f. A Pea-kenne.
Paonnien: m. enne: f. Of, or belonging to, a Peacocke; Peacock-like; prowd, or vainglorious, as a Peacocke.
Paour. Looke Peur.
Paovre. See Povre.
Paovret. A poore ſnake, or ſneakesby.
Paoureuſement. Fearefully, in great feare.
Papacité: f. The Papacie, or Popedome; alſo, Papiſtrie, Poperie.
Papafigue: f. A Gnat-ſnapper, or Fig-eater; a daintie little bird that reſembles a Nightingale.
Papal: m. ale: f. Papall; of, belonging to, or like vnto, the Pope.
Reverence papale. See Reverence.
Paparot: m. Pap; or, a poultice.
Pape: m. A Pope, the Pope; (a word which, howſoeuer it be vſed, ſignifies a father;) alſo, as Pappe.
Pape, & puis muſnier: Prov. Fallen from the higheſt to the loweſt eſtate; or from pompe to pouertie.
Vn bon pape eſt vn meſchant homme: Pro. A good Pope is a wicked man.
Papechieu: m. A Lapwing, Tewit, blacke Plouer.
Papefif: m. The maine courſe; that part of the maine-sayle whereto the bonnets, or dablers be faſtened.
Papefigue. as Papafigue.
Papegau. as Papegay.
Papegay: m. A Parrot, or Popingay; alſo, a woodden Parrot (ſet vp on the top of a ſteeple, high tree, or pole) whereat there is, in many parts of France, a generall ſhooting once euerie yeare; and an exemption, for all that yeare, from La Taille, obtained by him that ſtrikes downe the right wing thereof (who is therefore tearmed, Le Chevalier;) and by him that ſtrikes downe the left wing (who is tearmed, Le Baron;) and by him that ſtrikes downe the whole Popingay (who for that dexteritie or good hap hath alſo the title of Roy, du Papegay, all the yeare following.)
Papelard. An hipocrite, a diſſembler; a flatterer.
Papelarder. To play the hipocrite; to diſſemble, or counterfeit terfeit a holineße; hence, falſely to collogue with; or uſe faire words, and harbour foule thoughts.

Papelardie: f. Hipocriſie, or outward ſhew of religion; a counterfeiting of zeale in religion; alſo, flatterie, ſmooth villanie, falſe colloguing.

Papelardiſe. as Papelardie.

Papeligoſſe. The countrey of Butterflyes.

Paperassé: m. ée: f. Rifled; or often toſſed ouer, as the papers of a ſtudent.

Paperasses: f. Old, duſtie, rotten, or often-rifled papers.

Paperat: m. A Paper-booke, or Note-booke.

Papet. as Papin.

Papetaſié: m. ée: f. as Papetaſſé; or much fumbled, or often turned ouer, as a bundle of written papers.

Papetaſſé: m. ée: f. Patched, or poorely made vp with paper.

Papetaſſer. To patch, poorely to cloſe, weakely to ſtop or make vp, as with paper.

Papeterie: f. A paper-Mill; alſo, a paper ſhop.

Papetier: m. A maker, or ſeller, of paper.

Papier: m. Paper; alſo, the paper-plant, or paper-reed (whereof in old time paper was made.)

Papier baptiſtere. The Church-booke wherein Chriſtenings be recorded.

Papiers brouillars. Waſt paper, or looſe papers, wherein things be written careleſly, diſorderly, or at randome.

Papier iournal. A Journall, Diarie, or Day-booke; a Regiſter kept, or Commentarie written, of daylie actions, or accidents.

Papier marchand. Browne paper (wherein Tradeſmen fould vp their wares.)

Papiers de marchands. Bills of Accompt, bookes of Reckoning; all ſorts of writings which paſſe through Tradeſmens hands.

Papier raiſin. Grape paper.

Papier de raiſon. A Bill of Accompt, a booke of Reckoning.

Papier terrier. A Ferrier; a Court-roll, or Catalogue of all the ſeuerall names, parcells, rents, and ſeruices belonging to, or yeelded by, the Tenants of a Mannor.

L'herbe du papier. The great Egiptian Ruſh, whereof, in old time, paper, and leaues to write on, were made.

Vin papier. White Wine; (called ſo by ſome Swizzers.)

Le papier endure tout: Pro. Paper indureth all; Seeke Endurer.

Papieter. Not to eat heartily, to dally with his meat.

Papifigue: com. A ſcorner of the Pope.

Papille: f. The nipple, or teat of a womans breaſt.

Papillon: m. A Butterfly; alſo, a ſea-Bat.

Le grand papillon. A high Bourlet, or Hood, hauing on either ſide a large wing, and vſually worne heretofore by the dames of Lyons.

Alaigre comme vn papillon. As buxome as a Butterflye.

Ioye de papillon: Pro. Short, or momentarie glee; ioy which hardly laſts out a Summer.

Papillot: m. A little Butterfly; alſo, a plague-ſore.

Papillotage: m. A ſpatling, or ſpottineſſe; alſo, the twinckling, gliſtening, or ſhaking of ſpangles, &c.

Papillotant. Shewing, or ſhaking like ſpangles; gliſtening, twinckling; alſo, beſpatling, or ſpotting.

Papilloté. as Papillotté.

Papilloter. To gliſten, twinckle, or ſhake, like ſpangles; alſo, to beſpangle, or ſet with ſpangles; alſo, to beſpattle, or ſpot with durt.

Papillotes: f. Spangles.

Papillotte: f. Thiſtle-downe, or the ſoft downe blowne from the tops of flowers by the wind; alſo, a ſpangle.

Papillottes de bouë. Mirie ſpots, ſpatlings, bedaſhings.

Il croit que les eſtoilles ſont papillottes. (Said of an ignorant, and ſillie gooſecap, that (as we ſay) thinkes the Moone is made of greene cheeſe.)

Papillotté: m. ée: f. Beſpangled; wrought, ſet, beautified, or made gariſh, with ſpangles; alſo, beſpattled, bedaſhed, ſpotted, with durt, &c.

Papillotteiment: m. A beſpangling; alſo, a beſpattling.

Papillotter. as Papilloter.

Papillotteux: m. euſe: f. All-to-be-ſpangled; gliſtening, or ſet thicke, with ſpangles.

Papimanes: com. Papiſts; doters on the Pope.

Papimanie: f. Papiſtrie; Popiſh dotage, or, a doting on the Pope.

Papin: m. Pap for children.

Papoage: m. Inheritance by kindred, auncient deſcent.

Papon: m. Pap for children: ¶ Gaſc.

Papoal. Biens papoaux. Which come from an auncеſtor, or by diſcent.

Papoter. Not to eat heartily, to dallie with his meat.

Pappa. Dad; (an infants language.)

Pappe: m. Thiſtle-downe; as Papillotte; alſo, the ſhort, ſoft, and hairie cotton, or downe which growes on the leaues, and ſtaulkes of ſome hearbes.

Paquet: m. A packet, fardle, bundle, truſſe; Looke Pacquet.

Paqueter. To packe, truſſe, bundle vp.

Paquette. See Paſquette.

Par. (A Prepoſition, as the Latine Per; ſignifies;) by, through; of, by reaſon of; for; on.

Par ainſi. Euen ſo, by this meanes, in that manner; alſo, wherefore, or therefore, for this cauſe.

Par cy: Par là. This way; that way.

Par delà. Seeke Delà.

Par derriere: Par deſſus. Backward; vpward.

Par devant. Before; or, in the preſence of.

Par fois. Now and then, ſometimes.

Par jour & par nuict. Both day and night, at all times and tides.

Par luy. qui eſt à tout par luy. That lookes onely to himſelfe; or, thats wholly ſwayed by his owne humors.

Par mer, & par terre: &, par monts, & par vaux. In towne and countrey, euerie where, in all places whatſoeuer.

Par tant. On this condition; alſo, therefore.

Par tel ſi. So that, on condition that.

Par temps. Seaſonably, in verie good time, in a good houre.

Par temps de guerre; paix, &c. During the warre, peace, &c; or, while we had warre, peace, &c.

Au par aller. At the length.

De par Dieu ſoit. A Gods name be it; God proſper it, or ſend it good ſucceſſe.

De par moy. By my meanes, or at my intreatie; alſo, from me; as in, Ditez luy de par moy: whence alſo, voilà des lettres de par voſtre femme; ſent from your wife.

De par le Roy. By the Kings appointment, commandement, or authoritie; from the King; (an ordinarie clauſe in the Proclamations made, and letters written, in his name, dealing with the King; as, Il a tant de graces, & faveur faveur de par le Roy. The King fauours him ſo much, he is ſo gracious in his eyes.

Parabande: f. The rayle that runnes along on a ranke of Balliſters in a Terrace, &c.

Parable: com. Eaſie to be got, or come by; ſoone obtained, quickly recouered, readie at hand.

Parabole: f. A Parable, ſimilitude, compariſon; alſo, a certaine crooked line made by the cutting of a Cone, or Cylinder.

Parabrin: m. A gratulation, or welcome.

Parachevé: m. ée: f. (Fully) atchieued, diſpatched, performed; accompliſhed, finiſhed, concluded.

Parachevement: m. A (full) atchieuement, performance, riddance, diſpatch; a conſummation, accompliſhment, abſolute concluſion or end.

Parachever. (Fully) to atchieue, execute, performe, diſpatch; finiſh, conſummate, accompliſh, make an abſolute end of.

Paraclitique: com. Defamed, ill-reported of, that hath an ill name.

Parade: f. A (boaſting) apparance, or ſhew; a brauado, or vaunting offer; alſo, a ſtop on horſebacke.

Paradis: m. Paradice, Heauen; a garden, or place, of perfect delight; a beauen on earth.

Graine de paradis. The ſpice called, Graines.

Oiſeau de paradis. A certaine Egyptian bird, whoſe feathers dazle, by their gliſtening luſtre, the eyes of ſuch as behold her; alſo (another) white-bellied, and red-legd bird, thats bigger then a Heron, and beaked like a Parrot; many alſo call the Indian Mammuque Oiſeau de Paradis.

Pomme de paradis. An excellent ſweet apple that comes of a Pearmayn graffed on the ſtock of a Quince; ſome alſo call ſo our Honnymeale, or S. Johns apple.

Paradoxe: f. A Paradox; a ſtrange, and odd conceit, or aſſertion, which differs from the common-receiued opinion.

Paradoxique: com. Paradoxicall, ſtrange, odd, againſt common opinion.

Parafé, & Parafer. as Paraphé & Parapher.

Parafernal. Seeke Paraphernal.

Parage: m. Kindred, parentage, linage; alſo, equalitie of birth, or in bloud; alſo, coparcenerie, or partition of land among (noble) brothers, or ſiſters; (vſed onely where homage is due, and ceaſes after the fourth degree.)

Haut parage. Looke Haut-parage.

Tenir en parage. To hold part of a fief, as a coheire, or coparcener; or, younger brothers to hold of their elder by homage, and fealtie; which is therefore due vnto him, after partition, becauſe he does homage vnto the Lord Paramount both for their parts, and his owne.

Parageau: m. A younger brother, who by partition enioyes part of the land deſcended from his auncеſtor.

Parager: m. A coparcener; or, as Parageau.

Parageur: m. The eldeſt brother; who by cuſtome hath beene forced to giue equall ſhares of his auncеſtors land vnto his younger bretbren.

Paragon: m. A paragon, or peereleſſe one; the perfection, or flower of; the moſt complete, moſt abſolute, moſt excellent peece, in any kind whatſoeuer; hence alſo, a Patterne, or Touchſtone whereby the goodneſſe of things is tryed.

Paragonner. To paragon; equall, match, or compare with; alſo, to examine, or try the goodneſſe of a thing, by comparing it with other (excellent) things.

Paragraphe: m. A Paragraffe, or Pill-crow; a full ſentence, head, or title of the (ciuill) Law; as much as is comprehended in one ſentence, or ſection.

Parain: m. A Godfather; a Suretie in Baptiſme.

Paralelogramme. A Paralelogramme, or long Square.

Parallele: m. A paralell; an equall diſtance (as) in lines, or circles.

Paralleles. The circles, and lines in the Sphere, drawn (with equall diſtance in euerie part) from the Eaſt to the Weſt, and hauing one of the poles for their center.

Parallele: com. Paralell, equally diſtant aſunder.

Paralogizer. To reaſon captiouſly, argue deceitfully, conclude falſely; to reaſon againſt reaſon.

Paralyſie: f. The Palſie.

Herbe de paralyſie. The Cowſlip, or Oxſlip, called alſo Palſiewort, and petie Mullein.

Paralytique: com. Sicke of, or troubled with, the Palſie.

Parangon. as Paragon; whence;

Pierre de parangon. A Touchſtone.

Parangonneux: m. euſe: f. Full of compariſons.

Paranniſer. To perpetuate. See Perenniſer.

Paranymphe: m. An Orator, who a little before the commencement of Doctors, &c, makes a publicke ſpeech in commendation of their honeſtie, and ſufficiencie; alſo, an ouerſeer, or an aſſiſtant in the ouerſight, or ordering, of Bridall buſineſſes.

Parapet: m. A Parapet, or wall breaſt-high; or defence, in forme of a Penthouſe, on the vpper part of a Rampier.

Paraphe: f. The flouriſh, or peculiar knot, or marke ſet vnto, or after, or in ſtead of, a name in the ſigning of a Deed, or Letter; and generally, any ſuch gracefull ſetting out of a mans hand, or name in writing; alſo, a ſubſignature, or ſigning vnder.

Paraphé: m. ée: f. Flouriſhed; graced, or ſigned with a prettie marke, or knot; alſo, ſubſigned; written, or ſigned vnder.

Parapher. To flouriſh in writing; to grace, or beautifie the hand, or name, with prettie knots; to ſet a peculiar marke, or knot vnto, or after, or in ſtead of, a name in the ſigning of a Deed, or Letter; alſo, to ſubſigne; to write, or ſigne vnder.

Paraphernal. Biens paraphernaux. The goods which a wife brings her husband ouer and beſides her dowrie, or mariage money; as her bedding, linnen, garments, iewels, &c.

Paraphernes. as Biens Paraphernaux.

Paraphraſe: f. A Paraphraſe; an expoſition that holds the ſence, but changes the words, of the thing expounded.

Paraphraſte: m. A Paraphraſt, or Paraphraſor; one that expounds a Text by other words then it is written in.

Parappel. as Parapet.

Parasangue: f. Thirtie furlongs; or (about) three, and three quarters, of our miles; a Perſian meaſure.

Paraſceve: f. A preparation, or preparing.

Iour paraſceve. Good Friday among Chriſtians; among the Iewes any Friday; when they commonly prouide all things neceſſarie for the day following, their Sabaoth, whereon they are forbidden all worke.

Paraſeline: f. A falſe Moone, or apparance of a Moone.

Paraſite: m. A Paraſite; a trencher-friend, or bellie-friend; a ſmell-feaſt, and buffoone at feaſts; a clawback, flatterer, ſoother, ſmoother for good cheare ſake.

Paraſol: m. as Ombrelle.

Paraſtates: f. The conduits, or paſſages whereby the ſeed goes from the kidneyes in the act of generation; or, two

two kernels which grow at the end of the bladder, and receiue the seed brought vnto them by Vasa deferentia; also, stones set to, or about, a pillar.

Parastre: m. A step-father, a father in law.

Paravant. Before, heretofore, in former times.

Parc: m. A Parke; a Close, Ground, or Place impaled; also, a Sheepe-fold; also, a Stue, or Fish-pond inclosed.

Vn parc d'arbres. A Copse, or Coppice; an impaled, or inclosed groue of trees.

Chastrer le parc. Looke Chastrer.

Parcage: m. A Parke, or Inclosure; also, an inclosing; also, a foulding (as of Sheepe;) also, a Pound; or as Parchage.

Parce que. Because that, for as much as.

Parcelé: m. ée: f. Peecemealed; cut, or made, into parcels.

Parcelle: f. A parcell; particle, peece, little part.

A parcelles. By degrees, by little and little.

Par parcelles. Particularly, by parcels, peecemeale, one peece after another.

Parchage: m. Impoundage, or an impounding; also, as Parcage.

Parchemin: m. Parchement.

Parchemin innocent. Looke Innocent.

Parchemin vierge. Parchement made of an abortiue skinne.

Parcheminerie: f. Parchment-making; also, the street, or place, wherein Parchement is sold.

Parcheminier: m. A Parchement-maker.

Parciere. Terres baillées à par. Let out vnto parts, or for part of their crop.

Parcion. A coparceners portion.

Parcité: f. Parcitie, sparing, scantnesse, necreneße; frugalitie, thrift, sauing; niggardlineße.

Parçon. as Parcion.

Parçonnier: m. A cobeire, or coparcener.

Parcoulé: m. ée: f. Strayned through.

Parcouler. To strayne through.

Parcourir. To runne through.

Parcours: m. Custome, vsage, auncient proceeding in points of commerce betweene the Townes, or Countries of seuerall Lords.

Bourgeois de parcours. Freemen of the Iurisdiction of Sens in the marches of Champaigne, who by a bare challenge may auouch themselues to be also the Kings freemen.

Parcreu. as Parcru.

Parcroissant: m. ante: f. Waxing ripe, approaching to perfection; also, growing among.

Parcroistre. To ripen, or make an end of growing; to wax perfect, or come to it full pitch; also, to grow among.

Parcru: m. uë: f. Full-growne, throughly ripe; mellow, flush; come to perfection, or to a full pitch; also, growne, or sprung vp among.

Pardé. as Par Dieu. (Poictevin.

Pardigoince: f. (The name of) a great, and delicate Plumme.

Pardil. A darke-spotted gray colour of a horse.

Pardon: m. Pardon, forgiuenesse; remission; (Se donne par lettres seellees sur double queuë en cire iaune, & au cas qui requiert punition corporelle autre que de mort. (Ragueau.) wherein it differs from our Pardon some way, and from the French Remission euerie way.)

Les pardons. The Popes Pardons.

De grand (ou petit) peché grand (ou petit) pardon: Prov. Great offences need great pardons; little faults are soone forgiuen.

Pardonnable: com. Pardonable, forgiueable.

Pardonné: m. ée: f. Pardoned, forgiuen, remitted.

Pardonnement: m. A pardoning, remitting, forgiuing.

Pardonner. To pardon, forgiue, remit a fault, release a debt, hold excused of.

Pardonne à tous mais a toy point: Pro. Pardon all men but thy selfe; or, pardon other mens offences, but punish thine owne.

Pardonnigere: m. A Pardon-bearer; one that carries, and makes sale of, the Popes Pardons, vp and downe a countrey.

Pardormir. To sleepe soundly, to take a long, or full sleepe; to take his penniworthes of the pillow; or, to finish, or sleepe out, his sleepe.

Pardurable: com. Looke Perdurable.

Paré: m. ée: f. Gracefully dressed, dight, arrayed; ordered, or furnished; decked, adorned, garnished; also, hanged with Tapistrie; also, warded, or defended from a blow, &c; and shrowded, or sheltred vnder; also, pared, as the hoofe of a horse.

Pomme parée. Ripened in straw, &c; made mellow by art.

Vin paré. Wine that is fined, Wine thats readie to be drawne, or drunke.

Quand la Messe fut chantée si fut la dame parée: Prov. By that time Masse was done, her Ladiship was dressed.

Pareade: f. A certaine fierie-coloured, quick-sighted, and wide-mouthed Serpent, not verie venomous.

Pareage. as Parage; (an old word.)

Pareatis. (The Conclusion of a peremptorie Warrant, or Iniunction; like vnto our) Hereof faile ye not, &c.

Pare-coup: m. A ward-blow; or, any thing that serues to keepe off, or put by, a blow.

Parée. Droict de parée. Looke Droict.

Parefrenier. as Palfrenier.

Pareil: m. A match, or fellow, in Gloues, Cuffes, Shooes, &c.

Qui n'a point son pareil. A paragon; that hath not his match, that hath no peere.

Pareil: m. eille: f. Like, equall, euen, or matching with; mutuall, semblable.

La pareille. Like for like, as much for as much, one for another.

Chasque oüeille cerche sa pareille: Prov. Euerie sheepe her mate doth seeke; fooles take no comfort but in companie.

Pareillement. Likewise, in like manner, semblably, after the same fashion, iust so, euen so, also.

Parelie: f. A false Sunne, or appearance of a Sunne.

Parelle: f. The hearbe Dockes, or the sharpe-pointed Docke; also, Patience, Monkes Rhubarbe; (a kind thereof.)

Parelle grande. The great sharpe-pointed Docke.

Parelle de marais. The great water-Docke, or Sorrell; called also water Sorrell, and horse Sorrell.

Parelle petite. Ditch Docke, the small water Docke.

Parelle pointuë. The (ordinarie) sharpe-pointed Docke.

Parement: m. A decking, tricking, garnishing, adorning; a comelie dressing, a graceful sighting; handsome furnishing, or the arraying; also, Arras, Tapistrie, or any cost the Hangings also, a warding, or defending, in fight; also, a sheltering, or sheltering vnder; also, a paring (of a horses hoofe;) also, Vne sorte de chair rouge qui vient par dessus la veneson des deux costez du corps d'un cerf.

Cham-

Chambre de parement. The chamber of Presence.
Lict de parement. A womans childbed; also, a bed of State, or, a great Sparuer bed, that serues onely for shew, or to set out a roome.
Muraille à deux parements de pierre de taille. Hauing two courses of, or couered on both sides with, free stone.
Parence: f. as Parure (in the last sence.)
Parennité. Looke Perennité.
Parensus. Vn par. A surplusage, ouerplus, remainder;
Le parensus. The before-named.
Parent: m. A kinsman, cousin, allie.
Parent de Moyse. A Cuckold. Looke Moyse.
Parens sans amis, Amis sans pouvoir, Pouvoir sans vouloir, Vouloir sans effect, Effect sans profit, Profit sans vertu, ne vaut vn festu: Pro.
Assez parens assez tourmens: Prov. Many kinsmen much affliction.
Qui a mal aux dents a mauvais parents: Prov. He that is famished hath but ill friends.
Parentage: m. Parentage, kindred, affinitie, alliance.
Parentage d' hanetons. Kindred intertained for some lecherous respect. Seeke Haneton.
Parenté: f. A parentage; linage, bloud, stocke, familie, kindred; also, affinitie, consanguinitie, neereneße of bloud.
Bonne amitié seconde parenté: Pro. A sound friend is a second kinsman.
Parentelle: f. Kindred, affinitie, consanguinitie, alliance.
Parentheſe: f. A Parenthesis.
Parer. To decke, tricke, trimme, garnish, adorne, dresse comely, dight gracefully; furnish handsomely, order decently; (also, to prepare, or prouide sufficiently;) also, to hang richly, as a roome with Arras; also, to ward, or defend a blow; whence, Parer l'escu aux coups de; to oppose his shield against the blowes of; also, to pare the hoofe of a horse.
Se parer de. To couer, shrowd, or shelter himselfe vnder.
Parer le drap. To dreße, or smooth cloth with cards made of Tazles.
Parer l'enlifleure à faire toile. To starch the yarne whereof Linnen cloth is to be made.
Parer du fruict sur paille. To ripen, or mellow fruit in straw.
Il para sa masse. He charged, or lift vp, his club.
Parez vn heriſſon il semblera baron: Prov. Trike vp an Vrchin he will seeme a Baron; good apparrell (as Loue) couers many a fault.
Parergue: m. An addition, appendix, accesse; a thing put vnto, though no part of, the matter; any thing that is besides the principall question, point, or purpose in hand.
Paresol. as Ombrelle.
Paresse: f. Sloath, lazineße, idleneße, lithernesse, loytering, sluggishneße, languishing negligence.
Paresser. To laze it, slug it, loyter, liue idly.
Paresseusement. Sloathfully, lazily, most idly.
Paresseux: m. euse: f. Sloathfull, sluggish, lazie, lither, loytering, most negligent; (and hence) also, dull, slow; cold, vnlustie, languishing.
Le paresseux aime bien besongne faicte: Pro. The sluggard loues also things done to his hand.
Iamais dormeur ne fit bon guet, ny paresseux ne fit beau faict: Prov. The sleepie head, and sloathfull hand, watch, and worke, ill alike.
Paret: m. A wall. ¶ Langued.
Paretoine: m. A certaine fattie Painters white.
Pareure. as Parure.
Parfaict: m. cte: f. Perfected, performed, accomplished, consummated, finished, fully made or done vp; also, perfect, complete, excellent, absolute, singular.
Parfaictement. Perfectly, completely, excellently, absolutely.
Parfaire. To perfect, performe, consummate, accomplish, finish, end fully, goe through-stitch with, make or doe vp throughly.
Mal fait qui ne parfait; &, Rien ne fait qui ne parfait: Pro. He does but ill, or as ill as nothing, who leaues a worke before he ends it.
Rien n'est bien faict que ce que Dieu parfait: Pro. Nothing's well done which God hath not a hand in.
Parfaiseur: m. A perfecter, accomplisher, finisher, through-doer; a sure card; a performer of what he vndertakes.
Parfiler. To spinne all, or spinne throughly.
Parfin. à la parfin. At length, at last, in the end, when all is done, when all comes to all.
Parfois. Sometimes, now and then.
Parfondeur: f. Profundilitie.
Se Parforcer. To labour, striue, indeauour throughly; to attempt seriously, to doe his best or vtmost.
Parfournir. To performe, consummate, accomplish, fulfill; also, to supply, furnish, fill, or make vp.
Parfum: m. Perfume, sweet odour.
Parfumatoire: com. Perfumatorie, perfuming; vsed in, or for, perfumes; whence, Canon parfum. See Canon.
Parfumer. To perfume; to sweeten, to giue a delicate sent or smell vnto.
Pargoys. Cousteau pargoys. A paltrie little childs knife.
Parguarir. To cure soundly, heale throughly.
Pariage: m. Equalitie, correspondencie, matching; a due and iust exchange, equall tearmes, like for like, one for another.
Droict de pariage. Looke Droict.
Parier. To bett, lay, stake downe, at game; also, to breed, ingender, beget, or bring forth, young.
Parietaire: f. Pellitorie of the wall.
Parietaux: m. (The name of) two bones, which be in the vpper, and fore-part of the skull.
Parisien: m. enne: f. Parisien, of Paris; whence; Matines Parisiennes. The Maßacre of Paris.
Parisis. Of Paris; after the Parisian fashion, or computation. Seeke Livre, & Sol.
Parité: f. Paritie, equalitie, euenneße, likeneße.
Paritoire: f. Pellitorie of the wall.
Parjure: com. (Subst.) A periurer, or periured person, a fore-Sworne wretch.
Parjure: com. (Adject.) Periured, oath-falsifying, absolutely forsworne.
Parjurement: m. Periurie, forswearing, oath-falsifying, faith-breaking.
Se Parjurer. To forsweare himselfe; to violate faith giuen; to breake, or falsifie his oath.
Parlant: m. ante: f. Speaking, talking, vttering his mind.
Parlé: m. ée: f. Spoken, vttered, talked, discoursed of.
Parlement: m. A speaking, talking, discoursing; reasoning, arguing; a parleying, communing, conferring, communing with; also, a supreame, or soueraigne Court, or Session, of Iustice, established in eight capitall Cities of France; viz. Paris, Grenoble, Tholose, Dijon, Rouën, Aix, Rennes, & Bordeaux. (In old time, and when there was but one of these Courts, it followed the King whither soeuer he went, vntill Philippes de Valois, (or, as some affirme, Loys Hutin*) setled it, and made it ordinarie, in* Paris; after which, other Princes, at seuerall times, established the rest. Before, and about that time, Tenir le parlement was as much as Tenir les Estats (or to hold a Parliament in England) is at this day.

Licts de parlement. Beds that be stuffed with Chestnut leaues; called so of the confused noise yeelded by them when they be stirred, or stird on.

Parlementer. To parley, conferre, commune, talke, discourse with.

Parlementerie: f. A parley, or parleying, a conference, a communication.

Parler: m. Speech, talke, language, vtterance, words.

Beau parler n'escorche langue: Prov. Looke Escorcher.

A beau parler closes oreilles: Pro. For glosing words well-closed eares.

On cognoist les balles aux marques des marchãds, & les ames au parler: Pro. As packs by marks, so wits by words, are knowne.

Parler. To speake, talke, declare, say, tell, vtter the mind; to commune, parley, reason, conferre, discourse, conuerse.

Parler à sa barrette. To talke roughly vnto, expostulate roundly with, tell plainly of errors committed, or iniuries done.

Parler bien à. To beat, vex, chase, mad with words.

Parler de quelqu'un en bonne, ou mauvaise bouche. To commend, or discommend.

Parler brutif. To faulter, maffle, famble; to speake as one that hath plommes in his mouth.

Parler dessous la ceincture. (A fashion of speech peculiar vnto cheating prisoners.)

Parler à cheval. as vnder Cheval.

Parler entre les dents. To mutter, murmure, mumble vp his words; to speake like a Mouse in a Cheese.

Parler doulcement à. To sooth, flatter, smooth; cog, or collogue with; make faire weather, or giue good words, vnto.

Parler par escot. To speake by turnes, to heare one another speake.

Parler gros. To swagger, threaten, speake big, vse bugs words; also, to rore; to thunder.

Parler Latin. See Latin.

Parler Latin devant les Clercs, ou Cordeliers. (We say the same) to speake Latine before Clarks.

Parler livre. To speake profoundly, or beyond the vnderstanding of ordinarie men; (Ironically.)

Parler par livre. To speake by booke; a Preacher, or Orator to read the most of his Sermon, or Oration.

Parler en maistre. To commaund, appoint, bid, inioyne, controwle.

Parler comme vn oiseau en cage. To babble, prattle, tattle, chatter; to talke idly; to vse many words to verie small purpose.

Parler à tastons. To guesse, or harpe at, to speake at randome, or onely by coniecture.

Parler à traicts. Looke Traict.

S'escoutant parler comme vn porc qui pisse. Hearing himselfe discourse with the deliberation which a Hog doth vse in pissing.

Il sçait aller, & parler. (Said of an industrious, discreet, cunning, and comelie person.)

Qui a fi parle. He that hath any gawe let him shew it; (a phrase at Primero, &c.)

A peu parler bien besongner: Pro. Lets haue fewer words, and more deeds; or, good deeds are (commonly) dispatched in fewest words.

Hardiment parle teste saine: Pro. The speech of the innocent is confident.

Il ne parle pas au Roy qui veut: Prov. Euerie one hath not the Kings eare at commaund.

Mieux vaut se taire que mal parler: Prov. Better a silent, then a senceless, tongue.

Quand d'autruy parler tu voudras regarde toy, & te tairas: Prov. Let him that meanes to tax another, examine himselfe, and then he will be silent.

Qui ne parle n'erre: Prov. He that speakes not, erres not.

Qui tient boutique doit parler à chascun: Pro. He that keepes shop must speake to euerie one.

Qui veut bien parler bien doit pourpenser: Prov. Let him premeditate, that meanes to speake, well.

Trop grater cuict, trop parler nuict: Prov. Excesse, in scratching breedeth smart, in speaking mightie scathe.

Parlerelle. Langue par. A long tongue, or pratling tongue; a tongue that neuer lyeth.)

Parlerie: f. A prattling, tattling, babling, talking.

Parleur: m. A speaker, talker, discourser.

Parlier: m. A Pleader, Imparler; Atturney.

Parlier: m. ere: f. Speaking; in, of, or belonging vnto, speech.

Parlire. To read ouer, to read through.

Parloer. as Parloir.

Parloir: m. A Parlour; also, the Roome out of which Nunnes doe speake (through an Iron grate) vnto the lay people that come vnto them.

Parloire. A prattling, or idle discourse.

Parlouër: m. A Parliament, or Assemblie of Estates; a publicke conference.

Parlouër aux bourgeois. An Assemblie, Meeting, or common Counsell of Citizens (tearmed so in old time.)

Parmentier: m. A Taylor. Pic.

Parmesan: m. An inhabitant of Parma (in Italie;) also, the Cheese Parmesan (made at Parma.)

Parmi, or Parmy. Among, through, in the thickest of.

Parnage. as Pasnage; Pawnage.

Parnombrer. To number throughly, count all through, reckon all ouer, tell all out.

Paroccir. To kill outright, make a full end of, rid out of paine, dispatch out of the way.

Parodelle: f. A kind of Cheese-take.

Paroi: as Paroy.

Paroice. A Parish; Looke Paroisse.

Paroir: m. A Farriers paring-knife, or paring Iron.

Paroir. To appeare, or be seene; to peepe out, as the day in a morning, or the Sunne ouer a mountaine; to shew, present, or manifest himselfe.

Paroisse: f. A Parish.

Manches de deux paroisses. Sleeues of two parishes; viz. whose vpper part is of one kind of stuffe, and the nether of another.

Paroissien: m. A Parishioner.

Parole: f. A word; a tearme; also, a speech, or saying.

Avoir la parole fort bonne. (Vsed, to signifie not so much eloquence, as gracefullnesse, of speech;) to speake out plaine, or without stammering; to goe smoothly, run glibly, passe roundly, on.

Donner

Donner parole. Il avoit secrettement donné parole au Roy. He had vnder hand offered the King his seruice; or had assured him that he would be for him.
Hurter la parole. Seeke Hurter.
Des paroles ils vindrent au poil. From threats they came to effects; from the spending of breath to the spilling of bloud.
Les paroles font le jeu: Pro. Words make the game; Oxen by ropes, but men by words, are bound.
Les paroles ne puent point: Pro. (Bare) words haue no ill sauor.
Les paroles du soir ne ressemblent pas à celles du matin: Pro. The euening chat's not like the mornings tattle.
A paroles lourdes sourdes oreilles: Prov. Let th' eares be deafe when words grow rude; harsh tearmes are most vnworthie of attention.
Bonne parole bon lieu tient: Prov. A good word hath great acceptation; good language brings it welcome along with it.
Douce parole n' escorche langue: Prov. Seeke Doux.
Douce parole rompt grand ire: Pro. Fell spleene is quayled by faire speech.
Longues paroles font les iours courts: Prov. Long discourses make short dayes.
Meschante parole iectée va par tout à la volée: Pro. A bad word quickly flyes abroad; a bad report set once on foot, spreads farre.
Meschantes paroles ont meschant lieu: Prov. Bad words find bad acceptance, or are badly intertained.
A bon iour bon oeuvre, & bonnes paroles: Prov. Good workes, and words are fittest for good dayes.
Parolette: f. A little word, or speech; but a word or two.
Parolle. as Parole.
Paron. A damme; an old one that hath young ones.
Parons. as Parens; Kinsfolkes.
Paronnel. The name of a Peare whereof good Perrie is made.
Paronychie: f. Whitlo-grasse, Nayle-wort (a weed.)
Paroximique: com. Of, or in, the fit of an ague.
Paroxisme: m. The returne, or fit, of an ague.
Paroy: f. A wall.
Parpaie: f. A full payment, or the rest of a payment.
Parpaigne: f. A pillar, buttresse, or supporter of stone-work, seruing to beare vp a beame, or summer, in a wall.
Parpaillon. as Parpillon.
Parpaing. as Parpaigne.
Parpayer. To pay throughly, soundly, all.
Parpeine. as Parpaigne.
Parpillon: m. The little fish called, a Shrimp.
Parpillottes: f. Spangles, or Oes.
Parpin: m. A great lumpe of stone, vnsquared, or newly cut out of the Quarrey.
Parquage. as Parcage.
Parqué: m. ée: f. Parked, foulded; impaled, inclosed, hedged, or hemmed in; also, planted, set downe, fixed, or setled in a place; also, strongly incamped.
Parquer. To parke, fould; impale, inclose, hedge or hemme in; to compasse about with pales, hedges, walls, &c; also, to soiourne, or stay long, in a place.
Se parquer. To plant, set downe, or settle themselues; to pitch their camp, and inclose it with strong defences.
Il se parque bien. He defends himselfe exceeding well.
Parquet: m. A little Parke, or place impaled; also, the Barre, or Inclosure of a Court of Iustice; sometimes also the Court it selfe; and sometimes, the House, or Hall, wherein tis kept.
Parquet de jardin. A Bed, or Border in a Garden.
Parquetages: m. Foulds of Hurdles for Sheepe; also, Parkes, or impaled grounds; and particularly, small peeces of salt-marshes, whereinto the sea water is by Salt-makers let, of purpose to be kept vntill the heat of the Sunne haue congealed it.
Parquoy. Why? wherefore? also, therefore, for this, or for which, cause.
Ie ne t'ay fait, ne dit le parquoy tu me doives faire ce que tu me fais. I haue giuen you small cause to vse me thus.
Parrain: m. A Godfather.
Parrasine: f. Stone-Rosin.
Parricide: com. A Parricide; a murtherer of his owne father; also, any hainous murtherer.
Parricider. To murther his owne father; also, to commit any hainous, or vnnaturall murther.
Parrin: m. A Godfather.
Parrodelle: f. as Parodelle.
Parroquet. as Perroquet.
Parservir. To serue throughly, to serue long and well; whence;
Mal sert qui ne parsert: Pro.
Parsimonie: f. Parsimonie, sparing, thrift, good husbandrie.
Parsonnier: m. A Partener, or Coparcener.
Parsoy. à parsoy. Apart, alone, by himselfe; also, from him, by his intreatie or meanes.
Part: m. A birth, or bringing forth, as of children; the fruit of a womans wombe; any brood, or litter.
Part: f. A part, share, portion, peece; a ioint, limme, quarter; also, a partie, or side; also, a place, coast, or countrey.
A part. Apart, aside, out of the way, out of high waies; alone, in priuate, secretly, by himselfe.
Se retirer à part. To retire, or withdraw himselfe; to get him out of all companie.
De sa part elle est pucelle. For all him, or for any thing he hath done, she is a maid.
En bonne part. Il a le cœur assis en bonne part. There is great mettall, good stuffe, much vertue, in him.
Quelque part. Somewhere, somewhether; Quelque part que. whereseoeuer, or whethersoeuer that.
Faire la part au plus esloigné; ou, au plus ieune. To make one but a veric sleight share, to giue him what he list himselfe, or nothing so much as his due.
L'homme qui a de l'art possede sa part: Prov. The skilfull gets a share in euerie thing.
Qui n'y est n'y a sa part: Pro. He thats not there gets nothing there.
Partage: m. A partage, partition, or parting; a sharing, diuiding, or diuision.
En matiere criminelle n'y a partage. Id est, paribus numero sententijs ea superat que pro reo facit; or, Aequo sententiarum numero reus absolvitur.
Partageable: com. Partible, diuidable.
Partager. To part, seuer, diuide, share out.
Partant. (Partic.) Parting, departing, going from.
Partant. Therefore; on this condition.
Parterre: m. A floore; also, a plaine close, or any euen plot, or peece of ground; and hence, a Garden, or the part of a Garden, which consists of beds, and borders of hearbes, and flowers, without any tree among them.
Parti: m. A match, bargaine, condition, or offer conditionall; and hence, a marriage, a husband or wife; and, a meanes, fortune, estate; also, a partie, or side.

Prendre parti. To bethinke himselfe, to pawse vpon; to be aduised, or take deliberation, in a matter.

Tenons nous en parti avec le ciel. Let vs hold quarter, or continue our league, with heauen; let vs hold with religion, cherish deuotion, keepe God on our side.

Parti: m. ie: f. Parted, diuided, seuered, distinguished; also, gone, departed.

Procez parti. The Court diuided in opinion.

Partiaire: com. In parts, for parts, of parts.

Campagne partiaire. A Commons; or common Field, (wherein euerie commoner is stinted.)

Compagnie partiaire. Companie ingaged together; or whereof euerie one hath a share in the particular suit, or businesse managed by them.

Mestayer partiaire. A Farmer which is to yeeld his Landlord a certaine part of the fruits gotten in his Farme.

Partial: m. ale: f. Solitarie, priuate, retired, vnsociable, all for himselfe; also, partiall, vnequall, factious, more affected to one then another.

Partialiser. To partialize it; to side, bandie, be partiall, or factious; to take parts.

Partialité: f. Partialitie, vnindifferencie, siding, factiousnesse; also, a faction.

Participant: m. A partner, partaker, or sharer with; a complice, companion, associate, confederate, accessorie, adherent.

Participant: m. ante: f. Participant, partaking, or sharing with; adherent, or adhering vnto.

Participe: m. A Participle (in Grammar.)

Participer. To participate, share, communicate with; also, to partake, or take part with, or take the part of; to adhere, or cleaue vnto.

Participial: m. ale: f. Participiall; of, or belonging to, a Participle.

Participialement. As a Participle.

Particularisé: m. ée: f. Particularized, particularly mentioned; seuered, shared, distinguished.

Particulariser. To particularize; to make peculiar, or priuate; to distinguish, or seuer from others; to name specially, to mention particularly.

Particularité: f. A particularitie; a speciall, priuate, peculiar, or odd, thing.

Particulier: m. ere: f. Particular; priuate, peculiar, proper, ones owne; also, distinct, seuerall, speciall; odd, singular.

Particulierement. Particularly, specially, peculiarly; singularly; distinctly, seuerally.

Partie: f. A part; share, portion; peece, ioint, member; also, a partie, side, faction; and a match, or set, at game; also, a bargaine, or contract; also, a partie, client, or suitor, in Law; also, an Aduocate, or Counsellor at Law; also, an Accompt; or a head, or summe, in an Accompt.

Parties. Parts, conditions, qualities; also, a Taylors Bill.

Parties casuelles. Money made of the sale of Offices; also (but lesse properly) all casualties, as Escheats &c, and casuall forfeitures, as fines vpon penall Statutes, forfeitures by vnlawfull Vsurie, &c.

Partie civile & formée. He that pursues a criminall action, onely in respect of, or to get some amends for, the wrong done to himselfe.

Partie civile, & interessée. The same.

En partie. Partly, in part, not altogether.

Prins à partie. Sued, accused, or called in question; opposed, withstood, or vndertaken, as an Aduersarie.

Il plaidoye beau qui plaidoye sans partie: Pro. He fairely pleads that finds no Aduersarie.

Vne partie n'est point le tout: Prov. A part is not the whole; a peecing no perfection.

Partiere. as Partiaire.

Partiment: m. A parting, diuiding, sundering, seuering; also, a parting, or departing.

Partir. To part, sunder, diuide, seuer; also, to part, depart, remoue, or goe from.

Partir le gasteau. See Gasteau.

Partir de la main. To part from the hand, to set or put on, freely; (a Riders phrase.)

Partir les oreilles. To beare both sides.

Partir du poing. A Hawke to couet freely; or goe from the hand as soone as she spies her game.

Le chanteau part le vilain. See Vilain.

Ce n'est pas tout de courir, il faut partir à temps: Prov. A cause must be as well begun seasonably, as followed seriously.

Partisan: m. A partner, partaker; associate, confederate; accessorie, adherent.

Partissement: m. as Partiment.

Partisseur: m. A parter, diuider, sharer, distributor, seuerer, sunderer.

Partizant. as Participant.

Part-prenant: m. A partaker, sharer; contributor, in a charge to be payed, or seruice to be yeelded; a purchasor that so contributes; and hence;

Tenir comme part-prenant. A purchasor to hold part of a fief by contribution with others in the charge, or duties, whereto the whole is lyable.

Partroublé: m. ée: f. Extreamely troubled, molested, vexed, annoyed, perplexed.

Partroublement: m. An extreame trouble, or sore troubling.

Partuer. To kill outright.

Party. Looke Parti; also, a departure, or departing; a parting, or going away.

Parvanche. as Pervenche.

Parvenir. To atchieue, attaine, arriue, or come vnto; also, to chieue, thriue, come vp, or come forward in the world.

Parvis: m. The Porch of a Church; also (or more properly) the vtter court of a Pallace, or great House.

Parvité: f. Smallnesse, littlenesse.

Parure: f. A decking, tricking, trimming; also, array, apparrell, attire; also, a Liuerie, or Suit of apparrell.

Pas: m. A pace, a step, a stride; a measure of two foot and a halfe; or (as in some places) of three and a halfe; or (as among the old Romanes) of fiue; also, a foot, or footing; also, a pace, gate, or ordinarie traine in going; also, a strait, narrow passage, or strait path; and such a passage kept by one, or moe knights against all commers; and thence also, a Tourney.

Le pas. The strait betweene Calis and Douer.

Pas d'Abbé. Looke Abbé.

Pas d'Asne. Fole-foot, Colts-foot, Horse-foot, Hall-foot, an herbe; also, a fashion of a Port, or Vpset, in the mouth of a Bit; also, a certaine Frenring in the forecastle of a Ship.

Pas de cheval. as Pas d'Asne (in the first sence.)

Pas de Clere. A foolish tricke, simple part, grosse ouersight, fond prank.

Pas d'escreuisse. A recoyling; a going, or gining, backe.

Pas Geometrique. A fadome; or fiue feet, of foure handfuls to the foot.

Pas

Pas de larron. See Larron.
Pas de Lion. Lions foot, Lions paw, great Sanicle, our Ladies mantle.
Le pas de la mort. The path of death; a ſtep vnto it, or, the point of it.
Trois pas, & vn ſaut. The Almond, or Alman, leape.
Vn pas, & vn ſaut. A Pace, and a Leape; a Manage, or Ayre in Horſemanſhip, tearmed otherwiſe, the Paſſa-ſalto, or Gallop Galliard.
Lettres de pas. Paſſes, or Paſſports.
Vn faux pas. A ſlip, or miſſe, in footing; and hence, a fault, error, or miſtaking; alſo, a falſe, or hollow peece of ground that ſinkes vnder a mans foot as he goes.
Mauvais pas. Ill way.
Plus viſte que le pas. Exceeding faſt, or as faſt as his legs would carrie him.
Aller à pas menu. To goe nicely, tread-gingerly, mince it like a maid.
Aller le pas. To pace, or goe a foot pace, to walke faire and ſoftly, or faire and leiſurely.
Courir en deux pas vn ſaut. To runne ſpeedily, ſwiftly, in haſt, apace.
I'auray fait en deux pas & vn ſaut. I ſhall haue diſpatched in a trice.
Entamer le pas. To begin, or breake the ice; to lead the way, or the daunce; to make an entrie, or ouerture, vnto.
Fermer le pas à. To ſtop the way, to interrupt or ſtay the proceeding of.
La Mort l'attend à deux pas pres. Death is at his elbow, within an ynch of him, readie to ſeize on him.
Paſſer le pas. To goe the way of all fleſh; to dye.
Plaindre ſes pas. Looke Plaindre.
Tailler le pas à. as Entamer le pas. To begin vnto.
Pas à pas le bœuf prend le lievre: Pro. Step after ſtep the Ox doth catch a Hare; by diligence, and continuance in a direct courſe the dulleſt wit comes to great knowledge.
Pas à pas on va bien loing: Pro. Step after ſtep goes farre.
Pas. (A Particle that euer inforces, or addes weight vnto, a Negatiue;) not at all, no way poſſibly, by no manner of meanes.
Non pas? Art thou not? is it not? are we not? &c.
Paſcage: m. Graſing, feeding, or paſturing of Cattell.
Paſcal. as Paſchal.
Paſchal: m. ale: f. Paſchall; of, in, or belonging to, the feaſt of Eaſter.
L'Agneau paſchal. The Paſchall Lambe; or the Paſſeouer.
Paſchier: m. A Paſture Ground; or a Ground thats fit, or ſerues, for nought but the paſturing of cattell.
Paſcrit: m. ite: f. Faded, diſcoloured, dryed, out of ſeaſon.
Paſle: com. Pale, wan, bleake, whitiſh.
Les paſles couleurs. The greene Sickneſſe.
Couleur paſle. The decayed, vaded, or imperfect yellow colour of Box-wood, &c.
Paſlement. Palely, wanly, bleakely.
Paſleur: f. Paleneſſe, wanneſſe, lewneſſe, bleakneſſe, whitiſhneſſe.
Se Paſlir. To wax pale, wan, bleake.
Paſmaiſon: f. A Crampe; or, as Paſmoiſon.
Paſmé: m. ée: f. Fallen in a ſwoone.
Vn Dauphin d'argent paſmé. Hariant (in Blaſon.)
Se Paſmer. To ſwoone; to fall into a traunce, or ſwoone.
Paſmoiſon: f. A ſwoone, or ſwooning; a traunce (cauſed by an extreame crampe, or conuulſion.)
Paſnage: m. Pawnage; Maſtage; the money receiued, or profit made, by the Lord of a Forreſt for the Agiſtement, or feeding of Swine with the Maſt, or (wherein our pawnage commeth ſhort, and the French is not generall) of Cattell with the herbage, thereof.
Paſque, ou Paſques. (The feaſt of) Eaſter.
Paſques cloſes. Rogation Sunday.
Paſque fleurie. Palme Sunday.
Paſque de ſoles. The ſame.
Deuoir de Paſques. A Lambe at Eaſter, due vnto the Curates of ſome places from euerie Sheepmaiſter within their Pariſhes.
Oeufs de Paſques. Paſte-egges; egges giuen to children at Eaſter.
Donner des oeufs de Paſques à toutes reſtes. To thwacke ſoundly.
Faire Paſques. To communicate; or, to receiue the Sacrament.
Se faire marchand de poiſſon la vieille de Paſques; & ſe faire poiſſonnier la vigile de Paſques. To enter into a courſe, or vndertake an action, in an vnfit, or vnſeaſonable time.
Paſques long temps deſirées ſont en vn iour toſt paſſées: Prov. The long-deſired Paſſeouer is in a day paſt ouer.
Apres Paſques, & Rogatons fy de preſtre, & d'oignons: Prov. Looke Oignon.
A Noel au perron, à Paſques au tiſon: Prov. At Chriſtmas in the Sunne, at Eaſter by the fire.
Paſqueages. Paſtures, or paſture grounds.
Paſquenade: f. A Parſenip.
Paſquerages, & Paſqueraiges. as Paſchiers.
Paſquerette: f. A little Daiſie.
Paſques. Looke Paſque.
Paſquette: f. A Daiſie.
Paſquil. as Paſquille; or, as Paſquin.
Paſquille: f. A Paſquill; a Libell clapt on a Poſte, or Image.
Paſquin: m. The name of an Image, or Poſte in Rome, whereon Libels and defamatorie Rimes are faſtened, and fathered; alſo, as Paſquille.
Paſquis: m. Paſtures, or paſture grounds.
L'Oiſon n'eſt pas digne de monſtrer les paſquis à l'oye: Pro. Looke vnder Oiſon.
Paſſable: com. Paſſable, tollerable, indifferent, currant enough; alſo, which may be trauelled through, or paſſed ouer.
Paſſablement. Paßably, tollerably, indifferently, reaſonably, meanely, ſo ſo.
Paſſade: f. An almes, beneuolence, or intertainment giuen by, or to, a paſſenger; alſo, the manage for combat, or ſouldiors manage; a galloping, or managing of a horſe forward, and ſuddainely backe the ſame way; any courſe backward, and forward.
La mer ſe manie à paſſades. (A ſpeech whereby the ſwift courſe of the flowing, and ebbing of the ſea, on the Sandes, or Waſhes, is meant.)
Prendre la paſſade. To refreſh himſelfe, in a long iourney, at a friends houſe, or elſewhere.
Paſſadoux: m. An Arrow. ¶ Gaſc.

Passage: m. A passage, a strait; a way, path, pace, course; a passing, a gate, going, or winding; also, a passage, entrie, or comming to a place; also, a passe, pasport, safe-conduct, or licence giuen for the free passage, trauell, or transportation of; also, a peece, clause, text, place of, or passage in, a booke; also, musicall diuision, or warbling; and (in Riding) a limitted pace of schoole either forward, or backward.

Faulcon de passage. A Passenger.

Lettre de passage. A Pase, or Pase-port, &c. (as in Passage.)

Haut passage. An Impositon of vij d in the pound vpan woolls, Clothes, Linnen, Canuasses, and other such marchandize.

Faire le passage. To prepare fruit (which is to be preserued) for the receiuing of Sugar, by boyling it in cleere water, vntill it be so tender that a pinne pricked into it cannot fetch it vp any height, or hold it vp any while.

Passager: m. A Ferryman; also, a passenger, traueller, way-faring man.

Passager: m. ere: f. Transitorie, passing, shifting, flitting, vncertaine, vnsteadie, remouing often, euer changing places, most giddie, alwayes gadding vp and downe.

Colombe passagere. A Pigeon thats bred betweene a tame, and a wild one.

Faulcon passager. A Passenger.

Nef passagere. An ordinarie Passage-boat, or Ship.

Passager. To passe, proceed, runne, or goe on; to flit, remoue often, euer be shifting of abode, alwayes be gadding vp and downe.

Passager, & varier la voix. To warble, or diuide, in singing, &c.

Passageur: m. A Ferryman.

Passagier. as Passager.

Passant: m. A passenger, traueller, wayfaring man.

Passans. Passengers, &c; also, the rings through which the cords of a Cauesson passe.

Les passans d'un boucle. The two holes of a buckle.

Passant: m. ante: f. Passing, going, wending, trauelling along; also, straining; also, passant, currant, verie tollerable.

En passant. Sleightly, lightly, cursarily, accidentally, by the way.

Passature: m. A straining; also, the thing thats strayned.

Passé: m. Time, accidents, occurrences, or things, past.

Passe: f. A Henne Sparrow; also, as Passerille; also, the racke of a Crosse-bow; also, the Iron Goale, or Arche, at Palemaille.

Passe de bois. The little brambling, or mountaine Spinke.

Passe de Canarie. A Canarie bird.

Passe solitaire. A little black-browne Owsell (or bird like an Owsell) thats euer alone, or if in any companie, with Sparrowes, among stone walls, or on the tops of houses, where sometime she singeth prettily.

Arbalestes de passe. The greatest sort of (rack-bent) Crosse-bowes.

Biais passe. A bias gate, or doore, tearmed so by workmen.

Passé: m. ée: f. Past, passed, gone; surpassed, exceeded; ouerslipt, omitted; ouergone; also, transported or ferried, carried or conueighed ouer; also, strayned through; also, decayed, farre spent, faded, withered, wrinckled, in the wane, past the best; also, deceased, departed; quite vanished away.

Passé par les armes. Shot to death; or, executed by passing the pikes.

Ie suis passé. I am gone, or ouercast, I haue throwne ouer, at Bowles, &c.

On s'en fut bien passé. One might haue beene without it verie well.

Passe-caille: m. See Cailles.

Passe-chevaux: m. A Horse-boat.

Passé-dix. Such a Game as our Passage.

Passe-droict: m. A resignation, or graunt of right; also, a courtesie or fauor done, a gift or salarie bestowed, beyond merit, or aboue ones due.

Il m'a faict vn grand passe-droict. He takes not of me the extremitie of Law, he hath dealt verie kindly with me.

Passée: f. A passage, course, passing along.

La passée. A manner of catching little birds, by sticking lyme-twigs, and placing liue birds in cages, among the boughes of trees, purposely set vp, or such as vsually they passe by.

Les passées d'un Cerf. His racke, or pasages; the places which he hath gone through, or by.

Les passées du mois. The disbursements for Court-Acates omitted, and not set downe, vntill the last day of the month.

Passefilé: m. ée: f. Curled, frizled, entrammelled, as out-drawne locks of haire.

Passe-fillons: m. Small eare-lockes, or curled lockes drawne out on either side; hence, any frizled lockes, or entrammelled tufts of haire.

Passefillonné: m. ée: f. as Passefilé.

Passe-fin: m. Excellent fine cloth.

Passe-fleur: f. The Paseflower, bastard Anemone, or Windflower; also, red or purple Camomill, red Mathes, Rosearubie, Adonis red flower; called Passe-flower by the Translator of Dodoneus.

Passe-martel de temps. A merrie sport, or pastime, wherewith time (in a time of cares) is driuen away.

Passement: m. A passing, pacing, going; an ouerpassing; a transporting, a carrying, or conueying ouer; also, a strayning through; also, a lace, or lacing.

Passement de tesmoings. An examination of witnesses.

Passementé: m. ée: f. Laced.

Passementer. To lace.

Passementier: m. A Lace-maker, a Silke-weauer.

Passe-par-tout. Vn p. A resolute fellow; one that goes through-stitch with euerie thing he vndertakes; one whose courses no danger can stop, no difficultie stay.

Vne passe-par-tout. A double key, that opens all the dores in the Court.

Passe-passée: f. Heypasse, repase; a iugling tricke, or tearme.

Passe-pied: m. A caper, or loftie tricke in dauncing; also, a kind of daunce, peculiar to the youth of La haute Bretaigne.

Passe-poil: m. A snipped, or iagged welt of Taffata, &c, in a garment.

Passe-pomme: f. The Pome-paradice, Honny-apple, or Honny-meale; (an apple thats quickly ripe, and quickly rotten.)

Passe-port: m. A Pase, Pase-port, or Safe-conduct.

Elle a son passe-port. She hath somewhat about her that makes her way whereseoeuer she goes; (Said of a light, and wandering huswife.)

Passe-porte: f. A bill of lading.

Passe-prouësse. Passing valiant, exceeding valorous, verie

verie couragious.

Paſſer. To paſſe, wend, goe, walke on afore; to proceed, or hold on a courſe; alſo, to flit, remoue, depart from; alſo, to ſurpaſſe, ouergoe, ouerrun, ouerreach, ouertop, ouergrow, ſurmount, exceed, excell; alſo, to paſſe, let goe, ſuffer, giue way vnto; and, to forget, omit, ouerſlip; run ſleightly ouer; alſo, to tranſport, conuey, or carrie ouer; alſo, to ſtraine through; alſo, to decay, fade, wither; deceaſe; vaniſh away.

Se paſſer. Whence; Il ſe paſſe à peu de choſe. He is contented, he maketh ſhift, he doth well ynough, he can well ynough away, with a little: &; De cela ie ne puis paſſer. I can by no meanes want it, I cannot be without it; &, Il a des biens pour ſe passer. He hath goods enow to rub on, or to ſerue his turne, with.

Paſſer par l'arc S. Bernard. To be berayed, or to beray himſelfe.

Paſſer la capriole. To cut a caper.

Paſſer ſa cholere. To digeſt his choler, to coole himſelfe.

Paſſer vne coche. To driue a coach.

Paſſer condemnation. See Condemnation.

Paſſer ſon droict. To alien, paſſe, part with, forgoe, giue ouer, his right.

Paſſer ſon envie. To ſatisfie his longing.

Paſſer l'eſponge ſur. To deface, raſe, or blot out.

Paſſer par le fil de l'eſpée. To kill, ſlay, ſlaughter, murther, maſſacre.

Paſſer fortune. To eſcape, or auoid, a misfortune.

Paſſer par la feneſtre. S'ils ne veulent paſſer par là qu'ils paſſent par la feneſtre. If they refuſe, or will none of that, let them take woſe and ſpare not.

Paſſer pluſieurs choſes par vn Fidelium. Haſtily to ſhuffle, or buddle vp many things together; to ſlubber, or ſleightly run ouer, a buſineſſe.

Paſſe ſans flux. Not a pinne matter; let goe ſeeing it will be no better.

Paſſer par là. Seeke Là; or, Paſſer par la feneſtre.

Paſſer en ligne de compte. To reckon, make account, or giue allowance, of.

Paſſer oultre. To tipe vp the heeles, to die.

Paſſer tout oultre. To paſſe, or proceed on; to goe through; alſo, to ſurpaſſe, ouerpaſſe, ouergoe.

Paſſer le pas. To goe the way of all fleſh, to die.

Paſſer le pied ſur la gorge à. To tread vnder his feet contemptuouſly, or conqueror-like.

Paſſer par les piques. Looke Pique.

Paſſer la plume par le bec à. To pull a boyes penne through his lips; and thence, to abuſe, or vſe like a child; alſo, to amuſe, delay, driue off, by trifling pretences, or fond and ouer-familiar trickes.

Paſſer procuration. To grant, yeeld, agree, or giue conſent, vnto; alſo, to appoint an Atturney, or make a letter of Atturney vnto.

Paſſer le Rubicon. To vndertake a great, or hazardous exploit.

Paſſer le temps. To ſpend his time pleaſantly, merrily, contentedly; to paſſe his dayes in all fulneſſe of ſenſuall contentments; to take his full eaſe, to ſtudie, or follow nothing but his delights.

Vous l'euſsiez fait paſſer pur le trou du chat. You might haue made him crept through the Cat-hole.

Tout paſſe par ſes tripes comme par le cul du ſinge. Nothing is too hot, or too cold for him; nothing doth come amiſſe vnto him.

Aſſez fait qui fortune paſſe, & plus encor qui putain chaſſe: Prov. Looke Fortune.

Le bon heur toſt ſe paſſe qui n'en a ſoing: Prov. Good lucke vnheeded quickly ſlips away.

Quand le chou paſſe le cep le vigneron meurt de ſoif: Prov. When the Cabbidge growes faſter then the Vine, there will be a great dearth of Wine.

Qui paſſe vn iour d'hyver, il paſſe vn de ſes ennemis mortels: Pro. A mortall foe he ſcapes who ſcapes a Winters day.

Qui a des noix il en caſſe, & qui n'en a il s'en paſſe: Prov. (Appliable to ſuch indifferent things as we can both ſpend, and ſpare.)

Semelles, & vin paſsent chemin: Prov. viz. Tid way apace.

Paſserage. Dittander, Dittanie, Pepperwort.

Paſserage ſauvage. Cackoe-flowers, Ladies-ſmockes, the leſſe water Creſſe.

Paſserat: m. A Sparrow.

Paſsereau: m. A Sparrow; (eſpecially the cock; whence the Prouerbe;)

Paſsereaux, & moineaux ſont de faux oiſeaux. Cocke Sparrowes and (young) Monkes are (much of a diſpoſition) ſhrewd lechers.

Paſserelles. as Paſſerilles.

Paſserille. Raiſins paſserillez. Dried, and made Raiſins of the Sunne.

Paſserilles: f. Raiſins of the Sunne.

Paſserin: m. ine: f. Sparrow-like, of, or belonging to, a Sparrow.

Langue paſserine. The fruit of the Aſh, called Aſhen keyes, or Kite keyes.

Passe-roſe: f. The Paſſe-roſe, or Paſh-roſe; (a great flower.)

Paſseteau: m. A little Sparrow.

Paſsetemps: m. Paſtime, ſport, game, recreation, ſolace, delight.

Paſse-velours: m. Flower gentle, Veluet flower, Flower-amour, Flower valure; (whereof there bee diuers kinds.)

Paſse-velours branchu. The branched Flower gentle; which yeelds a white ſeed, whereas all other kinds haue a blacke one.

Paſse-velours jaulne. The Gold flower, Gods flower, yellow or golden Steccados, the golden Flore-amour; alſo, a kind of Marigold thats as big as a Roſe, but without any manner of ſent.

Paſse-vent. (An Epithite for a horſe) ſwifter then the wind.

Paſsevolant: m. Th' Artillerie called a Baſe; alſo, a hireling whom a Captaine, on Muſter dayes, foiſteth into his companie; and generally, any ſuch skipiacke, or baſe nimblesbie.

Paſseur: m. A Ferrieman, or profeſſed tranſporter of things ouer a riuer.

Paſſibilité: f. Paſſibilitie, ſuffering.

Paſſif: m. iue: f. Paſſiue, ſuffering; alſo, cauſing paſſion, or perturbation.

Debtes paſsives. Debts owed, or due by vs, vnto others.

Paſſion: f. Paſſion, perturbation, trouble, or affliction; alſo, a motion, diſpoſition, inclination, or affection, of the mind; alſo, an accident, or ſymtome concurring with ſome diſeaſe to th'offence, or diſtemperature, of the bodie; whence;

Illiaque paſſion. Looke Illiaque.

Nephretique paſſion. A paine in the reines, proceeding from a ſtone, or grauell reſiding therein.

Nulle maiſon ſans paſſion: Pro. No houſe without ſome humour.

Paſſionné: m. ée: f. Paſſioned, paſſionate, perturbed, much much diſtempered, or troubled in mind; off the hindges, almoſt diſtraught, wellnigh beſides himſelfe.

Paſſionnément. Paſſionately, paſſionedly.

se Paſſionner. To grow paſſionate, or impatient; to diſtemper, afflict, or diſtract himſelfe by immoderate paſſion.

Paſſionnerement. Paſſionately.

Paſon: m. A poſſet.

Paſsules: f. Raiſins.

Paſt: m. A meale, repaſt, refection, feeding; alſo, meat, victuals, food.

Le paſt nuptial. See Nuptial.

Paſté: m. A pie, or paſtie; alſo, a packe (laid) at cards; alſo, a blurre, ſcraule, pothooke, or ill-fauoured whimwhau, in writing.

Paſté en pot. Minced meat boyled in a pot with a little broath, and hard yolkes of egges, vntill it be halfe conſumed.

Il a deſcouvert le paſté. He hath found out the myſterie.

Crouſtes de paſtez valent bien pain: Prov. See Crouſte.

A celuy qui a ſon paſté au four on doit donner de ſon tourteau: Prov. Giue of thy pie to him that hath a paſtie; doe good to him thats able to requite thee.

Paſte: f. Paſt, or dough.

De bonne paſte. Of a good humor, or gentle diſpoſition; an honeſt, and harmeleſſe merrie fellow.

De groſſe paſte. Clunchie, churliſh, clowniſh; of rude, homelie, or dull ſtuffe.

Ils ont toute la paſte entre leurs mains. They haue got all into their fingers; they haue ingroſſed all imployments; the diſpoſition of all reſts in their hands.

Entrer en la paſte iuſques aux coudes. To enter, or ſtep farre, into an act, or buſineſſe.

Mettre la main à la paſte. To aſſiſt, or ſet a helping hand vnto.

Porter la paſte au four. See Four.

Rebeluter la meſme paſte. To reexamine, or often to diſcuſſe, one matter.

Rendre paſte pour fougaſſe. To yeeld a ticke for a tacke, a Fill for a Jacke; to returne a man as good ſtuffe, or meaſure, as he brings.

Paſtel: m. Dyers Woad (of a finer ſort then that which is called Gueſde; ) alſo (the hearbe of whoſe leaues tis made) garden-Woad; See Gueſde.

Paſtel ſauvage. Wild Woad; Woad that comes vp of it ſelfe in grounds wherein the garden Woad hath been ſowne; (The tranſlator of Plinie calls a kind of wild Lettuce that growes in woods Paſtel ſauvage.)

Paſtenade: f. The garden Carrot, or a root like a Carrot (moſt commonly) of a bloud-red colour; and ſometimes of a yellow; but that by Art; ſome Authors alſo call the Parſnip thus.

Paſtenade jaulne. The yellow garden Carrot.

Paſtenade rouge. The red, or blacke Carrot.

Paſtenade ſauvage. The wild Carrot, called Birdsneaſt.

Paſtenague. as Paſtenade: ¶Langued.

Paſtenaille: f. as Paſtenade; or, more properly, a Parſnip.

Paſtenaille ſauvage. The wild Parſnip, or Madnip.

Paſtenaque: f. The Forke-fiſh; a kind of Scate which hath in her taile an indented, and venemous pricke, or ſting; alſo, as Paſtenade.

Paſteur: m. A Paſtor, or Shepheard; one that gouernes, or takes charge of, a flocke.

Aiguille de pasteur. Shepheards-needle; an hearbe whereof there be three kinds; Looke Aiguille.

Bourſe de paſteur. Shepheards-purſe, Shepheards-pouch, Picke-purſe, Toywood, or Toywort, poore mans Parmacetie, Cooſe-weed, or Caſe-weed.

A mol paſteur le loup chie laine: Prov. A gentle Paſtor makes the Wolfe cacke wooll.

Paſteux: m. euſe: f. Doughie; clammie as bread which is dough-baked; ſoft, or yeelding, as dough.

Paſticerie. Looke Paſtiſſerie.

Paſticier. as Paſtiſsier.

Paſtilles: f. Little lumpes, or loaues of wood, &c.

Paſtin: m. Paſt; or, a little peece of paſt, or of dough.

Paſtinage: m. Paſt; or paſt-meat, ſtuffe made of dough, or paſt.

Paſtir. See Patir.

Paſtis: m. A paſture ground (not incloſed, nor of the better ſort, but as our common, or waſt, whereon cattell doe but barely liue;) alſo, paſture, or feeding for cattell.

Paſtiſsage: m. A making, or baking of pies, or paſt-meats.

Paſtiſser. To make pies, or paſt-meats.

Paſtiſserie: f. (All kind of) pies, or baked meats; paſterie worke; alſo, the making of paſt-meats.

Paſtiſsier: m. A paſterer, or pie-maker; alſo, a maker of paſt-meats.

Il a paſſé par deuant l'huis du paſtiſsier. He is a retcheleſſe, or careleſſe fellow.

Meſtier n'auons de paſtiſsier roigneux: Prov. Better no pies then pies made with ſcabd hands.

Paſton: m. A maſh of meale for a horſe; alſo, a certaine paſt, or mealie ointment that cõforts, or ſtrengthens his hoofe; alſo, the peece of leather wherewith the toe of a ſhooe is lined.

Paſtophores: m. Sacred Prieſts, reuerend Prelates (among th'auncient Ægyptians.)

Paſtoral: m. ale: f. Paſtorall, Shepheardlie, rurall.

Baſton paſtoral. as Verge à berger; eſpecially, water Plantaine.

Paſtorat: m. A Paſtorall Office, or charge.

Paſtoreau: m. A young, or meane Paſtor.

Paſtoureau. as Paſtoreau; or, a Paſtor.

Si ſouhaits fuſſent vrais pastoureaux ſeroient Rois: Prov. If wiſhes might ſucceed poore men would Princes be.

Paſtourelle: f. A Shepheardeſſe.

Paſtre: m. as Paſteur.

Paſturable: com. Paſturable; which may be turned into, or put vnto, paſture; which may be fed on.

Paſturage: m. Paſturage; a paſture ground; alſo, a grazing, feeding, paſturing in, or eating of, paſture grounds.

Vain paſturage. as Vaine paſture; or, an eating thereof with cattell.

Paſture: f. Paſture, graſſe, fodder, grazing, forrage; meat, food, nouriſhment, ſuſtenance, refection, feeding.

Pasture de chameau. Camells hay, Squinant.

Vaine paſture. Medowes whoſe hay, arrable ground whoſe corne, is got in; held ſo from S. Remies day vnto mid March; alſo, waſt grounds; and generally, any ground thats not incloſed, or lyes vnfenced, and hath neither ſeed in, nor fruit vpon it.

Vive paſture. le temps de la vive paſture. Is from Michaelmas to Saint Andrewes-tide; or ſeeding-time in corne grounds, and the ſeaſon of pawnage, or Agiſting of ſwine in woods (which by our Law is to begin at Holie-rood day, and to end about Martilmas.)

Folles femmes n'aiment que pour paſture: Prov. whores

Whores loue no longer then they are fed.

Pasturement: m. A pasturing, grazing, feeding.

Pasturer. To pasture, graze, feed; fodder; also, to eat, as grounds with cattell.

Vain pasturer. To turne his cattell into, or let them runne in, grounds held Vaine pasture.

Pasturier: m. A Grazier.

Vsagiers vain pasturiers. Which haue the priuiledge to eat with their cattell grounds held Vaine pasture.

Pasturon. as Paturon.

Patache: f. A Pinnace.

Patact: m. A tacke, clap, knocke, flap, stampe: ¶Gasc.

Patasle: f. The size of bread allowed by Authoritie.

Patasleric: f. Fopperie, foolerie, ideotisme, idle trifling.

Pataque: f. A Neapolitane coyne worth 200 Quadrins.

Pataraſse. Looke Petaraſse.

Patart: m. A Low-countrey coyne worth a Sol Tournois; or the Stiver, fiue whereof amount vnto 6 d. sterl.

Pataut: m.aute: f. Grosse, corpulent, big, fat.

Pate: f. as Patte; also, a plate, or band of yron, &c, for for the strengthening of a thing.

Paté: m. ée: f. Pawed, broad-footed, or broad at the foot; well vnderlaid.

Pateade. ¶Rab. Looke Pareade.

Patelin: m. A cogger, colloguer, flatterer, soother, smoother; a cousener; a pratler, or fond dallier; also, a Buffoone, or Vice in a Play.

Patelinage: f. A colloguing, flattering, cogging; cousening; a pratling, babling, idle tatling; fond sporting, or dalliance; a buffoonizing, or acting the Vice in a Play.

Pateliner. To cog, flatter, sooth, collogue with; to intertaine with idle chat, or vaine dalliance; to cousen, or deceiue with fond-faire words; also, to buffoonize it, or act the Vices part in a Play.

Patelion. as Patelin.

Patelle: f. The ball, or whirle-bone, of the knee; also, the little shell-fish called a Lympine.

Pateller. To chatter, warble, or, as a young bird, record the notes she would learne.

Patellette de la testiere. The head-dag; the broad peece of leather that runnes ouer-crosse, or through, the top of a beadstall.

Patene. as Patine.

Patenostrages; m. Beads.

Patenostre. la p. The Pater-noster, the Lords Prayer.

Dire la patenostre à l'envers. To curse.

Dire la patenostre du singe. To didder, or chatter with the teeth.

Patenostrier: m. A maker, or seller of beads; also, an hypocrite, &c; as Patinostrier.

Patent: m.ente: f. Patent, wide open, discouered; manifest, euident, apparent.

Patepelue: com. Hairie-handed, rough-footed.

Paterliquer. To play the father, to be fatherlie.

Paternel: m. elle: f. Paternall, fatherlie, of a father, of the fathers side.

Paternellement. Paternally, fatherly, father-like.

Paternité: f. Paternitie, fatherhood; fatherlinesse, fatherlie goodnesse.

Pater-noster. as la Patenostre.

Pathetique: com. Pathetical, passionate; persuasiue, affection-mouing.

Pathetiquement. Pathetically, passionately.

Pathologie: f. That part of Physicke which intreats of the causes, qualities, and differences of diseases.

Pathologique: com. Of, or belonging to, Pathologie.

Pathonomique: f. A necessarie, and vndoubted signe.

Patible: com. Patible, passiue, sufferable.

Patibulaire: com. Deserning the gallowes; of, or belonging to, the gallowes.

Fourche patibulaire. A gibbet, or gallowes; Looke Fourche.

Iustice patibulaire. High Iurisdiction; power to hang offendors; Looke Pilier.

Signe patibulaire. A gibbet, or gallowes; a marke, or signe of High Iurisdiction in th'owner.

Paticier. Looke Pastissier.

Paticiere: f. A Pie-makers wife; or a woman that makes pies, or past-meats to sell.

Patiemment. Patiently, mildly, quietly, meekely, obediently; also, resolutely, or constantly.

Patience: f. Patience, long sufferance, much abiding; a constancie in bearing, a courage in induring, euill; also, meekenesse, mildnesse, quietnesse, obedience; also, as la Patiencie.

Patience de Lombard: Prov. A forced patience.

Patience passe science: Prov. Patience passeth science.

Qui n'a patience il n'a rien: Prov. He that hath no patience hath nothing.

Patient. Patient; suffering, enduring, bearing, abiding; meeke, mild, quiet; obedient; also, diseased, hurt, affected, afflicted.

Au patient demeurent les terres: Prov. The iust shall inherit the land (sayes the Psalmist.)

Patienter. To beare, indure, or attend with patience.

Patientie: f. Hearbe Patience, Monkes Rhubarbe.

Patin: m. A Pattin, or Clog; also, the footstall of a piller.

Patine: f. The Patine, or couer of a Chalice.

Patiner. To handle rudely, or carelesly; or to tosse, and turne a (brittle) thing often betweene the fingers.

Patinostres: f. Beads.

Patinostrier: m. A Bead-maker, &c; as Patenostrier; also, beads; or a string, list, or set of beads.

se Pationner. Looke se Passionner.

Patir. To suffer, indure, beare, sustaine, abide.

Tu en patiras. Thou wilt surely smart, or smoake for it.

Tel en patit qui n'en peut mais: Prov. Said of one thats punished for another mans fault.

Patois: m. Gibridge; clowniſh language, rusticall speech (or behauiour.)

Patoüil: m. A padling, dabling, slabbering; a making foule by much slurring.

Patoüillard: m. A padler, dabler, slabberer; one that tramples with his feet in plashes of durtie water.

Patoüillas: m. A plash, or puddle.

Patouille: f. as Patrouille (in the first sence.)

Patoüillé: m.ée: f. Slabbered; padled, or dabled in with the feet; also, troubled, or fouled, as liquor by stirring, or by being stirred.

Patoüiller. To slabber; to padle, or dable in with the feet; to stirre vp and downe, and trouble, or make foule, by stirring.

Patriarchat: m. A Patriarchie, or Patriarkship.

Patriarche: m. A Patriarke; a chiefe Father.

Patriarchie: f. as Patriarchat.

Patrice: m. A Senator of Rome; also, a great Prince; two whereof (sayes a French Author) a full, and absolute King is to haue vnder him; and they two foure Dukes apeece vnder them.

Patricotage: m. Wrangling, brangling; idle, or vniust con-

contention in words.

Patrie: f. A mans countrey, or natiue ſoyle; the Region, or place wherein he was borne.

Patrimoine: m. Patrimonie, birthright, inheritance, liuelyhood.

Patrimonial: m.ale: f. Patrimoniall; of, or belonging to, the patrimonie, or inheritance of.

Deniers patrimoniaux. Looke Denier.

Fief patrimonial. A Patrimoniall fief; viz. which deſcends, or came by deſcent.

Patriot: m. A father, or protector of the countrey, or Commonwealth; alſo, as Patriote.

Patriote: m. A patriote, ones countrey-man.

Patrociner. To patrocinate, maintaine, defend, protect, ſupport, vphold.

Patron: m. A Patron, Protector, maintainer, defender, ſupporter, vpholder; alſo, the Maiſter of a ſhip; alſo, the Lord, owner, or Maiſter of a houſe; alſo, a patterne, ſample, example, precedent.

Patronal: m.ale: f. Patronall; of, or belonging to, a Patron; done in remembrance, or ſolemnized in honour, of a Patron.

Patronnage: m. Patronage; defence, protection; alſo, a Patronſhip.

Droict de patronnage. An Aduowſon; the right of Seigneurie in, or of preſentation vnto, a Benefice; reſerued by the Lord, or firſt giuer of the glebe, thereof; Looke vnder Droict.

Patronner. To make, or frame by a patterne; to make the like of; to imitate, or take example by, or follow the precedent of; alſo, to patronize, take into protection, auow, or allow of.

Patronymique: com. Deriued of the Fathers, or Anceſtors names.

Patrouille: f. A ſtill night-watch in warre; alſo, a maulkin wherewith an ouen is made cleane.

Faire la patrouille. Looke Faire.

Patrouillé: m.ée: f. Smeeched, beſmeared, begrimed; alſo, ſwept, or made cleane with a maulkin.

Patrouillement: m. A ſmeeching, begriming, beſmearing; alſo, a depraying; alſo, a ſweeping with a maulkin; alſo, a padling, or puddering, as in the water.

Patrouiller. To ſmeech, begrime, bleach, beſmeare; alſo, maliciouſly to carpe, taunt, or deprae; alſo, to ſweep, or make cleane with a maulkin; alſo, to paddle, or pudder in the water.

Patrouilleur: m. A ſmeecher, begrimer, beſmearer; alſo, a malicious carper, or deprauer.

Patte: f. The paw, or foot of a beaſt; alſo, the footſtall of a pillar.

Patte de chat. Cats-foot, Alehoofe, Tunehoofe, ground Iuie, Gill creepe by the ground.

Patte de cheval. Horſe-foot, Colts-foot, Fole-foot, Hall-foot.

Patte de lion. Baſtard blacke Ellebore, Beares-foot, Setterwort, Settergraſſe; alſo, as Pied de lion.

Patte de loup. The Theſſalian, and loue-prouoking, Catanance; or as;

Patte louuine. Yellow, or black, Wolues-bane; moſt poiſonous hearbes.

Patte d'ours. Brankurſin, Beares-breech; called alſo by ſome, Beares-foot, or Beares-claw.

Patte d'oye. The fingers, or toes ioyned together; a deformitie in ſome new-borne children.

Couché à quatre pattes. Proſtrated, layed groueling.

Marcher à quatre pattes. To creep on all foure.

Patté: m.ée: f. Pawed, broad-footed.

Croix pattée. A croſſe Pattie, or croſſe Formie (in Blazon.)

Pattepeluë. Seeke Patepeluë.

Pattiner. To fumble, or handle too much; to hurt, or diſorder by much handling.

Pattouquis: m. The patting, or pelting ſound made by anuile-beating hammers.

Pattu. as Patu.

Patu: m.uë: f. Broad-pawed, ſplay-footed, or large footed.

Naſeaux patus. Wide narrells, great noſethrills.

Pigeon pátu. A rough-footed Doue.

Paturon de cheval. The paſterne of a horſe.

Pau: m. A ſtake.

Pavane: f. A Pauane.

se Pavaner. as se Pavonaſſer.

Pavanier: m. A Pauine-maker; a dauncer of Pauines.

Paucher les yeux. Looke Pocher.

Paucité: f. Paucitie, fewneſſe, little ſtore, ſmall number of.

Pavé: m. A pauement; a floore laied with ſtone, bricke, plaiſter, &c.

Batteur de pavez. A pauement-beater; a rakehell, vnthrift, looſe youth, diſſolute or debocht fellow; one that walkes much abroad, and riots it whereſoeuer he walkes.

Pavé: m.ée: f. Paued; layd, or floored with ſtone, brick, plaiſter, &c.

Pavement: m. A pauing.

Paver. To paue, to floore with ſtone, &c.

Paveſade. as Pavoiſade.

Paveſcher. To ſhield, ſhelter, ſhrowd, couer.

Paveur: m. A Pauer.

Pavide: com. Timerous, feareſull; quaking at euerie danger, ſtarting at euerie feather.

Pavidité: f. Dread, feare, timerouſneſſe.

Pavie: f. A baſtard Peach, or fruit like a Peach.

Pavigeade. Looke Pavoiſade.

Pavillon: m. A Pauillion, tent; or Tabernacle; alſo, the flag borne by an Admirall, or commaunding, ſhip.

Le pauillon d'vn lict. A Canopie for a bed; and ſometimes alſo, the (round) Teaſter of ſome kind of beds.

Pavis. as Pavie.

Paul: m. Paul (a proper name;) See Pol; alſo, as Pau.

Paulcer. as Pocher.

Paulé: m.ée: f. Staked, or ſet with ſtakes.

Paulle. An Italian coyne worth about 11 d. ſterl.

Paulme: m. as Palme.

Paulme: f. The paulme of the hand; alſo, a ball; (and hence) alſo, Tennis (play;) alſo, the Palme tree.

Paulme de Chriſt. Kicke, Ricinus, Palma Chriſti; an hearbe.

Paulme Dieu. The ſame.

Frapper en paulme. To clap, take, or ſhake by the fiſt in ſigne of a full agreement.

Sifflant en paulme je me rendray à vous. I will be with you as ſoone as euer you call; doe but whiſtle, I am for you.

Paulmelle: f. Beere Barlie, big Barlie, Barlie with the ſquare eare.

Paulpieres: f. Th'eye-lids; Looke Paupieres.

Paume. as Paulme.

Paumé. Orge paumé. Beere Barlie, big Barlie, ſquare-eared Barlie, big.

Teſte de cerf bien paumée. A full-paulmed Stags head.

Pau-

Paumée: f. A (v.m.)

Paumiere: f. A

Paumon: m. The

Paumoule: f. as

Pavois: m. A (gr

Pavoiſade: Any leyes, whereby th ſhot of the enemie

Pavoiſé: m.ée: f med with a Targ

se Pavoiſer. To ſh with a Targuet, o

Pavoiſier: m. A

se Pavonaſſer. To or ſet vp his Peac se Pavonner. The ble manner) to ta

Pavot: m. Poppie,

Pavot blanc. T

Pavot cornu. Poppie.

Pavot eſcuman

Pavot des Iarc kinds.)

Pavot noir. Bla Poppie, called alſ pie.

Pavot rouge. C that growes in co

Pavot ſauvage.

Pavoiſeux: m. A

Paupieres: f. The haire that growes

Priſe de paupier

Pauſe: f. A pauſe; demurre, delay.

Pauſement. Leaſu ſes.

Paute. as Patte:

Pautoniere. Looke

Pautonnerie: f. L rie; ſaucineſſe, ma

Pautonnier: m. A

Pautonniere: f. A borne, or ſaucie d

Pauvre. Seeke Pov

Pauvreté. as Povr

Pauzade: f. A pau ſeat, or place.

Pay. (A ſ e-imp

Payé: m.ée: f. Pa

Payelle: f. A litti panne.

Payement: m. A

Payen: m. A Pag

Payennerie: f. P countrey, of Pag

Payenneté: f. He

Payennie: f. as P

Payer. To pay, ſatis

Payer en gamb away in debt.

Il paye toutes p vſes one forme of vnto all; alſo, be

Il ne veut ny pla nor pay, contend

Paumée : f. A clap, ſtroke, or blow with the hand. (v.m.)
Paumiere : f. A woman Tennis-Court keeper.
Paumon : m. The Nauell-gall ; a horſes diſeaſe.
Paumoule : f. as Paulmelle.
Pavois : m. A (great) Shield, or Targuet.
Pavoiſade : Any Targuet-fence ; eſpecially that of Galleyes, whereby the ſlaues are defended from the ſmall ſhot of the enemie.
Pavoiſé : m. ée : f. Defended, ſhielded, couered, or armed with a Targuet, or with Targuet-fence.
se Pavoiſer. To ſhield, couer, defend, or arme himſelfe, as with a Targuet, or Targuet-fence.
Pavoiſier : m. A Targueteere.
se Pavonaſſer. To ſtrout it ; proudly to glorie in himſelfe, or ſet vp his Peacocks feathers.
se Pavonner. The ſame ; or (in better, and more tollerable manner) to take a prettie pride in himſelfe.
Pavot : m. Poppie, Cheesbowls.
Pavot blanc. The white-ſeeded garden Poppie.
Pavot cornu. Horned Poppie, ſea Poppie, yellow Poppie.
Pavot eſcumant. Spatling Poppie, frothie Poppie.
Pavot des Iardins. The garden Poppie (of diuers kinds.)
Pavot noir. Blacke garden Poppie, or blacke-ſeeded Poppie, called alſo, red Poppie ; and by ſome, wild Poppie.
Pavot rouge. Corne-roſe, wild Poppie ; the red flower that growes in corne.
Pavot ſauvage. as Pavot rouge.
Pavoiſeux : m. A Targueteere.
Paupieres : f. The eye-lids ; alſo, (but leſſe properly) the haire that growes at their edges.
Priſe de paupieres. Looke Priſe.
Pauſe : f. A pauſe ; a ſtop, reſt, repoſe, or ſtay ; a tarriance, demurre, delay.
Pauſement. Leaſurely, faire and ſoftly, with many pauſes.
Paute. as Patte : ¶Langued.
Pautoniere. Looke Pautonniere.
Pautonnerie : f. Lewdneſſe, knauerie, ſtubborne roguerie ; ſaucineſſe, malapertneſſe.
Pautonnier : m. A lewd, ſtubborne, or ſaucie knaue.
Pautonniere : f. A Shepheards ſcrip ; alſo, a lewd, ſtubborne, or ſaucie drab.
Pauvre. Seeke Povre.
Pauvreté. as Povreté.
Pauzade : f. A pauſing, reſting, repoſing ; alſo, a reſting ſeat, or place.
Pay. (A ſi[lence]-impoſing Interiection) Peace hoe.
Payé : m. ée : f. Payed ; requited ; ſatisfied, contented.
Payelle : f. A little round panne ; alſo, a little frying-panne.
Payement : m. A payment, or paying ; a ſatisfaction.
Payen : m. A Pagan, Paynim, Infidell, Heathen man.
Payennerie : f. Paganiſme, Heatheniſme ; the ſect, or countrey, of Pagans.
Payenneté : f. Heatheniſmeſſe.
Payennie : f. as Payennerie.
Payer. To pay, ſatisfie, content ; requite ; reward.
Payer en gambades. To make leg-paiments ; to runne away in debt.
Il paye toutes perſonnes en meſme monnoye. He vſes one forme of ſpeech, or giues one maner of answer, vnto all ; alſo, he vſes, or handles euerie one alike.
Il ne veut ny plaider ny payer. He will neither plead nor pay, contend nor content ; yeeld nor ſtriue.
Il s'a beau taire de l'eſcot qui ne paye rien : Prov. He needs not blame a ſhot that payes nought towards it ; he that will hold his purſe may hold his peace.
La faulx paye les prez : Prov. viz. Giues them their due.
Qui bien veut payer bien ſe doit obliger : Prov. Looke Obliger.
Qui pleige paye : Pro. The ſuretie (for the moſt part) payes the debt,
Payes. les mortes payes. Looke Morte-payes.
Payraſtre : m. A ſtepfather : ¶Langued.
Payeur : m. A payer ; alſo, a pay-maiſter.
De mauvais payeur foin, ou paille : Prov. Of a decaying, or diſhoneſt creditor take any thing.
Pays. Looke Païs.
Payſage. as Païſage.
Pe le quau. in ſtead of, Par le cor : ¶Gaſc. ¶Rab.
Peage : m. Toll ; a through-toll, or paſſage-toll.
Peageau. Tollable ; of toll.
Chemin peageau. Wherein toll may be taken.
Peager. Seigneur peager. That claimes, or takes, toll of ſuch as paſſe through his territorie.
Peager. To erect, raiſe, or impoſe, a toll.
Peagerie : f. Toll-taking ; alſo, a paſſage whereat, or libertie whereto, toll is due.
Peagier : m. A Toll-gatherer.
Peagier. as Peager ; or, Toll-gathering, toll-exacting.
Chemin peagier. Wherein toll is gathered, or taken.
Peau : f. A skin ; fell, hide, or pelt ; alſo, the pill, rind, or paring of fruit ; alſo, a ſcutchion, or ſhield charged onely with Argent, or white.
Peau de vieille. The name of an apple thats red on th'one ſide, and white and rugged on th'other.
La peau luy tient aux coſtes. He is clunged, or hidebound.
Tous compoſez d' vne meſme peau. All whelpes of a litter, or birds of a feather ; all of one faſhion, affection, diſpoſition.
Se ſervir de toutes peaux contre. To vſe all meanes, helpes, or defences ; to arme himſelfe any way, against.
Se tenir en ſa peau. To hold himſelfe within his limits ; to keepe himſelfe within the compaſſe whereto he was borne, or is fit.
Bon eſt le lievre dont la peau couſte cent ſous : Prov. Looke vnder Lievre.
Celuy a bon gage du chat qui en tient la peau : Prov. Looke Chat.
De mal eſt venu l' agneau, & à mal retourne la peau : Pro. Goods badly gotten ſeldome come to good.
En la peau de brebis ce que tu veux y eſcris : Prov. You may write what you liſt in a ſheepes skin.
En la peau ou le loup eſt luy convient mourir : Pro. He that liues like a Wolfe, ſhould die like a Wolfe.
Il faut diſcerner la peau de la chemiſe : Prov. Wee muſt put a difference betweene our skin, and our ſhirt.
Le loup mourra en ſa peau qui ne l'eſcorchera vif : Prov. See Loup.
Peaucier : m. A Skinner, Fellmonger, Leather-ſeller.
Peaucier : m. ere : f. Skinnie ; of, in, or belonging to, the skinne.
Muſcle peaucier. The fleſh of the face next vnder the skin, whereto it cleaues (in the lips, eye-lids, and forhead) almoſt inſeperably.
Peaultre : f. as Peautre.
Peauſſu : m. uë : f. Skinnie, or thicke-skinned ; alſo, limber, or flaggie, like the looſſe skinne of a withered bodie.
Peautraille : f. Scrapings, or offalls of skinnes ; and hence, a raſ- arascall, or base crue of scoundrells.

Peautraillerie: f. Scruue old stuffe of skinnes or leather.

Peautre: f. The sterne of a ship.

Peccadille: f. An escape, little sinne, small fault, veniall offence.

Peccant: m.ante: f. Sinning, offending, trespassing; also, offensiue; whence;

L'humeur peccante. The corrupt, or corrupting humor in the bodie.

Peccatrice: f. as Pechereſſe.

Pece. as Perrot; or, an Oake, or tree of a middle size.

Peché: m. A sinne, crime, fault, offence, trespasse, transgression; also, a pot of earth, or stone, &c.

Contre peché est vertu medecine: Pro. Vertue's a salue gainst sinne.

De grand peché grand pardon: &; De petit peché petit pardon: Prov. As is the fault so must the pardon be.

Vieux peché fait nouvelle honte: Prov. Looke Honte.

Charité oingr, & peché poind: Prov. Loue couers, hate increases, errours; or, loue is the soules baulme, sin her bane.

En coffre ouvert le iuste peché: Prov. An open coffer the theefe excuses.

Ou richesse est peché est: Prov. Where wealth is offences are.

Quand tous pechés sont vieux avarice est encore ieune: Prov. When all sinnes else be old is auarice young.

Pecher. To sinne, offend, trespasse, transgresse, commit a fault, faile in duetie, doe amisse.

Il peche sagement qui fait folie par conseil: Prov. He erres discreetly that erres by aduise.

Pechereſſe: f. A female sinner.

Pecheur: m. A sinner, transgressor, offendor, trespassor.

A grand pecheur esclandre: Prov. Shame is the lot of sinne.

Pecile. A pide, or skude colour of a horse.

Pecore: f. A sheepe; and sometimes (more generally) any simple, or sottish beast; whence;

Va va grosse pecore. Away thou filthie doult; &;

Il luy faudroit fendre les pieds, & l'envoyer paistre comme vne pecore. He is fitter to graze among cattell then to conuerse among men.

Pecoul: m. The taile, or arse; and (peculiarly) the staulke, steale, or taile of any fruit: ¶Langued.

Pect: m. (sometimes vsed) in stead of Pis; the breast, or vdder.

Pectoncle: m. A Cockle, or small Scallop.

Pectoral: m. A breastplate; petrell; stomacher, or stomack-cloth.

Pectoral: m.ale: f. Pectorall; of, or belonging to, the breast; also, breast-curing, breast-comforting, breast-defending.

Peculat: m. A robbing of the Princes, or publicke treasure; a conuerting it vnto his priuate vse by theeuerie, vsurie, &c.

Peculateur: m. One that robs the publicke treasure; or conuerts it, by indirect meanes, vnto his priuate vse.

Peculativement. By robbing of the Princes, or publick treasure.

Pecule: m. A stocke, or substance, gotten by priuate industrie, or toyle.

Peculier: m. ere: f. Peculiar, priuate, proper, ones owne.

Pecune: f. Coyne, money.

Pecuniaire: com. Pecuniarie, of money, in coyne.

Pecunieux: m. euſe: f. Well moneyed, full of money.

Pedagogie: f. An instructing, or teaching; th'Office of a Teacher; also, Pedantisme.

Pedagogisme: m. as Pedagogie.

Pedagogue: m. A Schoolemaister, Instructer, Teacher, Tutor, Pedant.

Pedales: f. (A horses) kickings, winsings, yearkings, or flingings out with the heeles.

Pedanées. Iuges pedanées. Countrey-Iudges, Iudges of villages, inferiour Iudges.

Pedant: m. A Pedant, or ordinarie Schoolemaister.

Pedanteries: f. Pedanticall humors, phrase-affectings, inkhorne-tearmes.

Pedantesque: com. Pedanticall, inkhornizing, pedantlike.

Pedantizer. To pedantize it, or play the Pedant; to domineere ouer lads; also, to inkhornize it.

Peder. for Petter; To fart: ¶Rab.

Pederotte: f. An Opall.

Pediculaire: com. Lowsie.

Pedicule: m. The staulke of a leafe, or of fruit.

Pedieux. A certaine muscle, which issuing from the heele, and going along on th'instup, ends in fiue little gristles, couched each on the side of a toe.

Pedion: m. The part of th'instup thats next vnto the toes, and containes fiue bones answerable vnto them.

Pegade: f. A glasse-full: ¶Langued.

Pegase: m. A Pegasus, or flying horse.

Pege: f. Pitch.

Pegé: m. ée: f. Pitched, bepitched.

Pegmate: m. A stage, or frame whereon Pageants be set, or carried.

Pegouse: f. A kind of Sole-fish, that hath eye-like spots on her backe.

Pehoune: f. Sea-coale, or stone-coale.

Peignarre: m. A combe-maker.

Peigne: m. A combe; also, as Metacarpe; also, as Parpaigne.

Peigne d'Aleman. Foure fingers and a thumb.

Peigne de Venus. Ladies combe, wild Cheruill, Shepheards-needle, mocke-Cheruill.

Faire vn peigne. To flie, auoid, giue the slip, slinke away.

Faire peigne vuide. The same.

Tuer vn mercier pour vn peigne. To take afore renenge of a sleight offence; or, to inflict a great penalitie on a small offendor.

Iamais teigneux n'aima le peigne: Pro. Those that are tainted loue no reprehension.

Peigné: m. ée: f. Combed.

Peigner. To combe.

Peignerre: m. A Combe-maker.

Peigneur: m. A comber; or as Peignier.

Peignier: m. A Combe-maker.

Peignoir: m. A comb-case.

Peignouoir. The same.

Peinct: m. cte: f. Painted, purtrayed, limned; spotted, speckled; coloured, or set out in liuelie colours; described, delineated.

Peinctre: m. A Painter, Pourtrayer, Limmer, Colourer.

Peincture: f. A picture, counterfeit, peece of painting; also, painting; th'Art, or act of Painting.

Sot en bosse, & platte peincture. An absolute foole, compleat asse, excellent gull, beyden in graine.

Le Marbre de soy n'a que faire de peincture: Pro. Looke Marbre.

Peinctu-

Peincturer. To picture, to paint.
Peindre. To paint, picture, pourtray; counterfeit, colour, or set out in colours; to delineate, or describe; also, to write.
Peindre à fraiz. Looke Fraiz.
Peindre és nuées. To attempt impossibilities, or to loose time.
Cela est pour nous achever de peindre. There wanteth but that to the filling vp of our misfortunes measure; that being once done we are vtterly vndone.
Peine: f. A paine, penaltie, forfeiture, punishment; also, paines, labour, toyle, swinke, trauell; indeuor; also, paine, trouble, restlesnesse, affliction, anguish, vexation, carke, thought.
Peine de faux. Death; Looke Faux.
Peine de hart. Hanging.
A peine. Scant, scarcely, hardly, not without much adoe.
I'ay peine à le croire. I can hardly beleeue it.
C'est grand' peine d'aller à cheval, & vne mort d'aller à pied: Prov. A toyle it is to ride, a death to goe on foot.
C'est grand peine que d'estre vieux, mais il ne l'est pas qui veut: Prov. Though it be painefull to be old, yet each one is not so that would.
Nuls biens sans peine: Prov. No goods (or good thing) without griefe.
Nul pain sans peine: Prov. &, Rien sans peine: Prov. Nor bread, nor ought is gotten without paines.
Qui d'autruy tromper se met en peine, souvent luy advient la peine: Prov. Hee that doth labour other to beguile, payes oftentimes full deerely for his wile.
Peiner. Looke Pener.
Peintre. as Peincture.
Peinture: f. as Peincture.
Pejorer. To impaire; to make, or grow worse.
Peis. as Poisson; A fish: ¶Gascon; & Provençal; whence;
Peis d'auriou. A Mackerell.
Peis carpa. The sea Carpe; See Carpe.
Peis escome. The sea Pike, or Spit-fish.
Peis espase. The sea Fox, or sea Dog-fish.
Peis de mesnage. as Belenne.
Peis mular. The huge fish called a whirlepoole.
Peis rey. The Kings fish; or, as Maigre.
Peis: m. The breast, &c; as Pis.
Pel: m. as Peau; also, lome, dawbing, or plaister for the walls of a house.
Pelade: f. The falling of the haire.
Pelage: m. Hairinesse; haire; also, the colour of the haire.
Pelain: m. A Tanners lime-pit.
Pelamide. as Palamide.
Pelard: m. A round, and pilled, or barked sticke.
Pelasse: f. The pilling of the skin; also, the paring of an apple, &c; also, the rinde, or barke of a tree.
Pelaudé: m. ée: f. Thwacked, swindged, canuassed, curried; vsed roughly, intreated rudely.
Pelauder. To thwack, swindge, belabour, canuasse, cudgell, currie soundly; to vse roughly, intreat hardly, handle rudely.
Pelauderie: f. A thwacking, a swindging, a canuassing, or cudgelling; rude handling, hard dealing with, rough intreatie of; also, filthie matter, beastlie, or ouglie stuffe.
Peldure. The name of a certaine hard-skind fig.
Pele: m. The boult of a locke.
Pelé: m. ée: f. Pild, haireless, bauld; also, pilled, flayed; barked.
Pelegrin. as Pelerin.
Pelement: m. A pilling; a pulling off the haire; a paring, or barking of.
Peler. To bauld, or pull the haire off; also; to pill, pare, barke, vnrinde, vnskinne.
Il en pelera la prune. He will smart, or be plagued, for it; he is like to haue the worst of it.
Aller, & venir font le chemin peler: Prov. Much trauelling makes bad way.
Nul ne pele son fromage qui n'y ait honte, ou dommage: Prov. No man pares his cheese without shame, or losse.
Pelerin: m. A Pilgrim, Palmer, wanderer, way-faring man; a trauellerin a strange countrey; also, a fantasticall, giddie, harebraind, or odde-humored fellow; also, a kind of long-winged, small-trained, and great-headed Faulcon; and (more generally) the Faulcon tearmed a Passenger.
Dieu sçait qui est bon pelerin: Prov. God knowes who's a good Pilgrim; the hearts of Pilgrims are best knowne to God.
Le rouge soir, & blanc matin, font resjouïr le pelerin: Prov. The euening red and morning gray, are hopefull signes of a faire day.
Pelerin: m. ine: f. Peregrine, forraine, strange, way-faring, wandering.
Faulcon Pelerin. A Passenger; or, as before in Pelerin.
Pelerinage: m. A Peregrination, or Pilgrimage.
Pelerinant: m. ante: f. Peregrinating, wandering, or going on Pilgrimage.
Pelerine: f. A Pilgrimesse; a woman that goes on Pilgrimage.
Pelerine de Venus. A punke, a whore.
Pelet: m. A little haire.
Ie ne l'en estime vn pelet moins. I thinke not a iot the worse of him for it.
Pelican: m. The bird called a Pellican; also, a Snap, or Dog; the toole wherewith Barbers pull out teeth.
Pelication: f. A depilatorie, or pitchie plaister seruing to pull off haire.
Pelice: f. A skin of furre.
Pelicé: m. ée: f. Furred.
Pelicieux: m. euse: f. Penne-pelicieuse. A dissolute, wanton, or lasciuious penne.
Pelis: m. The short wooll, or growth of wooll, vpon sheep which haue beene shorne some little time before, pulled from their fells by the Tawyer, &c.
Peliſſe. as Pelice.
Peliſſon: m. A furd petticoat, or frocke; also, a kind of white meat much vsed in Poictou.
Pellage. Looke Pelage.
Pelle: m. The boult of a locke.
Pelle: f. as Paelle; also (in some parts of France) as Robbe.
Pelleboſſe: f. Looſe-strife, Willow hearbe, or hearbe Willow.
Pellerelle: f. The shooting, or falling of the haire (by disease, or infirmitie.)
Pellet: m. The 24 part of a Prime; (an exceeding small weight;) Looke Prime.
Pelleterie: f. The trade, or shop of a Skinner, Furrier, or Pelimonger.
Pelletier: m. A Skinner, Fellmonger; Furrier; whence;
En fin les regnards se trouvent chez le pelletier: Prov. At length doe subtilitie, and villanie meet with their meed.

Pellican : m. as Pelican ; alſo, a veſſell of circulation, or extraction ; a faſhion of Lymbeck.
Pellicule : f. A little skinne, a ſmall or thinne rinde.
Pelliculeux : m. cuſe : f. Full of little skinnes, or thinne rindes.
Pellucide : com. Bright, ſhining.
Pelon : m. Th' outmoſt rugged huske of a greene Cheſtnut.
Pelorde : f. A certain little, and thick-ſheld Cockle, that lines, and lyes, altogether hid in the mud.
Pelloſſes : f. Bullace ; or, little wild plummes.
Pelote : f. A (hand)ball, or tennis ball ; any little ball to play with ; See Pelotte.
Peloter. To play at ball ; alſo, to toſſe like a ball.
Peloton : m. A clue, or (round) bottome of thread, &c.
Pelotte : f. as Pelote ; alſo, a ſmall casket to keepe rings in.
Pelotte marine. A ball, or little bundle of haire, commonly found among moſſe which the working of the ſea hath caſt aſhore.
Il iouë de moy à la pelotte. Hee toſſes me vp and downe at his pleaſure, he handles me as he liſts himſelfe.
Pelourde. as Pelorde.
Pelouſe : f. A Bullace, or Sloe ; alſo, a little hill ; alſo, the lower hazard in a Tennis-court ; alſo, a womans priuities.
Pelouze. as Pelouſe.
Pelu : m. uë : f. Hairie, full of, rough with, haire.
Pate peluë. See Patepeluë.
Peluche : f. Shag, pluſh.
Peluette : f. The hearbe Mouſe-eare.
Pelure : f. The pill, skin, rinde, or paring of fruit ; alſo, the pilling, or white and inner rinde, of trees.
Peluſſe : f. as Pelure, eſpecially in the laſt ſence.
Penade : f. A bounding, prauncing ; bragging, vaunting, brauing it.
Penader. To bound, praunce ; brag, vaunt, braue it ; Looke se Pennader.
Penaillons : m. Rags, tatters ; patches, old clowts.
Penal : m. ale : f. Penall, inflicting penalties.
Penancier. as Penencier.
Penard : m. A melancholie old man ; a ſelfe-afflicting Menedemus ; or a poore abaſhed fellow, whoſe head hangs continually downewards, either for ſhame, or as a true ſigne of his miſerie ; alſo, a feather, or plume of feathers ; (and ſometimes) alſo, as the Latine Penis ; a mans yard.
Penates. ¶Rab. Houſhold Gods.
Penault : m. A Bourgonian meaſure containing twelue Quarts.
Penault : m. aude : f. Abaſhed, aſhamed, out of countenance.
Pencer. Looke Pancher.
Pencher. as Pancher.
Penchon : m. A declining, or weightie inclining ; weightie preſſure, or a ſtooping, or bowing through weight.
Pend. de guet à pend. Wittingly, willingly.
Pendable : com. Hangable, that deſerues hanging, thats fit to be hanged.
Cas pendable. A hanging matter.
Pendage : m. A hanging.
Pendant : m. A pendant ; a hanger ; any thing that hangeth, or whereat another thing hangs.
Les pendans d'une bourſe. The ſtrings of a purſe.
Pendant de clef. A key-clog ; or the ſtring whereat keyes are hanged.
Les pendants d'un Cor. The ſtrings, and taſſells of a Hutchet.
Pendant d'oreille de gibet. One that excellently becomes, or would become, a gibbet.
Elle s'en va par le pendant. So ſay they of a purſe whoſe ſtrings are almoſt worne in peeces ; alluding whereto they ſay likewiſe of one thats going, or like, to be hanged, Il s'en va par le pendant.
Pendant : m. ante : f. Hanging ; depending, ſuſpended ; ſlooping, declining, dangling or falling downwards.
Seau pendant à double queuë. A Seale hanging by a double labell ; and metaphorically, one that hangs on a paire of gallowes.
Pendant cela. (Aduerbially ;) in the meane while, in the meane time, in the meane ſeaſon.
Pendant que. Whiles ; or, the whileſt, that.
Cependant. Looke Cependant.
Pendante : f. A labell pendant.
Pendard : m. A rakehell, crackrope, gallowclapper ; one for whom the gallowes longeth.
Pendardeau : m. A little crackrope, young ſlipſtring.
Pendement : m. A hanging.
Pendentif : m. The key or ſcutchion of a vault ; that which hangs directly downe in the middle thereof.
En pendentif. Steepe-hanging, ſteepe-downe ; or as, A dos d'Aſne, vnder Dos.
Pendereau. as Pendardeau.
Penderie : f. A hanging.
Pendeſyllable : com. Of fiue ſillables.
Pendiculation : f. A pendiculation ; or, a ſtretching in th' approach of an Ague.
Pendillant : m. ante : f. Dangling, hanging looſely, or hanging but by a ſlie.
Pendille. A thing that hangs danglingly.
Pendiller. To hang danglingly, looſely, or but by halues.
Pendiloches : f. Jags, danglings, or things that hang danglingly.
Pend-oreille. A Pendant.
Pendre. To hang, ſtoope, incline, or bow, downewards ; to hang, dangle, fall, or lye downe, vpon ; to hang, depend, reſt, or ſtay, on ; to hang ouer, about, or vnto ; alſo, to hang, twitch vp, or ſtrangle, on a paire of gallowes, &c.
Pendre à l'oreille. Seeke Oreille.
Dire pis que pendre. To reuile, or extreamly raile on.
Il leur en pend autant à l'oeil. They are as much ſubiect vnto this miſchiefe, they are in as great danger euerie way ; they muſt one day drink of the ſame cup, taſt of the ſame ſauce, run the ſame courſe.
Argent fait pendre les gens : Pro. Money brings many a man to the gallowes.
Les gros larrons menent pendre les petits : Prov. as vnder Larron.
Nul ne ſçait ce qu'à l'oeil luy pend : Prov. No man knowes how neere he is to a miſchiefe, or, what miſerie may befall him.
Ou rendre, ou pendre, ou mort d'enfer attendre : Prov. A thiefe muſt reſtore, or be hang'd, or looke to be damd.
Qui a à pendre n'a pas à noyer : Prov. He thats ordaind to be hangd will neuer be drownd (ſay we.)
Qui plus qu'il n'a vaillant deſpend, il fait la corde à quoy ſe pend : Prov. He that diſpends more then he hath, makes vp a rope his necke to ſwith.
Pendu : m. uë : f. Hanged ; hanging.
Langue bien penduë. A ſmooth, glib, eloquent, or well-ſpeaking tongue.
Procez pendu au croc. See Croc.
Relaſche de pendu. A graceleſſe crackrope, or, one for whom the gallowes graues.
Pene : m. The boult of a locke.

Peneau: m. A Flag, or Streamer; alſo, a rag, or tatter; (and in ſome parts of France) alſo, a ſlut, or ſlatterne.

Peneliere. as Penil.

Penencier: m. He that after confeſſion made, or a notorious offence committed, enioyneth the confeſſant, or offendor, his penance.

Pener. To trauell, toyle, ſwinke, labour extreamely, doe his vtmoſt indeuor, take great paines; alſo, to vex, trouble, moleſt, put vnto paine.

Penetratif: m. iue: f. Penetratiue, piercing, or entring into, ſearching, or paſſing through.

Penetrer. To penetrate; pierce, enter, ſearch, or ſinke into; alſo, to paſſe through.

Peneuſement. Deiectly, heartleſly; demiſſely, lowlily; in a dumpe, at a plunge or a nonplus.

Peneux: m. euſe: f. Deiected, heartleſſe, diſcouraged, diſmayed, out of countenance with himſelfe, in a pitifull or miſerable taking; pitifully complayning, humble, abiect, lowlie, demiſſe.

La ſemaine pencuſe. The Paſſion weeke.

Penible: com. Painfull, toileſome, laborious.

Penide: f. A Pennet; the little wreath of ſugar taken in a cold.

Penidial. ſucre pen. Fine white ſugar whereof Pennets be made; alſo, the Pennets themſelues.

Penil: m. A mans, or (moſt properly) a womans groine.

Os du penil. The ſharre-bone; or, as Os barré; in Os.

Penillier: m. ere: f. Belonging to the groine; whence;

Os penillier. as Os du Penil.

Penillons. Looke Penaillons.

Peninſule: f. A Peninſula, or halfe Iſland.

Penit: m. French-wheat, Black-wheat, Bolymong; (a courſe graine:) ¶Pic.

Penitence: f. Penitence, penance, repentance.

Rouge viſage, & groſſe pance ne ſont ſignes de penitence: Prov. Looke Pance.

Penitencier. as Penencier; or, the Prieſt, &c, that inioyneth penances.

On te doit envoyer au penitencier. Thou haſt need to be ſhriuen; or, thou muſt be quickly looked to, or elſe thou wilt be worſe then naught.

Penitencieux: m. euſe: f. Penitentious, verie penitent, moſt repentant.

Penitent. Penitent, repentant, aggrieued at, ſorrowing for, troubled in mind with, what he hath done.

Filles penitentes. as Filles repenties, vnder Fille.

Pennache: m. A bunch, or plume, of feathers; alſo, one great feather bent backe vpon, or couched flatling about, a hat, or cap after th'old French faſhion.

Pennache de boeuf. A faire paire of hornes.

Pennache de mer. Is neither fiſh, nor plant, but a certaine creature or excreſcence of the ſea, which at one end reſembles a feather, and th'vncouered nut of a mans yard at th'other; and by night ſhines like a ſtarre.

Pennade. as Penade.

ſe Pennader. To brag, boaſt, or braue it; to make a proud flouriſh, or vaine muſter of himſelfe in publicke; alſo, to bound, or prannce like a proud horſe.

Pennage: m. A birds coat, or feathers; alſo, as Paſnage.

Pennarol de Chirurgien. A Chirurgians Caſe or Ettuy; the box wherein he carries his Inſtruments.

Penne: f. A quill, or hard feather; a pen-feather; alſo, the feather of an arrow; alſo, furre, or furring.

Pennes. The raſters on the roofe of a houſe; called ſo, becauſe they ſomewhat reſemble the ſpread wings of a bird.

Penne de foye. as Lobe.

Penne d'un voile: c'eſt l'aile de la voile enfilée en bouline. We call it, the Leech of a ſayle.

Bouter vent en penne. To bring a ſhip vpon the lee.

Mettre en penne. The wind to take a ſhip vpon the ſtayes.

Penneton d'un clef. The bit, or neb of a key.

Pennon: m. A Pennon; Flag, or Streamer.

Les pennons d'une fleiche. The feathers of an arrow.

Pennonceau; ou Pennoncel: m. A Pennon on the top of a Launce; a little Flag, or Streamer.

Pennule. (The diminutiue of Penon.) A ſmall peece, part of a thing (eſpecially of fleſh, or of our bodie) not altogether ſeparated from the whole.

Penon: m. A peece, or part of a thing, not altogether ſeparated from it; ſuch as be the laps, or napes of the liuer; called Penons by the vulgar of Languedoc.

Pens. as Penſée; or Penſement; whence;

De guet à pens. Wittingly, willingly, with premeditation, of ſet purpoſe.

Penſé: m. ée: f. Thought, weened, deemed, imagined, ſuppoſed, coniectured; weighed in mind, perpended, examined, conſidered of.

De faict à penſé. as De guet à pens.

Penſée: f. A thought, ſuppoſall, coniecture, ſurmiſe, cogitation, imagination; ones heart, mind, inward conceit, opinion, fancie, or iudgement; alſo, the flower Paunſie.

De guet à penſée. as De guet à pens.

Il me vient en penſée que. My mind giues me, my heart tells me, it comes into my head, that.

Penſement: m. as Penſée; or, a thinking, weening, imagining; alſo, a tending, dreſſing, or looking to; a curing, or Phyſicking of.

Penſer. To thinke, weene, deeme, iudge, imagine, ſuppoſe, coniecture, ſurmiſe; haue an opinion, or be of opinion, that; alſo, to ſtudie, muſe, meditate, conſider of; pauſe, or deliberate vpon; examine, weigh, ponder, perpend, reuolue, or caſt, in mind; alſo, to dreſſe, tend, looke vnto, haue a care of, prouide for, furniſh with all neceſſaries; alſo, to dreſſe, Phyſicke, applie medecines vnto.

Penſer à ſoy. To bethinke himſelfe, to call vnto mind.

Penſer ailleurs. The mind to be vpon ſomewhat elſe, the wits to run a wooll-gathering; no way to mind whats gone about.

Mal penſe qui ne repenſe: Prov. He thinks not well that thinks of all at once; or thinks not more then once.

Il eſt bien toſt deceu qui mal ne penſe: Prov. The harmeleſſe minded man is ſoone deceiued.

Le loup ſçait bien que male beſte penſe: Pro. One knaue can eaſily gheſſe at the drift of another.

Mettez fol à par ſoy il penſera: Pro. Looke Fol.

Quand les yeux voyent ce que ne veirent oncques le cocur penſe ce qu'il ne penſa oncques: Prov. When th'eyes behold vnwoonted things vnwoonted thoughts poſſeſſe the heart.

Penſereſſe: f. A woman that thinketh, imagineth; muſeth, or careth much.

Penſeur: m. A thinker, imaginer, ſuppoſer; alſo, one that vſes to ſtudie, muſe, or deliberate, on matters.

Penſeuſe: f. as Penſereſſe.

Penſif: m. ive: f. Penſiue, beauie, thoughtfull, careſull; alſo, thinking of; and hence;

Fille oiſive à mal penſive: Prov.

Penſil: m. ile: f. (Sleightly) hanging.

Verrue pensile. A great wart that hangs but by a small thread, or root.

Pension: f. A pension, stipend, fee; an yerelie payment; also, money payed for the tabling, or boording of children, &c.

Pensioniste: m. A Pensioner.

Pensionnaire: com. A Pensioner; one that hath, or payeth, an yearelie pension; also, a tabler, or boorder; also, a Scholler, who lyes within a Colledge, and is tied, and subiect, onely vnto it; therein differing from Galloche, who lying abroad, is at more libertie.

Pensionné: m. ée: f. Pensioned, stipended, hired by pension, that takes an yearelie stipend.

Pensiveté: f. Pensiueneſſe, carke, ſorrow, heauineſſe.

Pent d'un rets. A whole pane, peece, or fould of a Net.

La figure hexagone à six pents. Hauing six Cants.

Pentagone: com. Fiue-cornered.

Pentametre: m. A Pentameter, or verſe conſiſting of fiue feet.

Pentaphylle. Cinkefoyle, Cinkefield, Fiue-finger graſſe, Fiue-leaued graſſe.

Pente: f. The declining, downeward bent, ſlopeneſſe, or ſlope-hanging of a hill, ditch, roofe, &c; alſo, a peece of hanging; alſo, an inclining towards a fall.

Les pentes d' vn lict. The Valance.

Donner de pente à. (In wraſtling) to giue an aduantage vnto.

Penteur: m. A Penant; the name of one of the ropes which paſſe ouer the top, or vpper part, of a Maſt.

Penthiere. as Panthiere.

Penture: f. The hindge of a doore.

Penule: f. A long cloake fit to be worne in rainie weather.

Penurie: f. Penurie, ſcarcitie, need, neceſſitie, dearth, lacke, want.

Peône: f. Peonie, Kings-bloome, Roſe of the Mount.

Pepelon: m. The nipple of a dug.

Pepetiller. To crackle, or ſparkle often.

Pephage. Looke Pamphage.

Pepiant: m. ante: f. Cheeping, peeping, puling, or crying like a yonng bird; alſo, liſping.

Pepie: f. The Pip.

Pepiement: m. The cheeping, or peeping of yong birds; any ſuch puling noiſe; alſo, a liſping, or faultering in ſpeech.

Pepier: m. as Pepiement.

Pepier. To peepe, cheepe, or pule, as a young bird in the neaſt; alſo, to liſpe.

Pepier de ſoif. The tongue to peele by reaſon of an extreame thirſt.

Pepieur: m. A peeper, cheeper; puler.

Pepin: m. A Pippin, or kernell; the ſeed of fruit.

Les pepins des raiſins. The ſtones of grapes.

Or de pepin. Looke Or.

Pepinerie: f. A Seed-plot, Nurſerie, Nurſing Orchard, or part of an Orchard, wherein the pippins, kernells, or ſtones of fruit be ſowen.

Pepiniere: f. as Pepinerie.

Pepin-percé. (The name of) a certaine drie ſweet apple.

Pepon: m. A Pompion, or Melon.

Pepon Turquois. as Pompon Turquois.

Pepré: m. ée: f. Peppered; ſeaſoned with Pepper.

Pequatille: f. A Peccadillo; or as Peccadille.

Peque: f. A mare.

Per: m. as Pair; A Peere; or Paragon; alſo, a match, make, fellow, companion; alſo, a paire, at game; alſo, a game at Cards wherein foure rewes be laid; one for a paire; the ſecond for moſt of a ſuit; the third for fluſh; and the fourth for a ſequence.

Per à compaignon. A Peere, match, mate, equall fellow, comerade.

Per ou non per. The game called Euen and odde.

Il entend bien ſon per. He vnderſtands well ynough what he goes about.

Pris à per et à la couche. as in Pris.

Peragration: f. A peragration, going about, wandring through, trauelling ouer.

Perameſe: f. A Ninth, or a proportion of nine, in Muſicke.

Peratre. as Paraſtre.

Perattendre. To attend throughly, or ſeaſonably; to attend vntill he haue a fit opportunitie; whence;

Mal attend que ne perattend: Prov.

Perce: f. as Percement; alſo, that kind of Loach which hath a prickle neere vnto either of her gills.

Mettre le vin en perce. To pierce, or broach wine.

Percé: m. ée: f. Pierced, bored, gored, thruſt into, or through; transfixed; open, full of holes, or windowes.

Chaire percée. A cloſe ſtoole.

Perce-fueille: f. Through-wax, through-leafe; (an hearbe.)

Percele. Blew-bottle, Blew-blaw, Corne-flower.

Perce-lettre: f. The little inſtrument wherewith Secretaries make ouertures for the labells with which they cloſe their letters.

Percellé: m. ée: f. Pierced, ſtrucken; ouerthrowne, beaten downe; abated; abaſhed, appalled; vexed, troubled.

Percement: m. A piercing, boring, or goring; a thruſting into, or through.

Perc'-oreille. (The worme, or Inſect called) an Earewig.

Perce-pain. as Perce-oreille.

Percepceux: m. euſe: f. (fruicts percepceus.) Taken, gathered, receiued.

Percepierre: f. (A generall name for moſt ſtone-breaking hearbes; but chiefly for thoſe which we call) Saxifrage, and Samphire.

Percepierre rouge. Red Saxifrage, Filipendula, Dropwort.

Perceptible: com. Perceptible; perceiuable, apprehenſible, ſenſible; alſo, takeable, gatherable, receiuable.

Perception: f. A perception; a perceiuing, apprehending, vnderſtanding; alſo, a gathering, taking, receiuing, of.

Percer. To pierce, gore, transfix; thruſt into, bore through.

Percer vne maiſon. To breake open, or into, a houſe.

Percer le mors. A horſe to thruſt his tongue with eaſe, and at libertie, vnder the Port of his Bit.

Percet: m. A Peach.

Perceu: m. euë: f. Taken, gathered, receiued.

Perche: f. A pearch to hang things, or ſet Hawkes, on; alſo, the Pearch-fiſh; alſo, the Beame of a Bucks head, and, the broach of a Stags; alſo, the pearch, pole, or big rod wherwith land is meaſured; and which though it contain not, all France ouer, one and the ſame number of feet (for in ſome places it is 20, in others 22, in others 25, and in others but 18 (the moſt generall, and moſt vſuall one) yet is it euerie where ſix fadomes, or Toiſes, the different ſcantling whereof, cauſes ſo great a difference of Perches, in ſeuerall places.

Les perches d'un bouc ſauvage. The head, or hornes of a wild Goat.

Per-

Perche de mer. The ſea Pearch; a wholeſome, rough-find, and tongueleſſe, rocke-fiſh.

Perché: m. ée: f. Pearched, placed, or ſet (as a bird) on a pearch, or on the bough of a tree; alſo, propped, ſupported, or vnderſet with pearches, or poles.

Il l'a perché à vn arbre. He hath hanged him on a tree.

Percher. To ſet, or put on a pearch; alſo, to alight; alſo, to ſit, or pearch (as a bird) on a tree; alſo, to hang, or twitch vp, at a bow; alſo, as Percer.

Percheûx: m. euſe: f. Belonging to, or full of, pearches.

Perclorre. To benumme, ſtrike or make lame, take away the vſe of the limmes.

Perclus de ſes membres. Taken, blaſted, ſtriken, benummed, ſuddenly growne lame, or depriued of the vſe, of his limmes.

Oeil perclus. An eye that cannot moue becauſe the muskles belonging to it are benummed.

Percluſion: f. A blaſting, lameneſſe, or numneſſe in the members.

Perdable: com. Looſable; fit, or likelie, to be loſt.

Perdement: m. A looſing, a forgoing.

Perdeur: m. A looſer.

Eſchar plaidoyeur eſt hardi perdeur: Prov. The miſerable pleader is a miſerable ſpeeder; the ſparing of a fee is often the ſpoyle of a cauſe.

Perdigonne: f. The name of an excellent plumme.

Perdition: f. Perdition, deſtruction, extreame loſſe, vndoing, ruine.

Perdre. To looſe; to caſt away; to ouerſlip, omit, let goe; alſo, to marre, ſpoyle, or ſpend idly.

se Perdre. To periſh, to decay; to ſlip, runne, fall, or goe away.

Perdre les ambles. il y perdit les ambles. There was he put beyond his bias, or out of all patience; he knew not how to carrie, or how to containe, himſelfe when he came thither.

Perdre l'inſtance; & perdre le procez. To be ouerthrowne, or haue the worſe in a ſuit; to be caſt, or his cauſe to goe againſt him.

Perdre pied. Il y perdoit pied. There he loſt ground; he was put to his ſhifts, or to his plunges, there.

Ie n'en perds que l'attente. Tis but a little tarrying for it.

A gens de bien on ne perd rien: Prov. He that deales with honeſt men is ſeldome, or neuer a looſer; one looſes nought by good men.

Apres perdre perd on bien: Prov. One ill lucke ſucceeds in the necke of another; or, when one begins to looſe he leaues not vntill all be gone.

A tout perdre il n'y a qu'un coup perilleux: Pro. One right-ſet blow would ſerue to ſinke vs all.

Argent fait perdre gent: Prov. Looke Argent.

Aſſeurement chante qui n'a que perdre: Pro. And who doth ſing ſo merrie a note as he that cannot change a grote?

Aſſez gaigne qui malheur perd: Prov. He gaines ynough that miſſes a misfortune.

En ſeureté dort qui n'a que perdre: Prov. He that can looſe nought ſleepes with great ſecuritie.

Il faut perdre vn veron pour peſcher vn ſaulmon: Prov. One muſt ſpend a little to gaine much.

Il ne perd rien qui ne perd Dieu: Prov. Hee that keepes God to friend can nothing looſe.

Marchand qui perd ne peut rire: Prov. We ſay, they laugh that win.

On ne doit point querir brebis qui ſe veut perdre: Prov. A wilfull ſinner muſt not be reclaimd.

Par trop preſſer l'anguille on la perd: Prov. Seeke Anguille.

Qui perd le ſien perd le ſens: Prov. He that looſes his wealth looſes his wit.

Qui a à perdre perd touſiours: Prov. The rich man looſes ſomewhat euerie day; or, he thats ordaind to looſe is euer looſing.

Qui ne retire de ſa vache que la queuë ne perd pas tout: Prov. He that recouers but the tayle of his cow looſes not all his cow; better ſaue a little then looſe all.

Qui preſte à l'amy perd au double: Prov. viz. Both money, and friend.

Qui tout convoite tout perd: Prov. He that couets all, keepes, or comes by, nothing.

Perdreau: m. A young Partridge.

Perdriau. as Perdreau.

Perdris. as Perdrix.

Perdriſeur: m. A Partridger, or Partridge-taker; alſo, an Officer that hath the commaund of that Game, in France.

Perdrix: f. A Partridge.

La Perdrix des Archers de la garde du Roy. A ſheepes head (wherewith commonly they breake their faſts.)

Perdrix blanche de Savoye. as Arbenne.

Perdrix des champs. Th'ordinarie Partridge.

Perdrix gaille, gaule, or gaye. The great browne-bodied, and red-legd Partridge, the French Partridge.

Perdrix goache. as Perdrix griesche.

Perdrix griesche. Th'ordinarie, or little, Partridge.

Perdrix grignette, gringette, & grille. as Perdrix griesche.

Perdrix maillée. A Menild, or ſpotted Partridge.

Perdrix de mer. The Sole-fiſh.

Perdrix de montaigne. as Francolin, in the laſt ſenſe.

Perdrix rouge, ou aux pieds rouges. The great red-legd Partridge.

Perdrix des terres neuves. The Guinnie Henne.

Oeil de Perdrix. Looke Oeil.

Perdu: m. uë: f. Loſt, periſhed; forlorne, paſt hope of recouerie, caſt away; forgone, omitted, ouerſlipped, run, or fallen away; alſo, lewd, naughtie, wicked, vngracious, or paſt grace.

Coup perdu. See Coup.

Enfans perdus. Perdus; or the forlorne hope, of a campe (are commonly Gentlemen of Companies.)

Fille perduë. A punke, whore, harlot, common hackney.

Gens perdus. as Enfans perdus; alſo, retchleſſe, or deſperate people.

A corps perdu. Deſperately, headlong, without any care at all of his skinne.

A pierre perduë. Hab nab, euen as they fall, one with another.

Il a perdu ſa ceincture. He hath neither money, nor meanes, left him; all is conſumed, all waſted, all gone.

Bien faict n'eſt iamais perdu: Prov. Neuer came loſſe by doing a good deed.

Choſe perduë eſt lors cogneuë: Prov. We know the worth of things when we haue loſt them.

De choſe perduë le conſeil ne ſe reme: Prov. In vaine we goe to law when things be loſt.

Tout eſt perdu ce qu'on donne à fol: Prov. All thats beſtowed on fooles is caſt away.

Tout ce que giſt en peril n'eſt pas perdu: Prov. All is not loſt that in ſome danger is.

Perduelliſme : m. Treaſon againſt Prince, or Countrey.
Perdurable : com. Perdurable, perpetuall, euerlaſting, aye-during.
Perdurablement. Perpetually, euerlaſtingly, for euer.
Pere : m. A father ; alſo, an auncient Monke, or Frier, eſpecially if he be a Confeſſor ; alſo, a Ieſuite, or the Title of a Ieſuite.
Beau pere. Looke Beaupere.
Hommes, & peres de la Cour. as Pairs.
Ils ſont à table aiſes comme peres. (Whoſe bellies being filled their greateſt care is taken.)
A pére, à maiſtre, à Dieu tout puiſſant, nul ne peut rendre l'equivalent : Prov. No man can doe ynough for his father, maiſter, and Maker.
A pere amaſſeur fils gaſpilleur : Pro. A warie father hath a waſtfull ſonne ; The like is ;
De pere gardien fils garde-rien : Pro.
Celuy là eſt bien pere qui nourrit : Prov. He that doth feed, or foſter me, may well be called my father.
Peré : m. Perrie ; drinke made of Peares.
Peregrin : m. A ſtranger, forrainer, alien, outlander, or outlandiſh man.
Peregrin : m. ine : f. Peregrine, forraine, alien, ſtranger, outlandiſh.
Faulcon peregrin. A paßenger.
Peregrination : f. A peregrination, farre iourney, long trauell, pilgrimage.
Peregriner. To trauell, take long iourneyes, wander in ſtrange countries, goe on pilgrimage.
Peregrineux : m. euſe : f. as Peregrin.
Peregrinité : f. Strangeneſſe, outlandiſhneſſe, forraineneße, forraine ſpeech, habit, cuſtome, behauior, &c.
Peremption d'inſtance. A Nonſuite, or letting a ſuit fall ; a quitting, or forſaking of a cauſe.
Peremptoire, & deciſif du procez. A peremptorie rule which determines a cauſe.
Peremptoire : com. Peremptorie, inſulting, imperious ; abſolute ; forcible ; earneſt, that will haue no nay ; alſo, preſent, ſudden.
Adjournement peremptoire. A peremptorie ſummons, after which no day will be giuen, but the cauſe forthwith proceeded in.
Peremptoirement. Peremptorily, imperiouſly ; earneſtly ; abſolutely ; preſently, ſuddenly, without further delay.
Peremptoriſé. Heritage peremptoriſé. Whoſe challengers, hauing after ſummons made default, are no more admitted to proſecute, or continue their claime.
Peremptoriſer. To peremptoriſe ; to grant, or paſſe away peremptorily ; or (as in Peremptoriſé*) to exclude a challenger after a default made by him.*
Perenne : com. Perpetuall, continuall, endleſſe, ay-during, without ceaſing, euerlaſting.
Eau perenne. Continually running, neuer drie.
Perennel : m. elle : f. as Perenne.
Perenniſer. To perpetuate, eternize, make euerlaſting.
Perennité : f. Perennitie, eternitie, perpetuitie, euerlaſtingneſſe.
Perequant : m. An equall rater, taxer, aſſeſſor of others ; or, one that gathers head-money.
Perequant : m. ante : f. Equalling ; alſo, rating equally.
Perequation : f. A perequation ; an equalling, or making euen ; alſo, an equall rating, taxation, eaſement.
Perfection : f. Perfection, compleatneſſe, accompliſhment, abſoluteneſſe ; the full ending, or whole finiſhing, of Perfectionner. To perfect, or bring to perfection ; to accompliſh, end wholly, finiſh abſolutely.
Perfigue : f. A Peare-plumme.
Perfiguier : m. A Peare-plumme tree.
Perflable : com. Which may be blowne through.
Perfoliate : f. Through-wax, through-leafe ; (an herb.)
Perforatif : m. iue : f. Boring, piercing, or thruſting through.
Perfumé : m. ée : f. Perfumed, ſweetened throughly.
Perfumement : m. A perfuming.
Perfumer. To perfume, ſweeten throughly, or giue a ſweet ſent vnto.
Perfumeur : m. A Perfumer.
Perfums : m. Perfumes, pleaſant fumes, delicate ſmels, gracious odors.
Perger. To proceed, or goe on.
Pergude. Periſhed, loſt : ¶ Gaſc.
Peri : m. ie : f. Periſhed, loſt, gone ; aboliſhed, annulled, ſpoyled.
Peris en croix, en face, ou en pal, &c. In Croſſe, in Feſſe, in Pale, &c ; a tearme of Blazon.
Periapte. A medecine hanged about any part of the bodie.
Pericarde : m. The membrane, filme, or ſlender skinne wherein the heart is wrapped.
Pericardique : com. Of, or belonging to, the Pericardium ; whence, Veine pericardique : Looke Veine.
Pericharie : f. Extreſſiue ioy.
Periclimene ; ou, Periclymene. The Woodbind, or Honie-ſuckle.
Pericliter. To ieopard, hazard, endanger.
Pericraine : m. The Pericranion, hairie ſcaulpe, whole skinne of the ſcull.
Perier : m. The giſerne of a Henne, &c.
Perigée : m. The point of heauen wherein any Planet is neereſt vnto the center of the earth.
Peril : m. Perill, danger, ieopard, hazard.
Tout ce que giſt en peril n'eſt pas perdu : Pro. All is not loſt thats in ſome hazard.
Periller. To periſh ; alſo, to be in ſome peril, or hazard.
Perilleuſement. Perillouſly, dangerouſly.
Perilleux : m. euſe : f. Perillous, or parlous, dangerous, ieopardous, hazardous.
Perimer. To ſpoyle, aboliſh, ouerthrow, diſappoint vtterly, take away wholly.
Perinée : m. The ſeame, or line that runnes betweene the fundament and cods.
Periode : f. A period, perfect ſentence, full ſence, concluſion, or end ; alſo, a courſe to a finiſhing, or the terme wherein a thing is finiſhed.
Periodic : m. ique : f. Periodicall ; ended, finiſhed, concluded ; alſo, reuolutiue, comming or going by courſe, or fits.
Periodiquement. By periods ; endingly, concludingly, or towards a concluſion ; alſo, reuoluingly, by courſe or fits, or with a continuall, and interchanged courſe.
Perioſte : m. The skinne wherewith the ribs be couered ; or (more generally) the thinne skinne wherein any bone is couered.
Peripherée : f. The circumference, edge, or border of a circle, &c.
Periphraſer. To paraphraſe, vſe circumlocutions, expreſſe one word by many.
Peripneumonie : f. The inflamation of the Lungs.
Perir. To periſh, miſcarrie, die ; decay, conſume, wither ; to come to ruine, or to naught ; to be loſt, mard, ſpoild, caſt away.
Il n'eſt ſi bon marinier qui ne periſſe : Prov. The skilfull Sea-man comes at length ſhort home.

Pe-

Periſſable : com. ſubiect vnto loße ; ſpoyled, and loſt.
Periſtile : m. A cl… about with pillar…
Peritoine : m. The … with the intralls …
Perjure : com. Pe…
Perle : f. A Pearle
Perle de compt… great Pearle.
Herbe aux perl…
Perlé : m. ée : f. K…
Dragée perlée …
Fil perlé. Hard…
Teſte bien perl… curled.
Perles : f. The li… Burre of a Deeres …
Perlette : f. A ſma…
Perlon : m. A Roch… in Xaintonge.)
Perlure : f. as Per…
Permanable : co… durable, abiding …
Permanent. as P…
Permeable : com…
Permettre. To pe… at, giue libertie … vnto.
Permis : m. iſe : f… with, winked at ;
Permiſſion : f. … leaue, licence, all… le Roy pour vn… ra, par lettres … Forreſts.)
Permiſtion : f. … ther.
Permutateur : m…
Permutation : f… changing.
Permuter. To ba…
Pernicieuſemen… noiſomely, moſt h…
Pernicieux : m. … deſtroying, mo… hurtfull.
Pernis. Pierres d…
Perons : m. Start… powtches, or fatc…
Peroration : f. … tion, applyed to … Auditorie.
Perot. Looke Per…
Peroximes. Fits …
Perpeigne. as P…
Perpendiculaire … plumpe downe, …
Perpendiculaire …
Perpetrer. To pe…
Perpetuation : f…
Perpetuel : m. el… euerlaſting, ay-…
Perpetuellemen… continually.
Perpetuer. To pe… euerlaſting.

Periſſable: com. Periſhable, momentarie, looſeable, or ſubiect vnto loſſe; which by ouer-long keeping will be ſpoyled, and doſt.

Periſtile: m. A cloiſter, walking place, or long entrie ſet about with pillars.

Peritoine: m. The inner thinne rind, kell, or skin wherewith the intralls be couered.

Perjure: com. Periured, forſworne.

Perle: f. A Pearle; an Vnion; alſo, a Berrie.

Perle de compte. A Paragon; an orientall, or faire great Pearle.

Herbe aux perles. Pearle-plant, Lichwall Gromell.

Perlé: m. ée: f. Rough, rugged, or not ſmooth; whence,

Dragée perlée is oppoſed vnto Dragée vnie.

Fil perlé. Hard-twiſted thread.

Teſte bien perlée. Whoſe Burre is well ſpotted, and curled.

Perles: f. The little ſpotted Curlings wherewith the Burre of a Deeres head is powdered.

Perlette: f. A ſmall Pearle.

Perlon: m. A Rochet, Redfiſh, Gurnard, &c, (tearmed ſo in Xaintonge.)

Perlure: f. as Perles; or the Burre it ſelfe.

Permanable: com. Permanent, conſtant, remaining, durable, abiding.

Permanent. as Permanable.

Permeable: com. Quickly running, or paſſing through.

Permettre. To permit, ſuffer, tollerate, beare with, wink at, giue libertie or way, grauut authoritie or power, vnto.

Permis: m. iſe: f. Permitted, tollerated, ſuffered, borne with, winked at; alſo, licenced, or lawfull.

Permiſſion: f. A permiſſion, tolleration, ſufferance; leaue, licence, allowance; (Permiſſion s'octroye par le Roy pour vn temps, & tant que bon luy ſemblera, par lettres patentes addreſſées aux Maiſtres des Forreſts.)

Permiſtion: f. A mixing, mingling, tempering together.

Permutateur: m. A barterer, exchanger; alterer.

Permutation: f. Permutation, bartering, trucking, exchanging.

Permuter. To barter, trucke, exchange.

Pernicieuſement. Perniciouſly, peſtilently, miſchieuouſly, noiſomely, moſt hurtfully.

Pernicieux: m. euſe: f. Pernicious, deadlie, mortall, deſtroying, moſt dangerous, miſchieuous, noiſome, hurtfull.

Pernis. Pierres de pernis. as Parpaignes, or Perpins.

Perons: m. Startups, high ſhooes; fiſhers boots; alſo, bags, powtches, or ſatchels of leather.

Peroration: f. A peroration; the concluſion of an Oration, applyed to the humors, or praying the fauors, of the Auditorie.

Perot. Looke Perrot.

Peroximes. Fits of an ague.

Perpeigne. as Parpaigne; or Perpin.

Perpendiculaire: com. Perpendicular, downe-right, plumpe downe, directly downe.

Perpendiculairement. Perpendicularly.

Perpetrer. To perpetrate, act, commit.

Perpetuation: f. A perpetuation, or perpetuating.

Perpetuel: m. elle: f. Perpetuall, eternall, continuall, euerlaſting, ay-during.

Perpetuellement. Perpetually, eternally, euerlaſtingly, continually.

Perpetuer. To perpetuate, eternize, immortalize, make euerlaſting.

Perpetuité: f. Perpetuitie, eternitie, immortalitie, endleſneſſe, euerlaſtingneſſe.

Perpetuller. To tickle; (an old word.)

Perpetuons: m. Perpetually-begging Friers.

Perpins: m. Perpenders, or perpent ſtones; ſtones made iuſt as thick as a wall, and ſhewing their ſmoothed ends on either ſide thereof.

Perplex: m. exe: f. Perplexed; intricate, intangled; vexed, or peſtered in ſpirit, plunged, grauelled, in a maze, at his wits end.

Perplexement. Perplexedly, intricately, intangledly, troubleſomely.

Perplexité: f. Perplexitie; intricacie, intangledneſſe; vncertaintie, doubtfulneſſe what to doe, or what to determine; and hence alſo, vexation, perturbation of mind.

Perprendre. To ſeize, or take into his hands ground that lyes waſt, or common.

Perprinſe. as Perpriſon.

Perpriſon: f. A ſeizing, or taking into his owne hands (without leaue of Lord, or other) ground that lyes waſt, or is vſed in common.

Perpuce. as Prepuce.

Perquiſiteur: m. A diligent ſearcher, an induſtrious ſeeker, a ſerious inquirer.

Perquiſition: f. A perquiſition, diligent ſearch, or ſerious inquirie.

Perreſine: f. Roſin.

Perrette, & Perrichon. Womens names, deriued from Pierre.

Perrie: f. A Peeredome; the eſtate, or dignitie of a Peere.

Perrier: m. The Ship-Artillerie called, a Fowler.

Perriere: f. as Perrier; alſo, a quarrey of ſtone.

Perron: m. An open lodge, paſſage, or walke of ſtone raiſed, ſome quantitie of ſtaires, directly before the foredore of a great houſe; alſo, a ſquare Baſe of ſtone, or mettall, ſome fiue or ſix foot high, whereon, in old time, Knights errant placed ſome diſcourſe, challenge, or proofe, of an aduenture.

A Noel au perron, à Paſques au tiſon: Prov. At Chriſtmas warme thee in the Sunne, at Eaſter by the fire.

Perroquet: m. A Parrat; alſo, the bearbe Aloe, or Sea-aigreene; alſo, a black-backt, yellow-bellied, and greene-find-ſea-fiſh, proportioned ſomewhat like the Riuer-Pearch.

Bec de perroquet. See Bec.

Graine à perroquet. Baſtard Saffron, wild Saffron, mocke Saffron, Saffron Dorte.

Perrot: m. An Oake which hath beene (or might haue beene for the age thereof) twice lopped; alſo, a mans proper name, being a diminutiue, or deriuatiue of Pierre.

Perruque: f. A locke, or tuft of haire.

Vne fauſſe perruque. A Periwig, a Gregorian.

Perruqué: m. ée: f. Wearing a locke, or curled tuft; long-haired.

Perruquet: m. One that weares an effeminate locke, or frizled tuft of haire.

Perruquier: m. A Periwig-maker; alſo, as Perruquet.

Perruquiere: f. A Tyre-maker, or Attire-maker; a woman that makes Perriwigs, or Attires.

Pers: m. Peeres.

Pers: m. Perſe: f. Watchet, blunket, skie-colored.

Perſcrutation: f. A through ſearch, diligent inquirie, neere collection, full ſcanning.

Perſe: f. The piercing of a veſſell.

Perſecuté: m. ée: f. Perſecuted, proſecuted; followed with extremitie; vexed, afflicted continually.

Perſecuter. To perſecute, proſecute; follow with extremitie; vex, or afflict continually.

Perſecution: f. Perſecution, proſecution, a cruell following of, extreame purſuit after.

Perſeguier. as Perſiguier.

Perſe-pierre. See Perce-pierre.

Perſer. Looke Percer.

Perſeveramment. Perſeueringly, continuingly, conſtantly, ſtedfaſtly.

Perſeverance: f. Perſeuerance, continuance, conſtancie, a reſolute ſticking to, or abiding by.

Perſeverant. Perſeuering, perſiſting, ſtedfaſt, conſtant, continuing to the end in.

Perſeverer. To perſeuer, perſiſt, continue, or abide by; to hold ſtiffly, maintaine ſtoutly, ſtedfaſtly to remaine in, a good courſe, or opinion.

Perſicaire. Dead Arſeſmart, dead Culerage, Ciderage, Peachwort.

Perſien. Perſian, of Perſia; whence, Feu Perſien. Looke Feu.

Perſil: m. Parſely.

Perſil aigrun. Wild Parſeley, great water Parſeley, ſallade Parſeley, Belldars, Bellrags.

Perſil Alexandrin. Alexanders.

Perſil d'aſne. Aſſe-Parſeley, wild Cheruill, mocke Cheruill, great Cheruill, ſweet Cheruill, Mirrhis Caſh, or Kex.

Perſil baſtard. Baſtard Parſeley, Hennes-foot.

Perſil d'eau. Water Parſeley, ſallade Parſeley; alſo, as Perſil de marais.

Perſil de Macedoine. Hearbe Alexanders, or Aliſaunders; alſo, rocke Parſeley, ſtone Parſeley.

Perſil de marais. Smallage; or, wild water Parſeley.

Perſil de montaigne. Mountaine Parſeley.

Perſil de roc, ou de rocher. Rocke Parſeley, ſtone Parſeley, ſtrange Parſeley, true Parſeley.

Perſil ſauvage. Wild Parſeley.

Perſil vray. Stone Parſeley; (though the leaſt common, yet held the trueſt, Parſeley.)

Grand perſil. Great Parſeley, hearbe Alexanders.

Greſler ſur le perſil. To venture boldly on, or ſwagger extreamely with, a knowne-weake aduerſarie.

Perſin. as Perſil.

Perſiſter. To perſiſt, perſeuer, continue, bold out, ſtand to, abide by.

Perſoir: m. A Piercer.

Perſonat: m. A Place, or Title of honor, enioyed by a beneficed perſon, without any manner of Juriſdiction, in the Church.

Perſonate: f. The Clote, or great Burre.

Perſonier. See Perſonnier.

Perſonnage: m. A perſonage, bodie, perſon; alſo, a part in a Play, or part-player; an actor; alſo, a counterfeit, image, reſemblance, of; alſo, a viſard, a falſe or maſking, face.

Vn livre à perſonnages. A Dialogue.

Faict à perſonnages. Wrought with Imagerie, or Antickes.

Perſonne: f. A perſon, wight, creature, bodie; alſo (with a Negatiue) no bodie.

Les Meubles ſuyvent la perſonne; viz. are diſpoſed of according to the cuſtome of the place wherein a man dwelled at the time of his death; ſo that by Perſonne not ſo much his bodie, as the place of his ordinarie reſidence, is vnderſtood (in the cuſtomes of Amiens, Arras, & Cambray.)

Perſonnel: m. elle: f. Perſonall, in perſon, bodilie, belonging to the perſon, or bodie.

Cour perſonnelle. Wherein ſuitors are to appeare, and plead, in perſon, and not by atturney.

Debtes perſonnelles. Debts due by a Bill, or Scroll, or vpon a bare promiſe.

Tailles perſonnelles. Impoſed, or leuied by Poll; and whereunto not the land, but the perſon, of the ſubiect is lyable.

Perſonnellement. Perſonally, in perſon, by preſence, bodily, with the bodie.

Perſonnerie: f. A Partnerſhip, or Coparcenerſhip; a contributing, ſharing, ioyning, or enioying, with another.

Perſonnier: m. A Partner, in trading; alſo, a Coheire, or Coparcener; and, a Joint-tenant, or Tenant in common; alſo, a contributor with others in the payment of taxes, or other publicke duties; alſo, one that ioynes in an Action, or Suit with another; alſo, an acceſſarie, or complice in an offence, or treſpaſe.

Perſonnier: m. ere: f. Partaking, ſharing; contributing; acceſſarie; ioyning, or enioying, with another.

Moulin perſonnier. A common Mill.

Perſpective: f. The Perſpectiue, Proſpectiue, or Opticke (Art.)

Perſpicacité: f. Perſpicacitie; quicke ſight, nimble inſight, readie apprehenſion, ſharpe vnderſtanding.

Perſpicuité: f. Perſpicuitie, cleereneſſe, or plaineneſſe of ſpeech.

Perſpirable: com. Which may be breathed through.

Perſpiration: f. A perſpiration, or breathing through.

Perſpité: m. ée: f. Sprinckled, bedeawed, moiſtened.

Perſtraindre. as Perſtreindre.

Perſtreindre. To wring, or ſqueeze hard; alſo, to courſe, checke, chide, be verie round with.

Pour le perſtreindre en vn mot. To be briefe, or make ſhort; to reſtraine it within, knit it vp in, comprehend it vnder, one word.

Perſuadé: m. ée: f. Perſuaded; moued, induced, exhorted, aduiſed vnto.

Perſuader. To perſuade; aduiſe, exhort, moue, induce, vnto; to make beleeue, breed beliefe, put into the head, make ſinke into the thought, or mind.

Perſuadeur: m. A perſuader; aduiſer, counſellor, mouer, inducer vnto.

Perſuasible: com. Perſuaſible, perſuadeable.

Perſuasiblement. Perſuadeably.

Perſuasif: m. iue: f. Perſuaſiue, perſuading, aduiſing, inducing, mouing.

Perſuasion: f. A perſuaſion; aduice, inducement; beliefe.

Perſuaſoire: com. Perſuaſorie, perſuaſiue, perſuading.

Pert. Il pert. of Paroir; it appeareth.

Perte: f. Loſſe, dammage, detriment; binderance; ruine, decay.

Perte de finance. Loſſe of the publicke treaſure by a violent robberie; decay of priuat ſubſtance by exceſſiue, or needleſſe Vſurie; whence, Prendre à perte de finance. Looke Prendre.

Perte des fruicts. Is incurred by a vaſſall, when a Lord hath entred on his land for want of homage, and due ſeruices done him; the like is; La pure perte du vaſſal.

Perte de Veuë. Diſcours à p. Looke Veuë.
Pertinemment. Pertinently, properly, fitly, aptly, to purpoſe.
Pertinent: m. ente: f. Pertinent; fit, apt, proper, vnto purpoſe.
Pertroubler. To trouble, or perturbe extreamely.
Pertuis: m. A hole.
Pertuis de l'Araigne. The centre of an Aſtrolabe; the hole wherein all the tables thereof are, by a pin or nayle, ioyned together.
Les pertuis des poelles. Two trunkes, or gutters of wood, whereby ſea-water (for Salt-making) is conueyed from the receptacle called Forans vnto thoſe which are called Vireſons.
Les gens qui regardent par vn pertuis. Monkes, or Fryers (by reaſon of their Cowles.)
Faire vn pertuis dedans vn trou. To doe iuſt nothing.
A tel pertuis telle cheville: Prov. Looke Cheville.
Pertuiſane: f. A Partiſan, or leading ſtaffe.
Pertuiſanon: m. A little Partiſan.
Pertuiſé: m. ée: f. Holed, or full of holes.
Pertuiſer. To make a hole or holes, to bore full of holes.
Perturbateur: m. A perturbator, diſturber, diſquieter, vexer, troubler; an importunate, or buſie fellow.
Perturbation: f. Perturbation; diſturbance, vnquietneſſe of mind; a troubleſome paſſion, reſtleſſe affection; an agitation of ſpirit.
Perturber. To perturbe, diſturbe, trouble, diſquiet, blunder, vex.
Pervenche: f. Periwinkle, or Peruincle (an herbe.)
Pervers: m. erſe: f. Peruerſe, croſſe, aukeward, ouerthwart, skittiſh, froward, vntoward; alſo, naught, corrupt, mard; wry, skewing.
Perverſement. Peruerſly, croſely, aukewardly, ouerthwartly, frowardly, vntowardly; malicioufly; askance, askew, awry.
Perverſion: f. A peruerſion; an vntoward, or ill-fauoured wrying; whence, Perverſion de bouche; a crampe, or conuulſion, whereby the mouth is drawne awry.
Perverſité: f. Peruerſitie, croßneſſe, ouerthwartneſſe, aukewardneſſe; frowardneſſe, harſhneße of diſpoſition; a skittiſh, giddie, or vntoward humor to doe an vnlawfull, or ill, thing.
Perverti: m. ie: f. Peruerted, depraued, corrupted, ſeduced; malicioufly wreſted.
Pervertir. To peruert, ſeduce, depraue, corrupt, marre, ſpoyle; to wreſt malicioufly, to turne awry, or to a wry courſe.
Pervertiſſement: m. A peruerting, deprauing, ſeducing; a falſe, or malicious wreſting of.
Pervertiſſeur: m. A peruerter, deprauer, ſeducer; a falſe, or malicious wreſter.
Pervis. as Parvis.
Pes. Looke Peis.
Peſade: f. Looke Poſade.
Peſant: m. Le peſant de. The weight, or burthen of.
Peſant: m. ante: f. Weightie, ponderous, heauie, burthenſome; alſo, peiſing, or weighing.
Il ne trouve rien trop chaud, ny trop peſant. He finds nothing too hot, nor too heauie for him; nothing comes amiſſe vnto him.
Peſanteur: f. Weightineſſe, ponderoſitie, heauineſſe; alſo, a weight, burthen, charge.
Peſanteur de teſte. A dull, or dulling, headache.
Peſart: m. The diſeaſe called, the Nightmare.

Peſchage: m. A fiſhing; or place to fiſh in.
Peſche: f. A fiſhing; alſo, the caſt, or draught of a fiſh-net; alſo, the fiſh gotten thereby; alſo, a Peach; whence;
Peſche blanche. Our ordinarie white Peach.
Peſche iaulne. as Peſche-coing.
Peſche d'or. The gold Peach; one of the moſt delicate kinds of that fruit.
Peſche rouge, ou ſanguine. The red Peach; the little, round, and ruddie Peach, whoſe pulpe, neere to the ſtone, is of a ſanguine hue.
Peſche de Troyes. An Apricocke; or a ſmall and delicate Peach reſembling an Apricocke.
Peſcheable: com. Fiſhable, which may be fiſhed in.
Peſche-amande. The Almond Peach; a delicate Italian Peach, whoſe kernell is a verie ſweet Almond.
Peſche-coing. The Quince-Peach, or yellow-Peach, more hard, and more delicate, then any other.
Peſchement: m. A fiſhing.
Peſche-noire. The blacke Peach.
Peſche-noix. The Nut Peach; is of a firme, or hard ſubſtance; and not much vnlike, nor much inferior, to the yellow one.
Peſcher: m. A Fiſh-pond (for houſehold prouiſion;) alſo, as Peſchier.
Se mettre en la vigne iuſques au peſcher. To be tipled with wine.
Pescher. To fiſh; to catch fiſh.
Peſcher en eau trouble. To fiſh in troubled waters. Looke Eau.
Peſcher des eſtourgeons en l'air. To attempt impoſſible, or vaine, matters.
Peſcher au maillet. See Maillet.
Peſcher au plat. To cut, and carue at pleaſure; to take what, and where, one likes.
Il fait beau peſcher en eau large: Prov. There is no fiſhing to the ſea.
Il faut perdre vn veron pour peſcher vn ſaulmon: Pro. Somewhat muſt be loſt that much may be gotten.
Touſiours peſche qui en prend vn: Prov. And yet he fiſhes who catches one; or, he that takes one, may well be ſaid to fiſh.
Peſchereſſe: f. A fiſhereſſe, a woman fiſher.
Grenouille peſchereſſe. The ſea-Frog, ſea-Toad, or ſea-Diuell; a moſt ouglie fiſh.
Peſcherie: f. A fiſhing; alſo, a little fiſh-pond.
Peſcheteau: m. The ſea-Frog, ſea-Toad, or ſea-Diuell. Bourdelois.
Peſcheur: m. A fiſher, or fiſherman; alſo, the Kings-fiſher, called otherwiſe, Martinet peſcheur.
Tour de peſcheur: Pro. Great hazarding for great matters; whence;
Il fit vn tour de peſcheur. He expoſed himſelfe vnto much danger to obtaine a thing of much worth.
A grand peſcheur eſchappe anguille: Prov. The Eele eſcapes the cunning fiſhers hands.
Peſcheux: m. euſe: f. Fiſhing; or, full of fiſhing.
Peſchier: m. A Peach tree.
Couleur de fleur de peſchier. A Peach colour.
Peſé: m. ée: f. Peiſed, poiſed, weighed; pondered, conſidered, examined.
Peſée: f. A peiſing, or weighing; alſo, poiſe, or weight.
Peſer. To peiſe, poiſe, weigh; to ponder, perpend, conſider.
Peſer ſur la plume. To leane vpon a penne.
Cela me poiſe. That lyes heauie on my ſtomacke, or exceedingly grieues me.

Il me peſe ſur le cœur. He vexeth me at the heart; I can in no ſort abide him, I can by no meanes away with him.

A vn chaſcun ſon fardeau poiſe: Pro. Euerie one is ſenſible of his owne burthen.

Mal poiſe qui ne contrepoiſe: Pro. He weighes but ill that weighes not one with another.

Petite choſe de loing poiſe; &,

Petit fardeau poiſe à la longue: Pro. A little truſſe farre-carried seemeth heauie.

Peſeur: m. A peiſer, weigher; ponderer.

Peſle: m. The boult of a locke.

Peſle: f. as Poile; whence;

Il fait le doux Dieu deſſous vne peſle. He behaues himſelfe gently, beares himſelfe mildly, he is a faire conditioned man; or, he is too nice, quaint, preciſe; he minces, or ſimpers it too much.

Peſle-meſlé: m. ée: f. Pell-melled, confuſedly mingled.

Peſle-meſle. Pell-mell, confuſedly, hand ouer head, all on a heape, one with another.

Peſles: f. Thrummes; or that which hangs at the end of a peece of cloth like fringe.

Peſne: m. The boult of a locke.

Peſon: m. A wherue, or wherle to put on a ſpindle; See Pezon.

Fuſée avec ſes peſons. The ſmall Rundle, or Member of Architecture, called otherwiſe Aſtragale; and thus called, becauſe it is (commonly) made to reſemble many ſpindles and wherues threaded, or ſet together.

Peſqueur. as Peſcheur. ¶Norm.

Peſsaire: m. A Peſſarie; a great Suppoſitorie made of ſoft wooll, and faſhioned like a finger.

Peſſe. The Pitch tree; alſo, a kind of pretious ſtone.

Peſſeau. as Paiſſeau.

Peſſon. as Paiſſon.

Peſte: f. The plague, or peſtilence; a death, contagion, infection; alſo, a peſtiferous fellow; one that ruines, or ſpoyles, others.

Remede contre la peſte par art, fuïr toſt & loing, retourner tard: Prov. Art thus preſcribes where plague doth raigne, fly ſoone and farre, turne late againe.

Peſteil: m. A peſtle, or peſtell.

Peſteux: m. euſe: f. Plaguie, full of the plague; moſt peſtilent infectious, contagious.

Peſtifere: com. Peſtiferous, peſtilent, pernicious, deadlie, infectious, contagious.

Peſtiferé: m. ée: f. Infected; or, that hath the plague.

Peſtilence: f. A peſtilence, or plague.

Peſtilent: m. ente: f. Peſtilent, plaguie, infectious, contagious.

Peſtilentiel. Peſtilentiall; or, as Peſtilentieux.

Peſtilentieux: m. euſe: f. Peſtilentious, full of the peſtilence.

Peſtiller. To paddle; or, as Petiller; or to patter; to beat thicke and ſhort.

Peſtri: m. ie: f. Kneaded; wrought as dough.

Peſtri d'eau froide. Effeminate, cowardlie, white-liuered, without ſpirit, viger, mettall; dull, cold, and ſlack in all he does.

Peſtri de folle farine. Fond, light, idle, vnprofitable, a trifling fellow.

Peſtrir. To knead; to worke, ſettle, or ſoften (as dough) with the hands.

Peſtriſſement: m. A kneading.

Peſtriſſeur: m. A kneader; a Baker.

Peſtriſſure: f. A kneading.

Pet: m. A fart; ſcape, tayle-ſhot, or cracke.

Pet de boulengier. Such a one as makes the Bren to follow.

Pet en gueule. The name of an Yew-game.

Pet de maſion. A fart in ſyrrup, a ſquittering fart.

I'aymeroy autant tirer vn pet d'un Aſne mort, que. I would as ſoone vndertake to get a fart of a dead man, as &c.

Chantez à l'aſne il vous fera des pets: Pro. Looke Aſne.

Petacé: m. ée: f. Peeced, bepatched.

Petaliſme: m. A forme, or ſentence, of baniſhment among the old Syracuſans, writing his name whom they would be rid of in an Oliue leafe.

Petarade. See Petarrade.

Petaraſſe: f. A clap, yerke, or ſtroake on the buttockes; alſo, the ſtirting of a luſtie (and leaping) horſe.

Petard. as Petart; alſo, a Squib.

Petardé: m. ée: f. Petarded, burſt open with a Petard.

Petarder. To burſt open with a Petard.

Petardier: m. A Petarder; one that vſes, or ſhoots off, a Petard.

Petarrade: f. Gunſhot of farting; alſo, a horſes kicking, winſing, or yerking out behind, accompanied, for the moſt part, with farting.

Petart: m. A Petard, or Petarre; an Engine (made like a Bell, or Morter) wherewith ſtrong gates are burſt open.

Petas: m. A mole, or wart; alſo, a kind of (Rounciuall) Peaſe.

Petaſite: f. Lagwort, Butter-burre (an hearbe.)

Petaud: m. A farter; alſo, a footman.

C'eſt la Court du Roy Petaud, ou chaſcun eſt maiſtre: Pro. Applyable to an Anarchie, or a diſordered familie, wherein euerie one may doe what he liſteth.

Petault. as Petaud.

Petauriſtique: com. Tumbling, vaulting, going vpon ropes, running vpon ſtaues, in the aire.

Peteleiment: m. as Petelis.

Peteler. To ſtampe, trample, or tread hard, vpon.

Petelis: m. A ſtamping, or trampling vpon.

Peter. To fart; cracke, let a ſcape.

Petereau: m. A little fart, or Squib.

Peteuſe: f. A ſmall, and bitter fiſh of the Riuer Seine; as Bouviere.

Petiere. Cane petiere. See Canepetiere.

Petillages: m. The orders and cuſtomes obſerued by Marchants in their trading, and cuſtome-paying.

Petillant. Crackling; ſparkling; alſo, ſtamping, or trampling; alſo, quaking, or ſhaking.

Petillement: m. A cracking, or ſparkling; alſo, a quaking, ſhaking, panting, throbbing; alſo, a ſtamping, or trampling; alſo, the ſpitting of a candle, &c.

Petiller. To crackle, or ſparkle; alſo, to quake, ſhake; throb, or pant; beat thicke and ſhort; alſo, to ſtampe, or trample.

La lumiere petille. The candle ſparkles, or ſpits.

Vn oeil qui petille. A ſparkling, or often-twinckling eye.

Petiot: m. otte: f. Verie little.

Petit: m. The whelpe, cub, or puppie, the little one, or young one, of a beaſt; whence;

Faire ſes petits. as vnder Faire.

Petit: m. ite: f. Little, ſmall; exile, ſlender; young, prettie; ſtant, ſcarce, meane, pettie; low, ſhort.

Petit bras. The vpper part of the arme, from the elbow to the ſhoulder.
Petit cheval de Dieu. The little Inſect called, a Lady-cow.
Petits choux. A kind of puffe-cakes of two ſorts; the one round, and plump as an apple; the other alſo round, but much flatter.
La petite oye. The Gooſe-giblets; Looke Oye.
Petit pied. See Pied.
Petit à petit. Faire and ſoſtly, now one and then one, wiredrawer-like; by leiſure, degrees, pawſes, little peeces, or parcels.
Faire le petit. To bow, encline, or humble himſelfe; to lowte it, or beare himſelfe lowly; alſo, to liue meanely, neerely, or poorely; to make no manner of ſhew in the world.
Petit à petit on va bien loing: Pro. Faire and ſoftly goeth farre.
Petite choſe de loing poiſe; &, Petit fardeau poiſe à la longue: Prov. A light thing farre borne beauie growes.
Petit homme abat grand cheſne: Pro. A low man fells a tall Oke.
Petite pluye abat grand vent: Pro. See Grand.
Les petis ruiſſeaux font les grandes rivieres: Pro. Of narrow brookes come nauigable riuers.
De petit petit, & d'aſſez aſſez: Prov. Of a little take a little, of a mickle mickle.
De petite choſe peu de plaid: Prov. A ſleight cauſe needeth but ſleight canuaſſing.
De petit enfant petit dueil: Pro. Seeke Enfant.
De petit eſguillon poind on bien grande aſneſſe: Pro. The little goad pricks on the great ſhe Aſſe.
De petit peché petit pardon: Prov. Small pardon will ſuffice for a ſmall fault.
Du petit vient on au grand: Pro. See Grand.
En petit buiſſon trouve on grand lievre; &,
En petite cheminée fait on bien grand feu; &,
En petite maiſon Dieu à grand part; &,
En petite teſte giſt grand ſens; &,
Es petites boiſtes met on les bons onguens. (Prouerbs in commendation of little things.)
De grands vanteurs petis faiſeurs: Pro. Great boaſt, and ſmall roaſt; big words poore worke; the more you talke the leſſe you will doe.
Tel eſt petit qui boit bien: Prov. A little man may haue a great ſwallow.
Petitement. Smally, ſlenderly, ſcarcely, ſcantly, meanely, poorely, lowlily; ſhortly, lowly.
Petiteſſe: f. Smalneſſe, littleneſſe; prettineſſe; exilitie, ſlenderneſſe, exiguitie; ſcarcitie, ſcantneſſe; poореneſſe, meaneneſſe; lowlineſſe; ſhortneſſe, lowneſſe, youngneſſe.
Petiteur: f. as Petiteſſe.
Petition: f. A petition; ſuit, requeſt, requirall, demaund.
Petitoire: m. A petition; clayme, demaund.
Petitoire: com. Petitorie; clayming, demaunding, requiring.
Action petitoire. A clayme; a writ of right, an action of demaund.
Petitoſe: f. The garbage of fowle; (an old word.)
Peton: m. A little foot; alſo, the ſlender ſtaulke of a leaſe, or of a fruit.
Mon peton. My prettie ſpringall, my gentle impe; (any ſuch flattering, or dandling phraſe, beſtowed by nurſes on their ſuckling boyes.)
Petoncle: m. A Cockle, or ſmall Scallop.
Petonner. To pat, or tread downe the earth by often ſtepping, or trampling on it.
Petoucle. as Petoncle.
Petrar: m. A wild Sparrow, leſſe then the tame one. ¶Orlean.
Petrarquiſer. To Petrarkiſe it, to write like a paſſionate louer.
Petreux. Os petreux. The bone of the Temples; one of the eight bones whereof the skull conſiſts.
Petrification: f. A petrification; a making ſtonie, a turning into ſtone.
Petrifié: m. ée: f. Made ſtonie, turned into ſtone.
Petrifier. To make ſtonie, to turne into ſtone.
Petrinal: m. A Petronell, or horſemans peece.
Petrir. Seeke Peſtrir.
Petrol: m. Petrole, & Petrolle: f. as Naphte.
Petteler. as Petteler.
Petulance: f. Petulancie, malapertneſſe, impudencie, ſawcineſſe.
Petum: m. Tobacco.
Petum femelle. Engliſh Tobacco; the right yellow Henbane; or a ſmall kind of Nicotian.
Petum maſle. Nicotian, French Tobacco.
Peu. (A Participle of the verbe Paiſtre*) fed, eaten, repaſted, paſtured.*
Peu. (Of the Verbe Pouvoir*)* I'ay peu. I could, or might haue beene able.
Peu. (An Aduerbe of quantitie) little, ſmall, ſcant, ſcarce, few; a pittance, modicum, ſmall deale, ſlender companie, almoſt nothing, or no bodie.
Peu à peu. See Petit à petit.
Peu plus peu moins. Little more or leſſe, thereabouts.
Peu s'en faut; &, à peu pres. Almoſt, wellnigh, verie neere, lacking but little, miſſing but narrowly, likelie to haue beene.
Peu ſouvent. Seldome, rarely, not verie often.
Homme de peu. A worthleſſe, poore, or weake-ſpirited, fellow.
C'eſt trop peu d'un. Once is too few; or thats too few by one.
Tant ſoit peu. But verie ſleightly, neuer ſo little.
Peu de choſe ne fait qu'un peu de mal: Prov. A little thing does but a little harme.
Peu à peu le loup mange l'oye: Prov. Bit after bit the Wolfe eates vp the Gooſe.
Peu & paix eſt don de Dieu: Pro. A little with quietneſſe is Gods owne gift.
De peu de choſe peu de proſe: Pro. Little done ſoone deliuered, little acted quickly vttered.
Qui peu ſeme peu prend: Prov. Of ſmall ſeeding a ſmall crop.
Trois beaucoup, & trois peu deſtruiſent l'homme: Pro. viz. To ſpeake much, and know but little; to ſpend much, and haue but little; to preſume much, and be but little.
Peucedane: m. Horſe-ſtrong, Hart-ſtrange, Sowfennell, Sulpherwort.
Pevier. Canon pevier. A Cannon Peuier, or Perrier; See Canon.
Peuille. as Peulle.
Peulle: f. Before new money be deliuered out of the Mint, an Officer called L'Eſſayeur diuides a peece thereof into foure parts; one he giues to the Maiſter, a ſecond vnto the Wardens of the Mint; the other two he keepes, and touches, or makes a triall of, one of them: Now each of theſe parts wrapt vp in a peece of paper, (ſpecifying the quantitie, weight, alloy, and day of deliuerie uerie out of the coyne) is tearmed Peulle.

Pevoesne: f. Peonie, Pionie, Kings-bloome, Rose of the Mount; Looke Pivoine.

Pevoisne. as Pevoesne.

Peuplade: f. A Colonie, or Troope of people, imployed in a Plantation.

Peuplaye: f. A Groue of Popler trees.

Peuple: m. People; or folke.

Le menu peuple. The vulgar, multitude, or meaner sort; the commons, or common people of a Towne, &c.

Peuple en multitude errant ne nous sert pas de garant: Prov. The erring multitude is no fit warrant for vs.

Peuple: m. The Poplar, or Peplar tree (especially, the blacke one.) See Peuplier.

Peuple blanc. The white Poplar, or Abeell tree.

Peuplé: m. ée: f. Peopled; populous, inhabited, planted or well stored with folke.

Peuplement: m. A peopling; a storing with people.

Peuplement de vigne. A furnishing, or storing it with Vine-plants.

Peupler. To people, make populous, furnish with people, plant or store with inhabitants.

Peupleraye: f. A Groue, or Wood of Poplar trees.

Peuplier: m. The Poplar, or Peplar tree; (especially the blacke one.)

Peuplier des Alpes. as Peuplier de Lybie.

Peuplier blanc. The white Poplar, or Abeell tree.

Peuplier de Lybie. The Aspe, or Aspen tree.

Peuplier de montaigne. The same.

Peur: f. Feare, dread, fearefullnesse, timerousnesse, terror, a fright, or flight.

Peur Sainct Valier: Prov. Feare of an approaching mischiefe that breedes effects of a present one; as a man to die (being threatened a death) before any blow be giuen him.

Qui a peur il est asseur: Prov. A (warie, and prouident) feare breeds great securitie.

Qui a peur des fueilles ne doit aller au bois: Pro. Let him thats skar'd by leaues keepe from the Wood.

Tel menace qui a grand peur: Pro. Some threaten highly that are ill afraid.

Peuresie. In stead of Pleuresie. (Rustically.)

Peureusement. Fearefully, timerously.

Peureux: m. euse: f. Fearefull, timerous, faint-hearted, white-liuered.

Pezar: m. A whole Pease, or Beane, straike.

Pezart: m. The Night-mare; (a disease.)

Pezon: m. as Peson; also, a kind of small coyne; also, (any) small weight.

Pezze: f. The Pitch-tree.

Phagedaine: m. A kind of vlcerous Canker.

Phagouë: f. Looke Fagouë.

Phaisander. as Faisander.

Phalange. The name of a most venomous Spider; also, a foure-square troope, or batallion of (8000, some say 18000) souldiors, ranked so as they may incounter the enemie euerie way.

Phalene. A small Butterfly, or Moath, which in the night loues to be fluttering about candles.

Phaleré: m. ée: f. Barbed, or trapped, as a souldiors great horse.

Phaleret. To furnish with Barbes, or (warlike) trappings.

Phaleres: f. Barbes, or (warlike) trappings for a horse of seruice.

Phaleuces: f. Verses of eleuen sillables.

Phalot. as Falot.

Phanal: m. The Lanterne of a Gallie, or Ship.

Phanot. as Falot.

Phantasie: f. A fancie, or fantasie, a conceit, an imagination.

Phantasié: m. ée: f. Fancied, or conceiued in mind; fained, imagined, deuised; also, painted, or made, fantastically.

Phantosme: m. as Fantosme.

Pharasse: f. A Cresset. ¶Langued. Looke Farasse.

Phares: m. Towers, or high places neere the mouth of a Hauen, &c, wherein continuall nightlie fires, or lights be kept.

Pharien: m. enne: f. High, or light, as a watch-tower on the sea-coast.

Pharique. A kind of dangerous poison.

Pharisien: m. enne: f. Hypocriticall, Pharisie-like.

Pharmacie: f. A curing, or medecining with drugs.

Pharmakeutie: f. Phisicke which cureth by drugs, or simples.

Pharmaque: m. A simple, or drug.

Pharol: m. The Lanterne of a Ship, or Gallie.

Pharot. The same; also, a Cresset, or paper Lanterne.

Phaseoles: m. Phasells, long Peason, Kidney Beanes, Roman or French Beanes, garden Smilax.

Phaseoles espineux. The common rough Bindweed.

Phaseoles peincts. Particoloured Kidney Beanes.

Phasioles, & Phasiols. as Phaseoles.

Phavier: m. A Ringdoue, Queest, Coushot, Woodcluer.

Phée: f. A Fairie; or one of the Destinies.

Phéé: m. éée: f. Fatall, destined, fore-appointed; also, inchaunted, bewitched, forespoken.

Phelandrion. Small Burnet Saxifrage; and not meadow Rue, as the Parisien Phisitions erroniously hold it to be, sayes Gerard.

Phengite. (The name of) a certaine bright stone.

Phenicé: m. ée: f. Crimson, or Skarlet, of colour.

Phenoinenes. Ayrie impressions, or apparitions. ¶Rab.

Philactere, & Philacterie. Looke Phylactere.

Philadelphe: m. A louer of his brother.

Philargirie: f. Loue of siluer, couetousnesse.

Philibert: m. A proper name for a man; and particularly, the name of a certaine Bourgonian Saint; whereof;

Chaine de S. Philibert. A kind of counterfeit chaine.

Philippe: m. Philip; (signifies originally) a louer of horses; also, a valiant, hardie, or warlike person.

Vn Philippe daller. A Philips Dollar (a Low-countrey coyne.)

Philippine: f. An Edict whereby Philip the Faire assumed to himselfe the absolute bestowing, and disposall of Regall Benefices.

Philippus: m. A golden coyne worth about iij s sterl.

Philippus d'argent. is worth about iiij s. sterl.

Phillyrée: f. Mocke-priuet; a shrub.

Philocrise: f. Loue of gold.

Philogrobolizé du cerveau. Intoxicated, astonied, bedunced, at his wits end.

Philologue: com. A louer of learning, studie, or discourse.

Philomesse. A louer of the Masse.

Philophanes. A louer of light. ¶Rab.

Philosophalement. Philosophically, according to the rules of Philosophie.

Philosophe: m. A Philosopher, a louer of wisedome.

Huile des philosophes. Oyle extracted, by distillation, from tiles, or brickes, which haue lyen a good while steeping in verie old oyle.
Oeufs des philosophes. Looke Oeuf.
Philosopher. To philosophize it; to write, argue, or discourse philosophically.
Philosopher à la martingale. See Martingale.
Philosophie: f. Philosophie; the loue, or studie of wisdome.
Philotheamon. A louer of our gods. ¶Rab.
Philotime: com. Ambitious, affecting honor.
Philotome. A louer of Passions.
Philtatodelphe: m. An excessiue louer (and by consequent a hater) of his brother.
Philtre: m. An amorous potion, or loue-procuring medicine; also, the hollow, or gutter of the vpper lip.
Phiole: f. A Viol, or small glasse-bottle.
Phiphre: f. A Fife, or small Pipe.
Phisicalement. Naturally.
Phissane. A certaine tumbling tricke; or, a licentious fashion of dauncing, or singing, vsed, in some places, by Buffoons, or the Vices in Playes.
Phlebotomer. To let bloud.
Phlebotomie: f. Phlebotomie, bloud-letting.
Phlegmagogue. A medicine that purgeth flegme.
Phlegmatique: com. Phlegmaticke.
Phlegme: m. Flegme.
Phlegme salé. A most itching mangineße bred by salt flegme.
Phlegmon. A Phlegman; a certaine inflammation of the bloud, which causeth a hot, and red swelling; also, a little, and long wart breeding among the haire of the eye-lids.
Phlegmoneux: m. euse: f. Swelling with inflammation; also, flegmie.
Phlegmonné: m. ée: f. Swollen with hot bloud; or, troubled with a Phlegman.
Phlomie. as Phlymouse.
Phlymouse. (Rustically, or corruptly) in stead of Physiognomie.
Phoebe: f. The Moone.
Phoenicoptere: m. A certaine crimson-winged bird.
Pholade: f. as Pelorde. ¶Langued.
Phoque: f. A sea-Calfe.
Phougue. See Fougue.
Phrene. The Midriffe. ¶Rab.
Phrenesie: f. Frenzie, lunacie.
Phrigie. Looke Phrygie.
Phrontiste. The first ranke.
Phrontistere. The front, or fore-part of a building.
Phrygie: f. Phrygian melodie; a kind of tune, or musicke, wherein there seemed to be a diuine furie.
Phryllelimeuse, & Phryllelimouse. as Physiognomie (barbarously.)
Phryneuse, & Phrymouse. The same.
Phrvson. A Frizeland horse. Looke Frison.
Phthiriase: f. The lowsie euill. ¶Rab.
Phtise: f. The Tysicke; an (incurable) vlceration of the lungs, accompanied with a consumption of the whole bodie.
Phtisique: com. Tysicall; or, troubled with the Tysicke.
Phy: &, Maistre phy phy. Looke Fy.
Phylacistе: m. A Gaoler, or Keeper of a Prison.
Phylacte. as Phylacistе.
Phylactere: f. A prison; also, a (written) preseruatiue against poyson; or as Phylacterie.
Phylacterie: f. A scroll of Parchment, with the tenne Commaundements written in it, worne by the Pharisies about their heads, and armes.
Phylomie, & Phylonomie. (Vsed corruptly) in stead of Physiognomie.
Phylosomie, & Phylosonomie. The same.
Physetere. The Whirlepoole (a huge fish.)
Physicien: m. A naturall Philosopher.
Physiognomie: f. Phisiognomie; a gueße at the nature, or the inward disposition, by the feature, or outward lineaments.
Physiologie: f. A reasoning, disputing, or searching out of the nature of things; also, anatomizing Phisicke, or that part of Phisicke which treats of the composition, or structure of mans bodie.
Physique: f. Naturall Philosophie.
Physis: f. Nature. ¶Grec. ¶Rab.
Piaffard: m. arde: f. Braggard, strouting, vaine-glorious, proudly vaunting, fondly brauing it.
Piaffe: f. A bragging, strouting, fond brauing of it; a disdainefull carriage, boasting demeanour, vainglorious behauior.
Piaffer. To brag, or braue it fondly; to boast, or strout it vainely; to make a vaine-glorious, or foolish muster of himselfe.
Piaffeur: m. A braggard, or braggadochio; a strouting, or boasting fop; a proud vaine-glorious cockscombe.
Piaffeusement. Braggingly, proudly, vaine-gloriously, stroutingly, vauntingly.
Piailler. To cheepe, or cry like a chicke; also, to bib, sip, tiple, or driue away time by drinking.
Piailleur: m. A bibber, sipper, wine-swiller; a tipler, bowser, pot-gossip, or Gossip-pint-pot.
Piaison: f. A bibbing, sipping, tipling; swilling, immoderate drinking.
Pialet: m. Dodder; a weed.
Pian. Marcher pian. To march leisurely, goe faire and softly.
Pianelle: f. A night slipper, or choppine, a Pantofle for the chamber.
Pianelleux: m. euse: f. Wearing, full of, or belonging to slippers, or chamber-pantofles.
Piastre. A Turkish coyne worth about iiij s sterl.
Piat: m. A young Pye.
Piauler. To peepe, or cheepe (as a young bird;) also, to pule, or howle (as a young whelpe.)
Piaux: m. Newly-hatched chickens, or birds.
Pibale: f. A young Lamprey. ¶Bourdelois.
Pible: f. The pizzle, or yard of a beast.
Pibole: f. A kind of Bagpipe.
Piboleur: m. A Piper. ¶Poictevin.
Pic: m. A Wood-pecker, Hickway, Greenepeake; also, a (Masons) pickax; also, a thrust, foyne, or punch.
Pic d'Auvergne. A Wall-pecker.
Pic de farine. A Measure which containes about nine of our Pecks; (for it is to weigh 125 pounds.)
Pic iaulne. The ordinarie Woodpecker.
Pic de mer. A certaine rock-fish, of sundrie colours.
Pic de muraille. The small Hickway called, a Wall-pecker.
Pic rouge. A Speight, or Specht.
Pic verd. The Greene-peake, or ordinarie Woodpecker.
La Coste à pic; ou, en pic. A full-deepe shore; a coast of a plumpe, or downe-right depth. ¶Norm.
Picadilles. Le Piccadilles.
Picardent. as Piquardant.

Picardiſer. To Picardize it; to ſpeake, or doe like a Picard.
Picarel: m. The ſmall, and white Cackarell fiſh, whereof the beſt Garum, or pickle is made.
Pication: f. A pitching, or bepitching.
Piccadilles: f. Piccadilles; the ſeuerall diuiſions or peeces faſtened together about the brimme of the collar of a doublet, &c.
Piccon: m. A prickle, or ſmall pricke.
Piccoter. as Piquoter.
Piccotin. See Picotin.
Picé: m. ée: f. Pitched, or pitchie.
Piceaſtre. The wild Pitch tree.
Picée: f. The Pitch tree.
Pichier: m. A Pitcher (pot.) ¶Langued.
Picmart: m. A Speight, Woodpecker, Highaw, Hickway.
Picorée: f. Picorie; a forraging, ranſacking, ſpoyling of, or preying on, the (poore) countreyman (friend, or foe.)
Picorer. To forrage, ranſacke, rifle, rob, or prey vpon, the poore husbandman, be he friend, or foe.
Picoreur: m. A boothaler (in a friends countrey;) a rauening, or filching ſouldior.
Picotage: m. A pricking here and there; alſo, a ſpotting, or ſpeckling.
Picote: f. The ſmall Pocks.
Picoté: m. ée: f. Spotted, ſpecked, or ſpeckled; alſo, pricked, or ſtung often.
Picoter. See Piquoter.
Picoterie: f. A girding, nipping, or quipping, in ſpeeches; a iarre, odds, or diſpute, in words.
Picoteure: f. A pricke; a ſpot; a freckle, or pimple; See Piquoteure.
Picotin: m. A (French) Pecke; or, the fourth part of a Boiſſeau; comes to about fiue Pints of our meaſure; and is vſed onely in the meaſuring of Oates.
Picoture: f. as Picoteure.
Picquamment. Prickingly, piercingly.
Picquant. See Piquant.
Picque: f. A Spade, at Cards; alſo, as Pique.
C'eſt bien rentré de picques noires. Yea marry ſir, now you haue hit it; (Ironically.)
Picquement, & Picquer. as Piquement, & Piquer.
Picqueron: m. A little Pike; a Faueline, or Dart; See Piqueron.
Picque-ſeiche. Looke Pique-ſeiche.
Picquet: m. A little Pickax, or Mattocke; alſo, the peg, or ſticke thruſt downe into the earth by a Surueyor that meaſures with cord, or chaine.
Picqueure. as Piqueure.
Picquier: m. A Pike-man, a Corſelet.
Picquois: m. A Pickax.
Picquot: m. A prickle, or ſmall pricke.
Picquoté, & Picquoter. See Piquoté, & Piquoter.
Picte. A (French) farthing; the fourth part of the Denier.
Pictre. The breaſt, boſome, or ſtomacke.
Picts: m. The bulke, or pitch of the bodie; (or more properly) as Pis.
Pié: m. as Pied; a foot, &c.
Pie: f. A Pye, Pyannat, Meggatapye.
Pie ancrouëlle, ou engrouée. A Waryangle; or, as vnder Engroué.
Pie eſcrayere. The ſame. ¶Savoyard.
Pie grieſche. The ſame; a rauenous bird, not altogether ſo big as a Thruſh.
Pie de mer. The Oliue, or ſea-Pye; a daintie fowle.
Maigre comme vne pie. We ſay (to the ſame purpoſe) as fat as a Henne's on the forhead.
Monté iuſques au nid de la pie. At his full height; as great, rich, or powerfull as euer he can, or will, be.
Vous ne fuſtes onques de mauvaiſe pie couvez. You are of no ill progenie; you haue no taint of ill breeding in you.
Pie: f. Drinke, bowſing, liquor; alſo, a Gooſe, the broyled thicke skinne of a peece of Beefe; alſo, the monſtrous appetite of maides, and big-bellied women, vnto Coales, Aſhes, Paper, and ſuch other vnnaturall meats.
C'eſt vn croque la pie. He is a notable toſe-pot, or licke-ſpiggot.
Pie: com. Pious, godlie, religious, holie, deuout; merciſull, gentle; alſo, pied; or blacke and white as a Pie.
Pie mere de la teſte. Looke Mere.
Pieça. A great while ſince, long agoe; alſo, heretofore, or in times paſt.
Piece: f. A peece, parcell, part, fragment; morcell; gobbet, lumpe, cantill; ſhare of.
La piece du chef. A French Coyfe; the Sattin Coyfe worne now-adayes by diuers of our Ladies, and Gentlewomen.
Piece de drap. A whole Cloth (as well as a peece of Cloth.)
Piece de huict heures. as Aloyau; tearmed ſo, becauſe the Clarks of the Palace commonly fetch it at the Cookes about eight of the clocke in the morning.
Piece à pommette. Looke Pommette.
Les pieces d'un Procez. The Bookes, Pleadings, or Copies of Inſtruments, vſed in a Suit.
Gens de toutes pieces. Men of all ſorts, and qualities, tag-rag, wiſe and fooles, rich and poore, one with another.
La grande piece. The vpmoſt, and broadeſt peece of a Pouldron; or, a broad peece of Armour thats placed betweene the bottome of the helmet, and the Pouldron.
La haute piece. The Pouldron.
En piece. Of a long time, of a great while.
Ie n'aurois en piece dit, ne fait, cela. I would not for any thing haue done, &c, the leaſt part of that.
A chef de piece. In the end, at the length; or, after a long time.
Il n'y a piece d'eux. There is not one among them.
Tout d'une piece. All of a peece; alſo, of one whole colour; of onely one colour all ouer.
Ie ne ſçay quelle piece couldre à cecy. I know not what helpe to apply, what art to imploy, in this; I know not how to remedie, ſupply, repaire, it.
Piecette: f. A ſtirrup, bit, moſrell, mammocke; a ſmall parcell, or peece.
Pied: m. A foot; a paw; alſo, a footing, or ſetting of the foot; alſo, a Baſis, or Baſe; a root, or bottome; a foot-ſtall, or foundation; alſo, the meaſure of a foot; (for which looke the next Marginall word.)
Pied d'Alexandre. Bartrane, or Bertram; Pellitorie of Spaine.
Pied d'Alouëtte. Larkes ſpurre, Larkes claw, Larkes heele, Monkes-hood, Kings Conſound.
Pied de biche. The end of the Gaſte of a Croſſe-bow.
Pieds blancs. Looke Blanc.
Pied de canard. Gooſe-foot, wild Orache.
Pied d'un cancre. The clee, or claw of a Crab.

Pied

Pied de chat. The port, or vpsett of some bitts, made like the foot of a Cat.
Pieds chauds. Il a les pieds chauds. He prattles, tattles, babbles verie much; his tongue neuer stints, neuer leaues, neuer lyes; also, he is lustie, gamesome, frolicke, wanton; also, he is iealous.
Pied de chevre. Looke Chevre.
Pied de colombe. Doues-foot, Pigeons-foot; a kind of Pinkneedle.
Pied de coq. Hedge-fumitorie, Hennes-foot; Gerard calls bastard Parseley Hennes-foot, and another calls it Pied de coq.
Pied de corbin. Crowfoot, Butter-flower, Kings-cob, Gold-cups, Gold-knops.
Pied de corneille. Crowfoot Plantaine, Harts-horne Plantaine, Buck-horne, Harts-horne, Sandwort, hearbe Iuie, hearbe Eue.
Pieds corniers. Looke Pieds-corniers.
Pied droict d'une cheminée, feneſtre, porte, &c. The iaumb, or iaume of a chimney, &c.
Pied fourchu. Any clouen-footed beast; as an Oxe, Hog, Sheepe, &c; also, the toll thats taken vpon the sale of any of them in Markets, or Faires.
Pied de geline. Hedge Fumitorie, yellow Fumitorie, Hennes foot; also, as vnder Geline.
Pied de Griffon. A Griffons foot; an Instrument wherewith Surgeons draw Moles, or the peeces of a dead child, out of womens wombes.
Pied gris. A clowne, boore, hinde, swaine; a countrey hob.
Pied de jars. Gooſe-foot, wild Orache.
Pied de lievre. Hares-foot, Hare-foot Trefoile, base Trefoile, rough Clauer.
Pied de Lion. Lions foot, Lions paw, Ladies mantle, great Sanicle, Padelion.
Pied de Loup. Wolues claw, Club-mosse.
Pied de milan. The bearbe Kites-foot.
La pied de monnoye. The ground of reckoning, and for the rate, of money; which was, vntill the yere 1577, by Solz, but hath beene euer since by Eſcus.
Pieds neufs. Faire pieds neufs. A woman to be deliuered; a horse to cast his hooses.
Vn pied de nez. Great shame, extreame disgrace (or sence of disgrace.)
Pied d'oiſon. Gooſe-foot, wild Orache; called also Swines-bane, becauſe it kills, or meazels, the Swine which eat of it.
Pied d'oye. The same.
Pied de pigeon. as Pied de Colombe.
Pied de poulain. Fole-foot, Colts-foot, Hall-foot, Horſ-foot, Bull-foot.
Pieds pouldreux. Looke Pouldreux.
Pied rond. Any whole-hooſed beast; as a Horse, Cammell, Moyle, Asse, &c; also, the toll thats taken vpon the sale of such beasts.
Pied de ſtal. as Pied-ſtal.
Pied de veau. Calues-foot, wake-Robin, Ramp, Aaron, Starchwort, Cuckoe-pint, Priests-pint.
Faire, ou trouſſer le pied de veau. Looke Veau.
Colombier à pied. A round, or square Doue-cote built of stone, &c, from the verie ground.
Fer à pied. Elle n'a eu fer à pied. She is vntainted, vndefiled, vnbroken vp.
Froid aux pieds. Avoir froid aux pieds; &, Avoir les pieds froids. Looke Froid.
Le grand pied. The thigh, leg, and foot altogether; tearmed so by Anatomists.
Haut le pied. S'en aller haut le p. To flye with light vp legs, or as fast as his legs can carrie him.
Sergent à pied. A Sergeant, or Officer that arrests, &c, onely within some peculiar Towne, or Townesship.
Tiers pied. as Trepied.
Pied à pied. By little and little; step after step; one foot before another, by degrees.
Pied à pied de. Close by, neere vnto.
Les pieds au feu. Il semble qu'il ait les pieds au feu. He keepes such a figging that one would thinke his feet were in the fire.
A pied coy. Stilly, softly; also, settledly, reposedly; with a firme, or fast-planted foot.
A pied de grue. In suspence, on doubtfull tearmes; or, not well, or but halfe, settled, like a Crane that stands but vpon one leg.
A pied levé. Respondre à pied levé. To answer extempore.
Au pied levé. Poursuivre au pied levé. To follow foot-hot, or hard at the heels.
Prendre au pied levé. To snap vp in words; to take verie short, or at all aduantages; to trip a man vnawares, on a suddain, or when he is not prouided; to take things at the worst.
A pied de plomb. Slowly, heauily, dully.
A pied de plomb, & de pompe. The same; also, stately, haughtily, maiestically.
A pied tout porté. Looke Porté.
A plein pied. Mettre à plein pied. To raze, or lay euen with the ground.
Entre le pied, & le carreau. In the middest of danger, in the height of affliction.
Et au pied. And to his heeles he betooke him, and away he got him; or (more briefely) And away.
Iusques à la semelle du pied seulement. Sleightly, barely, as little as may be.
Sur ce pied. Vpon this ground or occasion, hereupon.
Sur le plein pied. Mettre sur le plein pied. To settle, make sure, make fast.
Aller de l'un pied sur l'autre. To affect, or mince it, in treading.
Aller du pied comme vn chat maigre. Looke Aller.
Cercher cinq pieds en vn mouton. To look for more then can be had..
Clocher sur vn pied. Ie sçay bien sur quel pied il cloche. I know full well his infirmitie, or defects; I know well enough what he ayles, what he lacks.
Donner pied à. To set on foot, giue a beginning, make an ouerture, lay a foundation, vnto.
Donner pied ferme à. To settle, or giue sure footing vnto.
Donner du pied à. To kicke, spurne, contemne, reiect.
Faire selon la jambe le pied. To doe things orderly; to keepe, obserue, or hold a iust proportion.
Faucher l'herbe sous les pieds à. To supplant, or put the nose out of ioynt; to depriue, or preuent one of a thing which he expected.
Fendre les pieds. Looke Fendre.
Gaigner au pied. To run his countrey, or to run away.
Iouer à quatre pieds contre. To kicke, winse, or let fly at with all foure; to contend, or play reakes, against with all his power.
Marcher de pied en terre. Il ne marche &c. He is so proud, or so glad, that he knowes not the ground he goes on.
Mettre sous pied. To forgiue, and forget.
Il ne se mouche pas du pied. He is a craftie, subtill, warie whoreson.

Paſſer le pied ſur la gorge à. Looke Paſſer.
Perdre pied. To looſe ground; or be driuen to a behind-hand (and thereupon, to his ſhifts.)
Planté ſur le pied gauche. Setled in an euill poſture, or on the wrong ſide; badly diſpoſed in affection; or ingaged in an vniuſt cauſe.
Prendre pied à. To regard, heed, build vpon, make reckoning; take notice of; alſo, to be diſcontented, or aggrieued, at.
Rencontrer, ou trouver chauſſeure à leur pied. To meet with their matches, or with ſuch as will hold them tacke; alſo, to light vpon ſtuffe for their purpoſe, or that which will ſerue their turne.
Saulter à deux pieds ſur le ventre à. Looke Saulter.
Seicher ſur les pieds. To be in great perplexitie, or in a pecke of troubles. Looke Seicher.
Tenir pied à. To keepe play, hold tacke or footing; march ranke in ranke, walke cheeke by iowle, with; alſo, to tarrie long, or abide by it.
Tenir pied à boale. To follow a buſineſſe throughly; to ſtick hard, or ſtand cloſe, vnto it (from the play at Ninepinnes, wherein a man muſt ſtand where his bowle doth lye.)
Tenir pied en ſoulier. Il leur fit tenir pied en ſoulier. He curbed them, kept them from raunging, held them in, or in awe.
Il en tirera pied ou aile. He will carrie away either leg or wing, either more or leſſe, one part or another, of it.
Le pied ſaiſit le chef. The floore, or ſoyle, commaunds the houſe; he that is Lord of the one may ſeize the other; (or, he thats owner of the one may owne the other;) Area enim eſt pars vel maxima ædificij (ſay the Ciuilians;) The cuſtomes of Chalons, Art. 143. expound this Maxime otherwiſe; viz. that a man may build his houſe vpright as high as he will, and compell a neighbor to withdraw any thing that ſhall hinder him therein, of what continuance ſoeuer it haue beene.
`A l'Advocat le pied en main: Prov. viz. Of Partridges, Pheſants, Capons, &c, wherewith they looke to be now and then preſented.
`A l'aiſe marche à pied qui meine ſon cheval par la bride: Prov. Looke Cheval.
`A panſe chaude pied endormy: Pro. When a man is full, he is fitter to ſleepe then to runne.
Aſſez eſcorche qui tient le pied: Prov. He does ill ynough that helps to doe euill.
Barbe raſe pied ferrat: Pro. Looke Barbe.
Bouche freſche, pied ſec: Pro. A coole mouth, and a dry foot (preſerue a man long time aliue.)
Le beau ſoulier bleſſe ſouvent le pied: Prov. Looke Soulier.
Mieux vaut vn pied que deux eſchaſſes: Prov. One foot is better then two ſtilts.
Mieux vaut vn pied nud que nul: Pro. Better a naked, then no foot.
Mieux vaut gliſſer du pied que de la langue: Prov. See Gliſſer.
Qui veut aller les pieds nuds ne doit ſemer des eſpines: Prov. He that will bare-foot goe muſt plant no thornes.
Selon le pied la forme: Pro. Faſhion your laſt according to your foot.
Tenez chaud le pied & la teſte, au demeurant vivez en beſte: Pro. The feet and head kept warme, the reſt will take leſſe harme.
Pied: m. A foot, in meaſure; the length of a foot (twelue ynches) in meaſuring.
Pied de bois. A certaine meaſure vſed at, and about, Bourdeaux; Looke Pied de ville.
Pied de Clermont. Is but eleuen ynches long.
Pied cube. Is twelue ordinarie feet, and containes euerie way twelue times 144 ynches.
Pied d'Engouleſme. Is a ſixteenth part longer then the ordinarie foot.
Pied Geometrique. Is foure hand-breadthes, or the breadth of ſixteene fingers.
Pied Royal, ou de Roy. The ordinarie twelue-ynch foot, a foot according to the Standard; containes in ſquare 144 ynches.
Pied de terre. Is longer then the ordinarie foot by an eight part in three quarters; and vſed about Bourdeaux for the meaſuring of land.
Pied de ville. Exceeds the ordinarie foot by fiue eight parts of an ynch; and is vſed at Bourdeaux in the meaſuring of Timber, Wainſcot, and other wood.
Le petit pied. A ſmall meaſure (beeing ſome ynches ſhorter then the ordinarie foot) which French Maſons, and Carpenters vſually carry about them.
Reduict au petit pied. Contracted, ſtraitned, ſtinted; whoſe plumes are plucked, fortune ſcanted, meanes withdrawne; that cannot doe as he hath done; that is not the gallant he hath beene.
`A pied. By line and leuell, by compaſſe and meaſure, proportionably.
Au pied de. According to; after the rate, proportion, or ſcantling of; whence, Au pied de la lettre; according to the literall ſence, or literally.
`A tout pied. Ames à tout pied. Soules of all ſizes, ſpirits for all purpoſes.
Tout d'un pied. Euen, leuell, plaine, without any aſcent, or deſcending.
Pied-bornier: m. A tree that ſerues to diuide ſeuerall Tenements, or Inheritances.
Pied-bot: m. A club-foot, or ſtub-foot; alſo, one that hath verie great ankles, or heeles.
Piedefief. A fief diſmembred, which a vaſſall may, for his benefit, alien to whom he liſt.
Pied-gris: m. A clowne, hob, hinde, or boore of the countrey.
Pied-leger. as Pied-viſte.
Pied-poul: m. The round-rooted, or Onion-rooted Crowfoot; ſome alſo call Purſlane ſo.
Pieds-corniers: m. Certaine trees marked out for limits vnto the ſale of Wood; or as bounds betweene Groues of Timber-wood, and Copſes of Vnderwood; alſo, trees that diuide ſeuerall Tenements, or Inheritances.
Pied-ſonnant. Trampling, or making the ground ring againe with his proud ſteps.
Pied-ſtal: m. The pedeſtall, or footſtall of a pillar; that whereon it ſtands an end.
Pied-terre. An alighting, or ſetting foot on the ground; whence, Cela a mis pied-terre à l'homme; hath ſet foot on earth for man.
Pied-viſte: com. Light-footed, ſwift of foot.
Piege: m. A ſnare, ginne, or grinne.
Aujourd'huy en liege, demain en piege: Prov. To day in pompe, to morrow in priſon.
Pienne. Roſe de pienne. Peonie, Pionie, Kings-bloome, Roſe of the Mount.
Piepou. as Pied-poul.
Pier. To horſe, bib, ſip, ſwill. Barrag.
Pierigot: m. as Manganeſe.
Pierre: m. Peter.

Pierre du Coignet. A Monkie-like Image of ſtone in our Ladies Church at Paris, where it was at firſt ſet vp, to the diſgrace of one of that name, a great aduerſarie vnto the Clergie.

Herbe de S. Pierre. Sampire, Creſtmarin.

Deſcouvrir S. Pierre pour couvrir S. Paul. To borrow of Peter to pay Paule.

A la S. Pierre l'hyver s'en va, ou il reſerre: Prov. Looke Reſerrer.

Pierre: f. A ſtone; alſo, the ſtone.

Pierre Afrodiſiace. A certaine ruddie white ſtone.

Pierre aguiſoire, ou, à aguiſer. A Whetſtone, or Grindleſtone.

Pierre d'aigle. An Eagle-ſtone; a ſtone found in the neaſt of an Eagle, and held eaſefull vnto women in labour.

Pierre Alabandique. A certaine bloud-prouoking ſtone, of a blacke and purple hue.

Pierre Arabique. A white ſtone, cleere, and tranſparent as glaſſe, in ſtead whereof it was in old time vſed.

Pierre d'Armenie. as Verd d'Azur.

Pierre Aſſienne, ou d'Aſſo. A certaine light, and ſpungious ſtone (full of yellow ſtreakes, and eaſie to be broken) whereon there growes a mouldie, or hairie flower, ſaltiſh in taſt, and good to preſerue things in; and therefore haue ſome imployed it in the imbaulming of dead bodies, (whoſe ſuperfluous fleſh it ſoone conſumes) this, beſides the diuers vſes thereof in Phiſicke, wherein alſo the ſtone it ſelfe is vſed, though with leſſe effect then the flower.

Pierre d'azur. The Azure ſtone, called alſo, Lapis Lazuli.

Pierre biſe. A certaine hard ſtone of ſundrie colours, and bright as flint, which it ſomewhat reſembles.

Pierre calaminaire. See Calaminaire.

Pierre de Canon. A Cannon bullet.

Pierre de caſtille. Lyme-ſtone; called ſo in ſome parts of the forreſt of Ardenne.

Pierre à chaux. Lyme-ſtone.

Pierres de colique. Certaine ſtones found in the head of the fiſh Maigre, and good againſt the Collicke (thinkes the vulgar) if they be giuen, but not if they be ſold.

Pierre douce. The Hennie ſtone; or, as Pierre melitite.

Pierre d'eau de mer. An Agat; or, an Opall; (for it yeelds an Azure luſtre.)

Pierre ematite. The Bloud-ſtone.

Pierres d'eſcreviſſe. Two whitiſh ſtones, found in the heads of ſome old Creuiſſes; taken in white Wine, they ſtrengthen the heart; and preuent, or diſſolue, the Stone; the powder of them ſerues alſo to whiten the teeth.

Pierres d'eſponge. Certaine ſtones found in ordinarie ſponges; being put in liquor, they melt into a milkie humor; drunken in Wine, they breake the (Kidney-troubling) Stone.

Pierre d'eſtanche. The Bloud-ſtone.

Pierre d'eſtoilles. The ſtarrie Carbuncle; a precious ſtone wherein be many golden, and ſtarre-like-ſhining drops.

Pierre à feu. A Marcaſite, or Fire-ſtone; alſo, a Flint.

Pierre du fiel de beuf. A yellow ſtone, (ſometimes as big, and euer as brittle, as an egge) taken in drinke, it breakes the ſtone in the bladder, and is verie ſoueraigne againſt the Iaundice; being ſnuft vp in powder, it cleeres the ſight, dryes vp the immoderate humors of the eyes, and eaſes thoſe that haue the falling euill.

Pierre franche. The ſoft, and white, Free-ſtone.

Pierre à fuſil. A Flint.

Pierre galactite. The milke ſtone; a certaine white ſtone, which being pownded, and put into water, becomes of a milkie taſte, colour, and conſiſtence.

Pierre Geodes. A certaine round ſtone of the colour of ruſtie Iron; containes within it a yellowiſh earth; and is good againſt inflammations in the priuities.

Pierre à grain. A kind of ſpotted Free-ſtone.

Pierre de griſon. See Griſon.

Pierre Hematide. The Bloud-ſtone.

Pierre Herculienne. A Load-ſtone.

Pierre Hieracite. A kind of Bloud-ſtone, or ſtone that ſtaunceth bloud.

Pierre d'Iris. The Opall; Seeke Iris.

Pierre Iudaïque, A faire white ſtone, faſhioned like an Akorne, and compaſſed with many equall-diſtant lines.

Pierre de laict. as Pierre galactite.

Pierre de S. Leu. An excellent Free-ſtone, little inferior to the white marble of Italie.

Pierre de limaçon. See Limaçon.

Pierre mariniere. The Adamant, or Load-ſtone.

Pierre marmaride. A verie hard kind of gray marble.

Pierre Melitite. The ſweet ſtone, or Honnie ſtone; white like the milke ſtone; and taſting like Honnie.

Pierre Memphites. A ſmall ſtone (oylie, and of diuers colours) wherewith in old time (for now adaies it is not found, or not vſed) members to be cut off were, without any danger, ſo mortified, as the patient felt no paine in the cutting.

Pierre menuë. A kind of Tyle-ſtone.

Pierre de Mine. A Marcaſite.

Pierre à miroir. Looke Miroir.

Pierre Naxienne. The Whetſtone.

Pierre noire. Ieat.

Pierre Phrygienne. A certaine pale-coloured, and white-ſtreaked Capadocian ſtone, vſed in old time by Phiſitions, and Dyers; but now out of date, and ſeldome or neuer found.

Pierre plombiere. Lead-oare; or Lead-ſtone, before it be tryed.

Pierre de S. Pol. as Terre Samienne; or, a kind of ſtone found in a certaine Caue in Malta.

Pierre ponce. The Pumnis ſtone; the rugged, and ſpungie ſubſtance wherewith Parchment is ſmoothed.

Pierre Samienne. A whitiſh ſtone, found among the Samien earth; and of a cooling, and reſtringent qualitie.

Pierre ſanguine. A Bloud-ſtone; Looke Sanguine.

Pierre ſciſſile. A yellow ſtone eaſie to be cleft, and full of veines, which are ſpread ouer it like the teeth of a Combe.

Pierre Selenite. as Pierre à miroir; (for which looke Miroir.)

Pierre ſerpentine. A medicinable ſtone, whereof there be diuers kinds; ſome blacke, hard, & heauie; others of a ſpotted aſh-colour; others white, or begirt with white lines: any one of them, hanging about the necke, is held good againſt headach, & the ſtinging of venemous beaſts.

Pierre ſpeculaire. as Pierre à miroir; (for which looke Miroir.)

Pierre de taille. Free-ſtone.

Pierre Tiracienne. A certaine ſtone, which caſt hot into water kindles, into oyle quenches.

Pierre Thyite. A greeniſh ſtone, which being ſteeped in liquor yeelds a milkie, or white humor.
Pierre de tuffe. A white ſand-ſtone; or a ſoft and brittle ſtone, which is eaſily crumbled vnto ſand.
Pierre vive. Flint.
La pierre eſt eſchappée. My word is paſt; the dice be caſt; the thing is alreadie graunted, and gone.
C'eſt vne pierre iettée en ſon jardin. This thorne is thruſt into his foot; this bone is thrown for him to gnaw on; theſe words doe touch, and tax him; are meant or directed vnto him, what other ſhew ſoeuer they carry.
Cette pierre tomboit en ſon jardin. This blow alighted on his ſhoulders; this miſchiefe was a preiudice, this inuectiue had relation, onely vnto him.
D'une pierre faire deux coups. To kill two birds with one ſtone (ſay we.)
Faire de pierres pain. To make vſe, or take aduantage, of any thing.
Il jette la pierre, & cache le bras. He does the wrong, and yet will not be ſeene in't; he giues the blow, and will not be aknowne of't.
Mettre toutes pierres en oeuvre. To imploy, or make vſe of, euerie thing. (This phraſe is alſo applyable vnto a wench, that ſuffers any mans ſtones to grind at her Mill.)
Remuer toute pierre. To attempt all courſes, try all wayes.
Pierre en puis n'eſt pas pourrie: Prov. Stones rot not in the bottome of a Well; they that reſt in fit places languiſh not.
Il n'eſt pas Maſon qui pierres refuſe: Pro. He is no Maſon who refuſeth ſtones.
Qui remue les pierres ſes doigts caſſe: Pro. The buſie ſtone-remouer lames his fingers.
Pierrerie: f. A Quarrey of ſtone; alſo, ſtone-worke; alſo, iewels, or precious ſtones.
Pierrette: f. A little ſtone.
Pierreux: m. euſe: f. Stonie; grauellie; rockie.
La cholique pierreuſe. A paine like the Cholicke, but comming of a ſtone in the kidneyes.
Os pierreux. The bone of the Temples.
Pierrier: m. A Cabinet, Casket, Caſe, or Box for precious ſtones.
Pierriere: f. The ſame; as alſo a place wherein ſtones are gotten.
Pierriz: m. Heapes, or walls of dry, or vnmortered ſtones.
Pierron. See Perron.
Pierrot. (A diminutiue of Pierre;) Piers.
Pierrote. as Pierrette; or Pierrotte.
Pierrotte: f. A ſmall ſtone; alſo, a ſtonie, flintie, or grauellie ſtyle.
Pierrou: m. A certaine baſe coyne, thats currant about Avignon.
Pieſante: f. A path, or ſmall way, ſome two foot and a halfe broad.
Pieſette: f. A peece, or compartiment; the ioint whereat the players are hanged in the poyſe, or vpſett of a Bitt.
Pietaille: f. A footing, or footmanſhip; alſo, a footman; alſo, a troope of footmen.
Piete: f. A kind of Spade, or digging Inſtrument.
Pieton: m. A footman; one that trauels on foot; alſo, a little foot; alſo, a Pawne at Cheſts.
Pietonné: m. ée: f. Settled, ſadned with the feet; often ſtamped, or trampled on; beat or troden downe.
Pietonner. To ſettle, ſadden, lay, or beat downe with often treading, ſtepping, or ſtamping on.
Pietonneux: m. euſe: f. Treading thicke and ſhort, often ſtepping or ſtamping on the earth.
Pietre: com. In bad plight, in bare taking, in ill array, beggarlie, wretched, poore, needie; alſo, meane, homelie, baſe, bad; falſe, counterfeit.
Pietrement. Poorely, barely, needily, wretchedly, beggarly; alſo, falſely, or badly.
Pietrer. To ſtampe on, tread downe, trample vnder the feet.
Pietrerie: f. Bareneſſe, miſerie, wretchednеſſe, needineſſe.
Piette: f. A Puet.
Pieu: m. A ſtake, or pile; alſo, the latch of a doore.
Pieuler. See Piuler.
Pieumart: m. A Wood-pecker, Spight, Hickway.
Pieur. Looke Pire.
Pieuſement. Piouſly, religiouſly, deuoutly, holily.
Pieux: m. euſe: f. Pious, godlie, deuout, holie, religious.
Pige: f. as Pis; or as Pinge.
Pigeaſſé: m. ée: f. Pied, particoloured.
Pigeon: m. A Pigeon, or Doue; alſo, a fop, cokes, noddie, ninnyhammer.
Pigeon de palette; &, Pigeon patté; a rough-footed Doue.
Pigeon ramier. A Queeſt, Cooſhot, Culuer, Woodculuer, Blockdoue, Ringdoue.
Pigeon de Veniſe. A kind of Turpentine.
Pied de pigeon. Doues foot, Pigeons foot, an hearbe.
Preneur de pigeons. A Conycatcher.
Le pigeon eſt au colombier. The Poccard is in his ſweating Tub.
Cela chaſſera les pigeons du colombier. See Colombier.
Semer vn grain d'orge pour attraper vn pigeon. To giue, ſpend, or aduenture a little in hope of getting much.
Pigeon ſaoul trouve les ceriſes ameres: Pro. Said of one who loathes, or derides, his owne ouer-eaſefull eſtate.
La cenſure tourmente les pigeons laiſſant aller les corbeaux libres: Prov. Looke Cenſure, or Corbeau.
On ne peut d'un pigeon faire vn vif eſparvier: Prov. The ſillie Doue good Sparhawke nere will be; (Somewhat to which purpoſe we ſay) a man cannot make a Cheuerill purſe of a Sowes eare.
Qui veut tenir nette maiſon, il n'y faut preſtre, ny pigeon: Pro. He that in a neat houſe will dwell, muſt Prieſt and Pigeon thence expell.
Pigeonnade: f. A billing, or Pigeon-like buſſing.
Pigeonneau: m. A Pigeon, a yong Doue.
Il a mangé les pigeonneaux. Said of a man that whirres, or ſpeakes hoarſe.
Pigeonnelle: f. A verie yong Pigeon.
Pigeonner. To catch Pigeons; alſo, to cheat, couſen, or fetch ouer, a ſillie fellow; alſo, to bill, or kiſſe like a Pigeon; to giue long, and laſciuious kiſſes.
Pigeonnerie: f. The billing of Pigeons; and hence, a long, and laſciuious kiſſing.
Pigeonnet: m. A young, or little Pigeon.
Pigeonnier: m. A Pigeon-houſe, or Dowe-coat; alſo, a Pigeon-keeper; one that lookes vnto Pigeons; alſo, the place wherein Poccards bi, or put themſelues to be, cu-
Pig[illegible]: m. A Pigney, dwarfe, dandiprat, elfe, mat-

Pig-

Pignareſſe : f. A Flax-woman.
Pignates : f. Pots, or balls of wild-fire.
Pignaux de colliers. The nailes, or prickles of a bandogs coller.
Pigne. as Peigne.
Pigneon. Looke Pignon.
Pignes. The griſtlie parts of the eye-lids.
Pignet : m. The female Pine-apple ; alſo, the Pitch-tree, or wild Pine-tree.
Pignolat : m. The preſerued kernell of a Pine-apple ; or conſerue of Pine-kernells.
Pignolat. Chardon pignolat. The Teazill, card Teazill, Fullers Thiſtle.
Pignon : m. A Finiall, Cop, or ſmall Pinacle on the ridge or top of a houſe ; alſo, the nut, or kernell of a Pine-apple ; alſo, as Pagnon.
Il a pignon ſur rue. He is well lined, or well to liue ; he may be ſafely put into the Subſidie.
Pignoratif : m. iue : f. Pignoratiue, impledging, ingaging by ſuretiſhip, or with a pawne.
Pignoration : f. A ſtraining, or diſtraining ; a ſeiſing, or taking for a diſtreſſe ; alſo, an impledging.
Pignore. A diſtreſſe ; or a thing thats taken Dammage feſant.
Pignorer. To diſtraine ; to ſeiſe, or take, for a diſtreſſe, or in reſpect of dammage done ; alſo, to impledge.
Pignoüer : m. A combe-caſe.
Pihourt. The name of a Maſon of Rennes ; whence :
Reſolu comme Pihourt en ſes Heteroclites. Looke Reſolu.
Pilaſtre. A Pilaſter, or ſmall Piller ; alſo, th'inflamation, or ſwelling of the Vvula, growne thereby all of a bigneſſe.
Pile : m. A (footmans) Javelin, or Dart ; about fiue foot long, and beaded with ſteele.
Pilé. A Suppoſitarie.
Pile : f. A ball to play with, a hand-ball ; alſo, a pile, heap, or ſtacke ; alſo, the pile, or vnder-yron of the ſtampe wherein money is ſtamped ; and the pile-ſide of a peece of money, th'oppoſite whereof is a croſſe ; (whence, Ie n'ay croix ny pile ;) alſo, the bulke, or bodie of a great tree ; alſo, a flint, or the bowle of a fountaine ; alſo, a great morter, or trough of ſtone, &c ; alſo, the pile, or whole maſſe, of weights vſed by Goldſmithes, &c.
Pile trigone. A triangle peece of yron to be thrown at a ring, through which he that paſſes it wins the game.
Mettre à la pile. To beat, pound, ſtampe, cruſh, break ; trounſe, courſe ; ruine, ſpoyle.
Pilé : m. ée : f. Pealed, beaten, bruiſed, cruſhed, pounded, ſtamped.
Pilée : f. as Pilement ; A pealing, &c ; alſo, the thing thats pealed.
Pilement : m. A pealing, pounding, ſtamping, braying, beating ; a cruſhing, or bruiſing.
Piler. To peale, pound, ſtampe, to bray, beat, or breake, in a morter, &c ; alſo, to ſettle, or ſinke ; whence, cette maiſon pile.
Piler l'eau en vn mortier. To looſe labour ; or to imploy it moſt vainely.
Piletrigone. Seeke Pile.
Pilette : f. A little ball ; pile ; bodie of a tree ; flint ; or morter.
Pilettes. Pimples about the neſe, or chin.
Pileur : m. A pealer, pounder, ſtamper, brayer.
Pilier : m. A Piller.
Piliers boutans. Bowing pillers, buttreſſes, or props wherewith a building is ſupported.
Pilier & Carcan. Is (not much vnlike a Pillorie) an Engine, or Inſtrument of Juſtice, for the puniſhment, & diſgrace of offendors ; See Carcan.
Le Pilier de la republique. The chiefe ſtay, principall ſtrength, onely ſupporter, of the Commonwealth.
Pilier de taverne. A common tipler ; or one that both conſumes his owne meanes, and is the meanes of other mens conſumption, in Tauernes.
Iuſtice patibulaire à deux piliers. A paire of gallowes, or power to hang offendors on gallowes, that ſtand on two pillers, belong vnto a Lord Iuſticier ; à trois piliers, to a Lord Chaſtelain ; à 4 piliers, vnto a Baron ; & à 6 piliers, vnto an Earle ; (Seeke Fourche.)
Piliforme. One of the ſmalleſt membranes of the eye, before whoſe glaſſie humor it ſtands.
Pillage : m. Pillage, bootie, ſpoyle ; a prey.
Pillard : m. arde : f. Filching, pilfering, purloyning, ſheet-ſtealing.
Pillars : m. Pilferers, filchers, purloyners, henne-ſtealers ; or, ſuch as take (other mens) ſheets off hedges.
Quand les pillars ont pillé, & les pillez ſont pillez, les pillez auront du pain, & les pillars mouront de faim : Prov.
Pillaſtre. as Pilaſtre.
Pille : m. Seeke Pile.
Pille : f. A great morter, or trough of ſtone, or wood, &c ; See Pile.
Pillé : m. ée : f. Pilled, rauaged, ranſacked, robbed, deſpoyled, or bereaued of all.
Quand les pillars auront pillé, &c. Looke Pillars.
Pillemaille. as Palemaille ; or ſuch a box as our London Prentices beg withall before Chriſtmas.
Pillement : m. A pilling, rauaging, ranſacking, robbing, rifling ; or as Pillerie.
Piller. To pill, rauage, ranſacke, rifle, rob ; make boot, or hauocke of ; rauine, or exact from ; depriue, or deſpoyle of all ; alſo, to rub, or rob, at cards.
Ce qu'aſſemble pille pille, deſaſſemble tire tirer : Pro. Looke Aſſembler.
Pillerie : f. A pilling, rauaging, ranſacking, robbing, rifling ; hauocke, rapine, exaction, ſpoyle, extortion.
Pilleur : m. A piller, a rauager, a ranſacker, a rauenous exacter.
Pillier. See Pilier.
Pillolet : m. Pulicke mountaine, horſe Time, wild Time, running Time.
Pillori : m. as Pilori.
Pillorifement : m. A ſetting on the Pillorie.
Pillorifer. as Pilorier.
Pillot : m. A ſmall pile, or heape.
Pillotage : m. A piling, or pile-worke, a driuing downe of piles ; a foundation, cauſey, or water-worke made of, or ſtrengthened with, piles.
Pilloter. To picke, or take vp here and there ; to gather one by one ; alſo, as Piller.
Pilloterie : f. A picking or taking vp here and there ; a gathering one by one ; alſo, as Pillerie.
Pilloti. as Piloti ; alſo, a piling.
Pillule. as Pilule.
Piloir : m. A Peſtell.
Pilon : m. A Peſtell ; a pounder, or inſtrument of pounding ; alſo, a little (footmans) Dart, or Javelin.
Pilori : m. A Pillorie ; alſo, a Tumbrell.
Pilorié : m. ée : f. Set on the Pillorie.
Pilorieſment : m. A ſetting, or ſtanding, on the Pillorie.
Pillorier. To ſet, or make ſtand, on the Pillorie.
Piloſelle : f. Piloſella, Mouſe-eare.

Piloſelle grande. Great Mouſe-eare; beares a yellow flower.

Piloſelle petite. Small Mouſe-eare, or broad-leaued Mouſe-eare, hath alſo, a yellow flower; but another kind of this hearbe is called blew Mouſe-eare, of the colour of it flower, and is like ynough to be Fuſchius his little Mouſe-eare.

Pilot: m. A Pilot, or Steereſman; hee that directs the courſe of a ſhip; alſo, a little (footmans) Javelin.

Pilotage: m. Pilotiſme; th'Office, or Art of a Pilot; the the skillfull guiding, or conduction of a ſhip; alſo, as Pillotage.

Piloter. as Pilloter; alſo, as Pilotier.

Piloti: m. A Commaunder, or Water-ſledge; the inſtrument wherewith piles are driuen downe; alſo, a piling.

Pilotier. To play the Pilot; and, to ſound the depth of waters with a line, and plummet.

Pilotis. as Piloti.

Pilotiſé: m.ée: f. Piled; founded on, or vnderſet with, piles; vnderlayed, vnderpropped, ſupported.

Pilotiſer. To pile, or ſtrengthen with piles; to make a foundation of piles; alſo, to ſupport, vnderlay, vnderſet, vnderprop.

Pilule: f. A (Phyſicall) pill; alſo, a ſmall ball, or bowle.

Pilure: f. A pill; whence;

Vne pilure formentine vne, dragme ſarmentine, & la iournée d'une geline, eſt la meilleure medecine: Prov. A manchet, cup of wine, and hennes dayes taske, is the beſt Phyſicke a ſicke man can aske.

Pimard: m. A Heighaw, or Wood-pecker.

Pimbeſche: f. A wilie queane, ſubtile wench, cunning drab; one that can finely execute her Miſtreſſes knauiſh deuiſes.

Piment: m. Oake of Jeruſalem, or Oake of Paradiſe; (an hearbe;) alſo, a kind of wholeſome peare.

Pimente: f. Spurge Olive, Widow waile; (a ſhrub.)

Pimer. To quinch, crawle, mone, ſtirre.

Pimpant: m.ante: f. Spruce, compt, picked, neat, gay, fine, trimme.

Pimpé: m. ée: f. Sprucified, finified; curiouſly pranked, comptly tricked vp.

Pimpenauder. To pranke, trimme, tricke vp.

Pimpenelle. as Pimpinelle.

Pimper. To ſprucifie, or finifie it; curiouſly to pranke, trimme, or tricke vp himſelfe.

Pimperneau: m. A grig, ſcaffling, ſpitchcocke, ſawſon Eele.

Pimpernelle: f. Burnet; See Pimpinelle.

Pimpinelle: f. Burnet.

Pimpinelle grande. Great, or wild Burnet.

Pimpinelle petite. Garden Burnet.

Pimpinelle Saxifrage. Burnet Saxifrage, great Saxifrage.

Groſſe Pimpinelle. Great Pimpinell; or, great Saxifrage.

Pimpotnpet. A kind of Game wherein three hit each other on the bumme with one of their feet.

Pimpreneau: m. as Pimperneau; alſo, a knaue, raſcall, varlet, ſcoundrell.

Pimprenelle. as Pimpernelle.

Pin: m. A Pine tree.

Pin aquatic. Female Knot-graſſe; (a water hearbe.)

Pin marin. The ſea Pine; of two kinds, a great, and a little one; and both wild ones.

Pin de montaigne. The mountaine (wild) Pine.

Pin ſauvage. The wild Pine; is properly diuided into two kinds; viz. The Mountaine, and Sea, Pine.

Pinacle: m. A Pinacle; a Spire.

Pinard: m. An exceeding ſmall peece of money.

Pinart. The ſame; alſo, ſuch a title as is our fellow, &c; whence, le pinart rencontra frere Adam, &c; the fellow met Frier Adam, &c.

Pinaſſe: f. The Pitch-tree; alſo, a Pinnace.

Pinaſtre: m. The wild Pine tree.

Pinatelle: f. A copper coyne hauing ſome ſmall quantitie of ſiluer in it, and worth about fiue Liards.

Pinatellier: m. A coyner of Pinatelles.

Pinates à feu. See Pignates.

Pinaux. The name of a kind of Grapes.

Pince: f. A croe, great barre, or leauer of yron; alſo, a Pincer; alſo, a Pinke; alſo, the view, or footing of a Deere; and (more generally) the tip, or edge of the bottome of a beaſts hoofe; that which in treading firſt touches the ground.

Pincé: m.ée: f. Pinched, nipped, or twitched.

Pinceau: m. A Penſill; alſo, a Whitelimers Bruſh.

Pinceau de mer. A ſhellie reed, or thing like a reed, which at th'one end ſtickes vnto rocks, at th'other puts out, ſometimes, a fiſhie ſubſtance, (whereof it is full) and then reſembles a Penſill.

Pince-maille. Seeke Pinſe-maille.

Pincement: m. A pinching, nipping, twitching.

Pincer. To pinch, nip, twitch (with the fingers, &c.)

Pincer ſans rire. Looke Rire.

Pincerſi, & Pincervlu: m. The Linden tree: ¶Provençail.

Pinces: f. A paire of Pincers; alſo, Pinke (flowers.)

Pinceter. To pinch thicke; to nip, or twitch often; alſo, to touch a Lute, &c, nimbly; alſo, to pull off haires, or moats, with ſmall Pincers.

Pinche: f. as Pine (in the later ſence.)

Pinchons. inſtead of Piochons: ¶Rab.

Pinçotter. To pinch, or nip, often.

Pindariſer. To affect in ſpeech; or to ſpeak nicely, ſprucely, curiouſly; alſo, to ſpeake ſhrilly, or vehemently, as one that loath his Auditorie ſhould looſe a word by him.

Pine. as Quille; A Kayle; alſo, a pricke, member, bable.

Pineau: m. The ſeed, or kernell of a Grape; alſo, a kind of white, and longiſh grape; whereof;

Vin pineau. Excellent ſtrong wine.

Pinet: m. Hogs Fennell, ſow Fennell, Sulphurewort, Brimſtonwort, Horeſtrong, or Horeſtrange.

Pinette: f. A kind of Cyder made of water mingled with the iuyce of crabs, or wild apples; alſo, a groue, or wood of Pine-apples.

Pineux: m.euſe: f. Of or belonging to, alſo, full of, Pine-trees.

Pinge: f. A pillocke, member, bable, &c.

Pingres. aux p. A (womaniſh) play with Ivorie balls.

Pinguereaux. A kind of ſweet Cherries.

Pinhadar: m. A young, or little wild Pine.

Pinier: m. The Roſen tree; or any other, whoſe fruit reſembles a Pine-apple; as the great Cedar, Cypreſſe, &c.

Piniolat. as Pignolat.

Pinne: f. The ſhell-fiſh called a Naker; alſo, the finne of a fiſh; alſo, the broad, and griſtlie part of the eare; alſo, as Pinge.

Pinne du nez. The griſtle of the noſe; the bone whereby the noſethrills are diuided.

Pinneux: m.euſe: f. Finnie, full of finnes.

Pinnophylace: f. A kind of little Sea-fiſh.

Pinnothere. A little Shell-fiſh, of the kind of Shrimpes.

Pin-

Pinnule: f. A little finne of a fish.
Pinnules. The sights belonging to th'Alhidada of an Astrolabe.
Pinocque. A greene Indian fruit of the bignesse of a cherrie.
Pinon. The pinnion of a clocke, &c; the nut in whose notches the teeth of the wheeles doe run; Looke Pignon.
Pinot: m. The name of a red-stocked, and round-leaued Vine.
Pinsade: f. A pinching, or nipping; also, extortion, extremitie, hard or sore dealing.
Pinse: f. Looke Pince.
Pinsegreneur d'Amadis. A Phrasemonger, spruce discourser, affecting speaker.
Pinse-maille: com. A pinch-penie, scrape-good, niggard, miser, penie-father.
Pinser. as Pincer.
Pinses: f. A paire of Pincers.
Pinsettes: f. Nippers, little Pincers.
Pinsoir: m. A certaine Engine (made of yron-headed stakes,) wherewith fish is caught.
Pinson: m. A Spinke, Chaffinch, or Sheldaple.
Pinson d'Ardenne. A Brambling.
Pinson montain. The same.
Pinson royal. An ash-coloured, and great-headed bird, called otherwise, Grosbec.
Pinte: f. A pinte; the French, or Parisien pinte; somewhat lesse then a sixt part short of our Quart; (for in weight it is about 27 ounces, our Quart 32;) and the 288 part of a Muid; also, any small wine-pot, or vessell of pewter.
La pinte de S. Dennis, & de plusieurs autres lieux à l'entour de Paris. Is halfe as big againe as th'ordinarie one of Paris.
Appetissement de la courte pinte. as Appetissement de mesure. Looke Mesure.
Pinteler. To tipple, or plie the pot.
Pintelette: f. A small pinte.
Pinteur: m. A tippler, pot-companion, spiggot-sucker.
Pintier: m. A Pewterer.
Pinton. as Pinteur.
Pintules: f. Two small tablets in th'Alhidada of an Astrolabe, hauing in them two little holes, through which the height of the Sunne, &c, is taken; some call them, the sights of th'Alhidada.
Pioche: f. A little Pickax, or French Instrument of husbandrie, not much vnlike a Pickax; (and sometimes) also, as Piot.
Piocher. To dig, or breake vp the earth with a Pioche.
Piocheur: m. A digger, or breaker vp of the earth with a Pioche; and (more generally) any such labouring man.
Piochon: m. A little Pioche.
Piolé: m. ée: f. Spotted, or speckled; whence;
Riolé piolé. Gaudie, or pide; also, diuersified, or set out with sundrie colours.
Piolement: m. The puling, or cheeping of Sparrowes, or young birds.
Pioler. To pule, cheepe, or chirpe, like a Sparrow, or yong bird.
Piolet de caille. A Quaile pipe.
Pioleur: m. A puler, cheeper, chirper.
Pion: m. A certaine great, round, and Bulbus-rooted flower, of one whole colour (though there be of them white ones, red ones, and purple ones;) also, a Bulfinch; also, a young birdling, or neast-bird; also, a small twig, or sprig of a tree; also, a pawne at Chesse; also, an an excessiue drinking; whence;
Mal de pion. The drunken disease; or a disease that comes by excessiue drinking.
Pionnier: m. A Pioner.
Pionnier: m. ere: f. Made by, or belonging to, a Pioner; Pioner-like.
Piorioler. To diuersifie with variable colours.
Piot: m. Drinke, liquor, nippitatie; (clownishly.)
Pioter. as Pioler; also, to tipple.
Piou piou. Peepe peepe; the voyce of chickins.
Pipe: f. A bird-call, or little woodden pipe, wherewith Fowlers doe counterfeit the voyces of the birds they would take; also, the vessell, or measure called a Pipe (vsed as well for corne, as for wine; also, a kind of dizzinesse, or dizzie turning disease, cousen germaine to drunkennesse.
Pipé: m. ée: f. Deceiued, cousened, ouerraught, gulled, beguiled.
Cartes pipées; &, Dez pipez. False cards, or dice.
Pipeau: m. An oaten pipe; a bird-call.
Pipée: f. The peeping, or chirping of small birds counterfeited by a Bird-catcher; also, a counterfeit shew, false countenance, dissembling apparance, of sufficiencie, &c.
La pipée du sor. Th'edge of th'euening, when the weather freshes, or growes coole.
Prise des oiseaux à la pipée. Is thus: a Fowler hid in a thicke bush, or tree, stucke full of lime-twigs, and hauing an Owle fast pearched neere to him, cries like a bird, and pinching a liue one, makes her crie; which others hearing, flie thither to rescue her from th'Owle, and so become intangled.
Il fait bonne pipée. He would faine seeme wise, or honest, though he be not.
Piper. To whistle, or chirpe, like a bird; also, to cousen, deceiue, cheat, gull, ouerreach, beguile (especially, by false cards, or dice.)
Piperelle: f. Gith, Nigella, Bishopswort, Coriander of Rome.
Piperie: f. A cousening, deceiuing, beguiling, ouerreaching; a gulling, or cheating.
Pipet: m. A small pipe, Fowlers pipe, or bird-call.
Pipette: f. The little knot, or tuft, on the top of a cap.
Pipeur: m. A whistler, chirper; bird-catcher; also, a cousener, cheater, deceiuer, beguiler; and especially one that vseth false cards, or dice.
Pipeusement. Deceitfully, guilefully, cousteningly.
Pipeux: m. euse: f. Deceitfull, guilefull, cousening, ouerreaching, cheating.
Pipion. A Spanish coyne worth about 18 d. sterl.
Pipis: m. The whistling, chirping, or peeping of small birds.
Pippe. as Pipe.
Pippeau: m. A bird-call.
Pipper. as Piper.
Pippeur, & Pippis. Looke Pipeur, & Pipis.
Piquant: m. The point of a Dart, Speare, &c; also, the prickle, or sharpe top of some kind of leaues, as of the Hollie, &c; also, the nose, beake, or stem-end of a ship; also, a kind of pricklie Thistle.
Piquant: m. ante: f. Pricking; piercing, thrusting into; stinging, netling; spurring; nipping, quipping, quilting.
Piquardant. The name of a Grape that yeelds an excellent white Wine.
Piquassat. A speckled Gillaflower: ¶Langued.
Pique: f. A Pike; also, a Pikeman; also, a pike, debate, quarrell, grudge; Looke Picque.

arrogate, assume, or take on him, a great deale more then his due; to ouer-value his owne person, or parts; also, to presume, thinke, weene, imagine, coniecture, suppose.

Presupposé: m. ée: f. Presupposed.

Presupposer. To presuppose; admit, put the case that; imagine, coniecture, weene before-hand.

Presupposition: f. A presupposition, or presupposall; an admitting; a coniecture, or weening.

Presure: f. The rennet wherewith milke, imployed in cheese-making, is curded.

Pretendant: m. One that stands, or sues, or seekes, for a place.

Pretendant. Pretending; claiming, challenging; ayming at, suing or putting in for; also, meaning, intending, seeming, making a shew of, giuing a colour for.

Pretendre. To pretend; lay claime to, aime at, sue, stand, lay or put in, for; also, to meane, seeme, intend, make a shew of, giue a colour for.

Pretendre vne chose de son chef. To derive his right vnto a thing from the source, or originall thereof.

Pretendu: m. A thing for which a pretence, or pretext is made; or whereunto a claime, or challenge is layd; a thing pretended vnto, aimed at, stood for, hoped after.

Pretendu: m. uë: f. Pretended; sued, or stood for; whervnto claime is made; also, intended, seeming, or whervof shew is made.

Pretente: f. A pretence; purpose, designement, proiect, intent.

Preterit: m. ite: f. Past, ouerpast, ouerslipped, gone, departed, expired.

Pretermettre. To pretermit, omit, ouerslip, ouerpasse, leaue, baulke, neglect; forget.

Preterinis: m. ise: f. Pretermitted, omitted, ouerpassed, ouerslipped; baulked, neglected.

Pretermission: f. A pretermission, omission, ouerpassing, baulking, neglect; forgetting.

Preteur: m. A Pretor; a Judge, or Officer of great authoritie among th'auncient Romans.

Pretexte: m. A pretext, pretence, couer, cloake, shadow, colour, shew, excuse, for.

Pretieusement. Preciously, sumptuously, excellently.

Pretieux: m. euse: f. Precious; of great value, much worth, high price; verie sumptuous, excellent, exceeding good.

Pretoire: m. The Pauilion, or house of a Pretor; also, the Court wherein he gaue audience to Suitors; also, his Jurisdiction, or the Precinct within which he might exercise it.

Pretrot: m. A little bird somewhat resembling a Linnet.

Preu. Looke Preux.

Prevalence: f. Is th'ouerplus, or that which remaines, of the price of land sold for the paiment of a debt.

Prevaloir. To preuaile, gaine, or be the better by; to receiue benefit, assistance, or succour, from; to make vse, or profit of.

Prevaricateur: m. A preuaricator, deceiuer, double dealer; a treacherous Atturney, Solicitor, or follower of a cause; one that pleads by couin, or collusion; or hath priuate intelligence with him against whom he pleads; generally, one that in all his proceedings digresseth from truth, reason, and honestie.

Prevarication: f. Preuarication; treacherie, double dealing, deceit; couin, collusion, or corruption in pleading; a treacherous continuing of intelligence with an aduersarie; a swarning from truth, reason, and honestie.

Prevariqué. Preuaricated, colluded, treacherously followed, or handled.

Prevariquer. To preuaricate, plead by couin, proceed by collusion; to deceiue, deale doubly, or treacherously, with; to betray a cause, wherewith he is trusted, vnto the aduersarie; to swaruе, or digresse from truth, and honestie.

Preudefemme: f. A chast, honest, modest, vertuous (graue, or discreet) Matron.

Preudes gents. Valiant, faithfull, honest persons.

Preud'homme. A valiant, hardie, courageous, also, a loyall, faithfull, honest, vertuous (also, a discreet) man; also, the hearbe Clarie.

Preud'hommie: f. Courage, valour, prowesse; loyaltie, faithfulneße; honestie, sinceritie, integritie; good dealing, true meaning.

Preud'hommier: m. ere: f. Valiant, courageous; loyall, faithfull; honest, sincere.

Preveil: m. An ordinarie meeting of Spinsters, and Youngsters, at a certaine place, where they worke, and make merrie, together.

Prevenant. Preuenting, anticipating, outstripping, forestalling.

Prevenement: m. A preuenting, anticipating, outstripping, forestalling.

Prevenir. To preuent, outstrip, anticipate, preoccupate, forestall; also, to appeach, or call in question.

Prevention: f. A preuention, anticipation, preoccupation, forestallment.

Condamner par prevention: viz. devant quele procez soit faict. Before th'Indictment be drawne.

Prevenu: m. (Is in Law) a preuenting of whatsoeuer may be obiected.

Prevenu: m. uë: f. Preuented, outstripped, preoccupated, anticipated, forestalled; also, accused of, charged with, called in question for; whence; Prevenu en Iustice. Publickly appeached; called into a Court, or before a Judge.

Preveu: m. euë: f. Foreseene, fore-imagined, forecast, perceiued (also, prouided) beforehand.

Prevoir. To foresee; fore-imagine, forecast; perceiue a farre off, prouide beforehand; prevent what otherwise would follow.

Prevost: m. The Prouost, or President of a Colledge, or Cathedrall Church; also, a principall Magistrate, or Judge in a good towne; also, an vnder Judge of a Prouince; the Judge of a village; or the Roturiers proper Judge; (for such as the Bailli, and Seneschal are among Gentlemen, the Prevost is among Yeomen; whose wardships he disposeth of; whose differences he iudgeth of; and on whom (offending) he inflicteth punishments, or penalties; Looke Prevosts des villes;) also, an vnder Marshall, or Prouost Marshall.

Prevost des amendes. The Collector of all amerciaments, and small casuall rights due vnto the Lord of a Mannor; stiled thus to set a difference betweene him, and th'ordinarie Judge of the Manner, who is called Prevost, & Garde, de Iustice.

Prevost d'Eglise. Is, in a Cathedrall Church, the Deane; or th'Officer which deliuers out victualls vnto the Canons, &c.

Prevost fermier. A countrey Prouost, or Officer, who leuies all amerciaments, tolls, & customes, and seises all waifes & strayes, within his Iurisdiction, either to his own vse (as in some places) or for his Lo. (as in the most.)

Prevost forain. Is (by the customes of Senlis) th'ordinarie Judge of the Prouince, & determines of all actions reall, or personall; and hath vnder his Jurisdiction all the Customers, Gentlemen, Burgers, and others residing, or dwelling within his walke.

Pre-

Prevost, & garde d
amendes; or as;
Prevost en garde.
keepes either the Kin
Lord Iusticier; hath amerciaments; and Bailli.
Prevost de l'hoste
Prevost de l'hoste
the Kings household;
downe orders for th (especially concernin ged) places within si
Prevost des March
Paris; different from led, Le Prevost de P
Prevost des Mares is often both Informe
shes disorderlie Soula way robbers, lazie r weare forbidden wea
Prevost des Monn
the Iudge of controue or among Mintmen.
Prevost des Ordre Michel;) The Maist
the Orders of France
ly obserued; inquir their infringers, who gently, but if their fa
the King; he likewis of euerie Knight, an register it.
Prevost de Paris.
betweene the citizen
the iurisdiction of th
nor generall of the P her seuen daughters Fille;) and of much ment then the Prouo to the Baylises and S
Prevost des Ribau of the Roy des Riba
Prevost vicomtal.
as Prevost en garde
Prevosts des villes
to be present at all A ges of the Police, tak and looke to the re
they belong; they liker yard-keepers; and Conseillers of that of the Prouince be ab to meddle with any c maine, Fiefs, or Hon are punishable by the Le grand Prevost
Hostel.
Prevostable: com. S
Prouost, or vnto Mar
Prevostablement. B
Prevostaire: com. P uost; subiect vnto th thence also, criminall.
Prevostal: m. ale: f.
Prevosté: m. A Prou or Court of a Prouost, and iurisdiction ther

Prevoſt,& garde de Iuſtice; Looke in Prevoſt des amendes; or as;

Prevoſt en garde. A rurall Prouoſt, or Iudge, that keepes either the Kings (inferior) Courts, or thoſe of a Lord Iuſticier; hath no benefit by any fines, eſcheates, or amerciaments; and is inferior in all reſpects vnto a Bailli.

Prevoſt de l'hoſtel; (called now adaies, Le grand Prevoſt de l'hoſtel du Roy) the ordinarie Iudge of the Kings houſehold; ſets rates vpon victualls, and ſets downe orders for the gouernment of many other things (eſpecially concerning whores, &c) in all (vnpriuiledged) places within ſix leagues of the Court.

Prevoſt des Marchands à Paris. The Lord Mayor of Paris; different from the Prouoſt of Iuſtice, who is called, Le Prevoſt de Paris.

Prevoſt des Mareſchaux. A Prouoſt Marſhall (who is often both Informer, Iudge, and Executioner) puniſhes diſorderlie Souldiors, Coyners, Free-booters, high-way robbers, lazie rogues, or vagabonds, and ſuch as weare forbidden weapons.

Prevoſt des Monnoyes. The Prouoſt of the Mint; the Iudge of controuerſies ariſing by reaſon of the Mint, or among Mintmen.

Prevoſt des Ordres (du Sainct Eſprit, & de Sainct Michel;) The Maiſter of the Ceremonies in either of the Orders of France; lookes that their Statutes be duly obſerued; inquires diligently (and priuately) after their infringers, whom in ſleight caſes he admoniſheth gently, but if their faults be great, he complaines vnto the King; he likewiſe makes a certificate of the death of euerie Knight, and cauſes the Clarke of the Order to regiſter it.

Prevoſt de Paris. The ordinarie Iudge of differences betweene the citizens, and all others that reſide within the iuriſdiction of the Chaſtelet of Paris; the Gouernor generall of the Police both of that Towne, and of her ſeuen daughters (for which looke vnder the word Fille;) and of much greater authoritie in his gouernment then the Prouoſt of other Townes, who be inferior to the Bayliſes and Seneſchalls thereof.

Prevoſt des Ribaulds; Was in old time the Lieutenant of the Roy des Ribaulds.

Prevoſt vicomtal. The Iudge of a Chaſtellenie; or, as Prevoſt en garde.

Prevoſts des villes. Rurall Prouoſts, or Iudges; are to be preſent at all Aſſiſes held by the Baillis; are Iudges of the Police, take notice of the incorporate trades; and looke to the reparations of the Townes whereto they belong; they likewiſe receiue the oathes of all Vine-yard-keepers; and in Towne-aſſemblies precede the Conſeillers of that Iuriſdiction, and if the Lieutenant of the Prouince be abſent, euer preſide; yet are they not to meddle with any cauſes belonging to the Kings Domaine, Fiefs, or Hommages; and for their negligence are puniſhable by the Bayliſes.

Le grand Prevoſt de France. as Prevoſt de l'Hoſtel.

Prevoſtable: com. Subiect vnto the Iuriſdiction of a Prouoſt, or vnto Marſhall law.

Prevoſtablement. By Marſhall law.

Prevoſtaire: com. Prouoſtall, of a Prouoſt; as a Prouoſt; ſubiect vnto the Iuriſdiction of a Prouoſt; and, thence alſo, criminall.

Prevoſtal: m. ale: f. The ſame.

Prevoſté: m. A Prouoſtſhip, or Preſidentſhip; the Seat, or Court of a Prouoſt, or Marſhall; alſo, the precincts, and iuriſdiction thereof; alſo, all ſorts of ſmall caſuall rights, accruing to a Lord Iuſticier within his Territories.

Droict de Prevoſté. The priuiledge of hauing a Prouoſt, or Marſhall, for the keeping of Courts; and leuying of Waiſes, Tolls, Eſtraits, and Amerciaments, &c; belongs to a Lord Baron, or Chattelain, that haue iuriſdiction; In ſome places alſo, a Paſſage-toll or Through-toll is tearmed thus.

Les ſept filles de la Prevoſté de Paris. Looke vnder the word Fille.

Prevoſtel: m. elle: f. as Prevoſtaire.

Prevoſtere: com. as Prevoſtaire.

Prevoyance: f. Prouidence, foreſight, forecaſt.

Preut. First, or firſt of all.

En preut, deux, trois, &c: One, two, three, &c; or Imprimis; a word vſed in Inuentories, and Accompts.

Preuve: f. A proofe, tryall, eſſay, experiment, experience; alſo, reaſon alledged, authoritie ſhewed, euidence produced, or teſtimonie brought, for the proofe, or confirmation of a matter in queſtion.

A preuve de marteau. That will abide the hammering; thats right, ſound, ſolide, good.

A la preuve l'on eſcorche l'aſne: Prov. By prouing, attempting, or laying the hands to, an Aſſe is flayed; viz. a difficultie is compaſſed; a difference compounded.

Preux. Hardie, doughtie, valiant, courragious, full of proweſſe; alſo, loyall, faithfull, ſincere, honeſt, vertuous, worthie; alſo, diſcreet, skilfull, readie.

Les neuf preux. The nine Worthies.

Au fils de preux. The Voice, or Cry of Heralds in honor of a young knight (ſonne to a valiant, and worthie father) the firſt time he preſents himſelfe, as an aſſailant, in the Liſts.

Preyer: m. A kind of Linnet that hath a long, or Larke-like, heele.

Priant. Praying, beſeeching, requeſting, intreating.

Priapiſme: m. A luſtleſſe extention, or ſwelling of the yard.

Prié: m. ée: f. Prayed, beſought, requeſted, intreated, deſired.

Priement: m. A praying, beſeeching, requeſting, intreating, deſiring.

Prier. To pray, beſeech, intreat, requeſt, implore, deſire, craue or beg of, make humble ſuit vnto.

Priez vilain, moins il fera: Pro. The more y'intreat a clowne the leſſe heele doe.

Qui veut apprendre à prier aille ſouvent ſur la mer: Prov. Much danger breedes deuotion, feare of death teaches religion.

Priere: f. A prayer, ſupplication, intreatie, requeſt, humble ſuit or deſire.

De mains vuides prieres vaines: Pro. Emptie hands make idle ſupplications; he that giues nought, by prayer getteth naught.

Prieur: m. A Prior, the head of a Priorie.

Prieuré: f. A Priorie, or Fryerie.

Prieure: f. A Prioreſſe; the head of a Priorie of Nunnes.

Prim: m. as Preſme.

Prim: m. ime: f. Prime, forward, or firſt, principall, chiefe, or ſooneſt; alſo, as Prin.

Prime Lune. The firſt quarter, or the increaſe, of the Moone.

Prim temps. The Spring.

Marjolaine prime. Marierome gentle, ſweet Marierome, fine Marierome; alſo (but leſſe properly) Nime.

Filer prim. To runne thinne, or by little and little.

Ie veux railler ma plume plus prime. I will vſe a more more neat, fine, ſmooth, eloquent ſtile; my penne ſhall runne more glibly along.

Primace: f. Primacie; excellencie; chiefe rule, higheſt eſtate, greateſt authoritie; and particularly, an Eccleſiaſticall dignitie, or commaund ouer all the Archbiſhops and Biſhops of a Kingdome, or Prouince.

Primat: m. A Primat, or Metropolitan.

Primauté: f. as Primace.

Prime. Le p. des chevaliers. A prime Knight, the Paragon, or flower, of Knights.

Prime: f. Primero at Cards; alſo, the firſt houre of the day (in Summer at foure a clocke, in Winter at eight;) alſo, a ſmall Goldſmithes weight, whereof 24 make but one graine.

Soupes de prime. Monaſticall Broweſſe; cheeſe and bread put into pottage; or chopped Parſeley ſtrewed or layed together with the fat of the Beefe-pot, on the bread.

Prime: com. Thinne, ſlender, exile, ſmall; alſo, as Prim; whence;

Cheveux primes. Smooth, or delicate haire.

Prime. (Adverb.) Primely, chiefely; forwardly, ſooneſt, firſt.

A prime. Whileare, but now, but euen now.

Retournez vous au prime? Came you backe no ſooner? came you againe but now?

Prime-barbe. The downe, or moſſie beard on a young mans chinne.

Primement. Chiefely, principally, expreſſely; alſo, thinly, narrowly; alſo, exactly, curiouſly.

Primerain: m. aine: f. Earlie, timelie, forward, that ſpringeth, buddeth, or commeth forth with the firſt.

Primeroge: com. as Primerain; whence;

Figues primeroges. Starued figges, or the firſt figges that come vpon the tree, which being too forward, commonly thriue not.

Primerouge. as Primeroge.

Primes. Or primes. Now at the laſt, onely at this time, not before now, or but euen now.

Prime-vere: f. The Spring; alſo, the Primeroſe; alſo, a Cowſlip.

Primeur: f. Smallneſſe, thinneſſe, exilitie, ſlenderneſſe; alſo, primeneſſe, perfection, excellencie; alſo, forwardneſſe.

Primices: f. Firſt fruits; the firſt fruits of the yeare; the firſtlings of yearelie fruits.

Primicial: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, firſt fruits.

Primitif: m. iue: f. Primitiue, the firſt, which hath no beginning from another.

Primogeniture: f. Prime, or firſt birth; elderſhip, or the being eldeſt; the title of the eldeſt, or firſt-borne child.

Primordial: m. ale: f. Originall, of an off-ſpring, firſt riſing, beginning from.

Prin. Thinne, ſubtill, piercing, ſharpe.

Prince: m. A Prince, or Chiefe; a Monarch, Soueraigne, great Lord, great Potentate: Some good French Authors mention ſix kinds of Princes; the firſt they ſtile Simples Princes; no better then Magiſtrates, or Officers of Soueraigntie; ſuch as were the Patriarchs and Judges among the Jewes; the Kings of Lacedemonia; the auncient Kings of France; the firſt Kings, and (at leaſt in apparance) the firſt Emperours, of Rome; the moderne Dukes of Venice; and (in Bodins opinion) the Emperors of Germanie: The ſecond, Princes ſubjects; owners of Soueraigntie within their owne countries, and yet ſubiect (one way or other) vnto greater Princes; of which ranke are the Kings protected by the great Turke; thoſe that liue vnder Preſter Iohn; the ancient Princes of Italie while they acknowledged, and held of the Empire; the ancient Dukes and Earles of Fraunce, while they affoorded their Kings no more then a bare homage, and ſome ſmall attendance in the warres; the moderne King of Bohemia, and Princes of the Empire: The third, Princes Seigneurs; which haue an abſolute power ouer the perſons, and propertie in the poſſeſſions, of their ſubiects; as had the foure firſt Monarchs of Aſſiria, Media, Perſia, and Egypt; and as at this day the great Turke, Preſter Iohn, the Muſcouite, and ſome other ſuch Tyrants haue: The fourth, Princes Souverains (more moderate, and commodious for mankind, then the former) enioy an abſolute, but publike Soueraigntie, not (much) intermedling with the priuate; of which kind, the later Emperours of Rome, with thoſe of Conſtantinople, were, and at this day the moſt of the Kings, and ſoueraigne Princes of Chriſtendome, are: The fift, Princes de race, ou du ſang; viz. the children, or off-ſpring of ſoueraigne Princes, who by their birth are capable of, or may come vnto, a Crowne; within which branch we may comprehend the eldeſt ſonnes of ſoueraigne Kings; who not hauing any particular affectation, or acceſſe, of title by creation (as our Prince) or by donation (as the eldeſt ſonne of France) are tearmed ſimply Princes: The laſt, Princes, ou Seigneurs, de Principautez, doe ſeeme to deriue their dignitie from certaine auncient, and powerfull vaſſalls of the Crowne; which hauing, in emulation of the Dukes and Earles of their time, incroached on all rights of Soueraigntie within their owne dominions, and wanting (what the others had) a Title to diſtinguiſh them from leſſe, or leſſe abſolute, Lords, verie willingly tooke this vpon them: Since which time the Kings of France reuniting, by ſeuerall meanes, the Eſtates of theſe Vſurpers vnto the Crowne, yet haue beene pleaſed to continue the name in ſuch of their fauourites as haue ſued for it; And at this day ſome great Lords, which deſire to be held Princes, are curious to procure one of their Townes to be made a Principauté, and afterwards beſtow it, or (at leaſt) the Title of it, on their eldeſt ſonnes: But theſe are no true Princes, and therefore in all aſſemblies they be ranked beneath Earles.

Ieux des princes. Such ſports as are delightfull, or pleaſing, to thoſe that vſe them.

Les princes ſe ſervent des hommes comme le laboureur des abeilles: Pro. viz. Firſt take their honey from them, and then ſmoother, or expell, them.

Les princes tiennent touſiours leurs comptes, ils ne perdent iamais rien: Prov. Princes are excellent reckoners, for they ſeldome looſe ought.

Les princes ne veulent point de ſervitudes limitez: Pro. Princes will not be ſerued on conditions.

Haine de prince ſignifie mort d'homme: Pro. Hee's neere his death thats hated by his Prince.

Princeſſe: f. A Princeſſe.

Principal: m. The Principall, or Head of a Societie; a principall, chiefe, head man, or matter; alſo, the ſumme, chiefe knot, maine point, of a matter; alſo, the principall; the ſumme in queſtion, or let out vnto vſe.

Principal: m. ale: f. Principall, ſoueraigne, moſt ſpeciall, chiefeſt, greateſt, higheſt.

Principalement. Principally, chiefely, moſt eſpecially.

Principauté: f. A Principalitie; the Eſtate, or Seat, of a Soueraigne Prince; alſo, an extraordinarie, and extrauagant Seignorie, bearing, rather then deſerning, the

the name of this dignitie, and ranked betweene an Earledome, and Vicountie; (Looke in the later end of the word Prince.)

Principe: m. A Principle, Maxime, ground of Art; also, a beginning, or a beginner.

Principesque: com. Princelie, royall, soueraigne.

Principié: m. ée: f. Begun, or in breeding.

Principion: m. A pettie Prince.

Prinfief. Le Seigneur de p. The Lord Paramount, or immediat Lord, of an inheritance charged with rent.

Pringalle: f. A fashion of warlike Engine vsed in old time.

Pringert: m. A kind of small bird.

Prins: m. inse: f. Taken; seised, &c; Looke Pris.

Prinsault. De pr. Presently, immediatly, suddainely, at an instant, at the first hop, effort, or iumpe; out of hand.

Prinsautier: m. A starter, a nimble iumper.

Prinsautier: m. ere: f. Suddaine, quicke, nimble, readie, in lant, (quickly) present, at hand.

Prinse: f. A taking, seizing; a catching, or laying hold on; Looke Prise.

Printaner. To spring, or flourish as the Spring.

Printanier: m. ere: f. Earlie, of the Spring.

Printemps: m. The Spring, or Spring time.

Priorité: f. Prioritie, senioritie, precedencie, auncientnesse, eldership; a being, or going, before others.

Pris: m. The price, rate; value; accompt, respect, estimation; worth, of things; also, the prize, reward, or honour got by, kept for, or due vnto, the best deseruer in a Iusts, &c.

A pris d'argent. For money.

Au pris que. Euer as.

A quelque pris qu'est le bled. Whatsoeuer it cost me, how deerely soeuer I pay for it.

Toute chose se vend au pris de l'oeil: Pro. All things are sold at the price th' eye sets on them.

Pris: m. ise: f. Taken; seized, caught, apprehended, receiued, accepted of; imbraced, vndertaken; also, put, or put on.

Corne prise. Growne statelie, proud, intollerable.

Eau prise, & vin pris. Turned, or curdled; growne thicke, and dead withall.

Homme bien pris. Well set, well vnderlayed.

Pris à coup perdu. Gotten more by good hap then any great cunning.

Pris à per & à couche. Surprised, ouerraught, in danger, met with, euerie way.

Pris comme le More. Looke More.

Pris du nez. That hath the Murre, whose nose is stuffed, or stopped with cold.

Cela a desia pris coup. Hath alreadie gotten a speeding, or deadlie blow; is brought to that state, that it cannot long subsist.

Elle a pris sa teste. She is resolued to doe but what she list.

Il luy a pris vne verruë. The giddie worme bites him, the toy hath taken him in the head.

Les plus rouges y sont pris. Looke Rouge.

Les plus rusez sont les premiers pris: Prov. The craftiest are the soonest caught.

Trop tard crie l'oiseau quand il est pris: Pro. Mischiefes being in, complaints are out of, date.

Prisage: m. A prisage, prising, praising, rating, valuing.

Prise: f. as Prisage; also, a taking, seizing; an arrest, or seisure; a catching, a laying hold, or hands on; also, a locke, or hold in wrastling; any aduantage; also, a pike, or quarrell; also, a bootie, or prize; also, the death, or fall of a hunted beast.

Prise de marres. A kind of penaltie for the non-payment of Cens at the day whereon they are due.

Prise de paupieres. The agglutination of the eye-lids; when they cleane either together, or to the hornie, or coniunctiue membrane, by meanes of some vlcer which hath beene ill cured.

De belle prise. Faire, well liking, worth the taking, acceptable or gracious to the eye.

De bonne prise. Good, or lawfull prize; also, full ripe, in season, fit to be cropped, gathered, or gotten.

Corner prise. Cela cornoit prise. That finished the chase, that made an end of the matter.

Estre aux prises. To be closed, locked, or grapled together; to tug one another, to wrastle, or striue with one another.

C'est vne bonne prise que d'un ieune loup: Prov. A young Wolfe is a game worth catching.

Prisé: m. ée: f. Prised, rated, valued, esteemed.

Prisee: f. A prisall, rate, valuation; a prising, rating, valuing.

Priser. To prise; esteeme, respect, reckon, accompt of; also, to tax, rate, value, set a price on.

A l'hostel priser, & au marché vendre: Prov. Rate thy commodities at home, but sell them abroad.

Qui bien se cognoit peu se prise, qui peu se prise Dieu l'avise: Pro. He that himselfe knowes well, himselfe despises, the selfe-despiser God heeds, and aduises.

Priserie: f. A prising, or praising; a rating, or valuing.

Priseur: m. A priser, praiser, price-setter; a rater, valuer, taxer.

Prisme. Looke Prime.

Prison: f. A Prison, Jayle, or Gaole.

Oncques n'y eut laides amours, ny belle prison: Pro. There neuer was faire prison, nor foule loue.

Prisonnier: m. A prisoner.

Tous les prisonniers s'en sont fuys de sa bourse. All manner of pence are flowne out of his purse.

Priste. A kind of Whall, or huge fish, whose snowt is verie long, and notched like a Saw.

Pristine: com. Former; old, auncient; wonted, accustomed; also, late, or but little past.

Privaise: f. Lieu ou l'on fait les privez; or a Pipe, or Funnell, for the voiding of the ill aire of a Priuie.

Privation: f. A priuation, depriuing, bereauing, withdrawing of; a want, or wanting; a lacking, or being without.

Privativement. Exclusiuely, by way of exclusion, or to the putting out of others.

Cela luy appartient privativement à tous autres. Belongeth onely to him, no other hath ought to doe withall.

Privauté: f. Priuatie, priuate familiaritie or friendship, inward conuersation or acquaintance.

Privé: m. A Priuie, Jakes, house of Office.

En son privé. Priuately, secretly, closely, retiredly, within his owne doores, without gadding, or medling, abroad; at his owne home.

Privé: m. ée: f. Deprined, reaued, bereft of; also, priuie, close, or secret; also, priuat, familiar, inward, bold with, neere vnto, as one of his owne; tame, gentle, tractable, domesticall; also, ordinarie; homelie; without charge, office, or authoritie in the Commonwealth.

D'un larron privé on ne se peut garder: Prov. No creature can auoid the priuie theefe.

Prive-

Priviément: m. A depriuing, or bereauing.
Privément. Priuily, closely, secretly; priuately, inwardly, familiarly; after an ordinarie fashion.
Priver. To depriue, reaue, or bereaue, despoyle of, take from.
Privilege: m. A Priuiledge, Libertie, Fraunchise, Licence, Immunitie, Prerogatiue aboue others: A French Lawyer defines it to be, Vne concession singuliere que le Roy octroye à tousiours par lettres Patentes (qui doivent estre verifiées en la Chambre des comptes.)
Privilegié: m. ée: f. Priuiledged; exempted from ordinarie dueties, or iurisdiction; out of ordinarie course.
Cas, ou delict privilegié. A notable case, or notorious crime, which none but the King, or his Judges, may examine, sentence, or censure.
Privoité. as Privauté.
Prix: m. Price; Looke Pris.
Probabilité: f. Probabilitie, likelihood, apparance of truth.
Probable: com. Probable, proueable, which may be proued, likelie, or like to be true.
Probablement. Probably, likely, proueably.
Probableté. as Probabilité.
Probation: f. A probation, proofe; approbation, prouing.
Probatique. Piscine pro. A Pond for the washing of the Sheepe that were, by the Law, to be sacrificed.
Probité: f. Honestie, integritie, sinceritie, goodnesse, vprightnesse, true dealing.
Problematique: com. Problematicall, belonging to a Probleme.
Probleme: m. A Probleme; a proposition, position, or sentence, hauing a question annexed vnto it.
Proboscе: f. A big snowt, huge nose.
Proboscide. The trunke, or snowt of an Elephant.
Procace: m. The Post, or Carrier that goeth weekely betweene Rome and Naples.
Procedé. Proceeded; passed forth, gone forward; held, continued, or kept on in a course; also, sued, or pursued.
Proceder. To proceed, goe forward, passe forth; continue, hold, or keepe on in a course; also, to sue, or pursue.
Proceder sommairement. Looke Sommairement.
Fins de non proceder. Reasons alledged for the staying of further proceedings in Court.
Iamais ne gaigne qui procede à son Maistre: Pro. He neuer thriues that sues his Maister.
Longuement proceder est à l'advocat vendenger: Pro. Delayes in Law fill Pleaders Barnes.
Procedure: f. A procedure; a course, or proceeding; a course of proceeding; a suing, a pursuing.
Procerité: f. Height, or length of bodie; tallnesse of stature.
Procés: m. A Proces, or Suit; a Case, Cause, Action, Indictment, Matter, in Law; also, debate, strife, suit, altercation, contention; also, the Processe, Apophyse, or out-standing part of a bone.
Procez mamillaires. Small teat-like sinewes in the forepart of the braine; th' instruments of the sence of smelling.
Vn diable en procés. A notable stirring, vnquiet, or litigious fellow.
Faire le procés à. To appeach, or indite; to sit vpon life and death on.
Son procés est faict. His cause is readie for Iudgement; also, he is conuicted, or condemned; he is but a dead (but a gone) man.
Pendre vn procés au croc. See Croc.
Perdre son procés. To be cast in Law.
De procés ou gist grosse amende, en tous temps bon heur nous defende: Pro. From suits that subiect be to grieuous fines, good Lord deliuer vs.
En procés il n'y a point d'amour: Pro. There is no loue 'tweene lawing aduersaries; or, there is no loue 'mong those that goe to Law.
Processeux: m. euse: f. as Processif; or full of actions, filled with suits.
Processif: m. iue: f. Litigious, debatefull, wrangling, alwayes in suits, euer at Law.
Procession: f. A procession.
Processional: m. ale: f. Processionall; belonging to, seruing for, a procession.
Prochain: m. aine: f. Nigh, neere, next, neighbouring, adioyning, close to, hard by.
Prochainement. Neerely, nighly; next, or last.
Prochaineté: f. Nighnesse, neerenesse, proximitie, neighbourhood.
Prochas: m. A purchase; a pursuit.
Prochasser. Looke Pourchasser.
Proche: com. Neere, nigh, neighbouring, adioyning, close vnto.
Prochefief: m. The Fief, or Inheritance thats held of a Lord by a direct, and immediate tenure.
Procidence: f. A falling downe of a thing out of it right place.
Proclamation: f. A proclamation, a proclaiming.
Proclamé: m. ée: f. Proclaimed.
Proclamer. To proclaime, to publish by proclamation.
Proclameur: m. A proclaimer.
Proclif: m. iue: f. Inclining, bending; subiect, or inclined, vnto; prone, apt, readie to fall.
Procours. as Parcours.
Procrastination: f. A procrastination, delay, driuing off from day to day, putting ouer till to morrow.
Procrastiné: m. ée: f. Procrastinated, driuen off, or put ouer, from day to day.
Procrastiner. To procrastinate, prolong, delay, driue, or put off, deferre from day to day.
Procreateur: m. A procreator, begetter, ingendrer, (second) maker.
Procreation: f. A procreation, ingendring, begetting.
Procreatrice: f. A procreatrix; a mother, or damme.
Procréer. To procreate, ingender, beget, breed, make.
Proculteur. Vsed sometimes in stead of Procureur.
Procuration: f. A procuration; a Warrant, or Letter, of Atturney; a following of another mans businesse by warrant; also, a Visitation executed by an Archdeacon, or some other, as the Bishops Deputie.
Passer procuration. To appoint an Atturney, or Deputie; to make one a Warrant, or Letter of Atturney, for the following of his businesse; also, to yeeld, graunt, or agree vnto.
Procuré: m. ée: f. Procured, made; solicited.
Procurer. To procure, get, purchase, acquire; to solicite, or follow a cause.
Procureur: m. A Proctor; an Atturney at Law.
Procureur fiscal. The ordinarie Proctor, or Atturney of a Lord high Iusticier, who by him prosecutes (within his owne Territories) all causes that either concerne the rights, and dependances of his Seigniorie; or tend to the maintenance of the Peace, and safetie of his vassalls.
Procureurs d' Hospitaux. Proctors of Spittles; officers officers which receiue the rents belonging to, and almes beſtowed on, them.

Procureur d'office, ou de Seigneurie. The Atturney of a Moyen Iuſticier, who not hauing any Fiſque, cannot haue a Procureur fiſcal, and therefore differs from;

Procureur de la Seigneurie de la Iuſtice; (which is) as Procureur fiſcal.

Prodenou: m. A rope which compaſſeth the ſaile-yard of a Ship.

Prodigal: m. ale: f. Prodigall, vnthriftie, riotous, lauiſh, waſtfull, exceſſiue in expence.

Prodigalement. Prodigally, vnthriftily, riotouſly, lauiſhly, waſtfully.

Prodigaliſé: m. ée: f. Prodigalized, lauiſhed, waſted, ſpent riotouſly, diſpoſed of vnthriftily, ſquandered away.

Prodigaliſer. To prodigalize it, ſpend vnthriftily, waſt, lauiſh, conſume, or ſquander all away.

Prodigalité: f. Prodigalitie, riot, vnthriftineſſe, lauiſh, or waſtfull expence.

Prodige: m. A prodigie; wonder, ſtrange ſigne, vnnaturall accident, maruelous thing.

Prodiger. as Prodiguer.

Prodigieuſement. Prodigiouſly; monſtrouſly, wonderfully, moſt ſtrangely or vnnaturally.

Prodigieux: m. euſe: f. Prodigious; wonderous, monſtrous, moſt vnnaturall or out of courſe.

Prodigue: com. Prodigall, vnthriftie, lauiſh, waſtfull, riotous, exceſſiue, or outragious in expence.

Prodigue, & grand beuveur de vin n'a du ſien ne four, ne moulin: Pro. The drunken ſpendthrift waſts his beſt poſſeſſions.

Prodiguer. To riot, lauiſh, miſpend, play the vnthrift, waſt, conſume, let flye all he hath.

Prediteur: m. A traitor, betrayer; bewrayer, diſcloſer; a treacherous, or diſloyall fellow.

Prodition: f. Prodition, treaſon, treacherie, diſloyaltie, extreame falſehood.

Prodrome: m. The fore-runner, or newes-bringer of another mans comming; a preparer of the way for another; whence;

Prodromes. The winds which riſe a little before the Dog dayes.

Production: f. A production; a prooſe, euidence, or teſtimonie produced in iuſtification, or confirmation of a cauſe.

Produict: m. icte: f. Produced; yeelded, brought forth; alledged, or ſhewed, in prooſe of.

Produire. To produce; yeeld, bring forth; cite bookes, vrge prooſes, alledge reaſons; alſo, to furniſh with leacherie, to helpe a man to a wench for money; (th' office, and practiſe of bawdes.)

Proë. Looke Prouë.

Proëme: m. A Proeme, Preface, Prologue.

Proëſme: m. The ſame; alſo, a neighbor.

Profanateur: m. A prophaner, violater, vnhallower, of.

Profanation: f. A prophanation, or prophaning; a violating, an vnhallowing.

Profane: com. Prophane; lay, temporall, worldlie; wicked, vnholie, vngodlie.

Profané: m. ée: f. Prophaned; vnhallowed, violated; turned from a holie to a common, from a diuine to an humane, vſe.

Profanément: m. as Profanation.

Profanément. Prophanely; temporally; wickedly, vngodly; worldling-like.

Profaner. To prophane, vnhallow, violate; put holie things to vnholie vſes.

Proferer. To produce, alledge, deliuer; ſpeake, pronounce, vtter.

Profeſſeur: m. A profeſſor; a publike Reader in Vniuerſities, or Schooles.

Profeſſion: f. A profeſſion, facultie, qualitie, vocation, calling; alſo, an open confeſſion, proteſtation, aduowall, acknowledgement; alſo, a Reading, or profeſſing in publike Schooles.

Profeſſoirement. Profeſſiuely, or by profeſſion.

Profez: m. Profeſſed Monkes; or, more generally, ſuch as, hauing made their vowes, are admitted of a religious Order.

Proficiat: m. A fee, or beneuolence beſtowed on Biſhops, in manner of a welcome, immediately after their inſtallments.

Profilé: m. ée: f. Wrought, or done, in thread; alſo, purfled.

Profit: m. Profit, gaine, lucre, increaſe of, aduantage in, eſtate; commoditie, benefit, vtilitie, cheuiſſance.

A profit de meſnage. Roundly, ſoundly, throughly, without trifling or dalliance, to purpoſe, with a witneſſe.

Profit ſans vertú ne vaut vn feſtu: Prov. Gaine without vertue is not worth a feskue.

Au deſpendre giſt le profit: Pro. In ſpending thrift conſiſts; diſcreet expence makes many a poore man rich.

Chaſcun tire à ſon profit: Pro. Eucrie one inclines, or hath an eye, to that which may inrich him.

Profitable: com. Profitable, gaineſull, beneficiall, commodious.

Hommes profitables. Vaſſalls, of whom a Lord both hath his reuenue, and makes other vſe to his profit.

Seigneur profitable. The poſſeſſor, or occupant of an Inheritance; he that, to make the vtmoſt of it, keepes it in his owne hands.

Profiter. See Prouſiter.

Profiterolle: f. as Pourfiterolle; and in the Plurall (Profiterolles) be the ſmall vayles, as drinking money, points, pinnes, &c, gotten by a valet or groome in his maiſters ſeruice.

Profond: m. de: f. Profound, high, deepe; of much capacitie, of great receit; ſecret; vnſatiable, bottomeleſſe.

Profondé: m. ée: f. Deepened; pierced, or ſearched farre into; preſſed, or ſunke downe into the bottome of.

Profondement. Profoundly, deepely, highly; ſecretly; vnſatiably; without any bottome.

Profonder. To ſound, ſearch, pierce, or goe deepe into; to diue, or ſinke vnto the bottome of; to preſſe downe, or put into the deepe.

Profondeur: f. Profunditie, profoundneſſe, depth, deepeneſſe; height; vnſatiableneſſe.

Profondité. The ſame.

Profuſeur: m. A powrer out; a profuſe, exceſſiue, lauiſh, riotous, waſtfull ſpender.

Progenie: f. A progenie, off-ſpring, brood, iſſue, generation.

Progenier. To progenerate, procreate, propagate; breed, beget, ingender, bring forth, young ones.

Progeniteur: m. A progenitor, aunceſtor, forefather.

Prognoſtication: f. A Prognoſtication, fore-telling, fore-ſhewing; an argument, or ſigne, of a future thing; a gueſſing, by ſignes, of things to come.

Prognoſtique. as Prognoſtication.

Prognoſtiqué: m. ée: f. Prognoſticated, propheſied, foretold.

Prognoſtiquer. To prognoſticate, foreſhew, propheſie, foretell.

Prognoſtiqueur: m. A prognoſticator, foreſhewer, Almanack-maker, fortune-teller, foreteller.

Progreder. To proceed, paſſe on, goe forward, continue in a courſe begun.

Progrez: m. A progreſſion, going forward, paſſing on, a proceeding, or continuing in a courſe begun.

Prohibé: m. ée: f. Prohibited, forbidden; let, ſtopped, hindered.

Prohiber. To prohibit, forbid; impeach, hinder, not to ſuffer.

Prohibeur: m. A prohibitor, a forbidder.

Prohibition: f. A prohibition, inhibition, forbidding.

Prohibitoire: com. Prohibitorie, prohibiting, forbidding.

Project: m. A proiect, purpoſe, deſignement, forecaſt, intent; alſo, a modell, or plot of a building made, or delineated, in paper; alſo, the iutting, out-bearing, or out-leaning of a wall, garret, or vpper roome.

Projecté: m. ée: f. Proiected, purpoſed, forecaſt, forethought of, deſigned, meant or intended before-hand; alſo, drawne, delineated, purtrayed.

Projecter. To proiect, plot, forecaſt; purpoſe, deſigne, intend; alſo, to draw, purtray, deſcribe, delineate, proportion a thing before it be done.

Projection: f. A proiection; a caſting or throwing forth, a ſtretching or extending out.

Proiſme. as Preſme.

Prolation: f. A pronouncing, vtterance, deliuerie of words.

Prolectation: f. A pleaſant inticement, a delightſome prouocation.

Prolepſie: f. A naturall foreknowledge conceiued in the mind; and hence, a figure whereby we preuent, and auoid, that which another intended to alledge againſt vs.

Prolifique: com. Fruitfull, or breeding apace.

Prolixe: com. Prolix, long, tedious; large, abundant, bounteous.

Prolixement. Prolixly, tediouſly, at length, at large; liberally, abundantly, plenteouſly.

Prologue: m. A Prologue, or fore-ſpeech; a preamble to a Play.

Prolongation: f. A prolongation, prolonging, drawing out in length; a protraction, demurre, delay.

Prolongé: m. ée: f. Prolonged, protracted, or drawne out in length; deferred, put off, delayed.

Prolongement: m. A prolonging, protracting, deferring, delaying.

Prolonger. To prolong, protract, put or driue off, draw out in length, deferre, delay.

Prolongeur: m. A prolonger, protracter, wyre-drawer, delayer.

Promarginaire: com. Extended on the margent.

Prome: m. A Butler, or Drawer; alſo, a yeoman of the Larder.

Promenement: m. A walking.

Promener. To walke; See Pourmener.

Promeſſe: f. A promiſe; a vow made, or aſſurance giuen, by word of mouth.

Belle promeſſe fol lie: Prov. Faire promiſes oblige the foole; or, are no better then fopperies; (for the words fol lie equiuocate vnto folie.)

Prometteur: m. A promiſer.

Promettre. To promiſe; couenant; vow; vndertake, or giue his word, for; alſo (in bargaining) to offer.

Promettre ſans donner eſt ſol reconforter: Prov. To promiſe and giue nought contents the foole.

Beaucoup promettre, & peu tenir couſte peu à entretenir: Pro. It coſts a man but little to ſay much and doe little.

Entre promettre, & donner doit on la fille marier: Pro. Betweene giuing ſomewhat and promiſing much, a man may be honeſtly rid of a daughter.

Promeu: m. euë: f. Promoted, aduaunced, preferred.

Promeu aux ordres eccleſiaſtiques. Hauing taken Orders.

Prominence: f. A prominence; a ſtanding, iutting, or ſtrouting, out; hence, a Pent-houſe, &c, in building; and in the bodie, that part of a member which is bigger, or thicker then it fellowes, or thoſe that be next adioyning to it.

Prominent: m. ente: f. Prominent; extending, outſtretching, iutting out or ouer.

Promis: m. iſe: f. Promiſed; vowed; couenanted; giuen by word; alſo (in bargaining) offered.

Promiſcuë: com. Promiſcuous; confuſed, mixed without order, mingled without conſideration; alſo, mutuall, indifferent, or without difference, common to many.

Promiſcuëment. Promiſcuouſly, confuſedly; indifferently, without difference, mutually, one with another.

Promontoire: m. A Promontorie; a hill which, elbow-like, lies out into the ſea.

Promoteur: m. A Promooter; alſo, a Proctor; whence;

Promoteur d'office. as Procureur fiſcal.

Promotion: f. Promotion, aduancement, preferment.

Promouvoir. To promote, aduance, preferre.

Prompt: m. te: f. Prompt, quicke, ſpeedie, nimble; prepared, readie at hand.

La plus prompte courtoiſie c'eſt la meilleure: Pro. A prompt, and willing ſpeed indeareth courteſies; the prompteſt, and moſt willing fauor's beſt.

Promptement. Promptly, quickly, ſpeedily, readily, at hand.

Promptitude: f. Promptneſſe, quickneſſe, readineſſe; proneneſſe, preparation.

Promptuaire: m. A Promptuarie, Storehouſe; Buttrie, Sellor, Spence.

Pronateurs: m. Certaine muſcles whereby the hand is bent, or bowed downewards.

Pronau: m. A Pulpit; or the place out of which the Prone is deliuered.

Prone: m. The publication made, or notice giuen, by a Prieſt vnto his pariſhioners (when Seruice is almoſt ended) of the holy daies, and faſting daies in the weeke following; of goods loſt, or ſtrayed; of ſuch as deſire to be relieued, or prayed for; of Banes of Matrimonie; or of any ſuch thing, beſides their prayers, fit for them to vnderſtand.

Prone: com. Prone; readie, nimble, quicke, wheeme, eaſily mouing; alſo, inclined, lying downe or toward, bending or ſtooping downewards.

Prononçable: com. Pronounceable.

Prononcé: m. ée: f. Pronounced.

Prononcer. To pronounce; expreſſe, name ſpecially, deliuer out or openly, vtter preciſely, denounce plainely, make expreſſe mention of.

Prononciation: f. Pronunciation; plaine vtterance, open declaration, expreſſe deliuerie, preciſe mention of; a pronouncing; a denouncing.

Pro-

Pronoſtique. A preſage, or preſaging; a foreknowledge, or foreſeeing, of; a ſhrewd, or neere gueße, at.

Pronube: f. A bride-maid; or, ſhe that attires the bride, and attends on her vnto the bridegroomes houſe.

Pronube. (Adiectiuely; or as an Epithete, or Adiunct; whence) Iuno pronube, aſſiſtant, or ſuperintendent at marriages; or, the goddeße of Mariage.

Propelet: m. A dapper, neat, ſpruce, quaint, or compt fellow.

Propenſion: f. Vne pro. à. A propenſion, or proneneſſe; a (naturall) inclination, readineſſe, or willingneſſe vnto.

Prophete: m. A Prophet.

Prophetie: f. A Propheſie.

Prophetique: com. Propheticall; prophecying; of a Prophet; belonging to a prophecie.

Prophetizant. Prophecying.

Prophetizé: m. ée: f. Prophecied; preſaged, foretold.

Prophetizer. To prophecie; preſage, diuine, foretell.

Prophiloctice: f. An Antidote, a counterpoiſon; or, that part of Phiſicke which concernes the preſeruation of the bodie.

Propice: com. Propitious, gracious, fauorable; gentle, tractable; well inclined vnto; alſo, apt, meet, fit, proper, conuenient for.

A bon bluteur May propice: Pro. Looke May.

Propine: f. Drinking money, or ſomewhat to drinke.

Propitiateur: m. A propitiator; a reconciler, pacifier, appeaſer; one that procures fauor for others.

Propitiation: f. A propitiation, or attonement procured; alſo, a propitiatorie ſacrifice.

Propitiatoire: com. Propitiatorie; appeaſing, paciſying, reconciling, attoning.

Propitier. To propitiate, or make propitious; to reconcile, attone, pacifie, appeaſe.

Proportion: f. Proportion; a proportion, rate, ſhare; meaſure, quantitie, ſize; an equallneße, or anſwerableneſſe.

Proportionné: m. ée: f. Proportioned; equally rated, ſhared; meaſured, ſquared.

Proportionnellement. Proportionally, or proportionably; equally, rateably; according to the iuſt meaſure, ſize, quantitie, or qualitie, of.

Proportionnément. The ſame.

Proportionner. To proportion; rate, ſhare, ſquare, meaſure out equally; make one thing anſwerable, or according, to the other.

Propos: m. A purpoſe, drift, end, intent, meaning, deſigne, determination; alſo, talke, ſpeech, diſcourſe, chat, conference, communication; alſo, aptneße, fitneße, conueniencie, ſeaſonableneſſe, good ſeaſon; alſo, the firſt Bill which a plaintiſe puts into a Court.

A propos. Fitly, ſeaſonably, conueniently, commodiouſly, vnto the purpoſe, or iuſt pat.

A propos truelle (followed by) bon iour Maſſon. A prouerbiall phraſe, vſed by ſuch, as beginning to quarrell, or expoſtulate, with others, perceiue on a ſuddaine ſome vnexpected thing, the reſpect or feare whereof makes them as ſuddainely change, or ſweeten, their language.

Propoſé: m. ée: f. Purpoſed, intended, meant; determined, decreed; alſo, propoſed, or propounded.

Propoſer. To purpoſe, meane, deſigne, determine, intend; alſo, to propoſe, propound, alledge; publiſh, declare, ſet, or lay downe, bring out, ſhew forth.

Propoſer reproches contre. To challenge, or except againſt (a witneſſe, &c.)

Propoſeur: m. A propounder, a propoſer.

Propoſition: f. A propoſition; a ſentence, or matter propounded; a queſtion, poſition, or ſhort ſpeech, containing the ſumme, or ſubſtance of that which we intend to proue.

Propoſition d'erreur. A Writ, or the laying, of Error; Seeke Erreur.

Propre: m. Ones proper, or peculiar ſubſtance, eſtate, liuelyhood, condition; ones owne.

Propre conventionnel. C'eſt, quand il a eſté conuenu que les deniers ſeront imployez en propre heritage; ou quand vn heritage eſt donné pour eſtre propre au donataire.

Propre naturel. Lands, or goods come from a direct aunceſtor.

Propre: com. Proper, peculiar, particular, ones owne; alſo, fit, apt, meet, conuenient, able for; handſome, ſeemelie, comelie, well accommodated, vnto the purpoſe.

Propres heritages. Ones auncient inheritance; lands deſcended, or come vnto him from his aunceſtors.

Ce propre iour là. That verie day.

Rien n'eſt noſtre n'eſt que ſoit en nous propre: Pro. Nothing can be ſaid ours thats not bred with vs.

Propre. (Aduerbially) whence;

Faict au propre. Made of purpoſe, done for the nonce.

Il ſe tenoit propre de ſa perſonne. He kept himſelfe neatly, or handſomely.

Proprement. Properly, aptly, fitly, iuſt, meet; conueniently, handſomely, decently, to good purpoſe.

Qu'aujourd'huy proprement. That iuſt to day, that this verie day.

Propret: m. ette: f. Prettie, gentle, feat; neat, ſpruce, picked, compt, minion, trickſie, trimme.

Propreté: f. Fitneße, aptneße; prettineſſe, neatneſſe, handſomeneſſe, gentleneſſe.

Proprietaire: com. A proprietarie, an owner.

Proprietaire: com. Proprietarie, as an owner.

Rente proprietaire. A rent ſeruice, or fundamentall rent, going with, or annexed vnto, the land.

Seigneur proprietaire. The right owner of an inheritance.

Proprietairement. In propertie, abſolutely, as an owner, as his owne.

Proprieté: f. A propertie; proprietie; owing, ſpecialtie in; a iuſt and abſolute power ouer, a freehold in; alſo, the nature, qualitie, inclination, or diſpoſition of; alſo, a handſome, or comelie aſſortment; a fit commoditie, or furniſhment; and, a roome or place well accommodated or fitted.

Propugnacule: com. A fortreſſe, bulwarke, ſtrong hold, ſure defence.

Propulſation: f. A propulſation, repelling, driuing back, chaſing forward, putting away.

Prorata. Au p. de. Euerie one after the rate, or according to the value, of.

Proriter. To prouoke, vrge, excite, exaſperate.

Prorogation: f. A prorogation, or proroguing; a driuing, or putting off.

Prorogé: m. ée: f. Prorogued, prolonged, put off.

Proroger. To prorogue, put ouer, driue off; prolong, deferre, delay.

Proſcript: m. An Outlaw; a man deſigned, or expoſed vnto ſlaughter; a proſcribed, or attainted perſon.

Proſcript: m. ipte: f. Proſcribed; attainted; expoſed, or deſigned vnto ſlaughter; alſo, publikely ſold, or ſet vnto ſale.

Proſcription: f. A Proſcription; Attainder; Outlarie; a deſigning, or expoſing vnto ſlaughter; alſo, Portſale, or publike ſale.

Proſcrire. To proſcribe; attaint; outlaw; to expoſe, or deſigne vnto ſlaughter; alſo, to publiſh, or proclaime the ſale of.

Proſe: f. Proſe; any ſtile which is not Verſe, or Meetre.

Proſes. Part of the Maſſe deuiſed by the Abbot of S. Galle.

De peu de choſe peu de proſe: Prov. For ſmall matters little ſtriſe; about ſmall things but ſmall adoe.

Proſelite: m. A Proßelite; a ſtranger turned to our faſhion, conuerted to our faith.

Proſenette: m. as Proxenete.

Proſerie: f. A place appointed for thē nouriſhment of poore people.

Proſne. as Prone.

Proſner. A Prieſt to preach, or to pronounce, the prone; looke Prone.

Proſopopée: f. A diſguiſing; repreſenting of perſons, faining of a perſon to ſpeake.

Proſpective: f. The Proſpectiue, Perſpectiue, or Optick Art; alſo, a (bounded) proſpect; a (limitted) view, or ſuruey.

En proſpective. Openly, to the view, for a ſhew, to be ſeene.

Proſperément. Proſperouſly, ſucceſſiuely, happily, luckily, fortunately.

Proſperer. To proſper, thriue, haue or bring lucke; to giue ſucceſſe vnto.

Proſperité: f. Proſperitie, happineſſe, good lucke, fortune, or ſucceße in.

Proſtates. Certaine kernells in the necke of the bladder.

Proſterné: m. ée: f. Proſtrated, fallen flat, layed along; foyled, felled, borne, caſt, or ſtrucken downe.

Proſternement: m. A proſtrating, or laying along; a felling, foyling, ouerthrowing.

Proſterner. To proſtrate, lay flat or along; to foyle, fell, caſt, beare, ſtrike downe.

Proſtitué: m. ée: f. Proſtituted, abandoned, ſet to ſale, abuſed, or made common by euerie one that will pay.

Proſtituer. To proſtitute, abandon, ſet open to, make common for, euerie one; to play the whore with, or ſubiect vnto the pleaſure of, any man for money.

Proſtitution: f. A proſtitution; a ſetting vnto ſale, an abandoning to the vſe of any man for money.

Proſtration: f. A proſtrating; a deiection, or falling at the feet of; or, as Proſternement.

Proſyllogiſme. A ſecond Syllogiſme proouing the firſt.

Protecole: m. The firſt Draught, or Copie of a Deed, Contract, Inſtrument, Euidence; or a ſhort Regiſter kept thereof; alſo, a Precedent for the drawing of a Patent, or Deed; alſo, a booke of ſuch Precedents; alſo, a prompter of one that makes an Oration, or acts a Part, in publike.

Protecteur: m. A protector, maintainer, defendor.

Protection: f. Protection, ſafegard, publike maintenance, or defence.

Protectrice: f. A protectrix, or defendreſſe.

Protegé: m. ée: f. Protected, couered, ſhielded, ſaued, defended.

Proteger. To protect, ſhield, couer, ſaue, keepe harmeleſſe, defend.

Protelé: m. ée: f. Shifted off, put backe, driuen or chaſed away; delayed.

Proteler. To ſhift off, put backe, driue or chaſe away; alſo, to delay, deferre, protract.

Protenotaire: m. A Pregnotarie, or principall Notarie.

Proterve: com. Froward, wayward, peruerſe, curſt, ſnappiſh, peeuiſh; alſo, prowd, ſawcie, malapert, arrogant, impudent.

Protervement. Peruerſely, waywardly, frowardly; alſo, prowdly, ſawcily, impudently.

Protervie: f. Frowardneſſe, peruerſeneſſe, curſtneße, peeuiſhneſſe, waywardneſſe; alſo, pride, ſawcineße, malapertneſſe, arrogancie, impudencie.

Protervité: f. as Protervie.

Proteſtant. Proteſting, denouncing, openly auerring or declaring.

Proteſtant de trahiſon. Proteſting, or crying, that he was betrayed.

Proteſtation: f. A proteſtation; an open declaration, auerment, or denouncement of an opinion, or purpoſe.

Proteſté. Proteſted; openly affirmed, earneſtly auerred, ſolemnly auouched.

Proteſter. To proteſt; to affirme earneſtly, auerre ſolemnely, auouch or denounce openly; alſo, to deny the payment of a demaunded debt; or to returne a Bill of debt vnpayed.

Proteſter de tous deſpens, dommages, & intereſts. To challenge, demaund, or inſiſt vpon ſatisfaction for his dammages, and a reſtorall of all his coſts and charges.

Prothocolle, & Protocole. as Protecole.

Protodiables: m. The firſt, or chiefeſt of Diuels.

Proto-martyre. The firſt Martyr.

Protonotaire: m. A Pregnotarie, principall Notarie, chiefe Scribe; (A title proper, and peculiar to the Greffier civil de la Cour de Parlement de Paris.)

Prototype: m. The firſt forme, type, modell, or patterne of.

Prou, for Prouſit; whence;

Bon prou leur face. Much good may it doe them; let them follow their owne courſes, or take their owne wayes.

Prou. Much, greatly, enough.

Provature: f. A kind of greene Cheeſe made in Italie, of the milke of Buffles.

Proüe: f. The prow, or forepart of a Ship; alſo, a point aduancing it ſelfe out of a building as the prow out of a Ship.

Provect: m. écte: f. Well growne in age, or of good yeares; well ſtudied in an Art; forward, or farre gone, in the courſe of Arts.

Provençales. Long ſlops, Marriners long breeches.

Provende: f. Prouender; alſo, a Prebendrie.

Provenir. To iſſue, come, ſtep, or ſpring forth; to proceed from.

Proverbe: m. A prouerbe; adage, old ſaid ſaw, ſhort, and wittie ſaying.

Proverbial: m. ale: f. Prouerbiall, of a Proverbe.

Proüeſſe: f. Prowеſſe, courage, dowtineſſe, valour, cheuālrie; a valiant act, a ſmall action.

Prouſit: m. Profit, gaine, thare; increaſe of, or aduantage in, eſtate.

Prou-

Proufitable: com. Profitable, gainefull, commodious, aduantageous.
Proufitablement. Profitably, gainefully, commodiouſly, aduantageouſly.
Proufitant. Gaining, profiting, thriuing by.
Proufité. Profited, gained, thriuen by.
Proufiter. To profit; get, gaine, or grow rich, by; to doe good vpon; alſo, to thriue, chieue, increaſe, grow.
Proufiterolle. as Profiterolle.
Providé: com. Prouident, heedfull, circumſpect, foreſeeing, forecaſting, warie, carefull, conſiderate.
Providemment. Prouidently, conſiderately, heedfully, with good forecaſt.
Providence: f. Prouidence, foreſight, forecaſt.
Ptoujecter. Looke Projecter.
Provignable. Propagable.
Provignage. as Provignement.
Provigné: m. ée: f. Set, or planted for breed, nouriſhed for increaſe; propagated, multiplied, renewed, increaſed.
Provignement: m. A planting, or ſetting of a ſtocke, ſtaulke, ſlip, or ſucker for increaſe; a propagating, multiplying, increaſing.
Provigner. To plant, or ſet a ſtocke, ſtaulke, ſlip, or ſucker, for increaſe; or (more properly) to couch them downe, or ſet them double, with both ends appearing aboue the ground; whereby being, within a while, rooted in the middle, they come to yeeld a manifold, or double increaſe; hence alſo, to propagate, multiply, get, raiſe, or breed, many of one; or to renew things out of an old ſtore.
Provigner des procez. To breed ſuit vpon ſuit, raiſe one ſuit out of another; to make worke for Lawyers.
Provigneur: m. A planter, or ſetter (as in Provigner) a propagater, breeder, increaſer.
Provin: m. A ſtocke, ſtaulke, plant, ſhute, ſlip, or ſucker planted, or fit to be planted (as in Provigner) for increaſe.
Province: f. A Prouince, Region, Countrey, Shire; properly ſuch a one, as hauing beene ſubdued by force of Armes, is gouerned by a Viceroy, Deputie, or Lieutenant.
Proviſeur: m. A Purueyor, or prouider.
Proviſion: f. A prouiſion, purueying, or prouiding for; alſo, prouiſion, ſtore, furniture.
Lettres de proviſion. Letters Patents whereby an office, or dignitie is graunted.
Iuger par proviſion. For a time onely, vntill further order be taken, or prouiſion made.
Par maniere de proviſion. In the meane time, the whilſt, or in the meane while.
Proviſional: m. ale: f. Prouiſionall; onely for a ſeaſon, continuing but for a time; whence;
Sentence proviſionale. A Sentence implying a limitation, or of force no longer then vntill further order may be taken.
Proviſoire: com. Prouiſorie, conditionall, implying a limitation, including a prouiſo; or, as Proviſional.
Proumeu. as Promeu.
Proumouvoir. Looke Promouvoir.
Provocation: f. A prouocation, prouoking, egging, vrging, incenſing, ſtirring, inciting.
Provocatoire: m. A Prouocatorie; a writing, &c, whereby one is prouoked; a challenge.
Provoqué: m. ée: f. Prouoked, vrged, incited, incenſed; alſo, challenged, or defied.
Provoquement: m. A prouoking.
Provoquer. To prouoke, egge, vrge, moue, ſtirre, incite, incenſe; defie, challenge.
Provoqueur: m. A prouoker; a challenger.
Prouvé: m. ée: f. Proued, tryed; aſſured, verified; iuſtified, made good.
Prouver. To proue, try, eſſay; verifie, approue, aſſure, confirme, iuſtifie, make good.
Prouveu: m. Looke Pourveu.
Prouveu: m. euë: f. Prouided or purueyed of, ſtored or furniſhed with; alſo, foreſeene, forecaſt, conſidered beforehand.
Prouvoir. To puruey or prouide for, to furniſh or ſtore with; alſo, to foreſee, forecaſt, beware, take heed, looke to, ſhift for, conſider beforehand.
Prouvoyance: f. Purueyance, proniſion; foreſight, forecaſt, heed, caution, regard, conſideration.
Prouvoyant. Prouiding, purueying for; heeding, regarding, looking vnto.
Proxenete: m. A Broker, or Huckſter; a meane dealer betweene partie and partie.
Proximité: f. Proximitie, neereneſſe, nighneſſe, neighborhood; the next degree of linage, or kindred.
Proye: f. A prey, bootie; ſpoyle.
Cela n'eſt pas proye pour ſes levriers; That is no Lettuce for his lips.
Qui a le vilain il a ſa proye: Pro. He that can ſeize a churle, commaunds all that he hath.
Regnard qui beaucoup tarde attend la proye: Pro. The fox thats long away, for purchaſe waiteth.
Proyer. as Preyer.
Prudemment. Prudently, wiſely, diſcreetly, aduiſedly, cunningly.
Prudence: f. Prudence, diſcretion, circumſpection, aduiſedneſſe, warineſſe; cunning, skilfullneſſe, knowledge.
Prudent: m. ente: f. Prudent, warie, ſage, diſcreet, circumſpect, aduiſed; ſlye, cunning, skilfull, expert, experienced in many matters.
Femme prudente, & ſage, eſt l'ornement de ſon meſnage: Prov. A woman wiſe, and prouident, doth beautifie her tenement.
Prune: f. A Plumme.
Prune blanche. The wheat, or white Plumme.
Prune de cheval. A Horſe Plumme.
Prune de Damas. A Damſon, or Damask Plumme.
Prune ſauvage. A wild Plumme; a Bullace; (as alſo) a Sloe, or Snag.
Il en pelera la prune. He will deerely aby it, he will haue much trouble about it, he wil ſurely pay, or ſmart, for it.
Il ne fait pas bon manger des prunes avec ſon Seigneur: Pro. Looke Manger.
Pruneau: m. A Prune; or a little Plumme.
Prunelat: m. The name of a Vine, or Grape, whereof there be two ſorts, the one white the other red.
Prunelette: f. A little Plumme.
Prunelier: m. The blacke thorne, or Sloe tree.
Prunelle: f. A Sloe, or Snag; alſo, the hearbe called Prunell, or Brunell, Hookeheale, Sicklewort, Carpenters hearbe; alſo, the ball, or apple of the eye.
Prunier: m. A Plumme tree.
Prunier ſauvage. The Bullace tree.
Prunier: m. ere: f. Bearing, or abounding with, Plummes; of, or belonging to, Plummes; louing Plummes.
Prurir. To itch, to tickle; to deſire luſtfully.
Prurit: m. An itching, or tickling; a luſtfull deſire of, or affection vnto.
Pruyer. as Preyer.

Pſalme: m. A Pſalme; a ſong made of, or vnto, God.
Pſalmiſte: m. A Pſalmiſt, a maker of Pſalmes.
Pſalmodie: f. The ſinging of Pſalmes.
Pſalmodier. To ſing Pſalmes.
Pſalterion: m. A Pſalterie; a melodious Inſtrument which reſembles a Harpe.
Pſaultier: m. A Pſaulter; a booke of Pſalmes.
Pſeaume. Looke Pſalme.
Pſeudonard. Spike, Lauender, Lauender Spike.
Pſeudonard femelle. Female Lauender, white Lauender; the ſmalleſt Lauender.
Pſilothre: f. Brionie, Tettarberrie; alſo, an ointment for the taking of haire away.
Pſoloente. A kind of lightning whoſe flaſh deſtroyes whatſoeuer it lights on. ¶Rab.
Ptiſane. as Tiſanne.
Ptoſchalazon. A Polypragmon, medler, buſie-bodie. ¶Rab.
Ptyade: f. A greeniſh aſh-coloured Aſpe, which raiſing vp her necke and head, ſpits venome at thoſe whom ſhe cannot reach with her teeth.
Puamment. Stinkingly, moſt vnſauorily.
Puant: m. ante: f. Stinking, ranke, vnſauorie, ſtrong; that hath an ill waſt, or ſmell.
Beſtes puantes. Vermine; or beaſts of the chaſe of the ſtinking foot; Looke vnder Beſte.
Herbe puante. Small ſtinking Fleabane Coniza.
Debonnaire mire fait playe puante: Prov. A courteous Surgeon makes a corrupt ſore.
Puanteur: f. A ſtinke, ſtench; rankeneſſe; a noyſome waſt, ſtrong ſauor, ill ſmell.
Puantiſe: f. as Puanteur.
Puberté: f. Youth; or the age wherein haire begins to grow about the priuities.
Public: m. ique: f. Publike, vulgar, common; manifeſt, euident, apparant, in the eyes of the world.
Publicain: m. A Publican, a Tole-gatherer; a Farmer, or leuier of publike reuenue.
Publication: f. A publication, diuulgation, manifeſtation, open diſcouerie, making of things common.
Publication d' enqueſtes. C' eſt quand les enqueſtes ſont rapportées, & receuës, & que les parties en prennent communication; apres laquelle ils ne ſont plus receus à bailler reproches, & obiects de teſmoings. ¶Ragueau.
Publication d'un livre. The edition, ſetting forth, or ſending abroad, of a booke.
Publié: m. ée: f. Diuulged, publiſhed, ſet forth, manifeſted, made common.
Publier. To publiſh, diuulge, manifeſt, proclayme, noyſe abroad, lay open, ſet forth, make common, or knowne.
Publieur: m. A publiſher, cryer, proclaymer.
Publiquement. Publikely, commonly, manifeſtly, openly, all abroad, in the face, or eye of the world.
Puce. as Pulce.
Puceal: m. ale: f. Virgine, maiden, or maidenlie; of a virgin or maiden, virgin or maiden-like.
Puceau: m. A man that hath not loſt his virginitie; alſo, one that with a puffe lights a candle newly put out; alſo, a kind of Vine.
Pucelage: m. Pucellage, virginitie, maidenhead; alſo, the end of a maidens girdle hanging downe before; alſo, the hearbe called Periwinkle.
Puceler. To corrupt, or deflowre, a maid.
Pucelle: f. A maid, virgine; girle, damſell, mother; alſo, the riuer Pilchard; or, a young, or little Shadfiſh.
Pucelle de Marolle. A cracke peece; a wench that hath got a clap; one that rather goes for a maid then is one.
Petites pucelles ſont enſemble belles: Pro. Young girles looke faire when they together are.
Pucher. To take vp. ¶Norm.
Pudeur: f. as Pudicité.
Pudibunde: com. Shamefaſt, baſhfull, modeſt, honeſt.
Parties pudibundes. The priuie parts, or members.
Pudicité: f. Pudicitie, chaſtitie, modeſtie, puritie, vntaintedneſſe, cleaneneſſe of life.
Pudique: com. Chaſt, pure, vntainted, cleane; ſhamefaſt, modeſt, honeſt.
Pudiquement. Chaſtly, purely, vntaintedly, modeſtly, ſhamefaſtly.
Pueille. as Peulle.
Puël. Bois eſtans en puël. Hauing beene lately cut, or lopped.
Puër la Vigne. To cut a Vine; or, as Pouër.
Puerilité: f. Puerilitie, boyiſhneſſe, childiſhneſſe, trifling, ſimplicitie.
Puëtte: f. A peg in a Hogshead, &c, of Wine; alſo, the peg-hole.
Pugnitif: m. iue: f. Warlike, fighting, contentious, quarrellſome.
Puinne: f. Spindle-tree, Prick-wood, Prick-timber.
Puir. To ſtinke, ſmell ranke, yeeld an ill waſt, haue a bad ſauor.
Ce qu'on donne luit, ce qu'on mange puit: Prov. True bountie conſiſts rather in giuing men meanes then meat; or, as vnder Luire.
Puis: m. A well, a Draw-well; a pit.
Marier la cave, & le puis. To mingle wine and water together.
Pendant que la corde eſt au puis. While we haue opportunitie, while occaſion ſerues.
Pierre en puis n'eſt pas pourrie: Pro. Looke vnder Pierre.
Puis. (Of the Verbe Pouvoir;) I am able, I can.
Puis. Then, after, moreouer, furthermore.
Puis que. Seeing that, ſince that.
Et puis. Well then, ſo then; hoe, what ſir, how then, what though, what of that, put the caſe it be ſo.
Et puis; qu'en ſera il? After all that, or ſuppoſe all that be ſaid, or done, what will follow, or what come of it? (in diſdaine.)
Puiſé: m. ée: f. Drawne vp, taken in, ſucked vp; drayned, or drawne dry.
Puiſement: m. A drawing vp, or out of; a drayning, or drawing dry.
Puiſer. To draw vp, take in, or ſucke out; alſo, to drayne, or draw dry.
La Navire puiſe. Leakes, or ſhippes in water apace.
Puiſeur: m. A drawer, or drayner of water, &c.
Puiſne: f. as Puinne.
Puiſné. Punie, younger, borne after.
Puiſſamment. Puiſſantly, powerfully, mightily, ſtrongly, forcibly.
Puiſſance: f. Puiſſance, power, or powerfullneſſe; force, might, ſtrength; abilitie, poſſibilitie, wealth, ſway, authoritie, iuriſdiction; alſo, a power, armie, or great number of men.
Puiſſance de fief. The power ſome Landlords haue to redeeme to their owne vſes the land ſold by their Tenant, by paying vnto the purchaſer whatſoeuer he gaue for it, or defrayed about it.

Puiſſant. Puiſſant, moſt able; wealthie, ſwaying where he c
Sergent puiſſant, within his walke.
Puitier: m. A digger
Puits: m. as Puis; a
Pulce: f. A flea; a Spider.
Pulce de mer. A Shrimpe.
Pulces muſniere Lice.
L'herbe à pulces. ciere.
Meſurer les ſauts time verie fondly.
A la Saincte Luce
Le iour croiſt.
Qui ſe couche av
pulces: Prov. We (This Prouerbe is al poore, or hard maiſt ped, or drawne.)
Pulceau: m. The nan
Pulceux: m. euſe; f
Pulcier: m. ere: f. F
Pulciere: f. The hear ſeedes of that reſem kilt them.)
Pulçot: m. A little fl fretter.
Pulege: m. Pennie ro Lurkydiſh.
Pullulant. Budding, out.
Pullulé. Budded, ſhot
Pulluler. To bud, ſhoo
Pulmonaire: f. The of Jeruſalem; alſo, Liuerwort.
Pulmonée: f. as Po
Pulpe: f. The pulpe, or or ſolide and muſcul
Pulpite. Looke Poulp
Pulsatil: m. ile: f. F
Pulsatille: f. Pulſati flower.
Pulsation: f. A kno
Pulte: f. A poultice.
Pulverin: m. The to Pulverizé: m. ée: f powder.
Pulverizer. To pulu powder.
Pulvinaire: m. A bo â banketting bed m honor, and for the e
Pulviné: m. ée: f. ons, or pillowes.
Pumice. Pierre pun
Punais: m. aiſe: f. uor, loathſomely ſm obſtructed noſe, an thing.
Punaiſe: f. The noyſo called, a Punie, or t
Punaiſe des cham

Puiſſant. Puiſsant, mightie, powerfull, ſtrong, forcible, moſt able; wealthie, of great meanes or authoritie, ſwaying where he comes.
Sergent puiſſant,& reſſeant. Which reſides, or dwels within his walke.
Puitier: m. A digger, or maker of pits; a Well-maker.
Puits: m. as Puis; a Well.
Pulce: f. A flea; alſo, the ſmall ſpeckled, or ſtreaked Spider.
Pulce de mer. A ſmall vermine in the ſea reſembling a Shrimpe.
Pulces muſnieres des Hoſtels-Dieu de Paris. Lice.
L'herbe à pulces. Fleabane, or fleawort; Looke Pulciere.
Meſurer les ſauts des pulces. To ſpend, or beſtow time verie fondly.
A la Saincte Luce du ſaut d'une pulce: Prov. viz. Le iour croiſt.
Qui ſe couche avec les chiens ſe leve avec des pulces: Prov. We grow the worſe for ill companie: (This Prouerbe is alſo applyable to ſuch as adhere vnto poore, or hard maiſters, from whom no good can be hoped, or drawne.)
Pulceau: m. The name of a Vine.
Pulceux: m. euſe; f. Full of fleas.
Pulcier: m. ere: f. Fleaie; of a flea; full of fleas.
Pulciere: f. The hearbe Fleawort; alſo, Fleabane; (The ſeedes of that reſemble fleas; the perfume of this doth kill them.)
Pulçot: m. A little flea; alſo, the worme called a Vine-fretter.
Pulege: m. Pennie royall, Puliall royall, Pudding graſſe, Lurkydiſh.
Pullulant. Budding, ſhooting, ſpringing, or ſprouting out.
Pullulé. Budded, ſhot, ſprung, or ſprouted out.
Pulluler. To bud, ſhoot, ſpring, put, or ſprout out.
Pulmonaire: f. The hearbe called Lungwort, or Cowſlip of Ieruſalem; alſo, the moſſe called Lungwort, or wood Liuerwort.
Pulmonée: f. as Poulmelée.
Pulpe: f. The pulpe, or pith of plants, &c; alſo, the brawne, or ſolide and muſculie fleſh of the bodie.
Pulpite. Looke Poulpitre.
Pulſatil: m. ile: f. Knocking; beating.
Pulſatille: f. Pulſatill, Paſque flower, Paſſeflower, Flaw-flower.
Pulſation: f. A knocking, thumping, beating.
Pulte: f. A poultice.
Pulverin: m. The touch-hole of a peece of Ordnance.
Pulverizé: m. ée: f. Puluerized; beaten, or made, into powder.
Pulverizer. To pulucrize; to reduce, beat, or make, into powder.
Pulvinaire: m. A boulſter for the bed of a Prince; alſo, a banketting bed made in the Romane Temples to the honor, and for the eaſe, of their gods.
Pulviné: m. ée: f. Furniſhed, or boulſtered, with cuſhions, or pillowes.
Pumice. Pierre pumice. A Pumeiſe ſtone.
Punais: m. aiſe: f. Stinking, ranke or ſtrong of ſauor, loathſomely ſmelling; alſo, hauing a corrupt, or obſtructed noſe, and therefore ſmelling little, or nothing.
Punaiſe: f. The noyſome, and ſtinking worme, or vermine called, a Punie, or the bed Punie.
Punaiſe des champs. The field Punie (is greene) and leſſe then the other, but euerie whit as ſtinking.
L'herbe aux punaiſes. Fleabane, Coniza, Fleabane Mullet.
Punaiſie: f. Stinke, ſtench, ranke ſauor.
Punctille. as Pointille.
Punction: f. A pricking, foyning, ſticking; ſtinging; alſo, a pointing.
Punctual: m. ale: f. Punctuall, pointing; alſo, pricking, or ſtinging.
Cautere punctual. See Cautere.
Punctuation: f. A pointing; a marking, or diſtinguiſhing by points.
Punctué: m. ée: f. Pointed; noted, marked, or diſtinguiſhed by points.
Punctuer. To point; to make points; to note, marke, or diſtinguiſh by points.
Puneſie, for Pleureſie; (a ruſticall word.)
Puni: m. ie: f. Puniſhed, chaſtiſed, corrected.
Punir. To puniſh, chaſtiſe, correct, inflict plagues on, take vengeance of.
Puniſſable: com. Puniſhable.
Puniſſeur: m. A puniſher, chaſtiſer, corrector.
Punition: f. A puniſhment, chaſtiſement, correction; paine inflicted, vengeance taken; alſo, a puniſhing, chaſtiſing, correcting.
Pupe. The fiſh Pourcontrell, or Many-feet.
Pupilaire: com. Pupillarie, of or belonging to a Pupill.
Pupilarité: f. Nonnage.
Pupile: m. A Pupill, Ward, Orphan, vnderling, one thats vnder age.
Pupille. as Pupile.
Pupine. The name of an apple.
Puput: m. The bird called a Whoope, or dunghill Cocke; alſo, a kind of Frog.
Puputer. To whoope, or cry like the Whoope.
Pur: m. ure: f. Pure; whole, perfect, full, entire, of it ſelfe; white, faire, cleere, cleane, vnſpotted, vncorrupted, neat; thinne, fine, ſmooth; innocent, ſimple, honeſt, vpright, ſincere; without mixture, filth; condition, or exception.
Pure perte du vaſſal. An abſolute ſeiſure of, or entrie into, the land of a tenant, or vaſſall, made by his Landlord.
Default ſimple, ou pur. Looke Simple.
A pur, & à plein. Flatly and plainely, with full authoritie.
Purée: f. Sap, iuyce.
La purée de pois. Peaſe ſtrayned, Peaſe pottage, or the liquor of Peaſe.
La purée de Septembre. Wine.
Pureinent. Purely; neatly, fairely, cleerely; wholly, fully, entirely; ſincerely, vprightly; innocently, ſimply; without welt, or gard; without exception or condition.
Purer. To mattar; to grow vnto a head, or mattar; alſo, to yeeld, or diſtill mattar.
Pureté: f. Puritie, pureneſſe; neatneſſe, faireneſſe, clenlineſſe, cleereneſſe; honeſtie, ſincerities, integritie, innocencie, intireneſſe.
Purgation: f. A purgation, purging, cleering, clenſing, ſcowring; a good excuſe, full ſatisfaction, expurgation, iuſtification.
Purgatoire: m. Purgatorie.
Purgatoire: com. Purgatorie, purging, clenſing, expiatorie, ſatisfactorie.
Purge: f. A purge, purgation, cleering, expiation, iuſtification, ſatisfaction; or the indeauor which a delinquent vſes to purge himſelfe.

Purgé: m. ée: f. Purged, cleanſed, cleered; iuſtified; expiated.

Purgement: m. as Purgation.

Purger. To purge, cleanſe, cleere, ſcowre; expiate, ſatisfie, remedie, iuſtifie, excuſe fully.

Purger les arrierages de rentes; les deſpens, les debtes, les droicts ſeigneuriaux. To diſcharge, or pay them.

Purger le defaut. A defendant, or any other, that appeared not at firſt, to come in by himſelfe, or by his Atturney, and offer to anſwer.

Purger vne maiſon, ou heritage. C'eſt faire ſçavoir par proclamations, & affiches, que l'heritage &c, eſt à purger, & qu'il ſera decreté par iuſtice, afin qu'il ſoit purgé & deſchargé de toutes charges, hypotheques, & empeſchémens, autres que ceux qui ſeront declarez, & receus par ſentence. ¶ Ragueau.

Purificatif: m. iue: f. Purificatiue, purifying.

Purification: f. A purification, purifying, cleering, clenſing, purging, ſcowring.

Purifié: m. ée: f. Purified, cleered, clenſed, purged, ſcowred.

Purifier. To purifie, cleere, clenſe, purge.

Puron: m. A botch, powke, or blaine full of ordure, or filthie mattar.

Purpurin: m. ine: f. Of Purple, or Purple-like.

Purulent: m. ente: f. Mattarie, corrupt, filthie, full of bealing, full of ordure.

Puſillanime: com. Daſtardlie, cowardlie, faint-hearted, white-liuered.

Neceſſité rend magnanime le coüard & puſillanime: Pro. Neceſſitie, and diſtreſſe puts courage into cowards.

Puſillanimement. Daſtardly, cowardly, without mettall, heart, or courage.

Puſillanimité: f. Puſillanimitie, faint-heartedneſſe, cowardiſe.

Puſſons: m. The ſmall greene flyes that lye cluttering vnder the leaues of hearbs, and within a while deuoure them.

Puſtule: f. A puſh, blaine, wheale, water-powke, ſmall bliſter.

Puſtuleux: m. euſe: f. Full of puſhes, wheales, blaines, little bliſters.

Putain: f. A whore, queane, punke, drab, flurt, ſtrumpet, harlot, cockatrice, naughtie pack, light huſwife, common hackney.

Effronté en putain. As bold, or braſen-faced, as a whore.

Putain fait comme la corneille, plus ſe lave & plus noire eſt elle: Pro. A queane and Crow alike doe fare, the more they waſh the fouler they are.

Aſſez fait qui fortune paſſe, & plus encor qui putain chaſſe: Pro. as vnder Fortune.

Fils de putain ne fit iamais bien: Prov. Neuer did ſonne of a whore doe well.

Putanier. as Putier.

Putaſſer. To haunt whore-houſes; to vſe, follow, or affect whores.

Putaſſerie: f. Whoring, whore-hunting, bawdrie, wenching.

Putaſſier: m. ere: f. Whoriſh, whore-like, of or belonging to a whore.

Putatif: m. iue: f. Putatiue, reputed, imaginarie, ſuppoſed, eſteemed.

Puteal: m. ale: f. Deepe as a pit; of a pit.

Puterbe: m. An Hermit (or any other) whoſe breath is tainted by much feeding on hearbes.

Puterie: f. Whoring, whoredome, whore-hunting, wenching.

Putier: m. A whoremonger, whore-hunter, ſmell-ſmocke, wencher.

Putier: m. ere: f. Whoriſh, drab-like, impudent, immodeſt, light; laſciuious, wenching, whore-hunting.

Putoir: m. A ſtinke, ill ſauor, filthie waſt, ranke ſmell; alſo, as Putier, and as Putois.

Putois: m. A Fitch, or Fullmart.

Putput: m. as Puput.

Putredineux: m. euſe: f. Full of rottenneſſe.

Putrefactif: m. iue: f. Putrefactiue.

Putrefaction: f. Putrefaction, rottenneſſe, corruption.

Putrefié: m. ée: f. Putrified, rotten, corrupted.

Putrefier. To putrifie, rot, corrupt.

Putride: com. Putride, putrified, rotten, tainted, corrupted.

Putte: f. A wench, laſſe, girle, modder; (eſpecially one that is no better then ſhe ſhould be.)

Puy: m. as Puis; A Well; alſo, a hillocke, or high clot of earth.

Puye: f. as Appuye.

Puyne. Spindle-tree, Prick-wood, Prick-timber.

Py: m. as Pis; the breaſt &c; (an old word.)

Pyafer, & Pyapher. Looke Piaffer.

Pye-pou. The round-rooted, or Onyon-rooted Crowfoot.

Pygmé: m. ée: f. Dwarfie, ſhort, low, little, of a ſmall ſtature.

Pylore. The maw-gut, or ſtomacke-gut.

Pyment. Looke Piment.

Pynthe. as Pinte. ¶ Rab.

Pylaride: f. A fire-fly, or worme bred in the fire, from which if it be kept any while, or remoued any diſtance, it dies.

Pyramide. as Piramide.

Pyrate: m. A Pyrate, Rouer, ſea-robber.

Pyraterie: f. Pyracie, rouing, ſea-robbing.

Pyratique: com. Pyraticall; of, or belonging to, a Pyrate.

Pyrethre: m. The hearbe called Bartram, or Pellitorie; or, the right Pellitorie of Spaine.

Pyrethre ſauvage. Wild Bartram, wild Pellitorie; alſo, the hearbe Sneeſewort.

Pyrolle: f. Pirola, (hearbe) Winter-greene.

Pyronomie: f. The art of gouerning, or ordering Alchimiſticall fires.

Pyrope. A kind of fierie-red Carbuncle (ſtone.)

Pyrothecnie: f. The making of fire-workes.

Pyrothique: com. Cauſticke, and corroſiue.

Pyrouët: m. A Shittlecocke.

Pyrouëtte. See Pirouëtte.

Pyrrique. A ſouldierlie forme of dauncing in Armour; inuented by Pyrrhus King of Macedonia.

Pyvoine: f. Pionie, Peonie, Kings bloome, Roſe of the mount.

Q

Qvadragenaire: com. Of fortie yeares.

Quadrageſimal: m. ale: f. Lenten; of, or belonging to, Lent.

Quadrain: m. A Stanze, or Staffe of foure verſes.

Quadran: m. A Sunne-dyall.

Quadrangle: m. A Quadrangle; a ſquare Plot, or figure hauing foure angles, and foure ſides.

Quadrangulaire: com. Quadrangular, foure-cornered, foure-ſquare.

Qua-

Quadrangule : com. The ſame.
Quadrannier : m.ere : f. Of foure yeares ; alſo, foure yeares old.
Quadraturé : m. ée : f. Square, well growne, well ſet, almoſt as thicke as long.
Quadre. les Quadres de la Lune. The Quarters of the Moone.
Quadré : m.ée : f. Squared ; alſo, fitted, or agreeing, vnto.
Quadrelle : f. An Arrow, a Shaft.
Quadrer. To ſquare ; alſo, to ſute, be fit, agree vnto, ſtand well with, ſerue juſt in a place.
Quadrilettre : f. A word of foure letters.
Quadrille : f. A Squadron containing 25 (or fewer) Souldiers.
Quadrin : m. as Liard.
Quadrivie : f. A place where foure ſundrie wayes doe meet ; alſo, a way that hath foure ſeuerall turnings, or partings.
Quadrupe : com. Foure-footed.
Quadruple : com. Quadruple, foure double, foure-fold, foure times as much.
Quadruplé : m.ée : f. Quadruplated ; fouled, renewed, repeated foure times ouer ; made foure times as much.
Quadruplement : m. as Quadruplication.
Quadrupler. To fould, renew, repeat foure times ; to quadruplate, or make foure times as much.
Quadruplication : f. A quadruplication ; a renewing, repeating, making foure times ouer.
Quadruplique du defendeur : f. A ſecond reioynder ; or the third defence made, or writing put into Court, by a defendant.
Qu'a-huqu'a-ha. Well or ill, I know not how ; here or there, one way or another ; alſo, laboriouſly, hardly, painefully, with much paine, with great adoe.
Quai : m. The key of a riuer, or bauen ; alſo, a piller of Marble, or ſtone.
Quaiſſe : f. A ſquare woodden cheſt, ſuch as Armour, or Marchandiſe is carried in ; alſo, a great, and cheſtlike partition in garners, to put corne in ; alſo, a Drumme, or (moſt properly) the barrell, or wood of a Drumme ; alſo, a Scoope, or Ladle, ſuch as Canoniers lade their peeces withall.
Quaiſſier : m. A Cheſt-keeper ; he that keepeth the keyes of the cheſt wherein publicke Records, or commodities, are kept.
Qualibre : m. The bore of a Gunne, or ſize of the bore ; (and hence) alſo, the ſize, capacitie, or faſhion of any ſuch thing ; alſo, the ſtate, condition, calling, or humor of a man ; whence ;
Il n'eſt pas de mon qualibre. He is not of my qualitie, ranke, or humor, he is no fit companion for me.
Qualibré : m. ée : f. Fit for, or fitted vnto, the bore, agreeing with, or applied vnto the ſize, of.
Balotte de fer bien qualibrée. A bullet of a good ſize, or ſeruing for a large bore.
Qualifié : m.ée : f. Qualified, intitled, ſtiled, called, tearmed.
Qualifier. To qualifie, tearme, intitle, call, ſtile.
Qualité : f. A qualitie, condition, ſort, faſhion, manner, degree, ſtate, name, title, function, calling ; any circumſtance accompanying, or belonging to, a thing.
Quand. When, at what time, when as ; alſo, if that, although, howbeit, notwithſtanding, all were it ; alſo, ſeeing that ; alſo, till, vntill, or againſt the time that.
Quandoque. Docteur de quandoque. A dunſicall Doctor.
Quaneuſe : f. A Mill-hopper.

Quant à. As for, as touching, in as much as, in regard of.
Quant & quant. Forthwith, incontinently, therewith, by and by.
Quant & quant vous. Altogether, together with, in companie of, you.
Quant eſt de moy. For my part, as for me.
Quant ores. Albeit, though, although.
D'icy à quant ? How farre off ? how long to ? vntill what time ?
Il fait bien le quant à moy. He ſtands on verie nice tearmes, he makes verie ſtrange, or daintie of the matter ; alſo, he ſlackens, relents, growes calme ; alſo, hee hath a good conceit of himſelfe, or values a ſtrange opinion of his owne aboue all others.
Quantes fois. How often, how many times.
Toutes & quantes fois ; or, Toutes fois & quantes. As often, as many times, as.
Quantieſme : com. Of what number, or which (in number ?) in what place, ranke, order ?
Quantité : f. Quantitie, ſize, bigneſſe, greatneſſe ; a deale, ſtore, plentie, abundance.
Quanton. as Canton.
Quaqueroles : f. The tawnie Beetles which buzze about by flockes in hay-time ; alſo, the ſhells of Snayles, &c.
Quaquet : m. Prattling, tattling, little tattle, prittle prattle, much talke, lowd chat, many words.
Quaquetant. Prattling, tattling, babbling, chattering.
Quaqueté. Tattled, prattled, babbled.
Quaquetement : m. A prating, prattling, babbling, tattling, chattering.
Quaqueter. To prate, prattle, babble, tattle, chatter, vſe many words.
Quarantaine : f. Lent ; alſo, a terme of fortie dayes, du-which prayers are, in ſome places, powred out for the dead.
La Quarantaine du Roy. Fortie dayes truce, during which it was not lawfull for a man, in S. Lewis his time, to proſecute any reuenge againſt the kinſmen, or friends of ſuch as had wronged, or outraged him.
Quarante. Fortie.
Quarantiéme : com. The fortieth.
Quarentaine. as Quarantaine.
Quareſme : m. Lent ; See Careſme.
Quareſmeau. Iour quareſmeau. A Lenten, or fiſh-day.
Quarillon. as Carillon.
Quarlet : m. The ſmall Plaice, or freſh-water Plaice ; or, a kind of broad, and ſhort Plaice.
Quarne : m. The Horne beame, Hard beame, Witch Haſell, Yoke tree.
Quarneau. as Creneau.
Quarquan. See Carcan.
Quarre : m. A Square, Quadrant, ſquare figure ; any thing that is foure ſquare ; and (particularly) a ſquare bed in a Garden.
Quarré : m.ée : f. Square, foure-ſquare ; ſquared, made square.
Quarreau : m. Is (generally) a little ſquare, or ſquare thing ; (particularly) a Diamond, or Picke, at Cardes ; alſo, a ſquare tile, or bricke, fit to paue with ; alſo, a cuſhion ; alſo, a bed in a Garden ; alſo, a Quarrell, or boult for a Croſſebow, or an Arrow with a foure-ſquare head ; alſo, as Plinthe ; See Carreau.
Le quarreau de priſons. The Maiſters ſide.
Quarrefour : m. The place in, or part of, a towne where- at foure ſtreets meet a head.

Par tous les quarrefours de. Throughout all the foure Quarters, corners, or ſtreets of.

Quarrelé. m.ée: f. Paued, floored, or laid with ſquare tiles, or ſtones; alſo, ſoled, or cobled, as a ſhooe.

Quarreler. To paue, lay, or floore, with ſquare tiles, or ſtones; alſo, to ſole, or coble, a ſhooe.

Quarrelet: m. as Quarlet; or as Carrelet.

Quarreleur: m. A ſoler, or cobler of ſhooes.

Quarreleure: f. A pauing, flooring, or laying with square tiles, &c; alſo, a ſoling, or cobling of ſhooes.

Quarrellage: m. A pauement of, or pauing with, ſquare tiles, or ſtones; alſo, big timber to be ſawed into quarters.

Quarrellé: m.ée: f. as Quarrelé.

Quarrément. Squarely.

Quarrer. To ſquare, to make ſquare.

Se quarrer. To ſtrout, or ſquare it, looke big on't, carrie his armes a kemboll braggadochio-like.

Il y quarre le cercle. as vnder Cercle; or, he is therein cleane out of his element; at th'vtmoſt end of his cunning; he can doe nothing in it hauing puzzled, and grauelled farre greater ſchollers then himſelfe.

Quarreure: f. A ſquare; alſo, a ſquaring, a making ſquare or broad; alſo, ſquareneſſe, or breadth.

Quarrier. as Quarrieur.

Quarriere: f. A highway; a quarrey of ſtone; a carreere, or courſe on horſebacke; See Carriere.

Quarrieur: m. A Quarrier, or Quarrey-man; a hewer of ſtones in quarreyes; a plucker of ſtones out of quarreyes.

Quarril: m. The fourth part of a Spaniſh Real; a ſmall coyne worth our three-halfe-pence.

Quarroy: m. A great, and broad, highway.

Le grand quarroy. The Kings highway.

Quart: m. A fourth; a quarter; a fourth part; and particularly, a French pecke, or the fourth part of a Boiſſeau; as alſo, the fourth part of the value of retailed marchandiſe, due (ſometimes, and in ſome caſes) as a cuſtome vnto the King.

Quart de Chopine. The quarter, or fourth part, of a Chopine; Looke Chopine.

Quart d'eſcu. A Teſton, or Quardecue; a ſiluer peece of coyne worth 18 d.ſterl.

Quart des Sentences. A part of the Popiſh Decretalls.

Quart: m. quarte: f. The fourth.

Quart denier. The fourth pennie, or part of the value of an inheritance Cottier, due vnto the Landlord, vpon any ſale, grant, or alienation, thereof.

Quartage: m. A fourth; or the cuſtome ſpecified in the word Quart.

Quartagé: m.ée: f. A fourth part of the price whereof is paied, as a cuſtome, vnto the King.

Quartaire: m. The quarter of a pound; alſo, (as the Roman Quartarius) a meaſure containing about twelue ſpooneſulls of liquid, and weighing ſome fiue ounces in drie, things.

Quartault: m. The Quarter, or fourth part, of a meaſure.

Quarte: f. A French Quarte (almoſt our pottle;) alſo, a fourth, in Muſicke.

Quarte d'arpent. The fourth part of the Quarteron; or the 64 part of th' Arpent.

Quartellée: f. A certaine quantitie of, or meaſure for, ground, in Bourbonnois.

Quartement. Fourthly.

Quartenier: m. Th' Alderman of a Ward in a Towne; or particularly, ſuch an Officer in Paris, as th' Alderman is in London; alſo, in the countrey, an Officer of ſome reſemblance, in his authoritie, with our High Conſtable; alſo, the Quarter Maiſter of a ſhip.

Quarteranche: f. The eighth part of a Bichot; a meaſure for corne.

Quarterée: f. as Boiſſeau in ſome parts of Bourbonnois.

Qarternier de genſdarmes. An Officer which hath the charge, or commaund of foure Genſdarmes.

Quarteron: m. A quarter of a pound; alſo, a quarterne (or the fourth part) of an hundreth; alſo, a Pinte, or little Quart; alſo, the halfe of an Emine; alſo, a Quarter of the Moone. (En Languedoc le Quarteron, commun & pour le bled, & pour la terre qui le produit, contient 4 Civadiers, dits auſsi boiſſeaux, diviſez par demiz.)

Vn quarteron d'arpent. Is a quarter of the quarter; or the 16 part of th' Arpent.

Reduict de livres en quarterons. Extreamely diminiſhed, whereof at the leaſt three parts be ſpent.

Quartier: m. A quarter, coaſt, part, Region; alſo, a Quarter, or Ward, in a Towne; alſo, the quarter of a yeare, of a yard; a Quarter of the Moone; of mutton, &c; the fourth part of any thing thats commonly diuided by quarters; alſo, a trencher; alſo, Quarter, or faire war, wherein ſouldiers are taken priſoners, and ranſomed at a certaine rate.

Quartier de bois. A Quarter, or ſquare peece of timber.

Bois de quartier. Quarters; or timber to make Quarters of.

Eſchalas de quartier. A ſquare Oaken prop, or ſupporter, for a vine.

Avoir vn quartier de la Lune en la teſte. To be giddie, humorous, fantaſticall, halfe frantick.

Entrer en quartier. To beginne his waiting moneth, &c; alſo, to get into credit, ſtep into imployment, creep into fauour, come into requeſt, by the diſgrace, or diſcharge, of another; (The like is;)

Eſtre en quartier. To wait, or ſerue his quarter, moneth, yeare; to be in waiting; and hence, to bee in credit, eſtimation, good doings.

Faire quartier neuf, ou faux quartier. A horſes hooſe to riue, or cleaue, from the top to the bottome.

Faire quartier à part. To retire aſide, or make a partie by himſelfe.

Vn quartier fait l'autre vendre: Prov. One quarter makes th'other to be ſold.

Quartier. (Aduerbially) apart, aſide.

Quaſi. Almoſt, welnigh, welneere, in a manner.

Quaſimodo. Low Sunday; the next Sunday after Eaſter.

Quaſſation: f. A ſhaking, or brandiſhing; alſo, a caſsation, caſſing; breaking, ſquaſhing; abrogating, annulling.

Quaſſé: m. ée: f. as Caſſé.

Quaſſer. See Caſſer.

Quaſſette: f. A ſmall casket, box, coffin; frying-panne; trough for birds meat.

Quaſſeur: m. A ſquaſher, breaker; caſſer, canceller.

Quaſſure. as Caſseure.

Quaternaire. Iours quaternaires. Euerie fourth day; or euerie foure dayes.

Quati, & Quatir. See Cati, & Catir.

Quatorze. Fourteene.

Quatrain: m. A ſtaffe, or ſtanzo of foure verſes.

Quatre. Foure.

Les

Les quatre temps. Th'Imber dayes; foure weekes in the yeare appointed for publicke faſts.

Diablerie à quatre perſonnages. Looke Diablerie.

Quatre-meſnage. An ill, improuident, or vnskilfull husband; a waſt-good, ſpill-good, or ſpill-thrift.

Quatridien: m. A terme of foure dayes.

Quatridien: m. enne: f. Of foure dayes.

Quatrieſme: m. The fourth pot of, or penny taken for, wine, &c, retailed; an Impoſition firſt raiſed by Charles the fifi, and continued by ſome of his ſucceſſors; and leuiable onely on ſuch wine, &c, as is bought to be retailed; whence;

Cela eſt de ſon cru, il n'en doit point le quatrieſme.

Le Quatrieſme. The fourth.

Quatroillé: m. ée: f. Diuerſified, pide, or breended, breaked with one colour vpon another.

Quatruplon: m. A double double Duckate; a peece of gold worth about 26 s. 8 d. ſterl.

Quau. inſtead of Corps: ¶Lorrainois: ¶Rab.

Quay: m. A Key of a Hauen, or on a riuer ſide; the ſtone wall whereto ſhips, &c, be faſtened; a high banke whereon the water beats and breakes; alſo, a piller of of ſtone; or a heape of ſtones.

Quayer. as Cayer.

Quayre: f. A little worme that breeds betweene the barke, and wood, of trees: ¶Bourdelois.

Que. (A Relatiue of all Genders, and Numbers) that, which, whom, who.

Que. (An Interrogatiue of the Singular Number) what, wherefore, how, but what, why, why not, why then?

Que. (Sometimes an Aduerbe, ſometimes a Coniunction) that, then; in ſort, ſo that; leaſt that, vnleſſe; becauſe, to th'end that; but, ſauing, except; alſo, partly, or in part; whence;

Que bien que mal. Indifferently, ſo ſo, well or ill, one way or other.

Que ceey; que cela; que ſi. As this; as that; as if.

Non que. Not onely.

Il fait que fol. He playes the foole.

Il n'eſt que jeune chair. There is nothing to young fleſh, there's no fleſh like the young.

Il ne ſe peut garder qu'il ne l'envoye. Hee muſt needs ſend him; he cannot forbeare, or auoid the ſending of him.

Quecas. as Quocas: ¶Rab.

Quel: m. elle: f. What, who.

Quel qu'il ſoit. Whoſoeuer, whatſoeuer, what ere, he be.

Quelle qu'elle ſoit. Whatſoeuer; of what ranke or ſort, of what greatneſſe or humor, ſoeuer ſhe be.

Quel. (Aduerbially) Ie m'en iray devant recognoiſtre, quel il fait à Paris. In what ſafetie, or ſtate, one may liue at Paris; or whether it be good ſtaying there, or no.

Quelconque. Whoſoeuer, whatſoeuer.

Quellement. How, in what ſort, in what manner.

Tellement quellement. See Tellement.

Quelque. Some, ſomewhat, any, whoſoeuer, whatſoeuer.

Quelque fois. Sometimes, now and then, euer and anon; alſo, euer, or, at any time.

Quelque part. (Without addition) ſomewhere, ſomewhither; (with addition, or attended on by Que, it imports an vniuerſalitie of place; as in) Quelque part que. Whereſoeuer, whitherſoeuer; in or into what place ſoeuer.

Quemand. as Caimand.

Quemilſe: f. The principall ouerture of a melting furnace.

Quemin: m. A way: ¶Pic.

Quemuletier: m. A Countercharmer, Wizard, or good Witch.

Quenaille. as Canaille.

Quenaiſe. Droict de quenaiſe. The right of Eſcheatage; whereby an inheritance Roturier falls into the Lords hands when the tenant thereof leaues no heires of his bodie behind him: ¶Breton.

Quenie: f. A certaine old-faſhioned garment, at this day out of faſhion; or, as Squenie.

Quenouille: f. A diſtaffe; alſo, the Feminine line in a ſucceſsion.

Quenouilles d'un lict. The poſts of a bed.

Quenouille ruſtique. Wild Carthamus, wild baſtard Saffron.

Quenouille ſauvage. The ſame.

Contes de la quenouille. Tales of a tub, old wiues tales.

Hoir de quenouille. An Inheritrix, heire female, daughter and heire.

Tenir de la quenouille. To hold of, or doe homage to, the ſmocke; his wife to be his Maiſter.

A la quenouille le fol s'agenouille: Prov. Fooles kneele to diſtaues, weake men vnto women.

Quenouillée de. A diſtaffe-full of.

Quenouillette: f. A little diſtaffe; alſo, a kind of ſmall apple.

Quens: m. An old word, ſignifying a Count, or Earle.

Quercelle: f. A Keſtrell, Kaſtrell, Fleingall.

Quercerelle: f. as Quercelle.

Querele: f. as Querelle.

Querelé: m. ée: f. Quarelled with; ſued, or called in queſtion, for; alſo, challenged, or whereto a title is pretended.

Quereleur. See Querelleur.

Querelle: f. A quarell, pike, brawle, difference, debate; Suit, Action, Proceſſe againſt.

Querelle d'Aleman. An idle, ſleight, or drunken contention; a friuolous, or vaine altercation.

Arreſts, ou ſtatuts de querelle. Iudgements giuen, and entred in caſes of poſſeſſion impeached.

Sergent de querelle. A certaine Officer which was vſed in Duelloes, or priuat quarells.

Simples plaids, ou querelles. Looke Simple.

Querellé: m. ée: f. See Querelé.

Quereller. To quarell, wrangle, brawle, brabble, ſtriue, contend with; alſo, to challenge, lay claime, pretend a right, or title, vnto; ſue, or bring an Action, for.

Querelleur: m. A wrangler, quarreller, brawler, brabler; an open pretender of right vnto other mens goods; a litigious, or contentious perſon; a common Barreter.

Querelleux: m. euſe: f. Quarelſome, brawling, brabbling, litigious, vnquiet, contentious.

Queri: m. ie: f. Sought, looked for, inquired after.

Querimonie: f. A complaint, wailing, moane-making; a doleſull expreſſing of aggrieuances.

Querir. To looke, ſearch out; ſeeke, or inquire, after; to goe fetch, call, or ſend for.

Quiers tu meilleur pain que de froment? Wouldeſt thou haue better bread then's made of Wheat?

Meſchante vie quiert le coing: Prov. A wicked life affects a corner, or, creepes into corners.

On ne doit point querir brebis qui ſe veut perdre: Pro. The ſheepe which will be loſt muſt not be looke for.

Que-

Queritant. Seeking for, searching out, inquiring after.
Querquois : m. A quiuer for arrowes.
Querre. as Querir.
Quesne. Looke Chesne.
Quesnoy : m. A wood, or forrest of Oakes.
Quesse. as Quaisle.
Questable : com. Finable, taxable, as some tenants are at the pleasure of their Lords; also, searchable, seeke-able.
Questal : m. ale : f. Seruile; holding by Villenage; held by a seruile tenure.
Questaux : m. Villeines, the propertie of all whose estate is in their Landlords; so that they can neither deuise by will, nor alien by bargaine, any part of it.
Queste : f. A queste, inquirie, search, inquisition, seeking; also, a demaunding, begging, desiring; also, an Aide giuen, or contribution made, by tenants vnto their Landlords, vpon occasions putting him to an extraordinarie charge (as, for his ransome; towards the mariage of his eldest daughter, &c; tearmed thus, because he is in person to demand it of thē; also (within the Iurisdiction of Acs) a generall rent, or fine, payed in common, and at once, by all the inhabitants of a Parish, ratably, and according to the iust quantitie of euerie mans land.)
Queste courant. An Imposition layed by a Landlord on some kind of tenants, in what season, and at what rates he list.
Cens à queste. Which must be demanded by the Lord thereof, or by his Officer.
Lettres de queste. A Licence to beg, or to gather almes, in Churches, for the poore.
Queste-pain : m. A common begger; or a begging; whence; Qui est au queste-p. That is most beggerlie, or the next doore to beggerie, thats growne to a verie lowebbe; thats driuen, readie, or fit, to beg his bread.
Quester. To seeke, search, trace, out; quest, hunt, make diligent inquirie after; also, to demaund, or beg, earnestlie; also, to quest, or open, as a dog that seeth, or findeth of, his game.
Quester ses gens. A Lord to fine, or taxe his vassalls.
Questeur : m. A seeker, searcher, inquirer, tracer out of; also, an earnest begger, desirer, demander; also, one that hath a Licence to beg.
Question : f. A question, demaund, doubt; controuersie, dispute; proposition; reason; case; also, the Racke, or torture giuen, thereby to wring out confessions.
Il est ici question de la vie. This is a matter of life and death; mens liues are hereby brought in question.
Il n'est pas question de cecy. It concernes not this; we passe not for this; it is not this we treat of, or are about; it is not this that holds, or troubles, vs.
Questionné : m. ée : f. Questioned, examined, demanded or asked of.
Questionner. To question, demaund, examine, aske of.
Questionnette : f. A small question, sleight demand.
Questionneur : m. A questioner, (great) demaunder or asker, inquisitiue companion.
Questuaire : com. Gainfull, commodious, profit-bringing.
Queu : m. A Cooke; See Queux.
Queüage : m. A certaine Impost leuied, in some parts of France, vpon euerie Queuë, or Pipe of wine.
Queuë : f. A taile, traine, or traile, hence, the staulke, or steale of fruits; the rereward of an Armie; the labell of a Deed; the bable of a man; the close, end, conclusion, or knitting vp of a matter; also, a vessell containing as much as the Muid and a halfe; viz. 54 Septiers, at eight Parisien Pintes to the Septier: This Queuë is particularly, tearmed Queuë Françoise, for a difference betweene it and Queuë de Bourgongne, which is much bigger then it; also, a wheelstone.
Queuë d'arondelle. A manner of closing, or fastening together of timber, boords, or stones, which resembling a Swallowes, Culuers, or Doues taile, is (also by our workmen) called so.
Queuë de Bourgongne. A wine vessell containing (iust as much as the auncient Romanes Culeus; or) two Muids and a halfe (viz. 90 Septiers) of Paris measure.
Queuë de cheval. Shaue-grasse, Horse-willow, horse-taile; a water-hearbe (whereof auncient writers haue described but two kinds; (viz. the great Horse-taile, & the little one otherwise tearmed naked Horse-taile, and Shaue-grasse (vsed by Fletchers, &c,) but our moderne Hearbalists haue found out fiue or six kindes more.)
Queuë de l'hyver. The season about mid May so tearmed by some.
Queuë de l'oeil. The corner of the eye.
Queuë d'un penon. The point, or end of a Pennon, which flutters in th'aire.
Queuë de pourceau. Sow Fennell, hogs Fennell, Horsestrong, Horsestrange, Brimstonwort, Sulpherwort.
Queuë de regnard. The hearbe called Fox-taile, or tailed Wheat; also, the stopping of a conduit pipe by rootes gotten into it, and growne, in time, so big, that the water hath no roome to passe.
Queuë de scorpion. Wartwort, great Tornesole.
Queuë de souris. Mouse-taile, Bloud-strange.
Boutons à queuë. Long buttons.
Chausses à queuë de merlus. Looke vnder Chausse.
Damoiselle de queuë. A waiting, or traine-bearing Gentlewoman.
Demy queuë. The halfe of the Queuë (Françoise;) a Hogshead, or vessell containing 216 Parisien Pintes.
Monsieur sans queuë. A Maister without any addition; a single soled Gentleman; also, a cheater.
Robbe à queuë. A traine-gowne.
Seau pendant à double queuë. (Is properly) a Seale annexed vnto, or hanging by, a double label; (metaphorically) one that hangs on a Gibbet.
Queuë à queuë. Nose in arse; one close after, one in the necke of, another.
La queuë entre les jambes. Vily afraid (as a dog that hath stolne a pudding, &c, and slinkes away with his taile clapt betweene his legs;) also, foully disgraced, much ashamed, or with shame ynough.
Danse du loup la queuë entre les jambes. The daunce of lecherie.
La queuë levée. Il s'en va la queuë levée. He goes away merrie, iollie, liuelie, well cheered vp; or merrily, iollily, &c.
A hausse queuë. Elle s'en va à hausse queuë. Verie fast, or in great hast, she goes; (from the fashion of women, who to make the more hast, tucke vp their clothes behind.)
Cette queuë n'est pas de ce veau. This no way belongs vnto, or depends vpon, that.
La difficulté sera à la queuë. The hardest will be at last; in the conclusion, or knitting vp, wee shall haue most to doe.
Brider son cheval par la queuë. To take a wrong, or contrarie course; to goe most awkwardly, or the contrarie way, to worke.
Couper la queuë à. See Couper.

Cou-

Couper la queuë au jeu. To giue ouer a winner.
Escorcher les anguilles par la queuë. To doe things disorderedly, awkwardly, the wrong way.
Faire la queuë. To play the coward, come or drag behind, march in the rere.
Frizer la queuë. To lecher.
Prendre vn rat par la queuë. To cut a purse.
Regarder de la queuë de l'oeil. To leere, gleeke, or looke askew; to cast a side-glaunce, at.
Revenu de queuë. Whose taile is new grown, or come againe: Appliable to an old Cokes, or Callet, growne wanton on a sudden; or, to one, that after a great weakenesse hath recouered his owne, or pickt vp his crummes againe.
Tenir la queuë de la pãelle. Seeke Paelle.
Trainer longue queuë. To be long in doing, or to continue long; to haue a faire reach, bee of great consequence, carrie or traile many things along with it.
La queuë est pire à escorcher: Pro. The last is hardest to be done.
À la queuë gist le venin: Prov. Appliable to such as reserue the discouerie, or executiõ, of their villanous proiects vnto the conclusion of a businesse.
À mauvais chien la queuë luy vient: Pro. Rakehells thriue better, battle faster, come forward sooner (after a losse) then honester men.
À qui est l'asne si le tienne par la queuë: Pro. Let him that owes th' Asse hold him by the tayle; he that hath a suit to follow, or a thing to keepe, may thinke no Solicitor so good, no watchman so fit, as himselfe.
Le regnard cache sa queuë: Prov. The cunning knaue conceales what would discouer him.
Qui parle du loup on en voit la queuë: Prov. See Loup.
Qui ne retire de sa vache que la queuë ne perd pas tout: Prov. Tis good, when all is going, to saue any little; something, though meane, hath sauor, nothing none.
Qui tient la paesle par la queuë, il la tourne là ou il veut: Pro. Those that commaund, or manage, lawes, expound them how they list.
Vache ne sçait que vaut sa queuë iusques à ce qu'elle l'ait perduë: Prov. We know not the worth of things till we haue lost them.
Queüé: m. ée: f. Tailed, that hath a taile.
Queuëtte: f. A little taile, staulke, or steale; the tip of a thing.
Queus: m. A whetstone.
Queuse: f. A rude lumpe, or masse; as of yron, &c, comming from the furnace, or before it bee wrought into barres.
Queusser. Que ton car ne se queusse. To keepe thy cart from being ouerthrowne.
Qucut: f. as Queus.
Queute: f. Small drinke; small beere: ¶Pic.
Queux: m. A Cooke.
Le grand queux de France. The Maister Cooke, the Kings chiefe Cooke, or chiefe of the Cookes, at Court.
Queux: f. A whetstone.
Queymander. To beg from doore to doore.
Qui. (A Relatiue of all Genders, Numbers, and persons;) Who, which, that, that which, whom, whose, what, any bodie, some bodie.
Qui ça, qui là. One here another there, this man here that there; here and there; asunder, in seuerall parts or places.
Qui que ce soit. Whosoeuer, or whatsoeuer bee bee; what name soeuer he beareth; what ranke soeuer hee hath, what worth soeuer he is of.
Ils se feront mal qui ne les departira. They will mischieue one another if they be not parted.
Quia. Il est à quia. He is almost at a nonplus.
Quiconque. Whosoeuer, or whatsoeuer.
Quictance: f. An acquittance, release, discharge.
Quicter. See Quiter.
Quid pro quo. A palpable mistaking, a grosse errour, one for another.
Quidam. vn q. An odde, or certaine, fellow.
Quidditatif: m. iue: f. Quidditatiue, doubtfull, obscure, full of quirkes, fraught with quiddities; also, contentious, wrangling, litigious.
Quideau: m. A Wicker Engine whereby fish is caught.
Quierchier: m. The name of a small bird.
Quietin. as Theatin.
Quietude: f. Rest, calmenesse, tranquilitie, peaceablenesse.
Quignet: m. A little corner.
Quignon: m. A cantill, gobbet, lumpe, luncheon, good big peece of.
Quignon de pain. A corner of a crustie peece of bread; or, the crustie heele of a loafe.
Quillard: m. as Billart.
Quillat: m. The refining, or touch of gold; or, as Carat.
Quille: f. The keele of a ship; also, a keyle; a big peg, or pinne of wood; vsed at Nine-pinnes, or Keyles, &c.
À la quille, & au quillard. At cat and trap.
On luy a donné son sac, & ses quilles. Looke Sac.
Trousser leurs quilles. To packe vp, or prepare, for their departure.
Quillebandier: m. One that playeth much at Nine-pinnes.
Quillela. A kind of play like vnto Cat and trap.
Quilles. Keyles, or Nine-pinnes.
Quillevilles: f. Skirrit roots.
Quillons de la garde d'un'espée. The crosse barres of the hilt of a sword.
Quinaire: m. An auncient Roman coyne worth about 3 d. ob. sterl.
Quinaud: m. An Ape, or Monkie; and hence, a deformed, or euill-fauoured creature.
Ie l'ay rendu quinaud. I haue blankt, or graueld him, I haue put him to a nonplus, or to the wall (in disputation.)
Quinaude: f. A she Ape, or Monkie; also, an ouglie wench, a Madame Ouglie.
Quinconcé. vergier quin. The trees whereof be ranked in equall distance asunder, and directly one ouer against th'other.
Quine. Faire la quine à. To mock, or make a mouth at; to point at with the finger.
Quines. Two cinks, or fiues, on the Dice.
Quinette: f. A crutch; the staffe, or supporter of a cripple; also, a Snite, or Snipe.
Quinquaille: f. Chinkes, coyne.
Quinquailles: f. Old yron; also, small yron ware; or pedling ware of yron, copper, &c.
Quinquailler: m. as Quinqualier, or Quinquallier.
Quinqualier: m. A paultrie Pedler; also, one that sells, or cries, old yron.
Quinquallerie: f. as Quinquailles; or, all kind of (small) yron-worke, as Padlockes, Snuffers, Gimmers, or Hindges for doores, &c; sold by Ironmongers.
Quinquallieur: m. An Ironmonger; or one that sells all kind of (small) Iron-ware.
Quinquaneleur: m. A bankrupt; one that procures, or forces forces his creditors to giue him fiue yeares day of payment.

Quinquangle : com. Fiue-cornered, hauing fiue angles or corners.

Quinque. Pain de quinque. Delicate bread made especially against the foure solemne feasts of Easter, S. Peter and S. Paules day, th' Assumption of the Virgine Marie, and Christmas.

Quinquenaut : m. A little stinging, and venomous flie, in the Prouinces of Sologne, & la Beausse.

Quinquenelle. as Quinquennelle.

Quinquennelle : f. A respit, or terme of fiue yeares.

Faire quinquennelle. To grow bankrupt; or, as a bankrupt, to procure, in respect of his pouertie or losses, a respit of, or protection for, fiue yeares, during which his creditors can recouer nothing of him.

Quinquennon. Privilege de q. A Protection for fiue yeares, granted by the Prince (or his Officers) vnto a debtor, who makes good proofe of the losse, or extreame diminution, of his estate, since the time of the making of the bargaine, whereby he became indebted.

Quinson : m. A Spinke, or Chaffinch.

Quint : m. A fifth, or fift part; also, as le quint denier.

Quint datif. The portion of an inheritance whereof onely a man may dispose, by gift, Will, or otherwise.

Quint naturel et coustumier. The portion of younger brethren; being (within the Countie of Ponthieu, and in other places) a fift part of all the land their father died seised of, equally diuided among them; yet so, as when any of them dies, his part is to reuert vnto the foure parts enioyed by th'eldest.

Quint & requint. Looke Requint.

Quint viager, ou heredital. Whereof a man may dispose as of his owne inheritance (by the customs of Amiens;) or, the portion of an inheritance Feodal beloging to a younger brother (by the customes of Peronne.)

Quint de vivre naturel. as Quint naturel et coustumier.

Droict de quint. as le quint denier.

Quint : m. quinte : f. The fift.

Le quint denier. The fift pennie, or part of the price, of land thats sold; payed vnto the Lord of the soyle by the seller in some places, in others by the buyer, and in some others equally by both.

Quintage : m. A fift part, or the laying out of the fift part of an inheritance for younger brethren.

Quintain : m. French Laune; or, as Quintin.

Quintaine : f. A Quintane (or Whintane) for countrey youthes to runne at.

Les Quintaines, & ban de non vendre vin en detail. as Droict de ban à vin.

Quintal : m. A Quintall, or hundred weight.

Quinte : f. as Quint; A fift part; also, a fift (or the proportion of fiue) in Musicke, &c; also, a fantasticall humor or veine; a foolish giddinesse of the braine.

Les quintes d'Angers. The Territorie, Libertie, Circuit, or extent of countrey, wherein the Prouost, or ordinarie Iudge, hath Jurisdiction.

Il a sa quinte. He is now in the humor, or in his moods; he hath odde conceits, at this time, in his braine.

Il est en quinte de faire cela. He is in the vaine, or a toy hath taken him in the head, to doe that same; he is foolishly affected, or humored vnto it.

Quintefueille : f. Cinkfoyle, Fiue-leaued grasse.

Quintement : m. A laying, or taking out a fift part.

Quintement. Fiftly.

Quinter. To lay, or take, out a fift part; also, as Pancher; to leane, or hang, a to side.

Quinter les fiefs. To diuide a fift part of them among younger brethren.

Quinter ses heritages. To dispose of a fift part ther-of.

Quintesence : f. A quintescence; the vertue, force, or spirit of a thing extracted.

Quintescé : m. ée : f. Exceedingly refined, or purified.

Quintescencer. To extract the quintescence, vertue, or spirit, out of a thing; to refine, or purifie exceedingly.

Quintescencieux : m. euse : f. All quintescence, full of spirit, exactly fine.

Quintesentier. as Quintescencer.

Quinteux : m. euse : f. Humorous, fantastical, toyish, capricious; moodie, waspish; harebraind, giddie braded.

Quintin : m. A course kind of Laune.

Quintil : m. A rash Iudge, or hastie censurer, of other mens writings.

Quinuncve. En ordre quin. In Checker forme, or Checker-wise.

Quinzaine. A terme, or delay of fifteene whole dayes together, granted, in some cases, by the Judges.

Sauf quinzaine. With reseruation of the 15 dayes respit, or terme which he hath gotten.

Quinze : f. Fifteene.

Quinze-vingts de Patis. An Hospitall wherein three hundred blind people be releeued with bread, lodging, and about iiij. d. a day; besides a priuiledge to beg at certaine Church doores.

Quinzieſme. le q. The fifteenth.

Quiquenelle. as Quinquenelle.

Quis : m. ise : f. Sought, looked, searched for; demaunded, asked, inquired after; fetched, gotten.

Quitance : f. An Acquitance, Release, discharge.

Quite : com. Discharged, quit, freed, released, forgiuen, absolued, set cleere aboord.

Iouër à quite, ou à double. To play double or quit, win the mare or loose the haulter.

Il n'est pas quite qui doibt de reste : Prov. He is not quit that oweth ought.

Quité : m. ée : f. Quitted, forsaken, forgone, remitted, released, yeelded vp, giuen ouer.

Quitement. Freely, quietly, peaceably, without let, hinderance, impeachment, or disturbance.

Quiter. To quit, forgoe, renounce, yeeld vp, abandon, giue ouer; to void, withdraw, or part, from; to remit, release, discharge, acquit, pardon, forgiue, absolue, dispence with.

Quiter vn boeuf pour prendre vn oeuf. To leaue an Oxe for the loue of an egge.

Quiter la ceincture. Looke Ceincture.

Quiter les cendres. To stirre abroad; or, to quit his idle, base, or vnworthie courses.

Qui Dieu quite est bien heureux : Prov. Happie is he whom God absolues.

Quiterne : f. A Gitterne.

Quiteur : m. A quitter, acquiter, freer, discharger; one that giues an acquittance, or Quietus est.

Quitté, & Quitter. as Quité, & Quiter.

Quitteur. as Quiteur.

Quittus : m. An Acquittance, or Quietus est.

Qulocul : m. A dilling, or swill pough; the last, or youngest child one hath.

Quocas : m. Shaled nuts : Rab.

Quocquetier : m. A Huckster.

Quolibet : m. A quirke, or quidditie; also, a iest, or by-word.

Vn vieux quolibet. A moath-eaten adage, or prouerbe; and old ſaid-ſaw.

Quoquar : m. (A childiſh tearme for) an egge.

Quoquelicoq : m. Corne-roſe, wild Poppie, red Poppie.

Quoquemart : m. A Cauldron, or Chafer, to beat water, &c, in.

Quote : f. A quote, or quoting; a marke, or note vpon an article.

La quote des tailles. The ſeſſing, or aſſeſſing of taxes.

Quote. la quote partie. The ſeuerall portion, or ſhare belonging, or falling, to euerie one.

Quoté : m. ée : f. Quoted, marked, noted in the margent; alſo, taxed, aſſeſſed, rated.

Quoter. To quote, or marke in the margent, to note by the way; alſo, to ſeſſe, aſſeſſe, tax, rate.

Quotidien : m. enne : f. Dailie, returning day by day, happening euerie day, ordinarie, continuall, vſuall.

Quotiens. Totiens quotiens. Eſtſoones, verie often; at pleaſure, or as often as he pleaſes.

Quotient : m. The part or portion which, in the diuiſion of a thing among many, falls vnto euerie ones ſhare.

Quotizé : m. ée : f. Taxed, ſeſſed, aſſeſſed, rated.

Quotizer. To ſeſſe, aſſeſſe, tax, rate.

Quottité : f. An euen aſſeſſement, a rate or totquot impoſed; the laying on euerie one his ſhare.

Quoüat : m. An vnderling, writling, ſtarueling.

Quoüé : m. ée : f. Tailed, hauing a taile.

Froument quoüé. Foxtaile, tailed Wheat.

Quoy : m. ye : f. Quiet, ſtill, peaceable, reſtfull, eaſe-affecting, huſht, calme.

Il n'y a pire eau que la quoye : Prov. Silent, muſing, or dreaming ſpirits are (for the moſt part) more daungerous, or of a worſe compoſition, then others.

Quoy. (Interrogatiue) What? Why? how? what ſay you? what would you? how ſay you to this? what would you thinke of it, or doe with it?

Quoy que. Whatſoeuer, howſoeuer; notwithſtanding, albeit, or although, that.

A quoy faire? To what purpoſe? for what cauſe? what to doe?

De quoy. Looke Dequoy.

Avoir de quoy, or (better) dequoy. To be rich, haue ſomewhat to take vnto, haue wherewithall; I' ay en de quoy, mais. I haue beene able to liue; the time was when I could haue ſhewed my head among the beſt of them, or held it as high as another; but.

Quoyement. Quietly, ſtilly, ſilently, calmely, peaceably.

Quoyeté : f. Stillneſſe, quietneſſe, reſt, calmeneſſe; ſobrietie; ſilence; peaceableneſſe.

R

RAbais : m. An abatement, deduction, defalcation, diminution, extenuation; an exoneration, remiſſion, diſcharge; a giuing backe of; alſo, a fall in price; or a poore rate, or low price, whereto a thing is come.

Rabaiſſant. Abating; abaſing, deiecting, taking downe, pulling vnder.

Se rabaiſſant bien bas. Verie humbly, lowly, deiectedly, much diſauowing his owne worth.

Rabaiſſé : m. ée : f. Abated, abaſed, taken downe, pulled vnder, brought lower.

Cela luy a bien rabaiſſé le menton. That thing hath humbled him, or plucked him downe exceedingly.

Rabaiſſement : m. An abating, diminiſhing; abaſing, deiecting.

Rabaiſſer. To abate; abaſe, deiect, pull downe, hold vnder, take a hole lower.

Rabaiſſeur : m. An abater; an abaſer.

Raballe : f. A certaine root, of whoſe iuyce (mixed with other ſimples) a prettie ſauce is made.

Rabalter. To rumble, rattle, or make a terrible noyſe, as (they ſay) ſpirits doe in ſome vnfortunate, or vnfrequented houſes.

Rabans : m. Rope-yards; the ropes, or treble cordes whereby the ſayles of a ſhip are tied vnto the yardes.

Rabaniſte : m. A dunce; or, one that ſtudies, or is cunning in, the workes of the Rabbies.

Rabaschement : m. A rumbling, or a terrible ratling; ſuch as (they ſay) is made by Hobgoblins in ſome vnfortunate, or vnfrequented houſes.

Rabaſcher, & Rabaſter. as Rabalter.

Rabat : m. as Rabais; alſo, a beater, the ſtaffe wherwith Plaiſterers beat their morter; alſo, a Rebatoe for a womans ruffe; alſo, a falling band; alſo, the retriue in hawking; alſo, the houſe, or penthouſe of a Tennis-court.

Vn rabat de bride. A iob, or checke which a horſe giues himſelfe with his bridle.

Le rabat des couvertures des maiſons. The eaues, or eauings; the bottome of the roofe.

Rabat de manteau. The cape of a cloke.

Rabat-joye : m. A bringer of ill tidings, a teller of ill newes (after the receit of good ones.)

Rabatre. To abate, deduct, defaulke, diminiſh, leſſen, extennate; remit, bate, giue or draw backe; alſo, a horſe to rebate his curuet.

Rabatre l'attenduë, ou congé. C'eſt le faire revoquer par comparition ſubſequente faicte en temps, & lieu.

Rabatre vn congé, ou defaut. To recall, or diſanull them, to make them void.

Rabatu : m. uë : f. Rebated, bated, abated, deducted, defaulcated, diminiſhed; giuen, taken, or drawne backe.

Iouer aux dames rabatuës. Looke Dames.

Rabavit : m. Prickmadame, Sengreene the leſſer.

Rabbais, &c. as Rabais.

Rabbatre, & Rabbatu. as Rabatre, & Rabatu.

Rabbe. Looke Rabe.

Rabbienné : m. ée : f. Reconciled, made good friends againe.

Rabbienner. To reconcile, attone, make friends, bring into good tearmes together, againe.

Rabdomantie : f. diuination by twigs, or ſmalls wands.

Rabe : f. A Rape, or Turnep; a round Limoſin Raddiſh.

Rabiere : f. A plot, or bed of Rapes, or Turneps.

Rabilité : m. ée : f. Reinabled, repaired, reeſtabliſhed, reſtored.

Rabiliter. To reinable, repaire, amend, reeſtabliſh, recouer, reſtore.

Rabillage : m. A repairing, mẽding, renewing, reforming.

Rabillé : m. ée : f. Mended, amended; reformed, corrected, repaired, renewed, trimmed, or dreſſed vp.

Rabillecouſtrer. To patch, to mend.

Rabillement. as Rabillage.

Rabiller. To mend, amend, renew, repaire; correct, reforme; trimme or dreſſe vp an old thing, thereby making it ſeeme new.

Rabilleur : m. A renewer, mender, amender, trimmer vp of old things.

Rabin : m. A Rabbie, or Doctor among the Jewes

Rabine : f. A high-growne wood ; or, as Bois de haute fuſtaye.
Rabinique : com. Rabbie-like, of the Rabbies.
Rabioles : f. Turneps : ¶Provenç.
Rabitué : m.ée : f. Reaccuſtomed, reinured, vſed anew ; ſeiled againe.
Rabituer. To reaccuſtome, reinure, vſe anew ; alſo, to ſettle againe.
Rable : m. A Plaiſterers beater ; alſo, the chine, or parts about the chine, of a Deere, &c ; thence alſo, the power or vertue of the backe in venerie, &c.
Rablé. Strong-backed, well furniſhed about the reines ; and thence, able for venerie.
Rablette : f. A Shrew-mouſe.
Rabobeliné : m.ée : f. Patched, or peeced againe.
Rabobeliner. To patch, or peece againe.
Rabobelineries : f. Patches renewed, or patches vpon patches.
Rabolliere : f. A Rabbets neaſt ; the hole wherein a Doe Conie keepeth her young ones.
Rabot : m. A Joyners Plane ; alſo, a Plaiſterers beater.
Raboté : m.ée : f. Planed ; euened, leuelled, ſmoothed.
Rabotement : m. A planing, euening, leuelling ; alſo, roughneſſe, raggedneſſe, vneuenneſſe.
Raboter. To plane ; leuell, make or lay euen ; alſo, to ſmooth.
Raboteur : m. A planer ; leueller ; ſmoother.
Raboteure : f. A planing ; leuelling, laying euen ; ſmoothing.
Raboteux : m.euſe : f. Rugged, rough ; vneuen, craggie, ſtonie.
Raboudris : m. Wraglands ; crooked, or miſgrowne trees which will neuer proue timber.
Rabougri. vn rab. A grub, counterfeit, ſhort or ſhort-necked crooke-backe.
Rabougri : m.ie : f. Growne crooked, and low ; wrie, miſhapen, or imperfect of ſhape ; miſgrowne ; grubbie, dried vp, ſhortened more then ordinarie by extraordinarie heat.
Rabougrir. To grow crooked, and low withall ; to wax miſhapen, or imperfect of ſhape ; to become a wragland, or grub ; to be ſhortened, or dried vp by extraordinarie heat.
Rabouliere. as Rabolliere.
Rabroüant. Checking, chiding, ſchooling, reproving.
Rabroüé : m.ée : f. Checked, chidden, taunted, reproued ; diſmiſſed with a ſharpe, or ſower deniall.
Rabroüer. To checke, chide, reproue, taunt, ſchoole, diſmiſſe with a ſharp, or crabbed anſwer ; ſpeak ſowerly, or frowardly vnto.
Rabroüeur : m. A ſower, or froward reproner, checker, taunter, cenſor ; an auſtere companion.
Rabuſer. To reabuſe.
Racaille : f. The raſcalitie, or baſe and raſcall ſort ; the ſcumme, dregs, offalls, outcaſts of any companie.
Raccamuſé : m.ée : f. Squaſhed, or paſhed downe ; flattened, beaten or made flat.
Raccamuſer. To ſquaſh, or paſh downe ; to flatten, beat or make flat.
Raccointer. To reacquaint ; to make (or grow) once more acquainted with ; alſo, to reconcile.
Raccoller. To reimbrace, iterate imbracements, imbrace againe.
Raccorder. To reaccord, reconcile, make friends againe.
Raccorni. as Racorny.
Raccornir. To make hornie, or as hard as horne ; alſo, to wax hornie, or grow hard like horne.

Raccoupler. To reunite ; to couple, or yoke together againe.
Raccourci : m.ie : f. Shrunke, ſhortened, contracted, compacted ; chubbie, truſt vp, ſhort and ſtrong, knit well or cloſe together.
Croix raccourcie. A croſſe Humet, in Blazon.
Raccourcir. To ſhorten, abridge, curtall, contract, compact, ſhrinke or draw vp, knit or draw cloſe, together.
Raccourciſſement : m. A ſhortening, a curtalling, a contracting, a drawing vp cloſe together.
Raccouſtré : m. ée : f. Mended, repaired, new dreſſed or trimmed vp.
Raccouſtrement : m. A mending, repairing, new trimming or dreſſing vp.
Raccouſtrer. To mend, amend, reedifie, repaire, make, trimme, or dreſſe vp anew.
Raccouſtreur : m. A mender, a repairer, a renewer ; a dreſſer or trimmer vp of old things ; a botcher.
Raccouſtumé : m. ée : f. Reaccuſtomed, reinured, brought vp, or into vſe, againe.
Raccouſtumer. To reaccuſtome, reinure, to renew a cuſtome, to bring vp, or into vſe, againe.
Raccueilly : m. ye : f. Gathered.
Race : f. A race ; linnage, familie, kindred, houſe, bloud ; litter, brood ; ſort, kind ; alſo, as Rape.
Faire race. To get children ; alſo, to begin, or ſet vp, a race, or brood, of horſes, dogs, &c.
Noble de trois races. Noble for three deſcents, or three manner of wayes.
Rachais : m.aiſe : f. Leane, carrion, ſcraggie, ſtarueling.
Rachalander. To recouer former cuſtomers, to get into trade againe.
Rachapt : m. A redemption, redeeming, rebuying, recouerie of a thing ſold, by paying that for which it was ſold ; alſo, an abilitie, or power to redeeme, or to recouer land in that manner, by being next of kin to the ſeller ; alſo, a ranſome, or paying of ranſome ; alſo, a Reliefe ; or whole yeares poſſeſſion, & profit of land, or a ſumme of money (as the cuſtom is) due vnto the Lord of whom the land is held by homage, vpon euerie redemption, collaterall deſcent, exchange, or other change of the tenant.
Rachapt abonné. A Reliefe rated vnto the tenant at a certaine price.
Rachapt rencontré. A Reliefe vpon a Reliefe ; or,
Quand durant l'année du rachapt eſchet autre rachapt d'aucune terre tenuë à homage de la terre qui court en rachapt : In which caſe though the Lord enioy both, yet it muſt be no longer then during his yeare in the former.
Droict de rachapt. as before in Rachapt ; alſo, as Droict de ventes.
Rachapté : m.ée : f. Redeemed, recouered, or deliuered, ranſomed ; brought backe, or bought out, for money.
Rachapter. To redeeme ; to recouer, or deliuer, to ranſome or buy out, for money.
Rachapter du Seigneur feodal. (Le nouvel acquereur ou vaſſal) accorder au Seigneur feodal pour retenuë, ou profits de fief ; & luy payer les droicts de rachapt.
Rachapteur : m. A redeemer ; a ranſomer.
Rachaſſé : m.ée : f. Chaſed, or driuen, backe againe.
Rachaſſer. To chaſe, or driue, backe againe.
Rachaſſeur : m. A chaſer, or driuer backe againe.
Sergent rachaſſeur. Looke Sergent.
Rachat. as Rachapt.
Rachater. Looke Rachapter.
Rachetable. com. Redeemable ; ranſomable ; recouerable for money.

Racheté,& Racheter. as Rachapté,& Rachapter.
Racheteur: m. A redeemer; a ransomer; a recouerer of things paßed away, for money.
Rachimburges: m. Certaine Iudges of cauſes which were determinable by the Law Salick.
Racin. as Raiſin: ¶Langued.
Racine: f. A root; alſo, the ſpring, ſource, originall, or cauſe of a matter.
Racine creuſe. Hollow root, Holewort, Bulbus fumitorie; (an herbe.)
Racine jaulne. The Carrot root.
Racine quarrée. Is (in Arithmetick) a number which multiplied by it ſelfe yeelds another whole (and ſquare) number; as 6 doth 36; or 10, 100.
Racine ſanguinaire. A kind of Storks-bill, tearmed Bloudwort, of the propertie it hath to ſtaunch bloud, or cure bloudie wounds.
Racine ſentant la roſe. Roſewort, Roſe root; an herb.
Racine & tout. Vp, or euen, by the root; wholly, vtterly, quite and cleane.
Telle racine telle fueille: Prov. Such root (we ſay, ſuch tree) ſuch fruit.
Racinette: f. A ſmall root.
Racineux: m. euſe: f. Rootie, full of roots.
Raclant. Scraping; alſo, raſping, or grating.
Racle: f. A ſcraper; a raſpe, or grater; alſo, th'yron (ring, or) hammer of a doore.
Raclé: m. ée: f. Scraped, raſped; grated.
C'eſt vn poinct raclé. It is a caſe reſolued, a matter concluded of, a thing fully determined.
Racledenare: m. A ſcrape-good.
Raclement: m. A ſcraping; a raſping.
Racler. To ſcrape; raſpe; grate; rake, rub, ſcrub; raſe.
A bander & à racler. By hooke or crooke; by right or by wrong; in all extremitie; Looke Bander.
Racleresse: f. A woman that ſcrapeth.
Raclet. (The name of) a foole; and therefore of little vnderſtanding in the Law: ¶Rab.
Racletorets: m. Such as rub ſweaters in hot bathes, or hot-houſes.
Racleur: m. A ſcraper; a raſper, a grater.
R[illegible]de cheminées. A Chimney-ſweeper.
Rac[illegible]. as Raclure.
Rac[illegible]. A raſpe, grater, ſcraper; alſo, the ſtrickle wh[illegible]ith corne is meaſured; alſo, as Racle.
Le racloir d'un'arquebuſe. The crooked pin of yron ſcrued into the end of the ſcowring ſticke; we call it a worme.
Raclure: f. A ſcraping; raſping; grating; raking; rubbing, ſcrubbing; raſure, or a raſing.
Raclures. Scrapings, ſhauings, parings; offalls, fragments; remnants.
Racommodé: m. ée: f. Reaccommodated, mended or fitted anew.
Racompter. as Raconter.
Raconté: m. ée: f. Told, related, rehearſed, reported.
Raconter. To tell, relate, report, rehearſe, deliuer.
Raconteur: m. A relator, a rehearſer, a reporter.
Racorder. See Raccorder.
Racorny: m. ye: f. Growne hornie, made or become as hard as horne.
Racourci. Looke Raccourci.
Racourir. To recourſe, to recurre, to run towards again.
Racquette. as Raquette.
Racquit. See Raquit.
Racrocher. To wrie or crooke, to make of a hookie forme.
se Racroupir. To knit, or draw vp, or gather cloſe together (as a doing horſe) his hinder parts.

Raddouber. as Radouber.
Rade: f. A road, an open harbor for ſhipping.
Rade: com. Quicke, ſwift: ¶Pic.
Radeau: m. A Raft, or float-boat of timber.
Radial: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, th'vpper, and bigger bone of th'arme.
Radjancé: m. ée: f. Readapted, reaccommodated.
Radjancer. To reapt, readapt, readiuſt, reaccommodate.
Radiation: f. A raſing, or blotting out; (a Law tearme;) alſo, a radiant brightneſſe, as of the Sunne-beames; or a blazing, ſhining, glittering; caſting forth of beames.
Radical: m. ale: f. Radicall; of, or from, the root; belonging to a root.
Humeur radicale. Radicall, or naturall moiſture.
Radicalement. Radically, deepely, vp by the root, from th'originall, from the verie root.
Radieux: m. euſe: f. Radiant, ſhining, glittering, blazing, flaring, leaming, full of beames.
Radis: m. A Raddiſh root.
Radis fendu. The double Raddiſh, or many-rooted Raddiſh.
Radot. les arbres qui ſervẽt des radots aux maiſons. Which ſerue, or are good for, the reparation, or mending of houſes.
Radoté. vn vieux radoté. An old dotard, or doting fool.
Radotement: m. Dotage, or a doting.
Radoter. To dote, raue, play the cokes, erre groſſely in vnderſtanding.
Radoub: m. as Radoubement.
Radoubé: m. ée: f. Patched, botched, peeced, mended.
Radoubement: m. A peecing, mending, patching, or botching vp of.
Radouber. To peece, mend, renew, patch, or botch vp.
Radoubeur: m. A mender, peecer, patcher, botcher.
Radoüere: f. A ſtrickle for the meaſuring of corne.
Radreſſe. A redreſſe, reformation, amends.
Radreſſé: m. ée: f. Redreßed, amended, reformed, corrected.
Radreſſement: m. A redreſſing, amending, reforming.
Radreſſer. To redreße, amend, correct, reforme.
Radreſſeur: m. A redreſſer, amender, corrector, a reformer.
Radveſtir. To readueſt, reinueſt, reinſeiſin, put againe into poſſeſſion.
Radveſtiſſement: m. A readueſture, or a readueſting; a reinueſting, reinſeiſining.
Radveu: m. uë: f. Readuowed; readuouched, reacknowledged, reapproued, taken into protection againe.
se Radviſer. To readuiſe himſelfe, take further aduiſement, thinke better, or otherwiſe, of the matter.
Raduné: m. ée: f. Aſſembled, or gathered together.
Raduner. To aſſemble, or gather together.
Radvouër. To readuow, readuouch, reacknowledge, reapproue, warrant, or take into protection, againe.
Raf. il ne leur lairra rif ny raf. Looke Rif.
Rafaux: m. Wild Bores of about two yeares of age, when firſt their tuskes begin to peere out of their mouthes.
Rafe: f. A rifling; or as Raffle; whence;
Faire ſa rafe. To make his hand, or make vp his mouth, by many purchaſes, or prizes.
Rafé: m. ée: f. Rifled; ſtraped; caught, or ſnatched; alſo, ſlipped away.
Rafer. To rifle; to catch, or ſnatch; alſo, to ſcrape; alſo, to ſlip away.
Raffarder. To raile; or ſcoffe at; (an old word.)
Raffermi: m. ie: f. Hardened, or ſettled anew.
Raffinage: m. The refinement, or quinteſcence of.
Raffiné: m. ée: f. Refined, purified.

Raffinement: m. A refining, a purifying.
Raffiner. To refine; clarifie, purifie; prucifie.
Raffineur: m. A refiner, purifier, clarifier.
Rafflade: f. A gripe, graspe, or violent seisure.
Par vne rafflade. At once, all at a clap.
Faire vne rafflade. To gripe, catch, or snatch at, seise hastily, graspe violently; also, to scrape, or scratch; also, to rifle.
Rafflater. To flatter againe.
Raffle: f. A game at three dice, wherin he that throwes all three alike, winnes whatsoeuer is set; also, a rifling; also, the staulke of a bunch of grapes.
Faire vne raffle. To rifle, rauage, make hauock, sweep all away before them.
Iecter vne raffle. To throw three dice alike, as three aces, &c, to win all; also, to snatch, catch, or scratch.
Raffler. To scrape, or scratch; to catch, or seise on, violently; also, to rifle; to rauage, make hauocke, or cleane worke; to sweepe all away.
Raffoler. To hurt, or fell againe; also, to bring into a new fooles Paradice, to besot againe.
Raffusté: m. ée: f. New stocked; fitted with a new staffe, or stocke; frame, or carriage.
Raffuster. To fit, or furnish with a new stocke; staffe, carriage, frame.
Rafle, & Rafler. as Raffle, & Raffler.
Rafreschi: m. ie: f. Refreshed, cheered, reuiued, put into heart; also, renewed.
Rafreschir. To refresh, reuiue, cheere, comfort, put into heart; also, to renew.
Rafreschissement: m. A refreshing, or a refreshment; a comforting, reuiuing, cheering vp; a renewing.
se Ragaillardir. To be blithe, to wax merrie.
Ragalice: m. Lickorice.
Ragats d'eau: m. A great floud, inundation, rauage of waters.
Rage: f. Rage, furie, madnesse, woodnesse, fiercenesse, terriblenesse, outragiousnesse.
C'est rage. Tis a wonder.
Faire rage. To be verie briefe, or verie busie; to doe great matters, worke many wonders, keep a great coile; hurrie, flurre.
Ils firent rage de promettre. They promised mountaines, or wonderfull matters.
Qui veut tuer son chien luy met la rage sus: Prov. He that will hang his dog pretends he's mad.
Ragement: m. Toying, dalliance, wantonnesse, lasciuiousnesse.
Ragencé: m. ée: f. Readapted, readiusted, reaccommodated.
Ragencer. To readapt, readiust, reaccommodate, order anew.
Rager. Lasciuiously to toy, dallie, or wantonnize it.
Rageux: m. euse: f. Wanton, lasciuious, lustfull.
Raggrandir. To greaten, augment, increase, inlarge.
Ragot: m. The name of a cunning French begger, who made a booke of all his owne subtilties, and died verie rich (some say worth 3000 l.) ¶Rab.
Raguiser. To sparpen anew, or againe.
Rai: m. Looke Ray.
Raie, & Raïer. as Raye, & Rayer.
Raïere: f. A wrinkle in the face; Looke Rayere.
Rajeuni: m. ie: f. Growne young againe.
Rajeunir. To grow young againe.
Raifort: m. The Raddish, or the Rabone, root (or herb,) Raifort des champs. Mountaine Raddish, horse Raddish, great Raddish.
Raifort d'eau. Water Raddish; (a kind of wild Raddish.)
Raifort sauvage. The wild Raddish; also, the water Raddish; (Ruellius affirms, that Elatine, or female Fluellin, is in some parts of France tearmed, Raifort sauvage.)
Grand raifort. Great Raddish, horse Raddish, mountaine Raddish.
Fracture faicte en raifort. A simple fracture (of bones) without any shiuering.
Raillant. Jeasting; scoffing at.
Raillard: m. arde: f. Jeasting, boording, pleasant, merrie, with; also, flowting, gibing, scoffing, mocking.
Railler. To ieast, boord, sport, be merrie, or pleasant, with; to deride, mocke, flowt, scoffe, gibe at.
Raillerie: f. Jeasting, boording, sport, merriment; also, a flowt, or scoffe; a flowting, or scoffing.
Railleur: m. A ieaster, boorder; mocker, scoffer.
Raillon: m. A fashion of three-edged, or treble-bladed dagger, which opens and shuts with a vice.
Fer de fleche à raillon. A Shoot-head; a forked, or barbed head.
Raim: m. A bough, or branch of a tree.
Par raim de baston; &, par raim & baston. A deliuerie, or quitting of possession of land, by the deliuerie of a bough, rod, or sticke that growes thereon.
Raimceau: m. A little branch, or bough.
Rain: m. as Raim; A bough.
Rain de forests. The purlues, or skirts, of forrests; the places that be next, or neere adioyning, vnto them.
Raine: f. A Frog.
Raine de buisson. The hedge Toad.
Raine verte. The little venomous green Frog, or Toad.
Rainette: f. A little Frog; also, a Pawne at Chesse.
Rainseau: m. A little branch, or bough.
Rainselet: m. The same.
Raïolé. as Riolé.
Raïon. as Rayon.
Raïonné: m. ée: f. Furrowed; set, or sowne in, furrows; digested into seuerall rankes, rowes, or furrowes.
Raipaire. Looke Repaire.
Raiponce: f. Rampions, garden Rapions, the wild Rape.
Petite raiponce. Small or little Rampions, wild Rampions.
Raire. To shaue.
Apres raire n'y a que tondre: Prov. after shauing find no worke to doe.
A barbe de fol on apprend à raire: Prov. By trimming fooles about the gill, a Barbers prentise learns his skill; or, by doing a thing ill one learns to doe much better; vnseemelie presidents are warnings to the wise.
Vn barbier rait l'autre: Prov. One great man, rich man, cunning man, serues anothers turne.
Rais: m. The Sunne-beames.
Rais: m. aise: f. as Rasé.
Raise: f. A path, or furrow, betweene beds in a Garden, or in a tilled ground.
Raisin: m. A Grape; also, a Raisin; also, the kernell of a Grape; also, a bunch, or cluster of Grapes.
Raisins de cabas. Alligants, or fraile Raisins.
Raisins chenins. A kind of great red Grapes, fitter to make medecines, then meat, of.
Raisins confiz. as Raisins de cabas.
Raisins de Corinthe. Currans, or small Raisins.
Raisins de Damas. The best, and greatest kind of Raisins of the Sunne.
Vn raisin entier. A bunch, or cluster of Grapes.
Raisins de lierre. Ivie berries.
Raisin de mer. Sea Grape, sea Raisin, sea cluster; an hearbe, or little shrub, growing on drie banks neere vnto the sea.

Raiſins de mer. The frie, or ſpawne of the Cuttle-fiſh.
Raiſins d'outre mer. Red Gooſeberries, garden Currans.
Raiſins de panſe. Raiſins of the Sunne.
Raiſin de regnard. Garden Nightſhade, pettie Morrell; alſo, hearbe Paris, One-berrie, True-loue.
Raiſin renverſé. as Raiſin de regnard; (in the former ſence.)
Il n'eſt ny figue ny raiſin. He is neither fiſh nor fleſh, there is little or nothing in him.
Moitié figues, moitié raiſins. Halfe tone halfe tother; and (particularly) betweene ieaſt and earneſt.
Raiſiné: m. A confection of grapes, made thicke, and eaten with bread, as honie; or as Raiſinnée.
Raiſine: f. Roſen.
Raiſinée. as Raiſinnée.
Raiſineux: m. euſe: f. Full of grapes.
Raiſiniere: f. The third membrane, or skinne of the eye, (and the firſt that clothes th'Opticke ſinew) wherin the hole is by which we ſee; alſo, th'Vuula.
Raiſinnée: f. A ſauce, or confection of delicate, blacke, and ripe grapes, firſt preſſed betweene the hands; then boiled with water and ſalt; and then ſtrained, & put into earthen veſſells, where it will harden like a Marmalade, and keepe verie long.
Raiſon: f. Reaſon; alſo, due, right, equitie, iuſtice; alſo, knowledge, iudgement, wit, aduice, diſcretiõ, diſcourſe; alſo, a cauſe, argument, occaſion, conſideration; reſpect, regard; account, reckoning.
Papier de raiſon. A booke of Accounts; or, a bill of Account.
Avoir raiſon de. To get his due, or owne of; to bring vnto an account, or vnto equall tearmes.
Avoir la raiſon de. To take his pleaſure, to haue his will, of; or, as Ranger à raiſon.
Ie n'ay pas plus de temps que de raiſon. I haue but euen a reaſonable time; or, I haue no more time then I need.
Mettre à raiſon. To reduce into, or compell vnto, ſome order; or, as Ranger à raiſon.
Regardez ſi ie ne me mets pas à la raiſon. (In a cõ- agreement) See whether I haue not made a à raiſon. To tame, ſubdue, reclaime, bring into order, vnto ciuilitie, or to indifferent tearmes.
Raiſon eſt au moulin: Prov. Looke Moulin.
Mets raiſon en toy, ou elle s'y mettra: Prov. Let reaſon rule, or it will ouerrule, thee.
Neceſsité eſt la moitié de raiſon: Prov. Neceſsitie hath halfe the force of a reaſon; a fault which muſt be made is halfe excuſed.
Raiſonnable: com. Reaſonable, indifferent, equall, iuſt, right.
Raiſonnablement. Reaſonably, indifferently, equally, iuſtly, rightly.
Raiſonné: m. ée: f. Reaſoned, argued; diſcourſed.
Loix raiſonnées. Laws grounded on reaſon, or whoſe reaſons are annexed vnto them.
Raisonnement: m. A reaſoning, arguing, diſcourſing, diſputing.
Raisonner. To reaſon, argue, diſcourſe, diſpute.
Raiz. Looke Rets.
Raiz: m. aiſe: f. Shauen, powled neere.
Raize. as Raiſe.
Rale de cheval. The Paſterne of a horſe.
Ralenti: m. ie: f. Slackened, remitted.
Ralentir. To ſlacken; remit, looſen, foreſlow, wiredraw, linger, draw out in length; to relent in.

Ralette. Marchant de ralette. Treading lightly, or faire and ſoftly.
se Raliter. To fall ſicke, or get him ſicke to bed, againe.
Ralle. as Raſle.
Rallement: m. A ratling in the throat.
Raller. To rattle in the throat; alſo, to returne, or goe againe.
Raller à terre. To run faſt, and cloſe by the ground; (for ſo does the Rayle.)
Rallié: m. ée: f. Rallied, reunited, reaſſembled, attoned, reconciled, agreed.
Ralliement: m. A rallying, reaſſembling, reuniting; agreeing, attoning, reconciling.
Rallier. To rallie, reaſſemble, reunite, gather diſperſed, cloſe diſioynted, things together; alſo, to accord, reconcile, agree, make peace betweene.
Rallion: m. An arrow with a forked, or barbed head; a broad arrow.
Rallumé: m. ée: f. Reinflamed, kindled, or lighted againe.
Rallumer. To light, kindle, inflame, or ſet on fire againe.
Ralongé: m. ée: f. Lengthened, pulled, ſtretched, or drawne out in length.
Cerche ralongée. A certaine Inſtrument wherwith Maſons round, and faſhion pillers.
Ralonger. To lengthen; to ſtretch, or draw, out in length.
Ramadoüer. as Amadoüer.
Ramadoux: m. Th'Indian Rat; enemie to the Crocodile.
Ramage: m. Boughes, branches, branching; or any thing that belongs therto; hence, the warbling of birds recorded, or learnt, as they ſit on boughes; alſo, kindred, or linnage; or a branch of a pedegree.
Velours à ramage. Branched, or wrought Veluet.
Ramage: com. Of, or belonging to, branches; alſo, ramage, hagard, wild, homelie, rude.
Chant ramage. Naturall chaunting, rurall ſinging.
Eſpervier ramage. A Branchier, a ramage Hawke.
Ramaigrir. To wax leane, or fall away, againe.
Ramaison. Looke Ramoiſon.
Ramanché: m. ée: f. Rehaſted, rehelued; put againe into it right place; reduced vnto faſhion, or order.
Ramancher. To ſet a new haft, or handle, vnto; (and hence) alſo, to reduce vnto faſhion, or it former order; and, to put againe in it former place.
Ramar: m. The fiſh called the ſea Fox.
Ramas: m. A pile, heape, collection, medley, mingle mangle.
Ramaſſe: f. A broome, beeſome, or long bruſh; alſo, a kind of high ſled, or wheelebarrow, whereon trauellers are carried downe certaine ſteepe, and ſlipperie hills in Piemont.
Ramaſſé: m. ée: f. Gathered, piled, heaped, collected, or compacted, together; alſo, carried downe a ſteepe, or ſlipperie hill in the ſled Ramaſſe.
Ramaſſer. To pile, heape, gather vp, collect or aſſemble together; alſo, to conuey downe a ſteepe, or ſlipperie hill in a Ramaſſe.
Rambade: f. The bend, or wale of a Galley.
Ramberge: f. A faſhion of long ſhip, or ſea-veſſell, narrower then a Galley, but ſwift, & eaſie to be gouerned.
Rambure: f. The name of a ſowriſh apple.
Rame: f. An Oare; alſo, a reame of paper.
Gens de rame. Water-men, Barge-men, Galley-ſlaues; Rowers.
A rame rancade. Amaine, apace, with all their oares, as faſt as they can make, or driue.
Ramé: m. ée: f. Boughie, full of boughes, vnderpropped with boughes; alſo, rowed.

Balles ramées. Crosse-barre shot.
Cerf ramé. A raime Deere.
Pois ramez. Great Pease, garden Pease, bastie Pease, French Pease, Roman Pease.
Rameau : m. A branch, a bough.
La feste des rameaux. Palme-Sunday.
Ramée : f. A thicket; a thick and shadie groue, or copse; also, the shadow of boughes; and an open roome, arbor, or booth, made of boughes; any place thats couered, or ouershadowed, with boughes plashed one within another.
Ramené : m. ée : f. Brought backe; returned, reduced; also, retired, or drawne backe.
Ramener. To reduce, retire, bring or draw back.
Se ramener. A horse to pull in his head, or draw himselfe in, too much.
Ramener la complainte sur les lieux. To procure a Judge to heare, and determine a controuersie in the place, or on the land, which it concernes.
Ramener vne pile. To cast, or strike, backe a ball.
Ramentevoir. To remember, call to memorie, suggest, put in mind of.
Ramentu : m. uë : f. Remembred, called to memorie, or to an account, brought into the mind or vnto memorie.
Ramer. To row; also, to pricke or sticke full of boughes; to vnderset or vnderprop with boughes.
Ramerci : m. A certaine (forbidden) Engine wherewith fish may be caught.
Ramereau : m. A young Stockdoue.
Ramerot : m. A young, or small Stockdoue.
Rameur : m. A Waterman, a Rower.
Rameure : f. A rowing; also, as Ramure.
Rameux : m. euse : f. Full of branches, or boughes.
Ramieller. To vse further inticements, to sweeten once againe.
Ramier : m. A Queest, Ringdoue, Coushot, Woodculuer.
Ramier : m. ere : f. Of a bough, like a bough, liuing among boughes; whence;
Coulomb ramier. The Queest, &c; as Ramier.
Pois ramiers. Branch Pease, garden Pease, bastie Pease, French Pease.
Ramification : f. A branching; a spreading or diuiding into seuerall branches.
Ramifié : m. ée : f. Branched, spread in branches.
Ramifier. To branch; to put out, or spread in branches.
Ramilles : f. Small stickes, or twigs; little boughes, or branches.
Raminagrobis : m. A counterfeit, or counterfeiter of grauitie; a seuere outside of a sleight inside; one that would hide a most vaine and idle heart in an outward austere habit.
Ramingue : com. Froward, peeuish; or (as th'Italian ramengo*) wandering, loytering, rouing about; whence;*
Cheval ramingue. An inconstant mouing horse; one that keepes not in any direct way; one that holds not any certaine, or setled order in going.
Ramoderé : m. ée : f. Moderated, qualified, tempered.
Ramoderer. To moderate, qualifie, temper.
Ramoisin : m. A seared, or dead branch cut from a tree.
Ramoisons : m. Loppings; or the tops of branches lopped off; also, hauens, or bundles therof, or of other small wood, to be imployed either for fires, or in fences, and fortifications.
Ramoiti : m. ie : f. Moistened, bedewed, soked, or steeped ouer and ouer.
Ramoitir. To moisten, bedew; soke, or steepe ouer againe.
Ramolles : f. Past-meats fashioned like Saucidges, and made of the iuyce of hearbs, the yolkes of egges, cheese, and meale seasoned with salt, & boiled in water vntill they float; when, they are taken out of it, and serued vp hot.
Ramollir. To soften; or make soft againe.
Se ramollir. To soften, slacken, relent, wax gentle, grow tender.
Ramolliſſement : m. A softening, mollifying, making tender.
Ramon : m. A broome, or beesome.
Ramonné : m. ée : f. Swept with a broome.
Ramonner. To sweepe, or make cleane with a broome.
Ramonneur de cheminée. A Chimney-sweeper.
Ramonter. To lift vp on high.
Ramortiſſement. as Amortiſſement.
Rampable : com. Which may be crept on.
Rampar. Looke Rempar.
Rampeau. Droict de ramp. A priuiledge, or power, to lecher.
Rampement : m. A creeping, or crawling along on the ground; also, a climbing.
Ramper. To creepe, runne, crawle, or traile it selfe, along on the ground; also, to climbe.
Ramplaige. as Ramplage.
Ramponne : f. A flowt, scoffe, mocke, gibe, gleeke, iest broken on.
Ramponner. To gibe, flowt, scoffe, deride, mocke, iest at.
Rampoſne. as Ramponne.
Ramsoi as Rençon; (an old word.)
Ramu : m. uë : f. Branchie; full of branches.
Ramure : f. Branchineſſe, or a spreading in branches; also, branches.
La ramure d'un cerf. A Deeres head well set, or with all his rights; the well-spread head of a red Deere.
Ramuſelé. nez ramuſelé. A thicke and short nose; a bottle nose.
Ran : m. A Ramme; ¶Pic.
Rancade. A rame, ou à voile, rancade. With all their oares, or sayles; as fast as they can goe.
Rance : com. as Ranci.
Ranche : com. Hoarse.
Ranci : m. ie : f. Mustie, fustie, reasie, restie, tainted, stale, putrified, wasted, stinking, vnsauorie, ill-smelling.
Rancin : m. The new hunting of dogs after a default.
se Rancir. To putrifie, wax tainted, get a wast, grow mustie, fustie, reasie, restie, stale.
Rancissure : f. Mustineße, fustinesse, reasinesse, restinesse, a taint, staleneſſe, putrifaction, vnsauorinesse.
Ranco. Trotter de ranco. To walke from ranke to ranke, from one to another.
Rancoeur : m. Rankor, hatred, malice, an inward grudge, rankling despight.
Rancon : m. A Welsh hooke, or hedging bill; or (most properly) a triple forked weapon about the length of a Partisan.
Rançon : f. A ransome; Looke Rençon.
Rançonné : m. ée : f. Ransomed, put vnto ransome; also, oppreßed, or extorted vpon.
Rançonner. To ransome, to put vnto ransome; also, to oppresse, pole, despoyle, exact, or extort most of his substance from.
Rançonneur : m. A ransomer; also, an oppressor, or extortioner.
Rancune : f. as Rancoeur.
Randon : m. The swiftneſſe, or force of a strong and violent streame; whence, Aller à grand randon. To goe verie fast, or with a great and forced pace.

Sang

Sang reſpandu à gros randons. By great guſhes, or in great quantitie, at once.

Randonnée: f. A ſwift, or violent courſe.

Randonner. To runne ſwiftly, violently, as faſt as he can.

Rane: f. A Frog.

Rang: m. A ranke, row, liſt, file, range, courſe; place, order, array; alſo (plurally) the liſts of a Juſts, or Turnament.

Vn luth à 16 rangs. A ſixteene-ſtringd Lute; or a Lute with ſixteene ſtrings.

Au rang de. Amongſt, or in the companie of.

Mettre ſur les rangs. To make mention, haue ſpeech of; to remember, bring vpon the Stage, or bring in among the reſt; alſo, as;

Tenir ſur les rangs. To deride, ride, mocke, gibe, ſcoffe, or ieaſt at.

Rangé. Looke Rengé.

Rangée: f. A ranke, file, row.

Rangée d'avirons. A banke of oares.

Ranger. To range, ranke, order, array, ſet, ſort, place, diſpoſe of, ordaine vnto.

Ranger à l'eſtroict. To driue, or bring vnto a ſtrait.

Ranger à raiſon. To tame, reclayme, ciuilize, bring into temper, vnto reaſon or order; to ouercome, bring vnder, ſubdue.

Se ranger à. To ſet, addreſſe, frame, addict, apply, alſo, to yeeld, himſelfe vnto.

Se ranger au montoir. Looke Montoir.

Rangier: m. A Raine Deere.

Ranglier. The ſame.

Ranguillon: m. The tongue of a buckle.

Ranimé: m. ée: f. Reanimated, reincouraged, reuiued, reſtored vnto life.

Ranimer. To reanimate, reincourage, reuiue, put into heart; infuſe new vigor, life, or ſpirit into.

Ranulaire. Veine ran. A veine vnder the tongue, opened, or let bloud, for the Squinancie.

Ranules: f. The veines which are vnder the tongue; alſo, the little muskles of that part; ſo tearmed, becauſe they ſomewhat reſemble the flayed thighes of a Frog.

Ranulet: m. A painefull ſwelling of the veines vnder the tongues of cattell.

Ranuncule: m. The Crowſoot, Butter flower, Kings Cob, golden Cup; and (eſpecially a kind thereof) Spearewort, Beanewort.

Raouler. Seeke Rouler.

Rapacité: f. Rauening, rapacitie, greedineſſe; extortion, catching, extreame couetouſneſſe.

Rapaire: f. The dung of a Hare.

Rapatrier. as Repatrier.

Rapé: m. A verie ſmall wine comming of water caſt vpon the mother of grapes, which haue beene preſſed; alſo, the wine which comes from a veſſell filled with whole, and ſound grapes (diuided from the cluſter) and ſome wine among; which being drawne out, is ſupplyed by the leauings of good wine, put into the veſſell, and reuiued and kept in heart a whole yeare long by the ſaid grapes.

Rape: f. A Raſpe, or a rough File.

Rapé: m. ée: f. Raſped, ſcraped.

Rapeau: m. as Rappel; alſo, a returne; or a ſecond courſe, or hurle at Keyles.

Rapede-nare. as Racle-denare.

Rapel: m. A Lure for a Hawke.

Rapement: m. A raſping, hard ſcraping.

Raper. To raſpe, or ſcrape hard; alſo, to knocke (from the vſe of ſome, to ſcrape) at a doore, &c.

Rapetacé: m. ée: f. Patched, peeced, clowted, mended botched.

Rapetacer. To patch, peece, clowt, mend, botch.

Rapetaſſer. The ſame.

Rapetiſſé: m. ée: f. Diminiſhed, leſſened, grown leſſe and leſſe; alſo, ſet in, as a peece of worke.

Rapetiſſement: m. A leſſening, diminiſhing, extenuating; a making or growing leſſe and leſſe; alſo, a ſetting, or ſtanding in of a peece of worke.

Rapetiſſer. To leſſen, diminiſh, extenuate, make leſſe and leſſe; alſo, to ſet in a peece of worke, or a peece of worke to ſtand in, beyond it fellowes.

Rapeur: m. A Raſper, or hard ſcraper.

Raphan. as Raifort.

Raphanelle ſauvage. The hearbe Dittanie, Dittander, Pepperwort.

Raphe: m. A certaine beaſt thats ſhaped like a Wolfe, and ſpotted like a Panther; alſo, the name of a Saint; whence;

Mal de S. Raphe. A leaproſie, or, the wild ſcab.

Raphe: f. A Raddiſh; alſo, a leapers clicket; alſo, a handfull, or graſpfull of; alſo, the Game at Dice called Raffle.

Rapher. as Raffler.

Raphileux: m. euſe: f. Rugged, rough, knottie, Knobbie; alſo, full of ſeames.

Raphine: f. The name of a certaine Saint; whence;

Mal de S. Raphine. The wild ſcab.

Raphler. as Raffler.

Rapide: com. Violent, impetuous, haſtie, ſudden, ſwift, vehement; cruell, furious; rauenous.

Rapidement. Impetuouſly, violently, ſwiftly, haſtily, ſuddenly; rauenouſly; cruelly, furiouſly.

Rapidité: f. Violent ſwiftneſſe, impetuous haſt, vehement or ſudden furie; rauenous crueltie.

Rapiecé: m. ée: f. Peeced, patched, botched vp.

Rapiecement: m. A peecing, patching, botching.

Rapiecer. To peece, patch, botch, clowt, mend.

Rapieceur: m. A peecer, patcher, botcher.

Rapiere: f. An old ruſtie rapier.

Rapille: f. A kind of ſand gotten at Pouſſole neere vnto Naples; and vſed in the cutting of Marble.

Rapine: f. Rapine, rauine, rauiſhment, robberie, violent snatching, forcible taking.

Rapiner. To rauine, deſpoyle, rob of, rauiſh, take violently, ſnatch greedily, beare away haſtily, from.

Rapineux: m. euſe: f. Rauenous, greedie, violent; couetous, (or violēt in couetouſneſſe,) rauiſhing, or deſpoiling of all, or the beſt things one hath.

Rapoil: m. A Shauer, or Barber.

Rapoule: f. The Clote, Burre-docke, or great Burre.

Rappé: m. Small wine; or as Rapé.

Rappe: f. A Game, or Exerciſe, wherein th' Actors being armed with Gauntlets buffet one another.

Rappé. as Rapé; brouët rappé. The broth of Chickens and Veale, hauing added vnto it the crummes of white bread, liuers of Pullein, Veriuice, and white Ginger, ſtrained together, and then being boyled againe.

Rappeau. as Rappel.

Rappecon: m. The ſea fiſh called, a Heauen-gazer.

Rappel: m. A repeale, reuocation, recalling; a calling, or fetching backe.

Rappelé: m. ée: f. Repealed, reuoked, recalled; fetched, or withdrawne from.

Rappeler. To repeale, reuoke, recall, call backe, fetch, or withdraw from.

Rappeler par bourſe. To redeeme, or to recouer, by the priuiledge of neere kindred, an inheritance which hath hath beene ſold; giuing for it onely ſo much as it was ſold for.

Rappeler le cochon. To repeat, or intreat of, his former ſubiect; to fall into, or come vnto, the matter againe; alſo, to leaue, or end as he began.

Rappeller. as Rappeler.

Rappes: f. The Paines; a diſeaſe in a horſes legs.

Rappetiſſement. Looke Rapetiſſement.

Rappez: m. A kind of Grapes preſerued in Muſt; and ſerued to the Table as great dainties; Looke Rapé.

Rappiecé, & Rappiecement. as Rapiecé, & Rapiecement.

Rappiecer. Looke Rapiecer.

Rappoincté: m. ée: f. New pointed, or ſharpened at the point.

Rappoincter. To ſharpen the point of, or ſet a new point on; alſo, to repaire the loſſes of, to furniſh anew with, to reſtore to a former eſtate, to ſet vp againe; alſo, to redetermine, redecree; reattone, reconcile; bring into good tearmes againe.

Rapport: m. A report, relation, recitall, rehearſall, deliuerie of a tale; alſo, the returne of a Writ; or that which a Sheriſe, Sergeant, or other officer, ſets downe on the backſide of a Writ ſerued, or otherwiſe reports of the ſeruing, or executing, thereof; alſo, a reſemblance, correſpondencie, accord, or agreement between ſeuerall things; alſo, a bearing, yeelding, or bringing forth of fruit.

Rapport & denombrement. A ſuruey; or, as Denombrement.

Rapport de main pleine; C'eſt, garniſon de la main de Iuſtice de biens ſuffiſans & valables, pour la ſomme pour la quelle execution eſt faicte, ſur le rapport du Sergent des biens deſia par luy prins ſur le debteur; en quel cas il peut avoir recreance, proviſion, & delivrance d'iceux.

Teſte de rapport. The branch of a Vine that beares the Grapes, is ordinarily a ſhoot of one that ſprung out the yeare before.

Rapporté: m. ée: f. Told, reported, related, recited, rehearſed; alſo, likened or compared with, reſembled, referred, applyed, or layed neere vnto; alſo, fitted, adapted, correſpondent, euenly ioyned, iuſtly applyed; alſo, brought or carried backe.

Vers rapportez. Verſes whoſe words reportingly anſwer one another; as in, Paſtre, Laboureur, Duc, i'ay peu, beſché, ſoubmis, de rains, de pics, de mains, chevres, champs, ennemis, &c.

Rapporte-nouvelle. Vn r. A newes-bearer, or tale-carrier; one that takes vp, or bearkens after, any newes, to report them, or make tales out of them.

Rapporter. To report, relate, recount, recite, rehearſe, tell, deliuer; alſo, to referre, compare, apply one to; to match, fit, equall one with, another; to lay peece by peece, or one cloſe by another; alſo, to beare, yeeld, or bring forth fruit; alſo, to bring, or carrie, backe; alſo, to repreſent, as formes, vnto the thoughts, to imprint them therein.

Rapporter vn procez. Succintly, and ſincerely to rehearſe, and open vnto the Court the principall points of a matter alreadie debated at large by the Councell of both ſides.

Se rapporter à. To reſemble, or agree with; alſo, to referre, or commit, himſelfe vnto.

S'en rapporter à. To lay the charge, or care of a buſineſſe on another; whence, Ie m'en rapporte à celuy, qu'il y prenne garde s'il veut. I haue rid my hands of it, I will deale no more in it, let him looke to it if he will; and, Ie m'en rapporte à ce qu'en eſt; Let the thing defend, or ſpeake for, it ſelfe, I neither make nor meddle with it.

Ou ſe rapportent, & frappent les rayons. Where the beames light, or meet.

Rapporteur: m. A reporter, a relator, a recitor, a rehearſer.

Rapporteurs de Chancelerie. Certain officers, which open vnto the Maſters of Requeſts (in that Court) the effect of petitions; and the difficulties, or inconueniences, whereto the Writs, or Letters Patents required by ſuitors are ſubiect.

Rapporteur de proces. The Preſident, or Conſeillier, who, when a caſe hath beene fully argued, and debated by the Councell on both ſides, doth open faithfully, and report ſuccinctly, the principall points thereof; immediately after which the Court proceedes vnto Sentence.

Rapprendre. To learne ouer againe.

Raprecy: m. A reualuation, or new price made, of.

Rapſe: f. as Rape; a Raſpe.

Rapſodie: f. A Rapſodie; an improper collection, a confuſed heaping vp, of many ſentences.

Rapt: m. A rauiſhing; a violent ſnatching, taking, or pulling away of.

Raptacer. To patch, piece, mend, botch, clowt.

Raptaſſer. as Raptacer.

Raquaille. as Racaille.

Raquamé: m. ée: f. Imbrodered.

Raque: f. Durt; filth, ordure; mud, myre; or, as Raſque.

Raqué. Vin raqué. (Perhaps in ſtead of Rapé.) Small, or courſe wine, ſqueezed from the marc, or dregs of the grapes, alreadie drayned of all their beſt moiſture.

Raquedenare: m. A pinch-pennie, ſcrape-good, miſerable wretch.

Raquetier: m. A Racket-maker; alſo, one that handles a Racket well.

Raquette: f. A Racket.

Raquettes. The high-ſided periwigs, or wires of haire, worne heretofore by Gentlewomen.

Raquit: m. A reacquitment, redemption, buying out, a diſcharge, or extinguiſhment of rents, &c.

Raquitable: com. Redeemeable.

Raquité: m. ée: f. Redeemed, bought out.

Raquiter. To redeeme, diſcharge, extinguiſh, buy out.

Raquoiſé: m. ée: f. Quieted, ſtilled, calmed, aſſuaged, appeaſed, pacified.

Raquoiſer. To quiet, ſtill, calme, aſſuage, pacifie, appeaſe.

Rare: com. Rare, ſeld, vnuſuall, geaſon; thinne, cleere; daintie, precious, excellent.

Rarefacient. Making thinne, or ſcant.

Rarefaction: f. A making, or becomming, thinne.

Rarefier. To rarifie; to make thinne, or ſcant.

Rarement. Rarely, ſeldome, vnuſually, not often.

Rareté: f. Rareneſſe, raritie, ſeldomeneſſe; thinneſſe, ſcantneſſe.

Ras: m. The ſtuffe called Serge.

Ras de Milain. The fineſt kind of bare Serge; or a ſilke Serge.

Ras: m. aſe: f. Shauen, cleane ſhauen, cut cloſe by the ground or bottome; cut quite away.

Campagne raſe. An euen and plaine field without billocks, furrowes, or trees.

Or ras. Smooth Gold, Venice ſtuffe.

Drap d'or ras. Smooth, or vnfrizeled cloth of Gold.

Velours ras. Vncut Velvet.
Couper tout ras. To cut cleane off, to sweepe quite away.
Vouloir prendre vn homme ras par les cheveux. To require, or exact, of a man much more then he can yeeld.

Rasant. Shauing, sheering, paring, or cutting close by the root, or bottome; also, razing, or laying euen by the ground.

Rascas. Douſſin rascas. The great sea Vrchin.

Rascase. as Douſſin rascas; or (in Languedoc) the sea Scorpion.

Rasche: f. A scauld, or a running scurfe, or sore (full of little holes) especially in the heads of little children. ¶Langued.

Rascle: f. A Partridge (about Montpellier.)

Rase: f. A shauing, sheering, powling; and thence, a road into, or a rauaging of, an enemies country; Looke Raze.

Rasé: m. ée: f. Shauen, cut cleane off, powled close to the skinne; also, razed, or layed euen with, or leuell vnto, the ground.
Mesure rasée. Close, neere, or hard measure; stricken measure.

Raseau: m. Networke; also, a great flat-bottomd Boat, Barge, or Lighter; or, as Radeau.

Rasement: m. A shauing, sheering, striking, or cutting close off; a razing, a laying leuell to the ground.

Rase-poil: m. A Barber, a haire-shauer.

Raser. To shaue; sheere; cut quite off, close by the root, cleane away; also, to raze, or lay leuell to the ground; also, to touch, or grate, on a thing in passing by it.
Raser les eaux. To skimme ouer, to skue or sayle vpon, the water.
Raser les herbes. To sit (as the deaw, &c) on hearbes.

Rasette: f. The lesse bone of the arme, or leg.

Rasibus de. Close or hard vnto, leuell or euen with.
Rasibus qui bouge? The word of a certaine Game, wherein one with a staffe strikes all along the top of an open, and vp-standing Hogshead, and thereby makes ducke downe into it another, who is within it.

Rasier de bled. A measure containing about foure Bushels.

Rasle: m. A rattling in the throat; also, the fowle called, a Rayle.
Rasle de genest. The ordinarie Rayle.
Rasle grand. The Moorehenne, or small Coot; resembles the ordinarie Coot in all parts but his feet, which be clouen.
Rasle noir. The Brooke-Ouzell, or Moore-henne.
Rasle rouge. The common Rayle.
Courir comme vn rasle. To runne verie fast, and close by the ground.

Rasoir: m. A Rasour.
Rasoir de mer. as Rason.
Faire la barbe à quelqu'un sans rasoir. To affront, braue, abuse one.
'A barbe de fol le rasoir est mol: Pro. A Goose will brooke any ieast, or put vp any abuse; euery harsh thing hath a gentle touch in his dull conceit.
'A barbe de fol hardi rasoir: Pro. Looke Fol.

Rason: m. A delicate red-skaled fish in the seas about Rhodes and Malta; tearmed thus, because his backe is fashioned like a Rasour.

Raspatoire: m. A Raspatorie, a Raspe, an instrument of scraping.

Raspé: m. as Rapé.

Raspe: f. A Raspe, or a rough File.

Raspé: m. ée: f. Rasped, scraped, grated; filed.

Raspecon: m. The sea-fish called (by some) a Heauen-gazer.

Raspeux: m. euse: f. Rugged, rough as a Raspe.

Rasque: f. The scurfe of a scauld head.

Rassaillir. To reassayle, reassault, set on againe.

Rassasié: m. ée: f. Filled, saded, satiated, satisfied.

Rassasiement: m. A glutting, filling, satiating, satisfying.

Rassasier. To fill, glut, sade, satiate, satisfie.

Rasseant. Sitting downe againe.

Rassel: m. Arse smart, water Pepper, Killridge, or Culerage (an hearbe.)

Rassembler. To reassemble, to rally; also, to set together againe.

Rasseoir. To rest, settle, set, or sit, downe.

Rasserené: m. ée: f. Made lightsome, cheerefull, cleere, calme.

Rasserener. To make lightsome, cheerefull, cleere, calme.

Rasseurer. To secure, make sure, confirme, or settle vnto.

Rassis: m. ise: f. Setled, stayed, at rest; sober, temperate, well tempered, whose wild oats are sowen.
Pain rassis. Stale bread.
Vin rassis. Ripe, or fined wine.

Rassoté: m. ée: f. Growne sottish, doultish, or childish; fallen into dotage.

Rassotement: m. Sottishnesse, dotage.

Rassoter. To dote, become doultish, grow fond, vaine, childish, foppish.

Rasteau: m. A Rake; also, a Portcullis.

Rastelé: m. ée: f. Raked; broken, leuelled, or gathered together, with a Rake.

Rasteler. To rake; to breake, leuell, or gather together, with a Rake.

Rastelier: m. A Racke, to put Hay &c in; also, the staulke, or steale of a Grape; also, a row of pegs, or woodden pinnes, to hang things on.
Couvrir leur rastelier. To couer their gaping mouthes (which otherwise would discouer a thinne, or ill fauored sett of teeth.)
Hausser le rastelier (viz. le bec, ou le nez) à. Scornfully to cast vp the head at.
Tout se trouve au rastelier de cuisine: Prov. All things are, at the length, discouered, or brought vpon the Stage.

Rastellot: m. Wild Cheruill, mocke Cheruill, Shepheards needle, Venus Combe, or our Ladies Combe.

Raston: m. A fashion of round, and high Tart, made of butter, egges, and cheese.

Rasue. as Resue.

Rasure: f. A shauing; a close cutting, or striking; also, a razing out of written things; also, the shauings, or scrapings of a thing; whence;
Rasure d'Aloës.

Rasurier: m. A Shauer, a Barber.

Rat: m. A Rat; also, a Mouse; also, the fish called, a Heauen-gazer; (also, as Rapt, in old French.)
Rat d'Hongrie. The Hungarian Rat; a little greenish beast which resembles a Weesell, but is no bigger then a Mouse.
Rat d'Inde. as Rat de Pharaon.
Rat de Lasle. The Lasset Mouse; a beast that beares the Furre which we call Minenar.
Rat Liron. A Dormouse.
Rat de Montaigne. as Marmotaine.
Rat Norique. The Noritan Mouse; bodied like a weesell, haired like a Hare, and eared like a Mole; she feeds most

moſt on Nuts, and (contrarie to other Mice) is easily tamed.

Rat de Nuremberg. The Rat of Noremberg; coated almoſt like a Hare, and hauing but two little holes in ſtead of eares.

Rat Pannonique. A ſmall rat of a greeniſh colour; but otherwiſe reſembling our Weeſell.

Rat de Pharaon. The Indian Rat; as big as a Cat, and mortall enemie to the Crocodile, whoſe gaping mouth he creepes into, and getting thence into his bowels, eats them, and kills him.

Rat de Ponte. The Ponticke Rat, or Mouſe; white of colour, and as big as a Squirrell; his tayle (of a fingers length) hauing a verie blacke tip, makes him held, by ſome, a kind of Ermine, or Ermeline.

Rat velu. A Dormouſe.

Oreille de rat. The hearbe Mouſe-eare; alſo, a kind of Chickweed, or hearbe like Chickweed.

Yeux de rat. Small eyes, pinke eyes.

Rats en paille. A ruſtling, foule coyle, hurlyburly, buſtling; alſo, a reuelling, or iollitie; whence;

Plus ioyeux que rats en paille. More friske, or liuelie then Rats on a Chaff-heape.

Prendre vn rat par la queuë. To cut a purſe.

Les rats ſe promenent à l'aiſe là ou il n'y a point de chats: Pro. The Rats may ſafely play, when as the Cat's away.

A bon rat bon chat: Pro. Looke Chat.

Trop tard ſe repent le rat entre les pattes du chat: Pro. The Rat can verie ill plead Law when the Cat hath him vnder her paw.

Rataconné: m. ée: f. Patched, botched, cobled, clowted.

Rataconner. To patch, botch, coble, clowt.

Rataconnerie: f. A patching, or botching, a cobling, or clowting.

Rataconneur: m. A patcher, botcher, cobler.

Rataconniculer. To reiterate leacherie.

Ratatiné: m. ée: f. Grubbie, ſhrunke in, thick and ſhort; Looke Rattatiné.

Rate: f. The Spleene, or Milt.

Ayez bonne rate. Be liuelie, be merrie, plucke vp your ſpirits man, be of good cheare.

Rateau: m. as Radeau.

Rateceler. To clowt, or coble a ſhooe, &c.

Ratelant. Hunting after Miſe and Rats; alſo, howling, or crying, like an Owle.

Ratelée: f. A rablement; a fond ſaw, or ſaying.

Sa ratelée du butin. His ſhare of the bootie.

En dire ſa ratelée. To ſpeake his mind, blurt out his ſentence, deliuer vp his opinion, of the matter.

Rateler. To hunt Rats, and Mice as an Owle; alſo, to howle, ſkreeke, or cry, like an Owle.

Ratelier. as Raſtelier.

Ratelle: f. as Rate.

Rateloü: m. Long Hartwort, or Birthwort, male Birthwort.

Ratepenade: f. A Bat, Rearemouſe, or Flickermouſe; alſo, a kind of Scatefiſh; as Glorieuſe.

Ratepenade de mer. The flying fiſh; becauſe in colour, and forme of wings it ſomewhat reſembles a Bat.

Ratepenades. as Raquettes.

Ratiere: f. A Mouſe-trap.

Ratifié: m. ée: f. Ratified, confirmed, eſtabliſhed, warranted, aſſured vnto.

Ratifier. To ratifie, confirme, eſtabliſh, approue, warrant, aſſure vnto.

Ratiocination: f. A diſcourſing, diſcuſſing, arguing, diſputing, reaſoning, debating of matters.

Ratiociner. To reaſon, diſcourſe, diſcuſſe, diſpute, argue, debate.

Rational: m. ale: f. Reaſonable, indued with reaſon, hauing the vſe, or power, of reaſon.

Ratiſſé: m. ée: f. Scraped, raſped, grated.

Ratiſſer. To ſcrape; to raſpe; to grate.

Ratiſſer le cerveau. To vex, or perplex the braines.

Ratiſſoire: f. A Raſpe; alſo, a Grater.

Ratiſſouër: m. An yron raſpe, rake, or ſcraper.

Ratiſſure: f. A raſping, or ſcraping; alſo, the ſcrapings of.

Rat-liron: m. A Dormouſe.

Ratoir: m. A Mouſe-trap, or a Trap for Rats.

Ratoire: m. A Ruptorie; a skinne-breaking oyntment, medicine, or ſalue.

Ratoire: f. The hole in a dore for a Cat to goe in and out at; alſo, a Mouſe-hole; alſo, as Ratoir.

Raton: m. A little Rat (or Mouſe;) alſo, as Raſton.

Ratouëre: f. A paring ſhouell; alſo, a Rat-trap.

Ratrapé: m. ée: f. Reintrapped.

Ratraper. To reintrap; to catch, or lay hands on once againe.

Rattaindre. To reach, or ouertake againe.

Rattatiné: m. ée: f. Grubbie, ſhrunke in, thicke and ſhort; alſo, as Renfrongné, ou Rechigné.

Ratte. as Rate.

Ratteindre. To reach, or ouertake once more.

Ratteint: m. te: f. Raught, or ouertaken againe.

Ratteinte: f. A reaching, or ouertaking once more.

Ratteloup. as Ratelou.

Rattendrir. To make tender, or ſoft againe.

Ratte-volage: f. A Batt.

Rattier: m. ere: f. Sullen, retired, vnſociable, vncompanable, ſolitarie, ſtrange; alſo, ſpleenaticke, or belonging to the Spleene.

Rattierement. Sullenly, retiredly, priuately, ſolitarily, vnſociably, in huggar-muggar.

Rat-veul: m. A Dormouſe.

Rature: f. A raze, or ſcratch; a razing, or ſcraping out; a cancelling, or putting out.

Rature encriere. A daſh, or ſtroake through a word with a penne.

Raturé: m. ée: f. Razed, ſcraped, effaced, cancelled, blotted, ſtrucke, or daſhed, out.

Ravacher. as Ravaſſer.

Ravage: m. Rauage, hauocke, ſpoyle; a violent, and ſuddaine ranſacking, forraying, irruption into; an ouerrunning, or ouerflowing of a countrey, whether by incurſion of enemies, or inundation of waters.

Ravagé: m. ée: f. Rauaged, ſpoyled, forrayed, ſacked, ranſacked, made hauocke of, waſted, ouerflowne, ouerrunne, violently and ſuddainely.

Ravager. To rauage, forray, ſpoyle, prey vpon, make hauocke of, ſacke, ranſacke; violently to ouerrunne, ſuddainely to ouerflow.

Ravageur: m. A rauager, ſpoyler, forrayer, ſacker, ranſacker, one that makes hauocke of all he can come neere.

Ravaille: m. Small fiſh ſold one with another.

Raval. as Ravallement.

Ravallé: m. ée: f. Deiected, humbled, caſt, or ſunke downe, debaſed, depreſſed; leſſened or fallen in price; brought low, taken or ſwallowed downe.

Ravallement: m. A deiecting, debaſing, depreſſing, a caſting, or ſinking, a taking, or ſwallowing, downe; a falling in price; an humbling, abating, abaſing; bea- bearing, or pulling downe.

Ravallement de courage. Faintneſſe, or a fainting; faintheartedneſſe, diſcouragement, abaſhment.

Ravaller. To pull, caſt, bring, or beare, downe; to debaſe, depreſſe, deiect; leſſen, diminiſh, abate; bring low, take lower; alſo, to ſwallow, or ſwill downe againe.

Se ravaller. To humble himſelfe, to ſtoope, yeeld, condiſcend, or vayle bonnet vnto; alſo, to fall in price.

Il ſe ravalla dedans ſon lict. He ſunke downe, or layed him downe, againe into his bed.

Ravanel: m. The Raddiſh root.

Ravanille: f. A little Raddiſh.

Ravaſſer. To raue, to talke idly.

Ravaſſer en dormant. To ſleepe vnquietly, or talke in ſleeping.

Ravauder. To patch, or botch.

Ravaudereſſe: f. A woman botcher.

Ravauderie: f. Botcherie, or botched ſtuffe.

Ravaudeur: m. A Botcher; alſo, an idle, or ignorant ſpeaker; one that either confounds, or vnderſtands not, what he ſayes; or one that neither does, nor ſayes, ought rightly.

Ravaudeuſe: f. as Ravaudereſſe.

Ravayde: f. A coyle, or ſtirre; or, as Ravage. ¶Orleannois.

Rauder. as Roder; alſo, to laugh, ieaſt, be merrie, reuell, riot it.

Rave: f. A Rape, or Turnep; the Raddiſh is alſo called ſo in ſome parts of France, but eſpecially about Paris.

Rave douce. The Raddiſh root.

Rave forte. The ſame; or, as Raifort.

Rave de Limoſin. A Turnep.

Rave longue. The long Rape, or Turnep.

Rave ronde. The ordinarie Rape; alſo, the round Raddiſh.

Rave de Savoye. The Sauoyan Rape, the greateſt kind of Turnep.

Rave ſauvage. The water, and wild, Raddiſh; alſo, the wild Rape, or Turnep; ſome alſo call Speedwell (or Elatine) ſo.

Ce mot ſent ſa rave. This word is clowniſh, or ſauors of the clowne.

Raveforte. as Raifort.

Ravel. Bogue ravel. A little ſea-fiſh, that hath great eyes, a ſiluer-coloured bellie, a reddiſh backe and tayle, and all other parts not much vnlike the Cackarells.

Ravelin: m. A Rauelin (in fortification.)

Il y a bien de ravelin en ſon faict. All is not well with him, he is much out of ſquare.

Ravenet: m. The Raddiſh root.

Raverdir. To wax greene; or to canker, as a braſen veſſell that's either not vſed, or ill kept.

Raveſtiſſement: m. A readueſting, reinueſture.

Ravet: m. The Raddiſh root.

Ravette: f. A little Rape, or Turnep.

La petite ravette. The garden Rampion, or wild Rape.

Raveul: m. A Dormouſe.

Ravi: m. ie: f. Rauiſhed, ſuddainely or forcibly carried away.

Belle choſe eſt toſt ravie: Prov. Faire things are quickly ſnatched vp.

Raviere: f. A plot, or bed, of Turneps.

Ravigoré: m. ée: f. Recouered, reſtored vnto vigor; cheered vp againe.

Ravigorer. To recouer, to reſtore vnto vigor; to hearten, ſtrengthen, reuiue, cheere vp againe.

Ravigotter. To reuiue; or, a halfe-dead man to returne vnto life. ¶Pic.

Ravine d'eau. A great flood; a rauine, or inundation of water, which ouerwhelmeth all things that come in it way.

Ravineux: m. euſe: f. Rauenous, violent, impetuous, like a forcible ſtreame, or inundation of waters.

Ravir. To rauiſh, to ſnatch away haſtily, pull away violently, take away forcibly, beare away ſuddainely.

Raviſé: m. ée: f. Readuiſed, well bethought of in himſelfe, thought better, or otherwiſe, of.

Se Raviſer. as Radviſer.

Raviſſant: m. ante: f. Rauiſhing, rauenous, violent, greedie, ſwift.

Raviſſement: m. A rauiſhing, a rauiſhment.

Raviſſeur: m. A rauiſher; a violent, or forcible taker; a rauenous, or greedie companion.

Ravivé: m. ée: f. Reuiued.

Raviver. To reuiue; to returne, or to reſtore, vnto life.

Raulet. The name of a certaine great Peare.

Ravoir. To recouer, to haue againe.

Se ravoir. To reuiue, recouer, come againe vnto himſelfe.

Ravoire: f. as Ravage.

Ravoirer. (Sometimes vſed) as Ravoir.

Ravolé: m. ée: f. Fled backe.

Ravoler. To fly backe, to returne flying.

Rauque: com. Hoarſe; harſh, or vnpleaſant of ſound.

Rauſe: f. Sedge, Gladen, Glader, Swordgraſſe, Sheeregraſſe.

Ray: m. A ray, or beame of the Sunne; alſo, a ſpoke of a wheele.

Ray de miel. A boney-combe.

Rayant: m. ante: f. Radiant, glittering, ſhining, blazing, leaming.

Rayaux: m. Barres; or long, and narrow peeces of mettall.

Raye: f. Ray, Skate, Thornebacke.

Raye au bec pointu. The ſharpe-ſnowted (or daintieſt kind of) Ray.

Raye bouclée. The Rocke-Ray; the Ray whoſe backe is ſet thicke with little knurles, not vnlike vnto buckles.

Raye cendrée. A kind of ſmooth Ray; or, as Coliart.

Raye eſtelée. The ſtarrie Skate, the rugged Ray.

Raye lize. The ſmooth Ray, whoſe finnes are powdered with little ſpecks like Looking-glaſſes.

Raye au long bec. The ſpotted, long-ſnowted, or ſharp-ſnowted Ray.

Raye polic. The ſmooth Ray.

Raye: f. A ray, line, ſtroake, row; furrow; alſo, the ſpoke, or ſtaffe, of a wheele.

La raye des arbres. The graine of Timber, or of Trees.

La raye du cul. The nock, fould, or dint betweene the buttocks.

Tant d'arpents à la raye. So much arrable land which is to be ſowed that yeare.

Ils ſont au bout de la raye. They haue done as much as they can; they are gone as farre as they are able; they haue no more to doe, or to ſay.

Rayé: m. ée: f. Raſed, ſcraped, croſſed, or cleane put out; alſo, rayed, rewed, ſtreaked, or skored all ouer; alſo, blazed, or glittered.

Rayement: m. A raſing, ſcraping, croſſing, blotting, or putting out; alſo, a glittering, blazing, flaring, bright ſhining, ſhining, ſending forth of beames; alſo, a rewing, ſtreaking, or ſkoring all ouer.

Rayer. To raſe, croſſe, blot, ſcrape, ſtrike, or put out; alſo, to rew, ſtreake, or skore all ouer; alſo, to blaze, flare, leame, glitter, ſhine brightly, ſend forth beames.

Se rayer. To be full of rayes, rewes, or ſtreakes.

La mamelle ne rayoit que du ſang. Yeelded nothing but blood; nothing ſpowted, flowed, iſſued, or came from it but bloud; hence alſo, Il luy fit rayer le ſang par le nez.

Rayere: f. A loope-hole; a long, and narrow cleft in the wall of a Priſon, Dungeon, or Tower, whereby light, and ayre (though but verie little) are let into the roomes thereof.

Les rayeres d'un moulin à eau. The armes, or ſtarts of the wheele of a water-mill.

Rayeure: f. as Rayement.

Rayfort. as Raifort.

Raymolles de blanc de chapon. The brawne of a Capon, Raiſins of the Sunne, and marrow ſhred all together, then made into little cakes or loaues, and fryed with ſeame or Hogs ſewet, and ſerued vp with ſugar ſtrewed on them.

Rayolé. Seeke Riolé.

Rayon: m. A furrow; alſo, a reyne, or drayne for the voiding of ſuperfluous moiſture; a water furrow; alſo, a ray, or beame of the Sunne; alſo, the ſpoke, or ſtaffe of a wheele; alſo, the leſſe bone of the arme.

Rayon de miel. An honey-combe.

Rayonnant. as Rayant.

Rayonné: m. ée: f. Furrowed; made, cut out, or plowed vp, into furrowes.

Rayonner. To furrow; make furrowes, or make furrowie; alſo, to radiate, ſhine, leame, flare, blaze, glitter, yeeld bright rayes, caſt forth beames.

Rayonner des arbres. To plant, or ſet trees in furrowes.

Rayonner la terre. To plow vp land in furrowes; alſo, to draine it.

Rayonneux: m. euſe: f. Full of beames; full of furrowes.

Raze: f. The broadeſt part of the Omoplate, or ſhoulder-blade; verie griſtlie, and bending towards the backbone; alſo, as Raſe.

Trois razes d'angonnages; (in ſtead of Races) three kinds of pockie botches. ¶Rab.

Razé: m. ée: f. Razed, ruined; ſhauen, cloſe-cut.

Raze-forts. Forts-razing, bulwarks-ouerthrowing.

Razer. Looke Raſer.

Razis. A kind of white ointment vſed by Surgeons for the drying vp of ſores.

Ré. Shauen; Looke Rez.

Re. Of it ſelfe hath neither ſignification, nor vſe (other then as a Muſicall, or ſinging Note) In compoſition, it ſometimes alters not the ſence; as in Receler, Recomforter Remercier, Remonſtrer, Repaiſtre, Reſchapper, & Reſveiller: Sometimes it ſignifies againe; as in Rechauffer, Relaver, &c; and backe, as in Reculer, Rechaſſer, Repoulſer, &c; and mutually, interchangeably, or backe againe; as in Rebecquer, Refrapper, Remocquer, Repiquer, &c: Sometimes it giues an energie to the ſimple; as in Reclamer, Redarguer, Redoubter, Reluire, Requerir, Reſembler, &c; and ſometimes a contrarie ſence; as in Regorger, Reprouver, Reveler, &c.

Reachet: m. A redemption, or buying againe.

Readjourné: m. ée: f. Readiourned, cited, or ſummoned once more.

Readjourner. To readiourne, to cite or ſummon againe.

Readmis: m. iſe: f. Readmitted.

Readopté: m. ée: f. Readopted.

Readopter. To readopt.

Reaffle: m. The diuell.

Reaffranchi: m. ie: f. Reaffranchiſed, made free againe; redeliuered, releaſed once more; alſo, doubly reclaymed, or tamed; made franc in perfection.

Reagal: m. (The right) Aconitum, or Aconite.

Reaggravation: f. A reaggrauation; and (particularly) the laſt, and moſt direfull excommunication of offendors.

Real: m. A Reall, or Spaniſh ſix-pence; alſo, a kind of the beſt Sturgeon.

Real: m. ale: f. Reall, eſſentiall; in preſence; alſo, kinglie, princelie, royall.

Sauce reale. Veniſon ſawce made of red wine Vineger, whole Cynnamon, Cloues, and Sugar boyled together in a pipkin, vnto the conſumption of almoſt their halfe.

L'oeil du maiſtre real engraiſſe le cheval: Pro. The horſe growes fat whoſe maiſter often eyes him.

Realement. as Reaument.

Realgar. The fume, or ſmoake of Mineralls.

Realiſation: f. A realization, a realizing, a making reall.

Realiſé: m. ée: f. Realized, made reall.

Realiſer. To realize, to make of a reall condition, eſtate, or propertie; to make reall.

Realiſer vn contract. C'eſt le recognoiſtre par devant le Seigneur dont l'heritage eſt tenu, ou par devant les officiers de ſa iuſtice; afin d'acquerir droict reel & hypotheque, & pour eſtre nanti. ¶Kagueau.

Reallegué: m. ée: f. Realledged.

Realleguer. To realledge, to alledge againe.

Realler. To returne, to goe againe.

Reant. Braying, as a Stag.

Reaplani: m. ie: f. New-leuelled, made plaine or even againe.

Reappoincté: m. ée: f. Pointed anew, or new ſharpened at the point; alſo, newly, or againe, agreed.

Reau: m. A deepe reyne, or furrow.

Reaudition: f. A ſecond hearing; or, a hearing ouer againe.

Reaument. Really, eſſentially, effectually, throughly; aſſuredly, certainely, verily, in verie deed.

Rebaigné: m. ée: f. Rebathed, or bathed againe.

Rebaigner. To bathe againe.

Rebaillé: m. ée: f. Reſtored, giuen backe.

Rebailler. To reſtore, giue back, returne a thing that was giuen; giue anew, or againe.

Rebailler forme à. To beſtow a new ſhape, or another faſhion, on.

Rebaiſer. To kiſſe againe.

Rebaiſotter. To reiterate a frequent kiſſing; to kiſſe often and againe.

Reballier. To ſweepe ouer againe.

Rebandé: m. ée: f. Bent; bound; or bandied, againe.

Rebander. To bend; bind; or bandie, againe.

Rebanni: m. ie: f. Reexiled, againe baniſhed.

Rebannir. To reexile, to baniſh againe.

Rebanqueter. To make (or be at) a new, or another, banket.

Rebaptiſé: m. ée: f. Rebaptiſed.

Rebaptiſer. To rebaptiſe, to baptiſe the ſecond time.

Rebarbatif: m. iue: f. Grimme, ſterne, ſoure; auſtere, ſeuere; froward, rude, or harſh of conuerſation.

Re-

Rebarboter. To mutter, or mumble words often betweene the teeth.
Rebarder vn cheval. To put on a horses armour, trappings, or furniture againe.
Rebaſſiné: m. ée: f. Often or againe chafed, rubbed, fomented, warmed.
Rebaſſiner. To rub, chafe, beat, foment often, or vntill it be throughly warme.
Rebaſter ſon aſne. To ſaddle his Aſſe againe.
Rebaſti: m. ie: f. Reedified; repaired.
Rebaſtir. To reedifie, rebuild; repaire.
Rebatement: m. A reuerberation, repercuſſion, repulſing, beating backe.
Rebatre. To reuerberate, repell, repulſe, beat or driue backe againe.
Rebaudi: m. ie: f. Blithe, merrie, buxome, iocond, frolicke; luſtie, liuelie, ſtirring, light.
Rebec: m. The fiddle tearmed a Rebeck.
Viſage de rebec. A chittiface, or ſneaksbie.
Iouër du rebec. as Se Rebecquer.
Rebecher. To dig (the ground) againe.
Rebecqué. Il a rebecqué contre moy. He anſwered me ſawcily, replyed vnto me malapertly, withſtood me proudly to my teeth.
Rebecquer. To giue a pecke for a bob, or to pick againe, as one Cocke at another that pecks him.
Se rebecquer contre. Proudly to withſtand, reſiſt, contend with, oppoſe himſelfe vnto; to thwart ſawcily, anſwere malapertly; ſet vp his briſtles againſt.
Rebeine: f. A riot, rout, ſedition, tumult, vprore; a rebellion.
Rebelle: com. Rebellious; wilfull, ſtubborne, reſtie, diſobedient, that will not be ruled.
Rebellé: m. ée: f. Rebelled, reuolted from.
Rebellement: m. A rebelling, reuolting, riſing againſt his Soueraigne.
Rebeller. To rebell, reuolt from, reſiſt, riſe vp againſt his Soueraigne.
Rebellion: f. Rebellion; a publike reuolt; reſiſtance of a lawfull authoritie; ſtubbornneſſe, diſobedience, wilfullneſſe.
Rebeluter. To boult ouer againe.
Il rebelute ceſte meſme paſte. He handles, intreates of, runnes ouer, the ſelfe-ſame matter againe.
Rebender. To bend againe.
Rebenir. as Rebeniſtre.
Rebeniſtre. To bleſſe againe, to beſtow a new bleſſing on; alſo, to hallow, or ſanctifie a holie (but prophaned) thing.
Rebequer. See Rebecquer.
Rebetre: f. A wrenne. ¶Norm.
Rebeyne. as Rebeine.
Rebigoter. To play the hypocrite, or ſuperſtitious noddie againe.
Rebindaine: com. Reuerſed, ouerturned, turned vpſide downe; whence;
A Iambes rebindaines. With legs wide ſtragling, and vpwards turned.
Rebiné: m. ée: f. Eared, or tilled the ſecond time.
Rebinement: m. The ſecond tilth, earing, or breaking vp of land.
Rebiner. To plow, till, or eare ground the ſecond time.
Rebineur des choſes accordées. One that denyes, reuokes, or calls backe, his word; one that withſtands, or will not ſtand vnto, conditions before agreed on.

Reblanchir. To white ouer againe.
Reblandi: m. ie: f. Soothed, ſmoothed, ſweetned, made gentle, appeaſed, by faire words.
Reblandir. To reblandiſh; repacifie, reappeaſe; to qualifie, ſooth, or ſmooth againe; to ſue, or ſeeke, vnto a perſon offended.
Reblandir le beſtail prins en dommage. To pay for the dammage done by them.
Reblandir le Seigneur. A Tenant vpon the ſeiſure of his land for non-payment of rent, &c, to repaire vnto his Landlord, or to his officer, and demaund the true cauſe thereof; or make him a reaſonable, and ſufficient offer of ſatisfaction; or with good words, and in faire tearmes, to excuſe his omiſſions, or defaults of payment, &c, and intreat him to beare yet a while with him.
Reblandiſſement: m. A reblandiſhment, reblandiſhing, repacifying, reappeaſing; alſo, an offer of ſatisfaction, or a requeſt of forbearance, for duties omitted, rents vnpayed, wrongs done.
Rebobeliné: m. ée: f. Patched, cobled, mended againe.
Rebobeliner. Againe to coble, patch, or mend.
Rebobelineur: m. A cobler, patcher, botcher.
Rebobiné: m. ée: f. Patched all ouer.
Rebond: m. A rebound, a rebounding.
Rebondi: m. ie: f. Full, plumpe, fleſhie, fat; alſo, rebounded.
Rebondir. To rebound, or leape backe.
Les viandes nouvelles font rebondir l'eſtomac: Pro. The ſtomacke riſes againſt vncouth meats.
Rebondiſſement: m. A rebounding, or leaping backe.
Rebondonner. To put the bung in, or ſtop with a bung, againe.
Rebordé: m. ée: f. Hemmed; bordered, welted, anew.
Reborder. To hemme, welt, border, anew.
Reborner. To make new bounds for, appoint other limits vnto.
Reboté: m. ée: f. Booted againe.
Reboter. To boot, or pull on bootes, againe.
Rebouché: m. ée: f. Dulled, blunted; alſo, ſtopped vp againe.
Rebouchement: m. A dulling, or blunting; a ſtopping vp againe.
Reboucher. To dull, or blunt; alſo, to ſtop vp againe.
Cela me rebouche au coeur. That is againſt my ſtomacke, or goeth againſt my heart.
Reboucler. To buckle againe.
Rebouffer. Againe to ſwell, or puffe vp, the cheekes.
Rebougié: m. ée: f. Seared anew, or with another ſize.
Rebougier. To ſeare againe.
Rebouër: m. Le bas reb. An Engine wherewith fiſh is (forbidden to be) caught.
Rebouillement: m. A boyling once more, or ouer againe, a ſecond boyling.
Rebouillir. To boyle once more, or ouer againe, to boyle the ſecond time.
Rebouillonner. To bubble, ſurge, or wamble often, or ouer againe.
Reboulé: m. ée: f. Bowled againe; alſo, turned downe, or in; ſhrunke in.
Rebouler. To bowle againe; alſo, to turne downe, or in; to ſhrinke in.
Rebourjonnement: m. A new budding.
Rebourjonner. To burgeon, bud, or put out, anew.
Rebours: m. (Subſtant.) The rugged, and high nap of new cloth, raiſed by certaine iron combes, and then ſhorne off by the Clothworker.

Pique seiche. An vnarmed Pikeman.
Branſler la pique. To frig.
Iouër à pique en cul. See Cul.
I'ay passé par leurs piques. I haue beene throughly coursed, or canuassed by them; I haue felt their vtmost efforts; I haue escaped them faire.

Piqué: m. ée: f. Pricked; stung, nettled; pierced, or thrust into; nipped, pinched, vexed; ridden, or spurred; also, quilted, or set thick with oylet-holes; also, wrought, or broken vp, with a pickax; also, fastened, planted, or driuen into the ground.

Pique-boeuf: m. (A nickname for) a clowne, ploughchurle, hind.

Piquement: m. A pricking; sticking, piercing, or thrusting into; a stinging, or nettling; a spurring; nipping, pinching; vexing; also, a quilting.

Piquenaire: m. A Pikeman. (v.m.)

Pique papier: m. A Scribe, Scriuener, meane Clerke, base Pettifogger.

Pique-poule. The name of a certaine grape.

Piquer. To pricke, pierce, or thrust into; also, to nettle, or sting; also, to spurre; also, to ride a horse; also, to nip, cut, quip, taunt, gird; vexe, vrge, exasperate with sharp or biting words; also, to quilt; and thence also, to stiffen a coller, &c; also, to worke, dig, or breake vp, with a pickax; also, to fasten, plant, or set, into the ground.

Se piquer. To be titchie, soone offended, quickly moued; (also, to prouoke, or exite himselfe, vnto the doing of a thing; Se piquer à.)

Piquer l'auoine. To ride a horse verie hard, to make him earne his prouender.

Piquer les chiens. To gallop after (and in galloping, to put on) the hounds.

Le poisson pique. Begins to haue a tacke, or ill taſt; begins to be stale.

Il ne sent point quand on luy pique la chair. A phraſe appliable both to a lazer; and to a cowardlie, thicke-skinned, or senceleſſe, lozell.

Qui se fait piquer à tous les pas. That must be spurred euerie foot; (appliable, from a dull iade, vnto any dullard.)

Piqueron: m. A prickle; small pricke, sting, spurre, goad; also, a publicke exactor; a poller, or plumer of the Commonwealth; also, as Picqueron.

Pique-seiche. Looke vnder Pique.

Piquet. as Picquet.

Piqueton: A prickle, as of a thorne, &c.

Piquette: f. A sower drinke, or veriuyce, made of wild apples (by the Picards) or of plummes (by the Normands.)

Piqueu: m. A prickie Thistle, tearmed so about Blois.

Piqueur: m. A pricker; also, a Rider; and (in hunting) one that on horsebacke pursues the dogs in their full speed.

Piqueure: f. A pricking, &c; as Piquement; also, a pricke, sting; pinch, cut, quip.

Piquier: m. A Pikeman.

Piquoté: m. ée: f. Looke Picoté.

Piquotement: m. A frequent pricking, or stinging; an often piercing; also, a spotting, peckling, or speckling.

Piquoter. To pricke, sting, or pierce often; also, to spot, peckle, or speckle all ouer.

Piquoteure: f. A pricke, sting; spot, freckle, speckle; also, as Piquotement.

Piquoteure de bran de Iudas. Red pimples rising in the face.

Piquotte: f. Small wine, seruants wine; or, as Piquette.

Piramidal: m. ale: f. Piramidall; broad beneath, and sharpening vpwards.

Piramide: f. A Piramides; any peece of building made broad, and square below, and the higher it goes the smaller growing.

Piramide d'un trépane. The little point, or prickle, appearing, or peering out at th'end, or head of a Trepane.

Pirate: m. A Pirat, Rouer, Sea-robber.

Piraterie: f. Piracie, rouing, sea-robbing.

Piratique: com. Piraticall, Pirat-like; of, or belonging to, a Pirat.

Pirauste. A Fire-flie; or a worme bred, and liuing in the fire, from which if it bee but a little too farre, it dieth presently.

Pire: com. Worse, badder, lewder, naughtier; meaner, vnworthier; of smaller value, & lesse account; (sometimes) also, bad; whence; Vrayement, voilà que n'est pas pire. Truely there's no great fault to be found with that.

Piretre: m. Hearbe Bartram, bastard Pellitorie, right Pellitorie of Spaine.

Pirevollet: m. A whirligig.

Pirole: f. Wild Beets; or, th'hearbe Pirola.

Piromantie: f. Diuination by fire: ¶Rab.

Pirope. as Pyrope.

Pirot: m. The Pirot, or Hag-fish; a kind of long shell-fish.

Pirou: m. A greene Goose: ¶Poictevin.

Piroüette: f. A Whirligig; also, a whirling about, a quick turne often redoubled; and hence, a dauncers turning on the toe.

Piroüetter. To whirle, twirle, trill, turne swiftly about.

Piroüetteux: m. euse: f. Whirling, twirling, trilling, turning swiftly about.

Pis: m. The breast, bosome, or stomacke of a man; the dug, or vdder of a Cow, Yew, She Goat, &c; the brisket of an Oxe, or Beefe; the nauell of a dog.

Pis. (Adverb.) Worse; also, worst; whence;
Au pis aller. Howsoeuer, be it how it will be, let the worst come to the worst.

Pisay: m. as Pizé.

Piscantine: f. A kind of small, or well-watered wine.

Piscine: f. A fish-pond; also, a poole to water horses, or keepe Duckes, &c, in.

Pissasphalte: m. Pissasphaltum; or Pitch mingled with Bitumen, either by accident, or Art; The former is much the better, & comes from Apollonia in Epirus, where it first comes by that mixture.

Pissat: m. Pisse, vrine, lant, stale.

Pissaulict. A fuse-ball, puckfusse, puffiste, or bullfiste.

Pissé. Pissed, staled.
Il a pissé en beaucoup de neiges. He hath liued many a Winter.

Pisse-chaude: f. A burnt P. also, the Venerian flux; the Gonorrhean, or contagious running.

Pissement: m. A pissing.

Pissenez. serfs pissenez. The bastards of villaines, or slaues

Pissenlict: m. Dandelion, Priests crowne, Monks head, Swines snowt.

Pisser. To pisse, to stale, to make water.
Le laict pisse. The milke spinnes out of her breasts, or dugs.
Les bonnes gens, pour cela, ne pisseront pas plus roide. Will not bee much, or shall bee neuer a whit, the

the better for it.

Pisseux: m. euse: of pisse; whence;
Lange pisseuse.
Orange pisseuse
yeeldeth store of li

Pissoir: m. A pissin

Pissolaire: m. Th

Pissoli: m. A Pipk

Pissoter. To pisse of

Pissotiere: f. The
also, a pissing place

Pistaces: f. Pistac

Pistacher: m. The

Pistaches. as Pista

Pistaulendrier: n

Piste: f. The strayn
foot.

Pisté: m. ée: f. Sta

Pisteau: m. A Pes

Pister. To bray, pou

Pistolade: f. The aischarged Pistoll

Pistolandier. as Pi

Pistole: f. A Pisto
Pistole de Sanc

Pistolet: m. A Pis
golden coyne tearn

Pistolier: m. A Pis
a Pistoll.

Pistolochie: f. A

Piston: m. A Peste
Canon à piston tongue libertie wi

Pistrine: f. A Bake
uention of Mills, t
vnrulie seruants, t

Pit: m. as Pis: ¶B

Pitance: f. Meat,
(bread and drink

Pitancier: m. The
in a Monasterie.

Pitancier: m. ere:
tance.

Pitaulder. To beha

Pitaulderie: f. Ru
nesse, inciuilitie, cl

Pitault: m. A clow
cluster fist.

Pite: f. The halfe of
Moath, or Mite.

Pitel: m. The panne

Piteux: m. euse: f.
der, gentle, kind;
full, afflicted, in p
Vous nous la bai
homelie relation,
Vn piteux mede
Looke Playe.
Femme trop pite
A pitifull housew like is;
Mere piteuse fai

Pitié: f. Pitie, ruth,
kindnesse, or tend mencie, mercifulne

Pitois: m. The ver

Piton. as Piston; a

the better for it.

Pisseux: m. euse: f. Pissing much, and often; also, full of pisse; whence;

Lange pisseuse. A childs pisse-clowt.

Orange pisseuse. An Orange full of liquor, or which yeeldeth store of liquor.

Pissoir: m. A pissing place.

Pissolaire: m. The sheath, or skinne of a horses yard.

Pisson: m. A Pipkin.

Pissoter. To pisse often.

Pissotiere: f. The pissing toole; or, the receptacle of pisse; also, a pissing place; also, the running of a bucking tub.

Pistaces: f. Pistachoes, fistick nuts.

Pistacher: m. The Pistacho tree, the Fistick nut-tree.

Pistaches. as Pistaces.

Pistaulendrier: m. A mans yard.

Piste: f. The straine, or view of a Deere; the print of any foot.

Pisté: m. ée: f. Stamped, pounded, brayed.

Pisteau: m. A Pestell.

Pister. To bray, pound, or stampe.

Pistolade: f. The shot of a Pistoll; the blow giuen by a discharged Pistoll.

Pistolandier. as Pistaulendrier.

Pistole: f. A Pistoll; a great (horsemans) Dag.

Pistole de Sancerre. A Sling.

Pistolet: m. A Pistolet; a Dag, or little Pistoll; also, the golden coyne tearmed a Pistolet.

Pistolier: m. A Pistoleere; a horseman that serues with a Pistoll.

Pistolochie: f. A kind of (the hearbe) long Birthwort.

Piston: m. A Pestell, or pounding sticke.

Canon à piston. A certaine Bit which giues the tongue libertie without a Port.

Pistrine: f. A Bakehouse, or house wherein, before th'invention of Mills, the Romanes caused their slaues, and vnrulie seruants, to bray all their corne in morters.

Pit: m. as Pis: ¶Breton.

Pitance: f. Meat, food; acates; victuall of all sorts (bread and drinke excepted.)

Pitancier: m. The Manciple, or distributor of victualls, in a Monasterie.

Pitancier: m. ere: f. Seruing for a Pittance; of a Pittance.

Pitaulder. To behaue himselfe rudely, to play the clowne.

Pitaulderie: f. Rudenesse, clownishnesse, vnmannerlinesse, inciuilitie, churlishnesse.

Pitault: m. A clowne, boore, swaine, lob, carle, churle, cluster fist.

Pite: f. The halfe of a Maille, a (French) farthing; also, a Moath, or Mite.

Pitel: m. The panne of a close-stoole.

Piteux: m. euse: f. Pitifull, mercifull, charitable, tender, gentle, kind; also, wretched, miserable, distressefull, afflicted, in pitifull case, ill taking, wofull estate.

Vous nous la baillez bien piteuse. You make vs a homelie relation, you tell vs but a sorie tale.

Vn piteux medecin fait vne mortelle playe: Prov. Looke Playe.

Femme trop piteuse fait sa famille teigneuse: Pro. A pitifull housewife makes a pitifull household; The like is;

Mere piteuse fait sa fille roigneuse: Prov.

Pitié: f. Pitie, ruth, compassion, commiseration; charitie, kindnesse, or tenderuesse of disposition; also, grace, clemencie, mercifulnesse.

Pitois: m. The vermine (or beast) called a Fitch.

Piton. as Piston; also, an Eye for a curtaine rod, &c; or a pinne of mettall, sharpe at th'one end to enter into wood, &c, & hauing a round eye at th'other for a curtaine-rod, &c, to enter into; and hence;

Piton à vis. A skrue with an eye; or such a pinne made skruing at the end where th'ordinarie Piton is plaine.

Pitroy: m. Durt, mud, mire.

Pittasse. whence; elle faisoit chere pit. Her behauiour was full of discontentment; or, she chawed her spittle in stead of falling to her victle.

Pittouër: m. A Bittor (corruptly.)

Pituitaire: com. Flegmaticke: sniuellie, snottie; slauering.

Glande pituitaire. See Glande.

Pituite: f. Fleame, sniuell.

Pituiteux: m. euse: f. Full of fleame; sniuell, slauering, snot.

Pityocampe. A venomous worme that breeds in Pine trees.

Pive: f. The fruit of the Pine, or Pitch tree.

Piverd: m. A Woodpecker, Hickway, Greenpeake.

Piugarreau: m. A great, whitish, and sweetish Cherrie, whose hard pulpe cleaues hard vnto the stone.

Piuler. To pule, or cheepe like a little chicken.

Pivoesne. as Pivoine.

Pivoine: f. Peonie, Pionie, Kings Bloome, Rose of the mount; also, a little blacke-headed, and blacke-taild bird, called a Gnat-snapper; also, a Bullfinch, or Nowp.

Pivoine femelle. The female Peonie, whereof there be diuers kinds; as the double, red, and white, Peonies; the maiden, or virgine Peonie; and others.

Pivoine masle. Male Peonie.

Pivot: m. The Pivot, or (as some call it) the Tampin of a gate, or great doore: (a peece of iron, &c, made, for the most part, like a Top, round & broad at th'one end, and sharpe at th'other, wherby it enters into the Crappaudine; and serues as well to beare vp the gate (in whose bottome it is placed) as to facilitate the motion thereof. It is also made, sometimes twofold in the vpper part, and nailed vnto both sides of the Chardonnereau; and sometimes like a Spindle, sharpe at both ends, th'vpper sticking in the said Chardonnereau.) Hence also, the principall Stay, Support, or Piller of a Kingdome, State, Citie, House, or Familie; also, a kind of Vine.

Pivotter vn huis. To hang a doore on Pivots.

Pizé. whence; Murailles de pizé. Earthen walls.

Placard. See Plaquard.

Placardé: m. ée: f. Fastened, or pasted, as a Siquis, &c, on a post.

Placart. as Plaquard.

Placcar. as Plaquard.

Huis qui se ferment à doubles placcars. Doores which are shut with double locks.

Place: f. A place, roome, seat; a space, a stead; also, an Office, Function, Dignitie, Charge; also, a plaine and vnhoused, ground, soyle, or shore; and hence, a spacious plaine, or plot of ground in the middest of a town; and vsed as a Market stead, or as an Exchange for Marchants; or as an Auditorie, for the deciding of controuersies (but then there is a Tribunal, or some open house vpon it;) also, a faire large Court before a Church, or house; also, a Castle, Fort, Fortresse, or Hold; also, a spot, or dapple, on a horse.

Place mage. Looke Mage.

Place marchande. A Market place, or place of ordinarie bargaining; hence, any free, or indifferent place wherat men may meet, or deale, on euen tearmes.

Place

Place Maubert. The Market-ſtead, and place of execution, for the Vniuerſitie of Paris; Looke Maubert.
La place des niais à la table. Th'vpper end; (among the auncient Romanes the beſt man euer ſate in the middeſt; and at this day th'Italians hold the middle place moſt honourable.)
Pain de la place. Browne bread, houſhold bread.
Bien de ſa place part qui ſon ami y laiſſe: Pro. He leaues a place well that leaues a friend in it.
Ceux qui meurent laiſſent leur place à ceux qui demeurent: Prov. They that die poſſeſſors leaue all to their ſucceßors.

Placé: m.ée: f. Placed, ſeated, lodged, ſettled, fixed, planted.

Placer. To place; to ſeat, lodge, plant, ſettle, appoint a roome vnto.

Placet: m. A low ſtoole; alſo, a ſhort Petition, or Ticket of requeſt, without inſcription, and beginning with theſe words, Plaiſe à tel, &c; (Therein differing from a Requeſte, which is much longer, and beginnes thus, Supplie (naming the Petitioner, which the Placet doth not) and ſpecifies in an inſcription, the name, and title of him it is preſented vnto.)

Placide: com. Calme, gentle, quiet, mild; peaceable, tractable.

Placidement. Gently, quietly, mildly, tractably.

Placitre. A faire large Court before a Church, or (great) houſe.

Placque: f. A flat Lingot, or barre of mettall; alſo, as Patart.
Placque de marbre. A flat pauing peece of Marble.
Placque de plomb. See Plaque.

Placqué: m.ée: f. Pargetted, or rough-caſt; alſo, clapped, flat, or ſtucke on; laied flat vpon; whence;
Lettres à ſeel placqué. Whoſe ſeale hangs not by a label, but is applied on the paper, or parchment it ſelfe.

Placquer. as Plaquer.

Plafagourde: f. A made word, of ſome affinitie with our Gixie, Callet, Punke, &c.

Plage: f. A flat and plaine ſhore, or ſtrand, by the ſea-ſide; alſo, a large arme of the ſea without any Hauen; an open, and ſhallow Road: any flat or ſhallow, in or neere the ſea; alſo, a Climate, Land, Region, Coaſt, or portion, of the world.

Plagiaire: m. One that ſteales, or takes free people out of one countrey, & ſells them in another for ſlaues; a ſtealer, or ſuborner of mens children, or ſeruants, for the ſame, or the like, purpoſe; (in which ſence we tearme him a Slockſter;) alſo, a booke-ſtealer, or booke-theefe; one that fathers other mens workes vpon himſelfe.

Plagiaire. Capitaine pl. That preſſes, carries, or ſteales away mens children, or ſeruants, with a purpoſe to ſell them.

Plagie: f. Stealth, or ſubornation of mens children, and ſeruants, with an intent to ſell them.

Plaict. as Plect.

Plaid: m. Suit, controuerſie, altercation, debate, variance, brabbling, difference, contention, in law; alſo, a plea, or, a pleading; alſo, a Court of pleading; Looke Plait.
Plaid de l'eſpée. High Juriſdiction, power or authoritie to puniſh by the ſword.
Plaids generaux, ou genereux. Seſſions, Aſſiſes.
Les francs plaids. Wherein the Magiſtrate, in an extraordinarie courſe, proceeds againſt an abſent, & vnſummoned offendor, vpon the relation, or accuſation of the Procureur fiſcal (by the cuſtomes of Theroanne.)
Simples plaids, ou querelles. Looke Simple.
De petite choſe peu de plaid: Prov. A ſleight cauſe needeth but ſmall arguing.
En cent livres de plaid n'y pas vne maille d'amour: Prov. The more law the leſſe loue.

Plaidaſſerie: f. Wrangling, pettifogging; litigious, or paultrie pleading.

Plaidé: m.ée: f. Pleaded, argued, opened; alſo, impleaded before a Judge.

Plaide-gage. as Gage-plege.

Plaider. To plead, argue, or open, a cauſe before a Judge; alſo, to ſue, contend, goe to law, for, or againſt.
Iamais ne gaigne, qui plaide à ſon Seigneur: Pro. He neuer thriues, who 'gainſt his Maiſter ſtriues.

Plaidereau: m. A litigious, or contentious brangler; a continuall Suitor; one that will goe to Law for euerie trifle; one that is neuer out of Law.

Plaidereſque: com. Lawyer-like.

Plaiderie: f. Pleading, arguing, practiſe; alſo, Suit in Law.

Plaideur: m. A Lawyer, Arguer, Pleader; alſo, as Plaidereau; whence;
A plaideur plaideur & demi: Prov. Said of a knaue well matcht with a worſe then himſelfe.
Homme plaideur menteur: Prov. A Pleader, a lyer.

Plaidoïer. as Plaidoyé.

Plaidoirie: f. A plea, an argument; the pleading, or opening of a cauſe.

Plaidoyable: com. Pleadable, arguable.
Iours plaidoyables. Court-dayes, Hall-dayes.

Plaidoyé: m. A plea, pleading, argument.
Plaidoyé de Quareſme prenant. A bawdie, laſciuious, or wanton argument.

Plaidoyer: m. as Plaidoyé.

Plaidoyer. To ſue, turne Client, goe to Law.
Il plaidoye bien qui plaidoye ſans partie: Prov. He pleads full well that pleads againſt none (or hath none to plead againſt) but himſelfe.

Plaidoyeur: m. A Pleader; a Lawyer; alſo, a Suitor.
Eſchars plaidoyeur eſt hardi perdeur: Prov. The ſparing Client's willing to be foild.

Plaie. Looke Playe.

Plaignant: m.ante: f. Plaining, bemeaning, complaining of; accuſing, blaming, finding fault, with.

Plain: m. A plaine; a plaine peece of ground, without houſe, or tree vpon it.
Le Bois acquiert le plain. The Lord of a forreſt may take in a neighbour-ground, which hath lyen vntilled, or vnuſed by the ſpace of 30, or 20 yeares, if it be not diuided from the forreſt by ditches, meeres, bounds, or other markes.

Plain: m. aine: f. Plaine, flat, euen, ſmooth, without wrinkles, without rubs; alſo, as Plaint.
De plain. Preſently, immediately, out of hand, without any fiather proceeding in Law.
Il ne ſe tort pas qui va plain chemin: Prov. Looke Chemin.

Plaindre. To plaine, bewaile, bemoane, or make moane for; to blame, accuſe, expoſtulate, find fault with, complaine of; to grudge, repine, or find himſelfe aggrieued, at.
Plaindre ſon argent. Ie n'y plainds point mon argent. I thinke my money well beſtowed thereon.
Plaindre ſa deſpenſe. To ſpare his purſe.
Plaindre ſes pas. To be a niggard of his ſteps.
Plaindre ſa peine. To ſaue labour, not to ouer-worke himſelfe; or, to repine at the paines he takes.

Il ſe plaind de ſaine teſte. He complaines without cauſe, or, he is troubled with too much eaſe.

Aſſez demande qui ſe plaind: Prov. Ynough demaunds he who of want complaines.

Chaſcune vieille ſon dueil plaind: Pro. Each beldame of her priuate ericſe complaines.

Femme ſe plaind, femme ſe deult, femme eſt malade, quand elle veut: Prov. Looke Femme.

Tel eſt plein qui ſe plaind: Prov. Some how full ſoeuer they be are neuer contented.

Tel ſe plaind qui n'a point de mal: Prov. Some complaine that feele no paine; or, ſome, though they feele no hurt, vnquiet are.

Plaine: f. A plaine; a ſpacious peece of (leuell) ground, without either tree, or houſe, vpon it.

Plaincure: f. The ſuperficies; the plaine, leuell, or flat ground of.

Plaint: m. te: f. Plained, bewailed, bemoaned, complained of, found fault with, repined at.

Plainte: m. A plaintife, complainant, accuſer.

Plainte: f. A plaint, complaint, moane, lamentation; accuſation, expoſtulation.

Plaintif: m. A plaintife, complainant; appeacher, accuſer.

Plaintif: m. iue: f. Lamenting, moaneſull, doleſull, ſorrowfull.

Plaire. To pleaſe, delight; ſatisfie, content; like, allow, or thinke well, of; ſeeme good vnto.

A Dieu ne plaiſe, que. God forbid, that.

S'il plaiſt à Dieu. If God will, if God ſay amen.

Ils en ont d'un pleuſt à Dieu. They haue not all they would haue, they haue not their full deſire.

Marchandiſe qui plaiſt eſt à moitié venduë: Prov. Ware that doth pleaſe, or that's in requeſt, is alreadie halfe ſold.

Plaiſamment. Pleaſantly, merrily, ſportfully, ioyfully, delightſomely.

Plaiſance: f. Mirth, ſport, pleaſure, delight, game, iollitie, blitheneſſe, feſtiuitie, reioycing.

Plaiſant: m. ante: f. Pleaſant, merrie, iocond, blithe, ioyfull, buxome, delightfull, gameſome, recreatiue, ſportfull; alſo, ieaſting, bourding, ſcoffing, flowting.

Plaiſant homme. (Vſed verie often Ironically, or in euill part) A goodlie fellow ſure.

Plaiſanter. To gibe, ieaſt, flowt, ſcoffe, quip merrily, be pleaſant with; to play the Feaſter.

Plaiſanterie: f. Feaſting, merriment, flowting, ſcoffing, ſcurrilitie; wittie (but knauiſh) conceits.

Plaiſanteur: m. A Feaſter, Buffoone, Paraſite, pleaſant fellow.

Plaiſir: m. Pleaſure, delight, mirth, ioy, glee; paſtime, game, ſport, recreation; comfort, ſolace; delectation, contentment, ſenſualitie; alſo, a pleaſure, fauour, kindneſſe, good turne, friendlie office done; alſo, the will, appetite, luſt; or a full ſatisfaction of them all.

A mon plaiſir. At my will, becke, or commaund; as I liſt my ſelfe.

Pour mon plaiſir. For my minds ſake; to pleaſe, or ſatisfie my humor withall.

De court plaiſir long repentir: Prov. For a ſhort pleaſure long repentance.

Fy de plaiſirs, d'eſtats, & d'or, qui de vertu n'a le threſor: Prov. Looke Fy.

Qui plaiſir fait plaiſir requiert: Prov. He that doth fauours lookes to be fauoured; one good turne requires another.

Plait: m. Suit, controuerſie, altercation, debate; alſo, a plea, or pleading.

Faire du plait. To babble, prattle, tattle, keepe a filthie coyle, make a ſcuruie adoe.

Il me tient plait. He holds me tacke, or with a tale; he finds me chat ynough.

Plaineuſe: f. A cuffe, box, or whirret with the fiſt.

Plan: m. as Plane; maſc. alſo, the ground-plat of a building.

Plan. Adverb. as Pleinement: ¶Gaſc.

Planare. A Plane tree.

Planchage: m. A planking, or boording; alſo, a floore of plankes; or any thing made of plankes.

Planchayé: m. ée: f. Planked, boorded, floored.

Planchayer. To planke, boord; floore.

Planche: f. A planke, or thicke boord; eſpecially one that layed ouer a ditch, brooke, or moat, &c, in ſtead of a bridge; alſo, a bed, or border, in a garden; alſo, a pit; alſo, the Till of a Printers Preſſe, or the ſhelfe that compaſſeth the Hoſe; and generally, any ſhelfe.

C'eſt la premiere planche pour parvenir à vn grand lieu. This is the firſt ſtep, readieſt courſe, neereſt way, vnto great preferment.

Faire planche à. To make way for; to beginne, or breake th'ice, vnto; to lay a ground for, or foundation vnto; alſo, to forward, further, helpe, aſſiſt.

En pont, en planche, & en Riviere, vallet devant, maiſtre derriere: Prov. Looke Maiſtre.

Planché: m. ée: f. Planked, boorded; floored with plankes; cloſed, or ſeeled, with boords; alſo, grounded, fixed, ſetled, or ſet faſt.

Planchéer. To planke; to floore with plankes; to ſeele, or cloſe, with boords.

Plancher: m. A (boorded) floore; alſo, a ſeeling of boords; and ſometimes (though ſomewhat improperly) a floore, or bed, of plaiſter.

Plancher de vaches. The ground, the earth.

Plancher. To planke; to floore with plankes; to ſeele, or cloſe, with boords.

Plancheter. as Plancher.

Planchette: f. A womans ſtirrup; alſo, the plate, or bottome of a ſtirrup whereon the foot reſteth; alſo, a buske.

Plancheyé: m. ée: f. Planked; as Planchayé.

Plancheyer. as Planchayer.

Planchier. as Plancher.

Plançon. as Planſon; or Planton.

Plane: m. The great Maple; ordinarily (but erroniouſly) called, the Sicamor tree.

Plane: f. A (Joyners) Plane; (alſo, a Plaice, or Flooke: ¶Langued.)

Planer. To plane; to make ſmooth, or euen, with a Plane; alſo, to raſe, deface, blot, or put out; alſo, to plane, as a bird that flies, or houers, without moouing her wings.

Planetaire: com. Planetarie, of, or belonging to, the Planets.

Heures planetaires. Twelue houres for the day, and as many for the night.

Planette: f. A Planet; whereof there bee ſeuen, bearing the name of ſeuen ſeuerall Dieties, becauſe they haue ſome power ouer earthlie bodies: they bee alſo called, Wandering ſtarres, becauſe they neuer keepe one certaine place, or ſtation in the firmament.

Plani: m. ie: f. Planed, plained, or made plaine; ſmoothed, leuelled, euened.

Planier: m. ere: f. as Plain; whence;

Court planiere. Open house.
Planier. To shaue, as a Tanner doth his hides.
Planir. To plane, leuell, euen, smooth, make plaine.
Planisphere: f. An Astrolabe.
Planson: m. A young plant, a sucker, a young tree.
Plant: m. as Plan; also, the foundation, or ground-worke of a building; also, a planting; or, a quantitie of young trees handsomely ranked together.
Plantage: m. A planting, or setting.
Plantail: m. as Plantal.
Plantain: m. Plantaine, Way-bred.
Plantain aquatic. Water Plantaine.
Plantain grand. Broad-leaued Plantaine.
Plantain de marais. Water Plantaine.
Plantain de mer. Sea Plantaine, flowring sea Plantaine.
Plantain moyen. Middle Plantaine, hoarie Plantaine.
Plantain petit. Ribwort, Ribwort Plantaine, Dogsrib, Lambes-tongue.
Long plantain. The same.
Plantaire. The least of the six hinder muskles of the leg, ending in the sole of the foot.
Plantal: m. A plant, or set; the science of a tree, or slip of an hearbe, set, or planted.
Plantars: m. Willow plants; or great branches, or poles of water-trees, lopped off, and reserued to bee set.
Plantas: m. as Plantement; also, a place to plant, or set trees in; also, as Plantat; or the Plurall thereof.
Plantat: m. A plant; and particularly, the branch of a Willow, or other water tree, fit to be planted.
Plante: f. A plant, or set; the science of a tree, or slip of an hearbe, set, or fit to be set; also, a vine set of a science, or slip (called so till it be come to it full growth;) also, the sole of the foot.
Planté: f. Plentie, store, abundance.
Arbre trop souvent transplanté ne porte pas fruict à planté: Prov. The ouer-oft remoued plant's not plentifull.
Planté: m. ée: f. Planted, set, setled.
Planté sur le pied gauche. Setled on the wrong side; ill disposed in affection; or, that hath vndertaken an vniust, or euill cause.
Ie y ay bien planté mes seaux. I haue made a deepe impression into it, I haue set my marke verie fast vpon it; I haue done it surely, soundly, throughly.
Planteau: m. A young plant; or, as Plantal.
Plantemalan: m. A Caltrop.
Plantement: m. A planting, setting; setling.
Planter. To plant, set; settle, fix, ground; also, to steale from, giue the slip vnto, slinke out of the companie of.
Planter à la barre. Looke Barre.
Il le planta là pour reverdir. He left him there to coole his fingers, to picke strawes or daisies, to shift for himselfe; Looke Reverdir.
En vain plante qui ne clost: Prov. Looke Clorre.
Planter: m. ere: f. In, or belonging to, the sole, or bottome, of the foot.
Planteur: m. A planter, a setter.
Planton: m. A young plant, or stocke transplanted, and and kept to be graffed on.
Plantureusement. Plenteously, abundantly, largely, copiously, fully.
Plantureux: m. euse: f. Plenteous, abundant, large, full, copious.
Planure: f. A plaine; a large, open, and euen peece of ground.
Plaquard: m. A Placard, or Inscription set vp; a Table wherein Lawes, Orders, &c, are written, and hung vp; also, a Bill, Siquis, or Libell stucke vpon a post, &c; also, rough-casting, or pargetting of walls.
Plaque: f. A flat Lingot, or barre of mettall; also, a flat pauing peece of Marble, or free stone; also, a plate to naile against a wall, and to set a candle in; a plate-candlestick.
Plaques. Flat peeces of Goldsmithes worke, resembling little flowers, &c; also, parget, rough-cast.
Plaque de plomb en vn miroir. The foyle, or steele of a looking-glasse.
Plaqué: m. ée: f. Pargetted, rough-cast; also, clapped, pasted, flat, or stucke vpon; layed flat on.
Plaquement: m. A pargetting, a rough-casting; also, a clapping, pasting, or sticking on; a laying flat vpon.
Plaquer. To parget, or to rough-cast; also, to clap, flat, sticke, or past on; to lay flat vpon; whence;
Plaquer du passement sur vn habit. To lace, or set lace vpon a garment.
Plaques. Looke Plaque.
Plasmateur: m. A Potter; or a maker of earthen Images, &c.
Plasmation: f. Potters worke; or the making of Images, &c, of clay, or earth.
Plasne. as Plane; The great Maple.
Plassage: m. A fee payed, in some townes, by Marchants and Tradesmen, for the shewing of their commodities in the Market-place, or publicke streets.
Plastras: m. Rubbish; clods, or peeces of old, and drie plaister.
Plastre: m. Plaister, morter.
Plastrer. To plaister.
Plastrier: m. A Plaisterer; a Dawber.
Plastron: m. A breast-plate; Armour for the stomacke, or bellie; also, as Plastré.
Plastronné: m. ée: f. Breast-plated; armed with a breast-plate.
Plat: m. A Platter; or great Dish; also, a Dish of meat.
Plat de patisier. A round, and flat footlesse Panne of tinne, wherin pies are kept warme at the ouens mouth, after they be fully baked.
Plat renvoyé. A walking meale; wherein one dish going round about the table, euerie guest is his owne caruer.
Vn grand plat. A Charger.
Donner plat. To bestow victualls.
Pescher au plat. Looke Pescher.
Le plat du bas est tousiours le premier vuide: Prov. The lowmost dish is alwayes the first emptie; (for commonly the best trencher-men sit lowest.)
Qui est loing du plat est prez de son dommage: Prov. We say (more generally) a man that's farre from his good is neere his harme.
Tout estat, & rien au plat: Prov. Looke Estat.
Plat: m. Flatnesse, or, the flat part of a thing flatted; whence; Bailler du plat de la langue. To sooth, flatter, collogue with; A metaphor from a dogs licking; and;
Frapper du plat d'une espée. To strike flatling, or with the flat part of a sword.
Plat: m. ate: f. Flat, plaine, low; smooth; euen, or leuell with the ground; also, shallow.

Plat

Plat bord. See Bord.
Plat païs. The countrey; alſo, a vale, dale, plaine, or plaine region, low countrey.
La beſace, ou bourſe plate. An emptie wallet, or purſe.
Maiſon plate. (Oppoſed vnto Chaſteau*) a houſe which hath neither towers, nor moat; a plaine-built, or plaine countrey, houſe.*
Pied plat. A ſplay foot.
A plate couſture. Rudely, plainly, after the homelieſt faſhion; alſo, flatly, fully, vtterly, throughly; as vnder Couſture.
Platane: f. The right Plane tree; (a ſtranger in England.)
Plateaux: m. Flat and thinne ſtones; flakes of ſtones, &c.
Fumées en plateaux. Flat gratticbing, ſewmiſhing (or dung) of a Deere.
Plateforme: f. A platforme, plot, modell, or draught of a building; alſo, the foundation thereof; alſo, a platforme, or ſquare bulwarke; alſo, a certaine thicke boord in the prow of a ſhip.
Platelée: f. A platterfull, or diſh full, of.
Plat-eſcuelle: f. A deepe diſh, or platter.
Plat-fond: m. The plaine ground of, or vnder, fretting, or any high-raiſed worke.
Platin: m. A flat; a flat ſtrand, low coaſt, or low peece of ground, neere vnto the ſea.
Platin de fer. A cart-clowt of yron.
Platine: f. A flat, or thinne peece of wood, or mettall; and hence, a ſpring-pinne; or a thinne plate of yron, put betweene the end of an yron pinne, and a frame, to keep it the faſter; alſo, as Patine.
Cautere à platine. The plate-cauter; See Cautere.
Platis: m. A flat, ſhelfe, or ſhallow place in the water.
Platte: f. A Bleake (fiſh.)
Platteaux. Looke Plateaux.
Plattebande: f. A flat band, or bend.
Platteforme. as Plateforme.
Plattiz. Looke Platis.
Platuſe: f. A Plaice (fiſh;) ¶ Langued.
Plau: m. The South wind.
Plauder. Seeke Pelauder.
Plauton: m. A clue, or bottome.
Playe: f. A wound, bloudwipe, ſore cut, gaſh, inciſion, hurt; alſo, as Plage.
Playe faitte à Iuſtice. Tyrannie, or iniuſtice, curbing, or ouer-ruling iuſtice.
Debonnaire Mire fait playe puante: Prov. &; vn piteux medecin fait vne mortelle playe: Prov. A pitifull Chirurgian makes a pitifull ſore.
Playé: m. ée: f. Wounded; ſore cut, or hurt.
Player. To wound, cut, gaſh, giue a bloudwipe vnto.
Playt. as Plait; (an old word.)
Plect, & cheval de ſervice. Due in ſome places, and caſes, from the vaſſall to the Lord feudal (as vnder Service; ) This word is alſo, in the cuſtomes of Britanie, ill printed for Plaid.
Plect de mortemain. 50 s. for a Maſure de terre, due vnto Landlords (in diuers parts of Poictou*) at the death, or change, of their tenants.*
Plectre: m. The quill, or bow, wherewith a Citterne, or Violl, is played on.
Plege: m. A pledge, a ſuretie, an vndertaker for.
Plegement. as Pleigement.
Pleger. To vndertake, be pledge, become ſuretie, for.
Se pleger. To complaine of; to commence a ſuit, or bring an Action, againſt.
Pleger l'emende. To acknowledge his fault, and pray the fauour of the Court before Judgement, thereby to leſſen his penaltie, or puniſhment.
Plegerie: f. Suretiſhip; an vndertaking, or anſwering for.
Plegeur: m. A Plaintife in an Action.
Pleiade: f. One of the ſeuen ſtarres.
Pleige: m. A Pledge, a Suretie; one that vndertakes, or anſwers, for another.
Pleigement: m. A pledging, vndertaking, or anſwering, for; alſo, a complaint preferred, ſuit commenced, or Action brought, vpon an impeachment, or diſturbance, of poſſeſſion.
Pleiger. To be a Pledge, or Suretie, to vndertake, or anſwer, for; Looke Pleger.
Qui pleige paye: Prov. A Suretie's ſure to pay.
Plein: m. A Plaine; Looke Plain.
Plein: m. eine: f. Full; whole, compleat, abſolute, large, ample, ſolide; alſo, gorged, ſtuft, repleniſhed, well furniſhed, ſtored, fraught, with.
Pleine. (Feminine) The ſame; alſo, big-bellied, bagd, or great with young; (a word onely for beaſts.)
Pleines armes. Armes, or a Coat, without difference; belongs to the chiefe, or eldeſt, of a Houſe.
Pleine Cour. A Court Leet, or Baron, where to a ſufficient number of Pairs, Aſſiſtants, or Hommes de fief, be ſuitors.
Plein fief. Looke Fief.
Pleine nuict. Darke-night, bed-time, the ſecond watch of the night; En pleine nuict. When all was huſht, when euerie one aſleepe.
Pleine puiſſance. Abſolute, Monarchall, or Soueraigne power.
Plein relief. Seeke Relief.
A plein pied. Of an euen ground; or with a leuell floore.
Mettre à plein pied. To raſe; to lay euen, or leuell with the ground.
Mettre ſur le plein pied. To ſet full vpon the legs; to ſettle, or giue ſure footing vnto.
Sain, & plein de vie. In health, and like to liue.
Tout plein d'autres choſes. Many other, or, a great ſort of other, things.
Donner le plein & le rond à. To perfect, conſummate, accompliſh.
Tel eſt plein qui ſe plaind: Pro. The wealthie churle complaines of want.
On lie bien le ſac avant qu'il ſoit plein: Prov. An emptie ſacke will eaſily be tied; or, as vnder Sac.
Pleinement. Fully, wholly, compleatly; abſolutely, throughly, ſoundly; abundantly, largely, amply.
Plein-fief. Looke Fief.
Plein-foncé: m. ée: f. Spacious, big, full, wide, large; wherein there is ſtuffe, or ſcope, ynough.
Pleintithe. as Pleintiſſe.
Pleintiſſe: f. The full ſcope, or whole compaſſe of.
Pleion: m. Long ſtraw ſoftened in water, thereby to bee pliant, and fit for the binding of vines, &c.
Plejure: f. A pledging; ſuretiſhip; vndertaking, or anſwering for.
Homme de plejure. A Pledge, or Suretie; or a vaſſall who may be a Baile, Pledge, or Suretie for his Lord.
Plenier: m. ere: f. as Planier.
Camelot plenier. Vnwater Chamlet.
Plenitude: f. Plenitude, fulneſſe, wholeneſſe; ſoliditie, thickneſſe, groſſeneſſe.

Plenté : f. Plentie, ſtore, abundance, fulneſſe, ynough.
Pleonaſmique : com. Superfluous, redundant.
Pleſſé : m. ée : f. Plaſhed, as young boughes.
Pleſſer. To plaſh ; to bow, fould, or plait young branches one within another ; alſo, to thicken a hedge, or couer a walke, by plaſhing.
Pleſsis : m. The plaſhing of trees ; the plaiting, or foulding of their tender branches, one within the other ; alſa, a hedge, or walke of plaſhed trees, &c.
Plet. as Plaid ; or, as Plect.
Plethore : f. Fullneſſe, or abundance of good humors in the bodie ; alſo, head-ache by the ſuperfluitie thereof.
Plethorique : com. Fat, groſſe, corpulent, ouer-full of good humors.
Plevi : m. ie : f. Warranted, aſſured, whoſe goodneſſe, or ſufficiencie is undertaken for.
Fille plevie. Promiſed in mariage ; affianced.
Plevine. as Pleuvine.
Pleviner. To pleuine, warrant, be ſuretie, giue pledges, vndertake, or promiſe, for.
Plevir. The ſame ; &, Plevir l'emende ; as Pleger l'emende.
Pleur : m. A teare ; a trickle ; alſo, weeping, or lamentation.
Pleurable : com. Lamentable ; fit to be wept, or waled for.
Pleurant : m. ante : f. Weeping, whining, crying, ſhedding teares ; wailing, lamenting.
Verre pleurant. Which being ouer-full runnes ouer.
Pleurard : m. A weeper, crier, whiner, wailer.
Pleüre : f. A thinne, and ſmooth skinne wherewith th'inſide of the ribs is couered.
Pleuré : m. ée : f. Wept ; whined, cried for ; deplored, bewailed, bemoaned.
Pleurement : m. A weeping ; a crying, whining, ſhedding of teares ; a lamenting, wailing, howling.
Pleure-pain : m. A niggardlie wretch ; a puling micher or miſer ; a miſerable houſe-keeper ; one whom it grieues to beſtow any meat on himſelfe, or but a mite on others.
Pleurer. To weepe, crie, whine, ſhed teares ; to moane, lament, waile, howle.
Aſſez peut pleurer qui n'a nul qui l'appaiſe : Prov. He may weepe his eyes out that hath none to appeaſe him.
Autant pleure mal batu que bien batu. As much the ill, as the well, beaten crieth ; (whence ;)
Mal batu longuement pleure : Prov.
A coeur dolent l'oeil pleure : Prov. A weeping eye, a wofull heart.
Bien courroucé de peu pleure : Prov. He that's angred a good can hardly weepe.
Femme rit quand elle peut, & pleure quand elle veut : Prov. Looke Femme.
La mere du timide ne ſçait que c'eſt de pleurer : Prov. The dame whoſe ſonne's a coward ſeldome weepes.
Les belles robbes pleurent ſur des eſpaules indignes : Prov. Faire garments weepe vpon vnworthie ſhoulders.
Tel au matin rit qui au ſoir pleure : Prov. No glad man knowes how ſoone he may be ſorie.
Pleureſie : f. A Pleuriſie.
Pleuretique : com. Sicke of, or ſubiect vnto, a Pleuriſie.
Membrane pleuretique. as Pleüre.
Pleureur : m. A weeper, a crier.
Pleureux : m. euſe : f. Euer weeping, full of teares.

Pleuſt à Dieu. I would to God ; Looke Plaire.
Pleuvi : m. ie : f. as Plevi ; alſo, quit, abſolued, releaſed.
Pleuvine : f. A warrant, warrantie, aſſurance, vndertaking for, the goodneſſe, or ſufficiencie of.
Pleuviner. as Pleviner ; alſo, as Plouviner.
Pleuvir. To warrant, aſſure, vndertake, paſe his promiſe, giue his word, for.
Pleuvir vne fille. To affiance a maiden, to promiſe her in mariage : ¶ Pic.
Pleuvoir. To raine ; Seeke Plouvoir.
Pli : m. A plait, fould, lay ; bought ; wrinkle, crumple ; alſo, a habit, or impreſſion.
Pli du mitan. The cloſing of the middle of a Canon-bit.
Il a prins ſon pli. (Said of an obdurate, and incorrigible diſpoſition, or of one in whom a humor, whatſoeuer, is turned to a habit ;) he will neuer be other then he is.
Les Parlemens prindrent divers plis ſous tels, & tels Rois ; viz. Tooke diuers formes vnder, got ſundrie courſes of proceeding from, ſuch and ſuch Kings.
Pliable : com. Pliable ; fit, or eaſie, to be foulded, bowed, bent.
Pliage : m. A foulding, plying, plaiting, bending, bowing.
Pliaiſon : f. as Pliement.
Plicature : f. A foulding, plaiting, bowing, bending.
Plie : f. A Plaice (fiſh, eſpecially, a great one.)
Plié : m. ée : f. Foulded, plaited ; plied ; wried, bent, bowed ; wrapped, or put vp ; alſo, wrinkled, or crumpled.
Pliement : m. A foulding, plaiting ; plying, bending, bowing ; turning, wrying.
Plier. To fould, plait ; plie, bend, bow ; turne, wrie ; wrap vp ; alſo, to wrinkle.
Plier ſes cartes. To put vp his cards.
Plier le coude. To keepe his elbow in continuall action ; to lift the pot often to his head ; See Coude.
Plier le gantelet. To yeeld, or ſubmit himſelfe.
Mieux vaut plier que rompre : Prov. Better bow then breake ; viz. Better to yeeld vnto good aduice, or the violent ſway of the time, then by following his own opinion, or humor, to draw on himſelfe a certaine deſtruction : And of an obſtinate, and incorrigible creature they ſay, Il rompera pluſtoſt qu'il ne pliera ; and yet ſometimes it is applied vnto a conſtant looſer, or hazardor, of his life, in defence of a religious, and knowne, truth.
Plieur : m. A foulder, plaiter ; plier, bender, bower ; alſo, a wrapper, foulder, or putter, vp of.
Plieur. (Adiectiuely) Foulding, plaiting ; plying, bowing, bending ; whence ;
Muſcles plieurs. Two muskles (a great, and a little one) whereby the toes are bowed.
Plieure. as Pliement.
Plieuſe : f. A woman that foulds, plaits ; bends, bowes.
Plinthe : f. A Plinth, or Slipper ; a flat, and ſquare peece of Maſonrie, &c, placed ſometimes aboue, ſometimes below, the footſtall (but euer the firſt of the Baſis) of a piller, &c.
Plion : m. A kind of ſtiffe Ozier ; See Butter.
Plionner. To wrinkle, crumple, frumple, ruffle, diſorder, mumble.
Plis. as Pelis ; alſo, the Plurall vnto Pli.
Pliſſé : m. ée : f. Plaited, foulded, lapped vp ; alſo, plaſhed, as a tree, &c.
Pliſſer. To plait, fould, lap vp, or one within another ;

ther; (whence) also, to plash.

Plissure: f. A foulding, or plaiting; also, a fould, plait, lap, wrinkle; also, a plashing, of trees, &c.

Ploïable. as Ployable.

Ploïer. Seeke Ployer.

Plomant: m. ante: f. Pluming; or trying the straightnesse of worke by a plumbe-rule.

Plomb: m. Lead; also, a Carpenters plummet, or plomb-line; also, a bullet for a Musket, or Caleeuer; also, as Plion.

Plomb blanc. Tinne; or a kind thereof; as Estaim de glace.

Plomb à chaas. A kind of plomb-rule, or instrument of copper, &c, whereby (as by the plomb-rule) Masons doe gouerne, and iudge of, the straightnesse, or euennesse of their worke, from top to bottome.

Plomb de mine. Blacke lead. Mine de plomb. as in Mine.

Plomb noir. Ordinarie lead.

Plomb à rieulle, ou à ruyle. A Masons plomb-rule.

`A plomb. Perpendicularly, downe-right; whence; La muraille est bien à plomb. The wall is verie straight, or stands boult vpright; &, `A plomb sur. Direct, or downe-right, vpon.

`A pied de plomb. Slowly, dully, heauily, with leaden heeles.

`A pied de plomb, & de pompe. The same; and, statelie, maiestically, with a Spanish grauitie; Rodomont-like.

Il a du plomb en teste. He hath a sad, aduised, or discreet pate of his owne.

Mis à plomb, & au fin. Throughly fined, or tried, exactly purified.

Dans vne gaine d'or vn cousteau de plomb. (Appliable to the faire outside of a foule inside; or to a pranked coxcombe, or faire foole;) a leaden whittle in a sheath of gold.

Plombagine: f. Pure lead turned almost into ashes by the vehemence of the fire: This is th'artificiall Plombagine, and comes of lead put into a furnace with gold, or siluer oare, to make them melt the sooner; (by which imployment it gaines some part in the worth of those mettalls;) There is also a naturall, or minerall Plombagine, which (as Mathiolus thinketh) is no other then siluer mingled with lead-stone, or oare.

Plombasse: com. Lead-like, lead-coloured, sallow, bleake, wanne.

Plombature: f. Solder of lead, or tinne.

Plombé: m. ée: f. Leaded, or tinned; soldered with lead; also, leaden, or leadie; dull, heauie, sad; also, lead-coloured, or blacke and blew after stripes; also, sounded with a leaden plummet; also, marked, or stamped, with lead.

Plombeau: m. A plummet; or weight of lead; whence; Le poids à plombeau. The Roman beame or Stelleere.

Le plombeau d'un'espée. The pommell.

Plombée: f. A plummet, or pellet of lead.

Plombelé. as Plombé; also, bearing lead.

Plombement: m. A leading, or tinning; also, a souldering; also, a marking of wares, with lead; also, a sounding with a plummet.

Plomber. To lead, or tinne; also, to soulder, or colour with lead; also, to marke wares with lead, or set leaden seals, or stamps on them; also, to sound the depth of a place with a plummet.

Plomber de coups de boulets. To lead, or turne into lead, with multitude of shot; to bestow more shot on then the skinne can hold.

Se plomber le sein. To thump, or beat his own breast.

Plomberie: f. A leading; or the leads of a Church, house, &c.

Plombet. as Plombée; also, the plomb-line, or plomb-rule used by Architects.

Plombeure: f. as Plombement; whence; Agraphes de fer à plombeure. Iron hookes fastened, or souldered together, with lead.

Plombier: m. A Plummer.

Plombier: m. ere: f. Leadie, lead-like, of lead.

Pierre plombiere. Lead oare, or lead-stone before it be tried.

Plomeau: m. A plummet, or little ball of lead.

Plomer. To plumme; a Mason to trie, or iudge of, the straightnesse of his worke by his plomb-rule.

Plommée: f. as Plombée; or, a weight of lead.

Traineau à plommée. Looke Traineau.

Plommer. as Plomer; or, as Plomber.

Plongé: m. ée: f. Plunged; ducked, diued; thrust farre into, ouer head and eares in.

Plongeant. Plunging, diuing, ducking; also, thrusting farre into.

Plongement: m. A plunging, diuing, or ducking; also, a thrusting farre into.

Plongeon: m. The water-fowle called a Ducker; or a generall name for water-fowle which vse to ducke often, or on their weake legs (which they lamely traile after them) can goe but a little.

Plongeon de mer. A Puffin.

Plongeon de riviere. A certaine fresh-water fowle, that resembles the Puffin.

Grand plongeon. A Cormorant.

Petit plongeon. A Dydopper, or Arsefoot.

`A plongeons. Ducking, plunging; or, by plunges.

Plongeons. (The Plurall of Plongeon; also) rickes, or stackes of corne.

Plonger. To plunge, diue, ducke; runne ouer head and eares, thrust, farre into.

Plonget. as Plongeon; or particularly, the Dydopper.

Plongeur: m. A plunger, ducker, diuer.

Plorer. See Pleurer.

Plot: m. A blocke: ¶ Bourbon.

Plote. as Pelote; A ball.

Ploter. as Peloter.

Ploton: m. A clue, or bottome of; also, a low Buffet stoole.

Plotte. as Pelotte.

Plourement: m. A weeping.

Plourer. See Pleurer.

Ploustre: m. A Rowler; also, (but somewhat improperly) a Harrow.

Plouſtrement: m. A leuelling of ground, or breaking of clods with a Rowler.

Plouſtrer. To leuell ground, or breake clods, with a Rowler.

Plouſtreur: m. A clod-breaker; or, one that smoothes ground, or breaks clods, with a Rowler.

Ploutroer: m. A Rowler; the rowling Instrument wherewith ground is leuelled; and clods broken.

Plouvier: m. A Plouer.

Plouviner. To mizzle, to bedew.

Plouvoir. To raine, showre; powre downe wet.

En hyver par tout pleut, en Esté là ou Dieu veut: Prov. Raine falls in Winter euerie where, in Summer onely by fauour; (somewhat like whereunto is;)

Là ou Dieu veut il pleut: Prov.

Tant tonne qu'il pleut : Prov. Of big words come bloudwipes ; after much consultation round execution.

Ployable : com. Pliable, bowable, bendable.

Ployant. Plying, bowing, bending; arching; foulding.

Ploye : f. A bend, bought ; vault, arch ; also, a bending, bowing; vaulting, arching.

Ployé : m. ée : f. Bowed, bent, plied ; foulded ; arched, vaulted.

Ployer. To plie, bow, bend ; also, to arch, or vault ; also, to fould ; Looke Plier.

Ployer l'amende. Celuy ployoit l'amende, qui en ployant le pan de sa robbe, ou cotte, faisoit amende honorable, & disoit, ie le vous amende : ¶Rageau.

Pluau : m. The South wind.

Plucquoter. To picke nicely.

Plumaceau : m. as Plumart ; also, a soft fold of linnen laid next aboue the plaister, on a wound.

Plumage : m. Feathers; or, as Plumart; also, a pluming.

Plumail : m. A Goose wing, or duster of feathers ; also, a pluvie of feathers ; also, birds, or feathered fowle.

Plumart : m. A plume, or bunch of feathers; also, as Plumail.

Plumassier : m. A feather-maker.

Plume : f. A feather (especially, a soft, or short one ;) also, a penne; also (in old French) a plume of feathers; also, casting for a Hawke.

Alun de plume. Stone Allum, itching powder ; a hard white Allum, or Allum-like simple, which being well pounded, and steeped in water may be spunne into a kind of thread, and matches or candleweekes made of it ; and they, once fired, will not out as long as they haue any matter to worke on.

Relief de plume (&, Rente de plume.) A rent Capon, Henne, or Chicken, paid for a Relieſe.

Faict au poil, & à la plume. Made vnto all kind of sport, practised in all kind of trades, fit for any imployment, good at any game.

Iecter la plume au vent : & mettre sa plume au vent. To grow, desperate, retchlesse, careless; or, as vnder Iecter ; or vnder Vent.

Passer la plume par la bec à. Looke Passer.

Vanner les plumes au vent. To play the foole, to loose time.

`A dure enclume marteau de plume : Prov. Seeke Enclume, or Marteau.

Plumé : m. ée : f. Plumed, plucked, fleeced.

Plumement : m. A pluming, or plucking the feathers from; hence also, a fleecing.

Plumer. To plume, or plucke the feathers of; thence also, to fleece ; to rob, denude, or bare of ; to shake out of, all.

Plumer vne chastaigne. To pill, or vnbuske, a chestnut ; to turne, or take, it out of the rough coat wherein tis bred; which because few can doe easily, or with vnprickt fingers, they say of a man to whom a thing is like to proue costlie, or painefull, Il en plumera la chastaigne.

On plume l'oye sans la faire crier : Prov. The sillie Goose complaines not when she's pluckt.

Plumeteur : m. A Scribe, Clerke, Penne-man, Scriuener, Penster ; one that getteth his liuing by his penne.

Plumetis : m. A summarie, or short relation of the substance of a cause, deliuered, in writing, vnto the Iudges ; also, short, and cursarie notes, or instructions, for the draught of a Pleading, or Euidence, taken from the mouth of a Client (or otherwise) by a Clerke, or Notarie publicke.

Plumette : f. A little feather, a small penne.

Plumeur : m. A plumer, feather-plucker ; fleecer.

Plumeux : m. euse : f. Full of pennes, or feathers.

Pluralité : f. Plurality, or moreneſſe ; more then one of.

Plure d'une voulte. The bought, bent, or compasse of a vault.

Plus. More.

`A plus prés. Within a little.

Au plus. At the most ; Au plus prés. As neere as possible can be ; Au plus toſt. At the sooneſt.

Le moins de mon plus. The most I can, the least I should.

Non plus. (Ils n'auront qu'un non plus.) Neither.

Qui a il plus ? What is behind? what ouerplus remaines there ?

Tant & plus. Exceeding much, or, as much as may be.

Qui plus vit plus a à soufrir : Prov. The longer life the more affliction.

Pluserois : m. The name of a (prohibited) fishnet, or fish-destroying engine.

Plusieur : m. as Pluserois.

Plusieurs. Many, a great number, a great sort.

Plustost. Rather, sooner ; also, moreouer, or, which is more ; also, faster, with more speed.

Au plustost. At the most ; &, Au plustost que faire se peut. With the first, with the sooneſt ; with as much speed as may be.

Plus-valeur : f. An ouer-value ; a surplusage, ouerplus, remainder ; or a thing thats ouer and aboue the value of.

Plus-valeurs d'estat. Looke Estat.

Pluvial : m. ale : f. Rainie, of raine ; like to raine ; wateriſh.

Pluvier : m. A Plouer.

Pluvieux : m. euse : f. Rainie, much raining, full of raine.

Pluvine : f. A Salamander, or Deafe-worme ; also, as Pleuvine.

Pluvir. Looke Pleuvir.

Pluye : f. Raine ; also, a Plaice.

La pluye des mois. A womans monthlie flux ; or the immoderate fall thereof.

La pluye l'a prins. He is wet through ; he hath taken his liquor throughly.

Pluye de Fevrier vaut esgout de fumier : Prov. Februarie raine is th'husbandmans gaine.

Pluyr. as Plouvoir.

Ply. Looke Pli.

Plye : f. A Plaice.

Poacre : f. A kind of scab about the nose, or muzzle of a sheepe, gotten by feeding too early in the deawie fallowes, and a verie great hinderance to her feeding.

Poacre : com. Looke Poüacre.

Poale : m. A stoue, or hot-house ; also, as Poille.

Poale : f. as Paelle ; A frying-panne ; also, a little panne.

Poallier : m. The brasse wherein the stock of a bell rests, or turnes.

Poalon : m. A Skille.

Poche : f. A pocket, pouch, or poke ; also, a meale-sacke, or corne-sacke ; also, a purſenet ; also, the fowle called, a Shoueler ; also, the crop, or craw of a bird ; also, the little narrow, and long Violin (hauing the backe of one peece) which French dancers, or dauncing Maisters, carrie about with them in a case, when they goe to teach their Schollers.

Acheter

Acheter chat en
poke.
Il a bien rempli or stuffed his bud
vse of his time,
La poche sent once, we are tain
alwayes.
Poché : m. ée : f.
fingers ; also, blu
Oeil poché.
&c.)
Oeuf poché.
Pocheculier : m.
Pochée : f. A pock
Pocher. To thrust,
Pocher le labe
vpon, another ma
Cet encre poch
Pochette : f. A litt
a purse-net.
Poçon. Looke Pos
Podagre : f. The
Podagre de lin
Podagre : com.
Podagreux : m.
Poderaste, or Pe
buggerer.
Podimetrie : f.
foot.
Poelle : m. A Stou
Poëme : m. A Poe
Poësie : f. Poesie,
Poesle : m. A Stou
Poesle : f. as Paell
Poeslier : m. A Ti
Poeslon : m. A Sk
panne.
Poeste. Homme d
noble subiect, va
Poëtastre : m. An
Poëte : m. A Poet,
Bon poëte mau
ill man.
Poëterie : f. Poetr
Poëtiquement.
Poëtiser. To poetiz
Poëtride : f. A Po
Poëtrie : f. Poetrie
Poëtrons : m. (Or
Poevrette. as Poi
Poge, ou Pogge:
maine yard, on the ge ; at, or on, the Naviger à poge course at sea, by re aboord sometimes left, side of the Sh
Pognard : m. as Po
Poictevine : f. A farthing, or the fo
Poictrail : m. A P summer whereby
Poictreux : m. eus
peece of coyne tha middle, and is flat
Poictrinal : m. A
but of a wider bor

Acheter chat en poche. (Like our) to buy a Pig in a poke.
Il a bien rempli ſes poches. He hath filled his bags, or ſtuffed his budgets, vp to the top; he hath made good vſe of his time, I warrant you.
La poche ſent touſiours l'harenc: Prov. Corrupted once, we are tainted euer; once get a blot, y'are ſtained alwayes.
Poché: m. ée: f. Poched; thruſt or digged out with the fingers; alſo, blurred.
Oeil poché. A blacke, or bloud-ſhot eye (by a blow, &c.)
Oeuf poché. A potched egge.
Pocheculier: m. A Shoueler.
Pochée: f. A pocket-full, poke-full, ſack-full, of.
Pocher. To thruſt, or dig out with the fingers.
Pocher le labeur d'autruy. To poche into, or incroach vpon, another mans imployment, practiſe, or trade.
Cet encre poche. This Inke blurres.
Pochette: f. A little pocket; a poke, or little ſacke; alſo, a purſe-net.
Poçon. Looke Poſſon.
Podagre: f. The Gowt (in the legs, or feet.)
Podagre de lin. The weed Dodder; See Lin.
Podagre: com. Gowtie-legd.
Podagreux: m. euſe: f. Full of the Gowt.
Poderaſte, for Pederaſte. A Sodomite, boy-louer, or boy-buggerer.
Podimetrie: f. Foot-meaſure, meaſuring by the foot.
Poelle: m. A Stoue, or Hot-houſe.
Poëme: m. A Poeme; a compoſition, or worke in Verſe.
Poëſie: f. Poeſie, Poetrie.
Poeſle: m. A Stoue, or Hot-houſe.
Poeſle: f. as Paelle.
Poeſlier: m. A Tinker, Braſier, Skellet-maker.
Poeſlon: m. A Skellet, or Poſnet; alſo, a little Frying-panne.
Poeſte. Homme de poeſte. A yeoman, Roturier, vnnoble ſubiect, vaſſall, or tenant.
Poëtaſtre: m. An ignorant Poet.
Poëte: m. A Poet, Maker, Verſifier.
Bon poëte mauvais homme: Prov. A good Poet an ill man.
Poëterie: f. Poetrie; (an old word.)
Poëtiquement. Poetically, Poet-like.
Poëtiſer. To poetize it; to make Verſes.
Poëtride: f. A Poeteſſe.
Poëtrie: f. Poetrie.
Poëtrons: m. (Ordinarie) yellow Plummes.
Poevrette. as Poivrette.
Poge, ou Pogge: f. The ſheat, or cable which faſtens the maine yard, on the right hand of a Ship; whence, A poge, at, or on, the right hand.
Naviger à poge, & à ourſe. To hold an vncertaine courſe at ſea, by reaſon of contrarie winds, laying tacke aboord ſometimes on the right, and ſometimes on the left ſide of the Ship.
Pognard: m. as Poignard.
Poictevine: f. A woman of Poictou; alſo, a French farthing, or the fourth part of the Denier Tournois.
Poictrail: m. A Petrell for a horſe; alſo, the beame, or ſummer whereby rafters, or ioiſts are vpheld.
Poictreux: m. euſe: f. Whence, Piece poictreuſe. A peece of coyne that riſes, bulches, or beares out in the middle, and is flat, or thinne, about the edge.
Poictrinal: m. A great, and beauie Petronell; ſhorter, but of a wider bore, then a Musket.
Poictrinal: m. ale: f. Belonging to the breaſt, or ſtomack; alſo, ſtomacall, breaſt-comforting.
Poictrinalier: m. One that ſerues with, or vſes to ſhoot in, a great and heauie Petronell.
Poictrine: f. The breaſt, boſome, ſtomacke; alſo, a breaſt-plate, or armour for the breaſt.
Poictrine empeſchée. Obſtruction of the ſtomacke; or a drie, and ſoft Cough (which we call a Sheepes Cough) proceeding thereof.
Poictrinette: f. A little breaſt, prettie boſome.
Poictrineux: m. euſe: f. as Poictrinal; alſo, as Poictreux.
Poictron: m. The arſe, nockandroe, fundament.
Poids: m. A peiſe, or weight; alſo, peiſe, weight; alſo, ſubſtance, or ſoundneſſe.
Poids de Marc. Halfe a pound, or eight ounces; Looke Marc.
Poids Marchand. The weight vſed by Marchants, and Tradeſmen, is in ſome (few) places after fourteene, in others after eighteene, but in the moſt after ſixteene, ounces to the pound.
Poids medecinal. The weight vſed by Phiſitions, &c, is after twelue ounces to the pound.
Poids de Midy. One of the Pyrrhenian mountaines, called ſo, becauſe euer about noone the Sunne ſhines on it.
Poids de neuf heures. Another, called ſo becauſe the Sunne is euer on it about nine a clocke in the morning.
Poids du Roy. Is after ſixteene ounces to the pound, eight ounces to the Marc, and eight Gros to the ounce.
Gros poids. Is after 26 ounces to the pound.
Petit poids. Troy weight; twelue ounces to the pound.
Poifaict: m. Sloath, negligence, idleneſſe. ¶Breton.
Poifaiſant: m. A negligent, ſloathfull, or careleſſe fellow; one thats euer behind-hand with his buſineſſe. ¶Breton.
Poignalade: f. A ſtab, or thruſt with a Poniard.
Poignalarder. To ſtab, or thruſt into with a Poniard.
Poignant: m. ante: f. Pricking, ſtinging; alſo, peeping, or peering out.
Poignard: m. A Poinadoe, or Poniard.
Poignardé: m. ée: f. Poniarded, ſtabbed with a Poniard.
Poignarder. To poniard, to ſtab with a Poniard.
Poignaſtre. The Viuer, or little ſea-Dragon.
Poignée: f. A handfull, fiſtfull, or gripe of; alſo, the handle of a ſword, or dagger.
Poignet: m. The wriſt; the ioint thats betweene the hand and the arme; alſo, a handle.
Poignet de la chemiſe. The wriſt-band, or gathering at the ſleeue-hand, of a ſhirt.
Il a bien foncé le poignet. He hath gained ſoundly, he hath gotten ſweetly, he hath licked his fingers throughly; (A Phraſe often vſed in diſgrace of the partie it is applyed vnto, and taxing him of no leſſe then theeuerie, or groſſe couſenage.)
Poil: m. A haire.
Poil de chat. A running ſore, or tettar, which we alſo tearme, a Cats haire; alſo, a Whitlow in the finger.
Poil folet. A young moſſie beard; alſo, the firſt downe, or ſoft feathers of a young bird.
Couleur de poil de ſouris. A Mouſe-colour, or Mouſe-dunne.
Fente en poil. A cleft in a bone, ſo little, as it is almoſt inuiſible.

Velours

Velours à deux poils. Two-pile Veluet.
Velours a long poil. Shag, plush; or (most properly) vnshorne Veluet.
Bas de poil. Lowlie, or bearing a low sayle; of poore meanes, of small authoritie, that can doe but little any way.
Eschauffer le poil à. To irritate, or prouoke vnto anger; also, to bestow a painefull heating on; to bang or bethwacke the skinne-coat of.
Faire changer de poil. To reforme by cudgelling, or by seuere courses; (from a Groome, who currying a yong horse throughly, makes the colour of his coat to alter.)
Fait au poil, & à la plume. A Generalist; one thats fit for, or can make one in, any imployment, or sport; (from dogs which are good at all kind of Game.)
Monter sur vn cheval à poil. To get on a horses bare backe.
Né à tout le poil (le Diable l'a chié en volant.) A monstrous Cutter, a terrible Gallant, a horrible braue man.
Prendre du poil de la beste. Looke Beste.
Des paroles ils viennent au poil. From words they fall to worke, from taunting to knocking.
Nous prendrons ce nom au poil plus court. We will vnderstand it more strictly, or in a neerer sence; or in a sence against which least may be sayed.
Vn poil fait ombre: Pro. The little haire a shadow casts; the least things haue their vse one way, or other.
Pour vn poil Martin perdit son Asne: Pro. Looke Asne.
En maigre poil a morsure: Pro. Looke Morsure.
Le Loup alla à Rome, & y laissa de son poil, & rien de ses coustumes: Pro. A knaue will returne a knaue from the best place in the world; or as vnder Loup.
Poilant. Pilling, paring, barking, taking the rinde, coat, or vpmost crust of.
Poile: m. as Poille; also, as Poale.
Poile: f. A frying-panne; whence;
Saulter de la poile, & se iecter dedans les braises. From ill to worse; out of the frying-panne into the fire.
Poilé: m. ée: f. Rewed, vneuenly dyed; also, pilled, pared, barked, vnrinded.
Poiler. To pill &c, as Peler; also, to rew; to dy or colour vneuenly.
Poille: m. The square Canopie thats borne ouer the Sacrament, or a Soueraigne Prince, in solemne Processions, or Passages of State; Hence also, a Hearse, Hearse-cloth, or rich cloth, layed ouer the Beere of a dead person; also, a cloth spred in the Church, ouer a new-married couple; also, an Vmbrello, or great weather-fanne; also, as Poale.
Poillu: m. uë: f. Hairie; rugged, or rough by much haire.
Poilon: m. A Skellet; or, as Poeslon.
Poinçon: m. A bodkin; a punchion; Looke Poinson.
Poinçonner. as Poinsonner.
Poinçonnet: m. A little bodkin; or punchion.
Poinçonneux: m. euse: f. Pricking, as a bodkin.
Poinct: m. A point; a prick; a centre; a period, or full point; a minute, instant, or moment of time; a dram, iot, crum, as little as may be of any thing; also, a stitch in sowing; also, a Stitch in the side; also, the dawning, or breake of the day, twylight; also, the point, principall head, maine proposition, of an Argument; the state, or issue, of a cause; also, the order, trimme, array, plight, health, estate, case, taking, one is in; also, the length, or measure of a man in his stirrup.
Poinct doré. A stitching vp of incisions, or wounds, with golden thread.
Le poinct des pieds. as Nadaïr.
Le poinct vertical. The Zenith, or point of the Firmament which is directly ouer our heads.
Haut poinct. Honneur au haut p. Honour in eminence, or of a high pitch.
Petit poinct. Au petit poinct. Throughly, soundly, closely.
Despescher au petit poinct. Looke Despescher.
Poinct à poinct. Throughly; also, fitly, iustly, decently, handsomely, in good order.
A poinct. Aptly, fitly, conueniently, to purpose, in good time, in due season; whence;
Prendre son à poinct. To take his fittest oportunitie for; to make his best aduantage of.
Prendre quelqu' un à son mal à point. To take one vnprouided.
Venir tout à poinct. To come in an excellent season, in pudding time, in the nicke.
A poinct nommé. Fitly, seasonably, at the time prefixed; iust at the time, or at the verie same time; also, expressely, or of set purpose.
Donner à poinct nommé. To hit point-blanke, to strike the marke he shoots at.
De tout poinct. Quite and cleane.
En poinct. In order, in case, in fashion, in array.
Se mettre en poinct. To prepare himselfe; to set himselfe in a readinesse.
En bon poinct; ou, bien en poinct. Handsome, faire, fat, well liking, in good taking.
Sur le poinct de. Readie, or about, to.
Sur le poinct que. Then, iust when.
C'est vn poinct qui trop me poind. This point too neerely pointeth at me; by this pricke I am ouer-deepely pierced.
Ils le chaussent à moins de poincts que. They make his foot, or shoe, of a lesse size then.
Pour vn poinct Martin perdit son Asne: Prov. (This Martin being Abbot of a Cloister called Asellus, and setting ouer the Gate thereof, Porta patens esto nulli claudaris honesto, was depriued of his Place for putting a Comma after the word nulli.)
Tout vient à poinct qui peut attendre: Prov. He that is patient any thing may compasse.
Tout vient à poinct qui tient mesnage: Prov. He that keepes house makes vse of euerie thing.
Poincte: f. A bodkin, or nawle; also, a pricke, a goad; a sting; also, the point of a weapon, or toole; also, quicknesse, sharpenesse, subtiltie; an edge; also, vehemence, eagernesse, earnestnesse, the first (violent) brunt of things; also, the middle-sized wax-candle vsed in Churches (the biggest being tearmed Cierge, and the least Bougie.)
Poinctes de housеaux. Spurres.
Poincte des morceaux. La premiere p. The first course, as Sallades, &c.
La Poincte du nez. The tip, or end of the nose.
La Poincte de l'oeil. The sight of the eye; or the piercing looke, or cast of a liuelie eye.
La Poincte d'un rocher. The point, or sharpe top, of a Rocke.
Chaussés en poincte. Looke Chausse.
Cul sur poincte. Vpside downe, topsie turuie, top ouer taple.
Chatouilleux à la poincte. Quicke on the spurre; that that readily answers the spurre; hence also, titchie, that will not indure to be touched.

Combatre a poincte, & à fendant. To fight against with point, and edge; viz. in all extremitie, by any hurtfull meanes, or way.

Poursuivre sa poincte. To follow his thrust (in fencing;) to pursue his aduantage; also, to prosecute his former designes, or courses.

Poincté: m. ée: f. Pointed, sharpened at the point; also, stitched; also, quilted.

Rose poinctée de. Bearded. (Blason.)

Poincteler. To prickle, pricke, or point often; also, to bud, or shoot out.

Poincter. as Pointer.

Poinctille. Seeke Pointille.

Poinctiller. To prickle, or pricke often.

Poinctu: m. uë: f. Pointed, sharpe-topped; also, keene, or sharpe at the point.

Poindre. To pricke; sting; nettle; bite, vex, fret; spurre, stirre, incite; also, to peepe, or peere out (as a morning Sunne ouer the top of a hill;) whence;

Incontinent que le iour poindra. By breake of day.

Geline qui poind, & ne pond pas. Looke Pondre.

Charité oingt, & peché poind: Prov. Charitie comforteth, sinne afflicteth; charitie supples the heart, sinne wounds the soule.

Oignez vilain il vous poindra: Pro. (Applyable to the base ingratitude of a base chuffe, or churle.)

Qui contre esguillon recule deux fois se poind: Prov. He doubly hurts himselfe that kickes against a pricke.

Poinez raclé. C'est vn p. raclé. Tis a thing resolued, or concluded on, a matter fully determined of.

Poing: m. The fist.

Poing garni. See Garni.

Faire de son poing vn maillet. To make hard shift; or, to be ignorant of the right vse of things; or, sottishly to ouertoyle, or take too much of, himselfe.

Fol est qui de son poing fait coing: Prov. See Coing.

Poinrée: f. A Peare tree. (Norm.

Poinson: m. A bodkin; also, a puncheon; also, a stampe, marke, print, or seale; also, a Wine-vessell, containing, in most places, 216 Parisien Pints.

Poinson d'Ay, & de Champagne. Containeth 192 Parisien Pints.

Poinson d'une Tour. The ball, or middle of the top, of a round Tower; that part whereat all the rafters doe meet in point; that part whereon a weathercocke, &c, is vsually planted.

Poinsonnade: f. A pricke, or hole made with a bodkin; also, a stampe, or marke set on with a puncheon, &c.

Poinsonner. To pricke, or pierce with a bodkin; to stampe, or marke, with a puncheon, &c.

Point: m. Looke Poinct.

Point. (An Aduerbe;) not, no one iote, by no meanes, in no manner, not at all.

Pointade: f. A pricke, thrust; stitch; or sting.

Pointe. as Poincte.

Pointeler. Seeke Poincteler.

Pointer. To point; or sharpen at the point; or lessen towards the point; also, to pierce, pricke, or sting; also, to stitch, quilt, or counterpoint.

Pointer vn canon. To leuell it, or bring it vnto the marke.

Pointille: f. A pricke, or prickle; a little nice point; the smallest, or sleighteſt matter that may be.

Pointiller. To prickle, or pricke often; also, to cut, quip, tax, or take exceptions vnto.

Pointu. as Poinctu.

Pointure: f. A pricke; also, a prickling, or pricking; also, a shooting (as of paine in the bodie;) also, the Gowt in the ioints.

Poipre: f. The Purples. Looke Pourpre.

Poiraisine: f. Rosin.

Poiré: m. Perrie; drinke made of Peares.

Poire: f. A Peare.

Poire d'angoisse. A choake-Peare; or, a wild soure Peare.

Poire d'amiot. A yellow, and hard-skind Peare, whereof excellent Perrie is made.

Poire de beurée. The butter Peare; a tender, and delicate fruit.

Poire de bon Chrestien (called by some the Eusebian Peare;) a great, and delicate Winter Peare, somewhat resembling the bastard Warden.

Poire de campane. as Poire de Serteau.

Poire chat. The Cat-Peare; a holesome, sweet-smelling, and sharpe-tasting fruit.

Poire de chevalier. The Knight-Peare.

Poire coing. The great Quince called, the Peare-Quince, or Quince Peare.

Poire de conillart. A soft, and delicate kind of Peare.

Poire dorée. The golden Peare; is reasonable big, almost round, and the most delicate of Summer Peares.

Poire d'eau rose. The Rose-Peare.

Poire de l'escuyer. The Esquire Peare; whereof excellent Perrie is made.

Poire d'espine. The thorne-Peare; (ripe in Autumne.)

Poire d'estranguillon. A choake-Peare.

Poire de fin or. The golden Peare.

Poire de garde. A Warden, or Winter Peare; a Peare which may be kept verie long.

Poire de hastiveau. A Hasting, or hastie Peare.

Poire laide bonne. A certaine ill-looking, but well-tasting, Peare.

Poire de livre. The pound-Peare; a verie great Peare.

Poire à main. A kind of great Peare which weighes almost a pound.

Poire de mollart. A certaine tender, and delicate Peare.

Poire musquette. The Muske Peare.

Poire de nostre Dame. The Marie Peare, or our Ladies Peare; a reasonable good fruit.

Poire de parmain. The Permaine Peare.

Poire de rateau. A certaine Peare thats as big as a mans fist.

Poire de renoult. A certaine tender, and delicate Peare.

Poire de rosetre. A soft, and verie delicate Peare.

Poire de rousseau. Another; whereof good Perrie may be made.

Poires sept en gueule. A kind of small, and soone-ripe Muske Peares.

Poire de Serteau. The Allablaster Peare, Bell Peare, or Gourd Peare.

Poire superbe. The Muske-Peare; or water Peare.

Poire à deux testes. The two-headed Peare; a yellow, and solide Peare, whereof excellent Perrie is made.

Poire de verdelet. The Greening; a tender, and deli- delicate Peare.

Mords à poire. The Peare-bit; a bitt whose mouth, or vpset is fashioned like two Peares closed at the smaller ends.

Il ne le menace point de poires molles. Tis no trifle, no sleight mischieue, no easie matter, wherewith he threatens him.

Apres la poire le vin, ou le prestre: Prov. After a (cold) Peare wine, or the Priest.

Qui avec son seigneur mange poires il ne choisit pas des meilleures: Pro. He that eates Peares with his Lord picks none of the best; (Therefore let him that will eat well eat with his equall.)

Poire-coing. The great Quince, called the Peare-Quince, or Quince-Peare.

Poireau: m. A Wart; also, as Porreau.

Poirée: f. Beets; Looke Porrée.

Poirier: m. A Peare-tree.

Pois: m. A Pease, or Peason; also, as Poids.

Pois cerre. The great Chichling, or flat Pease; or, the great wild Tare, called Pease euerlasting.

Pois chiches. Ciches, garden Ciches, Sheepes Cich Pease; Looke Chiches.

Pois cornu. See Cornu.

Pois de gresle. A haile-stone.

Pois Massiliens (l'Hippiatrique.) In stead of, Seseli de Marseille; Looke Seseli.

Pois de merveilles. Heart-Pease, blacke Winter Cherries, Indian Hearts.

Pois ramez. Rounciualls, great Pease, garden Pease, branche Peason, hastie Pease, French Pease, Romane Pease.

Pois ramiers. The same.

Pois à visage. Fasells, long Peason, Sperage Beanes, French Beanes, Roman Beanes, Kidney Beanes.

Petis pois. Field Pease, ordinarie Pease.

Lard à pois de caresme. The Bacon-like fish of a Porpose.

Avalleurs de pois gris. Good trencher-men, hungrie guts, greedie whorsons; they to whom euerie morsell seemes good, or no morsell comes amisse.

Esleus, & choisis comme beaux pois sur le volet. Choice, or daintie peeces; people curiously picked, neatly culled out; (Ironically.)

Il luy a fait manger des pois verds au veau. Looke Veau.

Mon Dieu que tu fais bien le pois verreux. Thou playest the hypocrite exceeding well.

Apres la feste & le ieu, les pois au feu: Pro. When costlie Feasts, and Games are ended, fond wast by thrift let be amended.

Poisamment. Heauily, weightily, burthensomely.

Poisée: f. A peising, or weighing; or as;

Poisement: m. A peising, or weighing; also, weight, or heauinesse.

Poisillons: m. A kind of small Pease, or Pulse.

Poisle: f. A Skellet, or Frying-panne.

Le chauderon machure la poisle. Seeke Machurer.

Qui a vn oeil à la poisle, l'autre au chat. That looketh warily, or euery way, about him.

Poisle: m. ée: f. Collowed, smeered, bleached, begrymed with soote, or with the touch of a sootie Skellet, &c.

Poisler. To collow, smut, smeere, bleach, begryme with the blacke side, or soot of a Skellet, &c.

Poislier: m. A Brasier, or Tinker; a Skellet-maker, or Frying-panne maker.

Poisliers: m. The posts which vphold the scrue of a Vine-presse.

Poisseure: f. A collowing, smutting, smeering, besooting.

Poison: m. Poison.

Poisonneux: m. euse: f. Poisonous, full of poison.

Poissage: m. A pitching, or bepitching.

Poissard: m. A filcher, nimmer, purloyner, pilferer; one whose fingers are as good as so many lyme-twigs.

Poissard: m. arde; f. Pitchie, bepitched.

Poissé: m. ée: f. Pitched, bepitched.

Feux poissez. Wild fires.

Poissement: m. A pitching; or bepitching.

Poisser. To pitch, or bepitch.

Poisseux: m. euse: f. Pitchie, full of pitch.

Poissillon: m. A little, or young, fish.

Poisson: m. A fish; also, fish.

Poisson d'Avril. A Mackerell; also, a young bawd; a Page turned Pandar.

Poisson Iuif. The (ouglie, and vnluckie) Mallet fish; called so, because headed like a hammer.

Poisson de mesnage. as Belenne.

Poisson S. Pierre. The Dorce; called also by some of our Fishermen S. Peters fish.

Poisson royal. The white Cabot; a delicate fish.

Poisson sacré. Looke Sacré.

Muet comme vn poisson. As dumbe as a fish.

Il se retira avec cela qu'il avoit de poisson prins. He got him away with the shame he had gotten, or with a flea in his eare.

La sauce ne vaut pas mieux que le poisson. The sawce is no better then the fish.

Se faire marchand de poisson la vieille de Pasques. Looke Marchand.

Poisson, gorret, & cochin, vie en l'eau, & mort en vin: Pro. We say, fish must euer swimme twice.

Le poisson commence à sentir tousiours par la teste: Pro. The head of a fish is euer tainted first.

Les gros poissons mangent les petis: Pro. Justly applyed to the vniust world, wherein the rich deuoure the poore, the strong the weake, the mightie the meane.

En petite riviere ne se prend gros poisson: Pro. In poore families, or pettie Townes, great preferment will not be had, much profit cannot be made.

Ieune chair, & vieil poisson: Prov. Old flesh, and young fish (is fit for the dish.)

Il faut hasarder vn petit poisson pour prendre vn grand: Pro. Hazard a little to gaine much.

Il ne faut apprendre aux poissons à nager: Prov. Looke Nager.

L'hoste, & le poisson passé trois iours puent: Pro. A guest, and fish at three dayes end grow mustie.

Qui envoye chetif à la mer n'en rapporte ne poisson, ne sel: Pro. He that sends a knaue to sea, is sure to loose his venture.

Poissonnerie: f. The Fish-market.

Poissonnet: m. A little fish.

Poissonneux: m. euse: f. Fishie; full of, or abounding in, fish.

Poissonnier: m. A Fish-monger.

Il se fait poissonnier la vigile de Pasques. Too late he vndertakes that course, or action.

Poissonnier: m. ere: f. Fishie; abounding in, or belonging vnto, fish.

Poissonniere: f. A Fish-wife, or a woman that sells fish; also, a long Panne to seeth fish in.

Poissure: f. A pitching, or bepitching.

Poisteau: m. A little bird like a Linnet.

Poistrir. as Pestrir.

Poitral. See Poictral.

Poi-

Poitrir. Looke Peſtrir.
Poitron: m. The tayle, arſe, bumme; alſo, a kind of Horſe-Plumme.
Poivre. Pepper; Looke Poyvre.
Poivrette: f. Gith, Nigella, Biſhops-wort, Sweet-fauor, S. Catherins flower.
Poix: m. Weight; Looke Poids.
Poix: f. Pitch.
Poix blanche de Bourgongne. Burgundie Pitch; as Poix Grecque.
Poix blanche de Cordouannier. White Shoomakers Wax.
Poix fondue. Tarre.
Poix Grecque. Greeke Pitch; a light-yellow Pitch, much vſed in plaiſters.
Poix liquide. Tarre.
Poix navale. Ship-Pitch; is ſcraped from Ships, and then mingled with Wax, and Bay Salt (for Phiſicall vſes;) alſo, ordinarie Pitch is by ſome called Pix navalis.
Poix picatoire. A kind of Pitch compounded of Roſen and Pitch.
Poix reſine. Roſen.
Poix ſeiche. Stone Pitch, ordinarie Pitch.
Poixement: m. A pitching, or bepitching.
Poixer. To pitch, to bepitch.
Poix-reſine: f. Roſen.
Poizage. Droict de p. A fee due, in ſome places, to the King for the weighing of commodities with a publike Balance, or Beame.
Poizer. Looke Peſer.
Pol: m. Paule.
Grace de S. Pol. See Grace.
Pierre de S. Pol. A certaine medecinable ſtone found in a Maltean caue, wherein (they ſay) S. Paule preached; ſome alſo call the Samien earth ſo.
Deſcouvrir S. Pierre pour couvrir S. Pol. To build, or inrich one Church with the ruines, or reuenues of another.
Pol: m. A Pole; the end, or point of one of the Axletrees, whereon (ſay Aſtronomers) the heauens moue.
Pol Antartique. The Antartick, or South Pole; a ſtarre not ſeene in our Hemiſphere.
Pol Artique. The North Pole, the North Starre.
Polaine. The furniture of a Peece (conſiſting of diuers peeces) of timber in the prow of a Ship, called, La Fleche; alſo, as Poulaine.
Polaire: com. Of, or belonging to, the Poles.
Eſtoille polaire. A ſtarre which maketh the tayle of Vrſa minor; called ſo, becauſe it is the neereſt of all others vnto the North Pole.
Pole: f. The Sole-fiſh called, a Dogs-tongue, or kind foole.
Polemoine: m. Spattling Poppie, frothie Poppie, white Ben; alſo, the ſhrubbie Treſoile called, Make-bate.
Poli: m. ie: f. Poliſhed, ſmoothed, burniſhed, ſleeked; alſo, fine, trimme, neat, ſpruce, polite.
Polican. Looke Pelican.
Police: f. Policie; politicke regiment, ciuill gouernment; or as a French Lawyer defines it, C'eſt le réglement de la Cité; or as another, C'eſt la forme, & le réglement eſtably aux choſes neceſſaires à la vie humaine; whence;
Droict de police. Power to make particular Orders for the Gouernment of all the inhabitants of a Towne, or Territorie; this Power (extending chiefely vnto three things, viz. ſmall commodities (as victuals, &c.) Trades, or Occupations; and ſtreetes, or high wayes;) though often challenged by the officers of the King (to whom all generall policie without queſtion belongs) yet is (or ſhould be) enioyed by euerie Lord in France, from the Chattelain vpwards.
Policé: m. ée: f. Ordered, gouerned, ruled, aduiſedly diſpoſed.
Policer. To order, gouerne, rule aduiſedly, diſpoſe of wiſely.
Policier: m. ere: f. Belonging or looking to, taking notice or care of, hauing by office, or in charge, the gouernment, and ordering of, particular matters in a Towne, or Territorie.
Poliément. Smoothly, ſleekely, brightly, cleanly, neatly, trimly.
Polieul: m. Pellamountaine, or Pollie, an hearbe.
Poligamie: f. Poligamie; the hauing of many wiues, or of moe then one.
Poligarchie: f. A Monarchie diuided into ſundrie parts; or ſuch a diuiſion.
Poligone: f. A Geometricall figure that hath many corners.
Poliment: m. Smoothneſſe, ſleekeneſſe, a gloſſe, a poliſhed luſtre.
Poliot. See Pouliot.
Polipragmon: m. A Polipragmon, medler, buſie bodie.
Polipus. Looke Polypus.
Polir. To poliſh; to ſmooth, ſleeke, burniſh, brighter, beautifie; to ſcoure, cleanſe, furbiſh, trim vp, make neat, ſet a gloſſe on, giue a luſtre vnto.
Poliſſable: com. Poliſhable, burniſhable; furbiſhable.
Poliſſement: m. A poliſhing, burniſhing, brightening, ſmoothing, ſleeking; a furbiſhing, or trimming vp.
Poliſſeur: m. A poliſher, burniſher; ſleeker, ſmoother; furbiſher.
Poliſſeure: f. as Poliſſure.
Poliſſoir: m. A poliſher; a poliſhers burniſhing ſtone.
Poliſſoire: f. The ſame.
Poliſſure: f. Poliſſure, burniſhment, ſmoothneſſe, ſleekeneſſe, neatneſſe, cleanlineſſe; alſo, as Poliſſement.
Polifyllable: com. Of many ſillables.
Politeſſe: f. Politeneſſe; poliſhedneſſe; ſmoothneſſe, ſleekeneſſe; neatneſſe, cleanlineſſe; trimneſſe, briskeneſſe.
Politric. See Polytric.
Politure. as Poliſſure.
Polles. Certaine forbidden Engines, or Nets, wherewith fiſh may be caught.
Polliſyllabe: com. Of many ſillables.
Pollu: m. uë: f. Polluted; defiled, diſtained; corrupted, diſhoneſted, violated.
Polluer. To pollute; ſoyle, diſtaine, defile; corrupt, violate, infect.
Polpe: f. The pulpe; the brawne of fleſh, or fleſhie part of the bodie; the ſubſtance, or hard pith, of any thing.
Polſonnets: m. Two buttons with hookes at their ends, paſſing through the branch, and holding the waterchayne, of a Bitt.
Poltron: m. A knaue, raſcall, varlet, ſcowndrell; alſo, a daſtard, coward; ſluggard, lazie-backe, baſe idle fellow.
Poltroneſque: com. Knauish, raſcallie, baſe-humored; cowardlie, faint-hearted, cullion-like; lazie, lozellic, ſluggish, idle.
Poltroneſquement. Roguishly, baſely, lazily, cowardly, cullion-like.
Poltronie: f. Knauerie, vileneſſe, baſeneſſe; cowardice, daſtardie; ſluggishneſſe, lazineſſe; vnworthineſſe.

Pol-

Poltroniſer. To pultronize it; to play the knaue, ſcowndrell; coward; to laze, loll, or ſlug it.
Polygamie: f. as Poligamie.
Polygone: m. Knot-graſſe, Birds tongue, Swines-graſſe, S. Innocents hearbe.
Polygone femelle. Female Knot-graſſe; a water hearbe, ſeldome found, and of leſſe vertue then;
Polygone maſle. Common Knot-graſſe.
Polygone petit. Rupturewort, Herniaria, Burſtwort.
Polygraphie: f. A diuers manner of writing.
Polymixe. A candle hauing many weekes.
Polype. as Polypus.
Polypeux: m. euſe: f. That hath a Noli me tangere in the noſe.
Polyphilie: f. Affection diuided, loue vnto many.
Polypode. Polipodie, Oake-Fearne, Wall-Fearne (which two laſt names belong vnto two ſeuerall, yet neerely-reſembling, hearbes, called otherwiſe, Polipodie of the Oake, and Polipodie of the wall.)
Polypus: m. The fiſh Pourcontrell, called alſo, Many-feet.
Polypus chancreux. The cankerous diſeaſe of the noſe, commonly called Noli me tangere.
Polytric, & Polytrich. Blacke Venus haire, true Venus haire, Maidens haire, our Ladies haire.
Polytric doré. Polytrichon, Gouldilocks, golden Maiden haire, golden Moſſe, hairie Moſſe.
Polytric des Officines. Wall Rue, Rue Maiden haire, white Maiden haire.
Polytrichon, & Polytricon. as Polytric.
Pomardiere: f. A Farme, or Orchard of apples.
Pomcirade: f. Balme gentle, hearbe Balme.
Pomelée: f. Bearefoot, Setterwort, Settergraſſe.
Pommade: f. Pomatum, or Pomata (an oyntment;) alſo, thè Pommada, a tricke in vaulting.
Pommé: m. Cyder; drinke made of apples.
Pomme: f. An apple.
Pomme d'Adam. Looke Adam.
Pomme d'amours. The raging, or mad, apple; alſo, the amorous apple, apple of Loue, golden apple.
Pomme d'anis. A certaine delicate apple.
Pomme Appie, ou d'Appie. An apple thats like a Quince both in ſmell, and bigneſſe; and tearmed thus of Appius Claudius, who firſt brought the kind of it from Peloponeſus vnto Rome.
Pomme Armeniaque. An Apricocke.
Pomme de bois, ou de boſquet. A Crab, or Wilding; alſo, the fruit of the Arbute, or Strawberrie tree.
Pomme de capendu. See Capendu.
Pomme de chien. The Mandrake apple.
Pomme de claguet. A firme, iuicie, faire-coloured, and taſt-pleaſing apple.
Pomme de coing. A Quince.
Pomme de courpendu. The Short-ſtart, or Short-ſhanke; an excellent apple.
Pomme de Cunoet. A certaine apple, whereof there be two kinds; a ſweet, and a tart, one.
Pomme de Curtin. A verie ſweet yellow apple, whereof excellent Cyder is made.
Pommes dorées. Golden apples, amorous apples, apples of loue.
Pomm' eſpineuſe. The thorne-apple, pricklie apple, apple of Peru.
Pomme de belle femme. The name of a beautifull, ſappie, and luſcious apple.
Pomme de Gay. A ſweet apple ſomewhat bitter, and little bigger then a Wallnut.
Pomme de Grenade. A Pomegranet.
Pomme d'Heroet. A kind of yellow, and ſweet apple, whereof good Cyder may be made.
Pomme de S. Iean. S. Johns apple; a kind of ſoone-ripe Sweeting.
Pomme de maligre, ou malingre. The Maligar apple; a ſouriſh fruit.
Pomme de merveilles. The male Balſam apple, apple of Ieruſalem, Baulme apple.
Pomme nonnette. A ſmall apple thats ripe ſooner then any other.
Pomme d'or. The golden apple, amorous apple, apple of Loue; the Quince hath alſo beene called, Pomme d'or.
Pomme de Paradis. Looke Paradis.
Pomme de Peru. The apple of Peru; the pricklie, or thorne-apple.
Pomme poire. A Peare-apple; a little ruſſet apple; and (as ſome hold) a Pearemaine.
Pomme rellet. The name of a ſoure apple.
Pomme de renette. See Renette.
Pomme de Rengelet. A certaine yellow Sweeting.
Pomme de rougelet. A kind of ſoure apple.
Pomme de rouveau. A Redding, or Summer Goulding.
Pomme de ſavon. A waſhing Ball.
Pomme ſauvage. A Crab, or Wilding.
Pomme de ſenteurs. A Pomander, or ſweet Ball.
Pomme terreſtre. The Mandrake apple.
Chou à pommes. A Cabbidge. Rab.
Pommé: m. ée: f. Growne round, or like an apple.
Pommeau: m. The pommell of a ſword, &c.
Pommeau de la jambe. The caulfe of the leg.
Pommeau d'une tour. The ball of a tower, the centre, or middle of the top thereof; that part whereon the weather-fane, or weather-cock is planted.
Pommelaye: f. as Pomelée.
Pommelé: m. ée: f. Daple, or dapled; alſo, round, or plumpe as an apple.
Temps pommelé. A curdled ſeaſon, or skie, wherein the aſſembled vapours appeare in thinne, and round flakes.
Pommelée. as Pomelée.
Pommeler. To grow round, or plumpe like an apple; alſo, to daple.
Pommelette: f. A little apple; alſo, a Daple.
Pommelle: f. The pommell of a ſword, &c.
Pommelu: m. uë: f. Plumpe, or round, as an apple.
Pommelure: f. Plumpeneſſe, roundneſſe; alſo, dapleneſſe.
Pommer. To grow round, or apple-like.
Pommeraye: f. An Orchard, an Apple-yard.
Pommette: f. A little apple; alſo, the ball of the cheeke.
La pommette du nez. The tip, or end of the noſe.
Piece à pommette. A little pleaſant rowle in the mouth of a Bitt.
Pommetté: m. ée: f. Pommetie; (a tearme of Blaſon.)
Pommeture: f. Pommeture; or the being Pommelie.
Pommeux: m. euſe: f. Full of apples.
Pommier: m. An Apple-tree.
Pommier ſauvage. A Crab tree.
Pomon. Looke Poulmon.
Pompe: f. Pompe, ſtate, ſolemnitie, maieſtie, ſumptuouſneſſe, magnificence, oſtentation; alſo, a Pumpe.
A pied de plomb, & de pompe. With a ſlow, and ſtatelie gate; or, as vnder Plomb.
Pomper. To pumpe.

Pompes: f. Armour, called Pullie-peeces, for the knees; alſo, Boſſes.

Pompette: f. A pumple, or pimple on the noſe, or chiune.

Pompette d'imprimeur. A Printers Pumpet-ball; the ball wherewith he beates, or layes Inke on, the Formes.

Pompeuſement. Pompouſly, magnificently, ſolemnely, ſumptuouſly, gorgiouſly.

Pompeux: m. euſe: f. Pompous, magnificent, ſtatelie, maieſticall; ſumptuous, gorgious, glorious.

Pompholige: f. Nil; the light oare, or foyle of Braſſe.

Pompile. A kind of Pourcontrell fiſh that ſwimmeth with her bellie vpwards; alſo, that kind of Tunnie which followeth ſhips while they are in the Mayne, and leaues them when they draw towards the ſhore.

Pompon: m. A Pumpion, or Melon.

Pompon d'hyver. Our ordinarie Winter Pumpion.

Pompon ſuccrin. A Muske Melon.

Pompon Turquin. A kind of darke-greene Melon.

Pomponne: f. The longeſt, and ſmootheſt kind of Pumpion.

Ponant: m. The Weſt.

Ponce. Pierre ponce. A Pumeiſe ſtone.

Ponceau: m. A little bridge; alſo, Corne-roſe, red Poppie; ſhadow Poppie.

Poncel: m. A little bridge.

Poncer. To ſmooth, poliſh, rub ouer, with a Pumeiſe ſtone.

Ponceure: f. A ſmoothing, poliſhing, rubbing ouer with a Pumeiſe ſtone.

Poncille: f. The Aſſyrian Citron; a fruit as big as two big Leymons; and of a verie good ſmell, but of a faint-ſweet, or wallowiſh taſte.

Poncite: f. A Pome-Citron.

Poncon: m. Halfe a Tunne; or, as Poinſon.

Ponctuel: m. elle: f. Punctuall, diſtinct, direct, exact.

Ponctuellement. Punctually, diſtinctly, point after point; directly, exactly, throughly.

Ponderamment. Ponderouſly, weightily, heauily.

Pondereux: m. euſe: f. Ponderous, heauie, weightie, burthenſome; maſſiue, ſubſtantiall; of great conſequence.

Ponderoſité: f. Ponderoſitie, or ponderouſneſſe, heauineſſe, weightineſſe, maſſiueneſſe.

Pondre. To lay (egges.)

Elle y peut bien pondre, mais elle n'y couvera pas. She may ſoiourne there for a while, but ſhe ſhall not continue long.

Geline qui poind, & ne pond pas. (Said of) an idle, vnprofitable, barren, curſt, or ſcolding, wife.

Il fait accroire que les lievres pondent, & font des oeufs; (Applyable to a moſt notorious lyer;) Seeke Lievre.

Pondu: m. uë: f. Layed, as an egge.

Poneau: m. A cloſe ſtoole.

Ponent: m. The Weſt; alſo, the arſe, tayle, bumme.

Poneropole. The Towne of the wicked. ¶Rab.

Pongneor. as Piqueur; (an old word.)

Ponhete. A kind of Vine.

Ponuereſſe. Geline pon. A laying Henne.

Ponneuſe. as Ponnereſſe.

Pont: m. A Bridge.

Pont aux aſnes. C'eſt le pont aux aſnes. (Applyable when ſuch as are ignorant of the true reaſon, or cauſe of things, impute them to witchcraft, fortune, &c,) a ſhift, euaſion, helpe at a pinch, for a dunce.

Pont aux aſnes de Logique. The conuerſion of Propoſitions. ¶Rab.

Pont de corde. The netting, or cloſe fight, of a Ship of warre.

Pont de Gournay. See Gournay.

Pont levis. A draw-bridge.

Conſcience à pont levis. A verie large conſcience.

Soulier à pont levis. A ſhooe hauing a Polonian, or high-raiſed, heele.

Pont volant. The ladder of a ſhip; the bridge, or ladder, whereby men get aboord her.

En pont, en planche, & en riviere, vallet devant, maiſtre derriere: Prov. Ore waters deepe, and bridges weake or hollow, the man muſt lead the way, the maiſter follow.

Le temps renverſe les ponts: Pro. In time are bridges (all things) ouerthrowne.

Vn fol deſſus vn pont eſt vn tambour en la riviere. A foole on a bridge is a drumme in a riuer; Looke Tambour.

Pontage: m. Bridge-worke, Bridge-making; alſo, Pontage, or Bridge-toll.

Pontail: m. as Pont volant.

Pontanage: m. Pontage; the toll taken for paſſage ouer a Bridge.

Ponte: f. A laying of egges.

Ponté: m. ée: f. Bridged; that hath a Bridge ouer it, or belonging to it.

Pontenage. as Pontanage.

Ponthieu. An Earledome in France, called thus becauſe there be many Bridges in it.

Pontif, & Pontife: m. A (chiefe) Biſhop, or Prelate; alſo, a Pontificall fellow.

Pontifical: m. ale: f. Pontificall, Prelate-like; lordlie, ſtatelie, ſumptuous.

Pontificalement. Pontifically, lordlily, ſtately, ſumptuouſly.

Pontificat: m. A Prelateſhip, or Prelacie; a chiefe Biſhopricke; the eſtate, function, or dignitie of a (chiefe) Biſhop, or Prelate.

Pontille: f. A pricke, or little point.

Pontique. Ponticall, or of Pontus, a part of Aſia; whence;

Noix Pontique. The red Filberd.

Pontis: m. A little Bridge.

Ponton: m. A Wherrie, or Ferrie-boat; alſo, a Stilling, or Gauntrie for Caske to ſtand on.

Pontonnier: m. A Ferrie-man.

Ponts. The name of a Towne in Saintonge, called ſo of the many Bridges about it.

Pontueux: m. euſe: f. Bridgie, full of Bridges.

Popelin: m. A little finicall darling.

Popelins. Soft cakes made of fine flower, kneaded with milke, ſweet butter, and yolkes of egges; and faſhioned, and buttered, like our Welſh Barrapyclids.

Popin: m. ine: f. Spruce, neat, briske, trimme, fine; quaint, nice, daintie, prettie.

Se Popinet. To trimme, or tricke vp himſelfe.

Popiſme: f. The popping, or ſmacking ſound wherewith Riders incourage, or cheriſh, their horſes.

Poplitée. as Poplitique.

Poplitique. A large veine in the middle of the thigh; alſo, a ſinew neere to the gartering place, and ſeruing to turne the leg inwards.

Populace: f. The raſcall people, baſe multitude, meaner ſort of the vulgar.
Populaire: m. The common people, the vulgar.
Populaire: com. Popular; people-fauouring, people-pleaſing, people-wooing; alſo, belonging to the people.
Populairement. Popularly.
Populeon. Popilion, or Pompillion; an ointment made of blacke Poplar buds.
Populeux: m. euſe: f. Populous, full of people.
Populo: m. A Roll, or Liſt of the fees, or augmentation of fees, accruing to the King by the Chauncerie Seale; made, and kept monthly, by one of the 54 Secretaries, or Clarkes of that Court; alſo, a prettie plump-faced, and cherrie-cheekt boy; or a repreſentation, or picture of ſuch a one; whereupon demaunding how a mans children doe, they ſay, Comment ſe portent vos petis populos?
Populoſité: f. Populoſitie, abundance of people.
Populotier: m. The Clarke of the Chauncerie, who, in his turne, is to make, and keepe the Populo.
Popyle. The fiſh Pourcontrell. ¶Rab.
Porc: m. A Porke, Hog, Swyne; alſo, Porke, or Swynes fleſh; alſo, a hard-skaled ſea-fiſh, reſembling a Gurnard; alſo, as Bernadet.
Porcs de Dieu. Biſhops, Abbots, and other Prelates, which haue great, and fat Benefices.
Porc eſpic. A Porcupine; See Porc-eſpi.
Porcs du Roy. Financiers, Exchequer men.
Du porc ſalé. Bakon, or Lard.
Groing de porc. The head, or vpper part of the ſhoulder-blade; alſo, the hearbe Dandelion, Prieſts Crowne, Piſſ-abed.
Homme de porc, & de bœuf. A clowne, boore, churle, carle; an vnmannerlie, groſſe-headed, ill-nurtured hynde.
C'eſt vn porc à l'auge. He feeds like a Hog, or ſo exceſſiuely as he is readie to burſt withall.
S'eſcoutant parler comme vn porc qui piſſe. (In deriſion of a ſelfe-affecting Fop;) Looke Parler.
Le porc a tout bon en ſoy fors que la merde: Pro. (Yet is the dung of a Hog an excellent remedie for bloud-ſpitting; but it muſt firſt be eaten, fryed with ſweet butter, and ſome of the bloudie ſpittle.)
Porcauſou. Sowſed Hogs fleſh. ¶Rab.
Porceau: m. A Hog, Porke, Swyne; Looke Pourceau.
Porcelaine: f. as Pourcelaine.
Porcelet: m. A Pig-hog, or young Hog.
Porcelet de S. Anthoine. A Cheſlop, or Woodlowſe.
Porcelet farci. A Pig roaſted, or boyled with a pudding in his bellie.
Porcelette: f. A ſhell-fiſh, called otherwiſe Pourcelaine; alſo, a kind of little Sturgeon.
Porc-eſpi: m. A Porcupine.
Porc-eſpi de mer. The ſea Porcupine; a certaine round fiſh armed all ouer with prickles.
Porche: f. A Porch.
Porche. In ſtead of Pource; (an old word.)
Porchereau: m. A ſea-Hog. ¶Rab.
Porcherie: f. A Hogs-ſtye.
Porchet: m. A ſtake, or pole.
Porchier: m. A Hog-heard, or Swyne-heard.
Porchin: m. ine: f. Of a Hog, like a Hog; whence;
Taiſſon porchin. A Hog-badger; Looke Taiſſon.
Porcille: f. A ſea-Hog.
Porcin: m. ine: f. Hoggiſh, of Hogs, belonging, or like, vnto Hogs.
Beſtes porcines. Swyne, Hogs.
Pain porcin. The hearbe Sow-bread, Swynes-bread, Hogs-bread.
Porcorau: m. The moſſe, or moſſie hearbe, called Liuerwort.
Pore: m. A pore; Looke Pores.
Poreau: m. A wart; alſo, as Cal; or any corne, or hard skinne, comming by labor on the hands, or feet.
Porée: f. as Porrée. Beetes; alſo, pot-hearbes; and thence alſo, pottage made of Beetes, or with other hearbes.
Femme lechereſſe ne fera ja porée eſpaiſſe: Prov. A lickorous houſwife ſeldome makes thicke pottage.
On ne fait pas de rien graſſe porée: Prov. Fat broth cannot be made of nothing.
Pores: m. Pores; the ſmall, and inuiſible holes in the skinne, through which the ſweat, and vapours paſſe out of the bodie.
Poreux: m. euſe: f. Poric, full of pores; alſo, feare-full.
Porfil. as Pourfil.
Porfile: f. The verie middle, or middle line of a mans face, conſidered from top to bottome; that part whereat a iuſt diuiſion may be made thereof.
En porfile. Side-wayes; &, Face repreſentée en porfile. A halfe-faced, or ſide-faced, picture.
Porfiler. as Pourfiler.
Porion: m. The wild Bulbus, wild Onyon, Corne-Leeke, wild Leeke, Bullpine, Starre of Bethlem.
Poroſité: f. Porineſſe, the being full of pores.
Poroſitez. Pores.
Porphire. as Porphyre.
Porphirion: m. A certaine red-beaked, and long-legd bird, which in drinking ſeemes to bite the water.
Porphyre. Porphirie; a darke-red marble ſpotted with white; alſo, an Eaſt-Indian, toothleſſe, white-headed, and purple-bodied Serpent, whoſe vomit is moſt venomous.
Porque: f. A Sow.
Porque: com. Hoggiſh; or, Sow-like.
Porquet: m. A Porket, or ſhote Pig; alſo, young Porke.
Porquette: f. A Pig, or young Porke.
Porracé: m. ée: f. Greene as a Leeke; of a Leeke; made like a Leeke.
Porreau: m. A Leeke; alſo, a Wart.
Porreau de chien. Dogs Leeke, wild Leeke, French Leeke, Leeke of the Vine.
Porreau ſectil, ou tondu. The cut Leeke, maidens Leeke, blade Leeke, vnſet Leeke.
Porreau teſtu. The headed or knobbed Leeke, ſet Leeke, vncut Leeke.
Porreau de vigne. The Leeke of the Vine, dogs Leeke, French Leeke.
Petit porreau. as Porreau ſectil.
Bourſe liée avec fueilles de porreaux. A purſe thats readie, or eaſie, to be opened.
Porrée: f. The hearbe called Beet, or Beetes; alſo, as Porée.
Porrée blanche. The common white Beet.
Porrée de chien. as Porreau de chien.
Porrée noire. The blacke Beet; an hearbe, whoſe boyled root cures all manner of itches; and is good againſt the ſtinging of Serpents.
Porrée de pré. Hearbe Pyrola, Winter-greene.
Porrée rouge. The hearbe called Blite, or Blits; alſo, the red Beet, Romane Beet.
Porrette: f. Maidens Leeke, bladed Leeke, vnſet Leeke.
Vigne porrette. as Porreau de chien.

Porreux: m. euſe: f. Porie, full of pores.
Porriere: f. A bed of Leekes.
Porrion. as Porion.
Port: m. A Port, Hauen, or Harbour for Ships; alſo, carriage, bearing, or bringing; alſo, cuſtome, fraight, or a fare payed for carriage; alſo, the carriage, behauior, or demeanour of a man; alſo, his port, or ſtate; or, the fauour, or good opinion which he hath in the world.
Maiſtre des Ports. Looke Maiſtre.
Par port d'armes. Violently, in hoſtile manner, by force of armes, or by maine force.
Nul vent ne fait pour celuy qui n'a point de port deſtiné: Prov. No wind ſerues him that hath no certaine hauen.
Portache. as Procace.
Portage: m. Portage, carriage, or a carrying; alſo, the cuſtome, toll, fraight, fare, or fee, payed for carriage.
Portail: m. A Portall for a dore.
Portant: m. ante: f. Carrying, bearing; alſo, wearing.
Le fort portant le foible. One with another, or one helping the other; good and bad, weake and ſtrong, altogether.
L'un portant l'autre. The ſame.
Portatif: m. iue: f. Portatiue; alſo, wieldie, or liuelie of bodie.
Iardin portatif. A fruitfull garden.
Livre portatif. A pocket-booke.
Portatisse. Portatiue, portable, carryable.
Port'-aubans: m. Chaine-wales; peeces of wood nayled on both the outſides of a Ship, to keepe them from being worne, or galled by the Shrowdes.
Porte: f. A Port, or Gate; a great, or outward, doore; any entrance, or way to enter at; alſo, a hautber, or eye; alſo, the port of a ſword hilt.
La porte des champs. The backe-doore, or field-doore, of a country houſe.
Droict de porte. Gate-money; a dutie payed by the ſchollers of Paris at their admiſſion into a Colledge.
Fauſſe porte. An inner gate, or doore; alſo, a poſterne gate, or backe doore.
Veine porte. Looke Veine.
Donner de la porte ſur le nez à. To exclude, ſhut a doore againſt, or ſhut out of doores.
Tout cela eſt frappé à la porte d'un treſpaſſé. All thats but loſſe of time, or labour loſt.
Hardiment heurte à la porte qui bonne nouvelle apporte: Pro. He that good tidings beares full boldly knocketh.
Les derniers venus ferment les portes: Prov. The laſt commer latches the doore, maketh all ſure.
Trop toſt vient à la porte qui mauvaiſe nouvelle apporte: Prov. Too ſoone arriues he that ill tidings hath.
Porté: m. ée: f. Carried, borne, conueyed; vpheld, ſuſtained; indured; alſo, worne; alſo, hit; whence;
Ce coup n'a pas porté. This blow hath fayled, or miſſed.
A pied tout porté, pour. Forward, readie, on his way, to.
Il y eſt expreſſément porté, que. There is expreſſe mention made, or charge giuen, of, thereby it is expreſſely meant, or ſignified, that.
Tout cela s'eſtoit fort bien porté, iuſques. Was paſſing well handled, or managed; went verie well on, vntill.

Porte-brandons. Fierie, flaming, light; whence;
Ciel por. The ſtarrie Welkin, the cleere Sky.
Porte-chappe: m. A Cope-wearer; a Prieſt, or one that by his place doth often weare a Cope; alſo, a feaſt-furniſher; one that hires out all manner of naperie and veſſell, & all other prouiſion whatſoeuer (except victuals) fit for the ſetting out of a feaſt.
Porte-ciel. Heauen-bearing, Sky-vpholding; (An Epithete for Atlas.)
Porte-colle. as Protecole.
Portée: f. The burthen, or fruit of a womans wombe; the brood, or litter of a beaſt; alſo, the breeding, bearing, or bringing forth of young; alſo, wit, capacitie, vnderſtanding; alſo, the ſtate, qualitie, condition, or abilitie, of an eſtate, bodie, &c; alſo, power, or abilitie to requite; alſo, a certaine land-meaſure comprehending 12 cords (of 30 feet to the cord) and vſed moſt in Burgundie.
La portée d'un Arquebuſe. The reach thereof; or, as farre as it will ſhoot; whence;
Sous la portée de l'Arquebuſe. Within Caleeuer ſhot.
Cela eſt cauſe de plus grande portée. That cauſeth a greater increaſe of fruits, &c.
Il n'a plus de ſçavoir acquis que ce qu'il en faut pour ſa portée. He hath got no more skill then he needs.
Portées. The boughes which a Deere bruſeth, or beareth downe, with his head in trauerſing of thickets.
Courir vn cerf ſur les portées. To purſue a Deere with noſe aloft.
Porte-eſcritoire: m. A Notaries boy; one that ſerues but to carrie his pen and inkhorne after him.
Port'-eſpée: f. A Sword-bearer; one that carries a ſword before, or after, another; alſo, a Bawdricke, or Hanger, for a ſword.
Porte-faix: m. A Porter; Pedler; Burthen-bearer.
Porte-flambeaux. Ciel port. The ſtarrie, flaming, or bright Sky.
Porte-fleurs. Flouriſhing, flower-bearing; whence;
Element porte-fleurs. The earth.
Porte-fraise: m. A Rebato, or ſupporter for a Ruffe; wrought, or imbrodered, and cut into diuers panes.
Porte-guidon: m. An Enſigne-beaier vnto a troope of men of Armes.
Porte-harnois: m. A Croſſe; the croſſe-like Pearch whereon an Armor is vſually hanged.
Porte-haubant. as Port'-aubans.
Porte-manteau: m. A Port-mantue, Cloake-bag, Male; alſo, the carrier of a Cloake, or a Cloake-bag-carrier.
Porte-manteau du Roy. The Kings Cloake-bag-bearer.
Portement: m. A carrying, bearing; wearing; ſupporting, vpholding; alſo, health, or liking.
Porte-mors: m. The cheeke-peece, or checke-band, of a Bridle.
Portente: m. A prodigious, or monſtrous thing.
Portenteux: m. euſe: f. Prodigious, monſtrous, maruelous, aſtoniſhing, ſtrange.
Porte-panier: m. A basket-carrier; alſo, a Pedler.
Porte-parole. A meſſage-carrier betweene partie and partie.
Port-peine: com. Laborious, painefull, paines-taking.
Porte-piece: f. A Shoomakers Punch, or Punchion.

Porte-poche. A bag-bearer, pouch-bearer, or poke-bearer; he that carries the scrip, or wallet for a companie of beggers.

Porte-poulet. A bawde, or carrier of loue-messages.

Porte-queuë. A Trayne-bearer to a Prince.

Porter. To carrie, or beare; also, to weare; also, to breed, or bring forth; also, to suffer, abide, indure; also, to sustaine, support, vphold; also (at once) to raise, maintaine, and put forward, a doing horse; also (at Tennis) a ball to rise.

Se porter bien. To be in good health.

Se porter bien en vn affaire. To behaue, or bestirre himselfe well in a businesse.

Porter son bois. Elle porte bien son bois. Looke Bois.

Porter vne chemise blanche à. To giue a mornings camisado, or a cold pie for a breakfast, vnto; to rowse with a pox, raise out of bed with a vengeance.

Porter coup. To hit home, to attaine vnto that it was directed to, or meant for.

Porter coup à la foy. To falsifie a promise, or faith, giuen.

Porter droict contre. Directly to ayme at, or flye against; to direct it selfe, or goe leuell vnto.

Porter à deux espaules. Inconstantly to follow sometimes one, sometimes his enemie; or to be of both sides, but true vnto neither.

Porter sur ses espaules. Looke Espaule.

Porter l'esponge sur. To deface, blot, put out.

Porter faux. Ce leu porte faux. This Tennis-court is full of false bounds.

Porter le flambeau. Seeke Flambeau.

Porter la foy. To doe fealtie.

Porter des fueilles au bois. To bestow any thing on them that need it not; or of whom (therefore) he shall haue no thanks for it.

Porter gré à. To acknowledge a beholdingnesse vnto.

Porter lour. To be transparent.

Porter la marotte de. To be the author, or commaunder of.

Porter ombre. To giue, yeeld, or cast a shadow.

Porter son pacquet. See Pacquet.

Porter la paste au four. Il en porta la paste au four. He bore the blame, or burthen of it; twas he that payed, or smarted, for it.

Porter vertu. To be of an excellent nature, or propertie; to haue much vertue in it.

Ils n'en dirent plus que leurs instructions s'en portoyent. They sayed no more of it then their instructions gaue them warrant for.

Il n'est pas si fol qu'il en porte l'habit. He is not so fond as one would take him for, as outwardly he seemes, or as one would thinke him to be by his outside.

Qui rien ne porte rien ne luy chet: Prov. He that carries naught lets nothing fall.

Portereau: m. A little, or lesse gate adioyning vnto a greater, for a Palace, or House of State; also, a floudgate, or kind of sluice, whereby the course of a Riuer is diuerted into a gut, on the one side thereof cut out, for the turning of some Mill, &c; also, the name of a street in the Suburbes of Orleans.

Porte-roolle: m. A prompter of one that makes an Oration, or acts a part, in publicke.

Porte-sac. as Porte-poche.

Porte-semelle. The vpper leather of a Buskin; which we now call a Galoche, though improperly; for the true Galoche (sayes Nicot*) hath no leather belonging to it.*

Portestrieux. The plate of a stirrup.

Porte-tablettes. A Pedlar; or one that carries Table-bookes, &c, to sell.

Porteur: m. A carrier, bearer; bringer, wearer.

Porteurs de choesne. Looke Choesne.

Porteur de Rogatons. One that carries the Popes Pardons vp and downe a countrey; also, a wandering, and vnlearned Preacher, who bearing about with him some three or foure Sermons in his pocket, and preaching them at seuerall places, gaineth an opinion of great learning among the vulgar.

Croyez ce porteur. (The contents, or conclusion of a letter of credit; but vsed sometimes in a contrarie sence for) beleeue the lyer.

Porteure d'une femme. A womans burthen, or child-bearing.

Portier: m. A Porter.

Portier: m. ere: f. Carrying, bearing; whence, Brebis portiere. A bearing Ewe.

Portiere: f. A Portereſſe, or woman Porter; also, the boot of a Coach, &c; also, a peece of Tapistrie, &c, hung before a doore; also, the female Salmon; Looke Bortiere.

Portinal: m. A Portall.

Portion: f. A portion, share, part, parcell, peece, deale, rate; measure, quantitie, proportion.

Portionistе: m. A Prebend in a Cathedrall Church.

Portionné: m. ée: f. Apportioned, rated, shared; measured out; also, stinted, or whose portion is layed out, or deliuered.

Portionner. To apportion, part, share, deale, measure, diuide, rate out.

Portique: m. An open Porch, Portall, or walking place before a house, couered ouer head by a roofe borne vp with pillars.

Portiuncule: f. *An Indulgence obtained (as some report) by S.*Francis, of the Virgin Mary, for the remission of all the sinnes of those, who (en payant) came in at one, and went out at another, doore of a Church dedicated vnto her in Angiers.

Le Portoir des vignes. The braunch that beares the grapes.

Portoire: f. Any thing that helpes to carry another thing; as a Voyder, Skep, Scuttle, Wheelebarrow, &c; and particularly, a vessell somewhat resembling a halfe Tub, wherein grapes be carried on horsebacke from a remote Vineyard.

La portoire d'une coche. The space of the doore of a Coach.

Portoüoire. A hand-barrow; or, as Portoire.

Portüeux: m. euse: f. Full of Ports; belonging vnto a Hauen.

Portugaise: f. A Portegue; a golden coyne worth about iij l. x s. sterl.

Portugalle, & Portugaloise. as Portugaise.

Porture: f. A carrying, bearing; wearing.

La porture d'une brebis. The little skinne, or filme, wherein a Lambe comes wrapped out of the Ewes bellie.

Posade: f. A lighting downe of birds; a laying downe of a burthen; a breathing, resting, or a resting place; also, a stop made by a horse, aduancing withall his foreparts twice, or thrice.

Estre à la posade. To pawse, to repose himselfe; to be still, or sit still.

Pose: f. A pawse, intermission, stop, ceasing; repose, resting.

Posé: m. ée: f. Put, set, layed, pight, placed, fixed, planted, scited, seated, situate; also, temperate, stayed, or settled in humor.

Posé le cas. Suppose, allow, put the case.

Posément: m. A putting, setting, pitching, placing, seating, settling, planting.

Posément. Settledly, stayedly.

Poser. To put, pitch, place; to seat, settle, plant; to stay, or leane on; to set, or lay downe; also, a horse to stop, and aduaunce withall his fore-parts.

Poser du passement. To lay it flat; Le poser à bord rond. To lay it swelling, or so as no edge thereof can be seene.

Position: f. A position; or, as Posement.

Posque: f. A potion, or drinke made of vineger and water.

Possedé: m. ée: f. Possessed, had, held, enioyed, vsed, occupied.

Posseder. To possesse, haue, hold, vse, occupy, enioy.

Possessereſſe: f. A possessereſſe; a woman that possesses, holds, enioyes.

Possesseur: m. A possessor, holder, enioyer, vser, owner, of.

Possesseur de bonne foy. One that holds a thing by a iust title, as he thinkes.

Possesseur de mauvaise foy. A disseisor; one that violently, and wilfully keepes another man from his owne.

Possesseuse. as Possessereſſe.

Possession: f. Possession, vse, occupation, enioyment of; also, wealth, substance, or land possessed.

Possessoire: m. A possession, or thing possessed.

Possessoire: com. Possessorie, of possession, by way of possession.

Possibilité: f. Possibilitie, likelihood.

Possible: com. Likelie, possible, that may be.

Faire son possible. To doe his vtmost indeauor, to doe as much as he can.

Poſſon: m. The quarter of a Chopine; a little measure for milke, veriuice, and vineger, not altogether so big as the quarter of our Pint.

Poſte: m. A Poste, Currier, speedie messenger; also, a seruant that goes vp and downe about the businesses of Nunnes; also, a rakehell, or Colledge-seruant, thats euer gadding, or ietting abroad.

Poſte de mer. A great, and swift fish, called in Latin Dromas; which name is also, by diuers Authors, giuen to all swift, raunging, and restlesse fishes, as the Amie, Bonito, Tunnie, &c.

Poſte: f. Post, posting, the riding post; as also, the furniture that belongs vnto posting; also, a post, or great stake; also, a broad, and thicke pale, hauing a pike in the bottome, & a hole in the middle for a shot to play through; vsed in approaches vnto a breach.

Gens de poſte. Yeomen, Roturiers, vnnoble vaßalls or tenants, ignoble persons.

A poſte. Expressely, of set purpose, with premeditation, for the nonce.

A ma poſte. Vnto my liking, after my mind, according to my humor, euen as I would haue it.

Poſteau: m. A poste, or beame.

Poſtelé. as Poupelé.

Poſter. To post, speed, ride post, make post haste.

Poſteral. See Posterol.

Poſteres. The Posteriorums, or hinder parts.

Poſterieur: m. eure: f. Posterior, hinder, latter, lag, succeeding; inferior.

Poſterité: f. Posteritie, off-spring; they that are to came of, or will come after, vs.

Poſterol: m. The red sea-Nettle; an ouglie, and imperfect sea-fish, not much vnlike to a mans bung-hole.

Poſtes: f. Big haile-shot for Herons, Geese, and other such great fowle.

Poſteux: m. euſe: f. Hastie, full of hast, in post hast.

Pôſthume: com. Borne after a fathers death.

Poſtidate. A Post-date.

Poſtille: f. A postill, glosse, compendious exposition.

Poſtilleux: m. euſe: f. Much vsing, or louing, to ride post.

Poſtillon: m. A Postillon, Guide, Postes boy.

Corrompu comme la fesſe d' un poſtillon. A false lad; one that knowes the world throughly; one that hath drunke of many waters, runne through many dangers; one that hath often passed the pikes.

Poſtillonner. To ride post.

Poſtiquer. To play the vagrant Impostor, wandering Iugler.

Poſtiqueries: f. Cousening sleights, iugling deuises, impostures, tricks of Legerdemaine.

Poſtiqueur: m. A wandering Impostor, a roguing Jugler; a vagrant cousener, cheater, deceiuer.

Poſtposé: m. ée: f. Postposed; set, or left, behind; neglected, omitted.

Poſtposer. To set, or leaue behind; to esteeme lesse, or make lesse account of; to neglect in comparison, omit in regard, of another.

Poſtulation: f. A demaund, suit, request, supplication; also, a complaint, or expostulation.

Poſtulé: m. ée: f. Demaunded, required, sued for; also, admitted, elected, adopted; also, ioyned in office, linked in companie, with.

Poſtuler. To sue, demaund, require; also, to plead, or argue at the Barre; also, to sue, accuse, or complaine of.

Poſtules: f. Wheales, powkes.

Poſtuleux: m. euſe: f. Full of wheales, or powkes.

Poſturable: com. Sequestrable, &c; as in Beſte miſe en poſture.

Poſture: f. The posture, setting, or settling of the bodie in, or before, any action; and hence, the ward, or manner of lying or standing, vsed by fencers; also, the place wherein a horse carries his head, or creast, or the carriage of his head, or creast.

Beſte miſe en poſture. Sequestred; left, or bestowed with one, who vndertakes to keepe it safe, and to produce, or present it in Court whensoeuer it shall be called for.

Pot: m. A Pot (of what fashion soeuer) is properly a generall name for any small vessell wherein wine, beere, water, &c, readie to be drunke is vsually put; (and yet the French apply it also vnto small vessels, wherein other liquors, and sometimes vnliquid things, are kept;) also, particularly, one of a certaine scantling (verie neere our Gallon;) for iust 400 of them doe make a Queuë; also, a round Caske, or head-peece without any creast.

Pot à deux anſes. An equiuocation; a word, or matter whereof double construction may be made.

Pot à confitures. A Comfet-box.

Pot à l'eau. A water-pot; and (more particularly) a Lauer, or Yewer.

Pot de Lion. A Chafer.

Pot à piſſer. A Jurden, Chamber-pot, Piſſe-pot.

Pot à plume. A feather-pot; an old pot wherein to the French (as we into an old tub) commonly put feathers; and hence the Prouerbe, Vieil comme vn pot à plume.

Pot pourri. A pot porride; a Spaniſh diſh of many ſeuerall meates boyled, or ſtued together.
Pot aux roſes. A miſterie, ſecret, hidden matter; a cloake, or couer vnto many knaueries.
Pot de la teſte. The ſcalpe, or skull.
Pot au vin. The head. ¶Rab.
Pot de vin. A pot-full of Wine; alſo, a reward giuen for good newes brought, loſt goods reſtored, a bargaine well driuen, or in reſpect of any other acceptable ſeruice; alſo, a portion beſtowed with a maid in marriage.
`A pot, & à feu. At bed and boord, at meat and meale, as one of the houſe; or, as all of one houſe; and hence;
Vivre à pot, & à feu avec. To keepe companie, haue ſocietie, hold correſpondencie, with.
Aller à l'entour du pot. To vſe many circumſtances, to goe about the buſh; or, by circuit of words to inſinuate that which one dares not plainely deliuer.
Ils ne font qu'un pot, & vn feu. They liue continually together.
Deux pots au feu ſignifient feſte, & deux femmes font la tempeſte: Prov. Two pots a feaſt preſage, two women mickle rage.
Tel pot tel couvercle: Pro. Such pot ſuch couer; like will to like, quoth the Diuell to the Collier.
Il n'y a rien tel qu'un vieil pot à faire la bonne ſoupe: Pro. Looke Vieil.

Potable: com. Potable, drinkable.
Potage: m. Pottage, porridge.
Potage de la bite. Beet pottage; alſo, the oyle of man; an oyle which a woman ſhould not (vntawfully) taſt of.
Pour tout potage. When all is done, when all comes t'all; alſo, for all-purpoſes.
C'eſt vn vilain pour tout potage. This is a notable raſcall, a notorious villaine, a verier knaue there liues not.
Bon gaignage fait bon potage: Prov. See Gaignage.
De mauvaiſe viande on ne ſçait faire vn bon potage: Pro. Ill ſtuffe will not affoord good worke.
Potagé: m. ée: f. Made pottage, reduced into pottage.
Potager: m. A by-place in a countrey houſe, in ſtead of a Larder, for the laying vp of raw, or cold meates; alſo, a porridge-bellie, or a great porridge-eater.
Potager: m, ere: f. Of, or belonging vnto, pottage.
Herbes potageres. Pot-hearbes.
Vie potagere. Life ſuſtained onely by pottage.
Vis potagere. A ſtaire that leades vnto the Larder of a countrey houſe.
Potager. To make pottage; alſo, to haue in his power.
Se potager. To play the good husband, or giue himſelfe wholly to husbandrie; to apply his buſineſſe at home.
Potagerie: f. Hearbes, or any other ſtuffe whereof pottage is made.
Potatif. Pot-plying, tipling ſquare.
Pote: f. The great ſea-Nettle; an ouglie fiſh. ¶Provenc.
Gens de pote. or Gens de poſte.
Pote: com. Clumpſe, benummed, or ſwollen, with cold.
Poté: m. ée: f. Plumpe, or plumme, full-round.
Potée: f. Braſſe, Copper, Tinne, Pewter, &c, burnt, or calcinated; alſo, a pot-full of any thing.
Potein. Lame, or defective in a limme, naturally.
Potelé: m. ée: f. Plumpe, full, fat, fleſhie, plumme.
Potelée: f. Fulneſſe, or plumpneſſe of fleſh.
Potence: f. A Gibbet; alſo, a Crutch for a lame man.
Baſton de potence. The ſtaffe whereat a Ring to be runne at hangeth.
Potencé: m. ée: f. Like, or belonging, to a Gibbet, or Crutch; In Blaſon, potencie; or, as in;
Champaigne potencée. A Barre Miere.
Croix potencée. A croſſe Batune.
Potentat: m. A Potentate, great Lord, mightie Perſonage, powerfull man, in a State.
Potentiel: m. elle: f. Strong, forcible, powerfull in operation.
Cautere potentiel. A potentiall Cauter; any cauſtick medicine, or compound.
Potentille: f. Wild Tanſie, Siluer weed.
Poterie: f. A pot-market; alſo, a Potters ſhop; alſo, a place wherein pots are made; alſo, pot-making.
Poterne: f. A Poſterne, or poſterne gate; a backe-doore to a Fort, &c.
Potes. A kind of ſhining fiſh made ſomewhat like a cap; it hath eight feet, and being handled any while, melts like Ice.
Poteſtat: m. A Poteſtat, principall Officer, chiefe Magiſtrate.
Potie: f. A knot in Woollen cloth; or, a rotten thread, or threads end, readie to fall from cloth.
Potié. as Poupelé.
Potier: m. A Potter, or Pot-maker.
Potier d'eſtain. A Pewterer.
Potieux: m. euſe: f. Ouer-daintie, curious, queaſie-ſtomacked, nice; alſo, peeuiſh, froward, wayward, pettiſh, hard to pleaſe, content with nothing that is offered, or ſet before, him.
Potingues. Drinking exploits. ¶Rab.
Potion: f. A potion; a Phiſicall drinke, or drench.
Potiron: m. A Muſhrome, or Toadſtoole; alſo, a kind of Dolphin-like fiſh.
Potonnier. as Pautonnier.
Pottée: f. A potfull of; alſo, as Potée.
Pottein: m. Broken peeces of mettall, or of old veſſels, mingled one with another.
Pottelé. as Potelé.
Pottin: m. Solder of mettall; or, as Pottein.
Potus: m. Phiſicall potions.
Pouac. Faugh; an Interiection vſed when any filthie thing is ſhewed, or ſayed.
Poüacre. A filthie ſcabbineſſe on the noſe, or about the muzzle of a Sheepe; Looke Poacre; alſo, a kind of Woodland fowle.
Poüacre: com. Sniuellie, ſnottie, rotten, filthie; one that, without reſpect of any preſence, is euer ſpitting, ſpattering, or blowing his noſe; and hence alſo, lither, lazie, ſloathfull, idle.
Pouallier. as Poallier.
Pouce. Looke Poulce.
Poucher. as Pocher.
Pouciniere. Seeke Poulſiniere.
Poucin: m. A Chicken.
Pouctau: m. The wild Poppie, Corne-roſe, red Corne-roſe.
Poucyrade: f. The hearbe called, Baulme.
Poudre, & Poudroyer. Looke Pouldre, & Pouldroyer.
Poudrier: m. A Gunpowder-maker; alſo, a duſt-box.
Poveau: m. The panne of a cloſe-ſtoole.
Pouëe: f. The ridge of a bed in a Vineyard.
Poüelle: f. A ſtoue, or Hot-houſe.
Pouër. To mount, aſcend, goe vp; or, to bale as Barge-men doe againſt winde & tide; alſo, to pile, or heap vp; whence;
Pouër la vigne. To raiſe the beds of a Vineyard into ridges.
Pouillard: m. arde: f. Lowſie.

Pouille:

Pouille : A part of Naples, whose inhabitants are held verie dangerous in conuerſation; whence the Prouerbe; Compere de la Pouille couſte, & deſpouille.

Blanc de Pouille. Ceruſe, or white Lead.

Pouiller. To lowſe, to picke out lice, to wait, or looke into, a head, for lice.

Pouillerie : f. Lowſineſſe; alſo, beggerie; ſluttiſh, or naſtie pouertie.

Ce n'eſt que toute pouillerie. There's no one good, nor faire peece; there's nought but traſh, in all his ſtuffe.

Pouilles : f. Lice : ¶Bourg.

Chanter, ou dire pouilles. To raile, reproach, reuile, giue moſt filthie words.

Pouilleux : m. euſe : f. Lowſie, full of lice; alſo, beggerlie, of ſmall, or no, meanes.

Herbe aux pouilleux. Lice-bane, Lowſe-wort, Lowſe-powder, Staueſaker.

Poul : m. A lowſe; alſo, the Ninmurder, a yellowiſh bird, and the ſmalleſt of birds.

Poul de mer. The ſea Lowſe; a fiſh thats no bigger then a beane.

Herbe aux poulx. as Herbe aux pouilleux.

Poulaille : f. Poultrie; Hennes, Chickens.

Poulailler. A Henne-houſe, or Henne-rooſt.

Poulaillerie : f. Poultrie.

Poulaillier : m. A Poulter; alſo, a breeder, or keeper of Poultrie.

Poulain : m. A fole, or coult; alſo, the rope wherewith wine is let downe into a ſeller; a pullie rope; alſo, a botch in the groine, a Winchеſter Gooſe.

Pied de poulain. Fole-foot, Coults-foot, Horſe-foot, Hall-foot, (an hearbe.)

Ce que poulain prend en dompure, il le maintient tant comme il dure : Prov. The tricks a coult getteth at his firſt backing, will while he continueth neuer be lacking.

Rien ne vaut poulain s'il ne rompt ſon lien : Prov. The coult that breakes not his halter is not worth a halfepenie.

Poulainant. Foling, as a mare.

Poulaine : f. Whence; Souliers à poulaine. Old faſhioned ſhooes, held on the feet by ſingle latchets running ouerthwart th'inſtap, which otherwiſe were all open; alſo, thoſe that had a faſhion of long bookes ſticking out at th'end of their toes.

Ventre à la poulaine. A gutching, or huge, bellie; a bellie as big as a tunne.

Poulainement : m. A foling.

Poulainer. (A mare) to fole.

Poulce : m. The thumbe.

Le poulce du pied. The great toe.

Poulce, & event, ou vent. The breadth of a thumbe giuen betweene euerie yard, in meaſuring.

A poulce eſtant. The ſame.

Les poulces à la ceincture. Idlely, ſloathfully, careleſly.

Mordre les poulces. To bite his thumbes for anger.

Poulcée : f. An inch, or inch-meaſure; the breadth of a thumbe.

Poulceon : m. The 4 part of a Chopine, a verie ſmall meaſure, ſeldome vſed except it be for the gaging of the little Demi-lenier, whereof it maketh a twelfth part.

Poulcepied : m. The Pourcontrell, Proke, or many footed fiſh.

Poulcier : m. as Poulcée.

Pouldre : f. Powder, duſt.

Pouldre Agrippine. Any meat that prouokes, or enables, vnto luſt.

Pouldre blanche. A powder compounded of Ginger, Cinnamon, and Nutmegs; much in vſe among Cookes.

Pouldre de duc. A powder made of Sugar and Cinnamon, & hauing (ſometimes) other Aromaticall ſimples added vnto them.

Pouldre à gripper. Any luxurious, or laſcinious meat.

Pouldre de Pouſſol. A kind of ſand gotte at Pouſſole, hard by Naples; & vſed in the cutting of Marbles.

Pouldre rouge. Precipitate, ſublimed, or calcinated, Quickeſiluer.

Il iettera à tous les autres la pouldre aux yeux. He will outſtrip all his competitors, the victorie will without doubt be his; (metaphorically, from the ſwifteſt runner in a ſandie race, who to make his fellowes follow aloofe, caſteth duſt with his heeles into their enuious eyes.)

Pouldré : m. ée : f. Powdered, beduſted.

Pouldrement : m. A powdering; a turning into powder.

Pouldrer. To powder; duſt, or beduſt; to make, beat, or turne into; to ſeaſon, ſprinkle, or dredge with, powder, or duſt.

Pouldrette : f. Fine powder, ſmall duſt.

Temps de pouldrette. The ſeaſon wherein a huſbandman breakes the clods of his plowed land.

Pouldreux : m. euſe : f. Duſtie, full of duſt.

Avoir le pieds pouldreux. To be of a nimble or actiue conſtitution, a ſtragling or wandering diſpoſition; ſaid alſo of one who being in further debt then he hath will, or meanes, to come out of, playes, for the moſt part, leaſt in ſight.

Pouldrier : m. A duſt-bag; alſo, a Gunpowder maker.

Pouldriere : f. Duſt, or duſtineſſe.

Pouldroyement : m. A pulueriſing; or powdering; a reducing vnto duſt, or into powder.

Pouldroyer. To pulueriſe; to make, or turne into powder, or duſt.

Poule : f. A Henne.

Poule d'eau. A Coot, Moorehenne, Fenducke.

Poule grieſche. A Moorehenne; the henne of the Grice, or Mooregame.

Poule d'Inde. A Turkie henne.

Poule Lombarde. A Kentiſh henne, a great henne, a henne of the Game.

Poule de mer. A ſmall-mouthed, ſharpe-toothed, broad-ſided, little-eyed, rocke-fiſh; whoſe finnes bee tranſparent, and both they, and her whole bodie, powdered ouer with beautifull, and ſundrie-coloured ſpots.

La poule, & les poulſins. The ſeuen ſtarres.

Cul de poule. The tops of the fingers, and thumbioyned, or cloſed together; alſo, a hard ſwelling on th'edge of a Fiſtula.

Docte annicheur de poules. An excellent Colqueane.

Courir la poule. To forrage, ranſacke, or rob countrey houſes; (from the cuſtome of rauening ſouldiers, who leaue not a Henne where they come.)

Faire la poule. To play the coward.

Faire de ſes oeufs poules. Looke Oeuf.

Iamais mauvaiſe poule ne le couva. He is of a gentle, or gentlemanlie humour; he hath no one iot of ill breeding in him.

De poules, & de pauvreté on en eſt bien toſt engé: Prov. Pulleine, and pouerſie are quickly increaſed.

Le regnard eſt pris laſche les poules: Prov. Looke Regnard.

Le regnard preſche aux poules: Pro. (Sayed when a notable Impoſter talks vnto, or treats with, ſillie and ignorant people.)

Par trop trotter la poule, & la femme ſe perdent facilement: Prov. Women, and hennes, that gad ore-much, are quickly loſt.

Qui ſuit les poules apprend à grater la terre: Pro. He that followes a benne ſoone learnes to ſcrape; imitation is, moſt commonly, too good a Schoolemiſtreſſe.

Tel perd l'appareil d'vne poule à faute d'achepter pour vn liard d'eſpices: Prov. Some by the ſparing of a little coſt, bereaue themſelues of daintie food, and roſt.

Poulemart: m. A weapon like a Hanger.

A fil de poulemart. With th'edge, or dint of the ſword.

Poulener. as Poulainer.

Poulenne. See Poulaine.

Poulet: m. A chicken; alſo, a loue-letter, or loue-meſſage.

Veau mal cuict, & poulets cruds, font les cimitieres boſſus: Prov. Raw veale, and chickens, make ſwelling Churchyards.

Poulette: f. A pullet, or young henne.

Poulie: f. A pullie.

Poulier: m. A Poulter; alſo, a brood-houſe, henne-houſe, or henne-rooſt; alſo, as Bicoque.

Poulinement: m. A foling.

Pouliner. A mare to fole, or bring forth a coult.

Poulion: m. A little pullie.

Pouliot: m. Penniroyall, Pulial royall, pudding-graſſe, Lurkydiſh.

Pouliot de Iardin. Garden Penniroyall, vpright Penniroyall.

Pouliot de montaigne. Puliall mountaine, bearbe Maſticke, Horſe-time.

Pouliot ſauvage. Wild Penniroyall, Corn-mint, Corn-calamint, ſtinking Calamint.

Poullailler: m. A Poulter, or keeper of pullaine; alſo, as Poulailler.

Poullarde: f. The Sea-henne; a fiſh; Looke Poule de mer.

Poullart. bled poul. S. Peters corne.

Poullaze: f. Th'Indian Rauen.

Poulle: f. Seeke Poule.

Poullé. Bled poullé. The wall Barlie, called S. Peters corne.

Poullier. as Poulier.

Poullion: m. A little pullie.

Poulmelée: f. Wild, or baſtard, blacke Hellebore, called ordinarily, Beares-foot, Setterwort, and Settergraſſe; and by ſome alſo, Lungwort.

Poulmon: m. The lights, or lungs.

Poulmon de mer. A certaine round, ſpungie, and tranſparent excreſcence, or creature of the ſea, which ſwimming aboue water is the ſigne of an approaching ſtorme, and taken out of the water ſeemes dead, but cut into many peeces, they will ſtirre for two or three daies after.

Herbe aux poulmons. The hearbe called Sage of Bethlem, Sage of Ieruſalem, ſpotted Comfrey, and by ſome alſo, Lungwort; alſo, the, the moſſe called Lungwort; alſo, ſea Lungwort, Oyſter-greene.

Batre à tout poulmon. To pant exceedingly, to be almoſt out of breath.

Il ne ſçait ſur quelle fueille de poulmon reſpirer. He knowes not whether to addreſſe himſelfe, or how to behaue himſelfe; he knowes not what in the world to doe.

Souffler à tous poulmons. To blow with might and maine, or with all the force he hath.

Poulmonnie: f. The cough, or any infirmitie of the lungs.

Poulpe: m. as Poupe: m. alſo, the Pourcontrell, Freke, or many-footed fiſh.

Poulpe muſqué. A kind thereof, whoſe head yeelds a ſtrong muskie ſauor, and is therfore much hunted after by Lampreyes.

Poulpe: f. Pulpe; or as Polpe.

Poulpelé. Seeke Poupelé.

Poulpeux: m. euſe: f. Pulpie, or full of pulpe; fleſhie, brawnie, pithie.

Poulpie: f. The hearbe Purſlane.

Poulpied: m. The ſame.

Poulpitre: m. A Lecterne, (high) Deske, or Pulpit; alſo, a Preſſe for bookes to ſtand in; alſo, a Stage, or part of a Theater wherein Players act; alſo, a roome for Muſicians in th'vpper part of a Stage; alſo, a threſhold, or ground-ſill; or, as Marche-pied.

Poulpre. as Pourpe.

Pouls: m. The pulſe; the beating, or motion of an Arterie; or th' Arterie ſo beating.

Mettre au pouls failli. To giue a period vnto his pulſes beating; to bring to the laſt gaſpe, or vnto the gates of death.

Poulſe: m. & f. Looke Pouſſe: m. & f.

Poulſé: m. ée: f. Puſhed, thruſt, iuſtled, ioulted; inforced, compelled, violently put on; alſo, driuen, or beaten in; alſo, turned, as wine, &c.

Le jeu de dames poulſées. Draughts.

Bien poulſé longuement chancelle: Prou. He that is puſhed ſoundly ſlaggers long; men after blowes or loſſes great, are long ere they recouer.

Poulſe-avant: m. Any thing that thruſts another forward; and (more particularly) an Ouerſeer, and forwarder of a worke that requires haſt.

Ieu de poulſe-avant. Lecherie.

Poulſée: f. as Poulcée; alſo, as Poulſement; or as Pouſſée.

Poulſement: m. A puſhing, thruſting; ioulting, violent putting on; a driuing, or beating in.

Poulſer. To puſh, thruſt; inforce, compell, or violently put, on; to driue, or beat in, or on; alſo, to iuſtle, or ioult; alſo, to turne, or be troubled, as wine, &c, by ioulting, &c.

Poulſe poulſe. (Words of incouragement) forward forward, on on.

Poulſer du coude. Proudly, to ſhoulder, or elbow euerie one that's next him; or to attempt the diſplacing, or diſappointing of others.

Poulſer a toute haleine. Seeke Haleine.

Poulſer de ſa reſte. Deſperately to ſet his whole reſt, on aduenture all; reſolutely to imploy his beſt meanes, or vtmoſt indeuor.

Poulſer à la roue. To further, or helpe forward, by all meanes poſſible.

Poulſer le temps à l'eſpaule. To vſe delayes; alſo, to driue off, or paſſe away, the time vainely; or as he may; or he knowes not, or cares not, how.

Vn clou ſert à poulſer l'autre: Prov. One nayle ſerues to driue out another.

Poulſier,

Poulſier,& Poulſiere. as Pouſsier,& Pouſsiere.
Poulſif: m.iue: f. Purſie,ſhort-winded,breathing with difficultie; alſo,broken-winded.
Poulsin: m. A chicken.
La poule,& les poulſins. as vnder Poule.
Poulſiner. To hatch,breed,or bring forth,chickens.
Poulſiniere: f. The ſeuen ſtarres.
Poultis: m. A little gate,or doore,which ordinarily, accompanies a great one before, or belonging to, a drawbridge,&c.
Poultre: m. A ſole,or horſe-coult.
Poultre: f. A fillie,or mare-coult; alſo, a beame; and (generally) any peece of timber, thats about a foot, or a foot and a halfe, ſquare.
Poulx. as Pouls.
Poumon. Seeke Poulmon.
Poupart: m. An infant,or young child; alſo,a meacock, or milkeſop; a tender ſot that lookes to be alwayes fed with pap.
Poupe: m. as Poulpe: m. alſo,the cankerous,and painfull diſeaſe of the noſe,called Noli me tangere.
Poupe: f. The teat of a woman: as alſo, the dug of a rauenous beaſt; alſo, as Polpe; alſo, as Pouppe.
Poupes de chenilles. Bunches, or cluſters of Caterpillers.
Poupeau: m. A little teat,or dug.
Poupée: f. A babie; a puppet,or bable; alſo,the flax of a diſtaffe; or a diſtaffe-full of flax, &c.
Enter en poupée. To lodge a graffe within a ſlit made into the top of a ſtocke; and withall to hood it,as in Enter en poupine; Looke Poupine.
Poupelé: m.ée: f. Pitbie, brawnie, ſtrong, full of pulp; alſo,plumpe, fleſhie,round, fat,well fed.
Poupelin: m. as Popelin; alſo,as Poupon.
Poupetier: m. A babe-maker,or puppet-maker.
Poupette: f. A little babie; puppet,bable.
Poupier: m.ere: f. Of, or belonging to, the poope of a ſhip.
Vent poupier. A full,or whole wind,at ſea.
Poupillons: m. Little teats,or dugs.
Poupin: m.ine: f. as Popin.
Poupine: f. as Pompon.
Poupine. whence, Enter en p. as Enter en poupée; and to giue it a hood,or couering of ſtraw.
Poupinement. Neatly, ſprucely, briskly,quaintly,daintily.
Pouple. A Popler tree; Seeke Peuple.
Poupon: m. An infant,ſuckling, young babie; alſo, as Pompon.
Pouppe: f. The poope(or hinder part)of a ſhip.
Pouppe de filace. A diſtaffe-full of flax.
Os de la pouppe. Looke Os.
Avoir vent en pouppe. To proceed with full ſayles; to haue proſperous,or ſpeedie ſucceſſe in all affaires.
Pouppée. as Poupée.
Poupper. To dandle, feddle,cocker,cheriſh much.
Pour. (In compoſition,giuing a word the greater energie) ſignifies, for, as, as for; on,vpon; becauſe,conſidering, in reſpect of; as good, or as much as; in ſtead,in lieu; or in defence, of; (ſometimes) alſo, againſt; whence;
Tous ces charmes ſe trouverent inutiles pour luy.
Pour eſtre. By being; becauſe it is.
Pour le plus. At the moſt.
Pour vous encore 2 ſolz. (in bargaining) Ile haue but two ſhillings more of you; or, you ſhall haue it for two ſhillings more.
Cette façon eſtoit nouvelle pour luy. Was new vnto him.

Pourbondir. To bound, leape, or iumpe ouer; alſo, to manage, or prannce a horſe; to make him leape, or bound.
Pourbouiller. To parboile throughly.
Pource: m. The game called otherwiſe Triquetrac.
Pource. Becauſe, for that cauſe, therefore.
Pourceau: m. A porke, ſwine, hog.
Pourceau de mer. A Sea-hog; a fiſh that ſomething reſembles the land hog,and loues to wallow in mud,as th'other in mire.
Champignon de pourceau. The hogs Muſhrome, or ſwines Muſhrome; the white, or yellowiſh Muſhrome thats good(if any)to be eaten.
Fenouil de pourceau. Hogs Fennell, ſow Fennell, Sulpherwort, Brimſtonwort.
Pain de pourceau. Hogs bread, ſwines bread, ſow bread.
Queuë de pourceau. as Fenouil de pourceau; and called alſo(as it) Horeſtrong,and Horeſtrange.
Vin de pourceau. Looke Vin.
Gras comme vn pourceau. As fat as a (frank-fed) hog.
Semer des roſes aux pourceaux. To throw pearle before ſwine; to beſtow, or caſt away excellent things, vpon filthie, ſottiſh,and vnworthie people.
Pourceau gras rompt ſa ſoute: Prov. The well-fed hog breakes ope his ſtie.
On ne doit pas à gras pourceau le cul oindre: Prov. We ſhould not greaſe a fat hog in the taile.
Reliques ſont bien perduës entre pieds de pourceaux: Prov. Pretious things, in vnworthie hands, are quickly loſt; (Others may interpret it otherwiſe.)
Si truye forfaict les pourceaux le ſouffrent: Prov. Pigs come to lugs for ſcathe done by the ſow.
Pourcelaine: f. The Purple-fiſh; alſo, the ſea Snayle, or Venus ſhell; (a ſhell-fiſh made ſomewhat like a horne;) alſo,the hearbe Purſlane; whence;
Pourcelaine cultivée. Garden Purſlane; tame Purſlane.
Pourcelaine de mer. Sea Purſlane.
Pourcelet: m. A young, or ſmall hog, a pig-hog; See Porcelet.
Pourchaille: f. The hearbe Purſlane.
Pourchas: m. Eager purſuit, earneſt chace after; diligent ſolicitation,or vehement following, of a matter.
Pourchaſſer. Eagerly to purſue, follow, proſecute, ſolicite; inſtantly to ſeeke, purchaſe, procure, compaſſe.
Qui plus deſpend qu'il ne pourchaſſe, il ne luy faut point de beſace: Prov. He that ſpends more then he gets,needs not a bag,(but a bable.)
Povre: com. Poore,needie, bare, beggerlie, penurious; defectiue, ſcantie, wanting, lacking, hauing but little; alſo, wretched,miſerable, vnfortunate,vnhappie.
A povre coeur petit ſouhait: Pro. An humble heart breedes homelie wiſhes.
A povres gens menue monnoye: Prov. Small money ſatisfies,or ſerues,the needie.
Au povre vn oeuf vaut vn boeuf: Prov. An egge's as much to a poore man as an Oxe.
Enfans ſont richeſſes de povres gens: Prov. Looke Enfans.
Il eſt povre qui de Dieu eſt hay: Prov. Wretched is he who is abhord of God.
Il eſt bien povre qui ne voit goutte: Prov. He that ſees nothing's poore enough.
Il n'eſt ſi grand deſpit que de povre orgueilleux: Prov. The ſpight of a proud begger is vnmatchable.

Il n'eſt orgueil que de povre enrichi : Prov. Th'inriched beggers pride's without compare.

La vache du riche velle ſouvent, celle de povre avorte : Pro. Looke Riche.

Le loup emporte le veau du povre : Prov. Poore men are eaſily oppreſſed, vſually preyed on.

Qui ſçauroit les avantures il ne ſeroit iamais povre : Pro. (We ſay) if a man knew when it would raine, he would make hay in faire weather.

Tant de povres ne ſont pas bons à vn huis : Prov. Many beggers at one doore hinder themſelues, & trouble others.

Povrement. Poorely, needily, barely, beggerly; miſerably, wretchedly; ſimply.

Povret : m. ette : f. A wretch, poore ſoule, poore ſnake; or ſomewhat poore, not too rich, not troubled with abundance, or ſuperfluitie; that hath but from hand to mouth.

Povreté : f. Pouertie, penurie, beggerie, bareneſſe, need, neceſsitie, want.

De graſſe cuiſine povreté s'avoiſine : Prov. Pouertie gets her a houſe neere prodigalitie; a fat kitchin, and a leane purſe grow quickly neighbours.

De poules, & de povreté on en eſt bien toſt engé : Prov. Looke Poule.

En grande povreté n'y a pas grande loyaulté : Prov. In great pouertie there's no great loyaltie.

Si jeuneſſe ſçavoit, & vieilleſſe pouvoit, iamais povreté n'auroit : Prov. If age had ſtrength, and youth experience, none could for want alledge one iuſt pretence.

Pourfendre. To cleaue through.

Pourfendu : m. uë : f. Cleft through.

Pourfier. To affirme boldly, aſſure cõfidently, maintaine, or ſtand in, peremptorily.

Pourfil d'un homme. A mans feature, proportion, ſhape, outward lineaments; or moſt properly, the verie middle, or middle line of his face.

Le pourfil d'une pierre precieuſe. The ſurface, or ſuperficies thereof.

En pourfil. Sideways; whence; viſage en pourfil. as vnder Porfile.

Pourfiler d'or. To purſle, tinſell, or ouercaſt with gold thread, &c.

Pourfileure, & Pourfilure : f. Purſling; a purſling lace, or worke; baudkin-worke; tinſelling.

Pourfit. See Profit.

Pourfiterolle : f. A cake baked vnder hot imbers; Looke Profiterolle.

Pourject. Looke Project.

Pourjecter. as Projecter.

Pourmenade : f. A walke.

Pourmené. Walked.

Pourmenée : f. A walke, or walking.

Pourmenement : m. A walking.

Pourmener. To walke, to ſtirre vp and downe.

Ie le pourmeneray. I will courſe him, or keepe him ſtirring; I will find him worke, or bring him trouble, ynough.

Pourmeneur : m. A walker.

Pourmeneuſe : f. A woman that walkes.

Pourmenoir : m. A walke, or walking place.

Pourneant. In vaine, for nothing, to no purpoſe.

Pourparlé : m. as Pourparler : m.

Pourparlement : m. A treating; a conferring, or talking about the compounding of a difference, or concluding of a bargaine.

Pourparler : m. A treatie; conference, talke, or ſpeech had about an agreement to be made, or thing to bee done.

Pourparler. To treat, conferre, commune, or talke about matters to be accorded, or concluded.

Pourpe : m. The fiſh Pourcontrell, Preke, or Many-feet.

Pourpens : m. Great thought, care, ſtudie; ſerious cogitation.

Pourpenſé : m. ée : f. Throughly conſidered, ſeriouſly thought of, exactly digeſted, reuolued, perpended, examined.

Pourpenſer. To bethinke himſelfe; throughly to thinke, or conſider of; ſeriouſly to weigh, perpend, or digeſt, in the thoughts; exactly to recount, caſt, examine, reuolue, in the mind.

Qui bien veut parler bien doit pourpenſer : Prov. Seeke Parler.

Pourpied; ou Poupier. The hearbe Purſlane.

Pourplanté : m. ée : f. Planted throughout, ſet all ouer.

Pourplantement : m. A planting, or ſetting all ouer.

Pourplanter. To plant, or ſet, all ouer, throughout, euerie where.

Pourpoint : m. A dublet.

Pourpoint d'eſcaille. A Corſlet made of plates reſembling ſcales.

Courir les champs en pourpoint. To play the madman.

Doubler le moule du pourpoint. To feed exceſſiuely.

Il y laiſſa le moule du pourpoint. See Moule.

Mis en pourpoint. Turnd into his dublet, made not worth a groat; robd or depriued of, deſpoyled or ſtript out of, all he hath.

Pourpointerie : f. A Dublet-makers ſhop; Dublet-makers row, the ſtreet wherein Dublet-makers dwell.

Pourpointier : m. A Dublet-maker.

Pourpre : m. Purple, purple colour; alſo, the Purple ſhell-fiſh; alſo, as Pourpe; alſo, the Purples, or a peſtilent Ague which raiſes on the bodie certaine red, or purple ſpots; alſo, the Tokens; the blew ſpots appearing on a bodie thats mortally infected with, or dead of, the Plague.

Le pourpre au ſoc, mort d'egal poix balance : Pro. Death kills, or makes, alike, the rich, and poore.

Pourpré : m. ée : f. Of Purple, attired in Purple.

Pourprendre. To poſſeſſe wholly, to containe on euerie ſide or euerie way, to hold, or take vp all.

Pourprins : m. inſe : f. Fully held, wholly contained, poſſeſt on euerie ſide, or euerie way.

Pourprinſe : f. as Pourpris.

Pourpris : m. A cloſe, or incloſure; or one incloſure of diuers roomes, or cloſes; the whole circuit, compaſſe, or continent of a ground, houſe, or place, conſiſting of many ſeuerall parcells, rooms, or peeces within one incloſure; whence;

Le pourpris d'un manoir. Comprehends all the outroomes, Courts, Gardens, Orchards, Parke, Wood, or Warren, lying round about, or neere vnto, it; and being within one hedge, ditch, pale, or wall.

Pourquerre. To ſearch, or ſeeke hard after; to ſolicite, or ſue hard for; to procure, purchaſe, compaſſe, by all wayes, or meanes.

Pourquines : f. A kind of ſmall blacke figs.

Pourquis : m. iſe : f. Searched, or ſought for throughly, ſued hard for.

Pourquoy ? why? wherefore? whereof, or for what cauſe?

Dire

Dire pourquoy. To yeeld a reason, or shew a cause, for.

Pourreau. as Porreau.

Pourri: m. ie: f. Rotten, putrified; corrupted; tainted.

Pot pourri. Looke Pot.

Le plus grand est le premier pourri: Prov. The greatest man's the sooneſt rotten; (perhaps becauſe the much ease, and ill diet, whereto he gaue himselfe, had filled his bodie with corruption.)

Pierre en puis n'est pas pourrie: Prov. Looke vnder Pierre.

Pourrir. To rot, putrifie; corrupt.

Pourris: m. A suppuration; a rotting; a turning out of bloud into bealing.

Pourrissable: com. Soone rotting, likely to grow rotten.

Pourrisseur: m. A rotter; and, particularly, the spotted, broad-headed, small-necked, sharpe-mouthed, and short-tailed Serpent, Seps; no bigger then a little Viper; and called thus, because whatsoeuer part of the bodie is stung by her presently rots.

Pourrissure. as Pourriture.

Pourriture: f. Rottennesse, putrifaction, corruption.

Poursaillir. To leape out of, to bound ouer.

Poursemé: m. ée: f. Sowed throughout, or all ouer.

Poursemé de rougeolle. Full of, spotted or powdered all ouer with, the Measells.

Poursemer. To sow throughout, or all ouer.

Poursuir. as Poursuivre.

Poursuitte: f. Pursuit, prosecution, earnest following, eager chase after; also, a suit, or proceeding, in Law.

Poursuivable: com. Pursuable.

Poursuivant: m. A pursuer, suitor, suer; the follower of a cause; also, a Wooer; (In auncient time a Maister of Requests was also tearmed so.)

Poursuivant d'armes. A Herauld extraordinarie, or young Herauld, a Batchler in the Art of Heraldrie; one thats like to be chosen when a place falls.

Poursuivant: m. ante: f. Pursuing, prosecuting, following, chasing after; suing for.

Poursuivi: m. ie: f. Pursued; followed, or chased hard; sued, prosecuted, persecuted.

Sans estre poursuivi le meschant prend la fuite: Prov. The wicked flies though no man follow him.

Poursuivir. To follow; also, to walke, or wander from countrey to countrey; (an old word.)

Poursuivre. To pursue, prosecute; persecute; eagerly to follow, or chase; earnestly to proceed in, or goe on with.

Poursuivre à cor, & à cry. To follow hard, or hatefully; to pursue with all extremitie; to make hue and crie after.

Poursuivre sa poincte. To follow his thrust; Looke Poincte.

Poursuyr. as Poursuivir; or Poursuivre; (an old word.)

Poursuyvant, Poursuyvi, & Poursuyvre. as Poursuiuant, &c.

Pourtant. Notwithstanding, yet for all that, howsoeuer.

Pourtant que. Forasmuch as, because that, seeing that.

Pourtoir. as Portoir.

Pourtraict: m. A pourtrait, image, picture, counterfeit, or draught of.

Pourtraicture: f. A pourtraiture; or as Pourtraict.

Pourtraire. To pourtray, draw, delineate, paint, counterfeit.

Il pourtrait fort bien son pere. He is verie like his father, he resembles his father verie neere.

Pourvende: f. A Prebendrie, the place of a Prebend; (an old word.)

Pourveoir. Looke Prouvoir.

Pourveu: m. A patent, gift, grant; also, a Patentee, or one thats prouided (by Patent, &c.) of a Bishopricke, or Benefice.

Pourveu: m. uë: f. Priuiledged, &c; as Prouveu.

Pourveu que. So that, on condition that.

Pourvoy: m. A prouision, helpe, remedie. (v.m.)

Pourvoyance: f. Prouidence, forecast, foresight.

Pourvoyant. as Prouvoyant.

Pourvoyeur: m. A Prouidor, or Purueyor.

Pourvoyeuse: f. A Prouidaresse, or Purueyaresse.

Pousade: f. as Posade.

Poussade: f. A push, thrust; iustle, ioult.

Pousse: m. as Poussade; whence;

De plein pousse. At once, at one push, thrust, or effort; wholly, all at one time, all together.

Pousse: f. Short wind, pursinesse; also, the hinder part of a sowes bellie, or that part whereon her hinder teats are.

Pousse de bled. The chaffe of corne.

Poussé: m. ée: f. Looke Poulsé.

Pousse-avant. as Poulse-avant.

Poussée: f. A push, or thrust forward; a putting, or violent wringing, in; also, a ioult, or iustle; also, as Poulcée.

Poussement: m. Looke Poulsement.

Poussepied: m. The fish Pourcontrell, Preke, or Many-feet.

Pousser. To push, or thrust, &c, as Poulser; also, to breath, or fetch wind.

Pousset de bronze. The scalie dust that falls from brasse after it hath beene melted, or much heated.

Pousier: m. as Pousiere.

Pousiere: f. Thicke dust, or dustinesse.

Qui se laisse jecter de la pousiere dans les yeux. Looke Iecter.

D'un sac à charbon ne peut sortir que de la poussiere noire: Prov. Looke not for ought but coale-dust from coale-sack, th'infected heart must vnsound stuffe belch out.

Pousif: m. ive: f. Pursie, short-winded; also, broken-winded.

Poussoir: m. An impulsarie Instrument, vsed by Chirurgians, for the forcing through of a forked arrow head: This Instrument is of two kinds; one hollow, tearmed Poussoir femelle; th'other massiue, tearmed Poussoir masle, ou sourd.

Poussol. Pouldre de Poussol. See Pouldre.

Poussouër: m. Th'yron pinne wherewith Joyners driue out woodden pegs.

Poustaignade: f. A brood, neast, or laying of egges; as many as a henne vses to set on at once: ¶ Langued.

Pousteau: m. as Posteau.

Poustelé. as Poupelé.

Poutie, & Poutieux. Looke Potie, & Potieux.

Poutraiges: m. Beames; postes.

Poutre: f. A beame; also, a fillie, or young mare.

Poutre dentelée. A harrow.

Pouvoir: m. Power, strength, abilitie, might, force.

Le pouvoir de la verge. The Libertie, or Precinct wherein a Sergeant may distraine, or arrest.

Pouvoir. To may, or can; to be able; to haue power, force, might, strength.

Ie n'en puis mais. I cannot help it, I cannot doe withall, I am no cause of it, it is not long of me.

Il n'en peut plus. He hath ſhot his frie, ſpent his powder, done the worſt or moſt he can.
Ainſi va qui mieux ne peut: Prov. He muſt doe thus who can no better doe.
Contre fortune nul ne peut: Pro. Looke Fortune.
Qui mieux ne peut à ſa vieille retourne: Pro. When all is done home's homelie.
Qui quād il peut ne veut, quand il veut il ne peut: Prov. He that will not when he may, when he would he ſhall haue nay.
Tel fait le mieux qu'il peut qui ne fait choſe qui vaille: Prov. Some though they doe their beſt doe nothing well.
Poux. The pulſe; Looke Pouls.
Pouy. (An Interiection of loathing;) fie.
Pouyr. Tout n'y ſçauroit pouyr. All cannot goe into, all cannot be held or contained in, it: ¶Pariſien.
Pouzaranque. A certaine inſtrument wherewith water is drawne out of garden wells.
Poy. as Peu; Little; (an old word.)
Poyle: f. A ſtoue.
Poytois. as Putois.
Poyvrade: f. A ſeaſoning with, or ſauce made of, Pepper.
Poyvre: m. Pepper.
Poyvre aquatique. Culerage, Arſe-ſmart, water Pepper, or water Pepperwort; (an herbe.)
Poyvre blanc. White Pepper; like the blacke in all things but colour, & commonneſſe (for there comes not much of it hither;) Th'Eaſt Indians vſe it inſtead of Salt; See Poyvre verd.
Poyvre d'Eſpagne. as Poyvre d'Inde.
Poyvre Ethiopic. The buſked, or codded Pepper, called in ſhops Amomum, & vita longa.
Poyvre Indic, ou d'Inde. Indian Pepper, Guinnie Pepper, Calecut Pepper; a little, flat, and yellowiſh ſeed.
Poyvre long. Long Pepper; a blackiſh, and Catkin-faſhioned fruit, conſiſting of many graines cloſe thruſt together.
Poyvre de montaigne. Pepper of the Mount; the blacke, and hot-taſting berrie, or graine, of the ſhrub Mezereon, or Spurge-flax.
Poyvre verd. as Poyvre blanc; Some report that the ordinarie Pepper-berrie gathered while tis greene, & vnripe, remaines euer white, and is that which we call white Pepper; yet Gerard ſeemes to allow it a peculiar plant.
Poyvré: m. ée: f. Peppered; ſeaſoned with Pepper; alſo, taſting like Pepper.
Herbe poyvrée. Dittander, Dittanie, Pepperwort.
Poyvrer. To pepper; to ſeaſon with Pepper.
Poyvrette. as Poivrette; Herbe Gith; ſome alſo call ſo, the Guinnie Pepper plant.
Poyvrier: m. The Pepper plant.
Practic: m. ique: f. Practicall, practiſing.
Practicien: m. A practiſer, or practicioner in Law; a Pleader, Counſellor, Aduocate, Attorney, or Proctor, allowed.
Practique: f. Practiſe, experience; the forme, ſtile, courſe of pleading, or of proceeding, in the Law.
Practiqué: m. ée: f. Practiſed, experimented, exerciſed, vſed, put in vſe; dealt with, medled in; alſo, frequented, much haunted; alſo (in Architecture) contriued.
Practiquer. To practiſe, exerciſe, vſe, or put in vre; to deale with, or meddle in; to beſtow, or imploy himſelfe in; alſo, to frequent, or haunt much; and (in Architecture) to contriue.
Practiquer argent ſur. To raiſe, or make money of.
Pragmaticien. auncienly, as Practicien, at this day.
Pragmatique Sanction. Looke Sanction.
Pragmatizer. To practiſe, argue, plead; ſolicite.
Praguerie: f. (The name of) a meeting at Clermont betweene Charles the ſeuenth, & his ſonne the Dolphin, who, together with others his ſubiects, had rebelled againſt him; Hence, any ſuch league, faction, or ioynt rebellion of ſubiects againſt their Soueraigne.
Prain. Full-bagd, full-bellied, great with young; (a word applied onely to ſome kind of beaſts.)
A l'agneler verra on leſquelles ſont prains: Prov. Looke Agneler.
Prairier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a medow, or medow ground.
Sergent prairier. A medow-keeper; an Officer that lookes vnto medowes, and watches the hay growing in them.
Prairie: f. A medow, or medow ground.
Pranchette: f. A womans ſtirrup, or the plate ſhe hath vnder her foot as ſhe rides.
Prangeler. Cattell to chaw their cud in th'afternoone: ¶Norm.
Praquerie. as Praguerie.
Prat. as Pré; A medow.
Pratique. as Practique; alſo, a little lace: ¶Bleſien.
Prattique, & Prattiquer. See Practique, & Practiquer.
Pré: m. A medow; a mead.
La faulx paye les prez: Pro. The Sithe giues meads their due.
Touteſfois fut le pré tondu: Prov. Yet was the medow mowen; Seeke Touteſfois.
Preage: m. Medowage; or, a freedome to put cattell into other mens medowes; whence; Droict de preage; Looke vnder Droict.
Prealable: com. Former, forerunning, before-going; firſt to be done, diſcuſſed, or thought of; which ought to proceed, or fore-goe the reſt.
Au prealable. as Prealablement.
Au prealable de. After the rate of.
Pour vn prealable. Firſt and formoſt; for a beginning, or firſt worke, before ought elſe be done, or talked of.
Prealablement. Firſt, formoſt, firſt and formoſt, formerly, before all things, ere ought elſe be diſcuſſed, or done.
Preallable, & Preallablement. as Prealable, & Prealablement.
Preallegué: m. ée: f. Before alledged.
Preambule: m. A Preamble, Preface, Prologue.
Preau: m. A little medow; and (more particularly) a pleaſant greene, greene cloſe, or medow, lying neere a houſe, and ſeruing as well for a walke, as for other vſes; alſo, a ſmooth greene ſeat vnder an arbor.
Preaux. The name of a certaine white, ſmall, and ſweet apple.
Prebende: f. A Prebendrie.
Prebender en vn tripot. To bandie at Tennis.
Prebſtre. Looke Preſtre.
Precaire. par prec. as Precairement.
Precairement. By intreatie, requeſt, or deſire; alſo, at another mans will and pleaſure; or, onely for a while.
Precaution: f. A precaution; a foreſeeing, bewaring, or prouiding for beforehand; alſo, a premonition, or warning; alſo, the preuenting of a diſeaſe before it come, or the curing of it at firſt comming.

Pre-

Precedé : m. ée : f. Preceded ; outstripped, gone or gotten before.
Precedemment. Precedently, formerly.
Precedence : f. Precedence, or precedencie ; a foregoing ; place before another.
Precedent. Precedent, foregoing, outpassing, outstripping, in ranke before another.
Preceder. To precede, surmount, surpasse, excell, goe before.
Precellence : f. Precellencie ; an excelling, exceeding, surmounting, surpassing.
Preceller. To excell, exceed, surmount, surpaße.
Precepte : m. A precept, commaundement ; lore, document, lesson, instruction ; warning ; admonition, aduisement.
Precepteur : m. A Teacher, Instructor, Tutor, Maister, Gouernour.
Preception. as Precepte.
Preceptorizer. To teach, instruct, tutorize it ; gouerne.
Preceptrice. Teaching, instructing, lessoning, admonishing.
Precesseur : m. A foregoer ; or, as Predecesseur.
Prechanter. To prechaunt it ; to sing before the rest ; or, to begin a song.
Precieux. Looke Pretieux.
Precipitamment. Headlong, all on a head, or with the head before, hastily, rashly, vnaduisedly.
Precipitation : f. Precipitation ; headlong rashnesse, desperate hastinesse.
Precipité : m. Precipitate ; the red, poisonous, or corroding powder of burned Quicksilner.
Precipite : m. A daungerous cliffe, a steepe and vnsteadie place to goe on ; a steepe downefall, a downe-right pich, or fall.
Precipité : m. ée : f. Precipitated, cast headlong ; also, rash, headie, vnaduised.
Argent vif precipité. Reduced into Precipitate, burnt into red powder.
Precipiter. To precipitate ; to throw, tumble, hurle, or cast downe, headlong ; also, to deale rashly, proceed hastily, goe vnaduisedly to worke.
Precipiteux : m. euse : f. Headlong, foole-hardie, inconsiderate, barebraind, furious, violent, vnaduised, hastie, rash.
Preciput : m. Right of birth, eldership, the priuiledge belonging to the eldest.
Precis : m. ise : f. Strict, precise, curious, exact.
Precisément. Precisely, strictly, exactly, curiously.
Preclare : com. Most goodlie, right noble, verie singular, passing, excellent.
Preclosture : f. A close, or inclosed ground, lying before a mansion house ; or as Pourpris ; all the ground lying about a house.
Precogiter. To precogitate, premeditate, thinke of beforehand.
Precognition : f. A precognition ; fore-knowledge, prenotion, or former notice, of.
Precognoissance : f. The same.
Precognoistre. To foreknow ; know beforehand, get former notice, haue a foreknowledge of.
Preconter. To abate, or defaulke part of a summe due vpon a former reckoning.
Precordial : m. ale : f. Belonging to the midriffe ; neere to, or aboue, the heart.
Precordiaux : m. The midriffe ; also, the heart-strings, or filme of the heart ; also, the parts which be neere, or about, the heart ; also, the sides of the belly vnder the ribs ; and sometimes also, the whole numbles.

Predecesseur : m. A predecessor, auncestor, forefather ; one that hath gone, or beene, before vs.
Predestination : f. Predestination, fore-appointment.
Predestiné : m. ée : f. Predestined, predestinated ; ordained, or appointed beforehand, vnto.
Predestinée fatale. Fatall destinie ; th'vnalterable destination, ordinance, decree, prouidence, or purpose of God.
Predial : m. ale : f. Consisting of, growing in, belonging vnto, medowes.
Predicant. as Predicateur ; or a meane Preacher.
Predicateur : m. A Preacher, Teacher, Sermon-maker ; a reporter, publisher ; denouncer of things to come.
Predication : f. A Sermon, Preaching ; publicke declaration, or denunciation.
Prediction : f. A prediction, foretelling, presaging, foresaying.
Predire. To foretell, foresay, presage, diuine, propheſie.
Prediseur : m. A foreteller, presager, diuine, propheſier.
Predivination : f. Diuination, presaging, foregbessing, foreseeing.
Predivineur. To diuine, presage, foresee, foreknow, ghesse at beforehand.
Prée : f. A medow.
Préeminence : f. Preheminence, prerogatiue.
Préer. To make medow, lay to medow, turne into medowes.
Préeslu : m. uë : f. Preelected, fore-chosen.
Preface : f. A Preface, Preamble, Prologue, fore-speech.
Prefect : m. A Prefect, President, Principall, or principall Officer.
Preferable : com. Preferrable ; fit to be esteemed, or aduanced, before others.
Preference : f. Preferment, aduancement ; account before, place aboue, others.
Preferer. To preferre ; like better, esteeme aboue, place before, make more account of.
Prefigé : m. ée : f. Prefixed, fastened, set, or stucke before ; appointed beforehand.
Prefiger. To prefix ; to fasten, set, or sticke before ; also, to appoint beforehand.
Prefini : m. ie : f. Determined, appointed, limited beforehand.
Prefinir. To determine, appoint, limit beforehand.
Prefire. To prefix ; to limit, assigne, prescribe, appoint beforehand.
Prefix. Prefixed ; limited, assigned, prescribed, appointed beforehand.
Prefixion : f. A prefixion ; fore-appointment, prescription.
Pregnamment. Pregnantly ; pithily, forcibly, strongly, liuely.
Pregnant : m. ante : f. Pregnant, pithie, ripe, liuelie, forcible, strong.
Raisons pregnantes. Plaine, apparent, important, or pressing reasons.
Preguste : com. A Taster, or Forestaller ; one that tastes th'essay of meats.
Prehaster. To precipitate ; to hasten extreamely, or ouer-much.
Preignant. as Pregnant.
Preigne : f. Bagd, full, with young, with child.
Preignement. as Pregnamment.
Preigneur : f. A being full-bagd, great with child, or with young.
Preir. To make Medowing of ; to turne into Medow.

Prejudice : m. A preindice; a (future) dammage, hurt, hinderance; also, as Prejugé.
Prejudiciable : com. Preiudiciall, dammageans, hurtfull, hindering.
Prejudicier. To preiudice, hurt, harme, hinder.
Prejugé : m. A preiudication, or fore-iudgement.
Prejugé : m. ée : f. Preiudicated, fore-iudged.
Prejugement : m. A fore-iudgement, or former iudgement; a case ruled in Law; a preiudication, or hurt done to a cause by a Precedent.
Prejuger. To preiudicate, preiudge, or foreiudge; to rule, or direct the opinion of Iudges by a former iudgement.
Prelasser. To carrie himselfe gravely, portly, pompously, magnificently; to strout, or square it like a Prelate.
Prelat : m. A Prelate.
Table de Prelat. A bountifull, or well-furnished boord.
Il iure comme vn Prelat. (A Huguenots comparison.)
Prelation : f. Preferment before others in purchasing.
Prelature : f. A Prelature, or Prelateship.
Prele : f. Small Horse-taile, Tadpipes, naked Shaue-grasse.
Prelingant : m. A boasting asse, proud coxcombe, statelie gull.
Prelude : m. A Preludium, Preface, Preamble; a flourish before the matter; and in Musicke, voluntarie before a lesson, &c.
Prematurité : f. Prematuritie; hastie ripenesse, quicke ripening, forward or timelie growth.
Premeditation : f. Premeditation, forethought, or forethinking.
Premedité : m. ée : f. Premeditated, forethought of.
Premediter. To premeditate, forethinke of, or thinke of beforehand.
Prémesse. Looke Presmesse.
Premices : m. The first fruits of.
Premie : m. A recompence, guerdon, reward.
Premier : m. ere : f. Prime, first, formest; principall, chiefe, best.
Il n'est que les premieres amours : Prov. The first loue is the fastest, or faithfullest; no loue's like to the first.
Premier. (Adverb.) First, at first, the first time; also, before, or aboue, others.
Premier que. Rather then, before, or ere, that.
Au premier. First and formost; in or at the beginning.
Tout premier. First and formost; or, at the very first.
Qui premier arrive au moulin, le premier doit mouldre : Pro. He that first comes must first be serued.
Qui premier prend ne s'en repent : Prov. He that takes first his hast repents not.
Premierement. First; first and formost; with the first, at the verie beginning.
Tout premierement. At the verie first, before all other things.
Premise : f. A foreplacing, a setting before.
Premonstré. freres de la prem. An Order of Friers which weare white habites.
Premonstré : m. ée : f. Premonstrated, portended, foreshewed, told, or pointed at beforehand.
Premourant : m. ante : f. Dying first, or before another.
Prenant : m. ante : f. Taking; putting; apprehending; seising; accepting, receiuing; imbracing; undertaking; holding, adhering vnto.
Tenir par prenant. Looke Part-prenant.
Prendre. To take; seise, catch, apprehend, snatch at; receiue, accept of; imbrace, undertake; also, to cleaue, sticke, adhere, hold fast vnto; also, to put, or put on.
Prendre barre sur. To haue th'aduantage, or start of; to be beforehand with.
Prendre de bec l'un l'autre. To be at it, by the chaps, or with bitter words.
Prendre bien. Il leur print bien que. It was well for them, or they had good fortune, that.
Prendre vn boeuf par les cornes. Looke Boeuf, or Corne.
Prendre le bonnet. To passe Maister of Art.
Prendre au bric. To take at aduantage; or, to wrest a bastie word vnto a confession.
Prendre le cas. pren le cas que. Admit, suppose, allow we you, that.
Prendre la Castille pour autruy. To vndertake another mans quarell.
Prendre chair. To battle, get flesh, grow fat.
Prendre la chevre. To take in dudgeon, or snuffe; to take the pet, or pepper in the nose.
Prendre la clef des champs. To gaine, or take libertie, giue it selfe roome, flie or get out.
Prendre conclusions. as vnder Conclusion.
Prendre le dueil. To put on mourning apparell.
Prendre expedition. To renew a cause hanging, or suspended, in a Court; to bring, or procure a Reuiuor with an especiall request, or clause, for speedie dispatch.
Prendre le frein aux dents. To resist Authoritie, as a stubborne iade his rider; obstinately to proceed against all aduise.
Prendre de gallico. See Gallico.
Prendre la garite. To flie, runne away, slip or take into a lurking hole.
Prendre de hergne. A tree to be bred, or grow vp, of a sucker.
Prendre vn homme ras par les cheveux. Cruelly to exact, or foolishly to expect, from a man more then he is able to yeeld.
Prendre honneur d'un escholier. To get credit, win reputation, by a Scholler.
Prendre iour pour faire. To assigne, appoint, or set downe a day for the doing of.
Prendre langue. To gaine, or search for, intelligence; to inquire, or learne, how the world goeth.
Prendre langue entr'eux. To commune, or conferre together.
Prendre lettres. Is (at a certaine Card-play) to aske leaue to giue ouer an vndertaken game.
Prendre le lievre au Tabourin. See Lievre.
Prendre les lions par les jubes. To act great matters, and greatly hazard himselfe in th'acting.
Prendre la Lune à belles dents. To performe impossibilities.
Prendre la main. Looke Main.
Prendre Mars pour Marthe; And, prendre Martin pour regnard. To mistake (things that are somewhat alike) one for another.
Prendre du pain benist de S. Cy. To swill vp store of liquor; & sometimes (more generally) to drink wine.
Prendre Paris pour Corbeil. Foolishly to mistake most vnlike things, one for another; or greedily to take (in seeming to mistake) a greater for a lesse, thing.
Prendre parti. To deliberate, pause, aduise, or bethink himselfe, of.
Prendre à partie. To sue, implead, or call in question; to bind, set, or expose himselfe against.
Prendre à ses perils. Ie le prens à mes perils. At my perill be it; if it succeed not well I am content to beare the blame, or feele the smart, of it.

Pren-

Prendre à perte de finance. To take vp money on great interest, for the paiment of a debt for which lesse is due; Or, to take vp commodities at a high rate, and (for the making of present money) sell them againe dog cheape.

Prendre pied à. To reckon, or esteeme, of; build, or ground vpon; heed, or giue credit vnto; also, to be aggrieued, or discontented at; or take exceptions vnto.

Prendre au pied levé. To snap at, or take short, in words; to trip on a sudden, or at vnawares; to worke on all aduantages, or make the worst of things.

Prendre son à poinct. Look à poinct, vnder Poinct.

Prendre vn rat par la queuë. To cut a purse.

Prendre à sa risque. Ie le prens à ma risque. At my perill, with my danger be it.

Prendre d'un sac deux moustures. Looke Mousture.

Prendre son sel. To swill, quaffe, caroose; to take in his lading, or his liquor, to the full.

Prendre à soy. To assume, or attribute vnto himselfe.

Prendre terre. To goe forward, rid ground, get on apace; also, to land, or get ashore.

Prendre le vent. To goe vp the wind, to make that way which the wind comes; also, to wind, or follow by the wind, sent, or smell.

Prendre sans verd. To surprise, take napping, or at vnawares.

Se prendre à. To brawle, quarell, fall out, fight, or contend, with.

Se prendre à, de. To accuse, blame, lay the fault, cast th'imputation of, vpon.

Se prendre de bon biais. Il ne s'y print pas de bon biais. He tooke not a right course in the matter.

Se prendre au nez. To acknowledge a fault, &c; Looke Nez.

Se prendre au bout du nez. vous vous pourrez prendre au bout du nez. You may take your selfe by the nose end; viz. you are of the number; you are as guiltie, faultie, or farre in, as the rest.

Ie n'en prendrois pas 10 escus. I would not take 10 Crownes for it; also, I am as glad of it as if one had giuen me 10 Crownes.

Il luy en prend comme à. It fareth, or falleth out, with him as with; (The like is;)

Il n'en prend pas de ces. It fareth, or is, not with these.

Il n'y prend ne n'y met. It is not his, or for him; his part is least in it, he hath nothing to doe with it; also, he deales not in, or meddles not with, it.

La pluye le prendra. He will be well whitled, his cap will be set.

C'est folie de se prendre aux fẽmes, & aux bestes: Pro. Tis a madnes to meddle with women, and beasts.

Qui a apprins à prendre sçait tard que c'est de rẽdre: Pro. The more cunning, & forward one is to take, the more vnapt, & backward he is to restore; or, they that are apt to take are vnwilling to restore.

Qui d'autruy prend subiect se rend: Prov. He that receiues a fauour sells his libertie.

Qui par tout va par tout prend: Prov. He that goes through gaines throughly; or, he that goeth euerie way getteth euerie way.

Qui premier prend ne s'en repent: Prov. He that takes first hath the best; or (being a chuser) cannot repent him that he had it not.

Qui peu seme peu prend: Prov. He that sowes little reapes little.

Vieil oiseau ne se prend à reths: Pro. Th'old bird is not (easily) intrapped.

Preneur: m. A taker; catcher, seiser, apprehender; a receiuer, accepter; vndertaker, imbracer of.

Preneur de pigeons. A cheater, cousener, conicatcher

Prenoncé: m. ée: f. Foreshewed, foretold, or declared beforehand.

Prenoncer. To foreshew, foretell; denounce, or declare beforehand.

Prent. as Preut.

Prenus. Et vbi prenus? And where will you take, or find them? ¶Rab.

Preoccupation: f. A preoccupation, anticipation, preuention; an ouerreaching.

Preoccupé: m. ée: f. Preoccupated, anticipated, forestalled, preuented, or taken by preuention; (and hence) ouerraught.

Preoccuper. To preoccupate, anticipate, forestall, preuent, or take by preuention; and thence, to ouerreach.

Preordonné: m. ée: f. Preordinated, fore-ordained.

Preordonner. To preordinate, or fore-ordaine; to determine, enact, appoint, or set downe beforehand.

Preparatif: m. A preparatiue, or preparation.

Preparation: f. A preparation, or fore-prouision; a preparing; a making or setting of things in a readinesse.

Preparatoire: m. A preparatorie.

Preparé: m. ée: f. Prepared, made readie; prouided, or ordered beforehand.

Preparement: m. A preparing, or prouiding.

Preparer. To prepare; prouide; order, dight, make readie for.

Prepatour: m. A vineyard, or vine-close for the best, or choicest plants.

Preplantement: m. A fore-planting, or former setting.

Prepofer. To preferre; to put, or set before.

Prepofition: f. A Prepofition (in Grammer;) also, a putting, or setting before.

Prepostere: com. Prepofterous, vnorderlie, wrong, ouerthwart, altogether from the purpose.

Prepofterer. To place or set prepofterously; to disorder, or turne arsiuarsie; to put the cart before the horse.

Prepuce: m. The foreskin, or skin that couereth the head of the yard.

Prerogative: f. A prerogatiue, priuiledge, preheminence, great aduantage.

Prés. Neere, by, neere by, fast by, hard by, neere vpon, nigh vnto, welnigh, or, as it were touching.

Au peu prés. Welneere, almost, in a manner, within a little, or wanting but verie little.

Au plus prés. As neere as possibly can be.

Estre au prés. To be present, neere, close by, at hand.

Nous sommes tousiours à vn denier prés. There is neuer but a pennie winning or loosing betweene vs.

Presage: m. A presage, diuining, fore-ghessing, foreshewing; a notice, token, or argument of things to come.

Presager. as Presagier.

Presagiant: m. ante: f. Presaging, diuining, fore-ghessing, foreshewing, betokening future things.

Presagier. To presage, diuine, fore-ghesse, foreshew, foretell, to prophesie of things to come.

Presagieux. as Presagiant; or full of presages.

Presbiteral: m. ale: f. Presbiterall, Priestlie, belonging to a Priest.

Presbitere: m. A Parsonage, Vicarage, or Priests house.

Presbtre. A Priest; Looke Prestre.

Presche: f. A Sermon, Lecture; Preaching.

Preſché : m. ée : f. Preached; alſo, preached vnto, inſtructed, exhorted.
I'y ay preſché ſept ans pour vn careſme. I know it well, or I am well knowne there.
Il eſt tout preſché qui n'a cure de bien faire : Pro. He's told ynough that meanes not to doe well; or, too much he's preached to that cares not to be ſaued.
Preſchement : m. A preaching; inſtructing; exhorting, perſuading.
Preſcher. To preach; to teach, inſtruct; exhort, perſuade.
Le regnard preſche aux poules. Wee ſay, the Fox preaches, beware your Geeſe.
Preſcheur : m. A Preacher.
De Preſcheur qui ſe recommande en tout temps bon heur nous defende : Prov. From Preachers who themſelues commend, God, and good fortune vs defend.
Preſcience : f. A preſcience, or foreknowledge.
Preſcript : m. ipte : f. Preſcribed; limited, ordained, appointed; alſo, out of date, or ſo old, as it can hardly be renewed; whence;
Vn procez peri, & preſcript. A ſuit which hath lien ſo long in the decke, or hung ſo long by the wall, as it is growne paſt following.
Preſcription : f. A preſcription; a long poſſeſſion, or continuance in poſſeſſion; the courſe or vſe of a thing for a long time; alſo, a limitation, appointment, rule, or law.
Preſcrire. To preſcribe; to limit; aſſigne; appoint; ordaine.
Les procez par eſcrit receus en la Cour ne ſe preſcrivent point. May at any time be reuiued, are neuer out of date, or outworne.
Preſeance : f. Precedence, or precedencie; a firſt, or former place, ranke, ſeat; a ſiting, or going, before others.
Preſence : f. Preſence; th'aſpect, ſight, or countenance.
En la preſence de. Before, before the face, or eyes; in the verie eye of; be himſelfe, &c, being by.
Droict de preſence. Looke vnder Droict.
Preſent : m. A preſent, gift, offer.
Preſent : m. ente : f. Preſent; readie; in ſight, in view; at hand, hard by; in preſence, in his owne perſon.
A tous preſents, & à venir. To all that are and ſhall be; to all aliue and like to be.
Par ces preſentes. By theſe preſents, or preſent letters; Par la preſente. By th'inſtant.
Par le preſent. Now, for this time, at this ſeaſon.
Preſentation : f. A preſentation; a preſenting, ſhewing, repreſenting, ſetting forth.
Les preſentations. Th'introductions, or inrollments of bills, or of acts, in a Court, before pleading.
La preſentation noſtre Dame. A holy-day kept by the Church of Rome on the 21 of Nouember.
Preſenté : m. ée : f. Preſented, repreſented; ſhewed, offered vnto view; alſo, offered.
Preſentement. Preſently, quickly, anon, at an inſtant, at hand, readily, ſpeedily, ſuddenly.
Preſenter. To preſent; repreſent; ſhew, bring into preſence, offer vnto view; alſo, to offer.
Il craint ce coup de telle façon qu'il ne s'y preſente pas. He neuer offers to ſtop it, or make a ſtreake at it.
Preſentiment : m. A prouidence, or fore-feeling; a perceiuing, or vnderſtanding of a thing beforehand.
Preſervatif : m. A preſeruatiue, defenſiue; counterpoyſon, antidote.
Preſervatif : m. iue : f. Preſeruatiue, preſerning,

Preſervé : m. ée : f. Preſerued, ſaued, kept, ſhielded, defended.
Preserver. To preſerue, ſaue, keepe; defend, ſhield.
Preſidence : f. A Preſidencie; the place, or Office of a Preſident.
Preſident : m. A Preſident; a Iudge in a Court of Parliament, or high Court.
Le Premier Preſident. The Lord chiefe Iuſtice of one of thoſe Courts.
Preſider. To preſide; gouerne, rule, ſway, commaund ouer, ſit in iudgement on.
Preſidial : m. ale : f. Preſidiall; belonging to a Preſident, or to a Preſidiall Court.
Sieges preſidiaux. Seats, or Courts of Iuſtice (eſtabliſhed about the yeare 1551 in diuers good townes of France) wherein ciuile cauſes (not exceeding 250 l. Tour. in money, or 10 l. Tour. in rent) are heard, and adiudged, Soueraignly, and without Appeales, or by prouiſion notwithſtanding Appeales.
Preſidialement. Preſidially; within preſidiall Iuriſdiction, or compaſſe.
Preſidialité : f. The Iuriſdiction of a Preſidiall Court.
Preſidiaux : m. The Offices of a Preſidiall Seat, or Court.
Preſignifié : m. ée : f. Foreſhewed, foretold, ſignified beforehand.
Presle. as Prele.
Preſine : m. A neere, or next, kinſman by father and mother, or in a direct line.
Preſme d'Eſmeraude. A baſe, or courſe Emerauld; whereof there be diuers kinds, ſome tranſparent, as the greene Iaſper; others of a thicke, or troubled mallow colour.
Preſineſſe : f. Neere kindred, the being next of kinne; or the priuiledge of recouerie, or diſingaging of land, due vnto the next kinſman.
Preſomptif : m. iue : f. Likelie, coniecturall; alſo, preſumptuous.
Preſomption : f. Preſumption, ſaucineſſe, malapertneſſe, ouer-boldneſſe; alſo, a preſumption, ſuſpition, gueſſe, coniecture, fore-conceit.
Preſomptions de droict. Preſumptions of right; or (as the Latine) preiudicia iuris.
Preſomptueux : m. euſe : f. Preſumptuous; preſuming; ſaucie, malapert, ouer-bold.
Pres-prenant. Crediteur pr. An hard, or ſtrict creditor; one that will be ſatisfied to th'vtmoſt.
Preſque. Welnigh, welneere, almoſt, in a manner; and (with a Negatiue) ſcarce, hardly.
Preſſant : m. ante : f. Preſſing, inforcing, earneſt, vrgent; importunate, vnmannerlie, vnreaſonable.
Preſſe : f. A preaſe, throng, or crowd of people; alſo, a Preſſe to Print, or preſſe things in; alſo, a kind of greeniſh, and hard Peach thats long in ripening, and whoſe pulpe (in ſome places of a ruddie colour) cleaues hard vnto the ſtone.
Vin de grain eſt plus doux que n'eſt pas vin de preſſe : Prov. Willing dueties are more gracious then ſuch as be extorted.
Preſſé : m. ée : f. Preſſed; ſqueezed, crowded, thruſt hard, or cloſe together; ſtrained, vrged; inforced, conſtrained; importuned, hard laied to.
Preſſé de ſon honneur. That muſt vntruſſe, that muſt immediately gee to it.
C'eſt trop preſſé. That is too great extremitie.
Preſſeance : f. Precedence, or precedencie.
Preſſement : m. A preſſing; ſqueezing, thruſting cloſe together; a ſtraining, vrging, inforcing; an importuning.

Presser. To presse; to straine, squeeze, crowd, or thrust hard together; also, to vrge, inforce, constraine; be instant vpon, or earnest with; to importune, lay hard vnto, he beauie on.

Presser de quelque chose. To accuse, appeale, or appeach of; to charge home with.

Trop presser fait le cheval restif: Prov. Too much vrging makes men desperate, or froward; extreame importuning makes mens friends their enemies.

Par trop presser l'anguille on la perd: Prov. Seeke Anguille.

Pressier: m. The tree that bears the Peach called Presse.

Pressif: m. iue: f. Pressiue; or as Pressant.

Pressis: m. Cullisses, or strained meats.

Pressoir: m. A presse, or presser (wherewith the iuyce of things is out-squeezed;) also, the great, and double ventricle made by Dura mater in the hinder part of the head.

De l'arbre d'un pressoir le manche d'un cernier: Prov. (Like our) from a mill-post to a pudding-pricke.

Pressoirage: m. A pressing; also, presse-wine, or wine that is by pressing wrung out of the grapes, alreadie wel drained by that which hath distilled from them; and therefore cut all together before such pressing, thereby to get from them the rest of their moisture.

Pressoiré: m. ée: f. Preßed, wrung, strained, squeezed out.

Pressoirée: f. A pressing, straining, squeezing out; or the liquor so pressed.

Pressoirer. To presse, wring, straine, extort, or squeeze out iuyce, or liquor.

Pressoireur: m. A pressor, strainer, squeezer of iuyce, or liquor, out of things.

Pressoirier: m. as Pressoireur.

Pressoüoir: m. as Pressoir; also, a kind of frame wherwith, in France, they trie draught-horses before they buy them.

Pressurage: m. as Pressoirage; also, the fee thats due to th'owner, or giuen for th'vse, of a cõmon wine-presse.

Pressure: f. as Presure; also, a pressure, pressing, thrusting, or twindging in of.

Pressuré: m. ée: f. as Pressoiré; also, milked.

Pressurer. as Pressoirer; also, to milke a cow, &c.

Pressurier: m. A presser, or presse-man; one that works at a wine-presse.

Visage de pressurier. A drunken; crimzon, or bigh-coloured, face.

Prest: m. A loane, or lending of money.

Prest: m. Preste: f. Prest, readie, full-dight, furnished, prepared, prouided; prompt, neere at hand; quick, nimble, fleet, wight.

Prest cõme vn chandelier. At hand quoth pickpurse.

Il n'est pas prest de sortir, iusques. (Threatningly) he is not like to come out, vntill.

Tel est housé qui n'est pas prest: Pro. Some, though they booted are, vnreadie are; Looke Housé.

Viande d'ami est bien tost preste: Prov. A friends repast is in a trice prepared.

Prest. (Aduerbially) as Prestement.

Prestable: com. Lendable, which may be lent.

Prestance: f. Worthinesse, nobleness, excellencie, greatnesse; also, a presence, representation, or shew; whence;

Vn hõme de belle prestance. A comelie, or personable man; a man of a statelie, and gracefull behauiour.

Prestation: f. as Prest; a loane; also, a lending; and a paying, or yeelding of duties, rents, or seruices.

Presté: m. ée: f. Lent; and thence, trusted, or let out to a day; also, yeelded, payed; giuen.

Preste-charitez. A detractor, or backbiter.

Prestement. Promptly, readily, quickly, incontinently, soone, out of hand.

Prester. To lend; also, to trust out, or sell vnto dayes; also, to yeeld, affoord, or giue; also, to yeeld, or giue back, as pliant, or soft things.

Prester l'espaule à. To helpe, assist, succour, support.

Du temps qu'on se cachoit pour prester argent. In th'auncient, and harmelesse age, when people had more care of the borrowers credit then of their owne securitie.

Au prester Ange, au rendre Diable: Prov. Some when they would borrow adore, but when they should pay abhorre, a man; The like is;

Au prester cousin, au rendre fils de putain.

Qui preste à l'ami perd au double: Prov. He that lends to his friend a double losse incurres.

Prestere. A tempest, or whirlewind.

Prestesse: f. Readinesse, promptnesse, diligence, quicknesse, nimblenesse.

Presteur: m. A lender; also, one that sells vpon trust.

Presteux: m. euse: f. Lending, putting out vnto loane.

Prestiges: f. Deceits, impostures, delusions, iugling or cousening tricks.

Prestigiateur: m. A Jugler, a cousening Inchaunter, a cheating Coniurer.

Prestitué: m. ée: f. Prescribed, limited, appointed vnto.

Prestolant: m. A Steward, or Ouerseer, a Bailife of the husbandrie, or ouer husbandmen; a Surueyor ouer a farme.

Prest-oreille. Attentiue, listening, or harkening, lending an eare vnto.

Prestraille: f. Bauld shauelings, paultrie Priests; or as;

Prestraillerie. la p. Priests; or th'Order of Priesthood; or the whole packe of seruile Priests.

Prestal: m. ale: f. Priestlie, Priest-like, of or belonging vnto Priests.

Prestre: m. A Priest.

Bonnet de prestre. Spindle-tree, Prick-wood, Prick-timber.

Coquille de prestre. Chickweed.

Couillon de prestre. See Couillon.

Couronne de prestre. His shauen crowne; also, the bearbe Dandelion, Priests-crowne, Pissabed.

Apres Pasques, & Rogation, fi de prestre, & d'oignon: Prov. (Belike because in hot weather, which comes quickly after, they stinke both alike.)

Apres la poire le vin, ou le prestre: Prov. After a peare wine, or the Priest.

Bon gré mal gré va la prestre au Sené: Prov. as vnder Gré.

Mestier n'avons d'hardi prestre: Prov. We haue no need of a cõragious Priest; valour's a needlesse vertue in a Church-man.

Qui veut tenir nette maison il n'y faut prestre ny pigeon: Prov. For (we say) Priests, and Pigeons make foule houses.

Prestresse: f. A she Priest; also, a Priests leyman, wench, or whore.

Prestrise: f. Priesthood; th'Order, Office, or place of a Priest.

Prestrot: m. A little Priest; a Curate, vnder Priest, or Chauntrie Priest; also, a little bird that somewhat resembles a Linnet,

Presumé: m. ée: f. Presumed, thought, weened, supposed, imagined.

Presumer. To presume, or thinke too well, of himselfe, to Rebours: m. ſe: f. (Adject.) Croſſe, ouerthwart, wayward, ſurlie; rude, froward; wild, ſauage; vntractable, vnſociable.

Rebours. `A reb. (Adverb.) Arſeward, backward, prepoſterouſly, oblikely, awry, ouerthwartly, quite contrary, full againſt the courſe, wooll, or haire, inſide out, vpſide downe, cleane kamme.

Rebourſant. Going arſeward, backward, the wrong way; working againſt the wooll, or haire; turning, or ſtanding inſide outward, or the vpſide downe.

Rebourſé: m. ée: f. Diſordered, arſeward, ouerthwart, awry; wrought againſt the wooll, or haire; turned inſide outward, or vpſide downeward; placed, or planted the wrong way.

`A flot rebourſé. Vp the water, againſt the tyde, or ſtreame.

Rebourſer. To worke againſt the wooll, or haire; ſet, or place the wrong way; turne inſide outward, vpſide downeward; goe arſeward, or backward; take a courſe againſt all courſe.

Rebourſer chemin. To returne, or come backe (the ſame way he went.)

Rebourſer de coeur. To repent at the verie heart.

Rebourſer le poil du drap. To row, or to raiſe the wooll, or nap of cloth.

Rebourſer vne riviere. To paſſe vp a riuer; to ſayle, or ſwimme againſt the ſtreame thereof.

Rebourſoir: m. The yron combe wherewith Clothworkers raiſe the nap of new cloth.

Rebouſché: m. ée: f. as Rebouché.

Rebouſſé. as Rebours (Adject.)

Rebout: m. A repulſe, foyle, denyall.

Reboutant. Repulſing, repelling; denying.

Rebouté: m. ée: f. Repulſed, repelled, reiected; foyled; alſo, denyed, refuſed; alſo, taunted, rebuked; alſo, beſtowed, or layed vp, in a conuenient place.

Reboutement: m. A repelling, foyling, reiecting; refuſing, denying; taunting, rebuking.

Rebouter. To repulſe, foyle, driue backe; repell, reiect; refuſe, deny; alſo, to rebuke, taunt, or take vp; alſo, to beſtow, or lay vp in a conuenient place.

Reboutonner. To bud; or button, againe.

Rebranſler. To ſhake againe.

Rebras: m. A turning vp, a tucking or foulding vpwards or inwards; alſo, a fadome.

`A double rebras. Thicke and threefold.

Vn entendement à double rebras. An odde head, a notable wit, a terrible pate.

Manches, ou robbes à double rebras. Sleeues, or gownes ſo long, or ſo wide, that they may be twice turned, or tucked, vp.

Rebraſſé: m. ée: f. Turned, foulded, or tucked vp; alſo, plotted, or contriued anew.

Bien rebraſſé. Confidently, audaciouſly; alſo, earneſtly, as one that meant not to dally.

Vn des plus rebraſſez. One of the forwardeſt, or buſieſt, of the companie.

Rebraſſer. To turne, fould, or tucke vp, the ſleeues, &c; alſo, to plot, contriue, or deuiſe anew.

Rebriché: m. A motiue, or aduertiſement in writing vpon an Inqueſt.

Rebricher. To make a motiue, or aduertiſement in writing vpon an Inqueſt.

Rebridé: m. ée: f. Bridled againe.

Rebrider. To bridle againe.

Rebrillement: m. A double glittering, or twinckling; a twinckling, or ſparkling reflection.

Rebriſé: m. ée: f. Bruiſed, or broken againe.

Rebriſer. To bruiſe, or breake againe.

Rebrocarder. To retort a ieaſt.

Rebroïé. Seeke Rebroyé.

Rebroſſer. To returne, to retyre; alſo, to bend; alſo, to turne vp the point, edge, or end, of a thing.

Rebroſſer la terre. To breake vp the ground.

Rebrouiller. To mingle, or confound anew.

Rebrouſſé: m. ée: f. Turned, tucked, bent vpward; alſo, returned, retyred.

Rebrouſſer. To turne, or tucke vp the ſleeues; alſo, as Rebroſſer.

Rebrouſſer chemin. To turne backe, or to returne the ſame way he came.

Rebrouſter. To browſe, or nibble againe.

Rebroyé: m. ée: f. Brayed, ſtamped, pownded againe.

Rebroyer. To bray, ſtampe, or pownd againe.

Rebruire. To reſound; or to make a new rumbling.

Rebrunir. To burniſh, or furbiſh anew.

Rebuglant. Lowing, bellowing againe; alſo, reſounding.

Rebugler. To low, or bellow againe; alſo, to ring, or to reſound.

Rebus (ou, Equivoques de la peinture à la parole) be repreſentations of ordinarie, or odde things, accompanied with mottos, or words, which as they ſtand, ſeeme to make a ſentence, but pronounced French-like, and without ſtop, deſcribe the things repreſented: As for example; a foole being painted kneeling, with a horne at his mouth, and the words, fol age nous trompe neere him, pronounce them as aforeſaid, and you haue, fol à genous trompe.

Rebut: m. The reffuſe, offalls, outcaſts, or leauings of better things; alſo, a foyle, repulſe, reiecting, putting backe.

Brebis de rebut. Drapes, Cullings, or Kebbers; old, or diſeaſed ſheepe which be not worth keeping.

Madame de rebut. A loathſome queane, raſcallie drab, ouerworne punke, pockie whore; whence, Les paſles couleurs de Madame de rebut. The Pocks.

Rebutable: com. Reiectable, refuſable; foylable.

Rebuté: m. ée: f. Repulſed, foyled, reiected, denyed; alſo, retyred, withdrawne, diſuſed, from.

Rebutée: f. A repulſe, foyle; reiection, denyall.

Rebuter. To repulſe, repell, foyle, driue, put, or thruſt backe; to reiect, refuſe, deny.

Recaché: m. ée: f. Hidden againe.

Recacher. To hide againe.

Recacheter. To ſeale once more.

Recalcitrer. To kicke, winſe, or ſtrike backe with the heeles.

Recalculé: m. ée: f. Recalculated, whereof a new calculation is made.

Recalculer. To recalculate, or make a new computation of.

Recamé: m. ée: f. Imbrodered.

Recamer. To imbroder.

Recancelé: m. ée: f. Recancelled, cancelled againe.

Recanceler. To cancell againe.

Recanement: m. The braying of an Aſſe.

Recaner. To bray like an Aſſe.

Recapitulation: f. A recapitulation; a ſhort rehearſall, a ſuccinct relation, of things alreadie delivered at large.

Recapitulé: m. ée: f. Recapitulated.

Recapituler. To recapitulate; rehearſe, relate, make a ſhort repetition of a long diſcourſe.

Recarder la laine. To card wooll ouer againe.

Recargaiſon: f. A backe-fraught, or the lading of a ſhip home againe.

Re-

Recarreler ſouliers. To ſet new ſoles on ſhooes.
Recaſſé: m. ée: f. Caſſed, or aboliſhed againe.
Recaſſer. To caſſe, diſcharge; aboliſh againe.
Recavé: m. ée: f. Hollowed, or digged into, againe.
Recaver. To hollow, or dig into, againe.
Receindre. To gird anew.
Recelation: f. An extreame concealing, hiding, ſuppreſſion; couering, or keeping verie cloſe.
Recelé: m. as Recelée.
Recelé: m. ée: f. Suppreſſed, cloſe hidden, much concealed, exceedingly diſſembled; alſo, receiued as a ſtolne thing.
Recelée: f. A concealement, ſuppreſſion, cloſe hiding of; alſo, a fine of 60 s due to a Lord Cenſuel by the purchaſor, which hath not, within eight dayes after the purchaſe, made him acquainted with it.
Recelément. Hiddenly, couertly, cloſely, moſt priuily.
Recelement: m. as Recelation; alſo, a priuie receiuing of ſtolne goods.
Receler. Cloſely to hide, couer, conceale, diſſemble, ſuppreſſe; alſo, to receiue ſtolne things.
Recelereſſe: f. A concealereſſe; alſo, a woman that priuily receiueth ſtolne goods.
Receleur: m. A hider, concealer, ſuppreſſor; a ſecret receiuer of ſtolne goods.
Recelle, & Recellée. as Recelée.
Recengler vn cheval. To gird a horſe againe.
Recensé: m. ée: f. Numbred, told, reckoned; recited, rehearſed, related; muſtered, peruſed, viewed ouer.
Recenſement: m. A numbring, telling, reckoning vp of; a rehearſing, relating, reciting; alſo, a muſtering, peruſing, viewing ouer.
Recenſer. To number, tell, reckon; relate, recite, rehearſe; peruſe, muſter, view ouer.
Recent: m. ente: f. Recent, freſh, new, late, but now come or done.
Recentement. Recently, freſhly, newly, lately, a little before, ſoone after.
Recepé: m. ée: f. Cut off, or away; alſo, repaired, mended; or underſet, (as an vndermined wall) at the bottome.
Receper tout le bois. To ſtocke it vp, or cut it wholly away.
Receper vne muraille. To repaire, or mend it at the bottome.
Recepice. as Recepiſſé.
Recepiſſé: m. An Acquittance, Diſcharge, or Note, acknowledging the receit of a thing.
Receptacle: m. A receptacle, ſtore-houſe, or ware-houſe; alſo, a ſinke, or ſewer; any thing thats fit for the receiuing, or ſafe-keeping, of things.
Receptaire: m. A Receptarie; a note of Phiſicall receipts.
Recepte: f. A receit; a receiuing, taking, accepting, admitting; the full ſatisfaction of a debt.
Receptes generales des finances. Generall Receits, or places for the receit, of the Kings reuenue; Theſe be Paris, Chaalons, Amiens, Rouën, Caën, Bourges, Orleans, Tours, Poictiers, Rion, Agen, Tholoſe, Montpellier, Lyon, Aix, Grenoble, & Dijon: A chaſcune deſquelles ſont departies les plus prochaines Receptes particulieres tant du domaine, que des Aides, &c.
Reception: f. A reception, receit, receiuing; alſo, an aſſignation of a place for the receit of money, as at the Exchequer.
Receptoire: m. A Receptorie; any place, or veſſell, thats fit to receiue.
Recepveur. as Receveur.
Recerceller. To hoope, or incircle anew; alſo, to curle, or turne vp, as the haire.
Recerche: f. A diligent ſearch, inquiſition, examination; a ſerious groping, feeling, ſifting, ſounding.
Cela eſt de recerche. That is greatly ſought after, often layed for, much hunted after, exceedingly in requeſt.
Recerché: m. ée; f. Diligently ſearched, or examined; much hunted, inquired, or ſought after; greatly in requeſt.
Recercher. Diligently to ſearch, examine; hunt, inquire, after; earneſtly to ſeeke, looke, ſound, feele, grope, for.
Recercher le bout de la fuſée. To intreat of, or fall into, his former ſubiect.
Recercheur: m. A diligent ſearcher, examiner, inquirer; feeler, ſounder.
Receu: m. as Recepiſſé.
Receu: m. euë: f. Taken, receiued, admitted, accepted of.
Recevable: com. Receiuable, acceptable, admittable, fit to be taken.
Monnoye recevable. Currant money.
Receveur: m. A Receiuer.
Aux receveurs les honneurs, & aux femmes leurs douleurs: Pro. Looke Femme.
Recevoir. To receiue, take, accept, admit of; to intertaine; comprehend, containe.
Fin de non recevoir. Reaſons for the reiecting of a plea; or for the caſting of a cauſe out of a Court: hereof ſome be temporall, and dilatorie; ſome perpetuall, and peremptorie.
Se faire recevoir par main ſouveraine. When a Landlord refuſes, without iuſt cauſe, the homage and fealtie of his vaſſall; or when two Lords contend for the tenure of one fief, the vaſſall (who in the ſecond caſe is not bound to acknowledge either of them as long as their ſuit continues) hath his recourſe vnto ſome royall Iudge (that vſually deales in feodall cauſes) and by him may be admitted as amply to all purpoſes, as if the Lord himſelfe had done it: But the Lord muſt in this caſe be ſummoned vnto the admiſſion.
Recez: m. Recoylings, retyralls, retreats, goings backe; alſo, departures or abſences from; and hence, Les Eſcholes ont leurs recez. Haue their vacations, or times, wherein ſchollers be not at them.
Rechaffaudé: m. ée: f. Set, or preſented, on a ſcaffold againe.
Rechaffauder. To ſet vp, or ſet on, a ſcaffold againe.
Rechamailler. To hacke, hew, ſlaſh, mall, or charge, afreſh.
Rechaner. To bray like an Aſſe.
Rechange: f. Shift, change, interchange.
Doré, & argenté à rechange. Parcell guilt; or, interchangeably ſilured and guilt.
Robbes de rechange. Change, or choice of garments; ſhift of apparrell; ſeuerall ſuits.
Rechangé: m. ée: f. Shifted, ſcoorſed, interchanged; alſo, changed againe.
Rechangement: m. A ſhifting, interchanging, exchanging; alſo, a changing againe.
Rechanger. To ſhift, interchange, exchange; alſo, to change againe.
Rechangeur: m. An interchanger, or exchanger; a changer againe.

Rechanté: m. ée: f. Resounded, or sung againe; also, repeated, reiterated, rehearsed.
Rechanter. To sing, ring, or sound, againe; also, to repeat, reiterate, rehearse.
Recharge: f. A recharge, surcharge, new charge.
Ils cannonerent avec telle recharge. Their Artillerie went off so thicke together.
Par sa lettre il luy fit nouvelle recharge. He moued, vrged, or solicited him anew by his letter.
Rechargé: m. ée: f. Recharged, charged anew.
Rechargeoüer: m. A Spring; the Ginne set for Snites, Woodcocks, &c.
Recharger. To recharge; to giue a new charge vnto, a fresh charge on; to redouble a commission, commaund, or assault; also, to resolicite, or to reply.
Recharger par dessus. To surcharge, ouercharge, ouerlay; also, to lay ouer, or vpon.
Rechassé: m. ée: f. Repelled, retorted, thrust back; chased, or driuen from.
Rechasser. To repell, retort, thrust backe; chase, or driue away from.
Rechatouiller. To tickle againe.
Rechaucher. as Rechausler.
Rechaussé: m. ée: f. Heated againe; also, heated; Looke Eschaussé.
Rechauffement: m. A heating againe; also, a heating, or putting into heat.
Rechauffer. To heat, or warme againe; also, to heat, put into heat, giue warmth vnto.
Rechauffer vn chien. To make him lustie, or desirous of the bitch; to bring him into, prouoke him vnto, lust.
Rechault: m. A Chasing-dish; also, hot coales, or embers (vsed sometimes in stead, or for want, of a Chasing-dish.)
Rechaussé: m. ée: f. New hosed, or shod; hosed, or shod againe; also, couered (as a tree) at the root, foot, or bottome.
Rechaussement: m. A new shooing or hosing, a shooing or hosing againe; also, a couering (or new couering) at the root, foot, or bottome.
Rechausser. To bestow new hose, or shooes, on; (Se Rechausser. To put them on, or put them on againe;) also, to couer at the root, foot, or bottome: whence;
Rechausser vn arbre. To lay new earth about the root of a tree.
Recheance: f. A possession in trust; the vse or custodie of a thing on condition, or with a prouiso, to restore it.
Rechef. De re. Againe, afresh, efisoones, anew.
Recheminer. To walke againe.
Recheoir. To returne, fall backe or againe.
Recherche, & Rechercher. Looke Recerche, & Recercher.
Rechevillé: m. ée: f. Pegged, or pinned, anew.
Rechevillier. To peg, or pinne, anew.
Recheute: f. A recidiuation, relapse, new fall.
Recheuter. To relapse; to fall backe, or againe.
Rechiffrer. To make new ciphers, to reexamine by ciphering, to cipher ouer againe.
Rechignant. Powting, frowning, lowring.
Rechignard: m. A frowning, lowring, powting, sullen, soure-looking, dogged, or grimme fellow.
Rechigné: m. ée: f. Frowning, lowring, soure-looking, powting, sullen, dogged, grimme.
Rechignement: m. Grimnesse, frowning, lowring; a powting, sullennesse, doggednesse.
Rechignément. Frowningly, grimly, lowringly, with a crabbed, or soure looke.

Rechigner. To frowne, lowre, powt, be surlie, looke sullenly, sourely, grimly, doggedly.
Rechigner des dents. To gyrne, or grinne like a dog.
Rechiné, & Rechiner. as Rechigné, & Rechigner.
Rechoir. Looke Recheoir.
Rechoisir. To chuse againe.
Recidive: f. A recidiuation, relapse.
Recidivé: m. ée: f. Relapsed, fallen backe, or againe.
Recidiver. To recidiuate, relapse, fall backe, or againe.
Recimenter. To cement, or parget ouer anew.
Reciné: m. An after-noones nuncheon, or collation; an Aunders-meat.
Reciner. To feed betweene dinner and supper; to make an afternoones collation.
Recipé: m. A Phisitions Receit; the bill, or ticket whereby he directs the Apothecarie.
Reciprocation: f. A reciprocation, returning, mutuall yeelding, or interchanging.
Reciproque: com. Reciprocall, mutuall, interchangeable, one for another.
Reciproquer. To reciprocate, interchange, returne one for another.
Recirer. To put new Wax vnto, to Wax againe.
Recise. Hearbe Auens, Bennet, or Bleßed.
Recision: f. A recision, cancelling, or cutting off.
Recit: m. A recitall, rehearsall, narration, declaration.
Sans faire recit du demeurant. Omitting the rest.
Recitateur: m. A recitor, a repeater, a rehearser, a declarer.
Recité: m. ée: f. Recited, repeated, rehearsed.
Recitement: m. A reciting, repeating, rehearsing.
Reciter. To recite, repeat, rehearse; to declare, or tell ouer againe; also, to cite, adiourne, or summon the second time.
Reciteur. as Recitateur.
Reclaim: m. A praying in aid of a Superior; a petition, or complaint made vnto a higher power; also, as Reclain; or, a bill of Complaint exhibited against a debtor, who being bound in an obligation vnder the Seale Royall, breaketh his promise.
Reclain. as Reclaim; or, a refusall to pay the contents of an obligation; or (as in some customes) the summe limitted by a Sentence.
Reclam: m. as Reclame.
Reclamation: f. A contradiction, gainesaying, or crying against; also, a challenge, or demaund; a prosecution, pursuit, or suit in Law; also, an often calling vpon, an earnest crying vnto.
Reclame: f. A Sohoe, or Heylaw; a lowd calling, whooting, or whooping to make a Hawke stoope vnto the Lure; also, a clayme, or challenge.
Reclamé: m. ée: f. Called often or instantly, earnestly cryed vnto; also, repugned, contradicted, gainsayed; exclaimed vpon, complained against; also, sued, prosecuted, pursued; also, demaunded, challenged; owned.
Reclamer. To call often, or instantly, to cry vnto earnestly; also, to repugne, contradict, gainesay; exclaime vpon, complaine against; also, to sue, pursue, or prosecute in Law; also, to claime, challenge; demaund; owne.
Reclamer son homme de corps. A Lord to prosecute or pursue his villaine which is gone, without his leaue, to reside in a forraine Prouince, or Iurisdiction.
Recliner. as Encliner.

Re-

Reclorre. To ſhut, or cloſe vp againe; (alſo, as Biner, in Languedoc.)
Reclos: m. ose: f. Shut, or cloſed vp againe.
Reclouër. To nayle againe.
Reclus: m. use: f. Cloſely kept in, or ſhut vp, as a Monke, or Nunne; retyred, ſolitarie.
Recocquebillé: m. ée: f. Snackit, or whoſe end turnes vpward; whence;
Nez recocquebillé. Whoſe bridge is flat or hollow in the middeſt, and turnes vp at the end.
Recogneu: m. euë: f. Recognized, acknowledged, called vnto remembrance.
Recognoiſſance: f. A recognizing, agnition, acknowledgement; alſo, a Badge, or Cogniſance; alſo, an acknowledgement of tenure, or that he holds his land of another.
Recognoiſſant: m. ante: f. Recognizing, acknowledging; remembring, or calling vnto mind.
Recognoiſtre. To recognize, agnize, acknowledge, adnow, take notice or acquaintance of; call vnto mind, or memorie; alſo, to take a preciſe view of, looke eſpecially or diligently at; alſo, to acknowledge a tenure, or that he holds of another.
Il ſe recognoiſt â la langue Italienne. He is well ſeene, or skilfull, in the Italian.
C'eſt vne vache de Barbarie qui ne recognoiſt que ſon propre veau; Looke Barbarie.
Folie faire, & folie recognoiſtre ſont deux pairés de folie: Prov. To doe euill, and then brag of it, is a double wickedneſſe.
Se Recoibler. To withdraw, or to retire, himſelfe.
Recoiffer. To dreſſe or attire (as a woman) her head anew, to put on her coiſe againe.
Recoigné: m. ée: f. Knocked, or wedged, in againe.
Recoigner. To wedge, or knocke, in againe.
Recoin: m. A corner, by-place, odde hole.
Recolé: m. ée: f. (Teſmoings recolez) recalled, and reexamined.
Recolement de teſmoings. A reexamination of witneſſes (eſpecially when they haue not depoſed fully, or plainely, enough) before they be confronted with ſuch as they haue accuſed: Tis alſo vſed, ſometimes, in tryalls vpon ciuill Actions; howſoeuer, their former depoſitions are firſt read vnto them.
Recoler teſmoings. To reexamine witneſſes, or ſummon them vnto a reexamination, &c; as in Recollement.
Recollationné: m. ée: f. Reexamined by the Originall.
Recollationner. To take a new collation; alſo, to reexamine a copie by the Originall, or one writing by another.
Recoller. To glue againe.
Recollets: m. A certaine vpſtart ſect of Franciſcan Fryers.
Recolorer. To colour anew, to ſet freſh colours on.
Recolte: f. A gathering, reaping, harueſt.
Les ſoldats ont fait leur recolte. Haue beene a forraging, haue got in their forrage.
Recombatre. To fight againe.
Recombler. To add heape vnto heape, to fill vp againe.
Reconfort &c. Looke Reconfort &c.
Recommandable: com. Recommendable, commendable, praiſe-worthie.
Recommandablement. Recommendably, commendably, praiſe-worthily.
Recommandaces: f. Funerall prayers, or praiſes.
Recommandatif: m. iue: f. Recommendatiue, recommending.
Recommandation: f. A recommendation.
Recommandatoire: com. Commendatorie, recommendatorie.
Recommandé: m. ée: f. Recommended, praiſed, commended vnto.
Avoir vne choſe pour recommandée. To haue a care, to make account of.
Recommander. To recommend, or commend, vnto; to giue one charge, to commit vnto the care, of; alſo, to praiſe, or ſpeake well of.
Ie me recommande à leurs eſpaules. Woe to their ſhoulders, for they are ſure of a cudgelling.
De preſcheur qui ſe recommande en tout temps bon heur nous defende: Prov. From begging Preachers fortune ſtill defend vs.
Recommandereſſes: f. Such women as by commending, and vndertaking for, maids, procure them ſeruices.
Recommandeur: m. A recommendor, commendor, praiſer.
Recommencé: m. ée: f. Recommenced, iterated, renewed, begun againe.
Recommencer. To recommence, iterate, renew, begin afreſh.
Ce ſera touſiours à recommencer. This worke requires ſo many renewings, as it will neuer be done; or, ſo may we toyle ſtill hard and be no whit the neerer, or neuer haue done.
Recommendable &c. as Recommandable &c.
Recommuniquer. To recommunicate, reimpart, conferre with againe.
Recompenſe: f. A recompence, meed, reward, guerdon.
Recompenſé: m. ée: f. Recompenced, guerdoned, rewarded, remunerated.
Recompenſement: m. A guerdoning, recompencing, remunerating, rewarding.
Recompenſer. To recompence, guerdon, remunerate, reward.
Recompenſeur: m. A recompencer.
Recompoſer. To recompoſe, to frame anew.
Recompter. To count, or tell ouer, againe.
Reconciliateur: m. A reconciler, pacifyer, peace-maker.
Reconciliation: f. A reconciliation, pacification, attonement, agreement.
Reconcilier. To reconcile, pacifie, attone, agree, make peace, renew loue betweene, bring into fauor againe.
Reconcilier vne egliſe. To purge, clenſe, reconſecrate a Church by faſting, prayers, &c.
Recondamner. To recondemne, or condemne againe.
Recondit: m. ite: f. Hidden, concealed, kept ſecret.
Reconduire. To reconduct, bring backe, lead or guide homeward againe.
Reconduiſeur: m. A reconductor; a leader, bringer, guider backe, or homeward againe.
De meſchant hoſte bon reconduiſeur: Pro. Looke Hoſte.
Reconferer. To reconferre, or talke of the matter againe.
Reconfermé: m. ée: f. Reconfirmed, reinforced, reaſſured.
Reconfermer. To reconfirme, reinforce, reaſſure.
Reconfeſſer. To reconfeſſe, or confeſſe againe.
Reconfiné: m. ée: f. Reconfined, baniſhed anew.
Reconfiner. To reconfine, or baniſh anew.
Reconfiſquer. To reconfiſcate, or make a new ſeiſure vnto the Princes, or publike, vſe.
Reconfort: m. Great ſolace, or comfort, much conſolation.
Reconforté: m. ée: f. Much comforted.

Reconforter. To comfort, or solace much; to ease, or cheere vp, exceedingly.
Promettre sans donner est fol reconforter: Prov. To promise onely does a foole much good; or the foole is fully satisfied with bare promises.
Reconfronter. To reconfront, reaccoast, compare once more together.
Reconfuter. To reconfute, or confute againe.
Recongreger. To reassemble, to rally.
Reconjuré: m. ée: f. Reconiured.
Reconjurer. To reconiure, to coniure againe.
Reconnoissable: com. Acknowledgable.
Reconquerir. To resubdue, reconquer, conquer againe, to recouer.
Reconquerre. as Reconquerir.
Reconqueste: f. A reconqueſt; a recouerie by conqueſt.
Reconquester. To reconquer, to recouer by conqueſt; to winne, get, or purchase againe.
Reconquister. as Reconquerir.
Reconsé: m. ée: f. Hidden, concealed, withdrawne.
Reconsement: m. A concealing, hiding, withdrawing.
Reconser. To conceale, hide, withdraw.
Reconsiderer. To consider, or thinke, better of the matter.
Reconsigner. To reconsigne, reassigne, reappoint; reexhibit, vnto.
Reconsoler. To recomfort.
Reconsolidé: m. ée: f. Reconsolidated, closed vp againe.
Reconstruire. To build vp againe.
Reconsulter. To reconsult of, take new aduise on.
Recontemplé: m. ée: f. Recontemplated, reuiewed.
Recontempler. To recontemplate, reuiew.
Recontester. To recontest; make new protestation of, or complaint vnto.
Recontracté: m. ée: f. Recontracted.
Recontracter. To recontract, or passe a new contract.
Recontraindre. To reconstraine, to compell againe.
Reconvaincre. To reconuince.
Reconvenir. To reassemble, reunite; agree anew; also, to fit, or suit passing well; also, to recommence a Suit in Law.
Reconvention: f. A new agreement; also, the reuiuing of a Law-suit.
Reconvertir. To reconuert.
Reconvié: m. ée: f. Reinuited.
Reconvier. To reinuite.
Reconvoquer. To reassemble, or call together againe.
Reconvoy: m. A reconuoy, or attendance backe.
Reconvoyé: m. ée: f. Reconuoyed, reconducted.
Reconvoyer. To reconuoy, reconduct; bring, or lead, a returner onward on the way.
Reconvoyeur: m. A reconuoyer, a reconductor.
Recopier. To copie out againe.
Recoquillé: m. ée: f. as Recroquillé; also, lustie, cranke, peart, in comparison of that he was.
Recoquiller. To wrigle, wrythe, turne inward, or into it selfe, like a worme when tis touched, or a gold or siluer thread when tis broken; also, to wind shell-wise; also, to reuiue, wax lustie, grow peart, take heart againe.
Recoquiller vn livre. To rumple, or turne vp, the leaues thereof.
Recoquilleure: f. A curling, wrything, crooking, turning, or bending inwards; also, a reuiuing, a growing peart, lustie, cranke, a taking heart at grasse.
Recoquiner. To fall a begging, to returne to beggerie.

Record: m. A Record; a witnesse (that remembers well the thing he witnesses;) also, a testification; also, a repetition, recitall, relation (in Court) of things done.
Records. Two persons whom a Sergeant vsed, heretofore, to haue with him (or call vnto him) when he arrested, or serued a Writ on, a man: In the first case, clapping them on the shoulders, he willed them to beare witnesse what he had done; in the second, they signed, together with him, the returne of the Writ; or, if they could not write, he signified in it their names, and presence: These Records were to be sufficient, and well-knowne inhabitants of that place; and neither kinsmen, allyes, nor of the household, of the partie that imployed the Sergeant.
Recordation: f. A recordation, a remembrance.
Recordé: m. ée: f. New-strung; also, testified; also, repeated, recited, related (as a thing thats well remembred;) also, reported, notified, certified.
Exploict recordé. Executed by a Sergeant in the presence of Records, or two witnesses.
Recordeler. To string anew; also, to twyne againe an vntwisted cord, or string.
Recorder. To put a new string vnto (or, as Recordeler;) also, to testifie; also, to repeat, recite, relate, rehearse; to report, certifie, notifie, make a returne (as a Sergeant of the Writs deliuered vnto him.)
Se recorder. To remember, or call to mind.
Recordeur: m. A witnesse; one that was present at the deed doing, and remembers it well.
Recorrigé: m. ée: f. Recorrected, redreſsed.
Recorriger. To recorrect, reuiew, redreſse.
Recors: m. A Witnesse, a Record.
Recors. Remembring, mindfull of, hauing in mind.
Recouché. Layen downe, or layed downe, againe.
Recoucher. To lye downe, or get to bed, againe.
Recouldre. To sow ouer againe.
Recouler. To runne, glide, or slide, backe.
Recoulourer. To giue new colour, to add a new dye, vnto.
Recoupe. Larec. See Recoupes.
Recouper. To cut againe; also, to reply quickly and sharpely vnto a peremptorie demaund, or quip; to returne taunt for taunt, nip for nip, gird for gird; also, to vrge, or lay hard vnto with quipping words, or questions.
Recoupes: f. Shreds, clippings, parings, chippings; also, a middle sort of Branne.
Recoupler. To couple againe.
Recourbant. Bending, or bowing backward.
Recourbé: m. ée: f. Bent, or bowed backward.
Recourbement: m. A bowing, crooking, bending backward, or againe.
Recourber. To bow, crooke, bend backe, or againe.
Recourir. To runne hastily ouer; also, to rescue.
Recourir à. To runne, recourse, or haue recourse, vnto.
Recouronner. To crowne againe.
Recourquebillé. as Recocquebillé.
Recourroucer. To anger againe.
Recours: m. A recourse, refuge, retreat, a returning vnto; (also, an Outcry for goods, or a letting of lands by Outcry; ¶ Wallon;) also, a redreſse, remedie, helpe.
Recours de garantie. A vouching; a calling of a donor, or seller to warrant, and make good, the graunt or bargaine which he passed.
Recours reservé. A reseruation of libertie for one that is condemned, or cast in Law, to seeke his redresse where he thinkes best.
Monnoye de bon recours. That paßes very currantly.

Re-

Recourſe : f. as Recours.
Recourſer. To tucke, truſſe, or turne vp the garments.
Recouſſe : f. A reſcue, recouerie, recouering ; a deliuerie from preſent danger.
Recouſu : m. uë : f. Sowed againe.
Recouſure : f. A new ſowing, or ſtitching vp.
Recouvrable : com. Recouerable, reſcuable, reobtainable ; alſo, gettable, procurable.
Recouvrance : f. A recouerie, reobtainment, procurement.
Recouvré : m. ée : f. Recouered, reobtained, reſcued ; alſo, gotten, procured.
Recouvrement : m. A recouerment, recouering, reobtaining ; alſo, a getting, or procuring.
Recouvrer. To recouer, to reobtaine, to reſcue, to get againe ; alſo, to get, or procure.
Recouvreur : m. A mender of ſlated, or thatched houſes.
Recouvrir. To couer againe.
Recoux : m. ouſe : f. Reſcued, recouered from an imminent danger.
Recoy : m. Reſt, quiet, eaſe.
Recracher. To ſpit againe.
Recrant. as Recreant.
Recreance : f. A reſtorall, reſtitution, giuing backe of ; alſo, a deliuerie of poſſeſſion ; and, a poſſeſſion giuen in a ſuit vnto one of the parties (who proues that he enioyed the thing all the yeare before) by Sentence prouiſionall, or vpon truſt, vntill the cauſe be determined ; alſo, wearineſſe, faintneße, faint-heartedneſſe ; alſo, a refreſhment, recreation, reuiuing, cheering vp.
L'Incident de recreance. A ſuit wherein the demaundant is bound to forfeit a ſumme of money, if the thing he ſues for proue not his ; and the defendant likewiſe is bound, not to impaire it while the poſſeſſion is his.
Recreant. Tired, toyled, wearied, ſpent, iaded, out of heart, or faint-hearted, cleane done.
Recreatif : m. iue : f. Recreatiue, delightfull, pleaſant, ſportfull, merrie.
Recreation : f. Recreation, paſtime, ſport, a delightfull or pleaſant exerciſe.
Recreativement. Recreatiuely, with recreation, to his recreation, ſportfully, delightfully, pleaſantly.
Recreer. To recreate, refreſh, cheere vp, delight, ſolace, reuiue, pleaſe.
Recremens : m. Excrements.
Recreſpé. as Creſpu.
Recrespir vne muraille. To new-parget a wall.
Recreu : m. euë : f. Tired, wearie, toyled, iaded, ſpent, out of heart, faint-hearted.
Iamais François ne furent veus recreus de bien faire : Prov. Looke François.
Recreuë : f. A ſupplie, or filling vp of a defectiue companie of ſouldiers, &c.
Recrever. To burſt againe.
Recreuſé : m. ée : f. Hollowed againe.
Recreuſer. To hollow, or make hollow againe.
Recribler. To ſift ouer againe.
Recrier. To crie againe, giue a crie for a crie, anſwer a-lowd vnto a lowd demaund.
Recrimination : f. A recrimination, an accuſation of an accuſer, the retorting of a crime.
Recriminer. To recriminate, retort a crime, accuſe an accuſer.
Recrochu : m. uë : f. as Recoquebillé ; or as Recroquillé.
Recroire. To beleeue againe ; alſo, to reſeiſe, rearreſt ; alſo, to reſtore, deliuer or giue, backe.
Recroiſer. To croße, or cancell againe.
Recroiſet : m. ette : f. Whence ; Croix recroiſette. A croße Croſſet, or Croſſelet (in Blazon.)
Recroiſt : m. A reincreaſe ; a new, or ſecond growth.
Recroiſtre. To reincreaſe ; to grow, or ſpring vp, againe.
Recrocquebillage : m. A bookie, crooking, bending, bowing ; winding, or turning inwards.
Recroquebillé, & Recroquevillé. as Recroquillé.
Recroquillé : m. ée : f. Crooked, bent, bending, ſnatkit, retorted ; bowing, foulding, or turning ; bowed, foulded, wound, or turned, inwards.
Recroquillement : m. A crooking, bending, bowing, retorting, turning, winding, or foulding, inwards.
Recroquiller. To retort, crooke, bend, bow, turne, fould, or wind, inwards.
Recroquillonné. as Recroquillé.
Recrotter. To bedaggle, or bedurtie againe.
Recru. as Recreu.
Recrudi : m. ie : f. Made, or growne, raw.
Recrudir. To make (or wax) raw.
Rectangle : m. A ſtraight, or euen angle ; a corner whoſe lines are ioyned ſo, as no part falls out longer, or ſhorter then other.
Recte : f. Right, equitie, iuſtice, honeſtie. (v. m.)
Recteur. (in Languedoc, as in France Curé) A Curate, or Parſon.
Recteur de l'Vniverſité. The Rector, the Vicechancelor.
Rectificateur : m. A Rectifier.
Rectification : f. A rectification, or a rectifying ; a correction, purification, ſeparation of pure from vnpure ſtuffe, by a ſecond diſtilling, &c.
Rectifié : m. ée : f. Rectified ; corrected, purified ; twice diſtilled ; refined by a ſecond, or by frequent diſtilling.
Rectifier. To rectifie, correct, purifie, purge ; to ſeparate the pure, fine, right, from th'impure, große, adulterate ſtuffe, by diſtillation.
Rectorerie : f. A Rectorſhip, a Vicechancelorſhip.
Rectorial : m. ale : f. Rectoriall, Rector-like ; belonging to a Rector, or Vicechancelor.
Recueil : m. A collection, gathering, reaping ; alſo, a welcome, or intertainment.
Recueillant. Collecting, gathering together ; alſo, intertaining, or welcoming.
Recueilleur : m. A Collector, a reaper, a gatherer together.
Recueiller. To collect, reape, gather together ; alſo, to welcome, or intertaine.
Grande moiſſon l'obeiſsant recueille : Prov. Great is the Harueſt of th'obedient ; they that can yeeld will thriue.
Recuict : m. cte : f. Againe, or often, boiled ; alſo, wretched, miſerable, niggardlie, miching, pinching, paultrie, dodging.
Recuire. To ſeeth often, or againe ; alſo, to harden, as with ouer-much baking.
Recuire les carreaux. To blanch the Copings, or Planchets whereof coyne is to be made.
Recuire l'or. c'eſt le paſſer vn peù ſur la braiſe.
Recuiſſon : f. A new ſeething, or, a ſeething againe.
Recuit. as Recuict.
Recuitte de laict. whay thickned, or curded, by ſeething ; fleetings, wild curds.
Recul : m. A recoyle, or giuing backe ; alſo, the binder part of a thing.
Reculade : f. A recoyling, a going, or giuing backe ; alſo, a by-hole, a remote or ſecret corner.

Re-

Reculant. Recoyling, giuing backe; En reculant. Backward, arseward.

Reculé: m. ée: f. Recoiled, repulsed, put or drawne backe; remoued, withdrawne, retired; solitarie, all alone, farre off, out of the way.

Reculé de son honneur. Depriued or bereaued of, put or fallen from, the honourable place which he held.

Tu t'es trop reculé d'icy. Thou hast beene too long, or too farre, from hence.

Reculée: f. A recoyle, retire, going or giuing, backe.

Reculement: m. A recoyling, retiring, withdrawing, a giuing backe, a going farre backe, or from, a remouing; also, a refusing, denying, delaying, drawing backe from.

Reculer. To recoyle, retire, giue or draw backe, remoue, withdraw, goe from; to deferre, delay, driue off, runne backe, come to no end.

Reculer pour mieux saulter. Looke Saulter.

Il le recula arriere de soy. He neglected him, respected him not, cast him at his heeles, cared no more for him.

De cheval qui recule au plustost te delivre: Prov. Soone rid thee of a horse thats restie.

Pour neant recule qui malheur attend: Prov. In vaine he flinches that ill hap attends.

Qui contre esguillon recule deux fois se poind: Prov. He's doubly hurt that kickes against a pricke.

Reculons. `A rec. Recoyling, arseward, giuing backeward; cleane contrarie, quite kamme.

Gaigner sa vie à reculons. To liue by going backward; viz. by making of ropes.

Reculorum. `A rec. Backward, behind, or behind-hand; also, forsaken, forgotten, left behind, solitarie, all alone.

Recultiver. To till, or plough againe.

Recupercuté. ¶Rab. Looke Repercuté.

Recurer. To recure, to heale againe.

Recusant. Reiecting, refusing.

Recusation: f. A recusation, reiection, refusall; a waiving, or appealing from.

Recusé: m. ée: f. Reiected, refused; appealed from.

Recuser. To reiect, refuse; waiue, appeale from.

Recutir. To circumcise, to clip or cut about.

Recutit. Circumcised; clipped or cut about; also, newskinned: (Quand le prepuce est trop reboulé, le gland demeurant descouvert, on appelle vn tel recutit.)

Recuver. To tunne, or put into a fat, againe.

Redaigner. To redaigne, to vouchsafe once more.

Redanser. To daunce againe.

Redarder. To retort, or throw back, a Dart.

Redargué: m. ée: f. Checked, blamed, reproued, reprehended, controwled.

Redarguer. To checke, blame, reproue, reprehend, controwle.

Redargution: f. A redargution, checking, reprouing, reprehending, controwling.

Redater. To redate, or adde a new date vnto.

Rede: com. as Roide: ¶Gasc.

Reddition: f. A reddition; a redeliuerie; a restoring, surrendring, yeelding vp, or giuing ouer of.

Redebatre. To redebate the matter; to cauill, or brabble about it againe.

Redebvable: com. Indebted, in arrerages, beholden, or bound vnto.

Redebvable de iurée. Liable to Juries, or subiect to be sworne thereof.

Redebvance: f. A debt, or duetie; or the remainder, or arrerage, of a debt; also, an obligation, or beholdingnesse.

Redebvances. Ce sont les devoirs, ou charges, es quelles les proprietaires sont tenus envers quelque Seigneur feodal, censuel, rentier, pensionnaire, ou terrageur: ¶Ragueau.

Redebvoir: m. A double duetie; or as Redebvance.

Redebvoir. To owe doubly, to owe againe and againe.

Redeclamer. To declaime once more.

Redeclarer. To redeclare, to reexpresse, repeat, relate.

Redecliner. To redecline, to decline againe.

Redecorer. To redecorate, or bedecke againe.

Rededié: m. ée: f. Rededicated.

Rededier. To rededicate, to consecrate or hallow anew.

Rededuire. To rededuct, rediminish, reabate.

Redefaire. To vndoe, or defeat againe.

Redeleguer. To redelegate, reappoint, giue a new commission vnto.

Redeliberer. To redeliberate, redetermine of.

Redemander. To redemaund; recall, aske againe earnestly, require often or instantly.

Redemanger. To itch againe.

Redemener. To stirre, waggle, fig; tosse, tumble, againe.

Redemeurer. To stay once more.

Redemolir. To redemolish, resubuert, ouerthrow againe.

Redemourer. as Redemeurer.

Redempteur: m. A redeemer, a ransomer, a deliuerer.

Redemption: f. A redemption, redeeming, ransoming; a deliuerie of, a purchasing, or buying out, of.

Redenoncé: m. ée: f. Redenounced.

Redenoncer. To redenounce; to publish; threaten; or summon anew.

Redent: m. A double notching, or iagging, as in the teeth of a saw.

Redescendre. To redescend, or goe downe againe.

Redesserrer. To open once more.

Redesfier. To distrust anew.

Redesjuner. To make, or eat, a second breake-fast.

Redespouiller. Againe to spoyle, despoyle, vncloth, strip, or bare of.

Redevable. See Redebvable.

Redevaller. To redescend, let, put, or tumble, downe, againe.

Redevance. as Redebvance.

Redevenir. To returne, rebecome, or become againe.

Redevider. To rediuide, or make a new diuision.

Redevoir. as Redebvoir.

Redhibition: f. A restitution; or, a legall deliuerie, or giuing backe of a thing vnto him that sold it.

Redhibitoire. Whence; Action red. An Action which driues him, that hath sold a naughtie thing, to take it backe againe.

Rediсte: f. A repetition, recitall, iteration, rehearsall.

Chose bien dite n'a replique, ne redicte: Prov. Truth well deliuered preuents replies.

Redifframer. To redefame, to slaunder anew.

Redifier. Looke Réedifier.

Redigé: m. ée: f. Reduced, brought backe, or into; digested, ordered; vrged, or compelled vnto.

Redigé par escript. Couched, reported, set downe in writing.

Rediger. To reduce; bring backe, or into; vrge, or compell vnto; to ranke, order, digest; couch, or set downe, in writing.

Redigerer. To redigest, redigest.

Re-

Rediné : m.ée : f. Redeemed.
Redimer. To redeeme, ranſome, recouer, buy out.
Redins : m. Redding clothes.
Redire. To repeat, rehearſe, recite, ſay or tell ouer againe.
Il n'y aura que redire. It will find him worke ynough I warrant him.
Ou il n'y a que redire. Full, perfect, abſolute, exquiſite; without fault, without want, without lack; wherin nothing is omitted, no more can be deſired then there is.
Tant redire ? What! ſo many repetitions ? ſhall mine eares be ſtill cloyed, ſhall my head be euer beaten, with one tale ?
Rediſner. To dine againe.
Rediſtribuer. To rediſtribute, or deale backe againe.
Redite : f. as Redicte.
Redition : f. A reſtoring, ſurrendring, yeelding vp, giuing ouer of.
Redituaires. Moines red. A ſect of Franciſcan Friers, which haue lands and reuenewes; therein differing from the Mendicants, or begging Friers, who are to poſſeſſe nothing.
Reditte. as Redicte.
Redolent : m. ente : f. Redolent, fragrant, ſweet-ſmelling, odoriferous, pleaſant.
Redompté : m. ée : f. Reſubdued, or tamed againe.
Redompteur : m. A reſubduer of.
Redon : m. A gift returned; or one thing giuen for another; alſo, the requitall of an ill by a good, turne.
Redondage : m. Groſſe, or courſe meale; grudgions.
Redondamment. Redundantly, exceſſiuely, ſuperfluouſly.
Redonder. To redound, ouercharge, fall vpon, returne backe; light, fall, or breake out; run ouer with fullneſſe, abound in exceſſe.
Redonner. To giue backe, to returne.
Qui du ſien donne Dieu luy redonne: Pro. God rewardeth almes-giuers.
Redonter. as Redompter.
Redorer. To gild ouer anew.
Redormir. To ſleepe againe.
Redormiſſement : m. A falling into a new ſleepe, a ſleeping againe.
Redouble : m. A redoublement; double fould, or bought; a redoubling.
Redoublé : m. ée : f. Redoubled; often repeated or doubled.
Redoublement : m. A redoubling, an often doubling.
Redoubler. To redouble; to repeat, or double, often.
Redoubleur : m. A redoubler.
Redoublure : f. A redoubling.
Redoubtable : com. Redoubtable, dreadfull, fearefull, terrible.
Redoubté : m. ée : f. Redoubted, feared, awed, dreaded.
Redoubter. To dread, redoubt, feare, awe.
Redoubtillon : m. A ſcar-crow; any deuice wherwith birds, &c, are frighted away.
Redoupier. A horſe to twine diuers times with one breath.
Redoutant. Redoubting, dreading.
Redouter, & Redoutillon. as Redoubter, & Redoubtillon.
Redreſſé : m. ée : f. Redreſſed; ſtraightened.
Redreſſer. To redreſſe, ſtraighten, ſet or make ſtraight, correct, reforme, amend.
Reduction : f. A reduction, reducing, bringing backe, leading or fetching home againe; alſo, a recouerie, or a reconqueſt of a loſt countrey.
Reduict : m. A retrait, or ſecret place of retirall; alſo, as Reduite.
Reduict : m. cte : f. Looke Reduit.
Reduire. To reduce, bring backe, or vnto; alſo, to lead forth.
Reduire à ſa memoire. To remember, or call vnto remembrance.
Reduire quelqu'un à memoire de. To remember, or put one in mind of.
Reduire vn enfant gaſté. To reclaime him.
Reduire en pouldre. To make duſt, or powder of; to to put or doe into, to pownd or beat vnto, powder.
Reduiſant. Reducing, bringing backe.
Reduit : m. Reduced, brought backe, or into; conducted home againe; alſo, led forth; alſo, brought.
Reduit à l'herbe. In extreame want, moſt bare of meanes, in great neceſſitie; at a verie low ebbe.
Reduit de livres en quarterons. Extreamely waſted, whereof at leaſt three quarters be ſpent.
Reduit au petit pied. Looke Pied.
Reduit au tapis. Cleane out of meanes, and imployment; (and at play) left a bareboord, whoſe money is all loſt.
Reduite : f. A Blockhouſe, or little fort.
Rée. A faultie, or guiltie perſon; one that is accuſed, or arraigned; a defendant in any ſuit.
Reedification : f. A reedification, reediſying, newbuilding.
Reedifié : m. ée : f. Reedified, againe built.
Reedifier. To reedifie, to build againe.
Reel : m. A manner of catching water-fowle.
Réel : m. elle : f. Reall, eſſentiall.
Tailles réelles. Which are impoſed on, or due by reaſon of, land; which follow the land.
Réellement. Really, in verie truth, in verie deed.
Réement : m. The braying, or bellowing of a red Deere.
Reémeré. as Remeré.
Réentement : m. A new graffing, a graffing againe.
Réenter. To graffe anew, or againe.
Réenterrer. To reenterre; to put into the earth againe.
Réer. To bellow, to bray: (In tearmes of hunting we ſay, that the red Deere bells, and the fallow troytes or croynes.)
Réeſtre. To be renewed, or be againe.
Refaçon : f. A ſecond forme, new faſhion, reformation.
Refaçonner. To reforme, to make of a new, or of another, faſhion.
Refaict : m. cte : f. Renewed, repaired, improued, made anew, amended; alſo, plumpe, fattened, high-fed; ſwollen, puffed vp, as parboiled meat.
Chaſteau abbatu eſt à demy refaict : Prov. Looke Chaſteau.
D'un vilain refaict Dieu nous garde : Prov. From a churle growne rich good Lord deliuer vs.
Refaillir. To faile the ſecond time.
Refaire. To repaire, amend, renew, make new; alſo, to parboyle, or make plumpe by parboyling.
Se refaire. To recouer his health, to grow ſtrong, whole, well, in heart, againe.
Refaire ſon nez. To picke vp his crummes againe.
Robbe refait moult l'homme : Prov. Good clothes doe much for a man (that would be handſome.
Refait. Looke Refaict.
Refarder. To paint often, or ouer againe.
Refaſcher. To anger anew.
Refauché : m. ée : f. Cut, or mowed, againe.

Re-

Refaucher. To cut, or mowneerer, or ouer againe.
Refect. as Refaict.
Refection: f. A refection, repaſt, meale; food, ſuſtenance.
Refections d'une maiſon. The reparations of a houſe.
Refectouër: m. A Refectuarie, or Fratrie; the roome wherein Friers eat together.
Refendre. To cleaue, to cut againe.
Refendu: m.uë: f. Cleſt in the middle, or into halues; clouen aſunder, or in two.
Refente: f. A cleft, ſlit, or cut (eſpecially) in the middle of a thing.
Refente de fueilles. The line, or diuiſion that runnes along, or appeares in the middle of, leaues.
Bois de refente. Cleft wood, ſuch as pales, &c, are made of.
Referendaire: m. The Lord Chancelor of France was ſtiled ſo in old time; Now the Referendaire is an Officer inferiour to the Maiſters of Requeſts, for whoſe eaſe it ſeems, he & his cõpanions were, at the firſt, ordained; for they report vnto them th'effect of Petitions preferred vnto, and of Patents that paſſe out of, the ſeuerall Chaunceries of France; and are therefore tearmed otherwiſe, Rapporteurs.
Referer. To recite, repeat, rehearſe, relate, report.
Referir. To ſmite, or ſtrike againe.
Referrer. To cloſe, or ſhut vp againe.
Refetrer. To new-ſhoe a horſe.
Refeſſer. To whip, ierke, or ſcourge againe.
Refeſter. To make a new holy-day.
Refeſtier. To feaſt againe.
Refeſtoyer. The ſame.
Reſſe. vne noix reſſe. An hard-ſheld nut: ¶Bourb.
Reffiron: m. The third gate of the wombe; or the mouth of the matrix, which is cleft acroſſe, and not lengthwiſe, as the Hymen, &c.
Reffonder. Looke Refonder.
Reffort. as Raifort.
Reficher. To faſten againe.
Refier. To truſt once more.
Refiger. To refix, recloſe; clot, coagulate, or curdle together againe.
Refiguré: m.ée: f. Refigured.
Refigurer. To figure, or paint ouer, againe.
Refiler. To ſpinne, or twiſt anew.
Reflairer. To ſmell, vent, or wind againe.
Reflamber. To retort, or beat backe a flame; alſo, to flame backe, or caſt backe flames.
Reflater. To flatter anew.
Reflateur: m. An egregious flatterer, a palpable clawbacke.
Reflechi: m. ie: f. Reflected; bowed, bent, or turned backe.
Reflechir. To reflect; to bow, bend, or turne backe.
Refleſchir. The ſame.
Refleurir. To flouriſh againe.
Refleuter. To pipe, or whiſtle often.
Reflexif: m iue: f. Reflexiue, reflexing.
Reflot: m. An ebbe, or ebbing of waters.
Refloter. To flote, or ſwimme againe; alſo, to ebbe, or fall, as waters after a floud.
Reflourir. as Refleurir.
Reflux: m. The ebbe, or ebbing of the ſea, or of a riuer, after the tide.
Refocillation: f. A refreſhing, reuiuing, recomforting, a new heartening.
Refociller. To refreſh, reuiue, recomfort, recreate, or hearten anew.
Refomenté: m.ée: f. Refomented, cheriſled againe.
Refomenter. To refoment, to warme or cheriſh againe.
Refoncé: m.ée: f. Headed againe, as caske; alſo, plunged, or gone downe to the bottome againe.
Refonder les deſpens. To reſtore, pay, returne, or giue backe, the coſts and charges.
Refondre. To caſt anew, to melt againe.
Refondre les gens. To breed luſtie humors in decayed bodies, to make young men of old.
Refondrement, & Refondrer. as Renfondrement, & Renfondrer.
Reforgé: m.ée: f. New forged, new made, wrought or hammered anew.
Reforger. To forge, worke, hammer, anew.
Reformateur: m. A reformer, corrector, amender.
Reformation: f. Reformation, amendment, correction.
Reformé: m.ée: f. Reformed, corrected, amended; alſo, new-formed, or brought to it former ſhape.
Reformez. Reformiſts, an Order of Franciſcan Fryers.
Reformer. To reforme, amend, correct; repaire, bring into better faſhion.
Refort. Looke Raifort.
Refouëtter. To whip, or ſcourge againe.
Refouiller. To ſearch, ſeele, grope; root, or dig for, anew.
Refouïr. To dig into againe.
Refoulé: m. ée: f. Dulled, blunted; obtuſe; rammed in; troden downe, ſtamped on againe; alſo, tyred, wearied, ouerlaboured, foyled, ouertoyled.
Refoulement: m. A blunting, dulling; ramming in, treading downe; a tyring, foyling, ouertoyling.
Refouler. To dull, blunt; foyle, ſtraine, vex, grieue, tyre, with ouerlabouring; alſo, to tread vpon againe.
Refouler le dos d'un cheval. To gall a horſes backe.
Refouler aux pieds. To ſtampe on, or tread vnder foot.
Refouler la pouldre. To ramme in the powder.
Refoulller. as Refouler.
Refouloir: m. The Rammer head, wherewith powder is rammed into a Peece.
Refourbir. To refurbiſh, repoliſh; to ſmooth, or ſleeke vp anew.
Refournir. To furniſh anew.
Refourrer. To furre; alſo, to thruſt in, againe.
Refourvoyer. To miſtake, roue, erre, ſtray anew.
Refractaire: com. Refractarie, ſtubborne, wilfull, obſtinate, headſtrong.
Refraction: f. A rebound.
Refrain d'une balade. The Refret, burthen, or downe of a Ballade.
Refraindre. Looke Refreindre.
Refrainte: f. A bridling, refrayning, reſtraint.
Refraiſchi: m. ie: f. Refreſhed, refrigerated; renewed.
Refraiſchir. To refreſh, coole, refrigerate, recreate; renew.
Refranchir. To leape, or skip ouer againe.
Refrappé: m. ée: f. Strucke againe; alſo, reflected, reuerberated.
Refrappement: m. A ſtriking againe; alſo, a reflecting, or a reuerberating.
Refrapper. To returne blowes for blowes, to ſtrike backe or againe; alſo, to reflect, or to reuerberate.
Refrein: m. as Refrain.
Refreindre. To bridle, reſtraine, containe, hold in, keepe vnder, pull backe.

Se

Se refreind moderate, hi
Refrenation
Refrené: m.
frained, reſtr
Refrener. To hold vnder, k
Refrequenté
Refrequenter fall to, a form
Refreſchir. as Refreſchiſſen
gerating, recr
Refreſchiſſoir
Refreſoté: m.
Refreter vne
Refricaſſer. To
Refrigerateur
Refrigeratif:
ing.
Refrigeration
Refrigeratoire part of a Lym from being too
Refrigere: m.
Refrigeré: m.
Refrigerer. To Refriquer. To
an old ſore.
Refriquer vn an (old) adiudg
gaine.
Refrire. To frie
Refriſé: m.ée:
anew.
Refriſer. To friz
Refriſſonner. T
Refroidi: m. ie
Refroidir. To c
ken; to calme.
Se refroidir.
vehement or ea
Refroidiſſant.
Refroiſſer. To b
Refroncé: m.é
exceedingly wr
alſo, frowning.
Refrongnant.
with a ſower c
Refrongné: m.
ſowe ke.
Refrongnemen
a ſternenеſſe, or Refrongner. To
ſowerly, on it.
Refrotter. To ru
Refu: m. as Ref thing.
Refue. Looke Ref
Refuge: m. A ſhrowd, ſhelter
trait.
Refugié: m. ée
and aſſiſtance.
Refugieux: m.e
for a refuge, ful
Refui: m. uie: f.
Refuiant. Flying

Se refreindre. To refraine, forbeare, temper, maister, moderate, himselfe.
Refrenation: f. A refraining; a bridling, restraining.
Refrené: m. ée: f. Bridled, maistered, moderated; refrained, restrained, kept short, held in.
Refrener. To bridle, represse, maister, moderate, restrain, hold vnder, keepe short, pull in.
Refrequenté: m. ée: f. Refrequented, rehaunted.
Refrequenter. To refrequent, reuisit, rehaunt; vse, or fall to, a former haunt.
Refreschir. as Refraischir.
Refreschissement: m. A refreshment, refreshing, refrigerating, recreating; renewing.
Refreschissoir: m. A small fountaine.
Refresoté: m. ée: f. Frizled, curled.
Refreter vne navire. To new-rig a ship.
Refricasser. To frie againe.
Refrigerateur: m. A refrigerator, refresher, cooler.
Refrigeratif: m. iue: f. Refrigeratiue, cooling, refreshing.
Refrigeration: f. A refrigeration, cooling, refreshing.
Refrigeratoire: m. A refrigeratorie, or cooler; the part of a Lymbeck wherin water is put to keepe the rest from being too hot.
Refrigere: m. Coolenesse, a refreshment.
Refrigeré: m. ée: f. Refrigerated, cooled, refreshed.
Refrigerer. To refrigerate, coole, refresh.
Refriquer. To rub againe; to renew an old griefe, to rub an old sore.
Refriquer vne chose iugée. To reuiue, or set on foot an (old) adiudged suit; to goe about with a matter againe.
Refrire. To frie againe.
Refrisé: m. ée: f. Frizled, curled; pranked, tricked vp anew.
Refriser. To frizzle, curle, pranke, tricke vp, anew.
Refrissonner. To quake, or shiuer, extreamely.
Refroidi: m. ie: f. Cooled; slackened.
Refroidir. To coole, or take away the heat of; to slacken; to calme.
Se refroidir. To wax cold, grow calme, become lesse vehement or earnest in.
Refroidissant. Cooling; slackening.
Refroisser. To breake asunder againe.
Refroncé: m. ée: f. Redoubled, much gathered; also, exceedingly wrinkled, crumpled, frumpled; & thence also, frowning.
Refrongnant. en ref. Frowningly, frowardly, sullenly, with a sower countenance.
Refrongné: m. ée: f. Frowning, surlie, sullen, of a sower looke.
Refrongnement: m. A frowning, lowring, sullennesse, a sternenesse, or sowernesse of countenance.
Refrongner. To frowne, lowre, looke sternely, sullenly, sowerly, on it.
Refrotter. To rub againe.
Refu: m. as Refus; A refusall; also, the refuse of any thing.
Refue. Looke Refue.
Refuge: m. A refuge, helpe, succour, a Sanctuarie, shrowd, shelter; a place to flie vnto, a place of safe retrait.
Refugié: m. ée: f. Fled, run, resorted vnto for succour, and assistance.
Refugieux: m. euse: f. as Refugié; or, helpfull, seruing for a refuge, full of refuges.
Refui: m. uie: f. Fled from; or fled backe vnto.
Refuiant. Flying, shunning, auoiding.

Refuir. To flie backe; also, to shun, auoid, eschew, forsake; run from.
Refuir sur soy. A Deere to make backe into the couert; a vermine to flie vnto, or keepe within, his earth; (their strengthes.)
Refuite: f. A flight or course, a running or flying, backe; also, an euasion, or auoidance.
Refulger. To shine, glister, glitter, looke verie bright.
Refumer. To dung ouer againe.
Refus: m. A refusall, repulse, deniall.
Qui sont de refus. The refuse, outcasts, leauings of better things.
Refusé: m. ée: f. Refused, denied, reiected, repulsed, neglected, forsaken.
Refuser. To refuse, denie, reiect, repell; cast off, renounce, forsake.
Refuseur: m. A refuser; denier; a reiecter; forsaker.
A bon demandeur bon refuseur: Prov. Looke Demandeur.
Refutation: f. A refutation, a confutation.
Refuté: m. ée: f. Refuted, confuted, refelled, conuinced; reproued.
Refuter. To refute, confute, refell, reproue, conuince, confound by reason.
Refuyant. Flying, shunning, eschewing, auoiding.
Regabeller. To double a tax, custome, or toll; to impose a new one.
Regager. To regage, or wage againe.
Regaigner. To regaine; also to gaine doubly.
se Regaillardir. Looke se Ragaillardir.
Regain: m. A later math, or lateward hay; th'after grasse, or after crop of hay.
Regal: m. ale: f. Regall, Royall, Princelie, Soueraigne.
Regale. whence, Droict de Regale. The Soueraigne Patronage of the Archbishoprickes, Bishoprickes, Abbeyes, and other Benefices of Royall foundation; due vnto the King of France, and inherent vnto his person, in the right of his Crowne, and therefore not to be transferred, committed, or aliened vnto any other: Hereby hee hath the profits of them during vacancie; and the prouision, collection, and presentation, of successors vnto them. At this day onely three Archbishoprickes, and 32 Bishoprickes, are subiect vnto it; the rest haue beene, at seuerall times, exempted by speciall priuiledges: In Normandie when diuers Lords are at suit for the Patronage of a vacant Benefice, the King, by this right of Regale, enioyes the profits of it vntill the suit be ended, or they agreed.
La Regale de Theroanne. The Iurisdiction, or gouernment of Theroanne, whereof the Bishop (who onely hath high, meane, and low Iustice within it) is the temporall Lord.
Fief en Regale. A noble Fief, held immediately, and in Capite, of the King.
Regalement. Regally, kingly, royally.
Regaler. (In the customes of Arthois; Senlis; & Vallois) c'est quand le Seigneur feodal prend, & applique à son profit, les fruicts des heritages de fief, ou Cottiers, à faute de les relever, & droicturer.
se Regaler. To make as much account, and take as great a care, of himselfe, as if he were a King.
Regales. des reg. The musicall Instrument, called Rigolls.
Regalice: f. Lickorice.
Regalisse. The same.
Regaliste: m. One that enioyes, or stands for, a Benefice that is subiect vnto the Droict de Regale.

Regard: m. A looke, view, ſight, aſpect; an eye; alſo, an eye vnto, or eying of; a regard, reſpect, conſideration, of; alſo, the head of a conduit.

Pour mon regard. For my part, as for me; alſo, for my ſake.

Regardant. Seeing, eying, beholding, marking, heeding; alſo, warie, circumſpect, vigilant, that lookes narrowly to euerie thing.

Regardé: m. ée: f. Eyed, viewed, looked at, beheld, marked, regarded.

Regardement: m. A looking, ſeeing, eying, viewing, beholding; marking, ſpying, heeding, regarding.

Regarder. To looke, eye, ſee, view, behold; eſpie, toot at, heed, regard.

Regarder de gros oeil; &, Regarder de la queuë de l'oeil. Seeke Oeil, & Queuë.

De ſerviteur qui ſe regarde donne toy ſoigneuſement garde: Prov. The ſeruant proud, and of himſelfe reſpectiue, is in his duetie oftentimes defectiue.

Quand d'autry parler tu voudras regarde toy, & tu tairas: Prov. When on another thou wouldſt gladly rayle, looke well into thy ſelfe, thy tongue will quaile.

Regardeur: m. A looker, ſpectator, viewer, eyer, beholder.

Regardeure: f. A looke, ſight, view, aſpect.

Regardure. as Regardeure.

Regarnir. To regarniſh, to new-furniſh.

Regaſter. To ſpill, or ſpoyle againe.

Regazouiller. To report, or to record, as birds, one anothers warbling.

Rege: f. A meaſure of three foot and a halfe, vſed by Surueyors in the countrey about Bourdeaux.

Regeance: f. as Regence.

Regeiner. To retorture, to racke once more.

Regelé: m. ée: f. Frozen, or ouergrowne with ice, againe.

Regeler. To freeze againe.

Regence: f. The Regencie, or Protectorſhip of a kingdome; alſo, a teaching, inſtructing, moderating, reading vnto, in Schooles; alſo, a forme, or lecture, of Schollers.

Regenner. To imitate, or counterfeit, neerely.

Regent: m. A Regent, Protector, Vicegerent, or Gouernour of a Kingdome during an interraigne, or the minoritie, or abſence, of the Prince; alſo, a Regent, Reader, Teacher, Moderator of a forme in a Colledge.

Regente: f. The Regenteſſe, or Protectreſſe of a Kingdome.

Regenté: m. ée: f. Ruled, gouerned; alſo, taught, moderated, read vnto, in Schooles.

Regenter. To rule, or play the Regent; to gouerne a Kingdome during an interraigne, or in the minoritie, or abſence of the Prince; alſo, to teach, read, or moderate, in Schooles.

Regercer. as Rejarcer.

Regermer. To bud, or ſprowt out againe.

Regetter. Looke Rejecter.

Regi: m. ie: f. Ruled, gouerned, commaunded, ſwayed, guided, directed.

Regimbement: m. A kicking, winſing, ſpurning, ſtriking backe with the feet, or heeles.

Regimber. To winſe, kicke, ſpurne, ſtrike back with the feet.

Regimber contre l'eſguillon. To kicke againſt the pricke (ſay we in the verie ſame ſence.)

Ie vous garderay de regimber. I will fetter you, reſtraine you, load you ſoundly, hold you vnder, take off your ouer-keene edge, coole your immoderate heat, keep you from winſing, kicking, outlaſhing.

Regimbeur: m. A winſer, kicker, ſpurner.

Regime: m. Regiment, rule, commaund, ſway, dominion, authoritie, gouernment.

Regime de vivre. An order of diet preſcribed.

Regiment de gens de guerre. A Regiment of ſouldiers.

Region: f. A Region, Prouince, Realme, Kingdome, coaſt, countrey, quarter, part, place.

La region du coeur. The ſite, or ſeat of the heart.

Regir. To rule, gouerne, ſway, maiſter, command, Seignorize ouer.

Regiſſer. as Regir.

Regiſtration: f. A regiſtring, a recording.

Droict de regiſtration. Looke Droict.

Regiſtre: m. A Record, Regiſter, memoriall; a booke of remembrances, dayes booke; and (more particularly) a booke of Entries, Acts, Orders, or Decrees.

Droict de regiſtre: & Droict de regiſtre, ou Contentor. Looke Droict.

Reglacer. To freeze againe; alſo, to ſet a new gloſſe on.

Reglaner. To gleane ouer againe.

Reglement. See Reiglement.

Regliſſe: f. Lickorice; Looke Rigaliſſe.

Regliſſer. To glide, or ſlide backe.

Regluer. To glew againe.

Reglure: f. Seeke Reigleure.

Regnant: m. ante: f. Raigning, ruling, gouerning; alſo, lying about.

Regnard: m. A Fox.

Regnard de mer. The ſea Fox; a long-tailed, and ranke-ſmelling fiſh, which in time of danger ſwallowes vp her young ones, and the feare being paſſed vomits them vp againe.

Barbe de regnard. Goats-thorne, Tragacantha; the ſhrub that yeelds Gum Dragagant.

La parole du regnard. A kind of charme.

Queuë de regnard. Fox-taile, tailed Wheat; (an hearbe) alſo, as vnder Queuë.

Raiſin de regnard. Garden Nightſhade; alſo, the hearbe Paris, One-berrie, True-loue.

Toux de regnard. A ſetled, or old-growne cough, that ſtickes by a man as long as he liues.

Vin de regnard. Such wine as being much drunke of ſharpens the wit, & makes the drunkard craftier then he was.

Coudre la peau du regnard à celle du Lion. To proceed both craftily, and violently; both by ſtratagems and ſtrength; or to attempt that by craft which he cannot obtaine by force.

Crier au regnard l'un ſur l'autre. To raile extreamly one vpon another.

Eſcorcher le regnard. To ſpue, caſt, vomit; (eſpecially vpon exceſſiue drinking;) either becauſe in ſpuing one makes a noyſe like a Fox that barkes; or (as in Eſcorcher) becauſe the flaying of ſo vnſauorie a beaſt will make any man ſpue.

Faire le regnard. as Regnarder.

Faire vne charruë de regnard. To looſe his time, or beſtow it on moſt fond imploiments.

Parler regnard. Looke Regnaut.

Prendre martin pour regnard. To miſtake reſembling things one for another.

Tirer au regnard. To caſt, vomit, ſpue.

Regnard qui dort la matinée n'a pas la langue emplumée: Prov. Morning ſleepers ſeldome thriue.

Regnard qui beaucoup tarde attend la proye: Prov. when Foxes tarrie long they hope for purchaſe.

Le

Le regnard cache ſa queuë: Pro. The craftie knaue hides that which would bewray him.

Le regnard eſt devenu hermite: Prov. The Fox an Hermit is become, (beware your Geeſe good huſwiues) appliable alſo, when a craftie or naughtie fellow reformes himſelfe, and growes truely religious.

Le regnard eſt pris, laſche les poules: Prov. Vſed when any dangerous knaue is intrapped, or clapt vp; vſed alſo, in mockerie of a common wooer, which hauing deceiued many widowes and maids in his time, is at the length ouertaken, and caught by one thats worſe then any of them.

A regnard regnard & demi: Pro. Let craft meet, or be matcht, with cunning.

A regnard endormi rien ne chet en la gueule: Prov. Nothing is got by drowſineſſe; preferment muſt be watched, ſought, and ſued for; it falls not into idle hands, or ſleeping mouthes.

A la fin le regnard ſera Moine: Prov. Looke Moine.

En fin les regnards (viz. their skinnes) ſe trouvent chez le pelletier: Prov. The craftie are at length ſurpriſed.

Il n'y a route que de vieux regnards: Prov. There is no chaſe like that of the old Fox; or, no tract ſo certaine as of aged craft; no path well beaten but by old experience.

Regnardaille: f. The generatiõ, kind, or brood of Foxes; alſo, a knot, or crue of ſubtill knaues.

Regnarde: f. A bitch Fox.

Regnardeau: m. A Fox cub, a young Fox; a little Fox.

Regnarder. To play the Fox; to ſteale, ſlip, or ſlinke, aſide, vpõ a guiltie conſcience, or feare to be taken in the maner; alſo, to peruert a truth with ſhifts, trickes, or ſubtilties.

Regnarderie: f. Slineſſe, craftineſſe, wilineſſe; alſo, a ſtealing, ſlipping, or ſlinking aſide, vpon approach of danger, or guilt of conſcience; alſo, a peruerting of the truth with ſhifts, or craftie lyes.

Regnardesque: com. Craftie, wilie, falſe, Fox-like, full of ſleights.

Regnardiere: f. A Fox-furred gowne, or garment.

Regnardiſe: f. Fox-like ſubtiltie, ſlineſſe, wilineſſe, craftineſſe, falſeneſſe.

Regnateur: m. A raigner, gouernor, abſolute ruler.

Regnatrice: f. A Queene, a Soueraigne Gouerneſſe, an abſolute Miſtreſſe.

Regnaut: m. The language, or barking, of Foxes.

Parler regnaut. To ſpeake through the noſe.

Regne: m. A Realme, or Kingdome; alſo, a Soueraigne rule; Dominion, Gouernement; alſo, (the continuance, or manner of that Gouernement) a Raigne.

Cheval de Regne. A courſer of Naples.

Regné. Raigned, ruled, gouerned.

Regner. To raigne, rule, gouerne, ſway, ſeigniorize, domineere; to be a King, wield a Scepter, haue Soueraigne authoritie ouer.

La Terrace regne tout à l'entour du logis. The terrace lyes, goes, or is contriued, round about the houſe.

Regnicoles: com. Th'actuall inhabitants, or inhabiters of a Kingdome.

Regnure. Looke Renure.

Regobillonné: m. ée: f. Frolick, merrie, jocond, blithe, in a pleaſant humor, in a merrie mood.

Regodronner. as Regoldronner.

Regoldronné: m. ée: f. New pitched, or tallowed, as a ſhip; alſo, new ſet, or ſtarched, as a ruffe.

Regoldronner. To pitch, or tallow, to make tight, a ſhip; alſo, to ſet a ruffe band, againe.

Regorge: f. An ouer-full gorge; alſo, a vomiting, or picking vp thereof.

Ie leur en bailleray à regorge. I will ouerglut them with all; I wil feed them, or cramme it into them, vntill they ſpue againe.

Regorgé: m. ée: f. Ouer-glutted, too full gorged, whoſe ſtomacke is ouer-charged; alſo, vomited, caſt, or ſpued vp, as an ouer-full gorge.

Regorgement: m. An ouer-glutting, or ouer-charging of the ſtomacke; any ſuperfluitie, ouerflowing, exceſſe.

Regorger. To ouerglut, or ouercharge the ſtomacke; to ouerrunne, or ouerflow the bankes; alſo, to ſpue, vomit, caſt, an ouer-full gorge.

Regoubillonner. To make a reare ſupper, ſteale an after ſupper; banquet late anights; alſo, to be frolicke, blithe, jocond, in a merrie mood.

Regourmer. To curbe againe.

Regouſter. To taſt better, often, or againe.

Regrabellement: m. A curious, and reiterated ſifting of, or ſearch into.

Regracié: m. Thanked, or thankefully acknowledged.

Regraciement: m. A thankefulneſſe, or thankefull acknowledgement.

Regracier. To thanke, acknowledge thankefully, yeeld thankes vnto.

Regraing. as Regain.

Regraiſſer. To greaſe ouer againe.

Regraté: m. ée: f. Dreſſed, furbiſhed, ſcowred, or tricked vp.

Regratement: m. A dreſſing, ſcowring, furbiſhing, mending, or tricking vp of old things for ſale; huckſterie.

Regrater. To dreſſe, mend, ſcowre, furbiſh, trimme or tricke vp, an old thing for ſale.

Regrateur: m. An huckſter; mender, dreſſer, ſcowrer, trimmer vp of old things for ſale.

Regratier: m. as Regrateur; whence;

Regratier de ſel, de vivres, &c. A Regrater, or Ingrosser of ſalt, &c.

Regratier. as Regracier; To thanke.

Regratiere: f. An Huckſtereſſe; alſo, a Regratereſſe.

Regraver. To graue anew.

Regravir. To climbe, or creepe vp, againe.

Regredillé: m. ée: f. Frizzled, criſped, curled, intrammelled.

Regrediller. To frizzle, or curle the haire, &c, with a hot yron.

Regredillonné, & Regredillonner. as Regredillé, & Regrediller.

Regrés: m. A reſignation of a Benefice, vpon condition, that if during the Reſignors life it become voyd by the reſignation or death of the Reſignee, it ſhall returne, without further induction, or inſtitution, vnto him: (But this Conditionall Reſignation, heretofore in vſe, is not at this day allowed of, in France.)

Regret: m. Deſire, will, affection, ſtomacke, or humor vnto; alſo, griefe, ſorrow; repentance, forthinking.

A regret. Loathly, vnwillingly, with an ill ſtomacke, hardly, mauger his head, full ſore againſt his will.

Regretable: com. Deplorable, bemonable, bewailable; fit to be repented, or lamented.

Regreter. as Regretter.
Regretté: m. ée: f. Desired, affected, wished for; also, bewayled, lamented, repented.
Regretter. To desire, affect, wish for, looke or long after; also, to bewayle, bemoane, lament, grieue, sorrow, repent, for.
Regrez. as Regrés.
Regrifler. To claw, paw, scratch, againe.
Regriller. To broyle anew vpon a Gridiron.
Regrimper. To climbe, or crawle vp againe.
Regringoté. Chaunted, quauered, often.
Regringoter. To chaunt, warble, or quauer often.
Regripper. To gripe, grasse, or snatch againe.
Regrissé. as Renfrongné.
Regrouvi: m. A starueling, wreckling, writling.
Reguarir. To recure, to recouer, to beale againe.
Regue. as Rege.
Reguerdonner. To reward plentifully, guerdon abundantly.
Reguerir. To recure, to recouer.
Reguetter. To watch verie narrowly.
Reguinder. To hoyse, or lift vp on high againe; also, to beare roomeward, or make backe againe.
Regule d'antimonie. A kind of Tinne; or, as Estain de glace.
Regulier: m. ere: f. Regular, canonicall, liuing vnder prescript rules.
Chanoines reguliers. Regular Canons; tyed vnto greater attendance, and stricter obseruances, then others.
Regulierement. Regularly, canonically, orderly.
Regurgitation: f. An ouer flowing.
Regurgiter. To ouerflow.
Rehabilitation: f. A reestablishing, reinnabling, restoring vnto former abilitie.
Rehabiliter. as Rabiliter.
Rehabitation: f. A reinhabitation, reinhabiting; a returning to a former habitation.
Rehabiter. To reinhabite, or dwell againe in.
Rehabituer. To settle againe; to begin to vse, accustome, enure vnto againe.
Rehacher. To backe, or chop againe.
Rehair. To hate extreamely, or againe.
Rehaiter. To reuiue, reioyce, cheere vp exceedingly.
Rehaler. To hale, or pull againe.
Rehanter. Againe to haunt, or frequent.
Reharceler. To harrie, turmoyle, vex againe.
Reharier. as Reharceler.
Rehasarder. To readuenture, to hazard yet once more.
Rehaster. To reaccelerate, or giue new wings vnto.
Rehaulsé: m. ée: f. Set higher, or aboue; also, readuanced; also, raised, or vpheld; also, (in painting, &c) reborsed, or heightened; also, imbossed.
Tapisserie de sayette rehaussée de soye. Whose ground is say, and worke silke.
Rehaulsement: m. A readuancing; also, a raising, a setting higher, or aboue; also, a reborsing, heightening; leeuing, imbossing.
Rehaulser. To readuance; to raise or set higher, to place aboue; also, (in Painting, &c) to reborse, heighten; to leeue, to imbosse.
Rehaussé, & Rehausser. as Rehaulsé, &c.
Rehennir. To neigh, or whinnie often.
se Reherber. To get new grasse.
Reherser. To harrow ouer againe.

Reheurter. Againe to dash, bit, but, or knocke against.
Rehoché: m. ée: f. Shaken, wagged, or iogged againe.
Rehocher. To shake, wag, or iog, againe.
Rehonnir. To shame, or dishonour once more.
Rehouëment: m. A new digging about the foot of a vine, &c; or (more generally) a new digging.
Rehouer. To dig anew; to alter ground by often digging it; also, to dig or open a plant at the root a second time.
Rehousser. To pull on boots once more.
Rehoussier. To couer with a foot-cloth once againe.
Rehucher. To whoope, or call, backe from.
Rehumecté: m. ée: f. Moistened, or bedewed once more.
Rehumecter. Againe to moisten, or bedew.
Rehumé: m. ée: f. Againe supped vp.
Rehumer. To sup vp againe.
Rehurter. as Reheurter.
Rejalir. as Rejallir.
Rejallir. To rebound; to leape, skip, iert, spurt, or sprout (as water) backe, vpwards, against, or againe; also, to reuerberate, or to reflect.
Rejalissement: m. A rebounding; a leaping, ierting, spurting backe, or vp, against a thing; also, a reflection, or a reuerberation.
Rejanner. To flowt, scoffe, deride, ride.
Rejaper. To barke often, or againe.
Rejarcer. To riue or cleaue, anew.
Rejaser. To babble, or prattle extreamely.
Rejauger. To new-gage caske.
Rejaunir. To grow yellow againe.
Reject: m. A reiection, a refusall; also, a new putting forth, a casting out againe; also, as Rejet.
Reject d'arbre. A young shoot, or sucker, springing out from the root, or foot of a tree.
Reject de femme. A diuorse from, or putting away of, a wife.
Reject de fossé. The banke of a ditch.
Fueille de reject. The leafe that succeeds in the place of another leafe, which hath beene plucked, or beaten downe.
Rejectable: com. Reiectable, refusable.
Rejecté: m. ée: f. Reiected, expelled, refused; abandoned, forsaken, cast off; also, retorted, or cast backe; also, confuted; also, newly put, or budded, out.
Rejectement: m. A reiecting, expelling, driuing or chasing out, putting or casting off; a refusing, forsaking, abandoning, renouncing; also, a retoring, or throwing backe; a confuting, a refelling; also, a new budding, or putting out, as of trees in the Spring.
Rejecter. To reiect, expell, put or cast off, driue or chase out; to refuse, abandon, forsake, renounce; also, to retort, or throw backe; also, to refell, or confute; also, to bud, or put out, as trees in the Spring; also, to giue, as timber, &c, in wet weather, &c.
Rejection: f. A reiection; or, as Rejectement.
Rejecton: m. A young shoot, or fience, that springs from the root, or stocke, of a tree.
Rejecton de mouches à miel. A swarme of Bees.
Rejet: m. The brimme of the louer of a Doue-coat, whereon the Pigeons alight; also, the iurt giuen by a horses legs when he yerkes out behind; also, as Reject.
Rejettable. as Rejectable.
Rejettal: m. An Engine wherewith small birds are caught.

Rejetté, & Rejetter. as Rejecté, & Rejecter.
Reifort. as Raifort.
Reigle: f. A rule, canon, order; precept, inſtitution, preſcription, inſtruction; alſo, a line; ſquare, forme, patterne; method, maner, faſhion.
Mieux vaut reigle que rente: Prov. Good gouernement is of more worth then gold.
Reiglé: m. ée: f. Ruled, ordered, gouerned, moderated; directed, held in forme, kept in faſhion.
Reiglemént: m. A ruling, ordering, direction, guiding, diſcipline, gouernment, gouerning; alſo, a rule giuen by a Judge in a cauſe; alſo, the draught of lines by the rule.
Reiglément. Regularly, orderly; moderately; formally, in good faſhion.
Reigler. To rule, order, gouerne; temper, moderate; guide, ſquare, direct; to doe things by line and leuell; alſo, to detree, eſtabliſh, determine, ordaine; and, to giue a rule in a cauſe.
Reiglet: m. A little rule, or line; alſo, a Carpenters Squire.
Regleur: m. A ruler, orderer; moderator; director.
Reigleure: f. as Reiglement; or, a ruling, or drawing by lines; a proceeding by rule and line.
Reiglure. The ſame.
Reilhage: m. c'eſt le charruage, le trainage, & ſuite de diſme.
Reimber. as Redimer.
Reimportuner. To reimportune, or to reimportunate.
Reimpoſer. To reimpoſe, to recharge.
Reimprimé: m. ée: f. Printed againe.
Reimprimer. To reimprint, or to print againe.
Reimproperer. To exprobrate, reupbraid, reproach, or blame againe.
Reimputer. To lay a new imputation on.
Rein: m. The kidney.
Reinciſer. To make a new inciſion into.
Reincité: m. ée: f. Reincited; reinuited.
Reinciter. To reincite; reinuite.
Reincliner. To bend, leane, or incline, againe.
Reincorporer. To reincorporate, reintegrate; reſtore vnto the bodie a part thereof.
Reinduire. To reinduce.
Reine: f. A Queene; Looke Royne; alſo, a Frog; alſo, the reine of a bridle.
Reineux: m. euſe: f. Luſtie, able-bodied, ſtrong-backed, hauing ſtrong reines; alſo, of, or belonging to, the reines; whence;
Maladie reineuſe. The running of the reines.
Reinfecter. To reinfect.
Reinformer. To reinforme, to preſent with new informations.
Reingerer. To reinſinuate, or thruſt in againe.
Reinhumer. To burie againe.
Reinjurier. To reuile, or to wrong againe.
Reinnover. To reinnouate.
Reins: m. The reynes.
Bander aux reins. To bend a croſſebow backward.
Reinſer. To reinſe, to waſh.
Reintegrande: f. An Action, or Sentence, for the reſtorall of a poſſeſſion, taken from a man either by force, fraud, or any other indirect meanes; And this hath an eaſie & ſpeedie paſſage, how vniuſt ſoeuer that poſſeſſion were; for no man is to be his owne caruer, but muſt recouer his right by Law; (This word was deuiſed by the Canoniſts.)
Reintegration: f. A reintegration, reeſtabliſhment, full reſtorall vnto a former eſtate.
Reintegré: m. ée: f. Reintegrated, reeſtabliſhed in, fully reſtored vnto, an eſtate.
Reintegrer. To reintegrate, reeſtabliſh in, reſtore vnto, his whole eſtate.
Reintegrer les fruicts. To make reſtitution of, or giue ſatisfaction for, them; to make them good.
Reinterpreter. To reinterpret, reexpound.
Reinterroguer. To reinterrogate, reexamine, aske new queſtions of.
Reinviter. To reinuite, or bid once more.
Rejoindre. To reioyne, reaſſemble, rally.
Rejouër. To play againe.
Rejouïr. To reinioy, repoſſeſſe, haue againe.
Rejouiſſance: f. A reinioyment, repoſſeſſion, reinioying.
Rejouſter. To iuſt againe.
Reiponce: f. as Raiponce.
Reiſtre: m. A Reiſter, or Swart-rutter; a German horſeman; alſo, a faſhion of long cloake, vſually worne by one of them.
Faict à la Reiſtre. Made after the new cut, or faſhion (eſpecially if there be any groſſeneſſe in it.)
Reïteration: f. A reiteration, a frequent repetition.
Reïteré: m. ée: f. Reiterated, often repeated, often remembred.
Reïterer. To reiterate; (often) repeat, rehearſe, renew, remember.
Rejudication: f. A reiudication, a readiudging vnto (c'eſt quand la choſe qui a eſté venduë & adiugée publiquement, eſt derechef miſe en criées, & readjugée.)
Rejurer. To ſweare againe, to offer a new oath vnto.
Relabouré: m. ée: f. Tilled, or plowed ouer againe.
Relabourement: m. A ſecond tilth, earing, or plowing.
Relabourer. To plough, till, or eare the ſecond time.
Relaict: m. Whey.
Relaïer. See Relayer.
Relais: m. A ſeat, or ſtanding for ſuch as hold Chiens de relais; alſo, as Armaire; a hole, or box contriued in, or againſt, a wall.
Champ de relais. Fallowes, or a fallow field; ground thats ſowed but euerie other yeare.
Chevaux de relais. Horſes layed in certaine places on the highway, for the more haſt making, or the eaſe of thoſe one hath alreadie rid hard on: (In trauelling moſt of the highwayes of Fraunce, you may (en payant) haue at euerie ſeuen or eight leagues end freſh horſes; ſo that you leaue behind you thoſe you laſt rid on, and ſhew a ticket from the place where you had them: And theſe are moſt properly tearmed, Chevaux de relais.)
Chiens de relais. Dogs layed for a back-ſet; ſuch as are held by the ſide of a long courſe, to bee hounded after a Deere alreadie purſued by other dogs.
A relais. Spared, at reſt, that is not vſed; or as;
Par relais. By turnes, by change of hands; one reſting while another labours, one running while his fellow reſts.
Relaiſſer. To leaue, relinquiſh, forgoe againe; alſo, a Hare to ſquat.
Relancé: m. ée: f. Flung, darted, hurled, backe; alſo, imprimed, as a Deere; recouered, as a Hare.

Relancer. To fling, dart, hurle backe, or againe.
Relancer vn cerf. To imprime a Stag.
Relancer vn lievre. To recouer her, or put her off the squat.
Relant: m. Muſtineſſe, fuſtineſſe, rankneſſe, dankiſhneſſe.
Relant: m. ante: f. Muſtie, fuſtie, reſtie, reaſie, dankiſh, vnſauorie.
Relanteur: f. as Relant: m.
Relantir. To ſmell muſtie, grow fuſtie, wax reſtie.
Relaps: m. ſe: f. Relapſed; fallen into an errour which he had recanted, or ſickneſſe of which he had recouered.
Relaſche: f. A relaxation; eaſe, reſt, repoſe, refreſhment, recreation, (after labour;) truce, reſpit, a ceſſation, intermiſſion, vacation; alſo, a ſlackning, looſſing, relenting, letting goe.
Relaſche de pendu. A graceleſſe rakehell, or crack-rope; one for whom the Hangman waits, the Gallowes grones.
Relaſchement: m. A repoſing, reſting, refreſhing; a leauing of worke, a making vacation; alſo, a releaſing, looſſing, inlarging; alſo, a relenting, or ſlackening.
Relaſcher. To ſlacken, looſſe, inlarge, let out; eaſe, refreſh; remit, releaſe; alſo, to giue backe, forgoe, let goe.
Relaſſer. To wearie extreamely, or againe.
Relater. To relate, report, vtter, deliuer; to recite, recount, rehearſe; alſo, to new-lath a building.
Relateur: m. A relator, a reporter, a rehearſer.
Relation: f. A relation, report, recitall; alſo, the Returne of a Writ; the report made, or account giuen, by an Officer, of the ſeruing or execution thereof.
Relaver. To waſh againe, or often ouer; alſo, to waſh (with colours.)
Relaxation: f. A relaxation; diſcharge, inlargement; releaſing, acquiting; relenting.
se Relayans l'un l'autre. Refreſhing, or eaſing one another by turnes.
Relayer. To ſucceed in the place of the wearie; to refreſh, releeue, or eaſe another by an vndertaking of his taske.
Relayer coche, & chevaux. To take new, or freſh horſes and coach.
Relecher. To licke ouer againe.
Relegation: f. A relegation, or exilement, a packing or ſending away into baniſhment.
Relegué: m. ée: f. Relegated, baniſhed, exiled.
Releguer. To relegate, baniſh, exile.
Releu: m. euë: f. Red ouer againe.
Relevailles d'une femme. Th'vpriſing, or vpſitting, alſo, the Churching, of a woman.
Relevé: m. ée: f. Raiſed, lift, or ſet vp, againe; releeued, reuined, fully reſtored; alſo, diſcharged, freed, or quit of; alſo, that hath payed his Reliefe.
Appel relevé. Sued out; and whereby a ſuit is remoued, by writ, from one Court vnto another.
Cheval bien relevé. Well raiſed, or high before.
Femme relevée. Churched, or got out of the ſtraw.
Mineur relevé. C'eſt quand le Mineur de 25 ans, qui a eſté deceu ou circonvenu, eſt reſtitué en entier par lettres Royaux interinées en Iuſtice.
Mineur relevé de bail. C'eſt quand le baillistre releve le fief de ſon Mineur, du Seigneur dont il eſt tenu.
Vne Saincte relevée. Whoſe Reliques, or bones are incloſed and ſhewed aloft, in a ſhrine.
Relevé du fumier. A dunghill Gentleman.
Il a eſté bien relevé. He hath beene well chidden, or (as we ſay) taken vp for haulting.
Relevée: f. Th'afternoone, or all the time betweene dinner and th'euening; alſo, a womans Churching; alſo, a full recouerie of, or vpriſing after, a ſickneſſe.
Relevement: m. A raiſing, lifting vp; releeuing, reuiuing, reſtoring; alſo, a womans Churching.
Relever. To raiſe or lift vp, to ſet on foot or afoot againe; alſo, to releeue, aſſiſt, reuiue, reſtore.
Relever vn appel. To ſue or take out, an Appeale; to bring the cauſe before the Iudge appealed vnto.
Relever droicture. To pay the Reliefe, and rights due by a tenant vpon his firſt entrie.
Relever vn eſteuf. Looke Eſteuf.
Relever vn fief. To pay a Reliefe; and doe homage for an inheritance; or, to auow, and acknowledge a Landlord vpon any change of Lord, or of tenant.
Ce fief releve d'un tel. Is held of ſuch a one.
Ce fief releve ſelon la couſtume de Touraine. The Reliefe, right, and dueties thereof are done, payed, and performed, according to the cuſtome of Touraine.
Relever les vieux foſſez. To cleanſe, or ſcowre them.
Relever du ſerment. To acquit, or diſcharge of, an oath.
Fort eſt qui abbat, & plus fort qui ſe releve: Prov. He that, being felled, gets vp of himſelfe, does more then he that feld him.
Releveur: m. A raiſer, or lifter vp; a ſetter on foot, or afloat againe; alſo, a releeuer, aſſiſter; alſo, a reuiuor, a renewer.
Relevoiſon. Droict de rel. A yeares rent payed vnto Lords, vpon euerie change of tenants, Cenſiers, or for any eſtate (in the land they hold) procured by themſelues: This is moſt commonly tearmed, Relevoiſon à plaiſir.
Relevoiſon du denier ſix. Six pence for each penie of their yerelie Cens, payed vpon euerie change as well as the former.
Ventes & relevoiſons. C'eſt quand le nouveau vaſſal releve de ſon ſeigneur feodal, & luy paye certaine ſomme taxée par la Couſtume: ¶Ragueau.
Reliage: m. A binding, or hooping of caske, &c.
Relicher. To licke often, or ouer againe.
Relié: m. ée: f. Bound, hooped; handſomely packed, or compacted together.
Relief: m. Reliefe; or a releeuing; the raiſing of a perſon, or of a thing, fallen; and (particularly) the remedie granted by the Letters Patents of a Soueraigne Prince vnto a ſubiect incommodated, or fallen into an inconuenience, by the ſentence of a Iudge, or ill dealing of others; and hence, Relief d'appel; &, Relief pour minorité: Alſo, a Reliefe; a fine due, or profit accruing, to a Landlord vpon certaine changes of his hereditarie tenants; (Looke Droict de relief, vnder Droict;) alſo, a place, or thing, raiſed; & (particularly) raiſed, or imboſſed worke; & that which Imbroderers tearme, ſlowning; alſo, rubbidge, or the ruines of ouerthrowne houſes; alſo, the remnant, or offalls, of meat left at a meale.
Relief d'appel. An Appeale ſued out by Commiſſion from the Chancerie, and from the ſuperior Court appealed vnto, & directed vnto the Iudge, or Lord Iuſticer of the court appealed from, thereby to intimate the ſuit, and proceeding thereof vnto the partie, in reſpect of whoſe late recouerie th'Appeale is brought.

Re-

Relief de bail. A yeares profit, or value, due vnto a Lord feodall from him that maries a maid, or widow, owner of a Fief by any descent, or donation; notwithstanding that she before their mariage haue both paied the Reliefe, and performed all dueties, whereunto her estate was liable; the reason is, the husband comes in as a stranger; and so must both pay a new Reliefe, and doe new homage, as for his owne Fief: In some places another Reliefe is also due vpon the death of the husband.

Relief de bouche. The acknowledgement of a vassall, or tenant Cottier, that he holds his land of a Lord.

Relief de Chambellage. A Reliefe due by a husband for an inheritance falling to his wife during her marriage.

Relief de fief. Th'acknowledgement of tenure yeelded by a new subiect, or vassall, vnto his Lord.

Relief à merci. One yeares profit in three; due by the locall custome of S. Piat de Seclin sous Lisle.

Relief pour minorité. Looke Mineur relevé (vnder Relevé.)

Relief de plume. A rent Capon, Cocke, Henne, or Pullet, giuen in some few places in lieu of a Reliefe.

Relief de rente. Due to a Lord vpon the death of his tenant Cottier.

Droict, ou profit de relief. See Droict.

Tels cens tels reliefs. A whole yeares Cens due for a Reliefe, ouer and besides the Cens it selfe when it accrues.

Bas relief. Gentilhõme de bas relief. A thred-bare, or single-soled Gentleman; a Gentleman of low degree.

Demy relief. à demy r. Halfe Reliefe, halfe round.

Plein relief. de plein rel. Imbossed, or set of in it full proportion.

Relier. To bind, or to compact things hãdsomely together; also, to hoope, as caske.

Relievement: m. as Relevement; also, a reliefe, releeving, succor; or money giuen for the reliefe, or succor of.

Relieur de livres. A Booke-binder.

Relieure de livres. Booke-binding.

Religieuse: f. A Nunne.

Religieux: m. A Monke or Frier; one thats entred into a religious Order.

Religieux seculier. ac Oblat.

Religieux: m. euse: f. Religious; addicted, consecrated, or belonging, to religion; holie, godlie, deuout.

Religion: f. Religion, holinesse, pietie, godlinesse; the worship of God, or of things held sacred; a reuerend, and conscientious affection vnto them, or feare of offending them; also, a Religious house.

Relimer. To file, scrape, or shaue often, or vnto a smoothnesse; also, to gleeke againe and againe at.

Relinquer. To relinquish, leaue, quit, abandon, forsake.

Relinqueur: m. A relinquisher, leauer, quitter, abandoner, forsaker.

Reliqua: m. The rest, remainder, ouerplus, arrerage; reliques, remnant, fragments, leauings, of.

Le reliqua d'une fiebvre. The remaines, or grudgings of an Ague, after it hath seemed to leaue one.

Reliquaille: f. An old remnant, fragment, monument.

Reliquaire: m. A coffin, casket, or shrine wherein Reliques be kept.

Reliquataire: com. In arrerages, behind-hand; in whose hands there's yet somewhat to be paied; also, left, resting, remaining.

Reliquateur: m. One thats behind-hand, or in arrerages; one that yet hath somewhat to pay.

Reliques: f. Reliques.

Reliques sont bien perduës entre les pieds de pourceaux: Prov. Reliques trod on by hogs are quickly lost; or, Reliques are quickly lost among the feet of hogs; (And may not one iustly wish them lost, rather then in the hands of such hogs as now a-daies keepe them?)

Relire. To read ouer againe.

Relivrer. To redeliuer.

Rellet: m. The name of a tart apple that hath partie-coloured sides.

Relods. as Relots.

Reloger. To lodge againe.

Relots. Droict de relots. Twentie pence vpon euerie pound of Lods and Ventes, due vnto a Landlord in purchases made of th'estates of his tenants Censuels; C'est aussi dix deniers pour livre (en la Chastellenie de Monstrereau ressort de Meaux) quand le vendeur doit avoir son argent franc.

Relouër. To hire againe.

Reluicter. To wrastle, striue, or contend againe.

Reluire. To shine, glitter, glister, yeeld a radiant or bright luster.

Reluisant: m. ante: f. shining, radiant, glittering, glistering, yeelding a bright luster.

Remailler. To peece a broken coat of mayle, or net, with new linkes, or mashes.

Remaindre. (A Verbe Impersonall; whence the Prouerbe;) Beaucoup remaint de ce que fol pense. Much is behind of that a foole accoũts of; a foole comes euer short of his intentions; fooles thoughts are full of wants, of imperfections.

Remains. Remaining, remained, left, behind, left behind.

Remander. To remaund, or send for backe againe.

Remanent: m. A remnant, residue, rest, remainder.

Remanger. To eat againe.

Remanier. To handle, or take in hand againe.

Remanoir. To remaine, to rest or stay behind.

Remansilles. The remnant, remainder, or leauings of.

Remarchander. To barraine anew.

Remarcher. To march againe, or march backe againe.

Remarier. To remarie, or marie againe.

Remarquable: com. Remarkable, fit or worthie to be marked.

Remarqué: m. ée: f. Marked, noted, heeded, regarded attentiuely; also, marked, or stamped on anew.

Remarquer. To marke, note, heed, regard attentiuely; also, to set a new marke or stampe on.

Remarqueur: m. A marker, or noter of things.

Remaschè: m. ée: f. Ruminated; againe or often chawed.

Remaschement: m. A ruminating; a chawing often, or againe.

Remascher. To ruminate; to chaw often, or againe.

Remascheur: m. A ruminator.

Remasonner. To build anew.

Remaudire. To curse againe.

Rembade. as Rambade.

Remballer. To repacke, or packe vp againe.

Rembarquer. To reimbarke, to put into a ship againe.

Rembarré: m. ée: f. Bard vp, kept in, stopped, restrained; also, knocked, thumped; repulsed, repelled, beaten or driuen backe; also, confuted, refelled, conuinced.

Rembarrer. To restraine, barre vp, or keepe in; also, to knocke, thumpe; repulse, repell, beat or driue backe; also, to confute, refell, disproue, conuince.

Rembaucher. To restore a thing vnto it right place, to set it in order, or into it owne standing, againe.

Remboiſter vn os. To ſet it, or put it, into ioynt againe.

Rembouër: m. An Engine wherewith fiſh is (forbidden to be) caught.

Rembourrer. To ſtuffe vp againe with ſlockes.

Rembourreur: m. A mender of vnſtuffed ſaddles.

Rembours. as Rembourſement.

Rembourſé: m. ée: f. Reimburſed; repayed.

Rembourſement: m. A reimburſement, a reimburſing; a repayment of money borrowed, or ſpent.

Rembourſer. To reimburſe; to repay, reſtore, or giue backe, money ſpent, &c.

Il les fit rembourſer de tous leurs intereſts. He payed them for all their loſſes, or haimes.

Il n'y a rien à rembourſer tout eſt à boire. Spoken ieſtingly of a fart let in companie.

Rembourſeur: m. A reimburſer; a repayer.

Rembraſer. To rekindle, reinflame, put new fire vnto.

Rembraſſer. To reimbrace.

Reimbre. To redeeme; (An old word, and yet vſed by ſome countrey Clerkes.)

se Rembrider. Cheval qui se rembride. A horſe that armes, or defends himſelfe vpon the breaſt, (by clapping the branches of his Bit againſt it.)

Rembrocher. To ſpit, or put on a ſpit againe.

Rembrouiller. To reintangle.

Rembrouſſer. Looke Rebrouſſer.

Rembuſché: m. ée: f. Reimbuſhed; lodged, or put among buſhes; alſo, layed or lying, in a new Ambuſcadoe.

Rembuſchement: m. A reimbuſhment; the place wherat wild beaſts enter into a thicket after that they haue preyed, or paſtured.

Rembuſcher. To lodge a wild beaſt among buſhes; to driue him into a thicket; alſo, to lay, or make a new amcadoe.

Remede: m. A remedie, redreſſe, medecine, helpe; alſo that allay which Goldſmithes, Jewellers, and Money-makers, are permitted to adde vnto th'allowed imbaſement of gold, or ſiluer; as where with a ſiluer peece of eleuen penie value there is a twelfth part of copper allowed to be mingled, the remede is about two graines ouer and beſides that twelfth. This aduantage they haue gotten vpon allegation, That they cannot preciſely hit, or iuſtly keepe, the ſcantling required of them by the Law.

Remediement: m. A remedying, redreſſing, healing, helping.

Remedier. To remedie, redreſſe, heale, helpe.

Remembrance: f. A remembrance, or mindfulneſſe; alſo, a cauſe of remembrance; a reſemblance, or image of; a thing that beares the forme, or puts vs in mind, of another thing.

Remembré: m. ée: f. Remembred, called to memorie.

se Remembrer. To remember; to call vnto mind or memorie.

Rememoration: f. A remembrance, or a remembring.

Rememoré: m. ée: f. Remembred, recorded.

Rememorer. To record, remember, call vnto mind.

Remenacer. To threaten againe.

Remenant. as Remanent.

Remenement: m. A bringing backe.

Remener. To bring backe.

Remerciant. Thanking.

Remercié: m. ée: f. Thanked.

Remerciement: m. A thanking, or thanks-giuing.

Remercier. To thanke, to yeeld or giue thanks vnto.

Remeré: m. A redeeming of things morgaged, or ſold.

Grace, ou faculté de remeré. Is due vnto, or procured by, the ſellers next kinſman.

Remerer. To redeeme, or buy backe, a thing ſold.

Remeſler. To mingle againe.

Remeſurer. To meaſure ouer againe.

Remettre. To renew, repaire, reuiue, reſtore, ſet vp againe; alſo, to refer, cõmit, or put vnto; alſo, to remit, forgiue, pardon, acquit, releaſe, vnto; alſo, to ſlacken, or qualifie th'extremitie of; alſo, to deferre, delay, prorogue, put off.

Remettez vous en vous. Come againe vnto, returne againe into, your ſelfe; bring your ſelfe home againe.

Se remettre à la premiere beſongne. To returne, to fall, ſet, or giue himſelfe, vnto his former imployments.

Il s'y veut remettre. He will to it afreſh, he will about it againe.

Remeubler. To new-furniſh with mouables.

Remmer. To mine againe.

Reminiſcence: f. Remembrance (of things which were once before in the mind.)

Remirer. To view, ſee, eye, behold; aime, or leuell at, often, or againe.

Remis: m. iſe: f. Reſtored, reuiued, renewed, repaired, ſet vp againe; alſo, referred, committed, or put; alſo, remitted, forgiuen, acquited, releaſed; alſo, deferred, prorogued, put ouer or off, vnto; alſo, remiſſe, cold, ſlacke, looſe, dull, careleſſe, or negligent, in.

En fin remis vn peu en ſoy. Being come gaine vnto himſelfe, or hauing ſomewhat recouered himſelfe.

Remiſe: f. A reſtorall, reuiuement, recouerie, ſetting vp againe; alſo, a remitment, acquittance, releaſe; alſo, a reference, referring, or committing vnto; alſo, a ſlackning, deferring, prolonging, or (as in Law) a delay, or putting off of a cauſe by conſent of parties, and for a certaine time; alſo, th'aiighting of fowle after their ſecond flight; alſo, the manage, tearmed otherwiſe, Paſſade.

Par remiſes. By fits, by turnes, but now and then.

Remiſſible: com. Remittable, pardonable, forgiueable; releaſable.

Remiſsion: f. A remiſſion, or forgiueneſſe; a pardon for an offence which, by the Law, brings death: And hereof ſome French Lawyers make foure kinds; viz.

Remiſſion de droict, ou de Iuſtice. A Pardon of courſe; is granted by th'inferior Chanceries (yet in the Kings name) for Manſlaughter ſe defendendo, or by chance medley, and for other ſuch offences as the Law may pardon.

Remiſſion de grace. A Pardon of grace, or his Maieſties moſt gracious Pardon (for Homicides, &c. of a more hainous kind) muſt bee procured from the King himſelfe, and out of the great Chauncerie.

Remiſſion (ou Abolition) generale. A generall Pardon (with exception) verie like that which is granted in th'end of our Parliaments.

Remiſſion (ou Abolition) ſpeciale. A ſpeciall Pardon granted by the King vnto a particular perſon (in what maner, or by what meanes ſoeuer) offending.

Remiſſionaire: com. Whoſe offence is remitted.

Remmailloter. To ſwathe, or ſwaddle, againe.

Remmalicer. To grow more ſpightfull, or malicious.

Remmancher. To put on a new haft, or helue.

Remocquer. To mocke, or flowt againe; alſo, to tow one veſſell at the ſterne of another.

Remolin: m. A feather; a little circle of retorted, or curled haire, on the forhead, creaſt, or any other part, of a horſe.

Remollitif: m. iue: f. Mollifying, ſoftening.

Re-

Remolquer. To draw, or get, off the ground, or out of the gravell; to remoue, set aflote, set cleere; or, as Remocquer, in the later sence.

Remonce. as Remonstrance.

Remonstrance: f. A remonstrance, warning, admonition, reasons giuen, or shewed.

Remonstré: m. ée: f. Warned, aduised; admonished; shewed by reasons, or instances; also, chidden, rebuked, reproued.

Remonstrer. To warne, admonish; aduertise, aduise; to shew vnto, or set before the eyes; also, to checke, chide, rebuke, reproue.

Remontages d' artillerie. Carriages for great Ordnance.

Remonté: m. Remounted, or new-mounted, readuanced, relieued, raised vp againe.

Apres que la marée est remontée. At a low water; when the tyde is returned, or gone.

Remonter. To remount, reascend; readuance; climbe, rise; lift, raise, vp; set, or get on horsebacke, againe; also, to relieue, restore vnto, or set in, a former estate.

Remordre. To bite againe; also, to carpe at, or find fault with.

Remordu: m. uë: f. Bitten againe; also, carped at, or found fault with.

Remore: f. The Suck-stone, or sea-Lamprey; a little fish, which cleauing to the keele of a ship, hinders the course of it.

Remorfondre. To take, or grow, cold againe.

Remorquer. To hale, or tow along, a ship &c; also, as Remolquer.

Remors: m. Diuels bit, Forebit; an hearbe.

Remors de conscience. Remorse, the worme, or sting, of conscience.

Remors de l' estomac. The vpbraiding of the stomacke.

Remot: m. ote: f. Remote, remoued, withdrawne, farre off.

Remoucher. To wipe againe.

Remouillé: m. ée: f. Wet, or moistened againe.

Remouillement: m. A new, or second moistening.

Remouiller. To wet, or moisten, once more.

Remouldre. To grind againe.

Remouvoir. To remoue, retire, withdraw, set aside, put away.

Rempant: m. ante: f. Creeping, crawling, or trayling along; also, climbing.

Ligne rempante. Par vne ligne rempante. By a leuell, or a well-leuelled line.

Rempaqueter. To reimpacke; to make vp into a new packet.

Rempar: m. A Rampier; the wall of a Fortresse.

Remparer. To fortifie; to inclose with a Rampier.

Rempart. as Rempar.

Rempenner vne flesche. To new-feather an arrow.

Remper. Looke Ramper.

Remplacé: m. ée: f. Reimplaced, placed anew, or againe; set in the place, or in stead, of another.

Remplacement: m. A reimplacing, or new placing, a laying or setting in another place; also, a putting in the place, or stead, of another.

Remplacer. To reimplace; to lay, or place anew; to take out of one place, and set in another; also, to put one thing in the place, introduce one thing in the stead, of another.

Remplage: m. A filling or stuffing vp; a replenishing, furnishing, supply of things wanting.

Rempli: m. ie: f. Filled, stuffed, replenished, well furnished.

Ils ont rempli leur cerceau. (Of mued Hawkes) their Sarcells are hard set.

Remplier. To lay downe a seame, to turne in a hemme (in sowing of clothes.)

Remplir. To fill, or stuffe with; to repleniish; throughly to furnish, to supply all wants.

Rempliſſage: m. A filling &c; as Remplage.

Remplissage de Vins. Leakage; or the filling vp of Wine-vessells after their leaking.

Rempliſſement. as Remplage.

Rempliſion: f. A filling, supplying, or furnishing of an emptie place.

Remploy: m. A reimployment, as of money, made of one thing, or another.

Remployer. To reimploy.

Remplumer. To feather anew.

Ie me remplume. I begin to recouer my health, wealth, or authoritie; I picke, or gather, vp my crummes againe.

Rempoigner. To lay hands on againe.

Rempoisonner. To poison, or inuenome anew.

Rempoissonner. To furnish againe with fish.

Remporté: m. ée: f. Carried or borne backe, brought or got away.

Remporter. To carrie or beare backe, to get or bring away from.

Rempriſonner. To reimpriſon; to cast into prison againe.

Remprunter. To borrow againe.

Rempſon. as Rençon. (v.m.)

Remu. Octroier remu. (In the auncient Customes of Britaine) to giue, or agree vnto, a delay in a suit.

Remuance: f. A remouance; a frequent mouing, stirring, itching, figging; remouing.

Remuant: m. ante: f. Often mouing, stirring, figging; liuelie, nimble, quicke; often remouing, euer flitting, neuer still, or standing.

Remucrés: m. Fustinesse; or mouldinesse.

Remué: m. ée: f. Moued, stirred; remoued.

Remuë-mesnage: m. A stirring, turbulent, vnquiet, seditious person; one that affecteth change, nouelties, innouations.

Remuëment: m. A mouing, stirring; remouing.

Remuër. To moue, stirre, fig, fidge it; to remoue, or set away.

Remuër les mains. To fight hard, lay about him lustily.

Remuër mesnage contre. Looke Mesnage.

Remuër toute pierre. To attempt all meanes, proue all courses, try all wayes.

Remuër les serrures. To be verie busie, to keepe an old coyle, bustling, stirre.

De chose perduë le conseil ne se remuë: Pro. See Conseil.

Qui remuë les pierres ses doigts casse: Prov. He that remoueth stones crusheth his fingers; he that puts them (into hot, or) vnto hard things (burne, or) bruises them.

Remuëur: m. A mouer; a remouer.

Remuëur de mesnage. as Remuë-mesnage.

Remugle. Mustie, or fustie.

Remuneration: f. A remuneration, remunerating, recompencing, rewarding.

Remuneratoire: com. Remuneratorie, remunerating.

Remunerer. To remunerate, guerdon, recompence, reward.

Remusseau: m. A bottome, or clue of thread, yarne, &c.

Re-

Reny: m. A proper name for a man; and particularly, the name of a Saint, which was the sixteenth Bishop of Rheims, and baptised Clouis the first Christian King of France: he died in the yeare 545.

La Sainct Reny. S. Remyes day; the first day of October, kept holyday in most parts of France.

Renager. To swimme backe.

Renaissance: f. A new birth.

Renaissances de forests. Young trees that come up after a felling, or cutting of the old ones.

Renaissement: m. as Renaissance; or, a being new borne.

Renaistre. To be borne anew; to rise, grow, spring, or begin, againe.

Renal: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, the kidneyes.

Artere renale. A branch of the great arterie, which enters into the kidneyes, and brings vnto them the serositie of the arteriall bloud.

Veine renale. Seeke Veine.

Renaquer. To sweare horribly or most idly, to blaspheme, or to renounce, Almightie God.

Renard. A Fox; Looke Regnard.

Renardaille: f. as Regnardaille.

Renarde: f. A Bitch-fox.

Renardeau: m. A Fox-cub, or young Fox.

Renarder. See Regnarder.

Renardesque: com. as Regnardesque.

Renardier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a Fox.

Renardise: f. as Regnardise.

Renasquer. Looke Renaquer.

Renavigé: m. ée: f. Renauigated, sayled backe.

Renaviger. To renauigate, sayle backe, or sayle ouer againe.

Renavrer. To wound, or hurt againe.

Renaut. Looke Regnaut.

Renchainer. To reinchaine; to chaine, or bind in chaines, againe.

Renche. Looke Rang.

Rencheoir. To fall againe.

Rencheri: m. ie: f. Growne deerer or higher prised, held or come to a greater rate, then it was at.

Il fait du rencheri. He keepes off, holds aloofe, makes it daintie, seemes coy or squeamish; also, he is very churlish, froward, harsh, vntractable, hard to be dealt with.

Rencherir. To raise the price of, to make deerer then it was.

Rencheute: f. A recidiuation, or new fall.

Renchier: m. A Rayne-Deere.

Renclorre. To reinclose.

Renclouër. To nayle againe.

Rencocher. To nocke the second time.

Rençon: f. A ransome; that which is payed for the liberty of a prisoner of warre; also, corne giuen backe by a Miller in meale; whence, Tel musnier faict mauvaise rençon; yeelds not so much grist, or makes not so much meale, as he should doe.

Aide de rençon. Looke in Aides chevels.

Rençonnement, & Rençonner. as Rançonnement, & Rançonner.

Rençonneur: m. A ransomer; and thence, an oppressor, extortioner, vniust exactor, hard or sore dealer.

Rencontre: f. A hap, or aduenture; also, a meeting, or incounter (as of aduerse troopes, which on a suddaine, or by chaunce, fall foule one on the other;) an accidentall getting, obtaining, or lighting on; also, an occurrence; also, an apt or vnpremeditated ieast, conceit, wittie saying.

Cheval de rencontre. A horse of service, or the value of one, due by a new vassall vnto his new Lord, both falling out to be so by the death of their predecessors within one yeare.

Mot de rencontre. An apt or vnpremeditated ieast, &c, as before in Rencontre.

Nom de rencontre. A good, acceptable, honest, or happie name.

Rencontré: m. ée: f. Incountered, met, occurred with, hit, or light vpon.

Voilà bien rencontré. A good and wittie ieast, a fit and quicke reply, beleeue me.

Ils ont rencontré chaussure à leur pied; Looke Chaussure.

Rencontrer. To incounter, meet, occurre, with; to come to, or light on, casually; also, to speake merrily, wittily, prettily, vnhappily, properly, or to the purpose; to hit vpon a ieast, to make a wittie incounter.

Deux hommes se rencontrent bien, mais iamais deux montaignes: Prov. Two men may sometimes meet, but mountaines neuer.

Rencontreur: m. A mocker, flowter, giber, ieaster, pleasant companion, facetious person, merrie man.

Rencourager. To reincourage.

Rencuser. To detect, appeach, bewray, betray.

Rendable: com. Rendible, renderable, yeeldable, restorable.

Rente rendable. A rent-secke or charge, which may be extinguished, redeemed, or bought out.

Rendage: m. A rendering, or yeelding; a restoring, or giuing backe.

Droict de rendage de chascun ouvrage. Looke vnder Droict.

Se Rendebter. To runne or grow in debt againe.

Rendement: m. A rendring, retribution, restoring, yeelding backe.

Rendenter. To reindent, or set new teeth vnto.

Rendez-vous: m. A Rendeuous; a place appointed for the assemblie, or meeting of souldiors.

Le rendez-vous d' un' affaire. The end, or scope of a matter, the drift, or purpose whereto it is directed.

Rediter. To reindite, or frame a new Indictment against; also, to demonstrate, manifest, or point at, againe.

Rendon: f. Randome, vncertaintie; or, as Randon.

Se Rendormir. To fall asleepe againe.

Rendormissement: m. A falling asleepe againe.

Rendouble. as Redouble.

Rendouër: m. A retribution; or the time, or vessell, of restoring. ¶Rab.

Rendre. To render, yeeld, giue, or pay, backe; restore, make restitution vnto; also, to yeeld, giue, affoord, assigne, vnto; also, to cause, make, effect, or bring to passe; also, to vomit, spue, or cast vp againe; also, to runne, as a sore, &c.

Rendre les abbais, ou abbois. To hold the dogs at a bay; a defence made by a Deere, when he can runne no longer; by a Bore, at his first raising, and before he begin to runne.

Se rendre à. To meet with, or at; also, to resort, repaire, come, or get him, vnto.

Des yeux se va rendre au cerveau. It reaches, runnes, or goes from the eyes to the braine.

Ou rendre, ou pendre, ou mort d' enfer attendre: Pro. Restore, or hang, or looke to be damn'd.

Au prester ange, au rendre Diable; &, Au prester cousin, au rendre fils de putain: Prov. Borrowers when they would haue coyne, speake faire, but when they they ſhould pay coyne, ſpit fire.

Qui a appris à prendre ſçait tard que c'eſt de rendre: Pro. Thoſe that can take beſt reſtore worſt; or, thoſe that are haſtie to take are ſlow to reſtore.

Rendu: m. uë: f. Rendred; yeelded or giuen backe, reſtored; alſo, yeelded, giuen, affoorded, vnto; alſo, made, effected, or brought to paſſe; alſo, vomited, ſpued, or caſt vp againe.

Renduire. To reannoint, or beſmeare againe.

Rendurci: m. ie: f. Reobdurated; made more hard, ſtiffe, or obſtinate, then before.

Rendurcir. To reobdurate; to make more hard, or obſtinate, then before.

Reneau: m. as Bocque.

Renegat: m. A renegadoe; one that abiures his religion, or forſweares his profeſſion.

Reneger. To ſnow againe.

Renes. Looke Reines.

Renette: f. A Game at Tables of ſome reſemblance with our Doublets, or Queenes Game; alſo, the apple called a Pippin, or a kind thereof.

Renettoyé: m. ée: f. Cleanſed againe, wyped, or ſcowred anew.

Renettoyement: m. A new, or ſecond, cleanſing.

Renettoyer. To cleanſe againe, to wype or ſcowre ouer, anew.

Renettoyeur: m. One that wypes, cleanſes, or ſcowres a thing often, anew, or ouer againe.

Renfardeler. To packe vp againe.

Renfermer. To ſhut vp againe.

Renferrer. To lay new yrons on; alſo, to ſtrike, or thruſt through, againe with a ſword &c.

Renfeſter vne maiſon. To put new ridge-tyles on it, in lieu of the old ones; or to new-rooſe it.

Renfierir. To make proud, ſtatelie, ſurlie againe.

Renfiler vne aiguille. To thread a needle againe.

Renflage: m. A great, or new, ſwelling.

Renflamber. To reinflame.

Renflammer. The ſame.

Renflé: m. ée: f. Swelled anew or againe, greatly or doubly ſwolne.

Renflement: m. A new, or double, ſwelling.

Renfler. To ſwell anew or againe, greatly or doubly, to ſwell.

Renfoncé: m. ée: f. New headed, as Caske; whoſe bottome, or head is new ſet in; alſo, hollowed, or ſunke in.

Renfoncement: m. A new heading of Caske.

Renfoncemens. (In Painting) hollowings, or ſinkings; (Choſes qui ſemblent eſtre reculées, & enfoncées;) or ſhadowings.

Renfondré: m. ée: f. Sunke againe; alſo, darke, obſcure, ouer-ſhadowed, low-ſeated, in a hollow bottome.

Renfondrement: m. A ſhadowing, or ouerſhadowing.

Renfondrer. To replunge, or ſinke againe; alſo, to darken, obſcure, ſhadow, ouerſhadow.

Se renfondrer. To ſinke in againe.

Renfonſements. as Renfoncemens.

Renfoncer. To driue, thruſt, or force backe vnto the bottome; to rebuige, or beat farre into againe.

Renforcé. as Renforci.

Renforcer. To reinforce, or ſtrengthen againe; to double the force, or ſtrength of.

Se renforcer. To gather ſtrength, redouble his force, recouer his former vigor.

Renforci: m. ie: f. Reinforced; ſtrengthened or fortified, animated or incouraged, anew, reſtored vnto force or vigor.

Renforcir. as Renforcer.

Renfort: m. Aide, ſupply; abundance, plentie.

Renfouïr. To dig againe.

Renfourner. To put into the Ouen againe.

Renfrongné: m. ée: f. Furrowed, as an angrie brow; wrimpled, crumpled, puckered; frowning, lowring, ſcowling.

Se Renfrongner. To frowne, lowre, ſcold.

Se Renfueiller. To get new leaues, to grow leaued againe.

Reng: m. A ranke, &c; as Rang.

Rengager. To reingage.

Rengainer. To ſheath, or put into the ſheath againe.

Renge: f. A ranke, rew, range.

Rengé: m. ée: f. Ranked, ranged, ordered, arrayed.

Rengée: f. A play with a ball at nuts, placed on a row.

Rengelet: m. The name of a yellow, and ſweet apple.

Rengendré: m. ée: f. Reingendred, new begotten.

Rengendrer. To reingender, to beget againe.

Rengendreur: m. A reingendrer.

Renger. To ranke, range, order, &c; as Ranger.

Rengette. Whence, Se laiſſer aller à la rengette. To giue her ſelfe a whooriſh ſcope, to ſuffer her ſhooe to goe awry.

Rengier: m. A Rayne Deere.

Rengigner. To bewitch, or deceiue, againe.

Renglacer. Againe to take cold, be cold, thicken, or congeale, as Ice.

Rengloutir. To reglut, reingulfe, ſwallow vp againe.

Rengluer. To beglue, or belime, againe.

Se Rengorger. To hold downe the head, or thruſt the chinne into the necke, as ſome doe, in pride, or to make their faces looke the fuller; we ſay, to bridle it.

Rengouffrer. To reingulfe.

Rengouler. To redeuoure.

Rengourdir. To benumme, or aſtonie anew.

Rengourmer. To curbe, or keepe in ſtrait ſubiection; alſo, to cuffe, knocke, or paſh on the mouth; whence;

Ie te rengourmeray bien le groin. I will pummell thee ſoundly; I will make thee hold thy head full low.

Rengraiſſer. To fatten againe.

Rengraver. To reaggrauate; reinforce, renew,

Rengregement: m. An exaggeration, aggrauating, exaſperating, exulcerating.

Rengreger. To aggrauate, exaggerate, exulcerate, exaſperate, make worſe, rub or renew the ſore of.

Rengrenement: m. A reingraining; a new furniſhing, or filling, with graine.

Rengrener. To reingraine; againe to furniſh, or fill with graine.

Se Rengroſſir. To wax groſſe, or great againe.

Renhanter. To new-head a Pike, &c.

Renhardir. To reimbolden, reincourage.

Renhaſter. To put on the ſpit againe.

se Renherber. To get new graſſe, to become graſſie againe.

Renhorter. To reimbort, reuduiſe, require, vnto.

Renhuiler. To oyle ouer againe.

Renjabler. To new-rigoll a peece of caske.

Renjanter. To put new ſpokes vnto a wheele.

Renicher. To neſtle anew, to returne vnto his owne home.

Reniement: m. An earneſt denying, diſauowing, diſaffirming, abiuring; an ordinarie ſwearing, or blaſphemming.

Renier. To denie ſtiffly, diſaffirme earneſtly, diſauow, abiure, forſweare vehemently; alſo, to ſweare ſtoutly, or ordi- ordinarily) to blaſpheme God.

Renieur: m. An earneſt denyer, diſaduower, abiurer, forſwearer, of; alſo, a blaſphemer, or an ordinarie ſwearer.

Renifler. To ſnuffle, or ſnifler often.

Rejoindre. To reinioyne, reordaine vnto, reimpoſe vpon.

Renitence: f. Reſiſtance; a hard thruſting, or indeuouring againſt.

Renitent: m. ente: f. Reſiſting; indeuouring, labouring, or thruſting againſt.

Reniveler. Againe to meaſure, or lay euen, with a leuell; againe to ſound with a plummet.

Renn-fane. The Standart, or Cornet of a troope of horſe.

Rennuyer. To remoleſt.

Renogle: f. The little greene Frog, or Toad.

Renoiant. Falſe of promiſe. (v.m.)

Renoircir. To blacke ouer againe.

Renoiſer. Againe to brawle, or contend in words.

Renom: m. as Renommée.

Renombrer. To number, count, reckon, or tell ouer, againe.

Renommé: m. ée: f. Renowmed, famous, of much note, of great name, reported or bruited all abroad, exceedingly ſpoken of.

Renommée: f. Renowme, fame, bruit, report, reputation, eſtimation, a great name.

Bonne renommée vaut mieux que ceincture dorée: Pro. A good name graces a woman more (or is of more worth vnto her) then any garment.

Se Renommer de quelque vn. To profeße, report, or giue out, that he belongs vnto, or depends vpon any one.

Renoncer. To renounce, abiure, forſake, abandon, forgoe for euer.

Renonciation: f. A renunciation, renouncing, abiuring, forſaking.

Renoter. To renote, remarke, to note or marke, againe.

Renovation: f. A renouation, renewment, repaire.

Renouée: f. Knot-graſſe, Swines-graße, Birds-tongue, S. Innocents hearbe.

Renouër. To tye, knit, or linke together againe.

Renouër vn procés. To renew, reuiue, patch vp, ſet on foot, an old weather-beaten, moath-eaten, or diſioynted ſuit.

Renoüeur de vieilles cauſes. A renewer of old ſuits; a peecer or patcher vp of ruinous cauſes.

Renouille. (Sometimes vſed) for Grenouille, a Frog.

Renouveau: m. The Spring.

Renouvée: f. as Renouée.

Renouvelant. Renewing.

Renouvelé: m. ée: f. Renewed; new dreßed or trimd vp; repeated, begun againe.

Renouveler. To renew, repaire, new dreße or trimme vp, redintegrate, reuiue, begin againe.

Renouvellement: m. A renewing, repairing, new-trimming vp, reuiuing, beginning againe.

Renouvelleur: m. A renewer, repairer, new trimmer vp; reuiuor, beginner againe, of.

Renouvet: m. A ſoone-ripe Apple that is no bigger then a Tennis-ball; alſo, the Cyder made thereof.

Renſaiſiner. To repoſſeſſe, to giue new ſeiſin vnto.

Renſemencer. To ſow againe.

Renſerrer. To ſhut vp againe.

Renſevelir. To burie once more.

Rentamer. Againe to cut, open, or breake, vp.

Rentaſſer. To heape, or packe vp againe.

Rente: f. Rent; reuenue.

Rente à l'appreci. Rent corne, payable in ſo much money as it might haue beene ſold for, on any of the three market dayes, next before the day, whereon it is due.

Rente cenſive. A Cens, or quit rent.

Rente conſtituée ſur heritage. A rent-charge, or a rent-ſecke, raiſed vpon, or yeelded out of, an Inheritance.

Rente conſtituée à pris d'argent. An annuitie, or rent, vpon a morgage; a rent raiſed vpon, or bought for, money; (The rate whereof is, moſt commonly, Au denier douze.)

Rente courante. as Rente volage.

Rente fonciere. A rent-ſeruice, rent-charge, or ſee-farme rent; an acceſſion vnto a Cens, or chiefe rent; a ſecond charge layed on land vpon a ſecond graunt thereof; called thus, becauſe it euer followes the ſoyle, and is due vnto the Lord thereof.

Rente hereditable, ou hereditale, heritable, ou heretiere. A rent in fee ſimple.

Rentes à heritage. The rents payed out of the Kings demaine in lieu of the Inheritances, Cenſuels, ou Roturiers, which haue beene annexed vnto it.

Rente noble. A rent thats due out of a fief.

Rente proprietaire. as Rente fonciere; tearmed by Ciuilians, Reditus ſolaris, fundariusve.

Rente rendable. Looke Rendable.

Rentes requerables. Which, as all rents (not otherwiſe agreed vpon) muſt be demaunded on the ground, or at the place, for which they are due.

Rente roturiere. Looke Roturier.

Rente ſeiche. Rent ſecke; tearmed ſo, not (as ours) becauſe no diſtreſſe is incident vnto it, but becauſe it yeelds no profit vnto the Lord of the ſoyle out of which it iſſues; (Car c'eſt le penſion, ou cens annuel que le ſubiect impoſe ſur ſon heritage mouvant d'aucun Seigneur foncier;) So that it is as well a rent charge as that which we call Rent ſeck.

Rente tolerable. A quit rent, or auncient rent, which cannot be bought out, but muſt be indured, and payed, by the tenant.

Rente volage, volante, ou vollant. A Rent ſecke, or a Rent charge; any rent thats raiſed of, or purchaſed for, money.

Mieux vaut reigle que rente: Prov. Better be wiſe then wealthie, honeſt then rich; good rule's to be preferd 'fore great reuennes.

Renté: m. ée: f. Bien renté. Well rented, of good liuing, of great reuenue.

Qui ſçait meſtier il eſt renté: Pro. A good Trade is a good reuenue.

Renter (for Réenter) to graffe againe.

Renter vn homme. To giue him rents, or yearelie reuenues.

Renterrer. To reinterre, to burie againe.

Renteux: m. euſe: f. Yeelding rent, charged with rent.

Rentier: m. A Tenant; one that payes rent, or (as we ſay) ſits at a yearelie rent; alſo, a Landlord, or one to whom rent is due; alſo, a Rent-roll.

Rentonner. To tunne, or tyne, the ſecond time.

Rentortiller. To writhe, or wind about againe.

Rentraicture: f. The laying in of a ſeame with the fingers; alſo, a drawing of rent cloth; a dearning.

Rentraieur: m. A Seamſter; or Drawer; or Dearner; a mender of rents in linnen, or woollen clothes.

Rentrainer. To traile, or draw, backe.

Rentraire. To lay in, or lay downe, a ſeame; alſo, to draw, dearne, or ſow vp a rent in a garment.
Rentrayeur. as Rentraieur.
Rentré: m. ée: f. Reentred, returned in, gone in againe.
C'eſt bien rentré de picques. To the purpoſe I warrant you. (Ironically.)
Rentrer. To reenter, to returne in, or goe in againe; alſo, to ſpeake merrily, or vnhappily; ſuddainely to come out with a pleaſant or wittie conceit; to light on a ieaſt; alſo, as Rentraire.
Rentrer en meſme bourbier. To fall into the ſame error againe.
Rentreur: m. A drawer of cloth.
Renvahir. To reinuade.
Renveloper. To reinuelope, reinwrap.
Renvenimer. To reinuenome.
Renverſe: f. Coup donné à la ren. A croſſe blow.
Tomber à la renverſe. To fall backward.
Renverſé: m. ée: f. Ouerturned, ouerthrowne, turned inſide out or vpſide downe; peruerted.
Anguille renversée. An Eele opened all along, and turned inſide out, then well waſhed, bound vp, and boyled in red Wine, and ſerued cold, with ſawce made of Ginger, Cynnamon, Cloues, Graines, Wine, Vineger, and Veriuice.
Raiſin renverſé. Garden Nightſhade, pettie Morrell.
Yeux renverſez. Eyes ſtanding in the head, or decayed eyes.
Renverſemént: m. An ouerturning, ouerthrowing, euerſion, ſubuerting; alſo, an inuerſion, or turning inſide out.
Renverſement. Inſide outward, vpſide downe, topſie turuie, backward.
Renverſer. To ouerturne, euert, ouerthrow; turne vpſide downe; alſo, to inuert, or turne the inſide outward.
Renverſure: f. as Renverſemént.
Renvier. To reuy, at play.
Il y renvioit de ſa reſte. He ſet his whole reſt, he aduentured all his eſtate, vpon it.
Renvoy: m. A ſending backe, a diſmiſſion; a referring from one vnto another.
Renvoy de priſonniers. A ſending of priſoners from one Iudge to another, or from a Court of Parliament vnto ſome inferiour Iudge.
Simple renvoy. A ſimple diſmiſſion; graunted vnto one that being appealed, or called before a ſuperior Iudge, requires to be diſmiſſed to the proſecuting of his ſuit alreadie begun, before the inferior (his ordinarie) Iudge: Another kind of Renvoy (tearmed otherwiſe Congé de cour) is graunted vnto ſuch as are appealed, or called before Iudges that haue no iuriſdiction ouer them.
Faire renvoy. To diſmiſſe, or ſend backe; to releaſe, to diſcharge.
Faire des renvois. A Dictionarie &c, to referre you, in one word, vnto another, by the tearmes of, Looke, See, Seeke, &c.
Renvoyé: m. ée: f. Diſmiſſed, ſent backe, remitted, remanded, returned; referred.
Renvoyer. To diſmiſſe, remit, remand, returne, ſend backe; referre from one to another.
Se renvoyer le eſteuf l'vn à l'autre. To ſhift off, or poaſt ouer, a thing one to the other; or, to ſerue one anothers turne withall.
Cela nous renvoit au devin. That puts vs to our trumpes; or, we know not, on a ſuddaine, what to make of it.
Renure: f. La ren. d'une poulie. The hollow, or furrow wherein the rope runnes about it.
Reoſté: m. ée: f. Taken away againe.
Repaire: m. A lodging, or haunt; the place whereto one vſually repaires; alſo, the denne, or couert wherein a wild beaſt lurkes; alſo, the dung of a Hare.
Faulcon de repaire. A Hagard which euer keepes one certaine ſtand at night; and hence;
Cet oiſeau n'eſt de long repaire. Reſorts not much to, or ſtayes not long in, one place.
Mauvais repaire. A place wherein ſpirits haunt, or walke; alſo, an apparition, or ſpirit.
Repairer. To haunt, frequent, lodge in, repaire vnto, one certaine place.
Repaiſſaille: f. A feeding, a repaſt.
Repaiſtre. To feed, nouriſh, victuall; to giue or take food, nouriſhment, victuals.
Repaiſtre de bayes. To feede with trifles, or vaine hopes; to intertaine with fibs, or friuolous tearmes.
Repaiſtre en Commiſſaire. See Commiſſaire.
Repaiſtre les corbeaux. To feed Rauens, become Rauens food, hang in chaines.
Il faut que l'herbe ſoit bien courte quand on ne trouve que repaiſtre: Prov. The graſſe had need be verie ſhort where nothing's to be nibled.
Mal de teſte veut repaiſtre: Prov. (The head ſmarts for the ſtomackes emptineſſe;) headach refection craues.
Repaiſtri: m. ie: f. Kneaded ouer againe.
Repandre. Looke Reſpandre.
Reparable: com. Repairable, amendable, recouerable.
Reparateur: m. A repairer, mender, renewer of.
Reparation: f. A reparation, amendment, renewing, recouerie of decayed things; alſo, a full reſtitution, or ſatisfaction.
Reparations. The repaires, or the reparations, of houſes, &c; whereof, ſayes a French Lawyer, there be three (generall) kinds; viz. les neceſſaires, without which the thing had fallen downe, or been much the worſe; les vtiles; by meanes whereof it is greatly improued; & les voluptuaires, ou de plaiſir; ſeruing onely for ornament, and the tenants delight.
Reparations viageres. Looke Viager.
Reparé: m. ée: f. Repaired, amended, renewed, reſtored, recouered.
Reparée: f. The hearbe called Beets.
Reparée noire. Blacke Beets.
Reparement: m. A repairing, amending, renewing, recouering, reſtoring.
Reparer. To repaire, mend, renew; recouer, reſtore.
Reparer vne iniure. To make amends, or giue ſatisfaction, for a wrong done.
Cela repare bien vn homme quand il parle bien. Good words improue, grace, or ſet forth, a man very much.
Repargner. Looke Reſpargner.
Reparler. To ſpeake againe.
Reparoiſtre. To reappeare.
Ie te le feray reparoiſtre. I will make thee pay ſoundly for it.
Repart: m. A rediuiſion, or ſubdiuiſion; alſo, a reply.
Repartager. To make a new partition of, to diuide a new.
Repartement de debtes. An equall diuiding or ſharing of a debtors eſtate, or of the money made of it, among his creditors.

Re-

Reparti: m. ie: f. Subdiuided, rediuided; or diuided into many parts; alſo, replyed; alſo, parted againe (as a horſe) from the hand.

Repartie: f. as Repart; alſo, an anſwering blow, or thruſt (in fencing &c) and thence, a returne of, or anſwer in ſpeech; a reply.

Repartir. To rediuide, or ſubdiuide; alſo, quickly to returne a thruſt or blow; to anſwer a thruſt with a thruſt, a blow with a blow, in fencing, &c; and hence, to reply in ſpeech; alſo, a horſe to part againe from the hand.

Repas: m. A repaſt, meale, refection.

Repas de chien: Pro. Hounds fare; nothing but bread and water.

Repaſſé: m. ée: f. Repaſsed; paſſed or gone ouer againe; (alſo healed, recouered; in old French.)

Repaſſer. To repaſse; to paſſe, or goe ouer againe; alſo (in old French) to recouer, or grow well againe.

Repateliner. To flatter, ſooth, cog, or collogue with beyond meaſure, or againe.

Repatrié: m. ée: f. Repatriated, reſtored vnto his owne home; alſo, reconciled, or made friends with.

Repatrier. To repatriate, or to reſtore to his owne home; alſo, to attone, reconcile, make friends againe.

Mais c'eſt le repatrier trop loing. But ſo we fetch his pettigree too farre.

Repeigné: m. ée: f. Often combed, or combed ouer againe.

Repeigner. To combe often, or ouer againe.

Repeindre. To paint againe.

Rependre. To hang vp againe.

Repenſé: m. ée: f. Seriouſly conſidered, aduiſedly thought of; reuolued often, diſcuſſed much, in the thoughts.

Repenſement: m. A ſerious conſidering, earneſt thinking of; a frequent reuoluing, pondering, or examining in the mind.

Repenſer. To thinke much, muſe earneſtly, conſider aduiſedly, of; to examine ſeriouſly, ponder duly, often reuolue in the thought.

Mal penſe qui ne repenſe: Prov. He thinkes ill-fauoredly that thinkes not throughly.

Repentailles: f. Repentance; or the accidents, or fruits thereof.

Fiançailles chevauchent en ſelle, & repentailles en croupe: Pro. Repentance waits full cloſe on mariage.

Repentance: f. Repentance, penitence.

Repenti: m. ie: f. Repented, repentant, penitent, repenting.

Filles repenties. An Order of Nunnes, which haue beene profeſſed whores.

Repentin: m. ine: f. Suddaine; vnlooked for, vnawares.

Repentir: m. Repentance.

Au gibbet le repentir vient trop tard: Prov. Too late a man repents when the hangman attends him.

De court plaiſir long repentir: Pro. Looke Plaiſir.

Se Repentir. To repent, forthinke, to grieue at, or be ſorrie for, the doing of a thing.

Qui premier prend ne s'en repent: Pro. The firſt taker ſeldome rues his haſt.

Tel conſent qui ſe repent: Prov. Some quickly rue their fond conſentings.

Trop tard ſe repent qui tout deſpend: Prov. Looke Deſpendre.

Trop tard ſe repent le rat entre les pattes du chat: Prov. Too late the Rat cryes bad-I-wiſt when the Cat pawes her.

Repentivement. Penitently, repentingly, with repentance.

Repercer. To pierce againe.

Repercher. To ſet on the pearch againe.

Repercuſſif: m. iue: f. Repercuſſiue, repelling, beating or driuing backe; reuerberating, rebounding; reſounding.

Repercuſſion: f. A repercuſſion, repulſing, beating or forcing backe; a reflection, reuerberation, rebounding.

Repercuté: m. ée: f. Repelled, repulſed, beaten or ſtruck backe; reflected, reuerberated.

Repercuter. To repell, repulſe; force, beat, or ſtrike back; to rebound, reuerberate, reflect; reſound.

Repercutif: m. A repercutiue; a medicine that repells, or driues, paine from the place whereunto it is applyed.

Reperdre. To looſe againe.

Repermis: m. ise: f. Repermitted; ſuffered, or tolerated againe; alſo, newly licenced.

Repertible: com. Which may be found, gotten, recouered.

Repertoire: m. A Repertorie, Liſt, Roll, Index, Inuentorie, Regiſter.

Repeſché: m. ée: f. Fiſhed; or fetched out of the water, againe.

Repeſcher. To fiſh, or fetch out of the water, againe.

Repeſer. To repeiſe, to weigh againe.

Repeſtrir. To knead againe.

Repetaſſer. as Rapetaſſer.

Repeté: m. ée: f. Repeated, rehearſed; alſo, redemaunded, asked or called backe, required, acquired, or fetched, againe.

Repeter. To repeat, or to rehearſe; alſo, to redemaund, require, aske, or call backe; alſo, to returne, recouer, take, or fetch, backe againe.

Repetition: f. A repetition, a rehearſall; alſo, a redemanding, asking, or calling back; a recouerie, taking, or fetching, againe.

Repeu: m. euë: f. Fed, filled, ſatisfied.

Repeuë: f. A meale, repaſt, refection; alſo, a bait (or baiting place) in an Inne, &c.

Repeuplement: m. A repeopling, repopulating, new ſtoring with inhabitants, &c.

Repeupler. To repopulate, new-ſtore with people, furniſh againe with inhabitants, &c.

Repeyret: m. Feuerwort, Earthgall, Centorie the leſſe, common Centorie, ſmall Centorie.

Repicquer. To pricke, thruſt, plant, againe; alſo, to ride, or ſpurre, backe.

Repigeonnement: m. A budding or ſprouting out, a putting forth againe.

Repigeonner. To bud, ſprout out, put forth, anew.

Repiler. To pownd, bray, beat (in a mortar) againe.

Repincer. To pinch againe.

Repionner. as Repigeonner; or to yeeld, or put forth, ſmall twigs, or ſprigs.

Repiquer. as Repicquer.

Repiſſer. To piſſe againe.

Replaindre. To complaine anew.

Replancher. To planke, to floore or ſeele with plankes, againe.

Replantable: com. Replantable.

Replanté: m. ée: f. Replanted, ſet or planted againe.

Replantement: m. A replanting; a new, or another, ſetting.

Replanter. To replant, or ſet againe.

Re-

Replaſtrer. To plaiſter, or dawbe ouer, anew.
Replat: m. A flat, or bottome; the flat part of any thing; alſo, the alley betweene two beds in a garden; alſo, the brow of a mountaine, or that part of it which hangeth ouer the reſt.
Replet: m. ete: f. Replete, full; fat, plumpe, quarrie, corſie.
Repletif: m. iue: f. Repletiue, repleniſhing, filling.
Repletion: f. A repletion, repleniſhing, filling.
Repletivement. Repletiuely, fully.
Repleurer. To weepe againe.
Repli: m. A fould, plait, or bought; a foulding, bowing, winding, or turning in and out.
Repli de la iambe. The hamme.
Le repli d' une lettre. The fould in the bottome of a Deed whereon we ſigne, and whereinto the label is put for the ſeale.
Les replis d' une Riviere. The manifold cranklings, or wriglings made in and out by a Riuer in it courſe.
Replié: m. ée: f. Much foulded, often bowed or plaited, redoubled, turned or winding in and out many wayes.
Repliement: m. A redoubling, much foulding, often plaiting or bowing, manifold winding or turning in and out.
Replier. To redouble, to bow, fould, or plait into many doublings; to make to turne, or wind in and out verie often.
Replieur: m. A redoubler.
Replieure: f. A redoublement, a redoubling; or, as Repliement.
Replique: f. A reply; ſecond anſwer; new confirmation of former aſſertions.
Choſe bien dite n'a replique, ne redite: Pro. Sound ſpeech preuents replyes.
Repliquer. To reply, or anſwer, vnto.
Repliſſé: m. ée: f. Redoubled, much foulded, often bowed, manifoldly plaited, or plaited againe; alſo, puckred, or ſhrunke.
Repliſſure: f. as Replieure.
Replomber. To lead; ſolder; or ſound, againe.
Replonger. To replunge, to ducke, or diue againe.
Replouvoir. To raine againe.
Reployement: m. as Repli; or, a foulding.
Repluмer. To plume, or plucke the ſecond time.
Reply. as Repli; alſo, the voiding of the excrements at the mouth; a diſeaſe called, Miſerere mei.
Repoindre. To pricke againe.
Repoiſſer. To pitch ouer againe.
Repolir. To repoliſh, new-furbiſh.
Repolon. The ſouldiors manage &c; as Paſſade.
Reponce. Rampions; Looke Raiponce.
Reponcer. To pounce againe.
Reponchon. as Raiponce.
Repondre. To lay egges againe.
Repontique. Looke Rheupontique.
Reporté: m. ée: f. Carried backe, returned, brought againe.
Reporter. To recarrie, beare backe, returne; remit, referre.
Repos: m. Repoſe, reſt, quiet, eaſe, peace.
Terres de repos. Fallowes.
Repoſade: f. A reſt, or a reſting place.
Faiſons repoſade. Let vs reſt, ſit downe, or take our eaſe.
Repoſe: f. A Semibreeſe Reſt, in Muſicke.
Repoſé. Repoſed, reſted; lyen fallow a great while; alſo, ſad, ſetled, ſtayed, quiet, graue, diſcreet.

Repoſée: f. as Repoſade; alſo, the lodge of a Stag, &c.
Repoſément. Repoſedly, quietly, ſtilly, ſtayedly.
Repoſer. To repoſe, pawſe, reſt, or ſtay; to be at quiet, to take his eaſe.
Repoſer ſon vin. To ſleepe after hard drinking, to digeſt his drinke by ſleeping.
Qui bon vin boit il ſe repoſe: Pro. Good wine breeds quiet reſt.
Qui va il leche, qui repoſe il ſeiche: Prov. The ſtirrer thriues, the lazie houſe-Doue pines.
Repoſitoire: m. A ſtorehouſe, warehouſe, cupboord, counter, place to keepe things in.
Repoſoir: m. A lodge, manſion; ſtanding; reſting place; alſo, a Stue for fiſh.
Les repoſoirs d'un eſcalier. The reſts or landing places of a halfe-pace ſtaire; euerie fift, or ſixt &c ſtep, much broader then the reſt.
Repoſouër. as Repoſoir.
Repoſt. En repoſt. Cloſely, hiddenly, ſecretly, or as a thing thats well layed vp.
Repoulſé: m. ée: f. Repulſed, repelled; foyled; thruſt, or driuen, backe.
Repoulſement: m. A repulſing, repelling; foyling; a thruſting, puſhing, or driuing, backe.
Repoulſer. To repulſe, repell; foyle; thruſt, puſh; force, or driue, backe.
Repoulſeur: m. A repulſer, a repeller; a thruſter, puſher, driuer, backe.
Repoulſoir. Looke Repouſſoir.
Repous: m. A pauing; pargetting, or filling with rubble, rubbiſh, &c.
Repouſſant. Repulſing, repelling; puſhing or forcing backe.
Repouſſé, & Repouſſer. as Repoulſé, & Repoulſer.
Repouſſeur. as Repulſeur.
Repouſſoir: m. A repulſorie; a thing that repulſeth, drieueth backe, or puſheth out; and hence, the yron toole wherewith woodden pinnes are thruſt out; alſo, the top of a Pitfall, or Trap ſet for Foxes, &c.
Repratiquer. To practiſe, or contriue, againe.
Reprehenſion: f. A reprehenſion, reproofe, rebuke; a blaming, checking, chiding; a controlling.
Repremiation: f. A repremiation, a rewarding.
Reprenant. Reprehending, reprouing.
Reprenart: m. A reprehender, rebuker, reprouer, carper, checker, find-fault, controller.
Reprendre. To reſume, receiue, take backe, or againe; alſo, to apprehend, ſtay, or hold, a fugitiue, &c; alſo, to reprehend, blame, checke, rebuke, reproue, carpe, controll.
Se reprendre. To cloſe, ioyne, or knit againe; alſo, to ceaſe or breath a little, and after breathing, to begin, or goe to it, againe; alſo, to take, hold, or get life, as a plant lately tranſplanted.
Reprendre le criminel. (In Law) ne s'entend faire vn nouveau procés criminel, ains reprendre celuy qui eſt deſia faict.
Reprenons noſtre chevre à la barbe. Let vs backe to our matter againe.
Repreneur: m. as Reprenart.
Repreſaille: f. A taking, arreſting, or ſeiſing on, for a diſtreſſe, or pledge; alſo, a priſe, or a repriſall; whence;
Droict de repreſailles. Power giuen, or leaue graunted, vnto a priuate man, which hath beene (or feares to be) robbed, impriſoned, ranſomed, or otherwiſe wronged, by a forraine people, to right (or prouide for) himſelfe vpon them, or any of their countreymen.

Lettres de repreſailles. Letters (Patents) of Mart, or Marque; letters authorizing repriſalls; or permitting a priuate man that hath beene wronged by forrainers to right himſelfe on them, or theirs as he can.

Repreſentation: f. A repreſentation; a ſhew, reſemblance, likeneſſe, apparance; alſo, a ſtanding for, or a being preſented in the ſtead of; and hence, the kindred, or neereneſſe of a child vnto his father, whoſe perſon he repreſents, and in the right thereof is to inioy that inheritance which, had he liued, ſhould haue beene his.

Repreſenter. To repreſent, reſemble, expreſſe, imitate, act; alſo, to preuent, offer, exhibit, ſhew forth.

Repreſſailles. Repriſalls; whence, Dроict de repreſſailles; for which looke vnder Repreſaille.

Repreſſer. To preſſe againe.

Repreſter. To lend againe.

Reprier. To pray often, deſire earneſtly, require againe.

Reprimende: f. A checke, reprehenſion, reproofe, rebuke.

Reprimer. To repreſſe, quell, tame, containe, keepe downe, hold vnder; to bridle, moderate, refraine, reſtraine.

Reprimeur: m. A repreſſer, queller, tamer; bridler, moderator, reſtrainer.

Reprin: m. Branne; or the courſeſt of meale.

Reprins: m. inſe: f. Reſumed, recouered, taken backe or againe; alſo, reprehended, reproued, rebuked, checked, blamed; alſo, cloſed, ioyned, knit or ſet together, againe; alſo, taken or held; alſo, returned vnto after a pauſe, or breath-taking.

Reprinſe: f. Orpine, Liuing, or Liue-long, an hearbe; alſo, a reſumption, repetition, reiteration; a taking backe, a bringing, or comming, in againe; alſo, a cloſing, ioyning, or knitting together of diſioynted things; alſo, a holding, taking, or thriuing of tranſplanted plants, and the fruit or increaſe yeelded by any ſeed or plant; alſo, a new homage done vpon the change of Lord, or Tenant; alſo, a turne in the dauncing of a Meaſure, &c.

Le comptable fait reprinſe de telle ſomme. The accomptant reimburſes; payes, or allowes, back vnto himſelfe ſuch a ſumme.

Repris: m. iſe: f. as Reprins.

Repriſe: f. A reſumption; repetition, &c; as Reprinſe.

Repriſes de pierre. Dexting peeces of ſtone.

A double repriſe. Doubly hooked; crooking, bending, or turnd inwards, on both ſides.

A pluſieurs repriſes. Sundrie, or many ſeuerall times; by ſundrie, or manie ſeuerall efforts; falling often vnto that which he formerly left; beginning often there where before he had giuen ouer.

Repriſer. To ſet a new rate or price on, to prize againe.

Reprochable: com. Reproachable, opprobrious, ignominious.

Reproche: f. A reproach, diſgrace, defamation, imputation; a blemiſh, crime, taint, brand, fault; an vpbraiding, twitting, or caſting in the teeth; a diſabling of; an exception taken, or fault found with.

Reproché: m. ée: f. Reproached, diſgraced, blemiſhed, branded, tainted; vpbraided, twitted or caſt in the teeth with; diſabled, excepted againſt.

Reprocher. To reproach; diſgrace, blemiſh, taint; obiect or impute vnto, charge or vpbraid with, lay in ones diſh, caſt in his teeth, a fault or error committed.

Reprocher teſmoings. To diſable, challenge, or except againſt, witneſſes.

Reproduire. To reproduce, to yeeld or bring forth againe.

Reprouisionné: m. ée: f. Furniſhed with new prouiſion, refurniſhed, furniſhed againe.

Reprouvable: com. Reproueable, blameable, condemnable.

Reprouver. To reproue, chide, checke, blame, condemne, find fault with, diſallow.

Reptile: com. Reptile, creeping, crawling; as vermine, plants, roots, &c.

Republique: f. The Commonwealth.

Repudiable: com. Repudiable, refuſable, reiectable, forſakeable.

Repudiation: f. A refuſall, a refuſing.

Repudié: m. ée: f. Refuſed, forſaken, reiected, abandoned, caſt off.

Repudiement: m. A refuſing, forſaking, abandoning, reiecting.

Repudier. To repudiate, refuſe, forſake, abandon, reiect.

Repudieur: m. A refuſer, a forſaker.

Repuë. Looke Repeuë.

Repugnance: f. Repugnancie, contradiction, diſagreement.

Repugner. To repugne, croſſe, thwart, impugne, reſiſt, withſtand, contradict, gainſay, diſagree from, be oppoſite vnto.

Repullu̇er. To reburgeon, or bud out againe.

Repurgé: m. ée: f. Repurged, clenſed anew.

Repurgement: m. A new purging, a frequent or iterated clenſing.

Reputation: f. Reputation, eſteeme, regard, account; fame, bruit, renowme, a name.

Reputé: m. ée: f. Reputed, held, eſteemed, reckoned, accounted.

Reputer. To repute, hold, eſteeme, reckon, account.

Requamer. To imbroder.

Requarreler. See Recarreler.

Requart: m. The fourth part of a fourth; as of 16 4, of 4 1.

Requerable. Searchable; requirable, demaundable, or which muſt be demaunded; whence;

Rentes requerables. Looke Rente.

Requerant. Diligently ſearching, or ſeeking; alſo, requeſting, or beſeeching.

Vn chien requerant. A well-noſed, or cold-noſed, hound.

Requerir. Diligently to ſeeke, ſearch, looke for, hunt after; alſo, to requeſt, intreat, beſeech, implore, importune, earneſtly to require, pray, or ſue vnto.

Qui plaiſir fait plaiſir requiert: Prov. He that does a pleaſure lookes to be pleaſured; one benefit expecteth another.

Requerre. as Requerir.

Requeſte: f. A requeſt, petition, ſupplication (in writing; Looke Placet;) a deſire, demaund, ſuit, intreatie, prayer, beſeeching, inuocation, implorement; alſo, a ſearch for, an inquirie after; and in hunting, a ſeeke or hooke, againe.

Requeſte d'armes. A publike challenge.

Requeſte ciuile. A Reuiew, Repeale, or Arreſt of Iudgement, graunted by Letters Patents vpon ſuggeſtion, in the Chauncerie, that the Iudges haue beene deceiued by falſe allegations, forged euidences, periured witneſſes; or otherwiſe abuſed by the cunning and ſhifts of the aduerſe partie.

Requeſte d'un Oye. The Gooſe giblets.

Maiſtres

Maiſtres des requeſtes. The Maiſters of Requeſts; at firſt there were but two, an Eccleſiaſticall, and a lay man; afterwards they came to be fiue; two aſſiſtants to the Chauncellor, and three Petition-receiuers (whereof ſee more in, Iuges de la porte, vnder Iuge.) Anno 1342 they grew to be ſix; and Anno 1408 they increaſed vnto eight; which number Henry the third doubling, made them ſixteene. They be Conſeillers of the bodie of Parliaments, and of the great Counſell, ouer which, in the abſence of the Iudges, they preſide; as they doe alſo at the Seales of all Parliamentall Chaunceries, where they heare the reports of the Referendaires: They alſo take notice of the falſification of Chauncerie Seales; and iudge (en premiere Inſtance) all controuerſies ariſing about the Titles of royall Offices.

Aller aux requeſtes. To goe, in time of warre, to implore the protection of ſome great perſonage, vpon a feare of being ranſacked by the common ſoldiors: (a ruſticall phraſe.)

Cela n'eſt plus en requeſte. Is no more ſought or cared for, no more asked or inquired after.

Requien: m. A certaine rauenous, rough-skinned, and wide-mouthed fiſh, which is good meat.

Requinqué: m. ée: f. Tricked, ſprucified, or ſmugd, vp. ¶Pic.

Camus requinqué. Whoſe flat noſe-end is turned vp.

Se Requinquer. To ſprucifie, ſmug, or tricke vp himſelfe. ¶Pic.

Requint: m. The fift part of the fift pennie for which a fief hath beene ſold (as of an hundred foure) due, beſides the ſaid fift, vnto the Lord feodal, and payed moſt commonly by the purchaſer.

Requiper. To arme, equip, furniſh, or make readie, againe.

Requis: m. iſe: f. Diligently ſought, ſearched, looked for, hunted after; earneſtly required, beſought, or intreated for; alſo, requiſite, fit, meet.

Requiſition: f. A requiſition, requirall, demaund; requeſt, beſeeching, ſuing, or ſeeking to.

Requiſitoire: m. A requeſt, or ſuit, vnto.

Requiſitoire: com. Inquiſitiue, or full of inquiries; alſo, requiring, requeſting, &c; whence;

Lettres requiſitoires. (Oppoſed vnto ſuch as be mandatarie, or of commaund) letters of requeſt, or intreatie.

Requoy. Looke Recoy.

Rere. To bellow as a Stag, to trout as a Buck.

Rerefief. as Arriere-fief.

Rere-vaſſal: m. A vaſſall to a vaſſall; a vaſſall that holds of a meſne Lord, or of a vaſſall.

Rés. Looke Rets, & Rez.

Reſacrer. To reconſecrate.

Reſaigner. To let bloud of another veine.

Reſaillir. To ſtart backe.

Reſaiſir. To reſeiſe, to lay new hold on.

Reſaisir, & fournir la complaincte: C'eſt obtenir lettres pour la remener à effect ſur les lieux.

Reſaler. To ſalt, or ſeaſon, againe.

Reſaluër. To reſalute.

Reſaper, & Reſapper. To vnderprop, or underſet a wall; to repaire it at the foot, or after it hath beene vndermined.

Reſarcir. To mend, reforme, repaire; alſo, to make amends for.

Reſarcler. To weed ouer againe.

Reſaſſer. To ſift againe.

Reſavourer. To taſt, eſſay, try, ſauor of once more, or againe.

Resbaudir. To glad, reioyce, exhilerate.

Resbaudir vn chien. To incourage, or cheere vp a dog with clapping, whooping, &c.

Reſchal: m. Yellow wyre, ſuch as netting for windowes is made of.

Reſchapper d'une maladie. To eſcape, or to recouer, of a ſickneſſe.

Reſchaud: m. A Chafing-diſh.

Reſchaufé: m. ée: f. Heated, or warmed againe.

Des vieux choux reſchauffez. An old couple newly married.

Reſchauffer. To warme, or heat againe.

Reſchauffoir: m. A Chafing-diſh; alſo, a Warming-panne, or Fire-panne, ſuch as is vſed in Barbers ſhops.

Reſchault. as Reſchauffoir.

Reſchier. To ſhift, or take out of one thing to put into another.

Reſcindant: m. A contract which hath been made void by law.

Reſcindé: m. ée: f. Cut, or pared off; alſo, cancelled, quaſht, annulled, repealed, fordone.

Reſcinder. To cut, or pare, off; alſo, to cancell, quaſh, annihilate, annull, repeale, fordoe.

Reſcision: f. A reſciſion; a cutting, or paring off; a cancelling, annulling, annihilating.

Reſciſoire: m. The execution of a Reſcindant.

Reſclairci: m. ie: f. New cleered vp, clarified or fined againe.

Renſconcer. as Reſconſer.

Reſconſé: m. ée: f. Hidden, concealed, withdrawne, cloſe layed vp.

Reſconſer. To conceale, bide, withdraw, lay cloſe, put vp.

Reſcoüable: com. Reſcuable, recouerable, redeemeable.

Reſcourre. To reſcue, take from, free, redeeme, recouer, deliuer.

Reſcourre vne terre. To redeeme, diſingage, or buy backe, a peece of land.

Bien a crié le loup qui ſa proye reſcoult: Pro. See Loup.

Reſcouſſe: f. Reſcue, redemption, deliuerie; reſcous; the reſcuing, or taking of an ingaged thing from.

Reſcouſſe perpetuelle. Reachet, ou moyen de ravoir, à perpetuité.

Reſcouſſe de rente. An extinguiſhment, redemption, or buying out of a rent charge.

Ou il n'y a plus de reſcouſſe. Deſperate, loſt, gone, paſt hope or helpe, without recouerie.

Reſcoux: m. ouſſe: f. Reſcued, redeemed, recouered; freed, taken from, deliuered.

Rente reſcouſſe. Rent extinguiſhed, or bought out.

Reſcreer. Looke Recreer.

Reſcript: m. A reſcript; a writing backe; an anſwer giuen in writing; and hence, the anſwer of a Petition, the returne of a Writ.

Reſcription: f. A writing back; an anſwering by letters.

Reſcrire. To write backe; to returne an anſwer in writing.

Reſcrire de ſon exploict. (A Sergeant) to returne the Writ; or to deliuer in writing how he ſerued it, and what ſucceeded thereon.

Reſcrit. as Reſcript.

Reſeant: m. ante: f. Reſiant, reſident, continually dwelling, abiding, biding by it; Looke Reſleant.

Reſeau: m. Netwerke.

Reſecouër. To ſhake often, or againe.

Reſection: f. A reſection; a cutting, paring, or ſhredding off.
Reſée: f. A Purſe-net.
Reſéeller. To ſeale againe.
Reſeicher. To dry againe.
Reſeigner. To let bloud againe.
Reſemblance: f. A reſemblance; a likeneſſe, a counterfeit.
Reſemblant: m. ante: f. Reſembling, repreſenting, like vnto.
Reſemblement: m. A reſembling, repreſenting, counterfeiting.
Reſembler. To reſemble, counterfeit, repreſent, be like vnto.
Il ſemble à vn larron que chaſcun luy reſemble: Pro. A theefe imagines euerie one lookes like him.
Les paroles du ſoir ne reſemblent pas à celles du matin: Pro. Looke Parole.
Toutes les femmes ſe reſemblent: Pro. All women are (in ſome thing or other) alike.
Reſemer. To ſow againe.
Se Reſentir. To haue a great ſmacke, or taſt, or to be ſenſible of; Looke Se Reſſentir.
Reſequer. To pare, cut, or clip off; to ſtread, or take, cleane away.
Reſerener. To cleere vp againe.
Reſerrant: m. ante: f. Reſtrictiue, ſtipticke, cloſing, ſtopping, binding.
Reſerré: m. ée: f. Cloſed, ſtopped, ſhut vp; ſtrait, reſtrained, hard bound, preſſed, or thruſt together; alſo, ſtayed, ſober, temperate, that keepes within due limits.
Reſerrer. To cloſe, bind, ſtop, or ſhut vp; alſo, to preſſe, ſqueeze, thruſt, or straine hard together; alſo, to ſtay, reſtraine, repreſſe, hold vnder; alſo, to reinforce it ſelfe; as in;
A la S. Pierre l'hyver s'en va ou il reſerre: Pro. Winter either goes, or growes on, at S. Peters tide.
Reſervatif: m. iue: f. Reſeruatiue, reſeruing.
Reſerve: f. Store; or a reſeruation, or keeping of ſtore; alſo, a reuerſion.
Choſe de reſerve. A ſpare thing; a thing that is more then we need, more then we muſt (of neceſſitie) vſe; whence;
Le temps de reſerve des principaux affaires. The time of his vacation, or ſuch time as he could ſpare, from important affaires.
Oiſeaux de reſerve. Fowle mued vp for the prouiſion of a houſe.
Mettre en reſerve. To lay vp for another day.
Reſervé: m. ée: f. Reſerued, excepted, forepriſed; alſo, reſerued, kept, or layed vp, for ſtore; alſo, wiſe, diſcreet, ſtayed, ſetled, warie, or cloſe, in proceeding.
Reſervéement. Sparingly, moderately; with reſeruation of, euer excepted, &c.
Reſervet. To reſerue, ſaue, preſerue, lay by; keepe for prouiſion, lay vp for ſtore; alſo, to except out of a clauſe, or bargaine; to forpriſe.
Reſervir. To ſerue againe.
Reſervoir: m. A cloſet, or Storehouſe; alſo, a Coope, or Mue for fowle; a Stue, or Pond for fiſh; any place wherein things are cloſe kept, or ſafely layed vp.
Reſeul: m. Networke, netting.
Reſidence: f. A reſidence, abode, or ſtay; a continuance, or continuall dwelling, at one certaine place.
Reſider. To reſide, ſtay, continue, abide in, remaine at, one place.
Reſidu. Le reſ. The reſidue, reſt, ouerplus, remainder, ſurpluſage, arrerage.

Reſignant: m. A reſigner.
Reſignataire: com. A reſignee, or the partie to whom a thing is reſigned.
Reſignation: f. A reſignation, reſigning, reſignment; a ſurrendring, or yeelding vp.
Reſigné: m. ée: f. Reſigned; ſurrendred, yeelded or giuen vp.
Reſigner. To reſigne, ſurrender, yeeld vp, giue ouer; bequeath vnto.
Reſiliment: m. A leaping, skipping, rebounding, backe; a reuocation of his Deed, Will, &c; a going from his word.
Reſilir. To leape, skip, rebound, backe; not to reſt on, to ſtep or goe from; to reuoke, or diſauow; to forgoe, or giue ouer.
Reſiné: m. The iuice of Grapes boyled to a conſiſtence of honey, and giuen to children, as our honey, ſpread on bread; or, as Raiſinnée.
Reſine: f. Roſin.
Reſine Colophonienne. Dry clarified Roſin; ſuch as we rub Violl-ſticks with.
Reſine de Cypres. A kind of liquid Roſin that reſembles the ordinarie Turpentine of the Larch tree; and is in taſt verie ſtrong, and biting.
Reſine d'Eſpagne; frite; & de Grece. Dry, and riſied Roſin.
Reſine de Lareze. Common, or ordinarie Turpentine.
Reſine de Lentiſque. Maſticke.
Reſine liquide. Liquid Roſin, common Roſin, Roſin of the Pine tree.
Reſine de Meleze. Turpentine.
Reſine de ſapin. Frankincenſe; alſo, the liquid Roſin thats (erroniouſly) called in ſhops, Venice Turpentine.
Reſine de Terebinthe. The beſt, and trueſt kind of Turpentine.
Reſineux: m. euſe: f. Full of Roſin.
Reſiniere: f. as Raiſiniere.
Resjouï: m. ie: f. Reioyced, gladded, delighted, cheered vp.
Resjouïr. To reioyce, gladden, delight, exhilerate, make merrie, cheere vp.
Celuy de bon ſens ne iouït, qui boit, & ne s'en resjouit: Pro. The man is ſenceleſſe, and halfe mad, that drinkes good wine, and yet is ſad.
Resjouïſſance: f. A reioycing; ioy, glee, mirth, gladneſſe, pleaſantneſſe, iocondneſſe, cheerefullneſſe.
Resjouïſſant: m. ante: f. Reioycing, delightſome, pleaſant, merrie.
Reſipiſcence: f. A returne to vnderſtanding; a repentance for, an amendment of, an error; a ſecond thinking wiſer then the firſt.
Reſiſieſme: m. A ſixt part of a ſixth; as of 36,6; or of 6,1.
Reſiſtance: f. Reſiſtance, oppoſition, impugning, withſtanding; a ſtriſe or indeuour againſt.
Reſiſté: m. ée: f. Reſiſted, withſtood, impugned, oppugned.
Reſiſter. To reſiſt, withſtand, impugne, repugne, ſtriue, or indeuour againſt.
A quoy mon coeur reſiſte. Which goes againſt my heart, againſt which my ſtomacke riſes.
Reſixieſme. as Reſiſieſme.
Reſixieſmement. By way of a ſixt part out of a ſixth.
Reſize. Hearbe Auens, Benet, or Bleſſed.
Reſler. To thaw.
Reſlire. To read ouer againe.
Reſne: f. The reine of a bridle.

Re-

Reſolu: m. uë: f. Reſolued, decreed, determined, concluded; fully purpoſed; wholly bent vnto; conſtant in; alſo, reſolute, hardie, valiant, ſtout, vndaunted, dreadleſſe, courageous; alſo, diſſolued, looſſed, vntyed, vnbound, vndone.

Reſolu comme Pihourt en ſes Heteroclites. Said of one that in a learned companie is forward to ſpeake, or will come in with his vy (as one that would ſeeme to vnderſtand ſomewhat as well as others, or cares not how little he vnderſtand himſelfe, ſo he be not vnderſtood by others:) For this Pihourt, a Maſon of Rhenes, finding at Chaſteau-briant (whither he came to conſult, about the making of a Caſtle, with others) the chiefe workmen of France, who talked of nothing but Obeliſques, &c, (which he vnderſtood not) to be euen with them, ſayd that, Sans &c, l'Oeuvre ne peut proceder ſelon l'equipolation de ſes Heteroclites; and ſo, as he thought, did put them all downe.

Reſoluble: com. Reſolueable; alſo, diſſolueable.

Reſoluement. Reſolutely, hardily, valiantly, determinately, with full purpoſe, from a great courage.

Reſolutif: m. iue: f. Reſoluing; diſſoluing, vntying, vnlooſing, vndoing; alſo, deciding, or determining.

Reſolution: f. A reſolution, opinion, deciſion, ſentence, decree; a full purpoſe, a ſetled intention, deliberation, determination.

Reſommeiller. To ſlumber againe.

Reſommer. To ſumme, or to ſummon, againe.

Reſomption: f. A reſumption, repetition, taking backe, aſuming or beginning againe.

Reſonder. To ſound againe.

Reſonger. To dreame againe.

Reſonnamment. Reſoundingly, lowdly, ſhrilly, melodiouſly, with good correſpondence of voices; Eccho-like.

Reſonnance: f. A reſounding; ringing; melodious Eccho, rebounding ſound; a recording, as of birds; alſo, an accord, agreement, conſent of harmonie.

Reſonnant: m. ante: f. Reſounding, lowd recording, ſound-reporting, Eccho-making.

Reſonnement. as Reſonnance.

Reſort: m. Power to take notice of Appeales; or, as Reſſort.

Reſort de ſerrure. The ſpring of a locke; See Reſſort de ſerrure.

Reſortir. To iſſue, or goe forth, againe, &c; Looke Reſſortir.

Reſouffler. To blow againe.

Reſouhaiter. To wiſh once more.

Reſouldé: m. ée: f. Twice ſoldered; ſoldered againe.

Reſouilder. To ſolder againe.

Reſouldre. To looſe, diſſolue, vntye, vnbind; ſcatter; melt, reſolue, thaw; alſo, to decree, determine, deliberate, purpoſe fully.

Reſouper. To ſup againe.

Reſource: f. A new ſource, or ſpring; a recouerie, vpraiſing, riſing againe; Looke Reſſource.

Se Reſourdre. To ſpring, riſe, grow, or get vp, againe; to amend; recouer, come to it former eſtate, or vigor.

Reſours: m. ſourſe: f. Raiſed, recouered, got vp againe.

Reſouvenances: f. Memorandums, remembrances.

Reſouvenir. To be mindfull of, to remember againe.

Reſpandement: m. A ſpilling, ſhedding, powring out, ſcattering or caſting abroad.

Reſpandeur: m. A ſhedder, a ſpiller.

Respandre. To ſhed, ſpill, powre out, ſcatter, or caſt abroad.

Reſpandu: m. uë: f. Shed, ſpilt, powred out, ſcattered or caſt abroad.

Reſpardre. To ſcatter againe.

Respargnant: m. ante: f. Sparing, pinching; warie, thriftie; miſerable, hard, neere.

Reſpargne: f. Aparcimonie, ſparing, thrift, warineſſe; neereneſſe, hardneße, miſerie.

De reſpargne. Somewhat neerer, ſcanter, or ſhorter then needed.

Reſpargner. To ſpare, or ſaue.

Respect: m. Reſpect, regard, account; compariſon, conſideration.

La Chaire de reſpect. The Chaire of Eſtate.

Reſpectable: com. Reſpectable, regardable; worſhipfull, of note, of accompt.

Reſpectatif. as Reſpectif.

Respectif: m. iue: f. Reſpectiue, heedie, warie, circumſpect, aduiſed, diſcreet.

Reſpectivement. Reſpectiuely, mutually, interchangeably, on both ſides; with regard had of one to another.

Reſpeſſir. To thicken againe.

Respi: m. A reſpite, a delay, a time, a pawſing, or breathing time, a tearme of forbearance or leiſure; alſo (in Law) a Protection of one, three, or fiue yeares, graunted by the Prince, or Magiſtrate vnto a debtor, vpon great ſuit made, and cauſe appearing, for it; Looke Reſpit.

Reſpir: m. A breath, vent, reſpiration, blowing.

Respiration: f. A reſpiration, breathing, drawing of breath, venting, blowing.

Reſpirement. as Reſpiration.

Respireur: m. A breather, a reſpirer.

Respirer. To breath, vent, gaſpe, take breath againe; alſo, to pawſe, reſt, or take his eaſe.

Reſpit: m. A reſpite; a delay, a time or terme of forbearance; a pawſe, breathing fit; leiſure &c; as Reſpi.

Acceptation de reſpit; &, ſe mettre en ſes reſpits. Is meant (in ſome cuſtomes) of the fealtie, or dutie of a vaſſall.

Trois iours de reſpit vallent cent livres: Prov. A three dayes reſpit's worth a hundred pounds.

Reſpiter. To reſpit; prorogue or put off for a time; to forbeare, to delay.

Reſpiter de mort. To repriue, ſaue, or deliuer, from death.

Reſplendeur: f. Reſplendencie, ſplendor, brightneſſe; a cleere hue, ſhining gloße, radiant luſtre.

Reſplendir. To ſhine, glitter, gliſter, ſtreame, blaze; to caſt a radiant gloſſe, to yeeld a gallant, or great luſtre.

Reſplendiſſant: m. ante: f. Reſplendent, ſhining, gliſtering, radiant, glittering.

Reſplendiſſeur. as Reſplendeur.

Respoiſſir. To thicken againe.

Responce. as Reponce.

Respondant: m. A Suretie.

Respondement: m. An anſwering; alſo, a matching, agreement, correſpondencie; a likeneſſe, concurrence, equalitie.

Reſpondre. To anſwer; to reſolue a doubt or demaund; to vndertake, or be ſuretie for; alſo, to match, agree, concurre, hold correſpondencie with.

Reſpondre par attenuation. C'eſt quand vn accuſé reſpond aux concluſions contre luy prinſes par ſa partie civile, & par le Procureur du Roy, ou du ſeigneur Iuſticier, lors qu'il eſt beſoing prendre droict par la confeſſion de l'accuſé, laquelle auroit eſté communiquée à la partie civile; Ce qui ſe fait quand le Cas n'eſt ſuiect à peine corporelle.

Respondre entre deux & az. Looke Az.
Qui mal entend, mal respond: Prov. He that mistakes the question cannot speake to purpose; he that conceiues amisse answers amisse.
Respons: m. The answers made by the Clarke, or people, in Seruice time.
Responsadoux. The sea-fish called, a Heauen-gazer; (described in Tapecon.)
Response: f. An answer; the resolution of a doubt, or demaund; also, a suretiship, or vndertaking for.
Responses: f. Rampions (a sallade root.)
Responsif: m. An Answer to a Law-bill; or, an answer in Law.
Responsif: m. iue: f. Responsiue, answering, in answer, giuing, or making an answer.
Responsion: f. A Suretie, or Suretiship; an assurance.
Respouser. To espouse, or marrie againe.
Ressaper. To repaire a wall, &c, that hath beene vndermined, or broken at the foot.
Ressasié: m. ée: f. Filled, glutted, sated, satisfied.
Ressasier. To fill, glut, sade, satiate, satisfie.
Ressayer. To reassay, reattempt, proue once more.
Resseant: m. ante: f. Resiant, resident; abiding, dwelling continually in.
Exoine de mal resseant. An essoine, or excuse for the absence, or not apparance, of one that lyes sicke.
Resseantise: f. Residencie; a continuall dwelling, or abiding in one place.
Ressemblable: com. Much like vnto.
Ressembler. Looke Resembler.
Ressemer. To sow againe.
Ressentiment: m. A full tast, a true feeling, a sensible apprehension, of.
Se Ressentir. To tast fully, feele throughly, haue a sensible apprehension of.
Se ressentir des faveurs de. To be sensible of, or fare the better for, the fauors of.
Se ressentir d'une iniure. To remember; to be sensible, or desire a reuenge, of; to find himselfe aggrieued at, a wrong.
Il se ressent encor de sa grande perte. His great losse hath hitherunto stucke by him; he smarts as yet, he is yet the poorer, by it.
Ressie: f. An afternoones nunchion or drinking, an Aunders meat.
Ressimer. as Renifler.
Ressiner. To make a drinking or collation, to take a repast or snatch in the afternoone.
Ressize. as Resize.
Ressoigner. To awe, feare, dread; also, to care, carke, take thought.
Ressoré: m. ée: f. Parched, scorched, dryed, or burnt vp, by the Sunne.
Ressort: m. The authoritie, prerogatiue, or iurisdiction, of a (Soueraigne) Court; also, the extent, or circuit, of a country wherein it hath iurisdiction, or whose inhabitants may repaire, or appeale vnto it; and thence;
Droict de ressort. Absolute power to take, and determine of, Appeales.
En dernier ressort. Finally, fully, without further appeale, or scope left for any appeale.
Ressort de serrure. The spring of a locke.
Farce à plusieurs ressorts. A Play wherein many seuerall matters are acted, or handled.
Qui a le ressort foible. That wants erection.
Ressortir. To issue, or goe forth againe; also, to vnne of; be tryed by; resort, recourse, repaire, be referred vnto for a full tryall; also, to goe directly from a lower, to a higher, from a weaker to a stronger, from one to another; hence, to appeale vnto; and, to be remoueable, out of an inferior, into a superior, Court.
Ces choses ressortissent iugement par devant vn sage. These matters are to be determined by a wise man.
Ressource: f. A resource, new spring, recouerie, vprising, or raising againe; also, refuge for succour.
En vieille beste n'y a point de ressource: Pro. Looke Beste.
Ressourdre. as Resourdre.
Ressuccer. To sucke vp, or in, againe.
Ressuit: m. itte: f. Dry or dryed, hard or hardened; without any manner of sap, or softnesse.
Ressuivre. To follow againe.
Ressuy: m. The leere of a Deere; the place wherein he lyes to dry himselfe after he hath been wet by the dewe &c.
Ressuyé: m. ée: f. Dryed, or wiped off, againe.
Ressuyer. To wipe, or dry off, againe.
Restablir. Reestablish, reconfirme, settle anew in; also, to restore, giue backe, make good, or make satisfaction for, a thing taken.
Restablissable: com. Reestablishable.
Restablissement: m. A reestablishing, reconfirming; setling anew in; also, a restoring, giuing backe, making good, of, a satisfaction made for, a thing which hath beene taken.
Restaigner. as Croupir; (in the last sence.)
Restancher. To staunch, or quench, againe.
Restat: m. A remainder, surplusage, ouerplus.
Restats d'estat. Looke Estat.
Restaurant: m. A restoratiue.
Restaurer. To restore, to renew, to repaire, to reinstall.
Reste: f. A rest; residue, remnant, remainder, surplusage, ouerplus; also, a Rest at Primero, &c.
A toute reste. Extreamely, vehemently, with all his force, out of all measure; also, whatsoeuer it cost him; how much soeuer he hazard, or lay, on it.
Faire sa reste à. (In tearmes) to handle rudely, or deale roughly with; to giue a man a beating.
Renvier de sa reste. Looke Renvier.
Voici, ou vous voyez, la reste. (In answer to, How haue you done a great while;) you see all that is left of me.
Reste. Except, sauing, beside.
Resteindre. To quench, or slake, againe.
Restendre. To reextend, or to reinlarge.
Rester. To rest, remaine, superabound; be behind, superfluous, ouerplus, or more then ynough.
Le fol reste apres la feste: Pro. After a feast, a foole, is made; wise men spend not their meanes in feasting.
Resternuër. To sneeze againe.
Restibule. Champ res. as Retouble.
Restif: m. iue: f. Restie, stubborne, drawing backward, that will not goe forward.
Chien restif. A hound which seeing his game once hearded, pursues it no further, but stayes vntill he be beaten on.
Restifvé: m. ée: f. Looke Restivé.
Restile. Champ restile. That's sowed, or beares fruit, euerie yeare.
Restipulation: f. A waging of Law; a putting in of a pledge, or gage for the assurance of his answer vnto an Action, &c.
Restipuler. To wage Law (as in Restipulation.)
Restituer. To restore, returne, render, yeeld or giue back; repaire, set in his former estate or place, make whole againe.

Re-

Reſtituteur: m. A reſtorer; yeelder or bringer backe, repairer or ſetter vp againe.

Restitution: f. A reſtitution, rendring, yeelding or giuing backe; alſo, a reſtoring, repairing, ſetting vp againe.

Reſtivé: m. ée: f. Made or growne reſtie; forſlowed, protracted; ſtopped or drawne backe.

Reſtivement. Reſtily, ſtubbornely, backwardly, ſlothfully.

Reſtiver. To ſtop, draw backe; ſtruggle, be ſtubborne, play the reſtie iade.

Ie ne reſtiveray point. I will be forward ynough, I will not lag it, or be left behind.

Il ne peut reſtiver au deſtin. In vaine he ſtriues againſt, or thinkes to withſtand, his deſtinie.

Reſtor: m. A recouerie, or remedie againſt a Vouchee, or any one by whom a man is damnified.

Reſtouble. as Retouble.

Reſtouper. To ſtop againe.

Reſtrainct: m. cte: f. Reſtrained, abridged, or ſhortened of libertie, ſhut or kept vp, held or cloſed in.

Fief reſtrainct. A Fief that wants or is not capable of, Iuriſdiction.

Reſtraincte: f. A reſtraint, reſtraining, ſhortening or abridging of libertie, holding or keeping in.

Reſtrainctif: m. A reſtrictiue, a ſtipticke, or binding medecine, or plaiſter; and particularly, the white of an egge beaten with Roſe-water, and applied to preuent the ſwelling of a part which hath beene drie-beaten.

Reſtraindre. To reſtraine, ſtraiten or bind in, abridge or ſhorten of libertie, ſhut or keepe vp, hold or cloſe in.

Reſtrangler. To ſtrangle againe.

Reſtrecir. To ſtraiten, reſtraine, ſhorten, contract, abridge.

Reſtreciſſement: m. A ſtraitning, reſtraining, contracting, abridging.

Reſtriction: f. A reſtriction, moderation, modification; a reſtraint of a generalitie.

Reſtriller vn cheval. To currie him ouer againe.

Reſtrinction. as Reſtriction.

Reſtringe. The Lentiske, or Maſticke tree; called ſo about Montpellier.

Reſtudier. To ſtudie againe, or ouer againe.

Reſtuyer. To ſtue; ſoake or bath in liquor, warme, againe.

Reſtuyer. To ſheath, or ſhut vp, againe.

Resvanouïr. To ſowne againe.

Reſudant: m. ante: f. Sweating; alſo, pithie.

Reſudation: f. A reſudation, ſweating, or ſweatie dropping.

Reſudé: m. ée: f. Sweated, ſwet out of, come from as, or in, a ſweat.

Reſuë: f. An auncient tax, or impoſition of foure pence in the pound for marchandiſe, and 10 s. Tour. vpon euerie Pipe of wine, brought into, or ſent out of, the kingdome.

Reſveil: m. A Hunts-vp, or Morning ſong for a new-maried wife, the day after the mariage.

Reſveillable: com. Awakable.

Reſveillé: m. ée: f. Awaked (in a morning;) rowſed, excited, ſtirred vp.

Reſveille-matin: m. Th' Alarum of a watch, or clocke; alſo, the hearbe called Sunne-ſpurge, Time-tythimale, and Wartwort.

Reſveille-matin des vignes. Pettie Spurge, called alſo Wartwort, and like, in leaues, vnto Sunne-Spurge.

Beauté de femme faſcheux reſveille-matin: Prov. A womans beautie reaues (fond) man of reſt.

Reſveiller. To awake; raiſe from ſleepe; rouſe, excite, ſtirre vp.

Reſveiller le chat qui durt. To rub a hidden ſore; to kindle a fire that was neere quenched, ſtirre vp a miſchiefe that was well ſetled; mention an euill that was almoſt forgotten.

Tant dort le chat qu'il ſe reſveille: Prov. So long the cat ſleepes that at length ſh'awakes, (applyable to any thing which after long ſuppreſſion burſteth out.)

Resveilleur: m. An awaker; and particularly, a common Bellman, which in the dead of night goes round about a Citie, tinkling, and telling of the houres.

Reſveillon: m. A meale made late in the night, or long after ſupper.

Reſuër. To ſweat againe.

Reſver. To raue, dote, ſpeake idly, talke like an Aſſe.

Reſverie: f. A rauing, idle talking, dotage, trifling, follie, vaine fancie, fond imagination.

C'eſt resverie. Tis a dreame, fable, mockerie, ieaſt, idle tale, which you deliuer.

Reſveur: m. A dotard, or dreaming ſop, a rauing, trifling, fond, or idle cokes.

Reſuivi: m. ie: f. Followed againe.

Reſuivre. To follow againe.

Reſul. as Reſeul.

Reſultat: m. An iſſue, or ſucceſſe; alſo, a reſolution taken, or agreement made, vpon a conference, &c; the fruict, or that which comes, thereof.

Reſulter. To rebound, or leape backe; to hop, skip, moue nimbly backward; alſo, to riſe of, come out of, ſpring or iſſue from.

Reſumer. To reſume; to repeat, to take, or beginne againe.

Reſurgir. To riſe, grow, ſpring vp againe; to recouer a former being; to liſt vp his head once more.

Reſurrection: f. A reſurrection, a riſing againe.

Reſuſcitatif: m. iue: f. Reſuſcitatiue, reuiuing, raiſing vp from death to life.

Reſuſciter. To reuiue, raiſe, or ſet vp againe.

Reſuſciteur: m. A reuiuor, a raiſer, or ſetter vp of things decayed, or dead.

Ret: f. A net; Looke Rets.

Retail: m. A ſhred, paring, or ſmall peece cut from a thing; alſo, halfe an Oxgang, or Oxgate, of land.

Retaillat. Circumciſed: Rab.

Retaillé: m. A ſhred, paring, odde end, peece cut off; a Tailors vailes.

Retaillé: m. ée: f. Shred, pared, clipped, cut off.

Retaillement: m. A ſhredding, clipping, ſnipping, paring, often cutting.

Retailler. To ſhred, pare, clip, ſnip, cut verie often.

Retailles. as Retailleures; alſo, the ſpalls, or ſhards; the peeces which flie from ſtone in the hewing therof.

Retailleures: f. Shreds, clippings, ſnippings, parings.

Retaillons. as Retailleures.

Retaindre. To put into a new colour, to re-die, or die againe.

Retalionné: m. ée: f. Requited, quitted, ſatisfied, or payed backe with the like.

Retapper. To bung againe.

Retardé: m. ée: f. Foreſlowed, lingered, ſlackened, delayed; let, hindered, ſtopped, impeached, ſtayed.

Retardement: m. A foreſlowing, ſlackening, delaying; impeaching, hindering, ſtaying.

Retarder. To foreſlow, linger, ſlacken, delay, ſtay, ſtop, let, hinder, impeach, put or hold off.

Re-

Retargé: m. ée: f. as Retardé.
Retargement, & Retarger. as Retardement, & Retarder.
Retaſter. To taſt againe.
Retatiné: m. ée: f. Withered, ſhrunke in, decayed, old.
Retaxer. To tax him that hath taxed vs, to returne one taxation for another.
Reteinct: m. cte: f. Died the ſecond time, or died againe.
Reteindre. as Retaindre.
Reteinture: f. A re-dying, a ſecond or new dying, a dying ouer againe.
Retenail: m. An hold, or thing to hold by.
Retendre. To ſtretch out againe.
Reteneur: m. A retainer, detainer, withholder.
Retenir. To retaine, withhold, ſtay, keep back; reſtraine, containe, bridle, hold in; alſo, to preſerue, or maintaine.
Retenir place pour voir. To keepe, alſo, to take vp, a place to ſee in.
Retenir par puiſſance de fief. A Lord, by the priuiledge of his Seigniorie, to redeeme, or euict, from a purchaſer the tenement bought of his vaſſall.
Ie retiens apres. I craue the next: Rab.
Retenter. To reattempt, reaſſay, put vnto hazard againe.
Retention: f. A retention, detaining, withholding; a keeping in the hands.
Retentir. To reſound, to ring againe, to yeeld an eccho, or great ſound.
Lieu ou la voix ne retentit pas. A dull, dampe, or deafe, place.
Retentiſſement: m. A reſounding, or a ringing againe, a rebounding of the voyce, an eccho-like returning of ſound for ſound.
Retentiſſement de harnois. The claſhing of, or the ſound yeelded by the claſhing on, armour.
Retentive: f. la ret. The retaining force of nature whereby food is held in the ſtomacke vntill it bee fully concocted.
Il n'a nulle retentive en la bouche. He hath no hold of his tongue, he cannot forbeare ſpeaking.
Retentras. Il fait du ret. He is deafe of that eare, or ſeemes to liſten to ſomewhat elſe; or making as if hee had more to liſten to, beedes not greatly what one ſayes vnto him.
Retentum. vn ret. in mente Curiæ. Is when a Court pronounces not a full Arreſt, but reſerues ſomewhat to be afterwards ordered.
Retenu: m. uë: f. Retained, detained, withheld, ſtayed backe; reſtrained, kept in.
Homme retenu. A graue, ſober, diſcreet, aduiſed, well ſtayed fellow; one whoſe wild oats are ſowne.
Retenuë: f. as Retention; alſo, a retinew; alſo, diſcretion, ſtaiedneſſe, aduiſednеſſe; alſo, a grant in reuerſion of an Office in the Kings houſe.
Droict de retenuë. A priuiledge of ſome Landlords, to redeeme within fortie dayes the land ſold by their tenants, paying to the purchaſer, beſides his reaſonable coſts and charges, as much as he gaue for it.
Linagier ſur Linagier n'a point de retenuë. One kinſman cannot recouer the land bought by another: (So that it ſeemes that neere kinſmen haue, in ſome caſes, the benefit of Droict de retenuë, as well as Landlords in others.)
Plaider par retenuë. (C'eſt quand les parties ne plaident à vne fois, & à toutes fins;) To proceed but ſlackly, by pauſes, or by halues.
Retenuëment. Sparingly, reſtrainedly; ſlayedly, aduiſedly.
Reths. Looke Rets.
Retiaire. Caſting a net in fight, therewith to take an enemie.
Reticence: f. Silence, concealement, counſell-keeping.
Retien: m. A retention; reſtraint, bridle, holding backe.
Retier: m. A Net-maker.
Retiercement. By way, or after the rate, of a third out of a third.
Retiers: m. A third part of a third, as of nine, three; of three, one.
Retif. Looke Reſtif.
Retiforme: com. Faſhioned like a net.
Retinacle: m. A ſtay, or hold; any thing whereby another is retained or held backe.
Retine: f. The firſt thinne membrane of the eye; ſoft, white, and a nouriſher of the glaſſie humor.
Retirade: f. The retrait, or the retiring of an Armie; alſo, a place of retrait, or of retirall, for defendants behind a breach.
Retiré: m. ée: f. Retired, withdrawne, put or got back, pulld or drawne in; alſo, plucked or taken from; alſo, harboured, receiued, intertained; alſo, ſhot backe or againe.
Retirée: f. A retirall, withdrawing, recoyle.
Retirement: m. A retiring, withdrawing, recoyling, fitching or putting backe, pulling or gathering in; alſo, a drawing or comming neere; alſo, a pulling or plucking away from; alſo, a priuate harbouring, or receiuing (as of ſtealers, or of ſtollen things;) alſo, a ſhooting backe, or againe.
Retirement des nerfs. The ſhortening, or ſhrinking of the ſinewes.
Retirer. To retire, withdraw; fetch or put backe, pull in, gather vp, recouer, bring or draw backe vnto; alſo, to ſhorten, contract, ſhrinke; alſo, to take, or plucke from; alſo, to receiue, harbour, intertaine; alſo, to ſhoot backe, or againe.
Se retirer. To recoyle, retire, giue backe; to ſhrinke; to withdraw himſelfe.
Retirer à. To reſemble, be like, or come neere vnto, in face, or faſhion.
Retirer ce qu'on donne. To giue a thing and take a thing; to weare the diuells gold-ring (ſay we in a triuiall prouerbe.)
Retirer ſon eſpingle du jeu. To deſiſt from, to quit, leaue off, giue ouer; to draw his necke out of the coller (ſay we.)
Qu'on ne peut retirer. An irreuocable, or vnrecouerable matter.
Qui ne retire de ſa vache que la queuë ne perd pas tout: Prov. He that can recouer the leaſt part of his owne, yet looſes not all, or is not to neglect it; for better is ſomething, how little ſoeuer, then nothing.
Retiſſer. To weaue againe.
Retiſtre. The ſame.
Retoiſer. To fathome ouer againe.
Retombe: f. A falſe cup, wherein drinke falling into an odde corner, ſeemes to be drunke vp; alſo, a flat vault, or a roome that's made vault-wiſe.
Retombée: f. A falling backe; alſo, a crooking, as of a ſickle turned backwards.
Retombée de humeurs. A running of humors; or a diſeaſe wherein the humors that grieued one place leaue it, and get into another.

Re-

Retomber. To fall backe or againe; to fall into a relapse.
Retondir de toutes parts. To ring, or to resound all ouer.
Retondre. To shaue, or sheere againe.
Retondu: m. uë: f. New shauen, clipped, shorne.
Retorceure: f. A twining, wreathing, twisting; a wrying, a wresting backe; a retorting.
Retordement: m. as Retorceure.
Retordeur: m. A twister, twiner; a wrester, a retorter, a wrier, backe.
Retordre. To twine, wreath, twist; retort; wrie, wrest backe.
Retordure: f. as Retorceure.
Retorquable: com. Retortable.
Retorqué: m. ée: f. Retorted, wrested backe, writhen backward.
Retorquer. To retort, writh backward, wrest backe, to returne violently, to throw or shoot againe.
Retors: m. orse: f. as Retort.
Retort: m. orte: f. Twisted, twined, wreathed; wrested, or wrung, backe; retorted, violently returned.
Retorte: f. A retort, or crooked bodie; a Lymbecke of glasse (varnished or leaded within) for th'extracting of oyle out of wood, and other bard, and drie substances.
Retouble: m. A field or ground sowne euerie yeare.
Retoucheiment: m. A second touch, a touching againe.
Retoucher. To touch againe.
Retouiller. To mingle, meddle, ruffle, puzzle, or confound againe.
Retour: m. A returne, returning, comming backe.
Retour de Matines. A displeasure done in secret & on a sudden; or the fittist time to surprise a priuate foe; Looke Matines.
Fustaye qui est sur son retour. That is some 200 yeres old.
Avoir retour de. To play quit, crie quittance, be euen with.
Tout le retour qu'il en peut avoir. All the helpe, remedie, or amends which he can get for, or from.
Baillez moy mon retour. Said by such as, hauing paid more then was due, demaund the rest againe; & hence;
Il me faut deux deniers de retour. I must haue two pence backe againe.
Il luy doit cela de retour. He is beholden to him for that.
A beau jeu beau retour: Pro. Round worke, square play, as good returned as came, one good (or bad) turne for another.
Retourné: m. ée: f. Returned, come or gone, backe; also, restored.
Retourner. To returne, to come or goe backe; also, to restore; also, to giue bootie for a thing exchanged.
Retourner au champ du bois. Looke Bois.
Retourner ses chasses. A Hawke (that hath flowne out at her full pitch) to come in againe.
Retourner à ses moutons. To resume the subiect from which he hath digressed, to fall in hand with it againe.
Retourner sa robbe. To turne his gowne, or coat; to Pernize, or Apostatize it; to play the turne-coat.
Retourner sur soy. Looke Soy.
Mais n'y retournez plus. But doe so no more.
Il n'est chance qui ne retourne: Prov. All things that haue beene will be; no chance but comes againe.
Il ne vas pas du tout à honte qui de demie voye retourne: Prov. Looke Honte.
Qui mieux ne peut à sa vieille retourne: Prov. He that can get no yong, falls backe to his old, stuffe.
Retracer. To retrace, or trace backe; to turne often, and the selfesame way, vpon.
Retracer son los. Often to repeat his praises.
Retractation: f. A retractation; a recanting, reuoking.
Retracter. To recant, reuoke, or call backe; also, as Retraicter.
Retraction: f. as Retractation; also, a retraction; withdrawing; redeeming; also, the crampe.
se Retrahir. To retire, or withdraw, himselfe.
Retraict: m. An Aiax, Priuie, house of Office; also, a recouerie, redeeming, or drawing backe of things alienated, or ingaged.
Retraict de barre, ou de Cour (in the customes of Britanie) Quand le Iuge du superieur ou de l'inferieur veut cognoistre du delict, ou different: Rageau.
Retraict censuel, & feodal. The power a Lord Censuel, and Feodal haue, to redeeme, euict, or draw backe from a Purchaser th'estates gotten by him of their vassalls.
Retraict conventionnel. A couenant, or prouiso in a bargaine, giuing the seller libertie to redeeme the thing be passed (therein resembling our Morgage.)
Retraict du gobelet. The Butterie.
Retraict Lignagier. A power, giuen by custome vnto the neerest kinsman of one that sells land, to relay it within a certaine time (commonly a yeare and a day) for as much as was payed for it; but this must be a kinsman of the stocke, or side, by which the land came to the seller.
En retraict. Priuately, retiredly, alone.
Retraict: m. cte: f. Retired, withdrawne; drawne backe; straitned, growne narrower, shrunke vp.
Retraicte: f. A retrait, retiring, withdrawing, a drawing backe, a returning; also, a place of refuge, of succour, of safegard; also, a straitning, narrowing, or shrinking vp.
Droict de retraicte. The power of redeeming, or of buying, land morgaged, ingaged, or sold.
Retraicter. To reuise, peruse, ouerlooke, ouersee, runne ouer; also, to handle, repeat, or intreat of, againe.
Retrainer. To drag, or draw, backe.
Retaintif: m. Looke Restrainctif.
Retraire. To withdraw; drew backe; plucke out or vnto; also, to shrinke, narrow, straiten, draw in; also, to vpbraid, or twit in the teeth.
Retraire en servage. To challenge, or auerre, one to be his slaue.
Retrait: m. aitte: f. as Retraict.
Retraitte: f. as Retraicte.
Retranchement: m. An abridgement; abatement; cutting off part of.
Retrancher. as Retrencher.
Retransitif: m. iue: f. Retransitiue, reflective vpon it selfe.
Retrasser. as Retraicter; also, to amend, correct, reforme, repaire.
Retrayable: com. which may be fetched, or drawne, backe.
Retrayeur: m. A redeemer, a fetcher or drawer back of.
Retrecir. To straiten, contract, narrow, bind or make strait.
Retrecissement: m. A straitning, narrowing, contracting, shortening.

Re-

Retrempé: m. ée: f. Soaked, or steeped, againe.
Retremper. To soake, steepe, or soften in liquor, anew.
Retrenché: m. ée: f. Cut, strucke, or chopped, off; diminished, curtalled, lessened, abridged; also, intrenched; inuironed or defended with trenches; lodged in trenches.
Retrencher. To cut, strike, or chop, off; to curtall, diminish, lessen, abridge; also, to intrench; to inuiron with, or lodge in, trenches.
Retresci: m. ie: f. Straitned.
Retresciſſement. as Retreciſſement.
Retribuer. To retribute, restore, yeeld or giue, backe; also, to requite, recompence, reward.
Retribution: f. A retribution, requitall, recompence, recompencing, restoring.
Retroacte. A former act, proceeding, or dispatch, in Law.
Retroactif: m. iue: f. Retroactiue; casting, driuing, relating, backward.
Retroceder. To recoyle, retire, giue backe.
Retrogradation: f. A retrogradation; a stepping, or going, backe.
Retrograde: f. The same; or a step backe.
Retrograder. To recoyle, returne, retire, step, or goe, backe.
Retrouër. To make new holes into; to pierce, or bore, againe.
Retroussé: m. ée; f. Thicke and short, druggellie, trunchion; well trussed, strongly made; also, trusſed or tucked vp.
Oeil retroussé. A staring eye; an eye, whose lids bee reuersed by some great inflamation; and whose white becomes higher then th' apple.
Retrousſer. To trusſe, or tucke vp.
Retrouvé: m. ée: f. Found againe.
Retrouver. To find againe.
Rets: f. A net.
Rets admirable. A certaine narrow skin in the head (made of a part of th' Arterie Carotide*) which disposes it selfe into the forme of a net, neere to the hole, or passage of the third paire of sinewes; This net is hardly found in a mans head.*
Rets d'aulx. A little bundle, or double rope of Garlick heads tied together with their leaues.
Retube: f. A flat vault, or vault make like the backe of an ouen.
Retumbée: f. Looke Retombée.
Reu: m. A brooke, small streame, little gullet of water.
Revanquir. To reuanquish, resubdue, reouercome.
Revalider. To reinforce, improue, raise, or better, the value of.
Revaloir. Ie te le revaudray. I will requite, repay, it; or, be as much worth vnto thee as it comes to.
Revancher. as Revencher.
Revangeur: m. A reuenger.
Revangeur: m. eure: f. Reuenging, wreaking.
Revanner. To winnow againe.
Reubarbe: f. The root called Rewbarb, or Rewbarb of the Leuant; See Rheubarbe.
Reubarbe des Iardins. Garden Rewbarb; resembles that of the Leuant, and purges choller, but not so effectually as it.
Reubarbe des moines. Hearbe Patience, Monkes Rewbarbe.
Reve-grand. (An ironicall allusion to, Reverend*) much doting.*
Reveille-matin. as Resveille-matin.

Réveiller. Seeke Resveiller.
Revelation: f. A reuelation, a reuealing.
Revelé: m. ée: f. Reuealed, disclosed, vttered, discouered, manifested.
Revelement: m. A reuealing, disclosing, discouering.
Reveler. To reueale, disclose, discouer, manifest, vtter.
Reveleux: m. euſe: f. Wanton, lasciuious, incontinent; shamelesse, impudent, vnrulie, outragious.
Revenant: m. ante: f. Returning, reuerting; reuiuing, increasing, rising; comming againe.
Bois revenant. Copses or Coppies, young woods.
Revenche: f. Reuenge; requitall; returne of as good, or as much as was brought.
Revencher. soy reven. To wreake, or to reuenge, himselfe; to returne, or to rétort, a displeasure.
Revendage: m. A retailing, or selling againe.
Fermier du revendage du Roy. Entre les mains duquel vn debteur met biens meubles exploictables pour la somme deuë, à fin d'avoir trois semaines de terme pour payer son creancier, & à fin d'avoir main levée de ses biens prins par le sergét.
Revendereſſe: f. A woman huckster, or hagler.
Revendeur: m. A Huckster, a Regrator.
Revendication: f. A resuming of, or a reestablishment in, a pretended right.
Revendre. To sell againe.
A trop acheter n'y a que revendre: Prov. There's nothing gotten by wares ouer-bought; nor does any man take much ioy in that, which to get hee tooke too much paines.
Revendu: m. uë: f. Sold backe, or againe.
Revengé: m. ée: f. Reuenged, wreaked.
Revenir. To reuert, returne, come backe, or againe; also, to reuiue, or come to himselfe after a trance; also, to swell, rise, or increase, as dough by leauening, or flesh by parboyling; also, to profit, benefit, or yeeld increase; also, to resemble; also, to fit, suite, or agree well with.
Se revenir. To come to himselfe againe after a great anger, feare, amazement, or swooning; to recouer, picke vp his crummes, grow well, wax whole, againe.
Cela me revient bien. I haue a good conceit thereof, I like it passing well.
Cela me revient bien au coeur. It goes to the heart of me; it vexeth, or fretteth me at the verie heart.
Cela me revient touſiours au ronge. The same; or, I shall neuer forget it; it will alwayes runne in my mind.
Il nous revient infinement. It benefits vs exceedingly.
Il s'en renvient le mieux qu'il peut. Hee makes as good shift with, or vse of, it as he can.
Souvent ils s'en revenoyent, & ſe mutinoyent. They turned backe vpon it; they grew sencible of, or into choller vpon, it; or, that made them after fall into mutinie.
Viande qui revient à la bouche. Meat that leaues in the mouth an ill taſt behind it, or sends it vp thereinto, after it is eaten.
Reventes. as Venterolles; or, as Reventons.
Reventons. A fee due to a Lord Censuel (ouer and besides the Lods, and Ventes*) from a purchaser, of land charged with* Cens, who hath vndertaken to discharge the seller of the Lods which he for his part should vpon the bargaine haue paied.
Revenu: m. Reuenew; yearelie rents, profits, or incommings.
Revenu: m. uë: f. Reuerted, returned, come backe, or againe; also, reuiued, well recouered, or come againe to

to himselfe; also,
Revenu de que*able to an old cokden; or to any onepicked vp his cru*
O que c'eſt vn h*venu. Oh how pleſation, hath euer*
Revenuë: f. Reuenturne, returning, r
Revenuë de boi*of wood after it h*
Revcoir. Looke Rev
Reverable: com. R
Reverberation: f. a repercuſſion, ſtri
Reverberatoire: n*backe.*
Reverberé: m. ée: flected.
Reverberer. To reuagaine.
Reverdir. To flouriſ
Il l'y planta pour without reſolution, it; alſo, he ratled hand ſuddenly left hiof them what, he liſt
Revereinment. Reu
Reverence: f. Reuhonour.
Reverence papal*acknowledged, by a*
Reverence Turqu
Faire la reverenc*teſie, vaile bonnetknee.*
Reverencer. To reuſeruance, worſhip, ho
Reverend: m. ende*full, honourable, ſacor dutifull vnto.*
Reverendef. as Rev
Reverential: m. ale
Reverer. To reuerenc
Reverifier. To reuergood againe.
Reverni: m. ie: f. as
Revers: m. A back bwith the backe of a
Les revers de fortu
Revers de gouver
Revers de Guyſar
Guyſard (qui eſtoy*ſuch deepe queſtionsſolued, or anſwered,*
A revers. Backwaſide downeward, cro
Revers: m. erſe: f. S
Reverſailles: f. TheMaiſters glaſſes, orpot for the ſeruants.
Reuerſche. as Reveſc
Reverſer. To powre ba Reverſi: m. A kind ofull of ſport) which tten yeares agoe into Reverſion: f. A reuer

to himselfe; also, swollen, or pust vp againe.

Revenu de queuë. Whose taile is new growne (applicable to an old cokes, or callet, growne wanton on a sudden; or to any one which after a great weakenesse hath picked vp his crummes, or is become lustie againe.)

O que c'est vn homme qui m'est touiours fort revenu. Oh how pleasing that mans companie, or conuersation, hath euer beene vnto me.

Revenuë: f. Reuenew, rent, &c; as Revenu; also, a returne, returning, reuerting, or comming againe.

Revenuë de bois. The new springing, or putting out of wood after it hath beene lopped, or felled.

Revoir. Looke Revoir.

Reverable: com. Reuerend, fit to be reuerenced.

Reverberation: f. A reuerberation, reflex, reflection; a repercussion, striking or beating backe.

Reverberatoire: m. A reuerberatorie; part of a Lymbecke.

Reverberé: m. ée: f. Reuerberated, beaten backe, reflected.

Reverberer. To reuerberate, reflect, beat or strike back againe.

Reverdir. To flourish, or wax greene, againe.

Il l'y planta pour reverdir. He left him in that place without resolution, meanes, or knowledge, to get out of it; also, he ratled him vp with short and sharpe tearms, and suddenly left him to pause on them while, or thinke of them what, he listed.

Reverenment. Reuerently, with reuerence.

Reverence: f. Reuerence, awfull obseruance, worship, honour.

Reverence papale. The homage done, or subiection acknowledged, by a Prince vnto a new-elected Pope.

Reverence Turquesque. A nod.

Faire la reverence à. To arise, giue place, make courtesie, vaile bonnet, vnto; to solicite with cap and knee.

Reverencer. To reuerence, respect with an awfull obseruance, worship, honour, adore.

Reverend: m. ende: f. Reuerend, venerable, worshipfull, honourable, sacred, graue; also, most respectfull of, or dutifull vnto.

Reverender. as Reverencer.

Reverential: m. ale: f. Reuerent, full of reuerence.

Reverer. To reuerence, worship, adore.

Reverifier. To reuerifie, reconfirme, reapproue, make good againe.

Reverni: m. ie: f. as Verni; or new glazed ouer.

Revers: m. A back blow, clap, stroke, wherrit; or a blow with the backe of a hand, or sword.

Les revers de fortune. The crosses of fortune.

Revers de gouvernail. The backe of a Rudder.

Revers de Guysard. ce ne sont pas les revers de Guysard (qui estoyent sans retour.) These are no such deepe questions, or hard matters; they may be resolued, or answered, well ynough.

A revers. Backward, arsiuarsie, inside outward, vpside downeward, crosse, cleane kamme.

Revers: m. erse: f. Strange, vncouth; crosse, harsh.

Reversailles: f. The reuersions of, or drinke left in, the Maisters glasses, or draughts, powred together into a pot for the seruants.

Reuersche. as Revesche.

Reverser. To powre backe, or powre out againe.

Reversi: m. A kind of Trumpe (played backward, and full of sport) which the Duke of Savoy brought some ten yeares agoe into France.

Reversion: f. A reuerting, returning, or comming back; also, a Reuersion in Law.

Droict de reversion. Looke Droict.

Reversure: f. The waining, or turning at the top of a land, where one furrow ends, and another begins.

Reversures. as Reversailles.

Revertir. To reuert, returne, come backe.

Revertir en quelque lieu, ou avec quelqu'un. To haunt, frequent, repaire often vnto; to conuerse, accompanie, consort much with.

Revesche: f. Course Bayes; Cotton or Erize for lynings.

Revesche: com. Harsh, churlish, rude, vntractable, froward; wild, sauage, hagard, vnrulie, fierce.

Vin revesche. Hard, sower, tart, vnpleasant wine.

Revescherie: f. Harshnesse, rudenesse, churlishnesse, frowardnesse; wildnesse, sauagenesse, fiercenesse, vnrulinesse.

Revest: m. A reinuestment, reinuesture.

Revestement: m. An vpper garment, robe, or vestment; also, a reinuesting, reattiring, new clothing; also, a clothing, attiring; putting on, couering ouer with.

Revestement de murailles. Ces arbres sont commodes à faire des Lambrunchemens, ou revestemens de murailles. Are fit, or good to seele, or boord walls withall.

Revestiaire. as Revestiere.

Revestiere: m. A Vestrie in a Church.

Revestir. To reinuest, reattire, cloth or apparell againe; also, to put vpon, or couer ouer with, a garment; to put on an vpper garment; to put garment vpon garment, or one garment ouer another.

Revestir de quelque terre. To giue, or put into, possession, to make liuerie and seisin of a peece of ground.

Revestissement: m. A reinuestment, or a reinuesting; also, a mutuall, and equall gift made, and passed by publicke Act, betweene two that are ioyned, or allied, by mariage.

Revestu: m. uë: f. Reuested, reinuested; inuested; clothed, attired, apparelled, againe; also, clothed or couered all ouer with, wrapped round about in.

Paon revestu. A Peacocke flayed, parboyled, larded, and stucke thicke with Cloues; then roasted with his feet wrapped vp to keepe them from scorching; then couered againe with his owne skinne as soone as he is cold, and so vnderpropped that, as aliue, hee seemes to stand on his legs: In this equipage a gallant, and daintie seruice.

Reveuë: f. A reuiew, reuiewing, suruey, surueying, ouerlooking; also, a Muster, or the mustering, of an Armie.

Revifier. To reuiue, returne vnto life, quicken againe.

Revigourant. Adding more strength, giuing more vigour, vnto.

Revigourer. To reuigorate, reinforce, adde new vigor, giue new strength, vnto.

Revirade: f. A wheeling, or round turne; a backe iert, whirle, whiske, blow, or thrust.

Revirer. To whirle often about, to turne againe and againe.

Se revirer contre son ennimi. Againe to turne back, or wheele about, vpon an enemie.

Reviseur: m. A reuisor, or reuiewer.

Revision: f. A reuision, reuise, reuiew, reexamination, looking ouer againe.

Revisit: m. A reuiew taken by the King of his Officers accounts.

Revisitation: f. A reuisitation; or as Revisitement.

Revisitement: m. A reuising, reuiewing, recognizing, ouerseeing, ouerlooking againe.

Re-

Revisiter. To reuise, reuiew; reuisite, recognize; ouerlooke, ouersee, survey, againe.
Revisiteur: m. A reuisor, reuiewer, reuisitor, ouerlooker, ouerseer.
Revivifienne: f. A reuiuing, a returning vnto life.
Revivre: m. A later math, or crop.
Revivre. To reuiue, recouer breath, returne vnto life; to be renewed; to spring or grow vp againe.
Reume. The rheume.
Reüni: m. ie: f. Reunited, reioyned, reconciled.
Reünion: f. A reunion, reunitement, reconcilement; a new league or coniunction.
Reünir. To reunite, reioyne, reconcile, attone.
Revocable: com. Reuokable, which may be recalled.
Office revocable ad nutum. An Office granted during pleasure.
Revocation: f. A reuocation, a reuoking; a countermaund, recalling, recantation.
Revoguer. To saile backe, or againe.
Revoir. To reuiew, recognize, reexamine; ouerlooke, or ouersee, againe.
Revol: m. A flying backe, a returne vpon the wing.
Revoler. To flie backe, to returne flying.
Revolte: f. A reuolt, a rebellion.
Revolté: m. ée: f. Reuolted, rebelled, fallen from; also, returned, or which hath made a new turne.
Revoltement: m. A reuolting, rebelling; a quitting, leauing, or falling from; also, a returning.
Revolter. To reuolt; rebell; fall, slip, turne, or goe from, leaue, quit, abandon, forsake; also, to returne, or make a new turne.
Revolu: m. uë: f. Reuolued; rounded or turned wholly, passed or gone fully about.
L'an revolu. The yeare fully ended, runne about.
Revoluble: com. Reuoluble, reuoluable; fit or apt to be turned about.
Revolution: f. A reuolution; a full compassing, rounding, turning backe to it first place, or point; th'accomplishment of a circular course.
Revomir. To vomit againe.
Revoqué: m. ée: f. Reuoked, recalled, countermaunded.
Revoquer. To reuoke, recall, countermaund, alter, make void.
Reupe: f. The dropping of the nose; also, a belch.
Reupontic: m. as Rheupontique.
Reuppe: f. as Reupe.
Reupper. To belch.
Reüssir. To issue, rise, or spring out; to succeed, or come vnto good or euill.
Revulsion: f. A revulsion, a pulling vp, or plucking away; also, the drawing, or forcing of humors from one part of the bodie into another.
Reystre. Looke Reistre.
Rez: m. A flat, plaine, leuell ground, floore, bottome; the superficies, or vpper face of a plaine, or leuell peece of ground.
Rez de chaussée. The same; or a foundation, bottome, ground; whence; L'estage de rez de chaussée. The lowest storie, the storie next to the ground; and, Le mur est à rez de chaussée. The foot of the wall stands leuell with the ground thats about it.
Rez à rez. &, Rez de rez. Euen or leuell with, close vnto.
Mettre rez pied rez terre. To raze, cast or beat downe, lay flat vnto, make euen with, the ground.
Rez. Those that are shauen, powled neere, cut close.
Il ne craint ny les rez ny les tondus. He is a surlie, rash, or arrogant fellow; he respects no man, cares for no bodie, feares neither one nor other; (from a familie in Troyes bearing the surname of Rez, and so great in authoritie and means, as it was an ordinarie threat in that towne, to say, Ie le diray, ou feray sçavoir, aux Rez; wherwith a good fellow being oftentimes vrged, came out at length with these words; Ie n'ay que faire des rez, ny des tondus; alluding to the signification of rez, wherewith Tondus almost synonymizeth.)
Rezueil: m. Networke for the haire; or, a Cawle of networke.
Rhabarbe: m. Rewbarb.
Rhabiller. as Rabiller.
Rhabituer. To reaccustome, reinure.
Rhagade: f. A chap, or chawne, comming by cold, &c, in any part of the bodie, but especially in the fundament.
Rhagadie. The same.
Rhamindique. Th'excellent Indian root called otherwise Mechoacan.
Rhamne. The fruitfull white Bramble called Ramme, or Christs thorne.
Rhapontique. The least, and worst kind of Rewbarbe, growing in Pontus.
Rhatimburgs: m. Select, or expresse Iudges for the decision of all cases that fell within the compasse of the Salick Law.
Rheteur: m. A Rhetorician.
Rhetorique: f. Rhetoricke; the Art of Eloquence.
Rhetorique: com. Rhetoricall, of Rhetoricke; eloquent; whence; Couleurs Rhetoriques. Looke vnder Couleur.
Rhetoriquement. Rhetorically; eloquently; Rhetorician-like.
Rhetoriquer. To Rhetorize it, play the Rhetorician, speake eloquently, argue neatly, plead finely.
Rhetorisér. The same.
Rheubarbe: f. Rewbarb; and (more particularly) the best and second kinds thereof, brought out of China, and out of Barbarie: See Reubarbe.
Rheume: f. A rheume, catharre, pose, murre.
Rheupontique: f. The worst and least kind of Rewbarbe; growing in Pontus; also, the root of great Centorie, called so in diuers Apothecaries shops, but erroniously.
Rhodais. The name of a good towne in Languedoc.
Elle est de Rhodais. She hath her flowers.
Rhomb: m. A Turbot: ¶ Langued.
Rhombe: m. A spinning wheele, reele, whirle, or turne; also, a figure that hath equall sides, and vnequall angles; as a quarrie of glasse, &c.
Rhombe girante. A whirligig, or Top.
Rhomboïde: f. A figure hauing vnequall sides, and angles.
Muscle rhomboïde. A muskle which drawes backward the shoulder blade.
Rhon. as Rhomb; also, the shrub Sumacke, Curriers Sumacke, leather Sumacke.
Rhonboïde. Almost foure-square; or as Rhomboïde.
Rhupontique. as Rheupontique.
Rhus. The shrub called Sumacke.
Riagas. The poison Aconitum.
Riant: m. ante: f. Laughing, geering, fleering.
Dents riantes. The foure fore-teeth; so called because in laughing they are commonly discouered.
Mordre en riant. Looke Mordre.
Riard: m. arde: f. as Riant; or continually laughing.
Ribaine. Ribon ribaine. Looke Ribon.

Ribaud, & Ribaude. as Ribauld, & Ribaulde.

Ribaudaille: f. A ruffianlie crue, a roguish companie.

Ribaudequin: m. A fashion of huge crossebow (some fourteene or fifteene foot in length) that shot a long arrow feathered with horne, or thinne wood, & is at this day out of vse.

Ribauderin. The same.

Ribaudine: f. as Ribaulde; or, a rascallie queane.

Ribauld: m. A rogue, ruffian, rascall, scoundrell, varlet, filthie fellow; also, a ribauld, fornicator, whoremunger, bawdie-house haunter; also, a base fellow, or labouring man, of a big bodie, strong limmes, and hard constitution, a tough whoresonne.

Leribauld d'une grappe. The staulke of a cluster of grapes.

Roy des ribaulds. An Officer which, in old time, looked to the vagabonds, & idle persons that haunted the Court; and searched any that came in, to see they had no Armes, or hidden weapons about them; and towards night visited all the chambers in the house, to preuent secret massacres; and thrust out at doores at meale, and bed-time, such as had not their diet, and lodging allowed them; and punished all disorders committed, by the followers of the Court, without the Court gate: This Officer had a gard of Archers attending on him, and a Lieutenant, called Prevost des ribauds: In Charles the sixts time the name (too neere a King) was suppressed, and, as some thinke, altered into Prevost de l'hostel, of late yeares become, le grand Prevost de France, & de l'hostel du Roy; which title Charles the ninth added for more authoritie vnto the Office.

Ribaulde: f. A whore, queane, punke, gill, flirt, common hackney, doxie, mort.

Ribaulder. To play the ribauld, ruffian, rogue.

Ribauldise: f. Ribauldrie, roguerie, ruffianisme, whoring, whore-hunting.

Ribault. as Ribauld.

Ribe; f. A coast, &c; as Rive: ¶ Langued.

Ribe taillade. See Taillade.

Ribes: f. Red Gooseberries, beyond-sea Gooseberries, garden Currans, bastard Currans.

Rob de ribes. Looke Rob.

Ribettes. as Ribes.

Ribier: m. The red Gooseberrie plant; also, a kind of vine.

Riblant. Roauing, ietting, raking, swaggering abroad with weapons to the spoyle, or despoyling, of euerie one he meets.

Ribler. To roue, roame, rake, or iet abroad weaponed, and wronging euerie one; to boot-hale, rob, ransacke, prey vpon passengers, or poore countrey people.

Riblerie: f. A rouing, ietting, roaming, swaggering; a gadding abroad in armour, to the wronging, ransacking, robbing of passengers, or poore countrey people; a boot-haling; also, a violent course or incursion vpon an enemie.

Riblette: f. A collop, or slice of bacon.

Des oeufs à la riblette. Egges and collops; or, an Omelet or Pancake of egges, and slices of bacon mingled, and fried together.

Ribleur: m. A disorderlie roauer, ietter, swaggerer, outragious reakes-player; a robber, ransacker, boot-haler, preyer vpon passengers, &c.

Ribon ribaine. By hooke or crooke, will ye nill ye, whether you will or no.

Ric à ric. Quite, wholly, throughly; extreamely; exactly, precisely, in euerie point.

Ricalde: f. A gill, flirt, callet; scould; a long-tongued and short-heeled, a light and tatling, huswife.

Ricanant. Tighying, sporting, dallying, wantonizing it.

Ricaner. To giggle, tighie, dallie, wantonize it.

Ricaneux: m. euse: f. Tighying, giggling, euer sporting, dallying, or playing the wanton.

Ricasser. To giggle, fleere, laugh with a tighie, play the wanton egregiously.

Richard: m. Richard; also, the bird called a Jay.

Fer de richard. A kind of great yron wire.

Riche: com. Rich, wealthie, opulent, well lined, of great meanes, that hath much to take to.

Riche comme vn ladre. As rich as a Lazer (who is tearmed rich, either because he gets few children; or because few come to eat on him.)

A riche homme n'en chaut qui ami luy soit: Pro. A rich carle no mans loue respects; or doth not care though no man loue him.

Homme chiche iamais riche: Prov. The niggard's nere (in his opinion) rich.

Il est riche que Dieu aime: Prov. Rich is the man whom God affects.

Le plus riche n'emporte qu'un linceul: Pro. Seeke Linceul.

La vache du riche velle souvent, celle du povre avorte: Prov. The rich mans cow is fruitfull, fat, and strong, the poore mans (leane, and ill kept) casts her young.

Pour devenir bien tost riche il faut tourner le dos à Dieu: Prov. He that will soone grow rich must God renounce.

Qui bien gaigne, & bien espargne devient tantost riche: Pro. He that gets, and spares much, will quickly be rich.

Richement. Richly, wealthily, opulently, abundantly.

Richement mentir. To lie for the whetstone, or with the best of them.

Richereau: m. A wealthie chuffe, rich lobcocke, well lined boore; one that hath more wealth then wit, more substance then ciuilitie.

Richesse: f. Riches, wealth, great substance, meanes, possessions, treasure, fortunes.

Enfans sont richesses de povres gens. Store of children is all the wealth poore men can brag of; yet is that brag but idle if they be idle; Seeke Enfant.)

Ou richesse est peché est: Prov. Where riches are sinne is.

Ricochet. The sport of skimming a thinne stone on the water, called a Ducke and a Drake.

C'est la chanson du ricochet. Tis an idle, or endlesse tale or song; a subiect whereof one part contradicts, marres, or ouerthrowes, another.

Ricote: f. A kind of milke-meat; or as;

Ricottes: f. Curds made of whey.

Ridde: f. A Flemmish coyne worth about 5 s. sterl.

Ridde de Gueldres. Is worth about 3 s. sterl.

Ridé: m. ée: f. Wrinkled, wrimpled, crumpled, frumpled, in furrowes like an angrie brow; also, stiffened, or stretched out vnto a stiffenesse.

Rideau: m. A curtaine, or cloth-skreene.

Ridelle: f. The rayle of a Cart or waine; and more particularly, the vppermost of the three; the middle one being tearmed fausse ridelle; and the lowest, Gisant.

Ridement: m. A wrinkling, wrimpling, crumpling; also, a stiffening, or stretching out.

Rider. To wrinkle, or to wrimple; alſo (among Mariners) to ſtiffen, or ſtretch out vnto a ſtiffeneſſe.
Se rider. To frowne, lowre, ſcoule, looke ſterne, furrow or wrinkle the forhead, knit the browes.
Rides: f. Wrinkles, or furrowes on the face of an old, or angrie perſon; alſo, crumoles, wrimples; foulds, plaites.
Ridicule: com. Ridiculous, vaine, fond, worthie to be laughed at.
Ridiculement. Ridiculouſly, vainely, fooliſhly.
Rié: m. as Rie.
Rie: f. A waſt; an vntilled or vnhusbanded peece of ground.
Riéble: m. Cleauer, Clauer, Gooſe-ſhare, Loue-man, Gooſe-graſſe.
Rien. (without the companie of a Negatiue, ſignifies as the Latine Res*) a matter, thing, ſome thing, any thing, ought; (but with one either expreſſed, or vnderſtood, ſignifies) nought, nothing, no whit, not a iot.*
Rien rien. No no, neither ſo nor ſo.
Ce n'eſt plus rien que de moy. I am as good as nothing, or, I am vtterly vndone.
Elle le hait ſur tout rien. She hates him extreamely, aboue all things, more then ſhe hates all the world beſides.
Encores s'il m'euſt donné quelque rien. Yet, had he giuen me any thing, or neuer ſo little.
Me voulez vous rien mander. Looke Mander.
Rien n'a qu'aſſez n'a: Prov. He nothing hath who (thinkes he) hath not ynough; or, as good haue nothing as not haue ynough.
Rien n'eſt bien faict que ce que Dieu parfaict: Prov. &, Rien ne faict qui ne parfaict; Looke Parfaire.
Rien n'eſt ſi caché qui ne ſe trouve: Prov. The cloſeſt kept things are at length found out.
Rien ne peut eſtre grand qui n'a bon fondement: Prov. The thing cannot be great that hath no good foundation.
Rien ne vaut l'aſſaillant s'il n'eſt fort, & vaillant: Prov. In vaine he playes th'aſſailant who is not ſtrong, and valiant.
Rien ne vaut la choſe ſinon ce qu'on la fait valoir: Prov. Euerie thing is as it is taken; or, conceit ſets rates vpon all earthlie things.
Rien ſans peine: Prov. Looke Peine.
Aujourd'huy roy demain rien: Prov. To day a King to morrow (as good as) nothing.
On ne fait de rien graſſe porrée: Prov. Fat broth cannot without ſome ſtuffe be made.
Qui rien ne porte rien ne luy chet: Prov. He that beares nothing letteth nothing fall.
Qui n'a patience n'a rien: Prov. Looke Patience.
Qui n'a ſanté n'a rien: Prov. He that wants health wants all things.
Qui n'a ſuffiſance il n'a rien: Pro. Look Suffiſance.
Qui ne ſçait rien de rien ne doubte: Prov. He that knowes nought of nothing doubts.
Rien-ne-vaut. A ſcoundrell, ſcumme, raſcall; baſe or worthleſſe fellow.
Riens. as Rien. (v.m.)
Riere. Backward, behind; alſo, with or among; whence;
Ils ont eſté captifs riere les Eſpagnols. Among the Spaniards, or in Spaine.
Riereban. as Arriereban.
Rierefief. A Fief held of a meſne Lord; alſo, a rent ſeck, or charge, granted by a vaſſall out of his Fief.
Riere-filz: m. A grand-child.
Riere-vaſſal: m. An vnder vaſſall, a vaſſall vnto a vaſſall.
Riets. as Rie.
Riu: m. A little brooke, a reyne, or gullet of water.
Rieulle. as Ruille.
Rieur: m. A laugher.
Rif: m. as Rieu.
Il ne luy lairra rif ny raf. He will ſtrip, reaue, or depriue, him of all.
Rifage: f. A Sowre, lowring, powting, ſcouling, frowning houſewife.
Rifflarde: f. A rauenous, or a rifling drab; one that loues, or liues by, the ſpoyle of them ſhe conuerſes with.
Rifflandouille. A bellie-god, ſpoyler of chitterlings, louer of good cheere.
Rifle: f. Fire: ¶Barrag. whence;
On n'y a laiſſé ne rifle, ne rafle. They haue ſwept all away; they haue left no manner of thing behind them.
Rifler. To rifle, ranſacke, ſpoyle, make hauocke or cleane worke, ſweepe all away before him; alſo, to rauine, or eat greedily.
Rigaliſſe: f. Lickorice.
Rigaliſſe fertile. Common Lickorice.
Rigaliſſe ſterile. Barren Lickorice, Hedge-hog Lickorice.
Rigaud: m. aude: f. whence; A jambes rigaudes. C'eſt à la renverſe, & les jambes en haut; or, With ſtradling, and vp-ſtretcht legs.
Rigle; & Riglet. as Reigle; & Reiglet. (v.m.)
Rigliſſe: f. Lickorice.
Rigolage: m. A mocking, ieaſting, or laughing at.
Rigolement: m. as Rigolage.
se Rigoler de. To mocke, ieaſt, laugh at, make himſelfe merrie or play the wanton with.
Se rigoler au ſoleil. To ſport, ſolace, or ioyfully to bleake, or ſpread himſelfe in the Sunne, taking a ſenſuall or wanton felicitie in it.
Rigolerie: f. as Rigolage.
Rigoleur: m. A common mocker of, or ieaſter at; one that battles, or pleaſes himſelfe, in a continuall ſporting with, or laughing at, others.
Rigoreuſement. Rigorouſly, ſternely, auſterely, ſeuerely, in extremitie, without any fauour.
Rigoreux: m. euſe: f. Rigorous, hard, ſtrict, ſterne, extreame, pitileſſe, vnmercifull, auſtere, ſeuere.
Rigueur: f. Rigour, ſtrictneſſe, extremitie, auſteritie, ſeueritie, ſterneneſſe.
Rillon de porc. as Graton; or that part of a hogs intrailes which is like the tripes in an Oxe.
Rim de vent. A puffe of wind; or as Rum.
Rimaille: f. Paultie meeter, ſorrie rime.
Rimailleur: m. A meane compoſer, a ſorrie rimer.
Rimailleuſe: f. An vnlearned, or paultrie Poeteſſe.
Rimarde: f. as Rimailleuſe.
Rimart: m. An vnlearned, or ſcurule rimer.
Rimaſler. To rime vnlearnedly, to make ſorrie meeter.
Rimaſſeur: m. A ſorrie rimer, a paultrie meeter-maker.
Rimaſſeuſe: f. as Rimailleuſe.
Rime: f. Rime, or meeter; alſo, a crannie, chinke, rift, cleft, chap, chawne.
Rimer. To rime; to write or ſpeake in meeter.
Rimette: f. A little rime, or ſmall riming poeſie.
Rimeur: m. A rimer, a maker of rimes, a writer in rime.
Rimeuſe: f. A Poeteſſe, or woman that makes rimes.
Rimonner. To rime, &c; as Rimer.

Ri-

Rimoyer. The ſame.
Rimoyeur : m. A rimer, a meeter-maker.
Rinceau. as Rinſeau.
Ringer. as Ruminer.
Rinsé : m. ée : f. Reinſed, as linnen.
Rinſeau : m. The ſtaulke (or part of the ſtaulke) of a plant; a little bough of a tree.
Rinſement : m. A reinſing of linnen clothes.
Rinſer. To reinſe linnen clothes.
Rinſeur : m. A reinſer of linnen.
Rioge. as Meſentere : ¶ Langued.
Riolé. Streaked, rayed; whence, Riolé piolé ; diuerſified with many ſeuerall colours ; or as vnder Piolé.
Riorte : f. A with, or band; a or ſticke fit to make one.
Riote : f. A brabbling, ſcoulding, brawling, chiding, debate, contention, ſquaring, altercation; alſo, as Riorte.
Rioter. To chide, brabble, ſcould, brawle; iangle; debate, ſquare, contend, fall out, in words.
Rioteux : m. euſe : f. Scoulding, brabbling, brawling, euer chiding, iangling, wrangling ; moſt litigious, or debateſull, neuer quiet.
Riotte : f. as Riorte ; or, the band of a bauen, or fagot; alſo, as Riote ; or a ſmall brabble ; alſo, a ſlimſlam, idle diſcourſe, tale of a tub.
Riottement de chiens. The yarring, or whurring of dogs, dogs brabbling.
Ripaille : f. (Is properly a tearme of warre ſignifying, pillage ; whence, ripaille neceſsiteuſe; a needie and raſcall companie that liues onely vpon the ſpoyle ; yet is it vſed much for) gluttonie, ſurfeting, idle expence of money, or of time, in pampering of the bellie : ¶ Norm. ça ça ripaille, vie de goulus, à la ſoupe garçons. (Th'ordinarie ſpeech of ſuch bellie-gods.)
Riparographe : m. A writer of triſles, a painter of baſe or ſcurnie matters.
Ripeilleux. as Ripilleux.
Ripilleux : m. euſe : f. Craggie, rugged, vneuen, rough.
Ripopé. Vin rip. Raſcallie hedge wine ; bad wine made a great deale worſe by much water ; or (moſt properly) the droppings of wine, taken out of the Bacquet, or Tub that ſtands vnder the ſpigot, and mingled with water by, or for, poore folkes.
Rippe : f. The ſmall fiſh called a Sharpling, Stickle-back, or Banke-ſtickle.
Ripperie : f. A couſening, gulling, cheating, conicatching.
Rippopé. as Ripopé
Ripuaire. A certaine Law agreeing with the Salicke both in ſubſtance, and date.
Riquaner. as Ricaner ; or to bray like an Aſſe.
Riqueraque. Throughly, wholly, quite off or away.
Feu de riqueraque. Wild fire.
Rire. To laugh, tighe; geere, ſleere; mocke, ieaſt, or ſcoffe at ; make himſelfe merrie with.
Rire à demie bouche. To laugh diſdainfully, or as one that is more angrie then merrie.
Rire à groſſes dents. From the teeth outward, ſay we.
Rire ſous leur bonnet ; &, Rire ſous gorge. To laugh vnderhand, or in their ſleeues.
Se chatouiller pour ſe faire rire. To pleaſe or flatter himſelfe with triſles, idle hopes, vaine thoughts ; or, to coine many ſleight or idle ieaſts for himſelfe to laugh at, if no bodie elſe will.
Pincer ſans rire. To gird cloſely, to giue priuie nips : and, Iouër à pincer ſans rire. The ſame ; as alſo, to nimme, filch, purloyne.
Vous verrez bien rire. You ſhall ſee good laughing.
Femme rit quand elle peut, & pleure quand elle veut : Prov. Looke Femme.
Marchand qui perd ne peut rire : Pro. Can any man laugh that looſes ? can any man take pleaſure in his loſſes ?
Tel rit qui mord : Prov. Some laugh and bite withall ; Appliable to an hypocrite, or diſſembler, who brings, by his faire words or ſhewes, confuſion to thoſe he conuerſes with.
Tel au matin rit qui au ſoir pleure : Prov. Many that were glad in the morning are ſad ere night.
Ris : m. The graine called Rice.
Ris : m. Laughter ; or, a laughing, tighying, fleering.
Ris de chien. A diſloyall, or treacherous geering.
Ris d'hoſtelier. Seeke Hoſtelier.
Ris de loup. The name of a certaine great peare.
Ris Sardonien. A forced or cauſeleſſe mirth, a laughter onely from the teeth outward ; or, a long laughter that ends in ſorrow.
Ris (The Participle of Rire) Dequoy il fut bien ris. whereat good ſport was made.
Riſée : f. A laughter, or laughing ; a tighying, or fleering; alſo, a mocking, flowting, ieaſting at.
Ache de riſée. Crowſoot of the fallow field ; or, Crowſoot of Illiria.
Riſible : com. Fit or worthie to be laughed at.
Riſque : f. Perill, ieopardie, danger, hazard, chance, aduenture.
Ie le prens à ma riſque. Hab or nab, at my perill be it, happen how it will.
Riſſes chevreaux. Fat Kids : ¶ Rab.
Riſſole : f. The browneneſſe that is giuen to a thing in the frying thereof.
Riſſolé : m. ée : f. Fried throughly, or browned all ouer in the frying.
Riſſoler. To frie a thing vntill it be browne.
Riſſolle : f. A Jewes eare ; or Muſhrome thats faſhioned like a Demie-circle, and growes cleauing to trees; alſo, a ſmall and delicate minced Pie, made of that faſhion.
Rit : m. as Ris ; Rice.
Rithmailler. To rime paultrily, to write or pronounce rime doggerell.
Rithme : m. Rime, or meeter.
Rithmer. To rime, to make meeter.
Ritual : m. ale : f. Rituall, cuſtomarie, cerimonious, of or belonging to, rites.
Rivage : m. The ſea ſhore, or coaſt ; a water banke, waters ſide, the ſea ſide.
Droict de rivage. Shorage ; Looke Droict.
Rivager : m. ere : f. Belonging, or neere, vnto a waters ſide.
Rivagier : m. One that dwells neere the waters ſide.
Rival : m. A riuall, corrinall, competitor in loue.
Rivant. Riueting.
Rive : f. The Sea ſhore, ſide, or coaſt ; the banke or ſide of a Riuer ; the brinke, or brimme of a Spring, &c.
La rive d'un bois. The skirt, edge, or ſide of a wood.
La rive d'un pain. The ſide of a loafe.
Il eſt plus aiſé de ſe tirer de la rive que de du fond : Prov. Better may a man get from the brinke then from the bottome ; a miſchiefe is ſooner cruſhed, a delight more eaſily caſſed, when one is but dipped, then when he is plunged, into it.

Rivé: m. ée: f. Riueted, clenched; fastened or turned backe, as the point of a nayle.

Il luy a bien rivé ses cloux. See Clou.

Rivement: m. A riueting, a clenching,

River. To riuet or clench; to fasten or turne backe the point of a nayle, &c; also, to thrust the clothes of a bed in at the sides.

River vn clou à. To retort a speech backe vpon; to make a sound replie vnto.

Riveran: m. A Ferrie-man or Bote-man; also, a Welsh booke, or hedging bill made with a booke at the end; or as;

Rivereau: m. The pole with a forke of yron, &c, at the end, wherewith Watermen set forward their boats when they row not; we call it a Bill-booke.

Rivereux: m. euse: f. Frequent, haunting, full of, or belonging to, riuers.

Faulcon rivereux. That preyes in marshie places, or on riuer fowle; a riuer Hawke, or Hawke for the riuer.

Riverotte: f. A brooke, little streame, small riuer.

Rivet: m. The welt of a shooe.

Tirer au rivet. Looke Tirer.

Riviére: f. A riuer; a streame; also, a certaine apple that yeelds an excellent cyder.

Les riviéres retournent en la mer: Pro. Looke Mer.

En petite riviére ne se prend grand poisson: Prov. Small townes, or meane families, affoord no great preferment.

En pont, en planche, & en riviére valet devant Maistre derriere: Prov. Looke Pont.

Les petis ruisseaux font les grandes riviéres: Pro. Many littles make a mickle; many small parcells ioyned together make vp a great bodie, or bulke.

Riuler. To rauell out like silke. (v.m.)

Rivure. as Rivement.

Riz: m. The graine Rice.

Rob: m. The iuyce of blacke Whortle berries preserued.

Rob de ribes. The preserued iuyce of red Goose-berries, or bastard Currans.

Robbe: f. A robe, gowne, mantle, coat; any long vpper garment; also, the sea Calfe, a fish.

Robbe d'argent brodée de merde. A learned text vnlearnedly commented on.

Robbe courte. gens de robbe courte. All that professe Armes, hold of the sword, or vsually weare swords.

Robbe longue. gens de robbe longue. Lawyers, Clerkes, Professors of Artes, &c.

Robbe qui sent sa petite ville. A citizens gowne, a Burguers garment; a ciuile, neat, spruce gowne, or garment.

Bonne robbe. A Bona roba; good stuffe, sound lecherie; a round, fat, plumpe wench.

Accommoder la robbe au petit poinct; Il luy accommoda sa rob. He set his gowne close to his shoulders, he coursit his coat or Jacket soundly.

Beuvez vn coup ou deux en robbe. Steale a draught or two vnder your habits.

Ils ne se sont gueres faict tirer la robbe. They were soone intreated, easily drawne, to &c.

Robbe d'autruy ne fait honneur à nulluy: Prov. A borrowed gowne does well on no mans shoulders; apparell graces none but them that owe it.

Robbe refait moult l'homme: Prov. Handsome apparell sets out a man exceedingly.

Les belles robbes pleurent sur des espaules indignes: Pro. Great pitie tis to see faire clothes an a clowns backe.

Fille trop veuë, robbe trop vestuë, n'est pas chere tenuë: Prov. Looke Fille.

Ventre de velours robbe de bureau: Prov. Choyce food, and costlie fare, doe make the backe goe bare.

Robber. To rob, steale, purloyne, filch, nimme.

Robberie: f. Robberie, theeuerie, stealing, filching, purloyning; prowling.

Robbeur: m. A robber; or as Desrobbeur.

Roberge: f. A kind of long ship, wherin both sailes, and oares are vsed.

Robert: m. Robert (the name;) also, the peare Robert.

Herbe Robert. Herbe Robert; a kind of Storkes-bill.

Le pourpoint de Monsieur Robert. A Doublet whose forebodie is fine stuffe, and the backe parts course.

Sauce Robert. Is made of yolkes of egges, verjuyce, white powder, and a little broth strained together, and serued vp with whole Goose-berries put into it; also, a sauce for hogs feet, of onions, pepper, verjuyce, and vinegar.

Ie luy bailleray bris contre Robert. I will giue him bread for his cake, or as good as he brings; I will call him Jacke if he call me Gill.

Robice: m. A robbing; or a robberie, felonie, theeuerie; a pilfering act, a theeuish pranke.

Robille: f. Provision de la rob. The clothes, rings, Jewels, and attire of a widow, with as much other stuffe as she can carrie, adiudged vnto her vpō her renouncement of her deceased husbands estate.

Robin: m. Robin; (a proper name.)

Bon Robin. The name of a certaine hearbe.

Chanson de Robin. Looke Chanson.

Robin a trouvé Marion: Prov. A notorious knaue hath found a notable queane.

Robin se souvient tousiours de sa fleute: Pro. A drunkard euer dreames of pots, a miser of his pelfe; the ambitious of greatnesse, the lecher of filthinesse; euery one thinkes most of the thing he affects most.

C'est la maison Robin de la vallée, où il n'y a ne pot au feu, ni escuelle lavée: Prov. Appliable to a needie, and a nastie house.

Robineries: f. Pleasant conceits.

Robinet: m. A Pipkin; a little Pot; also, the Cocke of a Fountaine, or of a Cesterne; also, the Taps-head.

Robon: m. A short gowne; or a side cassocke reaching below the knees.

La sequele au robon. Meane Tradesmen poore Marchants; the refuse, or followers of better Citizens.

Roboration: f. A strengthening, stiffening, reinforcing, fortifying.

Roborement. as Roboration.

Roborer. To strengthen, stiffen, fortifie, reinforce.

Roborin. le bas rob. as Rembouër.

Robre: m. The great Oake, or great Gall tree; the most hard and durable Oake that is.

Robuste: com. Strong, tough, sinnewie, pithie, sturdie, mightie, forcible.

Robustement. Strongly, toughly, sturdily, forcibly.

Robusteté: f. Strength or strongnesse, toughnesse, pithinesse, hardnesse or hardinesse, force, might, abilitie of bodie.

Roc: m. A rocke, flonie crag; strong hold; also, a Rooke at Chesse; also, a cradle for a child: (Bourbon.) also, the crooked peece of timber that stands on th'outside of the forecastle of a ship; and is tearmed the Knight.

Sans

Sans eſpargner ny roy, ny roc. Without mercie, without reſpect of perſons, dealing alike-ſeuerely with all.

Rocard. vn vieux roc. A hoarſe mouldiehaps, an ouerworne ſincaunter, one that can neither whinnie, nor wag the taile.

Roce. as Roſſe.

Roch: m. as Roche; alſo, the name of a Saint, for whom a holy-day is, in ſome places, kept on the ſixteenth day of Auguſt.

Herbe de S. Roch. Fleawort, Coniza, Fleabane, Fleabane Mullet.

Deſrobber la boſſe à S. Roch. To keepe his hands in vre (as in Boſſe.)

Rochaille: f. Rockes; rockineſſe.

Rochau: m. Rocke-fiſh, any fiſh that liues among rocks; and particularly, the Cooke-fiſh, or Sea-thruſh; as alſo, the fiſh Cœnus.

Roche: f. A rocke; a ſtonie crag or hill.

Roche biſe. Looke Bis.

Roche vive. Such a rocke as is all of ſtone without any bed, or mixture of earth, or ſand among it.

Il y a bien de l'anguille ſous roche. Therein yet lurks ſome further matter, there is more in it then the world's aware of.

Rocher: m. A rocke.

La gambade du rocher. Precipitation, or the being throwne headlong from a rocke.

Rocher: m. ere: f. Rockie, of a rocke.

Rocheray. Colombe rocheraye. A rocke Pigeon; alſo, a wild Pigeon, or one thats bred betweene a wild, and a tame one.

Rochet: m. A frocke; looſe gaberdine, or gowne of canuas, or courſe linnen, worne by a labourer ouer the reſt of his clothes; alſo, a Prelates Rochet; alſo, the blurre, button, or blunt yron-head, of a tilting-ſtaffe; or, a Tilting weapon hauing a blunt edge, or end.

Rochier. as Rocher.

Rocquer vn enfant. To rocke a child.

Rodage: m. A certaine Toll exacted by ſome countrey Lords vpon euery waine that paſſes (though in the high way) neere to their Seigniories, whether it be laden or no; for if it be, they will be paid both for the load, and for the cart.

Rodanes: f. A kind of ſweet Cherries.

Rode: f. The Dorce, or Gold fiſh.

Rodé. Qui a rodé le pais. That hath roamed, wandered, vagabonded it all the countrey ouer.

Rodelle d'un clou. The head of a nayle.

Rodemontade. Looke Rodomontade.

Roder. To roame, wander, vagabondize it, rogue abroad, runne vp and downe, flit here and there, trot all the countrey ouer.

Roder les rues. To iet, walke, trot vp and downe the ſtreets (eſpecially anights;) to ſee the towne ſerued.

Roder les yeux. To roll the eyes vnſteadily, to caſt the eyes round about, to looke on euerie ſide of him.

Rodeur: m. A vagabond, roamer, wanderer, ſtreet-walker, highway-beater; a rolling ſtone, one that does nought but runne here and there, trot vp and downe, rogue all the countrey ouer; an often and vncertaine flitter.

Rodibiliardique: com. Fat, or larded with fat.

Rododaphne. Oleander, the Roſe tree, Roſe bay, Roſe bay tree; a ſhrub verie beautifull, and verie full of poiſon.

Rodomontade: f. A brag, boaſt, cracke, vaineglorious brauadoe.

Roëlle: f. Seeke Rouëlle.

Rogations: f. Rogation dayes, the Rogation weeke, the Gang dayes or Gang weeke.

Apres Paſques, & Rogation ſy de preſtre, & d'oignon: Prov. Looke Oignon; or Preſtre.

Rogatons: m. Indulgences, Bulls of pardon, Reliques, &c, borne about the countrey.

Porteur de rogatons. Looke Porteur.

Roger bon-temps. A mad raſcall, a merrie greeke.

Rognons. as Roignons.

Rogue. The Meſenterium; Looke Meſentere.

Rogue: com. Arrogant, proud, preſumptuous; malapert, ſaucie; rude, ſurlie.

Roguement. Arrogantly, proudly, preſumptuouſly; ſurlily; malapertly, ſaucily.

Roide: com. Stiffe, ſteadie, firme, ſtable, ſtrong; ſturdie, ſtubborne; rough, fierce, rude, vnciuile, violent; conſtant, inflexible; vntractable.

Roide. as Roidement; Looke Piſſer.

Roidement. Stifly, ſteadily, firmely, ſtrongly; ſturdily, ſternely; rudely, fiercely, roughly; conſtantly, inflexibly; violently, vehemently.

Roideur: m. Stiffeneſſe, ſteadineſſe, firmeneſſe; might, ſtrength, force, vigour, power; ſturdineſſe, rudeneſſe, roughneſſe, vntractableneſſe; earneſtneſſe, violence, vehemencie.

Roidi: m. ie: f. Stiffened, hardened; ſtretched, or bent out.

Roidir. To ſtiffen, harden, ſtraighten, bend or ſtretch out.

Se roidir. To be ſtifly bent vnto, ſetled in, reſolued of; to frame himſelfe vnto a conſtant, rigid, or vntractable determination, faſhion, or humor; alſo, to be hard frozen, or to grow ſtarke with cold.

Roidir le jarret. To ſhake, or ſtretch out, the legs, as one thats felled by a deadlie blow.

Roigne. as Rongne.

Roignement: m. A paring, clipping, ſhredding, a cutting off or away.

Roigner, & Roigneux. Lock Rongner, & Rongneux.

Roignons: m. The kidneyes.

Roine. See Royne.

Roiſons: f. Rogation weeke or dayes, Gang weeke, or Gate dayes; called ſo by the vulgar.

Roitelet: m. A pettie or poore King; alſo, a Wrenne.

Roland m. Rowland; a proper name.

Mort Roland. Thirſt, or a dying of thirſt: ¶Rab.

Faire le Roland. To brag, boaſt, cracke; ſwagger, ſweare, teare, ſtare, fare like a mad-man.

Rolat. as Roule: ¶Bayonnois.

Obligé en rolat. Subiect vnto the rigour of the Court of a Bailli.

Rolle, & Rollet. Seeke Roule, & Roulet.

Rollier: m. A Waine-man, or Waggoner; one that in a Waine, or Waggon, carries other mens ware vp and downe.

Rollon: m. A rowler, a rowling ſtone.

Romain: m. ine: f. Roman, of Rome.

Abſynthe Romain. Roma Wormwood, French wormwood, Wormwood gentle, ſmall-leaued Wormwood.

Eſpée Romaine. Looke Eſpée.

Laictuë Romaine. Roman Lettuce, the greateſt kind of Cabbadge Lettuce.

Mente Romaine. Speare Mint, browne Mint, garden Mints.

Nielle Romaine. Gith, Nigella, Biſhops-wort, Saint Katherines flower.

Sauge Romaine. Balſamint, Coſtmarie, Alecoſt; as Mente Romaine.

Romaine: f. A Roman beame, a Stelleere; See Crochet.

Roman: m. The moſt eloquent French, or any thing written eloquently, was tearmed ſo in old time; (of the Roman, or moſt eloquēt language) Hence; Le Roman de la Roſe; The Romant of the Roſe: (In the confines of Germanie, and Lorraine the language that is not German is at this day called Romant.).

Romaneſque: com. Romiſh, Roman.

Romans: m. Beets: ¶ Pic.

Romarin. Looke Roſmarin.

Rome: f. (The citie of) Rome.

Le loup alla à Rome, & y laiſſa de ſon poil, & rien de ſes couſtumes: Prov. No place can alter an inueterate lewdneſſe.

Qui fol va à Rome fol en retourne: Pro. Seek Fol.

Qui langue a à Rome va: Prov. He that can ſpeake may trauell any way.

Romicole: com. One that affects, or honours, Rome, or the Romiſh Religion.

Rommeler. To rumble, grumble, grunt.

Rommery: m. The fiare called Budge. (v.m.)

Romore. Seeke Remore.

Rompable: com. Burſtable, breakable.

Rompeis: m. Grounds newly broken vp; eſpecially ſuch as either haue neuer, or not within memorie, beene tilled.

Rompement: m. A breaking, burſting, paſhing aſunder, daſhing in peeces; alſo, a cancelling, diſſoluing, infringing, vndoing.

Rompe-pierre. as Rompierre.

Rompeur: m. A burſter, a breaker.

Rompeur de chanſons. A continuall interrupter of ſuch as talke more wiſely then himſelfe.

Rompierre: f. The hearbe Saxifrage; alſo, Sampire.

Rompierre blanche. White Saxifrage, white Stonebreake.

Rompierre dorée. Goldē Saxifrage, or Stone-break.

Rompre. To burſt, break; daſh, or paſh in peeces; to pull, rend, or teare aſunder; alſo, to caſſe, cancell, infringe, diſſolue, vndoe; alſo, to barre at Dice, &c.

Rompre l'anguille au genouil. To performe an impoſſibilitie.

Rompre le coup. To beat or put by a blow, in Fencing, &c.

Rompre le coup à vne menée. To diuert, croſſe, diſſolue, make void, a practiſe.

Ie vous romps ce coup là. I denie you that, or ſtop you there; hoe there neighbour, by your fauour ſir.

Rompre les oreilles à. To deafe, or moleſt with ouermuch prattle.

Rompre la paille avec. To fall out with a friend, companion, or familiar acquaintant.

Rompre pluſtoſt que plier. Looke Plier.

Rompre la teſte à. To wearie, tire, or toyle out with infinit babling; to importune, or crie out vpō ouermuch.

A tout rompre. At the moſt; at the higheſt; at the worſt; or, when all comes to all.

Meſchant à tout rompre. An extreame raſcall, a moſt egregious villaine.

Avarice rompt le ſac: Prov. In ſtriuing to take too much of a thing we ſpoyle it, and deſpoyle our ſelues of all further vſe of it.

Mieux vaut tirer que rompre: Prov. Better to retch then to breake; to yeeld a little then periſh altogether.

Rompture: f. A rupture; breach, breaking, &c; Looke Rompure.

Cas de rompture. An equall ſharing of a bankrupts goods among his creditors; In which caſe, if hee had land ſubiect vnto rent, the Landlord hath it the firſt yeare in lieu of his arrerages; and after him euerie one, in his turne, hath it his yeare.

Rompu: m. Bon rompu. A good companion, good fellow, or (as we ſay) a good rogue.

Rompu: m. uë: f. Burſt, broken; daſht, or peſht, in peeces; pulled, rent, or torne, aſunder; alſo, caſſed, cancelled, infringed, vndone, diſſolued; alſo, burſt; viz. whoſe bowells be fallen into his cods.

Rompu aux affaires. Practiſed, much exerciſed, fully beaten in, well acquainted with, the courſe of buſineſſes; of great experience in the world.

Rompu de travail. Harried, weāried, ouer-toyled, cleane beaten out, that hath loſt both ſtrength, & health by too much labouring.

Chemin rompu. Le chemin eſt tout rompu de gens. The way is much beaten, or worne by the multitude of paſſengers.

Dos rompu. A dos rompu. Doubling, twofold, as if his backe were broken.

Front rompu. Qui à le front rompu. An impudent fellow, a ſhameleſſe or braſen-faced companion.

Gorge rompuë. Crier à gorge rompuë. Till his mouth ſplit withall.

Ie m'y ſuis bien rompu la teſte. I haue extreamely afflicted, perplexed, or troubled my braines withall.

Rompu-dos. A rompu-dos. as A dos rompuë.

Rompuë: f. A rout, a diſcomfiture.

Rompure: f. A ruption, rupture, fracture, brack, breach; burſting, breaking.

Ronçay: m. A Brier-plot; a ground or place full of Briers.

Ronce: f. A Bramble, or Brier; alſo, a kind of Thornebacke.

Ronce de cerf. Rough Bindweed.

Ronce de chien. The Brier-buſh, or Hep tree; or, a great kind thereof, which beares a white flower, and great leaues reſembling the ſoles of mens feet; ſome alſo call ſo, the Caper ſhrub.

Ronce Ideenne. A Raſpice plant or buſh.

Roncé: m. ée: f. Hurled; or making a whurring noiſe, as a ſtone, &c, caſt with violence: ¶ Gaſc.

Ronceux: m. euſe: f. Bramblie, brierie; full of brambles, or briers.

Ronciere: f. A buſhie cloſe or ground, a place full of brambles or briers.

Ronçoy. as Ronçay.

Rond: m. A Sol, or the French ſhilling (tenne whereof make but one of ours;) alſo, the daunce called a Round; whence;

Ie ſuis tout ſaoul, ie dancerois bien vn rond.

Rond: m. ronde: f. Round, circular, orbicular, compaße; full, plumpe; alſo, free, blunt, plaine, open-hearted, ſincere.

Muſcle rond. One of the fiue muskles which draw vp the nether Jaw; and which (particularly) puffes vp the cheeke, and is therfore by the Latine Anatomiſts called Buccinator.

Vaiſſeau rond. A Ship; tearmed thus to make a difference betweene it and a Galley, Foiſt, Brigantine, &c; all which are tearmed, Vaiſſeaux longs.

Donner le plein, & le rond à. To perfect, conſummate, accompliſh.

Tenir

Tenir table ronde. To keepe open house.

Rondace: f. A round Targuet, or great Buckler.

Rondache. as Rondace.

Rondacher: m. A Targuettier; one that serues with a Rondache.

Ronde: f. A circle; a compasse, or compassing; the Round (walked) in Garrisons.

Ronde. (Aduerbially) Cent lieuës à la ronde. A hundred leagues compasse.

Rondeau: m. A Scrowle; such as, among Armes or Emblemes, a Deuise or Mottoe is written in; also, a kind of round, and stiffe Pancake.

Rondeau de pastissier. A round and flat boord whereon Pastissiers doe raise their Past and Pies.

Rondeau de rime. A Rime, or Sonnet that ends as it begins.

Rondeler. To turne, wind, wheele, goe compasse, cast about.

Rondelet: m. as Rondeau.

Rondelier: m. A maker of Bucklers, or of round Targuets; also, a souldior that serues with a Buckler; a Targuettier.

Rondelle: f. A Buckler, or (little) Targuet; also, the Rochet fish; also, the head of a nayle.

Rondelle de fer. A round plate, or band of yron.

Rondement. Roundly, circularly, orbicularly; fully, plumply; freely, plainely, bluntly, throughly.

Rondeur: f. Roundnesse, globinesse; fullnesse, plumpneße; plainenesse, bluntnesse, free speech, good earnest.

Rondin: m. A measure for Corne, or Graine; containing about a Picotin and a halfe.

Rondole: f. The sea Bat, or Rearemouse of the sea; a flying fish.

Ronfle: f. Hand-Ruffe, at Cards.

Iouër à la ronfle. To play at hand-Ruffe; also, to snore.

Vous me remettez à point en ronfle veuë. You put me shrewdly to my plunges, driue me to the wall, haue me at a bay.

Ronfler. To snore, snort, rowt.

Ronfleur: m. A snorer, a snorter, a rowter.

Ronge: m. A gnawing, fretting, nibling.

Cela luy revient tousiours au ronge. That still doth extreamely vex, or fret him; he cannot forget it, it will neuer from his heart.

Rongé: m. ée: f. Gnawne, knapped or nibled off, eaten, fretted, worne away.

Rongeard: m. arde: f. Gnawing, knapping, nibling, off; eating, fretting, wearing away.

Rongement: m. A gnawing, knapping, or nibling, off; a fretting, eating, or wearing away.

Ronger. To gnaw, knap, or nible, off; to fret, eat, or weare away; also, to champe, or chew.

Ronger vne colere en son esprit. To fret, vex, or chafe, inwardly.

Ronger entre les dents. Il faut ronger cela entre les dents sans dire mot. That must be borne, intertained, or digested, without contradiction.

Ronger son frain; (Much like the former) to bite of the bit.

Rongeur: m. A gnawer, knapper, nibler; fretter.

Rongne: f. Scurfe, scabbinesse, the mange.

Rongné: m. ée: f. Pared, clipped, shred, cut away; also, circumcised.

Il s'est rongné les ongles à l'estude de. Look Ongle.

Ressembler la monnoye rongnée. To be vnlearned, or without letters.

Rongnement: m. A clipping, paring, shredding; a cutting off, or away.

Rongner. To pare, clip, shred, cut, fret, off or away.

Rongner les ailes à. To keepe low, hold vnder, hinder from rising; or, as;

Rongner les ongles à. To weaken, disarme, or disable (for defence, or offence.)

Qui fief rongne fief perd. If a tenant, or vassall, alien part of his fief, he forfeits the whole vnto the Lord Feodal.

Rongnette: f. A Farriers paring-knife.

Rongneure: f. A shred, paring, clipping, remnant, offall, odde end.

Rongneures. Shreds, parings, clipping, odde ends; also, wine left in the bottome of a glasse, &c, after a draught.

Les rongneures du temps que nous desrobbons, & prenons pour nos affaires. Od, stolne, or vacant times bestowed on our priuate occasions.

Rongneux: m. euse: f. Scabbie, mangie, scruie.

Cheval rongneux n'a cure qu'on l'estrille: Prov. A scabbie Jade affects not the Currycombe; nor a scruie Jacke any correction.

Mere piteuse fait sa fille rongneuse: Prov. A tender-hearted mother breeds a short-heeld daughter.

Mestier n'avons de pastissier rongneux: Pro. Looke Pastissier.

Rongnonner. To pare, clip, or gnaw by little and little; also, to grumble, murmure, or mutter.

Rongnure. as Rongneure.

Ronsé. Raye ronsée. A Thornebacke, or rocke Ray.

Ronsiere: f. A place full of bryers, a plot full of brambles.

Ronson. as Bondelle.

Ronsoy: m. as Ronsiere.

Ronteis: m. Grounds newly broken vp, especially such as (although they haue lyen a long time lay) either appeare, or be remembred, to haue beene tilled.

Roole. Seeke Roule.

Roolet: m. Was, in the ciuill warres, a watch-word among the French Clergie, signifying a collection for the pensions of those great Personages, which had vndertaken to protect them; also, as Roulet.

Roolle. Seeke Roule.

Roollé: m. ée: f. Rowled vp, wrapped or folded inwards, turned round.

Ropts: m. Pot-shards.

Roquau: m. A gluttonous Rock-fish (of no certaine colour; for there be of them blacke ones, greene ones, red ones, and some of sundrie colours) which makes of grasse a neast in the sea, and therein hatches her spawne.

Roque: f. A Rocke; Fort, Castle, Citadell, Block-house, or strong Hold (built on a Rocke.)

Roquet: m. as Rochet.

Roquette: f. A little Rocke; a small Fort; also, the hearb Rocket.

Roquette des jardins. Rocket gentle, garden Rocket, Roman Rocket.

Roquette sauvage. Wild Rocket, wall Rocket.

Roquille de vin. The quarter of a French (much about our halfe) Pint.

Rosace: f. The flower of Brankursine, or Beares-breech; tearmed so by Ingrauers, &c.

Rosage. as Rosageur.

Rosageur. The shrub Oleander, Nerum, Rose-Lawrell, Rose-tree, Rose-Bay, Rose-Bay tree.

Rosagine. as Rosageur.

Rosaire. An ordinarie Limbecke for the distilling of Rose-water;

water; alſo, a Roſarie, or our Ladies Pſalter.

Roſat. Of Roſes; whence, Huile roſat; Miel roſat; &c.

Roſcignol. as Roſſignol.

Roſe: f. A Roſe; alſo, the ouglie excreſcence of the ſea, tearmed the red Nettle; alſo, a ſmall red-taild fiſh, not much vnlike a Mennow, but that it hath ſcales, and is alwayes full-rowed.

Roſe Autumnale. The white Muske Roſe.

Roſe blanche. The ordinarie white Roſe.

Roſes blanches. as Les Fleurs blanches; vnder Fleur.

Roſe de buiſſon. The brier Roſe, hedge Roſe, wild Roſe.

Roſe canine, ou de chien. The wild Roſe, or brier Roſe (of what kind ſoeuer.)

Roſe Damaſquine. The white Muske Roſe.

Roſe de Damas. The ſame; or the ſingle white Muske Roſe, or Damaske Roſe.

Roſe eſcarlatine. as Roſe incarnate.

Roſe franche. The red Roſe.

Roſe de Hierico. Roſe of Jerico, or of Jeruſalem; the Heath Roſe, our Ladies Roſe.

Roſe iaulne. The yellow Roſe.

Roſe incarnate. Our Damaske Roſe.

Roſe de Iunon. The white Lillie.

Roſe muſcate, ou muſquée. The white Muske Roſe.

Roſe de noſtre Dame. Roſe of the mount, Knights Bloome, Peonie, Pionie; alſo, as Roſe de Hierico.

Roſe d'outre mer. The garden Mallow, called Hocks, and Holyhocks.

Roſe de pienne. Peonie, Pionie, Roſe of the mount.

Roſe de Provence. The Prouince Roſe, the double Damaske Roſe.

Roſe de Provins. The ordinarie double red Roſe.

Roſe ſauvage. The wild Roſe, hedge Roſe, brier Roſe; alſo, the Eglantine, or ſweet brier Roſe.

Camphre en roſe. Naturall Camphire, or ſuch as hath not beene touched by fire.

Chapeau, ou chapel de roſes. A ſmall, ſleight, incompetent, or leſſe-then-due, portion giuen a maid to her mariage.

Droict de roſes. Looke Droict.

Pot aux roſes. A miſterie, cloſe matter; ſecret miſchiefe, priuate inconuenience, hidden knauerie.

Racine ſentant les roſes. Roſe-root, Roſewort; an hearbe.

Semer des roſes aux pourceaux. To beſtow excellent things vpon the vicious that will not, or the ignorant that cannot, make vſe of them.

La roſe en fin devient vn gratecul: Pro. The faireſt Roſe ends in a hep; griefe ſits on pleaſures higheſt ſtep.

Nulle roſe ſans eſpine: Prov. No Roſe without a prickle.

Truye aime mieux bran que roſes: Prov. Looke Bran.

Roſeau: m. A Reed, a Cane; alſo, a Raft, or Float-boat of timber.

Roſeau aromatic. Calamus Aromaticus, the aromaticall Reed.

Roſeau Cyprien. Cyprus Cane, Pole Reed.

Roſeau des eſtangs. Reed-graſſe, the Burre Reed.

Roſeau des Indes. The flowring Reed.

Roſeau odorant. as Roſeau aromatic.

Eſtanſonner le menſonge d'un roſeau. To vphold, or maintaine an vntruth with friuolous excuſes, vaine reaſons, idle arguments.

Roſée: f. Dew, the dew of Heauen.

Roſée du ſoleil. Sunne-Dew, Ros ſolis, Youthwort; an hearbe then moiſteſt, and moſt couered with dew, when the Sunne lyes hoteſt on it; In the North parts it is called Red rot (becauſe it rotteth ſheepe) and Moore-graſſe.

Tendre roſée. A young, tender, delicate laſſe.

Roſetique. Vin roſetique. The beſt kind of Gaſcon wine, growing within the territorie of Nerac, and there ſo called of it Vermillion hue.

Roſette: f. Vermillion, Cheeke-Varniſh, a bright ruddie colour; alſo, red Inke to rule bookes with; alſo, a kind of fine Copper that comes out of Hungarie in round plates; alſo, a little Roſe; alſo, the Roſe at the end of the cheeke of a bitt, next to the reynes; alſo, a little rowell of a ſpurre.

Roſette noire. Latten or Copper whereof Kettles are made; eſpecially ſuch as muſt not be hammered, but melted.

Poire de roſette. A verie tender, and delicate Peare.

Vin de roſette. Alligant.

Roſier: m. A Roſe-tree, Roſe-buſh, Roſe-brier; alſo, a Garden, Plot, Bed, or Arbour, of Roſes.

Roſier ſauvage. The wild brier, or hedge-brier.

Roſiere: f. A ſmall, yellowiſh, broad-bellied, or breame-like fiſh, euer full-rowed. Pic.

Roſillant. Dewie, bedewing, dew-dropping, dew-yeelding.

Roſin: m. ine: f. Roſie, red, ruddie, faire, fragrant, Roſe-like, of or belonging to Roſes.

Roſinant. as Roſillant.

Roſinement: m. A bedewing; a falling of dew.

Roſiner. The dew to fall; or to fall, diſtill, or drop downe as the dew; to dew, to bedew.

Roſineux: m. euſe: f. Dewie, full of dew.

Roſle. as Roule.

Roſmarin: m. Roſemarie; alſo, the hearbe Frankincenſe.

Roſmarin des iardins. Garden Roſemarie, common Roſemarie.

Roſmarin maſle. Roſemarie Frankincenſe, Libanotis Roſemarie, blacke or white Hart-root.

Roſmarin pointu. Sweet Broome, Heath, Ling.

Roſmarin ſauvage. (The red-branched) wild Roſemarie.

Donner du roſmarin. To diſmiſſe, quite put off, giue a flat anſwer (or denyall) vnto, a woer.

Roſoyant. Bedewing; alſo, of a roſie colour.

Roſoyer. To dew, bedew, wet gently, moiſten faire and ſoftly.

Vne vapeur qui roſoye. A driſling, miſling, miſtie raine; or a vapour that houers aloft, and, being not yet come to the ſubſtance of a raine, waſts it ſelfe by drizling.

Roſpe: f. A Toad.

Roſſe: m. A lade, a Tit.

Il n'eſt ſi bon cheval qui n'en deviendroit roſſe. It would anger a Saint, or creſt-fall the beſt man liuing, to be ſo vſed.

Oncques bon cheval ne devint roſſe: Prov. Looke Cheval.

Roſſe: f. The Roche-fiſh; alſo, a ſmall red-tayld lake-fiſh, not much vnlike a Mennow; alſo, as Poule de mer.

Roſſelet. as Roſelet.

Roſſette: f. as Marquote; alſo, a kind of ſmall Dogfiſh called the ſea-Cat.

Roſſignol: m. A Nightingale; alſo, a picklocke.

Roſſignol d'Arcadie. An Aſſe.

Roſ-

Roſſignols de marais. So doe they in ſome places tearme, and cry vp and downe the ſtreets, flayed Frogs.
Roſſignol de muraille. A Starke, a Red-tayle.
Roſſignol de riviere. The riuer Nightingale; or, a kind of Kings-fiſher that ſings verie ſweetly.
Roſſignoler. To record, or ſing, like a Nightingale.
Roſſignoleſque: com. Nightingale-like, harmonious, melodious; doleſull, mourneſull.
Roſſignolet: m. A young, or little, Nightingale.
Roſt: m. Roſte, roſt-meat.
Roſt de tiſſerand. as Roul; alſo, roſted Apples.
Qui a mangé le roſt ronge l'os. When as the roſt-meat is cleane gone, a man muſt faſt or gnaw the bone.
Roſtedom: m. One that requires, or takes, backe the gift which he had beſtowed.
Roſti: m. Roſt-meat; Looke Roſty.
Roſti ſanglant. Is made by dredging with Hares bloud dryed vnto powder.
Roſti: m. ie: f. Roſted; toſted; broyled.
Oeil roſti. A vehement inflamation of the eye, a Carbuncle in the eye.
Roſtie: f. A toaſt.
Roſtir. To roſt; alſo, to broyle; alſo, to toaſt.
Roſtiſſerie: f. Roſt, roſt-meat; alſo, a kitchin, cookerie, or Cookes ſhop, wherein meat is vſually roſted.
Roſtiſſeur: m. A roſter of meat; alſo, a Cooke that ſells, or dreſſes, none but roſt-meat.
Roſtiſſiere: f. A roſting Cookes wife.
Roſty: m. Roſt, roſt-meat.
S'endormir ſur le roſty. Looke vnder Endormir.
Rot: m. A belch.
Rotateurs: m. Two muſcles, a greater and a leſſe, which turne about the eye.
Rote: f. A great high way in a Forreſt; alſo, a tree growing therein.
Roteur: m. A Pond to water Flax, or Hempe, in.
Rotine. Par rotine. By rote.
Rotiſſerie: f. as Roſtiſſerie.
Rotiſſeur. as Roſtiſſeur.
Rotiſſoir: m. A Cobiron, or little Racke.
Rotondité: f. Rotunditie, roundneſſe.
Rotte: f. A With, or the band of a Faggot, &c (about Blois.)
Rotte de cire. Fiue pound (weight or quantitie) of Wax.
Rottée de bois. as Corde de bois; or as much wood as will be contained therein.
Rottement: m. A belching, or breaking of wind.
Rotter. To belch, or breake wind vpwards.
Rotteur: m. An Officer that meaſures les Rottées de bois indifferently for the buyer and ſeller.
Rottier: m. as Routier.
Rottine: f. An vſuall courſe, beaten path, ordinarie way.
Rotule du genouil. The ball, or whirlebone of the knee.
Roture: f. Yeomanrie; the eſtate, condition, or calling of ſuch as are not of gentle bloud; alſo, ſocage, or ſuch an ignoble tenure; alſo, the land thats held thereby.
Harnas de roture. The Plough.
Heritages en roture. Land held in ſocage; or by Cens, rent, or other ignoble ſeruices.
Roturier: m. A Yeoman, or Plebeyan; a Ploughman, a Husbandman; any lay man that is no Gentleman.
Roturier: m. ere: f. Yeomanlie, Plebeyan, ignoble, vnnoble, baſe, meane.
Fief roturier. Which is held by rent, or Cens, or any other ignoble ſeruice.
Rente roturiere. A bare rent charge, or rent ſecke; alſo, ſuch a rent as iſſues out of an inheritance which is no fief.
Roturierement. Baſely, meanely, ignobly, clowniſhly, Plebeyan-like.
Roüable. as Rable; alſo, an Engine wherewith fiſh is (forbidden to be) caught.
Roüage: m. Wheelage, wheeles, wheeleworke; the furniture of wheeles; prouiſion of wheeles.
Roüage d'artillerie. The carriage of Artillerie.
Droict de roüage. Wheelage; Looke Droict.
Roüaille. A deuiſe, or engine wherewith fiſh is caught.
Roüaiſons: m. Rogations, Gang-dayes.
Roüant: m. ante: f. Wheeling, turning round about; alſo, light, flitting, vnſteadie; ſoone paſſing away.
Roüart: m. A Marſhall, or Prouoſt Marſhall; an officer that breakes, or ſees broken, malefactors on the Wheele; alſo, the great and ſtrong-boned fiſh Rota, or the Wheele fiſh.
Rouce. as Ronce.
Rouche: f. A ruſh.
Roucherole: f. The riuer Nightingale; or a kind of Kings-fiſher that ſings verie ſweetly.
Rouchet. as Rougette.
Roucin. as Rouſſin.
Roucoler. To croo like a Doue, or Queeſt.
Roucoulement: m. The crooing of Doues.
Roucouler. To croo.
Rouctement: m. A belching.
Rouë: f. A wheele; alſo, the breaking of all the ioints on a wheele.
Rouë de compte. A Notch-wheele in a Clocke.
Rouë de mer. The ſea-wheele; a huge, round, and monſtrous ſea-fiſh.
Rouë de rencontre. A Flea-wheele, or the balance-wheele of a Clocke.
Faire la rouë. To wheele, goe compaſſe, turne round, ſwing or twirle about; (A Peacocke fait la rouë, when in the height of his pride he couers himſelfe all ouer with his tayle.)
La maiſtreſſe rouë qui tourne le moulin. That which does all in all.
Marcher à quatre roües. Cela marche &c. That buſineſſe goes roundly, or faſt, on.
Mettre le foin en rouë; viz. in wind-baulkes, or wind-rowes.
Pouſſer à la rouë. To ſet forward by all the meanes he can, to aſſiſt with might and maine.
La pire rouë du chariot eſt celle qui crie le plus fort: Prov. No man's in companie ſo lowd as he that can doe leaſt.
Roüé: m. ée: f. Broken, or executed, vpon the Wheele; alſo, wheeled, whurled, or ſwung, about; alſo, dapled as a horſe.
Rouëlle: f. A little flat ring, or wheele of plate, or yron, in horſes Bitts; alſo, a round plate of armour for defence of the arme-hole when the arme is lift vp; and generally, any ſmall hoope, circle, ring, or round thing, thats moueable in the place which it holds.
Rouëlle du genouil. The ball, or whirlebone of the knee.
Rouëlle d'oignon. A ſhiue of an Onyon.
Rouëlle de veau. The broad end of a leg of Veale, cut round, and diuided from the knuckle.
Rouëment: m. A wheeling, or turning round.
Rouën. Cheval rouën. A roane horſe.

Rouër:

Rouër: m. Vn rouër. A wheeling, a compaſſing, a round turning, a ſwinging about.

Rouër. To wheele, turne round, ſwing about, goe compaſſe, draw after him turning; alſo, to breake vpon the wheele.

Rouër ſur les miſeres & calamitez. To turne vpon the wheele of aduerſe fortune.

Rouëſſe: f. The name of a certaine great Peare.

Rouët: m. A ſpinning wheele; any little wheele; alſo, a Weauers Cloth-beame; alſo, the locke of an Harquebuſe, &c.

Rouët dentelé. The cog-wheele of a Mill.

Mettre au rouët. To grauell, plunge, lay ſore to, put to his laſt ſhifts; (from a Hare, which being ſo farre ſpent that ſhe can runne no more end-wayes, but is faine to wheele about the dogs, they ſay of her, Le lievre eſt mis au rouët.)

Rouëter. To turne a (ſpinning) wheele.

Rouëtte: f. A little wheele.

Rouge d'avoine. A certaine Peare whereof excellent Perrie is made.

Rouge: com. Red, vermillion, bloud-red.

Rouge bourſe. A Robin-red-breaſt.

Rouge grenat; ou grenat rouge. as vnder Grenat.

Beſtes rouges. Any kind of Deere, or harmeleſſe game.

Gorge rouge. A Robin-red-breaſt.

Monnoye rouge. Golden coyne.

Rouge comme vn Cherubin. Hauing a Fierie facies.

Le plus rouges y ſont pris. The craftieſt, or cunningeſt of them are intrapped there.

Rouge viſage, & groſſe pance ne ſont ſignes de penitence: Prov. A ſwagging bellie and a drunken face, are not the ſignes of a repentant grace.

Rougeaſtre: com. Reddiſh, ruddie, ſomewhat red.

Rouge-bourſe. as Rouge-gorge.

Rouge-brun: m. A darke red which Painters lay for a ground to their Vermillion.

Rouge-clair: m. An excellent Enammell (made of Gold, Quick-ſiluer, and the Spirit of Copper) which will not ſettle on any thing but Gold.

Rouge-gorge. The ſmall bird called a Robin-red-breaſt.

Rougelet: m. The name of an Apple.

Rougement. Redly.

Rougeolle: f. The Meazles.

Rouget: m. A Rochet fiſh; alſo, a great round Apple that yeelds excellent Cyder.

Rouget barbé. The ſore Mullet.

Rougette: f. The Red-fiſh; verie like a Gurnard, and by ſome held to be the ſame.

Rougeur: f. Redneſſe.

Rougir. To bluſh, to grow red.

Rougiſſant. Bluſhing, waxing red.

Rougnette. Looke Rongnette.

Rouhard: m. arde: f. Crooing, crying, mourning, like a Woodculuer, or Turtledoue.

Rouhaſtre: m. A ſcuffling, incounter, conflict, contention, bickering, debate.

Rouille: f. Ruſt, ruſtineſſe.

Rouillé: m. ée: f. Ruſtie, full of ruſt.

Plus rouillé que la claveure d'un vieil charnier. See Claveure.

Rouiller. To pummell, or beat about the eares. (v.m.)

Se Rouiller. To ruſt.

Rouillons: m. Chichlings, pettie Fitches, or Vetches.

Rouillure: f. Ruſtineſſe.

Rouïr du chanure. To ſteepe or water Hempe.

Rouïſſe: f. The name of a great Peare.

Rouïſſoir: m. A Pond, or Poole to water Flax, or Hempe in.

Roul: m. The ſtay of a Weauers Loome, hauing teeth of Reed, &c, like a combe.

Roulant: m. ante: f. Rowling, foulding vp into a rowle, turning round.

Chardon roulant. The hundred-headed Thiſtle, field Eringus, Leuant ſea-Holme, champion ſea-Hollie.

Roule: m. A Rowle; a Liſt, Inuentorie, Catalogue, Bill, Scrowle, Regiſter, of Names, or of Cauſes; alſo, a rowling, foulding, turning, rounding; alſo, mutabilitie, vnſteadineſſe, continuall motion.

Tour du roule. The catalogue of cauſes to be heard that day, deliuered to the Iudges at their ſitting downe in Court.

A tour de roule. In courſe, in order, by turnes, one after another.

Gaigner le tour du roule. Which an aduocate is ſaid to doe, when he procures the hearing of a Cauſe which he is towards (and which is called on in courſe) to be put off vnto a further day.

Iouër ſon roule. To play his part.

Roule: f. The high way for Carts, and Waggons; the Rut, or ſtreet, way.

Rouleau: m. A Roll of Paper, or of Parchment; alſo, the round pinne, ſtritchell, or ſtrickle vſed in the meaſuring of Corne; and, more generally, any rolling pinne; alſo, the cloth tearmed Cotton; or a courſe woollen Stuffe of the making of Cottons.

Rouleaux. Long and round Leauers whereon Ships are gotten into a Docke, and launched into the water againe; alſo (in Architecture) Rolls, Cartridges, or Cartouſes.

Roulement: m. A rowling, turning, foulding vp or inwards; a rowling, or a running, along.

Rouler. To rowle, turne round, fould vp, wrap inwards; alſo, to rowle along; whence;

Roule boule. Runne Bowle; and hence alſo;

Il fait beau rouler en eſté. Tis good trauelling by Coach, or driuing of a Cart, in Summer.

Roulet: m. A Liſt, Roll, Inuentorie, Catalogue, Scrowle; alſo, a ſet ſpeech.

Baſtir, (ou faire) à quelqu'un ſon roulet. To prompt, appoint, inſtruct, or teach one, what he ſhall ſpeake, or doe.

Qui ſçait bien ſon roulet. That knowes his liripoope, thats throughly prouided to ſpeake.

Roulier: m. A Carter, Carrier, Wayne-man, Waggonman, that carries other mens things from place to place; generally, any one that guides, driues, or goes with, a Cart, Waggon, &c; alſo, a Hogs-ſtye.

Roulier: m. ere: f. Whence, Cheval roulier. A ſtrong Cart-horſe, a luſtie tugging Jade.

Roulis: m. Great round ſtakes, or piles.

Roulle, & Roulleau. as Roule & Rouleau.

Rouller. as Rouler; alſo, to driue, or guide a Cart, Waggon, Wayne, &c.

Roullis. Looke Roulis.

Roumarin. Roſemarie.

Roupeau: m. A little Heron which haunteth rockes, and hills, and hath a peake of feathers falling backwards on the hinder part of his head.

Roupie: f. An Jſicle; or (more properly) the ſnot, ſniuell, or waterie drop that hangs at the noſe end in cold weather; alſo, a Robin-red-breaſt.

Coffin

Coffin à roupies. A womans Maske.

Roupieux: m. euſe: f. Snottie, ſniuellie, whoſe noſe is euer dropping.

Il fut bien roupieux. He was mightily aſhamed, or much deceiued.

Roupille: f. A Caßocke.

Rouppeau. as Roupeau.

Roupt: m. pte: f. Broken, burſt in peeces.

Roupte: f. Looke Route.

Rovre: m. The moſt hard, moſt ſtrong, and moſt branchie kind of Oke; alſo, the great Gall-tree; (a kind thereof.)

Rous: m. Rouſſe: f. Looke Roux.

Rouſeau: m. A flower which flyes away with the wind like the downe of a thiſtle; alſo, the hearbe Water-torch, Cats-taile, red Mace, March Peſtill, Douch downe.

Poire de rouſeau. A verie tender and delicate Peare good to make Perrie of.

Rouſée: f. as Roſée.

Rouſoyer. To bedew; to wet gently.

Rouſſable: m. The cloſe roome wherein Herrings are ſmoaked vntill they be red; Looke Saurir.

Rouſſaſtre: com. Reddiſh, or betweene red and yellow.

Rouſſau: m. The name of a Fig.

Rouſſe: f. A red-haired, or freckled, woman.

Rouſſeau: m. A freckled, and red-haired, man; alſo, the Bittor; or a fowle thats leſſe then a Heron, but otherwiſe reſembles her; alſo, the Crabfiſh tearmed a Pungar; (Normand.) alſo, a verie tender, and delicate Peare.

Rouſſelet: m. The name of a delicate ſmall Peare.

Rouſſelet: m. ette: f. Reddiſh, ruddie, ſomewhat red.

Rouſſer. To groane, or complaine, like a grunting woman, or ouerworne lade.

Rouſſerole: f. The Riuer Nightingale; a kind of Kingsfiſher.

Rouſſet: m. A little ruddie Dog-fiſh; alſo, red wheat, Duck-bill wheat, Normandie wheat.

Rouſſet: m. ette: f. Ruſſet, browne, ruddie, inclining to a darke red.

Pain rouſſet. Cheat or booted bread; houſehold bread, made of Wheat and Rye mingled.

Rouſſette: f. A ruſſetin Apple; alſo, a little Dog-fiſh, whoſe ruddie skinne is powdered all ouer with blacke ſpots; alſo, a certaine ruddie, or dunne-red bird, no bigger then a Titmouſe.

Rouſſeurs. Little, red, wan, or blackiſh pimples or ſpots in the face, &c; freckles, or a kind thereof.

Rouſſin: m. A Curtall, or ſtrong German horſe.

Rouſſin de ſervice. A horſe of Armes, or for the warre; a good ſtrong horſe fit to ſerue on, due to a Lo. feodal from euerie vaſſall (that holds tenne pounds a yeare, or vpwards) once during his life; or in lieu thereof (if there be no certaine rate vſed, or agreed on) the firſt part of a yeares Reuenue: The rate of this Rouſſin is 60 ſolz Tourn.

Homme mutin, bruſque rouſſin, flaſcon de vin, prennent toſt fin: Pro. Looke Homme.

Qui a florin, Latin, & rouſſin, par tout il trouve le chemin: Prov. He thats well lyned, well ſpoken, and well mounted, ſhall neuer be out of his way.

Rouſſiner. To whinnie after Mares, like a rammiſh, or lecherous Jade; alſo, to leape a Mare.

Rouſſir. To wax red.

Rouſſoyer. To wax ruddie, grow reddiſh.

Rouſte de bois. A With; or, as Riorte.

Route: f. A belch, or belching; alſo, a rowt, ouerthrow, deſeature, diſtomfiture; the breaking of a troope, or ſquadron, of men; alſo, a rutt, way, path, ſtreet, courſe, paſſage; trace, tract, or footing; alſo, a rowt, heard, flocke, troope, companie, multitude of men, or beaſts; alſo, a glade in a wood; or, as Rote.

Routes. The footing of rauenous, or biting beaſts, ſuch as the Wolfe, Bore, Fox, Otter, &c.

La route d'une branche. The broken peece of a bough; the truncheon of a broken bough.

Chaſcun ſa route. Euerie one in his courſe, place, order, when his turne or time comes.

Frapper à la route. To rooſe a Deere with a lyme hound.

Il n'y a route que de vieux regnards: Prov. Looke Regnard.

Router. To belch, or breake wind vpwards.

Routier: m. A Ruttier; a directorie for the knowledge, or finding out of courſes, whither by ſea or land; alſo, an old traueller, one that by much trotting vp and downe is growne acquainted with moſt wayes; and hence, an old beaten ſouldior; one whom a long practiſe hath made of great experience in, or abſolute maiſter of, his profeſſion; and (in euill part) an old craftie Fox, notable beguiler, ordinarie deceiuer, ſubtill knaue; alſo, a Purſe-taker, or a Robber by the high way ſide.

Routine. Looke Rotine, or Rottine.

Routte: f. as Route; alſo, a kind of tumbling or vaulting tricke.

Routtier. as Routier.

Rouſture. Looke Roture.

Routures d'eauës. Bracks, breaches, pathes, wayes made, or worne out, in rocks by a continuall running, or beating of waters.

Rouveau. Pomme de rou. The Ruddocke, Redding, Summer Goulding.

Rouvieres. The name of a kind of Oliues.

Rouvraye: f. A Forreſt, Wood, Groue, or tuft, of ſtrong Okes, or great Gall-trees.

Rouvre. as Rovre.

Rouvroy. as Rouvraye.

Roux: m. Rouſſe: f. Reddiſh, ruddie, red-Deere colour, a ruddie or ſad yellow, Lyon tawnie.

Beſtes rouſſes. All kind of Deere, or harmeleſſe game.

Rouy: m. ye: f. Ouerſodden, and wanting liquor in ſeething; alſo, ſteeped or ſoked in water, as Hempe.

Roy: m. A King; alſo, the chiefe, or head man in a companie.

Les Roys. The Epiphanie, or Twelfth day in Chriſtmas.

Roy d'armes. A principall Herald, a King of Armes.

Roy de la Baſoche. Looke Baſoche.

Le Roy Bertault. A Wrenne.

Roy de cailles. A Rayle; or the captaine, and leader of Quayles.

Roy des merciers. An officer deputed heretofore by the Lord high Chamberlaine of France to view, or looke vnto, the wares, weights, and meaſures of thoſe Pedlers, or Shop-keepers that followed the Court: but now the King himſelfe appoints him, yet by the title of Viſiteur, hauing ſuppreſſed this, by Edict in the yeare 1597.

Roy des oyſeaux. The Wrenne.

Roy des ribaulds. Looke Ribauld.

L'Aulne du roy. The Kings Ell; containes three foot, ſeuen ynches, and eight lines.

Couleur de roy. A title in old time due onely vnto

Pur-

Purple, though vſurped at this day by a kind of bright Tawnie, which we alſo tearme de roy colour; and yet ſome hold, that this comes neerer the true Purple of the Ancients then the moderne one; (Howſoeuer, the Violet is held the French Kings proper colour.)

La Court du Roy Petaud. See Petaud.

La feſte des roys. as Les Roys.

Meſure de roy. The Kings meaſure; which in ſurueying allowes 22 feet to the Perche (ſayes the Author of La maiſon Ruſtique;) but that proportion is either out of date, or reſtrained vnto ſome few places, the more common one being of no more then 20.

Monnoye de roy. The Kings money; coyne bearing the French Kings ſtampe, or made within his dominions.

Pied du roy. The ordinarie twelue-ynch foot; a foot according to the Standard.

Toiſe de roy. Is three moderate paces.

Bailler mornifle à la levre du roy; &, Bailler ſur le nez du roy. To make falſe money, to counterfeit the Kings coyne.

Sans eſpargner ny roy, ny roc. Equally rigorous, hard, or ſeuere, vnto all.

Iouër au roy deſpouillé. Chaſcun iouë au roy deſpouillé. Where the hedge is loweſt euerie one leapes ouer, when a man is falling euerie one helpes him on; a Prince once beaten, growne poore, or otherwiſe declining, happie is he that can pull a fleece from him, euerie one indeauors by pluming of him to feather their owne neaſts.

Aujourd'huy roy demain de rien: Pro. Now a King ere long nothing.

Boy vin en roy: Pro. viz. Moderately.

Chaſcun eſt roy en ſa maiſon: Prov. Euerie one is a King in his owne houſe.

De meſchant homme bon roy: Prov. Looke Meſchant.

Il ne parle pas au roy qui veut: Pro. Not euerie one that would, may ſpeake to Kings.

Que veut le roy ce veut la loy: Prov. The King and Law haue but one will and pleaſure; the Law is wholly gouerned by the King; euen as he will ſo is it interpreted, ſo vnderſtood.

Qui mange l'oye du roy il en chie la plume cent ans apres: Prov. He that eateth a Gooſe of the Kings doth ſpue vp her feathers a hundred yeares after; (Applyable to vntrue Exchequer men; and vnto any purloyners of his Treaſure, concealers of his Titles, withholders of his Rights.)

Qui ſert le roy il a bon maiſtre: Pro. He that ſerues the King ſerues a good Maiſter; or, he needs none elſe, that hath a King, to Maiſter.

Royal: m. An old coyne of gold, worth about 68 ſolz.

Royal de France. Another of a later ſtampe, worth 55 ſolz Tourn.

Royal: m. ale: f. Royall, regall, kinglie, princelie, maieſtically.

Cas royaux. Looke vnder Cas.

Chemin royal. The Kings high way; which, by the cuſtomes of Amiens and Boullenois, is to be 60 foot broad; and by thoſe of Vallois, but 30 in erable, and 40 in wooddie grounds.

Droicts royaux. Looke vnder Droict.

Lettres royaux. Letters Patents.

Milan royal. The ordinarie Puttock, or Glead.

Noix royale. A Wallnut.

Pied royal. A foot according to the Standard; the ordinarie twelue-ynch foot.

Royalement. Royally, kingly, princely, maieſtically.

Royaliſte: com. Taking the Kings part, ſiding with the King.

Royaulme: m. A Realme, a Kingdome.

Royaulme de Suerie. Cornelius his Tub; or, the ſweating kingdome, whereof the Pockie are your onely ſubiects.

Le royaulme des Taupes. The ground, the earth.

Royaulté: f. Royaltie, kinglineſſe, maieſtie, princelineſſe.

Royaume. as Royaulme.

Roye: f. A ray, line, ſtreake, furrow, &c; as Raye.

Royer. To raze, blot out, efface, deface.

Royeu: m. The Meazles.

Royne: f. A Queene.

La Ceincture de la royne. iij d vpon a Muid, and iij d vpon a Queuë, of all Wines (that were not gotten in the owners grounds) leuied within Paris, euerie third yeare, to the Queenes vſe.

Roynette: f. A little, or poore, Queene; alſo, Maidsweet, Meddow-ſweet, Queene of the Meddowes; (an hearbe.)

Roytelet: m. A little, or poore, King; alſo, a Wrenne; alſo, a thing, like Tynne, found often in Antimonie, and keeping it, moulten, from being tranſparent.

Royzelet: m. A Ginne, or deuiſe to catch Woodcocks.

Rozat. Of Roſes.

Aromatic rozat. Looke Aromatic.

Rozelet: m. A verie ſmall, and beautifull bird, which vſeth to ſing verie much, and in ſinging, to flye vp ſuddainely into the aire, and as ſuddainely downe againe, into the reeds, or willowes, among which he liues.

Rozereaux: m. A kind of Martins, whoſe skinnes are of much requeſt.

Ru: m. A brooke, ſmall ſtreame, or gullet of water; alſo, a gutter in the middle of a ſtreet; alſo, a caſt, hurle, throw, ſwindge.

Il entend le ru du baſton. He is a cunning fencer, old-beaten ſouldior, of much experience in the world.

Ruade: f. A horſes kicking, winſing, yerking, ſtriking, flinging, flying out with the heeles.

Ruade ſeiche. A dry bob, ieaſt, or nip; a ſtroke that cruſhes, though it cut not.

Rubarge. as Roberge.

Rubefié: m. ée: f. Redned, made red.

Rubeline: f. A Robin-red-breaſt.

Ruben: m. Ribbon; alſo, a ribbon; whence;

Ruben de teſte. A fillet, head-band, haire-lace of ribbon.

Rubenner. To decke, trimme, tye, ſet, or lace with ribbon.

Rubennier: m. A ribbon-maker, head-band maker.

Rubette: f. A greene earth-Frog, or red Toad; very full of poyſon, and of great vſe among witches.

Rubi. as Paſſefleur; alſo, as Rubis.

Rubicans: m. The white haires that be ſcattered here and there vpon the coats of ſome coloured horſes.

Rubicon: m. The name of a Riuer in Italie, ouer which Iulius Cæſar paſſed in the beginning of his Expedition againſt Pompey; whence;

Franchir, ou paſſer le Rubicon. To vndertake, or enter into, a great, and dangerous exploit.

Rubicunde: com. Verie red, verie ruddie, vermillion, bloud-red.

Rubie maieur, ou des taincturiers. The hearb Madder, red Madder.

Rubie mineur. Clauer, Loue-man, Gooſe-ſhare, Gooſe-graſſe.

Ru-

Rubienne: f. The Red-tayle, or Starke; a ſmall bird.

Rubis: m. A Rubie.

Rubis balay. A Rubie ballais; a kind of pale, or peach-coloured, Rubie.

Ruble: m. An Italian weight of about 600 pound, after 12 ounces to the pound.

Rublitelle: f. The halfe of a Ruble.

Rubrication: f. A redneſſe, or a ruddineſſe; alſo, a making, or waxing red.

Rubriche. Rudle, oaker, red lead, red chaulke, red marking ſtone.

Rubriché: m. ée: f. Rubified, made or growne red; alſo, marked with rudle, red oaker, &c; and written with, or (as a Rubricke) printed in, red Inke; whence;

Son Kalendrier eſt rubriché. Said of a woman that hath her monthlie diſeaſe.

Rubrificatif: m. A Rubrificatiue; a plaiſter of ſo ſtrong, or ſtrongly-drawing ſimples, that it vlcerates, or (at leaſt) makes red, the place it is applyed vnto.

Rubrique: f. A Rubricke; a ſpeciall title or ſentence of the Law written, or printed, in red.

Rubrique Sinopique. Sinopian red earth; a heauie, maſſiue, liuer-coloured, and aſtringent earth, or minerall, which put into water ſoone moulders, and falls into peeces: This may verie well be the ordinarie Bole-armenie that is, at this day, vſed by manie Surgeons in the ſtaunching of bloud, &c, but is not the true (Orientall) one, redder then it, and not ſo eaſily diſſolued by water as it.

Ce nous ſera vne rubrique de droict. This ſhall be an abſolute Law vnto vs; according thereto will we gouerne our ſelues.

Ruche: f. A Bee-hiue; alſo, an earthen pot, &c, for birds to breed in.

Ruchée: f. An Hiue-full.

Rucher. To hiue, make hiues, gather honey into hiues.

Ruchette: f. A little hiue.

Ruchot: m. (A faſhion of) a cloke tyed cloſe about the necke, and thence falling downe round about the bodie.

Rudache. as Rondace.

Rude: com. Rude, ruſticall, clowniſh, booriſh, hoblike, lumpiſh, loblike; blunt, blockiſh, brutiſh, barbarous, vnmannerlie, vnciuill, ignorant, home-bred, vntaught; alſo, curſt, ſoure, ſurlie, churliſh, froward, rigorous, pittileſſe, vntractable, vngentle, auſtere; alſo, baſe, plaine, ſimple, homelie, bungarlie; alſo, rough, harſh, knottie, rugged, vnſmooth, vnpoliſhed, ill-planed.

Temps rude. A ſtormie, tempeſtuous, or turbulent ſeaſon.

A rude chien dur lien: Prov. Curſt vſage fits a churliſh youth; or, ſurlie humors muſt be repreſſed by ſoure vſage.

Rudement. Rudely, clowniſhly, vnciuilly, churliſhly; ſourely, ſurlily, frowardly, pittileſly, rigorouſly; baſely, plainely, ſimply; roughly, ruggedly, harſhly, bunglarlike.

Rudenté: m. ée: f. Wreathed like a Cable.

Rudenture: f. A wreath, wreathing, wreathed worke; a border thats wreathed, or of the forme of a Cable.

Rudepeau: m. A verie long browne-tawnie Adder, full of ſcales, and ſtinking moſt abhominably.

Rudeſſe: f. Rudeneſſe, hardneſſe, harſhneſſe, bluntneſſe, lumpiſhneſſe, churliſhneſſe, inciuilitie, ſurlineſſe; roughneſſe, curſtneſſe, frowardneſſe, rigor, vntractableneſſe, auſteritie, ſoureneſſe.

Rudeſſe de paroles. Rude ſpeech, hard words, harſh tearmes, rough language.

Rudovement: m. A chiding, rating, checking, reproaching, reprouing.

Rudoyer. To chide, rate, reproach, reproue, checke, tax, take vp, giue ill words to, vſe verie hardly in words.

Rue: f. Rue, Hearbe Grace.

Rue de chevre. Italian Fitch, Goats Rue.

Rue de muraille. Wall Rue, Rue-Maiden haire, white Maiden haire.

Rue ſauvage. Wild Rue; (whereof there be diuers kinds) more vehement in ſmell, and violent in operation, then garden Rue.

Rue vineuſe. Some hold to be the hearbe called Oke of Ieruſalem.

Rue: f. A ſtreet, in a Towne; alſo, a cauſey, or high way (called, in diuers parts of England, a ſtreet, and the ſtreet way:) alſo, a Taylors hell, or the place whereinto he caſts all his ſhreds.

Batre les rues. To iet, reuell, or ſwagger vp and downe the ſtreets in the night.

Rué: m. ée: f. Beaten or caſt down, ruined, ouerthrowne; caſt, hurled, flung.

Ruelle: f. A little ſtreet, a lane.

La ruelle du lict. The ſpace betweene the bed and the wall.

Ruer. To ruſh, flye, runne, breake violently in, or vpon; alſo, to caſt, hurle, fling, throw; alſo, to ouerthrow, ſubuert, batter, beat or caſt downe.

Ruer vn coup d' eſtoc à. To make a thruſt, or dart a Rapier, at.

Ruer coups ſur. To beat extreamely, to poure blowes vpon.

Ruer en cuiſine. Il rue tresbien en cuiſine. He is a good trencher-man, he falls to his victuals eagarly.

Ruer des pieds. To kicke, winſe, yerke, ſtrike, fling, flye out with the heeles.

Encores n'a pas failli qui a à ruer: Pro. He hath not faild thats yet to fling; or, he thats to fling hath not yet failed.

On ne ſçait qui mord ne qui rue: Prov. One knowes not what may happen, who may hurt him, what miſchiefe may in time betide him.

Ruette: f. A lane, a little ſtreet.

Rueur: m. A kicker, ſtriker, winſer; a thrower, an ouerthrower.

Ruffage: com. Curriſh, dogged, harſh, churliſh.

Ruffien: m. A Bawde, a Pandar.

Ruffienner. To ruffianize, Pandarize, it; make or ſet lecherous matches, play the Pandar.

Ruffiennerie: f. Ruffianiſme, Pandariſme, Bawderie.

Rufien, Rufienner, & Rufiennerie. Looke Ruffien, Ruffienner, & Ruffiennerie.

Rufiſque: m. as Ruffien.

Rugiment: m. A roaring, or bellowing.

Rugine: f. The Inſtrument wherewith a Surgeon ſcaleth bones.

Ruginer vn os. To ſcale (or ſcrape) a bone.

Rugir. To roare, or to bellow.

Rugiſſant: m. ante: f. Roaring, bellowing.

Rugiſſement. as Rugiment.

Rugiſſeur: m. A roarer, a bellower.

Rugoſité: f. Ruggedneſſe, wrinkledneſſe, roughneſſe; a crumpling, wrimpling, ſtirrowing, harſhneſſe to the feeling.

Rugueux: m. euſe: f. Rugged, wrinkled, wrimpled, crumpled, riuelled, rough, harſh to be felt.

Ruille; &, Plomb à ruille. A Maſons plumb-rule, or plumb-line.

Ruin: m. The grunting of a Hog.

Ruine: f. Ruine, wracke, waſt, hauocke, ſpoile; ſubuerſion, deſolation, ouerthrow, vndoing, deſtruction.

Battre vne ville en ruine. To ſhoot at the houſes thereof, to batter or breake them downe with great ſhot.

Ruiné: m. ée: f. Ruined, wracked, hauocked, ſpoyled; ſubuerted, ouerthrowne, vtterly decayed, vndone.

Ruinement: m. A ruining, wracking, ſpoyling; ſubuerting, ouerthrowing, vndoing.

Ruiner. To ruine, wracke, waſt, hauocke, ſpoyle; ſubuert, ouerthrow, vndoe, deſtroy.

Ruineur: m. A ruiner, wracker, ſpoyler, ſubuerter, ouerthrower, deſtroyer, vndoer.

Ruineux: m. euſe: f. Ruinous, falling, declining, ouer-aged, in decay.

Ruir. To rore, or to royne, like a Lyon; alſo, as Rouïr.

Ruiſſeau: m. A brooke, ſmall ſtreame, gullet, current of water.

Les petis ruiſſeaux font les grandes rivieres: Pro. From little ſtreames great riuers haue their ſwellings.

Ruiſſeler. To ſtreame, runne, trickle, or glide along, like a brooke.

Ruiſſelet: m. A ſmall brooke or gullet; a reane, or gutter of running water.

Ruiſſement: m. A roaring, or Lion-like royning; alſo, a ſteeping or watering of Hempe, &c.

Ruit: m. The rut of Deere, or Bores; their luſt; and the ſeaſon wherein they ingender; alſo, a heard of female Deere followed by the male in that ſeaſon.

Ruité: m. ée: f. whence, Venaiſon ruitée. Thats killed, or gotten, in rut-time.

Rum: m. The hole, or hold of a ſhip; alſo, as Rumb.

Rumatique: com. Rhewmaticke; troubled with a Rhewme.

Rumb: m. A roombe, or point of the Compaße; a line drawne directly from wind to wind in a Compaſſe, Trauers-boord, or Sea-card.

Voguer de rumb en rumb. To ſayle by trauers.

Voguer par divers rumbs. Vpon diuers boords, or changes of winds.

Rume: f. A Rhewme, Catarrhe; Poſe, Murre.

Rumeur: f. A rumor, noiſe, bruit, fame, report.

Ruminé: m. ée: f. Ruminated; reuolued, conſidered, pondered, weighed, examined in the mind.

Ruminement: m. A ruminating, or chawing of the cud; alſo, a deliberating or pawſing on.

Ruminer. To ruminate, or chaw the cud; alſo, to ponder, weigh, examine, conſider or thinke of, deliberate or pawſe on, reuolue in the mind.

Rumineur: m. A ruminator; one that conſiders or thinkes of, deliberates or pawſes on, a matter.

Runge: m. The chewing of the cud; or, as Ronge.

Rupricam. A bay horſe.

Ruption: f. A ruption, eruption, burſting, breaking.

Ruptoire: m. A rupterie; a corroſiue, or potentiall cauter.

Rupture: f. A rupture, brake, breach, burſting, breaking.

Ruque. The name of an Apple that yeelds an excellent Cyder.

Rural: m. ale: f. Rurall, ruſticall, clowniſh, countrey-like.

Fief rural. An ignoble or baſe fief; which hath neither moated houſe, nor any other marke of antiquitie, or gentrie belonging to it.

Ruſcher. Looke Rucher.

Ruſe: f. A ſleight, wile, ſtratageme, craftie tricke, ſubtill part, cunning pranke, ſhifting deuiſe.

Ruſé. Craftie, wylie, ſubtill, cunning, ſlye, ſhifting, deceitfull, falſe, full of tricks.

Homme ruſé tard abuſé: Pro. The ſubtill are not eaſily deceiued.

Les plus ruſez ſont les premiers prins: Pro. He that ſeekes others to beguile, is ouertaken in his wile.

Ruſéement. Craftily, cunningly, ſubtilly, ſhiftingly, ſlyly, deceitfully, falſely.

Ruſer. To beguile, deceiue, ſhift, vſe tricks, deale cunningly, proceed by ſleights.

Ruſtaude: f. A churliſh, rude, or vnmannerlie baggage.

Ruſtauderie. as Ruſticité.

Ruſtault: m. A clowne, boore, churle, hob, hinde, ſwayne, lobcocke, rude or vnmannerlie lozell.

Ruſterie: f. as Ruſtrerie.

Ruſtication: f. Husbandrie, countrey buſineſſe, rurall worke; alſo, a dwelling in the countrey.

Ruſticité: f. Ruſticitie, rudeneſſe, clowniſhneſſe, inciuilitie, churliſhneſſe; bomelineſſe, plainneße, ignorance, or ignorant baſhfullneſſe.

Ruſtique: com. Ruſticall, rude, booriſh, clowniſh, hoblike, lumpiſh, lowtiſh, vnciuill, vnmannerlie, home-bred, homelie, fillie, ignorant.

Ruſtique. A la ruſt. as Ruſtiquement.

Boire à la ruſtique. To drinke vnmeaſurably.

Ruſtiquement. Ruſtically, rudely, booriſhly, clowniſhly, lumpiſhly, lowtiſhly, vnmannerly, vnciuilly, ignorantly, cluſter fiſt-like.

Ruſtiquer. To play the clowne, or husbandman; to labour, or till the ground.

Ruſtiquerie: f. Husbandrie, tillage, rurall prouiſion or ſtuffe.

Ruſtre: m. A ruffin, royſter, hackſter, ſwaggerer; ſawcie, paultrie, ſcuruie fellow.

Ruſtre: f. A lozenge pierced round in the middle; (a tearme of Blaſon.)

Ruſtrement. Royſter-like; ſawcily.

Ruſtrerie: f. A royſting, ſwaggering; roguerie, knauerie; ſawcineſſe.

Rut: m. as Ru; a brooke, &c; alſo, as Ruit.

Rutiler. To gliſter, glitter, ſhine, glare.

Ruyer: m. as Vicomte; or Voyer.

Ruyle: f. as Ruille.

Ruyler du plaſtre avec de l'eau. To mingle, or moiſten, plaiſter with water.

Ruylette: f. A little plumb-rule, or plumb-line.

Ruze. Looke Ruſe.

Ruzez. The turnings, or doublings of a Hare.

Ry: m. A little brooke.

Ryde, & Ryder. as Ride, & Rider.

Rym. as Rumb.

Ryme. Ryme, or meeter.

Rymer. To ryme, to make meeter.

S

S. The letter S; alſo, the marke of a Sol in a (written) Reckoning; whence;

Allonger les SS. (Falſely) to ſtretch out an Accompt, or make it riſe verie high; to ſet downe ff for ss, francs in ſtead of ſols.

Sabat: m. A foule ceyle, rumbling, dinne, harrie.

Sabath: m. The Sabaoth day, Sunday.

Sabatique: com. Of the Sabaoth; keeping the Sabaoth; whence;

Riviere ſabatique. That runnes ſix dayes, and the ſeuenth ſtands ſtill, or is dry.

Sa-

Sabatiſme: m. Holie reſt.
Sabatizer. To reſt, or keepe holie, the Sabboth day.
Sabe. New ſweet wine boyled vntill it be halfe conſumed, and kept for ſawces, and ſeaſonings.
Sabe de coing. The iuice of Quinces boyled (as aforeſaid;) good againſt a cough.
Sabé. Haleine ſabée. A fragrant, or ſweet-ſmelling breath.
Sabech: m. The little Hawke tearmed, a Musket.
Sabine: f. Sauine (a ſhrub;) alſo, Hartwort, or Birthwort (an hearbe.)
Sable: m. Sand; alſo, the colour ſables, or blacke, in Blaſon.
Horloge de ſable. An houre-glaſſe.
Sablé: m. ée: f. Blacked; of a ſable hue; alſo, furred, or inriched, with ſables.
Sablere. Looke Sabliere.
Sabliere: f. The Summer that compaſſes the top, or vpper part, of a roome.
Sablon: m. as Sable; Sand; alſo, great or ſmall grauell.
Sablon mouvant. A Quicke-ſand; whence, Il a la teſte pleine de ſablon mouvant. His head is full of crotchets, his braine fraught with odde conceits; he hath a running, or a giddie pate of his owne.
Horloge à ſablon. An houre-glaſſe.
Sablonneux: m. euſe: f. Sandie; greetie.
Sablonniere: f. A ſand-bed, ſand-pit, ſandie plot; a place full of ſand, greet, or ſmall grauell.
Saboir. in ſtead of Sçavoir. ¶Gaſcon.
Sabonner; & Saborner. To agree beforehand, or to be at a certaine rate, with; Looke Abonner & Aborner.
Sabors: m. Portholes (for great Ordnance) in ſhips.
Sabot: m. A Top, Gig, or Nunne to whip, or play with; alſo, a pattin, or ſlipper of wood; alſo, a horſes hoofe.
Saboté: m. ée: f. Turned, or whipped, as a top; alſo, faſhioned like a top; whence;
Coquille ſabotée. The ſhell of a Welke, Periwinkle, &c.
Saboter. To play at top, or to whip a top.
Saboulé: m. ée: f. Rolled, toſſed, tumbled with, trodden vnder, the feet; alſo, tugged, mumbled, or ſcuffled with.
Sabouleiment: m. A rolling, toſſing, tumbling with; a treading vnder, the feet; alſo, a tugging, or ſcuffling with.
Sabouler. To roll, toſſe, or tumble, with; to tread vnder, the feet; alſo, to tug, mumble, or ſcuffle with; and hence, to iumble a woman.
Sabourré: m. ée: f. Balaſted, or whoſe bottome is filled with grauell, &c.
Sabourrer. To balaſt, or ſtuffe the bottome of, with grauell; alſo, as Sabouler (in the laſt ſence.)
Sabrin: m. The ſpotted, and skalie Serpent Hæmorrhoïs, whereof one being bitten, bleedes, at all the naturall pores, or paſſages of the bodie, to death.
Sabuleux: m. euſe: f. Sandie, greetie.
Saburre: f. Balaſt (for ſhipping) of grauell, or ſmall pibbles.
Sac: m. A ſacke, waſt, ruine, hauock, ſpoyle; alſo, a ſacke, or ſacking, a ranſacke, pillage, depopulation, rauaging; and hence;
A ſac à ſac. The word whereby a Commaunder authorizeth his ſouldiors to ſacke a Place, or People.
Sac: m. A ſacke, poke, powch, bag; alſo, as Inteſtin borgne; alſo, an ill, or ill-diſgeſted, humor remaining in a wound (thats healed in apparance) and afterwards turning into an impoſtume.
Sacs de charbonniers. Looke Charbonnier.

Sac au croc. A ſuit vndecided, or, as we ſay, lying by the wall.
Sac à vin. A drunken gulch, or gorbellie; a great wine-drinker.
Cul du ſac. Au cul du ſac. At length, in the end, when all is done, when all comes vnto all.
Freres des ſacs. A certaine Order of begging Friers.
Gens de ſac, & de licol. Loytering rogues, or vagabonds, &c (as in the next word;) alſo, begging Friers.
Homme de ſac, & de corde. A lewd knaue, wicked raſcall, graceleſſe rakebell, filthie rogue; one thats fit for nothing but to find the executioner worke, whether by drowning him in a ſacke, or choaking him with a rope.
Acheter vn chat en ſac. To buy a Pig in a poake (ſay we;) to bargaine vnaduiſedly, or hand ouer head.
Se couvrir d' un ſac mouillé. To make a matter the worſe by colouring, or excuſing it.
Donner ſon ſac, & ſes quilles à. On luy a donné ſon ſac, &c. He hath his paſport giuen him, he is turned out to grazing; (ſaid of a ſeruant whom his maiſter hath put away.)
Manger ſon avoine en ſon ſac; Looke Avoine; or as;
Manger ſon pain en ſon ſac. To be churliſh, or niggardlie, to ſnudge or munchion it alone in a corner; alſo, to ſpend or imploy good things on a corner, or in too priuate a manner.
Prẽdre d'un ſac deux mouſtures. To take double fees; or to make double vſe of one thing.
Servir à ſac, & à ſomme. Qui ſervent, &c; Looke Somme.
Sac plein dreſſe l'oreille: Pro. The full purſe a full eare procures; the way to good attention lyes by well-filld bags.
Vn ſac percé ne peut tenir le grain: Prov. A ſacke thats torne doth ſhed it corne; a broken or cracke heart can hold no good thing in it; applyable alſo to a heart, that pierced with griefe, cannot hold but muſt vtter it.
D'un ſac à charbon ne peut ſortir que de la pouſſiere noire: Prov. Nought but blacke duſt from Colliers ſacks can come; a vicious man will be lewd in his talke.
Es petis ſacs ſont les fines eſpiceries: Pro. The little head a daintie wit containes.
Avarice rompt le ſac: Prov. The miſer coueting to make his bags hold ouermuch, breakes them, and looſes the moſt of that they had in them.
Chaſcun ira au moulin avec ſon propre ſac: Prov. Each ône ſhall his owne burthen beare.
Il ne peut ſortir du ſac que ce qu' il y a dedans; &,
On ne peut tirer du ſac que ce qu'y eſt: Prov. You can haue no more of a Cat but her skinne; or, there can come no more (no other ſtuffe) from a man then is in him.
On ne cache point eſguilles en ſac: Pro. A ſack's no fit thing to hide needles in; heart-pricking anguiſh will bewray it ſelfe.
On lie bien le ſac avant qu'il ſoit plein: Pro. A ſacke before tis full is well ynough tyed vp; men while they are kept low are eaſily kept in.
Sacabribe: m. A beggars Wallet, an Almes-ſcrip.
Saccade: f. A fall or ouerthrow from a horſe, a horſes caſting of his rider; alſo, a flirt.
Elle aura la ſaccade. She ſhall be turned ouer.
Saccader. To throw, ouerthrow, caſt downe; alſo, to ouerturne a wench.
Saccagé: m. ée: f. Sacked, ranſacked, rifled, pillaged, ruined, deſtroyed.
Saccagement: m. A ſacking, ranſacking; ruining.
Saccager. To ſacke, ranſacke, pillage, rifle, ruine, deſtroy.
Saccageux: m. euſe: f. Sacking, ranſacking.

Saccamenter. Looke Sacmenter.
Saccerelle: f. A docke for a horſes trayne.
Saccharin: m. ine: f. Of ſugar; as white or ſweet as ſugar.
Saccoche: f. A little ſacke, bag, poke, or powch.
Saccouter à l'oreille. To round, or whiſper in the eare.
Saceller. To rub, in bathing, with little bags full of Branne, &c.
Sacerdoce: m. Prieſthood.
Sacerdot: m. A Prieſt.
Sacerdotal: m. Sacerdotall, Prieſtlie, belonging vnto Prieſts.
Sel ſacerdotal. An excellent powder, or compound Salt; (for which looke vnder Sel.)
Sacmenté: m. ée: f. Sacked, ranſacked, whereof hauock is made; alſo, hatked, or hewed in peeces.
Sacmenter. To ſacke, ranſacke, make hauocke of; alſo, to hacke, or hew in peeces.
Sacotin: m. Feauerwort, Earth-gall, common Centorie, Centorie the leſſe.
Sacouter. Looke Saccouter.
Sacquement: m. A haſtie drawing, a quicke pulling out of a ſword, &c; alſo, a prompt laying of the hand on a ſword (in offer of drawing, or in a readineſſe to draw,) alſo, a ſacking, ranſacking, rifling, making hauocke of.
Sacquementé. Looke Sacmenté.
Sacquer. To draw haſtily, to pull out ſpeedily, or apace.
Sacquer la main à l'eſpée. (An ordinarie, but (ſayes Nicot*) an improper, phraſe;) to lay, or clap his hand on his ſword (with a purpoſe to draw it.)*
Il luy ſacqua l'eſpée des mains. He ſnatched, or violently pulled, his ſword out of his hands.
Sacquerelle: f. A docke for a horſes tayle.
Sacraire: m. A Sextrie, or Veſtrie in a Church; alſo, a priuate Chappell, or Oratorie.
Sacramentaires: m. Sacramentaries; Proteſtants; Huguenots; or Caluiniſts in the doctrine of the Sacrament.
Sacre: m. The dedication of a Church, &c; the coronation of a Prince; the conſecration of a Prelate.
Sacre d'Angers; &, le iour du ſacre. Corpus Chriſti day.
Sacre: m. A Saker; the Hawke, and the Artillerie, ſo called; alſo, a rauenous, or greedie fellow, one that makes boot of all he can lay his clutches on; alſo, an exceſſiue glutton, or gully-gut; and a ſpendall, vnthrift, ſquanderer, extreame rioter (eſpecially in reſpect of his bellie.
Sacre d'Egypte. A kind of Saker that feedes altogether vpon ſerpents, and carrion; and therefore among the auncient Egyptians the killing of him was accounted felonie.
C'eſt vn terrible ſacre. He is a raſh, headie, wilfull, or violent fellow; alſo, he is a monſtrous vnthrift, &c; as in Sacre.
Sacré: m. ée: f. Sacred, ſanctified, made holie; receiued into, inueſted with, religious Orders; dedicated, conſecrated, or deuoted, vnto religious vſes.
Artere ſacrée. The ſacred Arterie; a branch of the great one, which goes vnto the marrow of the Os ſacré.
Feu ſacré. The holie fire; a painefull impoſtumation, the thinneſſe of whoſe matter giues it a liuelie colour, and makes it almoſt to ſhine.
Huile ſacrée. Oyle of Amber; ſo called of the excellencie thereof.
Os ſacré. The ſacred bone; the great bone vpon which the ridge-bone reſteth.
Pierre ſacrée. An Altar ſtone.
Poiſſon ſacré. A red-finned ſea-fiſh, called ſo, becauſe no rauenous or hurtfull fiſh doth euer ſwim neere him.
Veine ſacrée. Looke Veine.
Sacremens: m. Myſticall rites, or holie myſteries; and hence, the Sacraments of the Church.
Sacrer. To conſecrate, hallow, dedicate; inthronize; inueſt, inſtall; alſo, to excommunicate, or outlaw.
Sacret: m. The taſſell, or male, of a Saker.
Sacrificateur: m. A ſacrifying Prieſt, a ſacrifier.
Sacrificatoire: com. Sacrificatorie, belonging vnto ſacrifice.
Sacrifice: m. A ſacrifice, an offering.
Sacrifié: m. ée: f. Sacrificed, offered vp in ſacrifice.
Sacrifier. To ſacrifice, offer ſacrifice, or offer vp in ſacrifice.
Sacrilege: m. A ſacrilegious perſon, Church-robber, ſtealer of holie or hallowed things; alſo, ſacriledge, or Church-robbing; any hainous, and horrible offence, or offendor.
Sacrilegement. Sacrilegiouſly; moſt hainouſly.
Sacriſtain: m. A Sexton, or Veſtrie-keeper, in a Church.
Sacriſtie: f. A Veſtrie, or Sextrie, in a Church.
Sadariege: f. The hearbe Sauorie.
Sadayer. To handle gently, or ſtroke ſofily; alſo, to flatter, ſmooth, cog, or collogue with.
Sade: com. Prettie, neat, ſpruce, fine, compt, minion, quaint.
Sadément. Prettily, neatly, ſprucely, finely, comptly, quaintly.
Sadinet: m. ette: f. as Sade; (or a diminutiue thereof.)
Faire la ſadinette. To mince it, niceſie it, make it daintie, be verie ſqueamiſh, backward, or coy.
Sadrée: f. The hearbe Sauorie.
Saffran: m. Saffron; Looke Safran.
Saffran baſtard. Baſtard Saffron, Carthamus, Mock-Saffron, Saffron Dort.
Saffran ſauvage. Wild Saffron; or, as Saffran baſtard.
Aller au ſaffran. To goe downe the weather, to decline or decay verie much in eſtate.
Il en eſt au ſaffran. It hath made him bankrupt, his haire is thereby growne through his hat.
Saffrané: m. ée: f. Seaſoned, or coloured with Saffron; alſo, blowne vp, fallen bankrupt, or grown deepe in debt.
Saffranier: m. A ſeller of Saffron; alſo, a bankrupt, one thats blowne vp, or oweth more then he is worth.
Saffraniere: f. A Saffron field or plot, a graund ſowed with Saffron.
Saffrenier. Looke Saffranier.
Saffreté: f. Wanton dallying, leacherous ieaſting, laſciuious toying; alſo, rauening, or gourmandizing.
Saffrette: f. A wanton, leacherous, or laſciuious trull; a flirt, queane, gixie, pug, punke.
Safran: m. as Saffran; alſo, the lining, or backe, of the Rudder of a ſhip.
Safrané. Looke Saffrané.
Safre: m. A heauie mineral, which melted with glaſſe, or ſome other the like ſubſtance (for alone it will not melt) reſolues into a blewiſh water, wherewith glaſſes, and earthen veſſels be painted.
Safre: com. Wanton, waggiſh, toyiſh, laſciuious, leacherous, full of dalliance; alſo, rauenous, gluttonous, gourmandizing.
Femme ſafre, & yvrongneſſe de ſon corps n'eſt pas maiſtreſſe: Prov. A wanton, and wine-bibbing dame, her bodie yeelds to open ſhame.

Sa-

Safreté. Looke Saffreté.
Safrette. Looke Saffrette.
Sagapen, & Sagapene, & Sagapin. The gumme, or hardned and gummie iuice, of the bruiſed, cut, or broken root of Ferula, or Fennell-gyant.
Sage: com. Sage, wiſe, diſcreet, aduiſed, vnderſtanding.
Elle eſt bien ſage. She is verie honeſt. ¶Orlean.
Faire ſage de. To informe, certifie, let to wit, giue to vnderſtand.
Chaſcun eſt ſage apres le coup: Prov. An after-wit is euerie bodies wit; any man can tell, after a blow giuen, how it might haue beene auoided.
En defaut de ſage monte vn fol en chaire: Prov. A foole, for want of better, doth ſtep vp and preach; vndertakes the buſineſſe; vndergoes the charge.
Femme ſage, & de façon de peu remplit ſa maiſon: Pro. Looke Femme.
Fols ſont ſages quand ils ſe taiſent: Pro. Fooles are held wiſe as long as they are ſilent.
Il n'eſt ſi ſage qui ne folie aucunes-fois: Prov. The wiſeſt man doth ſometimes play the foole.
Le plus ſage ſe taiſt: Pro. The wiſeſt ſayes the leaſt.
Les plus ſages faillent ſouvent en beau chemin: Prov. The wiſeſt often erre in plaineſt matters.
On revient ſage des iours: Pro. In time one gets experience.
Vn fol adviſe bien vn ſage: Pro. A foole may ſometimes giue the wiſe aduiſe.
Sagemener. Looke Sacmenter.
Sagement. Sagely, wiſely, diſcreetly, aduiſedly.
Sageraut. Wiſe, warie, diſcreet, well aduiſed, of great experience.
Sageſſe: f. Sageneſſe, wiſedome, knowledge, diſcretion, vnderſtanding.
Dens de ſens, & de ſageſſe. The tenne iaw-teeth.
Mortier de ſageſſe. Looke Mortier.
Voila vne belle ſageſſe. That was a worthie wiſe act; the verie creame of Apolloes braine-panne.
Mieux vaut vne once de fortune qu'un livre de ſageſſe: Pro. An ounce of lucke excells a pound of wit.
Saget: m. ette: f. Prettie and ſage, indifferently wiſe.
Sagette: f. An arrow, or ſhaft; alſo, the Ditch-weed called, Arrow-head, or water-Archer.
Sagetté: m. ée: f. Shot, pierced, or transfixed with arrowes.
Sagetter. To hit, ſtrike, pierce, transfix, or ſhoot through with arrowes.
Saggotter. To ioult, rudely to ſhog or ſhake.
Sagitale. Looke Sagittale.
Sagitelle: f. The Launcet wherewith a Surgeon openeth veines, and impoſtumes.
Sagittaire: m. An Archer, Bowman, Shooter; and hence, the heauenlie Archer, or Signe Sagittarius.
Sagittale. Commiſſure ſagittale. The ſeame which runnes along on the top of the head, and diſtinguiſhes the right ſide of it from the left.
Sagmenter. Looke Sacmenter.
Sagme: f. A bundle of the ſtender ſtaulkes of ſea-graſſe, or of other ſea-weedes, wrapped cloſe together, and throwne, by the working of the ſea, vpon the ſhore. ¶Langued.
Sagoin, & Sagouin. A little Marmoſet; and thence, a little crackrope, ſlip-ſtring, knauiſh wag, vnhappie lad.
Sahuc: m. A Sallow tree, the Goats Willow tree.
Saïe. Looke Saye.

Saiffe: f. The Dace, or Dare fiſh.
Saigné: m. ée: f. Blouded, let bloud.
Saignée: f. Phlebotomie, bloud-letting; alſo, Dogs-graſſe, Couch-graſſe, Quitch graſſe.
Selon la jambe la ſaignée: Prov. Let bloud according to the bodies fullneſſe, or ſtrength; ſubiects, or tenants would not be drawne too dry.
Saigner. To bleed; alſo, to let bloud.
Saigner du nez. His heart to faint, or fayle him; cowardly to flinch, fearefully to quayle, at; to clap his tayle betweene his legs, to ſet vp his crauen feathers (for much bleeding cooles the heart, and he thats cold at the heart muſt needs be fearefull.)
Saigner la terre. To till, or breake vp ground in an vnfit ſeaſon, as in a verie hard froſt.
Ie vous ſaigneray d'une autre veine. I will ſee what you can ſay in other matters; I will try, or put you to it, another way.
Saigneux: m. euſe: f. Bloudie, full of bloud.
Sailleur: m. A leaper, iumper, &c; as Saulteur.
Sailli. Gone out, iſſued forth; alſo, leaped on.
Saillicoque. Looke Salecoque.
Saillie: f. A ſallie, eruption, violent iſſue, or breaking out vpon; alſo, a leape, ſault, bound, skip, iert; alſo, an eminence, iutting, or bearing out beyond others; any diſordinate exceſſe, or exceſſiue out-ſtanding.
Saillie de maiſon. Any out-iutting roome, or part thereof; and particularly, an open gallerie, or terrace made without the wall, or hanging ouer it.
Saillie de S. Mathurin. An odde, fooliſh, humorous, mad, giddie, fantaſticall tricke.
Saillie d'un os. A Proceſſe; that part of it which, like a knob in a tree, ſtands out beyond the reſt.
Saillie d'une pierre precieuſe. The imboſſement of an enchaced pretious ſtone.
Il a fait vne ſaillie. He hath runne too much riot; he hath made a foule fault; he was ill ouerſeene, or too farre carried by haſt, choller, paſſion, fooliſh or hairebraind affection.
Il a les plus plaiſantes ſaillies du monde. He vſes the moſt prettie, odde, and extrauagant digreſſions that euer I heard.
Saillier: m. A ſallie, eruption, digreſſion, extrauagant flying out.
Saillir. To goe out, iſſue forth; appeare aboue, ſtand out beyond, others; alſo, to leape, iumpe, bound, skip, hop; alſo, to ride, or leape one another, as the male doth the female.
Sain: m. Seame; the tallow, fat, or greaſe of a Hog, or of a rauenous wild beaſt.
Sain: m. aine: f. Sound, whole, wholeſome, healthfull, ſafe, in good plight, in good liking.
Il ſe plaind de ſaine teſte. He is troubled with ſtore of good things; he complaines of eaſe.
Hardiment parle teſte ſaine: Prov. The wiſe, honeſt, or guiltleſſe, boldly ſpeake.
Sainct: m. A Saint; a (canonized) holie man.
Sainct de quareſme. One that lines ſtrictly or deuoutly in Lent, and looſely or prophanely the whole yeare after; alſo, one that hides himſelfe, or is no where to be found.
Oublier Dieu parmy tous les saincts. To forget God amongſt All-hallowes; amidſt many trifling, to neglect his chiefeſt, occaſions.
Le sainct de la ville n'eſt point oré: Prov. Men leaſt reſpect their owne, or that they are vſed to; our well-knowne patrons are the leaſt implored.

Il n'eſt miracle que de vieux ſaincts: Prov. We credit not reports, or miracles, of a freſh date; antiquitie is of awfull authoritie.

Il n'y a ſi petit ſainct qui ne deſire ſa chandelle: Pro. Looke Chandelle.

Le fleuve paſſé le ſainct oublié: Prov. The danger paſt our vowes are ſoone forgotten.

Sainct: m. cte: f. Holie, ſacred, ſanctified, godlie, religious, deuout, pure, of perfect or vnſpotted life; (and ſometimes) alſo, the contrarie; as, O le ſainct homme, what a prophane wretch is this.

Bois ſainct. The wood Gwacum, or Gayac, whereof diet-drinke for the pocks is made.

Huile ſainct. The oyle vſed by Papiſts in Baptiſme, and Extreame vnction.

Huile ſaincte, ou de Sapience. Looke Sapience.

La ſemaine ſaincte. The weeke before Eaſter, the Paſſion weeke.

Saincte: f. A ſhe Saint; a moſt holie woman.

Saincteloť: m. otte: f. Somewhat holie, or Saint-like.

Saincteiment. Holily, ſacredly, godlily, deuoutly, religiouſly.

Saincte-n'y-touche. An hipocrite; an ouer-ſcrupulous Puritan; one that, fearing to ſeeme prophane, will not be touched, or dares touch almoſt nothing.

Sainct-foin: m. Medicke fodder, Snayle-Clauer, Spaniſh Trifolie, horned Clauer.

Saincment. Healthfully, ſoundly, wholly, wholeſomely.

Sainne. Looke Seine.

Saint, & Sainte-n'y-touche. Look Sainct, & Saincte-n'y-touche.

Sainteur: m. A certaine rent payed by thoſe that haue beene freed from bondage vnto thoſe that affranchiſed them.

Saint-foin: m. Medicke fodder, Spaniſh Trifolie, horned or Snayle-Clauer.

Saintre. Droict de ſ. Looke Droict.

Sainture. Looke Ceincture.

Sais: m. Certaine peeces of yron, whereby the axletree is faſtened vnto the bodie, of a Wayne, &c.

Saiſi: m. ie: f. Seiſed, layed hold on, poſſeſſed of; attached, arreſted.

Saiſie: f. A ſciſure, arreſt, or attachement of goods, &c.

Saiſine: f. Seiſin, liuerie and ſeiſin, poſſeſſion.

Cas de ſaiſine. An Action, or Suit vpon a diſſeiſin; lyes where a man, out of poſſeſſion a full yeare and a day, had peaceably inioyed within tenne yeares before, either continually, or by times, and the moſt part of thoſe yeares; in which caſe the defendant is to continue his poſſeſſion during the ſuit: whereas in Cas de nouvelleté (which is for a diſſeiſin within the yeare and day) he is to haue the preſent poſſeſſion that can ſhew the laſt impeachment thereof to haue been receiued by himſelfe.

Droict de ſaiſine. Looke Droict.

Saiſir. To ſeiſe, lay hold or hands on, take poſſeſſion of; alſo, to attach, or arreſt.

Le Mort ſaiſit le vif; &, le Pied ſaiſit le chef. Looke Mort, & Pied.

Saiſiſſement: m. A ſeiſing, a laying hold or hands on, a taking poſſeſſion of; alſo, an attaching, or arreſting; alſo, a ſuddaine taking with a qualme, or ſowne.

Saiſon: f. Seaſon, due time, fit opportunitie; alſo, a terme, or time.

Mauvaiſe eſt la ſaiſon quand vn loup mange l'autre: Pro. It is a hard yeare when one Wolfe eates another; when one theefe robs, when one pyrate preyes on, another.

Si le fol ne folie il perd ſa ſaiſon: Prov. A foole not fooling is much out of date; or, a foole is moſt, when he playes leaſt, the foole.

Saitte: f. A kind of two-pennie broad Ribbon made of verie courſe ſilke.

Saive. Looke Seve.

Salace: com. Leacherous, laſciuious, luſtfull.

Salacité: f. Leacherie, luſtfullneſſe, rankneſſe, a prouocation or tickling vnto luſt.

Salade: f. A Salade, Helmet, Headpeece; alſo, a Sallet of hearbes, &c; alſo, the young head of a Deere (long, tender, woollie, and but beginning to braunch) tearmed by our Woodmen, the croſſing, or a Deeres head put vp to the croſſing.

Tant de ſalades. So many horſemen.

Qui vin ne boit apres ſalade eſt en danger d'eſtre malade: Pro. A Sallet without wine is raw, vnwholeſome, dangerous.

Saladier: m. ere: f. Belonging to, or fit for, a Salade, or Sallet.

Salage: m. Saltage; ſaltneſſe; or ſalt things.

Droict de ſalage. Looke Droict.

Salaire: m. A ſalarie, ſtipend, penſion, hire, wages, fee, pay giuen.

Salaiſon: f. Salt-making, or a trading for ſalt.

Salamandre. A Salamander. Looke Salmandre.

Salant: m. ante: f. Salting; powdering or ſeaſoning with ſalt.

Marais ſalans. Salt marſhes; or marſhes whereon ſalt is gathered.

Salarié: m. ée: f. Hired, waged, feed; rewarded.

Salarier. To hire, wage, fee; giue a ſtipend, allow pay, vnto; alſo, to reward.

Salariſer. as Salarier.

Salaude: com. Looke Sale.

Salcoque: f. An vncaſed Prawne. ¶Normand.

Sale: f. Looke Salle.

Sale: com. Foule, ſoyled, naſtie, ſluttiſh, vncleane, filthie, loathſome, beaſtlie.

Le doigt ſale. The middle finger, which we (after the Latines) call the fooles finger.

Le gris ſalé. A darke, or diuskie gray.

Salé: m. ée: f. Salted, powdered, pickled; alſo, brackiſh, or ſaltiſh.

Salecoque: f. An vncaſed Prawne. ¶Norm.

Salément. Foulely, filthily, naſtily, ſluttiſhly.

Saler. To ſalt, powder, pickle; ſeaſon or corne with ſalt, ſteepe or lay in brine.

Salet: m. ette: f. Sullied, ſlubbered, ſoyled; somewhat naſtie, ſluttiſh, or vncleane.

Saleté: f. Foulneſſe, naſtineſſe, ordure, ſluttiſhneſſe, filthineſſe, vncleanenеſſe, beaſtlineſſe.

Salette: f. A little ball; alſo, the hearb Sorrell, or Souredocke.

Petite ſalette. Pettie Sorrell, ſallet Sorrell.

Saleure. Looke Salure.

Saleures. Salt meats.

Salez: m. The Burgonians, called ſo in old time by the French, mocking them for their controuerſies with the Germans touching their Salt-pits.

Salezart: m. An arrant or extreame ſlouen, a filthie or greaſie ſlowch.

Salfuge: f. A kind of Serpent thats poiſoned by ſalt.

Salicoque. Looke Salecoque.

Salicor: m. The hearb Saltwort, Glaſſewort, Crab-graſſe, Frog-graſſe.

Salicorne. The ſame.

Salicots. Looke Saligots.

Salidure: f. A little push, wheale, or powke; so called (at it first arising) in Languedoc.

Saliere: f. A salt-seller, a table or trencher salt; also, a powdering house; also, the hollownesse, or hollow pit, betweene the blades of the shoulders; Looke Salliere.

Saliette: f. Hearbe Sorrell, Sowre-docke, or Greene-sauce.

Saligot: m. A slouen, or slouch: ¶ Orleannois.

Saligots: m. Saligots, water Caltrops, water Nuts.

Salin: m. as Trident; also, a garner for salt.

Droict de Salin. as Gabelle de sel.

Saline: f. A salt-pit, or salt-house; a place wherein salt is gotten, or made.

Salir. To foule, soyle, sullie, beray, begrime; pollute, make sluttish, defile, or fill with, ordure.

Saliſſon: com. A slouen, or slut (at Tours.)

Saliſſure: f. A fouling, soyling, sullying, defiling, beraying, begriming.

Salival: m. ale: f. Spittlie, slimie.

Salivation: f. A continuall hauing of much spittle in the mouth; or, a drawing of humors to the mouth, and a deliuerie of them from thence in manner of spittle.

Salive: f. Spittle; also, a clammie foame, or iuyce; also, the slime of snailes.

Table sans sel bouche sans salive: Prov. Appliable to any dull, or vnsauorie thing, which hath no power to excite th'appetite.

Saliver. To slauer; to be full of spittle, yeeld much spittle, make a clammie, or slimie foame.

Saliveux: m. euſe: f. Spittlie, slauering, full of mouth-moisture; yeelding a clammie or slimie foame.

Saliviere: f. as Baverette à babillons.

Salle: f. A Hall.

Salle d'audience. Any Hall, or place, wherein a Soueraigne Court is kept.

La grande Salle du Palais. The great Hall of the Palace; that wherin (as in ours at Westminster) most of the Judges doe sit.

Avoir la salle. To be whipped in publicke, or (like a breeching boy of a Colledge) publickly in a Hall.

Salle: com. Looke Sale.

Sallebrenaut: m. A filthie, shitten, slinking, or slouenlie scoundrell; a base, and beastlie companion.

Sallebreneux: m. euſe: f. Most filthily berayed.

Salleté. Looke Saleté.

Sallette: f. A little Hall.

Salli: m. ie: f. Fouled, soyled, sullied; berayed, begrimed, exceedingly slurried.

Salliere: f. as Saliere; also, the pit or hole ouer th'eye of a horse; or the bone wherein it is.

Sallir. as Salir; or Saſlir.

Salliſſeure: f. A fouling, soyling, beraying, begriming, defiling.

Salloir: m. A salting, or sowcing tub, or table.

Sallorge. A sellor, storehouse, or low roome, to keep salt in.

Salmandre: f. A Salamander; a spotted Lizard, or beast like a Lizard, which (as old Authors affirme) liues much in the fire; and either is not hurt by it, or within a while quenches it; but the truth is, that although she endure it better then any other beast, yet at length, or if she stay any while in it, it is not quenched by her, but shee consumed by it.

Salmandre d'eau. The water Salamander; black-backed, red-bellied, and full of yellow spots.

Salmigondin: m. A Hachee; or meat made ordinarily of cold flesh, cut in little peeces, and stewed or boyled on a chafingdish, with crummes of bread, wine, verjuyce, vinegar, sliced Nutmeg, and Orange pills.

Salmille: f. The hearbe Cheruill.

Salmonde: f. Hearbe Aucns, Bennet, or Blessed.

Salnitre. Salt-peter candied, or fined vnto the colour, & substance of white Sugar-candie.

Saloir: m. A powdering tub, or table.

Saloppe: com. A slouen, or slut: ¶ Orleannois.

Saloque. The South-east wind.

Salorge: f. A sellor, low roome, or storehouse, to lay salt in.

Salouër. Looke Saloir.

Salpestre: m. Salt-peter.

Salpestré: m. ée: f. Made of, or mixed with, Salt-peter.

Salpestreux: m. euſe: f. Full of Salt-peter.

Salpestrier: m. A Salt-peter-man, or Salt-peter-maker.

Salsature: f. Looke Salsitude.

Salseparille: f. Th'Indian hearbe, or drug, Sassaparilla.

Salsitif: m. iue: f. Salt, saltie, or salt-making.

Salsitude: f. Saltnesse, brackishnesse.

Salsugineux: m euſe: f. Saltie, or smacking of salt.

Saltereau. Looke Sautereau.

Salüade: f. A salutation, or greeting; and particularly, a volley of great or small shot bestowed on a great person, or worthie friend.

Salvador: m. A Sauiour; (drawne from the Spanish.)

Salvage. Droict de Salvage. Looke Droict.

Salvatelle: f. Th'outward branch of the shoulder veine, falling down, ouer the wrist, vnto the partitio betweene the ring finger, and the little one.

Salvation: f. A bill, replie, or pleading, which maintains the truth of an account, the depositions of witnesses, or the goodnesse of a deed, reproached, or contradicted by another bill, &c.

Salubre: com. Wholesome, healthfull, whole, sound.

Salubrement. Wholesomely, healthfully.

Salubrité. Wholesomenesse, healthfulnesse, soundnesse,

Saluë: f. A volley of shot giuen for a welcome to some great person, &c.

Salué: m. ée: f. Saluted, greeted; reuerenced.

Saluër. To salute, greet, all-haile, doe reuerence, make a courtesie, send commendations, giue the time of the day, vnto.

Ils saluërent le promontoire de &c. They sayled, or passed, by the Promontorie of &c.

Saluerne: f. A great carrousing, or drinking cup: ¶ Rab.

Saluëur: m. A saluter, a greeter.

Salure: f. A salting, powdering, pickling; a laying in brine; a seasoning, or corning with salt; also, brine, or pickle.

Salus. as Saluts; also, a certaine craftie sea-fish, which biteth away the bait, and meddleth not with the hooke.

Salut: m. Health, safetie, soundnesse, good plight; also, saluation, safegard, preseruation; also, a greeting, salutation, commendation.

Salutaire: m. The health, preseruation, or safegard of.

Salutaire: com. Healthfull, wholesome, sound, whole; comfortable; profitable.

Salutairement. Healthfully, wholesomely; comfortably.

Saluta-libenter. vn sal. A cogging, flattering, or gleering mate; one that salutes euerie one (but cares for none) he meets.

Salutation: f. A salutation, greeting, or courtesie; a reuerencing; a commending himselfe vnto.

Saluts: m. An old French Crowne, or coyne, worth about 5 s. sterl.

Samarré. Looke Chamarré.

Samba-

Sambacin. Huile ſam. Oyle of Jeſſomine flowers.
Sambregoy. par le ſam. A fooliſh oath, like our Godsbodekin, &c.
Sambucin. Huile ſam. Oyle of the flowers, or berries of th'Elder tree.
Same: f. The Mullet-fiſh: ¶Langued.
Samedy: m. Saturday.
Samoireau: m. A great black grape which yeeldeth verie harſh wine.
Sampongne: f. A bagpipe, or oaten pipe; alſo, the bell hanged about the necke of a ſheepe, or goat; ſome call it a Low-bell.
Sampſuc: m. The ſweet hearbe Marierome.
Samy. A ſilken, or halfe-ſilk ſtuffe, which hath a gloſſe like Satin, and is narrower, but laſteth better, then it.
Sanable: com. Healable, curable.
Sancerre. The name of a ſtrong towne in Berry, held by thoſe of the Religion, and beſieged, in the yere 1573, by la Chaſtre for the French King; during which ſiege 150 ſtrong vine-labourers did the defendants notable ſeruice with their ſlings; whence the Prouerbe;
Piſtoles de Sancerre. Slings to hurle ſtones with.
Sanchet: m. A pudding: (Savoyard.)
Sanchet: m. An old coyne of gold worth about 2 s. ſterl.
Sanctificateur: m. A ſanctifier, a hallower.
Sanctification: f. A ſanctification, a hallowing.
Sanctifier. To ſanctifie, hallow, make holie; alſo, as Sanifier.
Sanctimoniale: f. A Nunne: ¶Rab.
Sanctimonie: f. Sanctimonie, holineſſe, deuoutneſſe, religiouſneſſe; alſo, the profeſſion of a religious perſon.
Sanction: f. A Sanction, Ordinance, Law, Decree, Statute eſtabliſhed.
La Pragmatique Sanction. A confirmation of a decree made in the Councell of Baſile, whereby (among other things eſtabliſhed for the reformation of th'Eccleſiaſticall State) th'election of Prelates, and collation of Benefices during vacancie, as alſo the deciſion of ſuites concerning them (vſurped ſome time before by the Court of Rome) was reſtored vnto the Canons, Prieſts, or Monkes of the Dioceſſe: This Confirmation was publiſhed by Edict of Charles the ſeuenth, in the yeare 1438.
Sanctoron: m. An hypocrite, or a counterfeiter of Saints.
Sanctuaire: m. A Sanctuarie, the Sanctuarie; a Temple, Church, or Chappell; a holie or ſanctified place.
Sandal: m. Saunders; a ſweet-ſmelling wood brought out of th'Indies; alſo, the ſtuffe called Sendall.
Sandal blanc. White Saunders; Aromaticall, & next in goodneſſe vnto the yellow one.
Sandal citrin. Yellow Saunders; the tree whereof is bigger, and the wood ſweeter, then any other of that kind.
Sandal rouge. Red Saunders; the worſt kind of Saunders, yeelding, of it ſelfe, no manner of odour.
Sandal roux. Yellow Saunders.
Sandale: f. The ſhooe called a Sandall, or Sendall, open, or faſtened with latchets, on th'inſtup.
Sandalin: m. ine: f. Of Sendall, or Saunders.
Cerat Sandalin. Looke Cerat.
Sandarac: m. The beſt red Arſenick, or Orpine; a bright Painters-red, whereof there be two kinds; one (the right, and better) found in mines of gold and ſilver; the other made of burned Ceruſe.
Sandarac des Arabes. Gumme of Juniper, or of Cypres.
Sandarache. Looke Sandarac.
Sandaſtre. A kind of Carbuncle, or burning ſtone, wherein ſmall golden drops, or ſparkles that ſhine like ſtarres, appeare.
Sandeau: m. A Linke, or Torch: ¶Rab.
Sandouille. The name of an apple.
Sanele. Wild Muſtard.
Sanemonde: f. Hearbe Auens, hearbe Bennet, or Bleſſed.
Saner. To cure, heale, or make whole; alſo, to gueld or ſpey a Sow.
Sanes. Parliaments, or generall aſſemblies; alſo, two ſixes at Dice.
Sang: m. Bloud; alſo, a ſtocke, race, kindred, linage, parentage, eſpecially of Kings, in which ſence we alſo vſe the words, Bloud royall.
Sang de dez. Looke Sang-de-dez.
Sang de Dragon. Dragons bloud; a gummie iuyce diſtilling from the Dragon tree wounded, opened, or bruiſed in the Dog-dayes; alſo, the hearb called Bloudwort, red Patience, and bloudie Patience.
Sang de France. The Bloud royall of France, (wherin this word hath a larger extention, then in, Les Princes du Sang, which are onely ſuch of the Kings kinſmen as may come to the Crowne.)
Sang d'homme. Atractilis, wild baſtard Saffron.
Iuſtice à ſang. Meane, or middle Juriſdiction; ſo tearmed (belike) becauſe the Lord that hath it may by whipping, &c, draw bloud of his offending vaſſall, but can proceed no further.
Avoir du ſang aux ongles. To be reſolute, forward, valiant; quicke, induſtrious, diligent.
Signer de ſon ſang. Looke Signer.
Il n'y fait que le ſang tout cler. Hee hath but little skill, or is at the end of his skill, in that.
Le bon ſang ne peut mentir: Pro. Good bloud cannot, (the well-bred will not) lie; a noble nature, confronted by wrong, ſcorne, or any baſe condition, doth quickly diſcouer it ſelfe.
Sang-de-dez. Little ſquare-bladed pocket daggers.
Sanglamment. Bloudily.
Sanglant: m. ante: f. Bloudie, gore, bleeding, imbrued, full of bloud.
Roſti ſanglant. A dredging with the powder of Hares bloud.
Sanglantement. Bloudily, bleedingly.
Sanglanter. To bebloud, or make bloudie; to ſprinkle, imbrue, or beſmeare, with bloud.
Sangle: f. A girth, a ſengle; alſo, an auncient meere, or bound, whereby land from land, and houſe from houſe, haue beene diuided.
Il en avoit tout le long des ſangles. He had his full payment (whether in tearmes, or ſtrokes;) alſo, he had his full load (whether of the pot, or of the pocks.)
Sangle: com Single; Looke Sengle.
Sanglé: m. ée: f. Girt, as a horſe, &c.
Sanglement: m. A girding of a horſe.
Sangler. To girth; to faſten, or bind in, with girthes.
Sangleron: m. A young wild Boare.
Sanglier: m. A wild Boare.
Le ſanglier n'eſt qu'un hoſte: Prov. The Boare is but a ſoiourner; for he ſeldome ſtayes, any time, within one wood, or forreſt, but ranges continually.
Au cerf la biere, au ſanglier le barbier: Prov. The Stag a coffin, Boare a Barber needs; or, if thou beeſt hurt by a Stag prouide a coffin, if by a wild Boare a Chirurgian.
Sangliere: f. A wild Sow.

San-

Sanglot. Looke Senglot.
Sanglot de ſang. A lumpe, or clot of congealed, or cluttered bloud.
Sanglotin: m. A Boare-pig, or, a little wild Boare.
Sanglotter. To yex, or bickock; alſo, to ſob often.
Sanglout. Looke Senglot.
Sanglure: f. A girding.
Sang-meſlé: m. ée: f. Whoſe bloud is ſtirred, whoſe colour comes and goes, through a great, or ſudden feare, &c.
Sang-meſleure: f. A diſturbing, or ſtirring of the bloud; a coming and going of colour, by reaſon of a great, or ſudden feare.
Sangoy. as much (in ruſticall French) as Sang de Dieu.
Sangreal. Part of Chriſts moſt pretious bloud wandering about the world inuiſible (to all but chaſt eyes) and working many wonders, and wonderfull cures; if we may credit the moſt fooliſh, and fabulous Hiſtorie of King Arthur.
Sangsuë: f. A Horſleech, a bloud-ſucker.
Sangſuër. To ſucke bloud like a Horſleech.
Sanguificatif: m. iue: f. Bloud-making, turning into bloud.
Sanguifier. To conuert, or turne into bloud.
Sanguin: m. The purple ſhrub called Hounds-tree, Hounds-berrie tree, Dog-berrie tree, Gaten or Gater tree.
Sanguin blanc. The white barren, or fruitleſſe Priuet.
Sanguin noir. Our ordinarie Priuet, whoſe ripe berrie is blacke; or (as Macaleb) Pomander Priuet, whoſe berrie hath a ſhining blacke hue.
Sanguin rouge. as Sanguin.
Sanguin: m. ine: f. Sanguine, bloudie, red; of a ſanguine complexion; full of bloud.
Sanguinaire: f. Centinodie, Swines-graſſe, Knot-graſſe, Birds-tongue, S. Innocents hearbe.
Sanguinaire: com. Bloudie, gorie, red; bloud-thirſtie, cruell.
Sanguine: f. The bloud-ſtone wherewith Cutlers doe ſanguine their hilts.
Sanguine noire. A certaine ſcalie, and yron-coloured ſtone, of the kind of bloud-ſtones.
Sanguineral: m. The little fiſh called a Minnow.
Sanguinité: f. Conſanguinitie, kindred, parentage, affinitie, neereneſſe of bloud.
Sanguinolent: m. ente: f. Sanguinolent, bloudie, full of bloud.
Sanguiſorbe: f. Burnet, Pimpinell.
Sanicle: com. Sanicle, Sanikell, Selfe-heale.
Sanicle femelle. Blacke Maiſterwort, or Dioſcorides his blacke Hellebore; called (vntruely) by the vulgar, Pellitorie of Spaine.
Celuy qui ſanicle a de mire affaire il n'a: &, Qui a du bugle, & du Sanicle, fait au Chirurgien la nique: Pro. (So great is the vertue and operation of this hearbe in the cloſing, and curing of wounds.
Saniclet: m. as Sanicle.
Sanie: f. Matter; corrupt, or filthie bloud; or, more properly, the ſeroſitie, or materiſtinaeſſe of bloud, or of other humors; and the materie, excrement that's yeelded by vlcers, and hurt of the ſame cauſe.
Sanie des oreilles. Eare-wax.
Sanieux: m. euſe: f. Matterie, corrupt; yeelding, or full of a filthie moiſture.
Saninier. Looke Savinier.
Sannier: m. A Salter; Salt-ſeller; Salt-maker.

Sans. Sanſe, without, beſides.
C'eſt mon homme ſans autre. Tis the ſame man I looked for, it is none but he.
Paſſe ſans flux. Paſſe, I am not fluſh; alſo, let goe, no matter, not a pinne matter.
Sanſonet: m. The bird called a Starling, or Stare; alſo, a little, or prettie and tunable, fart.
Sanſonnet. The ſame.
Sanſuë: f. The water-worme called a Horſleech, or Bloud-ſucker.
Santal. as Sandal.
Santé: f. Health, welfare, ſoundneſſe of bodie: In Xainctonge they vſe to giue Prawnes vnto diſeaſed perſons, and thereupon tearme them, De la Santé.
De grande maladie vient on bien en grande ſanté: Prov. Much comfort after many croſſes; long ſickneſſe often breeds a laſting health.
Mal deſſus mal n'eſt pas ſanté: Prov. Ayle vpon ill cannot be health.
Point ne faut demander de malade s'il veut ſanté: Prov. Aske not a ſicke man if he would be ſound; make not a queſtion of things queſtionleſſe; doubt not of that which is alreadie reſolued.
Qui n'a ſanté il n'a rien, qui a ſanté il a tout: Pro. He that hath health, hath all things, he that wants it, nothing.
Santonique: f. Wormeſeed; the ſeed of holie Wormewood, or Wormeſeed-wort.
Sanuës blanches. The white wild Colewort.
Sanut. as Canus.
Sanxi: m. ie: f. Decreed, ordained, enacted, eſtabliſhed, ratified; alſo, forbidden.
Sanxion: f. An Act, Law, decree, Statute, Ordinance.
Sanye: f. Looke Sanie.
Saon: m. A challenge of, or exception againſt, a witneſſe, Juror, &c.
Saonier: m. A Salter, one that ſelleth ſalt.
Saonné: m. ée: f. Challenged, or excepted againſt.
Saonnement: m. A challenging, or excepting againſt.
Saonner. To challenge, or except againſt, a witneſſe, Juror, &c.
Saoul: m. A glut, ſacietie, fullneſſe.
Saoul: m. ſaoule: f. Full, glutted, cloyed, ſaciated, that hath ſo much of a thing as he is readie to loath it.
Le Pigeon ſaoul trouve les ceriſes ameres: Prov. The full-ſtuft maw findes bitterneſſe in ſweet things.
Qui a la pance pleine il luy ſemble que tous les autres ſont ſaouls: Prov. He thats full-bellied thinkes all others full.
Saoulé: m. ée: f. Glutted, ſaciated, filled, cloyed with.
Saoulement: m. A glutting, filling, ſaciating, cloying with.
Saouler. To glut, cloy, fill, ſaciate, giue a gorgefull of.
On ſe ſaoule bien de manger tartes: Pro. One may well glut himſelfe (or, ſoone haue ynough) in eating Tarts.
Saouleté: f. Sacietie, fulneſſe, a cloying, glutting, loathing, loathſomeneſſe.
Saoulure: f. The ſame.
Sap. Bois de ſap. Deale plank, Deale boords.
Sape. Looke Sabe.
Sapé; & Saper. Looke Sappé; &, Sapper.
Saphene. The mother veine; runnes ouer th'inner ankle vnto th'inſtap, and thence to the great toe.
Saphiques: f. Saphicks, or Saphicke verſes (of eleuen ſillables.)
Saphir: m. A Saphir ſtone; alſo, a bud, or blew pimple on any part of the face.

Saphre.

Saphre. Looke Safre.
Sapience : f. Sapience, wisedome, discretion, circumspection, wareneſſe, knowledge of all things.
Huile de ſapience. Oyle drawne out of tiles, or bricks, which haue beene ſteeped in verie old oyle.
Sapin : m. A Firre tree.
Sapin femelle. The Deale tree.
Bois de Sapin. Deale planke, or Deale boords.
Sapine : f. An open tub, or veſſell (of Firre wood, &c,) wherein bottles of wine are vſually ſet.
Sapinette : f. A groue, or wood; of Firre trees.
Sapineux : m. euſe : f. Firrie, of Firre, full of Firre.
Sappé : m. ée : f. Digged, undermined, opened, cut into or through, as a wall, at the foot.
Sappement : m. A digging of a wall, an vndermining, opening, or cutting into it, at the foot; hence alſo, a ſupplanting.
Sapper. To vndermine, dig into, open, or cut open (as a wall) at the foot; and hence alſo, to ſupplant.
Sappeur : m. An vnderminer, or miner.
Sapphir. Looke Saphir.
Sappin : m. A Chiappin, or Spaniſh Pantofle; monſtrous high-ſoled, and moſt vſed by women.
Saquer. Looke Sacquer.
Saquerelle : f. A Docke for a horſes traine.
Sarache : f. An Albanian fiſh verie like to th' Anchoua.
Sarazine. Looke Sarraſine.
Sarbacane, or (which is better) Sarbataine : f. A long trunke to ſhoot in; alſo, the muſicall Inſtrument called a Sagbut.
Sarcable : com. Weedable, fit to be weeded.
Sarcaſme : m. A biting taunt, bitter ieaſt, cutting quip, nipping ſcoffe.
Sarcelle : f. The water-fowle called a Teale.
Sarclé : m. ée : f. Weeded; grubbed vp with a weeding forke.
Sarclement : m. A ſarkling, weeding; a grubbing vp with a weeding forke.
Sarcler. To weed; to grub, or dig vp weeds.
Sarclet : m. A weeding booke; or weeding forke; made ſomewhat like a grubbing, or dung, forke.
Sarcleur : m. A weeder.
Sarcloir : m. Looke Sarclet.
Sarcocolle : f. A bitter Gumme which iſſues from a thornie Perſian plant; alſo, the Wind-roſe, or baſtard wild Poppie.
Sarcophange : m. A ſtone called Eat-fleſh, becauſe it conſumes, in fortie dayes, the dead carkaſſes incloſed within it.
Sarcotique : com. Breeding new fleſh.
Sarcueil : m. A coffin for a dead corps; Looke Cercueil.
Sardaine : f. A Pilchard, or Sardine.
Sardanapaliſme : f. Filthie, and effeminate ſenſualitie.
Sarde : f. A Pilchard; alſo, a fleſh-coloured ſtone, thats eaſie to be grauen, and therefore much vſed in Seale-rings.
Sardelle : f. The little fiſh called a Sardell, or Sardine.
Sardine. Looke Sardaine.
Sardoine : m. The Sardonix; a ſtone which on th' one ſide reſembles a mans naile, on th' other the Sarde.
Sardonien. Ris ſardonien. Looke Ris.
Sarfoët : m. Looke Sarfouëtte.
Sarfoüage : m. A grubbing, digging, or cutting vp of weeds.
Sarfouëtte : f. An Inſtrument, whoſe yron head, about a foot long, is forked on th' one ſide, & ſharpe on th' other, to grub, or cut vp weeds or noiſome hearbs.
Sarfouïr. To grub, or cut vp weeds.
Sarge : f. The ſtuffe called Serge.
Sargette : f. A fine, or thinne Serge.
Sargon : m. The Gilthead, or Goldeney; as ſome hold; howſoeuer, it is a verie lecherous fiſh, and often changeth his mate.
Sargoter. To ſhog, ioult, ſhake, toſſe, or thumpe; alſo, to ſwine.
Sarin : m. A certaine water-hearbe, which hath a hard root neceſſarie for Smithes.
Sariſſe. A long Speare, Launce, Pike, or Javelin, vſed by th' auncient Macedonians.
Sarlatan : m. Looke Charlatan.
Sarment : m. The twig, or ſmall branch of a vine, &c.
Se brider de ſarment. To bridle himſelfe with a vine-ſprig; to be ſo drunke that he cannot ſpeake.
Sarmenteux : m. euſe : f. Full of twigs, or ſmall branches.
Sarmentin : m. ine : f. Of, or belonging to, a ſmall vine branch.
Dragme ſarmentine. A draught, or cup, of wine.
Sarpe : f. An inſtrument ſomewhat reſembling a little Bill, and vſed for the lopping of trees, and cutting of other ſmall wood, wherof bauens, and fagots be made.
Sarpette : f. A vine-knife, hooked Gardeners knife, ſmall hedging Bill.
A pleine ſarpette. La vigne qui eſt à pleine ſarpette. That is full of, or well furniſhed with, grapes.
Sarpillére : f. Sarpliar; a peece of canuas, cloth, or other ſtuffe to wrap, or packe vp wares in.
Sarpilliere : f. The ſame.
Sarpillon. Looke Sarpette.
Sarrabouïte. Looke Strabouïte : f. Rab.
Sarraſine : f. The hearbe Heartwort, or Birthwort; alſo, Saraſines Conſound, or Comfrey.
Sarrasson : m. Fleetings, or haſtie curds, ſcumd from the whey of a new milke cheeſe, then thickened with a little milke, or the yolke of an egge, and boyled on a ſoft fire.
Sarre : f. A kind of ſmall peece of Artillerie vſed in old time.
Sarrer. Looke Serrer.
Sarriette : f. Sauorie, Summer Sauorie.
Sarriette d'Angleterre. Winter Sauorie, Timbra, Time-byſop.
Sars : m. des ſars. Chichlings, yellow wild Fitches.
Sart : m. Sea-moſſe, Lungwort, Oiſtergreene.
Sarteau : m. The Bell-peare, or Gourd-peare.
Sartie : f. A Cocke-boat, or ſhip-boat; the skiffe belonging to a ſhip.
Sartre : m. A Tailor, or Botcher; a mender of old garments.
Sarvinien : m. A fruitfull white vine whoſe leafe is almoſt round.
Sas : m. A ranging ſiue, or ſearce.
Au gros ſas. Coarſly; alſo, careleſly, ſleightly, curſarily.
Sasle : com. Looke Sale.
Saſlir. Looke Salir.
Saſſé : m. ée : f. Searced, ſifted, ranged, boulted.
Saſſefique ; or, Saſſefrique. Looke Salſify.
Saſſement : m. A ſifting, ſearcing, ranging, boulting.
Saſſer. To ſift, ſearce, range, boult.
Saſſe bonne farine ſans trompe ne buccine : Prov. Boult thy fine meale, and eat good paſt, without report, or Trumpets blaſt.
Saſſeur : m. A ſifter, ſearcer, boulter of corne, &c.

Saſ-

Sasseures: f. Sistings; or, that which remaines in a siue, range, or search, after that the meale hath beene sifted from it.

Sassefy: m. Goats bread, Josephs flower, Starre of Jerusalem, Noone-tide, Goe to bed at noone.

Sassure. Looke Sassement.

Satellite: m. A Sergeant, Catchpole; or Yeoman of the gard; one that arresteth, or gardeth a mans person.

Satieté: f. Satietie, fulnesse; plentie, content; also, a glutting, or cloying.

Satin: m. Satin.

Satirion. Looke Satyrion.

Satisfaction: f. Satisfaction, contentment, a pleasing; a fulfilling of the desire, or will; also, repaiment; also, a purgation, or excuse.

Satisfactionnaire: m. A Preacher of satisfaction.

Satisfactoire: com. Satisfactorie, satisfying.

Satisfaict: m. & te: f. Satisfied, contented, pleased, payed.

Satisfaire. To satisfie, content, please, fulfill the humor or desire of; to repay, make satisfaction; throughly to furnish, or prouide for.

Satouilles: f. Little Lampreyes bred in small fresh-water streames, into which the sea comes not.

Satrape: m. A great Ruler, Commaunder, Potentate, or Peere; the Lieutenant, or Gouernour of a country.

Sattaquer. Looke Attaquer.

Saturige: f. The hearbe Sauorie.

Saturité: f. Saturitie, fulnesse, glutting, plentie, excesse.

Saturnales. The Feasts of Saturne, celebrated by th'ancient Painims in December.

Saturne: m. Saturne; one of the seuen Planets; also, lead (among Alchimists, &c.)

Saturnien: m. enne: f. Sad, sowre, lumpish, melancholie.

Satyre: m. A Satyre; a monster halfe man halfe Goat.

Satyre: f. A Satyre; an Inuective, or vice-rebuking Poeme.

Satyriase: f. Pricke-pride, lust-pride; the standing of the yard; also, Priapisme, a lustlesse extension, or swelling thereof.

Satyric: m. ique: f. Satyricall, taunting, inueying, biting, nipping, bitter, sharpe, rebuking, reprouing.

Satyrion: m. Satyrion, Ragwort, Standlewort, Stander-grasse, Gander-goose, Priests-pinice, sweet Cullions, Ladies traces: (The Grecians tearme thus all Bulbus-rooted, and lust-prouoking, hearbs.)

Satyrion à deux couillons. as (th'original) Satyrion.

Satyrion à trois couillons. Triple Orchis, or triple Ladies traces.

Satyrion à trois fueilles. Three-leaued Satyrion, Fox-stones.

Satyrion royal. Satyrion royall, finger Orchis, Palma Christi.

Satyrique. Looke Satyric.

Satyriquement. Satyrically, tauntingly, nippingly, bitingly, railingly, inueyingly, rebukingly, reprouingly.

Satyrium. Looke Satyrion.

Sau: m. Salt; ¶Poictevin. also, a seller; also, an Oxe-house, or such like base roome in a country cottage.

Savart. as Friche.

Savate. An old shooe; also, the play called Bob and bit, or Hodman blind.

Le beau soulier devient en fin savate: Prov. Appliable to beautie decayed, or in the wane, by age, &c.

Savaterie: f. A cobling, or the trade of a Cobler; also, a street, or place, wherein old shooes be sold.

Savatier. as Savetier; also, the play called Hodman blind.

Savaton: m. A shooe: ¶Gascon. also, a peece of an old shooe.

Vieil savaton. The Millers thumbe; a fish.

Saubenite. A sleeueles yellow coat, or gowne painted all ouer with representations of diuells, and put vpon such as are found guiltie by th'Inquisition.

Sauce: f. A sauce, condiment, seasoning for meat.

Sauce barbe Robert. A sauce for fried fish, or roasted Conies, made of little Onions fried in butter, verjuyce, vinegar, mustard, small spices, and salt, boyled together.

Sauce blanche. Is made of blanched Almonds, & the brawne of a boyled Capon pownded together; and then Cloues, Ginger, Cynnamon, Rose-water, and Sugar, put vnto it.

Sauce chaude. Is made of Manchet first dried, then steeped in vinegar, or verjuyce; and afterwards with long Pepper, white Ginger, Cloues, Graines, and Nutmeg, pownded, and strained.

Sauce d'enfer. A sauce, or condimẽt made of hogs feet first boyled, then broyled, then cut into great flat peeces, then scorched on a gridiron, then stued in verjuyce with Onions, then seasoned with mustard, and then boiled in a dish with hot cõales put both vnder, and ouer it.

Sauce froide. Another, made of the liuers, and giserns of chickens boiled with a little bacon, then taken out of their broth and cooled; then white bread steeped in vinegar, and greene corne strained together, and Marierome, Parsley, white Ginger, a little Sage, and a good deale of salt, added vnto them.

Sauce reale, & royale: &, Sauce Robert. Looke Real; & Robert.

La sauce ne vaut pas mieux que le poisson: Prov. (Appliable three wayes) the sauce and fish are bad alike; or, the sauce should not be better then the fish; or, the sauce is seldome better then the fish.

Sans sel ny sauce. Insulse, vnsauorie, absurd, without any manner of grace.

A chair de loup sauce de chien: Prov. Looke Chien.

Saucer. To sauce, to season with sauce; also, to dip; whence;

Il ne saucera son pain en ma souppe. Hee shall not dip his bread in my broth; he shall not come neere me, he shall haue nothing to doe with me.

Saucisse: f. A Saucidge; also, an Engine couered with leather, and made like vnto, but much greater then, a Saucidge, which written by one end between the stones of a wall, and fire giuen to it, breakes it downe how strong soeuer it be; also, an Engine of peeces of wood bound hard together with hoopes of yron in the forme of a Tunne (but much thicker and longer, for a horseman doth easily shrowd himselfe behind it, and fiftie or sixtie men goe to the rowling of it vp and downe.)

Saucisse de Boulongne. A Bolonia Saucidge, is made of beefe and leane bacon, in equall quantitie, flayed, and chopped small with halfe as much lard, and some Pepper, Ginger, and salt; then put into a cleane Oxe gut halfe a foot long, and layd in salt for two daies together, and afterwards hung vp in the smoake.

Saucisse de Lombardie. A Lombardie Saucidge, is made of the flesh of sodden Capons, and of Partridges, Woodcocks, or some riuer fowle, and a little porke with lard chopped small together, and seasoned with whole Pepper,

Pepper, ſalt, and ſmall ſpice; then put into an Oxe gut, and hung in the ſmoake; ſo may it be kept raw two or three yeares; but when you would eat it you muſt ſteep it, and afterwards boyle it a good while in wine and water.

Saueiſſon: m. A Linering, or little Saucidge.

Sauclés. as Melet.

Saudenier: m. A Souldier that taketh pay. (v.m.)

Save. Looke Seve.

Savetier: m. A Cobler, a Sowter.

Savetier: m.ere: f. Of, or belonging to, cobling, or old ſhooes.

Saveud. as Friche; whence; Terres laiſſées en ſaveud. Grounds that lye vnlaboured.

Saveur: f. Sauor, ſmacke, taſt, reliſh; alſo, pot-hearbes; or ſeaſoning; whence, mettez la ſaveur au pot.

Sauf: m. A limitation of time for the returne of a partie, which vpon his apparance, and th'aduerſaries default in Court, hath leaue to be gone.

Sauf: m. ſauve: f. Safe, ſure, ſound, whole, vnbroken, without harme or daunger, in good caſe; alſo, ſaued, reſerued, excepting, without preiudice vnto; whence, the Phraſes, Sauf mon droict; &, ſauf voſtre honneur; &, ſauf au defendeur ſon recours; &c.

Saufconduict: m. A ſafeconduct, conuoy, paſport, paſſe; protection, ſafegard.

Sauf-reſpit: m. Reſpite of homage, or a time granted by a Lord vnto his vaſſall for the doing of his homage.

Sauge: f. Looke Saulge.

Saugé: m.ée: f. Sagie, full of Sage, ſeaſoned with Sage, wherein Sage hath beene ſteeped.

Sauger: m. The name of a ſweet and tender apple.

Saugrenée: f. A porridge, or meat of Peaſe and broth halfe boiled, and put into a diſh with ſops, ſalt, Saffron, Sallet oyle, and ſome veriuyce, or vinegar.

Saugrenu: m.uë: f. Vntoward, vngainelie, ill-fauoured, inſulſe, abſurd, ſottiſh, or ſottiſhly done.

Savinier: m. The Sauin tree, or ſhrub.

Saulce. Looke Sauce.

Saulciſſe. Looke Sauciſſe.

Sauldoy: m. Branches of Willow cut euerie third or fourth yeare, for poles, and props for vines, &c.

Saule: m. A Sallow, Willow, or Withie tree.

Saule baſtard. The low, or dwarfe Willow.

Saulgé: m. Capon ſauce, made of Sage.

Saulge: f. The hearbe Sage.

Saulge de bois. Wood Sage, wild Sage, Garlicke Sage.

Saulge franche. Sage royall, ſmall Sage, common Sage.

Saulge molle, ou de montaigne. Stachis, wild or yellow Horehound.

Saulge d'outre mer. The hearbe Clarie, or Cleere-eye, called by ſome, beyond-ſea Sage.

Saulge petite. Small Sage (of a better ſmell then the great.)

Saulge Romaine. Coſtmarie, Alecoſt; alſo, the common garden Mint, ſpeare Mint, our Ladies Mint, browne Mint, Mackerell Mint.

Saulge ſauvage. Wild Sage, wood Sage, Garlick Sage; alſo, as Saulge molle.

Saulge tranſmarine. Looke Saulge d'outre mer.

Grande Saulge. Great Sage, broad Sage.

Sans ſel ny ſaulge. Vnſauorie, inſulſe, abſurd.

Saulgé: m.ée: f. Seaſoned with Sage; wherein Sage hath beene ſteeped; Sagie, full of Sage.

Saulmon: m. A Salmon.

Il faut perdre vn veron pour peſcher vn Saulmon: Prov. We muſt looſe a little that we may get much.

Saulmone de plomb: f. A great ſow of lead.

Saulmonnée: f. A great Salmon Trout.

Saulmonnier: m.ere: f. Of a Salmon; whence; Truite Saulmonniere; A Salmon Trout.

Saulmonniere: f. The ſame.

Saulmurages: m. Rabbiſh of ſtone, bricke, &c, laied vnder the groundſill, or foundation of a houſe.

Saulmure: f. Pickle; the brine of ſalt; the liquor of fleſh, or fiſh pickled, or ſalted in barrells, &c.

Saulmuré: m.ée: f. Pickled; kept or condit in pickle, ſeaſoned or mingled with pickle.

Saulnerie: f. A Salt-ſhop, or Garner for ſalt; a place wherein ſalt is kept and vented.

Saulnier: m. A Salter, Salt-ſeller, Marchant of ſalt; alſo, a Salt-box.

Sauloye: f. A plot, or groue of Willowes.

Saulpiquet. Looke Saupiquet.

Saulpouldrer. To ſalt, corne or powder with ſalt, lay in brine or ſalt.

Saulpouldrer de ſucre. To powder, beduſt, or ſtrew ouer with Sugar.

Saulſaye: f. A plot, or groue of Willowes.

Saulſe: f. Looke Sauce.

Saulſer. To ſauce, to dip in ſauce.

Saulſerette, & Saulseron. A little ſaucer.

Saulſiere: f. A ſaucer.

Saulſiſſe. Looke Sauciſſe.

Saulſiſsier: m. A maker of Saucidges.

Sault: m. A leape, &c; Looke Saut.

Saultant: m. ante: f. Leaping; iumping; skipping.

En ſaultant. By leapes or skips, diſorderly, curſarily, ſcatteringly, leaping from one matter to another.

Saulté. Leaped; iumped; bounded, or skipped ouer; whence;

Auſsi toſt preſt qu'un chien auroit ſaulté vn eſchalier. Readie in a trice, or, in the turning of a hand; readie ere a dog can haue skipped ouer a ſtile.

Saultelement: m. A bounding, skipping, hopping.

Saulteler. To hop or skip, to bound or ſpring.

Saultelle: f. as Bois debout (vnder Bois;) alſo, a vine-branch bowed downewards, and the top thereof ſet into the ground, thereby to get root.

Saultement: m. A leaping.

Saulter. To leape, iumpe, skip, to ſpring or bound; alſo, to rub (at Bowles.)

Saulter le baſton. Reſolutely to paſſe on, or performe, what muſt be done.

Saulter du coq à l'aſne. Seeke Aſne.

Saulter à deux pieds ſur le ventre à. To leape with both feet vpon the bellie of; vtterly, or as much as in him lies, to cruſh, or confound.

Saulter de treille en paiſſeaux. Idly, or inconſtantly to ſhift, in diſcourſe, from one ſubiect vnto another.

Il recule pour mieux faulter. He goes backe to take burre, or to leape the better; he retires, or withdrawes himſelfe, to make his returne the more effectuall.

Saultereau: m. A Locuſt, or Graſshopper; alſo, the Jack of a Virginall, &c; Looke Sautereau.

Saulterelle: f. A woman leaper, vaulter, tumbler, daunceer; alſo, as Saultereau; (alſo, a Shrimpe, or Prawne: ¶Breton.) Looke Sauterelle.

Saulterette: f. A Shrimpe, or Prawne.

Saulteur: m. A leaper, iumper, bounder; alſo, a vaulter, tumbler, daunceer; alſo, as Saultoir.

Saultoir: m. Saint Andrewes croſſe; tearmed ſo by Heraulds.

Saulx:

Saulx: f. The Willow, or Withie tree.
Saulx blanche. The great white Withie, dunne Withie, goore Withie.
Saulx Gauloiſe, ou de Gaule. The red-barked Withie, or blacke Withie; alſo, the Spert or Ozier Withie; alſo, the bearbe called Agnus caſtus, and Abrahams Balme.
Saulx Grecque. as Saulx blanche.
Saulx iaulne. The Cane withie, or yellow-barked Willow.
Saulx noire. The blacke withie, red-barked Willow; called alſo (by ſome) the red Spert, or Ozier.
Saulx viminale. The ſame; alſo, the ſmall Withie, twig Withie, Spert or Ozier Withie.
Saulx vitelline. The Cane Withie, or yellow-barked Willow.
Saume: f. A ſhe Aſſe.
Saumée de bled. The quantitie of foure Septiers; or, the third part of a Pariſian Muid.
Saumée de terre. A proportion of land containing in ſquare 1600 reedes, and each of thoſe reedes eight ſpannes in length.
Saumon: m. A Salmon.
Saumonneau: m. A young, or little Salmon; a Salmon Trout.
Saumure, & Saumuré. Looke Saulmure, & Saulmuré.
Saune: f. The bearbe called Blite, or Blits; (and ſome alſo tearme Helicampanie ſo.)
Saunelage. Droict de ſaun. The tenth part of goods which are ſaued from ſhipwracke, due vnto him that ſaued them.
Saunier: m. A Salter, &c; Looke Saulnier.
Savon: m. Sope.
Terre de ſavon. Fullers earth.
Savonné: m. ée: f. Soped, or waſhed in ſope; alſo, frothie like ſope-ſuds, or a lather of ſope.
Savonner. To ſope, or waſh with ſope.
Savonnier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging vnto, ſope.
Herbe ſavonniere. Sopewort, &c; as vnder Herbe.
Savorade: f. as Savorados: ¶Gaſc.
Savorados. A poore kind of pottage extracted only from the iuyce of bare, and hollow bones: ¶Limoſin: ¶Rab.
Savorée: f. The bearbe Sauorie.
Savouré: m. ée: f. Sauorie, that hath a good ſmacke or taſt; alſo, ſauored, or taſted of; alſo, ſeaſoned.
Savourer. To ſauor, ſmack, reliſh, taſt of; alſo, to ſeaſon.
Savoureuſement. Sauorily, taſtfully, taſtingly, with a good ſtomacke.
Savoureux: m. euſe: f. Sauorie, taſtfull, tart, well ſmacking, of a good reliſh.
Saupe: f. A ſmall-headed, little-mouthed, blunt-noſed, large-ſcaled, vnſauorie, and vnwholeſome ſea-fiſh, hauing many golden lines all along from her gills to her taile; and thence, likened by ſome to the Giltbead; by others miſtaken for the fiſh whereof Stockefiſh is made.
Saupiquet: m. Porke ſauce, made of Onions, vinegar, and muſtard; alſo, ſauce for a roaſted Conie, of Onions, Ginger, veriuyce, and white wine; generally, any kind of tart ſauce.
Saupiqueter. To ſauce, or ſeaſon; to giue a ſharpe taſt vnto.
Saupiqueux: m. euſe: f. Sharpe or tart, as the Saupiquet; alſo, full thereof; ſeaſoned therewith; belonging thereto.
Saupoudré: m. ée: f. Salted, corned with ſalt; alſo, powdered, beſprinkled, or done ouer with powder or duſt.
Saupoudrer. Looke Saulpouldrer.
Sauquene: f. A yong, or ſmall Giltbead: ¶Langued.
Saur: m. ſaure: f. Sorrell of colour; whence; Harenc ſaur; a red Herring.
Saure: m. A Sorrell colour; alſo, a Sorrell horſe.
Saure obſcur, ou bruſlé. as Alezan touſtade (vnder Alezan.)
Saurel: m. The baſtard Mackerell.
Saurer. Looke Saurir.
Sauret: m. as Saure: ¶Langued.
Saurir. To make Sorrell, or turne into a Sorrell colour; whence;
Saurir les harencs. To redden Herrengs; to lay them on hurdles in a cloſe roome, and there ſmoake them with the dried leaues of Elme, or Oake, or with Tanners barke, vntill they haue gotten their Sorrell hue.
Sauriſſeur: m. A redder of Herrings.
Sauſiſſier: m. A Saucidge-maker.
Sauſſiere: f. A ſaucer, or little ſallet diſh.
Saut: m. A leape, ſault, bound, skip, iumpe; alſo, (at Bowles) a rub; alſo, an vneuen, or ill polliſhed part of a pretious ſtone, which in a curious eye diſgraces all the reſt.
Saut de Breton. A fall vpon the backe, a faire fall giuen one.
Saut de la carpe. A turning topſie turuie, or top ouer taile.
Saut de ferme à ferme. The manage tearmed a Sault, Capriole, or Goats-leape.
Saut de hanche. A comming or turning ſideways, cleane ouer, without the helpe of any hand.
Saut de mouton. A kind of high manage.
Saut rond. A turne aboue-ground, in dauncing.
Mauvais ſaut. Donner vn mauvais ſaut. Looke Donner.
Trois pas, & vn ſaut. The Almond leape.
Vn pas, & vn ſaut. (In managing) a Paſſaſalto, Gallop Galliard, Pace and a leape.
En deux pas vn ſaut. Speedily, in a trice, in haſt, apace.
En meſme ſaut. Moulins eſtans en meſme ſaut. Standing in one leuell, or turned by one height, of water.
Faire le ſaut. To breake, fall bankrupt, run his countrey for debt; alſo, to leape, or be turned, off an vnpleaſing ladder.
Sauté. Looke Saulté.
Sautelle: f. Looke Saultelle.
Sautellement, & Sauteller. Looke Saultelement, & Saulteler.
Sauter. Looke Saulter.
Sautereau: m. A Graſhopper; alſo, the Jacke of a Virginall, &c.
Sautereaux de Brie. The ſwaines of Brie are ſo tearmed, becauſe they commonly make deepe, and long ditches at the ends of their lands (for the draining of their ſuperfluous moiſture) and thereby muſt leap, if they will paſſe, ouer them.
Sautereaux de Verberie. Looke Verberie.
Sauterelle: f. as Saulterelle; alſo, a Maſons Inſtrument, framed like a Squire, yet ſo, that, as a paire of compaſſes, it may be opened, and ſhut againe at pleaſure.
Sauteur. Looke Saulteur.
Sautier: m. A leaper, iumper, skipper.
Sautoir: m. Saint Andrewes Croſſe; tearmed ſo by Heraulds.
Sautueil. as Sautoir.
Sauvage: m. A wilding apple.

Sauvage: m. Sauage, wild, hagard, harſh, vntamed, vnbroken, vnreclaimed.
Herbe ſauvage. A weed.
Sauvageau: m. A wild plant, ſet, or ſtocke fit to bee graffed on.
Sauvagement. Sauagely, wildly, hagardly, harſhly, skittiſhly.
Sauvageon. as Sauvageau.
Sauvageté: f. Sauageneſſe, wildneſſe, vnreclaimedneſſe, harſhneſſe, rudeneſſe.
Sauvagine: f. Veniſon; alſo, wildneſſe; alſo, rankneſſe, or harſhneſſe of ſmell, or taſt.
Sauvagine d'oiſeaux. Wild fowle.
Sauve: f. A ſhoue-net to fiſh withall.
Sauvé: m. ée: f. Saued, ſecured, preſerued, eſcaped, protected or deliuered from daunger, &c; alſo, ſafe, whole, ſound, ſure.
Il s'eſt ſauvé par les marets. He hath cleered, (or diſingaged himſelfe, but by a ſhamefull meanes, or in an vnworthie manner.
Sauvegarde: f. Safegard, ſuretie, ſecuritie; defence, protection, tuition; alſo, a Scutcheon, Penon, or Flag charged with the Armes of a Protector, and affixed to the doore of the partie, or on the corner-poſts of the Citie, whoſe protection hee hath vndertaken; alſo, a Letters Patents of protection; whence; Lettres de ſauvegarde.
Sauvelage. as Saunelage.
Sauvemént: m. A ſauing, ſafe-keeping, ſecuring, protecting, preſeruing.
Sauvément. Safely, ſecurely, ſurely, without ieopardie.
Sauver. To ſaue, ſecure, preſerue, defend, gard, protect, keepe harmeleſſe.
Sauveté: f. Safetie, ſecuritie, aſſurance, protection, defence.
Sauve-vie: f Stone-rue, Wall-rue, white Maiden-haire; ſome alſo call it Saxifrage, becauſe it is good againſt the ſtone.
Sauveur: m. A Sauiour, ſauer, preſeruer, protector, defender.
Sauvoir: m. A flat and cloſe boat (bored full of little holes) for the keeping, and feeding of fiſh in riuers, &c.
Sauzin: m. A kind of Oliue.
Saxitile: com. Stonie, grauellie; breeding the ſtone; alſo, liuing or lurking among ſtones.
Saxifrage: f. The hearbe Saxifrage, or Stone-breake; (whereof there bee diuers kinds of different ſhape, ſayes Gerard.)
Saxifrage blanche. Stone-breake, white or great Saxifrage.
Saxifrage dorée. Golden Saxifrage, Golden Stone-breake.
Saxifrage grande. Great or white Saxifrage; beares a whitiſh bloſſome. (Gerard hath foure ſuch; one which hee calls white Saxifrage, or white Stone-breake; a ſecond called Burnet Saxifrage, which (in his opinion) may alſo be called great Saxifrage; the third, Engliſh Saxifrage; and the fourth deſcribed, and tearmed Saxifraga major, by Mathiolus.)
Saxifrage jaune. Yellow Saxifrage, or Saxifrage with the yellow bloſſome; vſed (abuſiuely) for Melilot, or plaiſter Clauer: Gerard hath a golden Saxifrage, or Stone-breake, but no yellow one; except it be Melilot, which (he ſayth) Fuſchius tearmeth Saxifraga Lutea.
Saxifrage petite. Small Saxifrage, or Stone-breake; hath a yellow bloſſome.

Saye: m. A long-skirted Jacket, Coat, or Caſſocke.
Sayete. The ſtuffe Sey.
Sayette: f. The ſtuffe Sey; alſo, as Saitte.
Sayne: f. The large fiſh-net called a Seyne.
Sayon. Looke Saye.
Sbaraglin: m. An Italian Game at Tables, wherin one addes ſix to euerie caſt he throwes; as, if he caſt 12 he playes 18.
Sbirre: m. A Sergeant, Catchpole, arreſting Marſhall, or Officer.
Scabeau: m. A Buffit, or ioyned, ſtoole to ſit on.
Scabelle: f. The ſame; or a low Buffit, or ioyned, ſtoole.
Scabie: f. The ſcab, or ſcabbineſſe.
Scabieuſe: f. The hearbe called Scabious.
Scabieuſe de brebis. Sheepes Scabious.
Grande Scabieuſe. Red-flowred Scabious, Auſtrian Scabious; alſo, the great common Scabious.
Petite Scabieuſe. Small common Scabious, Mathiolus his Scabious with the pale blew flower.
Scabieux: m. euſe: f. Scabbie, ſcuruie.
Scabin: m. A Iudge.
Scabreux: m. euſe: f. Rough, rugged, harſh, knottie, knaggie; ſkittiſh, daungerous to be dealt with.
Scace: f. A Scatch bit.
Sçachant. Knowing, witting, expert in, acquainted with.
Scaïole: f. A kind of Allum.
Scalene: f. A Triangle, the three ſides whereof are vnequall.
Scalenes. Certaine necke-muskles, whereby the head is moued, and bent.
Scalle: f. A ſcale, a ladder, a paire of ſtaires.
Faire ſcalle. To aſcend, mount, or goe vp vnto; alſo, to land, or goe aſhore.
Faire ſcalle en Eſpagne. To ſayle into Spaine.
Scalme: m. A Thowle; the little peg whereby the oare of a Skiffe is ſtaied.
Scalpelle: m. A Chirurgians Pen-knife, or Launcet.
Scameux: m. euſe: f. Suture ſcameuſe. The ſeame whereby the bone of the temples is vnited with, or diuided from, the ſcull.
Scammes: f. Scales; alſo, the nailes, or ſmall plates of old-faſhioned Haubergeons.
Scammonée: f. Scammonie, purging Bindweed.
Scammonie. The ſame.
Scandale: m. A ſcandall, offence, occaſion or cauſe of another mans ſinning; alſo, an imputation, or ſlander; alſo, a ſturre, tumult, vprore; alſo, a plummet to ſound at ſea with.
Scandaleux: m. euſe: f. Scandalous, offenſiue, ſlanderous.
Scandalizer. To ſcandalize, or offend; to diſcontent, or giue occaſion of diſlike vnto; alſo, to ſlaunder, diſame, or lay an imputation on.
Scandebec: m. A kind of Oyſter whoſe fiſh doth taſt ſomewhat tart.
Scape: m. The bodie of a piller betweene the chapter and baſe.
Scapellaire: m. Looke Scapulaire.
Scaphe: f. A Skiffe, or ſhip-boat (all of a peece;) alſo, as Niche; alſo, a hollow Diall cut into wood, or ſtone, in the forme of a long baſon, & hauing the houre-pinne, or needle in the middle thereof.
Scaphoïde. Os ſcaph. A bone in th'inſtep made ſomewhat like a Skiffe, or long baſon.
Scapulaire: m. A narrow, and ſquare peece of cloth, &c, worne by Monkes ouer thereſt of their habit, and falling on [illegible]es from the necke (which goes through it it by a ſlit, or hole made for that purpoſe) downe, almoſt to the foot.

Scarbillat. as Eſcarbillat.

Scare : m. A delicate ſea-fiſh (held by ſome to bee the Gilt-head, or Golden-eye) which cheweth like a beaſt.

Scarificateur : m. A Scarificator, or Scarifier; an Inſtrument wherein there are 18 ſharpe wheeles, the which let goe at once doe ſcarifie, and make inciſion, in as many ſeuerall places.

Scarification : f. A ſcarification or ſcarifying; a kind of pouncing, ſleight opening, or inciſion making in the skinne with a Fleame, Launcet, or other Inſtrument, either to giue ſome iſſue vnto ſuperfluous humors and bloud, or to prepare a place for the better extraction of cupping glaſſes.

Scarifier. To ſcarifie; to pounce, or ſleightly to open or make inciſion in, the skinne with a Fleame, Launcet, or other Inſtrument.

Scariole : f. Scariole; broad-leaued or garden Endiue, or white Endiue.

Scariotte. as Scariole.

Scarvine : f. A Pilgrims cloake.

Scaſſer. Looke Saſſer.

Scatophages. Dung-deuourers, excrement-eaters: ¶Rab.

Sçavamment. Skilfully, cunningly, learnedly.

Sçavant : m. ante : f. Skilfull, cunning, learned; wiſe, expert, aduiſed, of much knowledge, of great experience.

Sçavanteinent. as Sçavamment.

Sçavoir : m. Skill, knowledge, cunning, learning; vnderſtanding, experience in.

Quelque ſçavoir que ſoit en l'homme s'il n'a de l'argent l'on s'en mocque : Prov. The needie learned is but laught at; skill without riches is ridiculous.

Sçavoir. To know, kenne, wot, vnderſtand, conceiue, perceiue, diſcerne; to haue an inſight in, or good acquaintance with; alſo, to may or can, bee able, haue power.

Sçavoir ſa court. To be skilfull in courtlie intertainment; See Court.

Sçavoir bon gré à. To giue thankes, or acknowledge a beholdingneſſe, vnto.

Sçaurions nous boire en voſtre verre. May we, or will you make vs, or will you giue vs leaue to, drinke in your glaſſe.

A ſçavoir. To wit, that is to ſay.

A ſçavoir mon ? Whether or no? whether yea or no?

Il ſçait plus que ſon pain manger. Looke vnder Pain.

Aſſez ſçait qui ſçait vivre, & ſe taire : Prov. Hee is cunning ynough that can liue and hold his peace (for he that knowes more knowes too much; and as good know nothing as know leſſe.)

Celuy ſçait aſſez qui vit bien : Prov. An honeſt man hath skill ynough.

Il ne ſçait rien qui ne va par villes : Prov. Hee nothing knowes that knowes not more then his owne.

Il ne ſçait rien qui ne veut bien faire : Pro. He that will not doe well is ignorant.

Qui ne ſçait rien de rien ne doubte : Pro. He that knowes nothing nothing doubts of.

Scede. A wooden table, whereon, in old time, people writ with chalke.

Scedule. Looke Cedule, or Schedule.

Scelerat : m. A lewd villaine, wicked rogue; vngracious wretch, filthie fellow, naughtie packe.

Sceleré : m. ée : f. Lewd, naughtie, wicked, villanous; vnhappie, knauiſh, miſchieuous; vnnaturall, graceleſſe, or vngracious.

Scelete : m. The whole coagmentation of bones in their naturall poſition; alſo, an Anatomie made thereof; or a carkaſſe whereof nothing is left but the bones, which we call a Skelton, or Skeliton.

Scenicle. The little bird called a Siskin.

Sceptique : m. One that is euer ſeeking, and neuer finds; (the fortune, or humor of a Pyrrhonian Philoſopher.)

Sceptre : m. A (royall) Scepter; alſo, a Monarchie, kingdome, abſolute rule, Soueraigntie in chiefe.

Sceu : m. Knowledge, vnderſtanding, acquaintance, notice of.

Sceu : m. euë : f. Knowne, vnderſtood, conceiued, kenned, perceiued.

Il n'ay ſceu luy perſuader. I could not, I had not the power or haue not beene able to, perſuade him.

Schalupe : f. A Shallop.

Schede : f. A ſchedule, ſcroll, note, bill, (priuate) writing.

Schedule : f. The ſame; or as Cedule; alſo, a placard, or writing ſtucke on a poſt; alſo, the Returne made by a Sergeant, vpon an Adiournement or Arreſt; C'eſt auſsi la memoire qu'un Procureur baille au Greffe, ou au primier Huiſsier pour l'expedition d'une cauſe d'appel.

Schelette. Looke Scelete.

Schelme : m. A knaue, raſcall, varlet, lewd fellow; (from a German word that ſignifies wicked.)

Schine : f. The linnen caſſock which countrey men weare gathered in the necke like a Surplus.

Schiſmatique, & Schiſme. Looke Sciſmatique, & Sciſme.

Scholarité : f. Schollerſhip, ſchollerlineſſe, the being a ſcholler, the place of a ſcholler.

Scholaſtique : m. as Eſcolaſtre (in the firſt ſence.)

Scholaſtique : com. Scholaſticall, ſcholler-like.

Scholiaſte : m. A Scholiaſt; an expounder of, or gloſſer vpon, a text: ¶Rab.

Sciage : m. Saw-duſt; or, a ſawing; alſo, cleft wood, as boords, laths, vine-props, &c.

Sciatique : f. The Sciatica; a gowtie paine in the hip.

Sciatique : com. Of the Sciatica.

Veine Sciatique. The Sciatica veine, ſeated aboue the outward ankle.

Scie : f. A Saw.

Scie de mer. A kind of Whall which hath a Saw-like ſnowl.

Sciemment. Wittingly, with knowledge.

Science : f. Science, learning, learned skill, cunning, knowledge, vnderſtanding.

Vne ſcience requiert tout ſon homme : Prov. One Art is imployment ynough for one man.

Diligence paſſe ſcience : Pro. Diligence exceedeth Science.

Fy de Science, & d'art, qui en raiſon n'a part : Prov. Looke Fy.

Patience paſſe Science : Prov. Patience paſſeth Science.

Scientement. Knowingly, wittingly, of ſet purpoſe.

Scientifique : com. Scientificall, of exceeding skill, infinite learning, wonderfull knowledge.

Scientique : com. Moſt learned, skilfull, cunning, expert, aduiſed, of great knowledge (eſpecially in ill matters, for which this word is moſt commonly vſed.)

Scier. Looke Sier.

Sciette : f. A little Saw.
Scieur : m. A Sawer, or Sawyer.
Scille : f. The Squilla, or ſea Onion:
Scillet : m. The Nut of a (muſicall) Inſtrument.
Scillitic : m. ique : f. Of the Squilla, or ſea Onion.
Scinc, & Scinque : m. The Skinke ; a kind of ſmall land Crocodile, diuers parts whereof are of good vſe in Phyſicke.
Scintillation : f. A ſparking, or ſparkling.
Scintille : f. A ſparke, or ſparkle of fire.
Sintiller. To ſparke, or to ſparkle.
Sciomance. Diuination by conference with the ſhadows of dead men.
Scion : m. A Scion ; a young and tender plant ; a ſhoot, ſprig, or twig.
Scionneux : m. cuſe : f. Full of ſcions, or of ſhoots ; twiggie, ſpriggie.
Scipoulle. The ſea Onion.
Scirre : m. A hard and almoſt vnſencible ſwelling, or kernell, bred betweene the fleſh & skin, by cold, or of thick and clammie flegme.
Sciſmatique : com. A Sciſmaticke.
Sciſmatique : com. Sciſmaticall.
Sciſmatiser. To Sciſmatiſe it, or play the Sciſmatick ; to raiſe a Sciſme, or breed a diuiſion, in the Church.
Sciſme : m. A Sciſme ; a diuiſion in, or from, the Church.
Sciſſile : com. That may be cut or diuided, thats eaſie to cut.
Pierre ſciſſile. Seeke Pierre.
Sciſſure : f. A cleft, cut, cracke, bracke, chap.
Sciſſuré : m. ée : f. Cleft, chapped, cut, cracked, broken, diuided.
Sciuire. Looke Sieure.
Sclavine. as Eſclavine.
Sclirrolique. ¶Rab. Looke Shilirhoïque.
Scoffion : m. A coyfe, cawle, or head-tire richly ſet with Jewells.
Scoletie : f. A kind of ſpotted Spider.
Scolopendre : f. The Scolopendria, a reddiſh, many-legd, and venomous worme ; alſo, a certaine fiſh, which hauing ſwallowed a hooke, vomiteth her bowells, and rid of it, ſucketh them vp againe ; alſo, as Scolopendrie.
Scolopendrie : f. Spleenwort, Miltwort, Finger-fearne, Scale-fearne, Stone-fearne.
Scolopendrie vraye. The ſame ; called Vraye, to make it differ frõ Harts-tongue, or ſtone Harts-tongue, which is alſo (falſly) tearmed Scolopendria.
Scopetetie : f. A (great) volley of ſmall ſhot.
Scordion : m. Scordium, water Germander, Garlicke Germander.
Scorie : f. The draſſe, refuſe, or ſcumme of melted, or tried mettall.
Scorpene : f. A little darke-greene fiſh (in the Marſellian ſea) which hath certaine weake, but venemous prickles on her backe.
Scorpion : m. A Scorpion ; alſo, a kind of ſmall Dog.
Scorpion de mer. The ſea Scorpion ; a red, great-headed, and wide-mouthed fiſh, which hath but a few, and thoſe verie ſmall, teeth ; but in lieu thereof he is armed with many prickles both on his backe, and about his head.
Scorpion volant. The flying Scorpion ; a naue vermine ; and yet Mathiolus thinkes that Scorpions may haue wints as well as Ants.
Herbe aux Scorpions. Scorpion-wort, or Scorpion-graſſe.
Queuë de Scorpion. Great Torneſole, Wartewort.
Scorze : m. A round Italian corne-meaſure, 22 whereof goe to the Ruble.
Scorzon : m. A ſhort blacke Serpent full of yellow ſpots ; and ſo venomous & ſlinking withall, that all vermine feare, and (as much as they can) auoid him.
Scote. La ſcote d'une voile. A Sheat.
Scotin : m. ine : f. Difficult, intricate, obſcure, full of quirkes and quiddities.
Scotte. as Scote.
Scourgeon : m. Amell-corne, or Starch-corne ; a wild or degenerate Wheat, which is ſowne in the Spring, and being ground, yeelds a verie white, but verie light, and little nouriſhing, meale.
Scourre. La terre ne ſe ſçait ſcourre de cette herbe. The ground cannot ouercome, or bee rid of, this weed.
Scouſſe. Looke Secouſſe.
Scripteur : m. A Writer.
Scripule : m. A Scruple ; the third part of a Dramme ; Looke Scrupule.
Scrofulaire : f. Scrofularia, Pilewort, Figwort, Kernell-wort.
Scrofulaire majeur. Great Figwort, or Kernell-wort ; Some alſo call browne Worts, or water Bettonie, Scrofularia major.
Scrofulaire mineur. Figwort, Pilewort, little Celandine, or Celandine the leſſe.
Scrofule : f. The Kings euill ; or a Wenne vnder the throat.
Scrophulaire. Looke Scrofulaire.
Scropule : m. A little ſharpe ſtone falling into a mans ſhooe, and hindering him in his gate ; alſo, a ſcruple, doubt, feare, difficultie, care ; preciſeneſſe, niceneſſe, trouble of conſcience ; alſo, a Scruple ; a weight amounting vnto the third part of a Dramme.
Scrupule d'un Arpent. The 48 part of an Arpent, or ten foot ſquare euerie way.
Scrupuleuſement. Scrupulouſly, doubtfully, feareſully, nicely, preciſely.
Scrupuleux : m. cuſe : f. Scrupulous, doubtfull, feareſull, conſcientious, nice, preciſe.
Scrutine : f. Aſcrutinie, or ſearch.
Sculpteur : m. A Caruer, Cutter, Grauer.
Scutiforme : com. Faſhioned like a Scutcheon, ſhield-faſhion.
Cartilage ſcutiforme. as Fourchette.
Scybale. A hard or hardened, turd : ¶Rab.
Scylle : f. The ſea Onion.
Scync, & Scynque. Looke Scinc.
Scyomantie : f. Diuination by conference with the ſhadowes of dead men.
Scyrrhe. Looke Scirre.
Scyrrheux : m. euſe : f. Kernellie, knottie.
Scytale. The Scytall ; a daungerous Sloe-worme, whoſe backe is full of variable, & delightfull ſpots or marks ; alſo, the Shrew-mouſe ; alſo, a little round or ſquare ſticke full of cyphers.
Se. A Relatiue of both Numbers, and euer placed before a Verbe ; as in Il ſe trompe ; He deceiues himſelfe, or is deceiued.
Seamment. Fitly, comely, decently, handſomely.
Seance : f. Decencie, ſeemelineſſe, handſomeneſſe, comelineſſe, decorum ; alſo, a roome, ſeat, or place to ſit in ; alſo, a ſitting.
Seant : m. ante : f. Decent, ſeemelie, comelie, handſome, graceſull, well ſuting or fitting.
Seas. `A Dieu ſeas in ſtead of Sois : ¶Gaſc. ¶Rab.

Seau : m. A bucket, or water pale ; alſo, a ſeale, or ſignet; alſo, the chiefe Luminaire (wreathed, or in works) of wax vſed at funeralls.

Seau de noſtre Dame. Maries Seale, our Ladies Seale, blacke Brionie, the wild Vine.

Seau de Salamon. Salamons Seale, Scala cœli, White wort, White root.

Seau pendant à double queuë. A ſeale hanging at a double Labell ; alſo, one that hangs on a Gibbet.

I'y ay bien planté mes ſeaux. Looke Planté.

Sebe. An Onyon : ¶Langued.

Sebelline. Martre Sebel. The Sable Martin ; the beaſt whoſe skinne we call Sables.

Sebeſte, ou Sebeſtin. The Sebeſten, or Aſſyrian plum; a ſmall plumme darke-greene of colour, ſweet of taſt, and of a ſlimie or clammie ſubſtance.

Sebeſtier : m. The Sebeſten, or Aſſyrian plumme tree.

Sebille : f. A faſhion of woodden bowle vſed in Vintage-time, for the lading, or tunning of new wine, and for the taſting thereof before it be tunned; Looke Sibille.

Sebu. The Elder tree.

Sec : m. A drie thing ; whence;

Employer le verd, & le ſec. To vſe or imploy all the meanes he hath ; (from them which to make a fire big ynough, lay on wet wood as well as drie.)

Sec : m. ſeiche : f. Drie, iuyceleſſe, withered, ſapleſſe, without moiſture.

Pierre ſeiche. A ſtone laid without morter.

Pique ſeiche. An vnarmed Pikeman.

Rente ſeiche. A rent Seck; Looke Rente.

Son ſec. Courſe branne ; or branne wherein, by extremitie of boulting, not a whit of meale is left.

Suture ſeiche. A faſhion of cloſing wounds ; tearmed thus among Chirurgians, becauſe neither fleſh, nor skin is pricked thereby.

A ſec. (Aduerbially ; whence ;) Eſtre à ſec. To be on drie ground ; and thence, to be grauelled, or ſpent in words or meanes ; to haue no more to ſay.

Naviger à ſec. Aller aux mas, & aux cordes; Our Mariners ſay, to ſpoone.

Tirer les vaiſſeaux à ſec. To tow veſſells aſhore.

Sec. (Interject.) Ware that : ¶Rab.

Secacul. A certain Indian, and Ginger-like root, which eaten (preſerued, as euer it is) enables a man vnto venerie : and therefore haue ſome (erroniouſly) taken it for the Eringo, and others (as wiſely) for the Skirret root.

Seccer. To ſaw, or cut aſunder ; to cleaue, diuide, part.

Sechabot : m. The little blacke vermine breeding in puddles, and tearmed a Bulhead.

Seche : f. The Sound, or Cuttle-fiſh.

Secher. Looke Seicher.

Secheron. prez ſecherons. High, or drie medowes, ſuch as are neither ouerflowed, nor moiſtened by any riuer, &c.

Sechot : m. A Powt, or Eele-powt.

Secilſenne : f. The watering chaine of a Bit.

Seclus : m. uſe : f. Secluded, kept or ſhut vp, from ; depriued of.

Second : m. A ſecond, or aſſiſtant in a ſingle combate.

Second : m. onde : f. Second, next after, next vnto the the firſt, inferiour, another.

Seconde : f. The 24 part of a Prime ; a verie ſmall weight vſed by Goldſmithes, and Jewellers.

Secondé : m. ée : f. Seconded, followed next, approached neereſt vnto ; backed, ſuccoured, aſſiſted.

Secondement. Secondly, ſecondarily, in the ſecõd place, next after the firſt.

Seconder. To ſecond, follow cloſe or next, approach neereſt vnto ; alſo, to backe, helpe, ſuccour, aſſiſt.

Secoüé : m. ée : f. Shaken, ſwung, toſſed, iaulted, violently moued or ſtirred.

Secouëment : m. A ſhaking, ſwinging, toſſing, iaulting, violent mouing, iogging, ſtirring.

Secouër. To ſhake, toſſe, iault, ſwing, iog, ſtir vehemently, moue violently.

Vn Cheval qui ſecouë ſon homme. A horſe that trots dagger out of ſheath.

Secouëur : m. A ſhaker, toſſer, ſwinger, iaulter.

Secourable : com. Succouring, helpfull, comfortable, aſſiſting ; readie or willing to releeue.

Secourcer. To plucke or tucke vp the coat, &c, for dagging.

Secourgeon. as Scourgeon.

Secourir. To ſuccour, ſecond, releeue, comfort, back, aid, helpe, aſſiſt, further.

Secours : m. Succour, a ſeconding, reliefe, helpe, aid, aſſiſtance, comfort, furtherance.

Secours de Lombardie. Seeke Lombardie.

Le ſecours des Venetiens. A reſtoratiue after death, victualls vpon a full repaſt ; offer of helpe, or libertie, to one thats paſt the worſt, or newly gotten out of priſon ; Looke Venetien.

Secouſſe : f. A iault, ſhog, ſhocke, ſhake, ſwing, toſſe ; a violent iog or ſwindge, a ſudden pull.

Bailler vne mauvaiſe ſecouſſe à. To giue a terrible iert, or horribleruſh ; to worke much miſchiefe, or doe a miſchieuous turne, vnto.

Secret : m A ſecret, concealement, counſell, myſterie, hidden matter ; alſo, as Muſe.

Secret de deux ſecret de Dieu, ſecret de trois ſecret de tous : Prov. We onely ſay, that three may keep counſell when two are away.

Secret : m. ette : f. Secret, inward, priuie, cloſe, hidden, concealed, abſtruſe, darke, myſticall, vnknowne.

Secretain : m. The Sexton of a Church.

Secretainerie : f. A Sextrie, or Veſtrie.

Secretaire : m. A Secretarie, Clerke, Remembrancer ; whereof (beſides thoſe that belong to inferiour Princes, and Lords) there be many immediate, ordinarie, and houſhold ſeruants vnto the French King ; tearmed only, Secretaires, or Secretaires du Roy, and ſometimes Secretaires du Roy, & de la maiſon, & couronne de France, (although in truth they be not Officers of the Crowne :) Of theſe did Charles the fift inſtitute a Colledge, or Corporation, by the title of, Le College des Clercs, Notaires, & Secretaires du Roy, & de la maiſon, & Couronne de France: At which time there was but ſixtie of them, for the writing of all Pãtents, and diſpatches of the Chauncerie ; and their intertainment but ſix ſhillings Pariſis a day, beſides tenne pounds Tour. for their Droict de Manteaux, and ſome pettie fees out of the Chauncerie : But vpon the increaſe of buſineſſes Lewis, the eleuenth doubled their number ; and Henrie the ſecond, in the yere 1554, raiſed it vnto two hundred, giuing them 300 l. wages, in reſpect of all fees. In the yeare 1570 Charles the ninth ioyned vnto them fortie more ; and Henrie the third, in the yeare 1583, foureteene vnto thoſe, allowing them certaine vailes out of the Chauncerie ſeale, and 150 l. wages. Henrie the fourth added vnto all theſe, firſt 22, then 23, then nine (intertained at 300 l. wages, without any vayles) and in the yeare 1605, twentie ſix, to whom be aſſigned 1000 l. a yeare (eſpecially for ſuch of them as attended the finances,) And laſtly, in the yeare 1608, he made ten more (which hune 300l. wages) in respect of the reunion of his owne demaine vnto the Crowne. The King himselfe is the head of their College; they and their (legitimate) children are ennobled: And besides exemption from all manner of taxations, customes, tolls, impositions, lones, fines of alienation, rights of Seigniorie (for land held of the King;) and a discharge from the Ban, Arriereban, Musters, Harbingers, Estapes, and Salt-peter-men; and the being fee-free in all Courts of Justice; they enioy many excellent priuiledges.

Secretaires du cabinet. The Secretaries of the Closet; such of th'ordinarie (or extraordinarie) Secretaries as the King is pleased to imploy in his priuate, or secret dispatches.

Secretaires de la chambre du Roy. The Clerkes, or Secretaries of the Kings Chamber; are of a lower ranke, or, at the least, haue fewer priuiledges, then les Secretaires du Roy.

Secretaires de la Chancellerie. The Clerkes of the Chauncerie (whereto all th'ordinarie Secretaries originally belong) are, as some doe hold, most particularly, the foure and fiftie brought in by Charles the ninth, and Henrie the third.

Secretaires des commandemens; ou d'Estat. The foure principall Secretaries (who in France doe signe Letters Patents, as well as dispatches of Estate) must haue beene of the Colledge aforesaid; and, vntill of late, were not Officers in ordinarie, but Commissioners, executing their functions, and receiuing their fees, onely during the Princes pleasure.

Secretaires des finances. The remembrancers of the Exchequer (deriued from the same source) were likewise but Commissioners, vntill the yere 1605, when they procured themselues, and their successors, th'estate of Officers.

Secretaire, & Contrerolleur general des guerres. The Secretarie, or Comptroller generall of the warres, is to keepe a certaine Register, and account of all businesses concerning the leuie, musters, paiments, allowances, increase or decrease, imployment or ingarisoning of the Gendarmerie, and other ordinarie souldiers; and, hauing grounded vpon that account his controlment, must, three monethes after euerie yearelie payment, send the same vnto the Chamber of Accounts, and with it a copie of the Rolls of all Musters passed that yeare, that it may be compared with such as shal be deliuered, or sent in by the Treasurer of the warres.

Secretaires du Roy. Looke in the word Secretaire.

Secretariat: m. A Secretarishipp; th'Office of a Secretarie, or place wherein he exerciseth it.

Secrete: f. A thinne steele cap, or a close scull worne vnder a hat, &c.

Secretion: f. A separation or setting apart; also, a thing seperated or set apart, from others.

Secretrice: com. Of a separating facultie.

Secrette: f. as Secrete; also, a fiste (because it is let in secret;) also, a priuate or hidden place.

Secrettement. Secretly, inwardly, priuily, closely, biddenly, darkely, abstrusely, mystically.

Sectaire: com. A Sectarie; the ringleader, professor, or follower of a Sect; a seditious, factious, or turbulent person.

Secte: f. A sect, or faction; a rout, or troupe; a companie of one (most commonly bad) opinion.

Sectil: m. ile: f. Easily cut, soone cloven.

Porreau sectil. The cut Leeke, maidens Leeke, bladed Leeke, vnset Leeke.

Section: f. A section, cutting; diuision, parting; also, an Anatomie.

Sects. as Ceps: ¶Bourg.

Seculaire. Ieu seculaire. Which is played but once euerie age, or 100 yeares.

Seculariser. To secularize; to make secular, lay, temporall.

Seculariré: f. Secularitie, worldlinesse, temporallnesse.

Seculier: m. ere: f. Secular, lay, temporall.

Seculierement. Secularly, temporally.

Securidaque: f. The pulse Axseed, Axwort, Axfitch, Hatchet-fitch.

Securité: f. Securitie, retchlesnesse, carelesnesse.

Sedatif: m. iue: f. Quieting, assuaging, mitigating, easing, appeasing, slinting.

Sedenette: f. The Sea-monster called a Whirlepoole.

Sedentaire: com. Sedentarie, euer-sitting, or downe-sitting.

Iuges sedentaires. Ordinarie Judges, such as (almost) euerie day sit in Court.

Seder. To still, quiet, assuage, qualifie, mitigate, pacifie, appease.

Sediment: m. A sitting or setling of dregs, &c, in the bottome of liquor that hath stood.

Seditieusement. Seditiously, factiously, mutinously, turbulently.

Seditieux: m. euse: f. Seditious, factious, busie, vnquiet, mutinous, turbulent, tumultuous.

Sedition: f. A sedition, mutinie, publicke faction, strife, contention, tumult, vprore.

Sedon. Looke Ceton.

Seducteur: m. A seducer, misleader, deceiuer.

Seduction: f. A seduction, seducing, misleading, deceiuing.

Seduict: m. cte: f. Seduced, misled, deceiued.

Seduire. To seduce, mislead, beguile, deceiue.

Sedulité: f. Sedulitie, diligence.

Sée. Looke Soye.

Seel: m. A Seale, or Signet.

Seel authentique. An authenticke, publicke, or approued Seale, such as that of Lords high Iusticiers; which notwithstanding was restrained within the limits of the land, and Iurisdiction of the Lord thereof, vntill the yeare 1539; since when an Edict hath gained it allowance, and made it fit to hold plea, in any place, if th'Obligor, at the time of th'obligatiõ made, was resident vpon the territorie, or otherwise subiect vnto the Iurisdiction, of the Lord vnto whom it belongs.

Seel royal. The Kings Seale for contracts, &c, executorie, and authenticall, within all his dominions.

Droict de Seel. Seeke vnder Droict.

Seellé: m. A couenant made, or contract passed, betweene partie & partie, vnder seale; also, the sealing of a thing.

Seellé: m. ée: f. Sealed.

Seeller. To seale.

Seelleur: m. A Sealer.

Seellure: f. A sealing.

Seession. faire seession. To fall bankrupt.

Seeux. Looke Soyeux.

Segaline: f. A delicate peare thats ripe in August.

Segle. Looke Seigle.

Segnale: com. Notable, of marke, famous, renowmed.

Segrarie: f. A Verdererships; or such a like Office of account in forrests.

Segrayer: m. A Verderer, or such a like Officer of some authoritie, in forrests.

Segrayerie: f. as Segrarie.

Segregation: f. A segregation, separation, seuering frõ.

Se-

Segregé: m. ée: f. Segregated, ſeperated, ſeuered, culled or taken out, layed or put apart.

Segreger. To ſegregate, ſeperate, ſeuer, put or lay apart, cull or take out, from.

Segrette: f. An yron ſcull, or cap of ſence.

Segue: f. Hemlocke, Homlock, hearb Benaet, Kex.

Seguette: f. A Cauelſon, of yron ſull of teeth, or hauing a ſharpe indented edge to the noſeward.

Sehu. The Elder tree.

Seiage (dis bleds.) A reaping, or cutting downe (of corne.)

Sejan. Cheval de Sejan. A horſe that brought ill hap to all that poſſeſſed him.

Seiche: f. The Sound, or Cuttle fiſh.

Seiche poupe. The Pourcontrell, Preke, or Many-feet.

Seiche. (The Feminine to Sec,) Looke Sec.

Seiche-frite. as Liche-frite.

Seichemént: m. A drying, or drayning of moiſture; a parching or withering; a pining or waſting away.

Seichément. Dryly, barrenly, witheredly, without ſap, iuice, or moiſture.

Seicher. To dry, drayne of moiſture; parch or wither; pine or waſt away.

Seicher ſur les pieds. To pine away through fretfullneſſe; alſo, to be in great perplexitie, or much trouble of heart.

Qui va il leſche, qui repoſe il ſeiche: Pro. The traueller gaines, the loyterer waines; the labouring man gets appetite, but ſloath dryes vp the bodie quite.

Seichereſſe: f. Drought, dryneſſe, want of moiſture, barrenneſſe.

Seicheron. Looke Secheron.

Seicheur: m. A dryer; one that layes out things to dry.

Seicheur: f. Looke Seichereſſe.

Seides: f. The briſtles, or ſtiffe haires of a Horſe, or Hog.

Seier. To reape or cut downe, as Corne, &c.

Seieur: m. A Reaper.

Seigle: m. Rye.

Seigle blanc. Amelcorne, Starch-corne.

Seignée: f. Phlebotomie, bloud-letting.

Seigner. Looke Signer.

Seigneur: m. A Lord; Sir; Signior; a Maiſter; a Landlord, or a Lord of Juriſdiction; a Proprietarie, or Owner.

Seigneurs honoraires. Titularie Lords; ſuch as haue honour without authoritie; ſuch as (like our Engliſh Earles) beare the title, but want the poſſeſſion, of a place; and ſuch as, in reſpect of their Title (whatſoeuer) hold not in chiefe, or of the King, but of ſome other Lord his ſubiect.

Seigneurs mediocres. Are Vidames, Vicounts, and Barons (not holding immediately of the Crowne) and Chattelains.

Gracieux ſeigneur. See Gracieux.

Grands ſeigneurs. Be Dukes, Marqueſſes, Earles, and Princes; as alſo, Vicounts, and Barons, that hold immediately of the Crowne.

Petits ſeigneurs. Lords Iuſticiers, Lords (onely) of Juriſdiction.

Vn ſeigneur de beurre (de ſeurre, ou de paille) combat, (vainc, ou mange) bien vn vaſſal d'acier: Prov. (So great oddes hath a Lord of his tenant, or a Prince of his ſubiect.)

Tel ſeigneur tel chien: Pro. Such as a maiſter, ſuch his man will be.

De tel ſeigneur telle meſnie; &, De nouueau ſeigneur nouuelle meſnie: Pro. Looke Meſnie.

Aujourd'huy ſeigneur demain ſinge ord: Prov. To day a worthie Lord, to morrow an ape vntoward; viz. an abſurd imitator of that which he was, or ſhould be.

Au monde n'y a ſi grand dommage que de ſeigneur au fol courage: Prov. There is no beaſt like to a wicked Lord.

C'eſt folie de manger ceriſes auec ſon ſeigneur: Pro. Looke Ceriſe.

Iamais ne gaigne qui plaide à ſon ſeigneur: Prov. He neuer thriues who with his maiſter ſtriues.

On ne doit pas laiſſer bonne terre pour mauuais ſeigneur: Prov. Quit not good land becauſe of a bad Landlord.

Qui auec ſon ſeigneur mange poires il ne choiſit pas des meilleures: Pro. He that eats Peares with his Lord, picks none of the beſt.

Qui de ſes ſubiects eſt hay, n'eſt pas ſeigneur de ſon pais: Prov. The Lord whose ſubiects cannot well indure him, finds no place in his countrey to ſecure him.

Qui voit la maiſon de ſon ſeigneur il n'y a profit ny honneur: Pro. One's not the neerer to eſteeme, or wealth, by looking on his Landlords houſe, or perſe.

Tant que le ſeigneur dort le vaſſal veille: Prov. As long as a Lord forbeares to ſeize his vaſſalls land (for want of homage, &c,) the vaſſall may lawfully, and without any wrong done to him, enioy it, and take the profits of it.

Tant que le vaſſal dort le ſeigneur veille: Pro. Seeke Vaſſal.

Seigneuriage: m. Seigniorie, ſouueraigntie; maiſterie, dominion ouer.

Droict de ſeigneuriage. as vnder Droict; or, Ce que vient de bon au Roy outre, & par deſſus, le fin qui eſt en la monnoye, & les frais de la fabrication d'icelle.

Seigneurial: m. ale f. Seigniorall, Lordlie, Lord-like, of a Lord, or Landlord.

Droicts ſeigneuriaux. Ce ſont ceux qui ſont deus au Seigneur, comme ſi c'eſt fief, la feudalité, droicts, & deuoirs; ſi c'eſt heritage tenu en cenſiue les lots & ventes, & le cens, qu'il faut entendre du chef cens qui eſt deu en ſigne, & recognoiſſance de ſeigneurie portant lots, ventes, & amende.

Seigneurie: f. Seigniorie, lordſhip, ſouueraigntie, maieſtie, dominion; abſolute ſway of, or power ouer; a freehold, full intereſt, or propertie in, a thing; alſo, a Lordſhip, or Mannor; the Iuriſdiction, or Territorie belonging to a Lord, &c; alſo, the ſocietie, or corporation of ſuch as command in free Townes; alſo, an aſſemblie, or companie of great Lords, and Ladies.

Seigneurie directe. The eſtate of a Landlord; the receiuing of ſeruices, rents, or cens for land.

Seigneurie privée. An actuall enioyment of, or an aſſured propertie in, a thing; a mans particular intereſt in his owne.

Seigneurie publique. Iuriſdiction; a ſuperioritie, or authoritie ouer perſons, or their poſſeſſions.

Seigneurie ſouueraine. (A branch, or ſpecies of La publique) the ſoueraigne authoritie of abſolute Princes.

Seigneurie ſuzeraine. (Another) the dignitie of a fief hauing Iuriſdiction; the power of the Lord, or owner of ſuch a fief.

Seigneurie vtile. The poſſeſſion, vſe, or occupation of land, for which rents, &c, be paied, or ſeruices done, to another; the eſtate of a vaſſall, or tenant.

Oncques

Oncques amour,& seigneurie ne se tindrent compagnie: Prov. True loue,and lordlinesse neuer held correspondencie; friendship,and lordship agree not long together.

Plein poing de seigneurie vaut cinq sols l'an: Prov. Honour without profit is like a six-pennie rent to one that hath nothing else to liue on.

Seigneurier. To seigniorize,rule, sway, gouerne, domineere, play the Lord,haue power ouer.

Seille: f. A Paile, or Bucket.

Seillon: m. A ridge, or (high) furrow; also,the gutter, or hollow furrow made by a plough in the turning of it vp; also,a butt, or land, consisting of diuers of those ridges, or furrowes; also, the narrow trench,reyne, or furrow,left betweene butt and butt for the drayning thereof.

Seillonné: m. ée: f. Furrowed; made into furrowes, ridges,butts,&c; also,plowed vp, diuided, cut or clouen asunder,as the sea by a ship.

Seillonner. To furrow; to plough, or turne vp into ridges, furrowes; butts; reynes,or narrow trenches; also, to diuide,cut,or cleaue asunder; whence;

Seillonner la mer. To sayle; to cut,or part (as a ship vnder sayle) the waues of the sea.

Seillonner vne presse de gens. To make a lane, or giue a furious charge,through a close batallion,or presse of people.

Seime de vin. The flower, or coat of wine; the white, stuffe that floats on the top of it being in Caske.

Sein: m. The bosome; the lap; also, the inward mind,or thought; the height,or depth of the heart, or affection; also,a gulfe,creeke,nooke,angle or arme of the sea,or of a riuer; and, the turning, or hollownesse of a water-banke; also, seame, tallow, or suet; also, a freckle, or mole; also, a signe manuell; or as Sing, in the former sences.

Cette femme a du sein. This woman wants no dugs, no bulke,no bombast; she is simply vnderlayed.

Seine: f. A verie great and long fish-net called,a Seane; also,a circuit,or compasse.

Seing. Looke Sing.

Sejour: m. A lingering,stay,leisure,delay;also,residence, tarriance, a remaining or soiourning in one place; also, a place of residence, or for abode; a place to soiourne, rest,or stay in.

Fol de sejour. An idle fellow, one that hath little to doe.

Sejourné. Lingered, soiourned, stayed, remained,resident in a place.

Vn homme sejourné. Refreshed by rest, or leisure-taking,and thereby the more fit to returne vnto his former toyle.

Sejourner. To soiourne,tarrie,stay,remaine,be resident in; to pawse, linger, delay, take leisure; to intermit either studie,or other imployment; to make holyday; also, to leaue,let stay, giue leisure vnto.

Seissete: f. A kind of pale-red wheat.

Seizain: m. A quarter of an ounce; or, the 64 part of a pound (weight.)

Seize. Sixteene.

Sel: m. Salt.

Sel alcali, ou alkali. A salt made of the ashes of the hearbe Glassewort,or Saltwort, burned with diuers other hearbes (in lesse quantitie.)

Sel ammoniac,ou armoniac. Salt Ammicke; a medicinable drug resembling stone Allum,and found in long flakes vnder the Cyrenian sand.

Sel gemmé. A transparent,and shining minerall salt, gotten in Calabria,and Capadocia.

Sel Indien, ou d' Inde. The onely sugar, which Dioscorides, and other auncient writers were acquainted with; distilling of it selfe from the canes, like a gumme, in little peeces, and thus tearmed, because resembling gray salt.

Sel de Languedoc. White salt, fine salt.

Sel de Lezard. A medicinable, and comfortable salt, comming of a Lizard (in Summer) beheaded, bowelled, stuffed with salt, and layed in a shadie place vntill he be dry.

Sel marin. Salt made of sea-water; or, our ordinarie gray salt.

Sel mineral. as Sel gemmé; (and yet one kind of it, gotten in the Countie of Tirolis, neither shines, nor is transparent,but resembles a reddish Marble.)

Sel nitre. Niter; Looke Nitre.

Sel de pierre. Salt-peeter; called so by Chymists.

Sel de Poictou,& de Ponant. Blacke salt,gray salt.

Sel sacerdotal. A powder compounded of two ounces and a halfe of Salt, foure ounces of fine Cynnamon, Ameos,Siler Mountaine, Hyssope, wild Marierome, and Penniroyall,of each halfe an ounce; all dryed together; this purges the bodie, consumes flegme, stops the cough, clenses the eyes, sweetens the breath, eases the teeth, appeases headache, preserues youth, and giues vigor to old age(if some Phisitions may be beleeued.)

Sel sel. An oyle that commeth from Hearbe-salt, or Sel-alcali, first calcinated,then beaten to powder,and set on a peece of glasse in a moist cellar.

Sel viperin. A medicinable salt, made of a liue Viper, ordinarie salt, honey, and dry figges,incloſed,and with fat earth stopped vp, in a new earthen pot, and then baked in a furnace vnto a consistence of coales.

Escume de sel. Sea-foame salt; comes of water left by a tempestuous,and foaming sea in the holes of rockes, and there congealed and turned into salt by the Sunne.

Fleur de sel. A brackish foame or skumme that floates on the riuer Nilus,and on certaine Lakes; of colour yellow, fat or oylie of consistence, and vnpleasant in tast; the right (for it is often sophisticated with a kind of red earth) cannot be resolued but in oyle; the false one melts, and looses colour,in water.

Violet de sel. A certaine rustie colour which tasteth like to La Fleur de sel.

Doux de sel. A fresh-man, shallow,vnaduised,of little experience, a nouice,one thats not acquainted with the course of the world.

Sans sel. Fresh, vnsauorie, vnseasoned, foolish, idle, without grace.

Manger à vn grain de sel. Seeke Manger.

Prendre son sel. To take his liquor soundly.

C'est vn banquet de diables ou il n'y a point de sel: Pro. The feast that wanteth salt is fit for deuills.

Qui envoye chetif à la mer il n'en rapporte poisson, ne sel: Pro. He that imployes a knaue (or a foole) either looses,or gaines but a little.

Selenite. A light,white,and transparent stone, easily cleft into thin flakes,whereof the Arabians, among whom it growes,make their glasse,and glasen windowes.

Selerin. Looke Celerin.

Selle: f. A saddle.

Cheval entre deux selles. A horse of a middle size.

Selle: f. A stoole,or seat; (any illfauored, ordinarie, or countrey stoole, of a cheaper sort then the ioyned, or buffet-stoole;) also,a (purgatiue) stoole,or the excrement voided at a stoole.

Selle percée. A chaire of easement,a close-stoole.

Selle

Selle à ribauldes, ou à ricaldes. A Cuck-stoole.
Assis entre deux selles le cul à terre; &, Il est demeuré entre deux selles à terre. Betweene two stooles the arse goes to the ground (say we.)
Seller. To saddle, as a horse, &c.
Sellette: f. A foot-stoole, or low stoole; also, a pad, or saddle for a Cart-horse.
Sellier: m. A Sadler; (tearmed also, Sellier lormier, because he may vent, or deale for, all kind of Spurriers ware.)
Selon. As, euen as, according vnto; in the opinion, like to the fashion, after the rate, or manner, of.
Selsir. The rotting Serpent Seps.
Semaille: f. Seed sowne; also, a crop, or plants, come vp of seed; also, a sowing; also, sowing or seeding time; also, Gossimeare, or the Cobweb-like exhalations that float in the ayre during hot, and open weather; (In which sence, as also in some of the other, this word is vsed plurally.)
Semailles d'avoine. The seed-time for Oates, beginneth about the 15. of March.
Semailles de febves. About the 26 of Februarie.
Semailles de froment. About the 3 of October.
Semailles d'orges. About the 5 of Aprill.
Semailles de pois. About the 3 of March.
Semailles de seigles. Rye-seed-time, is about the 18 of September.
Semaine: f. A weeke.
Elle a sa male semaine. She hath her flowers.
Semainier: m. One that workes, or does ought, by the weeke.
Semainier: m. ere: f. Weekelie, eueric weeke, of or belonging to a weeke.
Semaises: f. Great woodden pots, out of which the Germans fill their glasses at meale-times.
Semaison. as Semaille.
Semantiere. (Vsed in some countries for Cemetiere*) a Churchyard.*
Semblable: com. Semblable, like, alike, such, euen such, resembling, according vnto.
Chascun cerche son semblable: Prov. Like will to like; all men a make desire.
Semblablement. Semblably, likewise, in like sort, in such fashion, after the same manner, also, euen so.
Semblance: f. A semblance, shew, seeming, apparance; also, resemblance, likenesse, like forme, alike feature, the same posture or fashion.
Orgueilleuse semblance monstre folle cuidance: Prov. A prowd looke shewes the heart's possest with follie.
Semblant: m. A shew, seeming, semblance, apparance, countenance.
Faire semblant. To seeme, or make as if; Faire semblant de. To take notice, or be sencible, of.
Semblé. Seemed, made shew of.
Il t'a ainsi semblé du commencement. Thou thoughtest so, or wast of that opinion, euen from the beginning.
Sembler. To seeme, or make shew of; also, to resemble.
Il me semble que. Me thinks, it seemes to me, I am of aduise, or opinion, that.
Semé: m. ée: f. Sowed or sowne; also, powdered, set thicke, or couered all ouer, with; also, spread, or published, abroad.
Cier semé. Thinne-set, or sowne; rare, seild, scant, scarce.
Teste de cerf bien semée. A Stags head which hath all it spillers, rochers, and scratchers on both sides.
Qui a semé ces paroles? Whence comes this rumor, who began or broached it, who was the author of it?
Semeler. To sole a shoo, &c.
Semelle: f. The sole of a shoo; also, a foot in the measuring of a leage.
Iusques à la semelle du pied seulement. Shallowly, sleightly, but a verie little.
Semelles, & du vin passent chemin: Prov. Wine is the footmans caroche; a strong foot, and a light head rid way apace.
Semence: f. Seed; also, seeding or sowing time; also, a sowing of seed; also, the seed, sperme, or nature of man or beast; and hence, the originall, beginning, chiefe root, principall author, of a thing; also, any thing that is but small, or by reason thereof, but smally accounted of.
Semence saincte. Wormeseed.
Telle semence telle moisson: Prov. Looke how you sow [illegible] shall you reape.
Semence: m. ée: f. as Semé.
Semencier: m. ere: f. Of seed, containing seed.
Sementine: f. A certaine Peare so called, because it is alwaies ripe about seeding time.
Semer. To sow; to set; to powder, or couer ouer with; also, to spread or disperse, to diuulge or publish abroad.
Semer vn grain d'orge pour attraper vn pigeon. Looke Orge.
Semer guerre. To raise, moue, stirre vp, giue occasion of, warre.
Semer des roses aux pourceaux. To strew pearles before Swine.
On seme les bleds à l'avanture: Pro. Looke Bled.
Qui peu seme peu prend: Pro. Little sow little mow.
Semestre: m. A tearme of six monthes. (This word properly belongs to the Parliament of Britaine, halfe the Iudges, and Officers whereof doe sit, and attend par semestre; viz: full six monthes; which ended, the other halfe succeed, for as long, in their places.)
Semestre: com. Of, or for, six monthes.
Iuges semestres. Such as attend but euerie other Tearme, or sit but euerie other halfe yeare.
Semeur: m. A sower; setter, planter; author, beginner.
Semidroict: m. Base, or low Iurisdiction.
Semillant: m. ante: f. Wantonly vnquiet, or stirring; euer figging, fidging, or frigging; foolishly restlesse, or remouing from place to place.
Semillon: f. A wanton stirring, or strugling; a restlesse figging, fidging, or frigging.
Seminal: m. ale: f. Of seed.
Semoisson. as Semaille.
Semolé: f. The fine flower of an excellent fine Italian wheat, ministred by Phisitions in Panadoes & brothes; and some seldome times vsed in bread; euerie way very nourishing.
Semonce: f. A bidding, lathing, inuiting; also, a warning, citation, summons.
Semoncer. as Semondre.
Semondre. To bid, lathe, inuite; also, to summon, warne, cite.
Semonneur: m. A Summoner, Citer, Apparitor; also, an inuitor, or bidder of guests.
Semoule. as Semole; also, ground wheat thats between meale and flower, or hath onely the coursest of the bran sifted from it.
Sempervive: m. Houseleeke, Sengreene, Aigreene.
Sempervive maieur. Great Houseleeke, Bullockes eye,

eye, Iupiters beard, Iupiters eye.

Sempervive marin. Hearbe Aloes, ſea Houſeleeke, ſea Aigreene.

Sempervive mineur. Prickmadam.

Sempervive ſauvage. Spaniſh Orpine, Orpine of Hungarie, ioynted Orpine.

Sempiternel: m. elle: f. Sempiternall, immortall, euerlaſting, perpetuall, continuall, aye-during.

Sempiterneux: m. euſe: f. The ſame.

Vieille ſempiterneuſe. An euerlaſting Hag, a tough or toothleſſe trot.

Sen deſſus deſſous. Topſie turuie, vpſide downe.

Senacle. A height, or ſtorie in a building.

Senat: m. A Senat, or Counſell of Citizens.

Senateur: m. A Senator, or common Counſellor in a Citie.

Senaud: m. A knaue, raſcall, varlet; alſo, a craftie lacke; or a rich micher, a rich man that pretends himſelfe to be verie poore.

Sené: m. A Synod, or Aſſemblie of Curates before their Ordinarie, or Dioceſan.

Bon gré mal gré va le preſtre au ſené: Pro. As vnder Gré.

Sené: m. Sene; a little purgatiue ſhrub or plant.

Sené d'Alexandrie. Sene of Alexandria; the beſt kind of Sene.

Seneçon: m. The hearbe Groundſell.

Grand ſeneçon. Great Groundſell; hath a ſtaulke two foot high, and furniſhed with rough, deepe-iagged, and whitiſh leaues.

Petit ſeneçon. The leſſe Groundſell; Gerards ordinarie, and ſmooth-leafed Groundſell.

Senedette: f. A kind of great Whall, which from the top of her head ſpowts a huge quantitie of water.

Senegré: m. The hearbe, or ſeed Fenegreeke.

Senelles: f. Heps, or Hawthorne berries.

Sener. To gueld, or ſpay a young Bore, &c.

Senes. Twelue, or two ſixes at dice. ¶Rab.

Seneſchal: m. A Seneſchall; the Prefect, or Preſident, the chiefe Iuſtice, or Magiſtrate, of a precinct; and of the ſame authoritie thats enioyed by the Bailli, from whom he differs in nothing but in name; yet heretofore it ſeemes he (being in diuers places onely a Iudge to a Lo. Bas Iuſticier) was little other, or better, then the ſteward of a particular Mannor.

Le grand Seneſchal de France. So was Le grand Maiſtre called in old time.

Seneſchauſſée: f. A Seneſchallſhip; the Iuriſdiction of a Seneſchall, or the precinct within which he gouernes.

Seneſſon. Looke Seneçon.

Seneſtre: com. Siniſter; left; (whence, La main ſeneſtre, &c.)

Senevé: m. Muſtard ſeed, or Senuie ſeed, whereof muſtard is made; alſo, the hearbe that beares it.

Senevé blanc. Common Senuie, field Muſtard; beares (in ſome places) a white flower, and a blackiſh, or browne ſeed.

Senevé de Iardin. Common Senuie, blacke Muſtard.

Senevé iaulne. White Muſtard, garden Muſtard; is leafed like the Turnip; yeelds a yellow flower, and a whitiſh yellow ſeed.

Senevé ſauvage. Wild Muſtard, Treacle Muſtard; alſo, Thlapſia, wild Creſſes, diſh Muſtard, Bowyers Muſtard, churles Muſtard.

Sengle. as Sangle; a girth.

Sengle: com. Single, not double, all alone, ſimple, without addition, of it ſelfe.

Senglot: m. The hickocke; a yexing.

Sengloter. Looke Senglouter.

Sengloteur: m. One that hath the hickocke; a yexer.

Senglout. Looke Senglot.

Senglouter. To yex, or haue the hickocke.

Senicle. as Sanicle; alſo, the little Siskin (bird.)

Senné. The purging plant Sene.

Senné de Levant. Sene of the Eaſt, Leuant Sene, the beſt kind of Sene.

Sens: m. Sence, wit, conceit, apprehenſion, vnderſtanding, iudgement, reaſon, knowledge, opinion, thought; alſo, naturall ſence, or feeling; and, a ſence, or one of the fiue ſences; alſo, the ſence, meaning, or conſtruction of a writing, &c.

Dents de ſens. The temme iaw teeth.

Os du ſens commun. The forhead bone.

Sens devant, & ſens derriere. ¶Rab. wherein this word either ſignifies, a ſmell; or (Imperatiuely of Sentir,) ſmell; or equiuocates with Cent, a hundred.

A tous ſens. Euerie way, by all wayes or meanes, in any caſe, whatſoeuer come of it.

En tous ſens. Euerie way, to all purpoſes, howſoeuer you take it.

En tous les deux ſens. On both ſides, both wayes.

Cela eſt bon ſens à eux. That is wiſely done of them, or turnes greatly to their aduantage; and, Et eſt bon ſens à eux de. And their beſt, or ſafeſt courſe is; or, it is wiſely done of them, to.

I'y mettray tous mes cinq ſens. I will imploy my beſt indeuors in the matter.

A vn fol aventureux n'eſt meſtier d'avoir ſens: Prov. A foole that is aduenturous needes not to looke about him.

En amour eſt folie, & ſens: Prov. Loue is both fond, and wittie; in loue's both folie, and wit.

En petite teſte giſt grand ſens: Pro. Within a little skonce, great skill.

Il eſt bien fol qui à fol ſens demande: Pro. He that expects a wiſe part from a foole, is the more foole of the two.

Nul n'a trop pour ſoy de ſens, d'argent, de foy: Pro. No perſon for his owne vſe hath exceſſe of money, wiſedome, faith.

Qui perd le ſien perd le ſens: Prov. Looke vnder Perdre.

Sens. (Adverb.) ſens deſſous deſſus. Arſie varſie, topſie turuie, top ouer tayle, vpſide downe.

Sens devant derriere. Prepoſterouſly; or, as vnder Devant.

Senſible: com. Sencible, feeling, palpable; paſſionate at; which is, or may be, felt.

Senſiblement. Sencibly, palpably, feelingly.

Senſitif: m. iue: f. Senſitiue, ſencible, feeling, that hath ſence or feeling.

Senſouïre: f. Exceſſiue ſaltneſſe of ſoyle; a vice or fault in land, bred by the noiſome ſlyme of ſalt marſhes.

Senſualité: f. Senſualitie, libertiniſme, or epicuriſme; the pleaſing of ſence, contentment giuen to the appetite, ſatisfaction to the fleſh.

S'enſuit. Que s'enſuit il? What of that? what makes matter? what followes or comes of it?

Sentant. Feeling, ſenting, ſmelling, venting, winding.

Sentant ſon aller de pis en pis. Seeing he went worſe and worſe.

Sentant ſon coeur. See Coeur.

Sente: f. A hollow path, a narrow (and well beaten) way; Looke Sentier.

Sen-

Sentement: m. A feeling; a fenting, ſmelling, venting, winding; taſting, ſauouring.

Sentence: f. A ſentence, or pithie ſaying; alſo, a ſentence, decree, iudgement, order, or award of a Court; alſo, an opinion deliuered, or aduiſe giuen, in a matter.

De fol iuge breve ſentence: Prov. The foole hath quickly vttered his thoughts; or, the fooles award is giuen in few words.

Sententier. To ſentence, adiudge, order, decree, condemne; to giue ſentence, deliuer his opinion, pronounce an award.

Sententieuſement. Sententiouſly, pithily, grauely, wiſely.

Sententieux: m. euſe: f. Sententious, graue, wiſe, pithie, ſolide, full of matter, ſtuffie, inſtructiue.

Senteur: f. Sent, odor, ſmelling, ſauor.

Sentier: m. A path, or way, of a prettie breadth; whence;

Sentier de Boullenois. Is, by the cuſtomes of that place, to be fiue foot broad.

Sentier de Bourgongne. Is to be foure foot, and a halfe.

Sentier de Clermont, & de Vallois. Is, by the cuſtomes of thoſe places, to be foure foot broad.

Sentier: m. ere: f. Of, or in, a path.

Sentiment: m. as Sentement.

Sentine: f. The ſinke of a ſhip, &c.

Sentine mere. A little Salt-boat, or Barke.

Sentinelle: f. A Sentinell, or Sentrie; a common ſouldior appointed to ſtand, and watch in a certaine place.

Sentinelle d'amour. A bawd.

Lever de ſentinelle. To relieue, withdraw, or take off, a Sentinell; alſo, to remoue, or diſlodge.

Sentir. To feele; alſo, to ſent, ſmell, vent, wind; alſo, to taſt or ſauor; alſo, to beare; alſo, to yeeld a ſent, ſauor, or taſt; or to ſent, ſauor, or taſt, of; to haue a ſmacke, touch, or ſpice, of.

Sentir ſon bien. Cela ſent ſon bien. Thats comelie, ſeemelie, orderlie, or as it ſhould be.

Sentir vn peu de boire. To be a little cupſhotten.

Sentir ſon Mardi-gras. Cela ſent ſon &c; is verie licentiouſly handled, or vttered.

Sentir la marée. To looke like a whore.

Sentir la vieille guerre. To be of the old ſtampe; to vſe, or be in, an old faſhion.

Sentir ſa bonne ville, & ſa petite ville. See Ville.

Ie me ſens de cette cheute. I ſmart, or am the worſe, for, I feele to my paine, or I am yet ſencible of, this fall.

Sentive: f. The faculties, vertue, or power of feeling, ſmelling, &c.

Sentrille: f. A kind of freſh-water fiſh.

Seoir. To ſit; Se ſeoir. To ſit him downe.

Il ſe peut ſeoir ſans contredit qui ſe met là ou ſon hoſte luy dit: Prov. He needs not feare to be chidden that ſits where he is bidden; (The like is;)

Il ſe peut bien ſeoir à table quand le maiſtre luy commande: Prov. Well may he ſit him downe whom he that may ſets downe.

Sep: m. The ſtocke of a Vine; alſo, as Eſtallon.

Les ſeps. as Des Ceps.

Quand le chou paſſe le ſep le vigneron meurt de ſoif: Pro. When Cabbages ouergrow the Vine, there will be a great dearth of wine.

Separaiſon: f. as Separation; alſo, a baulke, or diuiſion betweene two lands.

Separation: f. A ſeperation, ſeuering, ſundering, diuiſion, diſiunction, diuorce; a renting, parting, or putting aſunder.

Separatoire: m. A ſeperatorie; the Chizell or Inſtrument wherewith Surgeons cut out the peeces of bones left beeweene the holes which they haue bored with a Trepan.

Separé: m. ée: f. Seperated, ſeuered.

Separément. Seperately, ſeuerally, aſunder.

Separer. To ſeperate, ſeuer, part, ſunder, diſioyne, diuide, vntwine, diuorce, diſiunite, put aſunder.

Sepe: m. The Seps; a broad-headed, and ſharp-mouthed serpent (of many colours, and about two cubites in length) which rots the bodie he bites.

Sepedon. as Sepe.

Sepmaine: f. Looke Semaine.

Sepmainier: m. as Dommas.

Sepmainier: m. ere: f. Weekelie, each weeke, of or in a weeke.

Sept. Seuen.

Septaine: f. The precinct, bounds, or liberties of a Towne; the compaſſe of ground, or circuit of countrey, ſubiect vnto the Iuriſdiction thereof.

Septante. Seuentie, threeſcore and tenne.

Septantieſme. The ſeuentieth.

Septembre. The month of September.

Le flot de Septembre. The great ſpring-tydes of the Autumne Equinoctiall.

Purée de Septembre. Wine.

Septembrin: m. ine: f. Of, or in, September.

Liqueur ſeptembrine. Wine.

Septenaire: m. A ſeuenth, a proportion of ſeuen, the number of ſeuen.

Septenaire: com. Containing ſeuen, in, of, or belonging to, ſeuen.

Par les chainons ſeptenaires. In euerie ſeuenth linke.

Septentrion: m. The North.

Septentrional: m. ale: f. Northerlie, of or in the North.

Septerée: f. A Septier full of; or, as Seſterée.

Septiéme, & Septiémement. Looke Septieſme.

Septier: m. A certaine Meaſure; of vſe for diuers things, and thereby of diuers ſizes; (One, being the leaſt, and vſed by Phiſitions, comes but to three ounces in weight.)

Septier d'avoine. The Septier of Oats, containing 21 Boiſſeaux.

Septier de bled. The Septier of corne (viz. Wheat, Rye, or Barlie) containes, in moſt places, two Mines, or twelue Boiſſeaux, or the twelfth part of a Muid: In weight it comes to 220 pounds, ſayes Nicot; but Vigenere vpon Liuie makes that the weight onely of Rye; and ſayes, that the Septier of wheat weighes 240 pounds.

Septier de charbon. Containes 21 Boiſſeaux.

Septier de Moulins. The Septier of Moulins, commeth to 16 Boiſſeaux.

Septier de terre. Is much about the Arpent.

Septier de vin. Containes eight pints.

Demi ſeptier de bled. Containeth ſix Boiſſeaux.

Demi ſeptier de vin. Is but the halfe of a Chopine, or a quarter of the French pint.

Septieſme. The ſeuenth.

Septieſmement. Seuenthly.

Septimeſtre: com. Of ſeuen monthes, or at ſeuen monthes end.

Septinaire. Looke Septenaire.

Septique: com. Putrifactiue, rotting inwardly; alſo,

corro-

corrosiue, raising blisters on the skin.

Septirage. Looke Stirage.

Septuagenaire: com. Threescore and tenne yeares old.

Sept-virat. The ioint rule, gouernment, or authoritie of seuen men.

Septuple: com. Seuen-fold.

Sepulchral: m. ale: f. Sepulchrall; of, or in, a sepulcher.

Sepulchralier: m. A maker of sepulchers.

Sepulchre: m. A sepulcher, tombe, graue, or vault to lay dead coarses in.

Cheval courant est vn sepulchre ouvert: Prov. A running horse is an open sepulcher.

Sepulturable: com. Buriable; readie, or fit, to be buried.

Sepulture: f. Sepulture; a burying, intombing, interring, laying in a graue or in the ground.

Sepulturer. To burie, intombe, interre; lay in the ground, or into a graue.

Sequele: f. A sequele, following, or consequence, the issue or successe of a thing; also, a great mans trayne or followers.

La sequele au robon. Looke Robon.

Sequence: f. A sequence at Cards; also, a certaine game that standeth much on sequences.

Sequences: f. Answering verses, or verses whereto answer is made, in the Masse.

Sequenie: f. A frocke, or loose iacket of canuas, open before, and worne by Porters, &c, ouer the rest of their apparrell.

Sequent: m. ente: f. Sequent, following.

Sequestration: f. A sequestration; the deliuerie of a litigious thing into the hands of a third indifferent man; or, the seperating of it from the possession of those that contend for it; (of two sorts.)

Sequestration iudiciaire, ou necessaire. Which is imposed by the sentence, or authoritie of a Iudge.

Sequestration volontaire. Agreed on by mutuall consent of the parties in controuersie: (There be also other kinds of sequestration in doubtfull, as well as in controuerted, cases.)

Sequestre: m. He into whose hands a thing is sequestred.

Sequestré: m. ée: f. Sequestred.

Sequestrer. To sequester, or lay aside, to put into an indifferent persons hands.

Sequin: m. A small Italian coyne worth about 10 Quadrins; also, a golden coyne somewhat more worth then the French crowne.

Sequinant: m. The sweet-flowred Rush teamed Squinant, and Camels Hay.

Ser de laict. Whay.

Ser montain. Siler Mountaine, bastard Loueage.

Serain: m. Faire, cleere, calme, or open weather; also, the mildew, or harmefull dew of some Summer euenings; also, the fresh, and coole ayre of the euening; also, the euening.

Seran: m. A hatchell, or heach; the yron combe whereon flax is dressed.

Serancé: m. ée: f. Hatchelled, or combed, as flax, &c.

Serancer. To hatchell flax, &c, to combe, or dresse it on an yron combe.

Serancier: m. A flax-man, a hatcheller, or comber of flax.

Seraph: m. A Turkish coyne of fine gold worth about a French crowne.

Seraphin: m. A Seraphin; a burning, or flame-coloured Angell; also, a kind of Limbeck.

Seraphique: com. Seraphicall, celestiall, Seraphinlike; also, firie, or burning.

Seraphiser. To sanctifie, consecrate; extoll, magnifie to the heauens.

Serapin. as Sagapen.

Serargent. (An allusion to Sergent;) a scrape-good, penny-father, siluer-hider, money-hoorder.

Serat. Laict serat. Milke boyled with Garlicke, and Onyons, and much vsed in Normandie; also, sowre, or sowred milke.

Serbataine. Looke Sarbataine.

Serbin: m. The crimson, or pricklie Cedar; also, the Rosin that issueth from the great Cedar.

Sercifi: m. The delicate root of the hearb called Goats-beard, Starre of Ierusalem, Noonetyde, and Goe-to-bed-at-noone.

Sercler, & Sercleur. Looke Sarcler, & Sarcleur.

Sercleure: f. A sarcling; or weeding.

Sercueil. as Cercueil.

Serée: f. An euening, euening season, euening tide; also, an euenings taske, worke, art, or exercise; also, a gossipping, or goodfellow-like meeting of neighbours (this night at one, that at another, of their houses) whereto euerie one brings, or sends his dish.

Serein: m. Looke Serain.

Serein: m. eine: f. Bright, faire, cleere, calme; open; gentle, mild, quiet, peaceable; cheerefull, merrie, pleasant, gracious.

Sereine: f. A Mermaid.

Sereiner. To cleere, brighten; wax faire, looke cheerefully; make lightsome or pleasant; also, to calme, quiet, pacifie, appease.

Serenade: f. Euening Musicke played at the dore, or vnder the window, of a louelie, or beloued creature.

Serenade d'esprit. Tranquilitie of spirit.

Serencer. Looke Serancer.

Serene: f. A Syren, or Mermaid.

Serene. La goutte serene. Blindnesse, or extreame dimnesse of sight, caused by the obturation or stopping of the Opticke sinew.

Serenité: f. Serenitie, cleerenesse, faireneße, brightnesse, calmenesse, or opennesse of weather.

Serennade: f. Looke Serenade.

Sereux: m. euse: f. Serous, whayie, wateriſh; also, louing the euening; and, being in, or neere, the euening.

Serf: m. A seruant, seruitor, seruingman; or (most properly) a thrall, slaue, prentice, bondman, villein, drudge to, or base attendant on, another.

Serfs fonciers. Looke Foncier.

Serfs pissenez. The bastards of slaues, or villeines. ¶Nivernois.

Serfoët: m. A weeding booke, or weeding forke.

Serfoüé: m. ée: f. Weeded; grubbed or cut vp with a weeding forke.

Serfouër. To weed, to grub or cut vp weeds.

Serfouëttes: f. The Instrument wherewith a Gardener grubs or cuts vp weeds; Looke Sarfouëtte.

Serfs. An Order of blacke Friers, which thus tearme themselues.

Serge: f. The stuffe called Serge.

Sergeant: m. A Sergeant; Looke Sergent.

Sergeant de tonnelier. The Coopers horse; an yron toole which he vseth in the hooping of Caske.

Sergeanter, & Sergeanterie. Looke Sergenter, & Sergenterie.

Sergeanteux: m. euse: f. Sergeant-like, or vsing a Sergeant-like authoritie.

Ser-

Sergeantiſe: f. Looke Sergentiſe.
Sergent: m. A Sergeant, Officer, Catchpole, Purſuyuant, Apparitor; alſo (in old French) a footman, or ſouldior that ſerues on foot.
Sergent d'armes. A Sergeant at Armes; one of thoſe which wait on the King.
Sergent baſtonnier. An ordinarie Sergeant, or Catchpole in an incorporate Towne.
Sergent blavier. as Sergent Meſſier, ou Meſſilier.
Sergens à cheval. Were, in old time, certaine horſemen inferior to Les Eſcuyers, and ſeruing for pay in the warres: Now they are officers that ride through all the villages, and fields of the Reſſort, or Baillage, whereto they belong; therein arreſting, and doing ſuch other offices, as are performed by the Sergents à pied within the principall towne, and the liberties thereof.
Sergent chevaucheur. A certaine officer in forreſts.
Sergens dangereux. Looke Dangereux.
Sergent de l'eſpée. Doit tenir les veuës, bailler les aſſignations, faire les ſemonces & les commandemens des aſſiſes, & faire tenir ce qu'y eſt iugé, & delivrer par droict les Namps qui ſont prins, & iuſticier à l'eſpée & aux armes les malfaicteurs, & fugitifs. ¶Ragueau.
Sergent feodé, fieſté, ou du fief. An hereditarie Sergeant; hath ſome kind of Iuriſdiction for the recouerie of the Cens, Rents, Duties, Cuſtomes, Royalties, or feodall Rights, belonging to the Lord of the Seigniorie wherein he reſides; and may nominate, and appoint one vnder-Sergeant (and in ſome places more) to aſſiſt, and attend him.
Sergent fermier: One that hath farmed the office of a Sergeant (which he is forbidden to doe by the Law.)
Sergens foreſtiers. Officers that may of themſelues arreſt the perſons, and ſeize the goods, of ſuch as waſt, or make hauocke of the Kings woods: Of theſe there are two ſorts; Les ordinaires, whoſe walkes are limitted; & les traverſiers, which raunge all ouer the forreſt; Looke Traverſier.
Sergent franc. Looke vnder Franc.
Sergents à maſſe d'argent. Sergeants of the Mace: Ce ſont Huiſſiers de la Chambre du Conſeil, ou Audience, en Hainaut.
Sergent meſſier, ou meſſilier. An officer that lookes vnto Corne-grounds, and Vineyards, vntill harueſt, and Vintage be fully paſt.
Sergens à pied. The ordinarie Sergeants of a good towne, within which, or the liberties thereof (and not elſewhere) they may arreſt, &c, and are to reſide.
Sergent prairier. An officer that keeps, and looks vnto, medowes, for the preſeruation of the hay, and graſſe thereof.
Sergent de querelle. Qui ſervoit au faict des duels, ou pour les differents des parties: (But this officer is now out of date.)
Sergent traverſier. Looke Traverſier.
Sergent à verge. An ordinarie Catchpole in a good Towne; alſo, a royall Vſher, or Sergent, who arreſting, &c, within his circuit, ought to carrie in his hand a rod, or ſmall Mace, and therewith to touch him whom he doth arreſt.
Sergentaillerie: f. La ſer. Sergeants, Officers, Catchpoles; or a companie of them.
Sergenter. To arreſt, attache, or ſummon; to play the Sergeant any way.
Sergenterie: f. A Sergeantſhip; the office, place, or dutie of a Sergeant; alſo (in the cuſtomes of Normandie) a kind of fief without Court, or Juriſdiction; or, that ſeruice which, in our Law, is tearmed Grand, or Petit Sergeantie.
Sergentié, & Sergentiſe. as Sergenterie (in the former ſence.)
Seri: m. ie: f. Quiet, mild, calme, ſtill; faire, cleere.
Seriau. The ſame; whence, Car le iour eſt ſeriau. The Burden of a certaine Chriſtmas Caroll. ¶Rab.
Serie: f. The eue of a holie day; alſo, the euening, or euening-tide.
Seriens: m. (An old word;) ſouldiors that ſerued on foot.
Serieuſement. Seriouſly, verie earneſtly.
Serin: m. A little ſinging bird of a light-greene colour, and verie like the Canarie bird other waies; whence;
Serin de Canarie. The Canarie bird.
Serin: m. ine: f. Silkie; alſo, as Serein.
Seringue: f. A Siringe, or Squirt.
Seringuement: m. A ſquirting; an iniecting, or ſpurting of liquor by a Siringe.
Seringuer. To ſquirt.
Seriphie: f. Sea-Wormewood, called, by ſome of our countrey women, garden Cypreſſe.
Serment: m. An oath; alſo, as Sarment.
Serment de calomnie; &, ſer. de fidelité. See Calomnie, & Fidelité.
Par mon ſerment. By my truth, by the faith I owe to God; or, by the oath I haue taken.
Sermenteux. Looke Sarmenteux.
Sermon: m. A Sermon, or preaching; an Harang, or Oration, made vnto the people.
Sermonner. To preach, to make a Sermon.
Sermonneur: m. A Sermon-maker, a Preacher.
Sermontain: m. Siler Mountaine, baſtard Loueage.
Seroſité: f. Seroſitie; the wateriſhneſſe, or thinner parts of the maſſe of bloud (anſwering to whay in milke) which floates vpon it after it hath beene let out of a veine; alſo, the wheyiſh, or wateriſh moiſture drawne by the kidneyes from all parts of the bodie, and after ſome concoction tearmed, Vrine.
Serourge: m. A brother in law; one that hath married a mans owne, or his wiues, ſiſter.
Serpaut: m. Marriage-good; the apparrell, beds, coffers, veſſell, cattell, or other houſehold-ſtuffe, or moueables whatſoeuer, giuen in marriage with a ſonne, daughter, or couſin.
Serpe: f. Looke Sarpe.
Serpé: m. ée: f. Towed off ground, ſet afloat, as a ſhip by an anchor, or great booke; alſo, weighed, as an anchor.
Serpeger. To wind, or crankle in and out; to waue, waggle, wrigle, writhe, or to goe wauing, &c, like a ſerpent.
Serpeillere. Looke Serpillere.
Serpent: m. A Serpent; a venomous, or poiſonous (and footleſſe) vermine; alſo, the male Lamprey.
Serpent cornu. The Serpent Ceraſtes, or the horned ſerpent; See Cornu.
Serpent marin. The ſea ſerpent, reſembles a Congar, but hath a ſharper beake, or noſe, wherewith he ſuddainely hides himſelfe in the ſand.
Ail de ſerpent. Wild Garlick, Snakes Garlick.
Herbe aux ſerpens. Vipers bearbe, Snakes Bugloſſe.
Il faut tirer le ſerpent du buiſſon par la main d'autruy: Pro. He that will ſafely liue, muſt ſhift off dangers to others; or, dangers cannot be ſurmounted without helpe.
Serpentaire: f. The hearbe Dragons, or Dragonwort.
Serpentaire aquatique, ou d'eau. Water Dragons, water Dragonwort.

Serpentaire masle des Officines. Snakeweed, Britannica, Bistort.
Grande serpentaire. Great Dragons or Dragonwort; the ordinarie Dragonwort.
Petite serpentaire. Small Dragons; an hearbe like Wake-Robin in all points saue it spots, which are white.
Serpentant: m. ante: f. Crankling, wrigling, wigling, crooking, winding, making many turnes.
Serpenté: f. A Serpent.
Faire la serpente. as Serpenter.
Serpenté. Wrigled, cranckled, wrythed, turned or wound in and out.
Serpenteau: m. A little serpent.
Serpenter. To wrigle, wagle, cranckle, wrythe, tarne or wind often in and out.
Serpentin: m. The vpper part of some Limbecks, made long, and wreathed like a serpent; also, the cocke of an Harquebuze.
Serpentin: m. ine: f. Of a serpent, like a serpent, long and wreathed as a serpent.
Ail serpentin. Snakes Garlick, wild Garlick.
Marbre serpentin. A darke-greene Marble, full of light-greene spots.
Pierre serpentine. Looke Pierre.
Serpentine: f. A kind of Limbecke, or, as Serpentin; also, as Serpentaire; also, the Artillerie called a Serpentine, or Basiliskoe.
Petite serpentine. Small Dragons; also, Cucko-pint, Wake-Robin, Calues-feet.
Serper. To tow a ship off ground, or set her afloat by a great hooke, or ankor fastened vnto another ship thats vnder sayle.
Serper l'ancre. To weigh ankor.
Serpette: f. A Vine-knife, or Gardeners knife; a verie small hedging, or lopping, bill.
Serpigine: f. A redneſse of the skin, accompanied with pushes, and wheales.
Serpiller. To packe vp in Canuas, &c; also, to gleane after Grape-gatherers, or cut away from the Vine all the grapes they haue left behind them.
Serpillere: f. A Sarpler, or Sarp cloth; a piece of course Canuas to packe vp things in; also, the course Canuas apron of a Grocer, Chaundler, Painter, Dawber, &c.
Serpillette: f. A small Vine-hooke, or Gardeners hooked knife.
Serpillon. as Serpette.
Serpillonnette. as Serpillette; or a verie small one.
Serpolet: m. Running Time, wild Time, creeping Time, mother of Time, Puliall mountaine, our Ladies Bed-straw.
Serpolet sauvage. Wild creeping Time; of two kinds, the one bearing a white, the other a red flower: (Gerard shewes vs no fewer then six kinds of Serpillum, all which as he calls wild Times (though with some small, and different additions) so many bold (sayes Mathiolus) that euerie Serpolet is wild:) Some also tearme Water-mint, and others Balsamint, Serpolet sauvage.
Serquify: m. The delicate root of the hearbe Goats-beard.
Serrail: m. The Pallace wherein the great Turke mueth vp his concubines.
Serrail d'un huis. The boult of a doore.
Serran: m. A certaine fish thats like, but somewhat lesse then, the sea-Pearch; and hath, as it, two stones in his head; called thus about Marseille.
Serrant: m. A Greene-finch.
Serrant: m. ante: f. Shutting, or locking, vp.
Serratan. Looke Serran.
Serratil: m. ile: f. Closing, or shutting vp close together.
Serre: f. A Hawkes tallon; also, a strait, or narrow pinch; also, a saw; also, the wild Fitch.
Serres. A Hawkes tallons; also, wild Fitches; also, the thicke boords whereby the inside of the Varengues of a ship are fastened, and held in.
Tenir en serre. To restraine, or hold in subiection.
Serre: com. Close; whence, Tenir serre; to hold himselfe close, to restraine, or keepe in, himselfe.
Serré: m. ée: f. Closed, compacted, contracted, thrust vp together, clapped or put neere vnto; restrained; straitned; hard wrung or pressed; fast locked, shut or bound vp.
Serré de douleurs. Whose heart is shrunk, or oppressed, with griefe.
Serré. (In stead of Serrément; whence,) Dormir fort serré. To sleepe verie sounaly.
Serre. (Of the Verbe Serrer;) the word whereby souldiors are warned to close themselues, or draw neere together.
Serrecropiere. Le Ieu de ser. The close-buttock play; lecherie.
Serre-front: m. A head-band, for head-band, or for head-cloth.
Serrément: m. A closing, compacting, pressing, hard-thrusting together; a-contracting; vp-shutting, restraining.
Serrément. Closely, straitly, narrowly, neere one to another, contractedly, restrainedly, in a little roome.
Serre-nappe: f. A cabinet, roome, or chest for the keeking of table-linnen; also, the basket whereinto it is put vp at the taking away.
Serre-poignet: m. A griping close-fist, a couetous or close-handed wretch.
Serrer. To close, compact, thrust hard, bind fast, force or presse neere together; to locke, shut or put vp, hold or keepe strait; restraine; contract.
Se serrer. To goe all on a rucke, or gather himselfe vp close together.
Serrer le bouton à. To restraine or keepe short, to hold a strict or hard hand ouer.
Serrer les ordures. To sweepe together all the scattered filth of a floore.
Serrer prés. To presse mightily, vrge very much, drive vnto a narrow strait, pinch, or plunge; pursue verie neere; also, to be most earnest with, or instant vpon.
Qui sçait l'art serre la boutique; &, Qui ne sçait l'art serre la boutique: Pro. Looke Boutique.
Serres. as vnder Serre.
Serre-teste: f. A border of Goldsmiths worke, &c, worne by gentlewomen vpon their coifes, or hoods.
Serreure. Looke Serrure.
Serriette: f. The hearbe Sauorie.
Serrure: f. A locke.
Remuer les serrures. To play the Polypragmon, or busie companion.
Contre coignée serrure ne peut: Prov. No lockes hold out against an yron axe; an armed violence forceth any thing.
Serrurerie: f. The trade of a Lock-smith; a making of locks.
Serrurier: m. A Lock-smith.
Sert: m. The first course, or seruice at Table.
Serte: f. A kind of flat-bottomed boat vsed in old time.

Ser-

Servage: m. Seruitude, ſlauerie, bondage, thralldome.

Servans: m. An Order of blacke Fryers.

Servant: m. ante: f. Seruing, attending, waiting on, obſeruing, obſeruant, obſequious vnto; alſo, helping, ſteadding, auailing.

Fief ſervant. A fief thats held by homage and ſealtie, of a fief dominant; an inferior, or meſne fief.

Gentilshommes ſervans. Gentlemen waiters, thoſe that attend on the King at meale-times.

Iour ſervant, & iournée ſervante. The day appointed for the hearing, and deciding of a cauſe.

Servante: f. A maid, or woman, ſeruant (eſpecially of a meane, or inferior, degree.)

Servantin: m. The Sole-fiſh tearmed, a kind foole; ¶Marſeillois.

Serve. A Stue for fiſh; alſo, a Mue for fowle; alſo, the hearbe Sage.

Servément. Seruilely, by villenage, by a ſeruile or baſe tenure.

Servi: m. ie: f. Serued, obſerued.

Servi de ſon homage. That hath receiued his homage in due time.

Entrer de fief ſervi. The homage, &c, due by a tenant at his firſt entrie, done well enough by another; as by an elder brother for a younger; by a husband for his wife; by a guardian for his pupill, or ward.

Serviable: com. Seruiceable, officious, diligent, obſequious; pliant; behooſefull.

Serviablement. Seruiceably, officiouſly, obſequiouſly, diligently; behooſefully.

Service: f. Seruice, attendance; dutie, obedience; alſo, wages, or hire for ſeruice; alſo, diuine ſeruice, (publike) prayer vnto almightie God; whence;

La ſervice des morts. Dirges, Obits, Trentalls, prayers for the dead.

Service de l'oſt. Looke Oſt.

Service de plaids. Apparance made, counſell giuen; any attendance yeelded, or ſeruice done, by a vaſſall in his Lords Courts.

Services des vignes. The pathes, or alleyes, which are made ouerthwart a Vineyard.

Cheval de ſervice. A great horſe, or horſe of ſeruice; due from a vaſſall to his Lord feudal (or in lieu of him 60 s Tourn: as by the cuſtomes of Orleans, Montargis, Chaſteauneuf, Chartres, & Dreux; or 60 s and a pennie Tourn: by the cuſtomes of Le grand Perche; or 100 s Tourn: as by the cuſtomes of Anjou, and Maine;) And this either once during a Lords, or vaßals life, or at euerie change of Lord, and vaſſall.

Denier de ſervice. Looke Denier.

Beau ſervice fait amis, & vray dire ennemis: Pro. Dutifulneße procureth friends, truth enemies; obſequious attendance winneth loue, true and plaine dealing hate.

Servicial: m. A gliſter.

Serviette: f. A table napkin.

Nouër les deux bouts de ſa ſerviette enſemble. Seeke Nouër.

Servir. To ſerue, attend, wait on, obſerue, be obſequious vnto; alſo, to helpe, ſtead, auaile, aſſiſt, fit ones turne, doe good, be profitable or behooſefull, vnto.

Servir le fief. A man to doe homage, fealtie, and all other ſeruices whereto he is tyed by his tenure.

Servir ſon maiſtre. To purge, vntruße a point, goe to the ſtoole.

Servir les plaids de ſon ſeigneur. As before, in Service de plaids.

Se ſervir de. To vſe, occupie, make a benefit, or take the aduantage, of.

Se ſervir de toutes peaux. as vnder Peau.

Mal ſert qui ne parſert: Pro. He's but an ill ſeruant thats not an all-ſeruant.

Qui ſert commun nul ne le paye, & s'il defaut chaſcun l'abbaye: Prov. The ſeruant of a Comminaltie finds enow to correct his errors, but none to reward i is deſerts.

Qui ſert dieu il a bon maiſtre: Pro. &, Qui ſert le Roy il a bon maiſtre: Pro. Looke Maiſtre.

Aſſez demande qui bien ſert: Prov. Good ſeruice, of it ſelfe, demaunds reward.

Servis: m. The Cens, and other ſmall yearelie rights, or duties, payed by the tenants of Inheritances vnto Lord of the ſoyle, in acknowledgement of his direct ſeigniorie.

Serviteur: m. A ſeruant, ſeruitor, ſeruing creature, ſeruing man; an attendant, or waiter.

Fortune n'eſpargne ny ſerviteur, ny maiſtre: Prov. looke Fortune.

Servitude: f. Seruitude, ſlauerie, bondage.

Mieux vaut ſervitude en paix que ſeigneurie en guerre: Pro. Better be peaces vaſſall, then warſares marſhall.

Servitute: f. A dutie wherein one peece of ground, and the poßeſſor thereof, is lyable, or ſubiect, vnto another.

Hommes de ſervitute. A kind of villeins, or ſeruile tenants, lyable to their Lords taxations while they liue; and when they die, their ſonnes muſt buy their poſſeſſions of him, or elſe he ſeiſes, and holds them; and their daughters (if they had no ſonnes) muſt looſe the ſoyle, and take ſuch husbands, and portions, as he is pleaſed to allot them.

Servivi: m. An act, or Certificate of the actuall ſeruices performed by an officer, who thereupon receiues the wages, and is allowed the priuiledges, due vnto his place.

Sery: m. The Shrew-mouſe. ¶Bourguignon.

Seſame: m. The oylie pulſe, or graine Seſamum.

Seſamin: m. ine: f. Of Seſamum.

Seſamoïde. Baſtard Woad; an hearbe of two kinds, a great, and a little one; either of them diuided into two other kinds; viz. the great one into great baſtard Woad, and barren Weld; and the little one into ſmall baſtard Woad, and Buckhorne Weld, which is Mathiolus his little Seſamoïdes.

Seſamoïdes. Os ſeſamoïdes. Looke Os.

Seſel, & Seſeli. The hearbe Seſeli, Seſeleos, Hartwort.

Seſeli de Candie. Seſeleos, or Hartwort of Candia.

Seſeli Ethiopique. Shrub Seſeli, Hartwort of Ethiopia.

Seſeli de Marſeille. Marſellian Seſeli; large, and broad Cummin.

Seſeli de la Morée. Hartwort of Peloponneſus.

Seſeli Peloponneſien. The ſame.

Seſne. The mother of wine; the white or mouldie ſpots which float on the top of old wine.

Seſquialtere: com. One and a halfe, or halfe as much againe; as three in reſpect of two, &c.

Seſquin: m. A kind of baſe coyne.

Seſquitiers: m. erce: f. As much, and a third part more.

Seſſile: com. Sitting, ſeeming to ſit; eaſie to ſit on; of a low ſtature.

Verruë ſeſſile. A kind of hard, broad, flat, and blackiſh wart.

Selterce: m. The fourth part of the (auncient) Romane pennie, worth about three halfe pence farthing of our money.
Selterée de terre. The fourth part of a Saumée; a measure for land, somewhat lesse then the ordinarie Arpent.
Seltier. Looke Septier.
Seltine: f. A Seftine, or ſtanzo of ſix verſes.
Sete. The Quitter-bone; A round, and hard ſwelling vpon the Cornet (betweene the heele, and quarter) of a horſes foot.
Setier: m. Briſtlie, rough, harſh.
Seton: m. A rowell; or the rowelling, or roping of a bruiſed, or ſtrained horſe.
Setton. The ſame; alſo, as Section.
Setule. Looke Sete.
Seu: m. An Elder tree.
Seve: f. The ſap, iuyce, or moiſture of plants; alſo, the bleeding of a Vine.
Seueil: m. The threſhold of a doore.
Severe: com. Seuere, auſtere, ſterne; graue; rigorous; rough, ſharpe, hard; pitileſſe, vntractable, inexorable.
Severement. Seuerely, ſternely, rigorouſly; ſharpely, vntractably, inexorably.
Severité: f. Seueritie, ſharpneſſe, rigor, auſteritie, ſternneſſe, fierceneſſe, vntractableneſſe; grauitie.
Severonde: f. The eaue, eauing, or eaſing of a houſe.
Seveux: m. euſe: f. Sappie, iuicie, full of naturall moiſture.
Seuil: m. The threſhold of a doore.
Sevir. To rage, or be mad at; to be extreamely angred, fierce, eager; to torment extreamely, deale moſt cruelly with; to tyrannize ouer.
Seul: m. ſeule: f. Sole, ſingle, onely, alone, onely one; meere; ſingular, ſeuerall, by it ſelfe.
Homme ſeul eſt viande aux loups: Prov. The lonelie man becomes a prey to wolues.
Fortune ne vient ſeule: Prov. One misfortune hales on another.
Haſte ne vient ſeule: Pro. Looke Haſte.
Mieux vaut eſtre ſeul que mal accompagné: Pro. Better alone then in ill companiе.
Seule: f. A threſhold; alſo, a groundſill; or, the peece of timber which compaſſes the bottome of a roome.
Seulement. Solely, onely, but, but onely, by it ſelfe, alone.
Seulet: m. ette: f. Sole, alone, ſolitarie, priuate, ſingular, apart from others.
Seulle. La ſeulle d'une chartée de foing. As much (meddow) ground as will beare a load of Hay.
Seur: m. An Elder tree; alſo, a kind of Net, or Engine to catch fiſh with.
Seur: f. A ſiſter; Looke Soeur.
Seur: m. eure: f. Sure, ſafe, ſicker, ſecure, out of danger; faſt, aſſured, certaine; truſtie, loyall, faithfull.
Chiens ſeurs. Sure-hunting dogs; thoſe that ſticke to their owne, or old, game; thoſe that runne, or hunt their owne.
Avoir la main ſeure. Looke Main.
Seurant. Weaning.
Seurat. Of Elders; whence, Vinaigre ſeurat. Elder vineger.
Seure: com. Sowre, ſharpe, tart.
Seuré: m. ée: f. Weaned from ſucke.
Seurer. To weane.
Seureté: f. Suretie, ſafetie, ſecuritie, ſureneſſe; alſo, a ſuretie, or ſecuritie.
En ſeureté dort qui n'a que perdre: Pro. Securely ſleepes he that hath nought to looſe.
Il n'eſt pas en ſeureté à qui ne meſcheut oncques: Prov. He that hath had no ill lucke is in danger.
Sevronde. Looke Severonde.
Seurté. Looke Seureté.
Sexagenaire: com. Threeſcore yeares old.
Sexe: m. A ſex, or kind.
Sextaire: m. An auncient Romane meaſure, containing ſomewhat more then our pint.
Sexte: f. The third quarter, or ſixt houre of the artificiall day, being about noone all the yeare long; alſo, a ſixt, or proportion of ſix, in Muſicke, &c.
Sextement. Sixtly.
Sexterce, & Sexterée. as Seſterée.
Sextier. Looke Septier.
Sextule: f. A weight of foure ſcruples, or the ſixt part of an ounce.
Seyé: m. ée: f. Reaped, or cut, as corne.
Seyer le bled. To reape, or cut downe corne.
Seyette: f. Serge, or Say.
Seyeur: m. A reaper.
Seynale. as Salvatelle.
Seyeux: m. euſe: f. Silkie, full of ſilke.
Sezain: m. The toll, or fee thats due for grinding; alſo, as Seizain.
Seze. Sixteene.
Sezieſme: m. A ſixteenth; a ſixteenth part.
Vn ſezieme d'aulne. Three ynches, and (as our Neale of the yard) the leaſt diuiſion of the French ell, and the leaſt meaſure for cloth.
Sezieſme: com. The ſixteenth in ranke, number, &c.
Shilirhoïque. Goutte sh. A kind of cold Gowt.
Si. (Sometimes a Subſtantiue; whence,) Par tel ſi que. On condition that.
Il n'a nul ſi. He is perfect, without fault or defect, no want or error can be found in him, no blemiſh or deformitie about him.
Si. An Aduerbe, vſed ſingle, and in anſwere to a negatiue demaund, or ſpeech; whence to, Vous n'avez pas faict celà; they anſwer, ſi; yes forſooth haue I, or yes that I haue; In which ſence it hath ſometimes alſo the companie of other words; as in anſwer to one that tells them, you cannot, or will not doe that, or it will neuer be; they ſay, Vous verrez que ſi; you ſhall ſee that I can or will, or, that it will fall out &c.
Si. In the beginning of a ſpeech now and then implies, (among ſome auncient Authors) a kind of certaintie, or of reſolution; as, ſi advint en ce iour meſme que le heraut arriva; Surely it happened the verie ſame day whereon the herald arriued: Si voy qu'il nous faudra avoir bataille. I ſee for certaine that we muſt fight.
Si. (Ordinarily ſignifies) if, if ſo be that, whether; (and) ſo, in ſort, as, euen as: And preceding a Verbe, it imports (many times) a commaund, forcing, or threatning, and before faut, a neceſſitie; as in the two Examples following.
Si cheminerez vous. You ſhall walke whether you will or no; or, walke when I bid you; or, you had beſt walke.
Si faut il faire cela. That muſt needes be done, or, you muſt of neceſſitie doe it.
Si que. Whereby, ſo as, in ſort that.
Si non que. Sauing that, but that.
Il avoit vn bel eſprit, & ſi eſtoit de mauvaiſe grace. He had an excellent wit, and yet, &c.

Il eſtoit ſçavant, & ſi eſtoit vaillant aux armes. He was both learned and valiant, or, learned and valiant withall, or, not onely learned, but alſo valiant.

Il n'eſtoit point clerc, & ſi n'avoit nulle cognoiſſance des lettres. He was neither clarke, nor any way learned.

Quant à &c, le Grec n'a rien de tel, quant a &, ſi l'a bien. The Grecians vſe not &c, but & they ſurely doe.

Sibi. A ſon ſibi. (as the Latine ſibi.) To himſelfe.

Sibille: f. A tunning and taſting diſh in the time of Vintage.

Il a le nez rouge comme la ſibille d'un preſſoir. (Fitly applyed to a drunkard; one kind of ſtuffe dying both his noſe, and that diſh all of a colour.)

Sibilot. (The name of a foole vnto the French Henry the third; and thence;) an aſſe, doult, fop, ideot, ninnie.

Siboule. as Ciboule.

Sibylle: f. Sybill, one of the tenne Sybillæ, famous in their times for prophecying; hence alſo, a Propheteſſe, or woman that hath the ſpirit of propheſie; alſo, as Sebille.

Sibyllin: m. ine: f. Prophecying, of a Sybilla, or Sybilla-like.

Sicap. De leur ſicap. Of their owne head, after their owne fancie, according to their humor.

Siccité: f. Siccitie, dryneſſe, drought, or drouth, want of ſap, iuyce, or moiſture.

Siciliane. Looke Ceciliane.

Sicilique: f. A quarter of an ounce.

Sicinnie: f. A dauncing, and ſinging together.

Sicinniſtes: m. Such as daunce, and ſing together; or, as Siticines. ¶Rab.

Sicnie. Looke Sequenie.

Sicot. as Bricot.

Sideration. Looke Syderation.

Siderite. The yron-like ſtone Siderites, which, as ſome imagine, hath power to ſet men at oddes; alſo, the Loadſtone.

Sidre: m. Cider; drinke made of Apples.

Sie: f. A Saw.

Sie de mer. Looke Scie.

Sié: m. ée: f. Sawed, or cut aſunder; alſo, reaped, or cut downe.

Siecle: m. An Age; (commonly vnderſtood of 100 yeares) alſo, time, or ſeaſon.

Sied. Cet accouſtrement luy ſied bien. This garment becomes, beſeemes, beſits, or fits him well.

Siege: m. A ſeat; a chaire, ſtoole, or bench to ſit on; alſo, a Tribunall, Court, or Throne, the ſeat of Juſtice; the Towne, or Place wherein an ordinarie Court of Iuſtice is kept; alſo, the buttockes, aïſe, fundament, the hinder parts, or part of the bodie whereon we vſe to ſit; alſo, the ſiege of a towne; alſo, the fiſh Gardon.

Aujourd'huy en ſiege, demain en piege: Prov. To day a captaine, to morrow a captiue.

Sieger. Le Parlement ſiegeoit. The Parliament (or Court) ſate, or was held.

Le Pape ſiegeoit 12 ans. The Pope gouerned, or held his place 12 yeares; (This word being proper to Popes, as Regner is for Kings.)

Siement: m. A ſawing; alſo, a reaping, or cutting downe of corne, &c.

Sien: m. A mans owne; that which he hath in his owne right, that whereof he is abſolute maiſter; or, that which is proper to himſelfe.

Chaſcun y a mis du ſien. Euerie one hath added ſomewhat of his owne vnto it.

Qui perd le ſien perd le ſens: Prov. Who looſeth his pence forgoeth his ſence.

Sien: m. enne: f. His, his owne, of or belonging to himſelfe.

Des ſiens. Of his faction, ſide, partie, followers.

Il iouë bien des ſiennes. He freely playes his prankes, he does euen what he will.

Siement: m. A ſawing, or cutting aſunder; alſo, a reaping of corne.

Sienite. A kind of rich Marble gotten about Thebes.

Sier. To ſaw, or cut aſunder (as with a Saw;) alſo, to reape, or cut downe, corne, &c.

Sier en arriere: C'eſt aller le derriere devant; To ſhieue, or fall a-ſterne; (a tearme of Nauigation.)

Sieſer. To become, fit, ſit on.

Siette: f. A little ſaw.

Sieu: m. The ſuet of Deere, wild Goats, the Roe, &c; alſo, the greaſe of Capons, and of ſuch other fowle.

Sieur: m. A ſawyer; alſo, a reaper.

Sieure: f. Saw-duſt, pinne-duſt, &c; alſo, a ſawing.

Sieurel: m. The baſtard Mackarell.

Sieurie. Looke Seigneurie.

Sieuté. Poiſſons d'une ſ. Of one ſize, or goodneſſe.

Sifflant: m. ante: f. Whiſtling; whizzing; hiſſing.

Sifflant en paume ie me rendray à vous. Put but vp the finger I am for you.

Sifflantement. Hiſſingly, with a whiſtling ſound.

Sifflé. Whiſtled; whizzed; hiſſed.

Sifflement: m. A whiſtling; whizzing; hiſſing.

Siffler. To whiſtle; whizze; biſſe at.

Siffleric: f. A whiſtle, or whiſtling.

Sifflet: m. A whiſtle; alſo, the weaſon, or wind-pipe.

Siffleur: m. A whiſtler; alſo, the whiſtling bird called, a Nowpe, or Bull-finch.

Sifre. Looke Chifre.

Sigillatif: m. iue: f. Sigillatiue, ſealeable, apt to ſeale; made of wax.

Sigillé: m. ée: f. Sealed.

Signacle: m. A ſigne, ſeale, marke, or character.

Signal: m. A ſignall, ſigne; token, marke.

Signale: com. as Segnale.

Signalé: m. ée: f. Notable, famous, renowmed; of note, of marke; (An Italianiſme; and deriued from the cuſtome of marking ſouldiors in auncient Garriſons.)

Signaler. Se ſign. To make himſelfe to be noted, or ſpoken of; to get himſelfe a name.

Signamment. Namely, expreſſely, eſpecially, particularly.

Signature: f. A ſignature, ſigning, ſubſcribing; a ſigne manuell, ones hand or marke ſet vnto a writing; In old bookes (written when but a few could write) it ſignifies a ſeale, or ſealing.

Signe: m. A ſigne, marke, token, or note; an argument; a preſage; a winke with the eye, becke with the hand, nod with the head; alſo, a pledge, or pawne.

Vn ſigne au ciel. A ſigne in the Zodiake, a celeſtiall ſigne.

Signe patibulaire. A Gibbet, or paire of Gallowes.

Les vertus ſurmontent les ſignes: Prov. Worth exceedeth wonders; example preuailes more then a ſigne to the conuerſion of a ſinner.

Signé: m. ée: f. Signed, ſubſcribed; marked, branded, noted, ſtamped on.

Signer. To signe, subscribe; marke, brand, set his stampe on, or hand vnto; also, to note; also, to skarre; also, to beckon vnto, or by signes to bid one approach.
Se signer. To blesse, or crosse himselfe; to make the signe of the Crosse on some part of himselfe.
Signer de son sang. To signe with his bloud; to assure the truth of his promises, or words, by most vehement, faithfull, or effectuall demonstrations.
Signet: m. A signet, seale, stampe, marke.
Signet de Salamon. Salamons seale, Scala cæli, White-root, or White-wort.
Signeur: m. A signer, subscriber; marker, brander; stamper; also, a crosser, or blesser.
Signifiance: f. A signification, or signifying; a declaring, a betokening; also, an argument, signe, or token of.
Significance. as Signifiance.
Signification: f. A signification, sence, meaning; a declaration, aduertisement, information.
Signifier. To signifie, betoken, shew, note, meane; to declare, denounce, warne, aduertise, informe.
Haine de prince signifie mort d'homme: Prov. A Princes hate portends the bane of man.
Silence: m. Silence, peace-holding; stillnesse, quietnesse; also, a deauelinesse, or solitarinesse.
Silenes. Boxes in Apothecaries shops painted on the outside, with diuers odde figures.
Silentiaire: m. A silenciarie, a patron or patterne of silence.
Silentieux: m. euse: f. Verie silent, full of silence, most quiet, husht, or still; that vseth to speake but little; where no noyse at all is vsed.
Siler. The hearbe Seseli, Seseleos, Hartwort; some also call Spert, or the Osier Withie so.
Siler de Candie. Hartwort of Candia.
Siler de Montagne. Siler Mountaine, bastard Louage.
Sili. A yellow earth (found in gold and siluer mines) whereof, being burnt, Painters make a kind of Vermillion.
Siliquastre: m. Guinnie Pepper, Calecut, or Indian Pepper; also, as Guainier.
Silique: f. The huske, or cod of Beanes, Pease, &c; and particularly, the Carob, or Carob Beane cod, the fruit of the Carob tree; also, a poise, among Phisitions, &c, comming to foure graines.
Siller les yeux. To seele, or sow vp, the eye-lids; (& thence also) to hoodwinke, blind, keepe in darknesse, deprive of sight; also, to winke, as when one lookes vpon the Sunne.
Sillon: m. as Seillon; also, a glimpse, or small light.
Silure: m. The rauening sheat fish, or Whall of the riuer.
Simagrée: f. A wry mouth, or filthie face, the countenance of a leaser, or Clowne in a Play, made to prouoke laughter; also, a soure countenance, trabbed visage, vinegar face put on; sorrow dissembled, affliction counterfeited; any hipocriticall shew, looke, or behauior.
Simbolizer. Looke Symbolizer.
Sime. Looke Cime, or Simme.
Sime. La partie sime du foye. The masse part of the liuer, that which hath no manner of hollownesse in it.
Simier de boeuf. Looke Cimier.
Similaire: com. Similar; like, resembling.
Parties similaires. Parts (of the bodie) of one substance, and which, although diuided, retaine the name of the whole.
Similitude: f. A similitude, comparison; likenesse, resemblance.
Simiotique. Medecine sim. That part of Phisicke which intreats of the significant markes of what is past, and what is to come, as well in regard of health, as of sickenesse.
Simme: f. The top, or tuft on the top, of a tree; the cop, ridge, or height of a mountaine, &c.
Simmetrie: f. Simmetrie, the iust, and mutuall proportion of euerie part in respect of the whole.
Simmiste: m. A Secretarie, or priuie Counsellor.
Simoniaque: com. A Simonist; one that selleth, or buyeth Church preferments, &c.
Simonie: f. Simonie; the buying, or selling of spirituall functions, or preferments.
Simple. A simple in Phisicke, a Phisicall drug; also, a single in dauncing.
Simple: com. Simple; single, pure, meere, vnmixt, vncompounded, of one sort, of it selfe; also, plaine, round, blunt, sincere, vnfained; harmelesse, innocent, without welt or gard; shallow, vnskilfull, ignorant, foolish; also, rude, homelie, meane, base.
Simple donation. An absolute gift; a thing thats giuen without any respect other then of the donees good.
Simple gagerie. A bare distraining, without carrying away of the distresse.
Simple heritier. An heire by discent, not by legacie or testament.
Simples plaids, ou querelles. Sleight suites, or controuersies; `A la difference des demandes, & procez d'importance, & criminels.
Simple vendition. `A la difference de celle qui est faicte sous faculté de rachapt; ou de celle qui est faicte sans eschange.
Benefice à simple tonsure. The place of a Prebend, or Cannon; a Benefice without the charge of soules.
Default simple, ou pur. An absolute, or meere default; S' obtient par le demandeur contre le defendeur, & par l'appellant contre l'intimé.
Amende simple. The ordinarie, or accustomed amerciament of 5 solz, or 7 solz 6 deniers.
Hommage simple. Looke Hommage.
Simplement. Simply, singly, purely, meerely, without mixture; plainely, roundly, bluntly, vnfainedly, harmelesly, innocently; shallowly, vnskilfully; rudely, meanely, basely.
Simpler. To cousin, cunnie, gull, deceiue, beguile.
Simplesse: f. Looke Simplicité.
Simplette: f. A little, simple, or homelie wench, one that is apt to beleeue, and thereby soone deceiued.
Simpliciste. as Simpliste.
Simplicité: f. Simplicitie, singlenesse, sleightnesse; plainenesse, bluntnesse, rudenesse, homelinesse, harmelesnesse; follie, shallownesse, vnskilfulnesse, ignorance.
Simpliste: m. A Simplist, or Herbalist; one that vnderstands, or professes to vnderstand, the nature of simples, of plants, of drugs.
Simploce: f. The ending, and beginning of two (next-adioyning) verses with one word.
Simulachre: m. The image, picture, or counterfeit of a man or woman; the figure, semblance, resemblance, likenesse, forme, or proportion of any thing represented.

Si-

Simulateur : m. A dissembler, cogger, gloser, flatterer, hypocrite, fainer, or counterfeiter of that which hee is not, or meanes not.

Simulation : f. Simulation, dissembling, cogging, glosing, flatterie, hypocrisie; a colour, or pretence; a fayning, or counterfeiting, of what one is, or meanes, not.

Simulté : f. A grudge, inward conceit against, priuie hatred or displeasure, gilt ouer with a countenance or shew to the contrarie.

Sinalles Looke Senelles.

Sinapiser. To reuiue a mortified place, and draw fresh humors and colour vnto it, by a plaister of mustard seed, &c; Hence also, to raise blisters, or bring smart, by such plaisters; and, to besprinkle, dredge, or strew ouer with sharpe, and smarting powder.

Since : f. A dish-clowt, shoue-clowt, clowt to wipe downe tables, or to rub the house.

Sincer. To wipe, to rub, to make cleane with a clowt.

Sincere, & Sincerité. Looke Syncere, & Syncerité.

Sincopé : m. ée : f. Cut off.

Sincoper. To cut off.

Sinelles. Looke Senelles.

Sineuille : f. The handle whereby some kind of wheeles, or wheele-like Engines, are turned.

Sing : m. A signe, marke, note, character; a superscription, stampe, or signe manuell; also, a spot (of what colour soeuer) on the face, or other part of a new-borne infant; also, a bell, or the sound of a bell; whence, Tocsing; an Allarum bell; and;

Tu n'en as pas fait les sings sonner. Thou hast not cried it at the crosse, nor made all the world ring of it; thou diddest not greatly publish, or brag of, it.

Singe : m. An Ape; also, an imitator, emulator, counterfeiter; also, a windlesse, or draw-beame.

Singe de mer. A kind of rough-skinned Ray, whose long, and flat taile somewhat resembles a sword.

Monnoye de singe. Mopping, mumping, mowing; also, frisks, gambols, tumbling tricks.

Oeuvre de singe. An idle, foolish, lewd, or impure act.

Patenostre du singe. A didder ing, or chattering with the teeth.

Vin de singe. Looke Vin.

Branslant les levres comme font les singes de seiour. Wagging their lips like Apes that haue little to doe.

Contournant la teste comme vn singe qui avalle pilules. Wrying his head like an Ape that swalloweth pills.

Remuant les babines comme vn singe qui cerche poux en teste. Stirring his chaps like an Ape that looketh a head for lice.

Tout passe par ses tripes comme par le cul du singe. Looke vnder Passer.

Aujourd'huy Seigneur, demain singe ord : Prov. To day a goodlie Lord, to morrow an euglie lozell.

Oncques vieil singe ne fit belle moüe : Prov. Old age cannot be gracious, comelie, louelie.

Singeot : m. A little Ape.

Singesse : f. An ill-fauoured, or Monkie-faced wench, a Madame euglie, foule slut, looke-like-an-Ape.

Singeries : f. Apish trickes, idle toyes; or, as Monnoye de singe.

Singesse : f. A she Ape.

Singeur : m. An Apish mome, or, a keeper of Apes.

Singlage : m. A sayling in, a cutting or diuiding of, the sea; also, a Mariners hire, wages, or intertainment, or, the earnest, or presse-money, giuen him when he is intertained.

Singlant : m. ante : f. Sayling, diuiding or cutting the sea; also, whisking, lashing, jerking; whence;

Verge singlante. A scutcher, switch, or switcher.

Voix singlante. A shrill voyce.

Singlé : m. ée : f. Sailed on, cut or diuided, as water by a boat; also, whisked, scutched, lashed, ierked, switched, scourged.

Singlée : f. as Singlement.

Singlement : m. A sayling, or cutting of the sea by sayling; also, a whisking, lashing, ierking, scutching.

Singler. To sayle, to cut the water, with a full wind; also, to whiske, or whizze, like the wind among sayles; and, to switch, lash, whip, ierke, scutch, or scourge with a rod.

Singler en haute mer. Looke Mer.

Singlet : m. A scutch, lash, whiske, jerke or ierke with a rod, &c.

Singleure. Looke Singlement.

Singularité : f. Singularitie, excellencie, peerelesnesse; peculiarnesse.

Singulier : m. ere : f. Singular, excellent, exquisite, peereleese, passing others; also, single, one, odde, peculiar, especiall, alone.

Singulier en ses opinions. Obstinate, wilfull, opinionatiue.

Singulierement. Singularly, excellently, exquisitely, chiefly, onely, peculiarly, especially, aboue other things.

Sinipion. A kind of disease peculiar to children.

Sinissome. Blessed Thistle, Carduus benedictus.

Sinistre : com. Sinister, vnlucke.

Sinistrement. Sinisterously, vnluckily; also, in euill part.

Sinon. Sauing, except, but onely, vnlesse.

Sinople : m. Sinople, greene colour (in Blazon.)

Sintegne. A kind of bloudie flix.

Sinterese : f. The pricke, or sting of conscience; or as Synderese.

Sintre. Looke Cintre.

Sinueux : m. euse : f. Bosomie, intricate, crooked, full of hollow turnings, windings, or crinkle crankles.

Sinuosité : f. A hollow turning, or winding; a bosomie crooking, or in-bending; an indenting; an intricateneese.

Sion : m. A scion, or shoot, &c, as Scion.

Sions. The boisterous incounters of two strong winds, either sidelong, or acrosse.

Siphach. Th'inner rind of the bellie, wherewith all the intralls are couered : Rab.

Siphon. The socke, or pipe of a Conduit; the tap, or faucet of a hogshead; also, a funnell, or tunnell; also, a quill, or pipe to sucke wine with : Rab.

Sire. Sir, or Maister; A title of honor which, without addition, is giuen onely to the King; but with addition, vnto Marchants, or Tradesmen; (whence, Sire Pierre, Sire Simon, &c; ) and vnto Knights, (whence, Sire Chevalier; ) and vnto some few owners of Fiefs, or Seigniories, (whence, le Sire de Ponts en Guyenne; ) to whom it was much more cõmonly giuen in old time, (whence, le Sire du païs, often vsed to signifie the Lord of the countrey;) And as it appeares by ancient French Histories, and Bookes, all Lords, whether of Territorie, or iurisdiction, were stiled Sires.

Siringue : f. A squirt, or syringe.

Siringué : m. ée : f. Squirted, iniected.

Siringuer. To squirt, or iniect with a syringe.

Sirocco, & Siroch. A South-east wind.

Sironne : f. A kind of fomentation.

Siſalle. grive ſiſalle. A Fieldfare; or a kind of great, and Doue-coloured Thruſh, which vſually makes her neaſt in walls.
Siſame. Looke Seſame.
Siſerre: f. The Throſtle, or Mauis: ¶Lionnois.
Siſtolique: com. Without intermiſſion, in motion: ¶Rab.
Sistre: m. A kind of braſen Timbrell.
Siſtre. The hearbe Spignell, or Spicknell, Mew, Baldimonic, and Hearewort.
Sit: m. A ſite, or ſeat.
Sitibond: m.onde: f. Extreamely athirſt.
Siticines: m. That ſounded Trumpets, or ſung vnto Pipes, at Funeralls: ¶Rab.
Situation: f. A ſituation; the ſeat, ſite, or ſtanding of a place.
Situé: m.ée: f. Situate, or ſituated, ſeated, ſited, ſtanding, placed.
Situer. To ſituate, ſite, ſeat, place.
Sivé: m. A broth, or ſauce made of th'intralls of a hog; alſo, broth, or ſauce for the forepart of a fried Hare, made of wine, vinegar, verjuyce, hearbes, and ſpices, & ſerued with toſts, or ſops; alſo, ſeame, or ſwines greaſe.
Du ſivé d'huiſtres. Oyſter broth, or broth made of boiled Oiſters.
Sive: f. A Chiboll, hollow Leeke, Scallion.
Sivele: f. A buckle: ¶Langued.
Sivette: f. Ciuet; alſo, a Ciuet Cat; alſo, a Chiue, or ſmall Chiboll.
Siviere. Looke Civiere.
Sivot: m. A Scallion, a hollow or vnſet Leeke.
Six. Six, halfe a dozen.
Sixain: m. A ſixt, a ſixt part, the proportion of ſix; Hente, a Poeme, or ſtanzo of ſix verſes; and, the halfe of a Sol, a coine worth ſix Deniers, or ſomewhat more then our halfepenie.
Sixener. To yeeld ſix for one; alſo, to come forth by halfe-dozens, or by ſix and ſix together.
Sixieſme: m. A ſixt, or ſixt part; a proportion of ſix.
Droict de ſixieſme. An yearelie rent of ſix pence due by euerie affranchiſed inhabitreſſe of Henault vnto the Earle thereof, in acknowledgement of her former thraldome, and as a gratuitie for her new-gotten freedome.
Sixieſme: com. The ſixt, or ſixth.
Droict du ſixieſme denier. The ſixt penie, or part of the price of aliened land, due (in ſome places) vnto the Lord of whom it is held.
Sixte: m. A ſixt, a propertion of ſix, in Muſicke.
Sizement: m. A ſitting, ſetling, ſeating.
Skelete. Looke Scelete.
Smirge: m. Louage, or Parſley of Macedonia.
Sobre: com. Sober, temperate, continent, ſtayed or ſetled in humor, well aduiſed.
Sobrement. Soberly, temperately, continently, ſtaiedly; aduiſedly.
Sobreſſaut: m. A Sobreſſault, or Summer-ſault; an actiue, or nimble tricke in tumbling, &c.
Sobreſſe: f. as Sobrieté; alſo, actiuitie, or nimbleneſſe.
Sobrieté: f. Sobrietie, temperance, continencie, ſtayednеſſe, aduiſednеſſe.
Sobriqué: m.ée: f. Pranked, or perfumed.
Sobriquet: m. A ſurname; alſo, a nickname, or by-word; and, a quip or cut giuen, a mocke or flowt beſtowed, a ieaſt broken on a man.
Soc d'une charruë. The cultер, or ſhare of a plough; alſo the plough it ſelfe; whence;
Le pourpre au ſoc mort d'egal poids balance: Pro. Death equalls plough-driuers with purple-wearers.
Sociable: com. Sociable, companable, familiar, courteous, gentle, friendlie.
Societé: f. Societie, fellowſhip, conſort, companie.
Socque: f. A ſocke or ſole of dust, or earth, cleauing to the bottome of the foot in a cloggie way, or in a moiſt & clayie ſoyle.
Sodalité: f. Sodalitie, fellowſhip, ſocietie, brotherlie companie.
Sodomie: f. Sodomie, buggerie.
Sodomite: m. A Sodomite, Ingler, Buggerer.
Soëf: m.ſoëfve: f. Sweet, plauſible, delicious, delicate, ſoote; gentle, courteous, mild; ſoft, ſmooth.
Soëf. (Aduerbially, & in ſtead of Soëfvement; )whence;
Le boeuf las marche ſoëf: Prov. The wearie Oxe treads gently or gingerly; goes faire and ſoftly.
Soëfflairant, & Soëffleurant: m. ante: f. Moſt fragrant, delicately ſmelling.
Soëfvement. Sweetly, deliciouſly, ſmoothly, gently.
Soëfveté: f. Sweetneſſe, pleaſantneſſe, deliciouſneſſe, plauſibleneſſe; gentleneſſe, mildneſſe, ſmoothneſſe.
Soeil du ſanglier. Looke Sueil.
Soeur: f. A ſiſter.
Le frere veut bien que ſa ſoeur ait, mais que rien du ſien n'y ait: Prov. The brother would haue his ſiſter thriue by any meanes but by his.
Soeurette: f. A little ſiſter.
Soeurorge. Looke Sororge.
Sofiſtication: f. A ſophiſtication, or ſophiſticating; an adulterating, or falſifying.
Sofiſtiquer. To ſophiſticate, falſifie, adulterate.
Sogrenu: m.uë: f. Looke Saugrenu.
Sogrenuë: f. A ieaſt.
Soïage: m. The reaping of corne, &c.
Soïe de porc. The briſtles, or ſtiffe haire, of a hog.
Soïer. To reape, or cut downe corne.
Soïeur: m. A reaper.
Soif: f. Thirſt; a drouth, or drought; a deſire to drinke.
Endurer la ſoif aupres d'une fontaine. To ſuffer want in the middeſt of abundance.
Il n'a pas ſoif qui de l'eau ne boit: Prov. Hee's not athirſt that water drinkes not.
On a beau mener le boeuf à l'eau s'il n'a ſoif: Pro. Looke Boeuf.
Qui mieux aime autruy que ſoy au moulin il meurt de ſoif: Prov. Hee that loues others better then himſelfe dies athirſt on a Mill-damme.
Soigner. To care, heed, regard, attend, ſee to, prouide for, take paines in, be diligent about.
Soigneuſement. Carefully, heedfully, diligently, painefully, ſeriouſly, laborioſly, ſtudiouſly.
Soigneux: m.euſe: f. Carefull, heedfull, regardfull, circumſpect, attentiue, warie, ſolicitous, diligent, vigilant, ſtudious, induſtrious, laborious, painfull, earneſt.
Soil de ſanglier. Looke Sueil.
Soilure: f. A galling, or breaking of the skinne by frequent vſe, or ouermuch rubbing; ſome call it a chafegall.
Soimeſme. Himſelfe.
Soing: m. Care, ſtudie, diligence, vigilancie, warineſſe, heed, regard, attention, circumſpectiõ, induſtrie, labour, paines.
Soir: m. The euening.
Nul ſoir ſans iour: Prov. No dawning without a day.
Les paroles du ſoir ne reſemblent pas à celles du matin: Prov. Ere night our morning ſtile is chaunged; or, few make at night their mornings promiſe good.

Le

Le rouge ſoir, & blanc matin, &c. Looke Matin.
Tel rit au matin qui au ſoir pleure: Prov. Some laugh amornings who ere night ſhed teares.
Soiré. Looke Soireux.
Soirée: f. The euening, or euening-tide.
Soireux: m. euſe: f. Of, or in, the euening; late adaies, towards night.
Soitier: m. A Silkeman.
Soitier: m. ere: f. as Setier; alſo, of, or full of, ſilke.
Soiture: f. A reaping of corne.
Soixante. Sixtie, threeſcore.
Sol: m. The ſoile, ground, land, foundation, or bottome of a place; the floore, or loweſt ſtorie of a houſe; alſo, the Sunne; whence, vn Eſcu ſol; A Crowne of the Sunne; the French Crowne whereon a little Sunne, or Starre, is figured.
Sol: m. A Sous, or the French ſhilling; whereof tenne make one of ours; (But this is to be vnderſtood of the Sol Tournois, the moſt generall, and beſt-knowne ſol in France; and euer vnderſtood when the word ſol is vſed without addition.)
Sol Barrois. Is a ſixt part in twentie leſſe then the Tournois, whereof foureteene are worth twentie of theſe.
Sol Bourdelois. Is worth halfe as much as the Sol Pariſien.
Sols forts. Looke Forte monnoye, vnder Fort.
Sol de guerre. A Lorraine coyne of ſmall value.
Sol neret. Looke Neret.
Sol Manſais. Is worth two ſols Tournois.
Sol Pariſien, ou de Paris. The Pariſian ſol; is as much as the Tournois, and a quarter; for twentie of them amount vnto twentie ſiue of th'other.
Sol Tournois. The tenth part of our ſhilling, or one part in ſix better then our penie; the moſt ordinarie, and moſt knowne Sol in France.
Il fait de ſix ſols vn teſton. He makes a Noble of nine-pence; (appliable to an induſtrious thriuer.)
Il fait de ſon teſton ſix ſols. (The contrarie, and meant of a riotous vnthrift, of whom we ſay) He will quickly bring a Noble to nine-pence.
Solacier. ſe ſol. To ſolace, make merrie, recreate himſelfe.
Solacieux: m. euſe: f. Solacious, recreatiue, delightfull, comfortable.
Solage: m. as Solaige; alſo, ſoyle, or good ground.
Solaige: m. Sunnage, or Sunnineſſe; th'eleuation, aſpect, force, or power of the Sunne; th'effects of Sunne-ſhine, vpon a place.
Solaire de la jambe. The greateſt of the ſix hinder muſcles of the leg, ending in the ſole of the foot, the which it ſerues to extend.
Solaire: com. Sunnie, of or belonging to the Sunne.
Herbe Solaire. The Marigold.
Vent Solaire. An Eaſterlie wind.
Solane: m. The heerbe Nightſhade; or as Solatre.
Solane grand. Dwale, deadlie Nightſhade.
Solatre: m. Garden Nightſhade, Morrell, pettie Morrell.
Solatre dormitif. Sleepie Nightſhade.
Solatre dormitif commun. Dwale, great Nightſhade, ſleeping Nightſhade.
Solatre furieux. Raging Nightſhade.
Sold: m. A Sous; Looke Sol.
Soldade. A la ſoldade. Souldier-like; bravely, valiantly; ſwaggeringly.
Soldan. Looke Souldan.
Soldanelle: f. Sea Withiewind, ſea Bindweed, ſea Cole, or ſea Caule, ſea Bells, ſea Foleſiot, Scottiſh Scruiegraſſe.
Soldat: m. A ſouldier; one that followes the warres.
Soldat de fortune. An aduenturer, or voluntarie; one that ſerues without pay, or charge.
A jeune ſoldat vieil cheval: Prov. A young ſouldier would be fitted with an old horſe; (both to temper his heat, and to helpe his ignorance.)
Soldateſque: f. Souldierie; alſo, a troupe or companie of ſouldiers.
Soldateſque: com. Souldierlie, of a ſouldier, ſouldier-like.
Soldateſquement. Souldierly, ſouldier-like.
Soldatiſé: m. ée: f. Souldierized, made a ſouldier, turned ſouldier.
Solde. Looke Soulde.
Sole: f. The ſole, plant, or vnder part of the foot; (and hence) alſo, the ſole of a ſtocking, or ſhooe; alſo, the Soleſiſh; alſo, the peece of timber called a Girder, or Joyſt betweene two Summers.
Paſque de Soles. Palmes Sunday.
Tant d'arpens à la ſole. The proportion of land which is to be ſowed that yeare; (In many parts of France they ſow euerie yeare but a third part of their arrable.)
Soleil: m. The Sunne; alſo, Gold; called ſo by Alchimiſts.
Soleil de mer. A certaine fiſh, or ſea-vermine, which reſembles a painted Sunne.
Biens au ſoleil. Lands, grounds, leaſes, cattell, &c; any poſſeſſions which lie without doores, and are often beheld by the Sunne; differing therein from money, which be but ſeldome lookes on.
Herbe au ſoleil; &, Herbe du ſoleil. as vnder Herbe.
Roſée du ſoleil. The hearbe Sunne-dew, Ros ſolis, Youthwort, called in the North, Red rot, and Moore-graſſe.
Gratant le cul au ſoleil. Slothfully, lazily, litherly, careleſly, playing the idle and ſlouenlie lozell, clawing his breech in the Sunne.
Ie l'envoyeray bien grater le cul au ſoleil. I will ſend him packing, turne him out a-grazing, make him goe ſhake his eares abroad.
Le ventre au ſoleil. Il y demeura le ventre au ſol. He was ſlaine, or left dead, in that place.
Il ne laiſſe dormir ſa debte ſur le ſoleil. Hee ſuffers not the dayes debt to be vnpayed at night; hee loues to pay readily, loues to be ſoone out of debt.
Soleil qui luiſarne au matin, femme qui parle Latin, & Enfant nourry de vin, ne viennent point à bonne fin: Prov. A glaring morne, a woman Latiniſt, and wine-fed child, make men crie bad I wiſt.
Tel eſt le gendre comme le ſoleil d'hyver: Prov. Looke Gendre.
Soleillant: m. ante: f. Sunning, Sunnie.
Soleillé: m. ée: f. Sunned; aired or weathered by, dryed or warmed at, layed in, expoſed vnto, the Sunne; alſo, warme, Sunnie, ſhining or heating like the Sunne.
Soleiller. To Sunne; to aire or weather in the Sunne or warme at, expoſe vnto, lay out into, the Sunne.
Soleilleux: m. euſe: f. Sunnie; apte vnto, or lying full in, the Sunne.
Solennel: m. elle: f. Solemne (not altogether as we doe commonly vnderſtand it, but) annuall, yeareſie, ordinarie, woont, vſed, accuſtomed, done publickly, and at a certaine time.
Solennellement. Solemnely; publickly; annually, ordinarily, dinarily, vſually, accuſtomably.

Solennité : f. A ſolemnitie, or ſolemne feaſt; alſo, a preſcript forme, preciſe manner, or dinarie cuſtome, vſuall faſhion, kept or beld.

Solennization : f. A Solemnization, or Celebration.

Solennizer. To ſolemnize, celebrate, obſerue ſolemnly, vſe reuerently.

Soler. To ſole (a ſhooe, or ſtocking.)

Solerets : m. Looke Sollerets.

Solerre : m. The Eaſt wind.

Soles. les ſoles. The groundſill of a houſe.

Soleyé : m. ée : f. Sunned; aired in, heated by, expoſed vnto, the Sunne.

Solfe : f. A Solfa; a note in ſinging.

Solfié : m. ée : f. Solfaed; alſo, diſtempered.

Solicitation : f. A ſolicitation, or ſoliciting, a mouing, or importuning vnto; an inſtant purſuit, the following of a ſuit.

Solicité : m. ée : f. Solicited, importuned, often and earneſtly moued; inſtantly purſued or followed; alſo, heedfully or carefully looked vnto.

Soliciter. To ſolicite, moue, importune, intreat inſtantly, purſue earneſtly, follow hard; alſo, to heed ſeriouſly, looke verie carefully vnto.

Soliciteur : m. A Solicitor, or follower of a cauſe for another; alſo, the mouer, importuner, or inciter of another.

Solicitude : f. Solicitude, care, carke, thoughtfulneſſe; heauineſſe, penſiueneſſe, fretfulneſſe, perplexitie or anguiſh of mind.

Solidaire : com. Solide, whole; in for, liable to, the whole.

Solidairement. Solidely, ſoundly, ſurely; alſo, wholly; or (as our Bond-Latine in Solido*) for the whole.*

Solide : com. Solide, ſound, whole, faſt, firme, full, ſtrong, tough, ſtiffe, hard, ſure, pithie, maſſiue.

Solier : m. A ſellar, or low garner; alſo, as Plancher; alſo, as Soulier.

Solifuge : f. A kind of Spider, or vermine like a Spider, in the ſiluer mines of Sardinia; tearmed thus, becauſe it euer flies from light.

Soliſeque : com. Sunne-following.

Soliſtime. Diuinatiõ by a falling on the ground of bread giuen vnto chickens : ¶Rab.

Solitaire : com. Solitarie, lonely, deauelie, deſert, priuate, without companie, all alone.

Paſſe ſolitaire. Looke Paſſe.

Solitude : f. Solitude, ſolitarineſſe, lonelineſſe, priuacie, want of companie, deauelineſſe; alſo, a deſert, wilderneſſe, vncouth and vnhabited place; alſo, a forlorne, or ſuccourleſſe eſtate.

Solive : f. The peece of timber called a Girder, or Joiſt (betweene two Summers.)

Soliveau : m. A little Girder, or Joiſt.

Solle. Looke Sole.

Sollerets : m. Supeters; foot-peeces of Armour; Armor for the feet.

Sollette : f. A little ſole.

La ſollette d'un eſperon. The vnder leather of a ſpurre.

Sollier : m. A ſellar, or low garner.

Solloüoir : m. A ſalting, or ſowcing tub : ¶Rab.

Soloeciſme : m. Soleciſme, or incongruitie.

Soloir. Looke Souloir.

Sols. Looke Sol.

Solſie. Looke Soulſie.

Solſtice : m. The Solſtice, Sunne-ſtead, or ſtay of the Sunne; the longeſt or ſhorteſt day of the yeare; or the ſeaſon wherein the dayes be at the longeſt, or the ſhorteſt.

Solſticial; ou, Solſtitial : m. ale : f. Solſticiall; of, or in, the Solſtice.

Solu : m. uë : f. Looſe; free, careleſſe, of ſcope.

Oraiſon ſoluë. Proſe.

Solvable : com. Payable, anſwerable, ſufficient, able to pay his debts; alſo, warranted, or made good.

Solut. Looſe, &c; as Solu; whence;

Clerc ſolut. A lay, or ſecular Church-man; one thats not tied vnto the Church, nor bound to attend a Cure; Prebend, Canon, Deacon, &c.

Solutif : m. iue : f. Solutiue; laxatiue; looſſing, diſſoluing.

Solution : f. A diſcharge, or paiment; a reſolution, or anſwer; a diſſolution, releaſing, looſſing.

Solution de continuité. The diuiſion of an intire, the opening of a cloſe, thing.

Solz. Looke Sol.

Som : m. Branne.

Somate. A bodie : ¶Rab.

Somayer. Looke Sommayer.

Sombre : com. Cloſe, darke, clowdie, muddie, ſhadie, duskie, gloomie.

Sombre-pres. Darke-blue; alſo (of the skie) thinly darkened, or ouerſpred with clouds.

Sombrer. To darken; alſo, to dig vp a vineyard, (the firſt labour done to it) thereby to ſupple, and ſoſten the ſoyle thereof.

Sombriere : m. A (broad-brimd) hat.

Somiere : m. Looke Sommiere.

Sommade : f. A horſe-load : ¶Langued.

Sommage : m. as Corvée; or drudgerie, or a drudging ſeruice.

Sommaige : m. The top of a tower, &c. (v.m.)

Sommaire : m. A ſummarie; breuiarie, abridgement, epitome of the whole; a breeſe and full collection of words, or things; the ſumme, ſubſtance, chiefe point or knot of.

Sommaire : com. Summarie; chiefe, principall, whole, full, all-comprehending; ſuccinct, compendious.

Vn procez ſommaire. A proceſſe wherein no formalitie, or formall proceeding hath beene vſed.

Sommairement. Summarily; ſuccinctly, briefly, compendiouſly; alſo, throughly, wholly, fully.

Proceder ſommairement. C'eſt qu'on dit en droict, de plano; aſçavoir qu'on peut traicter à l'extraordinaire, & ou le Iuge ſe trouve ſans attendre le iour de l'ordinaire : Et en cecy ne convient obſerver les exactes ſolennitez de droict, ou de pratique, ainſi apres l'adiournement libellé faict à celuy qui eſt appellé devant le Iuge, les parties doivent eſtre ouyes ſur le champ, ſans miniſtere d'Advocats; & par briefs delais leur doit eſtre preſix, & ordonné, ce qu'il convient pour parvenir au iugement definitif, ſans les appointer, par multiplicité de delais, à faire de longs plaidoïers, ou eſcritures.

Sommarer. To plough, or breake vp the earth.

Sommation : f. A ſumme, or, the ſumming, of money; alſo, a ſummoning, or denouncing.

Sommayer. To put hoopes vpon hoopes, or, to hoope a veſſell with the hoopes called Sommiers.

Somme : m. Sleepe, reſt.

Somme : f. A ſumme of money, &c; the ſumme of an account; alſo, an Arithmeticall product; the ſumme produced by, or comming of, a number multiplied; alſo, a (horſe) load, or burthen; alſo, the ſumme, iſſue, end, concluſi- concluſion, top, height, fulneſſe, conſummation, perfection of things.

Chevaux de ſomme. Sumpter-horſes, or Carriers horſes.

Somme toute. In briefe, to conclude.

Servir à ſac, & à ſomme. To hold by vile, or drudging ſeruices; to be bound, by his tenure, to till his Landlords ground; to inne his corne and hay; to carrie his wine, and wood, &c.

Sommé: m. ée: f. Summed; ſummarily reckoned; alſo, ſummoned, or vouched; alſo, topped, furniſhed or couered at the top with; alſo, come, or growne, to it full height; whence;

Les pennes d'un faulcon toutes ſommées. Full ſummed, full grownẽ; and; Teſte de cerf ſommée; C'eſt quand le cerf a tout ce qu'il doit porter.

Sommeil: m. Sleepe; alſo, a ſlumbering.

Sommeillant: m. ante: f. Sleeping; ſleepie.

Sommeillard: m. arde: f. Sleepie, drowſie, ſluggiſh; negligent, ſlothfull, heauie-headed.

Sommeiller: m. A Butler.

Sommeiller. To ſleepe; to ſlumber.

Sommeilleux: m. euſe: f. Sleepie, drowſie, ſluggiſh, heauie-headed, full of ſleepineſſe, much giuen to ſleeping.

Sommelerie: f. A Butterie.

Sommer. To ſumme, reckon, or caſt vp; to bring to a head, or concluſion; to make a ſummarie, or collection of; to fill vp to the top; alſo, to ſummon, denounce; giue notice of; and to vouch, call vpon, challenge warrantie of.

Tant travaille, & tracaſſe l'homme, qu'en fin il ſe rompt, ou ſomme: Prov. A man ſo long doth toyle and ſwinke, till vnder his owne charge he ſinke.

Sommet: m. The top, cop, height, or higheſt part of a thing; and hence, the ridge, or the roofe of a houſe; &, the crowne, or noddle of the head.

Sommette: f. A little ſumme, or ſummarie.

Sommier: m. A Sumpter-horſe; (and generally any toyling, and load-carrying, drudge, or groome;) alſo, the peece of timber called a Summer; alſo, the Sound-boord of an Organ; alſo, a Truſſing-hoope; the double hoope which is next aboue the head-hoope of a peece of caske, and which, being directly ouer the Croes, doth beare more ſtreſſe then all the reſt of the hoopes.

Sommiers. He alſo, double hoopes; or hoopes put vpon the hoopes of a veſſell, to ſtrengthen them, and to indure, in carriage, all ruſhes without breaking them; alſo, the Enſigne-bearers of a marching Armie; tearmed ſo to put a difference betweene their toyle, and th' eaſe enioyed by the Roman Enſignes, who neuer held their Colours but when they were, or were ſet, in a readineſſe to fight.

Somniſſion: f. A ſubmiſſion, an humbling.

Sommiſte: m. A Summiſt; an imitator, or vnderſtander, of Thomas Aquinas his ſummes.

Sommité: f. as Sommet; or, a Summitie, or highneſſe.

Somnifique: com. Sleepe-cauſing.

Morelle somnifique. Deathes hearbe, ſleepie or deadlie Nightſhade.

Somption: f. A taking, a receiuing.

Somptüaire: com. Sumptuarie, of or belonging to coſt, breeding or bringing in expence.

Somptuëuſement. Sumptuouſly, coſtly, expenſiuely, gorgeouſly, exceſſiuely.

Somptuëux: m. ëuſe: f. Sumptuous, coſtlie, expenſiue, gorgeous, magnificent, prodigall, exceſſiue.

Somptuoſité: f. Sumptuouſneſſe, coſtlineſſe, huge expence, prodigalitie, ſuperfluitie, exceſſiueneſſe.

Son: m. Branne; (and thence) alſo, the ſcurfe, or little ſcales in the head, &c, called Dandarfe.

Son gras. Pollard; or, branne that hath ſome ſmall quantitie of meale among it.

Son ſec. Looke Sec.

Son: m. A ſound; voyce, noyſe, dinne; tune, muſicke, melodie.

Son eſclatant. A great craſh, claſh, crack, or creaking, a violent clap, a reſounding bounce or thumpe.

C'eſt le ſon des cloches. (Said of a thing that may with eaſe be diuerſified, or altered ſeuerall wayes.)

Son: m. ſa: f. His, hers, belonging vnto him or her.

Sonde: f. A Mariners ſounding plummet; alſo, a ſquirt, or ſiringe; and, an inſtrument whereby virginitie is tried.

Aller touſiours la ſonde en main. To proceed aduiſedly, to goe warily to worke.

Sonder. To ſound, proue, trie, feele, ſearch the depth, or bottome of.

Sondre. The Linden tree; Looke Soudre.

Songe: m. A dreame.

Songes ſont menſonges: Prov. Dreames are deluſions.

De ſot homme ſot ſonge: Prov. A fooliſh man hath fooliſh dreames.

Songé: m. ée: f. Dreamed.

Songeant. Dreaming, or in a ſleepie viſion.

Songeard: m. A continuall dreamer, or a dreaming fellow.

Songeard: m. arde: f. Dreaming, of or in a dreame.

Songe-creux: m. One that's in his dumps, or in a brown ſtudie; alſo, a dreaming, ſleepie, or beauie-headed gull.

Songe-malice: m. An imaginer of miſchiefe, a continuall plotter of villanies.

Songer. To dreame; alſo, to ſpeake dreamingly; alſo, to plot, contriue, deuiſe, inuent; imagine.

Songer creux. To muſe exceedingly, meditate ſeriouſly, thinke verie much vpon.

Touſiours truye ſonge bran: &, Truye ne ſonge qu'ordure: Prov. Looke Truye.

Songeur: m. A dreamer.

Vous me logez (ou vous me mettez bien) chez Guillot le ſongeur. You make me ſearch all the corners of my wit; you driue me into a great dumpe, or a great ſtudie.

Songner. Looke Soigner.

Songneuſement. Carefully, thoughtfully.

Sonnaille: f. A little bell; and particularly, the bell hung about the necke of a Weather, or heard-beaſt.

Sonnaillerie: f. A tinkling, or the tingling of a little bell.

Sonnaillier: m. ere: f. Carrying a bell; whence;

Mouton ſonnaillier. A Bell-weather.

Sonnalier. The ſame.

Sonner. To ſound, noiſe, tune, ring, reſound; to ting as a bell, ſtrike as a clocke, chinke or gingle as money; alſo, to call.

Sonner les ſings; &, ſonner la tuile; Looke vnder Sing, & Tuile.

Sonnerie: f. A ſounding, tuning, ringing, reſounding; a tinging, chinking, gingling.

Sonnet: m. A ſonnet, or canzonet, a ſong (moſt commonly) of 14 verſes.

Sonnette: f. A little bell, Anthem bell, Sans or ſacring bell; any ſmall tinging bell; as the bell about the necke of a Bell-weather, &c; whence, Mouto à la ſonnette.

Atta-

Attacher la ſonnette à l'oreille du chat. as Mettre la campane au chat, vnder Chat.

`A fol ne faut point de ſonnette: Prov. A foole needs neither bell nor bable; his words, and actions quickly will diſcouer him.

Sonoreux: m. euſe: f. Sonorous, lowd, ſhrill, roring, ringing.

Sont. Meſsieurs de non ſont. Imperfect, or prickleſſe men.

Sophie: f. Wiſedome; alſo, the hearbe called Laxwort, Flixwort, or Flixweed; alſo, the Dace, or Dare-fiſh.

Sophiſme: m. A ſophiſme, fallacie, tricke of ſophiſtrie; a ſophiſtication; cauill, or quidditie.

Sophiſte: m. A Sophiſter; a cunning, or cauilling diſputer.

Sophiſterie: f. Sophiſtrie; a cunning, or captious arguing.

Sophiſtiqué: m. ée: f. Sophiſticated, adulterated, falſified; alſo, cunningly handled, or cauillingly vttered.

Sophiſtiquement: m. A ſophiſticating, adulterating, falſifying.

Sophiſtiquer. To ſophiſticate, falſifie, counterfeit, adulterate, corrupt; alſo, to play the Sophiſter, diſpute ſubtilly, argue cunningly; to deceiue.

Sophiſtiquerie: f. Sophiſtrie, argute cauilling, ſubtile cunning; alſo, a ſophiſticating, adulterating, counterfeiting.

Soporal: m. ale: f. Sleepie, of or in ſleepe.

Soporifere: com. Soporiferous, ſleepe-procuring.

Soprefin: m. Superfine, tbred of gold, or ſiluer.

Sor. la pipée du ſor. The ſeaſon wherein the weather growes cold.

Sor. Faulcon ſor. A ſoare Hawke.

Harenc ſor. A red Herring.

Sorbition: f. A ſupping; alſo, broth, cale, pottage.

Sorceler. To charme, inchaunt, forſpeake, bewitch.

Sorcelerie: f. Sorcerie, charming, inchaunting.

Sorcellage: m. The ſame.

Sorcier: m. A Sorcerer, Charmer, Inchaunter, Wizard.

Sorciere: f. A Sorcereſſe, Inchauntreſſe, Charmereſſe, Hag, Witch.

Sordide: com. Sordide; fuule, filthie, corrupt, ſtinking, naſtie, ſluttiſh; vile, naughtie, baſe; alſo, pinching, miſerable, niching, nigardlie, cloſe-handed, full of, or giuen to, paultrie dodging.

Sordidement. Filthily, naſtily, naughtily; baſely, miſerably, for (deere) lucres ſake.

Soré: m. ée: f. Reeked, made red or ſorrell, as a Herring by the ſmoake.

Sorel: m. The hearbe Sorrell, or Sowre-docke.

Sorel du bois. Stubwort, ſowre Trefolie, Cucko-meat, Alleluia, wood Sorrell, wood Sowre.

Sorer. To reeke; to drie, or make red (as Herrings) in the ſmoake.

Sori. Looke Souris.

Soriciere: f. A Mouſetrap.

Soringue: f. Eele ſauce made of fried Onions, and toaſt-bread ſteeped in Peaſe broth, then ſtrayned with wine, vinegar, Cinnamon, Ginger, and other ſpices, all put into a pot with the Eeles cut into peeces, and (after a little ſeaſoning with Saffron, and ſalt) throughly boyled.

Soriser. To Mouſe, or hunt Mice like a Cat; alſo, as Sorer.

Soriſſeau: m. A little Mouſe.

Soriſſiere: f. A Mouſetrap.

Sorne: f. The euening.

Sorner. To ieſt, boord, frumpe, gull, ſell bargaines, ſpeake merrily, talke idly.

Sornette: f. A ieaſt, boord, merrie word, ſportfull conceit, pleaſant ſpeech; a tale, fib, foiſt, mockerie, gullerie.

Sornetteux: m. euſe: f. Full of ieaſts, or pleaſant conceits; that loues, or vſes to tell merrie tales.

Sororge: m. A brother in law; the husband of a ſiſter.

Sororité: f. Siſterhood.

Sorrat: m. A great, ſhort-ſnowted, ſharpe-toothed, and moſt rauenous Hound-fiſh.

Sort: m. A lot, or lotterie; alſo, fate, lucke, hazard, fortune, chance, caſualtie; alſo, a charme, incantation, or ſpell; alſo, the ſtocke, or principall of money in banke, or at vſe.

Sortable: com. Sortable, euen, fit or befitting, ſutable, equall, proportionable.

Sortablement. Sortably, fitly, befitting, ſutably, proportionably.

Sorte: f. Sort, manner, forme, faſhion, kind, qualitie, condition, calling.

De ſorte que. So that.

Chaſcun demande ſa ſorte: Prov. Each to his kind, as words to wind.

Sorti: m. ie: f. Iſſued, gone or burſt out; alſo, deliuered or brought out of; alſo, furniſhed, or fitted with.

Sorti de fil, & d'aiguille. Fully prouided of all neceſſaries.

Sorti de mauvaiſe femme. Vnhappily matched, peſtered or troubled with an euill wife.

Sortie: f. An iſſue, egreſſe, going forth.

Sortilege: m. Witchcraft, or diuination by lots.

Sortir. To iſſue, ſallie, come forth, goe beyond, depart or goe out of; alſo, to aſſort, furniſh, or fit with; alſo, to deliuer, or bring, out of.

Sortir effect. To ſucceed, or take effect.

Sortir des gonds. To flie off the bindges; to be impatient, violent, ouer vehement, break into outrage or extreame tearmes, forget his duetie or himſelfe.

Sortir hors de propos. To digreſſe, wander, extrauagate it, fall from the matter, goe from the purpoſe.

Il ne peut ſortir du ſac que ce qu'il y a dedans: Prov. You can haue no more of him then there is in him.

Soſmes: m. Vaſſalls, tenants: Bearnois.

Sot: m. A ſot, aſſe, dunce, dullard, blockhead, loggerhead, growtnoll, iobernoll, growthead, ioulthead; alſo, a foole, or vice in a play; and, any fond, vaine, or triſling fellow.

Va ailleurs cercher ton ſot. Looke for ſome other to laugh at, I am not the gull you looke for.

Le fol eſt ſot quant & quant, mais tout ſot n'eſt pas fol: Prov. The foole is ſure ynough a ſot, but euery ſot's no foole.

Quand les febves ſont flories, les ſots commencent leurs folies: Prov. In Cuckoe-time when Beanes doe flower, the cracke-braind fooles build vp their bower.

Sot: m. ſotte: f. Sottiſh, dull, dunſicall; groſſe, abſurd, improper; fooliſh, fond, vaine, friuolous; wanton, laſciuious.

De ſot homme on n'en peut faire vn bon conte: Prov. An aſſe does nothing worth the ſpeaking of.

De ſot homme ſot ſonge: Prov. The dreames of fops are but meere fopperies.

Femme ſotte ſe cognoiſt à la cotte: Prov. The robes that women doe weare, their priuate fooleries bewray.

So-

Sotart: m. A noddie, peake, wittall, cockscombe, woodcocke, dotterell, ninnihammer; or as Sottart.
Sotbriquet. Looke Sobriquet.
Sotiner. To play the sot.
Sotise: f. Sottishnesse, dotage, dulnesse, blockishnesse, absurditie, follie, foppishnesse.
Sottart: m. A dunce, foule sot, great asse, blockish luske, foolish lob.
Sottelet: m. A little sot.
Sottement. Sottishly, blockishly, grossely, absurdly; friuolously.
Sotterie, & Sottie. Looke Sotise.
Sottiner, & Sottise. Looke Sotiner, & Sotise.
Sou: m. Hogs feet in pickle, or souce; also, the Sous, or French shilling; Looke Sol.
Soüater. To partake with, or be a partner in; also, to ioyne with, or together, after the manner of countrey peasants, who bring euerie one a horse or two for the making of a teame, which no one of himselfe can furnish.
Soüaton: m. A partner, or partaker with; also, one that ioynes, or contributes, with his neighbors, to the making vp of a thing for their common vse; as in Soüater.
Soüatter. Looke Soüater.
Soubarbe: f. The part thats betweene the chinne and the throat; also, as Sousbarbe; and as Soubride.
Endurer vne soubarbe. To indure an affront, pocket vp an iniurie, swallow downe a wrong.
Soubassement de colonne. The base, or foot of a piller.
Soubassement de lict. The bases of a bed; that which hangs downe to the ground at the sides, & feet of some statelie beds.
Soubastement: m. A foundation, or ground-worke; a low building within the ground for the support of roomes aboue-ground.
Soubattuë: f. A surbate; or, surbating.
Soubatture: f. A surbating; or, surbate.
Soubchanter. To sing vnder, or after, another; to hold the base or ground vnto; to follow, in a song of three, or foure parts in one.
Soubchantre: m. An vnder-chaunter; an Officer in a Cathedrall Church inferiour to the head Chaunter.
Gardez le soubchantre. (Said when a man stoopes so low, or straines so hard, that he is in danger to let a fart;) ware crackes boe.
Soubcontrolleur: m. An vnder Controller.
Soubcurateur: m. An vnder Gardian; one that hath the tuition, or charge of a thing vnder another.
Soubdain, Looke Soudain.
Soubdainement, & Soubdaineté. Looke Soudainement, &c.
Soubdespensier. An vnder Cater, or an vnder Clerke of a kitchin.
Soubdiacre: m. A Subdeacon.
Soubelin. vn chat soubelin. A great or mightie Cat.
Soubeliné: m. ée: f. High, loftie, hautie; or, extolled, lifted vp, set on high.
Sougardien: m. An vnder Warden, vnder Keeper, vnder Gardian.
Soubhaiter. Looke Souhaiter.
Soubhastation: f. Open sale or portsale, sale of things forfeited, &c, by an outrope, or outerie.
Soubhaster. To make open sale, or portsale of, to sell at an outrope, or outerie, things forfeited, &c.
Soubiect: m. A subiect; Looke Subject.
Soubiect: m. cte: f. Subiect; Looke Subject.
Soubiection: f. Subiection; Looke Subjection.
Soublevé: m. ée: f. Lift, raised, hoven or held, vp; eased, lightned, helped, supported; peised, or weighed with the hand.
Soublevement: m. A lifting, heauing, raising, a holding vp; an helping, easing, lightning; also, a peising, or weighing with the hand; also, a commotion, insurrection, vprising.
Soublever. To lift, raise, heaue, or hold, vp; also, to helpe, aid, ease, lighten, or lessen the burthen of; also, to peise, or weigh with the hand.
Soublin. as Soubelin; whence, Marte Soub. a Sable.
Soub-maistre: m. An vnder Maister, an Vsher in a Schoole.
Soubmerger. to drown, ouerwhelm, sink, boulge, plunge.
Soubmettre. To submit, lay vnder, put below; underset, vnderprop; debase, humble, subdue.
Se soubmettre à. To vaile bonet, strike sayle, crooch, giue place or obedience, applie himselfe, vnto; to come vnder the lee, iurisdiction, or power, of.
Soubministration: f. A subministration, an vnder seruice.
Soubministre: m. An vnder minister, vnder seruant, vnderling in Office.
Soubministrer. To subminister vnto, to minister or serue vnder another.
Soubmis: m. ise: f. Submitted, humbled, abased, vnder; inthralled, subiected, or yeelded, vnto.
Soubmission: f. A submission; humiliation, or humbling; a putting, or setting vnder.
Soubors. Looke Sabors.
Soubpenduë: f. Looke Souspenduë.
Soubpeser. To peise, weigh, ponder diligently.
Soubrecoup: m. A downe-right blow. (v. m.)
Soubresault: m. A Sobresault, or Summer sault; a Gamboll, or friske; an actiue or nimble tricke in tumbling, &c.
Soubresaulteux: m. A Tumbler; or, one that fetcheth many an odde, or nimble friske.
Soubride: f. A checke, twitch, ierke, or iob giuen to a horse with his bridle; also, as Sousbarbe.
Soubriquet. Looke Sobriquet.
Soubrire. To smile.
Soubris: m. A smile, or smiling.
Soubs. Vnder, &c.; Looke Sous.
Soubs-acazement, & Soubs-acazer. Looke Soubzacazement, &c.
Soubs-agé: m. ée: f. Vnder age, not yet of yeares.
Soubs-aide: m. An vnder Aid; the Aid which tenants pay vnto their mesne Lord, towards that which is due both by him, and them vnto the Lord Paramount.
Soubsarrenter. To let out at an vnder rent, to let goe at a low yearelie rate.
Soubscelerier: m. An vnder Butler, or a Yeoman of the sellar.
Soubscription: f. A subscription, or subscribing.
Soubscrire. To subscribe.
Soubs-fiefver. C'est bailler en arriere-fief partie de son fief: ¶Ragueau.
Soubsigner. To subsigne, subscribe, set his hand, marke, or signe manuell vnder.
Soubslevement: m. Looke Soublevement.
Soubs-maieur: m. (Is in some townes) a Magistrate of authoritie, or dignitie, next vnto the Maior.
Soubs-maistre: m. An vnder Maister; or, an Vsher in a Schoole.
Soubs-manant: m. A tenant, vassall, or subiect vnto a Lord; (an old Picard word.)
Soubson, & Soubsonner. Looke Souspeçon, & Souspeçonner.
Soubspoictrine: f. The flanke-peece, or bottome of the brisket of an Oxe, &c.

Soubſtenable,& Soubſtenance. Look Souſtenable, & Souſtenance.

Soubſtenant: m. An vnder tenant; a tenant vnto a tenant, or to a meſne Lord; alſo, as Souſtenant.

Soubſtenement. Looke Souſtenement.

Soubſtenir,& Soubtenir. Looke Souſtenir.

Soubterrain: m.aine: f. Which is vnder the ground, or within the earth.

Soubterrer. Looke Souſterrer.

Soubtraire. To withdraw; nimme, purloyne, filch cloſely, conuey away priuily; alſo, to ſubduce, peruert, allure, intice, toll away.

Soubtrayant: m.ante: f. Subtracting, withdrawing; nimming, purloyning, cloſely filching; ſubducing, alluring, inticing away.

Soubz Beneath; vnder; Looke Sous.

Soubzacazement: m. A dead Fief, rent ſecke, meſne, or vnder rent.

Soubzacazer. To raiſe a new rent ſecke, new ſeruices, or a new Cens vpon the letting, or aliening of land alreadie ſo rented, or liable to ſeruices, or vnto Cens.

Soubzacazeur: m. One that raiſes, &c; as in Soubzacazer.

Soucens,& Soucenſier. Look Surcens,& Surcenſier.

Souche: f. The ſtock, trunke, or bodie of a tree; a log; alſo, the maine ſtock, or direct line of a pedegree, progenie, or familie; alſo, as Souchet; or the root of the wild, or Engliſh Galingale.

Souche commune. The deſcent of many brothers or couſens, from one father, mother, grandfather, or grandmother.

Tant que tige fait ſouche, elle ne branche iamais. Looke Tige.

Souchet: m. Ciperous, or Galingale; a Bull-ruſh whoſe root ſmells verie ſweetly; alſo, as Souchon; alſo, a kind of Impoſition.

Souchet de bois. Set-foyle, Tormentill; an hearbe.

Souchet d'Inde. Indian Galingale; whoſe root reſembles Ginger, and which in ſhops is tearmed Curcuma.

Souchet Romain. Sweet Ciperous.

Souchette: f. A little ſtocke, trunke, or log.

Soucheux: m.euſe: f. Full of ſtocks, logs, or ſtumps.

Souchon: m. The ſtumpe of a tree, &c.

Souci: m. Care, carke, thought; regard, heed; perplexitie, anxietie, or trouble of mind; alſo, a Marigold; (for which looke Soulſi.)

Enfans ſans ſouci. Careleſſe children, retcheleſſe fellowes, diſſolute companions; thoſe that care not how much they wrong themſelues, & abuſe others; alſo, a certaine rakehellie generation of Inglers, or Tumblers.

Soucicle. as Soucie.

Soucie: f. A little yellowiſh bird, hardly as big as a Wren, and called, by ſome, a Nimmurder; (Looke Soulſie.)

Soucier. To infect with cark, to afflict with cares; whence;

Ce temps ſoucie le monde. This vnſeaſonable weather doth trouble the world; viz. doth vexe, and hinder the moſt that would be abroad.

Se ſoucier. To care, heed, regard, reckon or make account of, prouide, or take thought for, be diligent, curious, or earneſt about; vex, perplex, trouble, or diſquiet himſelfe withall.

Ceux qui ne ſe ſoucient depuis le nez en amont. Men that care onely for the preſent, men that prouide but from hand to mouth.

Soucieux: m.euſe: f. Carefull, thoughtfull, ſolicitous, much perplexed.

Soucille: f. Th'vnder-lid of the eye.

Soucy: m. The Marigold.

Soudain: m.aine: f. Sudden; vnwares, vnpremeditate, vnlooked for; quicke, ſwift, haſtie, ſpeedie.

Soudainement. Suddenly, at vnawares; in a trice, in the twinkling of an eye, ere you can haue ſaid, this; haſtily, ſwiftly, ſpeedily, incontinently, by and by.

Soudaineté: f. Suddenneſſe, haſt, great ſpeed, quickneſſe, violence.

Soudan: m. (In th'Ægyptian, and Moriſh tongues, doth ſignifie) a King, Prince, or Soueraigne; a Souldan.

Soudard. Looke Soldat.

Soude. Looke Soulde.

Souder. To ſoulder.

Soudeſpenſier: m. An vnder Cater; or, an inferiour Clerke of a kitchin.

Soudiacre: m. A Subdeacon.

Soudic: m. An auncient title for a great Lord, or Noble man.

Soudre. The Linden tree.

Soudre: com. Ougly, deformed, moſt foule, loathſome to looke on.

Soudre. To looſſe, &c; Looke Souldre.

Souduire. To ſeduce.

Souduis: m.iſe: f. Seduced.

Souduiſant: m.ante: f. Seducing.

Souduiſeur: m. A ſeducer; (old words.)

Soudure: f. A ſouldering; Looke Souldure.

Souëf. Looke Soëf.

Souëfflairant: m.ante: f. Moſt fragrant, ſweetly ſmelling.

Souëffleurer. To ſweeten, perfume, bemuske, imbaulme.

Souër. To bring a Beare vnto the Sow; (whence, ne faittez ſouër la truye; Let her not haue the Boare;) alſo, to gueld, or ſplay a Sow.

Souëvement. Sweetly, ſmoothly, mildly, pleaſantly.

Souffire. Looke Suffire.

Souffle: m. Ones breath, wind, blaſt, or breathing; alſo, a ſmall gale, puffe, guſt, or flaw of wind.

Ce ſont ſouffles. Theſe are but idle words, fond brags, vaine tearmes, paultrie tales.

Souſtenir le ſouffle à. To maintaine, ſupport, vphold, or hold in breath.

Soufflé: m.ée: f. Breathed, blaſted, blowne, puffed out; alſo, ſounded, or winded on a horne, &c.

Soufflemboyau: m. A Pudding-maker: (Rab.

Soufflement: m. A blowing, ſtrong breathing, puffing out; a winding of a horne, &c.

Souffler. To blow, breath (ſtrongly,) puffe out, ſend forth blaſts; to ſound, or wind, as a Cornet, horne, &c; alſo, to hiſſe behind.

Soufflez. (The Imperatiue of this Verbe; vſed ſcorningly, or in deriſion) Tis but a ieaſt, there is no ſuch matter; or, he brags moſt vainly, prates moſt fondly; his words are but wind, his boaſts little other then ſmoake.

Il ſouffle. He playes the Alchimiſt.

Souffler au baſsin. To make preſent paiment, giue readie money for.

Souffler les choux en dormant. To puffe, or blurt out puffes, in ſleeping.

Souffler à l'encenſoir. Looke Encenſoir.

Souffler aux eſtoupes. To labour a matter while the time ſerueth; to aſſiſt in ſeaſon, helpe in time.

Souffler les fourmis dans leurs fourmillieres. Looke Fourmilliere.

Souffler en l'oreille de. To round, or whiſper in the eare.

Soufflet: m. A paire of bellowes; alſo, a box, cuffe, or whirret on th'eare.

Souf-

Souffleté : m. ée : f. Often puffed, or blowne; alſo, cuft, or clapt on the eare.

Souffleter. To puffe, or blow often; alſo, to cuffe, box, or clap on the eare.

Souffleteur : m. A cuffer, boxer, buffeter.

Souffleteux : m. euſe : f. Blowing often, or puffing violently; alſo, readie, or apt to puffe.

Souffleur : m. A blower, puffer, breather; alſo, the Whale tearmed (otherwiſe) Gibbar.

Vn ſouffleur par derriere. A Prompter.

Souffleux : m. euſe : f. Often puffing, much blowing.

Souffrance : f. Sufferance, forbearance, patience, tolleration, enduring, abiding; alſo, need, pouertie, ſcarcitie, penurie.

Souffrance du Seigneur donnée au vaſſal. Reſpit of homage; or the Lords permitting of a tenant to enioy his eſtate before hee haue done him homage; which to the tenant is as auailable as if hee had formally done it.

Articles tenus en ſouffrance. Time giuen vnto an Accomptant (Receiuor) for the producing of ſome acquittance (of no great moment) wanting to the perfection of his account; as alſo, when it is found that he hath done his indeuor (though it be not ſufficient) for the bringing in of moneyes that be due.

Souffre. Looke Soulfre.

Souffreter. To be in great need, or penurie, to pinch it.

Souffreteux : m. euſe : f. Penurious, needie, poore, wanting, wretched, in a miſerable caſe.

Souffrette : f. Need, penurie, pouertie, ſcarcitie, want of neceſſarie meanes.

Souffrir. To ſuffer, beare, tollerate, abide, indure.

Se ſouffrir de. To forbeare the doing of.

Qui plus vit plus a à ſouffrir : Prov. The longer we liue the more we haue t'indure.

Si truye forfaict les pourceaux le ſouffrent : Prov. Children are puniſht for their parents faults.

Soufre. Looke Soulfre.

Sougorge. Looke Sousgorge.

Souhait : m. A wiſh, or deſire.

Qui vient à ſouhait. A happie ſucceſſe of hopes, a proſperous iſſue of expectation; a matter that falls out pat, or euen as one would haue it.

Si ſouhaits furent vrais paſtoureaux ſeroyent Rois : Prov. If wiſhes might preuaile poore ſhepheards would be Kings.

A povre coeur petit ſouhait. Pro. The poore mans heart hath low thoughts, meane deſires.

Vin ſur laict c'eſt ſouhait, laict ſur vin c'eſt venin : Prov. Milke before wine I would twere mine, milke taken after is poiſons daughter.

Souhaitable : com. Wiſhable, deſirable, fit to be longed or looked for.

Souhaité : m. ée : f. Wiſhed, coueted, longed for, much deſired.

Souhaiter. To wiſh, deſire, long for, couet after.

Souil de ſanglier : m. The ſoile of a wild Boare; the ſlough, or mire wherein he hath wallowed.

Souillard : m. A Scullion, or kitchin boy; alſo, the name of a dog, betweene which, and a bitch called Baude, the race of the Bauds (white, and excellent hounds) was begun.

Souillarderie : f. Sluttiſhneſſe, naſtineſſe, greaſineſſe; the habit, ſtate, or exerciſe of a Scullion.

Souillé : m. ée : f. Soiled, ſturried, durtied, ſmutched, beraied, diſtained, blemiſhed, contaminated.

Souillement : m. A ſoyling, ſturrying, durtying, ſmutching, beraying, begriming.

Souiller. To ſoyle, ſturrie, durtie, ſmutch, beray, begrime, defile, blemiſh, diſtaine.

Se ſouiller. (Of a ſwine) to take ſoyle, or wallow in the mire.

Souillon : m. A Scullion, or drudge in a kitchin; (and thence) alſo, a greaſie, filthie, naſtie, or ſlouenlie fellow.

Souillonne : f. A drudge, or kitchin wench.

Souillonnerie : f. Scullionerie, drudgerie; ſlouenrie, naſtineſſe, greaſineſſe.

Souillure : f. Soyle, filth, naſtineſſe, greaſineſſe, durtineſſe, pollution, ſluttiſhneſſe.

Souiſſe : m. A Swiſſe, or Swißer.

Soulacier. To ſolace; comfort, recreate, make merrie.

Soulagé : m. ée : f. Eaſed, lightened; recreated, comforted.

Soulagement : m. An eaſement or eaſing, a lightening of toyle, a leſſening of paine; a comforting, recreating, cheering vp.

Soulager. To eaſe, lighten, leſſen the paines or griefe of; to recreate, ſolace, comfort, cheere vp.

Il la ſoulagea le bras, ou, du bras. He led, held, or bore, her vp by the arme.

Soulas : m. Solace, comfort, conſolation, contentment, eaſe, recreation.

Nul ſoulas mondain ſans helas : Prov. No worldlie comfort without croſſes, or corraſiues.

Soulaſſer, & Soulaſſier. Looke Soulacier.

Soulci : m. Care, thought, heed, ſtudie, regard; carke, anxietie, trouble, perplexitie, vexation of mind; alſo, a Marigold; Looke Souci.

Soulcicle, & Soulcide : f. The little yellowiſh bird called a Ninmurder.

Soulcie : f. The ſame; alſo, a Marigold.

Soulcier. Looke Soucier.

Soulcieux : m. euſe : f. Solicitous, carefull, thoughtfull, perplexed, much in dumps.

Sould : m. Souldiers lendings, intertainment, or pay; (an old word.)

Souldan. Looke Soudan.

Souldart : m. A ſouldier.

Soulde : f. Saltwort, Glaßewort, Crab-graſſe, Frog-graſſe, (an hearbe;) alſo, pay, intertainment, or lendings for ſouldiers; alſo, as Soulte.

Ils ſont touſiours à la chaſſe des ſouldes. They are euer hunting after intertainment, they greedily & continually purſue the ſcraps of bountie.

Souldé : m. ée : f. Souldered; conſolidated.

Souldée : f. as Sould.

Soulder. To ſoulder; conſolidate; cloſe, or faſten together.

Souldeur : m. A Soulderer.

Souldeure : f. A ſouldering.

Souldoyer : m. A Souldier; one that fights, or ſerues, for pay.

Souldoyer. To intertaine, pay, giue wages or lendings vnto, Souldiers.

Souldre. To looſe, vnfold, expound, reſolue, cleere, or ſoile, a doubt, &c.

Qu'ay ie à faire, ne que ſouldre avec toy? What haue I to doe with thee?

Souldure : f. A ſouldering; and particularly, the knot of ſoulder which faſtens the lead of a glaße window.

Soulet : m. ette : f. Sole, alone, priuate, ſolitarie, without companie : ¶ Langued.

Soulever. Looke Soublever.

Soulfre : m. Sulpher, Brimſtone.

Soulfre artificiel; ou contrefaict. Artificiall Brimſtone, or Brimſtone made with fire.

Soulfre iaulne. as S. contrefaict; and yet some call so the naturall one, because it is yellow within.
Soulfre naturel, ou vif. Naturall Sulpher; ash-coloured without, yellowish within, and glistening, or shining like a Glowworme.
Soulfreux: m. euse: f. Sulpherie, full of brimstone.
Soulfriere: f. A Sulpher pit or mine; the place wherein brimstone is gotten, or made.
Soulfureux. as Soulfreux.
Soulier: m. A shooe.
Soliers à bec de cane. Looke vnder Bec.
Soulier cambrez. Polonian shooes, high and hollow heeled shooes,
Souliers à clique corde. Shooes open at the heeles.
Souliers à pont-levis. as S. cambrez.
Souliers à poulaine. Shooes open on the foot, and tied ouer th'instap with a latchet.
Souliers à trepointe renversée. Turnouers.
Tenir pied en soulier. To keepe within his limits, to be continent, stayed, aduised.
Le beau soulier blesse souvent le pied: Prov. The goodlie shooe doth often hurt the foot; (little know you where this new shooe wrings me, quoth Metellus to a friend of his.)
Le beau soulier devient en fin savate: Pro. (So beautie endeth in deformitie.)
A telle forme tel soulier: Pro. Like leauen like past; such as the shooe such is the last.
Le trou trop ouvert sous le nez fait porter souliers deschirez: Prov. The hole too open vnder the nose, breeds tattered shooes, and ragged hose.
Soulier: m. ere: f. Fit for, or belonging vnto, a shooe.
Souloir. (A Verbe which, besides this Infinitiue, hath onely th'Imperfect tense of the Indicatiue mood; viz. Ie souloye, tu soulois, il souloit, &c;) to bee wont, or accustomed; to vse verie commonly, doe verie often.
Soulphre. Looke Soulfre.
Soulphrer. To besulpher, to mingle with, or make of, Sulpher; to powder, or bestrew with Brimstone.
Soulphriere. Looke Soulfriere.
Souls: m. A Sous, or the French shilling; Looke Sol.
Soulsi: m. The Marigold. Ruds.
Soulsi aquatique, ou d'eau. The yellow Willowherbe, Loosse-strife, water Willow.
Soulsie: f. as Soulsi; also, as Soucie.
Moineau à la soulsie. Looke vnder Moineau.
Soulte: f. Souldiers wage, pay, or intertainment; C'est aussi, en matiere d'eschanges, le retour que l'on baille pour la plus-valeur d'un heritage; whence, Eschange de terre sans soulte. Land exchanged without boot, without any paiment ouer, without any ouerplus paid, without any money giuen in regard of inequalitie, or in consideration of oddes; land exchanged onely for land.
Soulte mobiliaire. A returne, or amends in mouables, or in money, made by a coheire, or coparcener that hath a greater, to him that hath a lesse, part in the land then he should haue.
Sou-maistre: m. An Vsher in a schoole.
Soumettre. Looke Soubmettre.
Soupape: f. The stopple of a Baloone; also, the Supper, or Sucker of a Pumpe.
Soupçon: f. Suspition, doubt, feare, iealousie, diffidence, misdeeming, distrust.
Soupçonnable: com. Suspectable.
Soupçonner. To suspect, feare, doubt, distrust, be iealous of, haue little confidence in.
Soupçonneux: m. euse: f. Suspitious, diffident, doubtfull, or distrustfull.
Soupe: f. A sop; a peece of bread in broth, or in browis; also, pottage, or broth (wherein there is store of sops, or sippets;) also, browis.
Soupe aux aulx. Garlick broth, or browis; is made of Garlick sodden in white wine with marrow, sops of bread, a Partridge, Cloues, Ginger, a litle Cinnamon, and good store of Sugar.
Soupe despourveuë. Browis, or sops of bread steeped in water, salt, and Parsley, which haue beene boyled toger, & the Parsley fried with butter before the boiling.
Soupes de levrier; & soupes de prime. Seeke Levrier, & Prime.
Soupe vermeille. A dish, or sauce made of red wine, vinegar, and Cinnamon, strained together, and boiled with marrow; & then, with small peeces of Chickens, Pigeons, or Partridges, well sugared, and serued in.
Soupe en vin. Medicke fodder, Snayle Clauer.
Yvre comme vne soupe. As drunke as a sop, or toast.
De mesme pain soupe; &, On luy a fait de tel pain soupes. Said when a babler is put downe with words, a lyer confuted by his owne allegations, a deceiuer ouerraught, a quareller cudgelled, or a proud scab ouercrowed.
Il ne saucera son pain en ma soupe. Looke Saucer.
De la main à la bouche se perd souvent la soupe: Prov. Many a bit miscarries betweene the hand, and the lip; we often loose things when wee almost enioy them.
Soupé. Supped, or, hauing supped.
Soupendre. To hang on, or ouer; to iuttie or beare out, to stand or leane beyond; also, to build vpon arches, pillers, vaults, &c.
Soupenduë: f. A penthouse; iuttie, or, part of a building that iuttieth beyond, or leaneth ouer, the rest; also, a hanging, or building vpon, or ouer; a iuttying, or a leaning, out or beyond; Looke Surpenduë.
Soupente: f. The same (in the first sence.)
Souper: m. A supper.
Souper de Marchand. A large, or plentifull supper, eaten, or made.
Qui garde son disner il a mieux à souper: Pro. He that keepes his dinner hath the more to his supper; he that spares while he's young may the better spend when hee's old.
Qui tost vient à son hostel mieux luy en est à son souper: Prov. He that comes earlie to his Inne hath much the better supper.
Souper. To sup.
Ou nous avons disné nous souperons. We will end where we begã, or hold on the course wherin we begã; or keep, in this businesse, the order we vsed in th'other.
Mal soupe qui tout disne: Prov. Looke Disner.
Soupeser. To peise, weigh, ponder.
Soupeser vn dard. Violently to shake and (thereupon) hurle, a dart.
Soupoictrine: f. Looke Soubspoictrine.
Soupoultreau: m. An vnder-beame.
Souppe. as Soupe.
Souppendre. Looke Soupendre.
Souppenduë. Looke Soupenduë.
Souppier: m. A supper, or browis-bellie; one that is euer dipping his bread in the beefe-pot.
Soupple: com. Supple, limber, tender, pliant, nimble flexible, easie to be bent.
Souppleſſe: f. Supplenes, pliantnes, flexiblenes, actiuitie, nimblenes; & hence also, a feat of actiuitie, a tumbling tricke.

Soup-

Souppous. Looke Suppoſts.

Souquenie: f. A Canuas Jacket, frocke, or Gaberdine; ſuch a one as our Porters weare.

Source: f. A ſource; head, originall, beginning, of; a ſpring, well-head, well-ſpring; a ſeminarie; race, of-ſpring.

Sourcé: m. ée: f. Sourced, ſprung or begun from; alſo, originally drawne from, taken from the ſource of.

Sourcens; &, Sourcenſier. Looke Surcens; &, Surcenſier.

Sourcer. To ſource, to ſpring; to begin; to iſſue, or draw it originall from.

Sourchelons: m. The Frounce; a Hawkes diſeaſe.

Sourcicle. The Ninmurder; a yellowiſh, and verie ſmall bird.

Sourcier: m. A Sorcerer.

Sourcil: m. An eye-brow; alſo, the ridge of haire growing thereon; alſo, a frowning, ſurlie, or ſowre countenance.

Sourcilier: m. ere: f. Of, or on, the eye-browes.

Sourciller. To moue the eye-browes vp and downe.

Sourcilles: f. The eye-browes.

Sourcilleux: m. euſe: f. Hauing verie great eye-brows; alſo, frowning, or looking ſowrely on it; ſurlie, or proud of countenance; alſo, raiſed, aduanced, or liſt vp on high.

Sourd: m. The Salamander.

Sourd: m. ſourde: f. Deafe, hard of hearing, or, that cannot beare; alſo, liſtleſſe, vnattentiue, heedleſſe; alſo, dumme, without dinne or noiſe; (whence, in moiſt weather, they ſay that a Tennis-court is ſourd; ) and ſolide, or without ſound, as a full bodie, or veſſell well filled; alſo, dull, inſenſible, vnſauorie; alſo, darke, priuie, priuate, ſecret, vnder-hand.

Aſpic ſourd. (The Aſpe, ſayes Geſner, by reaſon of her exceeding drought is accounted deafe; but that one Aſpe is deafer then another I read not.)

Lanterne ſourde. A theeues Lanterne; the blacke Lanterne of yron which theeues, & other priuate night-walkers vſe to carrie about them.

Nombre ſourd. A ſurd number; a number whereof a perfect ſquare cannot be made.

Teincture ſourde. The courſeſt kind of dying, with nought but bearbes.

Sourd comme vn tapis. As deafe as a doore-nayle (ſay we.)

Il n'eſt point de pire ſourd que celuy qui ne veut ouïr: Prov. No man's worſe deafe then he that will not heare.

Sourdant. Springing vp, riſing or ariſing, from.

Sourdaſtre: com. Deafiſh, thicke of hearing.

Sourdault. Somewhat deafe, thicke of hearing.

Sourdement: m. A riſing, ariſing, ſpringing vp, appearing out of.

Sourdement. Deafely; alſo, vnattentiuely; alſo, priuately, vnder-hand, in huggermugger, without any dinner noiſe; alſo, dully, inſenſibly.

Sourdent: m. The ſtumpe of a broken tooth.

Sourdeſſe: f. Deafneſſe.

Sourdeté: f. The ſame.

Sourdin: m. ine: f. Deafiſh, thicke of hearing.

Sourdine: f. A Sourdet; the little pipe, or tenon put into the mouth of a Trumpet, to make it ſound low; alſo, a Sordine, or a kind of hoarſe, or low-ſounding Trumpet.

A la ſourdine. Priuately, ſecretly, cloſely, without much dinne, or noiſe.

Sourdiſe: f. Deafneſſe.

Sourdon: m. A kind of little ſhell-fiſh.

Sourdoyant. Riſing, iſſuing, ſpringing out or vp; mounting, ariſing, appearing aboue; alſo, raiſing.

Sourdre. To riſe, iſſue, ſpring, boyle, come, out or vp; to mount, ariſe, aſcend, appeare, or ſhew it ſelfe aboue; alſo, to raiſe, or put vp; whence they ſay when a Hawke is a wing, or lyes for game, Qu'on luy ſourde des oiſeaux.

Souretier: m. A Rat-catcher; a Mouſer, or catcher of Mice.

Sourge. Laine S. New ſhorne, vnwaſhed, or greaſie wooll; wooll that is yet full of it owne greaſe.

Sourgeon: m. The young ſhoot, or tender and vp-ſhooting plant of a tree; alſo, the ſpring of a fountaine; or the riſing, boyling, or ſpouting vp of water in a ſpring.

Souriceau: m. A little, or young Mouſe.

Souricier: m. A Mouſer, or Mouſe-catcher.

Souricier: m. ere: f. Of Mice; whence, Vermine ſouriciere; Mice.

Souriciere: f. A Mouſetrap.

Sourien: m. enne: f. Mouſing; louing Mice; hunting after Mice.

Souris: f. A Mouſe; alſo, the ſinewie brawne of th'arms; alſo, an Engine whereby a draw-bridge, downe, is hindered from being pulled vp againe.

Souris araigneuſe. A ſhrew Mouſe.

Les ſouris du Palais. Aduocates, Counſellors, Pleaders, Pettifoggers.

Oreille de ſouris. The hearbe Piloſella, or Mouſe-eare, &c; Looke Oreille.

Queuë de ſouris. Mouſe-taile, Bloud-ſtrange.

La ſouris qui n'a qu'une entrée eſt incontinent happée: &, Toſt attrapée eſt la ſouris qui n'a pour giſte qu'un perruis: Prov. (So ill a Protector is Improuidence.)

De grand deſſeing vne ſouris: Prov. (as the Latine Parturiunt montes &c; ) All that mountaine proues but a molehill.

Souriſſeau: m. A little or young Mouſe.

Souriſſon. The ſame.

Sourte. Looke Soutte.

Sous. Vnder, beneath, at the bottome of.

Sous terre. Vnder-hand, priuily, in huggermugger.

Faire tout ſous ſoy. A child to beray himſelfe.

Sousbarbe: f. as Soubarbe; alſo, the throat-band of a bridle.

Endurer vne ſousbarbe. To indure an iniurie.

Sousbride: f. as Sousbarbe, in the later ſence; alſo, as Soubride.

Souschambriere: f. A kitchin wench, or drudge to a houſe.

Souschanter. To ſing vnder, to hold the baſe, or ground vnto; or as Soubschanter.

Souſclavier: m. ere: f. Vnder the Kannell bone.

Artere ſouſclaviere. The aſcendant branch of the great Arterie.

Muſcle ſouſclavier. One of the muskles which, in the fetching of breath, dilate, and ſtretch out, the breaſt.

Veine ſouſclaviere. Looke Veine.

Souſcoeur: m. The Pericardium, or thinne skin wherby the whole heart is couered.

Souſgorge d'une bride. The throat-thong, or throat-band of a bridle.

Souſgreve: f. The leſſe bone of the leg; alſo, the calfe of the leg.

Souſlevement, & Souſlever. Look Soublevement, & Soublever.

Souſpape: f. as Soupape.

Souſpeçon: f. Suſpition, iealouſie, diffidence, doubt, feare, diſtruſt, miſtruſt.
Souſpeçonné: m. ée: f. Suſpected, miſtruſted, had in iealouſie.
Souſpeçonner. To ſuſpect, feare, doubt of, diſtruſt, miſtruſt, haue in a iealouſie.
Souſpeçonneuſement. Suſpitiouſly, iealouſly, doubtfully, diſtruſtfully.
Souſpeçonneux: m. euſe: f. Suſpitious, doubtfull, diffident, iealous, diſtruſtfull.
Souſpendement: m. A hanging or leaning ouer; a iuttying or bearing out.
Souspendre. Looke Soupendre.
Souspendu: m. uë: f. Hanging, or hung ouer; iuttied, or ſet out beyond.
Vne deſmarche ſouſpenduë. A ſtealing pace.
Souſpenduë: f. as Soupenduë; alſo, as Surpenduë, eſpecially in the laſt ſence.
Souſpente. Looke Soupenduë.
Souspeſé: m. ée: f. Peiſed, weighed, pondered.
Souspeſer. To peiſe, weigh, ponder diligently; Looke Soupeſer.
Souſpir: m. A ſigh; alſo, a ſhort breath; alſo, a Minime reſt in Muſice.
Demy ſouſpir. A Crochet reſt.
Au dernier ſouſpir. At the laſt gaſpe.
Souſpirable: com. Fit to bee ſighed for, worthie of moane.
Souſpirail. as Souſpiral.
Souspiraillé: m. ée: f. Hauing holes, vents, open windowes, or other paſſages, for aire to come in and out at.
Souſpiral: m. An ouerture, or paſſage for aire or breath to come in and goe out at; a vent, or breathing hole; Hence, the tunnell of a chimney; the window of a ſellar; the mouth of a caue, or denne.
Souſpirement: m. A ſighing.
Souspirer. To ſigh; alſo, to deſire vehemently.
A cœur dolent la bouche ſouſpire: Prov. Sighes in the mouth, ſorrow at the heart.
Souſplié: m. ée: f. Beni, or bowed vnder, ſubiect vnto.
Souſſigner. Looke Soubſigner.
Souſte. A prop, ſtay, or treſle of wood.
Souſtenable: com. Suſtainable, ſupportable, abideable.
Souſtenance: f. A prop, ſupport, ſtay, maintenance.
Souſtenant (de balance.) The cheekes of a balance; the two vpright peeces betweene which the needle plaieth.
Souſtenant de bride. The cheeke-peece of a bridle.
Souſtendrons: m. The ſides of the bellie vnder the ſhort ribs.
Souſtenement: m. A ſuſtaining, ſupporting, vpholding, maintaining; indwing, abiding.
Souſtenir. To ſuſtaine, ſupport, vphold, ſtay or beare vp; alſo, to indure, tollerate, abide; alſo, (in ſinging) to hold a note; and (in manage) to keepe a horſe, being riſen, from comming too ſoone to the ground.
Souſtenir & abſtenir. Looke Abſtenir.
Souſternery. She that giues ſucke to a new-borne child for two or three dayes, and vntill the mothers milke be fit for it: a Provençal.
Sousterré: m. ée: f. Put, laid, or buried vnder, or within, the ground.
Souſterrer. To put, lay, burie vnder, or within, the ground.
Souſtien: m. The firſt bill which a Plaintiſe puts into a Court.

Souſtraire. Looke Soubtraire.
Soutane: f. A long and looſſe coat, or caſſocke, ſuch as Church-men weare vnder their gownes.
Soute: f. as Soutte; alſo, a franke, or hogs-ſtie; whence;
Pourceau gras rompt ſa ſoute: Prov. (Appliable to the vnrulie humors of pampered, or high-fed creatures.)
Souteſt. as Pericraine.
Soutre. Looke Soutte.
Soutte: f. A binne to keepe bread in; alſo, the roome of a ſhip, wherein the prouiſion-bisket is laied.
Souvenance: f. Memorie, remembrance; alſo, a Ring with many hoopes, whereof a man lets one hang downe when he would be put in mind of a thing.
Souvendier: m. The hearbe Cichorie.
Souvenir: m. A remembrance.
Souvenir. To remember, put in mind, bring to the memorie of.
Se ſouvenir. To remember, haue in memorie, call to mind.
Il ſouvient touſiours à Robin de ſes fleutes: Prov. Looke Robin.
Souvent. Often, many times.
Souvenu: m. uë: f. Remembred, called to mind or memorie.
Souverain: m. A Soueraigne; one that acknowledges no ſuperior; (and yet in old time a Preſident of Juſtice, or any in Office aboue others, was tearmed ſo.)
Souverain: m. aine: f. Soueraigne, Princelie, chiefe, principall, paſſing, excellent, high, notable, ſingular.
Souverainement. Soueraignely, Princely, chiefely, principally; moſt highly, notably, ſingularly, excellently.
Souveraineté: f. Soueraigntie, principalitie, higheſt authoritie, chiefe gouernement, ſupreme power.
Droicts de Souveraineté. Are generally ſix; viz. Th'enacting of, and diſpenſing with, Lawes; the creating of Officers; the making of warre, and peace; the hauing of le dernier reſſort de la Iuſtice; the coyning of money; and the raiſing, or impoſing thereof; whereunto ſome adde, Confiſcation for Hereſie, Treaſon, &c; the granting of Priuiledges, Faires, Markets, and Letters of Mart; la Regale; right vnto all wrecks, and ſhipwracks; an intereſt in th'abſolute fealtie, and homage of the ſubiect; power to naturalize forrainers, legitimate baſtards, ennoble Roturiers, or peaſants; a tenth in all manner of mines that haue beene, or ſhall be, opened throughout all France; and diuers other Royalties.
Soy. Him, himſelfe; her, her ſelfe.
Retourner ſur ſoy. To returne the ſame way he came.
Soye: f. Silke; alſo, hogs briſtles.
Appliquer ſoye ſur ſoye. To lecher.
Meſler la ſoye avec le fleuret. To iumble good and bad together.
Soyer. To reape corne.
Soyes: f. Is, in the throats of ſwine, a diſeaſe that ſtiftes them, if it be not preſently cured; alſo, as Sait.
Soyeux: m. euſe: f. Silkie; briſtlie; full of ſilke, or of briſtles.
Soymeſme. Himſelfe.
Soytier: m. ere: f. Of ſilke, or dealing with ſilkes.
Spadaires: m. An Order of white Friers which weare on their habites a repreſentation of two red ſwords.
Spadaſin; or, Spadaſſin: m. A cutter, backſter, ſwaggerer, ſwaſh-buckler.

Spal-

Spalmer. To breeme and graue, or make cleane a ſhip.
Sparaillon: f. The purple fiſh; (not the purple ſhell-fiſh, but a kind of ſmall Guilt-head, or yellow Sea-breame, which hath a blacke ſpot on her tayle.)
Spargirie: f. Alchymie; extraction of quinteßences.
Spargirique: com. An Alchymiſt, or extractor of quinteſſences.
Spargitide. Terre ſpar. Terra ſigillata, Lemnian earth.
Spariée: f. A ſea-wrecke; or, as Varech.
Sparte: m. as Sparton.
Sparton: m. Spaniſh broome, or baſtard Spaniſh broome, whereof bands to tye Vines, and (as in old time) roapes for ſhipping, may be made; alſo, Matweed.
Spaſe, ou peis Eſpaſe. The ſea-fox, or fox dog-fiſh; aſh-coloured on the backe, and white on the bellie; little mouthed, but ſharpe-toothed; ſhorter, and thicker bodied, but hauing a longer tayle, then any other dog-fiſh; for that (ſomewhat like a ſhort, and crooked ſword-blade) is longer then her bodie. ¶Gaſcon.
Spaſmatique: com. Troubled with a crampe, or a conuulſion.
Spaſme: m. The crampe; a conuulſion, ſhrinking, or plucking vp of the ſinewes.
Spaſmé: m. ée: f. Cramped; or, as Spaſmatique.
Spaſmeux: m. euſe: f. Full of the crampe; or, conuulſiue, cramp-breeding.
Spatieuſement. Spaciouſly, widely, amply, largely, broadly.
Spatieux: m. euſe: f. Spacious, roomie, wide, large, ample, broad.
Spatule: f. The ſlice wherewith a Surgeon ſpreadeth ſalues, &c.
Spaze: f. A ſword, and as Spaſe. ¶Gaſc.
Speans d'une vache. A Cowes dudder.
Speautre. Looke Eſpeautre.
Special: m. ale: f. Speciall, particular, proper, peculiar, chiefe, eſpeciall.
Specialement. Eſpecially, namely, chiefely, particularly, peculiarly.
Specieux: m. euſe: f. Specious, goodlie, faire, graceſull in apparance, outwardly beautifull, honourable in ſhew.
Specifier. To ſpecifie, particularize, declare, ſignifie, denote.
Specifique: com. Speciall, particular.
Specifiquement. Specially, particularly.
Spectable: com. Viſible, worthie the ſeeing, noteable, goodlie, renowmed.
Spectacle: m. A ſpectacle; a publike ſight, ſhew, pageant, play.
Spectateur: m. A ſpectator, beholder, on-looker.
Spectatrice: f. A ſpectatrix; a woman that giues a (publike) thing the looking on.
Spectre: m. An Image, or Figure, ſeene either truly, or but in conceit; (thence) alſo, a ſpirit, ghoſt, viſion, apparition, fantaſme.
Speculaire: com. Cleere, tranſparent; alſo, helping the ſight.
Pierre ſpeculaire. as Pierre à miroir, vnder Miroir.
Speculateur: m. A ſpeculator, contemplator, obſeruer, conſiderer; watcher, viewer, beholder.
Speculation: f. Speculation, contemplation; a conſidering, or obſerving; a viewing, watching, or ſpying out from a high place.
Speculatrice: f. A ſpeculatrix; a contemplatiue, obſerving, aduiſed, or watchfull woman.

Speculer. To ſpeculate, contemplate, obſerue, conſider, ſearch out; behold ſeriouſly, watch hard; looke or ſee farre, eſpie a farre off.
Spelonque: f. A hole in a rocke; a wild beaſts denne.
Speltre: m. as Eſpeautre.
Spengitide. ¶Rab. Looke Sphengitide.
Spermatique: com. Spermatick; containing, or full of, ſperme.
Veine ſpermatique. Looke Veine.
Spermatiſer. To ſpermatize; to ſhed, eiect, or iniect ſperme.
Sperme: m. Sperme, ſeed, nature, generatiue moiſture.
Spet: m. A ſlender, long, rauenous, great-eyed, ſharpe-noſed, crooked-toothed, white-bellied, blackiſh-backt ſea-fiſh, called by ſome the Spit-fiſh, and by others (becauſe it ſomewhat reſembles a Pike) the ſea-Pike.
Sphacelé: m. ée: f. Mortified by inflamation.
Sphaceler. To mortifie by inflamation.
Sphatule. Looke Spatule.
Sphengitide. Tranſparent. ¶Rab.
Sphenoide. Os ſphen. The cuneall bone.
Sphere: f. A ſphere, circle, rundle, bowle; any round figure, or thing.
Spheres. The round knobs on the borders of ſome French-hoods.
Sphere droicte. That ſphere wherein one ſees both the Poles vnder his horizon, the Equator ſtanding iuſt ouer his head.
Sphere oblique. An oblique ſphere; that wherein one of the Poles is raiſed aboue our horizon, and the other hidden vnder it.
Spherique: com. Spherical, orbicular, globe-like, round.
Sphicie: f. A kind of ſpider like a great Waſpe.
Sphinge: m. The Sphinga, or Sphinx; an Indian, and Ethyopian beaſt, rough-bodied like an Ape (of the kind whereof he is) yet haireleſſe betweene his necke, and breaſt; round, but out-faced; and breaſted like a woman; his vnarticulate voice like that of a haſtie ſpeaker; more gentle, and tameable then an ordinarie Ape, yet fierce by nature, and reuengefull when he is hurt: hauing eaten meat ynough, he reſerues his chaps-full to feed on when he feeles himſelfe hungrie againe.
Spicaire. Roman Spike, or Lauender.
Spicquenard: m. The hearbe Spikenard.
Spinal: m. ale: f. Of, or in, the chine, or back-bone.
Spinale medulle, ou mouëlle. The marrow of the back-bone; deriued from the braine, and like a maine ſtocke, from which all the ſinewes vnder the head doe grow.
Spinelle: f. A kind of verie red Gurnet.
Spineux. as Eſpineux.
Spinul: m. A ſplent in a horſes leg.
Spique: f. Spike, Lauender, Lauender Spike.
Spiquenard: m. The hearbe Spikenard.
Spiquenard vulgaire. Lauender Spike.
Spiracle: m. A breathing hole; a hole to let ayre, breath, or ſmoake in and out; alſo, a hole that euaporates a ſtrong, or peſtilent ayre; a damp-hole.
Spiracle: com. Giuing breath, breathing life, infuſing ſpirit into.
Spiral: m. ale: f. Circling, wreathing about, winding or turning round.
Spire: f. A rundle, round, or circle; a turning or winding compaſſe; the coyling, or making vp of a Cable; alſo, a Quadrant, or Square in the bottome of a Pillar.
Spiritueux. Looke Spirituëux.

Spi-

Spirituel. La Chapelle blanche ſpirituel d'Anjou; viz. within the dioces, or ſpirituall Iuriſdiction, of Anjou.

Spirituel: m. elle: f. Spirituall, ghoſtlie, diuine; eccleſiaſticall.

Spiritueux: m. euſe: f. Spirituall, breathfull, breathing, in life; giuing life; alſo, quicke, liuelie, vigorous, full of ſpirit.

Spirole: f. A kind of ſmall Artillerie.

Splanade: f. A plaine, champian countrey, leuell ground, euen plot.

Splendeur: f. Splendor, light, ſhining, luſter, gliſtering, brightneſſe; alſo, bountie, nobleneſſe, excellencie; alſo, honor, glorie, renowme.

Splenitique: com. Troubled with the ſpleene; alſo, of, or in, the ſpleene; whence;

Artere ſplenitique. Seeke vnder Artere.

Splenique: com. Of, or in, the milt, or ſpleene.

Veine ſplenique. The ſpleene veine; one of the ſix branches of the liuer veine; or, as Veine ſplenitique, vnder Veine.

Spode: m. The heauier foile, ſoot, or oare of Braſſe, gathered on the floores of melting-houſes.

Spodizateur: m. One that maketh Spode, or getteth ſoot, &c, from Braſſe, by trying, or melting it.

Spodon de canne. Artificiall, or counterfeit Spode, made of the rootes of reedes, and Ox-bones burned.

Spoliateur: m. A ſpoyler; ſtripper, deſpoiler; theefe, robber; pyrate.

Spoliation: f. A ſpoyling; deſpoyling, ſtripping; depriuing of.

Spoliatrice: f. A ſpoyling, or deſpoyling woman; a wench that liues on the ſpoyle.

Spolier. To ſpoyle; deſpoyle, ſtrip, ranſacke, rob, vnrobe; to depriue, or bereaue of; to diſpeiſe.

Spolin: m. A kind of gold, or ſiluer thread.

Spolentes. Looke Pſoloente. ¶Rab.

Sponde. A ſponde. Sidewaies, or edgelong.

Spondilles, ou Spondyles. The knuckles, or turning ioynts of the chine, backe, or neck-bone; alſo, the heads of Artichokes; alſo, the vnſauorie, or ill-taſting oyſters Gaideropes.

Spongethere: f. A certaine little ſea-fiſh, which reſembles the ſea-ſpider, and is ſaid to guard, and gouerne the ſponge.

Spongieux: m. euſe: f. Spungie; light, puft vp; full of ſmall holes, or eyes, like a ſponge.

Os ſpongieux. The bone Etmoïdes, placed in the top, or vpper part of the noſe.

Spongioſité: f. Spungineſſe, or ſpungiouſneſſe; a ſpungie lightneſſe.

Sponſeur: m. A voluntarie promiſer, vndertaker, or ſuretie for another.

Spontane: com. Voluntarie, of free will; naturall, not forced; without helpe, or conſtraint.

Spontanement. Voluntarily.

Sporte: f. A faſhion of hand-basket, or frayle with handles, vſed for market-imployments; alſo, the load of a Cammell, or Moyle, comming to 375 pounds, after 16 ounces to the pound.

Sportule: f. Money, or meat giuen ordinarily by Princes to the people, or vnto their followers; (moſt properly the former) board-wages, or a pecuniarie allowance in lieu of dinner and ſupper; alſo, the fee giuen by a Client vnto his Counſellor; alſo, a little maund, or hand-basket.

Spouillereſſe. as Eſpouillereſſe.

Spurrie: f. Spurrie, or Franke; a Dutch hearbe, and an excellent fodder for cattell.

Spyrate. ¶Rab. A kind of flux in the fundament; or, more properly, as;

Spyrathe. The dung of a Sheepe, or Goat.

Squadron: m. A ſquadron; a ſquare troope, or band, or battaile of ſouldiors; alſo, in euery companie, the troope thats vnder the commaund of a Corporall.

Squaranchon: m. The ſmooth-ſhelled Crayfiſh tearmed a Pungar, Grit, or Grampell.

Squelette. Looke Scelete.

Squenente. Looke Squinant.

Squenie: f. The Frocke, long Jacket, Coat, or Caſſocke (moſt commonly) of Canuas, worne outmoſt, or ouer all other clothes, by Porters, Carters, Horſe-keepers, Peaſants, &c.

Squille: f. The Squill, or ſea-Onyon; alſo, a Prawne, Beard, Shrimp; or, a generall name for all fiſhes of that kind.

Squille commune. Our ordinarie ſea-Onyon; leſſe in forme, and weaker in operation then Dioſcorides his Scilla, which Mathiolus holds to be onely that which growes on the ſea-coaſts of Spaine.

Squilles d'os. Little ſcales, or ſplints of broken bones.

Squillin: m. Vineger ſharpened by the ſea-Onyon, or Scallion.

Squillitique: com. Of, or ſeaſoned with, or wherein there is, the ſea-Onyon.

Squinade. Cancre ſquin. The long-legd, and rough-coated Crabfiſh, tearmed by ſome, a Fryll. ¶Marſeillois.

Squinance: f. The Squinancie, or Squinzie; a diſeaſe.

Squinant: m. The ſweetruſh tearmed Squinant, and Cammels Hay.

Squinaude. Looke Squinade.

Squine. Bois de ſquine. The knottie, and medicinable root of an Indian, or Chinean bullruſh.

Squiopetins: m. An Order of Auguſtine Fryers.

Stabilité: f. Stabilitie, ſtedfaſtneſſe, firmeneſſe, ſureneſſe, conſtancie, faſtneſſe.

Stable: com. Stable, firme, ſure, ſtedfaſt, immoueable, conſtant, aſſured.

Stacte; or, Myrrhe ſtacte. Looke Myrrhe.

Stade: m. A race for men, or horſes to runne in; alſo, a proportion, or meaſure of ground, whereof there be three ſorts; viz. the Italian, containing 125 paces; the Olympicke, of 120 paces; and the Pythick, of 200 paces; all after fiue feet to the pace.

Stafilade: f. A laſh, or thwacke with a ſtirrup-leather.

Stagnant. Eau ſtagnante. The water of ponds, pooles, moates, or ditches; water that runnes not, ſtanding water.

Stalle. A ſeat, or ſtall to ſit on.

Stanbouque: f. The wild Goat Ibex; Looke Ibice.

Stance: f. A ſtation; a lodging, dwelling, or abiding place; alſo, a pauſe, or ſtay; alſo, a ſtanze, or ſtaffe of verſes.

Stangue d'un'ancre. The ſtaffe of an Anchor.

Stanguette: f. The eye of the branch of a Bit.

Staphiſaigre. Stauesaker, Licebane, Lowſe-wort, Lowſe-powder.

Staphiſaigre ſauvage. Wild Licebane.

Statere: m. An Athenian coyne of ſiluer, weighing halfe an ounce; alſo, a coyne of gold worth about xvj s iiij d.

Statere: f. A Romain, or Goldſmiths ballance; Troy-weight.

Statif: m. iue: f. Standing, pitched, or ſet.

Station: f. A ſtation, ſtand, ſtanding place, or pauſe; alſo, a a place of reſort, abode, or ſtay; a manſion, dwelling, abiding, ſtaying; alſo, a road, or bay for ſhipping.

Stationnaire: com. That hath a ſtanding, or place of abode, appointed him; alſo, ſtationarie, ſetled, ſtanding.

Stationné: m. ée: f. Set or ſetled, planted or pitched, in a place, appointed a place to ſtand in.

Stationner. To ſet or ſettle, plant or pitch, in a place; to appoint a ſtanding vnto.

Statuaire: m. A Statuarie, Stone-cutter, Statue-maker.

Statuaire: f. (The art of) Stone-cutting, or Statue-making.

Statuë: f. A Statue; a ſtanding, or maſſiue Image of mettall, yuorie, or ſtone.

Statuer. To eſtabliſh, enact, ordaine; aſſigne, appoint; pitch, plant, ſettle, or ſet faſt; purpoſe, determine, iudge, or thinke aſſuredly of.

Stature: f. Stature, pitch, height, or proportion of bodie.

Statut. Arreſts, ou ſtatuts de querelle. Iudgements giuen, and entred in caſes of impeached poſſeſſion.

Statutaire. Amende ſtat. as Amende couſtumiere; (Au ſtil de Liege.)

Steatome: m. An impoſtume whoſe mattar is like fat, or tallow.

Steccade: f. A place railed in for a Combat, or Liſts.

Stechados. Steckadoe or Stickadoue, Caſſidonia or Caſt-me-downe, French Lauender, or the ſweet flower thereof.

Stellage. Droict de ſtellage. Toll-corne, and Toll-ſalt; a diſh-full vpon euerie Septier of either ſold within Buillon; due to the Duke thereof.

Stellagier: m. A Toll-gatherer for the Duke of Buillon.

Stellingues: m. Libertines; for ſo did the Saxons, vpon libertie of conſcience graunted them by Lotharius the Emperor, tearme themſelues.

Stellion: m, The ſpotted, or ſtarrie Lizard Stellio; alſo, an enuious fellow; or one that cannot indure another ſhould be the better by him; from the Stellio, which hauing (as he doth halfe-yearelie) caſt his skin (a ſoueraign remedie for the falling ſickneſſe) preſently deuoures it, to depriue mankind of it.

Stellionat: m. A couſening, a counterfeiting of marchandiſe; an vniuſt or deceitfull gaining; a malicious or fraudulent bereauing another of his money, wares, due prouiſion, or bargaine.

Stentoré: m. ée: f. whence, Voix Stentorée. A huge voice, ſuch a one as the Grecian Stentor had.

Stercorin: m. ine: f. Excrementall, turdie.

Stereometrie: f. The meaſuring of ſolide bodies.

Sterile: com. Sterile, barren, fruitleſſe.

Sterilité: f. Sterilitie, barrenneſſe, vnfruitfullneſſe.

Sterlin: m. The 24 part of an ounce; or 28 graines, and foure fifts of a graine; a weight among Iewellers.

Sternomantie: f. Diuination by a mans breaſt.

Sternutatoire: m. A ſneezing medicine, or powder.

Sterometrie: f. Looke Stereometrie.

Sterpi. as Courtilliere.

Sticines: m. Fluters, or Pipers. ¶Rab.

Sticonomantie: f. Diuination by words written on the barkes of trees.

Stier: m. as Septier. ¶Bourguignon.

Stigmatizé: m. ée: f. Branded, marked, burnt with a hot yron; defamed, infamous.

Stigmatizer. To brand, burne, or marke with a red-hot yron; alſo, to defame openly, diſgrace publikely.

Stil: m. The ſtile, vſe, courſe, or forme of pleading, or of proceeding in Law.

Stile: m. Looke Style.

Stilé: m. ée: f. Well acquainted with; long trayned, much practiſed in; enured, or vſed vnto.

Stillatoire: com. Stilling, diſtilling, dropping.

Stillicide: m. The dropping of a houſes eaues.

Stillitique. Vinaigre ſtil. Wherein the prepared ſea-Onyon hath beene-ſteeped.

Stimulateur: m. A pricker forward; a prouoker, egger, vrger, inſtigator, inciter.

Stimulation: f. A pricking or ſpurring forward; a prouoking, egging, inſtigating, vrging.

Stimulatrice: f. A ſtimulatrix, an inſtigatrix.

Stimule: m. A goad, pricke; ſting; ſpurre; an vrging, egging, inciting; an inſtigation, or violent motion vnto.

Stimuler. To pricke, inſtigate, incite, ſpurre forward.

Stinc: m. The ſhinne bone; alſo, a kind of ſmall fiſh.

Stince. ¶Rab. as Scinc.

Stipal. Fief ſtipal. Which deſcends to a direct heire; or ſtill continues in the poſſeſſion of thoſe which are of the maine ſtocke of a familie.

Stipendié: m. A ſtipendiarie, or hireling.

Stipendié: m. ée: f. Hired, waged, intertained with wages.

Stipendier. To hire, wage, intertaine.

Stipicité: f. Stipicitie, coſtiueneſſe, obſtruction.

Stipoule: f. The ſea-Onyon.

Stippes. Droict de ſtippes, & nobis; &, Droict de vins, & ſtippes. Looke vnder Droict.

Stiptique. Stipticke, reſtrictiue; ſtopping.

Stipulant. Couenanting, requiring.

Stipulateur: m. A ſtipulator; he that intending to bind another by words, asketh him whether he will giue, or doe, ſuch a thing or no.

Stipulation: f. A ſtipulation; a couenant, promiſe, bargaine, agreement; a demaunding of the performance of couenants; a bond for the payment of money, or performance of couenants.

Stipulé: m. ée: f. Required according to law; bargained, contracted, conditioned, couenanted.

Stipùler. To ſtipulate; to require a thing in ordinarie tearmes of law; alſo, to couenant, or promiſe effectually.

Stirage: m. Toll, or cuſtome due to the King, &c, vpon euerie Septier.

Stocfiz: m. Stockfiſh.

Stoechados. French Lauender, Steckadoe, Stickadoue, Caſſidonie, Caſt-me-downe.

Stole: f. A ſtole; a long robe, gowne, or garment, reaching to the ankles, or heeles.

Stomacal: m. ale: f. Stomacall, cordiall; of or in the ſtomacke; hurting, or helping the ſtomacke.

Mot ſtomacal. Earneſt, comming from the heart; alſo, vttered in choller.

Stomachique: com. Of, or in the ſtomacke; or ſicke at the ſtomacke.

Veine ſtomachique. Looke Veine.

Stomaqué: m. ée: f. Angrie or angred, put into a chafe, moued vnto choller.

Stoques. A borrowing, or taking vp, money vpon intereſt; whence, Faire ſtoques. So to burrow.

Storax. The ſweet Gumme Storax.

Storax calamite. The beſt kind of Storax, brought from Aleppo, and kept in canes, or the leaues of reedes.

Storax liquide. Liquid Storax; as Myrrhe ſtacte (vnder Myrrhe.)

Strabouïte: m. A ſquint-eyed fellow; alſo, one whoſe actions, as well as eyes, are awry.
Stradiot. as Eſtradiot.
Strambot: m. A Jyg, Round, Catch, countrey Song.
Strangulation: f. A ſtrangling, ſtifling, choaking.
Strangulation de la matrice. The ſuffocation of the Matrix.
Strap. ¶Rab. Looke Seraph.
Stratagematique: com. Stratagemicall, full of ſtratagems; of, or like to, ſtratagems.
Stratageme: m. A ſtratageme; a wittie tricke, or ſhift in warre.
Strepite: m. A noyſe, dinne, or bruit; a cracking, creaking, rumbling, ruſtling.
Strette: f. A pinch, nip, wrinche, twindge, gird.
Strident: m. ente: f. Craſhing, claſhing, creaking.
Strié: m. ée: f. Chamfered, channelled, made full of gutters, or holes.
Strieure: f. A chamfering, channelling, furrowing in ſtone, or timber.
Strin: m. A baſtard Dyamond.
Stropes: m. The loopes whereby the oares of a Skiffe, &c, doe hang, or hold, to the Thowles.
Strophe. The fretting of the guts, or belly-ache.
Strophule: f. The Kings euill.
Stropier. To lame, or mayme.
Structure: f. A ſtructure; fabricke, frame, compoſition, building; a proportionable ordering, fit couching, ſeemelie compacting of things together.
Strumoſité: f. The ſwelling of the throat.
Stryge. A Scriche-owle.
Stuc: m. A fine, and ſhining Potters clay; alſo, a compounded morter or clay made of lime, ſand, paper, and other materialls; verie fit for Jmagerie.
Studieux: m. euſe: f. Studious, painefull, earneſt, carefull; deſirous or greedie of; addicted or deuoted vnto.
Stupeur: f. Stupor, numneſſe, vnſenſibleneſſe, dullneſſe, aſtoniſhment, aſtoniedneſſe.
Stupide: com. Stupide, benummed, ſenſeleſſe; dull, blockiſh, lumpiſh; amazed, appalled, aſtonied.
Stupidement. Senſeleſly, dully, blockiſhly, lumpiſhly; with much amazement.
Stupidité. Stupiditie, ſenſeleſneſſe; dullneſſe, blockiſhneſſe; aſtoniſhment, amazement.
Stygial: m. ale: f. Of, in, or belonging to, the Stygian lake.
Stygien: m. enne: f. Stygian; or as Stygial; whence; Femme ſtygienne. A moſt fell, cruell, or diuelliſh queane.
Stygieux. as Stygial.
Styl: m. as Stil.
Style: m. The pinne of a paire of writing tables; alſo, a ſtile; a vaine, forme, or manner of indicting; alſo, the ſtrict forme, order, or courſe obſerued in iudiciall pleadings, and proceeding.
Choſes qui ſont de ſtyle. Things which haue an ordinarie paſſage, or proceeding; things of courſe.
Faillir au ſtyle. To commit an error in pleading.
Stylet: m. A Stiletto; the ſmall, and ſharpe-pointed dagger, forbidden in many townes of Jtalie.
Stylobate: f. The footſtall of a Pillar; or the whole frame of the lower part thereof.
Styptique: com. Styptick, reſtrictiue, aſtringent, coſtiue, binding.
Styrax. Looke Storax.
Su: m. The South; alſo, an Elder tree.
Su. as Sus.
Suader. To perſuade, aduiſe, moue, induce by reaſons.

Suadeur: m. A perſuader, aduiſer, mouer, inducer.
Süages: m. Sweatings; or, things which procure ſweating.
Suaire: m. The peece of linnen wherein the face of a dead man is wrapped; alſo, a hand-kercher, or linnen cloth to wype on.
Suais. Looke Suays.
Süant: m. ante: f. Sweating.
'A poulce süant. By-ynch, or thumbe-meaſure; the breadth of a thumbe giuen betweene euerie yard in meaſuring.
Suaſeur: m. A perſuader, inducer, aduiſer.
Suaſif: m. iue: f. Perſuaſiue; able, or fit to perſuade.
Suaſion: f. A perſuaſion, aduiſe, exhortation.
Suaſoire: com. Suaſorie, perſuading.
Suave: com. Sweet, pleaſant, palate-pleaſing, delicious; ſmooth; courteous, gentle, meeke ſoft.
Suavement. Sweetly, deliciouſly; ſofily; ſmoothly; gently, courteouſly.
Suavité: f. Suauitie, ſweetneſſe, deliciouſneſſe; ſoftneſſe, ſmoothneße; courteſie, gentleneſſe, meekeneſſe.
Suays: m. A kind of frogs which be ſeene onely in ſome parts of France.
Subalterne: com. Subalterne, ſecundarie, vnder, inferior, ſubiect vnto others.
Subarbe: f. The muſeroll, or noſe-band of a bridle, &c.
Subaudition: f. Part of a mans meaning expreſſed, and the reſt vnderſtood; or, ſuch an expreſſing.
Subcoſtale: f. A thin, and ſmooth skin, which clothes the inner ſide of the ribbes, and couers the vitall parts contained within the bulke.
Subdelegation: f. A ſubdelegation, or ſubſtitution.
Subdelegué: m. ée: f. Subdelegated, ſubſtituted.
Subdeleguer. To ſubdelegate, ſubſtitute, appoint another vnder him; or to referre ouer a buſineße, &c, committed.
Subdial: m. ale: f. All-open, wholly diſcouered; without the houſe, abroad in the ayre.
Subdiviſer. To ſubdiuide; to make a ſecond diuiſion, or a diuiſion of a diuiſion.
Subelin. Martres ſubelinnes. Sable-Martins; the beſt kind of Martins.
Subet: m. A Lethargie.
Subhaſtation: f. An Outrope, Outcry, Portſale; or the ſelling of things by Outrope, &c: (The auncient Romans vſed (eſpecially in time of warre) to hold their Outcries vnder a kind of ſpeare, or ianelin.)
Subhaſté: m. ée: f. Sold, or paſſed away, by Outcry.
Subhaſter. To paſſe away goods by Outcry, or Portſale; to ſell things publikely to them which will giue moſt.
Subiacent: m. ente: f. Subiacent; vnder-lying.
Subiect: m. A ſubiect, vaſſall; vnderling; ſeruant, thrall; and particularly the peaſant, who being bound, by his tenure, to pay ſcot and lot vnto his Lord, is not bound to follow him to the warres without pay.
Qui de ſes ſubiects eſt haï n' eſt pas ſeigneur de ſon païs: Pro. Poore is the Prince thats hated by his ſubiects; as good looſe all his countrey as their hearts.
Vn ſeigneur de paille vainc bien vn ſubiect d' acier: Pro. A Lord of ſtraw ſubdues a ſlaue of ſteele.
Subiect: m. ecte: f. Subiect, vaßall, vnder; ſeruant, thrall; obedient; lyable vnto; gouerned by; vnder the iuriſdiction of.
Subiect aux biens. Couetous; à ſa bouche. Intemperate; à ſes fantaſies. Fantaſticall, &c.
Subiection: f. Subiection, thraldome, ſeruitude; obedience,

dience; reſtraint, limitation.

Subier: m. The Corke-tree; the tree whoſe barke is Corke.

Subinfeudation: f. A ſubinfeoffing; the creating of an vnder tenure, or tenancie in fee.

Subioindre. To ſubioyne, adde or put vnto, bring or ſet vnder.

Subit: m. ite: f. Swift, quicke, haſtie, ſpeedie; ſuddaine, vnthought of, vnlooked for.

Subitain. Looke Soudain.

Subitement. Swiftly, quickly, ſpeedily, in a trice, out of hand, by and by; ſuddainely, at vnawares.

Subjugation: f. A ſubduing, taming, yoking, or bringing vnder obedience.

Subiugé: m. ée: f. Tamed, ſubdued, vanquiſhed, brought vnder the yoke of obedience.

Subiuguer. To ſubdue, vanquiſh, tame, bring into ſubiection, or vnder the yoke.

Subler. To whiſtle; to whizze.

Sublet: m. A whiſtling, or whizzing noiſe.

Sublim. as Sublime, or Sublin.

Sublimation: f. A ſublimating, raiſing, or lifting vp; alſo, a ſublimation, diſtillation, or extraction.

Sublimatoire: m. A ſublimatorie; an inſtrument, or veſſell, of ſublimation.

Sublimé: m. Sublimatum, or Sublimie, Arſenick, Ratsbane.

Sublime: com. Sublime, high, loftie, haughtie, honourable, ſtatelie.

Sublimé: m. ée: f. Raiſed, exalted, aduanced vnto dignitie; alſo, ſublimated, or mixed with Arſenicke; alſo, ſublimed, extracted, or diſtilled.

Argent ſublimé. Mercurie ſubtilized by the Limbecke.

Sublimément. Loftily, highly, haughtily, ſtatelily, honourably.

Sublimer. To raiſe, aduance, exalt, ſet vp on high; alſo, to ſublimate, or mingle with Arſenick; alſo, to ſublime, diſtill, extract, or ſubtilize by diſtilling.

Sublimité: f. Sublimitie, loftineſſe, haughtineſſe, highneſſe, ſtatelineſſe.

Sublin: m. ine: f. High, ſublime, loftie, haughtie; alſo, refined, moſt fine, exquiſite, excellent.

Submergé: m. ée: f. Submerged, plunged or ſunke vnder, whirkened or ouerwhelmed in, boulged or ouerflowne by, the water.

Submerger. To ſubmerge; to plunge or ſinke vnder, whirken or ouerwhelme by, dip, drowne, or boulge in, the water.

Submerſion: f. A ſubmerſion, plunging, ſinking, ouerwhelming, drowning, boulging.

Subminiſtrateur: m. A ſubminiſtrator, an vnder-furniſher, an inferior officer.

Subminiſtration: f. A ſubminiſtration, (inferior) ſeruice, vnder-hand ſupply.

Subminiſtré: m. ée: f. Subminiſtred, ſerued vnder, ſupplyed or furniſhed vnder-hand.

Subminiſtrer. To ſubminiſter, or ſerue vnder; alſo, to furniſh or ſupply (vnder-hand, or vnder another.)

Submirmilant. Rab. as Submurmurant.

Submis. Looke Soubmis.

Submurmurant. Murmuring, muttering, mumbling to himſelfe.

Subornation: f. A ſubornation, or ſuborning; the inſtructing, inſtructing, or bringing in of a falſe witneſſe; alſo, a corrupting, peruerting, deprauing.

Subornement. as Subornation.

Suborner. To ſuborne; to make, prepare, inſtruct, ſuggeſt or bring in, a falſe witneſſe; alſo, to depraue, corrupt, peruert, perſuade or allure vnto lewdneſſe.

Suborneur: m. A ſuborner of witneſſes; a corrupter of others.

Subrecart: m. An aſſiſtant, or aſſociate; one whom a Iudge calleth to ſit with him; one whom Phiſitions, for an important cure, or conſultation, chuſe to ioyne with them.

Subredorade: f. A great Guilt-head, or the greateſt of Guilt-heads.

Subreptice: com. Subrepticious, or ſurrepticious; ſiſted, or falſely crept in; ſuppoſed; indirectly come by.

Subreptif: m. iue: f. Subreptiue; or, as Subreptice.

Subreption: f. A ſubreption; ſuppoſition, foiſting or falſe creeping in; alſo, a filching, purloining, or ſtealing away.

Subreptivement. Subrepticiouſly, priuily, vnder-hand, pilferingly, by ſtealth, by falſe meanes.

Subricant. Looke Subrecart.

Subrogation: f. A ſubrogation, ſubſtitution, deputation, appointing another in the roome of.

Subrogé: m. ée: f. Subrogated, ſubſtituted, deputed, appointed in the roome of another.

Subroger. To ſubrogate, ſubſtitute, depute, or appoint in the roome of another.

Subrogué, & Subroguer. as Subrogé, & Subroger.

Subſecutif: m. iue: f. Subſecutiue; conſequent; immediately following or depending on, ſucceeding in the necke of.

Subſecutivement. Subſequently, conſequently, immediately, hard at the heeles of.

Subſide: m. Helpe, aid, aſſiſtance, reliefe, ſuccour; alſo, a ſubſidie.

Subſidiaire: com. Subſidiarie, ſuccouring; aſſiſtant; ſent, or giuen to the aid of.

Subſidiairement. Subſidiarily, helpingly, by way of ſuccour.

Subſidier. To lay ſubſidies on.

Subſiſtence: f. Subſiſtence, continuance, abode, remaining, a ſtanding to, or by, it.

Subſiſter. To ſubſiſt, abide, remaine, ſtand his ground, keepe or continue his place.

Subſtance: f. Subſtance, matter, ſtuffe.

Subſtancier. To ſuſtaine, feed, nouriſh, fatten, ſtuffe with matter, fill with ſubſtance.

Subſtanté & Subſtanter. Looke Suſtenté, &c.

Subſtantifique: com. Subſtantiall, or ſubſtance-yeelding.

Subſtantieux: m. euſe: f. Subſtantiall, ſtuffie.

Subſtitu: m. A Subſtitute; a Deputie, Vicegerent, Lieutenant.

Subſtitué: m. ée: f. Subſtituted, deputed, ordained or put in the place of another.

Subſtituer. To ſubſtitute, ordaine, depute, appoint, place, or put in the roome of another.

Subſtitut: m. A ſubſtitute.

Subſtitution: f. A ſubſtitution, or deputation; the appointing, or placing of one in the roome of another.

Subſtraction: f. A ſubſtraction; a withdrawing or taking away from; a diminution of.

Subterfuge: m. A ſubterfuge; a ſhift; a priuie ſlip, craftie euaſion, cunning eſcape; a corner or hole to ſlip into, or ſlinke out at.

Subterrain: m. aine: f. That vnder the earth.

Subtil: m. A kind of ſmall gold or ſiluer thread.

Subtil: m. ile: f. Subtill, craftie, witie, wittie, cunning.

Subtilement. Subtilly, wittily, cunningly, craftily.

Subtiliant: m. ante: f. Extenuating, ſubtilizing.

Subtiliation: f. A ſubtiliation, or ſubtilizing.
Subtilier. To ſubtilize, extenuate, make thinne, fine; leſſe or more ſlender; alſo, to plot, inuent, contriue, deuiſe; imagine, muſe.
Subtiliſement: m. A ſubtilizing.
Subtiliſer. To ſubtilize; to make thinne, fine, ſmall.
Subtiliſeur: m. A ſubtilizor.
Subtilité: f. Subtiltie, wittineſſe; craft, cunning.
Subtilizer. Looke Subtilier.
Subvenir. To helpe, aid, ſuccour, aſſiſt, relieue, maintaine.
Subventané: m. ée: f. Windie, full of wind, that hath nothing but wind in it.
Subvention: f. Subuention, helpe, aid, reliefe, ſuccour; alſo, a ſubſidie.
Subvention de procez. An impoſition of 100 s Tourn: vpon euerie Action thats aboue, and 40 s vpon euerie one that is vnder, 100 pounds.
Subverſion: f. A ſubuerſion, ruine, ouerthrow.
Subverti: m. ie: f. Subuerted, ouerturned, ruined, ouerthrowne, deſtroyed.
Subvertir. To ſubuert, ouerturne, deſtroy, ruine, ouerthrow.
Subvertiſſeur: m. A ſubuerter, ouerturner, ouerthrower.
Suc: m. Sap, iuice, moiſture.
Succarin: m. ine: f. Of ſugar; Looke Succrin.
Succeder. To ſucceed, follow, enſue, haue iſſue, come to, or come to paſſe; alſo, to inherite.
Succelent. Looke Succulent.
Succement: m. A ſucking.
Succentriné: m. ée: f. Verie finely ſearſed.
Succenturieux: m. euſe: f. Supplying the number, filling vp the place, of one that is abſent, or dead.
Succer. To ſucke.
Succeron: m. A certaine little, and long-noſed veſſell of earth, whereby young infants are ſuckled, or fed.
Succes: m. Succeſſe, iſſue, euent, the end, or falling out of a matter; hap, lucke.
Succeſſeur: m. A ſucceſſor, ſucceeder, follower.
Succeſſif: m. iue: f. Succeſſiue, belonging to ſucceſſion.
Succeſſion: f. Succeſſion; inheritance; a ſucceeding, or following in the place of another.
Par ſucceſſion de temps. In time; in tract, proceſſe, or continuance of time, after ſome dayes or yeares.
Succeſſivement. Succeſſiuely, one after another.
Succez. Looke Succes.
Succif: m. iue: f. Sucking; or, which may be ſucked.
Succinctement. Succinctly, compendiouſly, ſhortly, briefely.
Succion: f. A ſucking.
Succocitrin. Looke Cicotrin.
Succombé: m. ée: f. Ouercharged, ouercome; fayled, or fallen downe through faintneſſe.
Succomber. To faile, faint, fall or lye downe, vnder a burthen; to yeeld, giue way; be ſubdued, ouercharged, ouercome.
Succot. Full of iuice.
Succoté. Sucked gently, and ſmackingly; alſo, kiſſed often.
Succoter. To ſucke gently, and ſmackingly; alſo, to kiſſe often.
Succotrin: m. An extraordinarie fine ſearſe; alſo, as Cicotrin.
Succotriné: m. ée: f. Searſed verie finely.
Succré: m. ée: f. Sugred, ſugrie.
Succrin: m. ine: f. Sugrie, of ſugar, mingled or ſeaſoned with ſugar, ſweet as ſugar.
Alun ſuccrin. Allum compounded of Roſewater, whites of egges, and roche Allum; vſed much by ſome women for the clenſing, or whitening of their faces.
Succulent: m. ente: f. Succulent, ſappie, moiſt, full of iuice.
Succuſſation: f. A hard ſhaking, a ioulting, a violent iogging.
Sucement: m. A ſucking.
Sucer. To ſucke.
Suceron: m. Looke Succeron.
Sucher. The ſame. ¶Picard.
Suçotant. Greedily, or gently, and ſmackingly, ſucking.
Sucre: m. Sugar.
Sucre penidial. Fine and white ſugar whereof Penets &c. are made; alſo, the Penets themſelues.
Sucré: m. whence, Faire le ſucré. Looke vnder Faire.
Sucré: m. ée: f. Sugred; ſugrie; ſweet as, or ſweetened with, ſugar.
Sucrée: f. A nice, quaint, ſqueamiſh, or preciſe wench; whence;
Faire la ſucrée. To mince it, or make it goodlie; to ſhew her ſelfe verie coy.
Sucrier: m. A Comfet-maker.
Sucrin. Looke Succrin.
Suction: f. A ſucking.
Sud: m. The South.
Sudorifique: com. Procuring, or cauſing ſweat.
Suée: f. A ſweat, or ſweating.
Sueil: m. The threſhold of a doore; alſo, the ſoyle of a wild Bore; the mire wherein he commonly wallowes.
Suëment: m. A ſweating.
Suër. To ſweat.
Suërie: f. A ſweating.
Le Païs de ſuërie. Cornelius his Tub; a countrey frequented by the Pockie.
Süeſt: m. The Southeaſt wind.
Suetolt: m. The lumpe, puddle, ſea-Owle; (an ouglie fiſhe)
Suëtte: f. The ſweating ſickneſſe; alſo, a kind of ſmall Dace, or Dare fiſh.
Suëur: m. A ſweater.
Suëur: f. Sweat.
Suëux: m. euſe: f. Sweating; taking great paines.
Suffire. To ſuffice, content, ſatisfie, giue enough vnto, be ſufficient for.
Suffiſamment. Sufficiently, fully, enough, with good ſatisfaction.
Suffiſance: f. Sufficiencie, enough, fullneſſe, plentie, abundance, the belly-full; ſatisfaction, contentment.
Qui a ſuffiſance il a prou de bien, qui n'a ſuffiſance n'a rien: Prov. He thats content, of riches hath great ſtore, but he thats diſcontented is moſt poore.
Suffiſant. Sufficient, enough, full; able, of worth.
Sufflegan. ¶Rab. A Suffragan.
Suffocation: f. A ſuffocation, ſtifling, ſtrangling, whirkening, choaking.
Suffoqué: m. ée: f. Suffocated, ſtifled, choaked, whirkened, ſmoothered, whoſe breath is ſtopped.
Suffoquer. To ſuffocate, ſmother, choake, ſtifle, ſtop the breath of.
Suffragant: m. A Suffragant, or Suffragan, a Biſhops deputie.
Suffrage: m. A ſuffrage, voice; conſent, fauour; good word, in an election.
Suffumigation: f. A ſuffumigation; a ſmoaking, or fuming ming vnder; the ſmoake which is, from vnder a ſtoole, receiued into the bodie, for the diſeaſes of the guts, fundiment, or matrix.

Suffuſion: f. A ſuffuſion, or powring vpon; a ſpreading abroad.

Suffuſion des yeux. A pinne, or web in the eyes.

Suggerer. To ſuggeſt, prompt, or put in mind of; alſo, to miniſter, giue, yeeld, find, furniſh, or allow, vnto.

Suggeſtion: f. A ſuggeſtion, prompting, telling, inducement, putting in mind of.

Suggillation, & Suggiller. as Sugillation, &c.

Sugillation: f. A blacke and blue marke or ſpot on the face, &c, by a blow; alſo, the bloudſhot of an eye; alſo, reproach, deprauation, ſlaunder; detractation.

Sugillé: m. ée: f. Marked with blacke, and blue ſpots; alſo, nipped, taunted, galled, reproued; blemiſhed, reproached, depraued.

Sugiller. To make blacke and blue with ſtrokes; alſo, to nip, taunt, gall, reproue maliciouſly, reproach, blemiſh, deprauе.

Suject, ou Sujet. Looke Subject.

Suiection. Looke Subiection.

Suïer: m. The Elder tree.

Suif: m. Tallow, ſubſtantiall fat.

Viſage de ſuif. A tallow face; bleake viſage, pale countenance.

Suiſſe. The Deale tree, a kind of Firre; (alſo, the Dace fiſh; or as Vandoiſe. ¶Lionnois.)

Suil: m. The threſhold of a doore.

Suille: com. Hoggiſh.

Suin: m. The Elder tree.

Suin de laine. The filth, greaſineße, or oylineſſe of ſheepes wooll before it be waſhed.

Suin de verre. Sandeuer; the fattie ſubſtance floating on glaſſe when it is red-hot in the furnace, and which being cold is as hard as ſtone, yet brittle, and eaſily broken.

Suineux: m. euſe: f. Greaſie, oylie, or filthie, as the vnwaſhed wooll of ſheepe.

Suinter. To giue, yeeld, or ſweat, as ſtones againſt moiſt weather.

Suite: f. A ſuit, or purſuit, &c; as Suitte.

Suites. The cods of a wild Bore.

Suitte: f. A chaſe, purſuit, proſecution of, ſuit againſt; alſo, a ſequele, iſſue, conſequent, or conſequence; alſo, a ſucceſſion, continuance, or vnintermitted courſe of thing[illegible] alſo, the traine, attendants, or followers of a (great) perſon; the companie he drawes along with him.

Suitte en acquiſition, ou ſaiſie; eſt, quand le creancier, ores que l'hypotheque luy manque, ne laiſſe de ſuyvre la choſe ſaiſie ſur ſon debteur, ſoit contre celuy qui l'achetée par apres, ou contre celuy qui l'a ſaiſie.

Suitte par hypotheque; c'eſt quand vn creancier ſuit ſon hypotheque ou contre l'acquereur, ou contre le creancier poſterieur. ¶L'Oiſeau.

Droict de ſuitte de beſtes; de diſme; & de gens, ou de perſonnes ſerves. Looke vnder Droict.

Serfs de ſuitte. Such as (like our villeins regardant to a Mannor) muſt not depart out of their Lords dominion or Territorie; or if they doe, he may purſue them whetherſoeuer, and compell them to returne.

Bourſe n'a ſuitte. When a tenant workes in the tythegrounds of a forreine Lord with hired cattell; or when he himſelfe is hired to worke in them for mony, his Lord can haue no aduantage againſt him by his priuiledge of Suitte de diſme; (for which looke vnder Droict.)

Meuble n'a point de ſuitte par hypotheque; viz. l'acquereur du meuble hypothequé n'en peut eſtre inquieté: Et, la ſuitte, & ordre d'hypotheque n'a lieu aux meubles entre pluſieurs creanciers auſquels ils ſont hypothequez. ¶L'Oiſeau.

Suittes. Looke Suites.

Suivamment. Conſequently, afterwards.

Suivant: m. A follower.

Les ſuivants. The Maiſters of Requeſts, tearmed ſo in old time.

Le plus proche ſuivant du degré. The next full kinſman, or the next heire.

Suivre. Looke Suyvre.

Sul: m. An Elder tree.

Sulphureitez: f. Sulphurie things.

Sulphureux: m. euſe: f. Sulphurous, full of ſulphure.

Sulphurin: m. ine: f. Sulphurie, of ſulphure.

Suls: m. An Elder tree.

Vn Canon de ſuls. A kex; or, a hollow ſtick, or branch of Elder; or, a Pot-gunne made thereof.

Sultan: m. A Sultan, or Souldan; a King, Prince, or Soueraigne; alſo, a Turkiſh coyne of gold worth about vj s vj d ſterling.

Sultane: f. as Soutane; alſo, a Sultanneſſe; or ſoueraigne Princeſſe.

Sultanin. A Turkiſh coyne of gold worth about vij s vj d ſterling.

Sumach. Sumacke, Curriers Sumacke, leather Sumack; (a ſhrub.)

Sumach de cuiſine. The berrie, or fruit of that ſhrub, vſed heretofore in ſtead of ſalt, eſpetially in ſawces; whence, as it ſeemes, we call it, meat Sumacke, and ſawce Sumacke.

Sumelle. Looke Semelle.

Sumerger. To ſinke, ſubmerge, ouerwhelme, drowne.

Sumettre. Looke Soubmettre.

Sumis: m. iſe: f. Submitted, humbled, ſubiected, or yeelded vnto.

Sumptüaire. Looke Somptüaire.

Sumptuoſité: f. Sumptuouſneſſe, great coſtlineſſe, waſtfullneße, exceſſiue expence.

Superabondance: f. Superabundance, ſuperfluitie, exceſſe, ouermuch.

Superabonder. To ſuperabound, exceed, be exceſſiue, tend to ſuperfluitie.

Superbe: com. Prowd, high-minded, arrogant, ſurlie, diſdaineſull; haughtie, loftie, ſtatelie, ſumptuous; magnificent, maieſticall.

Supercedé: m. ée: f. Surceaſſed, left off, giuen ouer.

Articles ſupercedez. Parts of an accompt neither allowed, nor vtterly reiected, vpõ the accomptants humble ſuit for a further day to bring in ſome principall acquittances, or peeces of importance; which day if he ſlip, he falls into arrerage, and an Execution is preſently awarded againſt him.

Superceder. To ſurceaſſe, leaue off, giue ouer.

Superceſſion. Looke Superſeſſion.

Supercherie: f. Supercherie; foule play; an iniurie, wrong, affront, brauado, aſſault; on a ſuddaine, or vpon great aduantage; (vn mauvais tour à l'impourveu;) alſo, a ſuperfluitie, ouerplus, or ouercharge.

Supereminence: f. Supereminence, prerogatiue, excellencie aboue others.

Superengendrez. Children begot at ſeuerall times by ſuperfetation.

Superer. To vanquiſh, ouercome, ſurmount, paſſe, exceed, excell.

Supereroguer. To ſuperarogate, giue ouerplus, doe more then needs, or is required.

Superfetation. Looke Superfoetation.

Superficie: f. The superfities, or surface; the outside, or outmost part of a thing.

Superficiel: m. The same.

Superficiel: m. elle: f. Superficiall, outward, exterior, vtmost.

Ventre superficiel. as Epigastre.

Superficiellement. Superficially, outwardly.

Superflu: m. A superfluitie, ouerplus, excesse.

Superflu: m. uë: f. Superfluous, profuse, excessiue, ouermuch.

Superfluité: f. Superfluitie, excesse, profuseneſſe, an ouerplus, more then needs.

Superfoetation: f. A superfetation, or second conceiuing; a breeding of young vpon young.

Superfoeter. To conceiue a second time; to breed young vpon young.

Supergurgiter. To ouerflow (an Inkhorniſme in Rabelais.)

Superieur: m. eure: f. Superior, vpper, higher, better, former, elder, senior.

Superimposer. To superimpose, surcharge, or charge anew; to lay new impositions on things alreadie taxed.

Superimposition: f. A superimposition, or surcharge; an imposition vpon an imposition.

Superintendance: f. Superintendancie, a principall ouerſight, gouernment, or care ouer.

Superintendant: m. A Superintendent; a principall ouerseer.

Superintendant des finances. The Superintendent, or chiefe Intendant of the Exchequer; is, in all points of authoritie, equall with the Lord high Treasurer of France (an Officer of long time out of date;) yet is he but a Commissioner, whereas the Treasurer was an officer of the Crowne.

Superiorité: f. Superioritie, prehemineuce, eldership, senioritie.

Superlatif: m. iue: f. Superlatiue, exceeding, passing, of the higheſt degree; also, loftie, statelie, haughtie, all on the huffe.

Superlativement. Superlatiuely, exceedingly, in the higheſt degree; also, loftily, haughtily, in a huffe.

Supernater. To swimme aboue, aloft, or ouer, to float on; also, to ouerflow.

Supernaturel: m. elle: f. Supernaturall, metaphisicall, aboue nature.

Supernaturellement. Supernaturally.

Supernel: m. elle: f. Supernall, high, chiefe, aboue.

Supernellement. Supernally, highly, on high, from aboue.

Supernumeraire: com. Supernumerarie, ouer and besides the iuſt or prefixed number, superfluous, redundant, ouerplus.

Superscription: f. A superscription, inscription, title.

Supersedé: m. ée: f. Surceaſed, &c; Looke Supercedé.

Superseſſion: f. A surceasing, leauing off, giuing ouer; and in Exchequer matters, the suſpenſion of an Accompt vpon the Accomptants humble ſuit for a further day to bring in ſome principall acquittance, or Inſtrument for his full diſcharge; which if hee faile to doe, he is forthwith ſeuerely proceeded against.

Superstitieuſement. Superſtitiouſly, ouerſcrupulouſly, ceremoniouſly, curiouſly.

Superstitieux: m. euſe: f. Superſtitious, ouerſcrupulous, too ceremonious, more curious about, or fearefull of, a (diuine) thing then needs.

Superstition: f. Superſtition; exceſſe of ſcruple or ceremonie in matters of religion, idle worſhip, vaine reuerence; a ſuperfluous, needleſſe, or ill-gouerned deuotion.

Supinateur: m. A muſcle in the wriſt, ſeruing to turne the palme of the hand vpwards.

Suppedité: m. ée: f. Throughly ſupplyed, furniſhed, or miniſtred vnto; alſo, fully ſubdued, vanquiſhed, or trodden on.

Suppediter. To ſupply throughly, furniſh ſufficiently, giue or miniſter enough vnto; alſo, to vanquiſh, ouercome, ſubdue, tread or bring vnder.

Suppied: m. A footſtoole, or any thing ſet vnder the foot for the better ſetling, or ſtay thereof.

Suppied d'orgues. The footſtoole, or pedalls to a paire of Organs.

Supplanté: m. ée: f. Supplanted, rooted, or tripped vp; ouerthrowne, trodden vnder foot; alſo, preuented, beguiled, or beguiled by preuention.

Supplanter. To ſupplant, root or trip vp, foyle or put vnder foot; alſo, to preuent, beguile, deceiue, or deceiue by preuenting.

Suppléer. To ſupply, furniſh, cloſe, fill, or make, vp.

Supplément: m. A ſupplement, ſupply, ſupplying; a furniſhing, filling, or making vp of defectiue numbers, emptie roomes, void places, &c.

Suppleſſe: f. Suppleneſſe, pliableneſſe, actiuitie, nimbleneſſe.

Suppliant: m. A ſuppliant, petitioner, humble ſuitor.

Suppliant: m. ante: f. Suppliant, beſeeching.

Supplication: f. A ſupplication, prayer, humble requeſt or ſuit; alſo, a little packet of grapes wrapped vp in figleaues one by one, and thereby laſting, at the leaſt, two yeares.

Supplice: m. Puniſhment, chaſtiſement, correction, torment.

Nul vice ſans ſon ſupplice: Pro. No vice without its puniſhment; or, each vice is to it ſelfe a puniſhment.

Tel vice tel ſupplice: Prov. Like paine ſhall chaſtice thine exceſſe to that wherein thou didſt tranſgreſſe.

Supplier. Humbly to pray, petition, intreat, requeſt, beſeech, or be ſuitor vnto.

Supplument. Looke Supplement.

Support: m. Support; a prop, or ſtay; fauour, maintenance; helpe, ſuccour, aſſiſtance.

Supportable: com. Supportable, tollerable, beareable.

Supportation: f. A ſupportation; bearing, abiding; a boulſtering, ſuccouring, aſſiſting.

Ce qui ſoit dit avec ſupportation; viz. by fauor, or vnder correction.

Supporté: m. ée: f. Supported, ſuſtained, boulſtered, borne with, or vp; fauored, aſſiſted, ſuccoured; tollerated, ſuffered, indured.

Supporter. To ſupport, ſuſtaine, ſtay or beare vp; to boulſter, fauor; aſſiſt, ſuccour; to tollerate, indure, abide, or beare with.

Supposé: m. ée: f. Supposed, imagined, meant, vnderſtood; alſo, vnderſet, or put vnder; and ſuppoſitious, ſuborned, ſuſted, or put in for another; whence;

Enfant ſupposé. A changeling.

Supposé que. (Aduerbially; or as an abſolute Ablatiue;) albeit, although, notwithſtanding, or howſoeuer that.

Supposement: m. A ſuppoſing, or putting of a thing vnder

vnder another; a ſuborning, foiſting, forging, thruſting of bad ſtuffe among, or in lieu of, that which is good.

Suppoſer. To ſuppone; to put, lay, or ſet vnder; to ſuborne, forge, counterfeit, foiſt or thruſt in falſe things among, or in ſtead of, true; alſo, to ſuppoſe, imagine, meane, vnderſtand, more then's expreſſed.

Suppoſer vn enfant. To change a child.

Suppoſeur: m. A ſuborner, foiſter, forger, counterfeiter.

Suppoſitoire: m. A Suppoſitarie; made of honey, and ſalt boyled vnto the conſiſtence of paſte, and faſhioned ſomewhat like a finger.

Suppoſt: m. A Deputie, one that is put in the roome of another; a ſuborned, counterfeit, forged, or foiſted in peece; alſo, a diſciple, or ſcholler; alſo, an inferior, or vnder officer in a Court of Juſtice.

Vn ſuppoſt du diable. A limme of the diuell.

Quelque bon ſuppoſt vous le dira. Some good fellow or other will tell it you.

Suppreſſion: f. Suppreſſion, a ſuppreſſing or holding downe; a concealement; a ſtopping, or ſtaying.

Suppriné: m. ée: f. Suppreſſed, held downe, kept vnder; hidden, concealed; ſtopped, retained, reſtrained; ſuffocated; baſe, low, ſoft; ſhort.

Suppriner. To ſuppreſſe, repreſſe, oppreſſe; hold vnder, keepe downe; conceale, hide; ſtop, retaine, reſtraine vnlawfully; ſuffocate; humble.

Suppuratif: m. iue: f. Suppuratiue, mattaring, drawing to a head, cauſing to mattar.

Suppuration: f. A ſuppuration, or mattaring; a gathering to a mattarie head; alſo, a breaking and clenſing thereof.

Suppuré: m. ée: f. Suppured, growne mattarie; reſolued into mattar; alſo, voided, or drained of ſuch mattar; fully clenſed.

Suppurer. To ſuppure; a byle, or impoſtume to become ſoft, reſolue into mattar, or grow to a mattarie head; alſo, to breake, and void, or draine it; fully to clenſe it.

Supputation: f. A ſupputation, account, reckoning, ſuppoſition, coniecture, ſurmiſe.

Sur: m. The South.

Sur: m. ſure: f. Sowre, ſharpe, eagar, tart.

Sur. On, vpon, ouer, aboue; before; at, by, hard by, toward, about; alſo, touching, or concerning.

Avoir vn ieu ſur. To haue a game with.

Surabonder. To ſuperabound, redound, exceed, ouerflow.

Surachapt: m. An ouerbuying; a bargaine too deerely bought, or for which too much hath beene giuen.

Suracheter. To ouerbuy, pay too deerely, giue too much for.

Suradjouſter. To giue vantage, adde more, put moreouer.

Suragé: m. ée: f. Decrepite, ouer-old, growne farre in yeares.

Sural: m. ale: f. as Sur; or, ſowriſh.

Surale: f. A great veine vnder the bought of the knee; Looke vnder Veine.

Surandoillier: m. The beankler, or ſecond branch of a Deeres head; Looke Surendouiller.

Surannation: f. A growing old, ſtale, or aboue a yeares date; and, a cauſe not followed or called on, a ſentence, commiſſion, or command not executed, within the yeare and day.

Suranné: m. ée: f. Aboue a yeare paſſed or old, of more then one yeares date or age; alſo, ſtale, paſt the beſt, ouerworne with yeares.

Suranner. To paſſe, or exceed the compaſſe of a yeare; to be of more then one yeares date or age; alſo, to heape yeares vpon yeares, grow ſtale, wax verie old.

Suranter. To graffe, ſettle, or faſten vpon.

Surattendre. To goe faire and ſofily before, to ſlacke his pace that another may ouertake him; to attend or ſtay for, not altogether, but in paſſing eaſily forward; alſo, to attend, or wait too long.

Qui bien attend ne ſurattend: Prov. He that expects good lucke ſtayes not too long; or, he that waits to good purpoſe ouerwaits not.

Suravancer. To aduance too farre, or vpon.

Surbaigné: m. ée: f. Bathed, bedewed ouer.

Surbaiſſé; whence, Voute ſurbaiſſée. A flat vault, or arche.

Surbandé: m. ée: f. Bound, welted, or garded ouer.

Surbaſtir. To build vpon.

Surbatture: f. A ſurbating.

Sur-belheur: m. The name of a certaine tart Apple.

Surboire. To drinke vpon, or drink more then is needfull after, meat.

Surceance. Looke Surſeance.

Surcens: m. A Cens raiſed vpon a Cens; a ſecond rent, or Cens created vpon the alienation of land Cenſuel; as when a tenant Cenſier paſſes away his eſtate with reſeruation of a rent or Cens to himſelfe, beſides that which was formerly due, and is ſtill to be payed, vnto the Lord.

Surcenſe: m. as Surcens.

Surcenſier: m. One that charges land with a new, or ſecond Cens.

Surcenſier: m. ere: f. whence, Rente ſurcenſiere. as Surcens.

Surcharge: f. A ſurcharge, or new charge; a charge vpon a charge, load vpon a load, burthen vpon burthen.

Surcharger. To ſurcharge; ouerload, ouerburthen; or, lay load vpon load, burthen vpon burthen.

Surciel: m. The teſter of a cloth of State, &c; the part thereof which hangs, commonly in a ſquare forme, ouer the Princes head.

Surconcevoir. To conceiue young vpon young; or, as Superfoeter.

Surcot: m. An vpper kirtle; or garment worne ouer a kirtle.

Surcottier: m. The tenant vnto a Cottier; he to whom a Cottier hath let his land for a Rent, or Cens.

Surcottiere: f. Land, or an eſtate in land, held of a Cottier by Rent, or Cens.

Surcouvert: m. te: f. Couered ouer.

Surcouvrir. To couer ouer.

Surcreſt: m. A creſt vpon a creſt; an vpper top, or creſt.

Surcrez. as Surcroiſt.

Surcroiſt: m. A ſurpluſage, ouer-meaſure, vantage, addition, amends; alſo, an ouer-growing, a riſing or ſpringing vpon.

Surcroiſtre. To ouergrow; to riſe or ſpring vp on.

Surculeux: m. euſe: f. Full of hard ſhootes, ſlips, or ſprigs.

Surdaſtre: com. Deafiſh; ſomewhat deafe, hard or thicke of hearing.

Surdité: f. Deafeneſſe.

Surdoré: m. ée: f. Gilt ouer.

Surdorer. To gild ouer.

Surdoreur: m. A gilder ouer.

Surdoreure: f. A gilding ouer.

Sureau: m. An Elder tree; Looke Suſeau.

Sureau aquatic. The water Elder, Whitten tree, Ople tree, Dwarfe-plane tree.

Sureau de marais. The ſame; or mariſh Elder.
Sureau de montaigne. The mountaine Elder, the wild Elder.
Surelle; f. Sorrell.
Suremplir. To fill vp, or to ouerfill.
Surendouiller, ou Surentouiller: m. The royall of a Stag, the Beancler of a Bucke; the ſecond branch on either of their heads.
Surer. Looke Seurer.
Sureté: f. Suretie, ſafetie, ſecuritie, aſſurance.
Surface: f. The ſurface; the ſuperficies or vpper part, the firſt ſhew or outward face, of things.
Surfaire. To ouerpriſe, to hold at an ouer-deere rate.
Surfaiſeur: m. One that ouerpriſeth his ware.
Surfaix: m. A ſurſengle, or long girth.
Surflorir. To bloſſome vpon the fruit, or to bloome or bloſſome after the firſt bloſſomes are vaded.
Surflot: m. The riſing of billow vpon billow, or the interchanged ſwelling of ſeuerall waues.
Surflotter. To floate or ſwimme vpon.
Surfoncier: m. ere: f. whence, Rente surfonciere; à la difference de la premiere rente fonciere, qui eſt la plus ancienne, & premierement creée.
Surfondu: m. uë: f. Melted away; alſo, powred vpon.
Surfondre. To melt away; alſo, to powre vpon.
Surfriſer. To frizle ouer, to curle vpon.
Surgaillon: com. A ſlouen, or ſlut (at Blois.)
Surgeon. Looke Sourgeon.
Surgeonner. To ſhoot out, ſpring, ſpurt vp.
Surgermé: m. ée: f. Sprung vp, ſpred abroad.
Surgetté: m. ée: f. Ouercaſt.
Surgi: m. ie: f. Arriued, come to ſhore, or neere the ſhore.
Surgidoir: m. as Surgidoire.
Surgidoire: f. A road, gulfe, or boſome of the ſea, for ſhippes to ride in; (ſometimes alſo the oppoſite, a Promontorie, Cape, or Bay of land entring into the ſea; belike becauſe they alwaies affoord a riding for ſhips;) alſo, the hole, or hollow of an impoſtume, or mattarie ſore.
Surgir. To arriue, take land, goe aſhore; or to ride, or draw neere the ſhore.
Surgiſſant: m. ante: f. Arriuing, comming to ſhore; or riding, as a ſhip, neere the ſhore.
Surgiſſement: m. An arriuing, taking land, going aſhore; or a riding, or drawing, neere the ſhore.
Surguinder. To boiſe vp on high.
Surhaſté: m. ée: f. Precipitated, ouerhaſtened; haſtened vnſeaſonably, or before it time.
Surhaſter. To precipitate, ouerhaſten; haſten vnſeaſonably, or before it time.
Se ſurhaſter. To make too much haſt, or more haſt then good ſpeed.
Surhauſſer. To hoiſe, raiſe, or lift vp on high.
Se ſurhauſſer. To ſwell, riſe, increaſe.
Suriect: m. A couering, or ouercaſting.
Droict de ſuriect. Power to adde vnto the laſt price thats offered at an Outcry.
Suriectement: m. An ouercaſting, or caſting vpon.
Suriecter. To ouercaſt, or caſt vpon.
Surilluſtre: com. Superexcellent, moſt illuſtrious, exceedingly renowmed.
Surimpoſition: f. A ſurcharge; an ouer-great impoſition, or, an impoſition raiſed vpon an impoſition.
Surintendance: f. Superintendencie, an ouerſeeing.
Surintendant: m. A ſuperintendent, an ouerſeer.
Surjon. Looke Sourgeon.
Surlié: m. ée: f. Tyed ouer, bound vpon.
Surlier. To tye ouer, to bind vpon.
Surluire. To ſhine, or caſt a great light vpon.
Surmaçonner. To build vpon, or ouer.
Surmanger. To eat vpon, or immediately after, a meale; to eat more; to ouer-eat.
Surmarcher. To tread, or goe vpon.
Surmeule: f. An vpper Mill-ſtone.
Surmeſure: f. Ouer-meaſure, too great meaſure.
Surmontable: com. Surmountable, ſurpaßable, exceedable; ſubduable.
Surmonté: m. ée: f. Surmounted, ſurpaßed, exceeded; ſubdued, vanquiſhed, ouercome.
Surmontement: m. A ſurmounting, ſurpaſſing, exceeding; ſubduing, ouercomming.
Surmontement des ioues. A chuffie out-ſtanding, or ſwelling of the cheekes, beyond all due, and comelie proportion.
Surmonter. To ſurmount, ſurpaße, get before; goe beyond; to ſubdue, vanquiſh, ouercome.
Surmouſt: m. New or ſweet wine.
Surmulet: m. A ſore Mullet; or, the great ſea-Barbell.
Surnager. To float, ſwimme aloft, ouer, or vpon.
Surnaiſſance: f. An ouergrowth, or growing vpon.
Surnaiſſant. Growing ouer, or vpon; ſucceeding.
Surnaiſtre. To grow ouer, or vpon; to ſucceed of.
Surnom: m. A ſurname.
Surnommé: m. ée: f. Surnamed.
Surnommer. To giue a ſurname vnto.
Surnoyer. To ouerdrowne, ouerwhelme; oretop, ouergrow.
Suroeſt: m. The Southweſt wind.
Suroindre. To annoint vpon, or ouer.
Suronder. To float vpon the waues.
Surop. Looke Syrop.
Suroreiller. To round, or whiſper in the eare.
Suros: m. A bonie, and vicious excreſcence, growing about the cornet of a horſes foot (and then called a ringbone) or vpon his ſhinne-bone (and then called a knot, or knob.)
Surot. as Suros.
Surpaſſer. To ſurpaße, goe beyond, exceed, ſurmount, excell.
Surpayer. To pay too deerely for.
Surpeau: f. An vpper skinne.
Surpelis: m. A Surplis.
Surpendant: m. ante: f. Hanging ouer, or vpon.
Surpendre. To hang vp, ouer, or vpon.
Surpendu: m. uë: f. Hanged vp, ouer, or vpon.
Clef ſurpenduë. Looke vnder Clef.
Surpenduë: f. A iettie; an out-iutting roome, &c, as Soupenduë; alſo, a roome, or falſe floore to lay wood in, gained betweene a cellar, (for that purpoſe made the deeper) and the roome which is next aboue it.
Surpente: f. The ſame in the firſt ſence; or, as Soupenduë.
Surpoids: m. Ouerweight, or weight aboue iuſt weight; the ouerplus of weight put into the ſcale of a balance, and making it weigh downe, or ouerweigh that which is in the other ſcale.
Surpepon: m. A great Melon, or Pumpion.
Surplis: m. A Surplis.
Surplus: m. A ſurpluſage, remainder, ouerplus.
Au ſurplus. (Aduerbially) beſides, ouer, aboue, ouer and beſides, ouer and aboue, moreouer, furthermore.
Surpoil: m. as Serpaut.
Surpoinct: m. Speck greaſe; an oylie greaſe ſcummed from from peeces of lickored leather sodden in water for that purpose.

Surpoiser. To ouerweigh, or weigh downe, a thing weighed with it.

Surpoix. Ouerweight; Looke Surpoids.

Surposte: f. A hurt vpon the Cornet of a horses foot, by crossing one foot ouer another.

Surprendre. To surprise; to take napping, tardie, at vnawares, in a trip, in the manner, in the deed doing; also, to preuent, intercept, or ouertake; also, to beguile, supplant, circumuent, ouerreach.

Surpreneur: m. A surprisor; oppressor; ouerreacher, cheater, cousener, craftie dealer.

Surprins: m. inse: f. Surprised; tripped, taken napping, or tardie; or in the manner; found in the deed doing; also, preuented, intercepted, or ouertaken; also, beguiled, ouerraught, supplanted, circumuented; also, oppressed, or hard layed to on the suddaine.

La nuict nous a surprins. Night is stolne vpon vs, or hath ouertaken vs, ere we were aware.

Surprinse: f. A surprisall, or suddaine taking; an assaulting, or comming vpon, a man ere he is aware; a tripping, taking tardie, finding in the manner; also, a tricke, fallacie, subtilitie, cauill, shift, euasion; a deceitfull quirke, or quidditie vsed by a cunning Politoger.

Surpris: m. Too great a price; a price exceeding the worth of that for which it is demaunded, or bidden.

Surquanie: f. Looke Souquenie.

Surquerir. To question too busily with.

Surreptice: com. Surrepticious, &c; Looke Subreptice.

Surreption: f. Looke Subreption.

Surrester. To rest, or pawse vpon.

Surrogation. Looke Subrogation.

Surrogué: m. ée: f. Surrogated, substituted, appointed in the roome of another.

Surroguer. To surrogate, substitute, place, depute, or appoint in the roome of another.

Sursaillant: m. ante: f. Ouerpeering; leaping on, or ouer; springing, or spurting ouer.

Sursaille: f. as Sursault; also, a leaping on, or ouer; also, an ouerpeering, or ouergrowing.

Sursaillir. To leape on, or ouer; also, to ouerpeere, ouergrow, spring or spurt vp ouer; also, to start vp suddainly, as one thats awaked by a great noise, &c.

Sursangle: f. A sursengle, or long girth.

Sursault: m. A suddaine starting, or surprise that makes one start.

En sursault. In a start, vnawares, on a suddaine.

Sursaulter. To leape, or spring ouer; to leape, or iert out on a suddaine; also, to start.

Sursaut, & Sursauter. as Sursault, & Sursaulter.

Surseance: f. A surceasing, or giuing ouer; a pawse, intermission, delay.

Surseant: m. ante: f. Surceasing, or giuing ouer; pawsing, intermitting, delaying; also, as Resseant.

Surselle: f. A broad, and great band, or thong of strong leather, &c, fastened on either side of a thill, and bearing vpon the pad, or saddle, of the thill-horse: About London it is called, the Ridge-rope.

Surseme: m. ée: f. Sowen, or strewed vpon; also, measeld as a Hog.

Surseмer. To sow, strew, or sprinkle vpon.

Surseмeur: m. A sower, or strewer.

Surseмeur de noises. A make-bate, firebrand of contention, quarrell-breeder, dissention-sower.

Surseмure: f. The measeldnesse of Hogs.

Surseoir. To surcease, pawse, intermit, leaue off, giue ouer, delay or stay for a time.

Sursis: m. ise: f. Surceased, intermitted, left off, giuen ouer, stayed or delayed for a time.

Sursomme: f. Ouer-weight, an ouer-beauie burthen; whence;

La sursomme abbat l'asne: Pro. An extreame burthen swayes the sillie Asse.

Sursoulte: f. Too much boot giuen in an exchange, &c.

Sursoyer. as Surseoir.

Sursueil: m. The vpper sill, or head-peece of a doore; the peece of timber that lyes ouer a doore.

Surtaux: f. An ouer-cessing, ouer-rating, hoisting, surcharging, in the Subsidie booke, &c.

Surtaxé: m. ée: f. Ouer-cessed, hoisted, surcharged.

Surtissu: m. uë: f. Wouen, or whipt ouer with.

Surtomber. To fall ouer, or vpon.

Survaleur: f. Ouer-value.

Surve[illegible]: f. The day before the eue of a (great) holyday.

Survenance: f. An accident, hap, chaunce, vnexpected occurrence.

Survenant: m. ante: f. Happening, chauncing, occurring, befalling.

Survendre. To ouersell.

Survenement: m. Looke Survenuë; or, a happening, chauncing, befalling; and, a relieuing, helping, succouring.

Survenir. To happen, chaunce, fall out, light, befall, step in vnlooked for, occurre or come on a suddaine; also, to relieue, helpe, succour.

Survenu: m. uë: f. Happened, chaunced, light, fallen out, befallen, stept in vnlooked for, occurred or come on a suddaine; also, relieued, helped, succoured.

Survenuë: f. An accident, or vnexpected occurrence; a stepping, or comming, in vnlooked for; a suddaine lighting on, or falling into, companie.

Surverser. To powre vpon.

Survestement: m. An vpper garment.

Survestir. To put aloft vpon, or couer ouer with, a garment.

Survivance: f. A suruiuancie, suruiuing, outliuing; also, a remainder after a life.

Survivance d'office. A resignation of an Office, not absolute, but implying a condition, that the Resignor may, if he will, enioy it wholly during his life, and otherwise dispose of it if he happen to suruiue the Resignee.

Survivant: m. A suruiuor, outliuer, ouerliuer.

Survivant: m. ante: f. Suruiuing, outliuing.

Survivre. To suruiue, outliue, ouerliue, remaine after others.

Survoler. To flye ouer.

Survoleter. To flicker, or houer ouer.

Survuidé: m. ée: f. Emptied out of one vessell into another.

Survuider. To emptie out of one vessell into another.

Sus. On, vp, vpon, ouer, aboue.

Sus avant. On before, forward there hoe.

Susan: m. A yeare and day past; or the passing of a yeare and day, without performing that which should haue beene done within it.

Susanné: m. ée: f. Looke Suranné.

Susanner. as Suranner.

Susat. Of Elder, or Elder flowers; whence, Vinaigre susat. Elder-vineger.

Susbarbe d'une bride. The nose-band of a bridle.

Susbouit. (Adverb.) Vp, an end.
Suſcept: m. A ſubiect, or one that liues vnder the protection of another.
Suſceptible: com. Suſceptible, capable.
Suſcet. as Suſcept.
Suſcitateur: m. A raiſer, awaker, inciter, prouoker, ſtirrer vp.
Suſcitation: f. A ſuſcitation, awaking, raiſing, inciting, or ſtirring vp.
Suſciter. To ſuſcitate, awake, raiſe, quicken, kindle, incite, ſtirre vp.
Suſciteur: m. A raiſer, awaker, kindler, quickener, inciter, ſtirrer vp.
Suſclavier: m. ere: f. Vpon the kannell bone; whence;
Veine ſuſclaviere. The ſecond maine aſcendant branch of the hollow veine.
Suſcouche: f. The Night-mare.
Suſeau: m. An Elder tree; Looke Sureau.
Suſeau bas. as Suſeau femelle.
Suſeau femelle. Wallwort, Danewort, Bloudwort, dwarfe Elderne.
Petit ſuſeau. The ſame.
Suſeſpineux: m. euſe: f. Reſting vpon the backe-bone; whence;
Muſcle ſuſeſpineux. A muſcle whereby the arme is raiſed, or drawne vpwards.
Suslambris: m. The vpper ſeeling of a houſe, &c.
Suſpect: m. ecte: f. Suſpected, doubted, miſtruſted, had in iealouſie.
Suſpection: f. Suſpition, iealouſie.
Suspend. as Suſpens.
Suſpendre. To ſuſpend; remoue, depoſe, depriue, diſcharge for a time; alſo, to deferre, delay, keepe in doubt, hold off with vncertaine tearmes.
Suſpendu: m. uë: f. Suſpended; depoſed, remoued, or diſcharged for a time; alſo, deferred, put off, delayed, held in ſuſpence.
Suſpens. Doubtfull, vncertaine, in ſuſpence.
Suspenſif: m. iue: f. Suſpenſiue, ſuſpending, onely for a time.
Suſpenſion: f. A ſuſpenſion, or ſuſpending; a depoſall, remoue, or diſcharge, onely for a time.
Suſpenſoire: com. Hanging, dangling, ſwinging; ſuſpenſorie, in ſuſpence.
Suſpenſoires. Certaine cords, or ſtrings (hanging from the bedſtead) for a ſicke man to take hold of, and beare vp himſelfe with, when he would remoue, or alter his lying.
Suſpied. (Adverb.) vp, or afoot.
Suſtenté: m. ée: f. Suſtained, fed, nouriſhed; maintained; comforted.
Suſtenter. To ſuſtaine, feed, nouriſh, find; maintaine; comfort.
Suſtentifique: com. Suſtaining, feeding, nouriſhing, maintaining.
Sus-teſt: m. The Pericranion, or skinne that couers the skull.
Suſteſte d'une bride. The head-peece of a bridle.
Sus-ventre. as Epigaſtre.
Suſueſt: m. A Southweſt wind.
Sutin: m. The ſweating ſickneſſe.
Suture: f. A ſuture, or ſeame; a ſowing, ioyning, or faſtening together.
Suture coronale. The coronall ſuture; a ſeame which compaſſes the forhead, or forepart of the head in forme of a halfe circle.
Suture Lambdoïde. A ſuture in the hinder part of the skull, toward the bottome whereof it begins, and ends when it meets with the Sagitale.
Suture Mendeuſe. The ſuture, whereby the bone of the temples is diuided from the ſcull.
Suture ſagitale. The ſeame which running ſtraight on in the top of the ſcull, diuides the right ſide from the left, and (ſometimes) deſcends euen to the noſe.
Suture ſcameuſe. as Mendeuſe.
Suture ſeiche. A cloſing vp of wounds (eſpecially in the face) by gluing on either ſide thereof a peece of indented cloth, whoſe points anſwering one another, are gently drawne together with needle and thred.
Suture ſphenoïde. A falſe ſuture in the end, or bottome of the noddle, whence it paſſes vnder the Os coniugal, and ends neere the ends of the Coronall ſuture.
Suvereau: m. The great baſtard Mackarell. ¶Marſeillois.
Suye: f. Soot of a chimney; any bleach.
Suye d'Encens. Soot of Incenſe, burnt (of purpoſe for the ſoot) in a cloſe pot; of an abſterſiue, and cooling propertie; clenſes, and fills vp the vlcers, and appeaſes the heats and inflamations, of the eyes.
Suye des Peintres. Painters ſoot; a corroſiue, and aſtringent ſtuffe gotten in Glaſſe-houſes.
Suyer: m. An Elder tree.
Suyn de laine. Looke Suin.
Suyne: f. A precious ſtone found in ſome Serpents.
Suyte: f. A chaſe, purſuit, proſecution of ſuit againſt; alſo, the traine, attendants, or followers of a (great) perſon; the companie he drawes along with him; alſo, a ſequele, iſſue, conſequent, or conſequence; alſo, a ſucceſſion, continuance, or vnintermitted courſe of things; Looke Suitte.
Suyvamment. Succeſſiuely, conſequently, afterward.
Suyvant: m. A follower, one of the traine of.
Suyvant: m. ante: f. Following, ſucceeding, enſuing.
Suyvre. To follow, goe after, attend or wait on; imitate, or counterfeit; chaſe, or purſue; ſucceed, or enſue: (En la vendition on dit qu'on ſuit la choſe, quand on la demande à vn tiers detenteur non obligé perſonnellement à la rendre. l'Oiſeau.)
Suyvre le brouſt. Looke Brouſt.
Suyvre ſes coups. To proſecute, or ſecond a beginning.
Suyvre la fortune. To take, or adhere vnto, the ſtronger ſide.
Suyvre les lopins. To hunt after good cheere; to proſtitute himſelfe, on all baſe conditions, vnto his owne appetite.
Qui ſuit les poules apprend à grater la terre: Pro. See Grater.
Qui bons lopins mange bons lopins le ſuyvent: Prov. Prouiſion followes them that vſe to fare well; where beſt meat's eaten markets are beſt ſerued.
Suzeau. Looke Suſeau.
Suzerain: m. Souueraigne (yet ſubalterne) ſuperior (but not ſupreame) high in iuriſdiction (though inferior to the higheſt.)
Suzeraineté: f. Souueraigne (but ſubalterne) iuriſdiction, ſuperior (but not ſupreame) power; high or chiefe authoritie, ſubiect or inferior, to the maieſtie of Kings.
Suzerains: m. High and mightie Lords hauing vnder them many vaſſalls, were tearmed ſo in old time; and at this day the Kings principall Iudges haue ſometimes this title beſtowed on them.
Sybilot: m. Looke Sibilot.
Sycomantie: f. Diuination by Figge-leaues.
Sycomore: m. The Sycomore, Figge-Sycomore tree, Mulberrie Figge-tree.

Sy-

Sycomore baſtard. as Sycomore d'Italie.
Sycomore de Chypre. The Cyprian Sycomore; a great tree almoſt like the Poplar, but leaued like the Elme; it beares foure times a yeare, but the fruit ripens not vntill it haue beene ſlit, and haue yeelded at that ſlit a milkie iuyce.
Sycomore d'Egypte. as Sycomore d'Italie.
Sycomore d'Italie. The Bead tree, th' Italian Lote or Nettle-tree; yeelds a fruit, of whoſe ſtones (for want of better things) beades are made.
Sycophage: com. A Fig tree: ¶Rab.
Sycophantin: m. A ſycophant, buffoone, paraſite, claw-backe, tale-bearer, ſmell-feaſt.
Syderal: m. ale: f. Starrie, of or belonging to, the ſtarres.
Syderation: f. Tree-plague; a blaſting in trees by great heat and drought; alſo, a ſudden taking, or benumming of a limme, followed by a totall putrifaction, and vtter deſtruction thereof.
Syderé: m. ée: f. Tempered, and forged by the courſe and conſtellation of the ſtarres.
Syer. Looke Sier.
Syllable: f. A ſillable.
Syllogiſme: m. A (Logicall) Syllogiſme.
Syloatique. ¶Rab. Huge, mightie.
Symbole: m. A token, badge, or ſigne to know one by; a ſecret, priuate, and myſticall note; a ſhort and intricate ridle or ſentence; a paſſport; a ſhot; a collation; alſo, an vniforme conſent or concurrence of ſundrie opinions; alſo, the ſumme of our Beleefe; the Creed.
Symbolizant: m. ante: f. Symbolizing, ſympathizing.
Symbolization: f. A ſymbolization, or ſymbolizing; a mutuall agreement in opinion, humor, and manners; a ſympathizing.
Symbolizer. To ſymbolize, or ſympathize; to concurre in opinion, iumpe in conceit, agree in humors or manners, with.
Symmetrie: f. Simmetrie; a iuſt, and mutuall proportion of each part in reſpect of the whole.
Symmetrié: m. ée: f. Well proportioned, in iuſt ſymmetrie.
Symniſtre: m. A Secretarie, or priuie Counſellor.
Symniſte: m. A fellow, or colleague in a (ſacred) profeſſion.
Sympathie: f. Sympathie; a ſymbolizing; naturall conſent, or combination; mutuall paſſion, affection, diſpoſition; a fellow-feeling.
Sympathiſer. To ſympathize, or haue a fellow-feeling of, to iumpe with in paſſion, conſent with in affection, agree with in diſpoſition.
Symphiſe: f. A naturall, and vamouing vnion of two bones.
Symphonie: f. Harmonie, tunable ſinging, &c, a conſent in tune.
Symplegade: f. An imbracing, or clipping; and thence alſo, a whirlepoole, or ſwallowing gulfe.
Sympoſiarque: m. The Maiſter, or Ouerſeer of a feaſt; a feaſt-maker.
Symptome: m. A ſymptome; an affect, paſſion, or accident accompanying a diſeaſe; a ſenſible griefe ioyned therewith; as with an Ague the headache, &c; generally, whatſoeuer happens to a liuing creature againſt or beſides nature, as ſickneſſe, & th' inward cauſes, and accidents thereof.
Syn. Looke Suin.
Synagogue: f. A Sinagogue, aſſemblie, congregation.
Synanchie: f. The Squinzie, or Squinancie.
Synanthroſe: f. A cloſe coniunction of bones without any viſible motion.
Syncere: com. Sincere, pure, perfect, intire, ſound; vncorrupted, iuſt, vpright, honeſt, open-hearted, plainely dealing.
Syncerement. Sincerely, purely, intirely, ſoundly, vncorruptly, iuſtly, vprightly, plainely, without fraud or guile.
Syncerité: f. Sinceritie, integritie, ſounneſſe, intireneſſe, honeſtie, puritie, cleaneneſſe, vprightneſſe, plainneſſe, true-heartedneſſe.
Syncope: f. A cutting away; alſo, a ſowning, or ſwounding.
Syncopization: f. A cutting away; alſo, an often ſwounding.
Syncopizer. To cut away; alſo, to ſowne, or ſwound.
Syncretiſme: m. The ioyning, or agreement, of two enemies againſt a third perſon.
Syncriſme: m. A thinne, and ſpreading ointment, or medecine.
Syndereſe: f. The remorſe, or pricke of conſcience; that part of the ſoule which oppoſeth it ſelfe vnto ſinne.
Synderique. Nerfs Synderiques. Binding ſtrawes.
Syndic: m. A Sindicke, Cenſor, Controller of manners; alſo, an Atturney, or Agent for a Commonwealth, or Comminaltie.
Syndicable: com. Subiect vnto examination, cenſure, or controllment.
Syndicat: m. Th' Office of a Syndicke, &c.
Syndiquer. To examine, cenſure, or controll mens conuerſations or courſes.
Synochite. A ſtone whereby (as Magitians affirme) the dead be raiſed.
Synodal: m. ale: f. Synodall, of a Synode, enacted in a Synode.
Synode: m. A Synode, or aſſemblie of Eccleſiaſticall perſons.
Synonime. A Synonima; a word hauing the ſame ſignification which another hath.
Synonimer. To make two words beare one ſence.
Synople. Sinople; Greene, in Blazon.
Syntereſe. Looke Syndereſe.
Syntre. Looke Cintre.
Syparathe. The dung of a Goat, or Sheepe: ¶Rab.
Syphon. Looke Siphon.
Syre. Sir; Looke Sire.
Syringuant. Squirting, iniecting into.
Syringue: f. A Siringe, a ſquirt.
Syringué: m. ée: f. Squirted, or iniected, as liquor with a Siringe.
Syringuer. To ſquirt, or iniect with a Siringe.
Syroch. Looke Siroch.
Syron: m. Looke Ciron.
Syrop. Sirrop, or a ſyrrup; alſo, a ſlimie, and blackiſh humor in the ſtomacke of a new-borne infant, the milt whereof it corrupts, if it be not enacuated before the youngling ſucke.
Syrop vignolat. Syrrup of the vine, wine.
Syrte. A quicksand, or ſhelfe of ſand in the ſea, or in a riuer.
Syſtole: f. The motion, or lifting vp of the heart, and Arteries; alſo, the ſhortening of a long vowell.
Sytorpé. Cut off: ¶Rab.

T

TA. The Feminine of Ton; Thy.
Tabarre: m. A long riding cloke, or garment.

Tabellion: m. A Notarie publicke, or Scriuener, allowed by authoritie to ingrosse, and register priuate contracts, and obligations: Therein differing from Notaire (as in the word Notaire*) more generally, then that (as in the opinion of* Nicot*) the* Notaire does the Office of both in Cities, and Townes of respect, and the Tabellion onely in Boroughes, and Villages: And yet they are very often confounded, and taken for one, and the same (sayes Ragueau;) And their Offices are (sayes another) at this day made, or growne one.

Tabellionnage. Th'Office of a Tabellion; the place wherein hee ingrosses, and registers priuate contracts.

Droict de Tabellionnage. as vnder Droict; also, a halfepenie in the pound for contracts of the sale of land &c, exceeding the value of 15 l. Tour. due to the King within the Libertie of Sens.

Tabellionné: m. The Office, Function, or Art, of a Tabellion.

Tabellionné: m.ée: f. Drawne at large, ingroßed, registred by a Tabellion.

Tabellionner. A Tabellion to draw, ingrosse, or record a deed.

Tabernacle: m. A Tabernacle, pauillion, tent, or hall; also, a shed, shelter, or little shop of boords; also, a gaudie Cabinet, Box, or Chariot to set, keepe, or carrie Images in.

Tabian. laict Tab. The milke of Tabia, a place in Italie, verie healthfull for such as are in a consumption: Rab.

Tabide: com. Consuming, wasting, languishing, pining away; also, welneere all melted, or wasted.

Tabifié: m.ée: f. Wasted, consumed, rotted, putrified; also, infected, poisoned, corrupted.

Tabifier. To waste, consume, putrifie, rot; infect, poison, marre, corrupt.

Tablage: m. A tabling or boording; also, a table, or great boord.

Tablature d'un Luc. The bellie of a Lute.

Table: f. A table; a long and square boord; a table, or boord to eat on; the table, or counter of Bankers, and Marchants; the Table, or Index of a booke; also, a Chesse-boord, or that whereon we play at Tables; also, a (square) plate of mettall; also, food, fare, diet, victualls, meat and drinke; In Law, the Fief, demaine, whole Seigniorie, or intire bodie of estate in land, belonging to a Lord, &c; whence, Mettre, & vnir, en sa Table, &c.

La table d'un Luc. The bellie of a Lute.

Tables rabbatuës. The Queenes Game, Doublets.

Table ronde. Open house-keeping; also, a merrie meeting, or feasting together of friends, and allies; also, a little round boord wheron the Pastissiers carrie their Pies, and Tarts from place to place.

Diamant en table. A square table Diamond.

Il est à table & n'ose manger. Either he is a coward and dare not, or a pinch-crust and will not, fall to the meat thats before him.

Revenir à la table de l'aisné. The part of a younger brother, or of his issue (deceased without naturall heirs) to reuert, or escheat vnto the eldest.

Tenir table. To banquet, or feast it euerie day in his house.

Tenir bonne table. To keepe a good table, to fare well.

Tenir longue table. To sit long at meat.

Table d'Abbé; ou de Prelat: Pro. A plentifull, or well-furnished boord.

Table sans sel bouche sans salive: Prov. An vnlearned discourse is (commonly) as vaine, as meate without salt's vnsauorie.

Table vaut escole notable: Prov. Table-discourse is an excellent Schoolemaister.

De grosse table à l'estable: Prov. Excessiue housekeeping makes Gentlemen turne Groomes.

Ronde table oste le debat: Prov. Round tables take away contention; one being as neere his meat as another.

Tableau: m. A picture; a table whereon things be painted, or written; a writing table; memoriall, register.

Tablée: f. A table-full of.

Tables. Playing Tables; Looke Table.

Tablette: f. A little table, or boord; also, a childes borne-booke.

Tablettes. Writing tables; also, the scales of a Hawks legs; also, Losenges, ministred in Physick.

Tablier: m. A Chesse-boord, or Table to play on; also, an Apron; also, a long, and large table-cloath; also, a tabler, or boorder.

Tablier de Notaire. A Scriueners shop, or booth.

Tabouler. To make a great noise or troublesome dinne; or, to knocke lowd and fast, like a Cooper in the hooping of caske.

Taborlan: m. A mightie Prince, or Potentate; or, a name of state, and dignitie (perhaps from Tamberlaine.)

Tabour: m. A Drumme; also, a Tabor.

Batre le tabour à coups d'offelets. To play at Dice on a Drummes head.

Tabouraſſe: f. A Drumme, or Tabor.

Tabourder. To play on a Drumme, or Tabor; (& thence) also, to rap, or knocke.

Tabourdeur: m. A Taborer, or Drummer.

Tabourement: m. A Drumming; also, a rapping, knocking, or thumping (as on a Drumme) at a doore, window, or other thing of wood; also, the noise, or dinne thats made thereby.

Tabourer. To drumme; also, to rap, knocke, or thumpe (as on a Drumme) at a woodden window, doore, &c; also, to strike, or bumpe on the Posteriorums.

Tabouret: m. A pinne-pillow, or pinne-case; also, a cushion stoole, or little low stoole for a woman or child to sit on; also, the flat base, or foot of a piller, resembling such a stoole; also, the hearbe Toywort, Caseweed, Pickpurse, Shepheards-purse.

Taboureur: m. A Drummer, or Taborer; also, a thumper, bumper, knocker; whoremunger.

Tabourin: m. A Tabor; also, a Drumme; and a little Drumme; also, the Drumme, or Drummer belonging to a Companie of footmen; also, a Timpanie in the bellie.

Tabourin de Basque. A kind of small, and shallow Drumme, or Tabor, open at the one end, and hauing the barrell stucke full of small bells, and other gingling knacks of lattin, &c, which, together with the Taborers fingers on the other end thats couered, make (in the ears of children and sillie people) a prettie noyse.

Tabourin de guerre. Is properly, the Drumme.

Tabourin des oreilles. A certaine skinne, or filme within the eares; thin, the more easily to receiue sounds and aire from without; yet strong, thereby to resist outward annoyances; and drie, the better to resound.

Chausses à tabourin. Ce sont chausses enflées de bourre, & grosses comme vn tambour.

Prendre le lievre au tabourin. To performe impossible matters; See Lievre.

Ce qui est venu par la fleute s'en retourne avec le tabourin: Pro. Looke vnder Fleute.

Tabouriner. To play on a Tabor; alſo, to drumme or ſtrike vp a Drumme.
Tabourineſſe: f. A woman that playes on a Tabor, or ſtrikes vp a Drumme.
Tabourinet: m. A Drumme, or Tabor for a child; a little Drumme, or Tabor; alſo, a little roome contriued in the corner of a ſquare hall with Tapiſtrie, or boords.
Mener au tabourinet. To inueagle, allure, lead by the noſe, draw whither, or to what, he liſt.
Tabourineur: m. A Taborer; one that playes on a Tabor.
Tabourineuſe. as Tabourineſſe.
Tabouriniere. The ſame.
Tabourne. as Tadorne.
Tabouter. as Tabuter.
Tabureau: m. A mocker, or ſcoffer.
Tabut: m. Trouble, turmoile, diſquiet, moleſtation.
Fagoteur de tabus. A ſeditious, turbulent, or troubleſome fellow.
Ce vilain ne vaut pas le tabut. Is not worth the beating, or not worth the paines one muſt take in the beating of him.
Tabuter. To ioult, butt, or puſh; to trouble, diſquiet, moleſt, infeſt; not to let alone one that would faine be in quiet.
Tac: m. A kind of rot among ſheepe; alſo, a Plague-ſpot, or Gods-token on one that hath the Plague; alſo, as Tal; alſo, the name of a ſtrange diſeaſe (raging in the yeare 1411) wherein the patient loſt both reſt, and appetite; feeling, whenſoeuer he did eat, a fit of an Ague; often coughing; euer trembling; and voiding, vpon his amendment, great ſtore of bloud at his mouth, noſe, and fundament.
Herbe du tac. Lungwort, wood Liuerwort.
Tacconnet. as Taconne.
Tache: f. A ſpot, ſtaine, blemiſh; mole, naturall marke; alſo, a reproach, diſgrace, diſreputation, blot vnto a mans good name.
Taches de fumier. Buds, or hard and bluiſh pimples, breaking out on the face.
Taché: m. ée: f. Spotted, blotted, ſtained, blemiſhed; diſgraced.
Tacher. To ſpot, blot, ſtaine, blemiſh; diſgrace; alſo, as Taſcher.
Tacheté: m. ée: f. Spotted, ſpeckled, marked.
Tacheter. To ſpot, ſpeckle, marke.
Tachette: f. A little ſpot, blot, ſtaine, blemiſh.
Tacheture: f. A ſpot, ſpecke, or ſpeckle; alſo, a ſpotting, ſpeckling, marking.
Tacite: com. Silent, ſtill, huſht, quiet; ſecret, couert, inward; holding his tongue, ſaying nothing; let paſſe without mention, paſſing on without any noyſe.
Tacitement. Silently, ſtilly, quietly, ſecretly, couertly, priuily, inwardly, without noiſe, without any words.
Taciturne: com. Silent, ſecret, holding his peace, vttering little, vſing few or no words of.
Taciturnité: f. Taciturnitie, ſecretneſſe, or ſecrecie, ſilence, counſell-keeping.
Tacle: m. Any (beaded) ſhaft, or boult, whoſe feathers be not waxed, but glued on.
Tacon: m. A little Salmon; or more properly, a kind of ſmall, and delicate Trout, caught in a riuer that paſſes by Clermont en Auvergne.
Taconne: f. The bearbo Fole-foot, Horſe-foot, Coults-foot, Hall-foot.
Taconner vn ſoulier. To cobble, clowt, or ſet a patch on it.
Taconnet: m. as Taconne.
Tacroux: m. ouſe: f. Sunne-burnt; growne verie bleake, or ſwart, by being all day in the Sunne; alſo, extreamely couetous, or miſerable.
Tadorne. A black-headed, and whitiſhbodied water-fowle, make ſomewhat like, but bigger then, a Ducke.
Taffetas: m. Taffata.
Taffetas chenillé. Stript Taffata.
Taffetas à gros grain. Silke Grogeram.
Taffetas mouſcheté. Tuffe-taffata.
Taffetas velouté. The ſame.
Tafforée: f. A horſe-boat; a great flat-bottomed boat, or ſhip to carrie horſes in.
Tahon: m. A Brizze, Brimſee, Gadbee, Dunflie, Oxeflie.
Tahon marin. The ſea Brizze; a kind of worme found about ſome fiſhes.
Tahou. Poire de Tahou. A ſmall peare whereof excellent perrie is made.
Taïe: f. A great grandmother: ¶Pic. alſo, as Taye.
Taige. A kind of vine: ¶Rab.
Tail. as Taillade: ¶Langued.
Taillable: com. Taxable, ſubiect or liable vnto taxes, which may be taxed; alſo, paying taxes.
Heritages taillables. Held by villeines, or by Villenage; by ſeruile tenants, or by a ſeruile tenure.
Taillablier. Seigneur tail. A Lord that taxes, or may taxe his tenants; or to whom taxe is due from them.
Taillade: f. A cut, ſlaſh, gaſh; a ſlit; a launcing, or ſlitting.
Taillade: com. ¶Langued. as Tailladé; whence;
Ribe taillade. A full-deepe ſhore; a ſhore, or ſide of a water of a plumpe, and downe-right depth.
Tailladé: m. ée: f. Cut, ſlaſhed, gaſhed, ſlit, launced, inciſioned.
Taillanderie: f. The ſmithie, or ſhop of a Taillandier.
Taillandier: m. A maker of Hatchets, hedging Bills, Axes, Chopping Kniues, and ſuch other great cutting Inſtruments, or tooles of yron.
Taillandier: m. ere: f. Cutting, or ſnipping off.
Taillant d'un ferrement. Th'edge of a toole.
Taillant: m. ante: f. Cutting, ſlitting, backing, gaſhing, nicking, notching, indenting, ingrauing; alſo, faſhioning, or proportioning.
Taille: f. A cut, ſlit, gaſh, notch, nicke; any inciſion; alſo, a cutting, ſlitting, gaſhing, notching, indenting, nicking; ingrauerie, carning; alſo, a iag, or ſhred; alſo, a tallie, or ſcore kept on a peece of wood; alſo, the ſharpeneſſe, keeneneſſe, or edge of a weapon, or toole; alſo, the proportion, ſize, or ſtature of man, or beaſt; alſo, the Tenor part in ſinging, &c; alſo, as Bois taillis; alſo, a tax, &c; (Looke the next marginall word.)
Taille douce. Looke vnder Doux.
Pierre de taille. Free ſtone.
Vin de la ſeconde taille. Wine that comes of the laſt preſſing, after the beſt of the grape hath beene ſqueezed out; (car taille ſe prend pour la coupeure du marc du vin, eſtant ſur le preſſoir, quand on le veut ſerrer derechef: ¶Nicot.)
Avoir bonne taille. A Tailor to cut a garment handſomely, or fitly for ſuch as are to weare it.
Cocher ſur la groſſe taille. (As wee ſay) to lay it on, (take it off who as will;) to ſpend, or borrow, exceeding much.
Il n'eſt de taille pour eſtre ſi mal traitté. He is not a man to be ſo abuſed; he is not fit to beare, or not likelie to brooke, ſuch iniuries.
De toute taille bon levrier: Prov. There are good and bad, valiant and cowardlie, ſtrong and weake, of all all ſhapes and ſizes.

Taille: f. A taske, or tax; a tallage, tribute, impoſition: (Les Tailles ne ſont point deuës de devoir ordinaire, ains ont eſté accordées durant la neceſsité des affaires ſeulement, ſayes Ragueau.) In old time they were permitted (onely) in foure caſes; viz. Nouvelle chevalerie; mariage de filles; voyage d'outre mer; & captivité: Since they haue been commonly leuied in time of war; and at length Charles the ſeuenth made them ordinarie.) Diuers French Lords haue a Taille from ſome of their vaſſalls, or tenants, as well as the King hath his from onely ſome of his ſubiects; I ſay onely ſome; becauſe all Gentlemen (of a Gentlemanlie profeſſion) all Clergie men; the Preſidents, and Conſeillers of Soueraigne Courts; the Maiſters of Requeſts, and Secretaries, of the Kings houſhold; the Secretaries, or Clerkes of the Chauncerie; the Gouernours, graduate Schollers, and diuers Officers, of Vniuerſities; the Burguers, and inhabitants of many great Townes; and ſome Officers, and others by ſpeciall priuiledge, are exempted from it.

Taille abonnée, ou abournée. For which the tenant is at a certaine yerelie rate with his Lord.

Taille franche. Due, in th'aforeſaid foure caſes, by freeholders, ou ceux qui tiennent heritages en franchiſe à devoir d'argent.

Taille iurée. Looke Iuré.

Taille mixte. Is impoſed on a mans houſe, and makes liable vnto it all his goods in what place, or part ſoeuer they be.

Taille mortaille. Which is leuied of villeines, or ſeruile tenants, yearely, and at the reaſonable pleaſure of the Lord, or as he and they can agree.

Tailles perſonnelles. Perſonall taxes; are impoſed vpon the perſons of men, according to their meanes.

Tailles reelles. Reall taxes; are impoſed, not on the perſons, but on their poſſeſſions, the which they follow; and proportioned vnto the rates ſet downe in a Cenſuel deſcription, or ſurney of them: nor are they tied onely to immouables; for the mouables (as Marchandiſe, and commodities) whereof gaine is made, are ſubiect vnto them.

Droict de taille. Looke vnder Droict.

Ville, & taille. C'eſt la ſeptaine, & le territoire de la ville.

Taillé: m. ée: f. Cut, ſliced, ſlit, gaſhed, ſlaſhed, hacked; nicked, notched, ingrauen, indented; alſo, made, faſhioned, proportioned; alſo, guelt, or ſpeyed; alſo, taxed, aſſeſſed.

Taillé d'avoir du mal. Deſtined, or borne to be miſerable. Taillé d'avoir du pire. Likelie to get the worſt.

Taillé de l'avoir. Like ynough, or in good forwardneſſe to haue it.

Beſongne taillée. The hands full, ynough to doe, as much as one can turne him to; Laiſſant leur beſongne ia taillée. Leauing their worke alreadie cut out, their buſineſſe begun, their labour halfe done.

Taille-bacon: m. A clunch, clowne, boore; one that vſually feeds on nought but Beanes and bacon.

Taille-boudin. Captaine cut-pudding.

Taille-bras: m. A backſter, arme-ſlaſher, cutter, ſwaggerer, ſwaſh-buckler.

Taille-brenton: m. as Taille-bras.

Taille-fer: m. The ſurname of the old Earles of Engouleſme; ſo tearmed becauſe William the ſecond Earle thereof, cloue, with his ſword, at one blow, an armed Captaine downe to the ſtomacke.

Taillement: m. A cutting, ſlicing, ſlitting, haſhing, ſlaſhing; nicking, notching, indenting; caruing, ingrauing; alſo, a guelding, or ſpeying.

Tailler. To cut, ſlit, ſlice, hew, hacke, ſlaſh, gaſh; nicke, ſnip, notch, indent; carue, graue; alſo, to gueld, or ſpey; alſo, to tax, impoſe taxes on, leuie tributes of.

Tailler de la boſongne à. Looke Taillé.

Tailler vn marc. To cut off the edges, or ſides of the mother of Grapes (alreadie hard preſſed, and which will runne no more) and throw thoſe cuttings into the middle of the preſſe, there to receiue, with the reſt, another ſqueeze.

Il eſt bien veau qui veau taille: Prov. He is a calfe that calues-fleſh cutteth; (A fit anſwer to a Butcher that calls a man Calfe.)

Taillerin: m. A ſlice of.

Taille-ſebe. as Courtilliere.

Taille-vent: m. A wind-cutter; an idle, or fond ſwaggerer.

Tailleur: m. A cutter, ſlitter, hewer, hacker, ſlaſher; Caruer, Grauer.

Tailleur d'habits. A Taylor.

Desieuné, ou morceau, de tailleur. A plumme.

Tailleure. as Taillure.

Taillis: m. A Hachee; or made diſh of Creuiſes, the fleſh of Capons, Chickens, or Veale, bread, wine, ſalt, verjuyce, and ſpices; alſo, a kind of gellie.

Taillis. Bois taillis. A copſe, groue, vnderwood; ſuch wood as is felled, or lopped euerie ſeuen or eight yeres.

Tailloir: m. A trencher, or trencher plate; alſo, the vppermoſt ſquare of the Chapter of a piller.

Mettre le col ſur le tailloir. To lay his head vpon the blocke.

Taillon: m. A little ſlice; cut, or gaſh; alſo, a great chipping knife; alſo, a tax raiſed by Henrie the ſecond, Anno 1549, towards the increaſe of the pay of the Genſdarmes (who vſually lay billeted in villages) and to enable them to pay their hoſts for whatſoeuer they had of them: Whereby poore countrey men got at the firſt, a little eaſe; but not long after they became as much oppreſſed by their vnrulie gueſts as euer; and yet they ſtill payed, and ſtill doe pay, both Taille, Taillon.

Taillonné: m. ée: f. Cut by ſlices, bits, or parcells.

Taillonneux: m. euſe: f. Full of ſlices, parcells, little bits.

Taillouer. as Talloir.

Taillure: f. A cutting, ſlicing, ſlitting, ſlaſhing, ſnipping, nicking, notching, indenting; caruing, or grauing; alſo, a ſlice, cut, ſlit, ſlaſh, &c.

Tainturier: m. A Dier.

Taïon: m. A great grandfather: Pic. alſo, an Oake of three loppings, or of 60. yeares growth.

Taire. To be ſilent, mumme, buſht, quiet, ſtill; to hold his peace, vſe no words of, make no noyſe; conceale, keepe ſecret, or vnto himſelfe.

Taire, & faire ſont requis par mer, & par terre: Prov. Be doing ſtill, and ceaſe to talke, whether by ſea, or land thou walke.

Bien dire fait rire, bien faire fait taire: Prov. Wee laugh at goood words, but admire good deeds.

Fols ſont ſages quand ils ſe taiſent: Prov. Fooles paſſe for wiſe men while they ſilent are.

Le plus ſage ſe taiſt: Prov. The wiſeſt man ſpeakes leaſt.

Mieux vaut ſe taire que mal parler: Prov. Better no words then words vnfitly placed.

Oy, voy, & te tais, ſi tu veus vivre en paix: Prov. Looke vnder Ouïr.

Quand d'autruy parler tu voudras, regarde toy, & te te tairas: Prov. When on another thou wouldst raile, behold thy ſelfe, thy tongue will quaile.

Qui de tout ſe taiſt de tout a paix: Prov. He that holds his peace of, is at peace with, all men.
Tairir. as Tarir; To drie vp.
Tais: m. A potſhard; alſo, a ſcull, or ſcalpe; alſo, a ſhell, or great ſcale.
Taiſer. Looke Taire.
Taiſible: com. Still, ſilent, quiet, huſht.
Taiſiblement. Silently, quietly, ſtilly.
Taiſſon: m. A Gray, Brocke, Badger, Bauſon; of two kinds.
Taiſſon chemin. The dog Badger; footed, and ſnowted ſomewhat like a dog; blacker, and longer-legd then the Porchin; feeds on fleſh, and carrion; and voyds his ordure farre from his earth; whichhe makes (either in a tough ſoyle, or in ſome rocke) both deeper, and narrower, then the other doth his.
Taiſſon porchin. The hog Badger; is footed, & ſnowted like a ſwine; feeds on roots, and fruits; and dungs in the mouth of his earth, which hee, commonly, makes in a ſandie, or light ſoyle: he ſleepes verie much, and is thereby much fatter, & (for ſuch as can eat of him) better meat then th'other.
Tal: m. Oyle extracted from the berries of the Crimzon, or prickle Cedar.
Talaires: m. Mercuries winged ſhooes.
Talare: com. Reaching, or hanging downe to the heeles, or ankles.
Talc: m. A tender and tranſparent ſtone, which indures extreame heat, and cold, without breaking, and hath beene heretofore vſed in ſtead of glaſſe.
Talemouſe. as Talmouſe; alſo, a cuffe, or daſh on the lips.
Talemouſer. To cuffe, or daſh on the lips; alſo, to vex, harrie, trouble, toile, moleſt.
Talent: m. A talent in money; of diuers ſorts; one worth about 175 l. ſterl. another 291 l. and a noble; and another 400 l. alſo, will, deſire, luſt, appetite, an earneſt humor vnto.
Talenté: m. ée: f. Verie deſirous of, eager vpon, earneſt after.
Taleoles: m. Shiuers, or ſlices of a ſticke, or of a root.
Tales. Dice; alſo, the game tearmed Cockall.
Talion: m. A paine equall to harme done, a puniſhment counteruailing the offence committed; one bad turne for another.
Talle: f. as Thale; alſo, a ſhoot, ſprig, bud.
Tallemellier: m. A hedge-baker. (v.m.)
Taller: m. The coyne tearmed a Dollar.
Taller[illegible]oke Thaller.
Tallevas: m. A large, maſſiue, and old-faſhioned Targuet, hauing in the bottome of it a pike, whereby, when need was, it was ſtucke into the ground.
Tallut. as Talus.
Talmouſe: f. A Cheeſe-cake; a Tart, or cake made of egges, and cheeſe.
Taloche: f. A bob, or a rap ouer the fingers ends cloſed together.
Taloché: m. ée: f. Rapped, or bobbed ouer the fingers ends.
Talon: m. The heele, a beele.
Talon du gouvernail. The bottome of the backe of the rudder.
Le talon d'un ſoulier. The heele-part of the ſole.
Chauſſer les talons à. To courſe, purſue neere, giue hard chaſe vnto.
Iouër des talons. To ſhew a faire paire of heeles, betake him to his legs, runne away.
Talonné: m. ée: f. Kicked, ſpurred, or ſtrucken with the heeles; alſo, hard chaſed, hotly followed, neerely purſued.
Talonnement: m. A kicking, ſpurring, ſtriking, or beating with the heeles; alſo, a hard chaſing, neere purſuing, cloſe following; alſo, a digging with the heeles in the ſides of a horſe.
Talonner. To kicke, ſpurre, ſtrike, or beat, with the heeles; alſo, to chaſe hard, follow hotly, purſue cloſely, tread on the heeles of; alſo, to ſpurgall, or to ride digging with the heeles into a horſes ſides.
Talonneux: m. euſe: f. Vſing, or hauing heeles.
Talonniere: f. A treading on or downe, a ſpurring or ſtriking with, the heele.
Talque. as Talc.
Talu: m. uë: f. Slope, ſloping, ſlopewiſe, a ſlope.
Maiſon taluë. A houſe whoſe bottome is fenced from the raine that falls off the eaues, by water-tables, or boords, ſet off from the wall.
Talvaſier: m. A long lowt or lubber, fond luske or ſlimme, fooliſh or vnfaſhioned loggerhead.
Taluër. To ſlope, to ſet, cut, or make a ſlope.
Talure: f. The blue marke of a blow, bruiſe, or hurt.
Talus: m. A ſlope, ſloping, ſlopeneſſe, or ſlopineſſe; alſo, the ſloping ſide, or deſcent of a hill, banke, or cauſey; (and ſometimes) alſo, the banke, or cauſey it ſelfe; alſo, the head-boope of a peece of caske; alſo, a great furrow in ploughing.
Foſſé en talus. A narrow-bottomed, and wide-mouthed ditch.
Taluſant: m. ante: f. Sloping, made or deſcending a-ſlope.
Talut, & Taluz. as Talus.
Taluzer. To build, or make a ſlope.
Tam: m. Blacke Brionie, our Ladies Seale, the wild Vine.
Tamaridin. as Tamarind.
Tamarin. as Tamaris.
Tamarind: m. A ſmall, ſoft, and darke-red Indian Date, of a laxatiue propertie, and a good purger of the heat of choller.
Tamarinde: f. The Indian Date tree.
Tamaris: m. Tamariske; a ſhrub, or ſmall tree, red-barked, and leaued like Heath.
Tamaris ſauvage. Wild Tamariske; is leſſe then the other, and beares no fruit at all; ſome alſo call thus, Heath, Ling, or Hather, becauſe it reſembles the wild Tamariske.
Tambour: m. A Drumme; alſo, a Tabor.
Batre le tambour avec les dents. To didder, or chatter with the teeth for cold.
Prendre les lievres au ſon du tambour. Seeke Lievre.
Vn fol deſſus vn pont c'eſt vn tambour en la Riviere: Prov. A foole on a bridge is a Drumme in the riuer; viz. makes it reſound by his madde thumping, leaping, or dauncing ouer it.
Tambrays. as Eſtambres.
Tambu: m. The baſtard Pepper plant called Bettle, or Betre, ſometimes (but improperly) taken for the Indian Leaſe.
Tamis: m. A ſearce, or boulter; (alſo, a ſtrayner) made of haire.
Tamiſé: m. ée: f. Searced, or boulted; alſo, ſtrained through a ſearce.
Tamiſer. To ſearce; to boult; alſo, to paſſe or ſtraine through a ſearce.
Tamoulenant. Pondering, muſing, ſtudying.

Tampon : m. A bung, or ſtopple.
Colin tampon. See Colin.
Tan : m. The barke of young Oake, wherewith (being ſmall-beaten) leather is tanned ; alſo, as Tahon ; alſo, as Tam ; alſo, furie, enragednesse, frenzie, madneſſe.
Moulin à tan. A Tanners mill.
Tanaiſie : f. The hearbe Tanſie.
Tanaiſie ſauvage. Wild Tanſie, Siluer hearbe.
Tancer. Looke Tanſer.
Tanche : f. A Tench (fiſh.)
Tançon : f. A chiding, checking, rebuking, reprouing.
Tandiment. as Tandis (at Blois.)
Tané : m. ée : f. Tanned ; alſo, troubled, moleſted, irked, wearied, ouertoyled ; alſo, ſwart, ſallow, duskie, or tawnie of hue, as things which haue beene tanned, or people which are ouertoyled.
Tanée : f. The hearbe Feauerfue ; or a male kind thereof (held by ſome, but improperly, a third kind of Mugwort) which expelleth wormes, diſſolueth windineſſe ; and as an enemie to the ſtone, prouoketh vrine to come.
Tanelliere : f. The Worme-fretter ; a worme which maketh holes in the ſides of ſhips.
Taner. To tanne ; alſo, to die into a tawnie ; alſo, to trouble, irke, moleſt, harrie, ouertoile.
Tanerie : f. as Tannerie.
Taneſie : f. The hearbe Tanſie ; Looke Tanaiſie.
Taneur : m. A Tanner.
Taneuſe : f. A Tanners wife, or woman which tannes.
Tangible : com. Tangible, touchable.
Tangueurs : m. Looke Tanqueurs.
Taniere : f. A denne, caue, burrow ; the lurking hole of a wild beaſt.
Tanné : m. ée : f. Tawnie ; alſo, duskie, ſwart, ſallow.
Maſtines tannées. Ouglie or ill-coloured bitches, fell and ill-fauoured queanes.
Tannée : f. The hearbe Tanſie.
Tanner. Looke Taner.
Tannerie : f. Tanning ; the Art, or act of Tanning ; alſo, a Tanne-houſe, or place wherein leather is tanned.
Tanneur : m. A Tanner.
Tanquard : m. A Tankard : ¶Rab.
Tanqueurs : m. Such as carrie aſhore ſtuffe, or perſons, out of ſhip-boats.
Tanſé : m. ée : f. Chidden, checked, rebuked, reproued.
Tanſement : m. A chiding, checking, rebuking, reprouing.
Tanſer. To chide, rebuke, checke, taunt, reproue, take vp.
Tanſon : m. A chiding, checking, brawling, ſcolding with ; a taunting, rebuking, reprouing.
Tanſonnier : m. ere : f. Chiding, or full of chiding.
Tant. So, as, ſo great, ſo much, or ſo many ; as well, as deere, or as worthie ; in ſort, in ſuch manner.
Tant & ſi fort. Vntill, ſo long as, in as much as, ſo much that.
Tant & plus. Mainly, hugely, mightily, infinitely, as much as may be.
Tant ſeulement. Onely.
Tant ſoit peu. How little ſoeuer ; or, neuer ſo little.
Tant ſoit peu trop. A thought too much, or (at bowls) too hard.
Tant pour tant. Ratably, proportionably, mutually, one for another.
A tant. Thus, by this, hereupon or thereupon, this or that done ; therewithall ; at length ; immediately after.
Ne tant ne quant. Neuer a iot, nor one nor another, not one whit.
Si tant eſt. If ſo be that, or, if it happen that.
Douze eſcus tant ſous. Twelue Crowns odde money ; 300 tant d'eſcus ; 300 and odde Crownes.
Tantan : m. The bell that hangs about the necke of a cow, &c.
Tante : f. An aunt ; alſo, a tent ; alſo, a hanging of Tapiſtrie, &c.
Tantieſme : m. whence ; Le tantieſme du mois. Such a day certaine of the moneth.
Tantinet : m. vn tan. A little, ſmall deale, poore quantitie, neuer ſo little.
Tantoſt. Anon, forthwith, immediately, preſently, incontinently, by and by ; alſo, one while, ſometimes, now and then.
Tantouiller. To tumble, to wallow, to welter in.
Taon. as Tahon.
Tapecon : m. The Heauen-gazer ; a ſcaleleſſe ſea-fiſh (of the bigneſſe of a foot) hauing a wide mouth, and a great head, on whoſe top his eyes (wherewith he lookes directly vpward) are placed.
Tape-coüe : m. A taile-knocker, bellie-bumper, haire-beater, extreame lecher.
Tapeinois. as Tapinois.
Taper. To tap, or ſtrike : ¶Pic. alſo, to ſtop.
Taphorée : f. as Taforée.
Tapi : m. ie : f. Hidden ; lurking, lying cloſe ; low crooched, ſcowked, ſquatted, dowked or ducked downe.
Tapinaudiere : f. A denne, or lurking hole.
Tapinet : m. The ſame ; or, a ſecret corner, a ſtarting hole.
Tapineux : m. euſe : f. Lurking, ſecret, couert, hidden, cloſe.
Tapinois. en tap. Crooching, lurking, skowking, lying cloſe and ſtill, ducking for feare of being ſeene ; alſo, couertly, cloſely, ſecretly.
Contenu en tapinois. Held low, kept vnder.
Tapir. To hide, conceale, couer, keepe cloſe.
Se tapir. To hide, or couer himſelfe ; to crooch, lurke, ſquat, or ducke vnder, to lye cloſe, for feare of being ſeene.
Tapir des pieds contre la terre. To make holes in the ground by hard ſtamping on it.
Tapis : m. Tapiſtrie, hangings, &c, of Arras.
Sourd comme vn tapis. As deafe as an Image in a painted cloth.
Il demeura maiſtre du tapis. He got the ſpurres ; became commaunder of the place ; woon the crowne, honour, victorie.
Mettre ſur le tapis. viz. en deliberation.
Reduict au tapis. At an extreame low ebbe of fortune ; cleane out of requeſt, imployment, or meanes ; and in game, that hath loſt all his money, thats brought to the bare boord.
Tapiſſant. ſe tap. Hiding, or couering himſelfe ; crooching, lurking, ducking, ſquatting.
Tapiſſement : m. A hiding of himſelfe ; a lurking, ſquatting, lying cloſe, a crooching, skowking, or ducking downe ; alſo, a furniſhing with Tapiſtrie.
Tapiſſer. To hang, or furniſh with Tapiſtrie ; alſo, to work Tapiſtrie worke ; alſo, as Tapir.
Tapiſſerie : f. Tapiſtrie.
Tapiſſier : m. A Tapiſtrie-maker, or one that worketh in Tapiſtrie.
Tapon : m. A bung, or ſtopple.
Taponnus. A made name for a dunce ; or in ſtead of Pontanus : ¶Rab.
Tappecon. as Tapecon.
Tapper. whence ; Iouër au tapper. To play at Spanne-counter.

Tap-

Tapper. To ta… with a bung
Tappi. as Ta…
Taquain : m…
Taquain. (A…
Taquet : m. … poſt, &c, to … ſo, the clapp…
Taquet. as T…
Taquette. w… hard, or eag…
Taquin : m. … pinch-cruſt, … companion.
Taquinerie : … pinching.
Tar : m. A kin…
Tarabin tara… our, piſh piſh
Tarabuſter. …
Taraire. as T…
Tarande : f. …
Tarantole : f… called ſo of t… which there … Italie.
Taraſcon. A… Rhoſne, inſ… caire ; when… Entre Beau… ny mouton … all the grou…
Taravelle : f.
Tarault. as T…
Tarc. A kind … and (for ſom…
Tard : m. tar… long in comi…
Tard. (Adver… Qui tard v… ly will not a… Qui bien fa… that is done
Tardance : f… ſtaying in a …
Tardé : m. ée …
Tardelet : m. … tedious.
Tardement.
Tarder. To t… linger, forſ… off, bold ba… Il me tarde… Quoy que… the ſmale tr…
Tard-fleury … a Tennis-b…
Tardif : m. it… backward, … lither, lurk…
Tardité. Tar…
Tardiveme… vnweldily, …
Tardiver. To … it, layter, or …
Tardiveté : … delay, tedio… neſſe, dulne…

Tapper. To tap, ſtrike, hit, bob, clap; alſo, to bung, or ſtop with a bung.
Tappi. as Tapi.
Taquain: m. as Taquin.
Taquain. (Adverb.) Suddenly, or at the ſame inſtant.
Taquet: m. A brace, or peece of wood nailed againſt a poſt, &c, to keepe another from ſhaking, or ſlipping; alſo, the clapper of a mill.
Taquet. as Taquain (Adverb.)
Taquette. whence; Beſongner à la taquette; To worke hard, or eagerly; to ſit at it: (¶ Orleannois.)
Taquin: m. A niggard, miſer, micher, penie-father, pinch-cruſt, hold-faſt; alſo, a Porter, or any ſuch baſe companion.
Taquinerie: f. Sordide miſerie, wretched miching, baſe pinching.
Tar: m. A kind of Weeſell.
Tarabin tarabas. An Interiection of interruption, like our, piſh piſh, tut tut, &c.
Tarabuſter. See Tabuter.
Taraire. as Tariere.
Tarande: f. The beaſt called a Buffe.
Tarantole: f. The moſt venomous Spider Tarantola; called ſo of the Neapolitan Citie Taranta, neere vnto which there be more of them then in any other part of Italie.
Taraſcon. A towne in Provence ſeated vpon the Rhoſne, iuſt ouer againſt another towne, called Beaucaire; whence;
Entre Beaucaire, & Taraſcon ne paiſt ny brebis, ny mouton: Prov. For that great riuer drownes vp all the ground thats betweene them.
Taravelle: f. A Gardeners ſetting yron.
Tarault. as Tariere; alſo, as Tarots.
Tarc. A kind of Tarre, wherewith ſheepe are marked, and (for ſome ſcabbie diſeaſes) annointed.
Tard: m. tarde: f. Tardie, late, ſlack, tedious, lingering, long in comming.
Tard. (Adverb.) Late, lately, tardily, ſlackly, lingeringly.
Qui tard veut ne veut: Pro. He that will not quickly will not at all.
Qui bien fait tard eſt reprenable: Pro. A good turn that is done too late, is ſubiect vnto blame, and hate.
Tardance: f. A tarriance, lingering, delay, loitering, long ſtaying in a place.
Tardé: m. ée: f. Tarried, ſtayed, deferred, delayed.
Tardelet: m. ette: f. Latiſh, or, ſomewhat tardie, ſlow, tedious.
Tardement. Tardily, lately, lingeringly, tediouſly.
Tarder. To tarrie, ſtay, demurre, abide long; deferre, linger, foreſlow, delay; to ſtop, let, hinder, ſlacken, put off, hold backe, withhold.
Il me tarde que. I thinke long till.
Quoy que ſoit tarde iour ne tarde: Prov. Though the foole tarrie day-light tarries not.
Tard-fleury: m. A verie ſweet apple of the bigneſſe of a Tennis-ball.
Tardif: m. iue: f. Tardie, ſlow, ſlacke, lingering, remiſſe; backward, lateward, long in comming; dull, vnweldie, lither, lazie.
Tardité. Tarditie; or as Tardiveté.
Tardivement. Tardily, ſlackly, remiſſly, ſlowly, dully, vnweldily, lazily, litherly.
Tardiver. To linger, foreſlow, ſlacke, delay, wire-draw it, leyter, or ſtay long in a place.
Tardiveté: f. Tardineſſe, loitering, ſlackneſſe, lingering, delay, tedioſneſſe; backwardneſſe, coldneſſe, remiſneſſe, dulneſſe, lazineſſe, vnweldineſſe.

Tardoune. Looke Tadorne: ¶ Rab.
Tare: f. Loſſe, diminution, decay, impairement, want, or waſt in Marchandiſe, &c, by the exchange, or vſe thereof; alſo, the allay, or imbaſement of gold or ſiluer coynes.
Il n'eſt cheval qui n'ait ſa tare: Prov. He is liueleſſe who is faultleſſe.
Taré: m. ée: f. Defectiue, waſting, droſſie, corrupt: out caſt, hurtfull, dãmageous, which none poſſeſſeth without hinderance, or loſſe; whoſe vſe counteruailes not the charge one is at about it; alſo, worme-eaten, or full of holes.
Tarefranc: m. &, Tarefranche: f. as Glorieuſe.
Tarelet: m. A little Augar.
Tarelle: f. An Augar.
Tareronde: f. The Forke-fiſh; a kind of Scate which hath in her taile an indented, and venomous pricke.
Targe: f. A kind of Targuet, or Shield, almoſt ſquare, & much in vſe along the Spaniſh coaſt lying ouer againſt Affrick, from whence it ſeemes the faſhion of it came.
Il n'a eſcu ny targe. Looke vnder Eſcu.
Targé: m. ée: f. as Tardé; alſo, couered, ſhielded, ſhrowded vnder.
Targement: m. A tarrying, lingering, delaying, long ſtaying; alſo, a couering, ſhielding, or ſhrowding vnder.
Targer. as Tarder (Among old Authors;) alſo, to ſhield, couer, ſhrowd vnder.
ſe Targer d'une raiſon. To arme, fortifie, defend, or excuſe, himſelfe by a reaſon.
Targette: f. A kind of ſnacket, or baſpe, wherwith caſemates, &c, are cloſed.
Targon: m. The hearbe Tarragon.
Targue. as Targe.
Targué: m. ée: f. Shielded; armed, or couered with a Targuet.
Tari: m. ie: f. Dried vp, drained of naturall moiſture; withered, without any manner of ſap.
Tarier: m. The bird called a Bunting.
Tariere: f. An Augar.
Tariere à boiſte. A Wimble.
Tariffe: f. Waſt paper to bind vp ſmall wares in; alſo, Arithmetick, or the caſting of accounts.
Tarin: m. A little ſinging bird, hauing a yellowiſh bodie, and an aſh-coloured head.
Tarir. To drie, ſoake, wither vp; to draine of naturall moiſture.
Tarle: m. A wood-worme, or wood-moath.
Tarlé: m. ée: f. Worme-eaten.
Tarmées: f. Thick magots; or ſhort and hairie wormes, oftentimes breeding in the fundaments of horſes; alſo, wood-wormes.
Tarots: m. A kind of great cards, wherein many ſeuerall things are figured; which make them much more intricate then ordinarie ones.
Tarquet: m. A kind of little dog, or hound, vſually kept by Ladies, and Gentlewomen.
Tarracier: m. as Terraſier.
Tarré: m. ée; f. Hauing an ouerture, or hole; or as Taré.
Tarſe de l'oeil. The griſtle whereon the haire of the eye-lids groweth.
Tarſe du pied. The firſt part of the foot next to the leg, and anſwerable to the wriſt of the hand; containes, or conſiſts of, ſeuen bones.
Tartaire: m. A Tartarie Faulcon.
Tartaraſſe: f. A Tortoiſe.
Tartare. Tartar; Looke Tartre.
Tartarin: m. The water-bird called a Kings-fiſher.

Tartarot: m. A Barbarie Faulcon; or rather as Tartaire.

Tarte: f. A Tart.

Tarte Bourbonnoiſe. A mire, bog, ſlough, deepe and durtie place.

Tarte Iacobine. A Tart made of fat cheeſe, the yolkes of egges, ſweet butter, Suger, and ſalt, all mingled, and layed in paſt, together.

Tarte rouge. Another made of apples ſteeped in red wine, Sugar, Powder-Cynnamon, and ſweet butter; then ſtrained, and laid in paſt.

Payer la tarte de ſa nativité. To make a feaſt, or banquet on his birth-day.

On ſe ſaoule bien de manger tartes: Prov. Sweets quickly breed ſacietie.

Tartelages: m. Tarts; meats like vnto Tarts; or, things that belong to, or be fit for, Tarts.

Tartelette: f. A little Tart.

Tartelle; ou, Tartenelle: f. A whirligig.

Tartinages. as Tartelages.

Tarton-raire. Gutwort; a beautifull, and extreamely-purging French ſhrub, or ſhrub-like hearbe.

Tartre: m. Tartar, or Argall; the lees or dregs that ſticke to the ſides of wine-veſſels; hard and drie like a cruſt; ſound, and ſo cloſe compacted, that you may beat it vnto powder.

Tartriere: f. A Jag; the Spurre-rowell-like inſtrument wherewith Paſtiſſiers make indented iags; alſo, a Tart-panne.

Tarugue: f. An Indian beaſt which hath hanging eares; liueth alone, and without any trouping, among rockes; and breeds a kind of Beazer ſtone.

Tas: m. A heape, a pile, a bundle; a deale, ſort, rabble, companie, troupe.

Tas de charge. The roote of a vault; the ſtones whereby it is begun, or which doe ſerue as foundations to all the ſeuerall branches thereof.

Taſche: f. A taske.

En bloc, & en taſche. Tag and rag, all together, one with another.

Taſché: m. ée: f. Indeuored, laboured, attempted, eſſayed, gone about; alſo, tasked.

Taſchement: m. An indeuoring, labouring, attempting, eſſaying; alſo, a tasking.

Tascher. To indeuor, labour, attempt, eſſay, offer, or goe about, to doe a thing; alſo, to taske, or appoint a taske vnto.

Ie n'y taſchois point. I did it not of purpoſe.

Taſſe: f. A bole, or cup to drinke in; alſo, a tuffe of graſſe; alſo, a bag, or pouch.

Taſſe de foing. A bundle, or truſſe of hay.

Taſſé: m. ée: f. Heaped, piled; made vp into truſſes, or bundles.

Taſſer. To heape or pile vp; to make into truſſes, or bundles.

Taſſette: f. A little cup; alſo, the skirt of a garment; & the taſſe of an Armor (in which ſence it is moſt commonly vſed plurally) alſo, the hearb Shepheards-purſe, Pick-purſe, Toywort, poore mans Parmacetie.

Taſſot: m. A Newt, or Aske.

Taſtement: m. A taſting; or eſſaying; alſo, a handling, feeling, touching; a groping for.

Taſter. To taſt; or take an eſſay of; alſo, to handle, feele, touch, or grope for.

Taſte-vin: m. A Broker for Wine-marchants, a Wine-cunner.

Taſton. whence; Aller à taſtons. To feele, or grope along as he goes.

Les manches à taſtons. The ſleeues drawne out with puffes.

Parler à taſton. To ſpeake by gheſſe or coniecture, onely to harpe at the matter.

Taſtonnant. Feeling, groping; handling, touching, ſtroking.

Aller taſtonnant. as Aller à taſtons.

Taſtonnement: m. A groping, feeling; handling, touching, ſtroking.

Taſtonner. To feele, grope; touch, handle, ſtroke.

Tate-vin. Looke Taſte-vin.

Tatin: m. A little, ſmall quantitie, poore deale.

Tatou: m. A kind of long-tailed Hedge-hog, which in ſtead of a pricklie, hath (ſomewhat like the Tortoiſe) a ſkalie coat, whereinto, in times of danger, he drawes vp himſelfe.

Tavaillole: f. A Cuſhion-cloth; or a good big peece of linnen (commonly wrought) and ſeruing as a couer for night-clothes, &c, or to the bag wherein they be kept.

Tavaïolle. as Tavaillole; (and the better word.)

Tavan: m. A Brizze, &c; as Tahon: ¶ Langued.

Tavan de mer. The ſea Brizze; reſembles a big Cheſlop, and hath ſixteene feet, each whereof is armed with a hooke, or crooked nayle: Thus vermine lodging himſelfe vnder the finnes of the Dolphin, and Tunnie, &c, afflicts them as much as the land Brizze doth an Oxe.

Tavayole: f. Looke Tavaïolle.

Taudir. To couer boothes in Faires, &c, with canuas, or with raw cloth, &c.

se Taudir. To couer, ſhrowd, ſhelter, hide himſelfe, to skowke, or ducke, vnder.

Taudis: m. The roofe, or vault of a houſe; any ſhrowd, or ſhelter made roofe-wiſe; and thence, a Targuet-fence, or a defenſiue engine, vnder which approaches are made, or breaches entred, by ſouldiers; alſo, a Taylors boord, or ſtall; alſo, the couer of a booth, or ſtall; alſo, a foule, ſluttiſh, vnhandſome, or vndreſſed roome.

Vn taudis tout chargé de vaiſſelle d'or. A Cupboord of golden plate; or a Goldſmithes booth, or ſtall, ſet thicke therewith.

Tavelé: m. ée: f. Spotted, ſpeckled, mennelled.

Taveler. To ſpot, or beſpeckle; to marke with ſpots of ſundrie colours.

Tavelle: f. A ſmall edging lace; a Crowne-lace.

Tavellement: m. A ſpotting, or ſpeckling, a marking with ſpots of ſundrie colours.

Tavelliere: f. The little worme called a Wood-fretter.

Tavelure: f. as Tavellement.

Taverdette: f. A kind of plague.

Taverne: f. A Tauerne; is alſo (in ſome few places no better then) a victualling houſe.

Tavernage: m. The penaltie inflicted on a Vintner, or Wine-drawer, that hath ſold his wine at a higher rate then was ſet him by the Magiſtrate.

Taverneur: m. eure: f. Frequenting Tauernes.

Tavernoux: m. euſe: f. as Taverneur; alſo, full of Tauernes.

Tavernier: m. A Vintner, Tauerne-keeper, Wine-drawer; alſo (in ſome places) a Victuallar, of whom (as in our Tauernes of London) one may haue meat, and drink for his money.

Le Tavernier s'enyvre de ſa taverne: Prov. Looke Enyvrer.

Tavernière: f. A woman that keepes, or haunts, a Tauerne; a woman that ſells, or ſwills, much wine.

Taves: f. Red pimples, or freckles on the face.

Tau-

Taulache: f. A little Targuet, or Buckler.
Taulpe: f. The little beast called a Mole, or Moldewarp.
Fourmage de taulpe. Heauie, or sad cheese.
Royaume des taulpes. The earth.
Fouïeur des taulpes. A Mole-catcher.
Foüir aux taulpes. To decease, to die.
Taulpetier: m. A Mole-catcher.
Taulpin. franc taulpin. A trained man, or souldier, made of a husbandman; also, a chuffe, boore, swaine, hind.
Taulpiniere: f. A Molehill, or hole; Seeke Taupiniere.
Taunć. Looke Tanné.
Taupe: f. A Mole; Seeke Taulpe.
Taupiere: f. An impostume, or soft swelling in the head, wherein it makes a hole somewhat like that which a Mole roots in the ground.
Taupiniere: f. A Molehill, or hole.
Taupinniere d'assassinateurs. A denne of murtherers.
Taure: f. Small Lunarie, Small Moonewort.
Taureau: m. A Bull; also, the signe Taurus.
Mener la genisse au taureau. To bring the Heyfer to the Bull; to sell a virginitie, prostitute a maid; or (any way) to bring a wench to a mans bed.
Boy le vin comme roy, boy l'eau comme taureau: Prov. Drinke little wine, and much water; or, drinke wine moderately, water abundantly.
Taureliere: f. A Cow that affects, or longs for, the Bull.
Taurillon: m. A young, or little Bull.
Taute: f. A Calamarie, or Sleeue-fish; resembles the sea Cut, or Cuttle-fish, and being skared, powres out a red liquor; also, a roller, or a round truncheon, laid vnder a great stone, &c, the more easily to remoue it.
Tauter. To lay a roller, &c, vnder a beauie thing, the better to remoue it.
Tautte. as Taute.
Taux: m. A taxation, or estimation; a taxing, assessing, rating, or prizing of things.
Il en aura le taux du luge. He will sure, and soone ynough, heare of it to his cost; he will surely be paid, or soundly be beaten, for it.
Tauxation: f. A taxation, taxing, rating, assessing, setting downe a certaintie in.
Tauxe: f. as Taux.
Tauxer. To tax, rate, assesse, make a certaine estimate of, set a certaine price or scantling on; to allow costs and charges vnto.
Tauxeur: m. A rater, taxer, assessor, prisor, praisor.
Taxaté d'un despens. A taxation of th'expences in, or charges of, a suit.
Taxation. as Tauxation.
Taxe: f. as Taux.
Taxé: m. ée: f. Taxed, rebuked, checked, reprehended, reproued; disparaged, disabled; also, assessed.
Taxer. To tax, checke, taunt, rebuke, reprehend, reproue; disgrace, disable, disparage; also, as Tauxer.
Taye: f. Any filme, or thinne skinne; as that which is left by Butchers, on th'inside of a breast of Veale, quarter of Lambe, &c; and hence, a pin or web in th'eye, a white filme ouergrowing the eye; also, the wooddie skin whereby the kernell of a wallnut is almost quartered; also, the sappie heart, pith, or middle, of a Pine tree, diuided into slices, and vsed by some of the poorer French, in stead of candles.
Vne tayę d'oreiller. A Pillowbeere.
Dure taye. Th'outward skinne of the braine; the double skinne whereby it is couered, and kept from being hurt or touched by the skull.

Tayeux: m. euse: f. Skinnie, filmie; full of skinnes, or filmes; also, troubled with a pin, or web in the eye.
Tayon: m. A grandfather; also, an Oake of 60 yeares growth.
Te. (The Pronowne) thee.
Té. A voyce which is vsed by the French when they call a dog.
Tect: m. The roofe, or couer of a house; also, a stye, or bouse to keepe hogs, or geese in.
Tede: f. The fat pith, or heart of the Pine tree, called by some the Torch tree; tis also (and most properly) the whole stocke thereof turned heart, or of so fat and rosinie a substance, that lights may be (and by the clownes of Auvergne are) made of it.
Tei. as Té; a voyce whereby dogs be called.
Teigne: f. Scurfe, or a hot scabbinesse, on the head; the scurfe of a scauld pate; also, the weed Strangle-tare, Tenentare, Tine, Strangleweed, Choakweed, Choakstich; also, a Moath.
Teigne de lin. Dodder.
Teigne de thym. Laced Time, Dodder Time.
Teigneux: m. euse: f. Scuruie, scauld-pated.
Herbe aux teigneux. Butter-burre.
Troix teigneux, & vn pelé. A messe, or small troupe of scuruie, or paultrie fellowes: ¶Rab.
Femme trop piteuse fait sa famille teigneuse: Pro. A tender housewife makes a tainted household.
Iamais teigneux n'aima le peigne: Pro. No scauld-pate will the combe indure.
Teille: f. The rind, or pilling of hempe, &c.
Teiller. To pill, strip, scale, or shale hempe, &c.
Teillet. as Tillet.
Teinct: m. A tincture, die, staine; complexion, colour, hue; also, Shoomakers blacke; Looke Teint.
Teinct: m. cte: f. Died, stained, coloured, imbued.
Teincture: f. A tincture, dying, staining, colouring; also, the stuffe wherewith, or colour whereof, a thing is dyed.
Teincture sourde. Looke vnder Sourd.
Teincturerie: f. A die-house.
Teincturier: m. A Dier.
Herbe aux teincturiers. Madder.
Teincturiere: f. A Diers wife; or, a woman Dier.
Teindre. To die, staine, colour, imbue, dip in colour.
Teint: m. as Teinct; a die, &c; whence;
Ioye au coeur fait beau teint: Pro. Hearts-ioy giues to the face a beauteous tincture; a cheerefull conscience cleeres the countenance.
Teinter. To twang, like the string of a hard-bent bow.
Teinture, &c. as Teincture, &c.
Tel: m. telle: f. Such, like, resembling, such like.
Il n'y a quelque chose de tel. There is no such matter.
Entre tels tel deviendras: Prov. Among such thou wilt be such; their cõpanie will make thee like them; or, among such be such; fit thy selfe to thy companie.
Telamons: m. Great ships; also, supporters, or supporting Images in buildings.
Telant. vin telant. Thicke, or clammie wine; wine that ropeth.
Tele: f. as Toile.
Teleniaban. Manna: ¶Rab.
Telephion. Orpin, Liblong, Liue-long; or most properly, that kind thereof which is called ioynted Orpin, Spanish Orpin, and Hungarian Orpin.
Telier: m. A Linnen weauer.
Teline: f. as Flion: ¶Langued.
Tellement. So, in sort, in such wise, in that fashion.
Tellement quellement. Indifferently, reasonably, so so, not too well.

Telline: f. as Flion: ¶Langued.
Telon. as Tirataine.
Tember; &, Tembut. The baſtard Pepper, called Betle, or Beter.
Temeraire: com. Raſh, haſtie, bare-braind, headlong, foole-hardie, ouer hazardous, incõſiderate, vndiſcreet, more forward then needs, more aduenturous then hee ſhould be.
Temerairement. Raſhly, haſtily, too hazardouſly, in a headlong courſe, at randome, at rouers, at all aduentures.
Temeréement. as Temerairement.
Temerité: f. Temeritie, raſhneſſe, haſtineſſe, foole-hardineſſe, vnaduiſednesſe, indiſcretion, want of due conſideration.
Temperance: f. Temperance, moderation, ſobrietie; the meane betweene the extremities of appetite, and affection.
Temperature: f. A temper, temperature, tempering; a meane, moderation, qualification, orderlineſſe.
Temperé: m. ée: f. Temperate, moderate, ſober, orderlie, forbearing, refraining, meane-obſerning, of good temper, without any exceſſe; alſo, tempered.
Temperemént: m. A tempering, moderating, ordering, gouerning, reſtraining.
Temperément. Temperately, moderately, ſoberly, meaſurably, orderly.
Temperer. To temper, moderate, qualifie; gouerne, order; allay, aſſuage; forbeare, ſpare, abſtaine, refraine from; to mingle diſcreetly, meaſure equally, keepe a meane.
Tempetie: f. Temperateneſſe of weather.
Tempes. Looke Temples.
Tempeſtatif: m. iue: f. Turbulent, contentious, troublesome, vnquiet, ſeditious; euer iarring, wrangling, ſcoulding, brabling.
Tempeſtativement. Turbulently, tumultuouſly, troublesomely, contentiouſly, ſeditiouſly, wranglingly.
Tempeſte: f. A tempeſt, ſtorme, bluſter, boiſterous weather.
Deux pots au feu ſignifient feſte, & deux femmes font la tempeſte: Prov. Looke vnder Femme; or Feſte.
Tempeſté: m. ée: f. Stormed, bluſtered; toſſed, vexed, hurried, harried; taken, or ouertaken with, broken or ouerthrowne by, a tempeſt.
Tempeſter. To ſtorme, bluſter, keepe a horrible coyle or ſtirre, raiſe a tumult, be in an vprore; to toſſe, hurrie, harrie, torment, vex, turmoyle; alſo, to chaſe extreamly at.
Tempeſteux. as Tempeſtuëux.
Tempeſtuëux: m. ëuſe: f. Tempeſtuous, bluſtering, ſtormie, troubleſome, vnquiet.
Temple: m. A Temple, a Church.
Temples: f. The temples; the ſides of the head betweene the eyes, and eares.
Templettes: f. Fillets, or head-bands for women; alſo, Jewells hanging vpon their foreheads by bodkins thruſt into their haire.
Temporal: m. ale: f. Of, or in, the temples; whence;
Veine temporale. Seeke vnder Veine.
Temporalles. Coat-armers; or Heraulds coats.
Temporaux: m. The muſkles by which the temples are moued.
Temporel: m. elle: f. as Temporal; alſo, temporall.
Temporiſé: m. ée: f. Temporized.
Temporiſement: m. A temporizing; an obſerning, or following of the time; alſo, a lingering, or protracting of time.
Temporiſer. To temporize it; to obſerue, agree with, applie himſelfe, to the time; to liue as the time goes, or according to the time; alſo, to linger, delay, protract the time.
Temporiſeur: m. A temporizer, time-ſeruer, protracter of time.
Temporiſeux: m. euſe: f. Temporizing, time-ſeruing, lingering, protracting of time.
Tempre. Quickly, ſhortly, ſoone, ſuddenly.
Temprement. Apace; or as Tempre.
Tempre-meure. Elle eſt tem. (Said of a maid) ſhe is full ripe, or mariageable.
Temps: m. Time, ſeaſon; while, opportunitie, leaſure; weather.
Le temps advenir. Hereafter.
Le temps des beſongnes. Harueſt, or reaping time; ſo tearmed by husbandmen.
Temps de forgas. Looke vnder Forgas.
Temps de pouldrette. The ſeaſon wherein the husbandman is to breake the clods of his plowed lands.
Les quatre temps. The foure Imber weekes.
Bon temps. Proſperitie; alſo, merriment, or time paſſed in merriment.
Bon temps mau temps. Howſoeuer the world goes, whatſoeuer come of it; alſo, one with another.
Avec le temps. In time, in th'end, at length.
En temps & lieu. Fitly, in good ſeaſon, as it ſhould bee.
En peu de temps. Shortly, quickly, ere long, within a while.
Par temps. Seaſonably, in good time.
Avoir ſon temps. A woman to haue her flowers.
Faire ſon temps. Il a faict ſon temps. He is growne old, or out of date.
Faire le guet au temps. To obſerue, and make vſe of worldlie occurrences.
Cela ſe faiſoit au temps jadis. Thats ſtale, or obſolete; thats quite out of vſe, cleane out of date, altogether out of faſhion.
Gaigner le temps. To prolong, or draw out the day; to win time.
Galler le bon temps. To liue merrily, blithly, iocondly; licentiouſly, ſenſually, luxuriouſly.
Hauſſer le temps. To tipple hard, or tipple vnto drunkenneſſe; to ſit long tipling, and yet not thinke it long.
Paſſer le temps. Il paſſe le temps. Hee liues at his eaſe, or takes pleaſure enough in this world; he giues himſelfe all fulneſſe of ſenſuall contentment.
Pouſſer le temps à l'eſpaule. To vſe delayes, &c; as vnder Eſpaule.
Le temps n'eſt pas touſiours en bonne diſpoſition: Prov. Time is not alwayes fauourable; or, all times bee not good for all things.
Le temps ouvre. Looke Ouvre.
Le temps vient, va, & paſſe, fol qui ne le compaſſe: Pro. Time commeth, goeth, and away doth paſſe, he that obſerues, or weighes it not's an aſſe.
Avec le temps, & la paille l'on meure les meſles: Pro. Time and ſtraw doe make greene Medlers, which are as hard as ſtones, as ſoft as roaſted apples: we muſt attend with hope times operation; The like is;
Avec le temps l'on moiſſonne: Prov. In time our corne is ripe, our harueſt gotten.
Ingratitude aſſeiche les fonts, & le temps renverſe les ponts: Prov. Vnthankfulneſſe dries bounties ſprings, and bridges time to ruine brings.
Tenable: com. Holdable, fit to be held or kept.
Tenacement. Faſtly, cleauingly, ſurely, holdingly.

Tenacité: f. Tenacitie; faſt keeping, ſure holding, ſtrait retaining; hardneſſe, niggardlineſſe, miſerie, ſparing; alſo, conſtancie, ſteadfaſtneſſe; alſo, clammineſſe.

Tenaillade: f. A plucke, twitch, or ſtroake with a paire of pinſers.

Tenaille: f. A paire of pinſers.

Tenaillé: m. ée: f. Plucked out, or taken hold of, with pinſers; alſo, whoſe fleſh is pinched, or torne off with hot pinſers.

Tenaillement: m. A plucking out, or taking hold of with pinſers; alſo, a pinching, or tearing off of the fleſh with hot pinſers.

Tenailler. To pull out, plucke off, take hold of, with pinſers; alſo, to pinch, or teare the fleſh off with hot pinſers.

Tenais: m. The ſlip of a plant.

Tenaiſie: f. The hearbe Tanſie.

Tenamment. Faſtly, cleauingly, boldingly, cloſe together.

Tenant: m. A miſer, ſnudge, niggard, pinchpenie, penifather; a ſparing, hard, or neere ſnudge; a cloſe-handed, or couetous hold-faſt; alſo, the ſide, or limit on the ſide, of a houſe, or peece of ground; alſo, a defendant in a Juſt, or Turnament; any one that withſtands another, or holds, & makes good a place againſt him; alſo, a cõtinuall courſe, or vnintermitted continuance, of things; whence;

Tout d'un tenant. All together; &; Tout en vn tenant; Together, in one, all as one.

Tenant: m. ante: f. Holding, keeping, detaining; alſo, bounding or abutting on, next or neere adioyning vnto.

Le Roy tenant ſon lict de Iuſtice. Sitting in the throne of Juſtice.

Tenar de la main. A certaine muskle whereof the greateſt part of the palme of the hand conſiſteth.

Tencer. Looke Tanſer.

Tenche: f. A Tench.

Tenche de mer. The ſea Tench, a rock-fiſh made like the riuer Tench, but of ſundrie colours, and verie tender when ſhe is dreſſed.

Tendant. Bending, ſtretching, reaching, gaining forward, making towards; tending, inclining, drawing neere vnto.

Tendelet: m. The tilt, or couer, of the poope of a galley; the cloth wherewith it is couered.

Tendineux: m. euſe: f. Of, or full of, a Tendon.

Tendon: m. A Tendon, or taile of a muskle; a bloudleſſe inſtrument of motiõ, conſiſting partly of the ſinew, and partly of the ligament, and fibers, which iſſue confuſedly from the bellie of a muskle.

Tendre. To tend; bend; reach, extend, ſtretch out, ſpread or diſplay; to pitch; incline, or giue forwards; approach, or make towards; goe on, or draw neere vnto; alſo, to indeuor, goe about, labour to get or come by; alſo, to tender, or offer vnto.

Tendre à fin de non recevoir. To oppoſe th'entrie, or admittance of his aduerſaries plea, or proceſſe.

Tendre le giron en la Iuſtice. (A defendant) comparoir à l'aſsignation qui luy a eſté baillée, & accorder au demandeur ſes fins, & concluſions.

Tendre les mains. To beg, or aske for mercie.

Tendre aux oiſeaux. To lay, or ſet nets, &c, for birds.

Il n'a veine qu'y tend. He hath no fancie nor humor vnto it, he minds or meanes nothing leſſe.

Qui à aiſe tend aiſe luy faut: Pro. He that prouides for his eaſe doth often looſe it; or, he that cares for his eaſe is often croſt in't.

Qui à aſne tend à aſne vient: Pro. He quickly may, that needs will, be an aſſe; or, at any time hee ſpeedes that would be an aſſe.

Tendre: com. Tender; young; ſoft, ſupple, gentle, pliant; merciſull, tractable, ſoone induced, eaſily drawne vnto; alſo, nice, neſh, puling, delicate, effeminate.

Tendrelet: m. ette: f. Somewhat tender, &c.

Tendrement. Tenderly; ſoftly, ſupplely, pliantly; gentlely, tractably; neſhly, delicately; gingerly.

Tendret: m. ette: f. A little tender, ſoft, ſupple; gentle, tractable; neſh, delicate.

Tendreté: f. Tenderneſſe, ſoftneſſe, ſuppleneſſe; gentleneſſe, tractableneſſe; neſhneſſe, effeminacie, delicateneſſe.

Tendreur: f. as Tendreté.

Tendrieres: f. Chaps, rifts, or chawnes on the nipple of a womans breaſt.

Tendrillons: m. Tendrells, little griſtles.

Tendrineux: m. euſe: f. Full of tendrells, or of ſlender griſtles.

Tendron: m. A tender, neſh, delicate, or effeminate fellow; alſo, a cartilage, or griſtle; alſo, a tendrell, or the tender branch, or ſprig of a plant.

Tendronneux: m. euſe: f. Griſtlie, full of griſtles, or of tendrells.

Tendu: m. uë: f. Tended; bent; raught, extended, ſtretched out; ſpred, or diſplayed; pitched; inclined, or made towards; tendered, or offered vnto; layed, or ſet for.

Tenebres: f. Darkneſſe, obſcuritie, dimneſſe; alſo, the ſeruice vſed in Popiſh Churches the three dayes next before Eaſter; whence; Les trois jours de tenebres; be thoſe three dayes.

Tenebreux: m. euſe: f. Tenebrous, darkeſome, obſcure, full of darkneſſe, or of obſcuritie.

Tenebrions: m. Night-ſpirits, Hobgoblins, ſuch as loue, and liue in, continuall darkneſſe: Rab.

Tenement: m. A countrey, territorie, or lands poſſeſſed, or held abſolutely; alſo, a tenemẽt, inheritance, or lands held in fief, by Cens, or a chiefe rent.

Tenementier: m. A tenant, or farmer.

Teneſme: m. A great deſire, deuoid of power, to purge.

Teneur: m. The Tenor part in Muſicke.

Teneur: f. The tenor, content, ſtuffe, or ſubſtance of a matter; alſo, a continuall order, ſtate, faſhion, race, courſe; an vnſtopping, or vnintermitted continuance of things without any change in the manner thereof.

Tenie: f. A fillet, head-band, or haire-lace; alſo, a kind of brow, or iutting in a piller.

Tenir. To hold, haue, keepe, enioy, poſſeſſe; take; detaine, withhold; reſerue, retaine; alſo, to beare, vphold, ſupport, ſuſtaine, maintaine; alſo, to performe, effect, obſerue, make good; alſo, to let, ſtop, hinder, impeach; gouerne, keepe in order, bridle, reſtraine; alſo, to iudge, deeme, account, repute, eſteeme; alſo, to cleaue, cling, adhere, ſticke faſt, lye cloſe, or ſit ſure, vnto.

Tenir adverti de. To giue notice or intelligence of.

Tenir des baſſes marches. To hold of the ſmocke, bis wiſe to be his maiſter.

Tenir le bec en l'eau. To delay, or dallie with; Looke vnder Bec.

Tenir la bride haute à. To awe, reſtraine, keep ſhort, hold in.

Tenir bon. To be firme, or conſtant in a matter; to continue or perſiſt in it, to hold or ſtand to it, without any flinching or ſhrinking.

Tenir bon à quelqu'un. To hold him play.

Tenir ſon coeur. To malice inwardly, to beare a grudge vnto.

Tenir coup à la beſongne. Seeke vnder Coup.

Tenir court. To reſtraine, curb, keepe ſhort.
Tenir de court. To preſſe, vrge, lay hard, or follow cloſe, vnto.
Tenir vn enfant ſur le fons. To Chriſten a child.
Tenir l'Eſchiquier. To ſit, or keepe a Court, in th'Exchequer.
Tenir ſon eſtat à. To giue maintenance vnto.
Tenir à fable. To eſteeme, or account of, as a fable.
Tenir fief. To poſſeſſe a feodall inheritance.
Tenir en fief. Looke vnder Fief.
Tenir de la Lune. To be inconſtant, variable, or changeable, as the Moone; alſo, to bee a little frantick.
Tenir le livre. Il veut touſiours tenir le livre. Hee talks continually, or ſo much as no bodie elſe can ſpeak for him.
Tenir le main à: &, Tenir la main pour. Looke vnder Main.
Tenir le marché faict. To ſtand to his bargaine.
Tenir le menton à. To ſupport, vphold, beare vp; whence the Prouerbe; Celuy peut hardiment nager à qui l'on tient le menton.
Tenir à la mer. To worke or ſayle againſt the tide, or current of the ſea.
Tenir la mule à. Il luy fit tenir la mule. He ouerruled, ouerſwayed, or ouer-maiſtered him; alſo, he made him tarrie his leaſure, or daunce attendance on him.
Tenir la plaidoirie. To keepe, or hold, a Court.
Tenir pied à. Ie ne leur tins beaucoup de pied. I gaue them not much conſent, aſſiſtance, or countenance; alſo, I ſtayed not long with them; I held them not tack, or play, any while.
Tenir pied à boule. To applie his buſineſſe throughly, to hold hard or ſtand cloſe vnto it.
Tenir pied en ſoulier. Looke vnder Soulier.
Tenir la queuë de la paelle. To rule, ſway, or diſpoſe of a buſineſſe; to haue the chiefeſt dealings, or moſt authoritie, in it; and hence the Prouerb; Qui tient la queuë de la paelle il la tourne là ou il veut.
Tenir ſur les rangs. To deride, mocke, flowt, ieaſt at, make himſelfe merrie with.
Tenir ſerre. To keepe in, to hold himſelfe cloſe, to reſtraine himſelfe.
Tenir table. Looke vnder Table.
Tenir teſte. To ſtand vnto it.
Tenir tort. whence; Il ſçait bien le tort qu'il nous tient; He knowes well ynough the wrong he does vs.
Tenir au vent. To ſayle verie neere a wind.
se Tenir. To beare, or carrie himſelfe; alſo, to abide, continue, remaine; se Tenir de; To forbeare.
se Tenir à vn denier. To ſticke at, or dodge about, a penie.
se Tenir debout. To ſtand, or ſtand vpright.
se Tenir fort. To preſume, relie, or build vpon; to truſt vnto, haue confidence in.
se Tenir ſur le bon bout; &, ſur le haut bout. Looke vnder Bout.
Faire tenir quelque choſe à. To conuey, or ſend a thing vnto.
Se faire tenir. To be luſtie, play the gallant, &c, as vnder Faire.
'A cela ne tienne. For that not a pin matter, let that be no binderance, let it not ſticke vpon that.
Il tient à luy que. Tis long of him, or hee is the onely cauſe, that.
Il tient tant de moy. He preſumes, relies, depends ſo much vpõ me; he hath that truſt or cõfidence in, that bold or aſſurance of, me.

Il ne tient qu'à cela. There needs, or wants but that; that done will ſerue the turne; that done our taske is done.
Il ſe tint fort par le nez de ce refus. He forbore all he could to ſeeme ſencible of this refuſall.; alſo, as vnder Nez.
Ie n'en voudrois pas tenir dix eſcus. (Vſed vpon an accident, or occurrence that pleaſeth) I wold not for 10 Crownes it were otherwiſe; or, I am as glad as if one had giuen me tenne Crownes; (but vpon any other occaſion) I would not take ten Crownes for it; and thence alſo;
Ils n'en euſſent pas voulu tenir vn denier moins. They would not haue taken a penie leſſe for it; alſo, they made themſelues as ſure of it as if they had held it.
Ie ſçay bien à qui m'en tenir. I know well ynough whom to thanke, or whom I am beholden to, for that.
Ou vont ils tenir? Whither goe they to keepe, dwell, ſoiourne, remaine, abide?
Ou ils n'ont que tenir. Where they haue nothing to take hold of, where there is nothing that makes for them.
Sans cela ils n'auroient que tenir. Without that they knew not what ſhift to make, what courſe to take; they knew not how to earne their bread, or what in the earth to doe.
Tout ce que ie vous dis ie le tiens de luy. I haue all that I tell you from him, I heard all that I tell you of him.
Vous ne m'y tenez pas. You haue me not there as yet, you haue not got ſo much from, or out of, me.
Qui tient ſe tienne: Prov. He that holds let him hold ſtill; or, let him that hath a hold keeepe it.
Mieux vaut vn tenez que deux vous l'aurez: Pro. Better one bird in the hand then two in the buſh.
Tenon: m. A tenon; the end of a rafter, &c, put into a morteiſe, &c.
Tenons. The vice nayles wherewith the barrell of a peece is faſtened vnto the ſtocke; alſo, the (leatherne) handles of a Targuet.
Tenre. as Tendre: ¶Pic.
Tenſer. To chide; Looke Tanſer.
Tenſif: m. iue: f. Bending, or ſtiffe-bent.
Tentation: f. A temptation, tempting, proofe, eſſay, prouing, aſſaying.
Tentative: f. The poſing (for the paſſing) of Graduates; a probation, or examination of ſuch as are to take a degree.
Tentatoire: f. A proofe, eſſay, offer, attempt.
Tente: f. A tent, or pauilion; alſo, an open booth for a Pedler, &c; alſo, a tent for a wound.
Tenté: m. ée: f. Tempted; eſſayed, tried, proued, ſounded, taſted; alſo, prouoked, or moued (vnto euill.)
Tentement: m. A tempting; an eſſaying, trying, prouing, ſounding, taſting, attempting; alſo, a ſuggeſting, prouoking, or mouing (vnto euill.)
Tenter. To tempt; to proue, trie, ſound, eſſay, taſt, attempt; alſo, to ſuggeſt, prouoke, or moue (vnto euill.)
Tenteresse: f. A temptereſſe, a woman that tempts.
Tenteur: m. A tempter, prouoker; attempter, eſſayer.
Tenthredon. A kind of flie.
Tentier: m. A tent-keeper; or one that liues in a tent.
Tentiſſement: m. A ringing, reſounding, tinkling, tingling.
Tenture: f. A tending; bending, reaching; ſtretching, ſpreading, extending, diſplaying; pitching.
La tenture d'une chambre. The hanging of, or a ſuit of hangings for, a chamber.

Tenu:

Tenu: m. uë: f. Held, kept, had, enioyed, poſſeſſed, retained, reſerued, detained, withheld; borne, ſupported, vpheld; performed, effected, obſerued; ſtopped, hindered; bridled, reſtrained; iudged, reputed, eſteemed; bound, or beholden vnto.

A toy n'a pas tenu. Thou wert no hinderance, thou gaueſt no impediment, broughteſt no impeachment; it was not long of thee. And, S'il n'euſt tenu à toy. Without thee, had it not beene for thee.

On luy avoit tenu ſi avant la liberté, de. He had ſo much libertie giuen him, or men had ſo long ſuffered him, to.

Tenuë: f. Hold; apprehenſion; performance; alſo, a Tenure in Law.

Femme de prõüeſſe, & de tenuë. That will ſay and hold, that is as good as her word.

Homme qui n'a point de tenuë. Cet homme n'a point, &c. There is no certainetie in his ſpeeches, no conſtancie in his actions; we cannot build any way vpon him.

Tenuë: com. Thin, ſlender, ſleight, fine; weake; leane, gaunt; little, ſpare, ſmall.

Tenuëment. Thinly, ſlenderly, ſleightly; weakely; leanely, gauntly; ſmally, poorely.

Tenuité: f. Tenuitie, thinneſſe, exilitie, ſleightneſſe, fineneſſe; leanneſſe, gauntneſſe, ſlenderneſſe, ſcantneſſe.

Tenure: f. A tenure; a hold, or eſtate in land.

Tenure briſée. A diſſeiſin.

Tenure: com. as Tenuë.

Tenurement. as Tenuëment.

Tenuret: m. ette: f. Somewhat ſlender, thin, ſleight; verie little, ſcant, ſmall.

Tenureté: f. Looke Tenuité.

Tephramantie: f. Diuination by aſhes blowne, or caſt, vp into the aire. ¶Rab.

Tepidité: f. Luke-warmeneſſe.

Terapeutique. as Therapeutique.

Terbenthin: m. The Turpentine tree.

Terbenthine: f. Turpentine; Looke Terebinthine.

Terçage: m. A third breaking, or digging vp of the ground.

Terceau: m. A quantitie of wine taken by ſome Lords vpon euerie veſſell belonging to their vaſſalls; who if they broach any before, or before notice thereof giuen to the Lord, or his officers, looſe 60 s Tourn.

Tercéer. To till, breake, or dig vp the ground a third time.

Tercer. as Tercéer.

Tercot: m. A little aſh-coloured, and long-tongued bird, called a Wry-necke.

Terebentine. as Terebinthine.

Terebinthe: f. The Turpentine tree.

Terebinthine: f. Turpentine; the Roſin, or Gumme of the Turpentine-tree: (This is the right Turpentine, whereas that which is commonly ſold for ſuch, is the liquide Roſin of the Larch tree.)

Terebinthine de Veniſe. Turpentine of Venice, right Turpentine: (In the ſhops of England, and Germanie, the liquid Roſin taken from the barke of young Firre-trees is falſely called, Terebinthina Veneta.)

Terelle. as Tarelle.

Tereniaban. Liquid Manna; of the colour, and conſiſtence of honey.

Terges: f. Little Images of Saints made on peeces of painted paper, or leather, and worne, like brooches, in the hats of the youths of the pariſh, at publick meetings, or on ſolemne dayes.

Tergiverſation: f. Tergiuerſation; a flinching, withdrawing, ſhifting, ſlinking, or ſhrinking backe; a hafting, dodging, paultering, or paultrie excuſing; a Nonſuit in Law.

Tergiverſateur: m. A flincher, ſhrinker, ſtarter, hafter, dodger, paulterer; one that is nonſuited, or withdrawes a ſuit, but with a purpoſe to begin anew.

Tergiverſer. To flinch; to ſhift, ſlinke, or ſhrinke backe from; to dodge, paulter, hagle, or haft; to wrangle; excuſe, deny; withdraw a ſuit, fall to a Nonſuit; run back, but not giue ouer.

Teriere: f. An Augur.

Teriz: m. A kind of long-heeled Linnet.

Terme: m. A terme, time, or day; alſo, a tearme, word, ſpeech; alſo, a Pillar faſhioned, at the vpper end, like an arme-leſſe man or woman; and (more generally) any arme-leſſe Image; alſo, a croſſe way; alſo, a great high way; alſo, a ſtone, bound, limit, mere, diuiding land from land.

Eſtre en termes. Et ſommes nous en ces termes? What? are we at this point, are we come to this paſſe?

Mis en termes. Diſcuſſed, examined, deliberated of, or fallen into deliberation.

Tenir terme. Quel terme il tient. What face he ſets on it, what countenance he ſhewes in it.

Le terme vaut l'argent. The terme is worth my money; a Prouerbe wherewith diuers, that haue borrowed much vpon long dayes, are apt to flatter themſelues, hoping that ſomewhat may, in the meane while, occurre to their further benefit, or full diſcharge.

Il n'y a terme qui paſſe par delà celuy de frere: Pro. No title goes beyond the deere name of a brother.

Terminement: m. The appointing, or ſetting downe of a certaine terme, or time.

Terminaiſon: f. A termination.

Termination: f. A determining, finiſhing, ending; alſo, a limitting, or bounding.

Terminé: m. ée: f. Determined, ended, finiſhed; bounded, limitted; alſo, ending, finiſhing; limitting, bounding.

Terminer. To determine, finiſh, end; limit, bound.

Termoyer. To appoint a terme, aſſigne a time, limit or ſet a day.

Ternaire: com. Of three, or of a third.

Ternenaire. A number containing many threes.

Terner. To throw a tre, or three.

Terni: m. ie: f. Wan, lew, pale, bleake, ſallow, diſcoloured, of a duskiſh or deadlie hue; whoſe luſter is loſt, or verie much decayed.

Yeux ternis. Dull or dead eyes; eyes that are growne heauie, or be nothing ſo quick, liuelie, or piercing, as they haue beene.

Ternier: m. The ſmall Hickway, tearmed a Wall-pecker.

se Ternir. To wax pale, wan, lew, bleake, diſcoloured, or ſallow of colour; to looſe, or decay much in, it former luſter.

Terniſſeur: m. A bleaker, blemiſher, diſcolourer.

Terniſſure: f. Paleneſſe, bleakeneſſe, wanneſſe, leadenneſſe of colour; a ſallow, duskiſh, or deadlie hue.

Terrace. as Terraſſe; alſo, a Terrace, or high, and open Gallerie.

Terrage: m. Field-rent, countrey toll; which is (if in the tenants Graunt, or Leaſe, there be no certaine rate ſet downe) the twelfth ſheafe, or bundle of all ſorts of Corne, Flax, Hempe, and Fruit gotten on a tenement; onely the profits and increaſe of Meddowes, Woods, and Vineyards are exempted, vnleſſe there be a ſpeciall cuſtome, cuſtome, or condition to the contrarie.

Diſme, & terrage à deux mains. Looke vnder Main.

Terragé. Terre terragée. Land held by the title, or lyable to the payment, of countrey toll.

Terrageal: m. ale: f. whence, Grange terrageale. A Barne for the receit, or keeping, of countrey toll.

Seigneur terrageal. A Lord that receiues Terrage from his tenants.

Terrageau. as Terrageal, or Terragier.

Terrager. To hold, or let out, lands for which Terrage is due; alſo, to ſort, or lay out the fruits belonging thereto.

Terragereſſe. Grange terragereſſe. as Grange terrageale.

Terragerie: f. Field-rent; or, the hauing of, or holding by, field-rent.

Terrageur: m. One that hath Terrage, or field-rent.

Terragier: m. The tenant that yeelds, or payes his Lord field-rent.

Terragier: m. ere: f. Held, or holding, by Terrage.

Terraignol: m. A horſe thats hardly raiſed from the ground.

Terrain: m. (Forced) earth, land, ſoyle; or, a heape thereof.

Terrantole. as Tarantole.

Terraſſe: f. A plot, platforme, fort, or bulwarke; alſo, a banke, heape, or billocke, of earth; alſo, a Pond-head; alſo, as Terrace; alſo, an earthen panne.

Terraſſé: m. ée: f. Felled, ouerthrowne, or caſt downe, to the earth; alſo, floored.

Terraſſement: m. An ouerthrowing, or caſting downe, to the earth; alſo, a flooring, the laying of a floore, with earth; and the ſtrengthning of the inſide of a wall with a banke, &c, of earth.

Terraſſer. To fell, ouerthrow, or caſt downe, to the earth; alſo, to lay, or make a floore of earth, &c.

Terraſſer vne muraille par dedans la ville. To rampire, ſtrengthen, or fill vp the inſide of a wall with earth.

Terraſſier: m. An ignorant, or home-bred clowne; one that neuer ſtirred off his owne dunghill.

Terrau: m. Mould, ſoyle, fat earth; alſo, as;

Terraul: m. A Plot, or Bulwarke of earth; alſo, a heape of earth; alſo, a ſeat of earth in an Arbor; alſo, as Terrau.

Terraut. as Terraul.

Terre: f. Earth, Ground, Land, Soyle; alſo, a Mannor, Farme, Cloſe, Field, peece of Ground; alſo, a Land, Region, Prouince, Countrey; alſo, the world, or the whole earth.

Terre Ampelite. A blackiſh earth, which broken, reſolues into oyle: In old time they annointed Vines withall, thereby to deſtroy Caterpillers, and other vermine wherewith they were infeſted.

Terre de l'arnage. A whitiſh clay, or fat earth, whereof, in old time, Goldſmiths melting pots were made.

Terre de Beauvois. A certaine earth whereof pots, or veſſells may be made.

Terre Bleſienne. Terra ſigillata, or Lemnia; found ſometimes neere vnto Blois, and therefore ſo tearmed.

Terre de Chio. A white aſh-coloured earth, which is gotten in the Iſland Chio; and which being vſed as a waſhing ball, makes a ſmooth, cleere, and well-coloured skin.

Terre Cimolienne. A medicinable earth, whereof there be two ſorts, one white, the other purpliſh; the beſt of both feeles cold, and fattie; ſome call it Fullers earth.

Terre à degraiſſer. Fullers earth.

Terre Eretrienne. An aſtringent, and refrigerative earth, whereof there be two kinds, one exceeding white, the other aſh-coloured.

Terre Guerinienne. Terra ſigillata. (A medicinable earth.)

Terre à laver. Fullers earth.

Terre Melie, ou Melienne. A rough, and aſh-coloured earth, which being taſted of, bites, and dryes, the tongue like Allum; and is vſed for the clenſing of the bodies outſide, whereto it giues a liuelie, and gracious hue.

Terre d'ombre. Beyond-ſea Azur; an earth found in ſiluer mines, and vſed by Painters for ſhadowings.

Terre Pharmacite. as Terre Ampelite.

Terre Pnignite. A gluie, and aſh-coloured earth, which is good to coole hot hands.

Terre de S. Porcin. as Terre de l'arnage.

Terre Samienne. A white, light, ſoft, moiſt, and gluie earth, which drunke in water, is good againſt poyſon, and the impoyſoned biting of venomous beaſts.

Terre de ſavon. Fullers earth.

Terre ſeellée. The medicinable earth called, Terra ſigillata.

Terre Selinuſienne. A white, ſhining, and brittle earth, which quickly melts in liquor, and is an excellent skowrer of the skin.

Terre de Veniſe. A white earth, or clay, vſed by Potters.

Terre Verde. Borax, greene earth; alſo, a kind of tough greeniſh clay, whereof the beſt earthen veſſells be made.

Terre à vigne. as Terre Ampelite.

Enfans de la terre. Worldlings; Looke vnder Enfant.

Mau de terre. The falling ſickneſſe.

Terre à terre. Euen by, cloſe vnto, the ground.

Manege de terre à terre. A manage more low, and more quicke then the ordinarie gallop, or curuet.

Sous terre. Vnder hand, in huggar muggar.

N'avoir ny de terre iaulne, ny de la blanche. To haue neither gold nor ſiluer; to be in a verie poore, or miſerable caſe.

Faire de la terre le foſſé; &, De terre d'autruy remplir ſon foſſé. Looke Foſſé.

Il ne marchoit de pied en terre. He was ſo glad that he could ſtand on no ground, or felt not the ground he went on.

Mettre à terre; en terre; & par terre. Looke vnder Mettre.

Prendre terre. To proceed, goe forward, rid ground, get on apace; alſo, to land, or get aſhore.

Terre chevauchée eſt à demy mangée: Pro. Farre-off land oft rid to halfe ſpends it ſelfe; The like is;

Terre loing de ſoy n' apporte que fiaſcons, & bouteilles: Pro.

De bonne terre bon tupin: Prov. Good earth good pipkins yeeldeth.

Nulle terre ſans guerre: Pro. &, Qui a terre ſi a guerre: Prov. No land without Law; no contentment without contention.

Telle terre telle cruche: Pro. See Cruche.

Aujourd'huy en terre demain enterré: Pro. To day on the earth, to morrow in it.

On ne doit pas laiſſer bonne terre pour mauvais ſeigneur: Pro. Good land muſt not be left becauſt of a bad Landlord.

Pour laver ſes mains on n'en vend pas ſa terre: Prov.

Prov. Not clenlineße but coſtlineſſe makes men to ſell their lands.

Tant vaut l'homme tant vaut ſa terre: Prov. So worthie as a man is makes he the things belonging to him.

Terreaũ: m. Mould, ſoyle, fat earth.

Terregarde. Matiere de ter. A controuerſie about the meeres, or bounds of land.

Terre-né: m. ée: f. Borne, begotten, or bred of the earth.

Terreneufviers. New-found-landers, new-found-landmen.

Terre-plein: m. A platforme of earth; or, the earth which is rampired, and filled vnto the inſide of a bulwarke, or wall.

Terrer. To terrifie, deterre, feare, skare, affright.

Terreſtre: com. Terreſtriall, earthlie; liuing on, or belonging to, the earth.

Terreſterité, & Terreſtreté: f. Earthlineße, worldlineſſe; alſo, an earthlie light, luſt, or appetite.

Terre-tremble: m. An earthquake.

Terreur: f. Terror, feare, dread, gaſtlineſſe, horror.

Terreux: m. euſe: f. Earthie, earthlie, of earth, full of earth.

Terrible: com. Terrible, dreadfull, moſt feareſull; gaſtlie, fell, horrible, moſt cruell.

Terriblement. Terribly, dreadfully, moſt feareſully; gaſtfully, horribly, moſt felly.

Terribler. To make terrible, or make a terrible ſhew.

Terrien: m. A man of meanes or poſſeſſions, a landed man.

Terrien: m. enne: f. Terrene, earthlie, conſiſting or ſauouring of earth.

Terrier: m. The hole, berrie, or earth of a Connie, or Fox; alſo, a little hillocke; alſo, as Papier terrier; alſo, fat earth, mould, or ſoyle.

C'eſt vne roux de regnard qui vous menera au terrier; viz. au ſepulchre.

Terrier: m. ere: f. Of earth, or ſoyle.

Papier terrier. The Court-roll, or catalogue of all the names of a Lords tenants, and of all the rents they pay, and ſeruices they owe, him.

Terriere: f. A Terrier, or Augar.

Terrin: m. as Terraſſe.

Terrine: f. An earthen pot, or panne; and particularly, a panne (of earth, &c) for a Cloſe-ſtoole.

Territoire: m. A territorie; the compaſſe, or continent of land or countrey belonging to a Citie, Towne, Pariſh, Lordſhip, or Mannor.

Territoire d'un Iuge; comprend tout le reſort. ¶L'Oiſeau.

Terroir: m. Soyle, ground, or land; alſo, as Territoire.

Terron: m. Soyle, manure, dung fully incorporated with the earth.

Tertiane: f. A tertian Ague.

Tertre: m. A little hill; a hillocke, or barrow.

Teruë: com. Thin, ſlender.

Terzerol: m. A mizzen, or poope-ſayle.

Teſme: m. A theame, argument, poſition, propoſition.

Teſmoignage: m. A teſtimonie, witneſſe, depoſition, euidence.

Teſmoigné: m. ée: f. Teſtified, witneſſed.

Teſmoigner. To teſtifie, witneſſe; depoſe.

Teſmoing: m. A witneſſe, teſtis, teſtifier; a depoſent, or one that giues in euidence.

Teſmoings. (Are ſometimes) a mans teſticles, or ſtones.

Teſmoing paſſe lettre: Pro. Seeke Lettre.

Teſniere. as Taniere: f. A denne.

Teſſeré: m. ée: f. Squared, or made foureſquare like a dye.

Teſſon: m. A Gray, Brocke, or Badger; (Looke Taiſſon;) alſo, a little potſhard.

Teſſonneau: m. A young, or little Badger.

Teſſons d'un preſſouër. The ſide-boords of a preße.

Teſt: m. The ſcalpe, or ſcull of the head, &c; Looke Teſts.

Teſtable: com. Teſtable; that can make a Will; that may be deuiſed by Will.

Teſtament: m. A Teſtament, or Will; alſo, the wit, conceit, vnderſtanding; head-furniture.

Elle ſçait bien tout le vieil teſtament, & le nouueau. She hath throughly learnt her lyrippope.

Graſſe cuiſine maigre teſtament: Prov. A fat kitchin a leane Will; great houſe-keepers often die beggars.

Teſtamentaire: com. Teſtamentarie, of a Will or Teſtament.

Teſtard: m. The Pollard, or Cheuin fiſh; alſo, the little blacke water-vermine called, a Bullhead.

Teſtard: m. arde: f. Headie, ſelfewillie, headſtrong, obſtinate.

Teſtarderie: f. Headineſſe, obſtinacie, ſelfewillineſſe.

Teſtateur: m. A teſtator; one that hath made a Will.

Teſte: f. A head, pate, skonce, nole, coſtard, noddle; alſo, headineße, obſtinacie, ſelfewillineſſe.

Teſte d'un anneau. The beazill, or collet, that part wherein the ſtone is ſet.

Teſte d'un'armée. The front, or forepart of an Armie.

Teſte d'Aſne. The Gull, Bullhead, or Millers thumbe; (a little fiſh.)

Teſte de boeuf. An Oxehead, ioulthead, &c; as vnder Boeuf.

Teſte de cerf. His hornes; which we alſo call his head.

Teſte de chien. Looke vnder Chien.

Teſte creuſe. A ſhallow braine, addle head, idle aſſe.

Teſte groſſe. Looke hereafter, in Groſſe teſte.

Teſte de grue. Pinkneedle, Shepheards bodkin, Storks bill, Cranes bill, Hearons bill; (an hearbe.)

Teſte de Linotte. A light head, ſhittle pate, giddie braine.

Teſte de Moine. A kind of blunt, and round-noſed Porpoſe; alſo, the hearbe Dandelion, Monkes-hood, Prieſts crowne, Piſſe-abed.

Teſte de More. A Moores head; and by conſequent, any blacke, or blackiſh head; whence, Cheval teſte de More. A Roane horſe with a blacke face; alſo, the Knights, a crooked peece of timber in the fore-caſtle of a ſhip; thus tearmed, becauſe the vpper part thereof is now & then faſhioned like a Moores, or Sarracenes, head.

Teſte de mouſche. Looke vnder Mouſche.

Teſte d'un pennon. That part thereof which compaſſes, or holds by, the handle, or ſtaffe.

Teſte de rapport. Looke Rapport.

Teſte d'une roſe. The bud, or bottome of a Roſe.

Teſte ſaine. A ſound, or iudicious head; an honeſt, or innocent heart; both which are confident; and thereupon the Prouerb, Hardiment parle teſte ſaine.

Teſte de veau. Calues ſnowt, Snapdragon, Lyons ſnap; (an hearbe.)

Teſte de vedel. A ninniehammer, ſot, ſillie fellow.

Teſte verte. A young, raſh, wild-headed, or hairebraind cocks-combe.

Crinons en teſte. Il a beaucoup de crin: en la teſte. His head is full of crickets, or crochets; much troubled, or perplexed; he beates it exceedingly about ſome odde matter or other: Hence the Prouerbe, Crinons en teſte gaſtent la feſte; to ſignifie how vnfit, and vniuſt a man, in that mood, is to intertaine, or accompanie his friends, which would faine be merrie.

Le derriere de la teſte. The noddle, or nape of the necke; the ſeat of the memorie; whence, Il a le derriere de la teſte vn peu large. He hath but a bad memorie.

Feu en la teſte. Il a du feu en la teſte. He is verie choller icke, furious, or courageous; he will carrie no coales.

Grillons en la teſte; &, Tintouïns en la teſte. as Crinons en teſte.

Groſſe teſte. Il a vne groſſe teſte. He is a ioulthead, or iobernoll; he hath more head then wit; he hath a dull, heauie, or groſſe head of his owne: But when teſte is before groſſe, theſe words haue another ſignification; as, Il n'a pas la teſte ſi groſſe. His capacitie is not ſo large, his vnderſtanding not ſo great, his inſight into matters not ſo deepe.

Mal de teſte. The headach; alſo, iealouſie.

Mercure en la teſte. Seeke Mercure.

Os de la teſte. Is properly the forhead bone.

Teſte à teſte. Face to face, cheeke by iowle, fellow-like, euen with, affront, one ouer againſt the other.

`A teſte baiſſée. Deſperately, furiouſly.

`A ſa teſte. As pleaſeth him, of his owne head; after his owne fancie, according to his luſt or liking, euen as he would haue it.

La teſte levée. Boldly, daringly, confidently, with head lift vp aloft, holding vp his head.

Avoir bonne teſte. Il a bonne t. He is hardie, ſtout, valiant: Elle a bonne t. She is maiſterfull, curſt, ſhrewd; a virago, or ſcold.

Avoir la teſte bien faicte. To be iudicious, learned, diſcreet.

Avoir la teſte prez du bonnet. Looke vnder Bonnet.

Avoir vne teſte. To be wilfull, headie, ſelfewillie; to be obſtinately bent vnto.

Baiſſer la teſte. Looke Baiſſer.

Branſler la teſte. To ſhake the head; a geſture denoting mockerie, or contempt; (We ſay of one that ſhaketh his head, it ſeemes he is not verie well pleaſed.)

La teſte luy branſle. Said of one thats in a great feare, or that hath taken a pot too much.

Donner de la teſte. To butt, or iurre; alſo, to runne his head againſt.

Il ne ſçait ou donner de la teſte. He knowes not whither to turne or betake himſelfe, he knowes not what to doe.

Faire teſte à. To reſiſt, or withſtand.

Faire hon de la teſte. To ſeeme loath, or ſhew himſelfe vnwilling, to doe a thing.

Ie ne feray que ma teſte. I will doe no more then I thinke good, I will doe but what pleaſes me.

Hocher de la teſte. Looke Hocher.

Laver la teſte à. To chide, reproue, taunt, or checke verie bitterly.

Mettre en teſte à. To perſuade, ſuggeſt, moue, or induce vnto; to put into the head, preſent vnto the conceit of; alſo, to oppoſe, or ſet againſt, to confront with.

On luy mettra la teſte aux pieds. He muſt be beheaded, he muſt looſe his head.

Ie y partis pour vne teſte. I ought to haue a ſhare therein as heire, or coparcener; (for Teſte, in matters of ſucceſſion, is taken for an heire; whence, if there be three or foure, they ſay, Ils ſont tant de teſtes; and if one of them die, and leaue many children, they ſay that altogether, Ils font vne teſte; viz. are to haue among them the part which he had, or ſhould haue had.)

Se plaindre de ſaine teſte. To complaine of health, or eaſe.

Prendre ſa teſte. Elle a prins ſa teſte. She is grounded in wilfullneſſe, of a ſetled obſtinacie, reſolued to doe but what ſhe liſt.

Rompre la teſte à. To trouble, vex, or wearie with extreame babbling.

Tenir teſte. To ſtand vnto it.

Autant de teſtes autant d'opinions: Prov. As many men ſo many minds: The like is; Autant d' hommes autant de teſtes.

En petite teſte giſt grand ſens: Pro. Within a little head great wit.

Groſſe teſte & prim col, c' eſt le commencement d'un fol: Prov. Call him a foole, and feare no checke, whoſe great head ſtands on ſlender necke.

`A laver la teſte d'un aſne on ne perd que le temps, & la lexive: Pro. Seeke Aſne.

Le poiſſon commence à ſentir touſiours par la teſte: Pro. Fiſh euer begins to taint at the head; the firſt thing that's deprau'd in man's his wit.

Le ventre emporte la teſte: Prov. The bellie ouerbeares the head; Seeke Emporter.

Telle beſte telle teſte: Pro. Such as the beaſt ſuch is his head; a good, or bad nature hatches good, or bad intentions.

Tenez chaud le pied, & la teſte, au demeurant vivez en beſte: Pro. Keepe head and feet warme for the reſt, thou muſt reſolue to liue a beaſt; (viz. to eat, and drinke no more then will doe thee good.)

Teſtelette: f. A little head.

Teſter. To make a Will; to deuiſe, bequeath, or conuey by will.

Teſticule: f. A teſticle, or ſtone.

Teſticule de chien. Dogs teſticles, dogs cullions, dogs ſtones, baſtard Satyrion, Standlewort, Adders-graſſe.

Teſtier: m. ere: f. Headie, ruling or poſſeſſing the head.

Teſtiere: f. Is generally any kind, or faſhion of head-peece; but particularly, a Scull, Sallet, or ſteele cap; alſo, the crowne of a hat; alſo, the head-ſtall of a bridle; alſo, a horſe-collar.

Teſtiere d'un boeuf. The yoaking of an Oxe by the head.

Teſtification: f. A teſtification, teſtimonie, witneſſing, witneſſe-bearing; a prouing, or confirming, by a witneſſe.

Teſtifié: m. ée: f. Teſtified, witneſſed, proued or confirmed by witneſſes.

Teſtifier. To teſtifie, witneſſe, beare record; proue by teſtimonie, confirme by witneſſes.

Teſtimoniale. A Teſtimoniall.

Teſton: m. A box, or cuffe giuen by the knuckles of a cloſed fiſt; alſo, a Teſtoone; a piece of ſiluer coyne worth xviij d ſterling.

Il fait de ſon teſton ſix ſolz; &, Il fait de ſix ſolz vn teſton. Two Prouerbes applyable to a bad, and a good husband.

Teſtonné: m. ée: f. Curled, frizled, entramelled.

Teſtonner. To curle, entramell, frizle.

Teſtonner la bourre. C'eſt la batre, (thereby to make it the more ſoft, or ſupple.)

Teſts: m. The ſcaulpe, or ſcull of the head; alſo, a pot-ſhard, ſhard, or the peece of a broken pot; alſo, the hard ſhell of a Crab, Torteiſe, &c.

Teſtu: m. The Pollard, or Cheuin; alſo, the Cod-fiſh.

Le teſtu d'un maſſon. A Maſons hammer.

Teſtu: m. uë: f. Teſtie, headie, headſtrong, wilfull, obſtinate; alſo, headed, or hauing many heads.

Chardon teſtu. The hundred-headed thiſtle, field Eringus, Leuant ſea Holme, champion ſea Hollie.

Femme teſtuë. A domineering, or maiſterfull houſewife; one that (at leaſt) would be her husbands maiſter; one that hath too much head.

Tetard. Grand tetard. A great ſucker, a child that ſucketh much.

Tetaſſe: f. A long, ſwagging, flaggie, withered, and filthie dug; whence, Avallé en tetaſſe de vieille. Hanging downe like the wrinckled, and ougtie breaſt of an old hagge.

Tetaſſier: m. ere: f. Duggie, hauing great or long dugs.

Tete: f. A teat, pap, dug.

Teté: m. ée: f. Sucked as a dug; Looke Tetté.

Teter. To ſucke a dug.

Tethe. as Tette.

Tethine: f. A little teat, pap, or dug.

Tethye: f. A certaine deformed excreſcence (being neither fiſh, nor plant) of the ſea.

Tetin: m. The nibble, or nipple of a dug.

Du tetin ou hors. From his infancie.

Tetine: f. as Tette; alſo, an inſtrument of glaſſe, wherewith new-deliuered women get out their beeſt, or firſt groſſe milke out of their breaſts.

Tetineux: m. euſe: f. Duggie, or hauing great dugs.

Tetons. Little teats, or dugs.

Tetrade: f. A quaternitie, or meſſe; the proportion, or number of foure.

Tetradique: com. Of, or belonging to, foure.

Degrez tetradiques. Which haue betweene euerie foure ſteps one broad one, called by our workmen the landing place.

Tetragnathe. A white, rough-legd, and moſt venemous ſpider.

Tetragnatic. as Tetragnathe.

Tetragone: com. Quadrangle, or of foure corners.

Tetrahil, ou Tetrahit. The Iudaicall herbe, called otherwiſe Glidewort.

Tetraſyllabe: com. Of foure ſyllables.

Tetrique: com. Rude, harſh, vnpleaſant, rough, ſowre, crabbed, froward, croſſe, hard to away with.

Tette: f. A teat, pap, dug, breaſt.

Tetté: m. ée: f. Sucked; drawne, or milked by a young one.

Il a tetté de bon laict. He hath beene well bred; there is much worth, or much good ſtuffe in him.

Tettée: f. One ſucking, a childs meale, as much as it will ſucke at once.

Tetter. To ſucke a dug.

Tetthe, & Tetther. as Tette, & Tetter.

Tetthons. Looke Tettons.

Teuer: m. A counterfeit braggadochio; one that will ſay much more than he dare doe.

Teur: m. A tuft, like tuers of horſe-tayle haire, in many doubles, vpon the warpe beard, wherein Clothworkers doe ſheere their clothes.

Texte: m. A Text, the originall words, or ſubiect of a booke, &c; whereon Comments, or Diſcourſes, are ſometimes made.

Textuel: m. elle: f. Of, or in, a text.

Iuges qui ſont bons texteurels. Learned, text-readie, good booke-men, ſuch as can readily cite all the bookes which are in a Caſe.

Texture: f. A texture, contexture, web, or weauing; compoſition, worke, frame.

Tez. Le tez de la teſte. The ſcaulpe, or ſcull of the head.

Tezez. ¶Rab. Shauen, or bald fellowes; or, as Niais, younglings, fops, fondlings.

Thacor. A ſcab, or pile in the fundament. ¶Rab.

Thagadie. Looke Rhagade.

Thairir. as Tarir. To wither.

Thalaſié: m. ée: f. Sea-ſicke.

Thalaſſe. The ſea. ¶Rab.

Thale: f. A Greene; or, as Talle.

Thalent. Looke Talent.

Thaller. Corne to bud, ſhoot out their tops, or begin to eare.

Thalmud: m. The Iewiſh Thalmud; a ſuperſtitious and blaſphemous Booke, or Law, deuiſed by their Rabbies, and of great authoritie among them.

Thalmudiſte: m. A Thalmudiſt; a ſtudent, or profeſſor of the ſuperſtitions contained in the Thalmud.

Thamarinde. as Tamarinde.

Thapſie: f. The ſtinking, or deadlie Carrot.

Tharir. Looke Tarir.

Thaſſot: m. A Newte, or Aſhe.

That: m. A Salamander.

Thaumaſte. ¶Rab. A wonderer.

Theatins: m. The Theatins; a ſect of Prieſts, in credit about Pope Clement the ſeuenths time, and of more antiquitie, by ſome few yeares, then the Ieſuits.

Theatral: m. ale: f. Theatrall; of, belonging to, or done in, a Theater.

Theatre: m. A Theater; a publike Play-houſe; an halfe-round houſe wherein people ſit to behold publike Playes, or Games.

Theie: f. An Aunt. ¶Pic.

Theïon: m. An Vncle.

Thelemite: m. A Libertine; one that does what he liſt.

Theme: m. A theame; alſo, the Bill put into a Court by a plaintife.

Theologal: m. ale: f. Theologall; belonging to Diuinitie, or Diuines.

Vin Theologal. Notable good, and ſtrong Wine; or, the beſt wine, of what kind ſoeuer.

Theologalement. Theologically, diuinely.

Theologaſtre: m. A ſmall or ſimple Diuine; a ſmatterer in Diuinitie.

Theologie: f. Theologie, Diuinitie; the profeſſion, or ſtudie of holie things.

Theologien: m. A Theologian, Diuine, profeſſor of Diuinitie.

Theomaches: m. Warriors againſt the gods, as the old giants are fained to haue beene.

Theophaine. The Epiphanie, or Twelfth day in Chriſtmas.

Theophile: com. Louing God.

Theorie: f. Theorie, contemplation, deepe ſtudie; a ſight, or beholding, ſpeculation.

Theorique: f. The ſame; and, the knowledge of an Art without practiſe.

Therapeutique: com. Curing, healing; whence,

Medecine therapeutique. That Phiſicke, or part of Phiſicke, which preſcribeth remedies for the curing of diſeaſes, and recouerie of health.

Therapitice. The ſame. ¶Rab.

Therbenthine, as Terebinthe.

Theriacal: m. ale: f. Treacelie, of Treacle.

Theriaque: m. Treacle.
Theriaque des Alemans. The iuice of Gineper berries extracted according vnto Art.
Thermes: m. Arme-leſſe Images, &c; as in Terme.
Thermes: f. Hot bathes; or waters which be naturally, and continually, warme.
Theſaurier, & Theſauriſer. as Thezoriſer.
Theſe: f. A generall queſtion, argument, or poſition; alſo, as Tede.
Theſoriſé: m. ée: f. Threaſured vp; hoorded as threaſure.
Theſoriſement: m. A threaſuring vp; a hoording of threaſure.
Theſoriſer, & Theſorizer. To threaſure vp; to hoord, or gather threaſure.
Theumulle: f. A Coat armor, or horſemans coat, worne by a Prince, or Generall on a day of battaile.
Theutonique: com. Teutonicke, German, Allman.
Alliance Theutonique. The Companie, or Corporation of the Hanſe marchants.
Thez. as Tede.
Thezoriſer. To hoord, or gather threaſure; to threaſure vp, to lay vp threaſure.
Thibauld. Theobalde; a proper name for a man.
Thie. as Tede.
Thielles. Ayrie inflamations. ¶Rab.
Thierri. Theoderick; a proper name for a man.
Thilibié. Whoſe ſtones be worne, or waſted away.
Thimbre. The hearbe Sauorie.
Thimbrée. Looke Thymbrée.
Thinnicule. The fiſh Tunnie.
Thiphaine. The Epiphanie, or Twelfth day.
Thiriaque: f. Treacle.
Thlaſié. Hauing bruiſed or broken ſtones.
Thoë. A kind of ſtrong, ſwift, and ſhort-legd Wolfe, rough-coated in Winter, bare in Summer, and a great friend vnto men, whom he defends, and fights for, againſt other mankind wild beaſts.
Thomas, for Eſtomac. ¶Rab.
Thon: m. A Tunnie fiſh.
Thonneu. as Tonlieu, or Toulieu.
Thonnieu. Whence, Droict, ou Gabelle de thonnieu. A certaine toll, or impoſt, leuied to the Duke of Buillons vſe, vpon euerie Tunne, and Hogshead of wine, or other drinke ſold, in groſſe, within his dominions, or tranſported out of them.
Thonnine: f. The backe, or backe-parts, of a Tunnie.
Thorachique: com. Belonging to the breaſt, or ſtomacke.
Artere, & Veine thorachique. Looke Artere, & Veine.
Thore: m. A certaine thicke and round circle, or member about a Pillar.
Thore: f. The hearbe Wolues-bane; alſo, Napellus, or Monks hood; both of one poyſonous kind.
Thouiller, & Thouilleur. as Touiller, & Touilleur.
Thraſonien: m. enne: f. Boaſting, prowd, inſolent, Thraſo-like.
Threſor: m. Threaſure, ſtore of coyne, wealth, riches, abundance; and particularly, the (French) Kings ordinarie reuenue, or demaine; Looke Finance.
Threſor des chartres. The Rolls; or any place wherein publike Records (eſpecially ſuch as concerne the King) are kept.
Le Threſor de garde. The Chamber of a Citie; or, a threaſure neuer touched but vpon moſt vrgent occaſions.
La Chambre du threſor. Looke Chambre.

Threſorerie: f. A Treaſurerſhip; the office, or place of a Threaſurer; alſo, a Threaſurie, the place wherein threaſure is kept.
Threſorier: m. A Threaſurer; whereof there be diuers ſorts (as here, ſo) in France.
Threſorier de l' argenterie. The Threaſurer of the Kings ordinarie Wardrobe, who payes for his Maieſties apparrell, and for that which is allowed vnto his pages, and Gard.
Threſorier de la Chambre aux deniers. The Threaſurer, or Paymaiſter for the diet, and for the implements (as linnen, veſſell, &c) belonging to the diet, of the Kings Houſe.
Threſorier des Chartres. The Maiſter of the Rolls; or, more properly, an officer that keepes all the Euidences concerning the Kings threaſure.
Threſorier du Domaine. The Receiuer Generall of the Kings demaine; as alſo of all moneyes made by the legitimation of baſtards, naturalizing of ſtrangers, and ennobling of Roturiers.
Threſorier de l Eſpargne. The Threaſurer (ſomewhat reſembling our Chauncellor) of the Exchequer; was at the firſt but one, made by Francis the firſt, and appointed to be aboue the Receiuers generall, for the bringing in, and laying vp, of all ſuch finance as ſhould be left in their hands, after the defrayment of the ordinarie charges, and extraordinarie neceſſities, of the Realme: Henry the ſecond (his ſonne) made two of them, and appointed them to ſerue by turnes; one his yeare, for the which he receiued 2000 pounds ſterling wages; the other (who onely made vp his accompts for the yeare before) hauing but halfe as much. The Office, at the firſt inſtitution, was not vendible; but being made alternatiue, it became extreamely ſubiect to the ordinarie Office-diſeaſe of France.
Threſoriers extraordinaires, ou de l' extraordinaire des guerres. Threaſurers, or Paymaiſters for the foot-Regiments; of two ſorts, either generall ones, which are but foure; or particular and prouinciall ones, which be diuers; all alternatiue, and waiting euerie yeare by turnes.
Threſoriers de France. The Threaſurers of France; at firſt there was but one, an officer of the Crowne, and called the great (or high) Treaſurer of France: Afterwards, Philippe de Valois made a ſecond, Charles the fift a third, and Charles the ſixt a fourth; which number continued vntill the raigne of Henry the ſecond, who, at one clap, made 16; a proportion, though great, yet verie moderate, in reſpect of the multitude braught in by his ſucceſſors, and continued to theſe times, wherein there be aboue 200; (viz. 10, or 12 in euerie Generalité;) which finger no money, but looke that the Kings demaine be husbanded, his rents gathered, his houſes, &c, repaired, his debts gotten, and his moneyes brought in, to his moſt aduantage: And although they be not officers of the Crowne (as the firſt high Threaſurer was) nor generall throughout the Realme (howſoeuer ſtiled Threſoriers de France, & Threſoriers Generaux, & Generaux des finances) as the foure auncient Threſoriers were, yet are their Titles verie ſpecious (the better to make money of) their Places held honorable, their Authoritie great, and their Priuiledges many.
Threſorier de la maiſon du Roy. The Threaſurer of, or Paymaiſter for, the houſehold; payes onely all houſehold officers, and ſeruants their penſions, and wages.
Threſorier des menus. The keeper of the priuie purſe; an officer which hath allowed him ten crownes

a day for the Kings extraordinarie, and idle expences.
Threſoriers ordinaires (ou de l'ordinaire) des guerres. The Paymaiſters for the Genſdarmerie.
Threſorier des parties caſuelles. The Threaſurer for all ſuch moneyes as be raiſed by the ſale of Offi-
Aujourd'huy threſorier demain treſarriere: Prov. Looke Treſarriere.
Threſorillon: m. A little threaſure.
Thriacle: m. Treacle; See Theriaque.
Thriacleur: m. A maker, or ſeller of Treacle; alſo, a Mountebanke, Impoſtor, Drug-ſeller, Quack-ſaluer.
Thriaque. as Theriaque.
Thringle. Looke Tringle.
Thrombes de ſang. Clots, or clutters of congealed bloud.
Throne: m. A Throne, a royall Seat.
Thrubal. ¶Rab. A Trumpettor.
Thun: m. The fiſh called a Tunnie.
Thunine: f. as Thonnine; or, as Tun.
Thym: m. The hearbe Time; alſo, a certaine kernell in the kannell bone of man, or beaſt; alſo, a kind of wart within a womans priuities.
Thymbre: f. Winter Sauorie, Pepper Hyſop.
Thymbrée: f. Fiſh-Mint, Water-Mint, Brooke-Mint; and (by ſome) alſo, Balſamint, or Balme-Mint.
Thymelée: f. Spurge-Flax, mountaine Widow-wayle.
Thymique. Veine thy. Looke Veine.
Thymoxaline. A compoſition of Time, Pennyryall, Rue, dry barlie meale, ſalt, water, and vineger; good againſt the gowt, ventoſities, and weakeneſſe of the ſtomacke, and a good euacuator of groſſe, and blacke humors.
Thyn: m. as Thon.
Thynnuncule: A little Tunnie fiſh.
Thyon: m. The Bunting; (a bird.)
Thyphaine. The Twelfth-day in Chriſtmas.
Tiare: f. A round and wreathed Ornament for the head (ſomewhat reſembling the Turkiſh Turbant) worne, in old time, by the Princes, Prieſts, and women of Perſia.
Tiburon: m. A kind of ſea-Calfe, in the Indian ſea.
Tichous: m. Little cakes made of egges, and flower, with a little butter (and ſometimes cheeſe among) eaten ordinarily with ſugar and Roſewater.
Ticq: m. as Tiquet; (in the laſt ſence.)
Ticque torche lorgne. Voices or words, whereby, as by our thwicke thwacke, &c, a beating, or cuffing with the fiſts, &c, is expreſſed.
Ticquet. as Tiquet.
Tictac. Ticke-tacke, a Game at Tables.
Tie. as Tede.
Tiede: com. Luke-warme, neither hot nor cold, betweene hot and cold; alſo, faint, ſlow, remiſſe, or backward in a matter.
Tiedéer. as Tieder.
Tiedement. Luke-warmely; faintly, backwardly.
Tieder. To warme, to make luke-warme, put ſome warmth into, giue a little heat vnto.
Tiedeté: f. Warmeneſſe, luke-warmeneſſe.
Tiedeur: f. Warmth; alſo, moiſtneſſe, or moiſt warmth.
Tiedi: m. ie: f. Warmed, a little heated; alſo, bathed in, or bedewed with, teares.
Se Tiedir. To wax warme, grow luke-warme; alſo, to bath, or bedew, himſelfe in teares.
Tien: m. enne: f. Thine, belonging to thee.
Tien-main: m. A ſtay for the hand along the wall of a ſtaire.
Tiens-le-bien: m. A Crians; the long lune or line which is tyed vnto a Hawkes leg, to keepe her from flying away at her firſt luring.
Tierçage: m. A third earing, tilth, or culture of ground.
Tierce: f. The 24 part of a Seconde; a marueilous little, (and the leaſt) weight vſed by Jewellers.
Tierce. L'heure des tierces. The ſecond quarter, or third houre, of the artificiall day; in Summer eight of the clocke, in Winter tenne.
Tierce. whence, Fievre tierce. A tertian ague; Looke Tiers, whereof this is the feminine.
Tiercé: m. ée: f. Ploughed, or eared the third time; alſo, raiſed, or increaſed a third part euerie yeare.
Tiercé de. In the third place; (a tearme of Blaſon.)
Paroles tiercées. Broken or vnperfect language, diſiointed ſpeeches, halfe words.
Tiercelet: m. The Taſſell, or male of any kind of Hawke, ſo tearmed, becauſe he is, commonly, a third part leſſe then the female.
Vn tiercelet de Iob. An exceeding patient man.
Tiercelin: m. Sarcenet.
Tiercelin. Plomb tiercelin. Lead mingled a third part with white and fine, the other two with courſe and blacke, ſtuffe.
Tiercement: m. A third ploughing, or earing; alſo, an adding of a third part vnto a ſumme; or the riſing, or increaſing a third in value euerie yeare; alſo, a certain inferior officer in a ſhip, &c.
Tiercement. Thirdly.
Tiercer. To plough, till, or eare the ground a third time; alſo, to riſe, or increaſe a third part in value; as in euerie yeare, from v s the firſt, to vij s vj d the ſecond, x s the third, &c.
Tiercer le cens. C'eſt quand pour vingt ſolz de cens le ſubject doit au ſeigneur cenſuel trente ſolz pour le profit de cens. ¶Ragueau.
Tiercerets: m. Certaine croſſe branches on the outſide of a vault.
Tiercerons. The ſame.
Tiercet: m. A Song of triple Stanzoes, or Stanzo of three verſes.
Tierciere: f. The veſſell, or meaſure called a Tierce.
Tiers: m. A tierce, third, third part, or thirden-deale; alſo, as Harle; alſo, a kind of play ſomewhat like our Barly-breake.
Tiers en aſcendant (in the valuation of Offices) is as much as a halfe; whence, if an Office be worth 2000 pounds, the Tiers en aſcendant is held to be 1000 pounds.
Droict de tiers & danger. Looke Danger.
Tiers: m. erce: f. Tertian; third, the third.
Droict de tiers denier. Looke Droict.
Eſcheoir, tomber, ou venir, en main tierce. A noble or free Inheritance, bought by a Roturier, to come by diſcent vnto a third Roturier (the purchaſor being the firſt, and both he and his next-ſucceeding heire hauing done homage for it;) In which caſe it may be parted among heires in the ſame manner as it ſhould haue been, had it continued ſtill in the hands of a Gentleman.
Tiers-pied. as Trepied.
Tiers-poinct: m. Voure poinctuë comme à tiers-poinct. Raiſed a little higher then the hemicicle, or halfe-circle.
Tieu tieu Margot. The voice of countrey people calling their Kine vnto them.
Tieul, for Tel. Such; (an old word.)
Tifé, & Tifer. as Attiffé, & Attiffer.
Tiffer. The ſame; alſo, to tifle with the fingers, or buſie the hands long about a thing, to the end it may be done well, or to the good liking of him that does it.

Tige: f. The ſtaulke, or ſtemme of an hearbe; alſo, the maine ſtocke of a Familie, or Pettigree; whence;
Tant que tige fait ſouche elle ne branche iamais. As long as there be any heires of an elder Prince of the bloud, the younger cannot haue the Crowne.
Tigette: f. A little ſtaulke, or ſtemme.
Tignaine. Red Stirax; an aromaticall Indian wood vſed by Perfumers.
Tigne. as Teigne.
Tigneux. Looke Teigneux.
Tignon: m. A ſcurfe, or ſcalineſſe of the skin.
Tigre: m. A Tiger.
Ialoux comme vn tigre. Extreamely iealous; (for ſo is that beaſt reported to be.)
Tigreau: m. A young, or little Tiger.
Tigreſque: com. Tiger-like; fierce, cruell, violent, swift, ſauage.
Accouſtré à la tigreſque. Horribly beaten or beſcratched, cruelly handled.
Tigreſſe: f. A Tigreſſe, a ſhe Tiger.
Tigrin: m. ine: f. Of a Tiger; like a Tiger; cruell, fierce, violent, ſwift.
Tigrique: com. as Tigrin.
Til: m. The Line, Linden, or Teylet tree; Seeke Tillet.
Tiles. The ſmall moats of duſt appearing, and wauing vp and downe, in the Sunne-beames which come into a roome at the crannies, or holes of walls, &c.
Tilet: m. A ticket, billet, or little note.
Tilier: m. as Tillet; the Linden tree.
Tillac: m. The Orelop, or Arloup; or, more generally, the hatches of a ſhip.
Tillaquer. To boord, or floore the Orelop of a ſhip.
Tille: f. The rinde, or pilling of Hempe, &c; alſo, the fruit of the Linden tree; alſo, a kind of Wimble.
Tillé: m. ée: f. Pilled, or ſhaled, as Hempe.
Tiller. To pill, or ſhale Hempe.
Tillet: m. The Line, Linden, or Teylet tree; alſo, a ticket, billet, or little note.
Tillet femelle. The female Line tree, called in ſome places, the broad-leafed Elme.
Tillet maſle. The male Line tree; the timber whereof is yellowiſh, and more knottie, hard, and ſubſtantiall, then that of the female, which is whitiſh, plaine, ſmooth, and ſoft in the handling and cutting.
Tilleul. as Til.
Tilleux: m. euſe: f. Knobbie, ſcalie, rough, rugged.
Tillier: m. The Linden tree.
Tiltre: m. A tittle; a ſmall line drawne ouer an abridged word, to ſupply the letters wanting; alſo, a title, or inſcription; alſo, a title, name, ſurname, or addition of dignitie; alſo, a title vnto land, &c; alſo, an Euidence, Deed, or Inſtrument, of Purchaſe, &c; alſo, a brace of dogs layed in a place to be let ſlip at a Deere as he paſſeth by; alſo, the rate, value, or degree of goodneſſe of gold, and ſiluer; the higheſt of the firſt being 24 graines, and of the ſecond 12 d; but to be wrought by Goldſmithes, &c, at 23 graines three quarters the one, and 11 d 10 graines the other.
Timble. A Coat-armor, or coat of Armor; or as Tymbre; (an old word.)
Timbon. A kind of braſen Drumme.
Timbre: m. A Colledge-bell; or the Hall-bell of a Colledge, or Cloiſter; alſo, the bell of a little Clocke; alſo, a great Tub; alſo, the ſtone baſon, trough, or veſſell at the foot of a Fountaine; alſo, the creaſt, or cogniſance, that's borne vpon the helmet of a coat of Armes: This in the opinion of our Blaſonners, who call it a Timber, and deriue it from the Germane Timmer; whereunto Nicot ſeemes agreeable, as to the ſence, in his, Timbre qu'on met ſus vn Heaulme; and Vigenere vpon Liuie, in his, Il portoit au timbre de ſon cabaſſet vne figure de poiſſon; yet L'Oiſeau, a late, and learned writer, appropriates it (in his Booke des Ordres) onely to the Helmet.
Vn timbre de Martres. A certaine quantitie, or number, of Martins skins.
Timbré. Armoiries timbrées. Timbered, creaſted; adorned with a creaſt, or with a mantle, helme, creaſt, &c; or (onely) inſigned with an Helmet.
Cerveau mal timbré. An idle, ignorant, or ill-furniſhed braine; a wit that wanteth fit, or due ornaments.
Timbrer. To timber; to creaſt; to furniſh, or adorne with a creaſt, or with a mantle, helme, and creaſt (as one of our lateſt Blaſoners expounds it;) or (onely) to garniſh, or inſigne it with an helmet.
Timide: com. Timerous, feareſull, awfull, baſhfull, faint, cowardlie, white-liuered.
La mere du timide ne ſçait que c'eſt de pleurer: Pro. The mother of a feareſull ſonne knowes not what tis to weepe.
Timidement. Timorouſly, feareſully, cowardly, baſhfully.
Timidité: f. Timiditie, timorouſneſſe, feareſullneſſe, faintheartedneſſe, cowardlineſſe, baſhfullneße.
Timon: m. The beame, or draught tree of a wagon, &c; alſo, the ſtaffe, or banale (which we call the whip) of the Rudder, or ſterne of a ſhip.
Timoré: m. ée: f. Frighted, ſkared, put into a feare.
Timpan. Looke Tympan.
Timpaniſé. Baſtiment timp. Hauing a gable-end.
Timper. To tingle, to make ring or ſound, &c; as Tinter. ¶Rab.
Tin: m. Tinne; alſo, a tinging; whence;
Les oreilles me font tin. Mine eares tingle, or glow.
Tiné: m. A Coleſtaffe, or Stang; a big ſtaffe whereon a burthen is carried betweene two on their ſhoulders.
Tine: f. A Stand, open Tub, or Soe, moſt in vſe during the time of Vintage, and holding about foure or fiue paile-fulls, and commonly borne, by a Stang, betweene two.
Tinée: f. A Stand-full, or Soe-full.
Tinel: m. A houſehold, or familie; alſo, the roome wherein all the ſeruants of a familie dine and ſup; alſo, as Tine.
Tinet: m. The Whall tearmed a Herlepoole, or Whirlepoole; alſo, as Tine.
Tinette: f. A little Stand, Soe, or Tub; a bathing tub.
Tiniez: m. Long white rockes lying vnder water in the ſea.
Tinne. as Tine.
Tinole: f. A little Soe, Tub, Stand, &c.
Tinon: m. A little Soe; a Stand, or ſmall open Tub.
Tintaloriſé. Grimme, frowning, froward.
Tintamarre: f. A claſhing, or craſhing, a ruſtling or gingling noiſe, made in the fall of woodden ſtuffe, or veßels of mettall; alſo, a blacke Santus; the lowd wrangling, or iangling outcryes of ſcoulds, or ſcoulding fellowes; any extreame or horrible dinne.
Tintamarré: m. ée: f. Craſhing, gingling; wrangling, iangling; extreame-dinne-making.
Tinté. Tinged, tingled, rung, reſounded; towled.
Tintement: m. A tinging, ringing, tingling; towling; reſounding, cleere-ſounding.
Tinter. To ting, ring, tingle; to towle; to reſound, or ſound cleere.
Les oreilles me tintent. Mine eares tingle, or glow.
Tinthimal. as Tithymale.

Tintillant: m. ante: f. Tinging, ringing, tingling; tolling; resounding.
Tintimale. as Tithymale.
Tintin: m. The tinging, or tolling of a bell; also, the warble, or song of a Nightingale.
Tintiner. To ting, or toll, a bell.
Tintoins. Looke Tintouins.
Tinton: m. The burthen of a song; also, the ting of a bell; also, a kind of dance.
Tintoner. To ting, or toll often; to glow, tingle, dingle.
Tintouin: m. A ringing, singing, or tingling in the head, about the eares; also, great care, anxietie, or trouble of spirit; whence;
Il a beaucoup de tintouins en la teste. His thoughts are verie much busied, his pate sore troubled, braine extreamely puzled; his head is full of proclamations, perplexitie, dinne.
Tintouiner. as Tintoner; also, to resound in the eare; and to trouble, puzle, or perplex the braine.
Tinture: f. Red wine, or Aligant; (belike because it staines.)
Tiphaine: f. The Epiphanie, Twelfth day.
Tipher. as Tiffer.
Tiphoine. as Tiphaine; (Rustiquement.)
Tipule: f. A water-spider; a spider which runnes on the water without sinking.
Tique: f. The vermine called a Ticke.
Tiquet: m. as Tique; or, a little Ticke; also, the hearbe Kicke, Ricinus, Palma Christi; also, a disease which on a suddaine stopping a horses breath, makes him to stop, and stand still.
Au tiquet. In an exceeding strait or extremitie, at his wits end, not knowing further what to say or doe.
Prés du tiquet de la mort. Neere his last gaspe, readie to breath his last.
Tiqueté: m. Ticketted, or appointed by ticket.
Tirace. Looke Tirasse.
Tirade: f. A draught, pull, plucke; shot, or shoot; a drawing, pulling; shooting.
Tirage: m. Draggage; or, a drawing, haling, pulling, plucking, towing, tugging.
Droict de tirage pour le sel, ou pour le Vin. Looke vnder Droict.
Tirailler. To rend, or teare in peeces.
Tiran: m. Any string, lace, line, or cord, which pulled at one end, closes at the other the thing it is fastened vnto; Hence, Les tirans d'une bourse; &, les tirans d'un chaperon de faucon; the strings wherewith they are shut.
Tirans: m. as Trayans.
Tirant: m. ante: f. Drawing, &c; Looke Tirer.
Tirasse: f. A Drag-net for Partridges, &c; also, the strap of a boot.
Tirassé: m. ée: f. Dragged, pulled, haled, towed along, or towards.
Tirasser. To drag, pull, hale, tow along, or towards.
Tire: f. A draught, pull, plucke, twitch, tug, lug; stretch, retch; also, a shot, or shoot, hurle, fling, throw, cast, pitch; also, a tire; a stroke, bit; kicke, yarke; iert, jerke, twang, twing; also, a reach, gate, course, or length and continuance of course; also, the drawing out of a womans gowne-sleeues with Cobweb-lawne, &c.
A tire d'aile. By force, with might of wing; also, with long and much flight, or flying.
A tire & à aire. Quite and cleane; Looke Aire.
Tout d'une tire. All in one length, continually, or continuedly; at once, at one iert, all together; without stop, intermission, or delay.

Tiré: m. ée: f. Drawne, haled, dragged, towed, pulled, plucked, lugged; trayled along, or towards; also, stretched, retched; also, shot, hurled, throwne, cast, flung; also, moued, induced, perswaded; also, wrested, extracted, or forced from; also, shot, or slaine, with a Pistoll, &c; also, drawne, portrayed, delineated.
Tiré de loing. Farre fetched.
Bien tiré. Well drawne; also, neat, spruce, fine, tricksie, trimme.
Tire-balle. An Instrument wherewith Surgeons draw bullets out of the bodie.
Tirée: f. as Tire.
Tirée d'oeil. The sight, view, looke, or glaunce of the eye.
Tirebourre: f. A worme, or skrue; the Instrument wherewith a charged Cannon is vnladen.
Tire-feu: m. A medicine, or plaister for the drawing of fire, or extreame heat, out of a wound, &c.
Tire-fiens: m. A Drag wherewith dung is taken vp, vpon the remoue of a dunghill.
Tire-fleiche: f. An Instrument wherewith Surgeons draw arrowes out of the bodie.
Tirefond de Chirurgien. A Surgeons Terebra, or Piercer; an Instrument which he puts vnto diuers vses.
Tirefond de tonnelier. A Coopers Turrell; the Augar wherewith he boreth holes.
Tirelaines: m. Cloke-twitchers; rogues which in the night-time lurke about the corners of streets, to snatch away the clokes of such as passe by them.
Tire-laisse: m. A forgoing of a new-taken hold; a speedie restorall, or giuing backe, of a thing seised as his owne, but prouing another mans.
Tire-lardon: m. A lickorish, or greedie fellow.
Tire-larigaud. Boire à tire-la. To carowse lustily, quaffe extreamely.
Tirelire. A Christmas box; a box hauing a cleft on the lid, or in the side, for money to enter it; vsed in France by begging Fryers, and here by Butlers, and Prentices, &c; also, the warble, or song of a Larke.
Tirelirer. To warble, or sing like a Larke.
Tirelupin: m. A catch-bit, or captious companion; a scowndrell, or scuruie fellow.
Tirelyre. as Tirelire.
Tirement: m. A drawing, haling, dragging, trayling, towing; pulling, plucking, twitching, along, or towards; also, a retching, or stretching; also, a shooting, darting, flinging, hurling, throwing; also, a wresting, exacting, or forcing from; also, a drawing, delineating, pourtraying; also, a yerking, ierting, kicking; also, a going along, or making towards.
Tire-pance. A tir. Hold bellie hold, or till the bellie cracke withall.
Tire-pied: m. A Shoomakers stirrup.
Tire-pierre. A Surgeons Instrument, made like a toothpicker at the one end, like a hooke at the other; and vsed for the drawing of stones, &c, out of the bladder, &c, or bullets, &c, out of the bodie.
Tire-poil: m. A haire-plucker; an instrument, medicine, or plaister, for the plucking away of haire.
Tirer. To draw, drag, trayle; tow, hale; pull, plucke, lug, tug, twitch; bring, lead, along, or towards; also, to stretch, retch, dilate, extend, wiredraw; also, to dart, shoot, sling, fling, hurle, cast, throw, pitch fromwards; also, to shoot one with a Pistoll, &c; also, to take, extract, wrest, or force from; also, to yerke, winse, fling, or fye out with the heeles; also, to wend, goe, trauell, make along or towards; also, to draw, delineate, or pourtray; also, to resemble, or draw neere vnto.

Tirer des armes. To fence.
Tirer arriere. To giue or fall backe, to retire.
Tirer à l'aviron. To row hard, to tug at an Oare.
Tirer au baſton. To ſtriue, contend, ſtruggle, wraſtle; alſo, to fight, or deale blowes; whence, Tandis qu'ils tiroient au baſton. Whileſt that they bickered, or layed about them.
Tirer les chauſſes. To tipe vp the heeles, to dye.
Tirer au chevrotin. Looke Chevrotin.
Tirer au collier avec. To ſtriue, contend, wraſtle hard with.
Tirer à conſequence. To make an example, or precedent of.
Tirer la couverte de ſon coſté. To pull the Couerlet vnto his ſide; viz. all dealings, or gaines vnto him, and his.
Tirer de deſſous l'aile. To purloyne, ſteale cunningly, filch priuily from.
Tirer l'eau. To leake, or let in water.
Tirer l'eau à ſon moulin. Looke vnder Eau.
Tirer l'eſpaule. To ſhrinke in the necke, or liſt vp the ſhoulders, as one that hath no liking of, or fancie to, a matter.
Tirer ſon eſpingle du ieu. To flinch, or ſlinke away in an extremitie, to ſlip his necke out of the collar.
Tirer à faute. To miſſe, in ſhooting.
Tirer à la fin. To be at the laſt caſt, lye a dying, approach vnto his end.
Tirer des flancs. A horſe to ſtrike often at his owne bellie.
Tirer du foing aux chiens. To ſpue, vomit, caſt his gorge.
Tirer la laine. To ſnatch a cloake off a mans backe, and runne away withall.
Tirer la langue ſur. Scornefully to put out the tongue at.
Tirer hors ligne. To ſumme vp, &c; as vnder Ligne; alſo, to expreſſe, mention, ſet downe.
Tirer à la main. A horſe to preſſe vpon the hand, or ſtriue to get forward, and goe faſter then he ſhould.
Tirer l'oreille. Seeke Oreille.
Tirer païs. (In hunting) to runne his countrey; or, to flye directly forward; (in trauelling) to goe on, rid ground, gaine way.
Tirer la quintaine. To runne at the Quintaine.
Tirer au regnard. To ſpue, caſt, vomit.
Tirer le rideau. To diſplay, manifeſt, make apparent; alſo, to conclude, or ſhut vp.
Tirer au rivet. To ſow like a Shoomaker; alſo, to plucke as much from one as from another.
Tirer la robbe. Looke Robbe.
Tirer le ſerpent du buiſſon. To performe a difficult, or dangerous exploit.
Tirer ſon vent. To fetch his breath.
Tirer les vers du nez à. To pumpe, or draw ſecrets out of, to vndermine.
Tant que le vaiſſeau peut tirer. As long as it will runne, or hath any thing in it.
Le ventre luy tire. His bellie ſtrouts, retches, or is readie to cracke, by fullneſſe.
Chaſcun tire à ſon profit: Pro. Euerie one lookes after his owne profit, or inclines vnto that which is likelie to bring him in gaine.
Mieux vaut tirer que rompre: Prov. Better to bow then to cracke, to bend then to breake.
On ne peut tirer du ſac que ce qu'y eſt: Pro. Looke vnder Sac.
Pour bien tirer il faut prendre viſée: Prov. To doe things well we muſt conſult aduiſe.
Qui bien tire deux en a: Pro. Who pulls amaine does rend in twaine; he that plucks hard gets two.
Ce qu' aſſemble pille pille, deſaſſemble tire tire: Pro. What hath beene got by miſerie and pillage, comes to be ſubiect to vnthriftie ſpoylage.
On touche touſiours ſur le cheval qui tire: Pro. The free drag-horſe is alwayes ouerraught.

Tiret: m. A little draught, pull, plucke, twitch, tug, &c, as in Tire; alſo, a little ſtroke, or tittle in writing.

Tiretaine: f. Linſie-wolſie; or a kind thereof, worne ordinarily by the French peaſants.

Tireur: m. A drawer, puller, plucker, haler, lugger, tugger, tower; a ſhooter, darter, caſter, hurler, flinger; a retcher, ſtretcher, extender, lengthener, wire-drawer.
Tireur à l'aviron. A Rower.
Tireur de laine. A Teyſer of wooll; alſo, as Tire-laine.

Tirin. as Tarin.

Tirofageur: m. A cheeſe-eater. ¶Rab.

Tiroir: m. A ring, or any other thing, on the outſide of a doore, ſeruing to pull it to, or ſhut it after one that goes out.

Tirouër: m. Tiring for Hawkes; alſo, a Drawer vnder a Table, or Cupboord; alſo, as Tyrouër.

Tiroüoir. The ſame; or, as Tiroir.

Tirſe: f. The dart, or iauelin of Bacchus.

Tiſanne: f. Ptiſanne, Barlie water.

Tiſon: m. A fire-brand.
A Noel au Perron; à Paſques au tiſon: Pro. Warmth at Chriſtmas, cooth at Eaſter; the fire which Chriſt-tide ſpareth Eaſter ſpendeth.

Tiſonner. Often to ſtirre firebrands, or lay them cloſe together.

Tiſſerand: m. A Weauer.

Tiſſerande: f. A woman Weauer.

Tiſſeure: f. A weauing; or, as Tiſſure.

Tiſſier, & Tiſſiere: f. as Tiſſerand, & Tiſſerande.

Tiſſotier: m. A Weauer.

Tiſſu: m. A bawdricke, ribbon, fillet, or head-band, of wouen ſtuffe.

Tiſſu: m. uë: f. Wouen; plaited, interlaced, wound one within another.

Tiſſure: f. A weauing; or plaiting; an interlacing; alſo, the woofe, or weft; the thread which croſſeth ſtuffe, or goeth ouerthwart it in the weauing; alſo, any wouen ſtuffe; but eſpecially cloth of gold, ſiluer, ſilke, &c.

Tiſtre. To weaue; alſo, to plait, infould, enwrap, interlace one within another.

Titan. Le Titan. (Poetically) the Sunne.

Titanique: com. Belonging, or, like to the Sunne.
Force Titanique. Huge, mightie, Giant-like force. ¶Rab.

Titeller. To ting, or tingle, as a (little) Bell.

Tithymale: m. The hearbe Spurge, Tithymale, Wolues-milke.
Tithymale Amygdaloïdes. as Tithymale Characias; or the ſecond kind thereof.
Tithymale Caryites. Myrtle Spurge, female Spurge.
Tithymale Characias. Wood Spurge, or male Spurge.
Tithymale Cypariſſias. Cypreſſe Spurge, Pine-Spurge; or (as Mathiolus thinkes) ſmall Eſula.
Tithymale Dendroïdes. Tree Spurge, growes among ſtones, and rockes, to a tree-like height.
Tithymale femelle. Myrtle Spurge, female Spurge, Phiſicke Spurge.

Ti-

Tithymale Helioſcopius. Sunne Spurge, time Tithymale.
Tithymale Leptyphyllos. Small-leafed Spurge.
Tithymale marin. Sea-Spurge, ſea-Wartwort.
Tithymale maſle. Wood Spurge, male Spurge, Almond Spurge.
Tithymale Myrſinites, & Myrtien. as Tithymale femelle.
Tithymale Paralius. Sea-Spurge, Wolues-milke, ſea-Wartwort.
Tithymale Platyphyllos. Broad-leafed Spurge.
Tithymale ſuyvant le ſoleil. as Tithymale Helioſcopius.
Titillation: f. A tickling.
Titillé: m. ée: f. Tickled.
Titiller. To tickle; to ſtirre, touch, or moue with delight.
Titrac: m. The faſhion, or order of a thing.
Titre. Looke Tiltre.
Titubant: m. ante: f. Tripping, ſtumbling, ſtaggering; faultering, ſtutting, ſtammering; alſo, quiuering, doubtfull, wauering.
Titubation: f. A tripping, ſtumbling, ſtaggering; a faultering, ſtutting, ſtammering; a quiuering, trembling, doubtfullneſſe, wauering.
Titulaire: com. Titular; hauing a title; conſiſting of titles, or onely in title.
Tochere. Fearne, brakes; or a fearnie ground. ¶Rab.
Tocque: f. as Toque.
Tocqué: m. ée: f. Coyffed.
Tocquement: m. as Toquement.
Toffe: f. as Touffe; alſo, a plant called Spunge of the Riuer.
Toffu: m. uë: f. Looke Touffu.
Toge: f. A gowne; long robe, or garment.
Togue. as Toge.
Tohu. Confuſion. ¶Rab.
Toict: m. The roofe, or couer of a houſe; alſo, the houſe it ſelfe.
Toile: f. Cloth, linnen cloth; alſo, a ſtaulking horſe, of cloth, &c; whence, Chaſſer à la toile; alſo, the cawle, or kell within the bellie; alſo, as Peritoine.
Toile de araigne. A Cobweb.
Toile baptiſte. A ſtrong, and verie white (but courſe) Cambricke, whereof Nunnes make their vayles.
Toile de Cambray. Cambricke. d'Hollande; Holland.
Toile Gautier. See Gautier.
Toile de maiſon; &, Toile de meſnage. A good ſtrong huſwiues, or houſehold, linnen cloth.
Iour de toile. A Court day, day of Pleading, Hall day.
Vn pènitent de quatre aulnes de toile. A ſmall, or ſleight repentant (God he knowes.)
A toile ourdie Dieu mande le fil: Pro. Seeke Fil.
Toiles: f. Toyles; or, a Hay to incloſe, or intangle, wild beaſts in.
Toilette: f. A Toylet; the ſtuffe which Drapers lap about their clothes; alſo, a bag to put night-clothes, and buckeram, or other ſtuffe to wrap any other clothes, in.
Toillé. as Touillé.
Toinin: m. (A diminutiue of Anthoine) Tonie.
Toiſage: m. A fadoming; or the meaſuring by fadomes.
Toiſe: f. A fadome; a meaſure containing ſix feet in length; This is the moſt ordinarie Toiſe, howſoeuer the Kings be ſeuen foot and foure ynches; and ſome of particular places longer, ſome leſſe.
Toiſe des bois & foreſts. The fadome for woods, and foreſts; is (by the cuſtomes of Orleans*) fiue foot and a halfe long.*
Toiſe de Bourgongne. The Burgonian fadome, is ſeuen foot and a halfe.
Toiſe de charpentier. The Carpenters fadome, is as the fadome for woods, &c.
Toiſe cube. The ſquare fadome, or a fadome in ſquare, containes all ouer 216 feet.
Toiſe de Maſſon. The Maſons fadome, is (as the ordinarie one) ſix foot long.
Toiſe des Meſureurs de terres, & vignes. The Surueyors fadome, is but fiue foot long.
Toiſe de Roy. The Kings fadome, is, among Architects, three moderate paces; and among Surueyors, ſeuen feet and foure ynches.
Toiſer. To fadome, or meaſure by fadome.
Toiſeur: m. A fadomer.
Toiſon: m. A fleece of wooll; the whole wooll of a ſheepe.
Tolerable: com. Tollerable, ſufferable, indifferent, reaſonable; that may be borne, indured, abidden.
Rente tolerable. An auncient rent which cannot be extinguiſhed, nor bought out, but muſt be borne, & payed.
Tolerablement. Tollerably, ſufferably.
Tolerance: f. Tolleration, ſufferance, permiſſion, induring, patience, forbearing.
Tolerer. To tollerate, ſuffer, permit, beare with, winke at, indure, abide.
Toliban: m. A Turbant, or Turkiſh hat.
Tollart: m. An executioner, a hangman; and hence, the Prouoſt Marſhalls attendants be (in diſgrace) oftentimes called Tollarts.
Tollere. A Turkiſh coyne worth about iiij s ſterling.
Tollet. A Thowle, &c, as Scalme.
Tollieu. as Toulieu.
Tollin: m. The toll taken by a Miller.
Tollir. To remoue, take away; diſannull, abrogate, cancell, aboliſh, make void.
Tollu: m. uë: f. Taken, remoued, lift, or carried, away.
Tolopan. as Turbant.
Tolte: f. A taking, exaction, leuie.
Tombant: m. ante: f. Falling, or tumbling downe, alighting vpon.
Tombant levant. Well or ill, hittie miſſie, here or there, one way or other.
Tombe: m. A Gurnard fiſh.
Tombe: f. A tombe; a tombe-ſtone, or graue-ſtone.
Tombé: m. ée: f. Fallen, tumbled downe or into; light vpon.
Tombeau. A tombe, graue, ſepulcher.
Tombement: m. A falling, or tumbling downe; a lighting vpon.
Tomber. To fall, or tumble downe, or into; alſo, to light vpon.
Tomber de l'eau. To piſſe, or make water.
Tomber à faux. Looke Faux.
Attendre le gland qui tombe. (An ordinarie perſon) to liue in expectation of profit, or preferment, at Court.
Ie crains fort, ou tombera cecy. I greatly feare the ſucceſſe, or iſſue of this matter; &, ou veulent tomber ces belles parolles. I doubt me no good will come of this glozing.
Qui chope, & ne tombe adiouſte à ſes pas: Prov. The man that trips, and falls not, gaines a ſtep.
Vn meſchant vaiſſeau iamais ne tombe de la main: Pro. The beſt things runne more hazard then the worſt; ill veſſells neuer, good ones often, fall.
Tombereau: m. A Tumbrell, or Dung-cart.
Tombereaux de Verberie. Looke Verberie.
Tomberel. as Tombereau.

Prendre les perdris au tomberel; viz. by tunnelling.

Tomberelée: f. A tumbrell full, the load of a tumbrell.

Tombier: m. A Tombe-maker.

Tombir. To make a noise with stamping, or trampling; to rustle, or hurrie, like the feet of many galloping horses.

Tombissement: m. A stamping, or trampling noise; the rustling, or hurrie of running horses feet.

Tome: m. A Tome, or Volume; part of a Booke, or Worke, in one volume.

Tome: f. A traine with a lame and disarmed Heron, for the making of a young Faulcon.

Tomin: m. Six-pennie weight, or the weight of a Spanish Reall.

Ton: m. A tune, or sound; also, the Tunnie fish.

Ton: m. ta: f. Thy, belonging to thee.

Tondailles: f. A sheepe-sheering, or the feast made thereat.

Tondelet: m. (A fashion of) Bases for a horseman, or one that rides.

Tondereſſe: f. A woman that sheereth, or shaueth.

Tondeur: m. A sheerer, clipper, powler, shauer; barber; vermine-snipper.

Tondeur de draps. A Shearman, or Clothworker.

Tondeur de nappes. as Escornifleur.

Tondeuſe: f. The wife of a Clothworker, or Barber; also, a woman which liues by sheering of cloth, or cutting of haire.

Tondoiſon. as Tonſure.

Tondre. To sheere, clip, cut, powle, nott, pare round; sweepe cleane, or cleere away.

Tondre ſur vn oeuf. To accuse truth of falsehood, charge vertue with vice, find a fault where there is none; also, to make a commoditie of any thing, how bare soeuer it be; whence, Ils trouueront à tondre ſur vn oeuf.

Si ie ne fais cela qu'on me tonde. Let me be baffled if I doe not that.

Aprez raire n'y a que tondre: Prov. Sheeres vpon shauen places doe no good; nought's to be got where all's alreadie gone.

Tondu: m. Shorne, clipped, powled, notted, cut, pared round.

La feſſe tonduë. One that is bare-breecht, or hath not a rag to couer his tayle withall; also, a notable wencher; or, as Feſſe-tonduë.

Il a eſté tondu de ſon entrepriſe, ou de ſa brigue. He hath failed of his purpose, or lost his suit.

Il ne craint ny les rez ny les tondus. Looke Rez.

Toutesfois fut le pré tondu. Yet was the meddow mowen; the businesse ended.

Tondu-ras. Close-shauen, leuelled, or layed euen with.

Tondure: f. as Tonſure.

Tonlieu: m. Toll due vnto the Lord of a Faire or Market, for the sale, or standing of cattell, and other commodities in it.

Tonne: f. as Tonneau; also, an arber.

Tonneau: m. A Tunne; or (generally) any great vessell, or peece of Caske for Wine, &c; as a Tunne, Pipe, Hogshead, &c; also, a Tunnell for Partridges.

C'eſt d'un autre tonneau. This is of another straine, or pitch of conceit.

Tonneler, & Tonneleur. Seeke Tonneller, & Tonnelleur.

Tonnelet: m. A little Tunne, or small peece of Caske.

Tonnelier: m. A Cooper.

Tonnelieu. as Tonlieu.

Tonnelle: f. A Tunnell, or staulking horse for Partridges; also, a round Arbor, or an Alley couered round with the interlaced branches of a Vine, &c; from;

Tonnelles. The tender branches of trees plashed, or interlaced together as they grow.

Tonneller. To take Partridges with a Tunnell, or staulking horse.

Tonnelleur: m. A Tunneller; a Taker of Partridges with a Tunnell.

Tonner. To thunder.

On n'orroit pas Dieu tonner. The noise, or dinne they made was most extreame; a thunderclap could not haue beene heard among them.

Quand il tonne en Mars nous pouvons dire helas: Prov. We say that, Winters thunder is Summers wonder.

Tant tonne qu'il pleut; &, Tant tonne, & vente, que pluye deſcend: Pro. So much it thunders that at length raine falls; Looke Plouvoir.

Tout ce que tonne ne nous eſtonne point: Pro. All that does thunder makes vs not to wonder.

Tonnerre: m. Thunder.

Apres gros tonnerre force eau ſur la terre: Prov. After a furious thunder much raine the earth doth blunder.

Tonnereux: m. euſe: f. Full of thunder, thunder-like, thundering.

Tonnine: f. A meat made of Tunnie; or, as Thonnine.

Tonnoirre: m. Thunder.

Tonſilles: f. Certaine kernells at the root of the tongue, subiect vnto inflamations, and swellings, occasioned by the falling downe of humors from the head.

Tonſture. as Tonſure.

Tonſure: f. A sheering, clipping, powling, notting, cutting, or paring round; also, the shauing, or shauen crowne of a Priest; whence, Tonſure clericale; &;

'A ſimple tonſure. Such Clergie men as are but meerely Clarkes, not hauing taken Orders, nor vndertaken the charge of soules; of which ranke are Prebends, Canons, Deacons, &c.

Alleguer ſa tonſure. A Priest, challenging the priuiledge of his Orders, to appeale from the ciuill Iudge vnto his Ordinarie.

Tonſuré: m. ée: f. Sheered, clipped, powled; also, shauen; whence;

Clercs tonſurez. Shauelings, full Priests.

Tonſurer. To clip, sheere, powle, nott; also, to shaue.

Tonture: f. as Tonſure.

Topaſe: f. A topase, stone.

Topiaire: f. The making of Images in, or Arbors of, Plants.

Topiquer. Se top. To be titchie, or apt to take offence at; also, to oppose, contest with, bandie against.

Topiques: m. Topicks; bookes, or places of Logicall inuention; also, remedies (as plaisters, &c) applyed vnto vnsound parts of the bodie.

Topiqueur: m. An acute arguer, or disputer; or, an inuentor of Logicall, and probable arguments.

Topographe: m. A describer of places.

Topographie: f. The description of a place.

Toppe. Terre eſtant en toppe. Waste (because vnhusbanded, or vntilled) ground.

Toque: f. A (fashion of) bonnet, or cap (somewhat like our old Courtiers velvet cap) worne ordinarily by schollers, and some old men.

Toque d'or, ou d'argent. Plated cloth of gold, or siluer; a kind of tinsell, or stuffe that is striped with gold, or siluer.

To-

Toquement: m. as Toque; also, the wearing of, or furnishing the head with, a Toque; also, a clapping, hitting, or knocking against.

Toquer. To put on a Toque; to furnish or attire the head therewith; also, to clap, knocke, or hit against; also, to iumble a woman.

Toquesing: m. An Allarum bell; or the ringing thereof.

Toquet: m. A little Toque; or a kind of bonnet not so large as the Toque, worne most by children.

Torasse: f. A low and little-bodied Cow, which couets the Bull more then other kine, and neither giues much milke, nor brings many calues.

Torce. as Torse.

Torche: f. A Linke; also, the wreathed clowt, wisp, or wad of straw, layed by wenches betweene their heads, and the things which they carrie on them; also, the heart, or pith of a Pine, or of any Rosen-yeelding tree; also, as Torchon de paille, in the later sence.

Torches. as Fenons.

Torche de fonte. A fashion of great Linke (made all of wax, and without staffe, or handle) borne anights before great persons, by their Pages, &c.

La torche au poing. With as much shame as may be; or, as in Amende honorable.

Torche lorgne. Words like our thwicke thwacke, expressing a liberall and free dole of blowes; also, here and there, without discretion, at randome.

Torché: m. ée: f. Wiped, made cleane.

Torche-bouche. Banquet à tor. Which costs a man nothing, or whereat he nothing payes.

Torche-cul: m. A wisp for the tayle.

Torche-culatif: m. iue: f. Taile-wiping.

Torche-pot: m. The bird called a Nut-iobber.

Il resemble au torche-pot. He is his wiues Maister, or dare schoole her when she doth amisse; (from the propertie of the cocke Nut-iobber, which beateth his henne when she hath wandered any long time from him.)

Torcher. To wipe, or make cleane; also, to buffet, or cuffe with the fists.

Torcher à autruy le cul de sa chemise. To helpe a man (but as he could haue holpen himselfe) onely by his owne meanes; (Looke vnder Chemise; ) The like is;

Torcher le nez de sa manche. To pay a man with his owne money; to giue him an apple out of his owne Orchard, a loafe of his owne batch, a pig of his owne Sow.

Torcheux: m. euse: f. Full of Linkes; of a linke; linke-like; seruing for a linke.

Torchon: m. A rubber, a wiper, a shooe-clowt.

Torchon de paille. A wisp of straw; also, a handfull, or small bundle thereof; as much as a Thatcher layes at once.

Torcionné: m. ée: f. Wrested, wrinched, violently writhen.

Torcis de vers gillons. A wreathed bunch of small wormes.

Torcol: m. The little ash-coloured, and long-tongued bird, called a Wrie-necke.

Torcollet: m. The same.

Torcu. A certaine vnluckie bird, of a browne, or (as in some places) of a white colour.

Torculaire: com. Belonging to the tunnell of the braine; whence; Veine torc. Looke Veine.

Tordement: m. A wreathing, twisting, twining; wringing, wresting; a crisping, or curling.

Tordille: f. A fleabitten, menniled, or spotted colour of horses, dogs, &c.

Tordoir: m. The bedder, or vnder stone of an oyle-mill, or presse.

Tordre. To wreath, twine, twist, writhe, bend or turne round, wind in, whirle about; hence also, to crispe, or curle; also, to wring, wrest, wrinch.

Tordre le col à. To make a wrie necke, or cast a wrie looke, at; to scorne, contemne, despise.

Tordre le nez à. To make a nose of wax of; to wrest, wrie, manage, turne, at pleasure.

se Tordre & fourvoyer. To goe aside out of the way.

Ne faire que tordre, & avaller. To make brick-walls of his cheekes, to swallow his meat halfe chawed, to rowle it once about his (paued) mouth, and then let it downe.

Femme qui son alleure tord; &c; Prov. Looke vnder Femme.

Il ne se tort pas qui va plain chemin: Prov. Hee that goes on plaine ground straines not his foot; mischiefe attends those that take rugged wayes.

Tore: f. Broad-leaued Wolues-bane; or as Thore.

Toreau: m. A Bull; Seeke Taureau.

Toret: m. A small Wimble

Torment: m. Torment, or torture; extreame affliction, great vexation, hellish anguish, horrible paine; Looke Tourment.

Tormente: f. A tempest, or storme of wind at sea.

Les tormentes des procez. The troubles, or troublesome vexations, attending on suits.

Tormenté: m. ée: f. Tormented, tortured, excruciated; extreamely vexed, grieued, afflicted; horribly toßed.

Tormenter. To torment, racke, torture, excruciate; grieue, or afflict extreamely, put vnto horrible paine; also, to toße, as a raging sea doth a ship.

Tormentille: f. Tormentile, Setfoile (an herbe.)

Tormentine: f. Turpentine.

Tornadot: m. A returne of Dowrie; the giuing back of a womans portion.

Torné. as Tourné.

Torne-dos. Looke Tourne-dos.

Torner. To turne, alter, change, &c; as Tourner.

Torneroſt: m. A Turne-spit.

Tornes. as Tournes.

Tornesol: m. Turnesole, Heliotropium, Wartwort.

Tornier. Often to stagger, or turne round, like a Stag thats drunke with brouzing in May; also, to beat vp and downe, or flie round, thereby to deceiue the dogs that pursue him.

Torpille: f. The Crampe-fish; a fish that benummes the hands of such as take, or touch, it.

Torpin. as Torpille: ¶ Marseillois.

Torque: f. A small groue, or tuft of wood, growing by it selfe.

Torqué: m. ée: f. Writhen, wreathed; wound in, wrapped about.

Torquer. To writhe, wreath; wind in, wrap about.

Torqueure: f. A wreath; wreathing; place or thing writhen; and particularly, the wreath whereby the foot of a graffe is preserued from the iniurie of weather.

Torrefié: m. ée: f. Scorched, parched, toasted; dried by the fire, or in the Sunne, and then done to dust.

Torrefier. To scorch, parch, toast; to drie, & afterwards doe vnto dust.

Torrent: m. A torrent, land flood, full of waters from a hill, caused by raine, or snow; a swift streame running with a great, and violent sweepe.

Tor-

Torrentin: m. ine: f. Belonging to, or abiding in, torrents, or ſwift and violent ſtreames.

Torride: com. Torride, ſcorched, burned, parched; alſo, dried, or dried by the extremitie of heat.

Zone torride. The torride, or firie Zone; a circle, or certaine breadth in the firmament, vnder which, by reaſon of exceeding heat, few people inhabit.

Torrillon d'un Canon. The middle of a Canon, or the wreath, or band about the middle part of it.

Torrion: m. A great tower.

Tors. m. torſe: f. Wreathed, or twined; alſo, wreſted, wrinched, wrung; bowed, crooked, wried, awrie.

A tors & à travers. Ouerthwartly, here and there, to and fro, without any manner of regard.

Il s'eſt tors. He is wandered, or gone out of the way.

Torſe: f. A wreath; alſo, a wreſt, wrinch; wrythe, wrying; a bending, wandring, or going out of the way.

Torſement: m. A wreathing; alſo, a wreſting, wrinching; writhing, wrying; a bending, ſtraying, wandering, or going out of the way.

Torſion: f. A writhing, wrying, wreſting; griping, wringing.

Torſionnairement. as Tortionnairement.

Torſure: f. as Torſement.

Tort: m. Wrong, iniurie, hurt, offence, dammage, diſpleaſure.

A tort. Wrongfully, vniuſtly, vnworthily.

A tort ou à droict. By hooke or crooke, by right or wrong, by one meanes or another.

I'ay tort. I am to blame; I'ay le tort; My cauſe is naught, I am in the wrong.

Torteau: m. A Pancake; or as Tourteau.

Torteaux. Torteauxes, and by old Blazonners, Waſtells; muſt be round, whole, and of ſome colour, not of mettall; therein to make them differ from Beſants.

Tortelle: f. Banke Creſſes; ſome alſo call ſo, the Rape Chadlocke, or Charlocke; others, wild Muſtard; others, Rocket gentle, and Rocket gallant; but erroniouſly; for theſe hearbes onely reſemble it.

Tortellées: f. The curled toppings of the haire.

Tortement. Crookedly, wryly, croſly.

Tortice. as Tortuſſe (the feminine to Tortis;) whence,

Veines tortices; crooked, or crankling veines.

Torticoler. To writhe, or wrie the necke.

Torti colly. A wrie-necked fellow.

Tortillé: m. ée: f. Wreathed, twined; curled; wryed; alſo, gnawne, or chawed in peeces.

Tortillemens. Wreathes, wreathings, knots, curlings.

Tortiller. To wreath, twine, twiſt, to twirle, or wind about; Hence alſo, to curle, or tie on many knots; alſo, to wrinch, or to wry.

Tortillon: m. A little wreath; alſo, a curled locke of haire; alſo, the twirle, or twirling tendrell of a vine; and generally any double thing writhen, twirled, wound or twiſted together, or one within another.

Tortillonné: m. ée: f. Wreathed; wound vp; curled; twiſted, twirled, twined.

Tortillonner. To wreath, twine, twirle, twiſt, curle.

Tortionnaire: com. Wrongfull, vniuſt, or vniuſtly wreſted; hard, cruell, ſeuere.

Tortionnairement. Wrongfully, vniuſtly; crookedly, hardly, cruelly.

Tortionnier: m. An Extortioner.

Tortipé: m. A ſplay-foot; a ſhaling, or ſplay-footed fellow.

Tortis: m. A wreath; a garland.

Tortis cavez. Crooked pathes, turning wayes.

Tortis de cire. A wreathed Linke, or great candle of wax; moſt in vſe about Candlemas.

Tortis: m. iſſe: f. Writhen, writhing, crooked, or crooking.

Tortiz. Lime, or loame which hath ſtraw chopt into it: ¶Gaſc.

Torterelle: f. A Turtle Doue.

Tortouëre: f. A hunting pole.

Tortu: m. uë: f. Crooked, awrie, bent, bowed; writhing, twining; wrying, crooking; winding in and out, turning often, full of crinklecrankles.

Tortuë buſche fait droict feu: Prov. (So comes a crooked thing to be good for ſomething.)

Tortuë: f. A Tortoiſe.

Tortuë de bois. A land Tortoiſe, garden Tortoiſe, wood Tortoiſe.

Tortuement: m. A crooking, bowing, bending, wrying, writhing, often turning, winding in and out.

Tortuément. Wryly, crookedly, crookingly, wryingly, writhingly.

Tortuëuſement. Moſt wryly, crookedly, crookingly, wryingly, writhingly.

Tortueux: m. ëuſe: f. Full of crookedneſſe or crookings, full of turnings, windings, crinklecrankles.

Tortugue. as Tortuë.

Tortuoſité: f. A crookedneſſe, a crooking, bending, winding in and out, a crinkling or crankling.

Torture: f. Torture, torment, a racke, or a racking.

Torturé: m. ée: f. Tortured, tormented, racked; alſo, wreſted or made crooked, wrythed or wried aſide.

Torturer. To torture, torment, racke; alſo, to wreſt, writhe, wry aſide.

Torty colly. See Torti-colly.

Torve: com. Grimme, ſterne, fell, ſpightfull, frowning, lowring, vnpleaſantly looking.

Toſt. Quickly, preſently, ſuddenly, ſwiftly.

Parler toſt. To ſpeake thicke, or faſt, or (as we ſay) nine words at once: ¶Orleannois.

Plus toſt. Looke Pluſtoſt.

Qui toſt donne deux fois donne: Pro. He that giueth quickly giueth twice; or, he gines as good as twice, that gines things in a trice.

Toſtée: f. A toaſt of bread: ¶Pic.

Totage: m. The whole ſumme, ſubſtance, matter of; the whole, all.

Total: m. The totall, or whole ſumme.

Totalement. totally, wholly, vtterly, abſolutely, throughly, in all ſorts, altogether.

Totalité: f. A totalitie, the vttermoſt penie, the totall, or or whole ſumme.

Totene. The Sleeue, or Calamarie fiſh: ¶Marſeil.

Totiens quotiens. as in Quotiens.

Totinge. as Totage: ¶Rab.

Totum. A kind of game with a whirlebone.

Toüaige: m. Towage; the towing of a ſhip by boats, or at the ſterne of another ſhip.

Toüaille: f. A Towell.

Toüaſſe: m. vn gros tou. A lumpiſh, ignorant, or vnmannerlie cluſter fiſt.

Toüaſſier: m. ere: f. Clowniſh, rude, ignorant, vnmannerlie, lumpiſh.

Touc: m. A ſinke, or filthie gutter: ¶Breton.

Touchant. Touching, handling; alſo, concerning, as concerning, as for, about.

Touche: f. A touchſtone; and thence, a triall; as alſo, the allay, or goodneſſe of mettall; alſo, a feſcue; alſo, a penne, or pinne for a paire of writing tables; alſo, a ſtop or fret in a Muſicall inſtrument; alſo, a hit, or venie at fence.

Touche de bois. A hoult; a little thicke groue or tuft of high trees, especially such a one as is neere a house, and serues to beautifie it, or as a marke for it.

Bois de touche. The same.

Il est de bas or, il craint la touche. His cause, or conscience, naught, makes him auoid all triall.

Touché: m. ée: f. Touched, felt, handled; also, stricken, blasted; bit; inspired; also, driuen, as a beast; also, brought, as money, vnto.

Nous avons touché sur les articles. We haue onely mentioned, or spoken lightly of, the Articles.

Touchement: m. A touching, feeling, handling; also, a striking, blasting; bitting; inspiring; also, a driuing of beasts, &c; a bringing of money vnto.

Toucher. To touch, feele, handle; to approach, concerne, or come neere vnto; also, to strike, hit; blast; inspire; also, to driue beasts, &c; or bring money vnto.

Il toucha la main entre leurs mains. He layed his hand betweene theirs; or, he gaue them his hand, and promise, that he would be theirs.

Il leur toucha à tous la main. He tooke euerie one of them by the hand; &, Il leur toucha en la main; He tooke them by the hands, as desiring to be better acquainted with them.

Des yeux il touche iusques au cerveau. It reacheth, or goeth from the eyes to the braine.

On touche tousiours sur le cheval qui tire: Prov. The forward horse is alwayes most put on.

Toucheur: m. A toucher, feeler, handler.

Toucheur d'asnes. An Asse-driuer.

Touchon: m. A little touch-stone.

Toudi. as Tousiours: Pic.

Touë: f. A little, long, shallow, and flat-bottomed boat.

Touër. To tow a ship; to bring her along tied vnto boats, or at the sterne of another ship.

Touffe de bois. A hoult; a tuft of trees growing neere a house, and seruing for a marke, or grace, vnto the seat thereof.

Touffe de cheveux. A tuft, or locke of curled haire.

Bois de touffe. as Touffe de bois.

Touffeau: m. as Touffe; or a little tuft.

Touffillon: m. A small tuft, or locke; hoult, or groue.

Touffu: m. uë: f. Tuffie, thicke growing, thick of boughs, growing close together.

Touillaut: m. A scuruie troublesome fellow; or as Touilleur.

Touillé: m. ée: f. Filthily mingled, pestered, or shuffled together; also, durtied, besmeared, berayed, smeeched, begrimed; whence;

Auoine touillée croist comme enragée: Prov. In mirie ground Oats grow as if they were mad.

Touillement: m. A filthie mingling, beastlie confounding, ill-fauoured shuffling together; also, a durtying, berayning, besmearing, begriming.

Touiller. Filthily to mix, or mingle; confound, or shuffle together; to intangle, trouble, or pester by scuruie medling; also, to bedurt, begrime, besmeare, smeech, beray.

Touilleur: m. A Polipragmon, filthie medler, shuffling or troublesome fellow; one that marres things by a beastlie mingling of them.

Touillon: m. A Scullion; or a filthie, greasie, nastie, or slouenlie fellow; also, a clowt to wipe shooes, or make cleane vessell, withall.

Toulieu: m. Toll of Markets, and Faires.

Toulte: f. An exacting, or exorting of Subsidies.

Tounine: f. as Thonnine; or Tonnine.

Toupeau: m. A tuft, or tassell of silke, &c; a flocke, or locke of wooll.

Toupet: m. A tuft, or topping; a womans haire layed out on her forhead, or temples, and called her goldilockes; also, a horses foretop; also, a tuft, or tassell of silke, &c.

Toupiant: m. ante: f. Whirling about like a gig.

Toupie: f. A gig, or casting-top; also, the shell-fish called a Welke, or Winkle.

Toupier. To turne, or cast a top; also, to whirle about like a top.

Toupil: m. as Toupie.

Toupillon: m. A little gig, or casting top.

Toupillonnet: m. A verie small top; or stopple.

Toupin: m. A stopple for a bottle, &c.

Toupon: m. A stopple.

Tour: m. A turne, round, circle, compasse, wheeling, reuolution, circumuolution, vicissitude, interchangeable course of things; also, a turne, bout, or walke, as (we say) in Powles; also, the turne, course, ranke, place, or order, wherein a man is or stands; also, a deed, act, worke, part, good or bad Office, good or ill turne; also, a feat, pranke, tricke, sleight, shift, deuise; also, a spinning wheele; also, a Turne, or Turners wheele; or as Tournoir; also, a Turnepike, or Turning-stile; and the open turning box in the wall of a Nunnerie, wherby the sisters vnseeing, and vnseene, receiue in, and deliuer out, commodities; also, the Rooke at Chests; also, the breadth of fiue fingers in measure; also, a fashion of killing Deere, &c, by riding gently neere them, and hauing en croupe some Bowman, who may with aduantage, and on a sudden shoot at them.

Tour de Basche, ou de Basque. Nimble knauerie.

Le tour de baston. The fees, or vailes comming in to an Officer, ouer and besides his ordinarie wages.

Il sçait bien le tour du baston. He is a craftie, subtile, or cunning fellow; hee knowes well ynough the trickes, and sleights of the world.

Tour de bec. A kisse.

Tour de bras. A tour de bras. With maine strength, or, with confident authoritie.

Tour de guerre, ou de vieille guerre. Seeke vnder Guerre.

Tour du Labyrinthe. Il fait le tour du Labyrinthe. He treads a Maze; he is runne into an endlesse Labyrinth; or, he toyles extreamely, and yet is neuer the neerer; also, he falls againe, after many digressions, or much adoe, into his former argument.

Tour le lict. A close, or whole curtaine, incompassing a fashion of bed, that (commonly) wanteth a testerne.

Tour de mulet. A iadish tricke.

Tour de pescheur. A daungerous aduenturing for great matters.

Tour du roule: &, à tour de roule. Seeke Roule.

Ie ne leur donneray ny, tour ny attainte. I will not touch, or handle them; I will not approach, or come neere them.

Faites vn tour iusques icy. Make a step hither.

Chascun a son tour: Prov. Euerie one hath his time, or turne.

Chascun à son tour: Prov. Euerie one in his time, ranke, or turne.

Tour: f. A Tower.

Touraille: f. A Kill, or Kilne to drie mault, &c, on.

Tourban. as Turban.

Tourbe: f. A troupe, rout, crue, rabble; preasse, crowd, thrust, throng, clutterment of; also, trouble, stirre, busse, finesse, debate, ruffling.

En tourbe. By flockes or multitudes; with confused voy- voyces; all, or verie many, at once; trouping, or crowding together.

Tourbiginaux: m. Wreathes of old ropes, dipped in grease and pitch, and to be burnt in Cressets.

Tourbillon. les tourbillons d'une fleuve. Th'eddie, whirling, round turning, of a streame.

Tourbillons de teste. The turning, or swimming of the braine; or a giddinesse comming thereof.

Tourbillon de vent. A whirlewind; also, a gust, flaw, berrie, sudden blast, or boisterous tempest, of wind.

Tourbillonner. To whurle about like a whirlewind; to deale boisterously, or sweepe all away before it.

Tourbillonneux: m. euse: f. Full of whirlewinds, like a whirlewind, whurling about as a whirlewind; boisterous, raging, outragious.

Tourchon: m. as Torchon; or as Torche, in the second sence.

Tourd: m. A Thrush; or a generall name for the Thrush, Throstle, and Fieldifare.

Tourd de mer. The sea Thrush; a certaine rock-fish not much vnlike a Pearch, or Tench; of sundrie kinds, and each of diuers and sundrie colours.

Tourdelle: f. The great Thrush, or Fieldifare.

Tourdion: m. A turning, or winding about; also, a trice, or pranke; also, the daunce tearmed a Round.

Tourdre: m. as Tourd; a Thrush.

Touré: m. ée: f. Towred, full of, graced or furnished with, Towers.

Tourelle: f. A Turret, a small Tower.

Tourelle à cul le lampe. A small out-iutting garret, or Tower like a garret, on the top of a wall.

Touret: m. A Throstle, or Mauis; also, a Drill, the Instrument wherewith boles are made into mettall, &c; also, the chaine which is at the end of the cheeke of a Bit; also, the annelet, or little ring whereby a Hawkes Lune is fastened vnto the Jesses.

Touret de nez. A Muffler.

Tourette: f. A Turret, or small Tower.

Tourier: m. The keeper of a Tower; a watchman in a Tower; also, a Goaler.

Touriere. Looke Tourriere.

Tourillon: m. An inner Verrill; the round plate of yron whereby a peece of wood, often turned on, is preserued from wearing, and burning.

Tourillon du bras. The head, or top of the arme where it is ioyned with the shoulder blade.

Tourment: m. Torment, or torture.

Assez parens, assez tourmens: Prov. Many kinsmen much trouble; we say (with some difference) many kinsmen few friends.

Tourmente. Looke Tormente.

Tourmentine: f. Turpentine.

Tournaille: f. A crooked turning, or winding in and out.

Tournay: m. A Tourney.

Tournayer. Looke Tournoyer.

Tourné: m. ée: f. Turned; rounded; changed, altered, conuerted; also, translated; also, bending or inclining towards; also, giuen in exchange, or to boot; also, returned; (also, amazed, or astonished: Breton.)

Croissans tournez. In-cressants; Cressants turned inwards.

Nez tourné à la friandise. Looke vnder Nez.

Il à tourné en mes flancs. It was I that bore him; sayed by a mother of her child; either because, as Physitians report, the child hauing beene eight monethes in the wombe, shifts from the one side thereof to the other; or because at his comming out he turnes (of himselfe, or by the Midwiues helpe) his heeles vpwards.

Tourne-bouler. To turne round.

Tourne-bride. A returne, or turning backe.

Tourne-dos: m. A turne-backe, run-away, coward.

Tournée: f. whence; Par tournées; Euerie one in his turne or course, ranke or place.

Tourne-fol: m. A turning stile.

Tourne-lict: m. as Tour de lict, vnder Tour.

Tournelle: f. A Turret, or little Tower; (See Tourrion; ) also, a Parliamentall Court for criminall causes, whereon the Judges of the other Courts doe sit by seuerall turnes.

Tourne-main: m. The turning of the hand; whence; Dans vn tourne-main; In a trice, on a sudden, before you can say, this.

Tournement: m. A turning; rounding; reuolution; a conuerting, changing; exchanging; translating; a bending, or inclining towards.

Tournement de teste. The turne-about sickenesse; a giddinesse, or dizzinesse, a swimming of the head.

Tourneploye. To turne, wind, bend, or bow which way soeuer one will haue it.

Tourner. To turne; conuert, alter, change; exchange, giue in exchange, or to boot; also, to translate; also, to round or make round; also, to make sowre; also, to returne; also, to bow, bend, or incline.

Tourner la charruë contre les boeufs. To set the cart before the horse (we say;) to doe a thing preposterously; also, to alter ones talke, or answer from the purpose, thereby to stop, or suppresse, an argument handled before.

Tourner court. See Court.

Tourner fueillet. To change a custome, alter a wont; or, (as we say) turne ouer a new leafe.

Tourner sa jaquette. To turne his coat; viz. Breake his faith and oath; or quit his religion, opiniõ, or Prince, and follow another, or a contrarie one, for what respect soeuer.

Tourner les truyes au foing. To answer from the matter, or as if hee knew not what demaund was made.

C'est la Maistresse rouë qui tourne le moulin. See Moulin.

Il nous reste quelqu'autre moulin à tourner. There's yet a further matter to be handled, looked vnto, done.

Bon charron tourne en petit lieu: Prov. A skilfull Coachman turnes in a small roome; Looke Charron.

Tournerie: f. A turning; also, Turners worke, or turners ware.

Tournerot: m. A turne-roast, or turne-spit.

Tournes en eschange, ou partage de biens. as Soulte.

Tourne-soleil: m. Torne-sole, Heliotropium.

Tournet: m. A small turning rundle, or ring, in the mouth of a Bit, &c.

Tournette: f. A Rice, or Tarwingle to wind yarne on.

Tourne-vent: m. A fashion of penthouse, or portall set before a doore, for the keeping of wind out of a roome; also, a Horse, or mouable Louer, of mettall, on the top of a chimney, or house.

Tournevirer. To whirle, or whurre about.

Tourneure: f. A turning; also, any thing that turnes, or makes a thing sowre; as leauen doth bread, runnet milke, &c.

Tourniquet: m. The pinne of a Vielle; that which the Vielleur turnes with his hand as he playes.

Tour-

Tournoir: m. wheele, called of a Presse.

Tournois: m. Sterling; whic Sol, or Livre)

Tournoy: m. noir.

Tournoyant. ing a compasse,

Tournoyemen round, fetchi course, uncert also, an enuiro cumstances; a

Tournoyer. To passe, goe abou use du uncert incompasse; without comm or spie on euer or attempting in a Turney.

Tournure. as

Tourrelé: m. é compassed wit

Tourrier: m. soners which

Tourriere: f. or turning box

Tourrion: m. le, and commo as Tournelle

Tourte: f. A T or browne bre né;) also, the also, a Trundl

Tourteau: m. of lesse compa of household, a wreath of p fish tearmed A celuy qui son tourtea able to requi

Tourtelle: f. s

Tourterelle:

Tourtillon: or a small To

Tourtoire: f. woodden ba drawes on, th

Tourtourain

Touse: m. ée red round.

Touser. To sh

Tousjours. for euer and Nous avons as the world

Toussaincts.

Toussant. Co

Touster. as T

Tousseur: m

Tousstr. To c

Toustade. A colour like fire.

Tournoir: m. A Turne, turning wheele, or Turners wheele, called a Lathe, or Lare; also, the vice, or winch of a Presse.

Tournois: m. A French penie; the tenth part of a penie Sterling; which rate it holds in all other worths (as the Sol, or Livre) whereunto it is ioyned.

Tournoy: m. A Turney, or Turnament; also, as Tournoir.

Tournoyant. Rowling, wheeling, turning round, fetching a compasse, using an vncertaine course.

Tournoyement: m. A rowling, wheeling, turning round, fetching a compasse, going about; a staggering course, vncertaine gate, reeling, dizzinesse, giddinesse; also, an enuironing, or incompassing; also, a using of circumstances; also, a turneying.

Tournoyer. To rowle, wheele, turne round, fetch a compasse, goe about; also, to reele, stagger, make indentures, vse an vncertaine course; also, to enuiron; incircle, incompasse; also, to vse shifts, or circumstances, without comming at all to the point; also, to goe about, or spie on euerie side, the meanes of preuailing with, or attempting on, a thing; also, to turney, iust or fight in a Turney.

Tournure. as Tourneure.

Tourrelé: m. ée: f. Towerie, tower-like, begirt or incompassed with towers.

Tourrier: m. The keeper of a tower; a Goaler of prisoners which be in a tower.

Tourriere: f. The Nunne which attends on the Tour, or turning box in the wall of a Nunnerie.

Tourrion: m. A small Turret (lesse then the Tournelle, and commonly made off the wall by iutting, whereas Tournelle is euer boult vpright.)

Tourte: f. A Turtle Doue; also, a great loafe of houshold or browne bread (called so in Lionnois, and Dauphiné; ) also, the made-dish which we call a Florentine; also, a Trundle head of a Mill.

Tourteau: m. A cake (made, commonly, in hast, and of lesse compasse then the Gasteau;) also, a little loafe of houshold, or browne bread; also, a Pancake; also, a wreath of pitched cord for a Cresset; also, the Crabfish tearmed a Pungar.

A celuy qui a sa paste au four on doit donner de son tourteau: Prov. Be not a niggard vnto him thats able to requite thee.

Tourtelle: f. See Tortelle.

Tourterelle: f. A Turtle, or Turtle Doue.

Tourtillon: m. A verie little loafe of houshold bread; or a small Tourteau.

Tourtoire: f. A hunting pole; also, an yron toole (with a woodden handle) wherewith a Cooper notches, and drawes on, the principall hoopes of caske.

Tourtourain: m. The nature of the Turtle.

Touſé: m. ée: f. Shorne, clipped, powled, cut, notted, pared round.

Touſer. To sheere, &c; as Tondre.

Tousjours. Alwayes, euer, still, perpetually, continually, for euer and euer, euermore.

Nous avons trois tousjours. Howsoeuer, or as hard as the world goes, yet we haue three.

Touſſaincts. la T. All-Saints day, Allhallowday.

Touſſant. Coughing.

Touſſer. as Touſsir.

Touſſeur: m. A cougher.

Touſsir. To cough.

Touſtade. Alezan touſt. A burnt sorrell; a darke-red colour like wood scorched, or mettall burnt, in the fire.

Tout: m. (Substantiuely.) An all, a totall or whole summe; any, or euerie thing.

C'eſt mon tout. Tis all, tis th'onely, or chiefest thing I relie on.

Qui tout convoite tout perd: Pro. He that couets, looses, euerie thing.

Qui tout me donne tout me nie: Prov. He that giues me, denies me, all I demaund; a thing thats easily granted is in effect denied.

Qui de tout ſi taiſt de tout a paix: Prov, Looke Paix.

Tout: m. toute: f. All, the whole, whatsoeuer, euerie iot or whit.

Toutes & quantes fois. As often as.

A tout le poil. whence, Né à tout le poil. Seeke vnder Poil.

De tout point. Quite and cleane.

Vne science requiert tout ſon homme: Prov. One Art well learnt takes vp a mans whole time.

Tout. (Adverb) whence; Tout ainſi; Euen as, euen like, as it were, as much as, to as great effect or purpose as, none otherwise then.

Tout autant as Tout ainſi.

Tout beau. Soft and faire, not too fast, ynough I say.

Tout à coup. Suddenly, at once, at one blow.

Tout à faict. Wholly, throughly, altogether, vtterly, indeed, quite and cleane.

Tout à l'heure. At the verie instant.

Tout fin. Hard by, neere hand, euen verie now; whence, Tout fin à Noel; Verie neere Christmas; &,

Tout fin mere nu; All discouered, all ouer naked, or (as we say) starke-bellie naked.

Tout incontinent. Presently, straightway, out of hand, by and by.

Tout maintenant. But euen now.

Tout outre. Throughout, through and through; wholly, in euerie respect.

Tout à point Fitly, opportunely, seasonably, in as good time as may be.

Tout tant. All that euer: Sur tout tant; Especially, chiefly, all other occasions layed apart.

Tout à traict; &, Tout d'un meſme traict. Looke vnder Traict.

Tout vray. Most certaine, most true.

A tout. With; sufficiently, wholly, throughly; also, neuertheleſse, notwithstanding.

A tout jamais. For euer and euer.

A tout rompre. At the most, highest; or worst, when all comes to all; come of it what come will.

Du tout. Throughly, vtterly, quite and cleane, altogether.

Par tout. Throughout, into euerie place or thing, euewhere, euerie whither; whence the Prouerbe; Qui par tout va par tout prend.

Et fut tout beſoing à eux de ſe retirer. And it was best, most needfull, or high time, for them to retire.

Il eſt tout preſché qui n'a cure de bien faire: Pro. ynough he's preacht vnto thats careleſse of well doing: or, too much bee's preacht vnto that meanes not to amend.

Toute-bonne: f. The hearbe Clarie, or Cleere-eye; also, good Henrie, or All-good.

Toute-bonne des jardins. Garden Clarie.

Toute-bonne ſauvage. Wild Clarie, Oele Christi.

Toutesfois. Yet, but, albeit, although, howbeit, neuertheleſse, notwithstanding.

Toutesfois & quantes. As often.

Toutesfois fut le pré tondu: Pro. Maugre their stir yet

yet was the medow mowed; 'gainſt all our hopes, their wills, the buſineſſe ended.

Tout feu. All-fire; the name of a valley neere Eſtampes, thus tearmed becauſe much infeſted by robbers.

Touton: m. Part of a womans priuities.

Tout-puiſſant. Almightie, all-able.

Toux: f. A cough.

Toux de regnard. The Foxes cough; a rooted, or old-growne cough, which waits on a man to his graue.

Touzelle: f. Fine Wheat, white Winter Wheat; a kind of ſmooth Wheat, which hath an vpright ſtalke, and a verie white graine.

Toxaint: m. An Allarum-bell; or, the ringing thereof.

Toy. Thee; thou.

Toye de plomb. A web of lead.

Toymeſme. Thou thy ſelfe, thy verie ſelfe.

Tozelle. as Touzelle.

Trabe d'un ancre: m. The beame, or ſtaffe of an Anchor.

Trabée: f. A purple and imbrodered caſſocke, or robe worne by Kings, or great perſonages, vnder their mantles of Eſtate.

Trabuchet. Looke Trebuchet.

Trac: m. A tracke, traft, or trace; a (frequent) footing, beaten way or path; alſo, a trade, or courſe.

Trac de bataille. The traine, prouiſion, or followers of an armie.

Tout à trac. Plainly, roundly, frankly, flatly; wholly, throughly, outright, altogether.

Tracanard: m. See Traquenard.

Tracas: m. Much trotting, or burrying vp and downe; hence alſo, toile, trouble, turmoile.

Tracaſſé: m. ée: f. Hurried, toſſed; tugged, tewed; ſpoiled, ouerworne, or miſuſed, by much remouing.

Tracaſſer. To trot, raunge, roame, burrie much vp and downe; to toyle, moyle, or labour (in going) like a horſe; alſo, to tug, tew, ſpoyle, miſuſe, make hauocke of.

Tant travaille, & tracaſſe l'homme, qu'il ſe rompt, ou ſomme: Prov. So long a man toyles that at length he tires.

Tracaſſerie: f. A reſtleſſe trotting, raunging, roaming, burrying vp and downe; a buſie, or needleſſe trauell, tugging, or toyling out of himſelfe.

Tracaſſeur: m. A reſtleſſe trotter, or burrier vp and downe; a fond buſie bodie; one that toyles, or trauells much to verie little purpoſe.

Trace: f. A trace, footing, print of the foot, ſtep, footſtep; alſo, a path, or traft.

Les traces d'un ſanglier. The traft, beeles, or tallons of a Boare.

Tracement: m. A tracing, inquiſition, following, or hunting after by the foot.

Tracer. To trace, follow, purſue, inquire, ſeeke out, hunt after, by the foot; alſo, as Traſſer; whence;

Tracer vne harengue. To minute, or make the firſt draught of, an Oration.

Nature fait chien tracer: Prov. The hound by nature's taught to hunt.

Tracette: f. A little trace, traft, or footing.

Traceure: f. as Trace; or as Tracement.

Traceux: m. euſe: f. Tracing out, following the traft, or footing of.

Trache. A cluſter of fruites (as of Apples, Peares, &c;) growing together.

Tracher. as Tracer; (Ruſtically.)

Trachet: m. as Trache; or, a little cluſter.

Trachiartere. The pipe of the lungs; one of the three principall Arteries in mans bodie; begins at the Larinx, end at the lungs; & is th'inſtrument of the voice, and of breathing.

Trachie. as Trachiartere; or, the windpipe.

Traction: f. A draught, or extraction, a drawing out.

Tradiment: m. Treacherie, betraying, treaſon.

Traditif: m. iue: f. Traditiue, or of tradition; whence;

Science traditive; a Science deliuered by word of mouth from father to ſonne; or, continued, or left vnto poſteritie, by tradition.

Traditive: f. A method of teaching, or of ſpeaking.

Traduire. To tranſlate out of one tongue into another.

Traduit: m. te: f. Tranſlated.

Trafique: f. Trafficke, trade, commerce, or intercourſe of marchandizing; alſo, couſening, deceit, ouerreaching.

Trafiquer. To trafficke, trade, occupie, vſe, commerce, deale in marchandiſe; alſo, to couſen, deceiue, beguile, ouerreach.

Trafiquerie: f. A trafficking; alſo, marchandiſe, ware, or ſtuffe to trafficke with; alſo, a deceiuing, beguiling, ouerreaching.

Trafiqueur: m. A trafficker, trader, marchant, occupier, dealer in the world; alſo, a couſener, deceiuer, ouerreacher.

Tragedie: f. A Tragedie; a ſtatelie Play whoſe concluſion is dolefull, and doubtfull.

Tragée. Looke Dragée.

Tragelaphe: m. The great, and blackiſh Deere called, a Stone-bucke, Deere-Goat, or Goat-hart, becauſe conceiued betweene a Buck-goat, and the Hind.

Traget: m. as Traject.

Tragique: com. Tragicall, tragicke, of or belonging to Tragedies, Tragedie-like; bloudie, deadlie, dolefull, diſmall.

Tragiquement. Tragically; dolefully, diſmally.

Tragon: m. The hearbe Tarragon; alſo, Amelcorne, or Starch-corne.

Tragoncée: f. as Tragon.

Traguetter. See Trajetter.

Trahi: m. ie: f. Betrayed, treacherouſly dealt with.

Trahi trahi. Is in auncient Authors a crie of warre, importing as well feare as treaſon; as when an Armie fighting in front was on a ſudden charged in the reere by a troupe of vnexpected enemies; or in the forcing of a Garriſon: We may Engliſh it with a double, ſurpriſed, incloſed, forced, or taken.

Trahir. To betray, or deale treacherouſly with.

Trahiſon: f. Treaſon, treacherie, a betraying; alſo, any lewdneſſe, villanie, or diſloyaltie.

Bois de la trahiſon. The name of a wood neere vnto Saint Germain en Laye, the branches of whoſe trees caſt into the water, ſinke like ſtones, and lopped off, nothing doth afterwards come out in the place of them.

Frapper en trahiſon. To ſtrike a man behind his backe, or ere he be aware

Traiclou: m. The toole wherwith Shoomakers pull their tackes out.

Traict: m. A Dart, Arrow, or Shaft; alſo, a ſhot, or ſhoot; (and thence, a nip, taunt, quip, cut;) alſo, a draught, line, ſtreake, or ſtroake, made by a penne, or penſill; (and thence, the forme, ſhape, figure, feature, lineaments of the face, or bodie, or of any other thing;) alſo, length, drawing out, prolonging of, meaſure in, things; alſo, the whole, courſe, progreſſe, or proceeding of a matter; alſo, a ſubtile, or ingenious tricke, part, act, pranke, ſhift; alſo, a draught of drinke; alſo, a teame-trace, or trait; the cord or chaine that runnes betweene the horſes, &c; alſo, the draught-tree of a Caroche, &c; alſo, a lime, or line wherein a Ploud-hound is led, and ſlayed in his purſute.

Vn traict du laict d'une beſte. A meales milke.
Cheval de traict. A drag-horſe, or draught-horſe.
Gens de traict. The bow-men, or ſmall ſhot, of an Armie.
Franc au traict. Looke Franc.
Par traict de temps. In tract of time, at length, in time, one time or another.
Tout à traict. Eaſily, faire and ſoftly, by leaſure.
Tout d'un meſme traict. At once, all vnder one.
Parler à traicts. To ſpeake leaſurely, ſoberly, ſoſily, by pauſes, without haſt.
Tirer vn traict ſus là lie. Seeke Lie.
Du dire au faict y'a grand traict: Prov. There is 'tweene (moſt) mens word and deed, great ſpace, and but a little ſpeed.

Traict: m. cte: f. Drawne, pulled out; prolonged; alſo, pliant.
Or traict. Gold wire.

Traictable: com. Tractable, pliant, facile, intreatable, courteous, gracious.

Traicte: m. A treatie; a league, agreement, or alliance, talked of (as alſo, one that is concluded on) betweene Princes, &c; alſo, a Treatiſe, Pamphlet, ſmall booke, or part of a booke.

Traicte: f. A draught, prolonging, or drawing out in length; alſo, a courſe, trace, way, iourney, progreſſe, proceeding; alſo, a tranſportation, outward vent, or ſhipping ouer; and, an Impoſition vpon commodities exported; whence;
Droict de traicte. as vnder Droict; alſo, that which is due to the King, and to the Maiſter of the Mint vpon the coyning of money.

Traicté: m. ée: f. Treated, intreated of; intertained, handled, vſed; made, contracted, agreed on.

Traictement: m. A treating, intreating; intertayning, vſing, handling; a contracting, or concluding of a treatie.

Traicter. To treat, intreat, intertaine, vſe, handle, tend or looke vnto; to deale in, or meddle with; to diſcourſe, debate, or make mention of; alſo, to couenant, or contract with.
Traicter à la fourche. Looke Fourche.

Traictif. nez traictif. A prettie long noſe; a noſe of a gracefull length.

Traictis: m. iſſe: f. whence; Traictiſſes mains. Long, and ſlender hands.

Traictoire de tonnelier. as Tourtoire (in the later ſence.)

Traject: m. A ferrie; a paſſage ouer.

Trajectaire: m. A Ferrie-man; alſo, one that tumbles through a hoope held vp; alſo, a Jugler, Impoſter, Couſener.

Trajecter. To ferrie, tranſport, paſſe, conuey, or carrie ouer from ſhore to ſhore; alſo, to ſend, thruſt, tranſferre, put, or caſt through.

Trajectoire: m. The cannon, or taile of a perfuming fiumell.

Trajectoire: com. Caſting, thruſting, putting, ſending, paſſing, tranſporting, conueying through, or ouer.

Trajetter. as Trajecter.

Traigne: f. The ſea Dragon, Viuer, Quauiuer: Marſeillois.

Traillant. Reeling, or winding yarne; alſo, trayling a Deere; hunting him vpon a cold ſent, or with a lime-hound.

Traille. Vſed ſometimes in ſtead of Treille.

Trailler. To reele, or wind yarne; alſo, to trayle a Deere, or hunt him vpon a cold ſent; as alſo, to hunt, or purſue him with a lime-hound.

Traine: f. The woofe, or weft in weauing; alſo, a garment of courſe cloth; alſo, a plot, practiſe, conſpiracie, deuiſe.

Trainer. To weaue; alſo, to plot, contriue, practiſe; conſpire, deuiſe.

Train: m. A (great mans) traine, retinue, or followers; alſo, the traine, or hinder part of a beaſt; alſo, the pace of a horſe, or moyle, &c; alſo, the trace, way, or courſe, taken by a wild beaſt, or made of purpoſe for it; alſo, any way, courſe; worke, dealing, trade, practiſe, traffick vſed, or entred into; alſo, a crupper for a loaden horſe, &c; alſo, a ſled, a drag or dray without wheeles.
Le train de devant d'une coche. The fore-wheeles of a Coach.
Le train de guerre. Warfare.
Le train de practique. The ſtile, or forme of pleading, or of proceeding, in a Court.
D'un train. Together, at on clap, at once.
En bon train. In a good forwardneſſe.
Mener le train de quelqu'un. To doe any mans buſineſſe for him.
Mettre en train. To make a motion, breake the ice; introduce or bring in, ſet in the way.
Se mettre en train. To ſet forward, or take his way; alſo, to bring himſelfe into practiſe, put himſelfe in vre.
De grand train à l'eſtrain: Pro. From a great traine into the ſtraw.

Trainacer. as Trainer.

Trainage: m. Trainage; or, as Droict de ſuitte de Diſme, vnder Droict.

Trainant: m. ante: f. Trayling, dragging, drawing after.
Trainant la vie. Liuing ſorrily, or but from hand to mouth; alſo, leading an irkeſome, or weariſome life.

Trainard: m. as Traine-gain.

Trainard: m. arde: f. as Trainant; alſo, crawling, or creeping along cloſe by the ground.

Trainassé: m. ée: f. Dragged, or trailed along.

Trainaſſer. To drag, or traile along.

Trainaſſerie: f. A traine, traile, or long taile; alſo, a trailing, or dragging along.

Traine: f. A ſled; a drag, or dray without wheeles; alſo, a drag-net, or draw-net.

Traineau: m. as Traine; alſo, draggage, or carriage.
Traineau à plommée. A Stelleere; a Roman, or Venice beame, for the weighing of things.

Trainée: f. A traine for a Wolfe, or any other ſuch wild, and rauenous beaſt; alſo, as Trainement.

Trainegain: m. A draw-latch, lazie companion, ſlouenlie lowt; one that trailes the ſcabberd of his ſword after him, or weares it ſo low, and ſo looſſely, that it drags on the ground as he goes.

Traineller. To trammell for Larkes.

Trainement: m. A trayling, dragging, or drawing along; alſo, a creeping, crawling, or running cloſe by the ground.

Traine-pieds: m. One that lazily, or weakely, trailes his legs after him.

Trainer. To traile, drag, draw, carrie or lead after him; alſo, to be throwne vp and downe, as a thing thats not well layed vp.
Se trainer. To creepe, or crawle along cloſe by the ground.

Trainer ſon Lien. See Lien.
Trainer longuement. To be long ſicke of a diſeaſe, to languiſh a great while.
Trainer longue queuë. To continue long, or be a great while, in doing; alſo, to be of great conſequence, haue a farre reach, carrie full many things along with it.
Trainer ſa parole. To ſpeake dreamingly, draylingly, draw-latch-like; alſo, to ſmooth, claw, gloze, flatter, fawne on, collogue with; (for commonly ſuch as wire-draw their ſpeech are notable diſſemblers.)
Traineresſe. whence; Bonnettes traineresſes. The drablers for a Saile.
Trainiere: f. Common Trefoile, three-leaued graſſe, Iriſh Shamrocks, Cockheads, Suckles, Honiſuckles.
Trainoir: m. A ſled; a drag, or dray without wheeles.
Trainon: m. A drag-net, or dray net for fiſh.
Trainquenailles: m. Scoundrells, ragamuffins, baſe raſcalls, flabergudgions.
Traïon: m. The teat, or nipple of a cowes vdder.
Traiot: m. A milking Pale, or Piggin.
Traire vne vache. To milke, or draw milke from, a Cow.
Traiſtre: m. A traitor; a treacherous, or diſloyall perſon; alſo, a naughtie-packe; a lewd, or wicked fellow.
Traiſtreau: m. A young, or little traitor.
Traiſtrement. Traiterouſly, treacherouſly, moſt diſloyally, or faithleſly.
Traiſtreuſement. The ſame.
Trait. Looke Traict.
Traite: f. A draught, or drawing out in length; alſo, a courſe, trace, progreſſe, or proceeding; alſo, a tranſportation, vent outward, ſhipping ouer, and an Impoſition vpon commodities exported, or ſo tranſported; See Traicte.
Traite de bleds; &, Traite foraine. Looke Bled; & Forain.
Traité, & Traiter. See Traicté, & Traicter.
Traitif. as Traictif.
Trainail: m. A Trammell, or net for Partridges.
Trainaillé: m. ée: f. Treble-mailed; or wouen, bound, or inſnared by treble maſhes, or mailes.
Tramailler. To weaue, bind, faſten, or inſnare by three-fold maſhes, or mailes.
Tramer: m. A Weauer.
Tramblotis: m. A trembling.
Trame. as Traime.
Tramé: m. ée: f. Wouen, contriued.
Trameau: m. A kind of Drag-net, or Draw-net for fiſh; alſo, a Trammell net for fowle; alſo, a ſled, or dray, without wheeles.
Tramer. To weaue, to contriue.
Trameter. To continue a ſuit, or hold on a purſute.
Trameul: m. A Mill hopper.
Tramillon: m. A kind of little Drag-net, or Draw-net for fiſh.
Tramois: m. Meſſin of Oats, and Barlie mingled.
Tramontain: m. aine: f. Northerlie, comming from, or dwelling in, the North.
Tramontaine: f. The North; North-wind, or ſtarre.
Tranchaiſon. as Trenchée.
Tranchant. Looke Trenchant.
Tranche: f. A kind of pruning knife, or inſtrument, vſed by Gardeners; alſo, a ſlice of any thing.
Tranchefile. See Trenchefile.
Tranchelion: m. A notable trencher-man; a Rab.

Tranche-montaigne: m. A ſmaſh-mountaine, terrible ſwaſh-buckler, horrible ſwaggerer.
Tranche-plume: f. A Penknife.
Trancher. Looke Trencher.
Tranchet d'un Cordouannier. A Shoomakers paring, or cutting knife.
Trançon: m. A truncheon; alſo, a little peece of.
Trangle. as Tringle.
Tranquille: com. Calme, vntroubled, without ſurges, quiet, ſtill, huſht, peaceable, peacefull.
Tranquillement. Calmly, quietly, ſtilly, peaceably, without any manner of trouble.
Tranquiller. To calme, ſtill, quiet, pacifie, appeaſe.
Tranquillité: f. Tranquilitie, ſtillneſſe, calmeneſſe, quietneſſe, peaceableneſſe; a calme; reſt.
Tranquilliter. as Tranquiller.
Tranſacteur: m. A tranſactor, dayes-man, accorder, match-maker.
Tranſaction: f. A tranſaction, accord, agreement, attonement.
Tranſailles: f. Corne ſowed in the Spring, as Barlie, Oates, &c.
Tranſalpin: m. ine: f. Forrein, Italian, beyond the Alpes, on the further ſide of the mountaines.
Tranſanimation: f. Pythagoras his Metempſycoſa; or the paſſage of the ſoule from one bodie to another.
Tranſcendant. Tranſcendant, ſurmounting, ſurpaſſing, exceeding.
Tranſchangement: m. An alteration, or changing ouer into another qualitie, or nature.
Tranſcoulation: f. A gliding, ſlipping, running, a drilling, trilling or trickling, through.
Transcoulé. Glid, ſlid, ſlipped, runne, trilled, trickled, ſtrained through; alſo, ſet packing, pumped, or let run out.
Tranſcouler. To glide, ſlide, ſlip, runne, trill, or trickle, (alſo, to ſtraine) through; alſo, to ſet packing, to pumpe, or let runne, out.
Tranſcrire. To tranſcribe, to write or copie out.
Tranſcrit: m. ite: f. Tranſcribed, written out, copied forth.
Tranſcrivain: m. A Tranſcriber, a bare copier out of other mens writings.
Tranſe: f. Extreame feare, dread; anxietie, or perplexitie of mind; alſo, a traunce, or ſomne; a great aſtoniſhment, amazement, or appallment.
Dormir en tranſe. To be dog aſleepe, to be in a deepe or dead ſleepe.
Tranſenter. To graffe out of one ſtocke into another; to take a graffe out of one ſtocke, and ſet it in another.
Transferé: m. ée: f. Tranſferred, tranſmitted, poſted or paſſed ouer vnto.
Tranſfiguration: f. A tranſfiguration, or tranſformation.
Tranſfigurer. To tranſfigure, tranſforme, turne out of one ſhape into another.
Tranſfondre. To powre, deriue, or paſſe out of one veſſell into another; to tranſferre, to tranſpoſe.
Tranſformation: f. A tranſformation; a change of forme, an alteration of ſhape.
Tranſformer. To tranſforme, alter, change, turne out of one ſhape into another.
Tranſfretter. Haſtily to paſſe ouer, or along.
Tranſfuge: m. A runne-away; one that runnes to, and ſides with, a publicke enemie.
Tranſfuyard: m. as Tranſfuge.

Transgloutir les morceaux. Greedily to ſwallow downe his meat halfe chawed.

Tranſgreſſeur : m. A tranſgreſſor, treſpaſſer, ſinner, offendor.

Tranſgreſſion : f. A tranſgreſſion, treſpaſſe, miſdeed, offence ; alſo, a digreſſion.

Tranſi : m. ie : f. Fallen into a traunce, or ſowne ; whoſe heart, ſence, or vitall ſpirits faile him ; aſtonied, amazed, appalled ; halfe dead.

Tranſi de froid. Benumbed, or ſtunned with cold.

Tranſiger. To accord, agree, come to a point, fall to an end, or attonement.

Tranſiſſement : m. A ſowning, a falling into a traunce or ſowne.

Tranſitoire : com. Tranſitorie, momentarie, fraile, fading, flitting, ſoone paſſing away.

Tranſlaté : m. ée : f. Tranſlated.

Tranſlater. To tranſlate ; to turne out of one language into another ; alſo, to reduce, or remoue from one place vnto another.

Tranſlateur : m. A tranſlator.

Tranſlatice : com. Tranſlaticious, tranſlatiue ; tranſpoſed, transferred ; alſo, tranſitiue, or flitting.

Tranſlation : f. A tranſlation ; alſo, a remoue, or a remouall ; whence ;

La tranſlation S. Martin. The Tranſlation of Saint Martin ; a holy-day (kept in ſome places) the fourth of Julie.

Tranſluire. To be tranſparent, to ſhine, or bee bright, through.

Tranſmarché : m. ée : f. Tranſported, or ſent packing into farre, and forreine countreyes ; alſo, paſſed, or ſhifted out of one countrey into another.

Tranſmarchement : m. A tranſporting ; a ſending into farre, or forreine countreyes ; alſo, a paſſing, remouing, or ſhifting out of one countrey into another.

Transmarcher. To tranſport, or packe away into farre and forreine parts ; alſo, to paſſe, remoue, or ſhift out of one countrey into another.

Tranſmettre. To tranſmit, or paſſe ouer vnto another ; to ſend from one place to another ; to giue, or let a thing from himſelfe to others.

Tranſmigration : f. A tranſmigration ; a flitting, a ſhifting of aboad, a changing of place.

Tranſmigrer. To flit, ſhift aboad, change place, depart further off, goe from one dwelling vnto another.

Tranſmis : m. iſe : f. Tranſmitted, ſent away ; paſſed, giuen, let goe, poſted ouer to another.

Tranſmiſſible : com. Tranſmittable.

Tranſmontain : m. aine : f. Forreine ; or, dwelling beyond the mountaines (whereby, moſt commonly, th' Alps are vnderſtood.)

Tranſmontane. as Tramontane.

Tranſmuër. To change, or alter ouer.

Tranſmutation : f. A tranſmutation, alteration, change.

Tranſompt : m. as Tranſumpt.

Tranſon : m. A trancheon, or peece of.

Tranſparent : m. ente : f. Tranſparent, through-ſhining, or which may be ſeene through.

Tranſpaſſer. To paſſe, or goe through ; alſo, to paſſe ouer.

Transpercer. To pierce, thruſt, or ſtrike through.

Transpirable : com. Tranſpirable, eaſie to breath out or through.

Transpiration : f. A tranſpiration, euaporation, breathing through.

Transplacer. To tranſplace, remoue, place or put ouer.

Transplantation : f. A tranſplantation ; a remouing, or ſetting in another place.

Transplanté : m. ée : f. Tranſplanted.

Transplantement : m. A tranſplanting.

Transplanter. To tranſplant ; remoue, plant, or ſet in another place.

Transplanteur : m. A tranſplanter.

Transpontin : m. A ſhip-ladder ; alſo, a little bridge ouer a ditch.

Transpontin : m. ine : f. Outland ſh, ouer-ſea.

Transport : m. A tranſport, or tranſportation ; a remouall, a carrying ouer, or out of one place into another.

Droict par transport. A right, or title by aſſignement, or meane conueyance.

Transporté : m. ée : f. Tranſported ; carried or conueyed ouer ; alſo, remoued out of one place into another ; alſo, diſtraught, rauiſhed, beſide himſelfe ; whence ; Tu as l'eſprit transporté ; Thy wits runne a wooll-gathering.

Transportement : m. A tranſporting.

Transporter. To tranſport ; carrie or conuey ouer, remoue from one place to another ; alſo, to transferre, and to flit, or ſhift places.

Se transporter. To flit, or ſhift his place ; to remoue, wend, goe.

Se transporter quelque choſe. To attribute or draw vnto himſelfe, to take or applie to his owne vſe, any thing.

Transporteur : m. A tranſporter.

Transpoſé : m. ée : f. Tranſpoſed.

Transpoſer. To tranſpoſe ; tranſlate, remoue.

Transpoſition : f. A tranſpoſition ; tranſlation, remouall out of one place into another.

Tranſvaſation : f. A turning, powring, ſhifting, remouing out of one veſſell into another.

Transvaſé : m. ée : f. Turned, powred, ſhifted out of one veſſell into another.

Tranſvaſement : m. as Tranſvaſation.

Tranſvaſer. To turne, powre, ſhift, remoue out of one veſſell into another.

Tranſubſtantiation : f. Tranſubſtantiation, alteration or change of ſubſtance.

Tranſubſtantier. To tranſubſtantiate, to alter the ſubſtance of.

Tranſverſaire : com. Trauers, croſſing, or croſe-wiſe, ouerthwart.

Muſcle tranſverſaire. A certain muſkle which draws the head aſide.

Tranſverſal, & Tranſverſel. as Tranſverſaire.

Tranſumpt : m. A tranſumpt, or exemplification ; the copie of a Record.

Trantaner. as Trantraner.

Trantin : m. A peece of coyne worth a French penie, or better.

Trantrac : m. The lowd reſounding, or ſound, of a Hunters horne.

Trantran. The ſame.

Trantraner. To wind a horne verie lowd, to make it rattle.

Trape : f. A trap, or trap doore ; (alſo, a boord ; ¶ Champenois.)

La trape des cieux. The windowes of heauen.

La trape d'embas. A Pitfall, or trap made like a Pitfall ; alſo, a trap-doore in a lower roome, or which opens into a dungeon, or deepe hole ; alſo, a womans &c.

Trape de feu. A fire-panne, or panne for coles.

Trape: com. Square, quarrie, big set, ſtrong made, well knit, well ſquat, well timbered, well pitched or truſt together (but low withall.)

Trapelle: f. A little trap.

Trapercer. as Tranſpercer.

Trapeze. whence; Figure trapeze. Vnequally ſided and cornered, broader on th'one ſide then on the other, of vnequall breadth.

Muſcle trapeze. The muskle whereby the ſhoulder-blades are drawne vpwards.

Trappan: m. A Stone-cutters Drill; the toole wherewith he bores little holes in Marble, &c.

Trappe: f. as Trape; alſo, a certaine trip, or tricke in wraſtling.

Trappelle: f. A little trap; a Mouſe-trap.

Trappu: m.uë: f. Thick, and ſhort; or as Trape: com.

Trapuſſe: f. A trap.

Traquenard: m. A racking horſe or guelding, a backney.

Traquenarderie: f. A racking, or ſhuffling pace.

Traquet: m. The bird called a Bunting; alſo, the clack, or clapper of a mill.

Traſcendant. as Tranſcendant.

Traſle: f. A Thruſh, or Fieldifare.

Traſlier: m. A kind of the barren Skarlet Oake.

Traſſer. as Tracer; alſo, to delineate, ſcore, trace out; or to draw the firſt (rude) lines of a picture, &c.

Traſſes: f. The ſlot, view, or ſooting of a Deere, &c; (Looke Trace.)

Traſſeure: f. A ſtreake, line, daſh, or ſcore, made with a penne, or penſill; alſo, a tracke, trace, path, footing; or as Tracement.

Traſtravat: m. A horſe thats croſſe-trauerſed; viz. hath two ouerthwart white feet.

Trau. as Trou: ¶Wallon.

Travail: m. Trauell, toyle, teene, labour, buſineſſe, painstaking; trouble, moleſtation, care; alſo, the frame whereinto Farriers put vnrulie horſes when they ſhoe, or dreſſe them.

Vn homme de grand travail. A verie painfull man.

Travaillant. Laborious, painefull, induſtrious, diligent.

Travaillé. Trauelled, toyled, laboured, much buſied, or exerciſed in; troubled, moleſted, vexed, or wearied with.

Ioye triſte coeur travaillé: Pro. Th'aggrieued heart makes heauie cheere.

Travaillement: m. A trauelling, toyling, moyling, ſwinking, labouring; moleſting, barrying, troubling.

Travailler. To trauell, ſwinke, labour, toyle, moyle, take paines, or buſie himſelfe in; alſo, to exerciſe, hold occupied, ſet on worke; barrie, wearie, vex, trouble, turmoyle, diſquiet, infeſt.

Travailler en bourdican. Looke Bourdican.

Tant travaille, & tracaſſe l'homme qu'il ſe rompt, ou ſomme: Prov. So long a man toyles, and trots vp and downe, that at the length he burſts, or falls flat downe.

Travaiſon: f. A ſheere, or frame of beames; or of thicke plankes, whereby one roome, or chamber is diuided from another; alſo, a ſingle beame, or thicke planke.

Travat: m. A horſe which is trauerſed; viz. hath two white feet on the right, or left ſide.

Travée: f. A Bay of building; the ſpace, and length, betweene the maine beames of a roome, or betweene two beames, or the two walls thereof; in breadth about twelue foot, in length betweene nineteene & twentie.

Travelot: m. A double quarter, or ſmall beame.

Travelure: f. as Travaiſon; or, a frame of beames.

Travers: m. A Toll Trauers; due by vaſſalls vnto their Lord, vpon the tranſportation of their mouables, commodities, or wares, out of his territorie, by what paſſage, or way ſoeuer (our Lawyers define it to be, Toll thats payed for paſſing ouer a priuate mans ground;) alſo (but not ſo properly) a paſſage toll, or through-toll.

Vn travers de nez. A flirt, or cut, ouerthwart the noſe.

Travers: m. erſe: f. Croße, croſſe-wiſe, thwart, ouerthwart; ill placed, out of order.

Travers. De travers. (Adverb.) Acroße, croſly, ouerthwartly; whence;

Paroles de travers. Nips, quips, taunts, girds; thwartings, croße or ouerthwart words.

Regarder de travers. To leere, to looke askew at, or awry vpon; to behold with a fell, ſterne, angrie, frowning, or deſpightfull eye.

Travers. (Preposition.) A travers païs. At randome, at rouers, roamingly.

Traverſain: m. aine: f. Croſſe, lying or layed acroſſe, ouerthwart, oblique, awry, crooked, ſidelong.

Les plumes traverſaines d'un oiſeau. Celles qui vont, & ſe couchent par travers: ¶Nicot.

Traverſan: m. A croſſe rafter, or quarter; an ouerthwart planke, or board.

Traverſant: m. ante: f. Trauerſing, croſſing, thwarting, lying acroße, or athwart ouer.

Chevaux traverſans. Are due vnto the Lords feodall of Poictou, à l'ouverture des fiefs; or, in lieu of them, a certaine ſumme agreed on betweene them and their vaſſalls: Theſe horſes, as it ſeemes, be inferiour vnto Steeds, or horſes of ſeruice.

Traverſe: f. A croſſe-way, or by-lane, which leads out of the highway; (An old French Lawyer defines it, Vn chemin, qui traverſe d'un village en autre, & qui doit contenir, comme les plus des Couſtumiers ſont d'accord, juſques à vingt, ou vingt-deux pieds.) a houſe in a ſtreet which leanes, or iuttes out further then thoſe that be about it; alſo, a croſſe, croſſe blow, thwart, cuffe, misfortune, trouble, diſturbance, let, barre, hinderance, in the courſe of a ſuit, or buſineße.

Bois de traverſe. A ſize of billets, which be leſſe then the Bois de moule.

Ieeter quelque mot à la traverſe. To caſt out a word.

Venir à la traverſe. To come on the contrarie ſide, or directly againſt; to come along in the way of.

Traverſe: com. Oeil traverſe. A leering, or ſide eye, or caſt of an eye.

Traverſé: m. ée: f. Trauerſed, croſſed ouer; alſo, pierced, or ſtrucke, through; and hence alſo, wet through, or (as we ſay) to the skinne.

Cheval traverſé. A thicke, broad-ſet, well-truſſed, ſhort-made horſe.

Traverſement: m. A thwarting, a going ouerthwart, a croſſing ouer; alſo, a piercing or ſtriking through.

Traverſer. To thwart, or goe ouerthwart, croſſe or paſſe ouer; alſo, to ſtrike or pierce through.

Traverſeux: m. euſe: f. Ouerthwart, croſſe, froward.

Traverſier: m. Such a Ferriboat as is guided by a rope faſtened vnto a poſt, &c, on either ſide of a riuer; alſo, a tranſome, croſſe beame, ouerthwart rafter, peece of timber, plank, or board; alſo, the wine veßell, called otherwiſe, Poinſon.

Tra-

Traverſier: m. ere: Croße or croſſing, thwarting, ouerthwarting, lying ore-croße, layed acroſſe ouer.
Sergents traverſiers. Extraordinarie Raungers, or Officers of a Foreſt; wherein they haue no certaine walke aſſigned them, but are to viſit all the parts of it, and certifie what abuſes are committed, what waſt made, in it.
Traverſin: m. A croſſe-beame, or peece of timber, in a ſhip, &c; alſo, a bed-boulſter.
se Traveſtir. To diſguiſe, or ſhift, his apparell; to maske it, or take on him another mans habit; to play the counterfeit.
Traumatique: com. A Vulneratie; any oinment, or ſalue thats fit, or good, for wounds.
Travoiſon: f. A frame, ſeeling, or floore made with beames, or thicke plankes.
Travonaiſon: f. An arched frame, ſeeling, or floore of beames, &c.
Travonizer la muraille, &c. To arch, or floore it ouer with a frame of beames, &c.
Travonner. as Travonizer.
Travouil: m. A Rice; or, a turning reele.
Trayans: m. The wires which are placed in the fore-part of an arched, or old faſhioned Organ; and ſerue to ſtop, or open the Pallets thereof.
Traye: f. A kind of Thruſh.
Trayer: m. A milking Pale, or Piggin.
Trayne, & Traymeau. A kind of drag-net for fiſhing.
Trayne: f. A great round poſt, or peece of timber, like to an apple-tree; alſo, as Traine.
Trayneau: m. as Traineau.
Trayne-guain. Looke Trainegain.
Trayons: m. The teats, or duds of a Cow.
Treaude Saffran. A bed of Saffron.
Trebouſet: m. A kind of ſweet wine.
Trebuchant. Tripping, ſtumbling, ſlipping downewards.
Eſcu trebuchant. Which beares downe the balance, or is much more then weight.
Trebuchement: m. A ſtumbling, tripping, ſlipping, or falling downe; alſo, an offending, miſdoing, or miſtaking.
Trebucher. To ſtumble, or trip; to ſlip (and thereby ſometimes) to fall downe; alſo, to offend, miſdoe, miſtake; alſo, to ouerweigh, or beare downe by weight; as, in a balance, a beauier thing doth a lighter.
C'eſt tout vn de cheoir, & de trebucher: Prov. There's but little difference betweene ſtumbling, and tumbling.
Il vaut mieux trebucher vne fois que tousjours chanceller: Prov. Better at once to fall outright then euermore to ſtagger; Looke Chanceller.
Trebuchet: m. A pitfall for birds; a pit, with a trap doore, for wild beaſts; alſo, a paire of gold weights; alſo, an old-faſhioned Engine of wood, from which great, and battering ſtones were moſt violently throwne.
Trece. Looke Treſle.
Tref: m. The beame of a houſe; alſo, a Tent, or Pauillion of ſtrong canuas; alſo, a kind of ſayle in a ſhip; whence;
A plein tref. With full ſayle.
Treffle: m. Treſoile, Clauer, Three-leaued graſſe; alſo, a Club at Cards.
Treffle aigre. Wood Sorrell, wood Sowre, Alleluya, Stubwort.
Treffle bas. Hares-foot, rough Clauer.
Treffle bitumineux. as Treffle puant.
Treffle au limaçon. Snaile Clauer, horned Clauer, horned Treſoile, medow Fother.
Treffle odoriferant. Sweet Triſolie, garden Clauer, Scillat Clauer.
Treffle des prez. Common Treſoile, medow Treſoyle, Suckles, Cockheads.
Treffle puant. Smelling Clauer, Treacle Clauer, Pitch Treſoile, ſtinking Treſoile, Clauer gentle.
Treffle ſauvage (jaulne.) Wild yellow Treſoile, wild yellow Lotus.
Treffle vraye. the right Treſoile; or as Treffle puant.
Grand Treffle. Spaniſh Triſolie, Medicke Fother, Snayle Clauer; alſo, great Treſoile, winged Clauer; and, (in the opinion of ſome) horned Clauer.
Petit Treffle jaulne. Pettie Clauer, ſmall Treſoile, ſlone Treſoile.
Treffoncier. as Tresfoncier.
Treffond. as Tresfond; and, ground with the crop yet growing vpon it.
Trefont de Tonnelier. A Coopers Turrell; the Augar wherwith he maketh holes: Norm.
Tregenier: m. A Salter; or, one that ſelleth ſalt (as ſome here) out of carts, &c.
Trehu. as Treu.
Treillage: m. Grates, croſſe-barres, Lattice-worke; Arbors; a rayling.
Treille: f. An Arbor, or walke, ſet on both ſides with vines, &c, twining about a Treillis, or latticed frame.
Sauter de treille en paiſſeaux. To run (without cauſe or conſcience) from one ſubiect vnto another.
Treillé: m. ée: f. Grated, or latticed; ſupported or vnderſet with, held vp or in by, growing or twining about, lattices, croſſe-barres, or grated frames.
Treiller. To grate, or lattice; to ſupport or vnderſet by, compaſſe or hold in with, croße-barres, or latticed frames.
Treillis: m. A Trellis; a lattice before a doore, hole, or window; a grate ſet thicke with croſſe-barres of wood; any lattice, or (woodden) grate; any latticed, or grated frame.
Treilliſſé: m. ée: f. Croße-barred, latticed, grated (with wood.)
Treilliſſer. To lattice, croſſe barre, grate (with wood;) to hold vp, or hemme in, by lattices, croſſe-barres, grates.
Treine: f. as Trene; alſo, a Dorman, or great beame.
Trelis. Looke Treillis.
Treluire. To gliſter, or ſhine verie bright.
Tremail: m. Barlie, Oates, & Fitches, mingled together.
Treinaille: f. A Trammell, or net for Partridges.
Treinaillé: m. ée: f. Treble-mailed; whence, Alier treimaillé; A Trammell net, or treble net, for Partridges, &c.
Tremblant. Trembling, ſhiuering.
Tremblant entre cuir & chair. See Cuir.
Tremblante de moulin. A Mill hopper.
Treinblaye: f. A groue of Aſpes.
Tremble: m. An Aſpe, or Aſpen tree.
Tremble: f. The Torpedo, or Crampe-fiſh.
Tremblement: m. A trembling, ſhiuering, diddering, ſhaking, or quaking.
Trembler. To tremble, ſhiuer, didder, quake, ſhake.
Faire trembler le lard au charnier. To terrifie, or affright (ſenceleſſe or weake people) with big words.
Trembloer: m. The Sound-boord of a Muſicall Inſtrument.
Tremblotement: m. An oſten trembling; a quaking, diddering; panting.

Tremblotet. To tremble, quake, pant (often;) to shiuer, or dudder.
Tremblotis : m. as Tremblement; or as Tremblotement.
Treme. Looke Traime.
Tremeau : m. as Trumeau; or a bough, or leg of Beefe.
Tremegiſte : m. An excellent Maiſter (of Triſmegiſte, an excellent Philoſopher:) ¶Rab.
Tremeiller. To quake, to quauer, to wag.
Tremés. Bled tremés. Looke Bled.
Tremeur : m. A great feare, or dread; a trembling, ſhaking, or quaking (thereby.)
Tremeze. A kind of Rie ſowed in the Spring.
Tremie de moulin. The Mill-hopper.
Tremoiſe : f. The Scate called the Crampe-fiſh: ¶Bourdelois.
Tremouille. as Tremie.
Tremouſſement : m. A violent quaking, ſhrugging, or trembling; alſo, a ſudden ſtarting, or liuelie ſtirring.
Tremouſſer. To tremble, ſhrud, ſhrug, ſhiuer, quake, extreamely, or vpon an extreame feare; alſo, to totter exceedingly; alſo, to ſtart ſuddenly, ſtirre ſprightfully.
Tremoy : m. & Tremoye : f. as Tremail.
Trempe : m. Houſhold wine, or ſmall wine made, for the ſeruants, of water, and the grounds or bottomes of good wine.
Trempe : f. The temper of a weapon; alſo, a dipping; ſteeping; ſeaſoning, tempering; alſo, the temperature, diſpoſition, or compoſition of the mind; the mood, humor, or temper wherein it is.
Trempé : m. ée: f. Dipped; moiſtened, wet; ſteeped, ſoaked; ſeaſoned, tempered.
Trempez en ſang. In bloud; imbrued, or diſtained with bloud.
Apres avoir trempé longuement en priſon. After a moſt ſtrict, and tedious impriſonment; after that hee had lien a long time by it.
Tremprement : m. A dipping; moiſtening, wetting; ſteeping, ſoaking; ſeaſoning, tempering.
Tremper. To dip; moiſten, wet, ſoake, ſteepe; ſeaſon, temper, ſupple in liquor, &c.
Trempette. A ſop, or ſippet.
Trempeur : m. A dipper; wetter, moiſtener; ſoaker, ſteeper; ſeaſoner, temperer.
Trempis : m. Filthie water wherein raw things haue beene dipped, ſteeped, or ſoaked.
Tempoir : m. The pit wherein Tanners doe ſoake their hides after they haue beene in their lime-pit.
Tremuë de moulin. A Mill-hopper.
Tren : m. An Inſtrument (ſomewhat like an Eele-ſpeare) wherewith Marriners doe ſtrike, and kill, fiſh at ſea.
Trenchaiſon : f. A gripe, or a wring, as of the Chollicke, &c.
Trenchaiſonner. To wring or gripe like the Cholicke, &c.
Trenchant : m. The edge of a weapon, or toole; alſo, cutting, ſharpeneſſe, keeneneſſe.
Trenchant : m. ante : f. Cutting, ſharpe, keene, well-edged; ſlicing, hewing, thwiting off, or aſunder.
Eſcuyer, & (in old time) valet, trenchant. A Caruer.
Trenche : f. as Tranche.
Trenché : m. ée : f. Cut off, or aſunder; ſliced, carued; hacked, or hewed in peeces.
Laict trenché. Milke which is turned, and halfe curded.
Trenchée : f. A trench; alſo, a fretting, wringing, or griping in the bellie, or lower parts; the wormes, or bellie-ache.
Trenchées de S. Mathurin. Madde moods, Bedlam fits.
Trenchefile : f. The head-band of a booke; alſo, a ſnaffle; or the mouth of a ſnaffle, or watering Bit; alſo, the trench, or trenching of a Croſſebow ſtring; that part thereof whereinto the nob of the arrow entreth.
Trenchefile de ſoulier. The cording, or binding of the inſide of the heele, or ties.
Trenchement : m. A cutting, ſlicing; caruing; hacking, or ſlaſhing in peeces.
Trenche-montaigne. as Tranche-montaigne.
Trencheoir : m. A Trencher.
Trenche-plume. A Penknife.
Trencher. To cut; carue; ſlice, backe, hew; to thwite off, or aſunder.
Trencher du grand. To take a great deale of ſtate vpon him.
Trencher le mot. To ſpeake briefely and properly, to anſwer quickly and ſhortly.
Il en faut trencher la broche. Th'expectation thereof is to be preuented, or cut off.
Trenchet de cordoüannier. A Shoomakers cutting-knife.
Trenchoir. as Trencheoir.
Trene. A threefold rope, cord, ſtring, or twiſt, called by Marriners, a Sinnet.
Trenne. as Trene.
Trenné. Chanure trennée. Twiſted, or made into a threefold rope.
Trenou : f. A great raumpe, or tomboy.
Trenſe. as Tranſe.
Trentain : m. A thirtieth or thirtie, the nũber of thirtie.
Trentaine : f. as Trentain.
Trente. Thirtie.
Trente-coſtes : m. A gangerell, ſlimme, long luske, lank loobie.
Trentieſme. The thirtieth.
Trepan : m. A Trepane; an Inſtrument hauing a round, and indented edge, wherewith Chirurgians open a fractured ſkull, and by the helpe of a Leuatorie (within it) raiſe vp the cruſhed, and depreſſed parts thereof, and take out peeces of bones, and clotted bloud.
Trepané : m. ée : f. Trepaned.
Trepanation : f. A trepaning; a round opening of the ſkull with a Trepane.
Trepaner. To trepane; to open, or bore holes in the ſkull with a Trepane.
Trepaſſer. To paſſe ouer, not to mention.
Trepé : m. ée : f. Trampled on, troden vnder foot.
Trepelu : m. A poore tattered rogue; a baſe, bare, and beggerlie wretch.
Trepelu : m. uë : f. Poore, bare, beggerlie; paultrie, baſe, vnworthie.
Treper. To hop, skip, trip or foot it vp and downe; alſo, to ſtampe, trample on, tread vnder foot.
Trepidation : f. Trembling, terrour, feare.
Trepied : m. A Treuet.
Trepier : m. A place whereat three or foure ſundrie ſtreets, or highwayes doe meet a-head.
Trepigné. Trampled, daunced; often troad on.
Trepigner. To trample; hop, skip, daunce; tread often vpon.
Trepillard : m. arde : f. Skipping, hopping, dauncing, ſtirring; traumping or trampling on.
Trepiller. as Treper.
Trepiné. as Trepigné.
Trepis de beſtes. A trampling, or often treading on by the feet of beaſts.

Tre-

Trepointe. Souliers à trep. renverſée. Turne-ouers.

Tres. A Particle, or vndeclinable word, neuer vſed but in compoſition, and then, for the moſt part, adding to that which it precedes the ſuperlatiue energie of thrice, moſt, excellently, exceedingly, paſſing, or aboue all others, &c; In which ſence being applyable to manie Verbes, and to the moſt Adiectiues, and Aduerbes, (which are in their originall, and due places expounded) I haue purpoſely omitted all, except foure or fiue, of them; it being an eaſier matter for ſimple Readers to find out the meaning of the reſt, by the application of them to theſe few, or by the generall direction of this Rule, then for me to pleaſe the iudicious, by ſtuffing vp (though with ſome warrant of example) much Paper with needleſſe repetitions.

Tresabonescient. Moſt wittingly, moſt earneſtly, or in exceeding great earneſt.

Tresacertes. Throughly, in great earneſt, as much, or as farre as may be.

Tresalant: m. ante: f. Scorching, parching, drying vp by extreame heat.

Treſalé: m. A ſcorching, parching, extreame dryneſſe or drought by an extreame heat.

Treſalé: m. ée: f. Scorched, parched, vtterly dryed vp, or drayned of moiſture, by extreame heat.

Treſaler. To ſcorch, parch, dry or be dryed vp, drayne or be drayned of all manner of moiſture, by extreame heat.

Treſarriere. Exceedingly backward, verie farre behindhand; whence;

Aujourd'huy threſorier, demain treſarriere: Pro. No man knowes what his laſt accompt will be; or, no rich man knowes how poore he ſoone may be.

Tresbuchant, & Tresbucher. as Trebuchant, & Trebucher.

Treſcheur. (whence, Vn Lion enclos en vn double treſcheur;) A Tracke, or Treſſeur (in Blaſon.)

Treſeau: m. A ſhocke, ſtowke, balſe-thraue, rowke, or heape of ſheaues in a corne-field; alſo, halfe a quarter of an ounce in the weight of ware, or marchandiſe.

Tresfoncier: m. iere: f. Proper, fundamentall, bred with, or grounded in; alſo, thats owner of, or belongs vnto, the ſoyle.

Seigneur tresfoncier. The Lord of the ſoyle; he in whom the propertie (in whomſoeuer the poſſeſſion) thereof is; (Ce mot a lieu en cas de roture, ſayes Nicot.)

Tresfond: m. The ſoyle of land; and, as Treffond.

Treſine, & Treſmer. as Traime, & Traimer.

Treſmouſſer. To bring forth abundance of Moſſe; alſo, as Tremouſſer.

Treſne. as Trene.

Treſnon: m. A three-fold wreath, cord, rope, ſtring.

Treſor, & Treſorier. Looke Threſor, & Threſorier.

Treſpas: m. A death, dying, or deceaſe; a departure out of this world; alſo, a paſſage; whence;

Treſpas de Loire. A kind of Paſſage-toll, or Cuſtome payed at Paſſages ouer the Loire.

Treſpaſſant: m. A Paſſenger.

Trespaſſé: m. ée: f. Dead, deceaſſed, departed this life; alſo, exceeded, ouerpaſſed.

Il piſſe pour les treſpaſſez. An equiuocation; for it may either ſignifie the dead (vpon whoſe graues the Papiſts vſe to ſprinkle holie water) or haue relation vnto Traicts paſſez; draughts of drinke alreadie ſwallowed downe.

Tout cela eſt frappé à la porte d'un treſpaſſé. Looke Porte.

Treſpaſſer. To die, deceaſe, depart this life; alſo, to ouerpaſſe, exceed; paſſe on, or ouer.

Treſpaſſer ſon ſerment. To breake, or goe from, his oath.

Treſpecer. To pull, or teare into many peeces; (an old word.)

Treſpercé: m. ée: f. Transpierced, pierced through.

Trespercer. To pierce, or ſtrike, through.

Treſque. Exceeding much.

Treſquer. To daunce; (an old word.)

Treſſaillir. To ſtart; alſo, to leape, hop, or skip; liuely, ſprightfully, or apace; to iert, or ſpring vp; alſo, to ouerleape, and to leape ouer.

Le coeur luy treſſaut. His heart leapes, or pants, for ioy, &c.

Treſſault, & Treſſaut: m. A ſtart, or ſtarting; a ſpringing, liuelie ierting, ſprightfull skipping vpwards; alſo, a leape, or leaping, ouer.

Treſſe de cheveux. A treſſe, or locke of haire.

Treſſé: m. ée: f. Plaited, wouen, or made into treſſes.

Treſſeau. The name of a fertile Vine.

Treſſer. To plait, weaue, or make into treſſes.

Treſſette: f. A little treſſe, or locke.

Treſteau. Looke Treteau.

Treſtous. All, each, or euerie one, not one excepted, not one to be ſpared.

Treteau, & Tretteau. A treſle for a Table, &c; alſo (as Chevalet) a kind of racke, or ſtretching torture.

Treu: m. as Trou; a hole. (Picard. alſo, the toll, or cuſtome payed vnto Lords, for ſalt, and other commodities, or marchandiſe, carried along by their dominions; and generally, any toll, tax, or impoſition.

Le Droict de treu accouſtumé. Looke Droict.

Treüage: m. as Treu.

Trevertin: m. A kind of marble, or marble-like ſtone.

Treves: f. Truce; a limitted ceſſation from warre.

Tréves briſées, ou enfraintes. The breach, or violation of a graunted Protection.

Treufle. A Club at Cards: Looke Treffle.

Vn Nez d'az de treufles. A flat bottle noſe.

Treuil. as Trieule.

Treviſaine. La Danſe Tre. Lecherie.

Treul: m. A Wine-preſſe; or (more generally) any Preſſe.

Treule: f. A little fiſh-net for Stues, and ſmall Ponds.

Trezain: m. A thirteene-pennie peece; a coyne of baſe mettall worth xiij d Tourn.

Trezain: m. A thirteenth; whence;

Le trezain du pain. Vantage of bread; the thirteenth loafe giuen by Bakers vnto the dozen.

Trezé. Thirteene.

Trezeau. Looke Treſeau.

Trezeine de bois: f. Thirteene billets, or logs; or as much wood as a man can carrie.

Trezeler. To make vp ſheaues of corne into ſhocks; alſo, to exclayme, or to rayle, on.

Treziesme: m. A thirteenth; alſo, the thirteenth pennie, or part, of the money for which land is ſold, in many places payed, vnto the Lord feodal, by the ſeller (if there be no couenant to the contrarie;) alſo, the thirteenth ſheafe due vnto Lords for ſome kinds of countrey Toll.

Trezieſme de Vin. The thirteenth pot, or pennie of the price of retayled Wine, due in ſome places vnto the Lord of the Juriſdiction, or Soyle.

Treziesme: com. The thirteenth.

Le treziesme denier. as Treziesme in the ſecond ſence.

Tria-

Triacle: m. Treacle; See Theriaque.
Triaclerie: f. The making of Threacle; also, an imposture, deceit, sophistication.
Triade: f. A tre; or, a third.
Triage: m. Choice; a culling, or picking out from among others.
Triages de forests. The seuerall diuisions, walkes, or parts, of Forests.
Triangle: m. A triangle, or three-cornered figure.
Triangulaire: com. Triangular, three-cornered, of three corners.
Muscle triangulaire. The triangular muscle whereby the hanch, or flanke is bowed.
Tribaille: f. The Poultrie.
Triballer. To wagle, or dangle vp and downe; to goe dingle dangle, wig wag.
Triballeur: m. A Poulter.
Tribart: m. A short Cudgell.
Tribe. Looke Tribu.
Tribort. The starre-boord, or the right side, of a ship.
Triboul: m. Trouble, vexation, molestation; (an old word.)
Triboule-mesnage: m. An ill, or vnskilfull husband, one that marres, or confounds, his owne businesse.
Triboulet: m. A Triblet; the toole whereon Goldsmiths and Clock-makers put Rings, and little wheeles, when they file, or otherwise worke, them; also, as Triboullet.
Tribouller. To shog, or iog, like a Cart, &c, in an vneuen way; and hence also, to iumble, disorder, or set out of order, any thing.
Triboullet: m. as Triboulet; also, a slouenlie fellow, one that vsually weares his hose vngartered, and shooes vntyed; also, the name of a famous foole belonging to King Francis the first; and thence, any fop, cokes, ridiculous ninnie hammer, or laughing-stocke.
Tribu: f. A Tribe; Companie, Band, Ward, Canton, or Hundred, in a Citie, or Countie.
Tribulation: f. Tribulation, affliction, anguish, paine, trouble, griefe.
Tribule (aquatic.) The water Caltrop, Saligot, water-Nut.
Tribule terrestre. The land Caltrop, or Saligot.
Tribun: m. A Tribune of the people among the auncient Romans.
Tribut: m. Tribute; a generall tax, or subsidie raised vpon the goods of subiects.
Tributaire: com. Tributarie, tribute paying.
Tric: m. A word whereby Printers doe signifie, that they giue ouer working.
Tricdondaines: f. as Triquedondaines.
Trichard: m. arde: f. Cousening, cheating, deceiuing, beguiling.
Tricher. To couzen, cheat, beguile, deceiue, play false, vse false tricks.
Tricherie: f. (whence, as it seemes, our trecherie) couzenage, deceit, a cheating, a beguiling.
Tricheur: m. A cousening companion.
Tricheuse: f. A cousening queane.
Trichiase: f. A disease comming vnto nurses paps by drinking downe a haire; also, a small, and inuisible cleft about the back-bone, running out in length, and oftentimes causing death; also (in horses) a vicious inuersion of the vpper eye-lid, to the trouble of the vnder one, and torment of the whole eye.
Trichoterie: f. as Tricoterie.
Tricon: m. Is (at Cards) that which we now call, a Gleeke of Kings, Queenes, Knaues, &c; viz. three of them in one hand together.
Tricoter. To knit. ¶ Orleannois.
Tricoter la pureté de l'or, &c. To alter, change, allay, or imbase it.
Tricoterie: f. Cousenage, cheating, trecherie, deceit, in the following of a suit, &c.
Tricoteur: m. A knitter. ¶ Orl.
Tricoteur de procez. A contriuer, or canuaßer of suits; a Pettifogger; a craftie, or cousening Lawyer.
Tricoteuse: f. A knitter, a woman that knits. ¶ Orl.
Tricotter, & Tricotterie. as Tricoter, & Tricoterie.
Tricouse: f. as Triquehouses.
Trictrac: m. The inside, or playing-side of a paire of Tables; also, the Tables themselues; also, the Game Ticktacke at Tables; also, the clattering noise made by Table-men, &c.
Tride. Carriere tride. A strong, and speedie mouing of a horse in his carriere.
Trident: m. Neptunes three-forked Mace; and thence, any weapon, toole, or instrument made of that fashion, or hauing three teeth.
Trie: f. A choice, culling, or picking out.
Trié: m. ée: f. Chosen, culled, or picked out from among others.
Triege: com. Strong, lustie, able-bodied (from the Spanish Cavallo de triego, a lustie horse; or from the custome of Spaniards, to feed their best horses of seruice with Wheat.)
Triennal: m. ale: f. Triennall, of three yeares.
Trier. To picke, chuse, cull out from among others.
Trieule d'un puis. The round beame about which the cord of a Well doth turne.
Trifere: f. A certaine compound, and delicious Electuarie, called thus of a Greeke word, which signifieth sumptuous.
Trifourché: m. éc: f. Treble-forked; three-fold.
Trigaut: m. An intricator, intangler, perplexer of a businesse; one that by tricks, or sleights makes it hard to be decided; and (more generally) one that is full of shifts, or sleights.
Triglyphes: m. Trigliphes; hollow grauings like three short gutters, or furrowes, on Compartiments, or Borders in Masonrie.
Trihoris, ou Trihory: m. A kind of British, and peasantlie daunce, consisting of three steps, and performed, by those hobling youthes, commonly in a round.
Trikatiste: com. Spitting fire. ¶ Rab.
Triller. To put on a new shirt, &c, and weare it vntill it be growne easie, or soft.
Trillon: m. The ninth place in Numeration, and a hundred millions in number.
Trilly d'Allemaigne. Fine Buckeram waued like water-Chamlet.
Trimestre: com. Of three moneths.
Trine: com. Tripled, compounded or made of three.
Tringle: f. A Curtaine-rod; and more generally, a peece of round yron, or wire, of the großenesse of a Curtaine-rod, vsed for the ioyning of stones, or timber, and for the hanging vp of things; also, a flat sticke, or lath-like peece of wood.
Tringue: f. A drinking; also, as Tringle.
Trinité: f. The holie Trinitie.
Herbe de la Trinité. The Pansie, hearbe Trinitie, Hearts-ease, loue in idleneße, two faces vnder a hood; some also call so the hearbe Harefoot, or Harefoot Trefoile.
Trinquamaille. See Trinquemaille.

Trinqueballer les cloches. To iangle, or to ring bels vntuneably, and too much.
Trinquemaille: f. Such a box as Players take money in at their doores.
Trinquer. To drinke, to quaffe, to carowse.
Trinquerie: f. A drinking, quaffing, carowsing.
Trinquet: m. Is properly the top, or top-gallant, on any Mast; the highest sayle of a ship.
Triochite. Triple-stoned.
Triolaine: f. A list, file, series; rabble, continuall or continued clutterment.
Triolet: m. Meddow Trefoile, common Trefoile, three-leafed graße.
Triolet aromatique. Sweet Trefoile, garden Clauer.
Triolet des chevaux. Melilot, plaister Clauer.
Triollet. as Triolet.
Triomphal: m. ale: f. Triumphall, of or belonging vnto triumphes.
Triomphamment. Triumphantly, triumphingly, in triumph.
Triomphant. Triumphant, triumphing.
Triomphe: m. A triumph; a pompous, and publike shew.
Triomphe: f. The Card-game called Ruffe, or Trump; also, the Ruffe, or Trump at it.
Triomphé. Triumphed.
Triomphement: m. A triumphing; also, a trumping at Cards.
Triompher. To triumph; or greatly to reioyce; also, to trumpe at Cards.
Trion: m. Choice or picked graine, cleane corne.
Tripaille: f. A quantitie of tripes, or guts.
Tripailleries: f. All kind of tripes.
Tripe: f. A Tripe; (In which sence it is most vsed plurally;) also, the bellie, or paunch; also, Valure, Irish Tuftaffata, Fustian an apes.
Les tripes d'un fagot. The smallest stickes in a fagot.
Tripe de moruë. The bellie, or stomacke of the Moruë; which dryed, and then layed in water, becommeth soft againe, and is ordinarily sold in Lent by it selfe.
Il a la tripe grosse. (Said of) a Gorbellie, Swagbellie, Gulch, fat Guts.
Le tout pour la tripe. All for the bellie.
Tripe pleine ne combat bien, ny ne fuit bien: Prov. He thats full bellied neither fights, nor flyes, well.
Tripelle. as Tripoly.
Triper. To tread or stampe on, to trample vnder the feet.
Triperie: f. A Triperie; a market, street, or shop wherein tripes are vsually sold.
Tripetter. To trip, or foot it nimbly in dauncing.
Triphere. as Trifere.
Tripied: m. A Treuet.
Tripier: m. A Tripe-seller; also, a gorbellie, gulch, great guts; also, as Tripied.
Tripiere: f. A Tripe-wife.
Cousteau de tripiere (qui coupe des deux costez.) One that, in a faction, holds correspondencie with both sides, rather to hurt them both then to helpe either.
Injurieux en tripiere. Scolding like a Butter-whore.
Langue de tripiere. A raying tongue.
Triple: m. A Triple; also, Galliard-time, in Musicke.
Triple: com. Triple, threefold.
Triplé: m. ée: f. Tripled, trebled.
Triplement: m. A tripling, or making threefold.
Tripler. To triple, or make threefold.
Triplication: f. A tripling, a thricefolding or doing; a multiplying by three.
Triplique: f. A second reply, or the answer of the plaintife vnto the defendants Reioinder.
Tripliquer. To make a second reply; or a plaintife to answer vnto the defendants Reioinder.
Tripolion. Serapions Turbith, sea Starrewort, Hogsbeanes, blue Camomill, blue Daisies.
Tripoly: m. Tripoly; a stone with the powder whereof Lapidaries doe smooth, or polish their iewels.
Tripot: m. A Tennis-court.
Tripotage: m. A confused iumbling, or hudling of things together, a confusion.
Fais tellement ton tripotage que tu ne m'y mesles point. Handle this thy fond businesse, or bargaine so, as I be not drawne into it.
Tripoté: m. ée: f. Bandied, or tossed to and fro, as a ball at Tennis; also, confusedly iumbled, hudled, bungled, or slubbered ouer.
Tripoter. To play at Tennis; to bandie, or toße to and fro, as a ball at Tennis; also, confusedly to iumble, or hudle together; illfauoredly to bungle, or slubber ouer.
Tripoteur: m. A bungler; a confounder of his owne worke, or businesse; a slubberer ouer of things; a hudler, or shuffler of them together.
Tripotier: m. A great haunter of Tennis-courts.
Trippe. as Tripe.
Tripper. as Triper.
Triqué: m. ée: f. Seuered from, or culled out of, the rest.
Triquebalarideau: m. A toy, trifle, nifle; a thing of no worth.
Triquedondaines: f. All kind of superfluous trifles vsed, or vsually bought, by women; hence, any trash, nifles, or paltrie stuffe; and, a rascallie companie, or crue of scowndrels.
Triquehouse: f. A boot-hose; or a thicke hose worne in stead of a boot.
Triquemadame: f. Prickmadame, Sengreene the lesser.
Triquenisques: f. Trash, trifles, nifles, paltrie stuffe, things of no value.
Arguments de triquenisques. Vaine, fond, sleight arguments.
Monsieur de triquenisques. A gentleman of straw, a thred-bare gentleman.
Triquetrac. as Trictrac.
Triquetre. A Triangle.
Triquette: f. A whirlygig.
Triquotter. To knit as stockings, &c; also, as Tricher.
Trisayeul: m. A great great grandfather.
Trisecaciste: com. Exceeding ill, or thrice threefold ill. Rab.
Trissage: m. Germaunder, English Treacle; (an hearbe.)
Trissyllabe: com. Of three syllables.
Triste: com. Sad, pensiue, grieued, heauie, discontented, melancholie, wofull, dolefull, sorrowfull; also, graue, austere, sowre, harsh.
Triste comme vn bonnet de nuict sans coiffe. As melancholiche as a coyfeleße nightcap.
Tristement. Sadly, pensiuely, sorrowfully, wofully, dolefully, gravely, austerely, sowrely.
Tristesse: f. Sorrow, griefe, sadneße, pensiueneße, melancholie, discontentment, wofullneße, dolefullneße.
Tristeur: f. as Tristesse.
Trisulque: com. Hauing three edges.

Tri-

Trituration: f. A crumming, crumbling, breaking, or grinding ſmall.

Trituré: m. ée: f. Crummed, crumbled, broken, or ground ſmall.

Triturer. To crumme, crumble, breake, or grind ſmall.

Trivial: m. ale: f. Triuiall, common, homelie, ordinarie, vſuall, ſleight, of ſmall worth.

Yeux triviaux. Eyes that be intentiue, or earneſtly caſt, three or foure ſeuerall wayes at once.

Trivialitez: f. Triuialities; triuiali, ſleight, common, homelie, ordinarie matters.

Triule. as Trieule.

Troc. Looke Troq.

Trocanters: m. Two proceſſes, or bunches towards the top of the thigh-bone; a great one (and the greateſt of the whole bodie) ſtanding outward; a leſſe, and lower, ſtanding inward.

Troché. whence, Teſte de cerf trochée. Troched, or whoſe top is diuided into three or foure ſmall branches.

Trochée: f. A cluſter of apples, &c; a bunch of nuts, &c, growing cloſe together vpon one bough.

Trochelle: f. A certaine inſtrument of torture vſed in the Inquiſition-houſe.

Trochet: m. as Trochée; alſo, a kind of ſmall, white, and ſweet apple.

Trocheure: f. The troching on the top of a Deeres head; or, the top troched; as in Troché.

Trochile: m. A Wrenne; alſo, a little water-fowle which vſually picketh the teeth of Crocodiles; alſo, a little wreathed band, or member in Pillars.

Trochiſque: m. A Trochiske, or Troſque; a little rundle, or cake, whereinto diuers medicinable things be reduced, the better to be kept, and the readier to be vſed.

Trochiſqué: m. ée: f. Made like, or into, a Trochiske.

Trociſque. as Trochiſque; alſo, a ſtaulke.

Trociſqué: m. ée: f. Reduced, or made into the forme of a Trochiske.

Troeſne: m. Priuet, Primprint.

Trofée. Looke Trophée.

Troguic: m. ique: f. Scoffing, mocking, flouting, deriding.

Trognon: m. The ſtocke, ſtump, or trunke of a (branchleſſe) tree.

Troignon. as Trognon; alſo, the core within fruit.

Trois. Three.

Monſieur de trois au boiſſeau, ou de trois à vne eſpée. Looke Monſieur.

Secret de trois ſecret de tous: Prov. As good let all, as three men know a thing.

Troiſieſme. The third.

Trokalazon. Looke Ptoſchalazon. ¶Rab.

Troller. Hounds to trowle, raunge, or hunt out of order.

Trollerie: f. A trowling, or diſordered raunging, a hunting out of order.

Trombe: f. A round and hollow ball of wood, hauing a peake like a caſting-top, and making a great noiſe when it is caſt as a top.

Tromble: f. The Cramp-fiſh, tearmed otherwiſe Torpille.

Trompe: f. A Trump, or Trumpet; alſo, a writhen, and brazen Hunters horne; alſo, a top; alſo, the ſhell-fiſh called, a ſea-Top; alſo, the ſnout of an Elephant; alſo, the pump of a ſhip; alſo, a cloſet, or ſuch a like roome, built out of a wall with a hanging bottome like th'end of a trūpet.

Il n'a pas le fouët pour mener cette trompe. He is too weake for ſuch a wench.

Il y a plus de trompeurs que de trompes: Pro. Looke Trompeur.

Saſſe bonne farine ſans trompe, ne bucine: Prov. Enioy thine owne good things without much talking of them.

Trompé: m. ée: f. Deceiued, couſened, beguiled, cheated, circumuented, ouerraught.

Tromper. To couſen, deceiue, beguile, delude, circumuent, cheat, ouerreach.

Tromper vn corbeau à bouche beante. To beguile or depriue a greedie fellow of a thing which he gaped for; or (much more properly) to bring him into a fooles Paradice; and, by commending, to get from, him that, which otherwiſe he would not, or in diſcretion he ſhould not, by any meanes haue parted with.

Qui d'autruy tromper ſe met en peine, ſouvent luy en advient la peine: Pro. Looke Peine.

Tromperie: f. A craft, wile, fraud, fallacie, deceit, couſenage, deluſion, circumuention, ouerreaching, impoſture, ſophiſtication, tricke of leger demain.

Tromperer. To trumpet, or ſound a Trumpet.

Trompeteur: m. A Trumpetter.

Trompette: m. as Trompeteur.

Trompette: f. A Trumpet; alſo, the Needle-fiſh, Garre-fiſh, Horne-beake, Horne-fiſh, or Piper-fiſh; tearmed thus, becauſe her beake doth ſomewhat reſemble a Trumpet.

Il eſt bon cheval de trompette. He feares no noiſe, big words affright him not.

A pain, & oignon trompette ne clairon: Pro. Warre is ſeldome heard of in bare, and barren places; poore men may, if they liſt, liue quietly, and peaceably at home.

Trompetté: m. ée: f. Trumpetted, or noiſed abroad; publiſhed, or proclaymed with ſound of Trumpets.

Trompetteur: m. A Trumpetter.

Trompeur: m. A deceiuer, beguiler, couſener, cheater, conycatcher, fraudulent dealer.

A trompeur trompeur & demy: Prov. Applyable vnto a knaue, ouer-raught, or ouer-matched by a knaue.

Il y a plus de trompeurs que de trompes: Pro. The world is fuller of trumperie then of trumpetting.

Trompeuſement. Deceitfully, couſeningly, cautelouſly, fraudulently.

Tron: m. A peece of a thing; or, as Tronc.

Tronc: m. The trunke, ſtocke, ſtemme, bulke, or bodie of a tree, &c, without the boughes; alſo, a trunke, or headleſſe bodie of man or beaſt; alſo, the poore-mans box in Churches; alſo, the Boat called a Lighter.

Troncation: f. A truncation, trunking, mutilation, cutting off.

Tronche: f. A great peece of timber; or, as Tronc.

Tronché: m. ée: f. Stocked, growne a ſtocke, or in the ſtocke.

Troncher. To ſtock, or yeeld a ſtock, or grow in the ſtock, as a tree.

Troncher les grains. Many ſtaulks, or eares to ſpring from one roat of corne.

Tronchet: m. A truncheon; a little trunke, ſtocke, or ſtemme.

Tronchon: m. A certaine blew-backt, ſiluer-bellied, and ſmooth-skind flat fiſh, without skales.

Troncir. To cut or breake off, or in two, or into peeces.

Tronçonné: m. ée: f. Trunked; lopped, or cut off; made headleſſe, branchleſſe, memberleſſe; mutilated, maymed.

Tronçonnement: m. A trunking; lopping, cutting off; a making headleſſe, branchleſſe, memberleſſe; a mutilating, or mayming.

Tron-

Tronçonner. To trunke, lop, cut off; to make headlesse, branchlesse, memberlesse; to mutilate, or mayme.

Tronçonneur: m. A trunker, or lopper; a cutter of things into truncheons, or lumpes.

Trondel: m. The trundle, or trundling of a ball, &c. ¶Pic.

Trondeler. To trundle as a ball, &c; or, as Rondeler. ¶Pic.

Trone. Looke Throne.

Trongne: f. The face, aspect, looke, visage, countenance.

A la trongne cognoist on l'yvrongne: Prov. Two things a drunkard doe disclose, a fierie face, and crimson nose.

Bonne bouche bonne trongne: Prov. A temperate mouth breedeth a fresh complexion; or, a well-shap'd mouth makes all the face shew faire; or, a silent mouth settles the countenance.

Trongné. Of the face; also, from the teeth outward; also, mocking, mowing, or making faces at.

Trongneux: m. euse: f. Making, yeelding, or shewing a sowre countenance.

Trognon: m. as Trognon.

Tronqué: m. ée: f. Trunked, cut off, cut in two, or into peeces.

Tronquément: m. A trunking, stocking, or cutting off.

Tronquément. Peecemeale, with whole peeces cut off; also, lamely, or by halues.

Tronquer. To trunke, to stocke; to cut off, in two, or into peeces.

Tronson: m. A truncheon, or little trunke; a thicke slice, luncheon, or peece cut off.

Tronsonner. Looke Tronçonner.

Trop. Too much, ouermuch, superfluous, or superfluitie of, excesse, more then needs; also, much, greatly, mainly, mightily.

Trop est trop; &, Trop n'est point bon: Pro. Too much is too much; and, too much is good for nothing.

Assez y a si trop n'y a: Prov. Enough there is where too much is not.

Nul n'a trop pour soy de sens, d'argent, de foy: Pro. Looke Sens, or Foy.

Trophée: m. A Trophie; a signe or token of victorie, any spoyles gotten from a conquered enemie, and kept, or haned vp, as monuments of the conquest.

Tropique: m. A Tropicke, or Circle in the firmament, whereunto the Sunne once comming, either descends, or ascends, as being at the highest, or lowest; and hence it is that there be two Tropicks.

Tropique de Cancer, ou d'Esté. Is about the 12 of June, when the Sunne (at the highest) enters into the first point of Cancer.

Tropique de Capricorne, ou d'hyver. Is about the 12 day of December, the Sunne then (at the lowest) entring into the first point of Capricorne.

Troppeller. To troope, or flocke together.

Troq: m. A truche or trucking, hattering, swabbing, or exchange of one thing for another.

Troquer. To trucke, chop, swab, scoorse, barter, change, exchange one thing for another.

Troquet: m. A kind of small, white, and sweet apple.

Trosseau: m. A trusse, packet, bundle, fardle.

Trossel: m. as Trosseau.

Trosse-queue: f. A docke for the traine of a horse.

Trosser. Looke Trousser.

Trot: m. The trot of a horse.

Troter, & Troteur. Looke Trotter, & Trotteur.

Trotier: m. ere: f. Trotting, or which trotteth; also, gadding, or wandering much vp and downe; as in the Prouerbe, Fille fenestriere, & trotiere rarement bonne mesnagiere.

Trotiere: f. A raumpe, fisgig, fisking huswife, raunging damsell, gadding or wandering flirt.

Trotigner. To trip it, trample fast, or trot thicke and short; also, to gad, runne, roame, trot much to and fro, or vp and downe.

Trotté: m. ée: f. Trotted.

Trotter. To trot like, or as, a horse; also, to gad, or goe much abroad.

Trotter de ranco. To passe from ranke to ranke, to runne from one to another.

Trottereſſe. as Trotiere.

Trotteur: m. A trotter; also, an earth-planet; a roamer, gadder, wanderer vp and downe.

Trottier. as Trotteur.

Trottouër: m. A boord in the louer of a Douecoat for Pigeons to alight on; also, the Seat, or Tribunall of a Iudge; also, babling, or pratling (in Pedlers French.)

Trottres: f. Low tresles to heighten coffers withall. ¶Orleannois.

Trou: m. A hole, narrow passage, or issue; and thence also, a pore in the bodie; and the bung-hole, fundament, nock-androe.

Trou de chou, de Lentisque, &c; (In stead of Tronc) the stemme, or staulke of a Cabbage &c.

Trou Madame. The Game called Trunkes, or the Hole.

Trou d'une rets. The mash of a net.

Trou d'un soufflet. The Gullet mouth, or nose of a paire of bellowes.

Trou de la Sybille. The arse-hole.

Avoir à chasque trou vne cheville. To haue an answer for euerie obiection, a solution for euerie question, an excuse for euerie fault, or a colour for euerie error.

Faire vn trou à la nuict. To walke, or goe abroad a-nights; to trauell, or take a iourney by night; also, to slinke aside, or slyly to be gone before he be missed, or suspected to stirre.

Faire vn pertuis dedans vn trou. To doe iust nothing.

Le trou trop ouvert sous le nez fait porter souliers deschirez: Prov. Glattonie breedes pouertie; the mouth too open makes men weare torne shooes.

Se Troüant. Holing, or growing full of holes.

Trouble: m. Trouble, disquiet, molestation, disturbance, turmoyle; a sedition, tumult, burliburlie; a stirre, coyle, or broyle; also, a let, barre, stop, impeachment, hinderance.

Trouble: com. Thicke, muddie, vnsettled, pudlie, darke, foggie, ouercast, obscure.

Pescher en eau trouble. To fish in troubled or thicke water; to seeke for gaine out of other mens broyles, or losses.

Vin trouble ne brise dents: Pro. Thick wine breakes no mans bones; sweet things goe downe without a shoo-horne.

Troublé: m. ée: f. Troubled, disturbed, disquieted, molested, turmoyled; also, letted, stopped, impeached, hindered.

Trouble-feste: m. A vaine, or importunate buffoone; or an one who by idle chat, or vnseasonable chiding, offendeth, or cloyeth, such as would be merrie.

Troublement: m. A troubling, busying, disturbing, disquieting; letting, impeaching, hindering.

Troubler. To trouble, disturbe, turmoyle, busie, hurrie, disquiet, molest; to marre, disorder, confound; dismay; also,

also, to barre, stop, let, hinder, impeach.

Trouée: f. A gap, or muset in a hedge.

Se Trouër. To hole, to grow full of holes, musets, or gaps.

Trougne. Looke Trongne.

Troupe: f. A troupe, trae, rout, rable, throng, or multitude of people, &c.

Troupeau: m. A flocke, heard, or droue of cattell; also, a heape, or bundle.

Oster les chiens pour venir à bout du troupeau. The watchfull dog to kill, that he the flocke may spill; or (as a sentence) the way a flocke to spill, is watchfull dogs to kill.

Sottes filles à marier sont fascheux troupeaux à garder: Pro. A combrous cattell maidens proue, when their greene sickneſſe growes of loue.

Troupelet: m. A little troope, rowt; flocke, heard.

Troupet. In stead of Toupet. ¶Rab.

Trouppe, & Trouppeau. as Troupe, & Troupeau.

Trousse: f. A Quiuer for arrowes; also, a cousening tricke, blurt, slampant; also, as Tresse.

Droict de trousse. Looke vnder Droict.

Troussé: m. ée: f. Trussed, or tucked vp; twitched vp, also, spoyled, cast away, vndone, ouerthrowne.

Sans cela il estoit troussé en male. Seeke Male.

Trousseau: m. A Trußell; the vpper yron, or mould, thats vsed in the stamping of coyne; also, a (little) trusse, fardle, bundle, or bunch; also, as Serpaut.

Trousse-galant: m. Stoope-Gallant; a kind of plague wherewith the richest, and strongest are the sooneſt infected, and once infected, dead within two or three dayes: (This Plague raged in Puy, a part of Auvergne, about the yeare 1546; and such another (or at the least one of the name) in England not long agoe.)

Trousset. as Trousseau.

Trousse-queuë: f. A docke for a horses trayne.

Trousser. To trusse, tucke, packe, bind or gird in, plucke or twitch vp; also, to plow ground sleightly a little before it be sowne.

Trousser leurs quilles. Ils pensoient à trousser leurs quilles. They thought of, they prouided or prepared for, their departure.

Trousser vn verre de Vin. To quaffe, or fetch, off a glasse of wine.

Trousseure: f. as Troussoire; also, a truße vsed by such as are burst.

Troussis: m. A tucke, or tucking vp, in a garment.

Troussoire: f. A belt, or girdle.

Trousture: f. as Troussеure.

Trouvage: m. A finding; inuenting, deuising; lighting on.

Trouvé: m. ée: f. Found; deuised, contriued, inuented; had, gotten, obtained.

Il s'est bien trouvé de la foire. He hath made a good market, he hath sped verie well.

Tu as bien trouvé ton homme de 10000 escus. (Ironically) I am a like man indeed to haue 10000 crownes.

Tu luy as bien trouvé la veine. Thou hast hit him right; thou hast toucht him to the quicke.

Trouvement: m. A finding, inuenting; lighting on.

Trouver. To find; inuent, contriue, deuise; light on, meet with, take in the manner; also, to get, obtaine, procure.

Trouver à dire. To lacke, want, or misse the things we had before.

Trouver bon. To allow or approue of, to hold or thinke it good.

Trouver vne boule. To hit a bowle.

Trouver la febve au gasteau. Looke Febve.

Trouver à tondre sur vn oeuf. To picke matter out of a barren subiect, or meanes out of a bare imployment.

Se trouver à tel lieu. To be, be present, or appeare, at such a place.

Ie ne trouveray rien mauvais de vous. I will take nothing ill at your hands.

Le diable vous en fairoit bien mal trouver. The diuell were in it if you should not be well withall; or, you must needs be well withall I trow.

Tu t'en trouveras bien. Thou wilt speed, or thriue, well withall.

Qui bien fera bien se trouvera: Pro. We say of one that does a good and charitable deed, He will find it in another world.

Tout se trouve au rastelier de cuisine: Prov. Looke Rastelier.

Trouverre: m. An ordinarie Poet, Rimer, Versifier, Ballade-maker. (vieil mot.)

Trouveur: m. A finder, inuenter, contriuer, deuiser.

Trouveuse: f. An inuentrix; or a woman that findeth ought.

Tru: m. as Trüage; or, as Treu.

Trüage: m. A toll, custome, tax, imposition.

Truan. as Truand.

Truand: m. A common beggar, vagabond, rogue, a lazie rascall, an vpright man; also, a knaue, scowndrell, varlet, filthie or lewd fellow.

Qui fit Normand il fit truand: Pro. He that a Normand made a beggar made; (for the Normands haue beene more fleeced, and harried then any people subiect vnto the Crowne of France.)

Truand: m. ande: f. Beggarlie, rascallie, roguish.

Cens truans. Double Cens payed by Purchasers (within the dominion of Soesmes, which belongs vnto Blois) for the first yeare onely, in lieu of all Lods, and Ventes; and generally, any dead or bare Cens, which yeeld no further profit vnto the Lords thereof.

Truandaille: f. A crue of rascallie beggars, a rabble of lewd rogues.

Truande: f. A filthie beggarlie queane; a Doxie, or Mort.

Truandeau: m. A young rascall, rogue, beggar.

Truander. To beg, or cant; to play the rogue, or liue like a rogue; to carrie himselfe most basely, scurvily, vnworthily; also, to oppresse, wrong, abuse.

Truandise: f. Beggarie, canting, begging; roguerie, knauerie, cousening, villanie.

Truble: m. A little fish-net for Stues, and small Ponds; also, the water-fowle called, a Shouelar.

Truc: m. A blow, or thwacke. ¶Gast. also, the popping, or sound of the lips, wherewith we vse to encourage a horse.

Ie vous grupperay au truc. I shall take you napping, or catch you as you goe by.

Trucheman: m. A Trucheman, an Interpretor.

Truchemander. To interpret, or play the interpretor, to serue as an interpretor vnto, to mediate by interpretors, or by interpretation.

Truchement. as Trucheman.

Trucheran. The herbe S. Iohns wort.

Trucheter. To sneeze.

Truculent: m. ente: f. Truculent, cruell, threatfull of countenance, terribly looking.

Truege: f. The Dorce, or Gold-fish; (Looke Truette;) ¶Marseillois.

Trueie. as Truege.

Truelle: f. A Trowell.

A

'A propos truelle. See Propos.
Truellée: f. A trowell-full; or, a clap, ſlat, or ſlamp with a Trowell.
Truelleur: m. A Troweller; a Plaiſterer, or any one that workes with a Trowell.
Truette: f. The Dorce, or Gold-fiſh; called thus, or Truege, becauſe ſhe is as greedie, and rauenous as a Sow.
Trufemande: f. Female Sothernwood, mountaine Sothernwood, great Sothernwood.
Truffant bourdant. Betweene ieaſt and earneſt.
Truffe: f. A gibe, mocke, flowt, ieaſt, gullerie; alſo, a Saligot, or water-Nut; alſo, a moſt daintie kind of round and ruſſet root, or rootie excreſcence, which growes in foreſts, or dry and ſandie grounds, and within the ground, but without any ſtalke, leafe, or fiber annexed vnto it.
Truffer. To mocke, deride, flowt, ieaſt or gibe at; alſo, to nod, or ſhake the head, as thoſe doe that approue not the thing they heare.
Truffette: f. A gibe, ieaſt, flowt, mockerie; alſo, a little Truffe.
Truffeur: m. A mocker, flowter, giber, ieaſter.
Truffler. as Truffer.
Trufle: f. as Truffe (in the ſecond, and third ſence.)
Truie. as Truye.
Truine: f. The fiſh Tunnie.
Truite: f. A Trowt.
Truite franche; &, royale; &, ſaulmonniere. The Salmon Trowt.
Trulle: m. A part of the Imperiall Palace of Conſtantinople, wherein matters of State were ordinarily diſcuſſed, and diſpatched.
Trulle: f. The fowle called a Shouelar.
Trumeau de boeuf. A knuckle, hough, or leg, of Beefe.
Trumeau de Veau. as Rouëlle de Veau.
Trupelu. as Trepelu.
Trupet: m. A lock, or foretop of haire.
Truquar. ¶Gaſc. To knocke, or fight. ¶Rab.
Trut. (An Interiection importing indignation,) tuſh, tut, fy man.
Trut avant. A figs end, no ſuch matter, you are much deceiued; alſo, on afore for ſhame.
Truye: f. A Sow; alſo, a warlike engine vſed in old time for the beating downe of walls; alſo, a kind of Game.
Truye de mer. The Porpoſe, or ſea-Hog.
Honteux comme vne truye qui emporte vn levain. Looke Honteux.
Entendre autant en quelque choſe comme fait truye en eſpices. That is iuſt nothing.
Tourner les truyes au foin. To anſwer from the matter.
Truye aime mieux bran que roſes: Prov. The Sow had rather lye in dung then on a bed of Roſes.
Truye ne ſonge qu' ordure; &, Touſiours truye ſonge bran: Pro. Baſe minds haue alwayes baſe, and beaſtlie thoughts; their wiſhes, proiects, dreames, are like themſelues.
Si truye forfaict les pourceaux le ſouffrent: Pro. If the old Sow doe a fault and men abhorre it, her young, and harmeleſſe Pigs are puniſht for it.
Truyes. as Truyettes.
Truyette: f. A young, or little Sow.
Truyettes: f. The markes of ſhin-burning; the red ſcorches, or ſpots on burnt ſhins.
Trycher, & Trycherie. as Tricher, & Tricherie.
Trye. Looke Trie.
Trygonne: f. A kind of Scatefiſh.
Tu autem. Vous en ſçaurez le tu autem. You ſhall know the point, head, or knot of the matter; or, you ſhall vnderſtand all the ſtorie, the whole matter it ſelfe.
Tube: m. A Conduit-pipe; alſo, the hollow of the backbone, or the pipe through which the marrow thereof doth runne.
Tubercle: m. The ſmall riſing or ſwelling of a wheale, puſh, powke, or pimple; alſo, a puſh, or wheale.
Tuberculeux: m. euſe: f. Swelling like a puſh, or wheale; alſo, full of puſhes, powkes, or wheales.
Tubereux: m. euſe: f. Swelling, bunchie, knobbie.
Tuberoſitez: f. Tuberoſities, ſwellings; bunches, wennes; knobs; knots.
Tubiluſtre: m. A day whereon the Trumpets dedicated vnto ſacrifices were hallowed, and the Trumpetters with water purged. ¶Rab.
Tubule: m. A little Conduit-pipe, or hollow reed.
Tucquet: m. A little hill, or hillocke, a little aſcent or riſing of ground.
Tudey. (Fondly) for Vertu Dieu. ¶Lorrainois.
Tué: m. ée: f. Killed, ſlaine, murthered, maßacred.
Tue-chien: m. The hearb Dogs-bane; alſo, medow Saffron, wild Saffron.
Tue-loup: m. The hearbe Wolues-bane.
Tue-loup iaulne. Yellow Wolfe-bane, plaine Wolfe-bane, Heath Crowfoot.
Tuement: m. A killing, ſlaying, maſſacring.
Tuer. To kill, ſlay, murther, maſſacre; alſo, as Tutoyer.
Tuer le feu. To quench, or put out, the fire.
Tuer vn mercier pour vn peigne. To do great harme vpon a ſmall occaſion.
Il en tuera dix de la chandelle, & vingt du chandelier. He will doe wonders (Ironically.)
Tel tue qui ne penſe que bleſſer; &, Tel cuide frapper qui tue: Prov. The wounding mind hath oft a murthering hand; a hurt intended with death is ended.
Tuerie: f. A ſlaughter, killing, occiſion, maſſacre, murther.
Tueur: m. A killer, ſlayer, murtherer, maſſacrer.
Tuf: m. A kind of white-ſand, or ſoft and brittle ſtone, oftentimes couering, or lying in flakes on, good ſoyle.
Tufeux: m. euſe: f. Couered with, or full of, Tuf.
Tuffe: m. A footman, or ſouldior ſeruing on foot. (vieil mot.)
Tuffe. Pierre de tuffe. as Tuf.
Tuffeau. as Tuf.
Tuffiere: f. A bed of Tuf; the ground, or Quarrie wherein it is gotten.
Tugnicien: m. Looke Tunicien.
Tugure: m. A cottage, or countrey houſe, a ſhepheards coat, ſhed, or bullie.
Tugurion: m. as (or a little) Tugure.
Tuïau. Looke Tuyau.
Tuile: f. A tile.
Sonner la tuile. To ring, or knocke to dinner, by ſtriking on a ſonorous kind of tile; a phraſe vſed among the Capucins, onely in ſome places; for in others they haue Bells (as we in our Colledges) Plates of yron, for the ſame purpoſe.
Tuileau: m. A little tile, or broken tile.
Tuilerie: f. A tile-kill, or place wherein tiles be made; alſo, tiling, or tiles.
Tuileur: m. A tiler, or a tile-maker.
Tuileux: m. euſe: f. Full of tiles.
Tuilleau. See Tuileau.
Tuillette: f. A little tile; alſo, a wedge, or lingot of gold, or ſiluer.

Tuillier: m. A Tiler.
Tuilot: m. A tile-ſhard, a broken tyle, or peece of a tyle; alſo, a little tyle.
Tuition: f. Tuition, protection, defence, gard.
Tulbant: m. as Turbant.
Tuleau. See Tuileau.
Tulebute: f. The pipe of a fountaine, or gutter.
Tulipan: m. The delicate flower called a Tulipa, Tulipie, or Dalmatian Cap; and by ſome (though not ſo properly) Lillie Narciſſus.
Tulippe. as Tulipan.
Tumbe, & Tumber. Looke Tombe, & Tomber.
Tumbe. The great ſea-Dragon, or Quauiuer; alſo, the Gurnard, called ſo at Roan.
Tumbereau: m. A Tumbrell.
Tumefié: m. ée: f. Swollen, or made to ſwell; puffed vp.
Tumefier. To make to ſwell, or puffe vp.
Tumeur: f. A tumor, ſwelling, riſing, or puffing vp of the fleſh.
Tumulte: m. A tumult, vprore, ſedition, broyle, ruffling, ſtirre, inſurrection, commotion, hurlyburly.
Tumultuaire: com. Tumultuarie, raſh, diſordered, hudled vp in haſt, ruffled or ſhuffled vp on a ſuddaine, done with more ſpeed then heed, more feare then aduiſement.
Tumultuairement. Tumultuarily, raſhly, diſorderedly, in haſt, on a ſuddaine, with much feare, without any aduiſement.
Tumultueuſement. Tumultuouſly, turbulently, ſeditiouſly, moſt troubleſomely, in a terrible vprore, with a great hurrie or ſtirre.
Tumultueux: m. euſe: f. Tumultuous, turbulent, ſeditious, mutinous, moſt troubleſome, full of ſtirre, broyles, buſineſſe, all on a hurrie, or in a hurlyburlie.
Tunal: m. The Indian Fig-tree.
Tunicien: m. A Barbarie Faulcon; and particularly, that Faulcon, which is gotten in the countrey about Tunis.
Tunicis. L'herbe de tunicis. Frothie or ſpatling Poppie; alſo, the hearbe that beareth ſweet Williams.
Tunique: f. A Coat-armor; and generally, any ſleeueleſſe long Jacket, or Coat; alſo, a thinne coat, or skinne couering the eye, &c.
La tunique agnelette. as Agneliere.
Tuph: m. as Tuf; alſo, rubbiſh.
Tupin: m. A pipkin, or earthen pot.
De bonne terre bon tupin: Pro. Good cloth of good wooll; good ſtuffe good garments yeeldeth.
Turaulx: m. Old Mole-hills, or hillocks raiſed by Moles, &c, and ouergrowne with graſſe.
Turban: m. A Turbant; a Turkiſh hat, of white and fine linnen wreathed into a rundle; broad at the bottome to incloſe the head, and leſſening, for ornament, towards the top.
Turbateur: m. A troubler, diſturber, diſquieter.
Turbation: f. A trouble, or troubling; a diſturbance, moleſtation, diſquieting.
Turbe: f. as Tourbe; alſo, a troope (conſiſting at the leaſt) of tenne witneſſes; two ſuch troopes being required to the approuement of an vnwritten cuſtome, and for the expoſition of a written one.
Turbentine: f. Turpentine.
Turbet: m. The name of a little apple, a graffe whereof doth ſtreighten the crooked ſtocke whereon it is ſet.
Turbin: m. The ſhell-fiſh called a Welke, or Winkle.
Turbine: m. A tempeſt, whirlewind, boiſterous wind, or ſtorme.
Turbiné: m. ée: f. Faſhioned like a Top, ſharpe at the bottome, and broad at the top.
Turbit: m. Seraphions Turbith, ſea Starrewort, blue Daiſie or Camomill, Hogs-beanes.
Turbit des Apothicaires. Turbith of the ſhops, white Turbith.
Turbit baſtard. The root of the ſlinking Carrot, and of the Spunge Eſula; both too often ſold, by couſeners, for the true Turbith.
Turbit blanc. White Turbith, Turbith of the ſhops, the beſt Turbith, which is the root of the Syrian, or Antiochian Scammonie; alſo, the reddiſh hearbe Alypum, or Alypia; talked of, but not otherwiſe named, by our Engliſh Herbariſt.
Turbit faux. The root of the deadlie, or ſlinking Carrot.
Turbit noir. Blacke Turbith, Quackſaluers Turbith, Eſula maior.
Turbit de la Pouille. as Turbit baſtard.
Turbot: m. The Turbot fiſh.
Turbulent: m. ente: f. Turbulent, bluſtering, ſtormie, tempeſtuous; troubleſome, vnquiet, contentious, buſie, ſeditious.
Turbulenter. To bluſter, hurrie, ſtorme; vex, turmoyle, diſquiet.
Turc: m. A Turke.
Herbe au Turc, ou du grand Turc. Ruptvrewort, Burſtwort.
Turc: m. que: f. Turkiſh, of Turkie; belonging to a Turke; alſo, Turkeis-like; whence;
Couleur Turque. Azure, Sky-colour, the colour of a Turkeis-ſtone (betweene a blue, and an Azure.)
Turcée de raiſins. A cluſter of grapes.
Turci: m. A cauſey, rampire, or banke for the keeping backe, or holding in, of waters.
Turcie: f. as Turci; alſo, the raiſing of a banke, rampier, or cauſey, for the holding in, or keeping backe, of waters.
Turcot: m. The little aſh-coloured, and long-tongued bird, called a Wrynecke.
Tureaux: m. as Turaux. Perris
Turelureau. Mon tur. My pillicocke, my prettie knaue. V. Godichon, Mistigouri.
Turgent: m. ente: f. Swelling, riſing, puffing vp, ſtrouting out.
Turgon: m. A kind of red Beets which haue neither ſent, nor ſauer.
Turguet: m. A little Wimble; alſo, Amelcorne, or Starchcorne, tearmed particularly, Double turguet.
Turlupin: m. A grub, muſſrome, ſtart-up, new-nothing, man of no value.
Turme. as Truffe (in the laſt ſence.)
Turonde: f. A round pellet, or peece of dough, paſte, or bread, wherewith fowle is crammed; alſo, a Hawkes caſting.
Turpe: com. Foule, ouglie, filthie, diſhonourable, vnboneſt.
Turpitude: f. Turpitude, filthineſſe, or a filthie act, ougline ſſe, deformitie; lewdneße, diſhoneſtie.
Turpot: m. A certaine peece of timber (whereof there be foure, two in the prow, and two in the poope) of a ſhip, faſtened vnto the Varengues, and ſeruing, among other things, to keepe the artillerie from recoyling too farre backe.
Turqueſque: com. Turkiſh, Turke-like, of, or belonging to, the Turkes.

Reve-

Reverence Turqueſque. A nod with the head.
Turquet. as Turguet.
Turquie: f. Turkie.
Bled de Turquie. Turkie corne, or Turkie wheat; of diuers kinds, and colours.
Turquin. as Couleur Turque (vnder Turc;)or Couleur Turquine (vnder Couleur;) alſo, a kind of dark-greene Pumpion.
Turquois: m. oiſe: f. Turkiſh; whence, Arc Turquois. The Turkiſh Long-bow.
Turquoiſe: f. A Turqueis, or Turkiſh-ſtone.
Turrement: m. A violent ſhocke, ioult, or iurring, as of an Engine of batterie againſt a wall.
Turſe. as Turcée.
Turſie. as Turcie.
Turturelle: f. A Turtledoue.
Turumber. An auncient Arabian word, ſignifying the fineſt ſort of ſugar.
Tuſé: m. ée: f. Pounded, brayed, beaten, or bruiſed in a mortar.
Tute: f. A hole, or berrie made by a Conie.
Tutelaire: com. Tutelarie, garding, protecting, patronizing, defending.
Tutele: f. wardſhip; gardianſhip, the cuſtodie of a child vnder age; alſo, tuition, defence, protection, ſafegard.
Tuteur: m. A Tutor, Gardian, Ouerſeer.
Tuthie: f. Tutie; a medecinable ſtone, or duſt, ſaid to be the heauier foyle of Braſſe, cleauing to the vpper ſides, and tops of Braſſe-melting houſes: and ſuch doe ordinarie Apothecaries paſſe away for Tutie; although the true Tutie be not heauie, but light and white like flocks of wooll, falling into duſt as ſoone as it is touched; this is bred of the ſparkles of braſen furnaces, whereinto ſtore of the minerall Calamine, beaten to duſt, hath been caſt.
Tuthie Alexandrine. The beſt kind of artificiall Calamine, tearmed by Phiſitions, Botryitis.
Tutoyer. To thou one.
Tutrice: f. A tutrix, or tutereſſe; a defendreſſe, or gardianeſſe.
Tutſan: m. Tutſan, Parke-leaues; (an hearbe.)
Tutuyer. as Tutoyer.
Tutye. Looke Tutie.
Tuyau: m. A pipe, quill, cane, reed, canell.
Tuyau de bled. A ſtraw, or ſtalke of corne.
Tuyau de mer. A red ſea-worme found among rocks, incloſed in a white, round, and (on the outſide) rugged pipe, or ſhell.
Enter en tuyau. as Enter en canon. See Canon.
Tyberiade: f. A Topographe; the modell, or draught of a place, called ſo of a booke of that name, compoſed by Bartholus the Lawyer, who was the firſt that graced his works with ſuch figures.
Tygre. Looke Tigre.
Tymbale. A Timbrell; or, a little braſen drumme to daunce by. ¶ Langued.
Tymbon. A kind of braſen drumme.
Tymbre, & Tymbré. Looke Timbre, & Timbré.
Tymbrée: f. Fiſh-Mint, water-Mint, brooke-Mint.
Tympan: m. A Timpan, or Timbrell; alſo, a Taber; alſo, the Gable-end of a houſe; alſo, a Printers Timpane; that whereon he layes the ſheet, or leafe thats to be printed; alſo, the great wheele of a Crane; alſo, a Mill-wheele that taketh, and yeeldeth water in turning.
Tympan d'une campanelle. The broad-end of a Campanell.
Tympan dentelée. The cog-wheele of a Mill.
Tympane. Looke Tympanne.
Tympaner. To play on a Timpan, Timbrell, or Taber.
Tympaniſer. as Tympaner; alſo, to defame, ſlaunder, traduce.
Tympaniſte: m. A Timpaniſt; a player on a Timpan, &c; alſo, one that hath a Timpanie. ¶ Rab.
Tympanne: m. The pannell, or flat ſquare on the top, or head of a pillar.
Tyn. The hearbe Time.
Tyne. Looke Tine.
Typhaine: f. The Epiphanie, or Twelfth day in Chriſtmas.
Typhe. Water-Torch, Cats-tayle, Reed Mace, Ditch Downe, the marſh beetle or peſtle.
Typher, Looke Tiffer.
Typholope. A kind of hard-skinned Blind-worme, or Slow-worme, which is not verie venomous.
Typhones. Great, or violent whirlewinds. ¶ Rab.
Tyran: m. A Tirant; a cruell King, Lord, Ruler; a violent Gouernor.
Tyranneau: m. A pettie Tyrant.
Tyrannie: f. Tyrannie, Lorldlie crueltie, a violent or bloudie Gouernment.
Tyranniquement. Tyrannouſly, cruelly, bloudily.
Tyrannizer. To tyrannize, or play the Tyrant.
Tyraſſer. Looke Tiraſſer.
Tyrepet: m. A great farter. ¶ Rab.
Tyrer. Looke Tirer.
Tyromantie: f. Diuination by a Cheeſe.
Tyrouër: m. Is, in a Violin, or ſmall Fiddle, the flat peece behind the bridge whereto the ſtrings be faſtened; alſo, as Tirouër.
Tyrſe. The dart, or iauelin of Bacchus.
Tyrſigere: com. Iuie-beuring, or decked with Iuie.

V

VA. (Is the ſecond Perſon of the Imperatiue Mood of the Verbe Aller) goe, goe thy wayes, get hence, get thee gone; alſo (the third Perſon of the Preſent tenſe of the Indicatiue Mood; whence, Il va;) he goes, wends, walkes on; Tis alſo vſed ſometimes as a Subſtantiue; whence;
Vn va cy va là. One that is ſent vp and downe on errands.
Vn va par tout. The ſame; alſo, a quicke or nimble fellow; one that diſpatches his worke apace; one that ſoone rids way.
Vacabons: m. Vagabonds, rogues.
Vacant: m. The reuenue of a Benefice during vacancie.
Vacant: m. ante: f. Vacant, emptie, void; at leiſure; without vſe, or imployment; without owner; whence;
Biens vacans. Wayſes, ſtrayes; a purſe, or treaſure found; any land, or thing, which is without owner.
Vacarme: f. A battaile, or fight; and, the ruſtling noyſe made by armor, or armed men, in a battaile; alſo, a ſuddaine inuaſion or aſſault, or the boiſterous hurrie it goes with; alſo, a tumultuous garboyle, hurlyburlie, ſturre, coyle.
Vacation: f. A vacation, vacancie, leiſure, ceaſing from labor; alſo, a trade, art, handicraft, profeſſion, vocation, calling.
Vache: f. A Cow; alſo, Neats-leather; alſo, a heape of new-made ſalt.

Vache de Beard. A baſe coyne worth about vj d Tourn.

Vache de Foix. The name of an auncient coyne, which bore on it the ſtampe of a Cow, the armes of the old Earles of Foix.

Vache de mer. A kind of daintie Thornbacke, hauing a pointed beake.

Il a mangé de la vache enragée. He hath drunke of many waters, paſsed many pikes, tryed many experiments; he hath beene well practiſed in, or beaten vnto, the courſe of the world; alſo, as vnder Manger.

Le Diable ſera bien aux vaches. There will be an old ſtirre, hurrying, hurlyburly.

Vache de Barbarie qui ne recognoiſt que ſes propres veaux: Pro. Applyable to one that either ſimply knowes not, or churliſhly cares not for, more the her owne.

Vache de loing a laict aſſez: Pro. Things farre-fetcht are held moſt ſufficient; the further a thing is brought, the better we thinke of it.

Vne vache prend bien vn lievre: Prov. A Cow may catch a Hare (as vnder Lievre.)

La vache du riche velle ſouvent, celle du povre avorte: Prov. The rich mans Cow (well-fed) does often calſe, the poore mans caſts hers, & thriues worſe by halfe.

Vache ne ſçait que vaut ſa queuë iuſques à ce qu'elle l'ait perduë: Prov. The want, more then the vſe, indeares the worth of good things; we know our friends beſt when we want them moſt.

Auſſi toſt meurt vache comme veau: Pro. The skipping Calfe, and wanton Lambe, are often kill'd before their damme.

Qui ſe meſle d'autruy meſtier il trait ſa vache en vn panier: Pro. He that with other mens trades will be medling, doth moſt-an-end looſe the fruit of his pedling.

Qui ne retire de ſa vache que la queuë ne perd pas tout: Prov. He looſes not his whole anayle, that of his Cow ſaues but the tayle.

Vachelette: f. A verie little Cow.

Vacherie: f. A heard of kyne; alſo, a Cow-houſe, or ſtable for kyne.

Vachette: f. A little Cow; alſo, as Vache de Foix.

Vachier: m. A Cow-heard, or Cow-keeper.

Hier vachier huy chevalier: Pro. One thats raiſed, on a ſuddaine, from a baſe, to an honorable, calling.

Vaciet: m. The blue or purple Jacinth, or Hiacinth, tearmed by ſome, Crow-toes.

Vacilé, & Vacilement. as Vacillé, & Vacillation.

Vaciler. See Vaciller.

Vacillation: f. A reeling, ſtaggering, wagging, ſtirring, wauering, an inconſtant mouing.

Vacillé. Reeled, ſtaggered, wagged, wauered.

Vaciller. To reele, totter, ſtagger, wag, ſhake, wauer, be looſe, vnſure, vnconſtant, moue or ſtirre inconſtantly.

Vacuité: f. Vacuitie, voidneſſe, emptineſſe, hollowneſſe.

Vade. Paſſe (at Primero, &c.)

Vagabond: m. A vagabond, roamer, faitour, earth-planet, wandering idlesbie, ranging or gadding rogue.

Vagabonder. To gad, wander, ſtray, roame, raunge, vagarie, vagabond it; to flit hither and thither, goe from coaſt to coaſt, loyter vp and downe.

Vageux. Looke Vagueux.

Vagine: f. A ſheath, ſcabberd, caſe, couering; alſo, the huſe, or cod of corne.

Vagir. To cry like a little child.

Vague: f. A waue, ſourge, or billow of water.

Vague: com. Void, emptie; waſt, idle; alſo, faire, beautifull, cleere, bright; alſo, wandering, flitting, raunging, oft remouing; whence;

Fievre vague. The fits whereof doe hold an vncertaine courſe.

Vaguer. To wander, vagarie, gad, raunge, roame, flit, remoue often from place to place.

Vagueur. Flitting, floating, or full of waues, as the ſea, &c.

Vagueux: m. euſe: f. The ſame; or wauie, full of waues.

Vaillamment. Valiantly, valorouſly, couragiouſly.

Vaillance: f. Valiancie, valor, courage.

Vaillant: m. A mans whole eſtate, or worth; all his ſubſtance, meanes, fortunes.

Qui plus qu'il n'a vaillant deſpend, il fait la corde à quoy ſe pend: Pro. He that feares not to ſpend more then he hath, ſets, at the leaſt, one foot in th'hangmans path.

Vaillant: m. ante: f. Valiant, hardie, couragious; alſo, right honeſt, of much worth.

Rien ne vaut l'aſſaillant s'il n'eſt fort, & vaillant: Pro. In vaine men goe t'aſsayle, when force, or courage fayle.

Vaillantiſe: f. Valiantneſſe, couragiouſneſſe, hardineſſe.

Vain: m. aine: f. Vaine; emptie, void; fruſtrate; friuolous, idle, trifling, fond, without purpoſe; alſo, faint, weake, feeble, forceleſſe.

Vaine paſture. Looke Paſture.

Terre vaine. A waſt ground; or, a ground which hath neither ſeed in, nor fruit vpon, it.

Terre vaine, & place vuide. Which hath neither building on it, nor garden in it.

Vſagiers vain paſturiers. Looke Paſturier.

Vain. (Aduerbially;) whence, En vain. In vaine, idly, to no purpoſe.

Vain paſturer. To turne cattell into, or let them runne among, ſuch grounds as be held Vaine paſture.

Vaincre. To vanquiſh, ouercome, ſubdue, foyle, ouermaiſter, ſurmount; alſo, to conuince, or put downe by reaſon, or in reaſoning.

Vaincu: m. uë: f. Vanquiſhed, ouercome, ſubdued, foyled, ouer-maiſtered, ſurmounted; alſo, conuinced, or put downe by reaſon, or in reaſoning.

Vainement. Vainely, friuolouſly, to no purpoſe, idly, fondly, fooliſhly; alſo, faintly, weakely, feebly.

Vaineté: f. as Vanité.

Vainquereſſe: f. A vanquiſhing or victorious woman, a conquereſſe.

Vainqueur: m. A vanquiſher, ouercommer, conqueror, victor, ſubduer.

Vair: m. A rich furre of Ermines powdered thicke with blue haires; alſo, the grayiſh colour of ſome eyes; alſo, that which our Blaſonners call Verry.

Menu Vair. Miniuer; the furre of Ermines mixed, or ſpotted, with the furre of the Weeſell called Gris.

Vairé: m. ée: f. Verry; diuerſified with argent and azure.

Vairie. as Vayrie.

Vairole. as Verole.

Vaiſſeau: m. A veſſell (of what kind ſoeuer.)

Vaiſſeau circulatoire. A Limbecke, or Stillitorie.

Vaiſſeau contenant, ou corpulent. The lower part of a Limbecke, that which holds the fluſſe which is to be diſtilled.

Vaiſſeau long. A Galley, Foiſt, or Brigantine, called ſo to make a difference betweene them, and a Ship, which is Vaiſſeau rond.

Vaiſſeau d'un navire. The bulke, bellie, or bodie of a ſhip.

Vaiſſeau d'une riviere. The channell of a riuer.

Double vaiſſeau. A cauldron, or kettle full of hot water; or, as Bain de Marie.

Qui veut tirer quelque choſe de ce vaiſſeau il luy faut donner du vent. He that will get ought from this cokes, muſt commend, or collogue with, him.

En vaiſſeau mal lavé ne peut on vin garder: Prov. In uncleane Caske wine will not keepe.

Vn meſchant vaiſſeau iamais ne tombe de la main: Pro. That oft proues beſt which we loue leaſt; a courſe glaſſe neuer falls vnto the ground.

Vaiſſelle: f. Veſſell (of any ſort;) alſo, Plate.

Val: m. A vale, valley, dale.

Du mont à val. From the top to the bottome.

Par monts, & par vaux. Euerie where, in all places whatſoeuer.

Promettre monts, & vaux. To promiſe Gods Cope, mountaines of gold, impoſſibilities.

Valable: com. Valuable, in force, of value.

Valdimonie. A day of apparance; or a promiſe of, or bond for, apparance at a certaine day.

Valée: f. A valley; a vale, or dale; See Vallée.

Valence: f. as Vaillant: m.

Valentianes. Par val. By fits, by turnes; but ſlowly forward. ¶Rab.

Valeriane: f. Garden Valerian, Capons-tayle, Setwall.

Valeriane moyenne. Great wild Valerian.

Valeriane petite. Small wild Valerian.

Grande Valeriane. Garden Valerian; alſo, great wild Valerian.

Valerienne: f. as Valeriane.

Valet: m. (Quaſi va-lez ſon maiſtre;) a groome, yeoman, or houſehold ſeruant of the meaner ſort: In old time it was a more honorable title; for all young gentlemen, vntill they came to be eighteene yeres of age, were (as at this day Batchelers in Britaine are) tearmed ſo; beſides, thoſe that waited in the K. Chamber (and who were, for the moſt part, Gentlemen) had no other title then of Valets de-chambre, vntill that Francis the firſt, perceiuing ſuch as attended him to be no better then Roturiers, brought in, aboue them, another ſort, and cauſed them to be ſtiled, Gentilshommes de ſa chambre: preſently after which the Title of Valet grew into diſeſteeme, and is, at the length, become oppoſite vnto that of Gentilhomme; Looke Varlet.

Valet d'Aouſt. A hind, or hireling, onely for Harueſttime.

Valet à bras. A groome, hind, or ſeruant in a mechanicall office; a Labourer.

Valet de chambre. A chamberlaine; a groome of, or waiter in, the bed-chamber; See Valet.

Valet de Conſtantinople. (In the Hiſtorie of Villehardouin) autant que Prince.

Valet de cuiſine. An vnder-Cooke; a ſcullion, or kitchin drudge.

Valet du diable (qui fait plus que l'on luy commande;) an ouer-officious ſeruant; one thats more buſie then he is bidden to be.

Valet d'Eſcolier. A Subſiſor, or Seruant (in ordinarie) vnto a Scholler.

Valets de la feſte. A kind of Morriſdauncers, attired like fooles, and hauing, as ours, their legs gartered with bells.

Valet d'huis. A log, blocke, or peiſe of mettall, &c, hanging by a rope on one ſide of a doore, and ſeruing to ſhut it too preſently after ſuch as goe in, or out, at it.

Valet de Iuſtice. A Sergeant, Officer, Catchpole.

Valet de Picques. The knaue of Spades.

Valet trenchant. A Caruer.

Vin des valets. Looke Vin.

Ce que maiſtre donne, & valet pleure ce ſont larmes perdues: Pro. Why ſhould a groome grudge at his maiſters bountie?

Chéval faict, & valet à faire: Pro. Chuſe a horſe made, a ſeruant to be made.

Contre diſner appert valet: Pro. Wer't not for meat I ſhould not ſee my man (ſayes the ill-ſerued maiſter.)

De grand maiſtre hardi valet: Prov. A maiſters greatneſſe breedes him hardie ſeruants; the might of Lords addes mettall to their men.

En pont, en planche, & en riviere valet devant, maiſtre derriere: Pro. Looke vnder Maiſtre.

Valetaille: f. A raſcallie crue of campe-following boyes, or drudges; alſo, a companie of groomes, or meaner ſeruants.

Valeter. Baſely to obſerue, attend or wait on, play the drudge or groome; to ſtoope, crouch, deiect, or ſubmit himſelfe too much.

Valeton: m. A boy-ſeruant, a young or little groome.

Valetté: m. ée: f. Made verie common, or ſo common, that meane ſeruants haue it vp; groome-ridden, proſtituted vnto the vſe of groomes.

Valetudinaire: com. Sieklie, queaſie, craſie, ſubiect vnto infirmities.

Valeur: f. Value, worth, worthineſſe; rate, price.

Valeure: f. The value, value, rate, or price, of.

Valeureuſement. Valorouſly, valiantly, courageouſly.

Valeureux: m. euſe: f. Valorous, valiant, hardie, courageous.

Validation: f. A ſtrengthening, inforcement, confirming; an eſtabliſhing, a ratifying.

Valide: com. Valide, ſtrong, weightie, forcible, of worth, or value, that can doe much.

Validé: m. ée: f. Strengthened, inforced, confirmed; made worthie, or of worth; eſtabliſhed, authorized, ratified.

Valider. To ſtrengthen, confirme, inforce, make good; ratifie, eſtabliſh, giue weight, or authoritie vnto.

Vali-dire: m. Vn Val. A footman, or ſeruant, onely for errands.

Validité: f. Validitie, weight, ſtrength, force.

Valier. The name of a Saint; whence, Peur S. Valier; More feare then harme; or, a falling, by ouermuch feare, into the miſchiefe, or danger feared; as when a man, thats threatned a hanging, dyes before he be turned off the ladder; for ſo, as the report goes, this Saint did.

Valiſe: f. A Male, Clokebag, Budget; Wallet.

Valitude: f. Health, ſtrength, good liking, welfare.

Vallant: m. as Vaillant: m.

Vallée: f. A valley, vale, bottome, dale.

Chevaucher la chevre en la vallée. Looke Chevre.

Apres grande vallée rude montée: Pro. After great reſt much toyle; after much eaſe great paine.

Apres grande montée grande vallée: Prov. They that the higheſt climbe the loweſt fall.

Vallet: m. A groome, &c; Looke Valet.

Vallet à bras. A labourer; a labouring ſeruant; a groome, hind, or ſeruant in a mechanicall office.

Valletaille, & Valleter. See Valetaile, & Valeter.

Valleton: m. as Valeton; alſo (in ſome auncient Authors) a baſtard.

Vallidation, & Vallider. as Validation, & Valider.

Vallois: m. A kind of Net, wherewith fiſh is (forbidden to be) caught.

Vallon: m. A little valley; a dale.

Valoir: m. Value, worth; rate, price.
Non valoir d'eſtat. Looke Eſtat.
Valoir. To be worth; as much worth, or as worthie, as; to counteruaile, counterpeiſe, or anſwer in value; to be of equall eſteeme, or goodneſſe with; alſo, to profit, ſerue, be good for; and to merit, or deſerue.
Cela vaut faict, ou la choſe vaut faicte. The matter is neere an end, or as good as done.
Couſte & vaille. Fall it out how it will, whatſoeuer come of it; at what rate, or hazard ſoeuer; alſo, no matter what it coſt ſo as it be good.
I'en vaus bien vn autre. I am as fit for it, or worthie of it, as another.
Se mettre en rang d'oignon, & ne valoir vn'eſchalotte. Seeke Oignon.
C'eſt argent qu'argent vaut: Pro. As good haue money-worth as money; that which is worth coyne is as good as coyne.
Les choſes valent autant qu'on les fait valoir: Pro. Things are as they are eſteemed of; or, are eſteemed of as they are ſet forth; The like is;
Rien ne vaut la choſe ſinon qu'on la fait valoir: Prov. A thing is worth no more then it's ſet out for; things without ſhew, out-ſetting, praiſe, or vſe, are nothing worth.
Vn homme ne vaut ſinon qu'il ſe fait valoir: Pro. As thou of thine owne ſelfe doeſt deeme, ſo other men will thee eſteeme.
Les couſteaux de Iean Colot, l'un vaut l'autre: Pro. See Colot.
Tant vaut l'homme tant vaut ſa terre: Prov. A good, or bad man makes good, or bad, the things belonging to him.
Tout bois vaut buſches: Pro. The worſt wood's good ynough to make logs of; or, the worſt wood yeeldeth fuell for the fire.
Valois. as Vallois.
Valvaſſeur. See Vavaſſeur.
Valve: f. A foulding, or two-leafed doore, or window.
Valuë: f. Value, worth, goodneſſe.
Valvule: f. A flap in the inſide of the mouth of a veſſell, which keepeth the liquor it containes from running, iertting, or guſhing, out.
Valvules du coeur. Eleuen ſmall open gates, or entries in the heart, whereby paſſage is giuen to the bloud and ſpirits that come vnto it from the veines, and arteries.
Van: m. A Vanne, or winnowing Siue; (made of Ozier, and rather like a Scallop ſhell then our Siue.)
Vandanger. Looke Vendanger.
Vandoise: f. The Dace, or Dare-fiſh; alſo, a Witch, or Hag.
Vanereau: m. A young Lapwing.
Vaner, & Vaneur. as Vanner, & Vanneur.
Vanger. Looke Venger.
Vangeron: m. A little red-finned fiſh in the Lake of Geneua.
Vanier. as Vannier.
Vanité: f. Vanitie, triſling, lightneſſe, inconſtancie, fondneſſe; alſo, emptineſſe.
Vanné: m. ée: f. Vanned, or winnowed; alſo, courſed, ſchooled, canuaſſed; alſo, ſcoffed, mocked, flowted, played vpon, ridden, derided.
Vanneau: m. A Lapwing.
Vanner. To vanne, or winnow (not much in our manner, letting the corne fall from the ſiue to the ground; but, more commonly, ſhogging it with both hands againſt the thigh, to make the chaffe come aloft of the corne, and then ſweeping ſo much of it off with a wing, &c, as the wind hath not carried away;) alſo, to courſe, chide, canuaſſe, bayt, ſchoole; or, to mocke, flowt, ride, play vpon; or to rake vp, ſcoffingly, the faults or imperfections of others.
Vanner ſa farine au vent. To ſpend his meanes, or ſubſtance on toyes.
Vanner ſa plume au vent. To play the foole, or looſe his time.
Vannerie: f. as Venerie; a hunting, &c.
Vannet: m. A Lapwing; alſo, as Coquille (in Blaſon.)
Vanneur: m. A vanner, or winnower of corne; alſo, a chider, ſchooler, bayter.
Vanneure: f. A winnowing; alſo, a chiding, bayting, ſchooling; and, a ſcoffing, mocking, deriding.
Vannier: m. A Siue-maker; a Basket-maker.
Vannures: f. Winnowings, or ſiftings of corne.
Vanoyer. To vaniſh, diſappeare, come to nought; alſo, to be vaine, or play vaine parts.
Vantance: f. A vaunt, brag, boaſt; or, as Vanterie.
Se Vanter. To vaunt, brag, boaſt, glorie, cracke.
Tel a neceſſité qui ne s'en vante pas: Prov. Neceſſitie doth pinch them moſt, who of their wants doe ſhame to boaſt.
Vanterie: f. A vaunting, bragging, boaſting, oſtentation, cracking, glorying.
Vanterolles. as Venterolles.
Vanteur: m. A vaunter, bragger, cracker, boaſter.
De grands vanteurs petis faiſeurs: Prov. Great boaſters ſmall roaſters; the faireſt chimneyes yeeld out the leaſt ſmoake.
Vanteux: m. euſe: f. Vaunting, cracking, bragging, boaſting, full of oſtentation.
Vapeur: f. A vapor, fume, exhalation, hot breath, ſteaming, reeking.
Vapide: com. Waſtie, or wafted; that ſends vp an ill fume, that yeelds a ſtinking vapor.
Vaquane: f. The vacancie of a Benefice.
Vaquant. as Vacant.
Vaquer. To be at leiſure, ceaſe from labour, deſiſt from working; alſo, to attend, apply, beſtow time on, giue the mind, or bend his ſtudie, vnto; alſo, to be vacant, emptie, void, without.
Var. as Bar.
Varandé: m. ée: f. Well dryed, and ſeaſoned, as a Herring thats readie to be barrelled.
Varander. To dry, and ſeaſon Herrings for the barrell.
Varangues: f. The ribs, or floore-timbers, of a ſhip.
Varaville: f. The name of a greene ſweet apple, which is faſhioned like an egge.
Varech: m. A ſea-wracke, or wrecke; all that is caſt a-land by chaunce, or tempeſt; or that comes ſo neere the land, that a man on horſebacke may reach it with his launce.
Varene: f. A flat valley; or, a plaine betweene two hills.
Varengues. as Varangues.
Varenne: f. A reddiſh earth, whereof the moulds of Founders, and ouens of Potters be ordinarily made; and hence;
Varennes. Leane, and dry grounds, fit onely to beare Oats, and Rye.
Varenneux: m. euſe: f. Sterill, dry, leane.
Vareſque. as Varech.
Variable: com. Variable, changeable, mutable, waueering, fickle, inconſtant, flitting.
Variation: f. A variation, change, mutation, differing from that it hath beene.

Varice: m. A crooked veine ſwelling with corrupt bloud in the temples, bellie, or legs.

Varicqueux: m. euſe: f. The veines of whoſe temples, &c, be ſwollen with corrupt bloud; alſo, ſtradling, ſtriding, going wide aſunder.

Varier. To varie, change, alter, diſguiſe; to ſquare, differ, diſagree, write, or ſpeake diuerſly; to diuerſifie; to make of ſeuerall faſhions or colours.

Varier en la teſte. To wag, or waggle with the head; to haue a giddie head.

Il varie. He holds not ſteadily; his hand ſhakes, quauers, or wauers.

Varieté: f. Varietie, change, choice, diuerſitie; fickleneſſe, inconſtancie, mutabilitie.

Varig: m. Flag, Sword-graſſe, Corne-flag.

Varin: m. A woodden Engine conſiſting of two vices, and a skrue, and ſeruing to lift vp great peeces of timber, or of Artillerie.

Varinet: m. A little Varin.

Varioles: f. The ſmall Pockes.

Variqueux. as Varicqueux.

Varlet: m. A Groome, &c; as Valet; alſo, a younker, ſtripling, youth; as in the Prouerb;

Autant ſe priſe beau varlet que belle fille: Prov. The ſmirking youth as much himſelfe eſteemes, as doth the Nimph who beautie faireſt ſeemes.

Varletaille. as Valetaille.

Varleter; &, Varleton. as Valeter; &, Valeton.

Varre. A certaine long Italian meaſure.

Vaſche. Looke Vache.

Vaſe: m. A veſſell.

Vaſe: f. as Vaze; mud, or owze.

Vaſois: m. A ſhore, or place oft ouerflowed with water, and thereby full of owze, or mud.

Vaſquine: f. A Kirtle, or Petticoat; alſo, a Spaniſh vardingale.

Vaſquinier: m. A maker of Kirtles, Petticoats; or Spaniſh vardingales.

Vaſſal: m. A vaſſall, ſubiect, tenant; properly ſuch a one as holds his land of another by Knights ſeruice, or by homage and fealtie; and is thereby tied to attend his Lord in perſon to the warre, or to ſend one with him in his ſtead, or to allow him money for the hiring of one; all at his owne charge: (And therefore in the auncient Romanes, Vaſſal is taken for the contrarie to Souldoyer; (who receiued pay) as alſo for any Gentleman whatſoeuer;) Alſo, a ſlaue, or bondman.

Vn Seigneur de beurre (de feurre; ou de paille) combat (vaine, ou mange) bien vn vaſſal d'acier. A Prouerbe expreſſing the great aduantage a Lord hath of his ſubiect, or tenant.

Tant que le vaſſal dort le Seigneur veille. A Lord hauing entred into his vaſſalls land for want of homage, or due ſeruices, may lawfully enioy it, and the whole fruits of it, vntill he haue receiued his due.

Tant que le Seigneur dort, le vaſſal veille. Looke Seigneur.

Vaſſaudie: f. as Vaſſelage.

Vaſſaufie: f. The right which a Soueraigne, or Landlord pretendeth to haue ouer his vaſſall, or tenant.

Vaſſelage: m. Vaſſellage, or ſubiection; the duetie, or eſtate of a vaſſall: (In th'auncient Romans tis vſed for valour, and a valiant or worthie deed.)

Vaſſelage actif. Fealtie.

Vaſſeur: m. as Vaſſal; or a villein.

Vaſtadour: m. A Pioner, or digger; alſo, a mender of highwayes.

Vaſtation: m. A waſting, ſpoyling, ranſacking, deſtroying.

Vaſte: com. Vaſt, huge, wide, broad, large, burlie, ſpacious; alſo, deſolate, deſert, vninhabited, wild.

Muſcle vaſte. One of the foure muskles whereby the thigh is bent.

Vaſtibouſier: m. A luske, lubber, loggerhead, lozell, hoidon, lobcocke.

Vaſtines: f. Waſt grounds, as deſerts, rockes, ſands, &c; (an old word.)

Vaticinateur: m. A Prophet, Soothſayer, Diuiner, foreteller of things to come.

Vaticination: f. A prophecying, diuining, foretelling, ſoothſaying.

Vaticiner. To propheſie, diuine, ſoothſay it, coniecture at, foretell of, things to come.

Vatton: m. The latch of a doore; alſo, a leauer.

Vau: m. A vale, or valley; See Val.

Vavaſſeur: m. A Valuaſor, or Vauaſour; a Lord that held of ſome Duke, Marqueſſe, or Earle; and (at leaſt among vs) was in degree inferior to a Baron; a Meſne, or Meſne Lord; or as Arrierevaſſal; alſo, a villeine.

Vavaſſorie: f. A Valuaſſerie; th'eſtate, land, or territorie of a Vauaſſor, Meſne Lord, Arrierevaſſal; or villeine.

Vavaſſourie: f. The ſame.

Vauche. The hearbe called Periwincle.

Vaucrer. To raunge, roame, vagarie, wander, idle it vp and downe.

Vaucrer. A ſhip to float, or waue vp and downe, to hold an vncertaine courſe at ſea, to ſayle whither wind and tide will carrie it.

Vauderoute. s'en fuïr à vaud. To flie amaine; or to run headlong along.

Mettre à vauderoute. To put wholly, or vtterly to flight.

Vaudeville: f. A countrey ballade, or ſong; a Roundelay, or Virelay; ſo tearmed of Vaudevire, a Norman towne, wherin Olivier Baſſel, the firſt inuëter of them, liued; alſo, a vulgar prouerbe; a countrey or common ſaying.

Vaudre. A kind of veſſell for Rheniſh wine.

Vauldeville. See Vaudeville.

Vauldrée: f. A maulkin.

Vaulneant: m. A good for-nought; a rakehell, raskall, ſcoundrell, retcheleſſe or idle companion.

Vaultour: m. A Vulture, Geire, Gripe, or Grap; (a rauenous bird.)

Cataplaſme de chair de vaultour avec les vifs. A plaiſter of warme guts.

Vaultrait: m. as Vaultre.

Vaultre: m. A mungrell betweene a hound, and a maſtife; or of a ſize betweene the Allan and great countrey curre; fit for the chaſe, or hunting of wild Beares, and Boares.

Vaultrer. To hunt with a Vaultre.

Vaultrey: m. A kennell, or hunt of Vaultres.

Vaultroy: m. A wild Boare; or more properly, as Vaultre; or, a Lime-hound for the wild Boare.

Vautour. as Vaultour.

Vayer: m. &, Vayrie. as Voyer; &, Voyerie.

Vaze: m. A veſſell.

Vaze: f. Owze, mud, ſoft durt in the bottome of water.

Vbiquité: f. An vbiquitie; a being in euerie place, or euerie where.

Vbir. To eare; to make thriue, or grow, by good vſage, or good fare.

Vce: f. as Sourcil.

Veau: m. A Calfe, or Veale; alſo, a lozell, boydon, dunce, iobbernoll, iobbernoll, doddipole; also, a baulke vntilled betweene two lands, or furrowes.

Veau de disme. A notable sot, or blockhead, a notorious lobcock.

Veau marin, ou de mer. The Seale, or sea Calfe.

Fievre de veau. Trembling vpon fullnesse; or, an indisposition vpon surfeting.

Pied de veau. Calues-foot, Ramp, Aaron, Wake-Robin, Starch-wort, Priests Pint.

Teste de veau. Calues-snowt, Snap-dragon, Lions-snap.

Faire, ou trousser le pied de veau. To make an vntowardlie, or clownish leg; or, clownishly to lift vp the leg in dauncing, &c.

C'est vne vache de Barbarie qui ne recognoist que son propre veau. Looke Vache.

Cette queuë n'est pas de ce veau. This effect proceeds not from that cause; or, this is no part of, or dependant on, that thing.

Il luy a fait manger des pois verds au veau. He hath cheated him finely, he hath so fetched him ouer that he cannot perceiue it.

Tu n'as non plus d'arrest qu'un jeune veau. Thou art as wanton, giddie, or vnstayed, as a milch calfe.

Veau mal cuict, & poulets cruds font les cimitieres bossus: Prov. Young meat raw-drest makes churchyards grow bulch-backt.

Aussi tost meurt vache comme veau: Prov. As soone the young, as old, goes to the pot.

Il est bien veau qui veau taille: Prov. See Tailler.

Le loup emporte le veau du povre: Pro. The Wolfe makes his feast of the poore mans beast.

Veaurre: f. The fleece of a Ramme.

Veautrant. Wallowing.

Veautrement: m. A wallowing, tumbling, rowling vp and downe in the mire.

se Veautrer en la boue. To wallow, tumble, rowle, turne (tying) vp and downe in the mire.

L'esprit se veautre. The mind reuolues, casts about, or is diligently imployed.

Veautreur: m. A wallower, or tumbler in the mire.

Veautroir: m. A puddle, or slough wherin hogs doe vse to wallow.

Vedat: m. Bois vedat. Looke Bedat.

Vedeau: m. A Beadle; such a one as vshers with his Mace, the Vicechancellor, or principall Officer, of an Vniuersitie.

Vedel: m. ¶Gasc. A Calfe, a Veale; whence;

Teste de vedel. A calfe, blockhead, or sillie fellow.

Vedelle: f. A sucking calfe, a calfe thats fed with milke.

Vedet: m. A lubber, boydon, lobcocke, lozell, ioulthead, iobbernoll, doddipole.

Vedette: f. A Sentrie, or Court of gard, placed without a fort, or campe; and more generally, any high place from which one may see afarre off.

La vedette d'une gallere. The top of the mast, or the part of a Galley from whence the furthest discouerie may be made.

Vedille: f. The nauell string of a new-borne infant.

Vée: f. Labour, toyle, paines, trauell; (an old word.)

Veé: m. ée: f. Forbidden; whence; Chose veée est plus desirée: Prov. We couet most what we are most forbidden.

Véeurs: m Witnesses, or assistants in a view, or suruey of land: ¶Norm.

Vef: m. A widower.

Vef: m. vefve: f. Widow, widow-like, of or belonging to a widow.

Vefvage: m. Widowhood, the state of a widow.

Vefve: f. A widow; Looke Veufve.

Vefve d'honneur. A woman that hath lost her good name.

Vegade: f. A draught; a turne, or bowt; whence;

Vne vagade. Once, or one time.

Vege: m. A kind of water tree, or shrub.

Vegetable: com. Vegetable, fit or able to liue; hauing, or likelie to haue, such life, or increase in groweth, as plants, &c.

Vegetal: m. ale: f. Vegetall; hauing or giuing a (plant-like) life, increase, budding, or growing.

Vegetatif: m. iue: f. Vegetatiue; liuelie, quicke, fresh, growing, or giuing life, quickenesse, groweth, increase.

Vegetation: f. Agiuing of life, increase, or growth vnto; a quickening; refreshing, or comforting; a making strong.

Vegeter. To quicken, refresh, giue life, groweth, or increase vnto; also, to grow, bud, or put forth, as plants.

Vegettes: f. Vegetatiue, or growing parts.

Veguade. as Vegade.

Vegué. as Beguer: ¶Bearnois.

Vehemence: f. Vehemence, eagarnesse, earnestnesse, violence, force, fierceneße.

Vehement: m. ente: f. Vehement, eagar, earnest, fierce, violent, sharpe, vrgent; maine, forcible, strong.

Vehementement. Vehemently.

Veher. Iuge veher. A Judge of meane, or base Jurisdiction.

Veherie: f. Meane, or base Jurisdiction.

Vehicule: m. A carriage; a cart, waine, charriot, wagon; any such instrument, or engine of carriage.

Vejete: com. Liuelie, iollie, fresh, frolicke, full of spirit, of mettall, of life.

Vejetter. as Vegeter.

Veillant: m. ante: f. Waking, watching, wakefull, or watchfull, vigilant, heedfull, circumspect, carefull.

Veille: f. A Vigile, or Wake; the Eue of a holy-day.

Veillement: m. A waking, or watching; an heedfull, or carefull attending.

Veiller. To wake, watch, lie awake, abstaine from sleepe; to be vigilant, heedfull, diligent, carefull; studiously to attend.

Assez veille qui bien fait: Prov. He that does well, watches ynough.

Vn ami veille pour l'autre: Prov A friend is watchfull, and doth arme himselfe to keepe his friend from harme.

Veillere: f. Withiwind, Bindweed, Hedge-bells.

Veillottes: f. The best, and sweetest kind of Acornes, or mast, growing on the small Oke Esculus.

Veine: f. A veine in the bodie, a pulse; (yet euerie veine is not a pulse, though euerie pulse bee a veine;) also, a veine of the earth, or of mettall, &c, in the earth; also, a veine or stile of writing; a veine or conceit in versifying, &c.

Veines adipeuses. Two veines, a right (sometimes a branch of the right kidney veine) and a left, one (euer a branch of the descendant trunke of the hollow veine) which particularly nourish the fat, and skinne that's about the kidney, and generally breed fat in those parts which they runne by.

Veine aiscellaire. as Veine axillaire.

Veine Arterieuse. One of the foure principall veines of mans bodie, issuing from the right ventricle of the heart, the bloud whereof it carries vnto the lungs for their nourishment.

Veine auriculaire. The eare veine; Seeke Auricu-

Veine axillaire. Looke Axillaire.

Veine basilique. (Called by our Anatomists) the liuer veine; issues from the Soufclaviere, and is diuided into two branches, a deepe and a superficiall one; the later whereof being neere the inward processe of th'arme, and verie neere the skinne, is diuided into other two; viz. a lesse which runnes into the head veine, and together with it makes the Mediane; whilest the greater passes along by th'elbow vnto the hand, & there makes the Salvatelle.

Veine borgne. as Coecale.

Veine cave. The hollow veine; a great veine issuing from the thickest part of the liuer, & then diuided into two maine branches, and they into many others.

Veine cephalique. The head veine; or, a third branch of la Soufclaviere; passes betweene the muskle Deltoide, and that of the breast, and goes vnto the bought of the elbow, where it diuides it selfe into two brãches; the lower, and lesse, going along th'inner part of the arme, ioynes with a branch of la basilique, and together with it makes the Mediane; the higher, and greater, seated in the outside of the elbow, yeelds on both sides many branches, the greatest whereof meets with la Basilique, and together with it makes la Salvatelle.

Veine cervicale. The veine of the braines; a fourth branch of la Souſclaviere; passes by the crosse processes of the neck ioynt vp to the filme or thinne skinne which is next the braine, and there ends.

Veine coecale. The blind veine; a second branch of la Mesenterique; runnes vnto the blind gut, and there ends in many branches.

Veine commune. The common veine; or as Mediane.

Veine coronale. The crowne veine; a branch of the spleene veine, so termed because it enuirons the heart in manner of a crowne.

Veine corporelle. See Corporel.

Veine crurale. The thigh veine; a great veine which issues from the trunke descendant of the hollow veine.

Veine cystique. A small, and sometimes double sometime single, branch of the Port veine, whence it mounts vnto the necke of the gall, and there diuides it selfe into two branches.

Veines diaphragmatiques. The midriffe veines; two seuerall branches of the hollow veine, from which they runne vnto the midriffe, and there end.

Veines emulgentes. Looke Emulgent; or as Renales.

Veines epigastriques. An outward, and an inward branch of the flanke veines, both which after diuers passages, at length ioyne themselues vnto those that belong to the dugs.

Veine epiploïque dextre. The second branch of the spleene veine; goes vnto the Epiploon, and the gut Colon; also, a fourth branch of the spleene veine, which ending towards the vpper part of the Epiploon, is called Epiploïque, but with the addition of Posterieure.

Veine Espauliere. The shoulder veine.

Veine frontale. The forhead veine; a third branch of the outward throat veine, whence mounting by the bottome of the nether iaw, it comes vnto the lips and the nose, & from thence ascends by the inside of the eye vnto the middle of the forhead.

Veine gastrepiploïque. See Gastrepiploïque.

Veine gastrique. The bellie veine; a branch of la Porte, from which it descends vnto the hollow part, and backeside, of the ventricle; there is also another, called la petite gastrique; which is the first branch of the spleene veine, and goes vnto the right side of the ventricle.

Veine hederiforme. Seeke Hederiforme.

Veine hemorrhoïdale. The first branch of the Mesenterique; which runnes vnto, and ends at, the Colon & straight gut; sometimes it issues from the spleene veine.

Veine hepatique. The liuer veine.

Veine honteuse. A fifi branch of the flanke veines; bestoweth it selfe among the priuie parts of women; & on the outward skinne of the yard, and cods of men.

Veine humerale. The Humerall, or shoulder veine.

Veine hypogastrique. The third branch of the flank veines, and is it selfe diuided into diuers branches; the first whereof runne vnto the yard, bladder, and straight gut, and thence to the bottome of the fundament; others vnto the matrix; and others, after a long course, goe downe almost vnto the hamme.

Veine jartiere. The garter, or gartering, vein; a fourth branch of the thigh veine, from which it descends among the backe muskles of the thigh, vnto the bought of the hamme, where it gets this name.

Veines Iliaques. Th'Iliacke, or flanke veines; two maine descendant branches of the hollow veine, a right and a left one, from either of which fiue others issue; the right one is opened against the dropsie & other diseases of the liuer; the left one for the passion of the spleene.

Veine intercostale. The fourth branch of the trunke ascendant of the hollow veine: It feeds three distances betweene th'vpper ribs.

Veine intestinale. A fourth branch of la Porte, from the posterior, and right, part whereof it issues, and communicates it selfe sometimes vnto the hungrie gut, and sometimes to the Douze doigtier.

Veines jugulaires. The two throat, or necke, veines; viz. an outward one (the first diuision of la Soufclaviere) which is sometimes double, and mounts along the sides of the necke vnto the bottome of the head, where it is diuided into fiue branches; And an inward one (the second branch of la Soufclaviere) which ascends along by the windpipe vnto the bottome of the braine, and is there diuided into two branches.

Veines labieres. The lip veines, whereof there be two on each inner side both of the vpper, and vnder lip.

Veine lumbaire. The veine of the loynes; the fourth branch of the descendant trunke of la Cave, diuided neere vnto it source into diuers parts, all which bestow themselues among the foure ioynts of the loynes.

Veine mammale. A third branch of la Soufclaviere; double, an inward, and an outward, one, distributed among the parts of the breasts.

Veine matricaire. The matrix veine; or a veine that runnes along the flanke neere to the reynes.

Veine mediane. The middle, common, or black veine, compounded of the two lesse branches of the liuer, and head veines, and running along the middle of the arme almost vnto the wrist, where it passes in the forme of an Y into the hand: there is likewise another of this name vnder th'instup.

Veines meseraïques. as Mesenteriques.

Veines mesenteriques. Two veines; one, a branch of la Porte, ends at the Mesentere; but is formerly diuided into three branches, whereof th'other is the third, and called so because it likewise ends at the Mesentere, in some 14 or 15 branches.

Veine musculeuse. The first branch of the flanke veines;

veines; tearmed thus, because it communicates it selfe with diuers muskles about the bellie, and loynes.

Veine nasale. The nose veine, seated betweene the nosethrills.

Veine oculaire; ou, oeilliere. Th'eye veine; that part of the forhead veine which runnes along by the inside of the eye.

Veines organiques. as Veines Iliaques.

Veine pericardique. The second branch of the Souſclaviere, whence it runs vnto the Pericarde, and there ends.

Veine popletique. The hamme veine; as Iartiere.

Veine porte. The port, or carrying veine; seated in the liuer by diuers rootes, the which, at length, ioyne in one stocke, or trunke, and so passe forth into the ventricle, spleene, gall, Mesentere, and other parts of the bodie.

Veine ranulaire. The first branch of the outward throat veine; ascends vnto the tongue, and parts in two vnder each side thereof.

Veines renales. The kidney veines; two thicke, and and short branches of the descendant trunke of the hollow veine; a right, and a left one, diuided into 7 or 8 others (when they come neere the kidney, into the substance whereof they enter;) there is likewise another of this name seated vnder th'instup.

Veine sacrée. The second branch of the flanke veine, running to the Os sacré, and thereupon getting this name.

Veine salvatelle. Is made of the two bigger branches of the liuer, and head veines, from which it runnes through the wrist into the hand, and vnto the root, or diuision of the third, and little fingers.

Veine sans pair. A third branch of the hollow veine, out of the right side whereof it runnes to nourish the spaces betweene eight ribs.

Veine saphene. The mother veine; the first branch of the thigh veine, consisting of two diuisions; the one inward, which ends among the inner kernells of the thigh; the other more outward hath three branches, the first ends in the skinne of the thigh, the second goes but vnto the knees, the third vnto the muskles of the leg, whence running along aboue the inner ankle (where it is most opened, and knowne by this name) it comes vnto the sole of the foot, and there ends.

Veine sciatique. The Sciaticke veine; a branch of the thigh veine, which descends downe the leg vnto th'outward ankle, where it is commonly opened for the Sciatica, and thereupon gets this name.

Veine seynale. as Veine salvatelle.

Veine souſclaviere. One of the two maine ascendant branches of the hollow veine, diuided into six parts.

Veine spermatique. The third branch of the trunke descendant of the hollow veine.

Veine splenatique. The spleene veine; one of the two maine branches of la Porte, from which it runnes vnto the spleene, and there ends diuided into foure parts.

Veine stomachique. The stomack veine; runnes vnto the hollow part of the ventricle, and there ends in two branches.

Veine surale. One of the two maine branches of the thigh veine, most eminent in the bought of the knee, from whence it bestowes, and looses, it selfe among the muskles of the calfe of the leg.

Veine susclaviere. The secõd maine ascendãt branch of the hollow veine, diuided into three branches.

Veine temporale. The veine of the temples; opened for the Megrum, paine of the eares, and extraordinarie watering of the eyes.

Veine thorachique. The breast veine; the sixth branch of la Souſclaviere; is diuided into two others, both which bestow themselues among the muskles of the Thorax.

Veine Thymique. The first branch of la Souſclaviere; goes vnto the fag-peece, or kernell which is vnder the Kannell bone.

Veine torculaire. The second branch of the outward throat veine, from which it ascends by the inside of the scull vnto the braine, which it moistens, and feeds.

Veine vmbilicale. That whereby an infant in the wombe receiueth nourishment, and which, it being borne, doth close it selfe, and serueth as a ligament to settle the liuer vnto the nauell.

Laisser la lancette dans la veine. To fill a man with doubts, and leaue him vnresolued; to bring him into trouble, and then to abandon him; or, to begin to remedie a mischiefe, and, presently, (of malice, or negligence) to giue ouer so good a beginning.

Il n'a veine qu'y tend. He hath no manner of humor vnto it.

Tu luy as bien trouvé la veine. Thou hast hit him right.

Veiné: m.ée: f. Veined, or full of veines.

Veinelette: f. A verie little veine.

Veinette: f. A little veine.

Veineux: m.euſe: f. Veinie, full of veines.

Artere veineuſe. Looke Artere.

Veinu: m.uë: f. Veinie; or as Veineux.

Vejove: m. A wicked spirit; a god that can doe hurt, & will doe no good.

Veirat: m. The Mackerell fish.

Velà. as Voilà.

Velar: m. The hearbe called banke Cresses, and by some wild Mustard (but not so properly;) others improperly call the Rape Chadlock, or Charlocke, so.

Veleure: f. Shag, hairinesse, nappinesse.

Veleux: m.euſe: f. Full of, or abounding in, calues.

Velin. as Venin; also, vellam; whence:

Velins. Smooth peeces of fine parchment, or of vellam.

Vellé: m.ée: f. Calued.

Veller. To vaile, couer, &c; as Voiler; also, to calue.

La vache du riche velle souvent, celle du povre avorte: Prov. The rich mans cow doth often calfe, the poore mans oft miscarries.

Vellication: f. A plucking, pulling, lugging; also, a carping at, a deprauing, or detracting from.

Velocité: f. Velocitie, speed, swiftnesse, fleetnesse, quicknesse, nimblenesse.

Velours: m. Veluet.

Velours figuré. Branched Veluet.

Velours à fond de satin pourfilé. Figured Satin.

Velours à long poil. Vnshorne Veluet.

Tripe de velours. Valure, Mocke-veluet, Fustian an Apes.

Ventre de velours robbe de bureau: Prov. Much bellie-cheere, & daintie fare, doth make the garments poore and bare.

Velous. as Velours.

Velouté: m.ée: f. Velueted, of Veluet, clad, or couered with Veluet.

Cuir velouté. Frize leather.

Taffetas velouté. Tuffe-taffata.

Veloutier: m. A maker of Veluet.

Veloux. as Velours.

Velu : m. uë : f. Hairie, ſhag, nappie, or of a high nap, full of haire, rough with haire.
Couverture veluë. An Iriſh Rug, Mantle, Cadow.
Herbe veluë. Cudwort, Cudweed, Cottõ weed, Chaffe-weed.
Veluate. as Veluoté.
Veluette : f. Piloſella, Mouſe-eare.
Veluoté : m. Speed-well, female Fluellin.
Veluté. as Velouté.
Venaiſon : f. Veniſon ; the fleſh of (edible) beaſts of chace ; as the Deere, wild Boare, &c ; alſo, the fat of their fleſh ; whence ;
Le ſanglier a chargé ſa venaiſon. The Boare is very fat : and, Il a trois doigts de venaiſon ; He is three inches fat.
Toute chair n'eſt pas venaiſon : Prov. All diſhes are not dainties ; or as vnder Chair.
Venal : m. ale : f. Vendible, ſale, ſalable, ſet or let vnto ſale, that may be hired or had for money ; that will doe any thing for money.
Venalement. Vendibly, ſalably, ſellably.
Venalité : f. Venalitie, vendibleneſſe ; a being ſalable ; a letting or ſetting vnto ſale.
Venant. Comming, arriuing ; happening ; growing.
Vendable : com. as Vendible.
Vendange ; (or better) Vendenge : f. Vintage, vine-harueſt, grape-harueſt, grape-gathering, wine-making ; and the ſeaſon wherein it is made ; (In all which ſences this word is, for the moſt part, vſed plurally ;) alſo, grapes, or the fruit of vintage.
Cuideur de vendenge. as vnder Cuideur.
Adieu paniers vendenges ſont faittes. Farewell good fellowes, we haue no further need of you, or vſe for you ; our turne's alreadie ſerued ; our buſineſſe done.
Vendengé : m. ée : f. Cut, gathered, and made into wine, as grapes.
Vendengeoire : m. The basket, ſcuttle, or pannier whereinto grapes are gathered.
Vendenger. To cut and gather grapes for wine, to make wine of grapes ; to performe, or finiſh his vintage, (whereof this word comprehends all the parts.)
Vendengeret : m. ette : f. Belonging to, or ſeruing for, vintage.
Vendengeur : m. A Vintager, or vine-reaper ; a cutter or gatherer of grapes, in vintage.
Vendengeuſe : f. A woman thats hired, &c, in vintage time, to cut, or gather grapes.
Vendereſſe : f. A woman that ſelleth.
Vendeur : m. A ſeller.
Vendeuſe : f. as Vendereſſe.
Vendible : com. Vendible, ſellable, ſale, alienable.
Vendiquer. To vendicate ; to claime, or challenge.
Venditiõ : f. A ſale or ſelling.
Droict de venditions. Looke vnder Droict.
Vendoiſe : f. A Dace, or Dare-fiſh.
Vendre. To ſell, make ſale of, ſet to ſale ; to alien or paſſe away for money, &c : (Vendre en beaucoup des anciennes ordonnances ſignifie, Bailler à ferme. ¶ l'Oiſeau.)
A l'hoſtel priſer, & au marché vendre : Prov. Set prices on thy things at home, but paſſe them away abroad.
Fille qui prend elle ſe vend : Prov. A maid by taking ſels her libertie ; or, the maid that wooers proffered giſts doth take, a wanton bargaine will be drawne to make.
Ou pain faut tout eſt à vendre : Prov. A man will ſell all rather then be ſtarued.
Pour laver ſes mains on n'en vend pas ſa terre : Prov. It is no great coſt to be cleanelie.
Toute choſe ſe vend au pris de l'oeil de l'homme : Prov. Mans eye doth rule the prize of euerie thing.
Vn quartier fait l'autre vendre : Prov. One peece doth helpe to paſſe away th'other.
Vendredi : m. Friday.
Vendredi oré ; Sainct ; &, le grand vendredi. Good Friday.
Vendu : m. uë : f. Sold, made ſale of, ſet to ſale ; aliened, or paſſed away, for money, &c.
Choſe qui plaiſt eſt à demi venduë : Prov. Ware that is pleaſing to th'eye is paſſed away by and by.
Marchandiſe offerte eſt à demi venduë : Pro. Ware that is offered yeelds but halfe a price ; we ſay, proffered ware ſtinkes.
Venduë : f. as Vente.
Vené. as Veiné.
Venefique : com. Venomous, poiſonous, contagious.
Venelle du lict : f. The ſpace betweene a bed, and the wall ; and (when there is ſuch a ſpace) the beds ſide next vnto the wall.
Il eſt bien apparenté, mais c'eſt au coſté de la venelle. He is of a good houſe, but yet he came in at the window.
Venenoſité : f. Venomedneſſe, venomouſneſſe.
Vener. To hunt.
Venerable : com. Venerable, reuerend, honourable.
Veneration : f. Veneration, reuerence, awe, worſhip, honour.
Venerie : f. A hunt, or hunting ; alſo, a hound-houſe, or kennell for hounds.
Venerien : m. enne : f. Belonging to Venus ; alſo, addicted, or giuen to venerie ; lecherous, laſciuious.
Veneur : m. A Hunter, or Huntsman ; alſo, a kind of Spider, tearmed thus becauſe he is euer in chaſe of one prey or other.
Grand Veneur de France. The great Huntsman of France ; an Officer of the Crowne, whoſe Juriſdiction extends onely to the ruling of courſes, and iudging of cauſes, that concerne hunting in foreſts ; but in old time (when hee was called, le grand foreſtier de France) he had alſo as much authoritie as the Great Faulconer, and the Maiſtre des eaux & forreſts, enioy at this day.
C'eſt vne chaſſe ou le veneur eſt prins. Looke Chaſſe.
Vengé. Auenged, wreaked, reuenged.
Vengeance : f. Vengeance, reuengement ; puniſhment.
Venger. To wreake, reuenge, auenge, take vengeance of.
Se venger en vn fief, ou heritage. A purchaſer of rent iſſuing generally out of land in diuers Mannors, or fiefs, to auow, & declare, that he will haue it onely out of one of them : Car lors le Seigneur d'iceluy fief en a les ventes, ou bien peut vſer de puiſſance de fief : ¶ Ragueau.
Tel penſe venger ſa honte qui l'accroiſt : Prov. Some that doe thinke to couer their ſhame, diſcouer it ; ſome weening to redeeme their ſhame, increaſe it.
Vengereſſe : f. A reuengereſſe, an auengereſſe.
Vengeron : m. A Dace, or Dare-fiſh.
Vengeur : m. A reuenger, auenger, puniſher of wrongs.
Venim : m. Venome ; any thing that impoiſoneth, or infecteth outwardly by touching.
A la queuë giſt le venim : Pro. The laſt, is commonly the worſt, part of a practiſe, &c.
Venimeux : m. euſe : f. Venomus, full of venome.
Venir. To come ; arriue, approach, draw neere vnto ; to proceed, iſſue, be deriued, from ; to ſpring, growe, grow ;

alſo, to happen, chance, or fall out.

Venir bien. Cela luy vient bien. That fits, becomes or agrees well with, him: le compte vient bien; The reckoning falls out right.

Venir à bien. To ſucceed or fall out well, to turne vnto good.

Venir entre la bourſe, & les deniers. To preuent, foreſtall, wipe the noſe of, come betweene and home; A law-phraſe, vſed moſt when the next kinſmã to a ſeller of land, redeemes it, and diſappoints another that had, with the purchaſers conſent, vndertaken it, and made ſure account of it.

Venir à bout de. To accompliſh, performe, bring to paſſe, atchieue, compaſſe, attaine vnto; alſo, to rule, or ouerrule.

Venir devant. To preuent, or foreſtall; to come, or appeare, before.

Venir au devant. To meet, or come to meet, with.

Venir de dire. Ce qui ie viens de dire. That which I did but euen now deliuer: Comme ie viens de dire; As I ſaid verie lately; or, as I told you but now.

Venir à ſes droicts. Looke vnder (the firſt) Droict.

Venir à la loy. To be receiued, or admitted, vnto the waging of his Law.

Au mieux venir. At the beſt, how well ſoeuer it fall out, come the beſt of it that can.

Des paroles ils viennent au poil. From words they fall vnto blowes.

Il eut l'allée pour le venir. He had his trauell for his paines; he returned as emptie, or poore, as he came.

Il ne demeure pas trop qui vient: Prov. He that comes at the length ſtayed not too long.

Quand beau vient ſur beau beau perd ſa beauté: Prov. When one faire colour is layed on another their beautie is vtterly confounded.

Qui vient eſt beau, qui apporte encores plus beau: Prov. A mans preſence doth much, but his purſe doth more.

Qui toſt vient à ſon hoſtel mieux luy en eſt à ſon ſouper: Prov. Looke Hoſtel; or Souper.

Tant crie on Noel qu'il vient: Prov. So long is Chriſtmas called for that it comes; a conſtant importunitie at length preuailes.

Tout vient à poinct qui peut attendre: Prov. He that can wait long ſhall haue a good houre.

Veniſe: f. Ceruſe, white lead (wherewith ſome women paint.)

Venitiens: m. Venitians; the citizens of Venice.

Le ſecours des Venitiens (trois iours apres la bataille.) After meat muſtard; after death a potion; after iudgement giuen our Counſell at leaſure to attend our cauſe.

Venne: f. A fizzle, or ſmall fyſte.

Venneur: m. A fizzler, or fyſter.

Vennier: m. A kind of Pedler, or ſeller of old yron ſtuffe.

Venredi. Looke Vendredy.

Vent: m. A wind; a blaſt, gale, puffe, guſt, flaw, or berrie, of wind; alſo, a vent, ſmell, ſent, aire, breath, vapor; alſo, a brute, rumor, noiſe, report.

Vent d'amont. An Eaſterlie wind.

Vent d'aval. A weſt South-weſt wind; or a Weſterlie wind that ſomewhat inclines to the South.

Vent d'Autan. A South wind.

Vent à la boline. A ſide wind at ſea.

Vent cardinal. A principall, or direct wind; as Eaſt, weſt, &c.

Vent collateral. A ſide wind; as North-weſt, South-eaſt, &c; or a quarter wind, at ſea.

Vent coulis. The wind, or ayre that commeth into a roome by a hole, crannie, or creuice; held verie vnwholeſome.

Vent derriere. A fore-wind at ſea.

Vent d'embas; & fueillu. A Weſterlie wind; or as Vent d'aval.

Vent de Galerne. A North-weſt wind.

Vent Grec. A North-eaſt wind.

Vent hautain. The Southerne wind.

Vent de Levant. The Eaſt wind.

Vent marin; meridional; ou de midi. A South wind.

Vent occidental. The Weſt wind.

Vent oriental. The Eaſt wind.

Vent pluau. A Southerne wind.

Vent de ponent. A Weſterne wind.

Vent en pouppe. A fore-wind at ſea; and thence, eaſe, proſperitie, good ſucceſſe, the world at will, euerie thing as one would haue it.

Vent à quartier. A quarter wind, betweene a fore-wind, and a ſide wind.

Vent ſeptentrional. The North wind.

Vent ſolaire. The Eaſt wind.

Herbe du vent. The Wind-flower; ſo called becauſe it neuer opens but when the wind blowes.

Avoir vent. Ie n'en ay eu vent ne voix. I neuer heard a word, nor had any notice, of it.

Avoir le vent de. Il en a eu le vent. He hath got an inkling, he is come by the knowledge, of it.

Batu de mauvais vent. Croſt by a contrarie, or malignant thwart; whom fortune breathes maliciouſly vpon.

Donner voile à tous vents. Looke vnder Donner.

Emporté du vent. Il ſe laiſſe emporter du vent. He runnes on freely, carried vpon the wings of his owne conceit; alſo, he is inconſtant, light-headed, variable, of a changeable humor.

Autant en emporte le vent. So much breath is waſted, ſo many ſpeeches loſt; Looke Emporter.

Eſtre au deſſus du vent. To flouriſh, liue in proſperitie, be all aflaunt or a boight.

Eſtre au deſſus du vent de. To get the wind, aduantage, vpper hand of; to haue a man vnder his lee; The like is;

Eſtre ſur vent. To be in the wind, or haue the wind, of; Eſtre ſous vent; To be to the leeward, or vnder the lee, of.

Faire voile à tout vent. To follow the faſhions, or ſway of the time, how often ſoeuer they alter.

Fendre le vent. To runne his countrey.

Iecter ſon vent. To breath his laſt; to giue vp the ghoſt.

Iecter la piume au vent. To grow careleſſe, let the world runne; weigh not how matters paſſe, which way he goes, what courſe he takes, what thing he does; The ſame is; La plume jectée au vent; careleſly, or that way the ſtaffe falls; (from thoſe which being irreſolute, or without deſigne, caſt feathers into the aire, and goe on the way they flie.)

Mettre ſa legitime au vent. Fondly to paſſe or make away with, riotouſly to conſume or ſquander away, his whole portion, all that he hath.

Mettre la plume au vent. as Iecter la plume au vent.

Prendre le vent. To goe vp, or againſt, the wind; alſo, to vent, or wind; to follow, or draw towards by the wind, ſent, or ſmell of.

Tenir au vent. To beare hard with, or ſayle verie neere to, a wind.
L'aureille au vent. Liſteningly, attentiuely.
Tout d'un vent. At one breath, all at once.
Vie foüet, & au vent. Auant &c; as vnder Foüet.
I'ay veu d'autres vents venter. I haue ſeene better, or other dayes; I haue knowne when the time, or ſtate of things, hath beene other then it is.
On a veu d'auſsi grand vent venter (ſans abbatre les maiſons.) We haue heard of as many brags made, or threats vſed, and yet nothing, or no hurt, done.
Qui veut tirer quelque choſe de ce vaiſſeau il luy faut donner du vent. He that will draw ought out of his Peece, muſt giue him vent; viz. muſt collaude, or collogue with him.
Le vent, la tépeſte, & l'orage monſtrent du nocher la courage Pro. Croſſes are the touchſtones of courage.
Vent au viſage rend l'homme ſage: Prov. Aduerſities teach a man wit.
Nul vent ne fait pour celuy qui n'a point de port deſtiné: Prov. No wind can blow him to good whom Deſtinie will not harbour.
Les mal-veſtus devers le vent: Pro. He that worſt may the candle holdeth; or as vnder Mal-veſtu.
Qui eſt ſur la mer ne fait pas des vents ce qu'il veut: Pro. The Mariner can make no winds; or, the Sayler cannot haue what winds he will.

Ventail: m. A childiſh toy of a card cut acroſſe, like the ſayles of a wind-mill, and put with a pinne vnto th'end of a ſticke, and ſo held into the wind, which makes it to twirle verie faſt about.

Ventaille: f. The breathing part of a helmet; the ſight of the beauer.
Ventailles du ciel. The windowes, or floud-gates, of heauen.

Ventau: m. as Ventail; alſo, a Fanne.

Vente: f. A ſale, or ſelling; an alienation, or paſſing away for money, &c.
Vente extraordinaire de bois. A ſale of timber, or of great and high trees: Vente ordinaire de bois; a ſale of copſe-wood, vnderwood, or ſmall wood.
Ventes. A fine for alienation: viz. (for the moſt part) 20 d. in the pound, or the twelfth part of the price of land ſold, due ſometimes vnto the Lord feodal, but more commonly to Lords Cenſuel, of whom it is held; and paied, in ſome places, by the purchaſer, in others, by the ſeller, and in others, betweene them both: The French Lawes, and cuſtomes, doe often ioyne with this another dutie, called Lods, which comes to as much more.
Ventes, & gants; ventes, & honneurs; ventes, & iſſuës. Looke vnder Droict.
Si boute tel feur telle vente. The thing is ſold euen as it was bought, it goes away as it came; or, no matter, tis well-ynough, let it be how it will be.

Venté. Blowne, puffed.

Venteler. To breath, or blow a ſoft gale; alſo, to waue, houer, wauer; alſo, to ayre, in the wind; alſo, to vanne or winnow corne; and to toſſe or canuaſſe to and fro; to turne out of one hand into another.

Ventelet: m. A little wind; a ſmall puffe, gentle gale, coole blaſt, of wind.

Ventelle. as Ventaille.

Venter. The wind to blow, or puffe.
I'ay veu d'autres vents venter. Looke vnder Vent.
On a veu d'auſsi grand vent venter. We haue knowne as great a wind as this without any houſe blowne downe; (In anſwer to one that ſpeakes big words, but is valiant in nothing but w[illegible])
Tant vente qu'il pleut: &, Tant tonne, & vente que pluye deſcend: Prov. This wind will haue raine; bloud-wipes often follow big words.

Venter. se Venter. To brag; Looke se Vanter.

Venteroles; or Venterolles. Droict de vent. A certaine fine due to a Landlord frō the purchaſer that vndertakes to diſcharge his ſelling tenant of all fines; Looke Droict.

Venteux: m. euſe: f. as Vanteux; alſo, windie, full of wind; as light, or as ſwift, as the wind.

Ventier. whence, Marchand ventier; Aſçavoir, de ventes de bois.

Ventilation: f. A ventilation, breathing or gentle blowing; alſo, a wauing, or houering in the ayre; a winnowing, or airing in the wind; alſo, an eſtimation, valuation, prizing.

Ventiler. To gather wind, &c; as Venteler; alſo, to eſtimate, prize, value.

Ventoir: m. as Ventail.

Ventelin: m. A verie ſmall wind.

Ventoſe: f. A cupping glaſſe.

Ventoſer. To cup, or applie cupping glaſſes.

Ventoſité: f. Ventoſitie, windineſſe.

Ventouſe. as Ventoſe; alſo, a vent in caske.

Ventouſé: m. ée: f. Cupped with a cupping glaſſe; alſo, vented.

Ventre: m. The bellie, paunch; wombe.
Ventre de bureau. One that feeds groſſely, or eates none but courſe meats.
Ventre goy. (Corruptly, or clowniſhly) for Ventre Dieu.
Ventre inferieur. The bellie from the bulke to the priuities.
Ventre moyen. The bulke, breaſt, or ſtomacke; all that part which the ribs incloſe.
Ventre à la poulaine. A gulch, big-bellie, gor bellie, ſwag-paunch, bundle of guts.
Ventre ſuperficiel. as Epigaſtre.
Ventre ſuperieur. The head, ſo called by Anatomiſts.
Haut ventre. The ſtomacke.
Mal de ventre. The wormes; or bellie-ache; a fretting, wringing, or griping in the bellie.
Sur le ventre. Groueling.
Eſtre en la paille iuſques au ventre. To be fully accommodated, eaſefully lodged, plentifully furniſhed, both for vſe, and delight.
Faire bon ventre. To looſe the bellie, to make ſoluble.
Mettre le coeur au ventre. Cela luy mit le coeur au ventre. That heartened, cheered, or comforted him; that made him take heart at graſſe.
Saulter à deux pied ſur le ventre à. Looke Saulter.
C'eſt le ventre ma mere. I will come no more there, I will doe no more ſo.
Il y demeura le ventre au ſoleil. He left his guts there, he was there knockt in the head.
Ventre affamé n'a point d'oreilles: Prov. Hunger no eare to reaſon yeeldeth.
Ventre de velours robbe de bureau: Prov. Looke Velours.
Le ventre emporte la teſte: Prov. Th'appetite often ouerrules the wit; or, as vnder Emporter.
En petit ventre grand coeur: Pro. A great ſtomack oft lodges in a little one.
Il n'eſt horologe plus iuſte que le ventre: Prov. No cloche more iuſt, or true, then the bellie; or, the bellie is beſt dyall, to giue all things their triall.
La verge ennobliſt, & le ventre affranchiſt. (A Proverbe, or Principle in the French Lawes) Children are by their father ennobled, and by their mother infranchised; but this is not alwayes so.

Ventrée: f. A bellie-full; or, more particularly, the burthen or load of a womans bellie; the child wherewith she goes; also, the cholicke, bellie-ache, or griping of the bellie (especially in horses.)

Succeder par ventrées. To succeed by venters; or land to be diuided among the issue a man hath by diuers wiues, or venters.

Ventrelet: m. A little bellie.

Ventresque: f. Is generally, th'offalls, intralls, inwards, guts, or paunch of an (edible) creature; as a calues pluck, a hogs haslet, a sheeps gather, &c; but particularly, the bellie (which is the daintiest) part of a Tunnie.

Ventricule: m. *The ventricle; the place wherein the meat sent from the stomacke is disgested; some call so the stomacke it selfe; others expresse by it th'*Epigastre.

Ventricules du coeur. The ventricles of the heart; two large holes, one on the right, th'other on the left, side thereof; that, the greater, and closed within a slender flesh, containes the naturall bloud, this, of a harder substance, containes the bloud wherewith our Arteries be nourished; and thereupon that is called, the bloud-ie, this the spirituall, ventricle.

Ventricule posterieur du cerveau. The hinder ventricle, or tunnell of the braine; the seat of the memorie.

Ventriere: f. A bellie-band for a draught horse.

Ventripotent. Ventripotent, big-paunch, bellie-able, huge-guts: Rab.

se Ventrouiller. as Se veautrer.

Ventru: m. uë: f. Paunchie, great bell'ed, gorbellied, full-bellied, all guts, all-bellie.

Venture. as Adventure.

Venu Come, arriued, approached, or drawne neere vnto; proceeded, issued, or deriued from; sprung, prouen, growne; happened, chanced, betided.

Le dernier venu est le mieux aimé. Le dernier venu ferme la porte. &, Les derniers venus sont les maistres · Prov. Looke Dernier.

Venuë: f. A comming, arriuall, approach; a passage, accesse; increase, groweth, growing or comming on; also, a vennie in fencing; also, a turne, tricke, iert, or ierke.

La venuë des arondelles. The comming in of Swallowes, about the 22 of March.

Attendre la venuë du boiteux. Looke Attendre.

Tout d'une venuë. Without any diuision, all of one peece; all of one shape, size, making; also, at once, at a clap, at the same time, by the same meanes; while his hand is in, or while he is at it.

Venus: f. Venus; one of the seuen Planets, the day or morning starre; also, the Goddesse of lust; or lust, venerie, wantonnesse, vnchastnesse, lecherie; also (among Alchymists) the mettall Copper.

Cheveux de Venus. Venus haire, our Ladies haire, blacke maiden-haire, true maidens haire (an hearbe).

Pour Venus advienne Barbet le chien. Losse, or ill lucke, betide him: an imprecation, or spightfull wish, relating to the play at huckle-bones, wherein he that turns vp Venus (figured on one side of the bone) doth winne; whereas he that turnes vp the dog, doth loose.

Veoir. To view, see, looke, perceiue, behold, ouersee, survey; prie, spie; marke, note, heed, obserue, regard; examine, search into, consider of, deuise, or find some meanes for.

Voici, ou, vous voyez la reste. Looke Reste.

Voila qui est bon. Why this is good, well, braue.

A le veoir. To see to, or he seemed.

Ne voici pas vne brave response? Is not this a good-lie answer thinke you?

Il m'est à veoir, que. Me thinkes, or it seemes vnto me, that.

Il n'a rien que veoir en, ou sur, cela. He hath nought to doe with that, it concernes him not, he is not to meddle withall.

Qui voit enfant, il voit neant: Prov. He that an infant seeth, nothing seeth.

Qui voit la maison de son Seigneur, il n'y a profit ny honneur: Prov. Looke Seigneur.

Tout voir, tout ouir, & rien dire, merite en tout temps qu'on l'admire: Prov. To heare, and see, and nought to say, deserues to beare the bell away.

Il est bien povre qui ne voit goutte: Prov. He that wants eyes may well be termed poore.

Quand les yeux voyent ce que ne veirent oncques, le coeur pense ce qu'il ne pensa oncques: Pro. New obiects in the eyes, new thoughts in the heart.

Tels sont huy qui demain ne verront pas: Pro. To day a man, to morrow none.

Ver: m. A worme.

Ver coquin. A certaine worme bred in a mans head, and making him cholericke, humorous, and fantasticall when it biteth; also, the Vine-fretter, or Diuells Goldring.

Vers courts. Arse-wormes; little round wormes which breed in the ends of our guts.

Ver volant. A Ringworme, or Tetter.

Mal de ver. The Farcie in a horse.

Mort aux vers. Wormeseed, or Wormeseedwort.

Nud comme vn ver. We say, bare as a birds arse; poore as Iob.

Tirer les vers du nez à. as vnder Tirer; or, to creep into a mans most inward conceits; to fetch out of him the verie secrets of his heart.

Tout estat est viande aux vers: Pro. All States are wormes acates.

Ver. Menu ver. Looke vnder Vair.

Veracée: f. The fulnesse, or full measure of, a certaine vessell (somewhat like a Porrenger) wherein Caillebotes are vsually put.

Veraire: m. The hearbe called Hellebore (especially the blacke one.)

Veraire blanc. White Hellebore, Lingwort, Neesewort; of whose root Neesing powder is made.

Veraire noir. Blacke Hellebore, Christs wort, Christs root.

Verangenes. Mad apples, raging apples.

Verart, & Veratre: m. as Veraire.

Verbal: m. ale: f. Verball, of words, onely in words, according to the word.

Appellation verbale. Se plaide verbalement, & se peut juger sur le champ en l'audience; à la difference du procez par escript, qui se distribuë, & juge en la chambre sur les enquestes, & productions des parties.

Procés verbal. A verball answer made by a partie before a Iudge; or, more generally, a verball report (made by Iudge, or partie) of all the parts, and pleadings of a suit; also, the Returne, or answer of a Sergeant vpon an Execution, &c.

Verbalement. Verbally, by word of mouth.

Verbasce: m. Mullein, Higtaper, Torches, Haresbread, Woolblade, Longwort, Bullocks Longwort.

Verbe: m. A (Grammaticall) Verbe.

Verbe: com. Stout, hautie, stomachfull.

Verbenique: f. Verueine, Pigeons grasse, Holy-hearbe, Iunos [illegible], Mercuries moist-blond; Look Verveine.

Verberie. The name of a Burrough within the Duchie of Valois, and in the highway betweene Senlis, and Compiegne; whence;

Sautereaux, ou tombereaux de Verberie. The boyes of that Burrough, tearmed so because they are woont, for the sport of passengers (giuing them some small peece of money) and without any hurt vnto themselues, to tumble from the top to the bottome of a hill that is there-by.

Verck. menu verck. as Menu vair, vnder Vair.

Verd: m. A greene, or greene colour; a greene bough, greene Carpet, greene thing; also, greenenesse.

Verd d'asur. A certaine blewish greene stone, found in Mines of Copper which be mingled with siluer, and an excellent purger of melancholie.

Verd de chevre. A kind of sand, whereof Painters make their greenes.

Verd de flambe. A greene colour made of the bruised leanes of the Flower de luce.

Verd gay. A Popiniay greene.

Verd de glayeul. as Verd de flambe.

Verd de gris. Verdigrease, a Spanish greene.

Verd d'oye. Goose-turd greene; a greenish yellow; or a colour which is betweene a greene and a yellow.

Verd de terre. A kind of greene minerall chaulke, or sand.

Verd de vessie. Sap-greene; a greene made of Buckthorne berries.

Employer le verd, & le sec. Looke Sec.

Prendre sans verd. To take napping or vnprouided, surprise on a sudden or at vnawares; (A phrase deriued from the sport, or sportfull agreement (vsed in some parts of France) which binds him thats taken without a greene leafe about him, to forfeit somewhat.)

Verd: m. verde: f. Greene; fresh, new; flourishing, youthfull, in prime, liuelie, pithie, sturdie, strong; also, rawly tart or sharpe, as vnripe fruit, or wine, &c.

Cuir verd. A raw hide.

Huis verd. A peece of Tapistrie, or Darnix, hanging before a doore.

Lict verd. A couch, or bed of ease.

Oeil verd. A gray eye.

Teste verde. An inconsiderate, vnexperienced, rash, or bare-braind noddie.

Donner de verdes. Il nous a donné de bien verdes. He hath gulled vs extreamely, he hath told vs many a lowd lye.

Mettre entre deux verdes vne nieure. To iumble good and bad, ripe and raw, together; or for the better passing away of bad things to put some few good ones among them.

Verdales: f. A kind of grapes.

Verdalle: f. A Dunneck, or Hedge-sparrow.

Verdastre: com. Greenish, or somewhat greene.

Verdelet: m. The tender, and delicate peare, called a Grecning.

Verdelet: m ette: f. Prettie and greene; onely beginning to be greene, but young, not yet ripe; also, a little raw, tart, sharpe.

Verdement. Greenely; freshly, newly; flourishingly, youthfully, lustily, strongly, sturdily; also, rawly, sharply, sowrely.

Verdere, & Verdereule: f. The little bird called a Yellow-hammer, or Yowling.

Verderie: f. Th' Office of a Verderer in a Forest.

Verderis: m. Verdigrease.

Verdet: m. The same; called also, Spanish greene.

Verdeur: f. Verdure, greeneneſſe; also, a raw, or naturall sowreneſse in wine, fruits, &c; Looke Verdure.

Verdureux: m. euse: f. Somewhat greene.

Verdier: m. A Verderer, or Ouerseer of a forest; a Judge or Officer (next in authoritie vnto the Maistre des Eaux & forests) who commaunds all the Raungers, Woodwards, Foresters, &c, and punishes their & other mens disorders, in cases not exceeding the penaltie, or forfeiture, of 60 s. Tourn: Also, the little singing bird called a Greenefinch; also, the little venomous greene Toad; also, a Gardener, or Orchard-keeper.

Verdillon: m. An vnripe, or sowre grape.

Verdir. To flourish, or wax greene.

Verdon: m. A Dunneck, Dike-smowler, Hedge-sparrow.

Verdondaine, & Verdondille. (fained & fond oaths)

Verdot: m. otte: f. Greenish, a little greene; yong, raw, or not yet ripe.

Verdoyant: m. ante: f. Flourishing, full of greeneneſse; liuelie, youthfull, strong.

Verdoyer. To flourish; to be greene, young, lustie, youthfull, strong.

Verdrier: m. The Gold-hammer, Yellow-hãmer, Yowlring.

Verducade: f. A Closet; a hiding hole, or corner.

Verdugalle: f. A Vardingall.

Verdun: m. The little Rapier, called a Tucke; also, as Verdrier; or as Verdon.

Verdure: f. Verdure, greeneneſse, or greene things, as hearbs, greene boughes, &c; also, as Verdeur.

Ouvrage de verdure. Forest worke; or flourisht worke, wherin gardẽs, woods, or forests be represented.

Verdurer. To make, or become greene.

Verdurier: m. Verduriere: f. An hearb-man, or woman; one that furnishes a house with such greene things as be in season.

Vere. as Voire: ¶Norm. ¶Rab.

Verecond: m. de: f. Demure, shamefac'd, bashfull, modest.

Veresque: f. A wrecke of the sea.

Veret: m. A little worme; or, a kind of little worme; also, as Gueret (in the first sence.)

Vereux: m. euse: f. Wormie, full of worms; also, wormeatẽ; & thence, faultie, failing, in decay; Look Verreux.

Vergadelle: f. A pond-fish, like vnto, but lesse then, the Saupe.

Vergaland: m. A lustie yonker.

Vergay. Brouët vergay d'anguille. Broth made of Eeles boiled in small peeces with Parsley, tosted bread, Saffron, and Ginger.

Vergaye: f. A kind of daunce.

Verge: f. A rod, wand; stitke, small staffe; a whisker, switch, or scutcher, to ride with; a twig, sprig, small or single branch; also, a Sergeants verge, or mace; also, a yard; also, the sayle-yard of a ship; also, a plaine hoope, or gimmall, ring; also, a rood of land; also, the rod wherwith a Thatcher fastens his straw to the roofe.

Verge à berger. The Tazle, Teazle, Fullers Thistle, Venus bason; also, water Plantaine.

Verge dorée. The hearbe called Golden rod.

Verges à nettoyer. A brush.

Verge d'or. as Vergee doré; also, a gold ring.

Verge de pasteur, ou pastoral. as Verge à berger.

Verge sanguine. The Hounds tree, Dog-berrie tree, Pricke-timber tree.

Le pouvoir de la verge, & sergenterie. The libertie, or precinct, wherein a Sergeant may arrest, &c.

De telles verges ils sont tous batus. They are all sick of that disease.

Mettre la main à la verge. To dispossesse himselfe of an inheritance in presence of his Landlord, or of his Officer, by the deliverie of a rod, or little sticke, to him he passes it to.

La verge ennoblit, & le ventre affranchit. The gentleman ennobles his child, a free woman enfranchises hers; Looke Ventre.

Vergé: m. ée: f. Made of rods, or twigs; also, streaked with long, and rod-like rayes; also, worme-eaten.

Vergée: f. A yard of, the length of a yard in; also, a yard-land, or, a rood of land.

Verger: m. A Verger, one that beares a Verge before a Magistrate, &c.

se Verger. To be rewed, or streaked all ouer.

Vergeteux. as Vergeux.

Vergette: f. A small rod, or wand; a twig, or sprig; also, a boyes play with rods or wands pecked at a heape of points.

Des vergettes. A brush.

Vergettons: m. Small twigs, or sprigs.

Vergeux: m. euse: f. Roddie, full of rods; of a rod, rod-like.

Vergier: m. An Orchard; also, as Verger.

Vergilies: f. The seuen starres.

Verglacer. To freeze vpon raine.

Verglas: m. Frost, or a freezing, presently after a misling raine, whereby the ground seemes in a manner glazed; also, a glazing vpon a wall; or a painting that represents, and stands for, glasse.

Verglassant. vent verglas: A sharpe freezing, or sleeting wind.

Vergne. Th' Aller, or Alder tree.

Vergobert: m. A Maior, or Burgomaister.

Vergongne: f. Shame, bashfulnesse, blushing; also, the priuie parts.

Vergongner. To shame, to make ashamed, to disgrace, or dash out of countenance. se Vergongner. To blush, or be ashamed at, to be out of countenance with.

Vergongneux: m. euse: f. Shamefull, shame-fac'd, bashfull, blushfull, demure, modest; also, shamelesse, impudent, brasen-fac'd, past shame.

Vergue: f. The sayle-yard of a ship; whence; Vergues hautes; with hoised sailes, or sayle-yards (Sayed of a ship that hath weighed anchor, and wants but wind to be gone with.)

Veridique: com. Truth-telling.

Ver-jettons. as Vergettons.

Verification: f. A verification, verifying, auerring, approuing.

Verifié: m. ée: f. Verified, auerred, approued, confirmed, made good.

Verifier. To verifie, auerre, approue, cõfirme, proue true, make good.

Verin: m. as Varin.

Verineux: m. euse: f. Full of, troubled with, gnawne by, wormes.

Verisimilitude: f. Likelihood, possibilitie, resemblance of truth.

Veritable: com. True, sincere, vpright, a man of his word.

Veritablement. Verily, truely, certainely, without faile, doubt, or question.

Verité: f. Veritie, truth, sooth, verie deed.

Franche verité. (Looke Franc; )whence; Comparoir à la franche verité: &, Tenir veritez; &, Tenir, ou Auoir, verité speciale. A Sessions, or priuie Sessions.

Grande dispute la verité rebute: Pro. Wrangling contention is truthes preuention; The like is;

Par trop debarre la verité se perd: Prov. Too much debating makes truth to be lost.

Verjus: m. Verjuyce; especially that which is made of sowre, and vnripe grapes; also, the grapes where of it is made.

Verjus miellé. Three parts of grape-verjuyce, and one of clarified honie incorporated, or well mingled together.

Estre mis au verjus. To be trounst, or cours.

Verm: m. A warme: ¶Auvergnois.

Vermeil: m. Vermillion, ruddinesse, a beautifull red.

Vermeil: m. eille: f. Vermillion, ruddie, reddish, claret, of a cleere or beautifull red.

Soupe vermeille. Looke Soupe.

Vermeiller. To root for wormes, like a hog.

Vermeillet: m. ette: f. Somewhat ruddie, prettie and red.

Vermeilleur: m. A rooter, or digger for wormes.

Vermeillon, & Vermeillonner. as Vermillon, & Vermillonner.

Vermelet: m. A verie little worme.

Vermeniers: m. Vermine; or as Verminiere.

Vermerie: f. Wormes.

Vermet: m. A little worme.

Vermiculaire: f. Wild Prick-madame, great Stonecrop, Worme-grasse.

Vermiforme: com. Fashioned like a worme.

Vermiformes. Two worme-resembling parts of the Cervelet.

Vermiller. To worme, to root for wormes.

Vermillon: m. Vermillion; a ruddie colour made of Brimstone and Quicksilver; also, as Chermes; also, a little worme.

Arbre de vermillon. The Skarlet Oke, or Skarlet Holme Oke.

Vermillonné: m. ée: f. Made ruddie, painted red; of a Vermillion hue.

Vermillonner. To paint, or make Vermillion, or of a Vermillion hue; also, to blush, or wax red.

Vermine: f. Vermine; also, little beasts ingendred of corruption and filth; as Lice, Fleas, Ticks, Mice, Rats; and (most particularly) wormes.

Vermineux: m. The name of a certaine Spider whose bodie is full of spots.

Vermineux: m. euse: f. Wormie, or full of vermine.

Herbe vermineuse. Moath Mulleine.

Verminiere: f. A worme-hill; or a place neere a countrey house, wherin wormes are, of purpose, bred for pulleine.

Vermisseau: m. A little worme.

se Vermoulir. To grow worme-eaten, mouldie, rotten.

Vermoulisseure: f. A being worme-eaten, or full of worme-holes; rottennesse; mouldinesse.

Vermoulu: m. uë: f. Worme-eaten, full of worme-holes, rotten; mouldie.

Verne. as Vergne.

Vernedé. A certaine charme, or charming prayer, for the tooth-ache.

Vernicer. as Verniffet.

Vernillage. ce n'est que vernillage. (Speaking of the starching of two or three bands at a time) this is but a pidling.

Vernilles: f. Nifles, trifles, things of nothing, or no value.

Vernis: m. Vernish; (made of Linseed oyle and) the Gumme of the Juniper tree.

Vernis liquide. Tarre.

Ver-

Vernissé : m. ée : f. Varnished; slecked, or glazed ouer, with Varnish.
Vernisser. To varnish, to sleeke, or glaze ouer, with Varnish.
Verny. as Vernis.
Verole : f. The small Pockes.
La grosse verole. The Neapolitane disease, called by vs the French Pockes, though not verie iustly, the Spaniards hauing first brought it out of the Indies into Christendome, and bestowed it among the French, their enemies, at the siege of Naples, in the yeare 1528.
Veroleux : m. euse : f. Pockie, full of the Pockes.
Verolique : com. Pockie, of or belonging to the Pockes.
Veron : m. The little fish called a Menow.
Il faut perdre vn veron pour pescher vn Saulmon : Prov. A man must loose a feather to win a Goose; a small, to come by a great, matter.
Veron. whence; Oeil veron; Looke vnder Oeil.
Veronique : f. The bearbe Fluellin, Speed-well, Pauls Betonie, Ground-heele; also, a representation, image, picture, counterfeit, likenesse of; also, a sheet which, many beleeue, a woman of that name brought to wipe Christ withall when he did sweat; which sheet is yet shewed, as a Relique, at Rome.
Veronique femelle. Fluellin the female; or Speed-well bearing a yellowish flower.
Veronique masle. The male Speed-well, or Paules Betonie (the Author of the Theatre d'Agriculture, sayes it beares a reddish, or purple flower; Gerard hath six kinds thereof; and the first, which he calls Veronica vera, & major, comes neerest vnto the Frenchmans description.)
Verrat : m. A tame Boare; also, a Mackerell.
Paillard comme vn verrat. (Said of an extreame lecher.)
Verrate : f. A Sow.
Verre : m. Glasse; a drinking glasse.
Droict de verre. Looke vnder Droict.
A grand homme grand verre : Prov. A great man cannot vse a little glasse; men should be fitted in things of much vse.
Verrerie : f. A Glasse-house.
Verretre : m. A mans yard : ¶Rab.
Verreux : m. euse : f. as Vermineux; also, worme-eaten, corrupted, putrified; also, hot, cholericke, bastie; light-headed, odde-humored, hare-braind.
Faire le pois verreux. To play the hypocrite; to seeme seeme more honest then he is; (as many wormc-eaten Pease doe seeme a great deale sounder then they be.)
Verri : m. ie : f. Shining, or transparent, like glasse.
Parchemin verri. Cleere Parchment, virgine Parchment.
Verrier : m. A Glazier; also, a Glasse-maker; also, a frame to set glasses in.
Verriere : f. A glasse-window; and, a peece of glasse wherewith a thing is incompassed, or couered; also, a Glasse-house; and the furnace wherein glasse is melted.
Verrin : m. ine : f. Glassie, or of glasse; whence; Medicament verrin; a blackish medecine, or salue, made of burnt glasses, and good against the stone.
Verrine : f. as Verriere.
Verrouil : m. A boult for a doore, &c.
Verrouiller. To boult a doore.
Verrucaire : f. The hearbe Wartwort, or Turnesole; some also call Gumme succorie so, because the seeds thereof, in powder, take away warts.
Verruë : f. A wart.
Verrüeux : m. euse : f. Wartie, full of warts.
Cichorée verrüeuse. Yellow Gumme Succorie.
Verruque : f. as Verruë; also, a hillocke, or knap of a hill.
Verry : m. A mouldie cheese when it is greene; or any liquid thing which gathers a greene mouldinesse.
Vers : m. A verse.
Vers. Towards, vnto, neere to or by; at, with; before, or in presence of; also, against.
Versal. whence; Lettres versales; Text letters; or great letters; such as Rex in a Patent, &c.
Versane : f. A diuision, or part of a plowed ground, amounting to some 200 paces in length.
Versatil : m. ile : f. Quickly turning, easily turned, or powred out.
Verse : m. ée : f. powred, or turned, out; spilt, or shed forth; ouerturned, ouerbrowne.
Verseau. Aquarius; one of the twelue Signes of the Zodiacke.
Verselet : m. A little, or short verse.
Versement : m. A powring out, or vpon; a spilling, or shedding.
Verser. To powre, turne, put, out, or vpon; to shed, or spill; also, to conuerse with.
Verser à boire à. To fill drinke for.
Verser vn chariot. To wault, ouerturne, or ouerthrow a chariot; whence the Prouerbe; Il n'est si bon chartier qui ne verse; The best that driues, will sometimes wault, a cart.
Verser de l'huile sur le feu. Looke Feu.
Verser par terre. A horse to throw his rider.
Verset : m. A versicle, or short verse.
Verseur : m. A powrer; shedder, spiller; ouerturner, ouerthrower.
Versificateur : m. A versificator, versifier, maker of verses.
Versifier. To versifie, to make verses.
Versure : f. The taking vp of money to pay debts with; whence; Faire versure; To make shift; or to trouble one for the satisfying of another; or (as we say) to borrow of Peter to pay Paule.
Versures. The remainder, or leauings of draughts powred out of late-drunke-in cups, or glasses, into some vessell standing vnder the cupboord, &c, for that purpose.
Vert : m. as Verd : m. also, the apple called a Greening.
Vert : m. verte : f. Greene; Looke Verd.
Vertaper. To stop with a bung : ¶Orlean.
Vertau : m. A stopple, or bung; also, as Vertoil.
Vert-de-gris : m. Verdigrease.
Vertebre : f. A turning ioynt, or ioynt wherein the bones meet so as they may turne; as in the buckle-bone, &c.
Vertement. as Verdement.
Vertemoulte. Droict de vert. Looke vnder Droict.
Vertevelles : f. The great hindges of a gate.
Vertical : m. ale : f. Verticall; wauering, inconstant, apt to change or turne; also, standing right ouer the head.
Cercle vertical. The Verticall circle; a circle of the Azimuth which comes from the Zenith to the Horizon.
Poinct vertical. The Zenith, or point of the firmamẽt which is directly ouer ones head.
Vertige : f. A dizzinesse, giddinesse, or swimming in the head; a disease wherein the patient thinkes that all things turne round.
Vertigieux : m. euse : f. Giddie, dizzie, turning round; or troubled with the swimming of the braine.
Vertigineux. as Vertigieux.
Vertiginosité : f. A giddinesse, dizzinesse, or swimming of the head or braine.

Vertigné: m.ée: f. Worme-eaten.
Vertiller. To ſwell, or increaſe, as womens breaſts doe when the matricall veins are ſtretched by the menſtruall bloud.
Vertillons: m. The whirling, round turning, or eddie of a water.
Vertir en quelque lieu. To haunt, frequent, or be conuerſant in, a place.
Il n'y ſçauroit vertir. He cannot fadge with, he cannot abide, or frame himſelfe to.
Vertjus. as Verjus.
Vertoeil: m. A kind of greeniſh braſſe, whereof great Ordnance is made.
Vertoil: m. The wherue, or whirle of lead belonging to a ſpindle.
Vertu: f. Vertue, goodneſſe, honeſtie, ſinceritie, integritie; worth, perfection, deſert, merit; alſo, valour, proweſſe, manhood; alſo, energie, efficacie, force, power, might; alſo, a good part or propertie, a commendable qualitie.
Les vertus ſurmontent les ſignes: Pro. Look Signe.
Contre peché eſt vertu medecine: Prov. Vertuous muſt he be who of ſinne cur'd will be; or, let him, that of ſinne would recouer, to vertue recourſe.
Vertuëuſement. Vertuouſly, honeſtly, manfully, worthily.
Vertuëux: m.ëuſe: f. Vertuous, honeſt, ſincere; manfull, valiant; worthie; thats furniſhed with good parts, and qualities.
Vertugadin: m. A little Vardingale.
Vertugalle: f. A Vardingale.
Vertugoy. for Vertu dieu.
Vertumal: m.ale: f. Changeable at pleaſure, to be altered at will, or when one liſt.
Veryaine. as Verveine.
Veruë: f. A brawling, frapling, iangling, iarring; alſo, an odd humor in a man; a worme in the head, or brizze in the taile; whence;
Il luy a pris vne verruë. He is growne verie fantaſticall, humorous, giddie-braind; the worme pricks him, the toy hath taken him, in the head.
Verveil: m. A Sweepe-net, or Drag-net.
Verveine: f. Verueine, Holie hearbe, Junoes teares, Pigeons graſſe, Mercuries Moiſt-bloud.
Verveine baſſe. Holie Verueine, creeping Verueine; or as Vetveine femelle.
Verveine femelle. Female Verueine, baſe or flat Verueine, creeping Verueine, holie Verueine.
Verveine maſle. Male Verueine, ſtraight or vpright Verueine, common Verueine.
Verueleux: m.euſe: f. Moodie, humorous, fantaſticall, giddie headed, hare-braind.
Vervelles: f. Varuells for a Hawke; alſo, as Vertevelles.
Verveul. as Verveil.
Ver-volant: m. A Ringworme, or Tettar.
Veſce: f. The pulſe called Fitch, or Vetch.
Veſce noire. The Tare, or bitter Fitch.
Veſce ſauvage. Strangle-tare, Tine, wild Fitch; or the ſmall wild Veteh, or Fitchling.
Veſceron: m. Strangle-tare, Tine, the wild Fitch.
Veſcu. Lined.
Veſé. Looke Vezé.
Veſialere. Fermance veſialere. A kind of Officer, or Magiſtrate, within the Iuriſdiction of la Solle.
Veſicaire: f. Red Nightſhade, Alkakengie, Winter Cherries.
Veſicatif: m.iue: f. Bliſtering, bliſter-raiſing.

Veſicatoire: m. A veſicatorie; a cupping glaſſe, or any ſharpe ointment, cataplaſme, or plaſter, which hath power to draw humors outward, exulcerating the skinne, and raiſing little bliſters on it.
Veſler. To calfe; See Veller.
Veſner. To fizzle.
Veſperies: f. Euening exerciſes, or diſputations, among the Sorboniſts.
Veſperiſé: m.ée; f. Chidden, checked, taunted, ſchooled, reuiled, railed on; alſo, mocked, flowted, ieaſted at, ridden, derided.
Veſperiſer. To cheeke, taunt, ſchoole, chide, reuile; alſo, to mocke, flowt, ieaſt at, ride, or deride.
Veſpertin: m.ine: f. Of the euening, done in an euening.
Veſpre: m. The euening.
Il n'eſt ſi grand iour que ne vienne veſpre: Prov. The langeſt day is ended by an euening.
Veſprée: f. The euening tide, or ſeaſon.
Veſpres: f. Euen-ſong, or Euening prayer.
Veſpres Siciliennes: Prov. The Sicilian Euenſong; miſchiefes done, or death inflicted, in a place, and time, of imagined ſecuritie; (from a generall maſſacre of the French, made on a ſudden, and throughout Sicilie (whereof they were ouer-inſolent Maiſters) by the incenſed Iſlanders, on Eaſter day (Anno 1282) and about fiue of the clocke in the afternoone.)
Veſſaille: f. A fyſting; or a crue of fyſting ſlouens, or ſluts.
Veſſe: f. A fyſte; alſo, as Veſce.
Veſſe de-loup. The duſtie or ſmoakie Toadſtole, called a Fuſſe-ball, Pucke-fuſſe, Bull fyſte, Puffyſt, Wolues fyſte.
Panier à veſſes. C'eſt le cul.
Veſſeron: m. as Veſceron.
Veſſeur: m. A fyſter, a ſtinking fellow.
Veſſeuſe: f. A fyſting houſewife.
Veſſie: f. A bladder; alſo, a blane, or bliſter; alſo, a kind of braſen Stilliterie, the pipe whereof is cõueyed through a veſſell of water, and afterwards yeelds the diſtilled liquor into the Recipient.
Veſſies d'orme. Certaine bliſters, or little bladders (full of a ſlimie, or clammie, liquor) in ſome Elme leaues.
Croire que veſſies ſont lanternes. To beleeue that the Moone is made of a greene cheeſe.
Veſſié: m.ée: f. Beblиſtered, or full of bliſters.
Veſſier: m. A fyſter.
Veſſier. To bliſter.
Veſſiere: f. as Veſſeuſe.
Veſſiette: f. A little bladder, or bliſter.
Veſſifiant: m. ante: f. Cauſing one to fyſte.
Veſſifier. To breed a fyſte, to make breake wind, or let a fyſte.
Veſſigons: m. Windgalls in a horſes legs.
Veſſir. To fyſte, to let a fyſte.
Veſt: m. A Liuerie and ſeiſin made vnto a purchaſer, in ſome places by the ſeller, but in moſt by the Lord Foncier or Cenſier of whom the land is held.
Droict de veſt. Looke vnder Droict.
Veſtales: f. The Veſtall virgines, the Nunnes of the Heatheniſh Romans.
Veſtement: m. A veſtment, veſture, weed, garment, habit, array, attire, apparell, cloathing, ſute of cloathes.
On croit d'un fol bien ſouvent qu'il ſoit clerc pour ſes veſtemens: Prov. Diſcreet cloathes often paſſe a foole for a wiſe man.

Vesteure: f. A vesture; or, as Vestement.
Veſtiaire: m. The Vestrie in a Church.
Veſtige: m. A step, footstep, tracke, trace, marke, signe, or token of a footing.
Veſtir. To clothe, array, apparrell, attire, decke, enrobe, suit with, put on a suit of clothes; also, to vest, inuest, inseisin, giue possession of, make liuerie and seisin vnto.
Veſts, for Va; goe thou. ¶Pic. ¶Rab.
Veſtu: m. uë: f. Clad, clothed, yclad, arrayed, apparrelled, attired, suited, enrobed, couered; vested, inuested, inseisined, put into possession of.
Long veſtu. An auncient peece of coyne, worth about ij s vj d sterling.
Veſture: f. A clothing, arraying, apparrelling, attiring, enrobing, suiting, couering; also, a vesting, inuesting, or putting into possession of; also, as Vestement.
Vetade: f. The filletted Cockle; smooth, broad, and exceeding hard, shelled.
Veterinaire: m. An old beaten souldior; one that hath serued long in a place, or office.
Vetiller. To tickle, &c, as Fretiller; also, to trifle.
Vetilles: f. Tarriers to play with; also, nifles, trifles, things of no value.
Vettoine: f. The hearbe Betonie.
Veu: m. A vow; a solemne promise, or protestation; also, a request, prayer, desire.
Veu: m. euë: f. Viewed, seene, perceiued, beheld, ouerlooked, surueyed; marked, heeded, obserued, regarded; examined, searched into, considered of.
Boule veuë; &, Iouër à boule veuë. See Boule.
Ronfle veuë. Vous me remettez à point en ronfle veuë. You haue me at a vantage, hold me at a bay, put me to my shifts, force me to quit, or abandon all.
Avoir veu boire. A ieasting speech whereby they signifie that a man is drunken.
Il a veu le loup. His voice is growne hoarse, or he hath lost his voice, on a suddaine; See Loup.
Il est veu du Roy. The King doth grace, or fauour him.
Veu. (Adv.) Considering, seeing, in respect of; whence,
Veu la facilite qu'est en luy, veu son impudence; &, veu qu'il ne vient point, &c.
Veuë: f. The sence, act, or instrument of seeing; the eyes, or their function; the glaunce, or the reach thereof; a view, looke, sight, aspect, regard; a prospect; also, the surucy of a house, or peece of ground; also, the viser of a Helmet; also, a light, or ouerture for light; whence;
Veuës mortes. Close, or uncasemated windowes.
Droict de veuë. Power to get light vnto a house by a window, or ouerture, made into a neighbors.
Droict de veuës. The same; as also, to damme vp those of his that offend me; or to compell him to remoue, or take away that which impeaches mine.
Veuë à veuë. Face to face, right ouer against.
À veuë de païs. At random, roaming, at rouers, at large; without exact examination, or certaine proose.
Discours à perte de veuë. Vast, extrauagant, or wandering discourses; tales without order or end.
Aller à la veuë. To goe harbour a Stag, or lodge a Bucke.
Veuf: f. A widow; Looke Vef.
Veufvage: m. Widowhood.
Veufve: f. A widow.
Droict de veufve. A widowes due, or part in moueables (ouer and besides her iointure, or dower) viz. her best gowne, her marriage ring and iewels, her bed fully furnished, and certaine other household-stuffe: By the customes of Lalleuë in Artois, the suruiuor (man or woman) takes by this priuiledge, onely the best peece of euerie kind of household-stuffe.
Veuilles: f. The clasping tendrels, or small twyning sprigs of a Vine.
Veule: com. Weake, faint, infirme, vnsound, ouertoyled with heat and labour; also, hollow, loose, or light about a thing.
Vexateur: m. A vexer, afflicter, tormentor.
Vexation: f. Vexation, torment, extreame griefe, trouble, or disquiet.
Vexé: m. ée: f. Vexed, afflicted, tormented, turmoyled, extreamely grieued, or disquieted.
Vexer. To vex, afflict, or torment; extreamely to grieue, trouble, disquiet.
Vezarde: f. A great feare, dread, horror. ¶Rab.
Vezé. C'est vn gros vezé. A gulch, gorbellie, fat guts.
Veze: f. A Bag-pipe. ¶Poictevin.
Iouër de la veze. To play on the Bagpipe; also, to fizle.
Vezées. Bille vezées. Looke Bille-vezées.
Vezeur: m. A Bagpiper. ¶Poictevin.
Vezie: f. A Carbuncle, or blaine-sore.
Vezon: m. The arse, tayle, breech. ¶Norm.
Vgne. The name of a Vine.
Vi: m. Wine (so tearmed about Montpellier.)
Viable: com. Liueable, likelie to liue.
Viage: m. as Vsufruict; also, a liuing.
À viage. For life.
Viager: m. A tenant for life.
Viager: m. ere: f. For life, during life.
Quint viager. See Quint.
Rente, ou pension viagere. A rent-charge, or annuitie bought for money; called so, because it may also be redeemed, or extinguished, by money.
Reparations viageres. Ce sont menues reparations, pour l'entretenement de l'heritage, hors les quatre gros murs, poultres, & entieres couvertures, & voultes.
Viager. To enioy during life, to haue an estate for life in.
Viagerement. During life, onely for life.
Viagier. as Viager; or, as Vsufruictier.
Viaige: m. A tenant for life.
Viaire: m. The face, looke, aspect, visage, countenance; also, an annuitie, or yearelie pension, for life.
Viande: f. Meat, food, sustenance, victuals, viands, acates (especially of flesh.)
La viande creuse. Wenches, trulls, two-legd beasts.
Viande d'ami est bien tost preste: Prov. Meat in a friends house is (or is thought) soone readie; Looke Ami.
La viande semond les gens: Pro. Well-cooked meats inuite the stomacke.
De mauvaise viande on ne sçait faire vn bon potage: Pro. No man can make of ill acates good cale.
Tout estat est viande aux vers: Prov. Wormes prey, by times, on all Estates.
Viander. (A word peculiar to red Deere) to feed; also, as Fianter.
Viandier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, meat.
Viandy: m. The pasture, or ground wherein a Deere feeds; also, the meat which he feeds on.
Viateur: m. A traueller, passenger, wayfaring man.
Vibailli: m. A Vice-Bayliff, or vnder-Steward; an officer that (in some Prouinces) examines, and punishes malefactors.
Vibrequin: m. A wimble.

Vi-

Viburne: m. as Viorne; or, onely the wayfaring tree.

Vicaire: m. A Vicar, or Vicegerent; also, the Tenant, or Incumbent, who in the right of a Corporation, or Church, is to pay duties, or doe seruices, vnto the Lord of the land.

Grand vicaire. A Vicar generall; or an officer whom a Bishop imployes for the disposition of such Benefices as be in his gift.

Vicairie: f. A Vicaredge; or, as Vicariat.

Vicariant. Gadding, raunging, roaming, trotting vp and downe the countrey.

Vicariat: m. A Vicarship, the place of a Vicar; also, a Vicegerencie.

Vicarier. To raunge, roame, gad, or trot vp and downe a countrey.

Vice: m. A vice, fault, sinne, offence, villanie, roguerie, lewdnesse, naughtinesse, corruption, blemish, defect, imperfection, default.

Au vis le vice: Prov. Mans face often tells what vice in him dwells.

Nul vice sans son supplice: Pro. All vices haue their plagues attending on them.

Tel vice tel supplice: Pro. Such as the crime such the correction.

Vice-admiral: m. A Viceadmirall.

Vice-chancelier: m. A Vicechancelor.

Vice-conte: m. A Vicount; Looke Vicomte.

Vice-conte: f. A Vicountie, a Vicountship; Looke Vicomté.

Vice-gerent: m. A Vicegerent; a Deputie, or Lieutenant.

Vice-roy: m. A Viceroy, or Deputie vnto a King; he that in his absence represenleth his person, and gouerneth his kingdome.

Vicié: m. ée: f. Viciated, mard, corrupted, infected, defiled; blemished, imperfect, vnsound.

Vicier. To viciate, marre, corrupt, infect, spoyle, blemish, defile.

Vicieusement. Viciously, lewdly, corruptly, faultily.

Vicieux: m. euse: f. Vicious, lewd, bad; wicked, sinfull, naughtie, roguish, villanous; filthie, corrupt; erronious, imperfect, vnsound.

Vicinité: f. Vicinitie, neighborhood, nighnesse, proximitie, neereneße.

Vicomte: m. A Vicount; was at the first the Deputie, or Lieutenant, of an Earle, in some towne wherein he could not reside himselfe; or by the King made gardian of a Countie, vntill he had furnished it with an Earle: These Vicounts had but la moyenne Iustice, la haute being reserued by, or for, the Earles themselues (and therefore in most of the customes of la Gaule Belgique that Iurisdiction is hitherunto stiled, Vicomtiere;) howsoeuer, they were at first but Officers; and, euen at this day, the Prevosts, or Iuges of Normand villages are tearmed Vicomtes. Now it is to be presumed, that when the Earles of Prouinces, &c, vsurped a proprietie in their charges, the Vicounts, not to be behind them, did the like in those townes, and villages which they gouerned. There be at this day three or foure sorts of them; first those that, holding immediately of the Crowne (as the Vicomte de Turenne, and but a few others) are to be ranked among great, or high Lords, and before any Barons: then those that, holding of the King as of Counties reunited to the Crowne; or holding of Counties lately created, or not yet reunited (and being thereby in the qualitie of Arrierevassaux de la Couronne) are no better then meane Lords, and precede onely those Barons that either but equall, or be inferior vnto, them in Tenure: Lastly, those (in Picardie Flanders, and elsewhere) that hauing not hitherunto beene able to compasse more then a meane Iurisdiction, and therefore not meriting the place, or esteeme, of absolute Lords, are not qualified Vicomtes, but bar ely, and in difference from the rest, Seigneurs Vicomtiers.

Vicomté: f. A Vicountie; the dignitie, territorie, or estate of a Vicount; also, meane Iurisdiction.

Vicomtier: m. ere: f. Of a Vicount, Vicountlike; also, enioying, or belonging to, meane Iurisdiction.

Chemin Vicomtier. Looke Chemin.

Vicon. Mon petit vicon. My little pricke, or pillicocke.

Victimaire: m. One that sold a beast for sacrifice; or, one that assisted the sacrificer in the killing, and dressing thereof.

Victoire: f. Victorie, conquest, a subduing, or vanquishing, the vpper hand of an enemie.

Victorial: m. ale: f. Victoriall, of or belonging to victorie.

Victoriat: m. The fourteenth part of an ounce.

Victorien: m. A conqueror, vanquisher, subduer, ouercommer.

Victorienne: f. A victoresse, a victorious or vanquishing woman.

Victorieux: m. euse: f. Victorious, triumphant, conquering, vanquishing.

Victuailles: f. Victualls, food, commons, dyet, prouision for the bellie.

Vicugne. A horneless wild beast in Peru, of whose wooll the Indians make excellent Couerlets.

Vidame: m. A Vidame; was originally the Iudge of a Bishops temporall Iurisdiction, or such an Officer to him as the Vicomte was to the Comte: but in processe of time, of an Officer he became a Lord, by altering his office into a fief, held of the Bishopricke he belonged vnto: So that, euen to this day, the estate of all Vidames dependeth of some Bishopricke, or is annexed vnto the Temporalities thereof; and therefore they be no better then Seigneurs mediocres, although the first of that ranke; and in all other priuiledges and rights equall to Vicounts, with some aduantage of credit in respect of High Iurisdiction, which those haue vsurped, by degrees, vpon their Earles, and these had, at the first, by the gift of their Bishops.

Vidimé: m. ée: f. Confirmed, approued, ratified; the goodnesse whereof is, after examination, warranted.

Vidimer. To confirme, approue, or warrant the goodneße of a thing, after an examination thereof.

Vidimus de lettre. An examination of a Copie by the originall, signed by a Secretarie, Register, Notarie, or Clarke.

Viduité: f. Widowhood, the estate of a widow.

Vie: f. A life, or liuing; whole age, or time; also, the direct way into a hauen, or barre.

Arbre de vie. The sweet tree, called also by vs, the tree of life.

Huile de vie. The (most excellent) oyle of Vitriol.

La vie de dix. As much as would serue tenne.

C'est toute ma vie. Tis all I haue to liue on.

De l'une & l'autre vie. Liuing both on land, and in the water.

Il est François pour la vie. He is French to the death.

Iour de ta vie. Neuer, not as long as thou liuest.

Vie n'est pas seur heritage: Prov. Life is no sure (no true) inheritance.

Bonne vie embellit & attrait bonne fin: Pro. Good life imbellishes, and ends in blisse.

De meschante vie les bonnes loix sont venuës: Pro. Ill liues occasioned good Lawes.

Il n'est vie que de coquins, & Il n'est vie que de coquins quand ils ont assemblé leurs bribes: Pro. Our country Fidlers haue a song which begins thus; Of all Occupations a beggar is the best, for when he is wearie, he may lay him downe and rest, &c.

Il n'est vie que d'estre bien aise: Pro. All happinesse, consists in quietnesse, of life.

Il n'est vie que de faire bonne chere, mais la fin n'en vaut rien: Prov. (Whether you consider the stuffe it turnes into, or the end it brings one to.)

Ioyeuse, & riche vie pere, & mere oublie: Pro. Contentment and wealth gotten, makes father, and mother forgotten.

Meschante vie quiert le coing: Prov. Lewdnesse affecteth corners.

Telle vie telle fin: Prov. Such as his dealing was his death.

Vie vie. (An Aduerbe of incouraging, or commaunding;) On, on apace, goe on, away, forward, make hast, march march, quickly, speed it my hearts.

Vie fouët & au vent. Auaunt, packe, be gone.

Viedaze: m. The member of an Asse; also, an old dunce, doult, blockhead, noddie, ninnyhammer.

Viedazer le nez à. To play with the nose of; to baffle, abuse, flowt, make a foole of; also, to trouble, vex, molest.

Vieil: m. eille: f. Old, aged, auncient, stale, decrepit, in yeares; Looke Vieux.

La vieille guerre. See Guerre.

Faict à la vieille mode. Made rudely, of a grosse forme, of a fashion thats quite out of fashion.

Vn vieil chien iamais ne iappe en vain: Pro. An old dog barketh (we say biteth) sure.

Vieil oiseau ne se prend a reths: Pro. The old birds care aboides the snare.

Depuis que la brebis est vieille le loup la mange bien: Prov. The sheepe is neuer too old for the Wolfe; how tough soeuer she be he eats her well.

Il n'est chasse que de vieux chiens: Pro. There is no hunter to the old dog; no searcher to experience.

Il n'est miracle que de vieux saincts: Pro. Wonders of old are most authenticall.

Il n'y a rien tel qu'un vieil pot à faire la bonne soupe: Pro. No pot makes so good pottage as the old one.

On n'aura ja bon asne vieil: Prov. An old Asse is good for nothing.

Oncques vieil singe ne fit belle mouë: Pro. Th' old Monkey neuer made well-fauored mowe.

Vieillard: m. An old, or aged, man.

Mieux vaut l'ombre d'un sage vieillard que les armes d'un ieune coquard: Pro. A wise old man may doe more with his shade, then can a young cokes with his glistering blade.

Vieille: f. An old, or aged woman; also, as Vielle in the later sence; or, as Poule de mer.

Peau de vieille. The name of an Apple.

Chascune vieille son dueil plaind: Pro. See Plaindre.

La necessité fait trotter la vieille: Pro. Need addes new life, strength, quicknesse, to old age.

Qui mieux ne peut à sa vieille retourne: Prov. He that can haue no young, makes much of his old, stuffe; old serues the turne where young will not be had.

Vieillement. Oldly, aged'y, aunciently.

Vieillesse: f. Eld, or old age.

Ieunesse oiseuse vieillesse disetteuse: Prov. A lazie youth, a lowsie age.

Si ieunesse sçavoit, & vieillesse pouvoit, iamais povreté n'auroit: Prov. If youth were cunning, and age able, poorenesse would soone be but a fable.

Vieilli: m. ie: f. Become old, growne auncient, stept farre into yeares.

Vieillir. To wax old, become aged, grow in yeares.

Vieillissement. as Vieillement.

Vieillot: m. otte: f. Elderlie, somewhat old.

Vieilly. as Vieilli.

Vielle: f. A rude, or harsh-sounding Instrument of Musicke, vsually played on by base Fidlers, and blind men; also, the sea-Thrush, or particularly that kind thereof which hath a sky-coloured head, greenish backe, ruddie belly, and purple finnes.

Ils accorderent tresbien leurs vielles ensemble. They iumbled their fidles passing well together; (but this phrase hath a further (filthie) sence.)

On ne fait pas à grands coups douce vielle: Prov. Not great, but apt, stroakes make sweet Musicke.

Vielleur: m. One that vsually playes on, or gets a rascallie liuing by playing on, a Vielle, and thence, any base, or beggarlie Fidler.

Vierge: f. A virgin, maid, maiden; also, the signe in the Zodiake tearmed Virgo.

Vierge: com. Virgin, pure, cleere, prime, vnbroken, vntainted, vndefiled, vntouched.

Huile vierge. The first (and best) oyle that comes out of the presse, or from a stillitorie.

Miel vierge. Virgins honey; the honey which, of it selfe, and without any pressing distills from the combe.

Or vierge. Gold vnmelted, or vntryed; Gold that comes whole from it veine, or mine.

Parchemin vierge. Virgin Parchment; Parchment made of an abortiue skin.

Poix vierge. The first pitch that issues out of the Pitch-tree.

Terre vierge. Ground that is whole, or vnfoyled; good ground that was neuer plowed, or broken vp.

Viet-dase, & Vietz-daze. Looke Viedaze.

Vieuté. as Vileté.

Vieux. Old, aged, ancient, stale, decrepit, in yeares (Looke Vieil; to which it is also the Plurall.)

Vieux peché fait nouvelle honte: Prov. Old sinne begets new shame.

Vin vieux, ami vieux, or vieux, sont loüez en tous lieux: Pro. The praise of old wine, friends, and gold, is in all places often told.

C'est grande peine que d'estre vieux, mais il ne l'est pas qui veut: Pro. A noysome thing it is to be old, yet no man can be so that would.

En esperance d'avoir mieux, tant vit le loup qu'il devient vieux: Pro. The Wolfe so long hopes his estate to mend, that (without helpe) his life's growne neere an end.

Vif: m. vive: f. Quicke, liuing, aliue, in life; also, quick, liuelie, sparkling, spurting, light, nimble, full of life.

Vive pasture. Looke Pasture.

Donation entre vifs. A deed of Gift executed in the donors life time.

Eau vive. Running water, spring water.

Herbage vif. Looke Herbage.

Pierre vive. Flint.

Rôche vive. An entire rock; a rocke, without mixture of earth, all stone.

Le mort execute le vif; &, Le mort saisit le vif. (Principles of Law;) for which looke Executer, & Mort.

Vif-argent. Quick-siluer.

Vif-argent vulgal. A kind of base Quick-siluer made of dung, and hay.

Vif-argentin: m. ine: f. Quick-siluerie, of Quick-siluer.

Vif-gage: m. A pawne of land, for the profits whereof he vnto whom it is pawned is accomptable.

Vifs. Les vifs: m. The intrayles, or guts; whence, Cataplasme de chair de vautour avec les vifs; Looke vnder Cataplasme.

Vighier: m. The Captaine of a watch; ¶Langued: or, as Viguier.

Vigilamment. Vigilantly, wakefully, watchfully, circumspectly, charily, warily.

Vigilance: f. Vigilancie, wakefullnesse, watchfullnesse; circumspection, warinesse.

Vigilant. Vigilant, wakefull, watchfull; also, warie, prouident, circumspect, that looketh well about him.

Vigile: f. A Vigile; the Eue of a holie, or solemne day.

Vigle. See Bigle.

Vignages. Droict de vign. Looke vnder Droict.

Vigne: f. A Vine; the plant that beareth Grapes.

Vigne bastarde. The wild (Grape-bearing) Vine.

Vigne blanche. Brionie, white Brionie, Tettarberrie; also, Brionie of Mexico, or of Peru.

Vigne noire. Blacke Brionie, our Ladies Seale, the wild Vine.

Vigne porrette. The Leeke of Vines, wild Leeke, dogs Leeke, French Leeke.

Vigne sauvage. as Vigne bastarde; also, the wild Vine, called otherwise, blacke Brionie, and our Ladies Seale.

Se mettre dedans la vigne iusques au pescher. To step ouer head and eares into a Vineyard; to steepe his head, or wit in a Wine-tub.

Il faut acheter vigne deserte: Prov. Buy an vndressed Vineyard; (so mayest thou fashion it according to thine owne humor.)

L'eschalas fait tomber la vigne: Prov. (Applyable when he, that should protect or support a man, is the cause of his ruine.)

Vigneron: m. A Vine-dresser, or Vineyard-keeper; one that works in, or lookes to, a Vineyard.

Quand le chou passe le sep le vigneron meurt de soif; Pro. Looke Sep.

Vigneronne: f. A woman that workes in a Vineyard, or dresses a Vine. (Le lier, esbourgeonner, & redresser sont les façons de la vigneronne; du vigneron le tailler, houër, biner, tercer. ¶Nicot.)

Vignette: f. A little Vine; also, as Coulevrée blanche; also, the hearbe called French Mercurie.

Vignettes. Vignets; branches, or branch-like borders, or flourishes, in Painting, or Ingrauerie.

Vignettement: m. A vignetting; a bordering or flourishing with the branches of Vines, or other Plants.

Vignetter. as Vignotter.

Vignetterie: f. A vignetting; a bordering or flourishing with branches, leaues, flowers, &c.

Vignoble: m. A Vineyard.

Vignol: m. A kind of great shell-fish.

Vignolant: m. as Vigneron.

Vignolette: f. A little Vine.

Vignot: m. as Vignol.

Vignotter. To make vignets; to border or flourish with the branches of Vines, or of other Plants.

Vignottes. as Vignettes.

Vigoureusement. Vigorously, lustily, strongly, toughly, sturdily, forcibly, effectually.

Vigoureux: m. euse: f. Vigorous, lustie, liuelie, strong, tough, sturdie, forcible, effectuall.

Viguerie: f. A Prouostship, or Justiceship; the office of a Viguier; or, the Precinct wherein he commaunds.

Vigueur: f. Vigor, strength, force, toughnesse, courage, liuelinesse, efficacie.

Viguier: m. The ordinarie Iudge of a countrey Towne; or such a Magistrat in Languedoc, as the Prevost is in the rest of France.

Vil: m. ile: f. Vile, abiect, base, low, meane, homelie, simple, worthlesse; good cheape; of small price, little value, no accompt.

Vilain: m. A villaine, slaue, bondman, seruile tenant; C'est l'homme serf, ou qui tient heritage de serve condition, ou mortaillable d' aucun seigneur, sayes Rageau, (who likewise affirmes, that the Gentlemen of France tearme vilains all Farmers, Husbandmen, Plowmen, and generally all yeomen, how free soeuer their condition, or tenures be: and that countrey Gentlemen tearme so all Citizens, Burguers, & Inhabitants of walled Townes:) Hence also, a churle, carle, boore, clowne; and, a miser, micher, pinch-pennie, penny father; and, a knaue, rascall, varlet, filthie fellow; any base-humored, ill-borne, and worse-bred hinde, cullion, or clusterfist: also, the Cheuin, or Pollard fish (called so because it feedes vpon nothing but filth;) also, a kind of Hagard Faulcon.

Estant en son vilain. Being in the suds, or sullens, swelling with his ordinarie dogged, or surlie humors.

Vilain affamé demi enragé: Pro. A starued clowne is halfe a mad man; when victualls faile, all temper failes, him.

Vilain enrichi ne cognoist parent, ny ami: Pro. The base clowne that hath got a little pelfe, knowes neither friend, nor kinsman, (nor himselfe.)

Les vilains s'entretiennent, les nobles s'embrassent: Pro. Clownes are but cold, the gentle kind, in mutuall conuersation.

Le vilain ne sçait qu' esperons valent: Prov. Base people know not the worth of good things.

D'un vilain refaict Dieu nous garde. Looke Refaict.

De grand vilain lourde cheute; &, De grand vilain grand flac: Pro. A great or mightie knaue, a mightie fall will haue.

Oignez vilain il vous poindra: Prov. The base vnthankfull chuffe returnes bad offices for good.

Priez vilain moins il fera: Pro. The more you pray a slaue the lesse you preuaile.

Connin, & vilain avec la main: Pro. See Connin.

Il n'est danger que de vilain: Prov. The (incensed) churle is a most dangerous beast.

Le Chanteau part le vilain: Pro. When villeines by birth or estate (who for the most part are tenants in common) doe meane to part their possessions, they diuide a lumpe of bread, and giue each to other a peece thereof; Hence is this Prouerb applyable to those base fooles, that fall out with their best friends for trifles, or victualls.

Qui a le vilain il a sa proye: Pro. Looke Proye.

Si tu veux cognoistre vn vilain baille luy la baguette en main: Prov. If thou a knaue, or churle wouldst faine beweray, giue him authoritie, let him beare sway.

Vilain: m. aine: f. Villanous, vile, base, filthie, sordide, lewd, bad; vnworthie, churlish, niggardlie; also, as Vilein.

Vi-

Vilainement. Villanously, vilely, basely, niggardly, churlishly, scurvily, filthily.
Vilainer. as Vilener.
Vilané. as Vilené.
Vilbrequin: m. A Wimble.
Vilein: m. eine: f. Seruile, base, vile, drudging, villeinlike, held by villenage; also, as Vilain.
Vilenaille: f. A pack of scowndrels, rascals, base abiects, scurvie fellowes; the dregs, riffraffe, offscum, of the people.
Vilené: m. ée: f. Defiled, soyled, besmeared, begrymed; also, disgraced, dishonored, blemished in reputation; also, berated, reuiled, rayled on.
Ils m'eussent vilenez s'ils m'eussent peu ioindre. They had done me some roguerie or other, if they could haue raught me.
Vilener. To soyle, defile, besmeare, begryme, beray, baffle, abuse, disgrace, blemish the reputation of; also, to berate, reuile, rayle on.
Vilenie: f. Villanie, vilenesse, roguerie, knauerie, lewdnesse; filth, nastinesse, ordure, impuritie, scurvinesse, miching, baseneße, niggardlinesse, couetousnesse, churlishnesse.
Laide vilenie. Slaunderous, reproachfull, disgracefull, defamatorie tearmes; words which will beare an Action.
Vilenot: m. A little villeine; or one that is somewhat churlish; also, a clowne, peasant, boore, hob, or hinde of the country.
Vileté: f. Vilenesse, basenesse, worthlesnesse, paultring, scurvinesse; also, cheapenesse.
Vilette. as Villette.
Vilipender. To vilipend, set little by, contemne, despise, disable, d'esteeme; also, to defame, slaunder, traduce, giue an ill report of.
Village: m. A village; a countrey towne, consisting of many houses ioyned together; therein to differ from Hameau (a hamlet) which consists but of a few, and those either scattered, or not verie neere together.
Mais suis-ie pas de mon village? But am not I a clowne, or a sillie fellow?
Villageois: m. A countreyman, husbandman, ploughman, farmer, clowne, hob, hinde, swaine, boore.
Villain. See Vilain.
Villanelle: f. A countrey daunce, round, or song.
Villanie. as Vilenie.
Villaquerie: f. Villanie, roguerie, rascalitie, skowndrellisme.
Villatique: com. Countrey-like; of, or belonging to, the countrey.
Ville: f. A Towne; an incorporate, or inclosed Towne; a Citie; also, the long oagar tearmed by our Coopers, a Turrell.
Villes de paix. Looke Paix.
Ville aux Roix. The citie of Blois; tearmed so, because the French Kings doe oftentimes soiourne, and their children be commonly brought vp, within it.
Ville & taille. The territorie, or precincts of a towne.
La ville est gaignée. (Prouerbially) the victorie is gotten, our suit obtained, our cause woon.
Avoir vn oeil au bois l'autre à la ville. To haue an eye on all sides of him, to looke verie warily about him.
Elle a touiours quelque commission par la ville. Sayed ieastingly, or in disgrace, of a gadding housewife.
Qui sent sa bonne ville. A courteous, and ciuill person, or part.
Robbe qui sent sa petite ville. A neat, spruce, cleane-brushed gowne, or garment.
A l'entrée de la ville est le commencement des maisons: Pro. Looke Maison.
Il ne sçait rien qui ne va par villes: Prov. He that goes not abroad knowes nothing.
Le sainct de la ville n' est point oré: Prov. The townes peculiar Saint is not prayed to; for helpe that may be had at home we care not.
Selon la ville les bourgeois: Prov. Like to the towne the townesmen are.
Tant de villes tant de guises: Pro. As many seuerall customes as countrie townes.
Villebrequin: m. A Wimble.
Villein. as Villain.
Villenage: m. Villenage; or any base, and seruile tenure; hence also, Socage tenure; or, as Censive.
Villenaille. as Vilenaille.
Villenot: m. A little villaine, clowne, or swayne; or, as Vilenot.
Villes de la Vigne: f. The tendrells, or twyning sprigs, of a Vine.
Villette: f. A little Towne, or Citie; also, a little Turrell, or Coopers oagar.
Villiere: f. as Veillere.
Villon: m. A cousener, conycatcher, cunning, or wittie rogue; a nimble knaue; a pleasant theefe; (for such a one was Francois Villon, whose death a halter suited to his life;) also, a kind of weed wherewith bands to tye Vines are made.
Villonner. To cousen, cheat, conycatch, play the cunning or wittie rogue; the nimble knaue, the pleasant theefe.
Villonnerie: f. A cousening, or conycatching; wittie or cunning roguerie; nimble knauerie; pleasant or merrie theeuerie.
Villote: f. A cocke of hay.
Villoter. To runne, trot, rogue, roame, raunge; gad, or gossip it from one towne to another.
Villoteur. as Villotier.
Villotier: m. A vagabond, land-loper, earth-planet, continuall gadder from towne to towne.
Villotier: m. ere: f. Towne-bred, home-borne; of, or belonging to, the towne onely.
Villotiere: f. A gadding housewife, wandering fisgig, raunging flirt; one that does nothing but runne a gossipping from one towne to another; also, a Bawd.
Vilonage. as Villenage.
Vimaires: f. Stormes, tempests, any boisterous, and hurtfull weather; inundations, and breaking out, of waters; ruines of buildings; mischieues done by earthquakes, or thunderclaps; any such feare full, or dommageous accidents, which no reason can foresee, no fore sight preuent; Lawyers tearme them Vis maior.
Vimeres. as Vimaires.
Viminal: m. ale: f. Apt to wind, or bind, as twigs or oziers; also, belonging thereto.
Saulx viminale. Looke Saulx.
Vimpilon: m. A holie-water sprinkle.
Vin: m. Wine.
Vin ardant. Aquauite.
Vins de Bourgongne. All wines which grow aboue the bridge of Sens, in Auxerrois, Beaune, and other countries, whose commodities are sent downe by the riuer Yonne.
Vin des clers. Fees for expedition; somewhat, aboue ordinarie fees, for the Clarks to drinke.
Vin de coipeau. New wine quickly made fit to be drunke, by Beechen chips first boyled then dryed, and afterwards terwards put into the veſſell.

Vin de commeres. Palate wine, ſweet and pleaſant wine.

Vin cuict. Wine boyled on the fire to a certaine thicknesſe, and then put into veßells, and reſerued for ſweet ſawces.

Vin de deſpenſe. Small, houſehold, ordinarie, or ſeruants, wine.

Vins François. The wines which grow, or are made, below the bridge of Sens.

Vin de Lion. Strong, and headie wine; or, ſuch wine as makes the drinker a ſwaggerer.

Vin du marché. The charge which contractors are at with the witneßes, or confirmers of their bargaine.

Vin miellé. Honied wine, baſtard, Metheglin, ſweet wine; any drinke thats made of honey, and wine.

Vin muſcat. Muſcadell, or Muſcadin.

Vin noir. Looke Noir.

Vin papier. White wine called ſo by ſome Switzers.

Vin de porceau. Which makes the drunkard to ſleepe, vomit, and tumble him in his vomit.

Vin de preſſoirage. Looke Preſſoirage.

Vin de regnard. The wine that ſharpens, or ſets an edge on, the drunkards ſpirit, making him more ſubtill, or cunning, then he is, at any time, ſober.

Vin de ſinge. Wine which makes the drinker (or drunkard) pleaſant, wanton, or toyiſh.

Vin des valets. Spending pence, extraordinarie vayles or gifts; odde money beſtowed on a mans ordinarie ſeruants, ouer and aboue the ſumme due, or agreed on.

Droict de vin, ou de vins, &c. Looke Droict.

Entrée de vin és villes cloſes. Looke Entrée.

Pot au vin. A mans head.

Pot de vin. A ſumme of money; a reward, or gift; alſo, the dowrie giuen with a maid in marriage.

Souppe en vin. The hearbe Meddicke fodder, Snayle-Clauer.

Avoir ſon vin. 'A cett' heure il aura ſon vin. He will now be tickled, or haue his full payment; he neuer met with his match till now: Elles ont eu leur vin. Thoſe wenches haue had it to a haire; viz. a full taſt of the ſap which they hold moſt ſauorie; (for the beſtowing of wine being a principall courteſie in intertainments betweene man and man, is fitteſt to expreſſe the other liquor which in courteſie a man giueth a woman.)

Couper le vin. See Couper.

Entrer en vin. To enter into a drunken match, to fall a drinking.

Eſtre ſur le vin. To taſt, alſo, to loue, wine verie well.

Faire iambes de vin. To take in ſtore of liquor before the undertaking of a iourney; to ſupple his legs, by ſoaking his head, in wine.

Mettre de l'eau dedans leur vin. Looke vnder Mettre.

Repoſer ſon vin. To ſleepe after a carouſing, to digeſt his wine by ſleeping.

Vin de grain eſt plus doux que n' eſt pas vin de preſſe: Pro. willing ſeruice, though but ſmall, is more acceptable, then much extorted dutie.

Le vin n'a point de chauſſure; &, le vin va ſans chauſſes: Prov. Wine wanteth, or goeth without, breeches; viz. bewrayeth a mans infirmities, or worſt parts; layeth open his ſhame, or layeth him open to ſhame.

Vin pour ſaveur, drap pour couleur: Pro. Let wine good ſauor, cloth freſh colour, haue; ſo wine be ſauorie, no matter how it looke.

Vin ſur laict c'eſt ſouhait, laict ſur vin c'eſt venin: Prov. Looke Souhait.

Vin trouble ne briſe dents: Prov. Wine though it be thicke yet breakes it no mans teeth.

Bon vin bon vinaigre: Pro. Good wine is made good vineger; good things transform'd retaine part of their worth.

Bon vin mauvaiſe teſte: Pro. Good wine breeds many a brable.

Boy vin en Roy; viz. temperately: Pro.

Apres bon vin bon cheval: Prov. After a man hath drunke hard he dare any thing.

Qui vin ne boit apres ſalade eſt en danger d'eſtre malade: Pro. He that wine drinkes not after a (cold) ſallate, his health indangers (and does wrong to his pallate.)

Qui bon vin boit il ſe repoſe: Prov. Looke Repoſer.

Apres la poire le vin, ou le preſtre: Prov. After a (cold) Peare either drinke wine to concoct it, or ſend for the Prieſt to confeſſe you.

En vaiſſeau mal lavé ne peut on vin garder: Prov. Wine in ill-waſhed Caske will not be kept.

Femme, argent, & vin, ont leur bien, & leur venin: Prov. Wine, money, and the female brood haue properties both bad, and good; are (as th' are vſed) bad, or good.

Homme mutin, bruſque rouſſin, flaſcon de vin, prennent toſt fin: Pro. The perſon turbulent, a liuelie ſteed, and cup of wine, come to an end with ſpeed.

Il ne faut pas enquerir d' ou ſoit le vin, mais qu'il ſoit bon: Pro. No matter whence wine came ſo it be good.

Il ne ſçait que c'eſt de vendre vin qui n' attend de May la fin: Prov. Againſt good husbandrie he hath offended, that ſells his wines before May be full ended.

Le boeuf ſalé fait trouver le vin ſans chandelle: Prov. The ſalt-beefe eater needs no candle to light his drinke the way to his mouth.

On ne cognoiſt pas le vin aux cercles: Prov. Looke Cercle.

On ne doit point mentir en vin: Prov. Somewhat like the Latine, In vino veritas; or an aduiſe to make it good; and then may be rendered thus; when men are drunke they ſhould not lye, becauſe in wine is veritie.

Pain tant qu'il dure, vin à meſure: Prov. Eat bread at pleaſure, drinke wine by meaſure: A Precept which the French obſerue in the firſt (howſoeuer in the ſecond) part; for no people eat more bread, nor haue better bread to eat, then they.

Semelles & du vin paſſent chemin: Pro. Looke Semelle.

Vinade: f. The vſe, and worke of two yoake of Oxen, or of a Cart, all the time of Vintage.

Vinage: m. A Phiſicall wine, or a decoction of hearbes in wine, to be drunke for the curing of vlcers, and wounds.

Droict de vinage. Looke Droict.

Vinaigre: m. Vineger.

'A nez frotté de vinaigre. Of a ſharpe conceit, or foreſight, of a quicke apprehenſion; a metaphor from Huntſmen, who to make their dogs quick-ſented, rub their noſes with vineger.

Ie le feray chier vinaigre. I will make him ſtarke mad.

Vinaigrette: f. Sorrell ſawce.

Vinaigrettes. Sallets, or ſawces, which be ſeaſoned with much vineger; any hearbs, or fruits in pickle.

Vi-

Vinaigrier: m. A Vineger-man, or Vineger-maker; also, a Vineger glasse, viol, or bottle.
Vinatier: m. A Barberrie tree; or the Barberrie it selfe.
Vinciboſſe: m. Woodbind, Caprifolie, Honnyſuckle.
Vincent. Vincent, a mans name; and particularly, the name of a Saint, for whom, in ſome places, a holyday is made the 22 of Januarie; whence the Prouerbe;
`A la S. Vincent ſi l'hyver s'engrine, ſi l'attends. If the wind blow ſharpe on S. Vincents day, looke for a cold later part of a Winter.
Vindicatif: m. iue: f. Vindicatiue, reuenging, wreakefull, auengefull.
Vindice: f. Reuenge, auengement, vengeance, puniſhment.
Vindicte: f. as Vindice.
Vindiquer. To redeeme, deliuer, exempt, ſaue from; alſo, to reuenge, auenge, wreake.
Vindre. A kind of long Hooke, or Crampiron, full of notches.
Viné: m. ée: f. Seaſoned with, or for the holding of, wine; alſo, tunned as wine.
Vinée: f. The fruit, or profit of a Vineyard; a crop of Grapes; whence;
Avoir bonne vinée. To find a good Vintage, to gather or get in ſtore of wine.
Vinenotte. as Vivelotte.
Viner. To ſeaſon with, or for the holding of, wine; alſo, to tunne wine.
Vinet: m. Small or thinne wine, hedge wine.
Vinetier: m. as Vinotier; alſo, the Barberrie tree.
Vinette: f. Sorrell, or Sowre-docke; alſo, the Barberrie, or Barberrie tree.
Vinetteux: m. A Vintner; but in Rabelais the name of a Cooke.
Vineux: m. euſe: f. Winie, of wine, full of wine, proceeding from wine.
Vingeron. as Vengeron.
Vingt. Twentie; a skore.
Vingtain, & Vingtenier. Looke Vintain, & Vintenier.
Vingtieſme: m. A twentieth, or twentieth part of; whence, Droict de vingtieſme. Looke Droict.
Vingtieſme. The twentieth.
Vinoble. as Vignoble.
Vinot: m. as Vinet; alſo, a kind of little Peare, the Perrie whereof doth taſt like wine.
Vinotier: m. A Vintner, Tauerner, Wine-ſeller.
Vinotier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, wine; alſo, bringing, or yeelding wine.
Vintain: m. A twentieth; or a twentieth part of.
Vintenier: m. The Corporall to a foot-companie.
Vin-verjus: m. Verjuice, made of wild, or vnripe, Grapes.
Vioge: com. Luſtie, liuelie, cranke, frolicke. ¶Norm.
Violable: com. Violable, infringible, breakeable; deflowrable, defilable, pollutable.
Violant. Le gris violant. Mallow-flower colour; or, a colour betweene a Grey, and a Violet.
Violat. Of Violets.
Violateur: m. A violator; infringer, tranſgreſſor; a corrupter, defiler, deflowrer; wrong-doer, abuſer.
Violation: f. A violation, or violating; a breaking, tranſgreſſing, infringing; alſo, a corrupting, defiling, deflowring; wronging, miſuſing, abuſing.
Viole. as Violle; alſo, a Gilliflower; whence;
Viole iaulne. The Winter Gilloflower, or Wall-flower.

Violé: m. ée: f. Violated; broken, tranſgreſſed, infringed; corrupted, defiled, deflowred; wronged, miſuſed, abuſed.
Violement: m. A violating; or, as Violation.
Violemment. Violently, impetuouſly, forcibly, compulſiuely, vehemently, fiercely, ragingly.
Violence: f. Violence; impetuouſneſſe; vniuſt force, or compulſion; wrong; raſhneſſe, fierceneſſe; vehemencie.
Violent: m. ente: f. Violent, impetuous, vehement; forcible, compulſiue; raging, fierce.
Violenté: m. ée: f. Violated, or violented; vſed or handled violently; forced.
Violentement. as Violemment.
Violenter. as Violer; alſo, to force, or breake into by force.
Se violenter ſoy meſme. To vſe violence againſt; lay violent hands on, himſelfe; to murther himſelfe.
Violer. To violate; infringe, tranſgreſſe; to marre, corrupt, defile, deflowre; to wrong, hurt, miſuſe, abuſe.
Violet: m. as Violette; a Violet-colour.
Violet de ſel. A certaine ruſtie colour brought from the ſalt-pits of Germanie, and of a brackiſh taſt.
Violet: m. ette: f. Violet of colour.
Violette: f. A Violet; alſo, a Gill flower; alſo, Violet-colour; alſo, as Luette; whence, Violette abaiſſée. The falling of the Vvula.
Violette arborée. The vpright Paunſie, or Hearts-eaſe.
Violette d'Automne. The Paunſie, or Hearts-eaſe; alſo, the Calathian Violet, blue harueſt Lillie, Autumne Bell-flower, Harueſt-bell.
Violette blanche. The white Violet; alſo, the white ſtocke Gilloflower; alſo, the timely-flouriſhing Bulbus Violet.
Violette de careſme. as Violette de Mars.
Violettes de Damas. Damaske Violets, or Gilloflowers, rogues Gilloflowers, cloſe ſciences.
Violettes de Dames. Dames Violets, &c, as Violettes de Damas.
Violettes herbuës. Pinkes, or ſmall Honeſties.
Violette iaulne. The Wall-flower; the yellow, or Winter Gilloflower.
Violettes de Marie. Marians Violets, Couentrie Bells, Couentrie Rapes; of the kind, qualitie, and (almoſt) the forme of Throatworts, or Canterburie bells.
Violette de Mars. The ordinarie Violet, March Violet, Garden Violet, ſweet Violet.
Violettes des Matrones. as Violettes de Damas.
Brune violette. A kind of darke Purple of the colour of an Amethiſt.
Clere violette. A Murrey; or (as ſome hold) a light Red.
Violier: m. A Fidler, or common Muſition, that playes on a Violin; alſo, a Violet root, or plant; alſo, a Flower-pot; alſo, the crowne of Oziet, &c, which they ſet ouer pots of Gilloflowers, to ſtrengthen the ſtaulkes thereof.
Violier des murailles. The plant that beares the Wall-flower, or Winter Gilloflower.
Violle: f. A (Muſicall) Violl, or Violin.
Violon: m. A Violin, or little Violl.
Viorne: f. The Hedge-plant called, the Trauellers ioy; alſo, the Hedge-tree called, the Way-faring tree; (both verie common in Kent;) alſo, a ſhoot, or ſprig putting vp from the root of a tree.
Viotrant. as Veautrant. ¶Rab.
Viouche: com. Of long life; or, as Vioge, liuelie, &c, (an old word.)
Vipere: f. The Serpent called a Viper.

Herbe aux Viperes. Vipers hearbe, Snakes Bugloſſe, Vipers Bugloſſe, wild Bugloſſe the leſſe.
Vipereau: m. A young, or little Viper.
Viperiere: f. as Herbe aux Viperes.
Viperillon: m. A young, or ſmall Viper.
Viperin: m. ine: f. Viperous, of a Viper.
Sel viperin. Looke vnder Sel.
Viquerie: f. as Vicairie; or, as Viguerie.
Virade: f. A whirling, or ſwift turning about.
Carte, ou Charte virade. The Dutch Card-game called, Hocke.
Viraire. Looke Veraire.
Vire: f. The arrow called a Quarrell; vſed onely for the Croſſe-bow.
Virebrequin: m. A Wimble.
Virecots: m. Little bundles, or packets of grapes made vp in Fig-leaues, and thereby long kept.
Virelay: m. A Virelay, Round, freemans Song.
Virelis: m. A Periwinkle; or, as Nerites.
Virement: m. A veering, whirling, wheeling, round turning, frisking about.
Virer. To veere, turne round, wheele or whirle about.
De quelque coſté que le baſt vire. Howſoeuer things be carried, which way ſoeuer the world waggeth.
Mau de terre te vire. The foule euill take, or choake, thee.
Vire-ſoli. as Herbe au ſoleil.
Vireſon: m. One of the laſt, and leaſt receptacles for the ſea-water, whereof ſalt is made.
Vireton: m. A little Quarrell; or, a faſhion of arrow-head, thats turned, or made, like a skrue.
Virevolte. as Virevoulte.
Virevolter. Looke Virevoulter.
Virevoulte: f. A veere, whirle, round gamboll, friske, or turne.
Virevoulter. To veere, whirle, turne or wheele round about, fitch many a friske about.
Virevouſte. as Virevoulte.
Vireur: m. A veerer, or whirler, a round turner, or turner of things often about.
Vireurs d'aumelettes. Pancake-turners, Omelet-makers; Looke Aumelette.
Vireux: m. euſe: f. Ranke, ſtrong-ſmelling, rammiſh of ſauor; alſo, poyſonous.
Virgeal. as Virginal.
Virginal: m. ale: f. Virgine-like, maidenlie, belonging to a virgin or maid.
Huile virginal Virgines oyle; the oyle which of it ſelfe, and without any preſſing, comes from Oliues.
Laict virginal. See Laict.
Virgineux: m. euſe: f. as Virginal.
Virginité. Virginitie, maidenhead, or maidenhood.
Virgule: f. A little rod, yard; ſtreake; and thence alſo, a comma.
Virgulte: m. A bunch of young, and tender ſhootes; a companie of ſprigs, or ſprouts growing together.
Viridique: com. Looke Veridique.
Viril: m. ile: f. Virile, manlie, manlike, manfull, male; bold, ſtout, couragious, valiant; ſtrong, ſubſtantiall, pithie; graue.
Virilement. Manly, manfully; boldly, ſtoutly; pithily, ſubſtantially; gravely.
Virilité: f. Virilitie, manlineſſe, manfullneſſe; ſtrength, vigor; ſtoutneſſe, courage; alſo, a mans genitalls.
Virlis. as Virelis.
Virole: f. An yron ring put about the end of a ſtaffe, &c, to ſtrengthen it, and keepe it from riuing.
Virolet: m. as Ventail, a boyes windmill; alſo, a ſkittle-cocke; alſo, an arrow-head; alſo, a ſword with an indented edge; alſo, a piercer; alſo, a mans yard.
Virollé: m. ée: f. Bound about with an yron ring, or hoope.
Virollette: f. A ſword with an indented edge.
Viron. (Vſed in ſome parts of France) as Environ.
Vironnant: m. ante: f. Veering, enuironning, turning or winding about.
Vironner. To veere, enuiron; turne, goe, or wind about.
Virulence: f. Stench, rankneſſe, rammiſhneſſe, poiſon, venomouſneſſe.
Vis: m. The viſage, &c, as Viſage.
Vis à vis. Face to face; directly oppoſite, right ouer-againſt.
Au vis le vice: Pro. Our faults may be read in our faces; our viſage telleth what our vices be.
Vis: f. The vice, or ſpindle of a Preſſe; alſo, a winding ſtaire.
Vis briſée. A ſtaire which hauing four or fiue ſteps vpright, then turnes, and hath as many forward another way.
Vis S. Gilles. A faſhion of winding ſtaire, thats vaulted all vnder the ſteps.
Vis à iour. Another conſiſting of many ſteps, and yet ſo contriued, that a man may from the higheſt diſcerne the loweſt.
Viſa. A word written by the Lord Chauncelor on the backſide of Edicts, and Charters, to ſignifie his examination, and approbation of them; tis alſo vſed by the Patrons of Benefices, or by Ordinaries, or Dioceſans, for the allowance, or in the behalfe, of ſuch, as come into Spirituall Cures, &c, by Proviſion.
Visadmiral: m. A Viceadmirall.
Viſage: m. The viſage, face, looke, cheere, countenance, aſpect of a man.
Viſage d'appelant. A ſad, heauie, pittifull, or cheereleſſe looke.
Viſage de bois faict à. A doore ſhut againſt.
Viſage de preſſurier. A muſtulent, or maumſie face.
Viſage de rebec. A ſneake-bill, ſharp-noſe, chittiface.
Faux viſage. A Maske, or Viſard.
Homme à deux viſages. A diſſembler, or double-dealer; one that ſeldome keepes promiſe, or is neuer as good as his word; whence the Prouerbe;
Homme à deux viſages n'agrée en villes, ne villages. A man that hath a double viſage is neither lou'd in towne, nor village; diſſembling is a hateſull ſinne.
Mot à deux visages. A word of a doubtfull ſence, or double vnderſtanding; an equiuocation.
Pois à viſage. Looke Pois.
Vent au visage: Pro. Aduerſitie, croſſes; Looke vnder Vent.
Couché ſur ſon viſage. Layed groueling.
Rouge viſage, & groſſe pance, ne ſont ſignes de penitence: Prov. He that a red face hath, and ſwollen guts, his bodie vnto pennance little puts.
Visant. Ayming, leuelling at.
Viſc: m. Miſſell, Miſſeltoe, Miſſeldine; alſo, Birdlime (which is commonly made of Miſſeltoe.)
Viſceral: m. ale: f. Inward, of or from the bowels.
Viſcide: com. Clammie, cleauing, Birdlime-like.
Viſcidité: f. Viſciditie; or, as Viſcoſité.
Viſcoſité: f. Viſcoſitie; a Birdlime-like ſlymineſſe, clammineſſe, or cleauing.
Viſduché: f. A Vice-Duchie, or Vice-Dukedome.
Viſée: f. A leuelling, or ayming at with the eye; alſo, a levell, or ayme taken.
Il ne tiroit iamais ſans viſée. He neuer ſhot at random.

Pour

Pour bien tirer il faut prendre viſée: Prov. Take ayme with thy ſight if thou meane to ſhoot right; ere thou thy arrow doe let fly, let th' hand be guided by thy eye; he that will preuayle muſt proceed by aduiſe.

Viſeneſchal. as Vibailli; or, an vnder ſteward.

Viſer. To ayme, or leuell at with the eye; alſo, to regard, or heed.

Qui viſe loing, iamais ne rend ſon coup heureux: Pro. as vnder Coup.

Touſiours ne frappe l'on pas ce à quoy l'on viſe: Pro. One alwayes gets not that he aſpires vnto.

Viſeur: m. An aymer, or leueller.

Viſible: com. Viſible, diſcernable, euident, apparant.

Viſiblement. Viſibly, diſcernably, euidently.

Viſiere: f. The viſer, or ſight of an helmet.

Viſiere meurtriere. A Port-hole for a murthering Peece in the forecaſtle of a ſhip.

Viſion: f. A viſion, ſight, apparition, fantaſie; alſo, a viewing, or peruſing.

Viſitation: f. A viſitation, viſiting; view, ſurney, ouerſeeing.

La viſitation de noſtre Dame. The feaſt of the Viſitation of our Ladie, celebrated, among the Papiſts, on the ſecond of July.

Viſité: f. as Viſitation.

Viſiter. To viſit, or goe to ſee; to view, ſurney, ouerlooke, ouerſee.

Viſiteur: m. A viſitor, ſearcher, ouerſeer.

Le grand viſiteur de France. The great Viſitor of France: is no Officer of the Crowne, nor (how great ſouer his Title be) more then a bare miniſter of Juſtice; being ſubiect vnto the ordinarie Judge of the place wherein he viſits, and of himſelfe determining nothing: In old time he was called Le Roy des Merciers, which Title the laſt King changed into this, Anno 1597.

Viſine: m. A Willow, or Wicker twig.

Viſqueux: m. euſe: f. Viſcous, clammie, cleauing, birdlyme-like.

Eſprit viſqueux. A captious wit.

Viſte: com. Swift, quicke, ſlightie, ſpeedie, nimble, ſuddaine, haſtie.

Viſte en beſongne. Readie, or quicke, at worke; fit, or apt for a ſuddaine diſpatch; alſo, craftie, ſubtill, ſly, warie.

Plus viſte que le mot. In leſſe time done then ſpoken of; done before one could haue ſaid, this.

Viſte-courant. Swift, or light of foot; that ſeemes to fly as he runnes.

Viſtement. Quickly, ſpeedily, readily, ſwiftly, nimbly; haſtily, ſuddainely, immediately, incontinently.

Viſtempenard: m. A Duſter made of a Fox-taile faſtened vnto a ſtaffe.

Viſtempenardé: m. ée: f. Duſted, or flapped with a Fox-tayle; alſo, raggedly, vilely, or baſely attired.

Viſteſſe: f. Swiftneße, quickneſſe, lightneſſe, nimbleneße, ſpeed, haſt, ſuddaineſſe.

Viſual: m. ale: f. Viſuall, of or belonging to the ſight; alſo, carried by the ſight, or extending as farre as the eye can carrie it.

Viſuel: m. elle: f. Giuing, or cauſing ſight; alſo, as Viſual (in the later ſence.)

Viſum viſu. ¶Rab. as Vis à vis.

Viſure: f. The ſide betweene the vpper leather, and the ſole of a corked ſhooe; the rand of a ſhooe.

Vit: m. A mans yard; a beaſts pizle.

Vit de caille. A Rayle.

Vit de chien. as Vit de preſtre.

Vit de coq. A Woodcocke.

Vits de gouvernail. The Pintles, or yron hooks whereby the ſterne of a ſhip doth hang.

Vit de mer. An ouglie creature, or excreſcence, like to the end of a mans yard.

Vit de preſtre. Prieſts-Pintle, hearbe Aaron, Cuckoe-Pintle, Wake-Robin, Rampe.

Vit volant. as Pennache de mer.

Vitailler. To handle, dallie, or play with, a P.

Vital: m. ale: f. Vitall, liuelie; likelie to line; alſo, bringing, breeding, maintaining, or preſeruing, life.

Vitault: m. A great toole; or, one that hath a good toole; alſo, a flattering word for a young boy, like our, my prettie pillicocke; whence, Mon vitault.

Vite: f. A womans &c.

Vitellin: m. ine: f. Of or belonging to the yolke of an egge.

Cholere vitelline. A kind of choller bred by a rotten or vnnaturall heat, and reſembling, both in colour and conſiſtence, the yolkes of egges.

Saulx vitelline. Looke Saulx.

Vitette: f. A verie little pricke, bable-member.

Vitez. The ſhrub Agnus caſtus, Abrahams Balme, Chaſtree, Hemp-tree. ¶Rab.

Vitier. Looke Vicier.

Vitieux. as Vicieux.

Vitrage: m. Glaſſe, Glaſſe-worke, or Glaſing worke.

Vitre: f. Glaſſe, or a Glaße-window.

Vitres. The ſquares, or maſhes of a racket; (from the reſemblance they haue with quarries of Glaſſe.)

Vitré: m. ée: f. Glaſed; couered or done ouer with glaſſe; alſo, glazed, or varniſhed as the inſide of an earthen veſſell.

Vitreau: m. A Glaſſe-window.

Vitrée: f. The bird called a Whittayle.

Vitreole: f. Small Withywind, Hedgebells, Bindweed; alſo, the blacke purging Bindweed.

Vitrer. To glaſe; to ſtop, couer, or doe ouer, with glaſſe; alſo, to varniſh the inſide of a veſſell of earth, &c.

Vitrerie: f. A glaſing, or Glaſſe-making.

Vitreux: m. euſe: f. Glaſſie, of Glaſſe, full of Glaſſe; cleere, tranſparent, or brittle as Glaſſe.

Humeur vitreuſe. The glaſſie humor in the hinder part of) the eye.

Vitrice: m. A ſtepfather, or father in law. ¶Rab.

Vitrier: m. A Glaſier, or worker in Glaſſe.

Vitrification: f. Glaſſineſſe, or the making of Glaſſe.

Vitrifier. To turne, or make into Glaſſe.

Vitriol: m. Vitrioll, Copperoſe; alſo, Pellitorie of the wall.

Vitriol d'Allemagne. German Vitrioll; worſe then the Roman, as hauing ſomewhat of yron in it.

Vitriol d'Hongrie. Hungarie Vitrioll; naturall (and thereby the beſt) Copperoſe.

Vitriol Romain. Roman Vitrioll; Copperoſe; made of ſuch like ſtuffe as glaſe is.

Vitriole. as Vitreole.

Vitriolique: com. Like Vitrioll, of Copperoſe.

Vitte: f. A womans &c.

Vitulos. The laſt word of a Latine Pſalme of Mercie, which beginning with the word Miſerere, hath bred the phraſe, Tu auras du miſerere iuſques à vitulos, for one thats to be whipped extreamely, or a long time.

Vituperable: com. Vituperable.

Vituperation: f. A vituperation, or diſpraiſing.

Vitupere: m. Diſpraiſe, diſcommendation; diſparagement; reprehenſion, blame.

Vitupere: m. ée: f. Vituperated; diſpraiſed; blamed.

Vituperer. To vituperate, dispraise, discommend; reproach, disparage, dishonour, blame, reprehend, find fault with.

Vitupereur: m. A dispraiser, discommender; disparager, disgracer; blamer, fault-finder.

Vitus. whence, Mal S. Vitus. Looke Mal.

Vivace: com. Liuelie, lustie, strong, vigorous; nimble, actiue, quicke; full of life, mettall, spirit; also, of long life.

Vivacité: f. Viuacitie, liuelinesse, lusline ße, vigor, strength; spirit, mettall; actiuitie, quickneße, nimblenesse; iollitie, gaynesse of humor.

Vivacité d'esprit. Wittinesse, quickneße of apprehension, sharpnesse of conceit.

Vivandier: m. A Victualler, Suttler, Prouaunt-men.

Vivant: m. whence, De son vivant. In his life-time, while he liued.

Vivant: m. ante: f. Liuing, breathing, aliue, in life.

Homme vivant mourant. Looke Homme.

Vive: f. The Quauiuer, or sea-Dragon.

Vivelle: f. A huge kind of Whall in the Indian seas.

Vivelote, ou Vivelotte; whence, Droict de v. The dower which is due to the widow of a Cottier, or tenant of Mainferme.

Vivement. Liuelily, quickly, lightly, sprightfully, vigorously.

Vivenote, ou Vivenotte. as Vivelote, &c.

Vivifiant: m. ante: f. Quickning, life-giuing.

Vivifier. To quicken, or giue life vnto.

Vivifique: com. Which quickeneth, or giueth life.

Vivoter. To liue poorely, barely, needily, or but from hand to mouth; to make hard shift for a liuing; to keepe the wolfe from the dore.

Vivre: m. A liuing, meanes, maintenance; meat, food, sustenance; any thing whereon we feed, or liue.

Vivres. Victualls; acates.

Quint de vivre naturel. See Quint.

Les vivres suivent l'host: Prov. Victualls follow the Campe; where store of companie is victualls will be.

Vivré: m. ée: f. (in Blason;) Il fortoit d'or à la bande vivrée d'argent. A bend Viurie.

Vivre. To liue, haue life, be aliue; to lead, or spend a life; to breath.

Vivre en beste. (In the Prouerbe, Tenez chaud le pied & la teste, au reste vivez en beste;) to eat moderately, or no more then will serue the turne.

Vivre à la Carlonne. To vse a homelie, rude, or plaine course of proceeding; to liue grossely or plainly, to deale open-heartedly.

Vivre à discretion. To liue at what rate they list, to pay for their dyet what they list.

Vivre par estapes. Looke Estape.

Vivre à ses heures. To liue regularly, to keepe a temperate, or set dyet; to prescribe to himselfe a certaine forme of, or time for, his ordinarie feeding.

Se vivre. In stead of, se paistre. To feed, or victuall, himselfe.

Assez ieune qui povrement vit: Pro. Enough he fasts that barely feeds.

Celuy sçait assez qui vit bien: Prov. He that liues well enough hath skill enough.

Il est bien fol qui cuide touiours viure: Prov. He that thinkes to liue euer is an Asse.

L'un meurt dont l'autre vit: Prov. That which preserues one man poysons another.

Qui vit à compte, il vit à honte: Pro. See Compte.

Qui a honte de manger a honte de vivre: Prov. Shame to eat, and ceasse to liue; A taxation of vnseasonable bashfullnesse, and not much vnlike our, Spare to speake and spare to speed.

Qui bien veut mourir bien vive: Prov. He that desires to dye, let him liue, well.

Qui plus vit plus a à souffrir: Pro. The longer life the greater griefe.

Viz: f. as Vis.

Vlceraire: f. Crowfoot; also, Horehound; (hearbes.)

Vlceratif: m. iue: f. Vlceratiue, vlcerating, vlcer-breeding.

Vlceration: f. An vlceration; a making or growing vlcerous, a drawing to an vlcer.

Vlcere: m. An vlcer; a raw scab; a running, or mattarie sore.

Vlcere ambulatif. Seeke Ambulatif.

Vlcerer. To vlcerate, exulcerate; exasperate; raise a blister; make a raw scab, draw to a running sore.

Vligineux: m. euse: f. Wet, plashie, sobbie, full of water; full soaked, or growne soft, by a long abode in water.

Vlmeau: m. A young Elme.

Vlne: f. An Ell, or fadome; also, a cubit.

Vlophone. A venomous glue, or clammie substance, made of Misseltoe berries: some call so the blacke Cameleon thistle, whose root is also venomous.

Vlpic: m. Great, or wild Garlick.

Vltime: com. Last, lag, finall, extreame; the furthest, or furthermost.

Vltion: f. A reuenging, auenging, taking vengeance of; a punishing.

Vlulement: m. A howling, or yelling.

Vmbelle de fenouil. The vmble, or the round tuft, or head wherein the seed thereof growes.

Vmbilic: m. The nauell, or middle, of.

Vmbilical: m. ale: f. Vmbilicall, belonging to the nauell; whence, Veine vmbilicale. Seeke Veine.

Vmble: m. The Geneua Trout, or Salmon; found in the Lakes of Sauoy.

Vmble chevalier. A kind of fresh-water Trout, or Salmon, bigger then the ordinarie Vmble.

Vmbragé, & Vmbrager. Looke Ombragé, & Ombrager.

Vmbre: f. as Ombre; also, an Omber, or Grayling; a fish (not much vnlike the Maigre.)

Vmbre de riviere. A big-bellied, sharp-nosed, toothlesse, delicate, and wholesome Trout, found in the lakes, and riuers of Auvergne, and Savoy.

Vmbrette: f. A little Omber, or Grayling fish.

Vmbrine: f. A great-eyed, round-tongued, small-toothed, and holesome sea-fish, which hath certaine barres ouercrosse her backe, and growing often to the bignesse of a Maigre, is sometimes taken for it.

Vmbroyer. To be in the shadow; also, to cast, or yeeld a shadow.

Vn: m. vne: f. One, a; In the plurall sometimes vsed for some; whence, Les vns; some of them; and, vnes verges; some rodds.

Deux pour vn. The Snyte-knaue; tearmed so, because two of them are worth but one good Snyte.

En avoir d'une. To be gulled, or to swallow a gudgeon.

Donner d'une. To tell a lye; to giue a lurch, or dry list; to gull, or make a foole of.

L'un portant l'autre. One with, or for another; good and bad together.

Commun n'est pas vn: Pro. See Commun.

Qui n'en a qu'un, n'en a point: Prov. (Meant of Cocks, Bulls, &c, and sometimes alledged by lasciuious women) as good haue none as haue no more but one.

Vnanime: com. Of one mind, heart, will, consent, accord; agreeing fully together.
Vnanimement. With one mind, &c; with full consent, or agreement.
Vnde. Looke Onde.
Vndé. as Ondé; also, in Blason, vndie, or wauie.
Vndecimestre. Of eleuen moneths.
Vndiculation: f. A wauing, or water-worke, in Imagerie, or caruing.
Vndimie: f. as Oedeme.
Vnguent. Looke Onguent.
Vnguenteux: m. euse: f. Full of oyntments, or salues; oylie, greasie, fattie.
Vni: m. ie: f. Iust, euen, equall, plaine; smooth; also, vnited, or ioyned together.
Vnicorne: f. An Vnicorne.
Vniement: m. An euenning, equalling, planing; a making iust, or leuell, with another.
Vniément. Equally, euenly, plainely, smoothly, iust one with another.
Vniesme: com. The first; the one, or onth.
Vniforme: com. Vniforme; of one forme, proportion, shape, or fashion.
Vniformement. Vniformely, with one order, in one manner.
Vniformité: f. Vniformitie; agreement in forme, proportion, shape, fashion, manner, order.
Vniment: m. An vniting, ioyning, or knitting together.
Vniment. With one accord.
Vnion: f. An vnion, or vnitie; a league, peace, consent, agreement, attonement.
Vnipare: com. Breeding, or bringing forth, but one at once.
Vnique: com. Single, singular, one, onelie, alone; entire; especiall.
Vniquement. Singly, singularly, entirely; chiefely, especially; onely, alone.
Vnir. To vnite, ioyne, annex or knit vnto, make one of.
Vnisonnant: m. ante: f. Sounding alike, according, or agreeing in sound, of one and the same sound.
Vnisonnement. All with one sound, voice, accord; in good harmonie.
Vnisson: f. An vnison; an one; an onelynesse, or lonelynesse; a single, or singlenesse.
Vnité: f. An vnitie, singlenesse, concord, agreement, attonement; an vnion, vniting, or ioyning of things together.
Vnivers. L'vn. The vniuerse, or vniuersall world.
Vniversel: m. elle: f. Vniuersall, common, generall, belonging to all.
Vniversellement. Vniuersally, generally, wholly, altogether.
Vniversité: f. Vniuersitie, vniuersalitie, generallnesse; also, an Vniuersitie.
Vnivoque: com. Simple, of one onely sence, or signification.
Vnziesme: m. An eleuenth; a rate, or proportion of eleuen.
Vnziesme: com. L'vn. The eleuenth in number.
Voarre: m. A glasse; or glaße.
Voarrerie: f. A Glaße-house.
Voarrier: m. A Glasier; or Glaße-maker.
Voarriere: f. A Glasse-window; also, as Voarrerie.
Vocable: m. A word, a tearme.
Vocabulaire: m. A Vocabularie, Dictionarie, world of words.
Vocal: m. ale: f. Vocall; belonging to, or consisting in, the voice; also, well-tuned, that maketh a distinct sound; and, resounding, or that hath a lowd voice.
Oiseau vocale. A bird which may be taught to speake.
Vocale: f. A vowell.
Vocalizé: m. ée: f. Vowelled, made a vowell.
Vocation: f. A vocation, a calling.
Vociferation: f. A vociferation, exclamation, braying, lowd crying.
Vociferer. To exclaime, bray, cry out, cry alowd.
Vociter. To call often.
Voeu: m. A vow, religious promise, deepe or deuout protestation.
Vogue: f. Vogue, sway, swindge; authoritie, power; a cleere passage, as of a ship in a broad sea.
Vne vogue de faveur de peu de durée. A geere of fauor, momentarie grace.
Voguement: m. A sayling forth, or forward; a parting or passing along vnder sayle.
Voguer. To sayle forth, or forward; to set sayle, hoyse vp sayles, put forth vnto the sea; to part or passe along vnder sayle.
Vogue avant. On a Gods name, on forward, on afore.
Vogue la gallere. See Gallere.
Voici. See here, looke here, behold here.
Voicture, & Voicturier. See Voiture, & Voiturier.
Voïe. See Voye.
Voïer. Looke Voyer.
Voilà. Looke, see, loe, behold, there.
Voilà ce que ie demande. Why thats the thing I aske.
Ie croy que voilà le plus propre. This is, as I thinke, the fittest.
Voilé: m. A Vayle; (vsed by Nunnes, widowes, or churched women;) also, a curtaine or other cloth to couer, or lay ouer, a thing.
Voile: f. The sayle of a ship; also, a sayle, or ship; whence, 200 voiles; 200 ships, or sayle of ships.
A voile desployée. With sayles displayed; hastily, speedily, furiously; with might and maine, as fast and as much as one can.
A voile rancade. See Rancade.
Friand à la voile. Navire friand à la voile. A ship that goes exceeding well and swiftly, an excellent sayler.
Donner (ou faire) voile à tous vents. To sayle with, or be carried by, euerie wind; to doe alwayes as others doe; also, to be transported by euerie windie motion of his owne vaine thoughts.
Faire voile. To set sayle, to make out to sea, &c.
Voilé: m. ée: f. Vayled; attired in, or couered with, a vayle; also, professed, as a Nunne; also, furnished with sayles.
Voiler. To vayle; to couer with, or attire in, a vayle; also, to make a Nunne of; also, to excuse, ouershadow, hide, conceale.
Voilier: m. ere: f. Of a sayle, hauing sayles.
Voir: m. Truth, a true tale or matter, sooth. (v.m.)
Voir. To see; Looke Veoir.
Voire. But, yea but; surely, certainely, verily, indeed; forsooth; also.
Voire Dea. (Ironically) yes forsooth, yea ywis, much, as though, in my tother hose.
Voire voirement s'il n'estoit point ainsi. As though forsooth it were not so; or by your fauor sir it was euen so.
Il s'est mocqué de moy, voire il m'a batu. He mocked me, yea and beat me to; or, he gaue me both quips and cuts, both mockes and stroakes, to boot.
Voirement. Surely, certainely, verily; forsooth; indeed.

Voirie: f. Iurisdiction, &c; as Iustice; whence;
Grande voirie. Meane Iurisdiction; or as, La moyenne Iustice; &, simple voirie. Base, or low Iurisdiction.

Voirie: f. A way, path, road, or street; also, the laystall of a towne; the place whereon all the dung, and filth of a towne is layed, or vnloaden; (In which sence it is much vsed plurally.)
Gens de voirie. Scauingers, dung-farmers, goldfiners.

Voiriefier. Allez voiriefier. A Parisien equiuocation vpon Allez vous y fier; trust to it if you list; and vsed in detestation of a filthie, or dunghill like thing.

Voirre: m. Glasse.
Voirre dormant. Looke vnder Dormant.

Voirré: m. ée: f. Glassie, of glasse.

Voirrier: m. A Glasier.

Voirriere: f. A glasse-window; glasse worke.

Voirrin: m. ine: f. Glassie, of glasse; also, transparent.

Voirrine: f. as Voirriere.

Voirrinier: m. A Glasier; a Glasse-maker; a worker in glasse.

Voise, voisent. Qu'il s'en voise; qu'ils s'en voisent. Let him, or them, goe.

Voisin: m. A neighbor.
Bien a en sa maison qui de ses voisins est aimé: Pro. He that hath neighbors loue liues well at home.
Bon aduocat mauvais voisin: Pro. The best Lawyer is the worst neighbor; those that know most are worst to dwell by.
Qui a bon voisin a bon matin: Pro. He that hath a good neighbor gets good words.
Tenir ne faut pour bon voisin vn ami de table, & de vin: Pro. Trencher friends are seldome good neighbors; they will feast it, but not fast it with you; or when your prouision fayles them, their companie fayles you.

Voisin: m. ine: f. Neighbouring, or neere vnto; hard by, not farre off; also, vcrie like vnto.

Voisinage: m. Neighbourhood, nighneße, neereneße.
En mauvais voisinage se loge on: Prov. The poorest swad affoords a pad: ill neighbours may be lodg'd among.

Voisinal: m. ale: f. Neighbouring, or neighbourlie.
Chemin voisinal. as vnder Chemin.
Tesmoings voisinaux. Which dwell neere the land, &c, in controuerße.

Voisinance: f. Neereneße, neighborhood.

Voisiné: m. Ceux du voisiné. The neighbors, or those that dwell thereabouts.

Voisine: f. A she neighbour; whence the Prouerb; Pour grasle que soit la geline, elle a besoing de sa voisine; The fattest henne within the coope, without good neighbours will soone droope.

Voisiner. To be neighbour, nigh, neere, or adioyning, vnto; also, to gossip it, or goe to visit neighbours.

Voistrer. Looke Veaurrer.

Voiture: f. Carriage, portage, fraight, loading; also, a load, Carre-full, or Cart-full.

Voituré: m. ée: f. Carried by Cart, &c.

Voiturer. To carrie by Cart, Waine, Wagon, &c.
Bien voiturer sa viande. Throughly to digest, (or, as we say, to shake downe) his meat by trauell, or exercise.

Voiturier: m. A Carrier (especially by Waine, or Wagon) a Waine-man, or Wagon-man.

Voix: f. A voyce; a sound, noise, tune, word, crie; a repercussion of th'aire; talke, bruit, report.
Avoir voix en chapitre. To be heard attentiuely and with respect; to be of authoritie, or beare some sway, in a publike assemblie.
Ie n'en ay eu vent, ny voix. I neuer heard the least word of it.

Vol: m. A flight, or flying; a quicke running, speedie passage, hastie course; also, a robbing, or stripping by the high-way side; also, a Lure, in Blason.
Le vol du chapon. Is by the customes of Clermont, Orleans, Berri, le Perche, Blois, Romorantin, Leuroux, & Trembleui, an Arpent; by those of Chasteauneuf, an Arpent and a halfe; by those of S. Aignan, Chabris, & Auvergne, a Iesterée; and by those of Anjou, and le Maine 320 single paces, of the ground lying next vntō, or about, a Gentlemans Mannor house, or principall messuage; with which (in default of a competent garden) it euer falls vnto the share of the eldest heire.

Volage: com. Light, giddie, shittle-headed; inconstant, fickle, humorous; flitting; shallow-braind, inconsiderate, rash.
Appel volage. Looke Appel.
Rente volage. A rent raised of, or purchased for, money.

Volagement. Lightly, giddily, inconstantly, fickly; humorously; rashly.

Volageté: f. Lightnesse, giddinesse; humorousnesse, inconstancie, ficklenesse; inconsideration, rashnesse.

Volant: m. The sea-Bat, or Rere-mouse of the sea; a flying fish; also, the sayle of a Windmill; (also, a cloke; and a Capon, or other peece of Pullein; in the language of Rogues; also, a Shittlecocke.)

Volant: m. ante: f. Flying, swiftly-passing, fast running; momentarie, flitting; subiect to remoue often, or to frequent remoues.
Camp volant. A flying campe, a campe of light-horsemen for ordinarie roades.
Pont volant. The ladder of a ship.
Rente volant, ou volante. A Rent-seck, rent-charge; or, any rent thats raised of, or bought for, money.

Volante: f. A loose Ierkin, or Cassock, a Mandilion.

Volatil: m. ile: f. Flying; fleeting, or flitting.

Volatiliser. To fly, flicker, flit, wauer.

Vole: f. The palme, or hollownesse of an halfe-open hand; the ioint, or muscle vnder the thumbe.

Volé: m. ée: f. Fled; also, robbed, pilled, spoyled.

Volée: f. A flight, or flying; also, a whole flight, flocke, or companie of birds; and, a brood of fowle of one season.
A la volée. Rashly, vnaduisedly, inconsiderately; at randome, at rouers, at all aduentures, euen as it chaunces, falls out, happens.
Perdre la volée pour le bond. To loose, or let slip, an opportunitie, in hope that it will returne.
Que de bond que de volée. More by meere hap then any good cunning; or, by one course or another, what by one meanes and another.
Meschante parole iettée va par tout à la volée: Pro. See Parole.

Volement: m. A flying; fleeting, flitting; speedie running, swift passing.

Le Voler. A certaine tricke vsed in prisons for the drawing of drinking money from new-come guests.

Voler. To flye; take a flight, be on wing; runne swiftly, passe away quickly; fleet, or flit speedily; also, to reb, rifle, strip, despoyle of all.
Voler à faulte. A hawke to loose, or misse her flight.
Voler de haute aile; & voler sans ailes. Looke Aile.

Ie

Ie ne vole point ſur la gorge. I vſe not to exerciſe preſently after meat.

Faire bourre voler. To play much at Tennis; alſo, to vſe much any coſtlie game, or paſtime.

Tel penſe voler qui ne ſçauroit bouger : Prov. Looke Bouger.

Volerie : f. A robberie; robbing, ranſacking; a violent road wherein all goes to wracke; alſo, a place ouer a ſtage which we call the Heauen.

Volet : m. A cloth ſpread on the ground for the picking of corne; alſo, a ſhut, or woodden window to ſhut ouer a glaſſe one (as Contre-feneſtre;) alſo, a flight, or light ſhaft; alſo, a ſhittle-cocke; alſo, a boord, or planke.

Eſleus, & choiſis comme beaux pois ſur le volet: &, Triez ſur le volet. Choice peeces, picked ſtuffe.

Voleter. To flicker, or flutter; to flie thicke, moue the wings often; wauer with the wings.

Voleur : m. A flier; alſo, a robber, or highway theefe; & an inroder, or a road-maker.

Voleuſe : f. A woman that flies; or robbes.

Volier : m. A great cage, or coope wherein birds haue roome ynough to flutter.

Voliere : f. as Volier; or (more generally) a cage, or coop for fowle; alſo, a Doue-coat ſtanding on pillers; therein differing from Colombier à pied; and of a meaner qualitie (or for meaner perſons) then it.

Vollatiliſer. See Volatiliſer.

Voller. To get neuer a tricke, at cards : ¶Rab.

Volliere. as Voliere.

Volontaire : com. A voluntarie; one that ſerues, or does any thing, without pay, or compulſion.

Volontaire : com. Voluntarie, willing, free, of it ſelfe, of his owne accord; alſo, prone, readie, forward, apt to thinke, or execute a thing put into his head; alſo, wilfull, that does what likes him beſt, or whatſoeuer comes in his head.

Volontairement. Voluntarily, willingly, promptly, readily, freely, without procurement or compulſion, of his owne accord.

Volonté : f. The will, mind, liſt; heart, conſent, meaning, affection, humor, deſire.

Bonne volonté. Willingneſſe, freenеſſe, readineſſe, owne accord or good will; alſo, abſolute will and pleaſure; whence, Ie me rends, faites de moy voſtre bonne volonté : viz. Whatſoeuer you thinke good.

A la mienne volonté, que. I would to God, or I pray God, that.

Volonteux : m. euſe : f. Wilfull, ſelfewillie, wedded to his will; ſwaied by the throng, or caried by the ſtreame, of his owne (intemperate) humors.

Volontiers. willingly, readily, freely, gladly, at eaſe, with delight.

Voltant : m. ante : f. Bounding, curuetting; alſo, turning.

Volte : f. A round; or turne; and thence, the bounding turne which cunning riders teach their horſes; alſo, a Tumblers gamboll, or turne; whence;

Volte en arriere. A backe turne; a ierking, or wheeling backward, lighting againe on the feet; and, Volte en avant; (the contrarie) a turning ouer forward.

Prendre la volte de Londres, &c. To goe to Londonwards, or towards London.

Volter. To vault, or tumble; alſo, to bound, or curuet; alſo, to turne, or make turne.

Voltigeant : m. ante : f. Vaulting, or tumbling; alſo, curuetting, or managing in a (narrow) circle.

Voltigement : m. A vaulting, or tumbling; alſo, a curuetting, or managing in round.

Voltiger. To vault, or tumble; alſo, to curuet, or manage in a (narrow) circle.

Voltoline : f. The name of a vine.

Volubilité : f. Volubilitie; an eaſie rolling, or glib turning; and thence, vnſteadineſſe, or an inconſtant mouing.

Voluble : f. Withiwind, Bindweed, Roapweed.

Voluble : com. Voluble; eaſily rolled, turned, or tumbled; Hence, fickle, inconſtant, variable, wauering, often flitting, or changing; and, glib, nimble, rolling, alwayes running, euer turning.

Volume : m. A volume, tome, booke, or ſeuerall part of a booke; alſo, the bulke, ſize, quantitie, or largeneſſe of a thing.

Voluntaire, & Voluntairement. See Volontaire, & Volontairement.

Volunté : f. as Volonté.

Volupté : f. Pleaſure, voluptuouſneſſe, ſenſualitie, worldlie delight.

Voluptuëuſement. Voluptuouſly, ſenſually.

Voluptuëux : m. ëuſe : f. Voluptuous, fleſhlie, ſenſuall, carnall, wholly deuoted to worldlie delights.

Volute : f. The rolling ſhell of a Snayle; alſo, the writhen circle, or curle tuft that hangs ouer, or ſticks out of the chapter of a piller, &c; and is tearmed by our workmen a Rowle, Cartridge, or Carthouſe.

Vomique : f. la vom. A ſecret, and daungerous impoſtumation full of matter.

Vomique : com. Vomiting; whence, Noix vomique; the vomiting nut, or fruit; See Noix.

Vomir. To vomit, ſpue, caſt, parbreake.

Vomiſſement : m. A vomiting, or ſpuing.

Vomitif : m. A Vomitiue, or Vomitorie; any thing that prouokes vomiting.

Vomitoire : m. as Vomitif.

Vorace : com. Rauenous, deuouring, ſwallowing, glutonous, conſuming.

Voracité : f. Voracitie, rauening, gluttonie, deuouring, ſwallowing, exceſſiue or greedie feeding.

Vorage : m. A gulfe, whirlepoole, quagmire; a ſwallowing or vnſaciable depth.

Vortillement des fleuves. as Vortillons.

Vortillons : m. The eddie, whirling, round turnings in a ſtreame.

Vos. the plurall to Voſtre.

Voſtre : com. Your, yours, belonging to you.

Vote : m. A vow.

Vou : f. A daughter in law, a ſonnes wife : ¶Gaſc.

Vouade. as Bouade.

Vouchement : m. A vouching in law.

Voucher. To vouch; to cite, pray in aid, or call vnto aid, in a ſuit : ¶Norm.

Voüé : m. ée : f. Vowed; religiouſly promiſed, or proteſted; alſo, giuen, bequeathed, betaken, or deuoted, vnto.

Voüer. To vow; promiſe or proteſt; alſo, to giue, bequeath, betake, or deuote vnto; whence, Voüer au Diable, &c.

Voüer arbre à arbre. To ioyne, or glue tree to tree, boord vnto boord, &c.

Voüerie : f. as Voirie; Juriſdiction.

Voüeur : m. A wooer, or ſuter vnto a woman.

Vouge : m. A Hunting, or Hunters, ſtaffe; a Boores ſpeare.

Voulant. Bien vo. Well-willing, friendlie or affectionate, vnto.

Voulceure : f. A vaulting, arching, bowing, crooking; or, a vault, arch, bought.

Voulenteux. as Volenteux.

Vouloir: m. A will, mind, fancie, affection, humor; wish, desire; meaning, purpose, intent.

Vouloir. To will; couet, wish, desire; meane, mind, purpose, intend.

En vouloir. whence; A qui en voulez vous? What ayles you? who hurts you? or, whom doe you stomacke? who haue you a quarell to? with whom doe you meane to brabble? Sometimes also the contrarie; as, l'heur vous en veut; fortune fauours you; (but in this sence it is not often vsed.)

Dieu le vueille. God grant, God send it, or I pray God it fall out so.

Ie le veux bien. With all my heart; I am well content, or pleased withall.

Il ne nous donne qui ne veut. No man is constrained to giue vs; any man may chuse whether he will giue vs or no; The like is; Il y va veoir qui veut; He that will, he that hath a mind to it, any one, may goe and see it.

Si les dez ne vous veulent. If the dice runne not to your mind, on your side; or as you would haue them.

Que veut le Roy ce veut la Loy: Prov. The Law makes good her Princes expositions.

Qui quand il peut ne veut, quand il veut il ne peut: Prov. Looke Pouvoir.

Qui tard veut ne veut: Prov. A delay imports a deniall; and he that driues one off with words, doth meane to let him haue nought but words.

Voultie: f. Th'authoritie which a father and mother haue ouer their child; also, the house, or dwelling of a father.

Voulsure: f. as Voulceure.

Voulte: f. A vault, or arch; also, a vaulted, or embowed roofe.

Voulté: m. ée: f. Vaulted, arched; bowed, or bending on all sides downeward; also, crooke-backed, or hulch-backed.

Voulter. To vault, arch, bow; crooke, or bend (on all sides) downeward.

Voulteur: m. A maker of vaults, or of arches.

Voultis: m. The seeling of a roome.

Voulture: f. A vaulting, or arching.

Voulu. willed, wished; coueted, fancied, desired, affected; meant, intended, purposed.

Vous. You.

Vousſé: m. ée: f. Vaulted, arched.

Vousure: f. as Voulture.

Voute. as Voulte.

Voutoyé: m. ée: f. Vaulted, arched, bowed.

Voutrer. Looke Veautrer.

Vouture: f. as Voulture.

Voyable: com. Visible, perceiuable, seeable, subiect vnto the view.

Voyage: m. A voyage, iourney, peregrination; also, (among Diers) a heating, or copper-full, of liquor.

Voyagement: m. A voyaging, trauelling, iourneying.

Voyager. To trauell, iourney, goe a voyage.

Voyager en Cornoüaille. To be a cuckold; or to haue his head horne-grafted at home while his feet are plodding abroad.

Voyagere: f. A trauelling, or way-faring woman.

Voyageur: m. A trauceller, a way-faring man.

Voyant. Viewing, seeing, perceiuing, beholding.

Voy-cy. Looke, see, behold, here.

Voye: f. A way, path; street, causey; properly such a one as is about 16 foot broad; also, a meane, manner, fashion; order, course, rule, method; also, the cartiage or portage of a thing; also, a load, or cart-full of; and, in the plurall (Voyes) the view, or foyting of a Stag; whence;

Courir vn cerf sur les voyes; Dogs to hunt, or pursue a Stag, with noses to ground.

Par voye. as à clere-voyes; or so farre set asunder that one may easily looke betweene them.

Par voye de faict. Looke Faict.

Tout d'une voye. All at once; or, all vnder one.

Accueillir sa voye vers. To trauell, wend, or goe, towards.

Mettre en voye. To set packing, going, or agate; to put forward, or into the way.

Il ne va pas du tout à honte qui de demye voye retourne: Prov. Himselfe with shame he will not staine to goe, that hath turn'd backagaine; he that hath once a course abandond hath not the face againe to stand on't.

Voyelle: f. A vowell.

Voyer: m. A Surueyer, or Ouerseer of highwayes, (and punisher of the offences committed therein;) also, the Surueyor of the publicke workes, and buildings belonging to a towne, who, in some places, likewise appoints meeres and bounds vnto bordering lands; and orders the lights, gutters, and smkes of neighbouring houses; and limits vnto those that build in a street, their ground and scope of iutting; and lookes that the streets, and highwayes be not straitned, or incombered by stalls, seats, stayres, shoring of houses, &c; and lastly, Scauinger-like, giues order that they be made cleane: Also, a Gentleman that hath some Iurisdiction (though not altogether so much as the Iusticier) within his territorie; whence;

Gros voyer. as Moyen Iusticier; &, Simple voyer. as Le bas Iusticier.

Le grand Voyer de France. The great Surueyor of France; is but a meane Officer, how great soeuer this title, or the person that holds it, be.

Voyerie: f. Iurisdiction; whence, Grande Voyerie; as La moyenne Iustice; (vnder Iustice;) &, Simple voyerie; Base, or low Iurisdiction.

Voyes d'vn cerf. Looke Voye.

Voy-là. See, looke, behold, there.

Voyrement. Surely, verily, indeed, forsooth.

Voyrie. as Voyerie.

Voyture, & Voyturier. as Voiture, & Voiturier.

Vpe: f. The bird called a Whoope, or dunghill Cocke.

Vrac. Hareng vrac. A Herring well seasoned, and seasonably imbarrelled.

Vranopetes. Goers to heauen: ¶Rab.

Vraque. The pipe, or passage whereby a wombe-infants vrine is carried from it.

Vraques. The name of certaine ropes, or tackling, which belong vnto sayles.

Vray: m. A truth; whence;

A vray dire perd on le ieu: Prov. The faireſt gamester alwayes looseth most: he that to Truth himselfe a prentise ties, will speed worse then the knaue that voseth lyes.

Beau service fait amis vray dire ennemis: Prov. Faire service friends, true plaineneße foes, procures.

Tout vray n'est pas bon à dire: Prov. All that is true is not to be told.

Vray: m. vraye: f. True, vnfained, sooth, iust, right; sure, certaine, vndoubted; vnfoisted, vnmingled, naturall, of it selfe.

Ce sont les pires bourdes que les vrayes: Prov. The trueſt are the worſt (because the bittereſt) ieasts.

Vraybis; & Vraybot. for Vrayement.

Vrayement. Truely, in truth, in sooth, indeed, verily, certainly, surely, iustly, rightly, vnfainedly, in good faith.

C'est vrayement bien dict à toy. Thou hast hit the naile on the head; thou hast now strucken it dead; (Ironically.)

Ouy vrayement. Yea sure, true Roger, wisely brother Timothie; (Ironically; yet is it vsed sometimes otherwise; as in) Ouy vrayement ie le nie; Yea truly, or, for my part, I denie it vtterly.

Vrayſemblable: com. Probable, likelie, like or seeming to be true.

Vrayſemblance: f. Probableneße, or likeneſſe of truth.

Vrbain: m. Vrban; a proper name for a man.

Vrbanie: f. as Vrbanité.

Vrbanité: f. Vrbanitie, ciuilitie, courteſie, affabilitie, gentleneſſe; good behauiour, ſeemelie carriage, a handſome faſhion, a comelie grace, a prettie and pleaſant manner of ordinarie diſcourſe.

Vrbec: m. The Vine-fretter, or Diuells Gold-ring; a worme.

Vrderis. as Verdegris.

Vre: m. The huge-bodied, hulch-backed, ſhort-horned, and red-eyed wild Oxe, called the Vre-oxe.

Vreder. To runne haſtily.

Vrelepingue: m. A drinke-ſpiller: ¶Rab.

Vreniller. To piſſe, or void vrine: ¶Rab.

Vrge. in ſtead of Vrne: ¶Rab.

Vrgent: m. ente: f. Vrgent, vrging; hard or ſore preſſing, ſtraining, forcing, importunate, earneſt.

Vrille: f. A Gimlet, or Piercer.

Vrilles: f. Hooke-like edges, or ends of leaues (called by ſome of our workemen Scrolls, and) ſticking out in the vpper parts of pillers, and of other peeces of Architecture.

Vrillonner vne cable. To coyle a cable, to wind or lay it vp round, or in a ring.

Vrinaire: com. Of, or belonging to, vrine; alſo, vrinall-like.

Vrinal: m. An Vrinall; alſo, a Jordan, or Chamber-pot.

Vrinal: m. ale: f. Of vrine.

Vrine: f. Vrine, lant, ſtale, chamber-lye, piſſe.

Ie voudrois bien voir de leur vrine. I would gladly ſee what there is in them, what ſtuffe they be made of, or what they are able to doe.

Vriner. To vrine, piſſe, make water, ſtale.

Vriner vne cable. To coyle a cable.

Vrineux: m. euſe: f. Full of vrine; ſauoring, or ſmelling of vrine.

Vrinier: m. A conduit paſſing to the middle of the nauell, and carrying away the vrine of an infant while it is in the wombe.

Vris: m. A rime, or white froſt vpon trees.

Vrne: f. A narrow-necked pot, or pitcher of earth, to fetch, or keepe water in; alſo, a veſſell wherinto the Roman Pretor did put the names of ſuch as were to be elected, or tried, by lot; alſo, a coffin, or veſſell wherein the aſhes of the dead were preſerued.

Vroesne. The hearbe Woodbind.

Vrſin: m. The ſea Vrchin; ſo called about Marſeille.

Vrſin: m. ine: f. Beare-like; of a Beare.

Vſage: m. Vſage; vſe, wearing, imployment, occupation, fruit, profit, poßeſſion; alſo, woont, cuſtome, guiſe, manner, faſhion; and, practiſe, exercise, experience, habit, enurement; acquaintance, familiaritie, conuerſation with; alſo, intereſt, or vſurie; alſo, a right of Paſture, and Pawnage, & of taking wood for neceſſarie vſes, in a foreſt belonging to the King, or ſome other Lord; This Right is enioyed by diuers, and in diuers manners; for ſome may take timber for their building; others haue onely fire-boot, and hedge-boot; ſome take it throughout the foreſts, and as much as they need; others are limited both place, and quantitie: Some hold it as a fief; others by rent, or Cens; laſtly, ſome haue it onely for their liues; and others but for yeares; Howſoeuer, they can neither ſell, giue, transferre, nor paſſe ouer, in any manner, that which they haue.

Vſages. Common paſtures, woods, or vnderwoods; (Rabelais vſes (or his Printer miſuſes) this word for Vaſes.)

Vſager: m. as Vſagier.

Vſager: m. ere: f. Common, for euerie bodies vſe; whence;

Femme vſagere. A common whoore.

Vſagier: m. A cuſtomarie tenant.

Vſagier de bois. One that hath common of Paſture, Pawnage, or wood for his neceſſarie vſes, in another mans wood; as in Vſage.

Vſance: f. Vſance, vſe, vſage.

Vſé: m. ée: f. Vſed, occupied, worne, imployed; poſſeſſed, enioyed; waſted, conſumed; accuſtomed, practiſed, enured.

Vſement: m. A vſe, vſing, vſage, guiſe, cuſtome; alſo, a wearing, poſſeſſing, waſting, conſuming.

Vſer. To vſe; to weare, occupie, imploy; waſt, conſume, ſpend; accuſtome, practiſe, exerciſe, enure vnto; poſſeſſe, enioy, take the vſe, reape the profit, of.

Vſer de force. To deale by force, to take by violence.

Vſer de redictes. To repeate or iterate the ſame things often.

Vous n'en deuſsiez vſer ainſi en mon endroit. You ſhould not handle, or deale with, me ſo; you ſhould not beare your ſelfe towards me in that manner.

Vſité: m. ée: f. Vſuall, cuſtomable, common, ordinarie; vſed, wonted, accuſtomed, practiſed, exerciſed, skilfull, cunning, experienced in.

Vſiter. To vſe, practiſe, accuſtome, enure, exerciſe, trade in.

Vſucaption: f. Three yeares poſſeſſion in a Moueable (which in Law counteruayles a preſcription;) or more generally, any preſcription, or long poſſeſſion; or the winning of a thing thereby.

Vſuelles: f. Paſtures, and wooddie grounds, belonging in common vnto diuers townеſhips.

Vſufructuaire. as Vſufruictier.

Vſufruict: m. The vſe, and profit (but not the property) of goods, with th'owners conſent.

Vſufruictier: m. One that hath the vſe, and reapes the profit, of a thing, whereof the propertie reſteth in another.

Vſuraire: com. vſurious; taken, or giuen for intereſt or vſe.

Vſure: f. The wearing or occupation of a thing; alſo vſurie, vſe, intereſt.

Vſurier: m. An Vſurer.

Vſurpateur: m. An vſurper of, an incroacher on, another mans right.

Vſurpation: f. An vſurpation, or vſurping; an vniuſt, or often vſing.

Vſurpatrice. An vſurpatrix; a woman that vſurpeth.

Vſurpé: m. ée: f. vſurped; often, or vniuſtly vſed.

Vſurper. To vſurpe; to ſeiſe, or incroach on, another mans right; alſo, to vſe much, often to mention.

Vtagues; or Vtaques: as Eſtaques. ¶Rab.

Vtenſile: m. An vtenſile; any implement, neceſſarie, vſefull vſefull toole, or houſhold ſtuffe.

Vtenſilé. Bien vten. Throughly furniſhed with vtenſiles.

Vterin: m. ine: f. Of the bellie or wombe; of one and the ſame wombe or bellie; borne of one mother, or damme.

Herbes vterines. Hearbes which be good for the Mother.

Vtile: com. Gainefull, beneficiall, profitable, commodious, aduantagious; alſo, expedient, neceſſarie, ſeruiceable, good, conuenient.

Vtile domaine. Th'eſtate of a vaſſall in th'inheritance which he holds of his Lord; ſo tearmed becauſe hee hath onely a profitable, not a direct, intereſt in it.

Seigneur vtile. An occupant, or occupier of land; he that poſſeſſes, and receiues the fruits of, an inheritance, for which rent, or Cens, are payed, or ſeruices done.

Seigneurie vtile. The vſe, occupation, or poſſeſſion of a fief, or inheritance.

Vtilement. Profitably, gainefully, beneficially, commodiouſly; with great aduantage, to good purpoſe.

Vtilité: f. Vtilitie, commoditie, profit, gaine, benefit, cheuiſſance, aduantage.

Vtopie: f. An imaginarie place, or countrey.

Vtrin. as Vterin.

Vuaine: f. A ſheath: ¶Pic.

Vuan: m. A gloue: ¶Pic.

Vuaranion. as Garagnon; (an old word.)

Vuard: &, Vuarder. as Gard; &, Garder: ¶Pic.

Vuareſque: m. A wrecke, or ſhip caſt away; or the right of Admiraltie, whereto it belongs.

Vuariſons. Adveſtures, & vvar. Corne, graſſe, or other fruits growing, or ſtanding; or vncut, vngot, vngathered.

Vuarlouque: com. Squint eyed, skenning, askew-looking: ¶Pic.

Vuaudrée: f. A maulkin, or the clowt wherewith an Ouen is made cleane: ¶Pic.

Vuayves: f. Waiſes; caſualties; things which be left, abandoned, eſcheated, or vnowned.

Vvedde. Weld, Woad, garden or tame Woad: ¶Pic.

Vvée. Membrane Vvée. The grapie membrane of the eye; Looke Membrane.

Vueil. as Vouloir; Will.

Vuel. See Venel.

Vuele. as Veule in the later ſence.

Vuerp: m. A deliuering, or giuing ouer vnto; alſo, a duetie of 12 d. Pariſ. paied by a purchaſer vnto the Sherifes for their preſence when poſſeſſion is, by the ſeller, deliuered vnto him.

Vuerpi: m. ie: f. Deliuered, yeelded, or giuen ouer vnto.

Vuerpir. To deliuer, yeeld, or giue ouer vnto.

Vueuil; ou, Vueul. as Vouloir; Will.

Vuidange: m. A voidneſſe, emptineſſe, inanitie, vacuitie; a voyding, emptying, euacuation, eiection; alſo, the deciſion of a controuerſie.

Vuidanges d'une ville. The layſtall of a towne; or the place wherein Scauengers, and Gold-finders emptie their filthie carts.

Vuidangier: m. ere: f. Emptying, voyding, euacuating.

Vuide: m. A waſt; a void, or emptie ſpace; a wide, or vaſt roome.

Vuide: com. Void, emptie, waſt, vaſt, wide, hollow; deuoyd, without, free of, exempt from, not combered or troubled with.

'A baſt vuide. Looke Baſt.

Vuides chambres font les Dames folles: Pro. Womens freedome breeds their follie; when they are left alone all modeſtie is gone.

De mains vuides prieres vaines: Prov. They that giue nought get nought; th'emptie-handed pray in vaine.

Le plat du bas eſt touſiours le premier vuide: Pro. The loweſt diſh is euermore firſt emptie; (belike becauſe it is (moſt commonly) furniſhed the worſt, and fed on the beſt.)

Vuidé: m. ée: f. Voyded, emptied, euacuated; exhauſted; purged, cleanſed; hollowed; auoyded; alſo, decided, determined, diſpatched, made an end of; alſo, drawne, as Pulleine, &c.

Ce point ſera tantoſt vuidé. Will quickly be reſolued, or cleered.

Vuide-main: m. A quitting, yeelding, rendering, or giuing vp of.

Vuidement: m. A voyding, emptying, euacuating; exhauſting; hollowing; purging, cleanſing; deciding, determining, diſpatching, ending.

Vuider. To void, euacuate, emptie; exhauſt, hollow; purge, cleanſe; auoyd; alſo, to cleere, determine, decide, reſolue, diſpatch; rid of, make an end of.

Vuider ſes mains. To yeeld, render, giue vp, deliuer ouer; quit, rid his hands of; alſo, to pay readie money for things bought publickly, or aſſigned by publicke Order.

Vuider la maiſon, ou meſtairie. A tenant, or farmer to goe out of, or giue vp, againſt his will, the tenement he tooke, or thought to haue kept, for a longer time.

Vuider les poulets. To draw them, to draw out their guts.

Vuideté: f. Voidneſſe, emptineſſe, hollowneſſe; inanitie, vacuitie, euacuation.

Vuideur: m. A voyder, emptier, euacuater.

Vuideure: f. as Vuidement.

Vuiho: m. as Cocu: ¶Pic.

Vuilles: f. The tendrells, or twining ſprigs, of vine-branches.

Vulgaire: m. A kind of great mall, or hammer wherewith, in old time, gates were broke open.

Vulgaire. le vul. The vulgar, common people, many-headed multitude.

Vulgaire: com. Vulgar, common, publicke; ordinarie, triuiall, vſuall, or much vſed.

Vulgairement. Vulgarly, commonly; ordinarily, triuially.

Vulgal. whence; vif argent vulgal. The baſeſt kind of Quickſiluer, made of dung and bay.

Vulneraire: com. Vulnerarie, healing wounds, belonging vnto wounds.

Vulpin: m. ine: f. Fox-like, of a Fox.

Vulturne: m. The North-eaſt wind.

Vulve: f. The wombe-pipe, or priuie paſſage; the way, or entrance into the wombe; alſo, the matrix, mother, or wombe it ſelfe.

Vvule: f. The Vvula, or palate of the mouth.

Vuydange. as Vuidange.

Vuyde: Vuydé; &, Vuydement. as Vuide: Vuidé; &, Vuidement.

Vuyder; &, Vuydeté. Looke Vuider; &, Vuideté.

Vyt. as Vit.

Vytaut; &, Vytte. as Vitaut; &, Vitte.

Vz: m. Vſe, vſage, cuſtome, woont.

X

Xenomanes. ¶Rab. A traueller.
Xilaloë. Lignum Aloes.
Xilobalſame: m. The wood of the Balſame tree.

Y

Y. (A Relatiue, or Aduerbe of Relation) vnto him, it, or them; thereto, or thereunto; alſo, there, or thither.
Dieu vous y aide. (To one that ſneezeth) God bleſſe you.
Ie ne ſçauroy que vous y faire. I ſhould not know how to helpe you, or what to doe for you, in it.
Il y a eſté trois iours. He hath beene three dayes about it.
Il ſe nommoit Philippus, & y fut ſouvent appellé. And was often called ſo.
Puis que piſſeurs y a: (&, Puis que de nos marottes y a. Seeing that we are ſpeaking of piſſers, &c.
Yeble: m. Wallwort, Danewort, Dwarfe Elderne.
Yeoſe. as Yeuſe.
Yeuſe. The Holme Oke, barren Skarlet Oke, French Oke.
Yeux. (The Plurall to Oeil*) Eyes; Looke* Oeil.
Yf: m. The Yew tree.
Yimagé. Looke Imagé.
Ypreau: m. The Elme tree.
Yraigne. as Araigne.
Yſard: m. The Shamois, or wild Goat of whoſe skin Shamois leather is made.
Yſſé: m. ée: f. Hoiſed, lift vp.
Yſſer. To hoiſe, or lift vp.
Yſſir. To iſſue; to come, goe, or flow forth.
Yſſuë: f. An iſſue; going out, comming forth; alſo, as Iſſuë.
Yve: f. as Ive; alſo, (in old French) water.
Yver: m. Winter; Looke Hyver.
Yvernade: f. A wintering.
Yvernal: m. ale: f. Fit for, of or belonging to, the Winter.
Yverner. To winter, to ſpend or paſſe away the Winter; alſo, to dig, or dreſſe a vineyard in Winter.
Yvoire: m. Ivorie, Elephants tooth.
Yvoirin: m. ine: f. Of Ivorie, like Ivorie.
Yvraiſon: f. Drunkenneſſe; or, th'act of drunkenneſſe; (Yvrongnerie being the vice, or vſe thereof.)
Yvraye: f. The vicious graine called Ray, or Darnell.
Yvraye ſauvage. Red Darnell, wall Barlie, way Bennet.
Yvre: com. Drunken, cupſhotten, tipſie, whitled, fluſht, mellow, ouerſeene, whoſe cap is ſet, that hath taken a pot too much, that hath ſeene the diuell.
Yvre de laict caillé. Tipled by a ſmall matter; whoſe weake braine is diſtempered, or ouerturned, by weake drinke.
Yvre comme vne ſoupe. Looke Soupe.
Yvroſſe: f. Drunkenneſſe; alſo, as Yvrongneſſe.
Yvrongne: m. A drunkard.
A la trongne cognoiſt on l'yvrongne: Prov. A drunkard is by his rich face diſcerned.
Yvrongner. To be drunke, or to drinke drunke; to ſwill or carouſe vnmeaſurably.
Yvrongnerie: f. Drunkenneſſe; (the vice, cuſtome, or habit of drunkenneße.)
Yvrongneſſe: f. A drunken woman, a drunken ſow. Femme ſafre, & yvrongneſſe, de ſon corps n'eſt pas maiſtreſſe: Prov. We ſay, A drunken Tnuc hath no Porter.
Yvrongnet: m. ette: f. Somewhat drunken, ouerſeene, or too blame; a little out of the way.
Yvroye. as Yvraye.

Z

Zafre. A kind of exceeding drie ſand, or grauell; or as Safre.
Zagaye: f. A faſhion of ſlender, long, and long-headed Pike, vſed by the Mooriſh horſemen.
Zaguille. as Zagaye.
Zain: m. A horſe thats all of one (darke) colour, without any ſtarre, ſpot, or marke about him; and therby commonly vicious.
Zalas. Alas: ¶Rab.
Zanit: m. A Vice to a Tumbler, &c; or in a Play.
Zarzeparille: f. The medicinable plant called Zarzaparilla, or (corruptly) Saſſaparilla, and rough Bindweed of Peru.
Zebedée: f. A double Damaske Roſe.
Zec: m. Reed to thatch houſes with.
Zecchin: m. A Venetian coyne of gold, worth about 5 s. ſterl.
Zedoaire: f. The root of Anthora, or wholeſome wolues-bane, called alſo, Monkes-hood or Helmet-flower, and Aconits mithridate; And this doe ſome ſtile Zedoaire d'Auicenne: Others call worme-ſeed Semen Zedoarix, or Zedoar-ſeed.
Zedoaire de Serapion. An Eaſt-Indian root which reſembleth ginger, but is more bitter in taſt, and better in ſmell, then it, though not ſo ſtrong in either as it.
Zein as Zain.
Zelateur: m. A zealous, or iealous perſon.
Zelatif: m. iue: f. zealous, or iealous.
Zele: m. Zeale; earneſt affection, loue, enuy, emulation; extreme care, exceeding deſire to doe a thing.
Zelé: m. ée: f. Zealous, iealous; feruent, carneſt, or affectionate, in extremitie.
Zeler. To be zealous, or iealous of; to emulate, or enuy; to affect extremely; to haue an exceeding care of, or deſire vnto.
Zelotopie: f. Iealouſie.
Zelote: com. Iealous, or zealous.
Zelotype. com. as Zelote.
Zenith: m. Our Zenith; or the point of the firmament which is directly ouer our heads.
Zephyre: m. the Weſt-wind.
Zero: m. A Cypher in Arithmetick; a thing that ſtands for nothing; whence;
Se reduire au Zero. To bring himſelfe to th'wallet; to ruine his fortunes, to ſpend or conſume all.
Zeſt: m. The thicke skin, or filme whereby the kernell of a wall-nut is diuided.
Il ne vaut pas vn Zeſt. He is not worth a dodkin, ſtraw, ruſh, a pinnes head, the taking vp.
Zeſt. A voice reſembling, or expreſſing the noiſe made by a iert, ſtripe, yarke, thwack, &c.
Zibelline: f. The Sable Martin.

Zigo-

Zigome. The outward part, or end of the cheeke-bone towards the eare; ſo tearmed by the Anatomiſts of Paris.

Zimiech: m. A kind of Eagle which preyes vpon the Crane, and other leſſe fowle.

Zin; ou Zint. The twang, or twanging ſound of the ſtring of a hard-bent bow.

Zinzembre. Ginger.

Zinziberine: f. Powder of Ginger.

Zivette. Looke Civette.

Zizanie: f. Kay, Darnell.

Zizolin: m. Gingioline colour.

Zoaire. Looke Zedoaire.

Zodiaque: m. The Zodiacke; a broad circle in the firmament, in which the 12 Signes are placed, and vnder which the Planets moue.

Zoette: f. An Owle, or Howlet; called ſo about Avignon.

Zon: m. The whiske, or ſound of a ſwitch, rod, or wand; alſo, a iert, laſh, box, blow.

Zone: f. A girdle; alſo, a Zone; or, a certaine breadth from North to South, bounded out by ſome of the globes principall circles; Of theſe breadths there be fiue; one extreame hot and fierie; two moſt cold and euer frozen; and two which be, for the moſt part, mild and temperate, or betweene both.

Zoophore: m. A painted, or carued girdle, or border about a Porch, or Piller.

Zoophytes: m. Such things as be partly plants, & partly liuing creatures; as Spunges, &c.

Zoucet: m. The little water-fowle called a Dabchicke, or Die-dopper.

Zubelines. Martes zub. Sables.

Zummach. The Eagle that hath on her head, or backe, a kind of whiteneſſe; which is a certaine ſigne of her perfect goodneſſe.

FINIS.

Briefe Directions for ſuch as deſire to learne the French Tongue:

And firſt, of the Vowels, and Diphthongs.

A Is to be ſounded fully, as in this Engliſh word all; not as we ſound it in ſtale ale.

E, When it is thus accented é, whether in the middle or in the end of a word, is called é Maſculine, and ſounded out, as in the Latine word docére. Otherwiſe it is called e Feminine, and is to be ſounded imperfectly as the ſecond ſillable of Facere, Or as in this Engliſh ſpeech, Is he come? If two or three, e, be in the end of a word, the firſt are Maſculines, the laſt is e Feminine, as deſtinée, creée.

E, In the ſame ſillable before N or M is to be ſounded like a, as enfance, the firſt ſillable like the ſecond: Except mien, tien, ſien, bien, chien, rien, and ſome others; and enerver and the like, wherein e is not ſounded in the ſame ſillable with n.

I, Is to be ſounded like ee in Engliſh in feeble or meeke. So muſt you ſound amitié, &c.

O, Before N or M hath the ſound of oo in our Engliſh word Moone. So muſt you pronounce the French word mon, comme on dit, commencement, &c.

V, Is ſounded as if you would whiſtle it out, as in the word, a Lute.

I, and V, are conſonants when they are put before other vowells, as with the Latines, as jalouſie, vive le Roy. V alſo ſtanding before R is ſometimes a conſonant, as vray, not u-ray.

Dipthõgs. Ai — The Dipththong ai is to be ſounded as it is written, in the end of the Aoriſt of the firſt Coniugation, as j'aimay. Secondly, if a vowell follow it, as j'aye, ayons, ayant. Thirdly, if ll follow it, as toüaille. Otherwiſe it is alwayes ſounded like é Maſculine, as j'ay, j'aimeray, like j'é, j'émeré.

Ao — The Diphthong ao, in the word ſaoul, is to be pronounced Sou, by omitting the prepoſitiue vowell. But in theſe words paon, tahon, faon, the Subiunctiue vowell is omitted, and they are ſounded pan, tan, fan.

Au — The Diphthong au is to be ſounded like o, as we pronounce it in ſaying Pauls croſſe; ſo ſound aux paux like os pos.

Apoſtrophus. — Apoſtrophus taketh away a vowell out of a word of one ſillable, when it ſtandeth before another word beginning with a vowell; as, L'egliſe for la egliſe; L'obelon for le obelon; So we ſay S'il for ſi il.

Synalæpha — Synalæpha taketh away the ſound, but not the bodie, of e feminine before a word beginning with another vowell, as mon pere & ma mere ont diſné, read mon per & ma mer ont diſné. If a Verbe end in a or o, and il or on follow it, we put in the ſound of the letter t; as for parle il, parlet il, for dira on, dirat on.

Diæreſis — Diæreſis is when two points ouer a vowell diuide it from another vowell, as bouë, queuë, read bou-e, queu-e, not bo-ue, que-ue.

Of Conſonants.

The generall rule of Conſonants is, That if a word end in a conſonant, and the word following begin with another, the finall conſonant of the word going before is not to be ſounded, as tout ce qui luit n'eſt pas or, read it thus, tou ce qui luy ne pas or.

Except
1. The word end a liquide l, m, n, r, as mon pere, not mo pere. Howbeit l is not to be ſounded in the word il, as il faut, read it i faut.
2. The word end in c, as avec moy, not ave moy.
3. The word end in f, as le bœuf d'Angleterre.
4. The word end in g, as le ioug de Chriſt eſt legier.
5. The word end in q, as vn coq d'Inde.
6. There follow any point , ; : ? !.

C — C, With a taile thus ç is to be ſounded like s, as garçon, pieça, like garſon, pieſſa. Secondly ch is pronounced like ſh, as cheval like ſheval. Except in proper names, as Chanaan, and theſe figure appellatiues, Cholere, Chorde, Eſchole, Cichorée. Thirdly c before t is not to be ſounded, as faict, dicton, like fet, ditton.

Ch

G — G, Ioyned with n is to be ſounded through the noſe, as you ſound n in the Engliſh word oinion: So pronounce the French oignon, and Eſpagnol like Spaniard in Engliſh. Theſe ſyllables gua, gue, gui, are to be ſounded like ga, ge, gi, as in guaine, guerre, guiſe: Except the proper names Guiſe, Guillaume, and the Verbe Eſguiſer.

L — L, In the middeſt of a word is not to be ſounded, as aultre, oultre, like autre, outre. In the end of theſe words, ſol, mol, col, ſol, is to be ſounded like u, as ſou, mou, &c. If ll come after e or ai, it is to be ſounded like ll in the Engliſh word Scullion, or Collier. So muſt you ſound Sillon, toüaille, as though i were written after ll, Sillion, toüaillie.

M — M, In the end of words is to be ſounded like n, as nom, faim, dam, temps, like non, fein, dan, tans.

N — N, Is not to be ſounded in the third perſon plurall that endeth in ent, as ilz aiment, ilz parlent, read iz aimet, &c.

Q In qua, que, qui, is to be ſounded like ka, ke, ki; as quatre, querir, quiter; like katre, kerir, kiter.

R S R and S, in the beginning of words, or next vnto ſome other Conſonant, are to be ſounded out; more ſtrongly when they be double, as in guerre, and poiſſon; and as gently, ſingle, and betweene two vowells; as in guere, and poiſon; the tongue in the former giuing onely a touch to the palate, and ſounding the later as if it were a Z.

S, Preceding a Conſonant within a word, is either fully to be ſuppreſſed (as in the moſt naturall French words) or fully to be ſounded: As firſt in all proper names, as Auguſte, &c; Except in Baſle, the citie Baſil; Creſpin, Criſpinus; Chriſt, (although now the moſt pronounce the s in it) Eſcoſſe, Hieroſme; (whereunto Beza, and Bellot, adde Coſme, though it ſeeme by the ſame Analogie as fit to pronounce s in that from the word Κόσμος, as Eraſme from Ἐρασμος.)

Secondly, in all words ending in iſme; as Iudaiſme; except Abiſme, and the Deriuatiues thereof.

Thirdly, in names of Sects; as Atheiſte, Anabaptiſte, &c.

Fourthly, in all words that ſignifie the faſhion of people; as, A la Moreſque, Gregueſque, Barbareſque, &c.

And particularly in the words following (whereunto ſundrie others may be added, which comming from the Latine, retaine the Latine pronunciation.)

A

ACcoſter, when it ſignifieth to approach; but whē it ſignifieth to prop vp, the s is not to be ſounded.
Annaliſte.
Apoſter.
Apoſtolique; though in Apoſtre the s bee ſuppreſſed.
Apoſtume.
Artiſte.
Aſperges, & Aſperger.
Aſtres.
Atteſter.

B

Baſque.
Baſte.
Baſtille.
Baſtion.
Baſtonnades: and yet in Baſton the s is not to be ſounded.
Beſtialité; & Beſtiole; howbeit that in Beſtail, Beſte, & Beſtelette, the s bee not ſounded.
Birraſque.
Biſcaye.
Biſcuit.
Blaſphemer.
Boſquet.
Bruſque.

C

Cameriſtes.
Cauſtique.
Celeſte.
Chaſteté.
Circonſtance.
Ciſternes.
Cliſtere.
Coſtiller.
Conteſter.
Contreſcarpe.
Croteſque.

D

Damaſquiner.
Deſaſtre.
Debuſquer.
Deſeſperer.

E

Embuſcade.
Enregiſtrer.
Eſcabeau.
Eſcabreux.
Eſcalade.
Eſcamper.
Eſcarbillat.
Eſcarbot.
Eſcargot.
Eſcarlatin; yet in the word Eſcarlate the s is not ſounded.
Eſcarpins.
Eſcarcelle.
Eſcopeterie.
Eſcouade.
Eſpace.
Eſpece.
Eſperance.
Eſprit.
Eſquadron.
Eſtafier.
Eſtaſe.
Eſtamet.
Eſtimer.
Eſtocade.
Eſtomac.
Eſtrade.
Eſtradiots.
Eſtrapade.
Eſtropiat.
Evangeliſte.

F

Feſtin, but yet in Feſte you muſt not ſound s.

G

Gaſtadour.
Geſtes.
Gaſpiller.

H

Herboriſte.
Hiſtoire.

I

Improviſte.
Inceſte.
Inveſtiture, and yet in the Verbe Veſtir the s is not to be ſounded.
Iuriſtes.
Iuſques.
Iuſquiame.
Iuſtice.

L

Lanſquenets.
Legiſte.
Liſte.
Limeſtre.
Leſte.
Luſtre.

M

Maſque.
Maſtic.
Menſtrual.
Miniſtre.
Miſte.
Monſtre, when it ſignifieth a monſter: but when it ſignifieth a muſter of ſouldiors, the s is not ſounded.
Moſquet.
Moſquée.
Mouſtache.
Mouſtele.
Muſcade.
Muſcadet.
Muſc.
Muſcles.

N

Non obſtant.

O

Obeliſque.
Oſtade.

P

Penſioniſtes.
Paſtorelle; but in Paſtoureau, and Paiſtre, s is not to bee ſounded.
Paſquil.
Paſtel.
Paſtenades.
Peſte.
Piſteau.
Poſte.
Poſtillon.
Poſtiles.
Preſque; though Sereius doth not pronounce s.
Proſcrire; but in Eſcrire, and Deſcrire, you muſt not ſound s.

Q

Queſtion.

R

Reſte.
Ruſtre.
Ruſtaud.

S

Sequeſtre.
Siniſtre; yet in Seneſtre you muſt not pronounce s.
Suſpendre.

T

Tempeſtatif; yet in Tempeſte the s is not to be ſounded.
Teſtament.
Teſton.
Teſtonner.

V

Veſtiaire.
Viſtempenard, &c.

T, in

Forming of the plurall number.

Genders of Nowns Subſtantiues.

T T in this word et is neuer pronounced, as vous et moy, like vous e moy.

X X in the end of a word is to be sounded like s, as paix, prix, like pais, pris: in the middest, like z; as dixieſme, dizieſme. But in theſe words, Soixante, Lexiue, Bruxelles, Complexion, it is to be ſounded like ſſ, as Leſſiue, Compleſſion, &c. In other wordes that come from the Latine, it retaineth its ſound; as Zeuxe, excuſe.

Accent the laſt ſyllable, vnleſſe it be e feminine, as amoúr, aprés, demaín. Note this moreouer, that the taking away of a letter cauſeth the vowell that goeth before it to be pronounced long, and conſequently ſerueth to diſtinguiſh betweene wordes of like ſound, as teſte an head, and tete a breaſt, maſtin, a maſtiue, and matin the morning, &c. Accent.

Of a Nowne.

Nownes are commonly joyned with Articles. { Le and vn are for the maſculine, / La and vne for the maſculine. } Plur. les.

The declining of Nownes is made by Prepoſitions, the Accuſatiue caſe being alwayes like the Nominatiue, and the Ablatiue like the Genitiue.

Theſe Articles ſerue
- In the ſingular number to the
  - Genitiue caſe — De le before a vowell, as de l'immortel. / Du before a conſonant, as du roy.
  - Datiue caſe — À le before a vowell, as à l'immortel. / Au before a conſonant, as au roy.
- In the plurall number to the
  - Genitiue — Des, as des hommes, of men.
  - Datiue — Aux, as aux hommes, to men, or to the men. / À les, as à les femmes, to the women. / À des, as à des femmes, to ſome women.
  - Ablatiue — Aux, as aux champs, in the fields. / Des, as des cieulx, from the heauens. / Es, as es deſerts, in the wildernesſes.

Declining of Nownes.

	Maſc.		Maſc.
Sing.	Nom. vn, or le roy.	Plur.	Nom. les roys.
	Gen. d'vn, or du roy.		Gen. des roys.
	Dat. à vn, or au roy.		Dat. aux roys.
	Accuſ. vn, or le roy.		Accuſ. les roys.
	Vocat. ô roy, or ô le roy.		Vocat. ô roys.
	Ablat. à vn roy, or du roy.		Ablat. des roys.

	Femin.		Femin.
Sing.	Nom. vne, or la femme.	Plur.	Nom. les femmes.
	Gen. d'vne, or de la femme.		Gen. des femmes.
	Dat. à vne, or à la femme.		Dat. aux femmes.
	Accuſ. vne, or la femme.		Accuſ. les femmes.
	Vocat. ô femme.		Vocat. ô femmes.
	Ablat. d'vne, or de la femme.		Ablat. des femmes.

Forming of the plurall number.

The Plurall number is formed from the Singular, by putting to s or z, as roy roys, lettré lettrez; except words that end in s, x, or z, whoſe Singular and Plurall are one; as le païs, and les païs; le faix, and les faix; le filz, and les filz.

Words ending in l, change l into ux; as cheval, chevaux; cheveul, cheveux; mal, maux; metal, metaux; Except theſe irregulars, ciel, cieux; celuy, ceux; œil, yeux; vieil, vieux; genouil, genoux.

Words ending in a conſonant, in the Plurall loſe the ſound of their conſonant; Grec, Grecs; as if it were Gres; except they end in a liquide; as bal, bals; nom, noms; don, dons; jour, jours.

Genders of Nowns Subſtantiues.

1 Nownes are all of the Maſculine gender, except 1. the names of women, & offices to them belonging; as mere, nourrice; names of fruits; as vne poire; of cities, as Clermont, Marſeille.

2 Subſtantiues in é Maſculine; as bonté; except blé, congé, clergé; and ſuch as come from Latine words in atus; as Duché, Comté, marché.

3 Subſtantiues in e Feminine, as grace; Except words comming from Maſculines & Neuters in Latine, as pere, livre, titre; office, ſacrifice. Yet theſe are Feminines, lexiue, reſponſe; image, rage, table, fable.

4 Subſtantiues in eur, as douceur; except pleur, labeur, heur, with his compounds, bonheur, malheur.

5 Nownes in on, as affection, priſon, chauſon; except horion, tiſon; and words ending in ſſon, as poiſſon.

6 Subſtantiues in u, virtu, tribu; except feſtu.

7 Nownes in ix, as paix, voix, noix, poix, for pitch; except prix.

8 Theſe are alſo Feminines, mercy, loy, peau, ſoif, clef, neif, faim, mois, nonnain, putain, fin, façon, leçon, mer, croix, tour for a tower, otherwiſe not; brebis, perdris, iument, foreſt, dent, part, hart, mort, cour.

Some Nownes changing their ſignification, change alſo their Gender; as le temple, a Temple, la temple, the temple of the head; vn livre, a booke, vne livre, a pound; le manche, the helue or handle, la manche, the ſleeue.

Of Adjectiues.

Genders of Nowns adjectiues.

Adiectiues forme the feminine gender, by putting to e feminine, as hault, haulte, caché, cachée; except it end in e feminine, for then it is common to both genders, as homme or femme honorable, l'eau trouble.

Exception.

1 Adiectiues in c, turne c into ch, as ſec, ſeche, except Grec, Grecque, Duc, Ducheſſe, Clerc, Clergeſſe.

2 Words in eau change eau into elle, as beau, belle, puceau, pucelle, nouveau, nouvelle.

3 Words in eux make the feminine in euſe, as piteux, piteuſe, Roux maketh rouſſe, faulx, faulſe, doulx, doulce, frais, fraiſche.

4 Words in f change f into v, as brief, brieve, reſtif, reſtive, penſif, penſive.

5 Words in eur make the feminine in euſe, as flateur, flateuſe, menteur, menteuſe, iureur, iureuſe, pecheur maketh pechereſſe.

6 Theſe double their conſonant, bas, baſſe, bon, bonne, net, nette, quel, quelle, tel, telle, bel, belle. Where note alſo, that bel is put before a vowell as bel homme, beau before a Conſonant as beau garçon. So nouveau is put before the Subſtantiue, as le nouveau Teſtament, feminine nouvelle: but neuf, and the feminine neuve, after the ſubſtantiue; as le College neuf.

The comparatiue is made by plus, and the ſuperlatiue by tres, as docte, plus docte, treſdocte. Except (for the Comparatiue) in bon, meilleur, tresbon; mauvais, pire, treſmauvais. Petit, moindre or pluſpetit, treſpetit.

Of a Pronowne.

IE, tu, jl, jlz, are put when the Verbe is expreſſed; as, je chante, tu jouës, jl frappe, jlz ont. But moy, toy, luy, eux, are put when the Verbe is not expreſſed; as, qui ha fait cecy? who hath done this? anſwere moy, not je; toy, not tu. So, Qui ha fait cela? anſwere luy or eux; not jl or jlz. je is thus declined.

Nom. Ie or moy.	Sing.	Nom. nous.	Plur.	So decline tu plur. vous, and ſoy in both numbers. Nominat. is wanting. Gen. de ſoy. Dat. à ſoy, &c.
Gen. de moy.		Gen. de nous.
Dat. à moy or me.		Dat. à nous.
Accuſ. moy or me.		Accuſ. nous.
Ablat. de moy.		Ablat. de nous.

Nom. Il or luy.	Sing.	Plur. Nom. Ilz, eulx, ou leur.
Gen. de luy.		Gen. d'eulx, de leur.
Dat. à luy and luy.		Dat. à eux, leur, leurs.
Accuſ. le and luy.		Accuſ. ilz, eulz, les.
Ablat. de luy.		Ablat. d'eux, leurs.

Luy. Leur.

Luy, is common to both genders, and ſignifieth to him, or her; as ma mere m'ha demandé, & je luy ay reſpondu. Leur likewiſe ſignifieth to them in both genders, as je leur ay baillé, I gaue it them, both men and women. But leur with an article is a Nowne poſſeſſiue, as le leur, theirs. Eux is ſometimes put for ſoy the reciprocall, as ilz ont tous biens communs entre eux, for entre ſoy.

Ce, Ceſt.

Ce and Ceſt this, plur. ces. Ce before a Conſonant, as ce garçon. Ceſt before a vowell, as ceſt homme.

Celuy, Ceſtuy, Iceluy.

Celuy, that man; ceſtuy, this man; iceluy, the ſame man, plur. ceux and iceux, fewin. celle and icelle, are thus plated in a ſentence. Celuy goeth before; qui and iceluy repeateth it as its relatiue, as celuy qui ſeme mauvaiſe ſemence, iceluy recueille mauvais grain. He that ſoweth ill ſeed, that man gathereth ill graine.

Meſme.

Meſme, is ioyned to Nownes and Pronownes, and is as much as ſelfe in Engliſh, as l'homme meſme, the ſelfe ſame man; moy meſme, my ſelfe; luy meſme, himſelfe.

Y

Y is ſometimes a Relatiue { Of place, ſignifying both in, and to, a place; as il y eſt, he is there; j'y vay, I goe thither. Of the thing mentioned; as tu y pourvoiras, thou ſhalt take care of it.

In this ſpeech, il y ha, there is, or there are, the auxiliar Verbe ha is put for eſt.

En.

En, is a Relatiue ſometimes { 1 Of place, and ſignifieth frõ thence; as j'en vien, I come from thence. 2 Of the perſon or thing mentioned; as, ha-il vn pere, or du papier? hath he a father, or hath he any paper? ouy il en ha, yea, he hath one, or he hath ſome.

Mon, ton, ſon.

Theſe Poſſeſſiues, mon, ton, ſon, noz, voz, are put when the Subſtantiue is expreſſed; as mon livre, my booke, noz livres, our bookes. But mien, tien, ſien, noſtres, voſtres, are put without the Subſtantiue, hauing alwayes an Article ioyned with them; as, à qui eſt ce livre? whoſe booke is this? we may either ſay, il eſt à moy, or elſe, c'eſt le mien, it is mine, les noſtres. Noz amis, & les voſtres, our friends, & yours.

Of a Verbe.

VErbes with the French are onely of three kinds. Actiues, whoſe Preterperfect tenſe is formed by j'ay, as j'ay aimé. 2 Paſſiues, which all along are formed by je ſuis, as je ſuis aimé. Imp. j'eſtoys aimé, &c. 3 Newters, whoſe Preterperfect tenſe is formed by je ſuis, as je ſuis allé. Moodes and tenſes are the ſame with the Latins, except the Aoriſt, which thẽ is to be vſed in the French, Italian, & Spaniſh, when we find the ſame fitly vſed in our Engliſh, ſuch as are, I went, I ran, I rode, I ſate, &c.

The Conjugations, together with their forming, are to be ſeene, in the Table of the Verbes hereunto adioyning.

☞ A Table

Aller, to goe.

Aſſaillir, to aſſault.

Benir, or niſtre, to bl
Bouillir, to boyle.

Concerning the forming of the Tenses. The Imperfect. of the Indicatiue is formed from the first person plurall of the Present. changing ons in oy, as chantons, je chantoy. The first and second persons plurall in the Present of the Optatiue, and in the Imperfect of all Moods, interpose i, in all Coniugations, as, Aimions, aimassions, amerions.

The second of the Imperatiue, is from the first of the Indicatiue of all Coniugations, as Di tu, reçoy tu, &c. The third from the third plurall of the same tense, by taking away nt, as ilz donnent, qu'il donne, &c. Some be irregular, as qu'il façe, qu'il sache, from sont, and sçavent.

The Present of the Optatiue, from the third of the Imperatiue euermore. The Imperfect from the second singular of the Aorist, tu leus, je leusse.

The Imperfect of the Subiunctiue from the Future of the Indicatiue, by changing ay in oy, as j'aymeray, j'aymeroy, &c.

The Participle Present from the first plurall of the present of the Indicatiue, changing ons, in ant, as bastissons, bastissant.

A Verbe Passiue.

A Verbe Passiue is made by putting the Participle of any Verbe to the persons of the Verbe je suis, as je suis, tu es, il est aimé, nous sommes, vous estez, ils sont aimez. Imperfect. j'estoye aimé, nous estions aimez, &c.

Note also, that the third persons in both numbers are passiuely to be rendred, when se is set before them, as il se fait, it is done, ilz se font, they are made.

A Verbe Impersonall

1. Actiue is made by putting il before the third person, as il convient, il convenoit, il fault, il falloit, il falluſt, il ha fallu, il faudra, &c. Such are these il neige, it snoweth, il gresle, it haileth, il Gele, it freezeth, il rele, it thaweth, il avesprit, it waxeth night, il plut, it raineth.
2. Passiue is made by putting on, or lon, before the third persons singular of Verbes Actiues, as on dit, dicitur, it is said, or men say, on aime, amatur, men lone, on aimoit, on aimast, &c.

The Anomala or irregular Verbes of the first Coniugation.

Aller, to goe. OF the first Coniugation there is onely one auxiliar Verbe, Aller, to goe. Present tense. Ie vay or je vois, tu vas, il va, nous allons, vous allez, ils vont. Imperf. I'alloy, tu allois, &c. Aoriſt. I'allay, tu allas, &c. Preterit. Ie ſuis allé, tu es allé. Pluſquam Perfect. I'eſtoye allé, &c. Futur. I'ray, tu iras, il ira, nous irons, vous irez, ils iront. Imperat. Va tu. Qu'il aille, or qu'il voiſe, allons, allez, qu'ils aillent, or qu'ils voiſent. Optat. Preſ. Dieu vueille que j'aille or voiſe; tu ailles or voiſes, il aille or voiſe, nous allions, vous alliez, ils aillent or voiſent. Imperf. I'allaſſe, tu allaſſes, il allaſt. Perf. Que je ſoye allé, tu ſoys allé. Pluſquam Perfect. Que je fuſſe allé. Futur. Que j'aille cy apres. The Preterimperfect. of the Subiunctiue, Quand j'iroye, tu iroys, il iroit, nous irions, vous iriez, ils iroyent.

Martin Caucius, fol. 48. doth further obſerue, that the word doint is an irregular third perſon from the Verbe Donner, as Dieu vous doint bon jour; as Plautus vſeth Duit for det: And Terence ſaith, Dij tibi dignum factis exitium duint. Andria Act. 4. Scen. 1. So likewiſe, Iamais Dieu ne me pardoint, s'il n'eſt ainſi.

The irregulars of the ſecond Coniugation.

Aſſaillir, to aſſault. Preſ. I'aſſau, tu aſſaus, il aſſault; or according to Iohn Serreius, j'aſſaille, tu aſſailles, and nous aſſaillons. Aoriſt. I'aſſailly. Pret. I'ay aſſailly. Fut. I'aſſailliray, Caucius. I'aſſaudray. Serreius.

Benir, or Beniſtre, to bleſſe. Preſ. Ie beni, is, it, nous beniſſons, &c. Pret. I'ay benit.

Bouillir, to boyle. Preſ. Ie bou, tu bous, il bout, nous bouillons. Aoriſt. Ie boullu or boully, ils bouillirent. Pret. I'ay boulu. Fut. Ie bouilleray or boudray.

Courir, to runne. Preſ. Ie cour, tu cours. Aoriſt. Ie couru. Pret. I'ay couru. Fut. Ie couriray, and alſo je courray.

Couvrir, to couer. Preſ. Ie couvre, nous couvrons. Aoriſt. Ie couvry. Pret. I'ay couvert. Fut. Ie couvriray.

Cueillir, to gather. Preſ. Ie cueil or cueille, or je cus, tu cueilles, nous cueillons. Aoriſt. Ie cueilly. Pret. I'ay cueilly. Fut. Ie cuilleray.

Dormir, to ſléepe. Preſ. Ie dors, tu dors, il dort, nous dormons. Aoriſt. Ie dormi. Pret. I'ay dormy. Fut. Ie dormiray.

Faillir, to faile or miſſe. Preſ. Ie fau, nous faillons. Aoriſt. Ie failly. Pret. I'ay failly. Fut. Ie fauldray.

Farcir, to ſtuffe. Preſ. Ie fars, nous farçons. Aoriſt. Ie farçy. Pret. I'ay farçy.

Ferir, to ſtrike. Preſ. Ie fier, nous fierons. Aoriſt. Ie feru, or according to Caucius, je feris. Pret. I'ay feru. Fut. Ie feriray or je fierray.

Fuir, to flye. Preſ. Ie fuy, tu fuys, nous fuyons.

Geſir, to lye in. Preſ. Ie gi, tu gis, nous giſons. Aoriſt, according to Caucius, je geſy. But Stephanus and Serreius will hauc it to be je jeu. Pret. I'ay jeu, and alſo geſy. Fut. Ie geſiray.

Haïr, to hate. Preſ. Ie haï, tu haïs, nous haions and haiſſons. Aoriſt. Ie haï. Pret. I'ay haï. Fut. Ie haïray.

Iſſir, to goe forth: whence commeth reuſſir, to ſucceed well. Preſ. I'iſſis, tu iſſis. (Howbeit Caucius ſaith it wanteth the ſingular number.) Plural. Nous iſſiſſons; or, as Caucius, and ſome others, nous iſſons, vous iſſez, ils iſſent. Aor. I'iſſis. Pret. I'ay iſſu. Inſteed of this Verbe we commonly vſe Sortir.

Mentir, to lye. Preſ. Ie ments, nous mentons. Aoriſt. Ie menty.

Mourir, to die. Preſ. Ie meur, tu meurs, nous mourons, ils meurent. Aoriſt. ie mouru. Preterit. Ie ſuis mort. Fut. Ie mourray.

Offrir, to offer. Preſ. I'offre, tu offres, nous offrons. Aoriſt. I'offri. Pret. I'ay offert.

Ouir, to heare. Preſ. I'oy, tu oys, nous oyons. Aoriſt. I'ouy. Preter. I'ay oui. Fut. I'ouiray or j'orray.

Ouvrir, to open. Preſ. I'ouvre or j'euvre, nous ouvrons. Aoriſt. I'ouvri. Preterit. I'ay ouvert.

Partir, when it ſignifieth { To diuide or part. It hath its Preſent, je parti, tu partis, nous partiſſons. / To depart or goe away. It hath its Preſent, je pars, tu pars, nous partons.

Puir, to ſtinke. Preſ. Ie pu, tu pus, nous puons. Aoriſt. Ie pu. Fut. Ie puëray.

Querir, or Querre, to goe fetch. Preſ. Ie quiers, tu quiers, nous querons, vous querez, ils quierent. Aoriſt. Ie quis. Pret. I'ay quis. Fut. Ie querray. In like manner forme, acquerir & requerir. Howbeit, Caucius doth forme the Aoriſt, Ie requeru. Pret. I'ay requeru. But it is better, Ie requis.

Repentir, to repent. Preſ. Ie me repents, tu te repents, nous nous repentons. Aoriſt. Ie me repenti. Preterit. Ie me ſuis repenti. Fut. Ie me repentiray.

Saillir, to leape. Preſ. Ie ſau, nous ſaillons. Aoriſt. Ie ſailly. See Aſſaillir.

Secourir, to ſuccour. Preſ. Ie ſecours, nous ſecourons. Aoriſt. Ie ſecouru. Pret. I'ay ſecouru. Fut. Ie ſecouray.

Sentir, to feele. Preſ. Ie ſens, nous ſentons. Aoriſt. Ie ſenty. Pret. I'ay ſenti.

Servir, to ſerue. Preſ. Ie ſers, nous ſervons. Aoriſt. Ie ſervy.

Soubvenir, to remember. It is coniugated Imperſonally. Preſ. Il me ſoubvient. Imperf. Il me ſoubvenoit. Aoriſt. Il me ſoubvint. Perf. Il m'eſt ſoubvenu. Fut. Il me ſoubviendra.

Soubvertir, to ouerthrow. Preſ. Ie ſoubvers, nous ſubvertons. Aoriſt. Ie ſoubverti.

Souffrir, to ſuffer. Preſ. Ie ſouffre, nous ſuffrons. Aoriſt. Ie ſouffri. Perf. I'ay ſouffert.

Sortir, to goe forth. Preſ. Ie ſors, nous ſortons.

Tenir, to hold. Preſ. Ie tiens, nous tenons, ils tiennent. Aoriſt. Ie tins, nous tinſmes, vous tinſtes, ils tindrent. Pret. I'ay tenu. Fut. Ie tiendray.

Touſſir, to cough. Preſ. Ie touſſe, nous touſſons, as if it were of the firſt Coniugation.

Tollir, an old verbe to take away. Preſ. According to Caucius. Ie toul, tu touls, il toult, nous tollons, ils toulent. Pret. I'ay tollu or tolly.

Venir, to come. Preſ. Ie vien, nous venons, ils viennent. Aoriſt. Ie vins nous vinſmes, vous vinſtes, il vindrent. Pret. Ie ſuis venu. Fut. Ie viendray. Imperat. Vien tu, qu'il vienne.

Veſtir, to cloth. Preſ. Ie veſt, tu veſts, nous veſtons. Aoriſt. Ie veſti. Perf. I'ay veſtu. Fut. Ie veſtiray.

The irregulars of the third Coniugation.

Apparoir, or Apparoiſtre, to appeare. This Verbe hath a double forming, as 1 Preſ. I' apparoy, nous apparoiſſons. Imperf. I'apparoiſſoy. Aoriſt. Ie paru. 2 Preſ. I' apper, tu appers, nous apperons, ils apperẽt. Imperf. I'apparoye. Aoriſt. I' apparu. Fut. I'apparoiſtray.

Apperçevoir, to perceiue. Preſ. I'apperçoy, nous apperçevons, ils apperçoivent. Aoriſt. I'apperçeu, nous apperçeuſmes. Fut. I'apperçeuray. Imperat. Apperçois, qu'il apperçoiue. So coniugate Conçevoir, reçevoir, deçevoir.

Challoir, to care for. It is coniugated impersonally, Il me chault, il me challoit, il me challuſt, il m'ha challu, il me chaudra, or chaura, according to Stephanus.

Cheoir, to fall. Preſ. Ie che, tu ches, nous cheons, ils cheent. Aoriſt. Ie cheu. Pret. Ie ſuis cheu. Fut. Ie cherray.

Douloir, to grieue. Preſ. Ie me deul, nous nous doulons or dueillons, ils ſe deulent. Imperf. Ie douloy or deuloy. Aoriſt. Ie me doulu. Fut. Ie me dueilleroy. Imperat. Dueille qu'ils deullent. Particip. Dolent.

Debvoir, to owe. Preſ. Ie doy, nous devons, ils doibvent. Aoriſt. Ie deu. Pret. I'ay deu. Fut. Ie debvray. Particip. Debvant.

Mouvoir, to moue. Preſ. Ie meu, nous mouvons, ils mouvent or meuvent. Aoriſt. Ie meu. Pret. I'ay meu. Fut. Ie mouvray.

Pouvoir, to be able. Preſ. Ie puis or peux, tu peulx, il peult, nous pouvons, ils peuvent. Aoriſt. Ie peu. Pret. I'ay peu. Fut. Ie pourray. Optat. Preſ. Ie puiſſe. Imperf. Ie peuſſe.

Ramentevoir, to call to mind. Preſ. Ie ramentoy, nous rementevons, ils ramentoivent. Aoriſt. Ie ramenteu. Pret. I'ay ramenteu. Fut. Ie rementevray.

Reçevoir, to receiue. Preſ. Ie reçoy, nous reçevons. Aoriſt. Ie receu. Fut. Ie receuvray.

Sçavoir, to know. Preſ. Ie ſçay, nous ſçavons. Aoriſt. Ie ſçeu. Pret. I'ay ſçeu. Fut. Ie ſçauvray or ſçauray. Imper. ſaches, qu'il ſache, ſachons, ſachez qu'ils ſachent. Particip. Preſ. ſachant or ſçavant. Pret. ſçeu.

Seoir, to ſit. Preſ. Ie ſie tu ſies, il ſied, nous ſeons, ils ſeent. Aor. Ie ſi, tu ſis, il ſid. Pret. I'ay ſy, or je me ſuis aſſis. Fut. Ie ſerray. Imperat. See or ſies, qu'il ſee or ſie. Opt. Preſ. Que je ſie. Imperf. Ie ſiſſe. Part. Preſ. Seant. Perfect. Sis. Likewiſe aſſeois. Ie m' aſſie, &c.

Souloir, to be wont. Preſ. Ie ſuis accouſtumé, tu es accouſtumé, il eſt accouſtumé, nous ſoulons, vous ſoulez, ils soulent. Imperf. Ie ſouloye, tu ſouloys: the other Tenſes it borroweth from the Verb accouſtumer, as Pret. Ie ſuis accouſtumé, &c.

Valoir, to be worth. Preſ. Ie vau, tu vaulx, il vault, nous valons, vous valez, ils vaillent. Aoriſt. Ie valu. Pret. I'ay valu. Fut. Ie vauldray. Imperat. Vaulx qu'il vaille.

Vouloir, to be willing. Preſ. Ie vueil or je veux, nous voulons, ils veulent. Aoriſt. Ie voulu. Pret. I'ay voulu. Fut. Ie vouldray. Optat. Ie vueille, nous voulions, il vueillent. Imperf. Ie vouluſſe or vouliſſe, ſaith Pilot, or rather vouſiſſe, ſaith Caucius, as Le Roy ne pouvoit trouver gens qui y vouſiſſent aller. Theatre du monde, fol. 120.

The irregulars of the fourth Coniugation.

Abſoudre, to abſolue. Preſ. I'abſous, nous abſolvons, ils abſolvent. Aoriſt. I'abſouls or j'abſolu, ils abſolurent. Pret. j'ay abſouls or abſolu. Fut. j'abſouldray.

Apprẽdre, to learne. Preſ. I'appren. nous apprennons. Aoriſt. I'appris. Pret. I'ay apprins. Fut. I'apprendray.

Ardre, to burne. Preſ. I'ars, nous ardons. Aoriſt. I'ardi. Pret. Ie fu ards. Particip. Ards.

Attaindre, to attaine vnto. Preſ. I'attain, nous attaignons, ils attaignent. Aoriſt. I'attaigni, tu attaignis, ils attaignirent. Pret. Ie ſuis attaint. Fut. I'attaindray.

Attendre, to wait for. Preſ. I'attends, nous attendons. Aoriſt. I'attendy. Pret. I'ay attendu. Fut. I'attendray.

Battre, to beat. Preſ. Ie ba, nous battons. Aoriſt. Ie batti. Pret. I'ay battu. Fut. Ie battray.

Preſ.

Boire. Preſ. Ie bo vent. A boiray, o

Bruire, to make a noiſe. Preſ. Ie b Pret. I'a

Braire, to bray. Preſ. Ie

Ceindre, to gird. Preſ. Ie ce Pret. I'a

Clorre, to ſhut. Preſ. Ie clo Stephan

Conclure, to cõclude. Preſ. Ie co clu.

Confire, to ſauce. Preſ. Ie con Ie confis.

Contraindre, to conſtraine. Preſ. Ie co contraig traint. F

Coudre, to ſew. Preſ. Ie co couſons. couſu. F

Creindre, to feare. Preſ. Ie cra Aoriſt. Ie nirent or Ie craind

Croire, to beleeue. Preſ. Ie cro I'ay creu. croye.

Croiſtre, to grow. Preſ. Ie cro I'ay cru.

Cuire, to ſeeth. Preſ. Ie cuy Caucius.

Deſcẽdre, to deſcend. Preſ. Ie deſc deſcendu.

Deſtruire, to deſtroy. Preſ. Ie deſt truiſi, ils

Dire, to ſay. Preſ. Ie di, dient. Ao Imperat.

Duire, to content. Preſ. Ie dui, rent or du ray. Like

Entendre, to vnderſtand. I'entends dray.

Eſcrire, to write. I'eſcri, nous eſcrit. Fut

Eſlire, to chuſe. I'eſly, nous e Fut. I'eſli

Eſpandre, to ſpill or ſhed. I'eſpands Pret. I'

Eſpardre, to ſcatter. I'eſpars, nous eſpars. Fu

Eſpraindre, to ſqueeze out. I'eſprains, n ils eſprain praindray quench. I'e

Faire, to make or do. Ie fay, tu fais, font. Aor fait. Fut. ſons, faite tu faces, il façent.

Feindre, to faine. Ie feins, nous niſmes, ils

Fendre, to cleaue. Ie fends, nous rent Pret. miſe Fondr fondurent.

Frire, to frie. Ie fri, nous

Boire. Pref. Ie boy, nous beuvons, ils boivent or beuvent. Aoriſt. Ie beu. Pret. I'ay beu. Fut. Ie boiray, or beuvray.

Bruire, to make a noiſe. Pref. Ie bruy, nous bruyons. Aoriſt. Ie bruy. Pret. I'ay bruit. Fut. Ie bruiray.

Braire, to bray. Pref. Ie bray, nous brayons, &c.

Ceindre, to gird. Pref. Ie ceins, nous ceignons. Aoriſt. Ie ceigny. Pret. I'ay ceint. Fut. Ie ceindray.

Clorre, to ſhut. Pref. Ie clo, nous cloons; in ſtead whereof, ſaith Stephanus, we vſe Fermons.

Conclure, to cõclude. Pref. Ie conclu, nous concluons. Aoriſt. Ie conclu.

Confire, to ſauce. Pref. Ie confi, nous confiſons, ils confiſent. Aoriſt. Ie confis. Pret. I'ay confit.

Contraindre, to conſtraine. Pref. Ie contrains, nous contraignons. Aoriſt. Ie contraigny, ils contraignirent. Pret. I'ay contraint. Fut. Ie contraindray.

Coudre, to ſew. Pref. Ie cou, or couds, according to Pilot. nous couſons. Aoriſt. Ie couſy or couſu. Pret. I'ay couſu. Fut. Ie coudray.

Creindre, to feare. Pref. Ie crains, nous craignons, ils craignent. Aoriſt. Ie craigni, ſay Bellot and Pilot, ils craignirent or craindrent. Pret. I'ay craint. Fut. Ie craindray.

Croire, to beleeue. Pref. Ie croy, nous croyons. Aoriſt. Ie creu. Pret. I'ay creu. Fut. Ie croyray. Imperat. Croy, qu'il croye.

Croiſtre, to grow. Pref. Ie croy nous croiſſons. Aoriſt. Ie cru. Pret. I'ay cru. Fut. Ie croiſtray.

Cuire, to ſeeth. Pref. Ie cuy, nous cuiſon. Aoriſt. Ie cuyſi, ſayeth Caucius.

Deſcẽdre, to deſcend. Pref. Ie deſcends. Aoriſt. Ie deſcendi. Pret. I'ay deſcendu. Fut. Ie deſcendray.

Deſtruire, to deſtroy. Pref. Ie deſtruy, nous deſtruiſſons. Aoriſt. Ie deſtruiſi, ils deſtruiſirent.

Dire, to ſay. Pref. Ie di, nous diſons, vous dites, ils diſent or dient. Aoriſt. Ie di. Pret. I'ay dit. Fut. Ie diray. Imperat. Dis, qu'il diſe or die.

Duire, to content. Pref. Ie dui, nous duiſons. Aoriſt. Ie duiſy, ils duirent or duiſirent. Pret. I'ay duit. Fut. Ie duiray. Likewiſe conduire, deduire, induire.

Entendre, to vnderſtand. } I'entends, j'entendi, j'ay entendu, j'entendray.

Eſcrire, to write. I'eſcri, nous eſcrivons. Aoriſt. I'eſcrivi. Pret. I'ay eſcrit. Fut. I'eſcriray.

Eſlire, to chuſe. I'eſly, nous eſliſons. Aoriſt. I'eſleu. Pret. I'ay eſleu. Fut. I'eſliray.

Eſpandre, to ſpill or ſhed. } I'eſpands, nous eſpandons. Aoriſt. I'eſpandy. Pret. I'ay eſpandu. Fut. I'eſpandray.

Eſpardre, to ſcatter. I'eſpars, nous eſpardons. Aoriſt. I'eſpardi. Pret. I'ay eſpars. Fut. I'eſpardray.

Eſprain-dre, to ſqueeze out. I'eſprains, nous eſpraignons. Aoriſt. I'eſpraigny, ils eſpraindrent. Pret. I'ay eſpraint. Fut. I'eſpraindray. Likewiſe coniugate eſteindre, to quench. I'eſteings, nous eſteignons, &c.

Faire, to make or do. Ie fay, tu fais, il fait, nous faiſons, vous faites, ils font. Aoriſt. Ie fi or fei, nous fiſmes. Pret. I'ay fait. Fut. Ie firay. Imper. Fay, qu'il face, faiſons, faites, qu'ils façent. Opt. Pref. Ie façe, tu façes, il façe, nous façions, vous façiez, ils façent.

Feindre, to faine. Ie feins, nous feignons. Aoriſt. Ie feigni, nous feignimes, ils feignirent. Pret. I'ay feint.

Fendre, to cleaue. Ie fends, nous fendons. Aoriſt. Ie fendi, ils fendirent Pret. I'ay fendu. Fut. Ie fendray. Likewiſe Fondre, to melt, je fons. Aoriſt. Ie fondu, ils fondurent.

Frire, to fie. Ie fri, nous frions. Aoriſt. Ie fri. Pret. I'ay frit. Fut. Ie friray.

Ioindre, to ioine. Ie joing, nous joignons. Aoriſt. Ie joigny, nous joigniſmes, ils joindrent or joignirent. Pret. I'ay joint. Fut. Ie joindray.

Lire, to read. Ie li, nous liſons, vous liſez. Aoriſt. Ie leu. Pret. I'ay leu.

Luire, to ſhine. Ie lui, nous luiſons. Aoriſt. Ie luiſy, nous luiſiſmes, ils luirent.

Mettre, to put. Ie mets, nous mettons. Aoriſt. Ie mis, nous miſmes, ils mirent. Pret. I'ay mis. Fut. Ie mettray.

Mordre, to bite. Ie mords, tu mords, il mord, nous mordons. Aoriſt. Ie mordi, nous mordiſmes, ils mordirent. Pret. I'ay mordu.

Morfõdre to chill. Ie me morfonds. Aoriſt. Ie me morfondi, ils ſe morfondirent. Pret.

Mouldre, to grinde. Ie mou or meu, nous moulons. Aoriſt. Ie moulu. Pret. I'ay moulu. Fut. Ie mouldray.

Naiſtre, to be borne. Ie nay, nous naiſſons. Aoriſt. Ie naſqui. Pret. Ie ſuis né. Fut. Ie naiſtray.

Nuire, to annoy. Ie nui, nous nuiſons, ils nuiſent. Aoriſt. Ie nui, and nuiſy, nuiſiſmes, ils nuiſirent. Pret. I'ay nuit. Fut. Ie nuiray.

Occire, to kill. I'occis, nous occions, and occiſons, ils occiſent. Aoriſt. I'occi, nous occiſmes, ils occirent. Pret. I'ay occis. Fut. I'occiray.

Oindre, to annoint. I'oings, nous oignons. Aoriſt. I'oigny, nous oignimes, ils oindrent. Pret. I ay oint. Fut. I'oindray.

Paiſtre, to feed. Ie pais, nous paiſſons. Aoriſt. Ie peu, nous peuſmes, ils peurent. Pret. I'ay peu. Fut. Ie paiſtray.

Paroiſtre, to appeare. See Apparoir in the third Coniugation.

Pendre, to hang. Ie pends, nous pendons. Aoriſt. Ie pendi, nous pendiſmes, ils pendirent. Pret. I'ay pendu. Fut. Ie pendray.

Perdre, to loſe. Ie pers, nous perdons. Aoriſt. Ie perdi, ils perdirent. Pret. I'ay perdu.

Plaire, to pleaſe. Ie plai, nous plaiſons. Aoriſt. Ie pleu, nous pleuſmes, ils pleurent. Pret. I'ay pleu. Fut. Ie plairay.

Pleindre, to cõplaine. Ie me pleigns, nous nous pleignons. Aoriſt. Ie me pleigny, nous pleigniſmes, ils pleindrent. Pret. Ie me ſuis pleint. Fut. Ie me pleindray.

Peindre, to paint. Ie peins, nous peignons. Aoriſt. Ie peigni, ils peindrent. as in Pleindre.

Poindre, to pricke. Ie poings, nous poignons. Aoriſt. Ie poigni, nous poigniſmes, ils poignirent.

Pondre, to lay anegge. Ie pon, nous ponnons, or pondons, which is leſſe in vſe. Aoriſt. Ie ponnu, or pondu. Some ſay, Ie ponnis, whence commeth the 3. Plurall, Ils pondrent. Pret. I'ay ponnu. ¶ Caucius will haue it, j'ay pu, which is verie irregular.

Prendre, to take. Ie prens, nous prennons. Aoriſt. Ie prins, or pris, nous prinſmes, ils prindrent. Pret. I'ay pris. Fut. Ie prendray.

Raire, to ſhaue. Ie ray, nous rayons, or raſons, ils raſent. But for this they vſe the Verbe Raſer. Pret. I'ay raiz, or rez. Whence ſeemeth to come that aduerbiall ſpeech, Rez terre, gliding by the earth.

Reſpon-der, to anſwer. Ie reſponds, nous reſpondons. Aoriſt. Ie reſpondi, ils reſpondirent. Pret. I'ay reſpondu. Fut. Ie reſpondray.

Rire, to laugh. Ie ri, tu ris, nous rions. Aoriſt. Ie ri, nous riſmes, ils rient. Pret. I'ay ri. Fut. Ie riray.

Rompre, to breake. Ie romps, il rompt, nous rompons. Aoriſt. Ie rompy, il rompirent. Pret. I'ay rompu. Fut. Ie rompray.

Ie

Semondre, to summons, or inuite. Ie ſemonds. Aoriſt. Ie ſemondi, ils ſemondirent. Pret. I'ay ſemondu.

Souldre, to loose. Ie ſou, nous ſoluons, or ſolvons according to Caucius: ils ſoudent, or ſoluent. Aoriſt. Ie ſolus. Pret. I'ay ſolu. Likewiſe Abſouldre, to abſolue, ſauing that it makes its Preterfect. I'ay abſoult, and the Optat. Preſ. I'abſolve; as Dieu te abſolve.

Suffire, to ſuffice. It is formed Impersonally. Il ſuffiſt, il ſuffiſoit, il ſuffiſt, il ha ſuffi, il ſuffira.

Suivre, to follow. Ie ſuy, nous ſuivons. Aoriſt. Ie ſuivy. Pret. I'ay ſuivy, or according to Caucius, I'ay ſuit. Fut. Ie ſuivray.

Taire, to hold ones peace. Ie tay, or je me teus, nous taiſons. Aoriſt. Ie me teu. Pret. Ie me ſuis teu. Fut. Ie me tairay.

Tendre, to tend. Ie tends, nous tendons. Aoriſt. Ie tendi. Pret. I'ay tendu.

Teindre, to die. Ie teigns, nous teignons. Aoriſt. Ie teigny,, ils teignirent. Pret. I'ay teint. Fut. Ie teindray.

Tiſtre, to weaue. Ie ti, nous tiſſons. Aoriſt. Ie tiſſy, ils tiſſirent. Pret. I'ay tiſſu. Fut. Ie tiſtray.

Tondre, to pole. Ie tonds, nous tondons. Aoriſt. Ie tondi, ils tondirent. Pret. I'ay tondu.

Tordre, to wreſt. Ie tords, nous tordons. Aoriſt. Ie tordi, ils tordirent. Pret. I'ay tordu, or j'ay tords. Fut. Ie tordray.

Traire, to draw, or to milke. Ie tray, nous traions, or treons. Aoriſt. Ie trai, ils trairent. Pret. I'ay trait. Likewiſe the compound Pourtraire, to limme: howbeit for Traire they vſe Tirer.

Vaincre, to ouercome. Ie vaincs, or vainqs, nous vainquons. Aoriſt. Ie vainqui. Pret. I'ay vaincu.

Vivre, to liue. Ie vis, nous vivons. Aoriſt. Ie veſqui. Pret. I'ay veſcu. Fut. Ie vivray.

Of the indeclinable parts, Aduerbs, Coniunctions, Prepoſitions, and Interjections.

THeſe parts, ſaith Pilot, may eaſily be omitted, and therefore I will ſleightly paſſe them ouer, obſeruing onely the hardeſt, and thoſe which ſeldome occurre.

Adverbes.

Of Time. AVprime, or orprimes. Now inſtantly; as it were, nunc horâ primâ.

Cipricini. Preſently, ſuddenly, as it were, cy pris, cy mis, here taken, and here hanged.

Doreſenavant. From hence forward. Entre temps, or ce pendant. In the meane time.

Guere, or gaire. Much. This word is neuer put without a Negatiue, as Il n'y a guere, for Il n'y ha moult de temps. There is not much time paſt ſince, or not long ſince.

Huy. Whence come. Aujourd'huy. To day. Meshuy. A while agone.

Onques. Euer. It is alwaies put with a Negatiue, as Ie ne vi onques. I neuer ſaw.

Pieça, as it were, piece ha. Long agone; or, It is a good peece, or ſpace of time ſince.

Of Place. Ens. within. as ceans, for cy ens; here within; Leans, for li ens; there within.

Fors, for hors. as fors que cela; Except that, for hors mis cela. As in Glouceſter ſhire they likewiſe ſay, Out-ſet that, for except that.

Illec. There. Vis a vis. Ouer againſt.

Of Affirming. C'eſt mon. It is true; or, yea indeed; as much as vrayement. Sometimes it is an Interrogatiue, as μῶν in Greeke; as aſçavoir mon s'il le feroit. To wit whether he would doe it yea or nay. Voire. Yea.

Of denying. Nani, or nenny, or Nanin. No.

Of calling. Hola, or hau. To which they commonly anſwer.

Of wiſhing. Plaiſt il? what is your pleaſure?

Pleuſt a Dieu, or à la mienne volonté. I would to God.

Of exhorting. O avant. Forward, forward. Sus, orſus. Goe to. Lala. There there.

Of Numbring. Fois, which is alwayes added to ſome Noune of number, as vne fois; once, or one time; deux fois; twice.

Of quantitie. Beaucoup, or moult. Much, or a faire deale. Prou, from the Latine word Probè, ſignifying much; as when they ſay, Vir probè doctus; a man verie learned. Bon prou leur face. Much good may it doe them. And in this ſence they vſe bien and fort, as the Latines haue their valdè from validè. Homme bien ſçavant, or fort docte. A man verie learned.

Conjunctions.

Copulatiues. ET, which neuer ſoundeth t neither before Conſonant, nor Vowell. Ainſy que; euen as. C'eſt à ſçavoir; namely; or, that is to wit, that is to ſay.

Davantage. Moreouer.

Conditionalls. Si. If. Sinon que. But that, or except that. Pendant que, or tandis que. Whiles that.

Diſcretiues, or Aduerſatiues. Combien que, or jaçoit que. Albeit that. Ains, or ainçois. Yea rather. Toutesfois. Notwithſtanding. Neantmoins. Neuertheleſſe. Theſe which Ramus makes Diſcretiues, Stephanus will haue to be Aduerſatiues.

Disjunctiues. Ou, either; when it is put without an accent; for when it is accented it is, ſaith Serreius, an Aduerbe of place; as où eſt il? where is he?

Illatiues or Rationals. Dont. Whereupon. Doncq, or Doncques. Then, therefore. Partant. Wherefore.

Cauſalls. Car. For; from the Greeke γαρ. Parce que, or pour autant que. For as much as, &c.

Prepoſitions.

APres, after. Arriere, beyond. Chez, at; as chez nous, at our houſe. Chez eux, at their houſe. Deça, on this ſide. Dela, on that ſide, or beyond. Deſſus, vpon. Deſſoubs, vnder. Vers, or envers, towards. Iuſques, vntill. Selon, according to, &c.

Inter-

Interjections.

OF lamenting. Las, helas, alas. Of silencing. It. as with the Latines. The rest I purposely omit.

Syntaxis of Nounes.

ADiectiues, especially those that signifie colour, are put after their Substantiues, as vin blanc, vin clairet, pain bis. These are set before the Substantiues, bon, beau, belle; nouveau, nouvelle; mauvais, petit; as petit homme, mauvaise femme.

The Adiectiue agreeth with his Substantiue in Gender; as mon pere, ma mere. Yet if the Substantiue begin with a vowell, they put an Adiectiue Masculine before it, as mon espée, mon hosteſſe; Except m'amie, or if the word begin with h, when it is sounded with aspiration, as ma hauteur.

When two Substantiues come together, the later is put in the Genitiue case, as L'argent du Prince est sujet à la pince. Sometimes one of the Substantiues is taken away by Elleipsis, as à la Sainct Iean, la Toussaincts, where the word Feste is vnderstood.

Adiectiues of desiring, or plentie, or carefulnesse, and their contraries gouerne a Genitiue case, as riche d'argent, nonchalant de son prouffit.

Comparatiues gouerne a Genitiue case, as la face n'est plus grande de demy pied. Sometimes que serueth to the Cõparatiue, as plus blanc que neige.

Of Verbes.

THe Infinitiue with an Article becommeth a Noune Substantiue, as le boire estaint la soif, for le boisson.

When two Verbes come together, the later is the Infinitiue Mood, as je veulx aimer. Sometime the principall Verbe is vnderstood, as les mastins de courir, & nous d'aller apres. 1. commencerent, & nous commenceasmes.

The Nominatiue case goeth before the Verbe. Except the question be asked, as iray je? shall I goe? as-tu? hast thou?

The Accusatiue followeth the Verbe, j'aime mon maistre: except me, te, se, le, luy, leur, nous, vous; as tu te prises, il se tourmente, je luy diray, je leur escriray: Except it be the Imperatiue Mood, as battez le. Moy, toy, soy, are also put after the Imperatiue Mood, as well for the Datiue as the Accusatiue, as di-moy leve-toy.

Me, te, se, are put before the particle en, especially before Verbes Neuters, signifying moning to a place, as je m'en vay, va t'en, fui t'en, ilz s'en sont allez. Sometimes a Verbe hath two Pronounes before it, as vous vous corroucez fort, one the Nominatiue, the other the Accusatiue case; or else the Verbe is placed betweene them, as Comme vous portez vous? Sometimes there are three, as vous vous en irez vous?

Some Verbes being construed with an Infinitiue Mood, cause it to be rendred passiuely, as je vous feray batre, I will make you beaten; faites faire chemin, cause roome to be made; je le vei mettre en prison, I saw him put in prison.

The Verb aller is elegantly construed with a Participle, as il s'en alloit disant. 1. il disoit; il s'en va mourant. 1. il meurt.

A Participle added to je suis, to make a Preterperfect tense, may varie both Gender and Number, as je suis venu; elle est venuë; nous sommes venus. But being added to j'ay, it changeth not its termination, as j'ay disné, elle ha disné, nous avous disné. Yea if a Substantiue goe before the Nominatiue case and the Verbe, the Participle following is rendred passiuely, and agreeth in Gender and Number with that Substantiue, as les graces que Dieu nous ha données; les corps que la mer ha englottis.

Of Adverbes.

NE. the negatiue is alwayes accompanied with point, or pas; as il n'y est point, or pas, hee is not there at all. And without either of these words it is equiualent, to an affirmatiue, il est plus sçavant que ne sont ses compagnons, he is more learned then are his fellowes.

Dont is a Particle of Relation, and signifieth as much as de que, de quoy, du quel, desquels; as j'ay le livre dont vous parlez, I haue the booke of which you speake.

Of Prepositions.

The Preposition à

1. Standing betweene two Substantiues, maketh the later an Adiectiue, as hõme à cheval, an horseman, homme à pied, a footman, escuelle à oreillons, a Porrenger, or a dish with eares.
2. Standing before a Denominatiue, it signifieth as much as after the fashion, as à la Francoise, after the French fashion; à la Todesque, after the Dutch fashion. So en is vsed as vivre en beste, to liue after the manner of a beast; traité en Prince, intertained like a Prince.
3. Is put after an Adiectiue signifying aptnesse, or nimblenesse, as viste à l'esteuf, nimble at the ball.

The Prepositions de & du

1. Standing before a Substantiue, it signifieth either matter, as bague d'or, a gold ring; or the instrument, as batre de verges, to beat with rods; iouër de l'espinette, to play on the Virginalls.
2. It is put after Adiectiues signifying dexteritie, as habile de la plume, skilfull at his pen; habile du pied, actiue, or swift of foot.
3. Standing before the Infinitiue mood, it is Englished to, as je vous prie de faire cela, I beseech you to doe that.
4. Du standing before a Substantiue signifieth part of any thing, and is Englished some, as du pain, some bread; des poissons, some fishes.

De-

Devant is construed with que before an Infinitive, as Devant qu'aller, before wee goe. Apres with the Preterperfect tense of the Infinitive mood, as apres avoir receu vos lettres, after the receiuing of your letters.

Aupres, Arriere, à lentour, gouerne a Genitiue case, as aupres du feu, neere the fire, arriere de nous, behind vs, à l'entour de soy, round about himselfe.

Conjunctions.

COmme is vsed for comment; as comme vous portez vous? how doe you.

Que is diuersly Englished; as qu'est ce que de l'homme? what is man? Si j'estoye que de luy, if I were as he; qu'est ce à dire cecy? what is this, or how call you this? Qu'en est il, what matter is it?

FINIS.